Spaulding Board Adopts By-Laws

The Board of Directors of Spaulding for Children adopted a set of by-laws at its regular meeting. The most important section of the newly adopted by-laws creates a membership for Spaulding for Children which will give interested citizens and organizations a voice and vote in the election of members to the Board of Directors. Members will also have an opportunity to actively become involved in the work of the new agency, which will specialize in the adoption of hard-to-place youngsters.

Five categories of membership were created as follows: regular, $5 per year; contributing, $10 per year; sustaining, $25 or more per year; life, a single contribution of $1,000 or more. In addition, organizations may apply for membership. Each member is entitled to one vote at the annual business meeting of Spaulding for Children, which will be held in the last quarter of the year. Memberships may be obtained by mail or from any present member of the Board of Directors.

Assault Charge Filed After Shooting Spree

Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputies received a call at 10:40 yesterday morning from the home of Arnold Minix, 18180 Clark Lake Rd. A daughter said that Minix, who had been drinking, had just taken three shots at her and her sister.

Five-Vehicle Crash Involves Patrol Car

A two-car collision on S. Main St. Sunday night soon turned into a five-vehicle accident which involved three officers and a patrol car. The crash occurred at the intersection of S. Main St. and S. Main St.

Heading north on S. Main St. at 8:15 p.m., E. Elkins of 519 Howard, swerved her car into the wrong lane and hit a south-bound vehicle driven by Ted Picklesimer of 408 North St. Chelsea patrolman Tom Quinlan parked his police car by the curb and got out to investigate the accident. As he was standing by his car, a north-bound automobile driven by Joe C. Scott of 415 North St., collided with Southgate motorist Gerald Earl's car, which was headed south on S. Main by the scene of the first accident. Scott's car swung around from the impact, hitting Officer Quinlan in the leg and denting the patrol car.

Mrs. Elkins, Officer Quinlan and Mrs. Scott, a passenger in her husband's car, were taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and released the same night. Mrs. Elkins was ticketed by Chelsea police, while Scott received a ticket from county police who arrived at the scene after the patrol car became involved in the accident. Mrs. Elkins' car was wrecked beyond repair; the vehicles owned by Picklesimer and Scott were extensively damaged. The police car was only slightly damaged.

Lima Voters Extend Edison Co. Franchise

Registered voters in Lima township approved the renewal of the Detroit Edison Co. franchise during a special election held Monday, March 18. The renewal was passed by a vote of 24 to 2.

Cavender Nicks Finger While Target Shooting

Richard Cavender, 72, of 7228 Wexford Rd. was target shooting with a .22-caliber pistol last Saturday when he accidentally nicked the end of a finger on his left hand with a bullet. The incident occurred near his home. He was treated for the injury by Dr. Stubbs at the Chelsea Medical Clinic.

Junior High Bands Score High in Contest

The 8th and 7th grade bands from Chelsea Junior High school received high praise recently in the district band festivals held at Detroit and Belleville.

The 8th grade band, directed by Bruce Galbraith, received a superior (I) rating from all judges. The three judges in the performance section were Nicholas Cannell, Fernside High school; Ross Van Ness, Marshall High school; and Cornelius Van Der Puy, Grand Rapids Christian High school. All judges were unanimous in their praise of the 78-member band. Cannell, who was designated chairman of the judges, said in his written critique, "The overall performance was very good. Indeed, it was a pleasure hearing you today—there are some fine musicians in this band."

The judge in the sight-reading section of the festival was Clarence Omark from Charlevoix. He also gave the band a superior (I) rating.

Edison Franchise Elections Slated in Area Townships

Registered voters in Selo and Webster townships will be requested to vote Monday, April 1 on the question of renewing the Detroit Edison Co. franchise. Dexter township registered voters will vote on the same question Wednesday, April 3.

The electorate must approve this question every 30 years, as provided in the State Constitution. The constitutional provision dates back to the 1909 and the revised 1963 State Constitution. Another provision of the statute states that, in each community where this special franchise election is held, the utility company must pay for the entire costs of conducting the special election.

The franchise election simply asks that the people of the community approve the Detroit Edison request to use the public highways, alleys and streets and other public places to construct and operate its electrical equipment. This in no way affects the rights of the individual on private property.

4-H Spring Achievement Show Slated

4-H County Spring Achievement Youth Show is scheduled for this week-end, Saturday and Sunday, March 30-31 in the Rural Activities Center, Ann Arbor-Saline Rd.

The County Dress Review, a part of the Spring Achievement Youth Show, will be held Saturday evening at 8 p.m. In addition to clothing articles, 4-H club members from the county will exhibit wood-working and leather articles, electrical, other crafts and cultural arts, such as paintings, at the show, which will be displayed Saturday evening.

All entries must be in and set-up by Saturday noon. An open house will be held Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. The public is invited to attend and view all the exhibits.

Townships Plan Annual Public Meeting

The townships of Sylvan, Lyndon, Lima, Sharon, Dexter, Freedom, Webster and Seio will hold their annual meetings Saturday, March 30 at 1 p.m. in their respective township or community halls.

Township budget will be submitted for approval at each meeting, and any other pertinent issues presented by residents attending the meetings will be discussed.

Mrs. Carrie Niehaus, who had spent a month at the home of her son Norman and his wife at Ann Arbor after her discharge from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, is now staying in Grass Lake at the home of another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niehaus, 300 N. Michigan Ave.

High School Musicians Win Highest Honors

All students from Chelsea High school who participated in the State Solo and Ensemble Festival, held last Saturday at Ann Arbor High school, received the highest possible rating of I (superior).

Attendance at the contest was affected by the poor weather, and several Chelsea students were unable to be present.

Chelsea first division winners and their performance media were: Heidi Sprague (two awards), flute solo and duet; Gina Funderburgh, flute duet; Jill Flintoft, piano solo; Sarah Lindauer, flute duet; and Lynn Ferguson, flute duet.

A I (superior) rating in state competition is the highest rating possible for a high school musician.

March of Dimes Treatment Report Given

Dr. Donita Sullivan, director of the March of Dimes Treatment Center at the University of Michigan, was featured speaker at a general board meeting of the Washtenaw County Chapter, the National Foundation March of Dimes, held Tuesday evening at the Ann Arbor Y-M-W-C-A. Dr. Sullivan told the assembled March of Dimes workers and friends that the treatment center could not operate without the donations received each year from the March of Dimes. Approximately 250 children from 41 Michigan counties are treated at the center each year, she said.

It was announced that nearly every township in the county had increased its donations this year. Representing the Chelsea area at the meeting were Chelsea March of Dimes chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Norris, and Mrs. Gerald Blough.

The next meeting of the Washtenaw County Chapter is scheduled for May 23 at Weber's Restaurant, Ann Arbor. The March of Dimes scholarships will be awarded and the county general chairman for next year's March of Dimes drive will be announced at that time.

Two Boys Caught in Lima Township Firing At Ducks from Car

Two boys, ages 19 and 16, were observed apparently shooting at ducks from a car Monday, March 18 on the Lima township property of a farmer, who notified conservation officials.

The 16-year-old was released with a warning, while the 19-year-old, Carol Dale Trail of Ann Arbor, appeared before Judge Earl Doletsky Thursday, March 21 on a charge of having a loaded gun in his car. Trail pleaded guilty, paid $50 fine and costs, and was given two days in jail, which were later suspended. This is the third time he has been convicted on this charge.

Kiwanis Club Observes 44th Anniversary

Secretary Paul 'Jerry' Niehaus Records 44 Years Perfect Attendance

The Kiwanis Club of Chelsea celebrated its 44th birthday Monday night with a Ladies' Night Banquet at the Congregational church. Special guests at the occasion included representatives from Jackson, Dexter, Pinckney and Ann Arbor Eastern Kiwanis clubs, and Governor-elect David S. Leeke and his wife, of Jackson. Dean Lidgard, head of Kiwanis-sponsored Forney W. Clement Memorial Foundation, Inc., at University Hospital, and Tonie Beeds, an instructor with the Foundation, showed a set of slides taken at the hospital. The Foundation enables young patients to continue their studies while they are in University Hospital. In operation since 1922, the Foundation now helps 3,000 children each year. The Foundation's activities will soon be centered in the new Mott Children's Hospital at the University.

Perfect attendance awards and Legion of Honor pins and certificates were presented by Division 10-Lt. Governor Floyd P. "Jack" Niehaus of the Chelsea club. Head of the awards list was Paul F. "Jerry" Niehaus, who was cited for 44 years of perfect attendance. His record is the second highest ever achieved by any member of Kiwanis International.

Community Chest Finally Reaches Goal

At the monthly meeting of Chelsea Community Chest held Wednesday, March 20 at the Village Council Chambers, it was announced that, at this time, the 1967 goal of $21,950 had been reached. Attainment of this goal was made possible through the efforts of volunteer workers in collecting rural, residential, organizational, business, professional, industrial and individual donations.

Two new members, Mrs. Donald Baldwin and Jerry Wenk, were elected to the board. Richard Smith, from the Spaulding for Children, made a presentation to the board requesting emergency funds.

Albert Coudron, county chairman of the Planning Commission of the United Fund, explained the need for county-wide planning. He requested that two residents from Chelsea be appointed to the County Planning Commission and attend their monthly meetings.

CHS Class Cage Tournament, Dance Slated

The annual class basketball tournament, sponsored by the Varsity Club of Chelsea High school, are scheduled for tomorrow and Saturday nights in the high school gymnasium.

Court clashes between classes will begin at 6:30 each night. The sophomores will face the seniors and the juniors will play the freshmen on Friday night. The two victorious teams will then vie for the class championship Saturday night, followed by a game between the top class team and a faculty squad. The winning class will receive a trophy.

After the Saturday night games, "The Toads," a well-known band group which has played at the Fifth Dimension, will provide music for a sock hop in the gym. A queen will be chosen during the dance on the basis of the number of pennies her sponsoring class has put in the class canister during the past week. The four candidates and their classes are Joan Yocum, freshman; Angie Cavados, sophomore; Cathy Wescott, junior; and Karen Lehmann, senior.

Proceeds from the games and dance will go to the Varsity Club for its various activities. The club, numbering approximately 40 members, is sponsoring a fund-raising drive.

Cub Scouts

Cub Scout Pack 455 held the monthly pack meeting in the gymnasium at Chelsea High school Thursday evening, March 21.

Highlight of the evening's entertainment was a "turtle" race. Cub Scouts had made the "turtles" from blocks of wood. Six heats were run with final winner being Tim Edge of the Webelos who received a trophy. Eric Pringle of Den III was the runner-up.

Cub Scout program theme for the month was "Adventures of the World" and three dens presented special parts of the program as follows: "History and Songs of the Swannee River" which included a replica of a showboat, made by Den III of which Mrs. Vernon Otto is den mother; a game in which names of rivers were unscrambled, in charge of Den II with Mrs. Sumner Osterle, den mother (won by Den I); and a history of the Detroit River by Den I, Mrs. Charles Burgess, den mother. This included a map and many old and current post-card pictures of boats and scenes along the river.

Dew-III was in charge of the opening and closing flag ceremonies.

Awards earned by Cub Scouts were presented as follows: Bobcat pins to James Anderson and Larry Hafner of Den I; and Ron Miller of Den IV of which Mrs. A. Rosentrey is den mother. Wolf badge and Denner badge to Scott Otto of Den III; assistant Denner badge and a silver arrow to Mark Korn of Den III; and a Webelos banner and book to John Tean.

A pack committee meeting is scheduled for April 4, 7:30 p.m. at the James Lorenz home, 118 Wilkinson St., and the next pack meeting will be held April 18.

MEMBER OF BOARD: Spaulding Board of Directors member and Ann Arbor attorney, Peter Spaulding, with his wife, the Jayette Outstanding Young Woman of the Year for Washtenaw county, and their four children, two of whom are biological and two of whom are adopted.

Spaulding for Children Hopes To Make Homes Happy

Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles by the Spaulding for Children, explaining its philosophy, purposes and goals. The agency will explore the need of the children to be loved by the new agency and how the program expects to meet these needs.

If it were possible to have children made to order, Bobbie would be the kind of little boy most people would like to take home as their son. At one year of age he is considered by the agency to be the healthiest, handsomest boy they have ever seen. His blue eyes and light brown hair, his dimples, and his healthy, playful enthusiasm would capture the hearts of parents across our country if they only were aware of his existence. San Diego county's welfare department can't find a home for him. Bobbie's chances were better when he was younger but he is getting "too old" very quickly.

In 1957 San Diego county placed 132 children and had 40 left homeless at the end of the year. Last year it placed 452 and 324 were left homeless at the end of the year. A child in the wrong place at the wrong time is a sad picture. This child may wait his entire childhood while parents who could give him the love that children must have are in another city and never know he waits for them.

California is not the only state where children cry out for love. In our county recently moved to the State of Washington and applied for an older child, knowing that years make a child unwanted generally. The agency in their new location insisted that they adopt a baby instead. "Yes, we have many older children who need parents, too, but these babies will grow into older children; if they are not adopted as infants, we simply do not have enough families who will adopt our children, no matter what the child's age. You might as well take a baby and enjoy his infancy."

The New York Times recently reported close to 2,400 adoptable children in that city who will probably never get the parents they need. A documentary on television showed babies in a hospital in cribs covered with nets to prevent the youngsters from climbing out and exploring the way normal children should be allowed to do.

A hospital was not meant to be a place for a child to grow up, yet the agencies are full, the foster homes are full, and what is an agency to do with an abandoned child?

In an article entitled "Babies Without Homes," The Saturday Evening Post gave us a glimpse of what it is like to be a child who doesn't ask for too much when he wants parents of his own.

of Cook County Hospital in Chicago, which was jammed with infants. It said, "Every day as long as six months ago, moving on to state foster homes."

A county which adopted a six-month-old boy from just such a Chicago hospital found the boy to be almost totally unresponsive. He didn't cry or smile, never. He didn't even make a sound when he was held. He didn't waste his energy. Love can work wonders and within a few weeks Andrew would scream at the top of his lungs and soak his bed with tears. His bottle was 10 minutes late. When someone in the family walked past him he would yell, "So that no one could resist stopping to chat with him a minute. Because of all the attention on his new brother, sister, and parents gave him, he was an early talker, walker, and was described as the most sociable child on the block."

In some of the bigger cities, hospitals have built-in machines which make thumping noises like a mother's heart. They have found that, in this way, babies stay in an "embryonic stage" longer, as if they had not been born. Yet we have learned in studies which date back to the pre-Christ era that children may not live if their early lives do not include a family relationship.

The Detroit News in March 1966 gave us some insight into the problem we face here in our own state. The article by Ruth Carlson says: "As the number of infants born out of wedlock continues to grow in the Detroit area, agencies which serve these babies and their mothers are becoming more and more swamped. We do not have enough maternity homes, foster homes or adoptive homes. There are not enough social workers to look for such homes."

One concerned worker recently said, "You lie awake nights trying to think of ways to get more foster homes."

Of about 7,000 recorded illegitimate births each year in Michigan, only about 2,000 adoptions are handled by agencies and some of these are of older children. When an unwed mother cannot be served she must keep a baby she did not want. Children must be wanted. They are clever and they know when someone cares about them. They also know when not a single soul in the world cares if they live or die.

It is easy to love a child. A child doesn't ask for too much when he wants parents of his own. He gives as much love as he receives. The Spaulding program was developed to meet some of the urgent needs of children waiting for permanent homes across our state and nation. The social conscience of the community to do something about the children who wait for adoption is recognized and acted upon by the progressive approaches of the Spaulding program. Each citizen has a tremendous stake in the success and progress of the new Spaulding agency since it not only reflects the concern of the community but helps to resolve the previously unsolved problems of the children who wait.

The Peter Forsythe family of Ann Arbor says "Adoption is one of the few areas in which everyone wins. The taxpayer, the society as a whole, the child himself, and most of all the family." Not just the immediate family benefits, however, for a child brings joy to his relatives as well.

Charged with Drunk Driving After Wrong Way Trip on Freeway

Arrested by uniformed deputies Monday night after driving more than three miles eastward in the westbound lane of I-94, near Fletcher Rd. in Lima township, George F. Wallace, 30, of 1234 Helm Rd. was charged with drunk driving.

Wallace told arresting deputies LeRoy Hermann and Eugene A. that he didn't realize he was driving in the "wrong" lane of the expressway. The deputies said they found a switchblade knife in Wallace's possession and discovered that his operator's license had expired in February. Wallace registered 18 and 19 in "breath" tests given at County Jail. A motorist is considered a drunk driver at .15 or above.

It might be a good idea to remind you, before you take that automobile trip, to drive carefully all the time.

Immanuel Church Will Present Prophetic Bible Conference

Beginning Sunday evening, March 31, through April 3, Immanuel Bible church will present a Prophetic Bible Conference featuring the Rev. Don Loughhead, pastor of First Baptist Temple, as speaker. The Rev. Loughhead will show some of the colored slides that he took while on tour in the Holy Land two years ago. Given a personal tour by a Jewish guide, the Rev. Loughhead was able to see and hear of numerous things that are not known commonly by many scholars.

Though no prophet himself, his predictions have been startlingly accurate.

Special music will add to each night of pictures and message. The Sunday night service begins at 7 p.m. and week-night services start at 7:30. The public is welcome to attend the conference.

UCC Lay Leaders Alerted To Help Solve Nation's Race Crisis

Attending the annual Lay Leaders Assembly of the two-million-member United Church of Christ in Chicago last week-end was Mrs. David H. Strieter of 319 Garfield. Also present for the assembly were UCC lay leaders from across the country and Hawaii.

Featured speaker at the opening session Friday afternoon, March 22, was the Rev. Dr. Hartland H. Helmich of New York City, executive secretary of the Council for Lay Life and Work of the United Church of Christ. Addressing the assembly, Dr. Helmich said that lay groups will increasingly move away from strictly church activities out into the community to engage "in mission, ministry, work and service of meaning on behalf of the world."

He emphasized that these activities would inevitably transcend denominational boundaries to include co-operation with other churches and with non-church groups.

"It is beyond the life of our local congregations that we will see a vast shift in the use of our energies as organized groups of laity," he said. "This is the

Chelsea Woman's Brother Wounded In Vietnam Action

Pfc. Tom Herr, 20, of Jackson was wounded in action recently while serving with the Marines in Vietnam. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Herr of Jackson, were notified of the incident Tuesday, March 19, by telegram. Pfc. Herr called his parents from Seattle, Wash., where he is now recuperating in a naval hospital.

The brother of Mrs. Myron Clark of 7953 Clark Lake Rd., Pfc. Herr entered the service in June 1967 and was sent to Vietnam in November.

Urges Change in Vietnam Policy

Congressional Candidate Jerome DuPont has urged a "De-escalation of war aims" as necessary to early withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam.

DuPont, the first and, so far, the only Democratic candidate for nomination for the Second District seat, made the appeal before a coffee-hour gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Donaldson at Cavanaugh Lake.

His appearance last Thursday evening came only a day before DuPont joined with other Michigan Democrats at a mass rally for presidential hopeful Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy in Detroit.

At the Donaldson home, DuPont urged a "substantial agreement on issues and needs" with both McCarthy and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and called for Second District Democrats to support both senators against the nomination bid of President Lyndon Johnson.

In attacking the present course of the Vietnam war, DuPont stressed that a change in the "aim" of U. S. policy is badly needed.

Freight Train Blocks Traffic Nearly One Hour

Traffic was stopped at all Chelsea railroad track crossings Monday morning from 7:40 to 8:08 when the freight train "Crows" Trainmen flogged the train forward and backward many times in an unsuccessful attempt to loosen the locked wheels. Finally, the faulty car was uncoupled, and the train moved on, 58 minutes after it had first reached the Chelsea crossings. Dozens of stranded motorists were "quite upset" by the unexplained and prolonged delay while they waited helplessly to cross the tracks.

It can be expensive to put off washing slip covers until they are badly soiled. Dust, soil, perspiration and oil from a person's hands tend to weaken the fabric.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank all our relatives, the Rev. Silvernail, the Ladies Aid and Staffan Funeral Home for the help they gave us during the recent death of our mother and grandmother, Martha Oesterle.

Miss Clara Mae Oesterle Miss Amanda Oesterle Kaye Oesterle Mrs. Myra Cady.

THANK YOU

I wish to extend my thanks to all for the prayers, lovely cards and flowers which I received while I was in the hospital. Also thanks to the Rev. Worress and others for their calls.

THANK YOU

I want to sincerely thank my relatives and friends for the many cards and telephone calls I received while I was in the hospital, the Chelsea Fire Department for the nice plant, the Rev. and Mrs. Livingston for their calls, and the many friends who came to visit me at the hospital. They will always be remembered by me.

Frank Reed.

IN MEMORIAM

You left us so quickly three years ago today. We didn't have time to say good-bye. We were so close in life. In death we are the same. But there really isn't any death, just life on a higher plane, a great and wonderful eternal life without the heartache, the worries and strife, a life with peace, contentment and love. For we will be united in heaven above. Only God knows the beautiful gift you have left us.

In loving memory of John McMillan.

Sadly missed by his wife and family.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank relatives and friends who sent me cards, flowers, and gifts during my stay in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, and since my return home. Especially to all the doctors at the Chelsea Medical Clinic, and also to Pastor Morris for his calls and prayers.

SALT & SALARY
The word "salary" is an old growth of the fact that man placed great value on salt, and in its original sense indicated that money was given to buy salt.

Seminar Set for College-Bound Area Students

"How To Study in College," an intensive short course for college-bound Chelsea, Dexter and Manchester High school seniors, will be conducted April 1-3 from 9:30-11:30 a.m. and from 1-3 p.m., each day in the Chelsea High school auditorium. The seminar will be under the direction of Prof. Ernest P. Weckesser, PhD, and Prof. George V. Pilotsos, PhD, both of Purdue University.

Cost per student will be determined by the actual number of participants.

Dislikes Cartoon

To the Editor:
I seriously question the judgment used in your selection of the political cartoon which appeared in the March 14 edition of The Chelsea Standard.

The thoroughly discolored picture portrayed ugly animalistic desires as a symbol of racial and civil disorders, completely ignoring the fact that the underlying desires are so basically and infinitely human. In a time when understanding is so vital to solving these problems, I wonder what prompted its appearance. Certainly, it will in no way help the situation, and may serve to produce even greater alienation and distrust. But perhaps that's the point.

Helping Hand committee members note that several roads, such as Old US-12, Stover, Werkman, Dexter-Chelsen, and roads around Cavanaugh Lake, do not yet have any Helping Hand homes. Since children will be heading for the lake and woods during the warm weather, traveling along these roads, volunteers are needed in these areas.

TOP

Rudi Grennrich, who designed topless bathing suits and started the whole topless trend, apparently believes the top of our heads are more important than the top of our wearing apparel.
He says, "the dress is only an accessory. It's the other things that make an outfit—a collar
—the way you wear your hair.
A hair style is an individual statement about a person. That's what fashion is today." When it comes to individuality, Rudi sure should know! We think dress tops are a bit more important than the designer does, but we have to agree on the importance of "the way you wear your hair."

Girl Scouts Increase Total In Cookie Sale

Mrs. Paul Mann, chairman of the 1968 Girl Scout cookie sales, reports that 514 cases, or 6,168 boxes, of Girl Scout cookies were sold during the recent annual drive. The five Chelsea troops sold 27 more cases than last year's total of 487, when six troops were involved in the drive.

The approximate number of cases sold by each troop, and cookie chairman for each group are as follows: Troop 17, 101 cases, Mrs. John Thompson; Troop 38, 119 cases, Mrs. George Miller; Troop 82, 127 cases, Mrs. Georgia Smith; Troop 98, 113 cases, Mrs. Carner Slocum; and Troop 77, 47 cases, Joyce Schneider.

Profits from cookie sales are used for special programs by individual troops and development of camp properties by the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

With profits from 10 years of sales, Huron Valley Scouts are purchasing 400 acres of wooded land near Linden. The site is being developed for a permanent resident camp. Thus far, through cookie sale efforts, a combined winterized troop cabin-dining hall, a beach and tent units have been erected. This year the Girl Scouts hope to add another tent unit and a shower house. Camp Linden is used year-round for troop programs in the out-of-doors.

In addition to the camp development, profits help send girls needing some financial assistance to camp.

Beware of An Unlicensed Home Peddler

Village residents are reminded not to do business with any door-to-door salesmen unless a permit signed by the village of Chelsea is printed on the salesmen's literature. If a salesman doesn't have one, the permit should be presented. If a salesman is contacted by the village of Chelsea, he should report him to police at 475-4231.

Village Clerk George W. stated that he has not issued permits in several months, so door-to-door salesmen are likely to do not have permits. Peddlers and solicitors wishing to sell their products in the village must have permits, as stated in a village ordinance.

Dennis Smith, 18, of High Park was solicited for books at the Chelsea area March 2. When a license. Several residents complained to Chelsea police, who arrested Smith on a charge of unlawfully engaging in the business of soliciting and canvassing in the village of Chelsea without obtaining a permit to do so. Smith was released on $25 bond, Smith appeared before Justice C. A. R. March 6 and pleaded not guilty. The case is still pending.

Residents should not sign sales contracts without first contacting an attorney. Once a contract has been signed, a person is obligated to buy whatever is stated on it, sometimes people have unwittingly been forced purchasing hundreds of dollars' worth of items by hastily signing a contract.

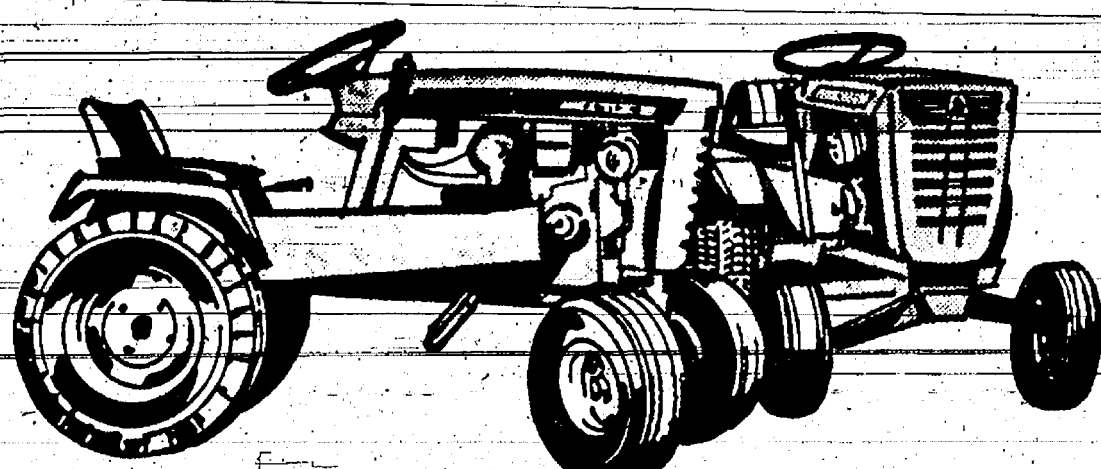

Another salesman to beware is the telephone solicitor. A resident agrees over the telephone to have a salesman visit his home. The salesman will not come in the village license ordinance jurisdiction since he was personally invited to the home by owner or a resident therein.

Horror Stories

With the results of our comprehensive state-wide inspection law, Michigan farmers were as shocked as anyone else to hear reports that meat processing plants in the United States were unsanitary. They grined at glaring tales of filth, flies and filth supposedly existing in plants, with the stories following immediately by demands for Congress to enact a federal inspection law. The outcome is predictable.

Only after the passage of the law has it become apparent that the horror stories were exaggerated by government inspectors to convince Congress to give state's rights by new and improved federal consumer "protection."

A number of states, Michigan among them, had already passed and were enforcing state inspection laws with more standards than those contained in the federal act. Mandatory application of the federal standards will actually lower the quality of meat inspection in Michigan!

It becomes increasingly obvious to the press, the President and the public were taken in. The President quoted a federal inspector's words in signing the new law, "beef was being broken up on an open dock by a road in 95-degree weather. There were flies in the meat."

At the time few thought to check the accuracy of this, and for such reports, until the week-end, "The National Observer," began to collect facts. The owner of the plant in question flatly denied any truth to the reports. The dock is adjacent to a paved street, not a dirt road. Beef is not cut up on our docks and never has been. The owner said. The plant has been regularly inspected and approved by S. Army Veterinarians since 1953, and is under tight Colorado inspection.

Not an isolated instance, the National Observer reports that apparently in the fervor to push federal meat inspection law through Congress, the word went out to get evidence—any evidence.

This instance of federal employees pushing for a federal law to become a classic example of the arrogance of federal power—and another reason why the government's "credibility gap" continues to widen.

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA
ELECTRIC AND WATER DEPARTMENT
AUDIT REPORT
December 31, 1967

February 26, 1968

To the Honorable, the Village Council
Village of Chelsea, Michigan:

We have examined the statement of financial condition of the Electric and Water Department of the Village of Chelsea as of December 31, 1967, and the statement of income and retained earnings for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We did not confirm the accounts receivable by correspondence with debtors, but satisfied ourselves by other means that the accounts were valid.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of financial condition and the related statement of income and retained earnings present fairly the financial position of the Electric and Water Department of the Village of Chelsea at December 31, 1967, and the results of operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

leerman, Johnson & Hoffman,

SUSPENDED DRIVERS REPORTS FOR EXAMINATIONS Lansing—Years ago when auto was in its infancy and to travel down the rutted roads well-proven by horse carts, the smart folks used to yell, "Get a horse!" That's exactly what a rural Saline man is getting around. Secretary of State James Hare said he received this today from James Rohrer, of Cumsum, Rohrer, a driver examining regional manager seven counties, told Hare he in his office Thursday when a rodeo up on a horse in the center which houses the Amherst examining station. "He parked his steed in on the parking areas, tied him and came in for a license examination. It seems that had been an uninsured driver, involved in an accident, and placed under financial responsibility. One of our enforcers officers had picked up his license and his auto license plate. Undaunted, he rode his horse 12 or 13 miles for the test. "At least he was law abiding," Hare said. "He apparently has his suspension seriously."	CHURCH OF CHRIST 13601 Old US-12, East R. D. KINDERGARTEN

Teacher: Mrs. Michelson
Room 1
All the children went to the Spencer Brothers Circus. We saw many parts of a circus. We didn't even have to walk a lot.
We like to fly our kite. We watch the way the flag blows, so we know it's a good kite day.
We are going to learn about hats.

FIRST GRADE

Teacher: Mrs. Andrews
Reporter: Linda McGuire
Room 4
We've been waiting for signs of spring. In our room we have a cocoon that Cheryl Bunde found last fall, so we've been watching for something to come out.
We collected clothespins and scraps. Then we snood the clothespins in clay and made people. We displayed them in the hall showcase.
This week we have been saying: Buenas noches, adios, and gracias.

Room 8
Teacher: Mrs. Smedegaard
Reporter: Joan Liebeck
We like to do arithmetic. We made collages from buttons, materials, cereals, and other things. We wrote stories about spring rain. Here is Eric Laugeson's story:
Rain is good for flowers. It is all sun in the summertime. I like the sun. It is good for me. Birds are here in the springtime and the snow time. We like spring.

Room 2
Teacher: Mrs. Thornton
Reporter: Karen Dresch
We have a new boy. His name is Tracy Nichol. We each made a gingerbread man and wrote a story about him. We finally made our paper mache dinosaurs. We still have to paint them. We made a train that shows the root words and the endings that we are learning. The endings are: s, ed and ing. We changed our room around. We like it the new way. Mark Falsch might a bird's nest that he found on the ground.

Room 7
Teacher: Mrs. Rogers
Reporter: Debbie Schantz
Last Friday we had a spelling bee. John Daniels won. He spelled the word brown.
We had lots of fun learning a new game—Quinzo. We have to answer addition or subtraction problems and then find the answer on our cards. The game is like Bingo.
We are learning all about things that lived many years ago—dinosaurs, plants, insects, and also about fossils.

Room 16
Teacher: Miss Danborn
Reporter: Ted Speer
This morning Robert Annabel brought his new tape recorder and showed it to us. Yesterday we made a kite bulletin board. We also wrote letters Monday which we are sending to Vietnam.
Room 20
Teacher: Mrs. Moore
Reporter: Barbara Thompson
Animals and plants need a special environment, so we have made cut-outs to place in the correct environments which we are going to make. We read about the life cycle of the salmon and found that it lives at different times in both fresh and salt water. We have made food chains.
Jeff Schantz and Greg Guenther brought some creek water that contained micro-organisms. We watched a live paramcium under the microscope.
Jeff and Joey Keizer have been experimenting with molds and fungi, and a frog. They found that the frog must not dry off, and he throws mud to form a protective covering. Various molds have grown and are living on four varieties of bread. The host (the bread) will disappear.
Pat Welshans and Jerry found and brought in a catfish and puffy willows. Spring is here!
We are making a sand painting like the Navaho Indians. Julie brought the colored sand, and is breaking some of the stones with an Indian pestle. Mrs. Moore found in a barn foundation.
Cheryl French let us see some reef-building coral which grows in a warm sea.

SECOND GRADE

Room 19
Teacher: Mrs. Lange
Reporter: Don Messner
In social studies we are studying the Rocky Mountain States. Tuesday, March 12, our room drew maps of these states. Mrs. Lange has an Indian dress that she bought in the West. We have two bulletin boards showing pictures of natural bridges in Utah, also Navaho, Apache, Hopi, and Zuni Indians. John Wagner brought his Indian belt for our bulletin board.
Thursday our room went to a play. The play was "Bye Bye, Birdie." Our room liked the play very much.
David Leach brought his shell collection for his classmates to see.
The boys are enjoying soccer games at recess.
A speech, written but not delivered, does no harm.

Room 22
Teacher: Miss Weber
Reporter: John Storey
We are making a mural of a story called "Owls in the Family." We painted some pictures on the mural.
Mike Schanz brought a skeleton of a mouse, which was very interesting.
In social studies we are reading about fishing in Maine. We are going to have a display of pictures we've made of boats and ships. It will be like a picture history of ships.

Senior Citizens May Still Obtain 'Doctor' Insurance Under Medicare

People over 65 who are not already enrolled in the "Doctor Bill" insurance part of Medicare have until April 1 to elect this coverage according to Robert A. Kehoe, district manager of the Ann Arbor Social Security office.
1967 amendments to the Social Security Act made a change in the enrollment periods for the medical insurance "doctor bill" part of Medicare, Kehoe said. Those who failed to elect this coverage at their first opportunity, either early in 1966 or at age 65, may do so during open enrollment periods. Prior to the change, the open enrollment periods were the last three months of each odd-numbered year. Under the new law, open enrollment periods are offered the first three months of each year. The new law does not change, however, restriction against enrollment for the first time later than the third year after reaching 65, Kehoe cautioned.
Other changes expanding benefits have made the medical insurance protection even more important for those who want to maintain maximum coverage.
Most persons who had not previously enrolled have received enrollment applications in the mail, Kehoe said. Those wanting coverage simply check "yes," sign and return the card. Persons 65 and over who have not received an enrollment card and want the "doctor bill" coverage should get in touch with the Ann Arbor Social Security office.

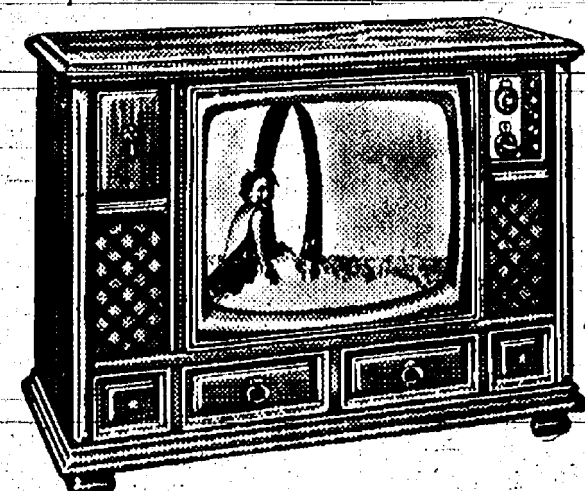

Close Watch Kept To Check Cholera Attack

Michigan's hard won-hog cholera free status has been threatened by an outbreak of hog cholera on a farm near Chelsea in 2,000 feeder pigs imported from Arkansas.
Federal-state veterinarians recently disposed of 1,075 of the animals, sending the bodies to a rendering plant. The rest had died on the premises of this highly contagious and costly disease of swine.
The animals had arrived in Michigan with health papers prepared in Arkansas.
Director B. Dale Ball of the Michigan Department of Agriculture said Michigan had been declared hog cholera free last April after complying with requirements of the nationwide effort to eradicate this serious swine disease. At the time Michigan was the largest swine producer of the seven states which have achieved this status.
Standards for the eradication program provide that a state may maintain its hog cholera free status as long as it experiences only primary outbreaks—that is, confined to one farm with no spread to other premises. So far it appears that no additional premises have become infected.
Hog farms in the surrounding areas are being watched to make sure the disease does not spread. During this period of greatest danger, farmers have been asked to take extra precautions to isolate hogs from outside contacts. Also, veterinarians should be called at the first sign of sickness in pigs, advised Dr. J. F. Quinn, state veterinarian of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.
Lansing—For the first time ever, more than three million license plates were sold in Michigan by the end of February.
