Bulldogs Open Track Season At Ypsi Relays

Promising Team With 9 Lettermen Posts Highest Score They Ever Made

The Chelsea High school track team opened its season last Friday afternoon and evening when it participated in the annual Huron relays at Bowen Fieldhouse, Ypsilanti. This indoor meet generally starts off the Michigan high school track season and is limited to the top of the best track teams in Michigan and northern Ohio.

Chelsea made its best showing ever by getting nine points, which were won in a third-place finish in the two-mile relay team composed of Ken Blaes, Doug Weather, Mike McGinn, Gary Pearson, and an eighth-place finish in the 400-yard relay. Eight places were awarded in each of the events. Practice for the 1968 track season has been underway for three weeks, with approximately 35 boys taking part in daily workouts. Several of the runners have been training for two months. The only practices are held primarily in the gymnasium in condition to get participants in condition for the season ahead.

Although seven lettermen were on last year's squad that was both the conference and regional titles, nine lettermen have returned to form a good nucleus of this year's team. The returners are led by senior letterman Larry Larson in the 880 event, Ken Blaes in the mile, Larry Pearson in the shot put and Mike Pearson in the hurdles.

Sandra Knoll Is Named Pageant 'Miss Congeniality'

Sandra Lee Knoll, Chelsea's contestant in the first annual Miss Ann Arbor Pageant, held last Friday night in Ann Arbor, was named "Miss Congeniality." Based on personality, friendliness and helpfulness, the honor is unique because the winner is chosen by the contestants themselves. As Miss Congeniality, 18-year-old Sandra, youngest of the 15 finalists in the pageant sponsored by the Ann Arbor Jaycees, received a $100 scholarship and a large bouquet of flowers. Elaborate preparations were undertaken by the girls before the pageant. Prior to becoming one of the 15 finalists, Sandra had to pass two previous judges. On the day of the pageant, Sandra and her hostess, Mrs. Don Baldwin, were escorted to the Ann Arbor Jaycees for a personal interview with the pageant judges. A police escort then took the contestants to the Ann Arbor High school to prepare for the pageant itself. Each girl had to compete in several divisions of the pageant. First, they appeared in afternoon-dresses. Next came the formal division, for which Sandra wore a dark aqua gown. She was escorted by Al Hendrick of Ann Arbor, a NROTC student at the University of Michigan. For the swimsuit competition, Sandra chose a dark, Grecian-styled bathing suit. A highlight of the pageant was the talent division competition. Sandra played a piano solo, "Fantasia in A Minor," by Beethoven and wore a national Austrian costume borrowed from Miss Buhr, an English teacher at Chelsea High school. Chosen as Miss Ann Arbor was Mary Louise Paxton, a student at Eastern Michigan University, who also won the evening gown and swimsuit competition. She received three cash awards, a luggage set, a gold charm bracelet and a trophy. First and second runners-up were Cheryl Ann Meyers of the University of Michigan and Linda Foster of Eastern Michigan University, respectively. Sandra received a trophy and a cash award as top contestant in the talent division. All of the

Easter Egg Hunt Slated Next Week

The seventh annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by the Chelsea Jaycees, is slated for Saturday, April 13 at 11 a.m. at the Chelsea High school athletic field. In case of rain, the event will be held Saturday, April 20. A total of 3,000 eggs will be hidden on the athletic field, according to Jerry Heller, egg hunt chairman. Members of the Jaycee Auxiliary will color the eggs under the direction of chairman, Polly Patterson. Prizes will be awarded after the hunt.

Chelsea Girls Win at County Dress Revue

One Chelsea 4-H girl qualified for the state show and three are eligible for the Greenfield Village show as a result of judging during the County Spring Achievement Youth Show held Saturday night in the Rural Activities Center, Ann Arbor-Saline Rd. In the Junior Miss dressmaking division, Kathryn Schaefer will attend the state show this summer. Karen Schaefer of the Junior Miss division and Helen Wolski and Mary Lu McGinn, both competing in the Senior Miss division, will enter their outfits in the Greenfield Village show. All four girls are members of Busy Bluebellies 4-H club, of which Mrs. Edwin Lantis is leader.

The Faber award, consisting of a gift certificate to Faber's Fabric Store, was won by Cindy Niehaus for the construction of her garment. Cindy and three other girls, Char Powers, Marilyn Hinderer and Karen Sullivan, who made matching outfits for herself and her little sister, Marie Sullivan, were included in the honor group of the Senior Miss division. They are all members (except Marie) of Wide Awake Girls 4-H club, led by Mrs. Harold Powers. Other honor group members of Wide Awake Girls are Nancy Kennedy, Beyer, Young Miss division, and Diane Beyer, Young Miss division. (Continued on page six)

Chelsea Jaycees held their membership and annual meeting at the K. of C. Hall Tuesday evening. Annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. Annual dues of the Jaycees have been raised from $25 to $30. Newly-elected officers of the Chelsea Jaycees for the year 1968-69 include Don Proctor, president; Walter Brown, internal vice-president; Neil Fahnestock, external vice-president; Glenn Weir, secretary; Tom Dunlap, treasurer; Gerald Heller, membership director; Charles Miller, publicity director; and Dave Martin and Charles Koenn, directors-at-large. Ron Adair, who is running for district vice-president, and George Potter, a candidate for national director, were guests at the meeting.

Community Choir Concert Slated Sunday

The recently-organized Chelsea Community Choir will present its first concert Sunday at St. Paul United Church of Christ. During the program, which will begin at 7 p.m., the choir will sing several choruses from "The Messiah" by Handel, including "And the Glory of the Lord," "Behold the Lamb of God," "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs," and "And With His Stripes We Are Healed." "All We Like Sheep Have Gone Astray," "Hallelujah" and "Since By Man Came Death." Narration between selections will be read by Rob Powers. Diana L'Roy will direct the 35-voice choir, composed of adults from Chelsea, Dexter and Rogers Corners. Accompanying the choir will be James Sharpe, organist. The community choir has been rehearsing weekly since February. Future plans and concerts by the choir depend upon the support given to it by the community. If a large audience attends the concert Sunday, the choir will assume that the community is interested in such concerts and will plan to make the presentation an annual event, according to Mrs. Richard Borton, who helped to organize the choir. The public is invited and encouraged to attend the concert. Admission is free and no offering will be taken.

Townships OK Budget for Coming Year

Annual Meetings Attended By Only Small Groups of Interested Residents

At the annual township meetings held Saturday, March 30, the proposed budget for each township was passed and discussions were held on a variety of topics, including road maintenance, weed spraying and possible construction of a new township hall.

Lima . . .

Lima township passed a budget of $30,375. An income of $30,000 was estimated for the coming year.

The board and 12 residents attending the meeting talked about chloride or salt brine applications on dirt roads and the need to remove dead elm trees from roadsides.

Residents present were told again of the board's decision not to have the County Road Commission spray weeds this year.

The township voted to meet operational expenses with a tax rate of one mill and plans to blacktop Freer Rd.

Lyndon . . .

Two people plus the board were present at the Lyndon township meeting. A budget of $11,535 was approved and salary increases were passed as follows: the supervisor's salary was raised from $1,200 to $1,700 per year, the clerk's pay increased from $800 to $1,200 annually, and the treasurer's salary was raised from $1,000 to $1,200 per year.

Board members discussed the possibility of setting up a zoning board so that a new zoning ordinance may be passed. The township is considering passage of an interim ordinance until the new zoning board is established.

Freedom . . .

Attending Freedom township's meeting were 35 people, who approved a budget of $18,000 for the coming year.

Residents present voted to have all township roads covered with a solid layer of chloride as soon as weather permits. A second chloride layer will be applied in front of houses later.

Gen. Dwight Beach To Retire Aug. 1

Gen. Dwight E. Beach, 59, will retire in the grade of four-star general after more than 36 years of active duty in the U. S. Army, according to an announcement made Tuesday, March 26 by President Johnson.

A native of Chelsea, Gen. Beach has been commander in chief, Army of the Pacific, since Sept. 1960. In this position, he has headed the largest single Army command in the Free World.

Dexter . . .

Ten people were present at the Dexter township meeting, where the possibility of constructing a new township hall on Dexter-Pinckney Rd., near the corner of Territorial Rd., was brought up. No definite decision was made concerning the construction at this time.

A budget of $33,010 was approved, and the supervisor's annual salary was raised from $3,000 to $3,500, the clerk's pay increased from $1,000 to $2,000, and the treasurer's salary went from $1,600 to $2,000.

Sharon . . .

Attending the Sharon township meeting were eight residents and the board members, who discussed the chloride and road program for the coming year. It was suggested that chloride be put in front of each house and at major intersections, and that chloride be added solid on Grass Lake Rd., from Sharon Hollow Rd. to M-52. Those suggestions were tabled until the meeting with the County Road Commission April 11.

Also discussed was a possible raise in the cost of fire protection in Manchester township. No budget was proposed for the coming year.

Webster . . .

A budget of $22,330 was passed by the board with 11 residents attending the Webster township meeting. Anticipated income for the year is $25,585.

The subject of garbage collection was brought up at the meeting since Webster township currently does not have provisions for collection and burning of waste. The township decided to invite an authority to a future meeting to discuss expenses involved in garbage collection.

Scio . . .

Approximately 25 people attended the Scio township meeting, during which a budget of $95,990 for the coming year was approved. After discussing whether or not to continue having a police car in Scio township, the board appointed a committee to further study (Continued on page five)

Mail Solicitations Must Now Be Clearly Marked To Avoid Deception

Solicitations placed in the mail which resemble bills must bear a conspicuous warning that they are not invoices or statements of account as of April 6. Post Office Department regulations were published Thursday, March 14 in the Federal Register.

Implementing an amendment to the Federal Revenue and Salary Act of 1907 aimed at deceptive solicitations, the regulations published in the Register require the following notice on each solicitation:

"This is a solicitation for the order of goods and/or services and not a bill, invoice, or statement of account due. You are under no obligation to make any payments on account of this offer unless you accept this offer."

The regulations also require that the warning be printed in type no smaller than 12-point in size, and that in no case shall it be less conspicuous than the boldest type used to print other words on the solicitation.

The Department's General Counsel, Timothy J. May, expects the amendment to "dry-up" a scheme which has defrauded thousands of mail patrons each year. One of the largest groups victimized by these solicitations are the businesses and other organizations listed in the classified sections, or Yellow Pages, of telephone directories.

May said that "Millions of solicitations which resemble IBM-type billing cards or invoices for legitimate directories are mailed to firms according to their classification in the Yellow Pages. Overworked or careless office workers are tricked into remitting the $60 to $85 fee thinking it represents a bill which must be paid."

May added that while directories are published, they have little or no advertising value. Usually only one copy is sent to each advertiser.

While the primary problem involves the fake business directory, the General Counsel has ruled, in response to an inquiry, that magazine subscription solicitations which resemble bills must also carry the prescribed warning.

May said, "There is no reason to conclude that Congress intended less protection from deception in the case of (magazine) subscriptions than in other cases."

May said, "The Department will need the co-operation of businessmen and others if we are to effectively enforce the new regulations." Those receiving solicitations designed to resemble bills which do not carry the warning are asked to forward them to the Mailability Division, Office of the General Counsel, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C. 20260.

In addition to specifying the minimum size of type in the warning, the regulations require that:

—The background on which it is printed shall not diminish the legibility of the type relative to the other printing.

—There shall be a clear space of no less than one-quarter of an inch surrounding the prescribed matter.

—It shall be printed in boldface capital letters.

—It cannot be implied that the solicitation has been approved by the Post Office Department or the Postmaster General.

In the Federal Register the Department said that "notwithstanding the amendment and these regulations, users of the mail retain full responsibility for conducting their co-operation so as not to violate the postal fraud laws."

May said that if postal patrons are in doubt about the mailability of this type of solicitation, they may submit the proposed mailing piece for a ruling by his office.

Chrysler Corp. Tells Plans For King-Seeley Plants

E. Elmer Sivacek, formerly general manager of the King-Seeley Division of King-Seeley Thermos Co., has been appointed division manager of the automotive business which Chrysler Corp. acquired from King-Seeley on March 21. Joseph F. Kerigan, Chrysler vice president, car assembly and stamping, made the announcement at a news conference in Ann Arbor Tuesday. He disclosed that the executive, management and supervisory people and the employees of the Ann Arbor and Selo plants are remaining in the same positions, under Chrysler ownership, that they held previously.

The Ann Arbor plant, with 120,253 square feet of floor space, and the Selo plant, with 320,517 square feet, have been building parts under Chrysler ownership for Chrysler and other automotive customers since March 25.

The two plants have become part of Chrysler's car assembly and stamping group, Kerigan said. The 1,100 employees of the Ann Arbor and Selo plants are now joined with a total Chrysler Corp. employment of more than 225,000 people, he told newsmen.

Kerigan said Chrysler intends to carry on the Ann Arbor and Selo operation "very much as it has in the past under King-Seeley ownership and with the same people."

This means, he explained, that Chrysler hopes to retain King-Seeley's automotive customers.

A graduate of Tri-State College, Angola, Ind., Sivacek joined King-Seeley in 1941 and remained with the company continuously until March 21 when he began managing operations for Chrysler.

Firemen Kept Busy Fighting Grass Fires

Chelsea firemen haven't had a day's rest in the past week. At least one call each day has kept them busy fighting various blazes, almost all of which were grass fires caused by burning rubbish or brush.

A grass fire occurring Wednesday, March 27 at 4:51 p.m., along the railroad tracks, near Hoppe Rd., spread to the Jack Harrington property, burning several fenceposts, and to the Sanderson property on Notten Rd., where a cornfield was charred by the fire. A spark from a train caused the grass fire.

Thursday, March 28 at 4:27 p.m., burning rubbish ignited grass on the property of Wiley Howard, 17004 W. Old US-12. A grass fire at 8:43 that night on the Wilbert Trinkle property was probably caused by a lighted cigarette tossed from a car window.

A grass fire caused by burning brush was reported at 9:37 Friday morning on John Weber's property, 6710 Werker Rd.

Within the space of four hours Saturday afternoon, Chelsea firemen put out five grass fires, including a grass and brush blaze at 1:40 on the Marlis Williams property, 1550 Sylvan Rd., caused by burning rubbish; a fire at 2 o'clock, caused by burning trash on the property of Louis Abel, 6900 Easthouse Dr., a fire at 2:27 on the Robert Bassett property, 17325 Waterloo Rd., started by children playing with matches; a fire at 4:34 on the Wilbert Trinkle property along Dexter-Chelsea Rd., ignited by a lighted cigarette thrown from an automobile; and a fire at 5:36 caused by burning brush, on the property of J. R. Nodine, Kilmer and Notten Rds.

An over-heated steam cleaner started a fire in the Waterloo Garage on Clear Lake Rd. Sunday at 12:32 p.m., causing minor damage to the building.

Burning brush caused a grass fire at 1:55 p.m. Monday on Frank Dyer's property, 4260 Sylvan Rd. At 5:36 that afternoon, a grass fire flared up from burning rubbish on the Don Wiltsie property, 4341 Clear Lake Rd.

Fire Chief James Gaken reminds residents to obtain a permit from either the Conservation Department or the Chelsea Fire Department when they plan to burn grass, rubbish or brush. The permits, which are good for four days, are issued primarily to let firemen know where fires occurring in the areas specified on the permits are for useful purposes and are controlled. People sometimes call upon the firemen to put out a fire which someone actually is keeping under control. Requests for permits would prevent firemen from making such wasted trips.

District Jaycees Will Elect State Vice-President

District 20 of the Michigan Jaycees will meet Monday, April 8 for a 7:15 p.m. dinner at the Moose Lodge, Maple Rd., Ann Arbor.

On the evening's agenda is the election of a state vice-president who will be in charge of this district.

Competing for the office are the outgoing presidents of Dexter and Chelsea Jaycees chapters, Ron Adair and Bob Undergraff, respectively.

Holder of the office is responsible for communication between the district and state board. Chapters in district 20 include those in Saline, Chelsea, Dexter, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Manchester, Milan and FCI-Milan.

New Location For Kiwanis Flower Sale

Kiwanis Club of Chelsea will hold its annual Easter Flower Sale at a new location this year on April 12 and 13.

Robert Markel, flower sale chairman for 1968, has arranged for the use of the former Medical Clinic Building at 109 N. Main St.

For the past 15 years the Kiwanis flower sales, one of the major money-making projects of the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea, have been held at Hilltop Plumbing but expanding business and lack of floor space have forced the move.

All Kiwanis profits are used in civic projects with emphasis on youth. Largest of the recently sponsored projects was the lighting of the baseball field at CHS. Continuing projects include: Kid's Day at the Chelsea Fair, Kid's Halloween party, fireworks (jointly with American Legion) on July 4, two Boy Scout troops sponsored, scholarships, participation in the District Forensic Clement Project at U-M Hospital, etc.

Flowers are furnished by Chelsea Greenhouse and sell for the same price as that charged at the Greenhouse. Orders for special Easter corsages are accepted by any Kiwanian.

Kiwanians (and their wives) do all of the selling.

The sale will be closed from 12 noon until 3 p.m. on Good Friday as good church attendance is actively promoted by Kiwanis International.

All-Sports Night Slated at Pineknay High

The big Pineknay All-Sports Night is Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the new Pineknay High school. A basketball game will be played between The Belleville High school faculty and the Pineknay School faculty.

The Pineknay High school band will be on hand to furnish music throughout the program. They will also play for the United States Marine Corps Color Guard which will put on a display of marching and present the Colors. This USMC Color Guard has performed all over the nation and their most recent appearance was at Cobo Hall in Detroit.

There will be one high school wrestling bout.

The main event of the evening will be a rematch professional bout, two of three falls, 1 hour limit, between Jerry Rogalski (teen-age idol) 240 lbs., and the old mat terror, Julius (GI Joe) Asenbrenner, 210 lbs.

The event is sponsored by the VFW Post 1224 of Hamburg and the Pineknay All-Stars a semi-pro football team.

Maintenance Work On County Roads Costs $3 Million

The Washtenaw County Road Commission announced that $3,078,078 was spent last year for the maintenance of 1,425 miles of county roads and for the performance of its other duties. The facts were presented in the Commission's annual report to the County Board of Supervisors at a meeting last week.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

A prominent firm of psychologists ask this question when screening and examining employed applicants for their clients . . . "Of all the men you know, have known, met or heard of, what one man would you most like to be like?" Explain why.

Reports indicate this question brings in a lot of different answers and peculiar reasons. Selections include Grandpa, Dad, Uncle John, Cousin Tim, and so on in an apparent effort to tie in a helpful family trait . . . or affiliation. Other applicants select men such as Churchill, Lincoln and other historical greats. Some select sports, business or political personalities.

Obviously of course, the psychologists are interested in the "reasons why"—not so much in the selection itself. The reasons for the selections also vary greatly. Accomplishments, achievements, materialistic success, untarnished reputation, character and other attributes are mentioned as reasons.

It is an interesting question. How would you answer it? Who would you select. Why? Watch for our selection next week. You may—or may not—be surprised. . . . BURGHARDT, FUNERAL HOME, 211 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-1111.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

As a fairly newcomer to the town of Chelsea, I would like to know what kind of law enforcement you have here. By law enforcement I mean police and judicial.

A while ago, on my way to work, I received a ticket for excessive noise. I received this ticket in a thoughtful and swift action, for the patrolman neither inquired if I was getting it fixed or what was wrong. He jumped to a conclusion of his own and issued it was a loud muffler and issued me a ticket. Technically, the flange was broken up by the manifold, and for the matter of facts I had the parts ordered the day before I received the ticket. Surely the patrolman wouldn't have lost any time to inquire into the matter, unless he has a schedule to meet in giving out tickets.

I reported to the justice as I was required, expecting to be able to state my case. This was a figment of my imagination. To him, if I received a ticket I was guilty, no buts about it. He gave me a week to decide if I wanted to plead guilty or not; he carefully forgot to mention that he would be the judge. I'd see if I took it to court. Not knowing this, I pleaded not guilty. Because he had his mind made up as to my guilt the trial didn't take long. He doubled the fine or time in jail. In order to protest their "lawful" system and to fight for my rights, I took three days in jail instead of paying their revenue.

In talking to other people I find that in most cases the police issue warnings the first time they stop someone for excessive noise. Why wasn't I? Do they issue senseless tickets for revenue?

Is it fair for a person to be tried twice by the same person? Surely if he argues that you are guilty the first time, he won't change his mind the second. This is the "lawful" system—one is tried by? Does he put ridiculous prices on senseless tickets for revenue for himself or the city?

The police commissioner stated that most people just pay the ticket and forget about it. That's what they want—people who don't fight for their rights and principles, who just pay for little things that shouldn't be ticketed anyway.

I wonder how much revenue the judge, police and city receive this way.

It looks as if the law enforcement in Chelsea is out only to make revenue either for themselves or the city. My friend, if that's the way it is in Chelsea, it will soon be known by "Chelsea" is a nice town to be from, about 1,000 miles from.

Chrysler Economy Run Team Offers Tips for Better Mileage

Los Angeles—Sixty miles per gallon in the old family bus? Sound impossible?

Not according to Rob Cahill and Bob Checkley, Chrysler engineers, who are heading up Chrysler-Plymouth's effort in the 3,000-mile, 1968 Mobil Economy Run which started April 2 at Disneyland and ends in New York City, April 7.

"I don't recommend it as a daily practice," said Cahill, veteran Economy Run driver and four-time class winner in the event since 1961. "But in an emergency when your gas gauge is on empty and not a station in sight, it might be just the thing you need to keep the car going until a gas station is found."

"And the technique certainly won't be used on the Economy Run," offered Checkley, who drove a 1967 Plymouth Valiant to overall run honors last year with a 21.77 miles-per-gallon average.

"Let's assume you're off the freeway on open highway," said Cahill, painting a verbal picture. "Your gauge is on empty and you're sweating out that next station. Immediately start cruising at 30 miles per hour. Turn off the ignition switch, put the car in neutral, and coast the car till it reaches 20 miles per hour. Start the car again with the ignition switch, put in drive and accelerate to 30 miles per hour. Put in neutral, turn off ignition, and coast to 20 again. Keep repeating this procedure until you find that gas station."

"If this technique is repeated for a long period of time," said Checkley, "there's no doubt your car—assuming it's in the popular, priced category—would be averaging 60 or more miles per gallon."

"Contrary to what most drivers believe," Cahill said, "best fuel economy in the popular-priced car is achieved in the 25 to 30 miles-per-hour range. For example, a 1968 Plymouth Valiant Six with manual transmission has the capability of 30 m.p.g. or better at 30 m.p.h. steady speed with a careful driver."

"Most Economy Run entries achieve excellent mileage," Cahill said, "but the average driver could take his own commendable family car and achieve even better mileage if he really was willing to work at it."

He said greater economy mileage could be obtained in several ways:

"Thirty pounds pressure in all tires is one of the easiest and simplest ways to improve mileage," Cahill pointed out. "If it's fuel economy you're after, keep optional power accessories at a minimum."

"Now car break-in is very important," Cahill said. "Economy Run cars are allowed only 1,500 miles break-in time. The average owner can break in his car 3,000 or 4,000 miles and this will certainly result eventually in greater fuel savings."

Cahill will drive a 1968 Plymouth Valiant V-100 in this year's event while Checkley handles a Valiant Signet V-8. They are shooting for a 12th consecutive class victory for the Plymouth nameplate.

Other Plymouth entries include Plymouth Barracuda Six, Plymouth Satellite Six, Plymouth Satellite Eight, Plymouth Fury III Eight, Chrysler Newport and Chrysler New Yorker.

Overnight stops on the Run include Grand Canyon, Arizona; Colorado Springs, Colorado; Kansas City, Missouri; Indianapolis, Indiana; and Washington, D. C.

FACTS AND FANCIES

From the Handbook of Language Statistics

"Not worth a dam" (sic) is no more profane than "not worth a red cent." English traders invented the phrase, which refers to the "dam," a small, brass Indian coin worth about a penny.

"Not worth a finker's dam" is not profane either. Used in plumbing repairs, finker's dams were made of clay or similar material and were thrown away when the job was done.

Judging by the number of possible arrangements for the letters of the alphabet, people should never run out of new things to say. The 26 letters may be transposed 620,448,401,733,369,000 ways.

The Bible has 3,566,480 words, or maybe 3,586,480, depending on which authority you use. If you have about three years to spare, you might check for yourself.

That's how long it took Dr. Josephus Flavius, an eminent 17th century English cleric who came up with the first figure. The second was told out in a 17th century prison cell by a religious martyr.

"Licked into shape" is a term derived from an ancient superstition. The early Greeks believed that mother bears gave birth to a shapeless living mass which they then licked into the shape of a cub.

PERSHING STATUE

Parish-Peltz De Welton, famous Washington sculptor, is making a statue of General John J. Pershing astride a horse for the French government. The statue of the famous First World War commander will be dedicated November 11, 1968, the 50th anniversary of the armistice.

1968 ECONOMY RUN IMPOUND

ECONOMY RUN ENTRY: William J. Keller, Jr., 17700 W. Old US-12, at left, and Donald C. Macdonald of 1113 Fernwood, Royal Oak, are driving a 1968 Plymouth Fury III V-8 in the 3,000-mile

Chelsea Resident Driving Car In '68 Mobil Economy Run

William J. Keller, Jr., 33, who resides with his family at 17700 W. Old US-12, is for the third consecutive year participating in the April 2-7 Mobil Economy Run from Los Angeles to New York City. He will drive a Plymouth Fury III V-8 with Don Macdonald of Royal Oak.

They are among the 41 drivers and their co-drivers who will complete the scenic "Visit Vacationland USA" course that passes through series of historic and recreation areas in 17 states.

The 1968 Economy Run includes overnight stops in Grand Canyon, Ariz.; Colorado Springs, Colo.; Kansas City, Mo.; Indianapolis, Ind.; and Washington, D. C.

The drivers will test the mileage potential of new-model American cars, with all major manufacturers being represented. It will be the fastest Run in history, with drivers required to maintain an average of 34 miles an hour under conditions similar to those encountered by the typical interstate motorist.

Each of the 41 cars will carry an observer from the United States Auto Club, which supervises the event. USAC handles the precise measurements which determine winners in each of the seven classes. Classes are based on car size, horsepower and price.

Product of the Year Sought In Washtenaw

Can Washtenaw county recapture past glories? This is the question posed by Maurice L. Richards, Jr., this year's chairman, as he makes the annual appeal for entries for Michigan Week's product of the year competition.

Back in 1963 the Paradome Portable Building, manufactured by Outdoor Fibre Products Co., of Chelsea, was judged best in the state. Since that time zero from our county.

To enter the Washtenaw county competition, the product must be manufactured in the county and must be a consumer product. "For purposes of this competition, a consumer product is defined as any product made available for sale to the general public—either as individuals or business firms—through normal distribution channels," Richards explains.

The entry may be either an end product, or an accessory, but cannot be a product sold to another manufacturer for use in a larger finished product.

"It should be relatively new or have a record of outstanding development recently. A product entered in any previous year or years is eligible for resubmission," Richards said.

The County Award Contest will be judged April 8 through April 13. No special preparation is necessary for county judging. Submission of prepared sales brochures, technical manuals, operating instructions, or photographs to the contest judges will be sufficient.

Judges look at the product's meaningfulness more than at its novel features, Richards advises. Its acceptance and its potential in sales and jobs, as well as any other impact the product may have on the community, will be favorably considered.

Firms interested in entering should contact Richards at Huron Valley National Bank, Ann Arbor, 761-2211.

Workers can steal by doing nothing when they are supposed to be working, but most of them don't look at it that way.

Carol L. Cattell, Justice Marshall Wed Saturday

Carol Lee Cattell of 138 Van Buren St. and Justice Marshall of 4770 Peckins Rd., exchanged marriage vows during a 7 p.m. ceremony Saturday, March 30 at St. Paul United Church of Christ. The bride is the daughter of Wilson (Bud) Lawson of Fort Smith, Ark., formerly of Chelsea, and the late Ruby Lawson. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Marshall of Manchester.

Wearing a full-length, aqua peau de sole gown, with three-quarter-length sleeves, the bride carried a round colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. A peau de sole rose held her short veil.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Joel Knaus of 90084 Old US 12, was attired in a floor-length peau de sole gown with a peacock blue bodice and an aqua skirt. Her colonial bouquet was composed of white and aqua carnations.

Cleodius Marshall of Manchester, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushering for the ceremony were Douglas Marshall and Akel Marshall, both of Manchester and brothers of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige shantung dress and matching lace coat, with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the American Legion Hall, Cavanaugh Lake. Assisting at the reception were four sisters of the bridegroom, Virginia Marshall of Manchester, and three sisters of the bride, Mrs. Delores Haffey of Chelsea cut the cake, and Mrs. Margaret Steele of Ann Arbor served coffee.

The couple will reside at 4770 Peckins Rd., following a one-week trip to northern Michigan and Canada.

For her traveling costume, the bride chose a yellow and white A-line dress with a matching white coat. Yellow accessories and a corsage of white roses from the bride bouquet completed the outfit.

A graduate of Chelsea High School, the new Mrs. Marshall was employed by Stop & Shop, Chelsea, before her marriage. Her husband graduated from Manchester High School and is a foreman at Dana Corp.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

SECOND GRADE—
Teacher, Mrs. Adams
We saw a film on "How Plants Grow." It was colorful and interesting. We read about how to plant seeds in our science book. It sounded easy so we decided to plant our own seeds.

We put dirt in paper cups and jars. We planted sunflowers, zinnias, marigolds, beans, petunias and bachelor buttons. We hope they all grow so our room will look like a garden.

THIRD GRADE—
Teacher, Mrs. Lees
Reporter, Jeff Eder
Last week in art we made some kites out of paper bags. Some children have tried them out. We have just started multiplication and division. We just completed studying about the telephone. After seeing five films about the telephone we practiced conversation on real telephones, in class. In social studies we are learning about other messengers such as the radio and telegrams. Telegraph machines use dots and dashes; A is a dot and a dash; B is a dash and three dots.

FOURTH GRADE—
Teacher, Mrs. McCullough
Reporter, Lynette Schiller
We are studying how steel is made in social studies. In math we have done the 1,2,3,4,5,6,7, and 8's we started last week. In science we just got done learning about the moon. Last week we went to the planetarium. We are having a dinosaur race in weekly readers.

In art we are doing clay work. We were doing finger painting. It was fun doing art.

FIFTH GRADE—
Teacher, Mrs. Cox
Reporter, Danny Foytik
This semester we have been a little busy. We have been studying space. We learned that men in space use plastic tubes to eat and drink. We are also learning about the weather. We are making air temperature charts. March 28 (in the morning) it was 53 degrees out. Duane Luck brought in a weather station which helps us find the wind speed and direction, relative humidity and air pressure.

Teacher, Mrs. Maxwell
Reporter, Pierre Gonyon
On March 25 Mrs. Maxwell's class had a debate between the Northern states and the Southern states as it might have been in 1861. We drew cards out of a box. Some people drew anti-slavery cards and others drew slavery cards. Then for a week we studied and gathered information. Then we had a debate between Southern cotton growers and Northern businessmen.

On March 27 we started our Meteorology Department. At 10:20 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. we check the temperature, wind direction, wind speed, humidity, and precipitation and record it on a chart.

Teacher, Mrs. Winklo
Reporter, Chris Rabbitt, Dan White
In science we are studying weather. We are studying about the instruments which are used to predict weather. Some of the instruments are a barometer which tells how fast the wind is blowing, barometer, which tells air pressure, and the thermometer which shows the temperature. We have a weather chart. We are keeping a record of the weather each hour, every day. We are also studying about clouds. We have studied about these clouds: cirrus, thundrhead, cumulus, nimbus, and stratus.

SEA-DARK
Almost all deep-sea life is either jet black or scarlet in color. This is because there is eternal darkness in the great depths of the oceans, so wide varieties of colors are comparatively valueless and almost non-existent.

DRY HAIR
Forget your shower cap? A few wrap-arounds of plastic wrap will keep curls dry and at the same time not flatten your hair-do.

To keep your throw rugs in place, just paste or tape rubber jar rings or small pieces of foam rubber to the underside corners of the rug.

Homemaking Hints

A new type of Lycra, said to be non-yellowing, has been developed. It reportedly resists yellowing in washers and driers and even when exposed to bleach.

Keep knives sharp with care. Wash them separately. Don't pile knives up with utensils or silverware in a dishwasher or a sink. Wash a knife as soon after using as possible. Store knives in a wooden rack on the wall or in a drawer. Filing them together dulls or nicks cutting edges.

Nothing freshens up porches like hanging baskets of trailing plants suspended from beams or rafters. Plunge the flowering or foliage plant, clay pot and all, into a wire basket lined with damp peat moss. The clay containers will keep plant roots cooler during hot summer days, while needed moisture is absorbed through porous pot walls.

John Hand Studies One Semester in Nation's Capital

John Hand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hand of North Lake, has returned to Morningside College, Sioux City, Ia., from a semester of study at American University, Washington, D. C.

Chosen to take the special studies on the basis of academic aptitude and interest in national events, the Morningside College senior was able to make an in-depth study of the United States national government while attending American University. Hand observed the processes of national policy-making, met political and government leaders, attended sessions of Congress and studied Supreme Court procedures.

Mingling with students from 50 of the nation's colleges and universities was a stimulating experience, the Sioux City collegian reported. Students attending the Washington semester were "challenging, resourceful, friendly and some of the greatest individuals you will ever meet in your life," Hand commented.

Hand, who was named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" at Morningside College this year, is a student of Dr. Albert Sellen, professor of history and political science at Morningside.

Dr. Sellen said that "this is a continuing program" and that other Morningside students may attend subsequent studies in New York and Washington. A London semester also is contemplated in which students would observe processes of the British government.

Advisory Board Will Keep Chart Spaulding Programs

(Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles on the Spaulding for Children program, explaining its philosophy, purpose and goals. The series will explore the need of the children to be served by the new agency and how the program expects to meet these needs.)

The adoption process for hard-to-place children is an extremely difficult one. Social agencies throughout the country which are involved with adoption find that it takes at least three to five times as long to place difficult-to-place children as it does to place more infants. The child and the adoptive family must be brought together. The obligations of parenthood must often be interpreted to adopting couples.

If other child-placing agencies have made so little progress in placing older children, children of mixed racial backgrounds, children with emotional or physical handicaps, why could Spaulding for Children expect to succeed in this? The answer lies in the ability to focus its attention on the task of recruiting adoptive couples and placing children in adoption rather than the many other functions that the typical child welfare agency must perform.

The key to Spaulding's potential is its commitment to finding homes for those children whom other agencies have found most difficult to place. By concentrating on the area of adoption, a significant breakthrough may be made in finding permanent homes for children in need of adoption.

A further reason that Spaulding will succeed is its willingness to draw upon the experience of other child-placing agencies. Progressive policies and procedures, as well as program flexibility, will give added strength to Spaulding.

The agency has organized an Advisory Board to provide guidance to the Board of Directors in the operation of the agency. Rather than assuming that the local community can provide all the skills and leadership that such an ambitious project requires, experts throughout the state will be called upon to serve on the Advisory Board. The membership of the Board will be limited to persons with social welfare training or background and to business, academic, legal and financial leaders who will give guidance to Spaulding. By using experts who will serve the agency without compensation, a wide range of competent persons can help in the planning and direction of the agency.

Spaulding for Children recognizes that finding permanent homes for hard-to-place children will require the support and assistance of established child-placing agencies. Through the Advisory Board, the people who work on the frontiers of child placing will be able to pool their experience to guide the development of an agency that can fill the gap in child placement. The Advisory Board will also take responsibility for interpreting the work of Spaulding to other child welfare agencies, courts, and public officials.

Members are appointed to the Advisory Board by the Board of Directors, with the approval of the Board. The term of office is for two years. The chairman of the Advisory Board is selected by the Board of Directors and other officers are elected by the Advisory Board. The chairman of the Advisory Board is an ex-officio member of the Board of Directors. The Rev. John M. Fall, administrator of the Chelsea Methodist Home, has been appointed chairman of the Advisory Board.

The Chelsea community is fortunate to have this progressive child-placing agency organized here. Its progress will be promoted by those persons who bring expert advice to Spaulding's Board of Directors. By drawing upon the information and services produced by other agencies, Spaulding can devote its funds and efforts to the placement of difficult-to-place children.

Billy, age 6, is one of the numerous children who wait. He has been waiting for all of his six years and is considered hard to place because of a hard-of-hearing problem resulting from a serious ear infection when he was two. Billy very much needs a home of his own. The members of the Advisory Board will help to interpret the needs of Billy to the community. Because of the efforts of the Spaulding program, Billy may yet find that home where he belongs.

Basketball Banquet Closes Out Season for Junior High Teams

The first Junior High Basketball Banquet was held Monday evening, March 25 in the Chelsea High school cafeteria. Present were seventh and eighth grade basketball players, their coaches, Ron Milligan (seventh) and Barry Sheldon (eighth) and the Junior High cheerleaders and their sponsor, Miss Diana L'Roy.

Guests at the banquet included Junior High Principal Alan Conklin, Mrs. Sheldon, Mrs. Milligan and John Thomson, Toastmaster for the occasion was Wayne Welton.

Tom Villeneuve, assistant basketball coach at the University of Detroit and guest speaker for the evening, was introduced by his nephew, Mike Thomson.

Following the dinner, certificates were awarded to the cheerleaders and players. Receiving cheerleading certificates from Miss L'Roy were Carol Dietle, Cindy Leach, Vicki Pratt, Teri Blacklaw, Judy Grau, Karen Johnson and Kathy Leach.

Seventh grade boys who were given certificates of merit were Daniel Bertke, Donald Conklin, Jeffery Daniels, John Gilbert, Douglas Hillman, Douglas Hansen, William Harrison, David Layhe, George Lovely, Timothy Lancaster and John Mann.

Also receiving certificates of merit were seventh graders Jonathan Marzies, Mark Montague, Mark Policht, Craig Ratcliffe, William Schafer, Jeffrey Schmidt, Daniel Schulze, Steve Siebert, Tom Stock, William Tite, Tim Wade, Barton Weimitz, Kim Wilkerson and Tim Wilkerson. Phil Carpenter was awarded a manager's certificate.

Each team then presented its coach with a trophy.

Mrs. Paul Mann and Mrs. Robert Daniels were in charge of the banquet. Food was furnished by mothers of the players.

The banquet marked the end of the basketball season for the Junior high athletes. The seventh grade team compiled a 6-3 record for the year. Although the team lacked over-all height, it compensated for this lack with an aggressive defense and good ball handling. Balanced scoring and good depth at each position added to the efficiency of the team.

A deer darted out into the path of Frederick J. Wagner's car Tuesday, March 20 at approximately 9 p.m. as Wagner was driving west on Dexter-Chelsea Rd. near Freer Rd.
