Washington Report
 by Congressman
MARVIN L. ESCH

Recently it was my privilege to host some 100 students and teachers from 23 area high schools at the first annual Congressional Youth Forum held on the campus of Eastern Michigan University. I was very pleased at the response to this first effort and very encouraged and impressed by the intelligent and rational discussions these young people generated about our national problems.

On Vietnam, the students expressed their alternatives—some for an immediate withdrawal, others for a limited commitment, and still others for a complete withdrawal. Most students agreed that this was the most publicized war in history and that more people know more about it than any other war involving this country. The sentiment was expressed by some, however, that we were being told only what the government wanted us to hear. The need for better education for the South Vietnamese people and better communication between them and the people of the United States was stressed. Also mentioned was the desirability of channeling our efforts towards helping the South Vietnamese to help themselves.

The young people in the draft workshop heard the history of conscription in this country during the Civil War and an explanation of how the present system works. Then they continued forth various alternative policies of their own design. Among the alternatives discussed were the development of an all-voluntary military, utilization of a lottery system, substitution of social service such as in AUSTIA for the purpose of military service. The great law of culture is that we become all that we serve. Let each become all that he is, and the development of an all-voluntary military, utilization of a lottery system, substitution of social service such as in AUSTIA for the purpose of military service.

Floating Laboratory
 Problems and behavior of Great Lakes marine life can be studied with greater precision because of a new Michigan Department of Conservation work vessel. The ship, christened "Steelhead" May 2, is a 63 ft. steel hulled, floating laboratory.

It is equipped with modern electronic gear, has a range of 1,000 miles and can remain at sea for five days. The Steelhead has a crew of three: a captain, a marine biologist and a fisheries aide who also serves as a deck hand. The ship is permanently assigned to the department's fisheries division.

Rehabilitation of sport fish in Great Lakes waters prompted construction of the vessel. According to Conservation Director B. A. MacMullan, scientific management of such a large-scale program encompasses far more than just planting fish from state hatcheries. "We need to know about migration patterns, food utilization habits of fish, survival levels of planted fish and contributions to fish population made by hatcheries as compared to natural reproduction," he said.

Location and numbers of forage fish, such as the alewife, must be determined if sport fish like the coho, chinook and lake trout are to have an adequate food supply. Data collected on the Steelhead will provide this information.

A biological laboratory on the engine room deck is equipped to handle dissection and other tests necessary to determine age and growth of fish, parasitic activity, food analysis, sex and scale examination. A freezer preserves tissue samples for later investigation of pesticide residue.

MacMullan points out that the Great Lakes suffered virtual elimination of all sport fish in recent years. The tragedy, coupled with exploitation of some commercial fisheries, set the stage for an expedition of alewives and other forage fish.

The primary objective of introducing new predators to the Great Lakes waters is to reverse this ecological imbalance and develop new game fish for Michigan sportmen.

Some legislators question the value of the Steelhead at her $105,000 price tag. MacMullan recalls numerous "jokes" passed among some of the lawmakers. "They weren't very funny," he says.

Michigan is the second Great Lake state to have such a vessel. Ohio already has one in operation. MacMullan expects others to follow suit. The Steelhead will be based at Charlevoix and will operate in Lakes Michigan, Huron and Superior.

Fraud Alert
 Another warning was issued by Attorney General Frank J. Kelley to Michigan residents. Kelley notes that two promotional notes that defraud consumers are gaining momentum in the state.

Home fire alarm systems and "free" stereos are the latest gimmicks used by fast-talk artists and unscrupulous operators.

"Fire alarm systems can be of value when sold and installed by reputable companies. But the confidence man goes door to door, usually using the 'old referral sales pitch,' Kelley says, and tries to wear down the consumer with high pressure sales tactics. Kelley cites one case where such an alarm, mounted directly above the furnace, failed to function even when the furnace blew up!

"Lucky winners" of "free" stereos need only purchase four LP records a month for 15 months to receive their "prize." Total cost about twice what the stereos and records would have cost had they been purchased separately.

State Income Tax Rebate to Counties Is $1.52 Per Person
 State Representative Thomas G. Sharpe (R-Howell) today announced the first quarterly distribution of income tax funds to local governments in the 51st District, which he represents.

Under the law, each county will receive $1.52 per person, with 50 percent of the total going to the county treasury, and the other 50 percent to be divided among the cities, villages and townships in the county on a population basis.

"In the 51st District, income tax rebates amounting to $57,805.60 will go to Livingston county and $258,044.32 to Washtenaw county," Sharpe explained. His district includes 12 townships in western Washtenaw county.

"State Treasurer Allison Green has indicated that these payments should be in the hands of county treasurers by the end of May. As soon as the county treasurers can process them, the funds will be distributed to cities, villages and townships."

Representative Sharpe added that if the returns from the income tax remain near their present level an approximate total of $6-per-person will be refunded to Michigan's counties over the entire year.

The total disbursement to local governments under the tax formula for the first quarter will be $11,946,348. This is figured on adjusted census figures showing Michigan's population to be 7,793,650.

SEA MEANIES
 More than 200 species of ocean fish are known or believed to be venomous. Among them are the stingrays, scorpion fish, and certain sharks.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:
 DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 Ed Daulton came to the session at the country store Saturday night loaded with pieces he had cut out of the newspapers. Ed said he wanted to explain to the fellows why we ain't understood by other countries. He claims it's on account of we speak only in the code language.

For instance, he had this piece where the State Department said we wanted to "stabilize the nuclear relationship." He said he worked on this one a whole day and finally decided this means if we get stabilized we can blow them countries up at the same time they was blowing us up. And he was of the opinion we was getting a lot of this code language from the Pentagon boys, said he could recollect when they had a Viet Cong prisoner and it was reported they had used the "aerial suspension dynamics" method. And he told the fellows we had all saw her a couple months ago where "it became necessary to destroy the town in order to save it."

But the prize piece Ed bring to the store was one from the Department of Commerce and he give it to me to pass along to you, Mister Editor. This piece was one they had sent out to all the Commerce offices and it said "optimism maddening of grant applications imperativizes receipt of Forms 503. In close association with the application forms, the necessary grants should seek to insure that completed Forms 503 accompany the applications rather than arrive as discrete and perhaps tardy components. Otherwise, the process loses its homogenous ambience."

The column writer that was printing the piece said he had it figured out that the Commerce folks was trying to say fer people to send in Form 503 when they was applying fer loans.

Zeke Grubb was agreed with Ed, said Government instructions these days was like the Bible. They was so many ways to figure the instructions that it was no wonder they was so many ways of doing things right and wrong. Zeke allowed as how they was hundreds of groups that use the Bible for a guide, and just about everybody reads the instructions different.

Bug Hookum said this whole mess coming out of Washington made him recollect that line where the feller "jumped on his horse and rode off in all directions."

All the fellows was general agreed that Ed had proved his point and we can't expect other nations to understand us when we can't understand nothing coming out of Washington.

Personal, Mister Editor, I left the session so mixed up I ain't shore if I was living in the right county or state, or even in the right house.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Turner Finds Civilization's Mark Marring Another Beautiful Spot

Kenora, Ontario
May 19, 1968

Kenora, Ontario
May 19, 1968
Chelsea friends:
I have covered some ground
last Thursday morning.
Thanks for The Standard.
Inside the door the morning light didn't expect that I left. I didn't expect that I would have it printed in the paper for my departure.
I stopped in Soo Canada to visit a friend of mine, Russell
Turner, who is in Plummer Hotel there.

After spending a restful night in Russell's son's place, I headed back on Queen's Highway No.
17, the trans-Canada highway.
The highway was opened in 1967 and is a very scenic route and the north shore of Lake Superior. Many quiet bays, flowing creeks and rivers, stunning rapids and waterfalls may be seen from the highway.

Many fishermen come here
each summer to try their luck at speckled trout and rainbows.
Although the streams look inviting, I am not doing fishing until I get to the Lake Superior.

On Friday night at a campground near Nipigon,
I watched the sun set over a beautiful bay of Lake Superior.
Leaves on the poplar trees were coming out and ice and snow are still on the ground under the pine trees.

From Nipigon I drove on to Port Williams. The highway heads west and the Lake of Kenora and the Lake of Wabigoon district. About 15 miles west of Port Williams is Kakabeka Falls, a pretty waterfall where the Kaministiquia rivers plunge through a narrow canyon, sending up a spray that covers the whole area. It is hard to get pictures of it because the spray covers the camera lens before you can focus and release the shutter.

When the sun is shining, you see a beautiful rainbow over the falls.
This river was used by the voyagers in their route from Lake Superior to the Lake of the Woods district. Beyond Kakabeka Falls was the first of the many portages the early

KAKABEKA FALLS, where Don Turner had to snap this picture hurriedly before the spray covered his camera lens, has a tourist information center, souvenir shop and coffee bar. Turner writes
"the spray from the falls quite often rises up, carried by the wind, and falls like a heavy rain on the entire area." He advises that anyone wear a raincoat to view the falls from outside the building.
Even while inside the visitor's center, it is sometimes difficult to see out since the spray covers the windows. The light arc in the lower portion of the picture is the rainbow visible when the sun shines.

voyageurs made with their canoes and supplies. It became known as the Mountain Portage and was used by many of the Canadian explorers.

From Kakabeka Falls, I pushed along west. I stopped at a place I discovered on my way through this part of Canada in 1968.

While following a small creek that crosses the highway, I found a pretty little waterfall with a pool at its base full of pickering and wall-eyed pike.
It was so quiet and peaceful there I just had to go back to see it again.

I am sorry I went this time, as things have changed. Although the water gurgled and sparkled as before and the white throated sparrow sang as sweetly as before, the pool below the falls was empty of fish. In their place was a dozen bear cans.

Someone had found this quiet place and was not satisfied with taking the fish. He had to leave his mark by throwing beer cans in the pool.
Will man ever learn to find and enjoy these gifts of God without leaving them unsightly afterward?

The point on the rocks along the highway is unsightly too.
Much of it is placed there by our younger generation. Perhaps we should stress more in our schools and youth organizations how wrong this practice is.

Well, I guess I had better run along. Maybe I will find another quiet spot to write about in my next article.

The Happy Wanderer,
Sour Dough, Don Turner.

Bob Barnham, scribe.

PACK 455—
Cub Scouts and mothers visited the Dewey School Museum, Monday, May 27. Everyone enjoyed seeing and learning about the old one-room schoolhouse. On May 5, the boys and their fathers spent the day transplanting pine seedlings on state land around Pie-ker Lake.

The monthly pack meeting was held at North school on May 23.
The meeting opened with a flag ceremony presented by Cubs from Den 15. Uniform inspection was held with Harold (Bill) Baker and Robert Roy acting as judges.
Cubs presented skits on the theme, "Davey Jones' Locker."

Cubmaster Richard Kalmbach presented Forester Awards to Webelos boys Steve Klink and Douglas Kalmbach. Den 13 and Webelos each received 100 percent attendance awards. Fred Klink led the Cubs in games following the retiring of the colors.

SHORT HAUL—
Of the families that move in one year, about half simply move to another house in the same town. Another quarter go to some other community in the same state. The rest move outside the state.

Postmaster Lawrence Baughn of Pinckney and Hell Rural Station swore in the new clerk in charge, Lucile Reinhard, following the relocation of the summer branch post office from the Ranch House restaurant to the Den of Antiquity in the Chamber of Commerce

The red and white design on the more than 100-year-old barnlumber was the brain child of Postmaster Baughn, and was originally located on the property of his great-grandfather, Jacob Kice of Hamburg township. Some of the scroll material came from the property of his grandfather, Henry Kice, also of Hamburg township.

The yellow pine boards have stood the hundred-odd years very well and the finished product is most unique and attractive and will furnish an excellent target for the host of camera fans that invade Hell each summer.

apt to be thickest on the back on the north side.

Red Cross Offers Series of Practical Swim Safety Tips

Twenty percent of Americans who die in the water accidentally, the Red Cross said today.

Don't depend on an inflated inner tube or toy to hold you up. They may slip away from you.

Whenever a storm approaches, get out of the water—it is a conductor of lightning.

Dornbos also gave safety suggestions for skin diving, scuba diving, and water skiing.

Skin diving tips

Be in good health and a better than average swimmer.

Use equipment designed for skin diving, and learn how to use it.

Dive with a "buddy" and at all times know where he is.

Know and respect your limitations. Don't take chances.

Have flotation gear handy.

Know and respect the conditions of the diving areas.

Scuba diving.

The skin diving tips are applicable also to scuba diving. In addition, are these:

Use equipment designed for scuba diving; learn how to use it from a qualified instructor. Keep equipment in good condition, and examine it each time before using.

Water skiing tips

For skiers and boatmen:

Be a good swimmer before trying to water-ski.

Always wear an appropriate ski belt or life jacket.

Take instruction from a qualified ski instructor.

Stay away from all objects such as docks, sea walls, and boats. (Skiers seldom get hurt from hitting the water, but have been killed from hitting solid objects.)

Be thoughtful of the rights of swimmers, other boatmen, and fishermen.

When landing, come in slowly, and release the tow bar a safe distance from shore. Do not land in swimming areas.

Always test equipment before using.

Have one person in the boat at all times to watch the skier. Skiing areas are becoming more congested everywhere, and the boat operator must continually be alert.

Turn off engine when skier is in the water near the boat.

Know and practice the boating "rules of the road."

GIFT FOR WHEELCHAIR: Mrs. Iza Carty of Chelsea, state hospital chairman for the Department of Michigan Ladies' Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, presented a check for $100 Thursday, May 23, to Ypsilanti State Hospital for the purchase of a wheelchair to be used for transporting paraplegic patients to off-station activities. The check was accepted for the hospital by Dr. Joseph Mann, director, adult psychiatry and clinical services, and Mrs. B. Bancroft, geriatrics supervisor.

Teen-Agers Need Help in Forming Good Money Habits

Money is an integral part of teen-agers' lives as it is of the lives of parents, claims Mrs. Helen Fairman, Co-operative Extension Service home economist serving Washtenaw, Monroe and Lenawee counties.

"Surveys show that America's teen-agers have billions of dollars to spend each year," said Mrs. Fairman. "Learning to spend his share wisely can help your teen-ager become better equipped to solve many of the complex problems of his adult life. You can provide training in establishing sound financial habits."

Basic money spending habits should be formed before youngsters reach junior high school, possibly through the experience of managing an allowance, she said. By the time he is in his teens, a child should be able to comprehend the relationship between his own economic needs and the total family income and expenses. He should appreciate both what money can and cannot do.

"You can expect young people to want to spend money in much the same way as other members of the same age group," commented the home economist. "There is the constant question as to when to let your teen-ager stand on his own and accept the consequences, good or bad, and when to impose your own judgment."

"If you are looking for ways to counteract group influences you feel are not desirable, one of the most effective ways is to have set a good example all along by taking needs, wants and income of the family into consideration when making your own decisions. If you plan your own spending, it is easier to convince your teen-ager he should plan."

Mrs. Fairman suggested that parents encourage their teen-agers to make their own decisions, earn money, spend it, save it, and keep records of their financial transactions. Saving and spending should be viewed not as ends in themselves, but as steps to desired goals.

Above all else, Mrs. Fairman reminded parents that youngsters need help in establishing a personal money management policy. Suggestions to aid in this important task are available for parents of teen-agers in a new publication, "Money World of Your Young Teen-ager," available from the Co-operative Extension Service office in Room 116, County Building, Ann Arbor.

State Police Preparing for Long Holiday

Special holiday traffic patrols will be operated by the Michigan State Police for the four-day Memorial Day week-end starting at noon Wednesday, May 29, Col. Frederick R. Davids, department director, reported.

Davids noted that traffic accidents in the five major holiday periods in 1967 claimed 182 lives in Michigan, 43 of them charged to Memorial Day week-end mishaps.

Even with an expected rise in traffic volume, motorists can reduce chances for holiday accidents by increased alertness to hazards and by more vigilant observance of safety rules, he stressed.

"Sensible driving practices can and do contribute to safer holiday motoring," he said. "These include driving at reasonable speed, giving proper signals for maneuvers, following other traffic at proper distances, passing only when safe to do so and by refraining from driving after drinking."

State Police vehicle inspection personnel and department planes, weather permitting, will participate in the patrolling which will continue until midnight Sunday, June 2.

Maximum patrol coverage will be provided from 3 to at least 9 p.m. each day of the holiday period. Special attention will be devoted to sections of highways having had accident experience.

Pass days for uniform post personnel which normally would occur on May 29, 30 and June 2 will be rescheduled in order to have post patrol manpower at the highest levels for those days.

INVESTIGATORS from the Stanford University School of Medicine and the California State Department of Public Health have linked the virus that causes common measles to an invariably fatal form of encephalitis that affects as many as 200 children and young adults in the United States each year.

Research findings point to measles virus as the cause of encephalitis and have led to the postulation that the disease may be a consequence of a latent or chronic infection with a measles virus that has been reactivated.

Work Starts on Scenic Drive Near Brimley

BRIMLEY—Ground was broken near here recently for the start of construction on a 3.5-mile section of the Lake Superior Scenic Highway.

Wallace D. (Mike) Nunn, Highway Commission vice-chairman, and Henrik E. Stafseth, state highway director, participated in the ceremony on Spectacle Lake Overlook west of here.

In brief remarks, Nunn said the project represents the first construction on a 450-mile system of Great Lakes scenic highways outlined in the 1960 Highway Needs Study conducted by the Department of State Highways in cooperation with the cities and counties.

Extending west from Lake Shore Drive west of Brimley, the road will provide access to the Lake Superior shore near the mouth of Naomikong Creek in the Hiawatha National Forest, permitting development of user facilities near an almost deserted archeological site on Naomikong Point.

The road will incorporate the latest thinking in location and design, making use of the natural shoreline environment and providing a guide for future development of scenic highways in Michigan and the nation.

Nunn said plans call for award of a second contract next year for extension of the Lake Superior route west for another 3.5 miles, and for completion of the highway between Brimley and M-123 near the Tahquamenon River, a distance of about 30 miles, in 10 years.

Construction across the Hiawatha National Forest is being financed from Federal Forest Highway Funds with technical assistance and planning by the Department of State Highways.

I. L. Whitehead Co. of Sault Ste. Marie, is contractor on the initial project, costing $637,007.

During the regular school year of 1967, more than 15,000 Michigan youngsters and their teachers learned first hand about natural resources by camping in outdoor centers managed by the Conservation Department. They came from more than 150 schools, representing over 50 school districts.

Yellow perch spawn in early spring. Eggs come in ribbons which are draped over vegetation growing in shallow bays.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

"Mother was a marvelous person." . . . "Dad was a swell guy." . . . "He was a good boy." . . . "She was an angel." . . . "Too bad Dad isn't here; he would have enjoyed." . . . "If only Mom had lived to see." . . . "How time flies; seems like only yesterday he (or she) was with us." . . .

These and similar thoughts will be heard on Memorial Day when millions of people tread the close cropped sod of cemeteries. The words and thoughts are always with us when we humbly decorate the graves with a mixture of respect and regret.

The words and thoughts come to us from the stillness of a grave that somehow seems to whisper of the past. The words and thoughts prove fond memories can never crumble into dust, can ever stain or destroy our love for our departed. Far, far more important, the words and thoughts illustrate that the God-given gift of memories proves once again there is eternity in us. We share this eternity in life as well as in death.

Track Team Wins League Title

Chelsea High track team triumphed over six other conference teams in the Southeastern Conference track meet, May 29, and pulled the conference title out of the hat for the second straight year.

Chelsea had been tied with Dundee for first-place standing in dual meet competition, but Chelsea clinched the title at the conference meet.

The Bulldogs' nearest competitor at the conference meet was Dundee with 38 points. Chelsea scored 47 points. Following these teams were Milan with 37 points, Dundee with 38, South Lyon with 31, Saline with 24 and Lincoln with 13.

Six league records were smashed at the meet. Larry Gaken set a new shot put record with a toss of 48' 8 1/2", breaking the old record of 46' 6". A new high jump record of 5' 10 1/2" was posted by Gary Buckley of Milan, with Del Gregory of Dundee snatching a new broad jump record of 20' 9".

The final meet record was set by Ken Moffat of Dundee, winning the 440-yard run in :52.2. Although Chelsea won only three events—Gaken in the shot put, Larry Blackwell in the pole vault and Mike Lehmann in the low hurdles—the team had the depth to insure the win, noted Coach Bert Kruse.

Mike Lehmann was the lead point-getter for Chelsea, winning the low hurdles and placing second in the high hurdles for a total of 10 points.

League winners' and Chelsea finishers were: Shot put: first, Larry Gaken, 48' 8 1/2"; second, Jim Wojciecki, 48' 3 1/2".

Pole vault: first, Larry Blackwell, 12'; second, Jim Wojciecki, 11' 3".

Low hurdles: first, Mike Lehmann, 15.5; second, Ken Blaess, 15.8.

High hurdles: first, Gary Buckley (Milan), 5' 10 1/2"; second, Mike Lehmann, 5' 10".

Two-mile run: first, Mike Barland (Saline), 10:45.0; second, Ken Blaess, 10:45.1; third, Chelsea, 10:45.8.

880-yard run: first, Amos Keith (Milan), 2:04.3; second, Gary Larson, 2:07.5; fourth, Mike McGinn, 2:08.1.

440-yard run: first, Ken Moffat (Dundee), :52.2; second, Mike Lehmann, :52.3.

100-yard dash: first, Don Schwarck (South Lyon), :10.3; third, Mike Schnadt, :10.6.

180-yard low hurdle: first, Mike Lehmann, :20.5; second, Ken Blaess, :20.8.

220-yard dash: first, Don Schwarck (South Lyon), :23.3; fourth, Mike Schnadt, :24.0.

1-mile relay: first, Dundee, 3:38.2; second, Chelsea, 3:39.3.

Junior Champ Track Competition Postponed Again

Junior Champ track competition, sponsored by the Jaycees, has had its share of problems. First, the date had to be changed due to a conflicting schedule of track meets. Now, the date must be postponed once more because of a rain-soaked field—to Monday, June 3 at 4:30 p.m.

So far, 16 boys have signed up for the meet.

The annual District VII Spring meeting of the Michigan State University Association of Extension Homemakers was held Monday evening, May 20, at St. Andrew's United Church of Christ.

General theme of the program was weddings with more than 50 bridal gowns from the year 1880 to 1968 being modeled.

On display in the background were high button shoes, pantaloons, fashion magazines and newspapers from 1878.

Fourteen-year-old pianist James Renz of Ann Arbor, provided selections from Schubert and Mozart.

Elected as junior representative was Mrs. Gills Thiel of Ann Arbor.

Members and guests numbering 150 enjoyed cake and punch at a mock bridal reception following the business meeting and program.

BEER-DRINKING AT 18
Clearwater, Fla.—A Florida juvenile court judge has pronounced that 18-year-olds be allowed to legally drink beer in the state.

The judge argued that a 20-year-old, entrusted to fly multimillion dollar airplanes and fight on the battlefields of Vietnam, should be able to order beer.

and was not questioned at the scene because he is a juvenile. His mother or father must be present for police to question him.

The young man's mother, the Detroit Police Department and juvenile officer David DenHouter were contacted, and arrangements were made for detention at the Washtenaw County Juvenile Detention Home.

At the home, the young man signed the "Miranda Warning Card," a device used by police in which an arrested person signs after he acknowledges that he has been advised of his rights.

A petition for a hearing was made at the Home and the young man was ordered to appear in Juvenile Court in Detroit at 9 a.m. on May 27. He was released from the Home pending trial.

His case must be heard in the county of his residence since he is a juvenile.

Peebles' report to Chief Meranuck stated that the young man used a screw driver to pry the back door open. The juvenile wore gloves and carried a flashlight.

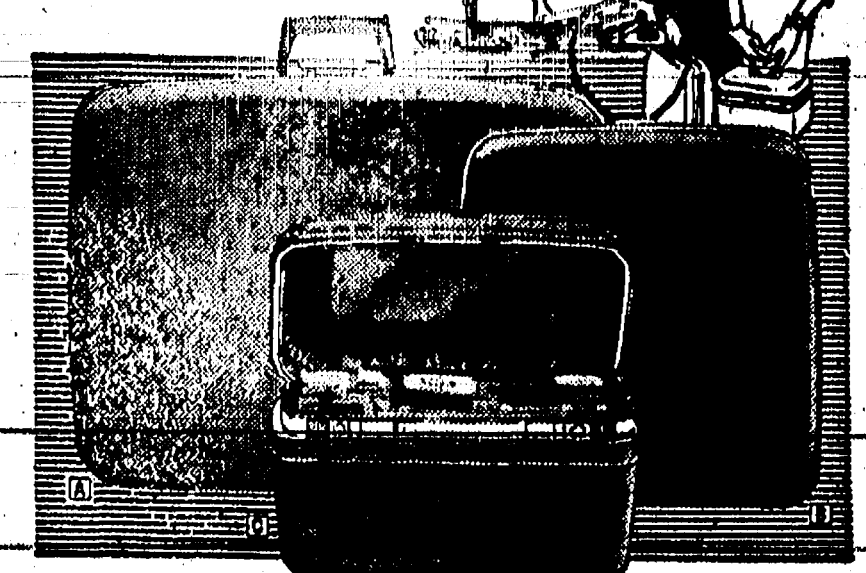

Peebles found one typewriter, a portable radio and many tools in the trunk of the unlicensed Buick and all the keys to the other cars in the glove compartment of the car. The keys to the Buick were in the ignition.

The police took as evidence a screwdriver, a pair of black gloves, a flashlight, a two-gallon empty gas can, a toy model car and a carton of cigarettes.

Chief Meranuck commented that Patrolman Peebles "was alert and did a good piece of work."

Position of Teachers Has Improved Some Since 1872

Teachers who complain about needing more money may have to do so in 1968. However, in 1872, in New York City, those entering the field of education had no worries, as they were guaranteed a 25 cent per week raise after five years of faithful service.

This was noted recently by Dr. Mary Huber of California State College, Los Angeles, along with several other rules set down by W. Northrup, a principal. The rules included:

1. Teachers each day will fill lamps, clean chimneys, and trim wicks.
2. Each teacher will bring a bucket of water and a scuttle of coal for the day's session.
3. Men teachers may take one evening each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week, if they go to church regularly.

4. After 10 hours at school the teacher must spend the remaining time reading the Bible or other good books.

5. Women teachers who marry or engage in unseemly conduct will be dismissed.

6. Every teacher should make good sum of his earnings, his benefit during his teaching years so that he may not come a burden on society.

7. Any teacher who smokes liquor in any form, gets shaved in a barber shop will give good reason to respect his worth, intentions, integrity and honesty.

8. The teacher who performs his labors faithfully and without fault for five years will be given an increase of 25 cents a week in his pay providing the board of education approves.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

PAIN & SORROW
Pain and sorrow seldom affect two individuals in exactly the same manner. How are you affected? Do you become bitter, or do you pray to God for the strength to continue?

Look about you. Observe, among your friends and acquaintances, how well or how poorly they meet the challenges of life. Surely you know someone who has "had more than his share" of misery or ill-fortune, yet mysteriously carries on with a stiff upper lip and a smile for the rest of the world. This is an individual with great inner strength, with courage.

And, perhaps, you know someone turned bitter and resentful by some defeat or misadventure, who may even blame God for self-imposed misery. This is someone in need of hope, in need of faith, someone who is without them destined for one miserable day after another.

As you walk the roadway of life, remember that you are never alone. Keep faith in God and seek the courage to always continue, to persevere. You may stumble, but you will never fall so low you cannot see the hope and the promise of a better tomorrow.

Portage Trails Council Granted National Award for Progress

Portage Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, composed of Scouts and leaders in Washtenaw and Livingston Counties, was one of 74 councils in Region 7 honored at a luncheon (Thursday, May 23) at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

Region 7 with councils in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin received the coveted Lorillard Spencer Trophy during the opening session of the 58th annual meeting of the National Boy Scouts of America Councils.

This is the second time Region 7 has won the trophy which is awarded for outstanding progress in Scouting.

Portage Trails, represented by Donald C. Hackney of Dexter, Gownell, President, and Clarence Doud, Scout Executive, has increased its membership within the past year from 5,414 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers to 5,691. In addition, there are 1,982 registered adult volunteer leaders.

This steady increase in membership in the council has dictated the current Scout Camp Development.

Trails Council annual Executive Board Meeting Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the North Campus Commons.

Other members of the Council Executive Board attending the Chicago meeting were: the Honorable James Breakley; Daniel S. Ling; Wyeth Allen; William McPherson IV; Floyd Fuller; Robert Kelley; Dr. Emerson Erb and Howard Conlon. Richard Dansingburg, Scout District Executive of Potowatami District and Charles Lamb of the Iroquois District were also in attendance.

Region 7 increased in membership within a year from 630,755 Scouts to 667,698. For the first time in the history of Scouting registered Scouts and leaders have reached the six million mark!

In 1940, the late Mrs. Lorillard Spencer, Sr., presented the trophy to the Boy Scouts of America in memory of her son, the late Lorillard Spencer, Jr., a charter member of the organization. As a pioneer he was president and Scout commissioner of the Manhattan Council in New York City.

The trophy, a beautiful silver pitcher was a wedding gift. The pitcher and a companion piece used by the Boy Scouts of the Philippines are valuable in themselves as art objects.

Staff Has Many New Names

Detroit—Almost without notice, the Tiger pitching staff has undergone a major overhaul in the last year.

Only four pitchers on the staff at the beginning of 1967 were still with the club at the start of 1968. They are the Tiger starting ace—Earl Wilson, Denny McLain, Joe Spaulding and Mickey Lolich. Every one else is new since opening day of last year.

The average age of Manager Mayo Smith's hurlers is 25.15 years. Its oldest member, Wilson, 32, is not old enough to be elected president, and the youngest, 20-year-old Les Cain, cannot vote. Lolich is 27; Pat Dobson, Fred Lasher, Dennis Ribant and Spaulding are 25; John Hiller, 25; McLain and Daryl Patterson 24; and Jon Warden 21.

Cain, Warden, Hiller, Lolich, Dobson and Spaulding were signed by the Tigers. Lasher signed with Minnesota and pitched briefly for the Twins in 1967. Ribant, a Detroit native, pitched his first season with the Milwaukee Braves. Patterson started his career as an outfielder with the Dodgers and was signed by the Red Sox as a catcher. McLain was drafted by the Tigers from the White Sox.

The Tiger hurlers are from seven states (one from Michigan), and another is a Canadian. McLain and Dobson were raised in New York. Warden and Spaulding are from Ohio. Cain and Patterson in California.

Lolich bled from Portland, Ore., as Leonard Kozma singled, was Major League. Lolich was born in Port Huron, Mich. He is the Canadian. He is from Scarborough, Ont., but now lives in Duluth, Minn.

Only two of the pitchers are under six feet and the same two—McLain and Ribant. Lolich is 6-11, 185, and Ribant is 6-1, 155. The only ones under 6-10 are the only ones under 150 pounds. McLain and Spaulding are the major leaguers in their second seasons of professional ball. The other four are in their first.

McLain and Spaulding pitched the major leagues in their second seasons of professional ball. The other four are in their first.

Baseball Team Loses 2 While Winning Once

Varsity baseball players have been having a rough time of it this year.

Last week Chelsea played three games, and last two. The win was over Stockbridge, 6-4; the losses to Lincoln, 9-8, and South Lyon, 18-1.

Chelsea played Lincoln on Lincoln's home ground on May 21. The fifth inning clinched the win for Lincoln when they broke loose for seven runs.

Craig Houle scored one for Chelsea in the first inning when he reached first on an error and, after a ground out, scored on a Lasher and Dobson were raised in New York. Warden and Spaulding are from Ohio. Cain and Patterson in California.

Chelsea tied it up in the fourth inning when Leonard Kozma singled, was Major League. Lolich was born in Port Huron, Mich. He is the Canadian. He is from Scarborough, Ont., but now lives in Duluth, Minn.

In the top of the fifth, Chelsea took the lead, 4-2. Again, Lincoln tied and matched Chelsea, surge ahead, 6-4.

That was it for Lincoln's score. Chelsea still peeked away at the lead, picking up one in the seventh, 6-5.

The seventh inning ended with the potential winning run on second.

Pitching for Chelsea was Craig Houle, Mike Gaken in the second and Ron Horst in the fifth.

A first league-leading South Lyon on May 23, Chelsea's attempt to turn the tide were fruitless. Chelsea pitched failed in the first inning. Coach Bareis used three pitchers before winning three outs from the big bats of South Lyon. Meanwhile, South Lyon had picked up 10 runs.

South Lyon battered Chelsea pitching for 15 hits and had the pitchers in trouble throughout the entire game.

Chelsea scored twice in the first inning when Craig Houle and Mike Gaken singled and Greg Stephens tripled them home; added one in the second as Art Farley reached second on an error and Doug Schoenberg sent him home on a single and scored the fourth and final run on a walk by Craig Houle and a double by Gaken.

On May 24, Chelsea traveled to Stockbridge and won, 6-4, behind the pitching of Jim Hercules, Ron Horst and Craig Houle.

Chelsea picked up three runs in the first after Doug Schoenberg and Craig Houle reached first on errors, Mike Gaken singled them home and scored himself on a passed ball.

The scoreboard lit up one more time in the second after singles by Jerry Craft and Craig Houle. A fifth run was added later when Greg Stephens singled, went to second on a sacrifice fly and scored on a throwing error. Rod Houle scored the final run with a homer into right field.

Stockbridge drove in three runs in the fourth inning before Ron Horst took over in relief and put down the rally. Craig Houle then came in and finished the game by holding Stockbridge runless.

Mrs. Lange Retiring from Teaching at Close of School

Fifth graders had done a lot of sleuthing behind Mrs. D. Lange's back, discovering that this was the last year she would be teaching.

They put their heads together with the room mothers, Mrs. Dunne, Mrs. Arden-Musker, and everybody sneaked in a pack of cake, popcorn, and "red pop" on May 24 to see Mrs. Lange at a retirement party in their South classroom.

When she saw the press coming down the hall, Mrs. Lange said, "The day I look at you have to show up," she patted her hairdo and said her tongue and shook her head, but she posed for the cameras.

"Just one, now," she said, and went back three more times for pictures. Each time saying that this must be the last one.

As she sat down to enjoy a slice of the cake, Mrs. Lange said, "I'm 33 years old," and she smiled each time she was asked for the inevitable questions.

"You've been teaching for 22 years," she said.

"I don't know for sure," she stated, "but that's close."

Finally she admitted that she taught 4th, 5th and 6th grades for 14 years in Chelsea, and she taught in Marysville for six years and Yale for two before coming to Chelsea.

And your plans after retirement?

"I'll be sitting home groaning," she said.

"I'll be doing nothing for a while," she said.

"My husband and I are planning to go to Hawaii this fall and maybe Japan," she said.

A contest to keep a balloon aloft with a string tied to a corner of the classroom.

"Children," she said firmly, "the balloon floated to earth. Fifth graders are at a good age," Mrs. Lange said. Not too young, she said.

Chief problem of the day was hair-lengths. "I've had a few children's haircuts," she added.

"Boys or girls?"

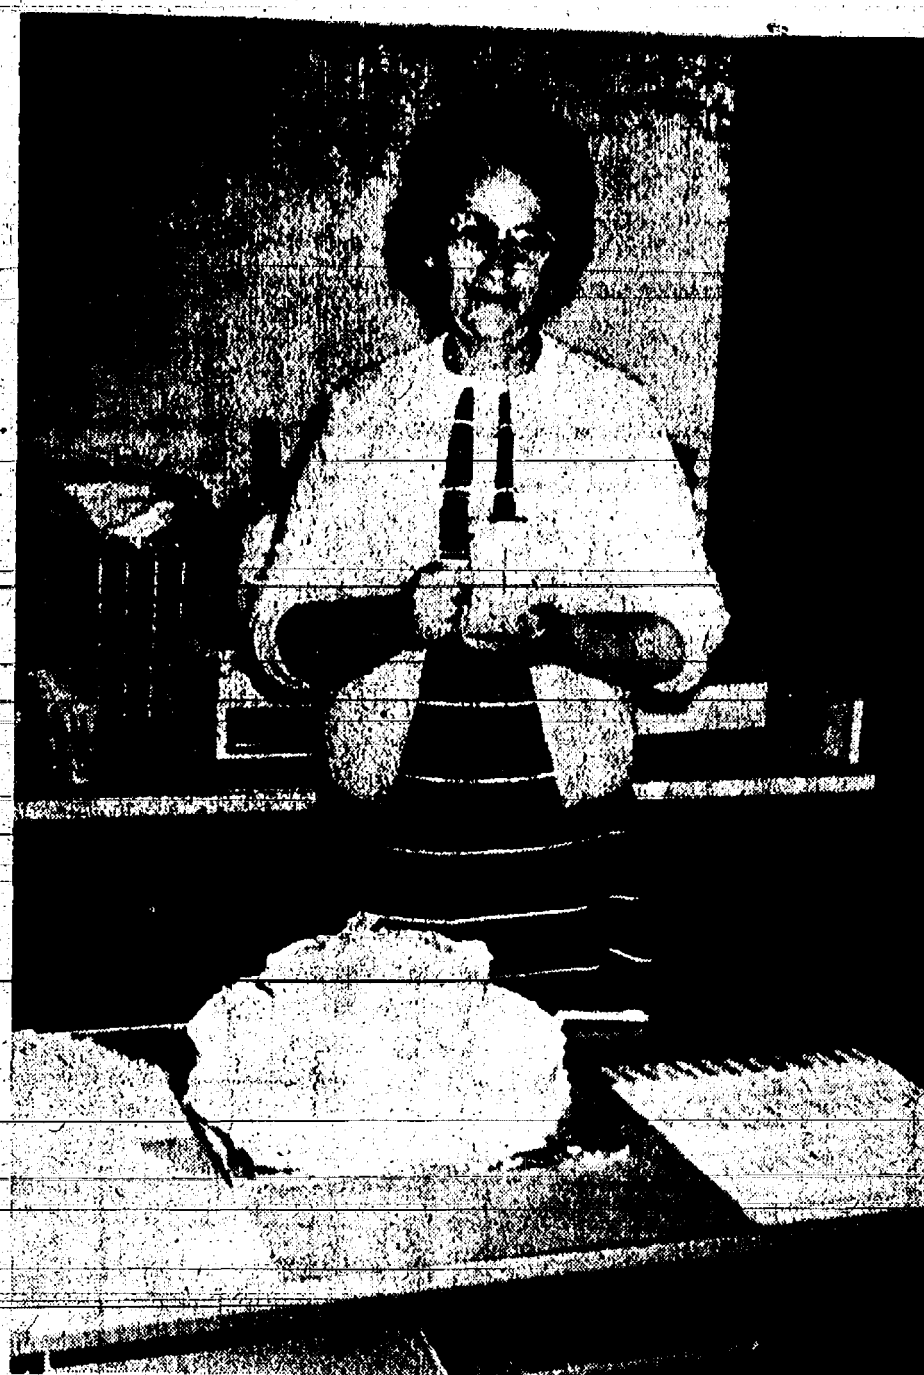

"Boys, of course."

Mrs. Lange has a quick wit and speaks in short, action-packed sentences.

On May 24 she was not about to give a straight answer to anybody. She was having too much fun at her party.

"You just make it sound good," she said.

No politician would accept any favors if there were not ready to give money or more.

Mrs. H. D. LANGE, a teacher in Chelsea for 14 years, retires this June after a 22-year teaching career. Her fifth graders at South school surprised her with a retirement party on May 24. Mrs. Lange stands here next to her pink-frosted cake holding a gift from her pupils.

Susan Garlick Earns Scholastic Honors

Miss Garlick was a sophomore at the time of the publication of the Dean's List and will be entering her junior year in the fall. She is a Spanish major.

WMU honors students who maintain a 3.5 grade point average on a 4.0 scale while enrolled in at least 14 hours by placing their names on the Dean's List.

SAVING

You don't have to hide your money in a piggy bank or bury it in the ground. See it into a money market. The safest place to keep your money is in a bank. Where you can still have it when you need it. And, we can't always find the right kind of a "safe" when we have immediate idea.

We have to spend money for the things we need, of course. But the simple truth is that we can "save" what we have by spending our money wisely.

Shopping for "bargains" is not the complete answer. And, we can't always find the right kind of a "safe" when we have immediate idea.

Gelman Earns

Presidential 'E' Award

The Gelman Instrument Co., has won the President's "E" award for contribution to the expansion of export trade of the United States. The company is one of 25 companies in Michigan and one of 830 firms in the nation who have won the award since its inception seven years ago.

Company President Charles Gelman received the award Friday, May 24, during ceremonies held at 11 a.m. in the company lunchroom, 600 S. Wagner Rd. Edward G. Smith, Chief of the Office of Industrial Equipment, United States Chamber of Commerce, will make the presentation.

Once given to plants making notable records in war production, the "E" award was revived by President John F. Kennedy to encourage the sale of goods in all world markets and to aid in eliminating the U. S. balance of payments deficit. The award consists of a certificate of merit and of a flag featuring a blue E on a field of white.

The Gelman Instrument Co. won the "E" award because of its increase in export sales from 4 percent of total company sales in January 1966 to 26 percent of company sales in March, 1968.

In comparing sales from August to March of 1967-68 to the same period of 1966-67, export sales increased in all areas. European sales rose 45 percent, sales for Australia-New Zealand soared 24 percent and sales for Canada rose 21 percent. For the first time, sizeable penetration was made in markets in South East Asia, Africa, and the Pacific Islands.

The Gelman Instrument Company now boasts a network of some 70 foreign distributors who carry Gelman products. Stocking distributors are located on all five continents.

At the reception in the church Social Center following the ceremony, Mrs. Ronald Ferry cut the wedding cake, Debbie Garton served the bridegroom's cake, Mrs. Richard Loring poured coffee, Mrs. John Warren poured the punch and Connie Pucker took charge of the guest book.
