Sidewalk Days Sale Slated In August

Chelsea Chamber of Commerce members heard a presentation from Mrs. Virginia Holt of Ann Arbor, a representative of Welcome Wagon International at their luncheon meeting on June 18 at the First Congregational church.

A Welcome Wagon branch is being considered for the Chelsea area. Welcome Wagon members in communities welcome newcomers, or extend congratulations to families on special occasions, such as the birth of a baby. Baskets of gifts are also presented. Local business or civic organizations sponsor the Welcome Wagon branch in their localities.

The Chamber of Commerce also decided to hold a Sidewalk Days sale, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 16 and 17, to re-paint the signs on I-94 with luminous paint, and to buy an assortment of new street Christmas decorations to replace some of the older pieces.

Summer Rec. Program Starts Next Monday

Full Slate of Usual Activities Offered Plus New Youth Dramatics Program

A curious individual might be seen roving the streets and playgrounds of Chelsea this summer. He will be anywhere from four to six (or so) feet tall and will be wearing, most probably, a swim suit. Each of his tender feet will be adorned with deliberately scuffed-up new tennis or track shoes. One delicate hand will grip a tennis racket, the other a baseball bat. A baton might be clenched tightly between his teeth for lack, of course, of a more convenient place. Pencils and crayons protrude boldly from back pockets. And, perchance, you might catch him bobbing up and down on a trampoline or practicing "enter, left and exit right" with dramatic flair.

It's The Kid.

The Kid wants to do the summer up big.

If you are a Kid, or know of one, lend an ear.

Despite early problems over a lack of instructors, Chelsea's 1968 summer recreation program will get underway Monday, June 24, and will continue through Aug. 3.

Some of the activities that were offered last year do not appear on this year's line-up; however, some new ones do appear, and some of last year's programs have been expanded by adding more instructors.

Most notable, perhaps, is the inclusion of a dramatics program to be directed by David Knisely. Program director Richard Bareis urges all young people interested in taking part in the summer recreation program to register Monday, June 24 at the time each activity is slated to begin. However, he said, it is not a requirement to register at the first meeting and children should feel free to join at any time during the program.

Bareis explained that again this year participants are asked to buy a recreation card costing $1.50, or a family recreation card for $4.50. The family card covers all the children of one family.

A recreation card will admit children into all summer activities, except the swimming program which, again, costs 25 cents a trip. For recreational swimming, children must also show a note from home giving them permission to swim. Bareis pointed out that if a child pays 25 cents in the morning for swimming instruction, he does not have to pay to swim in the afternoon.

Following is a schedule of events for the 1968 summer recreation program, beginning June 24 and lasting until Aug. 3.

ARTS AND CRAFTS—From 9 to 11:45 a.m. Monday through Friday, arts and crafts classes will be conducted at North and South schools. This year there will be an adult instructor at each school all morning. Mrs. William Clark will supervise the program at North school and Mrs. Judy Park will be at the helm at South school. Registration will be held Monday, June 24, at each school. Age limits are 7- to 12-years old.

BASEBALL—Tee Ball for boys 7- through 9-years-old will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the high school from 6 to 7:30 p.m. This year the boys will be divided into teams which will have team jerseys, thanks to local merchants. Director Bareis is still looking for adults to coach each team.

SENIOR LITTLE LEAGUE ball for boys 10 through 13 years of age will be played Tuesday and Thursday at South school from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Games will be played on dirt infields. Boys will be divided into teams which will also be fitted with jerseys supplied by local merchants.

JUNIOR LEAGUE BASEBALL, for boys ages 13 through 15, will be played Mondays and Wednesdays at South school. This year Chelsea will have three teams in the league composed of boys from Manchester, Steadman, Norvell and Dexter. Games will last from 6 to 9 p.m. Any boy interested in playing Junior League baseball should contact Richard Bareis at 479-7466.

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL team will play in the Ann Arbor High school league again this summer, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. Games start this week. Interested high school students should contact Richard Bareis at 479-7466.

BATON TWIRLING—Classes will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday in the high school band room from 9 to 11 a.m. Shelly Baize will instruct. Enrollment begins Monday, June 24, in the band room.

DRAMATICS—David Knisely will teach a class in dramatics to any students entering grades 7, 8 or 9 in the fall. First meeting is Monday, June 24, at 1 p.m. in the junior high school gymnasium. Classes will meet four days a week, Monday through Thursday, for six weeks. The exact length of each session will depend on the number of students interested in the program. Students will participate in short skits and one-act plays.

GAMES AND ACTIVITIES—Two fun and games programs will be offered, one at North school, and one at South school. The (Continued on page five)

Little League Baseball Teams Need Recruits

Little League summer teams need bolstering, says Richard Bareis, summer recreation program director. Boys of ages 7 to 12 interested in swinging their bats this summer are urged to meet at the high school gymnasium Friday, June 21, at 7 p.m. to enlist in the program. If you are unable to attend on Friday, contact Bareis at 479-7466.

Mrs. Frances Ferry is a surgical patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. Mrs. Ferry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed. She is now recovering from surgery.

MRS. EFFIE SCOTT has turned operation of the Patty Ann Shoppe over to her daughter, Mrs. Helen Jane Kruse. Mrs. Scott says that although she will be happy to be relieved of the daily chores she plans to help out on a part-time basis for the few months.

Daughter Takes Over Business

Mrs. Effie Scott, owner of the Patty Ann Shoppe on Main St., recently turned the key to the store over to her daughter, Mrs. Helen Jane Kruse, and announced she will be leaving the store for a year.

Mrs. Scott will actually remain in the store for a year on a part-time basis to assist her daughter over the rough spots in the clothing buying and selling business.

"I wish Janey as much luck as I've had in the 11 years I've been here and I hope the patrons will still come into the store and be as good to her as they were to me," she said.

Mrs. Scott added, laughing, "I stay for a year to see that she doesn't make any grave mistakes—like going broke."

Mrs. Kruse said that she hadn't worked in the store for the last four or five years, although she has worked there before. "I've got a lot to learn," she said.

Firemen Called For Burning Auto on I-94

four unhurt in auto explosion. A Chicago man and three passengers in his car escaped injury Sunday, June 16 when their 1962 model car caught fire and exploded on I-94 in Seco township.

Sheriff's men said Willie D. Hentz, the driver, told them he felt something under his car give way and he pulled the vehicle to a stop. Hentz and his passengers got out of the car moments before it caught fire and exploded. Deputies said transmission parts apparently had fallen to the pavement while the car was in motion and sparks from their contact with the pavement set fire to the gasoline tank.

The Chelsea Volunteer Fire Department responded to a call to the blaze, which was on I-94 near Pratt Rd., but the flames destroyed the vehicle, deputies said.

J. Cameron Tells Kiwanians About Study in France

Some interesting facts and viewpoints drawn from his recent three-month stay in France were related by Jim Cameron to the Kiwanis Club June 17 meeting.

Cameron's stay in France was part of his curriculum program at Kalamazoo College where he is a junior. His foreign study included some classroom in French, which he described as "tough" during a challenging and inspiring period in a foreign country.

Kalamazoo College juniors go abroad if they are on the foreign study program to France, England, Nairobi or Sierra Leone.

Cameron lives with a French family and said he was impressed by the slower pace of life in France, by the French "indulgence" complex, by the lack of modern conveniences most Americans consider necessities (laundry is semi-automatic and showers are permitted only once a week), and by the understanding of others he

Council Briefs

Chelsea Village Council met in regular session Tuesday, June 18 during which a discussion was held with Henry Williams of 634 North Main Street regarding the possible construction of a screening fence between his property and the Lane Animal hospital.

The Rev. John Fall, Supt. of the Chelsea Methodist Home discussed the proposed retirement housing being considered by the Methodist Home. The Rev. Fall submitted drawings of the proposed units.

A letter was submitted to the council from the planning commission recommending that the properties owned by the Methodist Home, William K. Freeman, Katherine Wagner and Frank Staffan be rezoned from Agriculture to R-3 (Residential 3) except for a small parcel bordering on Wilkinsons St. The council will take action on the recommendation at its regular meeting of July 2.

Motion was made and approved to transfer the ownership of the Tavern and S.D.M. license with dance permit from Harold S. and Margie Demint to Howard and Gladys Miller.

A variance was granted to Thomas Smith to build a residence to within five feet of his east property line at 330 Washington St.

A discussion was held regarding the enforcing of the noxious weed law—a state law, and Police Chief George Maranuck was appointed as Noxious Weed Officer with authority to enforce the noxious weed law for a term of two years and until a successor is appointed and qualified.

Police Arrest Pair After High Speed Chase

Chelsea police arrested two men last week, one for reckless driving and the other, who had been in the car with the first man, because police had an outstanding warrant for his arrest.

While on patrol in the area of N. Main and Railroad Sts., Officers Ringe and Dawson observed a car traveling north on Main St. at what they termed a "high rate of speed." The patrol car pulled in behind the speeding car and followed the car out of town. The car speeded up again near N. Main and Sibley Rd.

The driver of the car, later identified as Carl Wireman of Fredville, Ky., refused to pull over even though police had switched on sirens and flashers. Farther north on M-52, Wireman increased his speed to 80 or 85 miles an hour, officers reported.

Officer Ringe, who was driving the patrol car, pulled up next to Wireman's car to attempt to bring him to a stop by the side of the road. Officers reported that the speeding car tried to run the patrol car off the road, forcing the patrol car to turn in behind Wireman's car and continue the pursuit.

Wireman finally stopped the car at the roadside 1/2 mile north of Waterloo Rd. on M-52.

Wireman and three passengers got out of the car. Wireman was arrested for reckless driving and Darrell Fletcher of 108 North St. on the outstanding warrant. The other two passengers, Arbie Shepherd, 313 Railroad St., and Daniel Miser of the same address, were returned home.

On June 18, Wireman and Fletcher were arraigned before Justice Rogers at 11 a.m. Both pleaded guilty to their respective charges. Wireman received a fine of $71 or 10 days in jail, and Fletcher was fined $61 or 10 days in jail. Wireman paid the fine. Fletcher took the jail sentence.

An auto break and enter complaint was filed with police by John L. Murphy of Jacksonville, Fla. Murphy was staying at the Sylvan Hotel and had parked his

R. Balmer Earns Doctorate In Mechanical Engineering

Robert T. Balmer, a native of Chelsea, received a doctor of science degree in mechanical engineering at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Va., Sunday, June 9.

After the commencement exercises, Mrs. Balmer held a graduation buffet dinner in honor of her husband at their home in Charlottesville. Dr. Balmer received congratulations and best wishes from his many friends and associates at the university.

Balmer has recently been awarded a NATO Visiting Professorship to the University of Naples, Naples, Italy. The professorship was given by the National Research Council of Italy in conjunction with the Division of Scientific Affairs of NATO. Balmer will stay in Italy from Sept. 1968 to Sept., 1969.

While in residence at the University of Naples, he will do research in theoretical and experimental continuum mechanics. Balmer will work under Professor Giovanni Astarita, chairman of the Istituto di Elettrotecnica at the university. Professor Astarita has published more than 60 scientific papers and is the author of two engineering textbooks.

Balmer was graduated from Chelsea High School in 1957 and received a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Michigan in June, 1961. He went on to re-

Don Turner Reports Finding New Type of Alaskan Beauty

Watson Lake
Yukon Territory, Canada
June 5, 1968

Dear Readers:

Since my last report at Fort Nelson, I have been rolling along up the Alaska Highway. I have stopped several times to try my luck at fishing. Most of the streams are fished out by the hundreds of tourists and residents that frequent the Highway.

I walked several miles up and down streams trying to find a place that still had a few fish left, but to no avail.

But the streams are not the only place to catch fish, so I am told. At Munche Lake, a spot of much beauty, I stopped to try my luck at catching lake trout. Munche Lake is famous for its large lake trout. Snow-capped peaks look down on the lake which is seven miles long, one mile wide and 100 feet deep at its greatest depth. The water is so clear you can see down for more than 40 feet. Lake trout, whitefish and grayling can be caught here.

I arrived just as the ice had left the lake, and the fishing was at its peak. In the early spring, the fish will go into the shallow water. It seems the oxygen is more abundant in shallow water in the spring. So, for a week or so, the lake trout bite like mad, and if the fish don't bite, you can still see them below the surface. This is more than some fishermen can stand. I had fun even when the fish were not biting just drifting along over the calm waters and watching the hundreds of fish in the shallows. Some were just huge, but they wouldn't bite.

There are several lodges and fishing camps in the area. This is also a good place to hunt for big game—many moose, sheep, sheep, bear and caribou are spotted here.

I stayed for three days at Wiebe's Camp. These hard-working people of the north can't be beat for their hospitality. Wiebe's Camp consists of a service station, cafe, cabins, trailer park and boat livery. It really keeps the Wiebe family on the jump now that the tourist season has started in earnest.

I never thought I would find so many tourists this early in the season. The campground was full of campers and trailers last week-end—and they have parking space for quite a few. On the north side of the lake the mountains are of a different type than on the south. The northern mountains are much newer, formed from lime rock that was once an old sea bottom. Through some subterranean upheaval, the mountains were raised. They advanced now to a height of 4,000 feet and very few trees grow on them. Many fossils are found here along the roadway where the Highway Department has cut into the banks to create farmland along the shores of the lake. Chain coral is the most sought-after by people interested in rocks.

Mrs. Wiebe took time out from her busy schedule to guide a couple from Arizona and me to a huge chain coral fossil she had found some miles from camp. It weighs over 300 pounds and is a beautiful specimen. I don't know if she will ever get it to their camp since there are no roads nearby to transport it and the area is so rugged and rocky even a jeep can't travel over it.

This whole area is so beautiful I wish I could share it with all the readers of The Chelsea Standard, and I hope you all will have a chance to come this way some day.

Aside from the mountains, there is another form of beauty I didn't overlook. It's found in the cafe, and I would have caught more fish if I could have cast my line from the cafe. This beauty is a college lass, Vicky Lee Franske of Vancouver, B. C., who works in the cafe for the summer, cooking, cleaning and tending the filling station. She said she climbs mountains in her spare time. Some day I will have to spend more time fishing on the lake.

I must be running along up the Highway now, but I will keep you posted.

Sourdough,
Don Turner.

DON TURNER displays an evening's catch of lake trout fished from Munche Lake along the Alaska Highway. "I wish I could share them with all of you," Turner writes.

THIS COLLEGE STUDENT, Vicky Lee Franske, of Vancouver, B. C., works in the cafe at Wiebe's Camp on Munche Lake. Turner met Miss Franske during his stay at the camp, but writes that she was "wise to the lures and lines of the Alaska Kid" and could not be included in his catch.

County OEC Sets Date To Elect Representatives of Poor People

Election of 12 representatives of the poor, and private agencies and organizations to represent the poor was announced today by Paul E. Wasson, chairman of the Washtenaw County Citizens' Committee for Economic Opportunity, sub-committee on election procedures.

According to Wasson, the elections will be held throughout the county on Sunday, June 30, in polling places to be designated. The polling places will be open from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m.

Mrs. Vera Bassett, an employee of the Washtenaw Office of Economic Opportunity in the Chelsea area, announced that she will hold a nominating meeting June 24, at 1 p.m. at her home, 17325 Waterloo Rd. "Anyone who wishes to run for the board will have someone available to nominate them," she said. "If they wish, candidates may be nominated at such a meeting instead of by presenting petitions."

Sylvan, Lyndon, Dexter and Lima townships are grouped together as one target area. Election of representatives on June 30 will be held in the Sylvan Town Hall from 1 to 6 p.m., Mrs. Bassett said.

James W. Westmoreland, the recently appointed executive director of the Washtenaw County Citizens' Committee for Economic Opportunity, indicated that the election procedures will be strictly adhered to.

Target areas containing poor people have been determined by census tracts. In both Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, these target areas represent the highest concentrations of poverty.

In the out-county area, entire townships have been designated as target areas for two reasons: (1.) In most cases, there is no data available for areas smaller than an entire township. (2.) Because poor people are so widely scattered compact target areas cannot be defined.

The Sub-Committee on Election Procedures have also determined that to be eligible for nomination, a candidate, to represent the poor, must meet either of two requirements. He must reside in a target area, and/or meet the OEO income guidelines.

In cases where the Community Action Program will be concerned primarily with compact geographic areas in which poverty is concentrated, such as a neighborhood or sub-area of the community, the representatives of the poor will be selected by the residents of the neighborhood or sub-area.

No person is eligible to serve as a representative unless he is, and remains, a resident of the neighborhood or sub-area which he represents.

The number of representatives to be elected from each area of concentration of poverty should bear a reasonable relationship to the number of poor persons in the community as a whole.

In the rural areas, representatives of the poor will also be selected by the poor persons whom the Community Action Program is intended to serve.

To be on the ballot, a person must present a nomination petition with 25 signatures of target area residents. This petition must be turned in at least five days prior to the election.

Eligible voters shall fit either of two categories: residence in target areas or fitting OEA income guidelines.

All target areas in Ann Arbor shall vote upon the same slate of nominees.

All target areas in Ypsilanti and Willow Village shall vote upon the same slate of nominees. The poor to be elected are as follows: Ann Arbor, 4 representatives; Ypsilanti-Willow Village-Ypsilanti township, 3; Northfield-Webster-Scio townships, 1; Pittsfield-York-Augusta townships, 1; Lyndon-Dexter-Sylvan-Lima townships, 1; Superior-Salem townships, 1; Sharon-Freedom-Lodi-Manchester-Bridgewater-Saline townships, 1.

Also on the ballot will be the selection of 12 private agencies and organizations by the target area residents. There is a list of organizations to choose from.

Kenneth Hallenbeck Retiring as Director of Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority

Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority Board of Commissioners announced this week that they have accepted "with regret" the resignation of Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, Authority director since 1951.

He will retire Dec. 31, 1968. James Clarkson, newly-appointed Board chairman of the Authority, made the announcement. "The people of Michigan and our agency are losing a valuable administrator and an outstanding public servant with Hallenbeck's retirement. We wish him good health and happiness for the years ahead," he said.

Clarkson, who represents Oakland county on the Board and lives in Drayton Plains, spoke on behalf of the seven-member Board and also announced two new appointments.

David O. Laidlaw, superintendent of Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford since 1960, has been appointed director of the Authority, and James J. Pompo, manager of Metropolitan Beach since 1955, has been appointed to the new position of deputy director of the Authority. Laidlaw will be the third director the Authority has had.

Hallenbeck joined the Authority when its first two regional parks—Kensington and Metropolitan Beach—were just beginning to see use. Six more recreational sites have been added since then.

Educational TV Program Panelists To Study Art Boom

East Lansing—"News in Perspective" examines "The Art Boom" in a discussion with John Canaday, art critic of The New York Times; sculptor Louise Nevelson; and Eugene Thaw, vice-president of the Art Dealers Association of America, on the impact of art on today's public. Sunday, June 23, at 12:30 p.m., and Monday, June 24, at 11:30 a.m., on WMSB (Channel 10), Michigan State University television.

Panelists, with moderator Lester Markel, discuss who is buying art, what kind is being bought, the most sought-after artists, changes in the market and whether the "boom" denotes a cultural advance.

The second part of the program explores the art trend and how the fine arts have changed over the years. Panelists discuss how art denotes popular taste, what makes it popular, what makes it great and its functions.

The program also surveys the current art scene, including the painting-plus sculpture movement, Pop art, Pop art and modern art as a reflection of troubled times.

Other WMSB highlights include:

VIOLENCE — "NET Journal" inquires into the nature and history of violence in this country on "This Question of Violence," Sunday, June 23 at 4:30 p.m. and Wednesday, June 26, at 12 noon.

The program features a film made at a Detroit hospital for violent children, which studies the innate character of aggression and its influences in American life.

The inquiry also focuses on a seminar filmed in Los Angeles at which the subject of violence was discussed by anthropologist Margaret Mead, psychologist Bruno Bettelheim, historian Daniel Boorstin, author Paul Jacobs, psychiatrist Alvin Poussaint of Tufts University and Dr. Ralph Greenstein of UCLA Medical School.

DRAMA — "NET Playhouse" presents "The Walls of Jericho," an Edwardian drama about a self-made man who buys his way into London society and discovers he is bored with it. Sunday, June 23, at 10 p.m.

"The Walls of Jericho" was first staged in London in 1904, and established its author, Alfred Sarto, as a leading playwright of the time.

The cast of well-known British television actors is headed by Patrick Allen as Frohisher, Diana Fairfax as his wife, Althea, Barbara Couper as Lady Westaby and Austin Trevor as the Marquis of Steventon.

MUSIC — "The Summer Show," a kaleidoscope of summer happenings in Mid-Michigan, begins its second summer season, Monday, June 24, at 7 p.m. and Thursday, June 27, at 12 noon.

Terry Braverman, associate sports editor at WMSB, hosts the series, which originates from the WMSB radio and from various locations in Mid-Michigan. With "variety" as its cornerstone, the series highlights general subject areas, ranging from music and theatre to gardening and sports.

VILLAGE OF CHELSEA

GEORGE WINANS, CLERK

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Did you ever wonder where, when and by whom Father's Day was initiated? In 1910, Mrs. John Dodd started the custom in Spokane, Washington. A quarter of a century later, in 1935, a national Father's Day Committee was formed with headquarters in New York. Prominent men have through the years been chosen as "Father Of The Year"...

Our selection this year, and every year, is and has been plural. These men are the typical "Dear Old Dad" seen everywhere, known everywhere, in every community. There are many millions of them. In their circle of family and friends, these typical fathers deserve the distinction of being father of the year just as much, and perhaps more so, than the nationally publicized distinguished men. These "Dear Old Dads" have devoted a life time the needs of their families. As a loyal employee or as a considerate, thoughtful employer, these "Dear Old Dads" have shown, by example, how to face realities; how to have humble trust in God. We salute every one of them. They deserve "their day" more often than once a year!... BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

Gerald Wolf Tells Candidacy For County Clerk

Another Democrat has filed for the nomination for Washtenaw County Clerk to be decided in the Aug. 6 primary.

Gerald C. Wolf, a Superior township resident, announced his candidacy on June 17. He will oppose the other Democratic candidate, Mrs. Lois Jean Owens.

"Constant attention to detail and the ability to understand and help people are attributes your county clerk must possess," said Wolf in a statement. "Should you choose me as your county clerk all persons will have an equal opportunity of employment and, further, fair access to all information disseminated by the office," he added.

Wolf said that a computerized accounting system for the clerk's office might be considered. "As accounting supervisor for the University of Michigan Employees Credit Union, I am familiar with data processing administration and understand the economy and efficiency of operation which it can bring," he said.

Wolf, a county resident for 18 years, lives with his wife, Margaret, and son, John, on Plymouth Rd., Superior township. He is an elected delegate to the county and state Democratic conventions and has served on the credentials committee. He is presently a member of the Paralyzed Veterans of America and is serving as vice-president on the board of directors of St. Francis of Assisi Parish Credit Union.

Wolf was an all-state athlete at University High school, Ann Arbor, from which he graduated in 1952. In 1956, he graduated from Western Michigan University with a bachelor of business administration degree. At WMU he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

St. Louis Industrial Mission as associate director. The mission began in 1956 as an Episcopal mission and is now fully ecumenical, receiving support from the United Presbyterian Church, the Presbyterian Church, the Methodist and United Church of Christ, the American Baptist and the Lutheran Church of America as well as the Episcopal and Catholic churches.

The mission "takes the Church to men at work," the statement noted, including automobile plants and "relates religion to production, industrial technology, collective bargaining and other everyday concerns."

Another special assignment attached a priest to the Cardinal Leger Community, an experimental approach to church structuring called a "floating parish." The 80 adults and 100 children who belong to the floating parish come from both the inner city and the suburbs and "are seeking to establish a new mode of parish life different from the traditional, geographically bounded parish."

Unsurpassed in navigational importance are the famous Locks at Sault Ste. Marie which unite Lake Superior with the other four Great Lakes.

PROMOTED TO FIRST CLASS SCOUTS were, from left, Carmer Slocum, Jr., Richard Poytik, Tim Marzec and Ed Dreiman of Boy Scout Troop 465. The boys received their pins at a Court of Honor held June 11. Scouts Poytik, Marzec and Dreiman were also elected to the Order of the Arrow.

Marketing a farm product after it is produced is a self-defeating. That's the opinion of Dr. Kenneth Hood, nationally-known agricultural economist and marketing expert. "If it is a perishable farm income perishes," he said.

Esch Files Petitions for Nomination

Representative Marvin L. Esch (Ann Arbor) today filed petitions qualifying him to run in the primary election.

Esch presented the Elections Division of the Secretary of State some 140 petitions containing the signatures of 2,550 Second District voters—the maximum number acceptable under state law. The petition drive was supported by the Esch Boosters, a group which provides year-round support for the Congressmen. Most of the actual circulation was accomplished by grass-roots workers and in some 800 citizens participated in the collection of more than 4,500 signatures.

Esch is delighted with this response to his request for re-election. My thanks go to all those who helped me in my campaign and to those who continue to support me. I look forward to the campaign next fall.

Esch will focus attention on the problems we face and on the solutions and approaches to replace those that have not met our needs in the past or present and will not be enough in the future, Esch said.

'New Wheat Farm' Applications Must Be Filed By June 30

A new farm wheat allotment may be established for 1969 crop wheat for farms that did not have a 1968 allotment and meet eligibility requirements, Earl Doletsky, chairman of the Washtenaw County ASC Committee, has announced.

As last year, a producer eligible to file such an application is one with a farm for which no wheat allotment has been established and for which neither the owner nor the operator has an interest in the wheat allotment on any other farm, who has available land and adequate equipment and facilities for the successful production of a wheat crop on the farm, who during the last five years has had at least two years' experience in producing wheat, and who as an operator expects to receive more than 50 percent of his current year's income from the total production on the farm (not including the anticipated income from wheat produced on a "new farm" allotment).

Applications for a new farm allotment must be filed in the ASC county office on or before June 30.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

YOU ARE FREE

You must look at much more than your bank book to find out how rich you are. Your bank book will only tell you how much you can afford to spend.

If you would measure your true worth, count your blessings. Think first of your heritage. Even though you may encounter prejudices and discrimination along the way, you still have the right to pick and choose the routes that will lead to your own personal destiny. You are free to object to challenge, in any eventuality, you are free to pursue the profession of your choice, to attend the church of your own choosing.

You are free to promote a cause. You are free to speak out, to stand up and be counted. And, you should do so.

Cherish your freedom. Protect it. But be always certain that it does not offer to you some special privileges that infringe upon someone else's right, and someone else's share of freedom.

Freedom can never be all mine, never all yours. Freedom must be shared by all. Therefore, count the blessings that are yours because you are free — But be sure that your tally sheet makes provision for the rights and the freedom others.

Voter Registration Greatly Liberalized By Recent Law

Lansing—A radical liberalization of Michigan's voter registration act has been given immediate effect by the legislature and signed by the governor.

"In the past," said Secretary of State James M. Hare, "all registration was closed for 30 days prior to any election. When a community had several elections, one after another, registration could be closed for months.

There was a case in a community on the west side of the state where registration was closed for five months.

"It would be understandable if a citizen just gave up trying to register after being rejected several times," Hare said.

In essence, the present act allows a qualified citizen to register at almost any time and, if it is too close to an upcoming election, the clerk—village, township or city—will give the person a written notice telling him on what date he will be eligible to vote.

Now you may register at any time other than a Sunday, legal holiday, or election day.

To be eligible for a specific election, you must be registered at least five Fridays prior to that election.

"That period of time, the five Fridays, is necessary so that the clerk can do the necessary administrative work required by an election," Hare said.

The registration deadline for the Aug. 6 primary is July 5. Deadline for the Nov. 5 general election is Oct. 4.

Persons who have voted in the last two years do not have to register unless they have moved during that time.

Mary Ann Elliott, W. D. Adams Wed Saturday in Ypsilanti Church

Mrs. William D. Adams

Mary Ann Elliott and William David Adams became husband and wife before the Rev. Sidney S. Rood at St. Luke's Episcopal church, Ypsilanti, on June 15.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George N. Elliott of 918 Pleasant Dr., Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Eldon Eisele of 616 Flinders and the late Mr. William J. Adams.

For the 7:30 p.m. nuptials, the bride wore a white linen A-line gown with a boat neckline, accented with panels of braid at the sleeves and hemline. Her bouffant veil of illusion was held by a bow. She carried a nosegay of white roses.

Maid of honor Patricia Stivitz of Ypsilanti was gowned in a hot pink floor-length dress trimmed in white lace at the sleeves and neckline. The bride's sisters, Peggy and Jennette Elliott, attended as bridesmaids. They wore floor-length gowns of light pink trimmed in white lace at the sleeves and neckline. Each attendant carried a nosegay of pink roses.

The bride's mother chose a mint green dress and matching coat and accessories and wore an orchid. A beige lace dress with matching beige coat and beige accessories was selected by the bridegroom's mother. She also wore an orchid.

Keith Salver served as best man with Michael Roark, Stanley Schiller, Ronald Borders and Luke Collinsworth, all of Chelsea, serving the guests.

A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony. (After a week's wedding trip to New York state, the newlyweds will make their home at 367 Park St. The bride chose a hot pink dress with matching tweed coat and white accessories for her travel costume.

The bride is a graduate of Roosevelt High school, Ypsilanti, and attended Eastern Michigan University. She is also a graduate of Alexandra School of Cosmetology, Ann Arbor. A graduate of Chelsea High school and Washtenaw Community College, the bridegroom is employed by the Dana Corp.

MISSION CLUB

St. Paul Mission Club met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Stierle June 11. The program included Mrs. Amanda Mayer giving the devotion and prayer, Mrs. Paul Seitz reading "Recipe for A Happy Day," Mrs. Oscar Lindauer reading "Trust in God," and Mrs. Emma Seitz reading "The Spiritual You."

Members spent the afternoon cutting quilt blocks and sewing carpet rags. The hostess also served a luncheon. St. Paul Mission Club's July meeting will be a pot-luck picnic at the home of Mrs. Henry Marks.

Friends and relatives who set certain standards for your conduct imply a lack of faith in your philosophy of life.

Women's Learning Can Continue At College Week

Homemakers who are still interested in learning, but not necessarily formal education, should consider attending College Week for Women, June 25-28, say Mrs. Helen Fairman and Mrs. Alice Epple, home economists, with the Co-operative Extension Service in Washtenaw, Lenawee and Monroe counties.

The special week is designed for women interested in receiving up-to-date information in a variety of areas, they explain. This year's classes and special assemblies focus on the theme, "You and Your Land-Grant University Serve the World."

Some of the 80 classes include "The Sociology of the Family," "A Look at the Employment Field for Homemakers," "Political Parties, Interest Groups, Political Processes and the Public Welfare," and others.

Thursday, June 27, has been reserved as visitors' day for those who are unable to attend the entire conference. An international fashion review will be held Thursday evening.

Assembly speakers featured during the four-day week will include Dr. Carl Byers, sponsored by General Motors; Dr. Sylvan Wittwer, director of MSU's Agricultural Experiment Station; and Robert Vincent, curator of the MSU National Voice Library.

Information concerning lodging, registration and fees is available at the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service offices.

Homemaking Hints

The longer cheddar cheese is permitted to ripen or age, the more it costs per pound.

One of the newest do-it-yourself projects is a foam rubber sack covered in shaggy carpet. Put one together with a plywood base, thick, genuine latex foam rubber cushioning and a covering of brightly colored carpeting.

Added to the final rinse water, a fabric softener will help reduce static electricity in fabrics of man-made fibers; soften baby clothes and fluff terry robes and chenille bedspreads.

In the future you'll be able to select a washer-dryer combination that cleans the clothes, discards the water, dries the clothes and turns off automatically when the correct degree of dryness is reached.

Area rugs may be used to show off a beautiful floor or highlight a furniture grouping. If furniture is scarce, the area rug may help to eliminate a barren look.

Fashion Notes

Jersey is being used in a big way this season. We see it in bathing suits day dresses and those for evening. It drapes beautifully and is ideal for packing or traveling.

Wrap-arounds are very popular this summer. We have been accustomed to think of wrap-arounds as either house dresses or skirts over play suits but they are being shown in the shops now in colorful fabrics that call for shopping expeditions.

Between now and election day the candidates will be courting the favor of special groups and there's no telling what will be promised.

Mrs. Jeffrey V. Weber

Carol Lynn Kikstra, Jeffrey Weber Wed Saturday in Grand Rapids

Carol Lynn Kikstra and Jeffrey V. Weber became husband and wife before the Rev. John DeKruyter at the Central Reformed church in Grand Rapids, Saturday, June 16.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Kikstra of 1540 Lenox Rd., Grand Rapids, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Weber of 115 South St.

For the 1:30 p.m. ceremony, the bride wore a floor-length white Empire linen sheath with back floor panel, short sleeves and a portrait neckline. Venice lace encircled the short sleeves, Empire waistline and back panel, and secured her floor-length mantilla veil. The veil fell into a chapel train, edged with matching lace. She carried a cascade of three white wedding orchids.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Frederic K. Waalkes of Grand Rapids, sister of the bride. Mrs. Wayne Hazel of Lake Odessa, also a sister of the bride, and Linda J. Melton of East Lansing served as bridesmaids. Honor attendants wore matching floor-length Empire gowns of light blue linen with Venice lace trim. Matching linen bows held their bouffant veiling of silk molene. Each carried a nosegay of blue and white flowers.

Also attired in a blue floor-length gown with Venice trim was the flower girl, Sandy Lynn Waalkes of Grand Rapids, a niece of the bride. Steven Weber of Royal Oak, nephew of the bridegroom, assisted as ringbearer.

Jack B. Weber of Royal Oak, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man. Seating the guests were John J. Brandt of Milwaukee, Wis., and Donald L. Beck of East Lansing.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Holly's Landing in Grand Rapids. A buffet luncheon was served. The bride's niece, Jill A. Hazel, attended the guest book.

After a short wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple will be at home at 8160 Constitution Blvd., Apt. 4, Utica.

The former Miss Kikstra graduated from Calvin College, Grand Rapids, and received her master's degree in social work from Michigan State University where she is affiliated with Phi Alpha Honor Society. She will be employed by Macomb county as a social worker. The bridegroom, who received a degree in political science from Michigan State University, is now employed by the United States Army Tank and Automotive Command at Warren.

Swimming Pool, Pond Safety Precautions Noted

Safety practices don't have to spoil the fun of using home swimming pools, farm ponds, local lakes, rivers or streams as favorite recreation spots.

"The irony is that water carelessness is frequently overlooked until disaster strikes," according to Mrs. Helen Fairman, home economist with the Co-operative Extension Service in Washtenaw, Lenawee and Monroe counties.

"The fact that nearly 7,000 people die from drowning each year is enough evidence that some safety planning is necessary," she said.

Learning to swim is important, but a conservative estimate of swimming ability is the best way to cut down on drownings. Although half of those who die from water mishaps are non-swimmers, the other half consider themselves "good" swimmers. Even strong swimmers are subject to error.

The home economist and MSU safety specialists put together a list of "safety cues" for people planning to build pools and ponds: —Build a child-proof fence around the water;

—Locate your pond so it will not get drainage from barnyards or sewers;

—Stay away from water during lightning storms;

—Have constant adult supervision for toddlers and small children near water;

—Always have a companion or someone nearby when swimming;

—Think about depth, boat traffic, tides and currents, water cleanliness and lifeguards when deciding whether to swim;

—Be on the lookout for other boats, swimmers, obstructions and bad weather when you're in the water;

—Load a boat no more than the rated capacity and distribute the load evenly;

—When boating or skiing, have everyone wear a life jacket;

—Learn mouth-to-mouth method of artificial resuscitation.

"These are common warnings of water safety, but they can keep fun from turning into disaster," Mrs. Fairman said. "Other precautions are: not diving into shallow water, avoiding going into water when you are extremely tired or hot, calling for help only when you need it, and checking for rocks, broken glass and harmful objects in the water before swimming."

She also reminded prospective pond or pool builders to check local and state laws regarding building restrictions and liability, so needed insurance may be arranged before the season starts.

Outside Mirror Now Mandatory On All Autos

Lansing—Michigan has gone the federal government one better in highway safety, but many state motorists apparently are unaware of it. Secretary of State James M. Hare disclosed.

All Michigan cars must have an outside rear-view mirror on the driver's side, regardless of what year the car was built, Hare reminded motorists.

He noted that a number of tickets are being written by Michigan law enforcement officers for failure to have the outside mirror.

The federal government's National Vehicle Standard requires the outside mirror on the driver's side to be included on all cars built after Jan. 1 of this year, just as it requires shoulder safety belts.

But the Michigan law, which also took effect Jan. 1, requires an outside mirror on ALL cars, no matter when they were built.

In addition, all commercial vehicles weighing one-half ton or more must have an outside mirror on each side of the vehicle, Hare said.

Introduced last year and to be continued will be premiums for the sow having the first pig following the opening of the fair; display of haylage depicting its use in Michigan agriculture; a wheelbarrow load of farm produce; and a commercial muskumlin display.

Premium books are automatically sent to former exhibitors. Requests from new exhibitors should be addressed to the Supervisor of Agriculture Exhibits, Michigan State Fair, Detroit 48203. Exhibitors should indicate which section of the entry book is desired.

St. Thomas Pastor Leaving Post; New Minister To Be Installed

The Rev. John W. Ribar, pastor of St. Thomas Lutheran church, Freedom township, has accepted the Fox-Albright Fellowship from the American Schools of Oriental Research, Jerusalem, Israel, and Baghdad, Iraq, and an appointment with the Carnegie Archaeological Campaign to Ashdod, Israel, for two months beginning in July.

Pastor Ribar left June 19 from Metropolitan Airport for Jerusalem and the Near East. He had served as pastor of St. Thomas since 1965 while studying in the University of Michigan Department of Near Eastern Languages and Literature.

While in Jerusalem and points nearby, the Rev. Ribar will be working on his doctoral thesis, using information from archaeological finds and records.

In 1963, the Rev. Ribar also participated in the Carnegie Archaeological Campaign which carries out archaeological excavations in the Holy Land.

Pastor Ribar, a native of Plymouth, will be joined soon by his wife, Marilyn, and sons, L. John, 7, Daniel, 5, and Andrew, 2, in Jerusalem where they will stay for almost one year.

Taking Pastor Ribar's place is the Rev. Daniel Lloyd Mattson, who will be installed as pastor of St. Thomas church on Sunday, June 23 at 3 p.m.

Pastor Mattson was born in 1942 in Willmar, Minn. After graduating from Willmar Senior High school, he attended Concordia College, St. Paul, Minn. He was awarded an associate of arts degree from that college in 1962, and received his bachelor of arts degree from Concordia Senior College, Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1964.

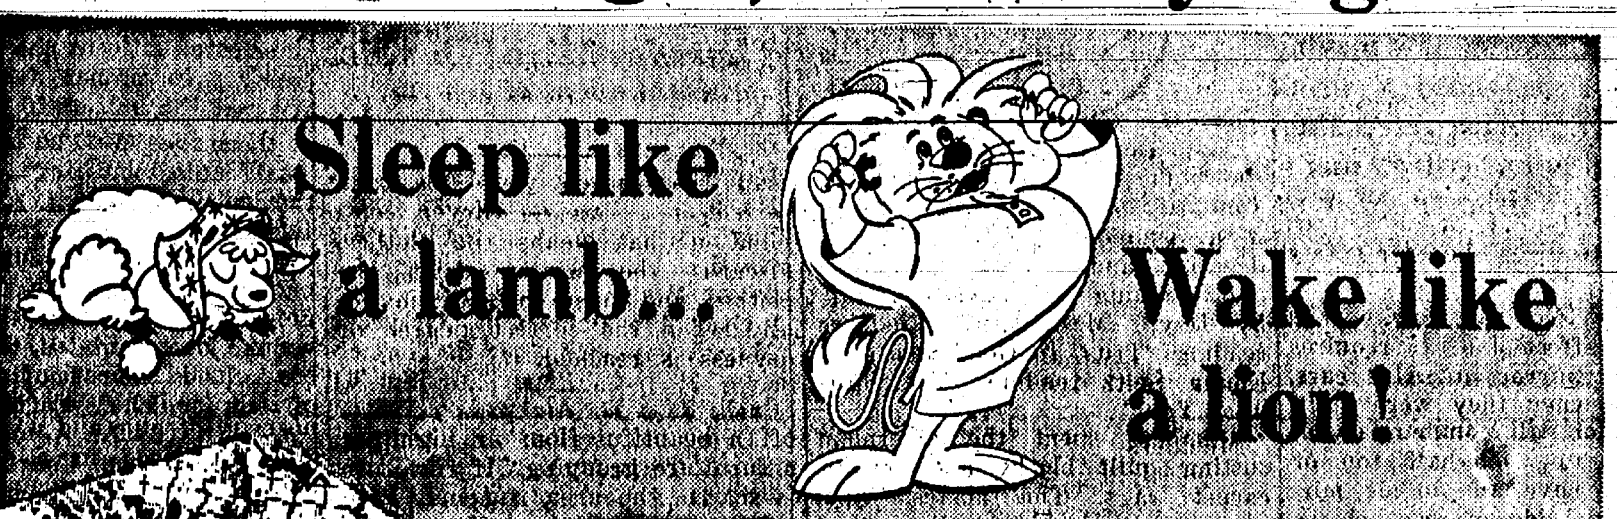

REV. JOHN W. RIBAR

SPELLER'S TREAT: Michigan's spelling bee champion, 14-year-old Robert Vallade of Trenton, asks U. S. Senator Robert P. Griffin to tell him what's good on the menu in the Senators' dining room. The young spelling whiz visited the Capitol with his father, Quentin (right), while in Washington for the national spelling bee last week. An eighth-grade student at Seltz Junior High School, Robert out-spelled 27 other youngsters in the metropolitan Detroit area finals to win a trip to Washington. He finished 50th among 75 entrants there, stumbling on the word, "Hoculent," which he spelled "Hoculent." Griffin recalled that he won his school and district spelling bee while a seventh-grade student in Garden City Elementary school. The Vallades live at 34 Cleveland in Trenton. Students from schools in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Livingston and Washtenaw counties took part in the metropolitan finals.

Dear Editor:

In reply to "A Patriotic Citizen" whose letter appeared in last week's Chelsea Standard, we would like to publicly apologize for our error in not displaying the flag properly on Memorial Day.

We would also like to state that we did not display the flag improperly at the time of death of Dr. Martin Luther King and Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Public law 829, 77th Congress, approved Dec. 22, 1942, provides guidelines and information for all post office personnel. We would like to quote for "A Patriotic Citizen" and other interested citizens the section pertaining to proper display of the flag at the half-staff position.

"The flag must be flown at half-staff on all buildings... for the period indicated: (1) The President or a former President; (2) The Vice-President, the Chief Justice or a retired Chief Justice of the United States, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives; for 10 days from the date of death; (3) An Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, a member of the Cabinet, a former Vice-President, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Army, or the Secretary of the Air Force, from the day of death until interment; (4) A United States Senator, Representative, Territorial Delegate, or the resident Commissioner from the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; in the Metropolitan area of the District of Columbia on the day of death and on the following day; in the State, Congressional District, Territory, or Commonwealth of such Senator, Representative, Delegate, or Commissioner, from the day of death until interment; (5) The flag shall be flown at half-staff for a governor in the State, Territory, or possession from the day of death until interment. In the event of the death of other officials, former officials, or foreign dignitaries, the flag of the United States must be displayed at half-staff in accordance with such orders or instructions as may be issued by or at the direction of the President or in accordance with recognized customs or practices not inconsistent with law."

As Dr. King was not in any of the above categories we were bound by law to wait until the President issued an official order requiring the flags to be lowered. Public law 829 makes no reference to the flag being lowered for "the death of a national dignitary."

As Senator Kennedy was a Senator from the State of New York, his own state lowered their flags per part 4 above. Since he was a former Cabinet member and no provision is made for them we had to wait for a Presidential order per part 5 above. We received an order from the Department to lower flags in the afternoon of June 6 and at that time our flag was lowered.

We realize that upon the death of Dr. King and Senator Kennedy, Governor Romney ordered flags lowered, but as we are under federal control and not state, we must wait until we receive word from the President before lowering flags. For the benefit of "A Patriotic Citizen" and other interested citizens, we have a copy of public law 829 which may be viewed during normal business hours.

Richard Schoules, Postmaster.

To the Editor:

I wish to take exception with a statement you made in one of your recent news articles. (Ed. Note: the article concerned Mary Ellen Ashley, a band student, printed June 6.) Your statement that Miss Ashley is the first girl from Chelsea High to go on to college-level band playing is not quite accurate—unless I am too ancient history to count!

The band program in Chelsea High school was revived in 1936 after being discontinued during the depression. Robert Hargreaves (now Dean of the School of Music at Ball State Teachers College in Muncie, Ind.) was hired to start a band and orchestra. I started playing clarinet that year and played first chair during my four years of high school. Then I went on

G. Petersen Enters Race for County Sheriff

George A. Petersen announced June 17 that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Sheriff of Washtenaw county in the August primary.

Petersen has had 24 years experience in the Sheriff Department and six years experience as Washtenaw County Sheriff. He said "there was no scandal and every indication of a well-managed department" when he was with the Sheriff Department.

"Proof of this is evident in the citations awarded me," he stated. He said two awards for traffic safety for the county were given to him. Federal and state jail inspectors awarded him the highest rating possible, and another award for an excellent record system was presented.

"Still another recognition for my capabilities was shown by my being elected to the Board of Governors of the National Sheriffs Association," he said.

"It is my hope that the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department may soon be returned to the position of respect it previously occupied," Petersen stated. "If I am elected I will never stand still until this is accomplished," he added, saying that he will make every effort to re-open a branch office in the Eastern part of Washtenaw county."

Petersen served three terms as Washtenaw County Sheriff until his defeat in 1964 by incumbent Douglas J. Harvey, a Democrat. Harvey subsequently closed the eastern county substation for economic reasons.

Petersen, his wife Pauline, and their son and two daughters live at 1205 Edgewood St. Ann Arbor. He is a member of St. Andrew's Church, Dexter, and various fraternal and social groups. He is now employed as supervisor of shipping and receiving for the University Press, University of Michigan.

to Albion College, where I again played clarinet for four years in their band and orchestra. The last two years I was first chair. Our band went on a 10-day tour the first year to schools in Michigan, northern Ohio, Indiana and Chicago. The war disrupted further tours. But I also earned a minor in music and gave a piano recital my senior year.

As far as I know, no one else during my four years went on to college music, so perhaps I could claim the "first."
