Plans for the summer band program have been finalized and call for two sessions, one for three weeks in length and one for one week. The first session begins July 22 and ends Aug. 9, and the second session begins Aug. 20 and ends Aug. 30.

Children who will enter the 6th, 7th and 8th grades in the fall semester will rehearse during the day at hours to be announced later. The Chelsea Community Band rehearses Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. All classes will be held at Chelsea High school.

Three chartered planes flew a delegation of 327 Michigan Jaycees and their wives to the U. S. Jaycees Annual Meeting at Phoenix, Ariz. Representing Chelsea at the June 16 through 22 meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Don Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Updegraff and Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hopkins.

The important item at the meeting was the election of national officers. Michigan's candidate for the office of U. S. Jaycee president, Wendell E. Smith of Plymouth, won the election after a long session and a record-breaking 22-ballots.

On Thursday, June 20 the election for the presidential post began. At 10:44 a.m. on Friday the election ended. Campaign committee members reported that it was a long hard night. It was said to be the most hotly contested battle in Jaycee history, with seven candidates, and proved to be the longest.

During the week, there were various award programs, state parties and a flag ceremony, including the "parade of states" with representatives from each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia.

On June 19, Wednesday, a parade wound its way through downtown Chelsea. (Continued on page five)

MEL LEACH, superintendent of the water and sewage treatment plant, must perform tests daily and weekly on sewage. He sends test results to the Michigan State Department of Health.

Sewage Treatment Plant Earns Dow's Award of Merit

As it turns out, Dow Chemical Co.'s public relations department has not been on the ball lately. The Standard received a notice recently that the Village of Chelsea, earned an award of merit for having no lost time injuries in 1967 while operating its water waste treatment plant.

We called the waste treatment plant to find out the real "dope," and discovered instead that Mel Leach, superintendent of the plant, "put it (the citation) away—so long ago I forgot about it."

Through the "din" in the background, Leach explained that Dow Chemical sends forms to every sewage treatment plant, and completes the man-hours worked per employee.

"Since we didn't have any lost time last year," he said, "they gave us a certificate."

Leach also explained that he is the only full-time employee at the Chelsea plant which also employs a part-time worker, Russ Alstaetter. "With a small plant you don't normally have too many injuries and you don't miss too much time," he said.

The Chelsea plant treats about 350,000 gallons of sewage a day. Leach said. The plant is an "activated-sludge" plant which means that bacteria work to treat the sewage, he said, adding that the sewage receives secondary treatment here. Some plants have a third stage, tertiary treatment, Leach stated, but usually this type of treatment is confined to the larger sewage plants.

"I really put it away a long time ago," Leach said.

"You kind of caught me at a bad time," he laughed, "I was just leaving." Rustle, rustle.

Area Residents Mopping Up After Deluge

Record 3.4" Rainfall Creates Lakes Everywhere, Floods Homes, Roads

And the rains came. Cars slipped and slid home on the expressways. Roads and basements were flooded. Dams and railroad sidings gave way. The torrent of water caused emergency evacuations in Detroit suburbs.

Ten Chelsea Volunteer firemen worked from 6:30 p.m. Tuesday until 5:30 a.m. pumping basements around the village. Fire Chief James Gaken reported.

All four pumps were in use throughout the night, he said. Two units can pump 250 gallons of water a minute, and two can pump 500 gallons a minute, Gaken explained.

Volunteer firemen also assisted the Saline area when a call came in from Saline for bags for sand. The dam at Saline was in danger of breaking, firemen were told. Firemen contacted Blaess Elevator Co. and Farmers' Supply and came up with almost 500 bags to send to Saline. Saline sent a car to pick them up, Gaken said.

It was Gaken's opinion that the worst damage he knew about in Chelsea occurred at the Sharon Ann apartment building on N. Main St. After pumping operations at the sewer at the end of Flanders St. were completed, firemen moved to the Sharon Ann apartment building and found the entire lower level flooded. Water three or four inches deep covered the floor which is almost completely carpeted, Gaken said.

After pumping out the water at the apartment complex, firemen were called to the home of Leon Meabon at 573 W. Middle St.

There is no basement in the Meabon home, Gaken said, and water had seeped into the cross base under the house and was six inches short of covering the ground floor when firemen arrived.

Firemen answered calls to many other homes throughout the night, and it appeared to Gaken that a considerable amount of damage had been done to basement appliances.

Faye Schiller, switchboard operator for the Fire Department, had one comment about the hectic night: "Have you ever seen a three-handed woman?"

And, of course, Chief Gaken said, this was his week of vacation. In other Fire Department action during the week, three fires were reported on Sunday, June 23. Due to another rain storm, a pole in the Mobil storage tank yard was struck by lightning, ruining the electric power meter.

Two grass fires were sighted along the Penn-Central tracks, one at 5:35 a.m., and one at 5:38 a.m. at opposite ends of the village. Waterloo Conservation Headquarters reported that many camping lots and parking lots were under water at many lakes in this area, due to Tuesday's storm, especially at Big Portage Lake. About a dozen large trees were uprooted, conservation officers in the Portage Lake picnic and camping area discovered.

"Roads are eroded all over the area," one conservation official said, "and lakes have risen considerably." He said Spring Lake overflowed its banks Tuesday night, covering the road and nearby lawns and spreading into Cavanaugh Lake.

Portage Lake is so high that the sand beach is covered," the conservation officer said, "and I suspect all the lakes have risen equally." There are about 20 fair-sized lakes in the Waterloo Recreation area.

No large number of animal deaths have yet been reported to conservation officers, however.

Mel Leach, superintendent of the Chelsea sanitary sewer plant, stated that "sewers are all full and overflowing" on Wednesday morning. He explained that the plant "just can't handle it all" when such a big rain storm hits.

Leach also suspects that much of the trouble came from run-off storm water infiltrating into the sewers coupled with the overflow from houses illegally hooked in to the sanitary sewer system.

Many sewage lift stations around town at which pumps are used to propel sewage up from low spots, are having their troubles keeping up with the overflow from the deluge of water. Leach said he has received calls mostly from residents whose houses must use the lift stations.

Leach also pointed out that the Flanders St. sewer is too small to handle the amount of water running through it and creates problems every time it rains heavily. Pumps were at the sewer operating all night long.

Rain gauges at the sanitary plant recorded 3.4 inches of rain on Tuesday.

Trains that would normally whistle stop through Chelsea along the Penn-Central tracks have been re-routed due to the washout of about 1,400 feet of railroad track near Geddes Rd., east of Ann Arbor, a Chelsea Penn-Central employee stated.

He said that trains are re-routed through Elkhart, Ind., and Toledo, O., and then straight up to Detroit if such action is necessary. He also stated that he had not heard too much about the washout since the Penn-Central telephone lines were knocked (Continued on page three)

Jay Bradbury Will Seek New Supervisor Post

Lima township supervisor, Jay L. Bradbury, announced that he will seek the Republican nomination for county supervisor in the new First District, including Lyndon, Sylvania, Lima, Sharon, Freedom, Manchester and Bridgewater townships and the Village of Chelsea.

Washtenaw county's new 13-member Board of Supervisors will replace the current 39-member board on Jan. 1, 1969. The new board will be elected Nov. 5, with primaries slated for Aug. 6.

Bradbury, township trustee for four years, was appointed to succeed long-time Supervisor Leigh Beach who died Nov. 7, 1965. Bradbury was then elected to the spot in 1966. During his terms as township trustee, he also served on the township appeal board.

Since he has been on the county board, Bradbury has served on the Buildings and Grounds, Sheriff's and Building Code committees. He also represents the board on the Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission and the Huron River Watershed Council.

Bradbury said he feels his committee and commission assignments have given him "good insight into the workings of county government," adding that he thinks his experience would be of "considerable value" on the new board.

He said he will be able to devote full time to the new board, if the board feels that is necessary.

The candidate also said he feels "farming communities should be represented by a farmer."

Bradbury has lived in Washtenaw county since the age of 10 and has farmed in Pittsfield, Bridgewater and Lima townships.

Since 1941 he has operated a dairy and general farm at 8800 Eastern Rd. and is now in partnership (Continued on page six)

Fifty Percent Chance

School Millage votes fared slightly better than 50 percent during the first five months of 1968, reports the Michigan Education Association. From January through May, 182 elections proposed extra operating millage for schools; 98 were successful and 84 were defeated.

Proposals to bond districts for school construction enjoyed greater success. While 53 percent of elections for increased operating millage met voter approval, 64 percent of elections for construction were successful. Some 33 elections were held; 21 were passed and 12 defeated.

This is the first year records of success and failure have been compiled. MEA notes that in previous years only those elections approved by voters were catalogued by the State Department of Instruction.

Many Blue Books. Larger bookcases may soon be needed by attorneys and others who make use of the Compiled Laws of the State of Michigan.

Each year a new volume appears which lists all legislation passed during the current session. The dark blue books are usually obvious in law offices, state departments, courts, and local government offices.

The last time Michigan statutes were organized and compiled into complete volumes was 1948. Since then, 19 separate books have been published to show new laws, repeal of amendments to existing statutes. By publishing a new set of compiled laws, these 19 volumes could probably be reduced to five or six. Legislators who seem to be concerned over lack of room for their offices might welcome such a space-saving move.

Provision for publishing a new set of compiled laws must come from the lawmakers. A bill passed in the House, made such authorization but ran into trouble in the Senate. It has been sent back to a Senate committee and for all practical purposes is dead. This means volume 20 now will be added to the pile of reference books. There have been only three such compilations in the history of Michigan: 1915, 1929, and 1948.

It is time for another. Trains: Conscientious Objectors.

Camp Doss, located in Grand Ledge, prepares young men for military service whose faith prohibits them from bearing arms. The youths, 16 to 19 years of age, are Seventh-day Adventists. Their training at Camp Doss includes basic medical instruction, discipline and drill.

All conscientious objectors receive military training at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. About 35,000 medics are processed there each year. Of this number, 2,000 medics are conscientious objectors and about 65 percent of them are Seventh-day Adventists.

Each June SDA youths from almost every state, including Alaska, travel to Michigan for the two-week encampment. Camp Doss is held on the campus of the Seventh-day Adventist Grand Ledge Academy, which becomes a virtual "tent city." This year approximately 150 young men are participating in the training.

Col. Clark Smith and Lt. Col. Charles Martin are in command of the Grand Ledge camp named for Desmond T. Doss, the only conscientious objector ever to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor.

"Men from the Seventh-day Adventist Church are among the top medics in the Army, according to my commanding officer," stated Maj. James A. Stanford, staff chaplain at Fort Sam Houston.

The cadets come in properly motivated and disciplined to accept training. Major Stanford has been a guest lecturer at the camp. Purpose of his visit, he says, is to share helpful information with the command and in turn to learn anything which might be useful in the training of medics when they report to Fort Sam Houston.

Majority Decisions Possible. Retirement of State Supreme Court Justice Theodore Souris opens the door to clear-cut decisions by a majority vote of the High Court. In an effort to do away with stalemates created by 4-4 decisions of the eight members of the court, the 1963 Michigan Constitution provides that the first vacancy in the court created by death, retirement or resignation shall not be filled.

Although his retirement will not be effective until July 1, the 42-year-old justice indicates he will no longer sit on the bench and participate in decisions. His

Thursday, June 25, 1964—Fred Mills, Little League and Midget League baseball director, has announced that 95 boys signed up for summer ball.

Lyndon, Sharon, Sylvan, Freedom, Manchester and York townships in Washtenaw county are included in a quarantine order signed June 22 by Director G. S. McIntyre of the Michigan Department of Agriculture in attempts to stop the spread of plant pests and diseases in the state. The quarantine order followed discovery by survey crews of the presence of the harmful pest known as the cereal leaf beetle.

Seventeen Michigan counties had already been under quarantine since July 1, 1963, and the Washtenaw County townships were added to the list.

The beetle destroys such grains as oats, wheat, ry, barley and other crops.

Mary Ann Steger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Layton Steger, left Tuesday morning for Miami and from there for Lima, Peru. She will spend until the end of September with the Jose Zegarra family in Arequipa where she will do volunteer hospital work in pathology at a hospital there.

Dr. Ralph C. Wenrich, vocational education director at the University of Michigan, former state director of vocational education and now one of the four-man committee appointed by Governor Romney to further the promotion of vocational education in the schools of the state, was in Chelsea Tuesday evening to outline a plan for possible establishment of a vocational education center in this area.

Charles Lane, Chelsea High principal, announced this week that because of curriculum changes and new adoptions to update and upgrade courses, five books will not be in use next year.

Excavation at the site of the Chelsea Milling Co. construction was completed last week and workmen are now putting in the foundation walls. A project expected to take several weeks. Part of the new building will be 60 feet high with walls constructed of monolithic concrete. Once the walls are begun, the concrete must be poured continuously for 24 hours.

Thursday, June 24, 1954—

Murray Knowles, Washtenaw county drain commissioner, is in receipt of a petition signed by land owners of Sylvan township requesting that part of the creek which runs through Chelsea and the southwest portion of Sylvan township not now officially a part of Mill Creek, be so designated and also become a part of the county drain. Such action would pave the way for cleaning out the main stream and deepening and widening procedures where necessary to bring the drain down to a level where it would eventually receive water from an area about 35 miles square.

An informal zoning meeting held Thursday evening in St. Mary's school hall was attended by representatives of Federal Screw Works, Bell Telephone Co.

departure gives Republicans a technical majority on the court for the first time since 1955.

In the past, the court has at times come up with a 4-4 deadlock on an issue, leaving the outcome "in limbo." The most recent example was the tie decision on whether the Michigan Court of Appeals had the right to investigate a state agency.

Souris, one of the court's more liberal members, was the chief force behind landmark decisions that applied the one-man, one-vote principle to the legislature and, more recently, to county boards of supervisors. One of the most prolific writers of the court, he authorized 192 opinions between 1964-68.

REGISTRATION NOTICE

FOR
General Primary Election Tuesday, August 6, 1968

To the Qualified Electors of the
TOWNSHIP OF DEXTER
 COUNTY OF WASHTENAW, STATE OF MICHIGAN

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law," I, the undersigned Clerk, will, upon any day, except Sunday and a legal holiday, the day of any regular or special election or primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said Township, City or Village not already registered who may APPLY TO ME PERSONALLY for such registration.

Notice is hereby given that I will be at my home, 9823 Portage Lake Road, 2 miles north of N. Territorial Rd., Pinckney, Michigan, any day until Friday, July 5, 1968 (by appointment) and on

Friday, July 5, 1968 - Last Day

 And On Saturday, June 29, 1968, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
 As provided by Section 498, Act No. 116, Public Acts of 1954 As Amended.

For the purpose of REVIEWING the REGISTRATION and REGISTERING such of the qualified electors in said Township, City or Village as SHALL PROPERLY apply therefor.

The name of no person but an ACTUAL RESIDENT of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining a resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registry book.

The township office will be open all day the Saturday prior to close of registrations.

Elector Unable To Make Personal Application, Procedure
 SEC. 504. Any elector who is unable to make personal application for registration because of physical disability or absence from the Township, City or Village in which his legal residence is located, may be registered prior to the close of registration before any election or primary election by securing from the Clerk of the Township, City or Village in which is located his legal residence, duplicate registration cards and executing in duplicate the registration affidavit before a notary public or other officer legally authorized to administer oaths and returning such registration cards to the Clerk of the Township, City or Village before the close of office hours on the last day of registration prior to any election or primary election. The notary public or other officer administering the oath shall sign his name on the line for the signature of the registration officer and designate his title.

Unregistered Persons Not Entitled To Vote
 SEC. 491. The inspectors of election at any election or primary election in this State, or in any District, County, Township, City or Village thereof, shall not receive the vote of any person whose name is not registered in the registration book of his Township, Ward or Precinct in which he offers to vote. (As provided under Act 116, P. A. 1954.)

Transfer of Registration, Application, Time

Any registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending to the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved thereto, and the address from which he was last registered; or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk shall strike through the last address, ward and precinct number and record the new address, ward and precinct number on the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Such transfers shall not be made after the Fifth Friday next preceding any election or primary election. (Unless such Fifth Friday shall fall on a legal holiday in which event registration shall be accepted during the next full working day.)

Transfer of Registration on Election Day
 SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another precinct of the same Township, City or Village and has not recorded such removal with the local Clerk shall execute a transfer of registration request, listing the new residence address thereon over his signature, with the election request card in the precinct in which he is registered at the next ensuing primary or election. The inspector of election in the precinct to which the registration records shall transfer the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and, if the signatures correspond, then the inspector shall certify such fact by affixing his initials upon said request. The applicant for transfer, after having signed an application to vote as provided in Section 523 of this act, shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that primary or election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

14 Years Ago...
Tuesday were almost 10 degrees cooler.

David E. Bertke, who received notification some time ago that Representative George Meader had nominated him for appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., received confirmation of his appointment June 10.

24 Years Ago...
Thursday, June 29, 1944—
The Standard staffers of this date and year must have gone to the ballgame out fishin' because there is no record of a Standard published on this date. So, rather than forget the whole thing, let's take a look at some of the "quaint" ads that appeared in that era.

A man named Ross was running for Congress under the slogan: "There's no moss on Ross." The copy for his ad reads: "Washington needs desperately new blood and new brains in Congress. It's time for a lot of changes in this country and everybody knows it. I want to be your Congressman for a while because Mr. Michener has been there long enough. Give a new man a chance and get some action for your vote." Things haven't changed much, have they?

Under a picture of GI's operating a telephone transmitter on the battlefield, Michigan Bell Telephone Co. proclaimed: "This explains why telephones are scarce."

Goodyear's in Ann Arbor was an authorized bond issuing store at this time. Its ad proclaimed: "The U. S. Treasury Department and Textron make it possible for you to autograph your own bond for Tojo or Hitler for the price of a Series E Bond."

L. R. Heydlauff, the G-E Store, advertised some of the latest records: "Cow-Cow Boogie" by Freddie Slack, "Texas Polka" by Martha Tilton, "Amour and the Day After Forever" by Andy Russell, "Straighten Up and Fly Right" by the King Cole Trio, "Somebody's in the Kitchen With Dinah" by Johnny Mercer, "His Rocking Horse Ran Away" by Betty Hutton, "Long Ago and I Love You" by Jo Stafford and others, "Artistic in Rhythm" by Stan Kenton, "I'll Walk Alone" by Dinah Shore and others, and "Goodnight Wherever You Are" by Mary Martin.

Advertising the 5th War Loan, Chelsea Milling Co. ran full page ads at this time. One said: "This Beachhead Is Big Enough For All Of Us" above a drawing of a landing attack. "Back the Attack Buy More Than Before," was the message of the ad.

"When G. I. Johnny comes marching home from Alaska, it's a cinch-bet that he'll make a perfect five-point landing in a hot tub. A HOT tub, mind you, and what's more, it'll take more than a sergeant's whistle to get him out of it," proposed an ad by Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

On the light side or on the more serious side, the war years still hold a sentimental quality for most of us.

34 Years Ago...
Thursday, June 28, 1934—
Following a legislative decree that "it must either be sold, operated or dismantled by July 1, 1934," the State Administrative Board last week opened bids on the old Chelsea cement plant, and referred them to the finance committee with power to act. Action will be taken tomorrow. The Board's action is the last chapter in the story of the plant which was put in operation by the state 10 years ago, experienced ups and downs and gained the reputation of being the state's biggest political football. The finance committee can either accept or reject the highest bids for the property which includes some 20 buildings, an 800-acre land tract and a large inland lake. If the bids are unsatisfactory, then the committee has the alternative to have the plant dismantled by prison labor and salvaged for what the state can secure out of it.

It is expected that grading on West Middle St. will be finished this week. Labor for this project has been furnished under the provisions of the FERA. The curbing project for this street has been approved and the work of digging trenches will start next week.

Fourteen Chelsea Sea Scouts took a week-end cruise at the Ypsilanti Sea Scout camp on Ford Lake, Ypsilanti. Each Scout received instructions on rowing the cutter and sailing the schooner, "Legionnaire." The two-week cruise to Chicago and back starts July 24 and all Chelsea Scouts are working hard to equip themselves and to earn their expense money for that trip. The USS Truant is to be turned over to Commander Schrader for the cruise.

The first local concert of the season will be presented by the Chelsea Band next Tuesday evening, July 3.

Welfare ladies are canning vegetables and fruit at the parochial school under the direction of Alice Van Akorn of the county welfare canning department. Anyone having produce which they will donate for this purpose is asked to call Village President J. E. McKune.

Rogers Corners school, Freedom township, will celebrate their Centennial on Sunday, Aug. 18. Committees have been appointed to make arrangements for the event, and it is promised that a good program will be provided.

town Phoenix, with delegations, bands and floats from each state. Michigan marched 10th in line and thus added their part before the temperature reached the high of 115 degrees for the day. Phoenix experienced record-breaking high temperatures for June through most of the week of the convention, nearing 120 degrees one day.

Michigan also won the Sweepstakes Award which is the first place award for over-all parade unit, including a float, a band, 200 Michigan Jaycees, marching and singing, and the "Snowball from Hell." In addition, Michigan picked up the second-place award for the float itself, and the first-place award for the "State Party," a combination of food and favors handed out by Michigan Jaycees and their wives.

Michigan Jaycees said they were told that the outstanding hospitality and friendliness of the Michigan people won the award for them.

Robert Padgett, newly-elected president of the Michigan Jaycees, won an award as one of the top 10 national directors out of total of 350.

In "Records and Recognition" competition, three chapters in Chelsea's District 28 won awards: Ypsilanti, two second places and one third place; Dexter, one third place; FCI at Milan, one third place.

First-time convention goers said they were especially impressed with the sincere friendliness and good will among the Jaycees and with the enthusiasm for the Jaycee movement.

Michigan's host at the convention was the Jaycee chapter of Tempe, Ariz., home of the University of Arizona.

New Manager for State Fair Has Agricultural Background

E. J. (Jeff) Keirns brings to his new position as general manager of the Michigan State Fair a wealth of administrative experience in the state fair field and a rich agricultural background.

One of the most successful state fair managers in the nation, he will tackle his first Michigan State Fair this year. The fair will run from Aug. 23 through Sept. 2, but Keirns already is putting his enthusiasm and energy to work to assure that it will be the biggest and best in Michigan history.

Keirns, 52, comes to this state from Ohio, where he did a tremendously successful job as general manager of the Ohio State Fair. Since 1968, when he took over the position, attendance at the Ohio exposition has skyrocketed from 400,000 to 500,000.

Keirns was born and raised in Athens county in south-eastern Ohio.

He has been an avid and life-long farmer. His tremendous interest in boosting modern agricultural methods led him into the field of fairs. As a youth, he was an active 4-H exhibitor and has never lost his love for exhibitions since that time.

Keirns graduated from Amesbury High school in Amesbury, Mass., and went on to Ohio State University in Columbus, earning a bachelor of science degree in vocational agriculture. While at Ohio State, he was a member of Alpha Zeta fraternity, the University Grange, the 4-H Club and the Townsend (ex) Agricultural Education Society. A campus leader, he was active in OSU student government.

After graduation, Keirns taught Voc-Ag education in the Carroll school system for a short time, but soon decided to go back to his first love—farming.

In Seneca county he began actively farming as much as 500 acres, specializing in Holstein heifers, Hampshire hogs, and turkeys.

In 1957, Keirns joined the Ohio State Fair staff as an assistant manager in charge of the Junior fair. It's now known as the world's largest junior fair and in 1967 had more than 21,000 participants.

His success led the Ohio Exposition Commission to offer Keirns the post of general manager of the Ohio State Fair, and he took over in 1968. His outstanding work in that job can be measured by the nearly tripling of fair attendance.

In 1965 he was elected a director of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions. Currently he is a member of three national IAFE committees.

In 1963 he was named by the Columbus Citizen-Journal as one of that paper's "Top Ten Men" of the year.

He is a member of Gamma Sigma-Delta, honorary fraternity, Eden Lodge No. 310 F&AM, and the Aladdin Shrine.

Keirns and his wife, the former Lois Rhoad of Bloomville, O., have two sons and a daughter. Mrs. Keirns is an experienced educator, having taught vocational home economics in the Bloomville school. Keirns was named Michigan State Fair manager by the Michigan Agriculture Commission in January of this year. He was the top scoring candidate of a nation-wide open competition Michigan civil service examination for the manager's position.

Nominations Made For Election to 'Poor Board'

Nominations for election to the board of the Washtenaw County Citizens Committee for Economic Opportunity were held in this area on June 24.

Mrs. Vera Bassett, CEO community aid in this area, announced the nominees who were selected at a meeting at her home. For the target area defined as Sylvan, Lyndon, Dexter and Lima townships the nominees are Mrs. Betty Hines, Mrs. Delphine Kargel of Chelsea, and Mrs. Carol Payne of Chelsea.

For the townships of Scio, Webster and Northville, designated as another target area, the nominees are Mrs. Mornie Brown of Dexter, Mrs. Mary Polkaski of Whitmore Lake, and Mrs. Betty Hines.

Mrs. Bassett explained that Mrs. Hines' name appears in both areas because she is a resident of Dexter, but is included in the Chelsea School District. The CEO office is waiting for a decision from Chicago, the base of operations for all Office of Economic Opportunity activity in Michigan, as to which list Mrs. Hines should be included on.

Before the election, Mrs. Bassett said, Mrs. Hines' name will be listed on only one of the ballots.

The election date is set for Sunday, June 30, from 1 to 6 p.m. Polling places are the Sylvan Township Hall for the Sylvan-Lyndon-Dexter-Lima target area; and either the Gallup-Sikow building at 66 Six Mile Rd. or the Dexter Fire Hall on Main St. for the Scio-Webster-Northville target area.

Two Area Students Granted Degrees in WSU Centennial Year

Wayne State University's President William R. Keast awarded degrees to a record 3,578 candidates at commencement exercises held Tuesday night, June 18, at Cobo Hall in Detroit. The program concluded the year-long observance of WSU's Centennial Year.

As part of the University's centennial celebration, all those receiving degrees have been designated centennial graduates.

Charles Franklin Cox of 27 Sycamore Dr. received a master of science degree, and Sandra Jean Sharrard of 438 Allegan St., Plainwell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Sharrard, former Chelsea residents, received a bachelor of science degree in pharmacy.

TODAY'S THOUGHT
By LOUIS BURGHARDT

A national publication published a number of letters written by children to God. All the letters were interesting and informative. Some were naive, some serious. Unsurprisingly, the letters indicated a lack of uniformity in a concept of God. More importantly however, the letters indicated the parents planted some solid ideas in the children's minds that there is a Supreme being.

Adults with faith, generally accept the existence of God with what Aquinas wrote: "Although the term 'person' is not found applied to God in scripture, either in the Old or New Testament, nevertheless the term signifies is found to be affirmed of God in many places of Scripture; as that He is the supreme self-subsisting being, the most perfectly intelligent being.

Inquisitive minds of children deal entirely with the nature of God. They are unconcerned with dogmatic differences of varied faiths and creeds. They are concerned with such questions as - "Who-and what is God?" "Is He around all the time; if so, where?" "How can He be unseen, but seeing?" "How would you - or do you - answer such questions to the satisfaction of children?" Your thoughts are welcome... BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141

Auto Crashes Injure Four Young People

Traffic mishaps injured four young people last week, three in one accident and one in another.

Kathy Ann Frayer, 20, was treated at the Chelsea Medical Clinic after the car she was driving skidded into a small creek along Jackson Rd. near Lima Center Rd.

In the other accident, three youths were in serious condition after they were injured when their car struck another vehicle, and then flew through the air and hit a tree broadside.

Sheriff's deputies said a car driven by Phil Harris Campbell, 17, heading south on the Dexter-Pineckney Rd. near Island Lake Rd. in Webster township, first collided with a car moving out of a driveway. The second car was driven by Gary R. Mannor, 24, of Pineckney.

The Campbell auto was passing another car at the time, and after clipping the Mannor car, it went through a ditch, sailed through the air and hit the tree broadside about eight feet from the ground.

Members of the Dexter Volunteer Fire Department were called to the scene when deputies were unable to free a passenger in the rear of the Campbell car, 13-year-old Jesse Campbell.

Firemen were forced to cut open the top of the demolished car to free the youth. Another passenger in the car, nine-year-old Milton Campbell, was in the front seat with the driver.

Phil Campbell and Milton Campbell were in serious condition at University Hospital, and Jesse was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

One thing delegates to Miami and Chicago next month can count on is hot weather.

Thomas Thomson Awarded First French Club Scholarship

A Chelsea High school student will be off to the French and Swiss countryside soon to study French and to see a little of that part of the world.

Thomas Thomson has been chosen to receive the new French Club Scholarship at Chelsea High school. Thomson, a junior, will leave July 7 from Philadelphia for a six-week stay on the continent.

Thomson's plane will land in Paris and from there he will travel to Orange, France, in the southern part of France where he will stay for three weeks. Originally, Thomson was scheduled to study in a suburb of Paris for the last three weeks of his stay, but the recent unrest in Paris occasioned a change in plans. The final three weeks of study will take place in Switzerland, near the French border.

On Aug. 17, Thomson will leave Geneva, Switzerland, for Philadelphia.

The French department at CHS, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Lauhon, began the projected scholarship fund by asking for donations, explained Thomson. Anyone who gave over $100 would be included in the selection committee. "Golden Trail," was shown and the $250 profits were donated toward the scholarship.

"They're planning that it will be an annual scholarship," Thomson said, adding that about $150 was left for next year's award. Thomson will receive $700 and will pay $200 himself, said Mrs. Lauhon when she announced the winner. Mrs. Lauhon, Mrs. Robert McKnight, both advisors to the French Club, Principal Charles Lane, and a representative from the Dana Corp., John Shaner, sat on the selection committee. Dana Corp. donated $100 to the scholarship fund.

Applicants were required to take a qualifying test in French speaking and comprehension, and had to submit an application and two letters of recommendation, Mrs. Lauhon said.

Six students applied for the scholarship. Cathy Powers, also a junior at CHS, was named runner-up for the award.

Foreign Language League Schools is the sponsoring organization for the summer study program. It is a non-profit organization based in Salt Lake City, U. S. Thomson said.

Thomson stated that 200 students from all over the country will participate in the program. He will be in a smaller group of 12 students who are under the supervision of Mrs. Anna Miller of California. Mrs. Miller will accompany the students on their trip.

The program is constructed to allow the students time for intensive classroom study in the mornings and time for excursions and side trips in the afternoons and evenings. Afternoons and evenings are free if no side trips are planned. Thomson looks forward to the trips and free time to be able to practice his French on a person-to-person basis.

"I think one excursion to Rome is scheduled and possibly one or two excursions to Paris if things quiet down," he said.

In Orange, Thomson said he will be staying in a university dormitory, and he said he thinks the same type of arrangement has been made for the Swiss half of his study trip. "You have to wear house slippers in one of the dormitories," he said, speculating that the regulation must have been made to control the noise or to keep the polish on the floors. Rooms with three or four other students will be provided. For dinner, Thomson said, a suit or sport coat is required. Thomson has studied French for three years at Chelsea High, and hopes that enough students will enroll to add a fourth year of study next fall. He said that he has been very fortunate in getting fine teachers at Chelsea High. "The teacher makes a great deal of difference," he said.

As a delegate to Wolverine Boys State this year, Thomson was elected to the office of clerk of Beqole county. He was sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club.

Although Thomson does not plan to pursue French study as a career right now, he said that many things can happen before he finally decides on a career. Now, he said, he is leaning toward math or the sciences with an eye to entering medical or pharmacy school some time. He is working part-time at Chelsea Drug store during the summer, he said, adding that he enjoys the work because he is allowed to do many kinds of work and has a flexible work schedule. This allows time to practice his tennis game, he explained.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson of 634 Flanders St., is eager to discover the differences between the United States and other countries, he said. "And I plan to send a lot of postcards," he added.

AGRICULTURE in Action

Weather Watchers

People are more interested in Michigan weather than are elsewhere, especially growers of fruit crops such as apples, cherries, peaches, and grapes. Kraft, well-known Peach grower, keeps a sharp eye on weather for a number of reasons. Not the least among them is interest in protecting his acres of budding, blossoming, burgeoning fruit.

Of the Kraft farm home in Sparta, are a series of sensors and temperature-measuring devices. Each morning they send out to the cluster, feel the grass anemometer, and check the instruments. Findings are reported by telephone to "Pasa" Environmental Science Service Administration station in Grand Rapids.

Martin Kraft is one of the few in a chain of alert weather agricultural weather services who operate on the theory that although you can't change the weather, you can make the most of it.

Kraft, and others like him who rely on the daily reports, are directly involved in producing an up-to-the-minute agricultural weather service of great value to Michigan farmers. Such reports, tailored to critical areas of the state, can tip the delicate balance between farm profit or loss in a year's time.

Recently Kraft became an actor in a motion picture film showing farmers and the weather, moving through his residence for the benefit of a camera. He also staged a play session out in the open to emphasize the point that many farm operations, such as application of insecticide or fungicide, depend strongly upon weather.

Conscientious farm operator and farm leader (member, Kent County Farm Bureau and Fruit Farm Committee of Michigan Farm Bureau), Martin paused before starting the spraying season to adjust his face mask, emphasizing the importance to all farmers of proper handling of chemicals.

Spraying at the wrong time is a waste of materials, time and effort. All living things respond to the weather. We farmers operate on "maybe" we have rain, at least within the limitations of our present abilities," Kraft says.

Today we may control weather instead of having it control us until that day arrives when agriculture owes much to people.

There are several ways to purify questionable water. The oldest is to boil it vigorously for at least five minutes. This kills any germs, but gives the water a flat taste, which can be somewhat improved by pouring the water back and forth between two containers.

Human nature changes slowly, but all that you can do, in effort, is to improve your-

Fashion Notes

When using a paint roller to apply that new color, start working in the upper left-hand portion of the surface. Use long, sweeping strokes in a vertical direction. Be sure to go over each stroke at least once in the opposite direction to spread the paint evenly and to pick up any surplus.

If you have a tendency to over-stuff your handbag, empty it frequently and sort your collection. Repeated overstuffing will change the shape of the bag, weaken the fastenings and may break the seams. When the outside needs cleaning, follow the methods recommended for it.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

BEING RIGHT
It is a simple truth that the best way to avoid making mistakes is to never do anything. We are all human beings and as such we are far from perfect. We cannot always be right. We cannot always do right. And sometimes our best intentions can result in unintended harm to someone else.

The wise man is usually willing to admit that he may be wrong. Otherwise, he is not really so wise. Yet it sometimes takes courage for the average individual to admit that he has made a mistake. It seems much easier to say nothing, to let the matter be forgotten if it is possible.

Admit your mistakes. It takes courage, sometimes, but there is the reward of knowing that you have done the right thing. There is even greater satisfaction if you are successful in making things right. Conscience is a pretty good guide. Conscience will always let you know — all you need do is listen and be so guided.

Lighthouse Tabernacle Church Opens Camp Meetings July 2

Along about July 2, members of the Lighthouse Tabernacle church in Detroit and their friends will return to their campgrounds on Lake Lehman for two weeks of camping and prayer meetings.

Lighthouse Tabernacle, located at 19000 Conant Ave., Detroit, operates the Lighthouse Harbor Camp on Musbach Rd. Each year at the beginning of July, people of all races and nationalities and from many foreign countries pour onto the campgrounds for their summer outing.

"For about two weeks these people sing and shout at the tops of their voices," said the Rev. Allie A. Taylor, D.D., pastor of the Tabernacle.

"During this two weeks," she added, "the little plot of ground seems to vibrate with the halleluiah and 'bustle' of activity, laughing, singing and shouting. Many times at night you may even hear the singing echoing through the hills and countryside."

"The singing and shouting is a wonderful, expressive worship to God," the Rev. Taylor explained. "It is a joyous religious worship which was common to all in years gone by, but one which has faded away in most churches today," she stated.

"If this old fashioned method of worship seems unusual to you, you are most welcome to come and observe, or better yet, join in the worship with the people of Lighthouse Harbor," she added.

The Rev. Taylor said that the people of Lighthouse Harbor Camp consider themselves guests of the Chelsea community and that they desire to conduct themselves accordingly. "We realize that in a group of several hundred people there is going to be a representative of every kind of conduct and personality, some of which, we are afraid, may not express the interest of the whole," she said.

"In view of this possibility, we would like you to know that if there is ever any conflict of personality or conduct observed, please do not let it reflect upon the entire group," the Rev. Taylor stated.

She added that the Camp has always appreciated the cordial reception the Chelsea community has given to campers in the past. "We want to do everything possible to make our stay in your area a welcome one. We have a sincere interest in the Chelsea community and like to consider ourselves a part of it, if only for a few days during the summer," she said.

State's Catholic Hospitals Treat 854,000 Last Year

Lansing—Michigan's 31 Catholic general hospitals treated more than 854,000 patients last year, the Michigan Catholic Conference (MCC) reports.

This represented an increase of more than 50,000 patients compared to the previous year when 802,849 persons were treated.

The bed capacity of the 31 hospitals was 6,761 at the end of 1967, up slightly from the previous year.

The number of in-patients treated in Catholic hospitals actually declined during 1967—269,870 compared to 272,135 the year before.

However, the MCC reported, the number of out-patients who received treatment increased by nearly 55,000—594,713 in 1967 compared to 529,713 in 1966.

HELPING FRIENDS CLUB
Nine members of the Helping Friends Together Club and their eight children enjoyed an outing and picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Petsch of 20154 Old US-12, Thursday, June 20.

The Jackson-based club began nine years ago with the idea of getting handicapped people together for social events and outings, said Mrs. Petsch. The club frequently schedules entertainment evenings for its members, trips, and members work on projects, for retirement homes and work on Easter Seal committees, she said.

"We try to do something interesting," Mrs. Petsch said, "and try to do something for others instead of thinking of ourselves."

The club is planning a trip to Lansing in July to see the Lansing zoo and perhaps the Capitol building.

Mrs. Jacques J. Shaninger

Joyce Mshar, Jacques Shaninger Wed Saturday at St. Mary Church

Joyce Elaine Mshar of Easton, Pa., and Jacques Joseph Shaninger of Allentown, Pa., became husband and wife before the Rev. Fr. Francis Wahowiak at St. Mary Catholic church, Saturday, June 22.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mshar of 742 Book St., and Mrs. Vincent Angellucci of Allentown, Pa.

For the 11 a.m. nuptials, the bride wore a white silk organza over taffeta gown designed and made by her mother. The gown featured an Empire waistline and A-line skirt, edged with Alencon lace. A cathedral-length train fell from the waist of the gown and was accented with Alencon lace. The bride's shoulder-length veil was held by a cluster of organza rosebuds and leaves. She carried a colonial style bouquet of daisies and baby's breath.

Nancy K. Mshar of Chelsea was her sister's maid of honor. She was attired in a yellow organza over taffeta dress. Her tulle headpiece was fastened with a Dior bow of matching taffeta. She also carried a colonial style bouquet of daisies.

Bonita Shaninger, the bridegroom's sister, Janice Wood, the bride's cousin, and Patricia Guest attended the bride wearing mint green organza over taffeta gowns. The bride's mother selected a coral sheath dress with matching coat and shoes and cream-colored hat and gloves. She wore a white corsage. A mint green embroidered organza dress and matching coat and accessories was chosen by the bridegroom's mother. She also wore a white rose corsage for her son's marriage.

David M. Zellner of Allentown, Pa., was best man. Ushers were Donald L. Mshar of Easton, Pa., Robert D. Richards of Allentown, Pa., and Robert J. Nosal of Allentown, Pa.

A reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the evening at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club with 200 guests present. Music was provided by the "Younger Than Yesterday" group from Dexter. Mrs. William Clark cut the bridal cake. Mrs. James Mshar poured punch. Mary Ditalia cut the bridegroom's cake. Catherine Clark tended the bride gifts. Donna Clark poured and Mary Clark had charge of the guest book.

The bride chose a light green organza sheath with white accessories, complemented with a daisy corsage, for her traveling costume. After a short trip through the Eastern States, the couple will make their home at 714 North Fifth St., Allentown, Pa.

The bride, a graduate of Chelsea High school, attended Jackson Junior College and was employed as a supervisor at Michigan Bell Telephone Co. in Ann Arbor before moving to Easton, Pa. She is presently employed at Sears, Roebuck and Co. warehouse in Allentown, Pa. A graduate of Stranahan Senior High school, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the bridegroom also attended Broward County Community College in Fort Lauderdale. He is employed at Sears, Roebuck and Co. store in Allentown, Pa., but will enter the U.S. Army on July 1.

The bride was honored at three miscellaneous showers given by Janice Ann Wood and Patricia Guest, Mary Ditalia, and Mrs. Vincent Angellucci and Bonita Shaninger. A rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents with 30 guests present.

A "stitch and press" sewing motto gives finished garments a professional look, report extension clothing specialists. Set the iron temperature control to correspond to the fabric being pressed. If sewing on wool or heat sensitive fabrics, use a steam iron or press through moist cheese cloth.

Liquid lost during the canning process shouldn't be replaced. Opening a jar to re-fill with liquid lets bacteria in and food would have to be reprocessed, say extension food specialists at MSU. Loss of liquid does not cause food to spoil, although the food above the liquid may darken.

Homemaking Hints

Hard cheese such as Cheddar, Swiss and Parmesan may be kept for several weeks. Soft cheese such as cream, cottage and Neufchâtel is highly perishable and should be used within a few days after purchase.

A black lacquer effect can be simulated easily with a semi-gloss black enamel intended for use on wood. Simply sand the surface smooth before painting, and apply two coats of the enamel. Be sure to let each coat dry completely before adding the next coat.

Latex foam rubber and urethane foam both make good mattress materials. Urethane, however, is lighter in weight and doesn't have the "fight-back" resistance of latex. A higher density urethane will give the best support.

In 1891, one of every 200 males who died in England was killed by a cab or other horse-drawn vehicle. Ladies fared better—only one cab death per 2,550 deaths. At that time, there were 11,000 horse-drawn cabs in London, carrying 80,000 passengers a day.

Too much success invariably sours one's friends.

REPORT from LANSING

State Representative

Thomas G. Sharpe

I recently received a letter from my good friend Mel Reinhard about a problem that has bothered me ever since the talk of abolishing justices-of-the-peace first began.

As of Jan. 1, 1969, under the new lower-court reorganization plan, there will be no more marriages made in Hell, Mich.

A lot of folks refuse to believe I actually have a town named Hell in my district. But, as anyone can check on the official state road maps, I do.

When other legislators go home to face the taxpayers, they only think they've been to Hell and back. Most often, I really have.

Hell, Mich., had its beginning, I'm told, way back in the early 1800's. A certain fellow from Pinckney didn't get a political appointment he was expecting, so he moved out of town and, out of spite, started a town of his own. He built himself a grist mill on Highland Creek and set up a still behind it. When the local farmers brought their grain to be ground, they got a good share of it back in the form of raw, unaged whiskey, which they frequently drank on the spot.

The creek ran red from the mill's refuse. A big bonfire was usually built at night. A track for horse-racing was laid out. Gambling went on. It was small wonder that the farm wives of the area called the place Hell, and the name stuck.

The town quieted down after a few decades. By the early 1900's local folks were calling it Highland or Highland Creek. But outsiders still called it Hell, and it made the newspapers about once a year. A Detroit reporter got lost one winter, ended up there, and brought back a photo of Hell frozen over. Another time a conservation department officer got transferred from Hell to Paradise (A. bleak, Siberian outpost publicity).

Then about a half-dozen years ago, the town decided to start selling itself—and overdid the job. Along with other civic-minded citizens, Mel Reinhard, who serves as President of the Hell Chamber of Commerce, decided to stage an annual "Satan's Holiday" festival. The local antique shop called the "Den of Antiquity" was shined up in readiness. Some good-looking local girls (Hell's belles) were decked out in costume. There was even some talk of retaining Highland Creek the River Styx.

The idea backfired, though, because the lure of devilishness had been underestimated. Half the people in lower Michigan decided to go to Hell that day. Some 23,000 visitors descended on a town of 200, creating a massive traffic and pedestrian jam and trampling down most of the shrubbery.

"We still want people to go to Hell," Mel mentioned later. "But just not in such large numbers." Even before the first Satan's Holiday, Mel had been finding himself in increasing demand in his function as justice-of-the-peace. A lot of starry-eyed young couples start out believing their marriages were made in Heaven, but the ever-rising divorce rate would indicate otherwise. So it seems that some sensible boys and girls, more and more of them, wanted to try the opposite approach.

Evidently, it worked. I have yet to hear of a single marriage made in Hell that ended in divorce. But now, under the new law, the J. P. marriage will be a thing of the past. Only ministers, judges, and the new officials to be called "magistrates" will be permitted to preside at weddings. No magistrates have been allotted to the Hell area, and judges have to be lawyers.

We can't make Mel Reinhard a ship captain. Highland Creek can hardly handle a rowboat.

I have no doubt that, in the State of Michigan, a man could establish a new Church of Satan, appoint himself the devil's minister, and have the support of our state Civil Rights Commission if he tried to perform marriages. After recently catching this Commission in the act of circulating guidelines designed to take Christ out of Christmas, I wouldn't be surprised in the slightest. But my friend Mel is a good church-going man, so this idea is out.

My own court-reorganization substitute bill would have allowed magistrates in all counties that wanted them, but it didn't get the votes to succeed. So I am carrying my appeal to the Governor, to the press, and to the court of last resort—public opinion.

Somebody must have an idea that would help. Somehow, somewhere, there must be a way of preserving marriages made in Hell, Mich.

AT WATSON LAKE, Yukon Territory, a home-sick soldier started a tradition in 1942 when he posted a sign telling the mileage to his home town. G. I.'s worked on the construction of the Alaskan Highway at this time. Soon, everyone who passed through tacked up his own sign.

"3000 MILES TO CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, Biggest Little Town in the World," reads a sign posted by Turner at the Watson Lake signpost. If you look closely to the left of Turner, you can see another area sign, "Munith, Mich., 3024 Miles." The name on the bottom reads "Cleo Harold Horning."
