Bulldogs Win To Take Lead in Conference

Chelsea Bulldogs earned the No. 1 position in the Southeastern conference standings Friday night, they fought to a 17-7 victory over Ypsilanti. Sallino tied with Chelsea for the top spot lost week, as trounced by Dundee, 24-0.

The Lincoln Railspitters, with a 1-1 record, lost their homecoming game as Chelsea—fans cheered the Bulldogs begin scoring early in the first quarter. The Bulldogs took possession of the ball on their own 38-yard line. Conklin rushed for 17 yards and a new first-down. On the following play Craig Houle completed a pass to Mike Harvey for 25 yards. Conklin picked up an additional two yards on the following play, placing the ball on the 63-yard line. Conklin plunged for the touchdown to put Chelsea on the scoreboard with a 6-0 lead, increased by one point when Orting kicked the extra point.

Lincoln retaliated quickly as they returned the kickoff to their yard line, then on two wide sweeps by their halfback plus a yard penalty against Chelsea, they scored their touchdown and a point to tie the teams at 7-7.

Neither team was able to score the second quarter. The Chelsea defense, led by Mike Gaken, Dennis Brown, Greg Stephens and Gary Kargel contained the Railspitters within their own territory throughout most of the quarter.

Chelsea fans received their biggest thrills during the second half. The Bulldogs took the kickoff and scored in just over two minutes. Jim Wojcieki returned the kickoff to Chelsea's 43. Kerry Kargel, Craig Houle and Dave Conklin took turns running the ball as the Bulldogs concentrated an inside running game. Craig Houle sneaked across from the 25-yard line for Chelsea's second touchdown. The blocking of Keith Blinger, Tim Colvia, Karsten Engel and Mike Gaken made the easy for the ball carriers. Tim Kargel kicked the extra point to give Chelsea a 14-7 lead.

Chelsea defense, led by Greg Stephens, Mike Gaken and Tim Colvia held the Railspitters at bay in the next series, forcing them to punt to Chelsea.

The offense moved the ball deep to Lincoln's side. The drive ended to a halt, with a fourth and five situation facing the Bulldogs on the Lincoln eight-yard line. Chelsea kicker, Tim Orting, kicked back to the 16 and booted a 35-yard field goal to widen Chelsea's lead to 17-7.

The Bulldogs ran a total of 25 plays to Lincoln's eight plays in a third quarter.

In the fourth quarter Chelsea pressed deep into Lincoln land but could find their chance to score by kicking. The fourth quarter highlight was a 30-yard pass from Chelsea quarterback Craig Houle to Len Kozma.

The Bulldogs' defensive second half, bolstered with the fine play of Kerry Kargel, Dave Conklin, Glen Wilkerson and Karsten Engel held the Railspitters to their 50 yards.

The running backs divided the yardage nearly evenly as Craig Houle and Len Kozma.

Handicraft and gift items made by members of the home will be displayed and available for purchase. Among the gifts will be quilts, dolls, aprons and many smaller items.

All are welcome to attend from 2 to 4:30 p.m. Saturday at 805 W. Middle St. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Rebekah Lodge Observes 50th Anniversary

The golden anniversary celebration of the Chelsea Rebekah Lodge No. 130 Thursday evening was considered a success by chairman Mrs. Richard Keizer and her assistants.

Guests were served the traditional decorated birthday cake, ice cream and coffee by Mrs. Keizer, Mrs. Ronald Beyer, Nadine Packard and Mrs. George Pickell. Tables decorated with fall flowers, furnished by Mrs. Clifford Wolfe, and Indian corn, waxed leaves and pine cones added an autumn touch to the celebration. The program was a replica of the same ones used by the Lodge for their 25th anniversary in 1943.

Mrs. Keizer acted as toastmistress and read several notes from members unable to attend.

Mrs. Mac Packard read a brief summary of the history of the lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Rha Alexander helped by remembering events of the past. They said the lodge's past meeting places were the store above Gamble's, a store above part of Merkle's, the Staffan building above the Patti Ann Shoppe, the K. of P. hall which is nonexistent now, the Municipal Building and finally the present hall on M-52 since 1950.

In April, 1918, Mrs. Alexander and 10 others were initiated into the lodge. Fifty-five members made up the first class, with Mrs. Eva Witherell joining in July, 1918. Mrs. Witherell is still a member.

The first officers were Mrs. Nellie Laird, Nellie Prichard, Ruth French, Helen Thomas, Mrs. Mary Schneider and Mrs. Marguerite Moore. All of the first officers have relatives in Chelsea.

In 1920 Mrs. Wilbur Brieton-wischer and Mrs. Alfred Hinz added their names to the membership rolls. Oscar and Mabel Barth, now of Detroit, and Mrs. Edith White, a transfer from Illinois joined in 1922. Present Noble Grand Mrs. Donovan Sweeney joined the Lyons, Ohio chapter in 1922 and transferred here in 1928.

Mrs. Anne McDonald joined in Sebawa, Iowa county, in 1913 and transferred to this chapter in 1929. Many others have belonged for almost 40 years, including Mrs. Leroy Hoffman, Mrs. Ross Munro and Mrs. Jay Weinberg.

Mrs. McDonald was presented a rose and vase for her 55 years of faithfulness. Similar gifts were given to Mrs. Alexander as the only charter member still active, and Mrs. Witherell as the only member.

Council Briefs

The village council met for a regular session Tuesday, Oct. 15.

At a public hearing a special use permit was approved to allow the construction and operation of a "Dairy Queen" restaurant on the Paul Pierce property located on South Main St.

Trustee Pennington was authorized to act for the Council in the matter of relocating the village water main from the tower area. Construction in the tower area requires that the main water supply line be relocated to the south of its present position.

A discussion was held regarding the proposed public works building and a motion was made and approved to let bids for its construction. Plans and specifications may be obtained from Village Clerk George Winans.

A motion was made and approved to petition the County Board of Supervisors for the change of boundaries of the village of Chelsea. The land in question is immediately East of Freer Rd.

Bids for the 1968 tree removal program were submitted by two firms and the low bid of $890 from the Expert Tree Service was accepted.

Motion was made to authorize the expenditure of approximately $275 in co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce for new Christmas decorations for Main St.

At a special meeting of the Village Council held on Oct. 3, a resolution was approved to submit the two charter amendments to the Governor of Michigan for his action. One charter amendment is to extend the term of office for the Village president, treasurer and clerk to two years. The second charter amendment is to amend the election law section to allow the formation of local political parties and nomination by caucus.

Need Volunteer Help for Blood Bank Clinic

The Chelsea Community Blood Bank has been helping Chelsea workers and residents for 16 years. Once a year, it needs help.

This year the Red Cross Detroit regional mobile unit will be at the Congregational church from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 to 5 p.m. Oct. 31 for blood donations.

Chairman Mrs. Dudley Holmes needs nurses and aides, registrars and persons to donate casseroles, salads and desserts. She has already recruited the services of doctors for the eight-bed unit.

Mrs. Holmes, who has organized the drive every year since it began in 1952, estimates an average yearly donation to be 130-150 pints. Between 25 and 45 persons are turned away each year because they had colds recently, were pregnant within one year from the donation date, had malaria or jaundice at one time, or were ineligible for some other reason.

All blood donated in Chelsea is available for use by persons working or living in the village, or their immediate families. Mrs. Holmes describes the amount donated as "adequate to cover the needs of Chelsea for a year."

Most donations come from factory workers in Chelsea. Most factories co-operate with the blood program by allowing workers to donate by appointment during working hours. Persons able to offer time, food or blood should contact Mrs. Holmes at GR 92181.

Community Choir Starts Rehearsals For Christmas

The Chelsea Community Choir is beginning to practice for its planned Christmas program. Meetings will be held each Monday evening until Christmas to perfect the selections from the Messiah that have been chosen for the performance.

Choir members would like to attract enough persons from high school age through senior citizens to equal or surpass in number the 40 participants last year. The choir is under the direction of DIAnn L'Roy, vocal music teacher at Chelsea High school.

The choir was organized in January of 1967 and has one performance, the Easter program featuring appropriate selections from the Messiah. Persons interested in joining this musical effort should call Mrs. Richard Borton or appear at St. Paul United Church of Christ at 8 p.m. Monday prepared to sing.

Area Teachers Are Attending MEA Meetings

Everyone knows about the Michigan Educational Association meetings. They take place during those two days when school is cancelled every October. Teachers disappear for unknown places and talk about unknown subjects. The contents of the mysterious meetings are never divulged.

Actually, there is nothing at all mysterious about the activities of the 82 out of 106 teachers in the Chelsea school system who belong to the educational association. Today, they are in the University of Michigan events building having "general sessions."

All teachers from schools that voted to attend the meetings from Region 3, including Jackson, Washtenaw, Monroe and Lenawee counties, listened to Mrs. Elizabeth Koontz, president of the National Educational Association, this morning.

This afternoon was to be filled by a panel discussion about "Moving the Profession Ahead" and "What does the Professional Practice Act Mean to You?"

The Professional Practice Act is a proposed set of standards concerned with ethics and professional teacher certification and practices. It is presently being discussed within MEA circles.

Books, visual aids, and almost anything else pertaining to school curriculum is on exhibit today and tomorrow.

Dr. M. Papo Speaks to State Pharmacists

Director of Chelsea Medical Clinic Dr. Michael Papo delivered the annual pharmacy lecture Tuesday in Rackham auditorium, sponsored by the College of Pharmacy and Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association.

Dr. Papo was in such eminent company as Bertra W. Flood, president of the Pharmaceutical Association and Tom D. Rowe, dean of the University College of Pharmacy. Rowe invites a speaker for the address each year and selects speakers of the calibre of Flood and Drug Administration Commissioner Dr. Paul Goddard, speaker last year.

Dr. Papo spoke about a physician's view of the role of the pharmacist in self-medication for the

JV's Continue Wins Despite Seven Injuries

Chelsea J.V.s downed Lincoln 35 to 6, Thursday afternoon although the team lacked the seven players out with injuries. The 16 remaining players all participated and managed to keep up the strong defensive front that has characterized them this season.

Couch Jon Schaffner lists the only scoring against the first string defense as a touchdown in the opening minutes of the first game against Stockbridge.

The first quarter ended with a 21-0 Chelsea advantage over Lincoln. During the second quarter the Bulldogs had two touchdowns called back and at half-time the two teams found themselves scoreless for the second quarter.

The second half showed some improvement with Chelsea tallying 14 additional points and Lincoln 6.

A rough fight with South Lyon tonight should be eased a bit by the return of Rick Westcott and Tom Lukasiak from the injured ranks.

F. J. Oesterle Gets 6-15 Years In Weeks Case

Frederick J. Oesterle of 704 Taylor St., has been sentenced to serve six to 15 years in Southern Michigan Prison for the fatal shooting of Glenn Weeks Aug. 25.

Oesterle, 54, was sentenced by Circuit Judge William F. Agor, Jr. Oesterle had pleaded guilty to manslaughter in Circuit Court last month. Oesterle's court-appointed attorney had waived examination and added the count of manslaughter to the original open charge of murder.

Weeks, 51, of 3019 Washburn Rd., Sylvan township, died of a shotgun blast in the stomach.

Large Share of Chest Funds Used Locally

Funds Benefit Social Service, Scouts, Recreation Association at Local Level

Chelsea Community Chest Unit of Fund chairmen are optimistic of the community's chances of reaching the 1968 goal of $23,850. The drive was kicked off Friday, Oct. 11 and is slated to continue until Nov. 6.

Percentage of goal achieved will be recorded on the large red feather sign outside the post office. When the feather on the sign is completely filled, Chelsea residents and workers can feel that they have been generous in supporting the 12 Community Chest beneficiaries that assist them each year.

Three of these beneficiaries are the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts of America, the Chelsea Social Service and the Chelsea Recreation Commission.

The girl and boy scouts claim a chunk of the drive goal amounting to $5,000 with half going to each group. Chest chairmen feel that this is a worthy cause because it provides learning experiences and opportunities to build character. These groups, organized into small troops, offer the opportunity to build solid friendships around wholesome activities.

This is made possible only by the organizational training and administrative efforts of the paid professional staffs at local scout facilities maintained by Community Chest and other funds. They include camps such as Bruin Lake, Newkirk and Wright's Lake for boy scouts and similar camps for the girl scouts.

Scout offices provide a common meeting place and maintain libraries of printed and visual material and equipment.

Chelsea Social Service is a small local agency operating part-time in the Municipal Building. It is financed almost entirely by United Fund, with a small amount of assistance from individual and organization gifts. It has been budgeted $2,400 this year. Its basic function is to counsel, refer, and provide assistance. It is staffed by a trained professional social worker, Mrs. Louis Ramo, and assistant Mrs. David Colquhoun.

The office, open 2 to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday, serves as the hub of an emergency agency for the village. The service provides counsel for persons with budgeting or family problems. It refers some persons to other agencies in the area if further help is needed.

Its third function, providing assistance, is for emergency purposes only. In this way, they are able to provide food, fuel, or clothing orders until the emergency passes or the family or individual qualifies for a more permanent type of public assistance. The agency does not give money—it gives the clothing or other items instead. It maintains a clothing depot mainly for school children consisting of donated and purchased shoes, boots and similar items. Another service is a building depot.

In the winter it co-ordinates the efforts of community organizations that wish to help those less fortunate. Individuals and groups donate Christmas items for the social service to distribute. The JC Auxiliary takes used toys to Cassidy Lake school for repair and then gives them to the service as one of the major contributors to the Christmas program.

The Chelsea Social Service was established in 1956 by Mrs. Louis Ramo at the request of the Woman's Club who saw a need for an organization of this type in Chelsea.

The Chelsea Recreation Association is slated for a $6,200 slice of the fund goal. It operates a year-round program for local residents from tots to senior citizens. Outgoing president Arden Musbach says about 85 percent of the Commission's funds come from Community Chest and the remainder is allocated by the Village Council.

The large network of volunteer workers contributing time to the program feel that their efforts have been extremely successful.

During the summer, the Commission rented swimming rights at Camp Tamarack at Clear Lake. They enlisted the assistance of Red Cross swimmers and attracted a daily average of about 85 swimming fans. Their summer baseball program, consisting of a Little League and Babe Ruth League, had 200 boys between 8-14 participating. The Commission, together with local auto agencies and factories bought the boys' jerseys.

Other summer programs include arts and crafts classes in which teachers experienced in these skills are hired to teach morning programs.

Other functions of the Commission include paying the senior citizens' building rent, organizing knitting classes, sponsoring physical educational programs for men and women and arranging for Saturday recreational basketball for students.

The functions the Commission serves were once the responsibility of the Village Council, but because AVERAGING 83 YEARS of age each, 18 Chelsea men over 80 shared in a dinner and program at the annual Kiwanis "Octogenarian Night" Monday. The group, totaling 1,494 years of living when added together, listened to Washtenaw County Probate Judge Ross Campbell tell of the early history of Washtenaw county. He showed pictures of the 1800's and early 1900's to some who might remember back that far. The Rev. M. W. Bruckner, 91, oldest in the group, and the former pastor of Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners, led the group in prayer. The octogenarians are, standing, from left, Leigh (1. CAMERAS AT BARBECUE: Chelsea Grinding owner Bill Freeman was seen "grinding" some footage through his movie camera. This caused much jest among the barbecue fans to the effect that television cameras had arrived. Actually Freeman, here supervised by daughter Becky, is a local camera bug taking advantage of the perfect fall day to record this popular community event. Guests came from Detroit, Dearborn, Grosse Pointe and

MARILYN HINDERER

Marilyn Hinderer Is Farm Bureau Queen

Seventeen-year-old Marilyn Hinderer of Chelsea was crowned Farm Bureau Queen Oct. 9 by a former Chelsea winner of the title.

Charlene Powers, last year's queen, crowned Marilyn at the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau annual meeting at the rural activities center in Saline. Charlene has been attending Michigan State University for the past year.

Marilyn was selected by a panel of three judges Monday night on the basis of charm, natural beauty, personality, poise, and public speaking ability. She displayed the latter by giving an impromptu three-minute speech.

All the contestants had parents in Farm Bureau groups and were sponsored by local Farm Bureau groups.

Marilyn will compete in the state contest at Michigan State University Nov. 18, 19, or 20. Next summer the 5 foot-2-inch brownette will be seen riding in the Chelsea, Manchester and Saline fair parades.

This Chelsea high school senior is co-editor of the high school yearbook and a member of a 4-H club. She has applied to Michigan State University, where she would like to major in business. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hinderer.

Boyer Auto Supply Burglarized Friday

Boyer Auto Supply was burglarized the night of Oct. 11, and an inventory showed that $8.76 had been taken from the cash register. No equipment was missing.

The crime was discovered by Patrolman Schneider as two unknown subjects exited out the back door, which had been forced. No arrests have been made and the case is still open, although police have two suspects.

Public speaking is easy—it's the thinking before you speak that's hard.

CHS Yearbook Staff Working On 200 Pages

Plans are shaping up for the 1969 Chelsea High school annual under the direction of co-editors Marilyn Hinderer and Dorcen Kuhl.

These two seniors and their staff of about 35 students will be laying out each page, writing all the copy and taking all the pictures for the 190-200 page yearbook.

The group is enlisting the aid of the graphic arts class to develop pictures and Miss Lynn Williams, CHS English teacher, who will be advising the staff for the first time this year.

Funds for the book will be raised through advertising placed in the back by Chelsea merchants and others offering services. Part of the cost will be offset by sales revenue. Publication costs vary from year to year, but generally increase. Last year's yearbook, expected back from the printer in November, cost $3,300 to $3,500.

One possible change this year will be the addition of the school seal on the cover. Arthur Lindauer has offered his services to attempt to revise it to make an attractive cover decoration.

Another key person in the development of the yearbook is Ann Travis, business manager, who is also section editor of the advertising section. All Chelsea merchants have been sent letters offering advertising space and the staff is following this up with personal visits from staff members.

Section editors are Caryl Thornton, administration section; Susan Blaess, personalities; Kathy Grob, activities; Ryan Smith, athletics; Lisa Peifers, organizations; Sarah Lindauer, seniors. Some of the section editors are new to the yearbook staff but most of them have gained experience from previous work.

School Needs Help To Transport Lunches

Chelsea school district is in desperate need of help.

School officials have been using a maintenance man to perform the duty of driving truckloads of hot lunches from Chelsea High school, where they are prepared, to the other schools in the district. But the district can ill afford the time lost to the maintenance department, since it takes all morning and part of the afternoon.

Anyone with the hours of 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. free should contact Fred Mills at Chelsea High school—He knows how to fill those empty hours.

The Night People

Meet Michigan's new "night people"—sleepy eyed boys and girls who stumble through the dark and all of pre-dawn to meet busses which arrive as early as 5:50 a.m. wick them to school. If they are confused and irritated, it is a good reason, for most young people know dark-time-as-bed-time, few willingly accept anything in winter I get up at night—dress by yellow candlelight, summer, quite the other way, have to go to bed by day meets the youngster in Robert Stevenson's famed poem. So has always been, and so it is in Michigan, under daylight saving time. This past summer, mothers younger children seldom found evening for themselves—for the struggle to get the children to while "the birds are still hopping on the tree . . ." outside is great—that it spoiled the few minutes of peace and quite that at parents want and need.

Later, after summer "vacation" (for whom?)—when sleep is so essential during the beginning school year, mothers are again faced with the task of trying to get the little ones to bed so they have the required rest before that 5:50 bus arrives.

Think then of the Michigan mother who drives a school bus, and has the added problem of not getting her own children to be first on the bus, but also exercise inordinate care making her appointed rounds the clusters of children huddled together in total darkness at street ends and road crossings. Teen-age baby sitters, have similar low opinions of daylight saving time. Their youthful charges continue to race up and down streets or find endless chores "to do," to keep from going to bed while the sun remains high and every instinct works to take advantage of it. All of which add up to arguments against permanent extension of Daylight Saving Time in Michigan. That issue will be on Nov. 5 ballot, where a healthy vote will return Michigan to Eastern Standard Time—all year round.

Colorful October Events Spark Tourist Calendar

Lansing—Nature sets the pattern for colorful October events and activities in Michigan amid scheduled color festivals, carnivals and celebrations, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

Listed among the fall color activities is the Carnival of Color which was held at Grayling, Oct. 11-13. During the festival the community offered free pontoon boat rides on Lake Margrethe, considered an excellent vantage point from which to view the woods. In addition to boat rides there were contests, canoe trips, dancing and entertainment. Belaire, Mich., celebrated its annual color festival Oct. 5-7. Many other Michigan communities have posted color tours through the woods in their areas.

Several of the leading race car drivers of the world were on hand to compete in the 250-mile inaugural race at the new Michigan International Speedway, Cambridge Junction, in the Irish Hills, Oct. 13.

Mt. Pleasant hosted the eighth annual Michigan Travel Trailer Rally, Oct. 4-6, at Island Park.

A snowmobile and winter sports show is scheduled for Oct. 19-23, at the Artillery Armory in Detroit. The show features a wide array of snowmobiles as well as displays of skis, outdoor accessories and clothing, and winter camping gear.

Other Michigan October events include the Archer's Whittall Roundup at Grayling, Oct. 5-6; the Red Flannel Festival, Cedar Springs, Oct. 12; the Fall Harvest Festival at the Nature Center, Kalamazoo, Oct. 12-13; the Midwest Antiques Forum, Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, Oct. 12-13; and the Autumn Square Dance Festival, Cadillac, Oct. 19-20.

The bow and arrow deer hunting season runs from Oct. 1 through Nov. 14. Pheasant season opens Oct. 21.

Copies of the Fall Calendar of Events, listing community happenings in Michigan during the fall season are available without charge from the Michigan Tourist Council, Stevens T. Mason Building, Lansing, 48926.

High Production Noted For Cow in Spike Herd
Brattleboro, Vt.—Green Acres Graphic Marilyn, 5887414, a four-year-old registered Holstein cow owned by Lowell Spike, Manchester, has produced a noteworthy record of 19,170 lbs. of milk and 603 lbs. of butterfat in 385 days. This level of production may be compared to the average U. S. dairy cow's estimated annual output of 8,618 lbs. (3,000 quarts) of milk containing 315 lbs. of butterfat. Participation in the testing program allows dairymen to more accurately select and develop the most profitable cows in the herd.

Revised ZIP Code Directory Offered in 1,652-Page Volume

The simplest best seller among government publications is now on sale from the Government Printing Office.

The 1052-page National ZIP Code Directory lists ZIP Codes for mailing addresses in every United States Post Office from Adjuntas, Puerto Rico (lowest ZIP Code—00601) to Wrangell, Alaska (highest ZIP Code—99699).

Individual copies cost $7 and may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Postmasters will furnish owners of the 1967 edition a copy of the updated book free of charge in exchange for their old book.

Beginning with the present edition, supplements to the directory will be published quarterly and sold separately. Purchasers of the 1968 document will be notified of the availability of supplements as they are published. The purchase price of the supplements has yet to be determined.

The 1968 edition supersedes the 1967 directory and incorporated additions and changes made in the ZIP Code system through March 15, 1968. It includes streets in new subdivisions and lists new and discontinued post offices.

For the first time, the directory was composed from computer magnetic tapes on the high-speed electronic composing system at the Government Printing Office.

Although many individuals purchase the directory, most copies are used by business mailers.

ZIP Code listings are arranged alphabetically by state. Within each state a complete listing is given of all post offices, named stations and branches, with the appropriate five digit ZIP Code for each single-coded postal unit.

First-class offices are identified to assist parcel post mailers. (By law, the class of office affects the size and weight of parcels that may be mailed from the office.) An appendix after each state gives the ZIP Code for each address in the larger cities where there is more than one code.

Many of the 1967 editions that are turned in will be given to schools for use in courses in geography and for that part of the curriculum devoted to the Postal Service.

A letter from President Lyndon B. Johnson in the foreword of the book, calls ZIP Code system "effective, efficient and essential to a modern postal system." He says that most industrialized nations are either contemplating a coding system for its mail or already have one. Johnson feels ZIP

Code benefits mail users and taxpayers who help support the Postal System.

The updated version contains a map showing the 10 major geographical areas of the country and the first digit of the ZIP Code for those areas, a list of the more than 550 sectional centers or main post offices through which mail is routed and the three-digit number which identifies them. The last two digits of a ZIP Code are smaller offices served by the sectional centers, an area within a city, or a specific delivery unit.

The ZIP Code for domestic Army and Air Force installations are listed.

For the larger cities there are listings of Codes for post office boxes, stations and other units, major apartment and commercial buildings, colleges, hospitals and hotels.

Also available at no cost from postmasters in the larger cities are copies of local ZIP Code directories.

Few of us know our real friends until we meet with misfortune or difficulty.

FILL THE RED FEATHER: A "thermometer" to measure how high Community Chest donations are rising was erected Friday by Dr. Gene Miller, chairman of the organizations committee for the United Fund drive. One of the organizations from which Dr. Miller hopes to collect is the Jaycees. Their president, Don Proctor, helped him place the sign in front of the post office the day the drive began. This sign is used each year to keep Chelsea residents informed as to how far the campaign must go to reach its goal of 100 percent.

Parcel Post Rate Increase Starts Oct. 19

Postmaster Richard Schaules reminded postal customers today that higher parcel post and catalog rates will go into effect Saturday, Oct. 19.

The rate increase will average 10.5 percent in most cases will mean an additional 10 cents postage per parcel.

The higher rates were approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission in July.

Under the new rates the minimum charge for local parcel delivery will go up from 40 to 50 cents. The minimum charge for parcels destined outside the local delivery area will be raised from 50 to 60 cents.

Almost all parcels that are charged up to $1.10 under present rates will go up 10 cents. This accounts for more than 80 percent of all parcel post. Postmaster Schaules explained.

There will be a 15-cent hike on most parcels now charged between $1.10 and $4, and a 20-cent increase on parcels now charged over $4.

Parcel post rates are based on the weight of the package and the distance it is mailed.

Higher rates for the delivery of packages and catalogs are required to bring revenue from this type of mail within four percent of operating costs, as required by law. Postmaster Richard Schaules explained. The higher rates are designed to put parcels and catalogs, which are fourth-class mail, on a break-even basis.

Additional revenue is needed from parcel post and catalogs to offset higher labor costs.

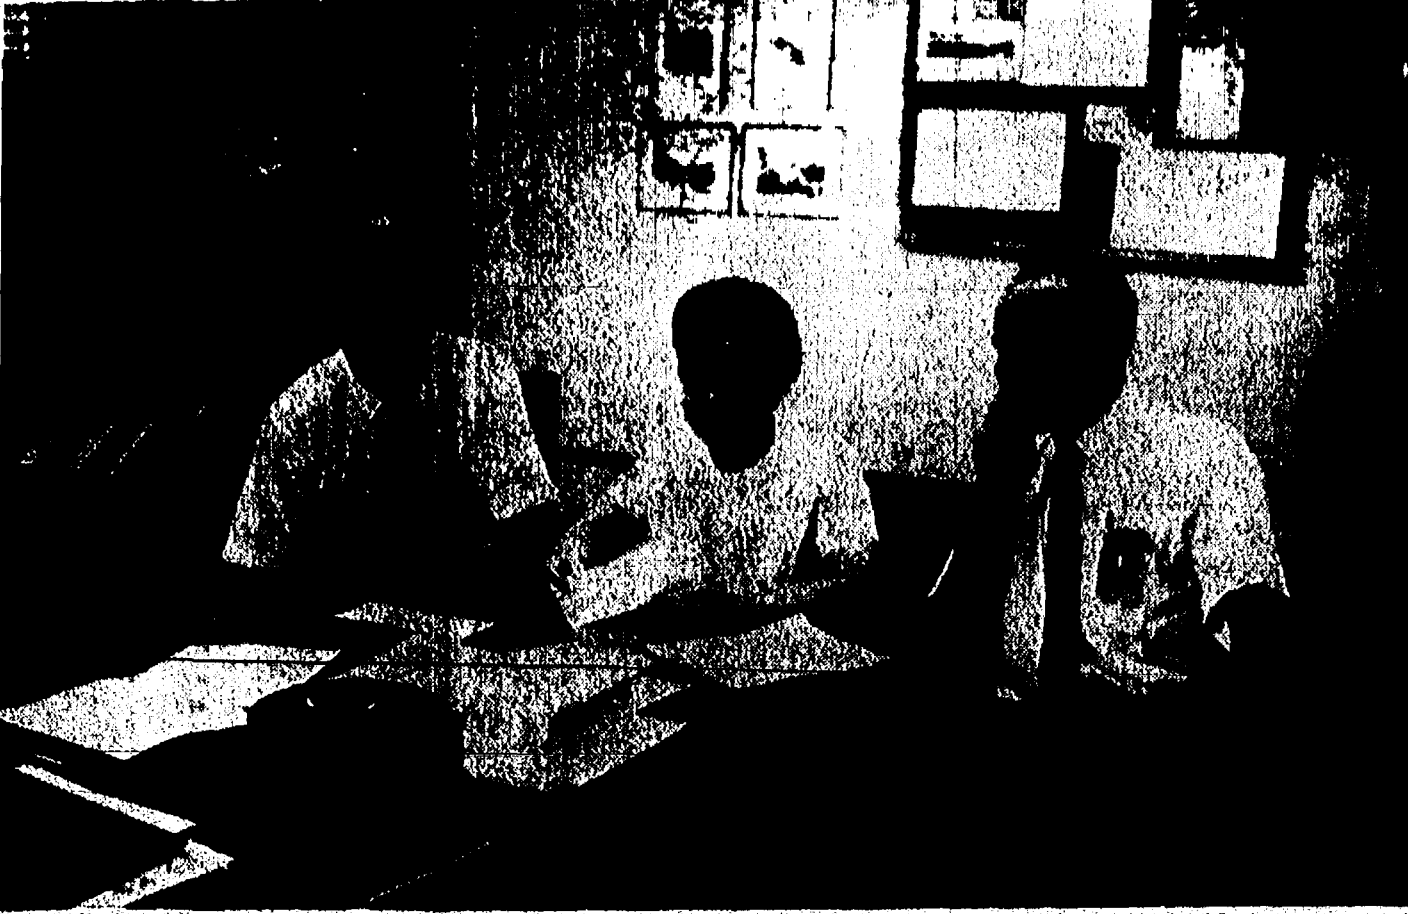

Mixed Up Lilies Blooming Now

It seems as if a few local Easter Lilies are having a last fling before snow falls, in the words of Mrs. Dunne Luick. There have been two reports of these confused lilies in the Chelsea area this week.

Mrs. Luick thought her lily that bloomed at Easter was finished for the year. She set it out in the ground to wait for spring but, just to show that you can't keep a good lily down, up it came and is now in bloom.

Mrs. and Mrs. Mercedes DeLaTorre's daughter, Dolores, planted some dormant bulbs in June. They were donated by a local greenhouse after Easter, when they had bloomed. Now they have three vigorous blossoms, protected by a covering placed over them at night by Mrs. DeLaTorre.

An expert in the Easter lily department, Mrs. Walter Zeeb of Chelsea Greenhouse, says that this might be a little late for the blooms but they are not extremely "unusual." Easter lilies normally bloom during summer and early September. They have to be "forced" to bloom in time for Easter. This method consists of tricking the bulbs into thinking spring has come. They are put outside when the weather is cold and taken inside during December. In this way they begin growing early and are in bloom during the spring. If they begin growing later, they bloom later.

CHEST FUND PLEDGE RIVALRY: A new kind of football game is being played by Dana Corporation's North and South Divisions. Mrs. Kenneth Norris and Don Houle, right, are co-chairmen for the Dana 1968 Community Chest Drive. They are shown with Dan Ewald of the Community Industrial Committee. Various departments will comprise the "league" teams and those with 100 percent participation will receive small awards. The league with the largest percentage of employees signing up will determine the winner and receive the championship pennant.

'Voter's Choice' TV Series To Present Candidates, Issues

East Lansing—WMSB (Channel 10), Michigan State University television, is giving its viewers a chance to learn exactly what issues and candidates they will be voting on in the November election. "Voter's Choice," a series of programs scheduled the weeks of Oct. 20 and 27 and Nov. 3, gives the candidates a chance to present their views and explore the issues at stake, information which will help viewers cast their votes more intelligently.

Each candidate appearing on the programs will be questioned by a panel composed of a high school student, an educator and a member of the League of Women Voters, all residents of the candidate's district. Candidates for university boards will be questioned by campus newspaper editors from MSU, the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

Candidates for the following offices and reports on the following issues will appear on the dates listed:

Sunday, Oct. 20, 3:30 p.m.—State representatives from the 53rd and 59th districts. (1 hour.)

Second Congressional Dinner Set Oct. 27 By Area Democrats

The annual Second Congressional District Democratic Dinner will be held this year on Sunday, Oct. 27 at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor.

This dinner is a fund-raising event honoring former Congressman Wes Vivian, in his attempt to regain his seat in the United States House of Representatives.

In the past, dinner speakers, honoring former Congressman Vivian, have included such figures as Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall, Senator Eugene McCarthy and Senator Edward "Ted" Kennedy.

Mrs. Harriet Fufeld, general chairman of the dinner, indicated today that this year's speaker will also be a man of national prominence. His name, ticket information and the local committee working on the dinner plans will be announced next week.

The history of the past will do you no good if you don't know anything about it.

The Hi-Light

Edited by Students of the Chelsea High School Journalism Class

Claude Sportis, the French exchange student at Chelsea High this year, was interviewed by the JHS journalism class for an article that will appear in the next issue of the Bulldog Barks. Watch for it!

The Junior Class Trip Club was organized this past week. Officers for the year are president, Ann Travis; vice-president, Richard Bollinger; secretary, Regina Hardy; and treasurer, Carolyn Buckingham.

Twelve Journalism students will be attending High-School Journalism Day at Michigan State University on Oct. 17. Their planned program will include an introduction to other high school newspapers, and specialized workshops in individual areas. The sixth hour Graphic Arts class is in the process of making bumper stickers announcing "Come to Journalism Day!"

CHS students are busy working on their booths for the Mid-Carnival, which will be held Nov. 23. This year, each sponsoring organization will build their booth and supply the prizes, instead of renting them. If two open doors key hang into each other, and one is a closet door, change the latter to a folding door. It's easy to change and saves a lot of room.

ing To Preserve Site Recreation Needs

Dr. Joseph Fisher, chairman of the planning commission, said his organization feels it would be a "great tragedy" to lose possession of the land. "The recreation and community service potential of this land cannot be overemphasized," he said in a letter to Irwin last Thursday. He also favors purchase by the Village Council.

Halloween Party Slated Next Thursday

Costumes are being purchased or designed and sewn by Chelsea children and their parents in anticipation of the annual Kiwanis Halloween party and parade scheduled for next Thursday night.

Participants will meet at the old junior high school at 7 p.m. garbed in their costumes. There they will be given noisemakers and judged on the basis of four categories—most comical, most traditional, most original or spookiest. A panel of three discerning judges will select first-, second- and third-place winners for each of the categories, but children will be kept in suspense until after the parade.

From 7:30 to 7:45 p.m. Chelsea fire truck and school bands will lead the children's parade around the block, turning right on Park, right on Main, right on Middle and right on East to the parking lot.

There they will enjoy a musical program by the bands and gobble donuts and cider. Prizes will be awarded by the program committee, headed by Jerry Niehaus. Prizes of $3, $2, and $1 will be given for first-, second-, and third-place in each category.

This year's general chairman, Walter Zeeb expects a large crowd and has about 40 Kiwanians serving on committees in preparation for the evening.

Leaf Pick-up Starts

The Department of Public Works in Chelsea will start picking up leaves Monday, Oct. 28. Persons wishing to have leaves collected should rake them into piles at the curb.

ng To Preserve Site Recreation Needs

Dr. Joseph Fisher, chairman of the planning commission, said his organization feels it would be a "great tragedy" to lose possession of the land. "The recreation and community service potential of this land cannot be overemphasized," he said in a letter to Irwin last Thursday. He also favors purchase by the Village Council.

Halloween Party Slated Next Thursday

Costumes are being purchased or designed and sewn by Chelsea children and their parents in anticipation of the annual Kiwanis Halloween party and parade scheduled for next Thursday night. Participants will meet at the old junior high school at 7 p.m. garbed in their costumes. There they will be given noisemakers and judged on the basis of four categories—most comical, most traditional, most original or spookiest. A panel of three discerning judges will select first, second, and third-place winners for each of the categories, but children will be kept in suspense until after the parade.

From 7:30 to 7:45 p.m. Chelsea fire truck and school bands will lead the children's parade around the block, turning right on Park, right on Main, right on Middle and right on East to the parking lot.

There they will enjoy a musical program by the bands and gobble donuts and cider. Prizes will be awarded by the program committee, headed by Jerry Niehaus. Prizes of $3, $2, and $1 will be given for first, second, and third-place in each category. This year's general chairman Walter Zeeb expects a large crowd and has about 40 Kiwanians serving on committees in preparation for the evening.

Leaf Pick-up Starts

The Department of Public Works in Chelsea will start picking up leaves Monday, Oct. 28. Persons wishing to have leaves collected should rake them into piles at the curb.

The stopped at the Ralston-Purina Exposition, Mo., and the Hereford Association stockyards on their way to the national public speaking contest at Livestock Exposition in Chillicothe, Mo. legates voted on national motions ig back to their individual chapters.
