Deer Hunters Report Good Success in Area

Many Find Prize Bucks Close to Home Shortly After Season Opens

Deer season seems to have gotten off with a bang, with Chelsea hunters that stayed near home reporting their big prize size bucks with large racks wandering through the woods and into nearby. Northern Michigan hunters have not been having much luck, if their silence is any kind of indication.

Chelsea area stores that sell licenses report large sales in gun and bow and arrow parties, and food lockers are stuffed with deer. Some of the successful hunters are:

Ed Klink, Jr., shot a three-point buck at 8 a.m. Sunday across road from his house at 20800 and Lake Rd. Hunters who report to northern Michigan and back deer-less will be unhappy to hear that he also shot a yearling near his house. He's got two, one each season he's had.

Ted Mead shot his first deer, an eight-point, 146-pound buck Nov. 16 while hunting with Jim Dault. Mead has hunted locally and in northern Michigan for years.

Richard Borton shot his Michigan deer north of Houghton Lake Nov. 17. This six-point buck is the first in eight years for Borton and his wife, who is busy investigating to cook the meat.

Pump - Pantry Store Opening Here Friday

The new Gallup-Silkworth convenience store and gas station that has moved into the site of the former Bill Brown's Super Service Station at 295 S. Main, is scheduled to open Friday.

Samuel Luck shot his first Saturday morning north of Chelsea. A reliable source said he "historically happy" about the spike buck.

The Gallup-Silkworth Pump and Pantry will be open from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. seven days a week, according to Don Alper, retail division manager of Gallup-Silkworth.

DRESSING DOLLS for Christmas presents are on left, Mrs. Tina Salmonson, Beulah Plumb, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Laura Oliver. These ladies are in the background. The dolls are being arranged by Mrs. Leigh Palmer, Mrs. Jess Yarger made and dressed a dozen dolls, as from the Methodist Home do each year, for

'Bumper' Crop Of Deer Taken By Motorists

The "bumper" crop of deer killed on bumpers, in Washtenaw county is rapidly approaching 100 this month, according to state conservation officer Donley Boyer.

As an example of the extent of the problem, Boyer says that four deer were hit Friday night and three Sunday night. Approximately 50 deer-car collisions have been reported to him this month in the western part of the county and 25-30 have been hit in the eastern part of the county.

Most of the accidents occur with bucks after dark, 1-4 and North Territorial are favorite sites of accidents, but Boyer cautions that other less traveled country roads are also dangerous.

Architect for Court Building To Be Selected

Washtenaw county Board of Supervisors will select an architect Monday to remodel the former Chelsea State Bank building that was given to the county in October to house a district court.

County Building Superintendent William C. Day said the supervisors interviewed a number of firms interested in the building last Monday and will award a contract after a meeting next Monday afternoon.

The building at 122 S. Main will be remodeled to convert the first floor to a court room, judges' offices, a jury room, and a holding room for prisoners. Nothing is planned for the basement or two balcony areas yet and no cost can be estimated until the architect formulates final plans with Day, Judge Patrick Conlin and the board.

Judge Conlin, who will head the court in Chelsea, has arranged to use the Sylvan Township Hall temporarily until renovation is completed. The district courts will replace municipal courts, justices of the peace and circuit court commissioners after Jan. 1.

Santa Claus Plans To Visit With Children

A bulletin from the North Pole to the youngsters of Chelsea announces that Santa Claus will be visiting the village Saturday, Dec. 7, 14 and 21 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Santa says he hopes to talk to all the boys and girls in town about what he should bring with him when he visits on Christmas. He'll let us know where to meet him in Chelsea in time for next week's issue.

To make Christmas shopping more convenient for Chelsea residents, stores will remain open until 9 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 16 through Monday, Dec. 23.

AUXILIARY POLICEMAN Earl Guenther, for other areas. Guenther and the other auxiliary police patrol with Chelsea policemen from 7 to 11 p.m. the first four nights of each week. They have all the authority of regular policemen since they have been trained and deputized by the Washtenaw County Sheriff, who uses them in other parts of the county during emergencies.

Auxiliary Police Perform Valuable Public Service

Police Chief George Meranuck commended the 10 Chelsea auxiliary police for their assistance at Chelsea High school during football season.

Meranuck said that Chelsea residents "don't realize what a valuable service they are getting, free, from the auxiliary and fire department aid during athletic events and other events that draw large crowds."

He cites the absence of violence at the football games, as compared to incidents that occur at other schools, as an indication of this service. Six to eight auxiliary police supervise games and firemen direct parking. This serves a dual function of providing supervision at games and freeing the Chelsea police for duty in other parts of the village.

Basketball season creates more problems with crowd control than football since many persons are confined in a relatively small area. Firemen do not need to direct traffic for the smaller crowds drawn by basketball games, but six to eight auxiliary police will attend each game.

School Board Briefs

At a regular Board of Education meeting Nov. 25, those present were Irwin, Lancaster, Powers, Taylor, Lewis, Koehn, Hopkins, Superintendent Cameron, Business Manager Mills, Principals Lane, Conklin, Wojcicki and Benedict and Assistant Principal Galbraith.

The meeting was called to order by President Irwin at 8 p.m. Minutes of the Nov. 4 meeting were approved as read. Treasurer's report was approved as read.

A motion by Taylor supported by Koehn to pay general fund bills of $9,849.10 received all ayes.

A motion by Lewis supported by Powers to table action on the village council bid on the old junior high until Jan. 20 received all ayes.

A motion by Lancaster supported by Lewis to give tentative approval to the OEO Headstart project for 1969, received a split vote, ayes Lancaster, Powers, Lewis, Koehn, Hopkins and Irwin; nay, Taylor.

The auxiliary service committee will meet in the board of education room at 7 p.m. Monday, Dec. 2.

A budget hearing for the 1968-69 operating budget will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 2 in the Chelsea High school library.

Motion by Powers supported by Hopkins to accept the resignation of Mrs. Vicki Cholek effective at the end of the first semester received all ayes.

The meeting was adjourned at 11 p.m.

The regular Board of Education meetings are 8 p.m. on the first and third Mondays of each month.

When the auxiliary police are on duty they have all the powers of a sheriff's deputy, since they were deputized by the Washtenaw County Sheriff. They also are trained and authorized to act in a civil defense emergency. The program was re-activated Jan. 15, 1955, after disbanding earlier, following three months training under the Ann Arbor police. Although a few men have dropped out and a few have joined, approximately half of the current members were in the group sworn in Jan. 15, 1955.

The men wear guns and uniforms when on duty. They are trained in first aid, civil defense, proper gun and night stick use and other police skills. At their monthly meetings, they are instructed by persons such as Juvenile Court Judge Francis L. O'Brien and former Chelsea police chief John Palmer, now county civil defense director. Several members are taking a 10-week refresher course that began Monday.

Each member has been approved by the auxiliary at one of their meetings, checked by the FBI and sheriff's department and sworn in at the office of the county clerk. One prospective member is currently being checked.

The scrimmage, set for 2 p.m. with Ypsilanti St. John's will open the season. Probable starters are Doug Weatherway and Art Furley, guards; Lance Burghardt, center; Dave Conklin and Jim Wojcicki, forwards. Other men that should see action are Len Kozma, Mike Bassett, John Hopburn, Roy Holaday and Dan Wenk.

The first game is Dec. 6 at home against Dundee.

Wrestlers Start Title Defense Next Tuesday

Hope To Continue Momentum of Last Year's Championship Effort

Indications of whether the Bulldog wrestling team can maintain the winning momentum generated by last year's outstanding championship team will appear next week, when the Chelsea crew takes on Willow Run in the season-opening dual meet Tuesday night followed by a meet with Tecumseh Thursday night. Both meets are scheduled for the Chelsea High School gym, with JV wrestling scheduled to get underway at 6:30 p.m.

The Willow Run Flyers will seek to relieve a painful 39-12 defeat dealt by the Bulldogs last year that terminated a 10-year winning streak.

Each school has a large turnout for wrestling that produces a tough second string to provide for some excellent JV matches. The varsity meet will get underway immediately following the JV matches.

The Bulldogs, setting out to defend state regional, Parma Tournament, and conference crowns, are operating under new coaches, Burley Hendricks, a Chelsea resident, and high school teacher, is replacing last year's head coach, Lauren Miller, who left teaching to study full-time for an advanced degree. Hendricks is assisted by Doug Matz Jackson, who teaches at the Beach school.

Coach Miller willed a sizable challenge to us in respect to matching the performance of last year, Hendricks said. "But he also left us with some fine wrestlers." "Co-captains Mike Gaken and Kerry Kargel were right up among the top high school wrestlers in the state last year. Each has that quality of spirit and dedication it takes to keep improving after a high level of performance is reached. Their second-place medals won in the state AAU tournament this summer—plus the effort they have put forth in rigorous practice sessions this fall—is evidence that each is determined to make his final year of competition an outstanding one. They also provide a high order of leadership and inspiration for the team."

The key to the season where total team points are concerned lies with how successful Hendricks and Matz are in replacing strength lost at the middle weights. "We graduated a vast amount of experience—and experience is crucial in wrestling—and many winning points with four-year varsity wrestlers Mike Hendricks and Lauren Boyer, who, along with Mark Lancaster and Paul Stahl made the middle of the lineup a discouraging experience for our opponents."

The Bulldogs also lost Ray Worlen, 165, and John McKeighan, 103, from last year's team.

"We'll have to develop rapidly from experience gained in the early season action to ease the load the heavy end of the line-up will have to carry at the start," Hendricks said.

The new coaches found an encouraging sign in a large turnout, the squad now numbers 38, marked with high spirit and an appetite for hard work. The squad lists several returning lettermen in addition to Kargel and Gaken including: Jim Boylan (hwt.), Tim Calvia (115), Wayne Stahl (135), Bob Koengster (133), Jim Portner (120), Tom Tiff (112), and Jim Wencel (103).

School State Aid Payment Will Be Higher

The Dec. 1 state aid payments to Chelsea School district will show a slight increase over the August and October payments, according to State Representative Thomas G. Sharpe.

Payments, based on enrollment and state equalized valuation, have up to now been on enrollment from last year and totaled $97,420 according to Chelsea Schools Business Manager Fred Mills. The December payment, based on the 1968-69 enrollment and state equalized valuation, is to be $104,030.

Mills said he figured the state aid to be $572,000 in the budget this year, an increase over last year's $527,387.

State aid represents approximately 40 percent of the cost of educating Chelsea students, with the other funds contributed by local taxes, tuition for summer school courses, conservation land payments, book fees and other in preparation for their first test after the JV match at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday against Willow Run. The Willow Run Flyers were stopped short last season when Chelsea broke their winning streak by defeating them, 39-12.

Washington Report
 by Congressman
MARVIN L. ESCH

Now that the election is over and President-elect Nixon has received a majority of both the electoral college and the popular vote, concern over the Constitutional crisis which might have resulted is already beginning to diminish. In my view, however, it is vital that the lesson of this extremely tight election not be forgotten. The nation came very close indeed to a Constitutional crisis. A switch in the vote in only two states could have thrown the election into chaos.

It is well to examine why we have had this election. I have analyzed the election and found that those two states rather than Nixon. Neither candidate would have had a majority of the votes in the Electoral College. Since many states do not require electors to vote for the person receiving the majority in that state, there was a possibility of intensive bargaining within the electoral college in effect, a possibility that the electoral President would go to the highest bidder.

In the event that the Electoral College had been unable to reach a conclusion, the election would have been thrown into the House of Representatives. There, each state, regardless of population, would have cast one vote.

The prospects of this brush with Constitutional catastrophe were frightening and we must take action now to assure that this possibility does not re-occur in the future.

Just as soon as the Congress reconvenes in January, I intend to introduce legislation establishing a Joint House-Senate Committee to study the electoral system and the proposed solutions in detail. My resolution will require that they report back a specific recommendation for change prior to Dec. 31, 1969. This would allow sufficient time for both Houses of the Congress and two-thirds of the State Legislatures to ratify a constitutional amendment abolishing this outdated process before the 1972 Presidential elections.

Also of great importance is the question of the process through which our presidential candidates are nominated. My resolution will also empower the joint committee to examine this situation in detail and make recommendations which are necessary to bring order into our presently confused system of primaries, party caucuses and party conventions.

Supervisors Association In Conference

The Michigan State Association of Supervisors is staging a series of 11 conferences for members of the new county boards of supervisors throughout the state. All those elected to the new boards—both those who have had board experience and those who have not—were urged to attend the conference to be held for the 9th District Association of Supervisors (which district is composed of the counties of Calhoun, Jackson, Washtenaw, Branch, Hillsdale, Lenawee and Monroe) on Wednesday, Nov. 27.

Held in the Commons Building on the North Campus of the University of Michigan, Plymouth and Fuller Rd., Ann Arbor. The meeting began with registration at 8:45 a.m.; the conference started promptly at 9:30 a.m., with adjournment planned for 4:45 p.m. Such topics as organization and procedure, county equalization, property management and purchasing personnel management, budget-making, county records and finance, county ordinances, county road problems, relationship of the board to constitutional officers, the board and county health problems and the board of social service problems, will be under discussion during the all-day session.

"Leadership Struggle"

A dogged struggle for key leadership posts in the Democratic-controlled 1969 Michigan House of Representatives is shaping up among lawmakers.

At least three Democrats have announced plans to seek the coveted speaker's chair when the session convenes in January. They are Reps. George F. Montgomery of Detroit, William A. Ryan of Detroit and Albert Horrigan of Flint.

Ryan, a six-term legislator, is considered the front-runner at this juncture. He is currently floor minority leader and has influential friends among House Republicans.

Traditionally the majority party settles on a speaker in a party caucus, and the decision is automatically approved on the floor.

But Horrigan has vowed to force the issue from the caucus onto the floor for a winner-take-all showdown this go-round. He says he will not abide by the decision of the Democratic caucus, unless he is tapped.

Montgomery said he would pursue his candidacy within the caucus and would make no attempt to organize a slate of candidates for other leadership posts.

"I feel it is vital that the members of the Democratic Caucus have a choice between a continuation of the lackluster and uninspired leadership of the past two years, and new leadership attached to the problems of the 1970s," Montgomery said.

"I feel that I am capable of meeting the challenge of organizing and managing the House of Representatives with the narrow 57-53 vote majority, the people have given us in the Nov. 5 election."

Ryan said the only way Horrigan could be elected speaker on the floor would be through sizable support from Republicans as well as dissenting Democrats.

"And I don't think the Republicans will go along with this plan of his," Ryan said. "They would be crazy to go against the Democratic caucus and take on the responsibility of the house."

Agreement with that statement came from present House Speaker Robert Waldron, Grosse Pointe Republican. He said the GOP "positively will not interfere with the Democrats' choice for speaker."

Waldron said he will be a candidate for house minority leader in the next session. He said Republicans will also select an assistant minority leader, minority floor leader, assistant minority floor leader, caucus chairman, and assistant caucus chairman.

In the election week, Gov. George Romney quickly squelched speculation that he may call a special session of the legislature yet this year to push through some legislation before losing his Republican majority in the house.

Romney said: "Barring some unforeseeable development, I have determined that such a special session should not be called."

Republican legislative leaders concurred.

More Highways

The State Highway Commission has requested that 600 miles of Michigan roadway be added to the national system of interstate and defense highways.

Director Henrik E. Stafseth said the Federal Government plans to authorize 1,500 more miles of interstate highway under provisions of a federal act. Michigan now has 1,085.2 interstate miles.

The Michigan request includes about 520 miles of proposed freeway, which, if approved, would qualify for 90 percent federal financial aid. Stafseth said the remaining 80 miles are already built or under construction. They would come in for 50 percent federal backing.

Government approval of the petition would not mean construction would start immediately, Stafseth said.

"We fully intend to honor our commitments for completing the presently authorized interstate system," he said. "This means it will be 1975 at latest before new interstate projects can be handled in the program."

Additionally, he said, the commission doesn't expect all of the requested mileage to be approved. "With only 1,500 miles authorized nationally our request is more than our proportionate share," Stafseth said.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ordinary Bug Hookum don't come to our sessions at the country store with too many bills to drop in the hopper, as them politicians say. Bug is more worried about the next meal than when he puts his mind to national issues it's usual for registering a complaint.

And last Saturday night, for instant, Bug took to the stump by allowing he was glad the politicking season was over. He said he got a heap more out of reading the comic strips than he did listening to and reading about all the promises of them three fellows running for President.

As a general rule, allowed Bug, politics was like someone new on the market. He said he read one where the trick was to get the people thinking they needed the product and then meeting the need. Political campaigns, Bug said, amount to telling the people what they need and then promising to meet the needs.

Per instant, Bug said he ain't never met a soul in his life that don't look at law and order as a right and natural part of proper living. But this year them candidates for President put law and order at the top of their promise list and everybody got the idea it was someone new. Bug said coming out for law and order was like praising the Lord and Grandma's apple pie.

What it all amounts to, said Bug, was that people don't know what they want until they hear about it. He said them politicians promise cures for ailments the people don't even know they got. It weren't the pore man that thought up things like negative income tax, rent subsidy, guaranteed income and Federal aid from womb to tomb, Bug allowed, it was politicians working on new needs to meet.

Fathermore, said Bug, when things was running smooth in the country was when the politicians really started worrying. They figger people was afraid to talk so they immediate name a committee. Bug said we now got more Government committees than we got Congressmen. And all of them claimed Bug, was operating on a fancy budget.

The fellows was general agreed with Bug, and it was Glem Webster that said he spoke for all of us in thanking Bug for the finest comments he has ever made at one of our sessions.

But it was Ed-Doolittle that had to get in the last word. Ed said ever-time he looked up they was a new law agin discrimination against women. And Ed was lamenting that women was taking over the country. He said they now got a bank opened up with nothing but women in it from the president to the guards. Ed said in another two year his old lady probably wouldn't let him come in the house.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Chelsea High School Future Farmers of America are collecting money to house 100 chickens at a new chapter project. The boys plan to take the chickens to Michigan State University in 1969, where they will compete in the annual poultry contest. The chickens should be of the type used at that time and will be judged on market qualities as well as rate of growth for eight weeks and lack of pinfeathers (fuzz) which is hard to remove when preparing for sale. This is the first year the Chelsea FFA has participated in this annual contest. Larry Johnson, project chairman, will represent Chelsea.

The FFA is searching for a portable chicken house for the chickens. They will spend the next few weeks of their life in the incubator and then be promoted to a small, portable chicken house. Larry said it is desirable to have a portable house so the chickens may be kept in a convenient place near school. They will like to keep them on school property where they could be supervised by all FFA members. A brooder has already been given to the group, and is being repaired. The boys will order the chickens and have a house for them. They are confident that they will locate one before the chickens grow the incubator.

The Chelsea Farm Bureau Group donated 300 pounds of chicken feed, which should boost the chickens to three or four pounds at contest time.

A FIVE-YEAR-OLD STALLION was recently added to the Chelsea area Pony of the Americas population. Mr. and Mrs. Don Meyer, 2601 Sylvan Rd., recently purchased GRS Joker Hand No. 3531 from Walter Kornbau of Canandaigua, New York. The permanent registered leopard stallion is a grandson of Black Hand No. 1 and Dragon 103, which are good foundation sires. Joker has sired 18 foals, 14 of them have been registered. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer were among the original members of the Michigan State Pony of the Americas Club when it was founded in 1960. They attempt to breed into their ponies qualities of size and disposition that will make them good children's mounts.

U-M, EMU Heads Join Group Pushing for Vo-Tech Center

The presidents of the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University have endorsed a "yes" vote on Propositions 1 and 2, which will be presented at a special election on Dec. 18 to establish a Washtenaw County vocational-technical education program.

U-M President Robben W. Fleming and EMU President Harold E. Sponberg are the first members of a citizens committee announced by the co-chairman of the "Jobs 1975" campaign, Lawrence Pratkan of Ann Arbor and Peter Fletcher of Ypsilanti.

"Jobs 1975" refers to employment opportunities and skill requirements projected by a study of vocational-technical education conducted by the Washtenaw County Community College and Intermediate School District over the last year and a half. The study was made in co-operation with the county's 10 school districts as well as the non-public schools in the county.

The first two propositions on the Dec. 18 ballot will ask for authority to levy a one mill property tax and to issue bonds against the one mill tax revenue. Approval of the propositions will help finance, along with federal money the operation of a county-wide vocational-technical education program and the development of a skills center. The center, eventually serving an estimated 25 percent of the county's 11th and 12th graders on a half-day program will be located on the Washtenaw Community College campus.

Campaign co-chairmen Pratkan and Fletcher noted that federal funds would provide about half the cost of building and equipping a proposed $5-million skills center, as well as 20 percent of the annual operating costs. They estimate operating costs of around one million dollars when the center is at full capacity.

Enrolled 11th and 12th grade students in the county would have priority use of the vocational-technical program. Those students would spend half-days at the skills center and would not pay any tuition for the program. Additional use of the skills center is anticipated through enrollment of those who have dropped out of school.

Ren Herrat, 10-year-old Chelsea High school junior, shot a fat spike-horn buck next to his parents' property on Fraser Rd., Thursday morning, while hunting with his cousin, Dutch Hopkins. Ron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Herrat, supplied his family with a delicious front leg, which they have already eaten.

Mitchell Zink shot a spike-horn buck, 110 pounds, opening day about 4:30 p.m. in the Watkyn Recreation Area. Zink was hunting alone when he shot his second deer in seven years hunting. Dick Weber, another Chelsea Standard composing room employee, returned Monday from a trip to the north country woods—empty handed.

George Zeeb and Nelson Peterson returned Wednesday from a hunting trip in the Upper Peninsula, bringing with them a fine black bear which they killed, and much interest was created by the displaying of the animal on the streets of Chelsea.

Mrs. Albert Widmayer was pleasantly surprised Sunday when she returned home from church to find that her children, grandchildren and relatives had come to celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wenk, Herman and Adolph Wenk, Miss Emma Miller and Mrs. Barbara Jensen called on Mrs. Olive Wenk Sunday in honor of her 85th birthday anniversary.

Mahlon Dunkel, Irwin Klumpp, Roy Dillin, Grant Schooley, Otto Lucht, Graham Sprague, Isadore Eder and Leroy Mayer returned Friday from a 10-day hunting trip near Ontonagon. The latter was the only one to kill a buck. According to reports the outing was enjoyable except that a "green" chef was employed. Graham Sprague might improve with experience though.

Mrs. Chriswell Escapes Serious Injury in Crash

Mrs. Ruth J. Chriswell was injured Friday morning when her car went out of control on icy Cavanaugh Lake Rd., west of Chelsea.

Mrs. Chriswell, of 208 South St., was taken to the Chelsea Medical Clinic, where she was treated by Dr. Michael Papo and then sent to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for treatment of a head gash and bruises.

According to Chelsea Police Chief George Meranuck, who assisted Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputy Spies, Mrs. Chriswell lost control of her car just beyond Cedar Lake Rd. shortly after 7:30 a.m. Her car skidded sideways off the road into a field, striking several small trees. After the accident, Mrs. Chriswell sounded her horn but was unnoticed because her car was below road level.

She got out of the demolished vehicle and made her way up to the road, where she flagged down a school bus. The bus driver notified Mrs. Elmer Hartmann at 17251 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., who called Chelsea Police.

Chief Meranuck called for an ambulance and notified the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, since the accident was outside Chelsea. He assisted, as requested, until arrival of Deputy Spies who made the formal report.

Lyle Chriswell, son of the injured, said she was bruised and had a large gash in her head, but was not seriously injured.

Thanksgiving Time . .

This special day of Thanksgiving is a time when we should slow down and give thanks for the many blessings we are more or less aware of all year long but for which we seldom take the time to be truly thankful.

High among the many things I have to be thankful for is the friendship, loyalty and co-operation that exists among the 16 of us working together here at Spaulding Chevrolet.

This is the spirit of comradeship that makes a rather hectic business enjoyable and it is in appreciation of this spirit that I make the following

TODAY'S THOUGHT
By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Thanksgiving Day is basically a religious holiday to voice gratitude to God for His beneficence . . . When we think about it, it can and should be a day for double duty . . . It can and should be an opportune time to express thanks to friends and families for kindnesses received from them throughout the year.
Benjamin Franklin wrote about such kindnesses in these words: "I have received much kindnesses from men to whom I shall never have any opportunity of making the least direct return. And numberless mercies from God; Who is infinitely above being benefitted by our services. These kindnesses from men I can therefore only return on their fellow men and I can only show my gratitude for these mercies from God by a readiness to help His other children and my brethren."
We think Franklin's thought is appropriate for all of us to adopt and adapt to our use on this and every Thanksgiving . . . Don't you? . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 E. Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

Wrestlers Optimistic . . .

Chuck Budreau, who worked behind Boyer at 145 last year, and Tim Ortring, (154), head another group with experience that promises some quality in depth. Others in this group are Dale Robbins, Ron Molsinger, Bill Kushmaul, Paul Maurer, John Basset, and Dave Watson.

The recent appearance of Dennis Brown, a junior, promises to keep the Bulldogs strong at heavyweight.

Hendricks said that he was especially pleased with a turnout of 11 freshmen and several sophomores who are participating for the first time. He said that Chelsea will participate in the Ann Arbor Novice tournament Dec. 27 and 28 and provide other opportunities for the beginning men to have competition that is provided at the junior high and freshman levels in other varsity sports.

He named first-year wrestlers Karsten Kargel, Floyd Boyce, Bill Stahl, Terry Lawrence, Jeff Bust, and Glenn Musolf among those providing a source of optimism for the future.

DEBI STOKER smilingly accepts the Nickel Carnival Queen crown and bouquet of roses Saturday afternoon. She was crowned by Pam Parnell, last year's queen, after her penny jar was found to have more "votes" than those of the other contestants. Debi is a 5' 5" sophomore with long dark hair. She enjoys reading, especially fictional mysteries, and watching baseball games. She plays clarinet in the Chelsea High school band, is a member of student court, and names English as her favorite subject. Debi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stoker, 414 W. Middle. She has three brothers, Jim, 21; Tom, 17; John, 15; and one sister, Lisa, a third grader at South school.

VERN OTTO was rewarded for his travels this year by bagging a 10-point, 200-pound deer Wednesday on Drummond Island in northern Michigan. His sons Scott, left, and Todd examined the buck enthusiastically since it is the first that their father has shot in his 16 years of hunting. Otto brought the deer back to his home at 507 Wellington. He was hunting with Jack Clark and nephew from Dexter. In previous years, Otto has hunted locally with gun and bow and arrow.

Two Youths Arrested on Charges of Larceny

Two Chelsea youths arrested Nov. 9 for larceny from a building were arraigned Nov. 20 with charges reduced to a second count of simple larceny.

Harry Burnett, 19, of 800 N. Main St., pleaded guilty before Municipal Court Judge S. J. Eldon and was fined $75. He was represented by Talbot Smith, local attorney.

Herbert Lynn Carpenter, 18, of 303 Madison pleaded not guilty that afternoon and is scheduled for trial before Judge Eldon Dec. 12. He was represented by Peter Darrow, a court-appointed attorney.

The pair were arrested on charges of taking two tires from the Pure Gas Station at 501 S. Main the evening of Nov. 9. The charge was later reduced since both lacked a criminal record. Chelsea police sergeant patrolman David McCormick was told by John Erskine that Jim Mitchell, a station employee, said the two youths took two new tires from a rack, put them in their car, and headed east on Van Buren.

According to McCormick, while Chelsea police went to look up the license number, they heard on the county radio that a 1966 Ford was traveling at a high rate of speed and forcing other motorists off the road.

Washtenaw County Deputy Finlay McCormick and Michael J. Crosby arrested Carpenter and Burnett in Ypsilanti on request from the Chelsea Police Department. Passengers in the car were Mrs. Ralph Frisch, her young daughter and Danny Risner. These three were not charged.

Two new tires, stamped with the station name and worth $54 retail and an open pint of vodka were found in the car and were taken as evidence.

The youths said they had told John Erskine to charge the tires.

Mrs. Amanda Mayer, who was a patient for the past several weeks at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, left the hospital Wednesday, Nov. 27, and went to spend the winter with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mayer. Her address there is 305 Plummer St., Essexville, Mich. 48732.
