Deer Hunters Report Good Success in Area

Many Find Prize Bucks Close to Home Shortly After Season Opens

Deer season seems to have gotten off with a bang, with Chelsea hunters that stayed near home getting their big, prize-size bucks with large racks wandering through the woods and into nearby. Northern Michigan hunters have not been having much luck, if their silence means they are returning without a deer.

Chelsea area stores that sell deer licenses report large sales in the gun and bow and arrow permits, and food lockers are stuffed with deer. Some of the successful hunters are:

Ed Klink, Jr., shot a three-point buck at 8 a.m. Sunday across a road from his house at 20800 and Lake Rd. Hunters who travel to northern Michigan and back deer-less will be happy to hear that he also shot a last year near his house. He's aged two, one each season he's shot.

Brad McGibney shot an eight-point buck opening day in mid-afternoon in the Chelsea-Waterloo area. McGibney was hunting alone.

He bagged the 146-pound, 19-year-old Brad goes hunting every year and claimed deer 1965, and '67 also. His dad, who wishes he could say the same.

Dr. Richard Borton shot his Michigan deer north of Houghton Lake Nov. 17. This six-point buck is the first in 19 years for Borton and his wife, who is busy investigating to cook the meat.

Kenneth Luck shot his first deer Saturday morning north of Chelsea. A reliable source said he was "hysterically happy" about the spike buck.

Dave and Jeff Bust, Chelsea high school junior and sophomore, respectively, both shot the same buck on McKinley Rd. at 9 a.m. opening day. Jeff admits Dave shot the deer first, north of Chelsea. But then, Dave is a veteran hunter of two seasons.

Harvey and Jeff just started this year. The story of how they got deer within bicycling distance spread quickly through the ranks of empty-handed hunters turning from northern Michigan.

Richard Harvey shot a four-point, 130-pound buck on the property of his parents northwest of Chelsea the morning of Nov. 24.

He was hunting with his sister, Barbara Harvey who was along for the adventure, minus the gun.

Harvey has hunted at least 10 years, according to his wife, who is being instructed in the killing of venison by her mother.

Donald Beeman, hunting with his brother, Wilbur, nephew Gordon Beeman, son, John, and Phil Beeman, all from Chelsea, bagged a nine-point buck, weighing 185 to 175 pounds. The group was hunting Sunday morning at approximately 8:30 a.m. on the Beeman farm near Waterloo when the deer was shot. "I always wanted to shoot a deer on my own property, and finally did it," said Beeman who shot a deer in 1948 when Michigan began having deer hunting, and has bagged several up north. This is the first local deer for him.

Ted Mead shot his first deer, an eight-point, 140-pound buck Nov. 16 while hunting with Jim Dault. Mead has hunted locally and in northern Michigan for years.

Mitchell Pickelsimer brought his deer hunting season to a quick stop fifteen minutes after it began by bagging a 110-pound spike-horn buck Nov. 15. Pickelsimer has shot three deer in his 20 years of hunting. All were local, including the 1968 model which was shot near McKinley Rd.

Pump - Pantry Store Opening Here Friday

The new Gallup-Silkworth convenience store and gas station that has moved into the site of the former Bill Brown's Super Service Station at 205 S. Main, is scheduled to open Friday.

The Gallup-Silkworth Pump and Pantry will be open from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. seven days a week, according to Don Albee, retail division manager of Gallup-Silkworth.

The store-station will be managed by Perry Travis, a Dexton, a man with eight years gas station experience behind him and several years experience in retail sales. Travis is a Dexton resident, but was full-time manager of a gasoline station in Ann Arbor.

Travis estimates that the remodeling of the store will be approximately 90 percent finished when it begins operating, so a "grand opening" will be delayed until after the holidays, possibly sometime this spring.

The sales force will include Harry Burnett, Bob Cantrell, Allen Abdon and David Pickell, all of Chelsea.

The store will feature staples such as milk, bread and soft drinks, and will have an "instant redemption" stamp plan where customers may redeem trading stamps for credit toward products sold in the store.

'Bumper' Crop Of Deer Taken By Motorists

The "bumper crop" of deer killed on bumpers, in Washtenaw County is rapidly approaching 100 this month, according to state conservation officer Donley Boyer.

As an example, of the extent of the problem, Boyer says that four deer were hit Friday night and three Sunday night. Approximately 50 deer-car collisions have been reported to him this month in the western part of the county and 25-30 have been hit in the eastern part of the county.

Most of the accidents occur with trucks after dark, 1-14 and North Tontorial are favorite sites of accidents, but Boyer cautions that other less traveled country roads are also dangerous.

Architect for Court Building To Be Selected

Washtenaw county Board of Supervisors will select an architect Monday to remodel the former Chelsea State Bank building that was given to the county in October to house a district court.

County Building Superintendent William C. Day said the supervisors interviewed a number of firms interested in the building last Monday and will award a contract after a meeting next Monday afternoon.

The building at 122 S. Main will be remodeled to convert the first floor to a court room, judges' offices, a jury room and a holding room for prisoners. Nothing is planned for the basement, or two balcony areas yet and no cost can be estimated until the architect formulates final plans with Day, Judge Patrick Conlin and the board.

Judge Conlin, who will head the court in Chelsea, has arranged to use the Sylvan Township Hall temporarily until renovation is completed. The district courts will replace municipal courts, justices of the peace and circuit court commissioners after Jan. 1.

Santa Claus Plans To Visit With Children

A bulletin from the North Pole to the youngsters of Chelsea announces that Santa Claus will be visiting the village Saturday, Dec. 7, 14 and 21 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Santa says he hopes to talk to all the boys and girls in town about what he should bring with him when he visits on Christmas. He'll let us know where to meet him in Chelsea in time for next week's issue.

To make Christmas shopping more convenient for Chelsea residents, stores will remain open until 9 p.m. from Monday, Dec. 10 through Monday, Dec. 23.

AUXILIARY POLICEMAN Earl Guenther, for other areas. Guenther and the other auxiliary center, examines the Chelsea Police arrest record, police patrol with Chelsea policemen from 7 to 11 p.m. the first four nights of each week. The men have all the authority of regular policemen since they have been trained and deputized by the Washtenaw County Sheriff, who uses them in other parts of the county during emergencies.

Auxiliary Police Perform Valuable Public Service

Police Chief George Meranuck commended the 16 Chelsea auxiliary police for their assistance at Chelsea High school during football games.

Meranuck said that Chelsea residents "don't realize what a valuable service they are getting, free, from the auxiliary and fire department aid during athletic events and other events that draw large crowds."

He cites the absence of violence at the football games, as compared to incidents that occur at other schools, as an indication of this service. Six to eight auxiliary police supervise games and firemen direct parking. This serves a dual function of providing supervision at games and freeing the Chelsea police for duty in other parts of the village.

Basketball season creates more problems with crowd control than football since many persons are confined in a relatively small area. Firemen do not need to direct traffic for the smaller crowds drawn by basketball games, but six to eight auxiliary police will attend each game.

The 16 men take turns accompanying the Chelsea policeman on duty from 7-11 p.m. Monday through Thursday nights, supervise parades and other events and assist the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department during emergencies.

Capt. Calvin C. Summers recalls working with the Ann Arbor police during the tornado "several years ago, hunting lost children, and patrolling Ypsilanti when it was feared that rioting might break out there during the Detroit riots. The men are available for any county emergency although most of their efforts are directed to Chelsea.

When the auxiliary police are on duty they have all the powers of a sheriff's deputy, since they were deputized by the Washtenaw County Sheriff. They also are trained and authorized to act in a civil defense emergency. The program was re-activated Jan. 15, 1955 after disbanding earlier, following three months training under the Ann Arbor police. Although a few men have dropped out and a few have joined, approximately half of the current members were in the group sworn in Jan. 15, 1955.

The men wear guns and uniforms when on duty. They are trained in first aid, civil defense, proper gun and night stick use and other police skills. At their monthly meetings, they are instructed by persons such as Juvenile Court Judge Francis L. O'Brien and former Chelsea police chief John Palmer, now county civil defense director. Several members are taking a 10-week refresher course that began Monday.

Each member has been approved by the auxiliary at one of their meetings, checked by the FBI and sheriff's department and sworn in at the office.

A motion by Taylor supported by Powers to pay general fund bills of $9,849.10 received all ayes.

A motion by Lewis supported by Powers to table action on the village council bid on the old junior high until Jan. 20 received all ayes.

A motion by Lancaster supported by Lewis to give tentative approval to the OEO Headstart project for 1969, received a split vote, ayes Lancaster, Powers, Lewis, Koenig, Hopkins and Irwin; nays, Taylor.

The auxiliary service committee will meet in the board of education room at 7 p.m. Monday, Dec. 2.

A budget hearing for the 1968-69 operating budget will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 2 in the Chelsea High school library.

The meeting was adjourned at 11 p.m.

The regular Board of Education meetings are 8 p.m. on the first and third Mondays of each month.

Wrestlers Start Title Defense Next Tuesday

Hope To Continue Momentum of Last Year's Championship Effort

Indications of whether the Bulldogs wrestling team can maintain the winning momentum generated by last year's outstanding championship team will appear next week, when the Chelsea crew takes on Willow Run in the season-opening dual meet Tuesday night followed by a meet with Tecumseh Thursday night. Both meets are scheduled for the Chelsea High School gym, with JV wrestling scheduled to get underway at 6:30 p.m.

The Willow Run Flyers will seek to relieve a painful 39-12 defeat dealt by the Bulldogs last year that terminated a five-year winning streak.

Each school has a large turnout for wrestling that produces a tough second string to provide for some excellent JV matches. The varsity meet will get underway immediately following the JV matches.

The Bulldogs, setting out to defend state regional, Parma Tournament, and conference crowns, are operating under new coaches, Burley Hendricks, a Chelsea resident, and high school teacher, is replacing last year's head coach, Lauren Miller, who left teaching to study full time for an advanced degree.

Hendricks is assisted by Doug Matz Jackson, who teaches at the Beach School.

"Coach Miller willed a sizable challenge to us in respect to matching the performance of last year," Hendricks said. "But he also left us with some fine wrestlers."

Co-captains Mike Gaken and Kerry Kargel were right up among the top high school wrestlers in the state last year. Each has that quality of spirit and dedication it takes to keep improving after a high level of performance is reached. Their second-place medals won in the state AAU tournament this summer, plus the effort they have put forth in rigorous practice sessions this fall, is evidence that each is determined to make his final year of competition an outstanding one. They also provide a high order of leadership and inspiration for the team.

The key to the season where total team points are concerned lies with how successful Hendricks and Matz are in replacing strength lost at the middle weights.

"We graduated a vast amount of experience—and experience" crucial in wrestling—and many winning points with four-year varsity wrestlers Mike Hendricks and Lauren Miller, who, along with Mark Imberger and Paul Stahl made the middle of the lineup a discouraging experience for our opponents."

The Bulldogs also lost Ray Warden, 195, and John McKeighan, 163, from last year's team.

"We'll have to develop rapidly from experience gained in the early season action to ease the load the heavy end of the line-up will have to carry at the start," Hendricks said.

The new coaches found an encouraging sign in a large turnout, the squad now numbers 38, marked with high spirit and an appetite for hard work. The squad lists several returning lettermen in addition to Kargel and Gaken, including: Jim Royle, (saw), Tim Colvin, (165), Wayne Stahl, (135), Bob Koenigster, (133), Jim Poyner, (120), Tom Tirl, (112), and Jim Wencel, (103).

School State Aid Payment Will Be Higher

The Dec. 1 state aid payments to Chelsea School district will show a slight increase over the August and October payments, according to State Representative Thomas G. Sharpe.

Payments, based on enrollment and state equalized valuation, have up to now been an enrollment from last year and total $97,420 according to Chelsea Schools Business Manager Fred Mills. The December payment, based on the 1968-69 enrollment and state equalized valuation, is to be $104,030.

Mills said he figured the state aid to be $373,000 in the budget this year, an increase over last year's $327,387.

State aid represents approximately 40 percent of the cost of educating Chelsea students, with the other funds contributed by local taxes, tuition for summer school courses, conservation land payments, book fees and other

CHS Basketball Team Preview Slated Friday

An open scrimmage Friday will offer Chelsea Basketball fans an opportunity to scrutinize the results of several weeks of intensive practice by the 12 Bulldog cagers.

The scrimmage, set for 2 p.m. with Ypsilanti St. John's will open the season. Coach Tom Balistrere expects the game-type conditions to show the team's good balance, attitude and determination to improve on their record last year.

Probable starters are Doug Weatherwax and Art Farley, guards; Lance Burghardt, center; Dave Conklin and Jim Wojcieki, forwards. Other men that should see action are Len Kozma, Mike Bassett, John Hepburn, Roy Holiday and Dan Wenk.

The first game is Dec. 6 at home against Dundee.

BULLDOG WRESTLING CAPTAINS Mike Gaken and Kerry Kargel display the wrestling championship trophies won last year and model the team's new uniforms. The boys have been practicing after school each day under Coach Burley Hendricks in preparation for their first test after the JV match at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday against Willow Run. The Willow Run Flyers were stopped short last season when Chelsea broke their winning streak by defeating them, 39-12.

Washington Report
by Congressman
MARVIN L. ESCH

Now that the election is over and President-elect Nixon has received a majority of both the electoral college and the popular vote, concern over the Constitutional crisis which might have resulted is already beginning to diminish. In my view, however, it is vital the lesson of this extremely tight election not be forgotten. The nation came very close indeed to a Constitutional crisis. A switch in the vote in only two states could have thrown the election into chaos.

It is well to examine what would have happened had Humphrey carried those two states rather than Nixon. Neither candidate would have had a majority of the votes in the Electoral College. Since many states do not require electors to vote for the person receiving the majority in that state, there was a possibility of intensive bargaining within the electoral college in effect, a possibility that the job of President would go to the highest bidder.

In the event that the Electoral College had been unable to reach a conclusion, the election would have been thrown into the House of Representatives. There, each state, regardless of population, would have cast one vote. The prospects of this brush with Constitutional catastrophe were frightening and we must take action now to assure that this possibility does not re-occur in the future.

Just as soon as the Congress reconvenes in January, I intend to introduce legislation establishing a Joint House-Senate Committee to study the electoral system and the proposed solutions in detail. My resolution will require that they report back a specific recommendation for change prior to Dec. 31, 1969. This would allow sufficient time for both Houses of the Congress and two-thirds of the State Legislatures to ratify a constitutional amendment abolishing this outdated process before the 1972 presidential elections.

Also of great importance is the question of the process through which our presidential candidates are nominated. My resolution will also empower the joint committee to examine this situation in detail and make recommendations which are necessary to bring order to our presently confused system of primaries, party caucuses and party conventions.

Supervisors Association In-Conference

The Michigan State Association of Supervisors is staging a series of 11 conferences for members of the new county boards of supervisors throughout the state. All those elected to the new boards—both those who have had board experience and those who have not—were urged to attend the conference to be held for the 9th District Association of Supervisors (which district is composed of the counties of Colchoun, Jackson, Washtenaw, Branch, Hillsdale, Lenawee and Monroe) on Wednesday, Nov. 23.

Held in the Commons Building on the North Campus of the University of Michigan, Plymouth and Fuller Rd., Ann Arbor. The meeting began with registration at 8:45 a.m., the conference started promptly at 9:30 a.m., with adjournment planned for 4:45 p.m. Such topics as organization and procedure, county equalization, property management and purchasing, personnel management, budget-making, county records and finance, county ordinances, county road relations, relationship of the board and county health problems and the board of social service problems, will be under discussion during the all-day session.

"Leadership Struggle"
A dogged struggle for key leadership posts in the Democratic-controlled 1969 Michigan House of Representatives is shaping up among lawmakers.

At least three Democrats have announced plans to seek the coveted speaker's chair when the session convenes in January. They are Reps. George F. Montgomery of Detroit, William A. Ryan of Detroit and Albert Horrikan of Flint.

Ryan, a six-term legislator, is considered the front-runner at this juncture. He is currently floor minority leader and has influential friends among house Republicans.

Traditionally the majority party settles on a speaker in a party caucus, and the decision is automatically approved on the floor. But Horrikan has vowed to force the issue from the caucus onto the floor for a "winner-take-all" showdown this weekend. He says he will not abide by the decision of the Democratic caucus unless he is tapped.

Montgomery said he would pursue his candidacy within the caucus, and would make no attempt to organize a slate of candidates for other leadership posts.

"I feel it is vital that the members of the Democratic Caucus have a choice between a continuation of the lackluster and uninspired leadership of the past two years and new leadership attuned to the problems of the 1970s," Montgomery said.

"I feel that I am capable of meeting the challenge of organizing and managing the House of Representatives with the narrow 57-53 vote majority the people have given us in the Nov. 5 election."

Ryan said the only way Horrikan could be elected speaker on the floor would be through sizable support from Republicans as well as dissident Democrats.

"And I don't think the Republicans will go along with this plan of his," Ryan said. "They would be crazy to go against the Democratic caucus and take on the responsibility of the house."

Agreement with that statement came from present House Speaker Robert Waldron, House GOP leader. He said the GOP leadership will not interfere with the Democrats' choice for speaker.

Waldron said he will be a candidate for house minority leader in the next session. He said Republicans will also select an assistant minority leader, minority floor leader, assistant minority floor leader, caucus chairman, and assistant caucus chairman.

In the election-wake, Gov. George Romney quickly squelched speculation that he may call a special session of the legislature yet this year to push through some pet legislation before losing his Republican majority in the house.

Romney said: "Barring some unforeseeable development, I have determined that such a special session should not be called."

Republican legislative leaders concurred.

More Highways
The State Highway Commission has requested that 600 miles of Michigan roadway be added to the national system of interstate and defense highways.

Director Henrik E. Stafseth said the Federal Government plans to authorize 1,500 more miles of interstate highway under provisions of a federal act. Michigan now has 1,052 interstate miles.

The Michigan request includes about 520 miles of proposed freeway, which, if approved, would qualify for 90 percent federal financing aid. Stafseth said the remaining 80 miles are already built or under construction. They would come in for 50 percent federal backing.

Government approval of the petition would not mean construction would start immediately, Stafseth said.

"We fully intend to honor our commitments for completing the presently authorized interstate system," he said. "This means it will be 1975 at least before new interstate projects can be handled in the program."

Additionally, he said, the commission doesn't expect all of the requested mileage to be approved. "With only 1,500 miles authorized nationally our request is more than our proportionate share," Stafseth said.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
Ordinary. But Hookum don't come to our sessions at the country store with too many bills to pay in the hopper, as them politicians say. Bug is more worried about the new meal than the time administration and when he puts his mind to national issues it's usual for registering a complaint.

And last Saturday night, for instant Bug took to the stump by allowing he was glad the political season was over. He said he got a heap more out of reading the comic strips than he did listening to and reading about all the promises of them three fellers running for President.

As a general rule, allowed Bug, politics was like some new on the market. He said he read once where the trick was to get the people thinking they needed the product and then meeting the need. Political campaigns, Bug said, amount to telling the people what they need and then promising to meet the need.

Per instant, Bug said he ain't never met a soul in his life that don't look at law and order as a right and natural part of proper living. But this year them candidates for President put law and order at the top of their promise list and everybody got the idea it was some new new. Bug said coming out for law and order was like praising the Lord and Grandma's apple pie.

What it all amounts to, said Bug, was that people don't know what they want until they hear about it. He said them politicians promise cures for ailments the people don't even know they got. It weren't the pore man that thought up things like negative income tax, rent subsidy, guaranteed income and Federal aid from womb to tomb. Bug allowed, it was politicians working on new needs to meet.

Fathermore, said Bug, when things was running smooth in the country was when the politicians really started worrying. They figger people was afraid to talk so they immediate name a committee. Bug said we now got more Government committees than we got Congressmen. And all of them claimed Bug was operating on a fancy budget.

The fellers was general agreed with Bug, and it was Clem Webster that said he spoke for all of us in thanking Bug for the finest comments he has ever made in one of our sessions.

But it was Ed Doolittle that had to get in the last word. Ed said ever time he looked up they was a new law again discriminating against women. And Ed was lamenting that women was taking over the country. He said they now got a bank opened up with nothing but women in it from the president to the guards. Ed said in another two year his old lady probably wouldn't let him come in the house.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

24 Years Ago...

Thursday, Nov. 23, 1944—About 25 young members of the Chelsea high school football squad were so elated when they defeated Manchester Thursday that they failed to show up at school Friday and were all smiles to think they were "putting one over" on the faculty.

However, the corners of their mouths curved in a different direction Monday when they were ordered to remain after school for one-half hour every day for an indefinite period.

Expansion of Chelsea's industries in preparation for post-war business is given added impetus by announcement of the Chelsea Spring Co. that they are making preparations for the construction of a new building, the cost of which will approximate $200,000.

Lewis Bernath and L. R. Heydlauff, owners of Frigid Products, announce that they will hold open house at their frozen food locker plant in the Wilkinsons Building Saturday. The entire plant will be in operation by that time.

The Chelsea FFA has sent its first shipment of live cats to the General Biological Supply House in Chicago.

The staff for the Chelsea High school Annual has been chosen as editor, Stanley Weir; assistant

The band will give a concert Dec. 15 in the school auditorium. Featured soloists will be Nathan Anderson, cornetist; Anthony Deckerlo, clarinetist; members of the University of Michigan band.

The Community Thanksgiving Service will be held at the Congregational church on Wednesday evening, Nov. 23 at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. P. H. Grabowski will deliver the sermon, and the offering will be used for Refugee Relief.

Pvt. Harvey Lixey left last week for Fort Knox, Ky., after spending a 10-day furlough with his family here.

Harley Prudden, RM-1C who is attending Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prudden.

Thursday, Nov. 22, 1934—

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Pilemeyer celebrated their birthday anniversaries on Sunday, entertaining at a family dinner at their home on S. Main St. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Pilemeyer, Helen, Rosalie and John, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis and children, Nancy and John, Misses Dorothea Pilemeyer and Edna Ritterscamp of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. John Stark and sons, Walter, Leonard and Arnold of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pilemeyer and son, Paul, of Sylvan township.

Two escaped convicts from the Detroit House of Correction made their way to Chelsea last Wednesday evening and decided it was a good place to spend the night. They entered the Herman Weber home where the Webers were absent, ransacked the house, took two suits of Mr. Weber's underwear and other items and ran away. They spent the night in the vacant house of Clarence Ulrich on East St., built a fire in the furnace and left about midnight.

Chelsea all-A students this term are Marie Heselachewitz, 12; Eileen Adam, 10; Paul Pilemeyer, 10; Peggy Blacker, 7; Eunice Hart, 7.

Good cooking is still a touch of

You can't beat a woman's intuition when it comes to the art of cooking. That's why so many prefer Gas. Only Gas gives the instant control of heat. Only Gas gives the infinite variety of settings, from keep-warm to sear. Gas burns clean, too. And it's economical. For the cost of one meal cooked electrically, you can cook four meals with Gas. There's a wide selection of beautiful and modern Gas ranges on display at dealer or Gas Company showrooms. Many special values. No down payment. Easy terms. One look and you'll know why smart women cook with Gas.

FFA Needs Portable House for Chickens

Chelsea High School Future Farmers of America are collecting money to house 100 chickens at a new chapter project. The boys plan to take the chickens to Michigan State University in 1969, where they will compete in all over the state. The chickens should be of market quality and judged on market qualities as rate of growth for eight-week-old chickens and lack of pinfeathers. The chickens are hard to move when preparing for sale. This is the first year the Chelsea FFA has participated in this annual contest. Larry Johnson, project chairman, will represent Chelsea.

The FFA is searching for a portable and chicken house for chickens. They will spend the next few weeks of their life in the portable and then be promoted to a small, portable chicken house. Larry said it is desirable to have a portable house so the chickens may be kept in a convenient place near school. They will like to keep them on school property where they could be serviced by all FFA members. A brooder has already been given the group, and is being repaired. The boys will order the chickens about having a house for them. They are confident that they will locate one before the chickens grow the incubator.

The Chelsea Farm Bureau Group has donated 300 pounds of chicken feed, which should boost the chickens to three or four pounds contest time.

A FIVE-YEAR-OLD STALLION was recently added to the Chelsea area Pony of the Americas population. Mr. and Mrs. Don Meyer, 2601 Sylvan Rd., recently purchased GRS Joker Hand No. 3531 from Walter Kornbau of Canandaigua, New York. The permanent registered leopard stallion is a grandson of Black Hand No. 1 and Dragon 103, which are good foundation sires. Joker has sired 18 foals, 14 of them have been registered. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer were among the original members of the Michigan State Pony of the Americas Club when it was founded in 1960. They attempt to breed into their ponies qualities of size and disposition that will make them good children's mounts.

U-M, EMU Heads Join Group Pushing for Vo-Tech Center

The presidents of the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University have endorsed a "yes" vote on Propositions 1 and 2, which will be presented at a special election on Dec. 18 to establish a Washtenaw County vocational-technical education program.

U-M President Robben W. Fleming and EMU President Harold E. Sponberg are the first members of a citizens committee announced by the co-chairman of the "Jobs 1975" campaign, Lawrence Prackke of Ann Arbor and Peter Fletcher of Ypsilanti.

"Jobs 1975" refers to employment opportunities and skill requirements projected by a study of vocational-technical education conducted by the Washtenaw County Community College and Intermediate School District over the last year and a half. The study was made in co-operation with the county's 10 school districts as well as the non-public schools in the county.

The first two propositions on the Dec. 18 ballot will ask for authority to levy a one mill property tax and to issue bonds against the one mill tax revenue. Approvals of the propositions will help finance, along with federal money, the operation of a county-wide vocational-technical education program and the development of a skills center. The center, eventually serving an estimated 25 percent of the county's 11th and 12th graders on a half-day program will be located on the Washtenaw Community College campus.

Campaign co-chairmen Prackke and Fletcher noted that federal funds would provide about half the cost of building and equipping a proposed $5 million skills center, as well as 20 percent of the annual operating costs. They estimate operating costs of around one million dollars when the center is at full capacity.

Enrolled 11th and 12th grade students in the county would have priority use of the vocational-technical program. Those students would spend half days at the skills center and would not pay any tuition for the program. Additional use of the skills center is anticipated through enrollment of those who have dropped out of school.

Bag Deers - Some Have Good Time

Fletcher, Jr., shot his Saturday—a 116-pound spike-horn buck Nov. 17 or 18 years old and one approximately 1 1/2 years old while hunting with Denny Marshall.

Down, 101 Wilkinson, shot a deer near Sylvan Center while hunting with Ron Brown got a seven-point buck—the first to his credit since he began hunting several years ago.

Jim Wencel, 15, son of Joseph Wencel of Grass Lake, while hunting with his father, near Alpena, brought home his first deer, a doe, Monday, the past week. Jim, formerly of Dexter, lives with his grandfather, Leodore Wencel of Island Lake Rd.

Reuben Lesser, Jr., shot an eight-point, 160-pound buck Nov. 17 in the Chelsea Country Club area. He was hunting with Kenny Haist, Norman Hinderer, Don Hinderer, Bruce Bycraft and Don Schoenberg later shot deer of their own. Lesser has been hunting for 16 years and has never missed an entire season without hunting.

Wallace Wood took time from the insurance business to travel north and bag an eight-point buck opening day. He said that the animal "weighed over 450 pounds" when he was dragging it back, but field dressed at 147. Wood was hunting with three friends from Ypsilanti when he shot his third deer in 22 years. He says he always goes north to hunt since it gives him a vacation trip.

GOOD HUNTING LUCK followed Keith Schuelke and 14-year-old Danny, his son, as they visited Danny's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schuelke in Manistee. Danny was initiated into the world of deer hunting as he brought down a 95-pound doe Nov. 18. He is shown with his doe and the 117-pound buck shot by his father Saturday, Nov. 16. The Schuelkes live at 17718 Old US-12.

The car was in the E. J. Weinberg barn, the thieves pushing it out of the barn before starting the motor. No trace of the car has been found.

George Zeeb and Nelson Peterson returned Wednesday from a hunting trip in the Upper Peninsula, bringing with them a fine black bear which they killed, and much interest was created by the displaying of the animal on the streets of Chelsea.

Mrs. Albert Widmayer was pleasantly surprised Sunday when she returned home from church to find that her children, grandchildren and relatives had come to celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wenk, Herman and Adolph Wenk, Miss Emma Miller and Mrs. Barbara Jensen called on Mrs. Olive Wenk Sunday in honor of her 85th birthday anniversary.

Mahlon Dunkel, Irwin Klump, Roy Dillin, Grant Schooley, Otto Lucht, Graham Sprague, Isadore Eder and Leroy Mayer returned Friday from a 10-day hunting trip near Ontonagon. The latter was the only one to kill a buck. According to reports the outing was enjoyable except that a "green" chef was employed. Graham Sprague might improve with experience though.

Thanksgiving Time . .

This special day of Thanksgiving is a time when we should slow down and give thanks for the many blessings we are more or less aware of all year long but for which we seldom take the time to be truly thankful.

High among the many things I have to be thankful for is the friendship, loyalty and co-operation that exists among the 16 of us working together here of Spaulding Chevrolet.

This is the spirit of comradeship that makes a rather hectic business enjoyable and it is in appreciation of this spirit that I make the following

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Thanksgiving Day is basically a religious holiday to voice gratitude to God for His beneficence . . . When we think about it, it can and should be a day for double duty . . . It can and should be an opportune time to express thanks to friends and families for kindnesses received from them throughout the year.

Benjamin Franklin wrote about such kindnesses in these words: "I have received much kindnesses from men to whom I shall never have any opportunity of making the least direct return. And numberless mercies from God, Who is infinitely above being benefitted by our services. These kindnesses from men I can therefore only return on their fellow men and I can only show my gratitude for these mercies from God by a readiness to help His other children and my brethren."

We think Franklin's thought is appropriate for all of us to adopt and adapt to our use on this and every Thanksgiving . . . Don't you? . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 E. Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

Wrestlers Optimistic

Chuck Budreau, who worked behind Boyer at 145 last year, and Tim Orbring, (154), head another group with experience that promises some quality in depth. Others in this group are Dale Robbins, Ron Mottinger, Bill Kushmaul, Paul Maurer, John Basset, and Dave Watson.

The recent appearance of Dennis Brown, a junior, promises to keep the Bulldogs strong at heavyweight.

Hendricks said that he was especially pleased with a turnout of 11 freshmen and several sophomores who are participating for the first time. He said that Chelsea will participate in the Ann Arbor Novice tournament Dec. 27 and 28 and provide other opportunities for the beginning men to have competition that is provided at the junior high and freshman levels in other varsity sports.

He named first-year wrestlers Karsten Kargel, Eloyd Boyce, Bill Stahl, Terry Lawrence, Jeff Bust, and Glenn Musolf, among those providing a source of optimism for the future.

VERN OTTO was rewarded for his travels this year by bagging a 10-point, 200-pound deer Wednesday on Drummond Island in northern Michigan. His sons Scott, left, and Todd examined the buck enthusiastically since it is the first that their father has shot in his 16 years of hunting. Otto brought the deer back to his home at 507 Wellington. He was hunting with Jack Clark and nephew from Dexter. In previous years, Otto has hunted locally with gun and bow and arrow.

Two Youths Arrested on Charges of Larceny

Two Chelsea youths arrested Nov. 2 for larceny from a building were arraigned Nov. 20 with charges reduced to a second count of simple larceny.

Harry Burnett, 19, of 800 N. Main St., pleaded guilty before Municipal Court Judge S. J. Eldon and was fined $75. He was represented by Talbot Smith, local attorney.

Herbert Lynn Carpenter, 18, of 303 Maidson pleaded not guilty that afternoon and is scheduled for trial before Judge Eldon Dec. 12. He was represented by Peter Darrow, a court-appointed attorney.

The pair were arrested on charges of taking two tires from the Pure Gas Station at 501 S. Main the evening of Nov. 9. The charge was later reduced since both lacked a criminal record. Chelsea police sergeant patrolman David McCormick was told by John Krahine that Jim Mitchell, a station employee, said the two youths took two new tires from a rack, put them in their car, and headed east on Van Buren.

According to McCormick, white Chelsea police went to look up the license number, they heard on the county radio that a 1966 Ford was traveling at a high rate of speed and forcing other motorists off the road.

Washtenaw County Deputy Finlay McCormick and Michael J. Crosby arrested Carpenter and Burnett in Ypsilanti on request from the Chelsea Police Department. Passengers in the car were Mrs. Ralph Frisch, the young daughter and Danny Blaser. These three were not charged.

Two new tires, stamped with the station name and worth $54 retail and an open pint of vodka were found in the car and were taken as evidence.

The youths said they had told John Erskine to charge the tires.

Mrs. Amanda Mayer, who was a patient for the past several weeks at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, left the hospital Wednesday, Nov. 27, and went to spend the winter with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mayer. Her address there is 305 Plummer St., Essexville, Mich. 48732.

Social Service Needs Toys for Christmas Giving

Peter is very happy today—at all. It's Christmas 1967 and Santa Claus put a tricycle under the tree for him. Perhaps Christmas means a little more to Peter because he hardly has any toys. Peter wouldn't have been able to buy this tricycle if his family had enough money to buy food and clothes. It came from the Chelsea Social Service, and this family is typical of the ones that receive food and Christmas items from this service.

This year the service is in need of increased community assistance and participation in this important function. According to director, Mrs. Louis Ramp, an important source of toys has been lost and might mean a substantial decrease in toys for needy children in the Chelsea School District.

"The only way this can be avoided will be to have individuals and groups donate good, useable toys," according to Mrs. Ramp. Toys should be in good repair and clean since the service will have no facilities for fixing toys that need mending this year.

"I hope that many families will look around the house for toys that are no longer needed," said Mrs. Ramp. She lists some suggested gifts as bicycles, dolls and doll clothes, books, trucks, cars and other appropriate items for young and older children.

Bring your gifts to the Sylvan Town Hall the afternoon of Nov. 20 or call the Chelsea Social Service, GR 5-4581.

Student Council Exchange Day Slated Dec. 6

Six Chelsea High school student council members will exchange visits with others in the area Dec. 3 to compare schools and student council functions.

"We'll attend student council meetings at the schools if possible, and bring ideas back to Chelsea," according to Vickie Wilkerson, who plans to spend the day at Dundee High school.

The other five chosen by the Chelsea Student Council to represent CHS are freshman, Dave Powers, traveling to Saline; sophomore, Ann Thomson, Lincoln; juniors, Kathy Grob, Dexter, and Vickie; and seniors, Mike Gaken, South Lyon and Mike Schnaldt, Milan.

This exchange visit day is an annual program to promote constructive action and understanding within and between area student councils. The visitors are assigned to a student council member at the school they visit, attend classes and activities and meet students and council representatives.

A VALUABLE CAR

London—An Italian museum recently bought a 1914 Roll-Royce complete with World War I bullet holes at an auction for $22,800. The open touring model originally sold for between $5,000 and $6,000. It will be placed in the Italian motor industry museum in Turin.

SEWING WITH WOOL: Holly Powers, modeling the jumper and blouse set that won third place in the junior division of the sewing with wool competition, Saturday, examines, with Mary Niehaus, the prize, a wool skirt length. The girls competed in the regional contest in Manchester, Saturday, against approximately 50 other girls. Both girls are accomplished seamstresses, according to their home economics teachers who gave advice and criticism while the garments were being constructed.

Home Ec Students Enter Sewing with Wool Contest

Holly Powers was awarded third prize in the sewing with wool regional competition by a panel of judges Saturday in Manchester. Holly, a Chelsea High school sophomore, placed third in the junior division with her jumper of burgundy and brown houndstooth check and co-ordinating brown wool crepe blouse. The 100 percent wool outfit is completely lined and features bias side panels.

Holly has been sewing in 4-H projects for six years and is a CHS home economics student. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers.

Approximately 50 girls participated in the contest, with winners from the junior and senior divisions competing state-wide with other regional winners in Michigan.

Among the others was Mary Niehaus, CHS freshman, who modeled her red 100 percent wool bonded flannel dress. The dress featured short sleeves and was accented with gold buttons and a belted back. Mary has been an active 4-H member for five years and is also a home ec student. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Niehaus.

Pleads Guilty to Reckless Driving

Leonard T. Beaudray pleaded guilty to reckless driving Friday and was fined $50 plus $5 costs by Justice C. A. Rogers.

Beaudray, 22, of 216 1/2 Washington St., was arrested Nov. 17 for reckless driving by Chelsea patrolmen David Peebles and Louis Schneider, when he was seen driving at a high rate of speed north on M-52.

The Hi-Light

Edited by Students of the Chelsea High School Journalism Club

During the last two weeks, Mrs. Dean, the Home and Family Living teacher has had her third-hour students visit the Chelsea Co-op Nursery which is located on Dexter-Chelsea Rd. The 19 students visited the children in groups of three and four.

Purpose of the visit was to let the students see the nursery and how it operates. The trip turned out to be very educational, from the standpoint of Mary Steele, a senior who attended the nursery.

This year the High School Journalism class has entered a safety contest. The contest is open to any school. Purpose of the contest is for the school to get as many students and people as possible in the community interested in safety. The community finds a hazardous corner or a spot where a light should be, then they rectify it. The students have decided to do something about Old US-12 and the sharp curves, due to the numerous accidents which occur because of the sharp winding curves.

March 16, 17, and 18, the students of Chelsea High school will present the musical, "The Music Man." Miss L'Roy, director of the play, feels that it will be the most ambitious production Chelsea has ever attempted.

Wednesday, Oct. 23, the staff of the "Music Man" was chosen. Pam Wilson will be the student director. Publicity chairman are Bonnie Parnell and Mary Steele. Props chairman is Lynn Vissel. Kathy Powers will take charge of costumes; and make-up chairman is Diane Stoffer. Tickets will be handled by Sarah Lindauer and Connie Parker. Mike Schnaldt will design the sets and Mike Gaken is in charge of set constructions. Jim Boylan and Paul Prinsing will be the men on lighting this year. Chris Finkle will take care of all the financial problems. Rehearsal pianist is Jo Ellen Tison. Programs will be handled by Marilyn Hinderer.

The production will call for lots of students. Just the cast alone requires 25 men and 30 women. Try-outs will be held Dec. 10 and 17 at the high school.

Youth for Christ Teen Rally Slated In Ann Arbor

Huron Valley Youth for Christ will sponsor a teen rally Saturday, Dec. 7, at 7:15 p.m. at Ann Arbor High school auditorium. Featured at the rally will be nationally known youth speaker, Al Kuhnle. The King's Herald and the New Dimensions will also be there. Al Kuhnle is vice-president of Youth Films, the teen-age department of Gospel Films, Inc. Al formerly has been a sportscaster for high school athletic events in Minneapolis, Minn., and with Mel Johnson co-directed a program, "Tape for Teens," a young people's radio program. Through his varied career, Al has had a gospel disc jockey show, directed a teen-age youth center, designed and edited a teen magazine entitled "Style" and compiled a Youth Leaders Manual. He has worked with teen oriented groups in Elk-art, Ind., Minneapolis, and Detroit. Has had the privilege of ministry in Scandinavia and Europe. Al Kuhnle was awarded the first National Club Director of the Year Award by Youth for Christ International.

With Al Kuhnle will be two musical groups: the King's Heralds which is predominately a group of college students from the Ann Arbor area who are known for their contemporary approach to gospel music. The group includes a musical ensemble, a quartet, brass, guitars, and bass. The group has had the privilege of being in many youth rallies and churches throughout the mid-western area. The New Dimensions is a new teen orchestra and choral group composed of teens from the Huron Valley area. It is directed by Al VanBroeklin.

Following the rally there will be a pizza party and "pillow panic." The pillow panic will include various types of "pillow competition." There will be competition to see how high they can be stacked, how far they can be thrown, and of course the grand finale will be an old-fashioned pillow fight. All this should make for an outstanding teen rally. Admission is free.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Freedom

What does freedom mean to you? Some may believe that freedom means they can do no more and no less than their fancy dictates. Some may believe they can go through life without responsibility. Some may believe they don't have to work. Some may believe they can take all that life offers and give nothing in return. Such is not the case. Every individual has some kind of responsibility to himself, to his family, to his friends, to his community.

The hippie who would disassociate himself from the world. The thief who would steal that which belongs to another. The businessman who would defraud a customer or a client. These are not people who are searching for happiness. And if they think they are, are bound toward disillusionment.

Not one among us is free from responsibility—for the things we do and for the things we do not do. There are no exceptions. Individual freedom is the right to choose. So, choose wisely.

When an individual makes up his mind to go to work, he is usually surprised by the pleasant results.

GORDON WILLIAMS agrees that his 11-point, 200-pound buck isn't bad for a first deer. Gordon, right, just began hunting this year. The 16-year-old Chelsea High school sophomore was hunting with Don Irwin when he shot this deer Saturday morning in Sharon township. He lives at 16840 Grass Lake Rd., not far from Dennis Williams, left. Williams shot an 8-point buck in Sharon Township Saturday afternoon. Dennis was hunting alone when he shot his first deer, although he has hunted for many years.

Historical Commission

Wins Top Honor Award

Lansing—The Michigan Historical Commission has been named recipient of the top national award from the American Association for State and Local History.

According to Dr. Harry Kelsey, state historian, the Michigan Historical Commission will receive The Award of Merit from the national association for its "outstanding work in publication depicting the history of Michigan and the Old Northwest Territory." This is the highest award given out by the Association and marks the second time the Michigan Commission has been so honored.

In 1965, the Commission received the Award of Merit for cooperative exhibits in its then new Historymobile traveling museum, said Kelsey.

ON NOBILITY

Denger, Colo.—When Robert Harding was told of his uncle's death in London and his elevation to the sixth Baronet of Lurrah, it made little impression on the 81-year-old pensioner. He said all he wanted was to live a little longer and he didn't think any money was involved.

If you can keep from being envious and jealous of your fellow-man you are approaching the outset of nobility.

For us, Thanksgiving Day is more than a commemoration of the occasion on which the Pilgrims gathered before an abundant feast to celebrate the establishment of their firm footing in America.

For us, Thanksgiving Day has become an occasion for pausing to count the blessings that have come to the peoples of America year by year. This national holiday arrives annually as a milestone in the journey of progress launched by our forefathers many years ago.

PAL PRINZING is playing his fourth year of high school football. This is his second year as a Bulldog varsity guard. This 5' 10" 160-pound senior is basically a one-sport man. He is a member of future teachers and trip clubs and claims that he doesn't have any favorite subject although he "likes some more than others." He works "very part-time" at the Pontiac garage. Paul is awaiting acceptance at Western Michigan University where he hopes to study speech pathology next year. He lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Prinzing, at 421 Chandler, with two brothers and three sisters. Laurel is a Chelsea High school freshman, Eric is 10, Marcia is 8, Susan is 5 and Glen is 3.

BEN BOWER, Bulldog tackle and middle guard, has played football for four years also. He joined the varsity Bulldogs in his junior year. In spite of his locker-room statistics, 6' 2", 225 pounds, he is basically a one-sport man: Ben enjoys journalism and might follow up this interest eventually. However, the first item on the agenda is Rets Electronic School in Detroit. Now, he fills his after-school hours with Varsity and Key clubs and a part-time job at G. A. Sales & Service. He also enjoys tinkering with old cars. Ben lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bowers, 16010 Cavanaugh Lake Rd. His two brothers are Donald, Chelsea High school sophomore and Joel, a fifth grader at North Elementary. An older sister, Elizabeth, is a sophomore at Michigan State University.

First Recreation Movie Proves Successful as 450 Persons Attend

The first of a series of popular movies sponsored by Chelsea Recreation Commission proved to be successful as more than 450 persons attended the two showings of "Robin and the Seven Hoods" Friday night.

The movies are a new addition to the program this year and are to be offered at irregular intervals during the winter. Recreation Commission Director Tom Ballietere, was pleased with community response to the program, and added that it will be financially feasible to continue the series.

Possible future movies are "Guns of Navarone" with Gregory Peck, David Niven and Anthony Quinn, and a Christmas cartoon show for Chelsea youngsters next month.

Voices from Home

Tapes Offered for Servicemen's Families

The holiday season brings to mind our military men and women overseas or hospitalized and unable to be home for Christmas.

Anyone who has a son, grandson, brother, sister or husband in military service will have the opportunity to send him a surprise this year—their voice.

The American Red Cross has a "Voices from Home" program that allows families of servicemen to record a 15-minute disc that is sent like an airmail letter. The service is available free by making an appointment at the Red Cross Operations Center in Ann Arbor.

Families and individuals are assisted by a Red Cross volunteer prior to a private recording, when they may chat, sing, read or recite poems.

Call 971-5300, Service to Military Families, for further information.

Letters to the Editor

The town of Chelsea sure has something to write home about. The railroad crossings are the worst in the United States, and in 30 years no one has had pride enough in the town to even try to have them changed from the present three-level to all one level crossings.

Student Council Makes $300 on Nickel Carnival

The Chelsea High school student council will be able to add an estimated $300 Nickel Carnival profits to their gift fund for a stereo tape system for the school.

The council still has to pay bills for prizes and other expenses but is expected to do as well as they have in other years. Chelsea assistant principal Bruce Galbraith says the council will probably have one or two additional fund-raising events to accumulate money for the portable system they want.

Vickie Wilkerson said the system will be kept in the cafeteria most of the time, and will be used for dances, classes and special events. Tapes were chosen because they are more durable than records and can withstand repeated usings. A committee has been appointed to investigate several units.

At the carnival, Saturday afternoon, Deb Stoker was crowned queen by last year's queen, Pam Parnell.

Stuffed animals went to Paul Case, Karen Leach and Roxanne Shears.
