Junior High Music Festival Slated Saturday

District Contest at Beach School Has New Event Each Seven Minutes

Music lovers will have the opportunity to view their choice of approximately 2,500 junior high music students performing 1,018 scheduled events from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday at Beach Junior High school.

The Junior High Michigan School and Orchestra Association and Ensemble Festival for District 22 promises to be an event better than the high school district performances last Saturday. In fact, new events will begin every seven minutes rather than merely every eight minutes as before.

Seventh, eighth and ninth grade students from Washtenaw, Lenawee, Wayne and Monroe counties will perform solo or ensemble selections with a maximum of eight students in each group. They will be evaluated by 18 adjudicators from the field of instrumental music. Some of the judges were among those who rated six Chelsea entries in the first division last week.

Chelsea students who rated first division medals and qualified to participate in the state festival last March are Jeff Parsons, cornet solo; Heidi Sprague, flute solo; Crystal Impola, oboe solo; Heidi Sprague and Gina Funderburgh, flute duet; Sarah Lindauer and Lynn Ferguson, flute duet; and Jill Plintoff, piano solo. 26 Chelsea students received second division ratings.

Lunch will be served by Chelsea Boosters again Saturday.

Chelsea morning solo entries in the Junior High festival will be Susan Beaumont, flute; Debi Shaheen, flute; Darlene Robbins, clarinet; Phyllis Buss, clarinet; Dale Kohn, trombone; Sandy Dellinger, clarinet; Harold Allen, cornet; Carole Dietz, French horn; David Lauthon, trombone; Mary Beth Dellinger, cornet; Ronald Landwehr, trombone; Randy Young, cornet; Jim Storey, French horn; Jennifer Lane, flute; Debbie Akin, alto sax; Gary Thomson, clarinet; Kathy Kohn, cornet; Dan Merkel, snare drum; Bob Heydlauff, tuba; Bill Schaefer, trombone; Jon Lewis, cornet; Robert Schneider, trombone; Robert Taylor, cornet; Margery Parsons, clarinet; Cindy Baird, clarinet; Audrey Heard, clarinet; Patti Knickerbocker, flute; Lee Ferguson, trombone; Jeff Sprague, clarinet.

Scheduled morning ensembles are Tom Skitenhelm, Dennis Huehl, David Layher and Doug Hansen, clarinet quartet; Barton Wellnitz and Robert Schneider, trombone duet; Marilyn Petties and Carole Dietz, French horn duet; Craig Coltrane and Doug Simmon, trombone duet; David Lauthon,

30 New Members Join Honor Society

Thirty new members joined the Charles S. Cameron Chapter of the National Honor Society Friday in an assembly-initiation program.

Parents and fellow students gathered in the auditorium for the program, music provided by the Chelsea Band, and tapping ceremony.

Steve Dietrich, NHS president, discussed one criterion for membership, service. Other members enumerating qualifications of leadership, scholarship and character were Doreen Kuhl, Denise Hafner and Marilyn Hinderer.

Senator Gilbert Bursley presented a Michigan flag to Chelsea High school and gave a brief presentation about its history.

Gary Evans, instructor at Eastern Michigan University, and Chelsea Schools Superintendent Charles S. Cameron were speakers. A reception for NHS members, parents and faculty followed the program.

Coupon Campaign for Kidney Machine Progressing Very Well

Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary reported that 3,025 coupons had been contributed to date in response to their request for Betty Crocker coupons to help purchase a kidney machine.

The coupons are being collected by Michigan Jaycee chapters and Auxiliaries. When the goal, 600,000 coupons, has been reached they will be redeemed at General Mills for a kidney machine worth $3,100. This machine will be placed upon recommendation of the Michigan Kidney Foundation. If the response to date is indicative of state-wide contributions, the 600,000 coupon goal will have been passed.

In this case, Michigan Jaycees will renegotiate with General Mills for another machine. Auxiliaries in District 29

Dexter, Hudson, Adrian, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Augusta township, Tecumseh, Saline, Monroe, Milan and Dundee are hoping to gather enough coupons to be able to request that the purchased machine be placed in University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Warren H. Newton, field representative for the Michigan Kidney Foundation, said at a recent meeting in Southfield, that he hoped a "loan closet" could be established with the machine. This would enable kidney patients in any part of Michigan who have completed the home care program to rent a kidney machine and remain at home instead of traveling once or twice each week to established clinics.

Newton mentioned that the movie, "Everyone's Problem" is considered very interesting and is available to the public upon request. Chelsea organizations interested in showing the film should contact Mrs. Robert Updegraff for information.

The new members were selected by a seven-member faculty committee, Principal Charles Lane and Guidance Counselor George Bergman. Students were required to have a minimum of 3.0, or B, scholastic average to be eligible for consideration. Other qualifications were character, leadership in class, extra-curricular and non-school activities and service to school and community. The selection committee asked for recommendations from various teachers familiar with qualified students.

BONNIE PARNELL
Bonnie Parnell Named DAR 'Good Citizen'

Bonnie Parnell was chosen by classmates and faculty advisors to receive the competitive Good Citizens Award given annually by the Daughters of the American Revolution to an outstanding senior girl.

Bonnie, 17-year-old editor of the Bulldog Barks, high school newspaper, publicity chairman for "Music Man," member of National Honor Society and former editor of the Accolade, a CHS literary art magazine, attended Freed-Hardeman College, Henderson, Tenn., last summer under the early admission program. She made the Dean's List while taking 14 semester hours, concentrating on English and psychology. Bonnie plans to major in journalism at the two-year school next fall.

Bonnie enjoys writing, especially poetry, and traveling. She moved from Chattanooga, Tenn., to Chelsea at the end of her freshman year when her father, the Rev. R. D. Parnell, took over the pastorate of the Church of Christ. She has a brother, Jeff, 6; and sister, Pam, 16 yesterday.

The Good Citizens Award is granted on the basis of dependability, including truthfulness, loyalty and punctuality; service, including co-operation, courtesy and consideration of others; leadership, which includes personality, self-control, ability to assume responsibility; and patriotism, unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation.

The national contest is open to all girls in senior classes of accredited public high schools in the U. S. Each local chapter of DAR awards contestants in their area with a pin and certificate of award with approval of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Bonnie will attend a tea honoring award recipients from Ann Arbor, Dexter, Chelsea, Manchester, Milan and Saline sponsored by the Sarah Caswell Angell chapter.

Wrestlers Bid For Title in District Meet

Over-Confidence Permits Dexter Team To Slip in for Conference Tie

The Bulldog wrestling team will seek a district title Saturday prior to defense of the regional championship one week later.

The Bulldogs, tormented again by a Dexter team that gained a share of the conference championship, will host the eight-team district tournament Saturday and the regional one week later.

Dexter, Saline, Lincoln and South Lyon are the other conference teams to compete here Saturday. Northville, Willow Run and Pinckney complete the field.

Chelsea coaches Burley Hendricks and Doug Matz said that the Bulldogs are regarded as the "team that has to be beaten" despite a disappointing second place finish in the conference tournament.

After a rousing dual meet performance last Thursday night in which the Chelsea wrestlers thrashed the Dexter team, 28-22, the Bulldogs stumbled in the conference tournament at Dexter Saturday. A second-place finish behind Dexter pushed the Bulldogs down to a co-championship—after defeating every team in the league during the dual meet season.

The result of league competition will host the eight-team district tournament Saturday and the regional one week later.

"There was a definite letdown—Coach Matz and myself were aware of the danger in the heady atmosphere that prevailed Friday. We did not recover quickly enough—until the second round of wrestling Saturday. It came too late. In a few key matches Dexter moved men into the championship flight when there was no strength in the league to turn them back."

Pointing to an unusual balance of weak and strong teams in the conference, the coaches claimed that the Bulldogs have a better chance in tournaments such as the district Saturday. The Bulldogs did finish ahead of Dexter in the Howell Invitational, which offered a much tougher group of teams.

The Bulldogs placed 11 of the 12 men's squad high in the tournament standings. Co-captains Mike Gaken and Kerry Kargel were joined in the champions row by Tim Colvia who won his 165-pound title by pinning three opponents. Colvia had a fairly easy championship match, pinning Saline's Bob Girbach who scored a narrow victory over Colvin in a dual meet earlier.

Varsity Cagers Rally To Win Over S. Lyon

The Chelsea Bulldogs clipped the South Lyon Lions last Friday by defeating them, 62-58.

Friday's win lifted the cagers to fourth place in the Southeastern Conference and was also instrumental in boosting the club's record to over .500 at an 8-7 pace.

The Bulldogs hit well throughout the game, tallying 42 percent from the floor and shooting a sizzling 80 percent from the foul line. The fast-moving Chelsea offense was paced by senior forward Lance Burghardt, who netted 22 points and grabbed 17 rebounds, an "excellent job" according to Coach Tom Balistriere.

Aiding in the scoring was sophomore Jim Wojcicki and junior Dave Conklin, scoring 15 and 13 points, respectively. Conklin also boasted 12 rebounds. The game was nip and tuck, with a half-time tie of 27-27, until the closing moments of the fourth quarter when the Bulldogs settled on a four-point lead.

Chelsea cagers employed a strong defensive game which aided in their drive to victory. The four-point victory was a pleasant gift to the parents who attended the Valentine's day game, which Chelsea slated as parents night. Every player's parents turned out to see "the entire squad give a good effort" according to the coach.

Tomorrow, the Bulldogs will travel to Saline to protect their even 5-5 league record.

Police Report Four Juvenile Shoplifters

The January summary of Chelsea Police work activity submitted to Police Commissioner George Heydlauff by Chief George Meranuek indicated the arrest of three adults on miscellaneous charges and four juvenile female shoplifters.

Crimes reported included one grand larceny, $282 taken from a private home and recovered; six simple larcenies; one forged prescription case involving a 30-year-old woman; two cases of bad checks; a stolen car, later recovered in Detroit; and two missing persons.

Tickets were issued for 18 moving violations and 44 parking violations. Fourteen accidents were reported inside the village limits. 4,300 miles were added to car number one and 323 miles were added to car number two.

Grass Fires Mean Danger In Burning

Six grass fires and a burning chimney kept Chelsea firemen busy during the past week.

The rush of fires began Sunday, with a grass fire of unknown origin behind the Dana Corp. plant. Later a grass fire from a runaway campfire was doused on Joslyn Lake Rd. Monday, burning rubbish started a grass fire on the property of James Dettling, 14300 Old US-12 east.

A report turned in by a pilot about a fire burning out of control Monday proved to be a controlled burning.

In the only non-grass fire of the week, a chimney burned out Tuesday, causing no damage to the home of Harold Buss, 13571

CO-OP TRAINEE: Taking advantage of the work-study program that places high school girls in business offices is 17-year-old Helen Woleki, a senior Chelsea High school student. Helen works under the co-op program at the Chelsea plant of North American Rockwell Corp. Her daily schedule of regular classroom routine in the morning and office work in the afternoon enables Helen to gain a full year's experience before entering the working world next year. This is the fourth consecutive year that Rockwell-Standard has participated in Co-Op.

They find the program benefits the company and gives the participant excellent work experience. Helen arrives at her job at 1:10 p.m. and works until 5 p.m., but still finds time for outside activities. One activity claiming much of her time is 4-H. Helen performs a variety of duties in the accounting department, including filling invoices, using an adding machine and sorting and reconciling checks. Helen says she enjoys working very much and plans to continue throughout the summer and next year.

Top Spellers Chosen from Each Grade

Chelsea fifth graders participated in preliminary competition for the Detroit News Metropolitan Spelling Bee last Thursday.

Students joined in the grade-wide matches in North and South schools. The best spellers will test themselves in a school spelling bee next month.

The winning work was "exclaim" for Kathy Fairbanks at North school. She spelled down runner-up Dawn Robards and the 88 other fifth graders in 90 minutes to win a copy of Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary. The 18 additional top spellers were Mike Billingsley, Renee Schneider, Glen Risner, David Meyer, Lynn Smith, Dale Schoenberg, Kyle Cursur, Kathy Pierce, Don White, Myra Gadberry, Mark Seyfried, Sue Schuelke, John Elliot, Lori Proctor, Lynn Olson, Michele Papo, Anita Harat, Kitty Gullett.

THE LANSING REPORT
 FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

Michigan tourism will be given a big shot in the arm if many proposals in the works are approved by the legislature and adopted by state departments.

It isn't that Michigan isn't well supplied with tourists. Last year an estimated 13 million tourists spent $1.17 billion, of which more than $75 million was for such tax-producing items as meals, rooms, gasoline, cigarettes and liquor.

But tourism is becoming an increasingly competitive thing and unless progress is made constantly, Michigan could slide backward in the field.

Hopes are high—and preliminary indications seem to back them—that the recently reduced Mackinac bridge tolls will stimulate tourist traffic. January traffic, the first under the $1.50 cent toll, showed an increase of 14.3 percent over the previous January. Tourist officials are hopeful this increase will be even more when summer traffic reaches its peak.

The legislature, which last year passed legislation making reduced bridge tolls possible, this year will consider a bill to reduce the daily park fee for non-residents from $2 to $1 in hopes of encouraging more non-residents to visit Michigan and its state parks.

The legislature will be asked to set broad guidelines for distribution and use of money from the $100 million recreation bond issue approved by Michigan residents last November. This money, along with federal and city matching funds, will be used to expand and improve recreational facilities at all levels of government.

The Highway Department is working legislation to prohibit camping, organized group meetings, and picnics in highway parks and rest areas. This is primarily to avoid congestion for tourists. The department reports increasing heavy use of the state's 57 highway rest areas and 100 roadside parks.

A mover is under way to broaden present industrial development bond act provisions to include development of tourist and resort recreational facilities and attractions.

Another move is on in the legislature to establish Washington's and Columbus' birthdays, Memorial Day and Veterans' Day as week-end holidays to coincide with federal law, which goes into effect in 1971. This is expected to stimulate tourist traffic through long week-ends.

In an effort to make highways more attractive (and save taxpayers' money), the highway department also is seeking legislation to ban throwaway beer bottles.

The Tourist Council is seeking legislation to allow it to review applications for resort liquor licenses and to require council approval before such licenses are approved.

Because of the state's tight financial situation, the Tourist Council has not requested an increase in its budget for the next fiscal year, asking that its present budget of $1,054,563 be continued. But council officials are considering some structural changes which they hope will bring more tourists to Michigan.

"Slice House"

A proposed constitutional amendment to reduce the size of the Michigan House of Representatives and revamp the state's legislative reapportionment machinery has been submitted to state lawmakers. Understandably, it faces an uphill struggle.

Key provisions include restructuring the controversial state apportionment commission and designating the State Court of Appeals as an arbiter of hessies which are sure to develop.

The measure was sponsored by 16 Republicans and three Democrats. It takes a two-thirds vote of both chambers to get the proposal on the general election ballot.

Under the amendment, House membership would be limited to four times the number of Congressmen from Michigan. This would put the House total at 76 instead of the present 110 as Michigan has 19 U. S. Representatives. Senate membership would be continued at 38, though any increase in congressional representation would boost the number of senatorial districts.

The apportionment commission, the unit which must realign the legislature after every federal census, would be appointed by the Governor and Secretary of State rather than the political parties. The partisan breakdown, though, would continue at four Democrats and four Republicans.

Michigan's 1963 constitution created the first commission. Its initial effort at reapportioning the legislature resulted in a deadlock, and the State Supreme Court ended up doing the job.

The proposed amendment, sponsored chiefly by Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, would provide that the Court of Appeals would reapportion the legislature if the commission failed to do so. And if the Appellate Court could not agree on proposals within 90 calendar days, then the Supreme Court would again inherit the task.

If the constitutional revision were approved by the people, the first reapportionment under it would take place in 1974, based on the 1970 census.

Lawmaker districts would be "equal in population as practicable" with "due consideration" to county lines, community interest and compactness of territory.

Senators would still be elected for four years and Representatives for two years.

A stormy battle over the amendment is certain in the House, where members brown on efforts to cut their numbers.

New Home—Maybe Gov. William G. Milliken might become the first Michigan chief executive to live in an official state-supplied mansion.

Lansing trucking executive Howard Sober has offered his palatial residence overlooking the Grand River to the state free of charge, and the Senate and House indicate they'll gladly accept the gift.

The home itself is valued between $200,000 and $400,000. It features motorized drapes, servants' quarters, a four-car garage and hideaway bar. There are 13 rooms and five bathrooms.

A special committee of former governors will raise funds to furnish the structure.

It was also announced that plans are under way to construct a Governor's mansion in the Capitol Complex in downtown Lansing. Building leaders say groundbreaking ceremonies are still seven to 10 years away. The price tag could go as high as $1 million.

Since statehood 132 years ago, Michigan has been without an official residence for the Governor. Milliken has been living in a $180-per month two-bedroom apartment in Lansing.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

It was past regular closing time at the country store Saturday night afore the fellers was able to draft a majority report on the best way to spend $16 billion, but they was full agreed it was their duty to help Congress clear up the matter.

Incidental, Mister Editor, Ed Doolittle put in a amendment to the report. He said that after considering all the evidence up one side and down the other, his committee decided they might be some hope for this old world, but on the other hand they might not be.

Actual, Ed got the whole thing started when he bring in this newspaper clipping that showed one of the big problems in the Congress is what to do with all the money this country will have when the Vietnam war ends. The report claimed $80 billion a year is being spent over there, and with out the war the military won't be able to use but half that much.

According to Ed's figgers, that would leave $16 billion to be spent somewhere else. And doing away with that kind of money is not a job you take on without some study, was Ed's words. Ed was of the opinion finding holes to pore $15 billion in ever year will take real teamwork in Congress. He allowed they might even have to give some of it to the post office, but he was confident good old American know how would come through without having to reduce taxes.

The school people will be glad to help out, and education is shore to get a heap of the money, cause voters always go along with money for schools. The welfare outfits is sure to be standing in line for more money, Ed said. All to cities is a winner with some Congressmen cause that's like dumping money down a bottomless well.

was Ed's words. They is so many agencies dealing with cises money it sinks out of sight and nobody is held direct responsible.

Clem Webster said air and water pollution can use the entire $15 billion, and at least another $15 billion can go to feed people that now is starving. And if they is money left, allowed Clem, somebody ought to work on cutting down on the fertilizer nitrogen that is upsetting the chemic balance and fixing to poison everybody.

But it were Zeke Grubb that closed out the report on a happy note. He saw two good signs, one that since Congress is working on how to spend that extra $16 billion they don't think the Vietnam war will go on forever and, too, that Congress is working on spending most of the money here and not giving it all in foreign aid.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORDS

Two bright American stars of the world of opera are heard on Angel records for the first time: soprano Reri Grist and baritone Cornell MacNeil star in Verdi's Rigoletto as the naive Gilda and her hunchbacked court-jester father. New York born Reri Grist appeared in Broadway musicals before she made her opera debut in Santa Fe and Cologne, both in 1959. Since 1960 she has been associated with the Zurich Opera, singing frequent engagements in San Francisco, Chicago, Glyndebourne, Covent Garden, Spoleto, La Scala, Vienna, Salzburg and the Metropolitan Opera (since 1964).

Beyond a particularly distinguished gift for the high soprano roles in Mozart and Strauss, she has proven amazing versatility in operetta and French and Italian repertoire. Reri Grist's partner for highly acclaimed performances of "Rigoletto" at London's Covent Garden in 1966 (as in the new Angel Recording) was Cornell MacNeil, born in Minneapolis. He, too, had experience on Broadway, later graduating to the New York City, Chicago Lyric and San Francisco operas. A few days after his debut in La Scala in 1959, he was called upon to substitute as Rigoletto at the Metropolitan, where he has been a regular member ever since.

The complete opera is on three records, stereo only and sells for $17.37. It is the first new recording of the famous opera in four years. MacNeil and Grist are magnificent in their Angel debuts and the immensely versatile Swede Nicolai Gedda sings a vocally brilliant and irresistibly handsome-sounding Duke of Mantua. The Pradelli chorus and orchestra are in top form for Verdi's most melodious creation and Angel's sound and stereo-staging are on the very highest level.

Wrestlers Determined To Win District...

Deprived of scoring team points by first-round byes, Captains Gaken, 175, and Kargel, 145, extended their season records to 28-0 while working their way to league titles. Chelsea coaches commended Gaken who relinquished an opportunity to extend his string of nine wins in favor of courtesy to his injured opponent in the championship match. While referee, coaches, and spectators were unaware of the injury to the senior athlete from South Lyon, Gaken maintained control for the final seconds, taking a decision victory from an opponent who chose not to quit and default.

In the biggest match of the tournament for spectators, Kargel handily defeated Dexter's Roger Boyce in an encounter that had been anticipated earlier in the season but was delayed when Kargel dropped to 145 and Boyce moved up to compete at 154.

In another high-interest match, Chelsea's heavyweight, Jim Boylan, lost a 2-0 championship match to South Lyon's Larry Jones. A strong finish by Boylan as time ran out raised Bulldog hopes for the heavyweight title in the district Saturday.

Jim Wenzel, 103, and Bob Koengeter, 138, joined Boylan in collecting second-place medals. Wenzel came up with three excellent rounds of wrestling to defeat Lincoln's Ken Pegowski, a regional champion at this weight last year. After eliminating Pegowski, Wenzel lost in a close championship match to Dexter's Mike Kercher.

Koengeter added another team captain to his list by pinning South Lyon's Dan Lott in the second round before losing by a pin to Dexter's Mike O'Doherty in the finals.

Chelsea's four third-place medals came in the consolation finals when the aroused Bulldogs staged a rally. A rapidly improving Larry Jones got a quick pin to place third at 95, while Steve Ersten was gaining a decision win on the second mat, to finish third at 120. Jim Poertner, 127, took his third-place medal with a win by pin; and Tom Tirb, 112, returned to the winning track after being defeated by a Saline man he had defeated in the dual meet.

Tim Ortring finished fourth in the 154 class.

In the dual meet victory over Dexter last Thursday, The Bulldogs gave an outstanding performance at every weight class. Each team won six matches—but the Chelsea lightweights fought off pins by more experienced Dextermen while Chelsea took five-point pins by Jim Boylan, Mike Gaken, Kerry Kargel, Jim Poertner and Tim O'Glyvia. Tom Tirb put the victory in reach by taking a decision victory at 112.

"This was the high point of the season—where we really became a strong team from top to bottom," Hendricks said. "Each man knew that Dexter had to pin our

FAMILY POT LUCK

For the gourmet in the family, add finely cut slices of tongue to hashed creamed potatoes, serve with mayonnaise to which prepared mustard and worcestershire sauce have been added.

Spice your meat dishes properly when cooking. Bay leaves are for beef stew and not roast. Caraway seeds compliment liver or pork dishes. Use basil in pork and beef entrees.

Want a different topping for a yellow cake? Spread orange marmalade over the cake, top with miniature marshmallows prepared in slightly. Broil until marshmallows are puffy and golden.

To make 1 cup of horseradish sauce, put together 1/2 cup horseradish, drained, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon vinegar. Fold these ingredients into 1/2 cup heavy whipped cream and serve.

REPORT from LANSING

State Representative

Thomas G. Sharpe

As most of you realize there are many "ups and downs" in being a state representative. In this week's report I'd like to talk to you about circumstances of the past week which will exemplify my point.

One of the high points was the stand of our new Governor in regards to the problems on our college campuses. Governor Milliken has taken a firm, yet responsible position toward the "disruptive minority" on the university campuses. He realizes the problems that can result from permitting our students to live under two sets of standards; i.e., one on the campus and one for real life. Governor Milliken has shown the people of Michigan his acute awareness and concern for the problems of higher education.

The effects of having someone take a positive stand on the issue at hand was obvious at Michigan State University. In his farewell address President John Hannah, even though he is leaving this month, echoed many of the positions taken by Governor Milliken. It should be noted that this was one of the few times that a high ranking university official has taken a corrective stand on the disruptive issues.

Now for the low point, I was shocked and deeply concerned after reading the Feb. 12 issue of Michigan State University's newspaper. In this issue of the State News there were verbal atrocities that obnoxious to be repeated. These offensive "quotes" leave me with just one impression. They were an exhibitionist's attempt at sensationalism.

It's time for those who are paying for higher education to take a stand. No one cares to have their children stopped from going to classes by the "radical few," no one wants to live with the fear that the children will be exposed to pot parties and orgies, and no responsible parents desire to have their son or daughter subjected to this abusive language. It seems to this legislator that there is much to be learned and a great deal to be gained from a college education—without this kind of thing being exploited.

With this idea in mind, I sincerely hope that our dynamic new Governor will extend this "college crusade" to these university publications.

Federal Agency Urged To Assure Safe Used Cars

Lansing—Secretary of State James M. Hare urged the federal government to make sure buyers of used cars are assured of reliable safety equipment when they purchase cars . . . and not at their own expense.

"I don't like the federal government employing the caveat emptor . . . let the buyer beware . . . concept in its safety standard on used vehicles," said Hare. "The seller should be held responsible and financially liable for any repairs to the safe operation of a vehicle."

Hare said this would exert control over some "fly-by-night" used car operations.

The Secretary of State made the recommendation to a nine-man national study committee.

By GERALD ANDREWS - Retirement Adviser

You and Your Lawyer

All of us need the services of a lawyer at some point in our lives—and one of the most important of these times is when we retire.

How we handle our affairs is apt to have a great deal to do with our enjoyment of the years ahead.

Usually there are a number of hard decisions to make. Whether to sell the family mansion and move to a cottage. How to arrange income to best advantage. Should insurance policies be reviewed? And what about a will?

Inevitably you'll be consulting experts in these matters, and somewhere along the line you're sure to need a lawyer.

So if you don't already have a good lawyer, or if you've decided to move to a new part of the country, it's only sensible to think about finding one.

The best way to do this is not to pick up the phone book and choose a name at random. There are institutions such as your State Bar Association, the Lawyer's Referral Service or the Legal Aid Society, all of which can give you advice. Your banker is another possible source of information. So is your labor union or alumni association.

Once you've found your lawyer, give him your confidence. If you don't, you'll get less than the service you need. With the best will in the world he can't operate successfully unless he knows all the facts.

Whatever you tell him is privileged under the law, and he cannot be forced to disclose this information to anyone. No honest lawyer would ever do so.

Look upon your lawyer as you do your doctor. You wouldn't dream of telling your doctor how to take out your appendix. So when your lawyer is presenting a case on your behalf, follow his advice. He knows what he's doing and after all that's what you're paying him for.

If you want a concise discussion of aspects of the law that are likely to concern you as a senior citizen, Harvest Years Magazine puts out a useful report on the subject. You can obtain a copy by sending your name, address and 50 cents to Law, Harvest Years Publishing Co., 104 East 40th St., New York, N. Y. 10016.

1968 Was Bad Year For Traffic Offenders

Lansing—For Michigan offenders, 1968 was a very bad year.

Secretary of State James Hare said that more than 100,000 Michigan drivers had their licenses suspended or revoked last year.

The 80,520 drivers discipline cancellation, revocation, suspension, and license marked a hike over 1967 of 9,000 and a 13,000 increase in 1968 totals.

While listing the action driving privilege, Hare also an upward trend in other improvement activities such as multiple interview warning letters, sent out to 60,000 drivers at the seven-point level.

Nearly 93,000 of these were counted, a 6,000 hike over 1967.

Mandatory suspensions under state's financial responsibility held about even with last

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMER

From H. C. Kendall, Waukegan, Ill.: I remember the huge marble top fireplace, the ensets with grandma and grandpa pictures displayed in the parlor, the brass spittoons, the commodes, bureaus, sideboards, boot jacks, or wood beds with corn shuck mattresses, slats of wood, feather pillows, and crazy quilts.

The auto has brought many changes, especially with clothing. Heavy winter type overcoats, derby hats, long flannel underwear and ear muffs are almost gone forever.

My earlier days were spent on a farm where I was moved at age two after being born in a log cabin at Cabin Creek, Ky. Our farm was not very large, but we had a big house and barn, drying shed for tobacco and one for fruit, also a wood shed, privy and a root house dug out about room size over a cool spring where berries, milk and other foodstuffs were kept for a long period of time.

I remember the old-oaken buck at that hung in our deep well and was cranked in full of cool, clear water. Very few houses in small towns or on farms were ever locked at night, or during the day. Very few women worked away from home, mothers nursing their babies and supervising their children. Babysitting and juvenile delinquency were unknown and even on Halloween nothing was damaged or destroyed.

Older Adults Entertained By Action Group

Older Adult Group of the Methodist church, with 41 members present, was entertained at a dinner meeting Saturday afternoon at the church social center by the Action Group of the church.

It was noted that this was the first time the Older Adult Group had been entertained in this way since it was organized in 1960. The members have a "stuck meal" providing all the food themselves.

The Action Group provided and served the entire dinner and had the tables decorated with the Valentine's day theme with bouquets of red and white flowers. The group also provided carnations and roses for prizes in the games which were played following the program period.

Mrs. Winifred Coffron, director, and Mrs. Lyman Adams, co-director of the Older Adult Group, expressed appreciation for the efforts of the Action Group.

The Older Adult Group, which now has approximately 45 members who are active, was organized eight years ago with 20 people on the membership list.

The after-dinner program at Saturday's meeting included prayer by the Rev. William Johnson; group singing with Mrs. Clare Warren playing the piano accompaniment; and a devotional service led by Mrs. Herbert Paul. The Rev. Robert Worgess gave the closing prayer.

The next meeting of the Older Adult Group is scheduled for March 15 at 12:30 p.m. It will include a pot-luck dinner and members are to bring their own table service as well as a dish to pass.

About Your Social Security

By Robert A. Kehoe
District Social Security Manager

Q. I have been receiving Social Security retirement checks since 1966, when I reached age 62. I worked last year and want to know whether I have to make a report to the Social Security office.

A. If your gross earnings from employment and/or self-employment exceeded $1,680 between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31, 1968, you are required to file an annual report with the Social Security Administration. Under the law, the deadline for filing this report is April 15, 1969. This requirement applies to those beneficiaries who were under age 72 at least one full month during the year 1968 (that is, those born after Feb. 1, 1900).

Q. I am collecting Social Security benefits for my son. In 1968, he worked part-time while attending college and full-time during the summer months. His total wages were $2,325.15. I returned his checks for the months he earned over $140. Am I still required to complete a Social Security report on his earnings?

A. Yes, a report of his earnings must be filed by April 15, 1969. This report is required even though the beneficiary has returned the Social Security checks for the months in which he (or she) earned over $140.

Music Man Play Tickets Now Available

This year's staging of the Broadway musical, "The Music Man" at Chelsea High School continues in the school's tradition beginning in 1965, with "Oklahoma." Paul Schultz, now teaching at Mt. Pleasant High school, co-ordinated and directed the CHS musicals for the first two years.
Sold-out performances have characterized the musicals since the beginning. Standing ovations accompanied the favorable reception of "Brigadoon," "Annie Get Your Gun," and "Bye-Bye Birdie" the following years.
The March production of Meredith Wilson's delightful "Music Man" will be the most ambitious production yet at CHS, according to D'Ann L'Roy, director of the vocal music department in Chelsea. She has co-ordinated and directed the musicals since 1967, including directing the orchestra and co-ordinating all student chairmen involved with the musical.
An aspiring stage crew, under the direction of Mike Schnadt, has constructed a revolving stage turntable. This 24-foot diameter construction will stage the entire production. The turn-table is divided into three parts, each serving for a different setting. Scenes will continue into succeeding scenes by revolving the table, thus eliminating curtain breaks during the production.
"Music Man" will be highlighted by a large cast, realistic costumes and a spectacular ending.
Tickets for the March 13-15 performances, scheduled for 8 p.m. in the CHS auditorium, are available but must be obtained early as all seats will be reserved. Tickets may be purchased from a student selling tickets at the ticket office at the high school, by calling Sarah Lindauer at the school weekdays 11:30-1:00 or 2:15-3:15. Tickets may also be ordered by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope containing full payment to Tickets for The Music Man, Chelsea High School.

 By Seamless
 Tube, Fortune

Final closing of the planned Fortune Industries-Michigan Seamless Tube Co. merger took place Feb. 13 in the South Lyon offices of Michigan Seamless.

The former name, Fortune Industries, Inc., will be retained by the newly-acquired subsidiary. All assets of the ceramic and plastic abrasive products manufacturers located at 11770 Dexter-Chelsea Rd. have been purchased by agreement of stockholders from both companies.

Leonard L. Fortune, founder of Fortune Industries, will now be president of the subsidiary. Other officers include William W. Wellborn, vice-president; C. R. Haldy, treasurer of Michigan Seamless and Fortune; James D. Tracy, secretary, Detroit; and Eunice B. White assistant treasurer.

According to Fortune, the merger took place to give Fortune Industries additional capital to carry out plans for doubling the sales outlet. "We are proceeding immediately with the changes, which will include payroll, building and equipment expansion."

This will be the eighth expansion for the Chelsea manufacturing firm. The most recent increase sporting a $250,000 price tag, doubled capacity in 1966.

Girl Scouts To Have Local Day Camp

Western Washtenaw county Girl Scouts will have a day camp in their own area this summer.

"Gypsy Glade Day Camp," planned to serve Brownies, Cadets, Junior and Senior Girl Scouts from Chelsea, Dexter and Saline, will be located on wooded farm property on Park Rd., one-half mile south of the intersection of Baker and Jackson Rd., southwest of Dexter. Use of the 50-acre site was donated by Phil Jenkins of Jenkins Equipment Co., Dexter.

Mrs. Louis Galan, Dexter, camp director, said a regular eight-day session will be held in June with an option to add another session in early August if need is sufficient. Mrs. Galan said no limit has been set for camp capacity but estimated that 100 girls could participate at one time.

The establishment of a local camp is expected to encourage area girls to attend day camp, since they will not have to travel long distances each day. Previously the Girl Scouts could go to any day camp within the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council and attend Hilltop, Ann Arbor, and Hudson Mills Park. Since the park is public land the Scouts had to remove all equipment each night, an inconvenience that will be solved by donation of the private land.

A "fake day" camp session was held in Dexter Saturday in which camp personnel and Girl Scouts met to discuss what the camp will offer and what Scouts are interested in doing at a day camp.

Similar "talk-about's" will be held in Beach school, Chelsea, March 1 and in Saline March 8. Scouts and camp personnel will exchange ideas and girls will receive a general orientation to the new camp prior to the distribution of camp folders and registration forms during Girl Scout Week, beginning March 9.

Mrs. James Barden, Dexter, will serve as assistant to Mrs. Galan. A staff will be recruited from the three participating communities.

Parents-to-be may register in the half-hour period preceding the first class in each series. Registration fee is $5 per couple.

A special class for expectant fathers, and lessons on labor and delivery will be included.

Instructors will be two registered public health nurses, Mrs. Susan Noble and Mrs. Nancy Thompson.

Further information is available from the Washtenaw County Health or the Visiting Nurse office. (The Visiting Nurse Association is a United Fund agency).

AGRICULTURE in ACTION

by M. L. Wood

A Decisive Defeat

Among facts which should not be ignored in the daylight saving time recount controversy is that most voters in Michigan's large cities voted against fast time—and, an "indecisive" victory remains no less a real victory than one in which one side has many thousands of votes over the other.

Following the announcement that daylight saving time had lost in the state by 490 votes, State Representative Thomas Brown (Republican, Lansing) has suggested that this action by the people of Michigan should be declared not valid, in that the vote margin was too thin to be regarded as decisive.

Were the assumption valid, that a close election does not represent the will of the people, thousands of elections over the past 100 years (many of them won by a one-vote majority) would have been thrown out.

Representative Brown said that since daylight saving time lost by a margin "amounting to only about one-tenth of a vote, per precinct" he was introducing a bill to place the state on fast time in spite of the vote of the people. This would be done by repealing the action of the legislature in 1967 when that body exempted the state of Michigan from the Federal Uniform Time Act.

Yet, it should be remembered that President Kennedy won over candidate Nixon by a margin amounting to only about one-tenth of one percent of the vote, per precinct. This fact did not make Kennedy any less the President of the United States. Nixon, in turn, failed to have a "mandate" of the people, but his scant margin was still almost three times the popular vote-edge held by Kennedy when he won the Presidency in 1960.

Daylight saving time was not defeated by the votes of farm people, even though they have long opposed the idea and voted almost solidly against it. Daylight Saving Time was decisively defeated by the voters in a majority of Michigan's cities, with the exception of Detroit, where it was almost exactly a 50-50 stand-off. Of Michigan's 83 counties, only 16 voted for fast time, while residents of 67 counties, (more than 80 percent) voted against it.

Champion Dairy Cows To Be Exhibited at MSU Farmers' Week

Visitors to 1969 Farmers' Week can see the "grand champion dairy animals of Michigan in 1968" along with exhibits and demonstrations showing the latest in dairy feeding, breeding and management research.

The grand champion dairy cows of the 1968 State Fair will be exhibited at the Dairy Cattle Research Center on College Rd., two miles south of the main campus. They include the Holstein owned by Apache Ranch, Lapeer; Brown Swiss from the Gottfredson Farm, Grass Lake; a Jersey from the Conrad Clark Farm at Eaton Rapids and a Guernsey from Lockshore Farm, Hickory Corners.

Regular and frequent bus service between the main campus and the Dairy Research Center will be provided for the farmers according to Michigan State University dairy department officials.

One of the mysteries of life is why people with brains are too lazy to use them.

SUNDAY'S SERMON
★ The Challenge
Every day life presents a challenge. Sometimes it is welcomed, for it adds a bit of zest to living. But, some are inclined to ignore and to turn away.
The real challenge is to live the good life and to indulge in some fruitful labor. It is through labor that man accomplishes, that a house is raised, a crop is grown, and a clean landscape opens before the eyes. Idleness, on the other hand, tends to erode the mind and the spirit.
Thoughtful labor brings the award of achievement, in whatever measure.
Every man leaves some footprints along the trail of life. Great men are remembered in the pages of history and in legends passed from generation to generation. What the rest of us accomplish is as well something of value—for we are marked in the minds of those we help, and those we serve, along the way.
So it is that one challenge of life becomes relatively simple—it is simply that we DO.
PIETY DOESN'T PAY
Search of shipment of chairs at Detroit, by Customs, revealed 18 pounds of hashish concealed in the seats. A couple of days later, Customs examined a mail package addressed to the same party. The package contained six religious paintings on wooden slabs. Each slab contained two pounds of hashish.

RARE BIRD IN THE HAND: State game biologist Keith Heezen prepares to send an immature golden eagle on its way back to the wild after the bird was given a clean bill of health at the Department of Natural Resources' Rose Lake Wildlife Research Laboratory. The bird, rare to Michigan, was earlier picked up on a farm near Perry where it was found unable to fly because of ice coating its wings. At first, DNR game men thought the bird was a bald eagle, whose immature offspring it resembles. However, when they saw the bird's legs were feathered down to its toes, they were able to positively identify it as a golden eagle. Feathers only extend halfway down the legs of bald eagles. A thorough examination of the golden eagle at the Rose Lake station revealed that it was weak but in generally good physical condition. It was released by Heezen when he and fellow game men felt satisfied that the bird could fend for itself. Such, hopefully, was the happy ending to the latest discovery of a golden eagle in Michigan. The golden eagle winters mainly in the western half of the United States. It is completely protected by Federal law because of its scarce numbers. The ban against killing or molesting the golden eagle is also aimed at giving greater safeguards to young bald eagles which might be mistaken for this bird and otherwise shot.

Former All-American Football Star Featured at Youth for Christ Rally

Former All-American Bob Davenport will be featured at the March 1 rally of Huron Valley Youth for Christ. The rally will be held at Ann Arbor High school Saturday, March 1, at 7:15 p.m. Bob Davenport presently is a football coach at Taylor University, Upland, Ind. after a brilliant college and professional playing career. The former two-time All-American was acclaimed by his coach the late Henry Red Sanders of UCLA as the greatest fullback he had ever coached. Bob began his athletic career at Long Beach, Calif., where he was named back of the year and elected student body president during his senior year. As a sophomore at UCLA he was chosen rookie of the year in 1953 and was the starting fullback in the Rosebowl. Look magazine named him to the All-American squad in his junior year 1954 where he helped to lead UCLA to the national championship. During his senior year Davenport won the Pop Warner trophy as the most valuable player on the West Coast. The Associated Press, United Press, Collier's magazine, and other publications selected him to All-American teams. Following graduation he joined the Senior All-Stars in the battle against the pros in the "Hula Bowl," and was there named the most valuable player. For the next two years he played Canadian professional ball with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Davenport is the founder of Wandering Wheels, a bicycle touring program which travels coast to coast during the summer. Over the last two years Wandering Wheels has escorted 105 young men across America. Wandering Wheels is an attempt both to demonstrate the vitality of the Christian life. With Bob Davenport will be no less than three collegiate musical groups. From Taylor University will come the Sands of Time, from Detroit Bible College the Collegiate Choroesters, and from Spring Arbor College will come The Mystics. The public is invited to the program.

Letter to Parents

Dear Parents:
Now that I am on my own, I'd like to ask you a few questions. Why didn't parents insist on knowing where I was when I left home evenings or afternoons? I knew Mom always knew where Dad was, if he needed him. Dad's boss always knew where Dad was if he needed him. But, I didn't want you and Dad to know where I was. Was I ashamed of some of the company I was keeping? Was I ashamed of some things I was doing? Yes, I was. I got mixed up with "pot," a mind-destroying drug. My studies weren't important. All I wanted was to be "in" with a group of other pot users. I even got others to buy and use it. Now I know that over half of "pot" users go on the heroin and other dope. I'll write you next week for some more answers. Your (now) grown-up child.
