Sprague Buick, Olds Plans Grand Opening

The grand opening of Sprague Buick and Olds in their new quarters at 1500 S. Main has been scheduled for Saturday and Sunday from noon to 6 p.m.

Dealership owner Graham Sprague moved his business to the new building in November and postponed the grand opening until facilities were completed. Only a few details remain in finishing the 7,000-square-foot building with showroom, service facilities and offices. The fabricated steel building, co-owned by Sprague and Ted Paist, has room for five cars in the showroom.

The primary advantage to moving to the new facilities is room. Display space for 125 cars is available to Sprague in the present location, compared to space for 11 cars at the former quarters.

Sprague bought out interests in the W. R. Daniels Motor Sales from 1950 to 1968, and changed the name in January, 1968. W. R. Daniels Motor Sales was founded around 1918.

Sprague operates one of five new car dealerships in Chelsea.

Police Nab Escapees After Fast Chase

Two escapees from Ionia State Prison were apprehended early Wednesday morning by Chelsea Patrolman Bruce Sibert after a high speed chase on M-52.

Sibert became suspicious when two youths, inside a 1962 Chevrolet convertible parked across from the fire station, ducked to avoid being seen.

When Sibert approached, the pair drove off at a high rate of speed. The patrolman turned on the flasher and siren and pursued the fleeing vehicle at speeds up to 90 miles per hour on M-52, finally forcing them to stop at Peckins Rd.

He ordered the youths to lie across the car trunk while waiting for assistance from Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies and State Police.

The two youths, who had no identification and gave false names, were identified as Maurice Harvey Burton, 18, and Willie Vaughan, 19, both from Detroit.

They were identified through the state-wide police computer system, LEIN (Law Enforcement Information Network).

Burton and Vaughn escaped from Ionia April 7, stealing a car they later left in Grand Rapids when they took the convertible, which had not been reported missing until the arrest was made.

They were charged with escaping from prison, auto theft and fleeing from a police officer. Prison authorities will prosecute for escaping. Grand Rapids police said they would prosecute for auto theft.

Chelsea Police Chief George Meranuck said the fleeing charge will be held in abeyance until the pair are tried. Since fleeing is the lesser charge, a sentence for it would be served concurrently with other sentences.

Chief Meranuck commended Sibert for his "unusual display of police work" in apprehension of the two, who he believed would have committed a crime locally.

He also commended Joseph M. Merkel, who saw that Sibert was alone and assisted him until other units arrived.

Townships All OK Increased Budgets for '69

Fire Expense Listed as Major Item Causing Concern for Boards

Area township boards and small groups of township residents met Saturday, April 5 to pass yearly budgets and discuss roads, fire expenses and other problems faced by local townships.

Sylvan...

11 Sylvan township residents met with the township board Saturday to approve a $53,950 budget for 1969-70. The $7,500 increase over last year's budget went to increased salaries of the supervisor, from $5,220 to $5,520, and car expenses increased from $900 to $1,200; and the previous $2,100 clerk's salary increased to $2,700.

A brand new "improvement fund" of $3,000 was set up and earmarked for the purchase of two additional voting machines before the November 1970 election. This will give the township a total of six machines.

The library fund was increased from $1,000 to $1,200, and funds for fire protection went from $7,000 to $9,000.

The board again asked for one-half mill tax although in years prior to 1967 one mill was asked. This is the third consecutive year for fire expense to Chelsea, Stockbridge and Gregory Fire Departments.

Action on a request to pay the township treasurer by salary instead on a one percent fee was deferred to the May 3 township meeting. Many individuals felt that the fee was out of line with the amount paid to treasurers of other townships, according to Danny Murphy, township clerk.

Lima...

$250 raises in salaries of township supervisor, treasurer and clerk were included in the $32,085 budget approved for Lima township at the annual meeting Saturday. Salaries will be $2,750 for supervisor, $2,500 for treasurer, $2,250 for clerk and $20 per meeting for trustees.

The largest item in the budget was a $9,000 allotment for fire expenses to Chelsea and Dexter Fire Departments. Funds not used during the year for the fire allowance will be spent on road improvements.

Other expenses will be upkeep of township property, lawyer's fees, insurance, Chelsea and Dexter libraries and other regular items.

15 persons were present for the meeting in addition to the board. Road problems were discussed and delayed until the annual meeting with the Road Commission. The township agreed to find out what can be done so residents will be able to use the dump without paying a fee themselves at the time of use.

Lyndon...

A budget for fiscal 1969-70 of $37,010 was approved. Last year's budget totaled $32,227.80.

In addition to the $10,000 allotment for roads, $6,000 has been set aside for roads. Dexter township levies one mill for operation.

Dexter...

Dexter township Annual Meeting may be held in 1970 and future years in the proposed new township hall, which is to be erected in the coming year, hopefully.

Site will be near the corner of Dexter-Pinckney and Territorial Rds. Nearly three acres was purchased by the township from the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority some time ago, and a total of $23,000 toward construction of the new hall has been accumulated during the past five years in township funds.

Township officials and residents expressed grave concern over the item in last year's budget for fire protection. A total of $9,511.49 was noted for fires last year, and fires to date this year have already exhausted a figure nearly equal to this.

Some discussion of methods of controlling some of these fires was held. Residents were warned to be extremely cautious. It was noted that permits for outdoor burning are required in Dexter township. Permits are to be secured by contacting the Dexter Fire Department.

UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED District 26 state vice-president Tuesday night was Chelsea Jaycee President Don Proctor. Accompanying Proctor to the Jaycee annual election meeting in Ypsilanti were Art Steinaway, Si Hopkins, Walter Brown, Chuck Matoff, Eric Cameron, Gary Packard, Neil Fahrner, Tom Dunlap, Dan Eder, Ed Greenleaf, Daniel Martin, Ronald Branham, Tom Thalner, Gerald Blough, Robert Udegraff, Vasant Bhirud and Perry Small.

District 26 includes Ann Arbor, Augusta township, Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester-Milan, Milan FCI, Saline and Ypsilanti. During the year Proctor will visit each local chapter of the district and will be available to assist them with their problems. Ronad Branham and Dan Maroney are local Jaycees who have also served as state vice-presidents.

Kiwanians Hear Talk on Prison Policies

Jaycees Elect New Officers For Coming Year

Chelsea Jaycees officers for 1969-70 were elected April 1 at the annual election meeting at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Two Positons Available on School Board

Chelsea School District voters will choose two new Board of Education members and vote on a Washtenaw County Intermediate School District proposal for an additional half mill for special education at the June 9 annual School Board election.

Charles Lancaster and Robert Taylor both indicated that they would not seek re-election to their school board positions. Their four-year terms expire June 30.

Persons interested in gaining a school board seat must obtain a petition at the office of Charles Cameron, superintendent of schools and return it by 4 p.m. May 12 with signatures of at least 25 registered Chelsea School District voters.

The Intermediate School District will request an increase from one-half mill to one mill from the county special education program. This will mean a tax hike of 50 cents per $1,000 of state equalized value.

Washington Report
 by Congressman
MARVIN L. ESCH

As college expenses increase, it has become more and more difficult for a student from a low or middle income family to attend the college of his choice. Through economic opportunity grants, work-study programs and NDEA loans, we have provided significant financial aid for the "needy" student. However, students from middle-class families have had little outside help—despite the burden which their education throws on themselves and their families.

One constructive proposal to deal with this problem has been the concept of an across the board tax-credit or deduction for college educational expenses. While I personally have supported this idea in the past, it has failed to receive approval by the House and previous Administrations since it does not differentiate between the wealthy and the lower and middle classes who need the assistance. I have therefore worked out a compromise which I feel will have an excellent chance for Congressional approval while at the same time, providing much needed assistance for those young people who must "work their way through." This bill would allow a student with substantial self-earnings to receive from his college an advance of money or credit toward his tuition, fees, room and board expenses up to a maximum of $600.

The headlines and TV news coverage have concentrated in recent weeks on student demonstrations and disturbances throughout the nation. Great attention has been given to those students whose energies have been directed towards the disruption of university life, scant notice has been paid to those students whose energies have been directed toward their own educational advancement.

While it is important to continue to take action against disruption and violence we must not, at the same time, forget that the vast majority of our young people are dedicated to their educational goals and many of them make tremendous financial sacrifices to get them.

This legislation can serve as a symbol that society is behind those students who are pursuing their studies seriously and who are intent on education, not disruption. Part of the American dream has been the ability of a young person to "pull himself up by the bootstraps" and provide himself with an education by working his way through. As educational expenses increase, this dream has become increasingly remote. I believe this legislation will assist in making that dream a real one and in helping those students who are willing to help themselves.

From Beatrice Herman, Arvada, Colo., I remember that in 1894 my widowed father took my little brother and me to the "North Woods of Missouri." We were bedded down in straw in a wagon pulled by a mule team. Taking the ferry across the river was the most exciting part of the trip. A two-room log cabin became "home." There were places you could see "outside" where the chinking had fallen out, and the snow would sift through. The bedroom door was kept shut, but even then the cook stove and the large fireplace failed to keep the kitchen warm.

Since I was only six at the time and not very well, I was not able to be of much help. Having no doll or other toy, except for a rocker, I spent a great deal of time in my rocker before the fireplace, roasting my shins and freezing my back, or vice-versa.

My little brother slept between dad and me. He would put his head under the covers and in the morning his little black head would be covered with frost from our breath.

The molasses in the cupboard would be so stiff you could hardly dig it out of the container.

"Water Fight"
 Everyone wants clean water, but there's disagreement in the state legislature over whose streams should get first priority under the $335 million anti-pollution bond issue.

Attempts are afoot to earmark the funds for individual projects rather than letting the State Water Resources Commission say how the money should be spent. And Gov. William G. Milliken is visibly upset with apparent attempts to "pork barrel" the bond issue for the voters back home.

"It is absolutely imperative that these (bond) bills move through the legislature without pork barreling and that they get through in sufficient time so that we can get some of the very critical projects under way this spring," Milliken said.

The Governor wants the lawmakers to authorize the Water Resources Commission to appropriate the money. He says Commission experts are "highly qualified" to determine which projects are needed first.

Chairman Charles O. Zoller of the Senate Appropriations Committee insisted priorities would be followed in the legislature as set by the Water Resources Commission.

However, lawmakers apparently are going to retain a certain amount of control over the spending. Zoller's committee plans to set up the spending of the bond money along the lines of a capital outlay law.

Under this procedure, final approval must come from the legislature's Joint Capital Outlay Committee.

The hassle continues, meanwhile, over apportionment of the $100 million recreational bond issue. The Governor is pressing harder than ever for his plan to allot most of the money to the big urban areas, and outstate legislators remain adamant as ever for the so-called "70-30" formula.

Conservationists and their friends in the legislature argue that voters approved the bond program last fall with the understanding that at least 70 percent of the funds would go to outstate projects and only 30 percent to the cities.

Milliken maintains there was no such promise and that the urban centers need the money more than the rural regions because of population density.

It appears Milliken may be fighting a losing war. Even his fellow Republicans are critical of his plan and say they will work against it.

New Vote Plan
 Revamping the oft-criticized U.S. Electoral College system in Michigan is the aim of a bill before the House. The measure would allow the state to split its 21 electoral votes among the presidential candidates rather than casting all for the nominee who wins a state-wide plurality.

Specifically, the bill provides for 19 electors from the state's 19 congressional districts to be picked by each party in the legislature, plus two state-wide or at-large electors.

A congressional district elector would be obligated to cast his ballot for the presidential candidate getting a plurality of the votes within the district. The at-large electors would vote for the candidate getting the State-wide plurality.

Little Imagination
 For lack of a better name, state officials are calling a seven-story building in the new capitol complex "The Seven Story Building."

It's not very original, but it's the best they could come up with in a hurry. The other three buildings in the complex are also aptly named: The Treasury Building, The Highway Building and The Mason Building.

Already, some suggestions have come in to give "The Seven Story Building" a real name like perhaps "The Attorney General Building" because that's who occupies the top two floors or maybe even the "Kelley Building" for Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley.

Returns to Capitol
 Willford G. Bassett, Speaker of the House from 1961 to 1964, is back at work in the lower chamber as an assistant clerk, not a legislator.

Bassett, a Jackson attorney, resigned from the State Workmen's Compensation Appeal Board to take the post. He is a Republican and a University of Michigan Law School graduate.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 I'm sorry I ever brung up that "think-bus" business. The folks at the country store got wound-up on the subject Saturday night, and I was glad when it come time to lock-up-and-go home.

Zeke Grubb reported he had saw by the paper where this state attorney in Virginia allowed a convict is not qualified to say the death penalty is cruel unusual punishment "as he has not undergone it." Zeke said that puts the sinners in the worry jug. The Russians or the Chinamen ain't showed us up yet, allowed Zeke, so we ain't qualified to worry about getting blowed-up.

The Government is spending $350-million-a-year making germs and gas, and the Army has got enuff now to kill 30 times as many people as they is in the world. A few drops of the stuff can kill a feller, Zeke said, and the Army is shipping it all over the country by railroad. No need to worry about a train wreck busting a barrel of germs, Zeke said, 'cause we ain't qualified to worry about somepun that ain't happened.

Actual, Zeke said, what we got to worry about is the Russians. They got enuff germs and gas to kill everybody in the world 240 times. It ain't that we're worried about them using them deadly chemics on us, he said, it's that we got to have more stored up than the Russians for our own protection. A feller could stub his toe carrying a bucket of them germs, said Zeke, and put a end to the population explosion forever.

Ed Doolittle said he had saw where this scientist said the only way to feed all the people in the world was to kill off a few million ever now and then, so all them stored up germs might come in handy. Accidental, said Ed, he had saw where some families of dead folks that had been froze to wait for a cure to bring 'em back to life now is having 'em thawed-out-and-buried. Ed said he figured the world is getting so full of problems living a second-life-problem-won't be worth the trouble.

Clem Webster got the floor and declared Castro has the right idea to do away with worry. He promised folks in Cuba a sugar crop of 10 million ton a year. He won't get it this year, but he ain't worried. He is jest stretching the year. In Cuba, when they finish December 1969 they will go to January No. 2 1969 and keep going in 1969 til they git them 10 million ton.

Personal, Mister Editor, I'm going to quit any serious worrying, I mean thinking. Ever day is doomsday by somebody's perdition, and I've lived long enuff to know if we jest set and wait fer troubles to find us, most of 'em will wear theirselves out, and we'll be rested up fer them that catch us.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

WATERFOWL TOUR

A CURIOUS SANDHILL CRANE inspects a waterfowl tour sign at Waterloo Recreation Area, where migrating waterfowl will be viewed on eight scheduled tours during the next two week-ends. Tom Hodgson, park naturalist, will be conducting the two-to three-hour expeditions set for 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. April 12, 13, 19 and 20. Tours will begin with a slide program at Mill-Lake Outdoor Center "B" unit dining hall on McClure Rd. and end with an auto trip to various waterfowl areas. Hodgson recommends that visitors bring binoculars and wear clothing appropriate for the weather. Comfortable, outdoor footwear will also be helpful since it will be necessary to leave cars and walk short distances to reach some of the areas. Visitors should use I-94, exit 156, Kalmbach Rd., turn north and follow the signs. Tours are free.

High School Senior Group In Washington

als and the National Wax Museum.
Thursday morning was to be the start of the trip. In the afternoon the students planned to visit the Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. That evening a moonlight cruise down the Potomac River will take the group to Marshall Hall Amusement Park.
Tomorrow will bring a tour of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, National Geographic Explorer Hall and Washington Monument in the morning, and all six buildings of the Smithsonian Institute and National Gallery of Art in the afternoon. Meals will be at Sholl's Cafeteria.
Reservations for return flight have been made for 4 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) from Washington National Airport to Detroit.
Plans for the trip date back to the students' freshman year when the trip club was formed. A committee selected possible places and presented alternatives to the club for voting. Members began raising funds through Christmas card and magazine sales, and concession stands at track meets as juniors, and at basketball, wrestling and football games this year.
Each member was given a percentage of the total club funds according to the amount of work he contributed. Some students earned the entire $147.50 for the trip.
Tours and reservations were arranged by Phillips Co., a travel agency in South Lyon. Chaperones Terry Pokela, Mrs. Margery Schiller and Lynn Williams were selected by the club and invited to join the group for the trip.
Head advisor Tom Morrison said this year's trip was more educational than many had been in the past, since the group chose Washington and planned to visit a large number of educational and historic sites. Trip club treasurer Doreen Kuhl agreed, adding that they tried to plan a trip that would be an educational experience, as well as being fun.

Townships...

According to Supervisor Warren Eisenbelsor.

Sharon...

A budget of approximately $15,000 as approved by Sharon township at the annual meeting Saturday, attended by 14 residents.
The road improvement fund showed a substantial increase over past years; with $4,500 allocated for this purpose. In the past $1,500 to $2,000 have been spent on road improvements each year, according to township clerk Duane Haselschwerdt.
Salaries were raised from $1,200 to $1,300 plus $200 car expenses for the supervisor, from $550 plus $50 expenses to $900 salary plus $100 expenses for the clerk. The treasurer was taken off the one percent fee payment basis and given a salary of $1,200 plus $100 expenses. Trustees' salaries remained $5 per meeting. Board of Review members will receive $50 yearly salary plus $5 per meeting, and the secretary will be given $25 salary plus $5 per meeting.
Since the township does not levy a tax they are not required by law to remain strictly within the budget. An income of approximately $15,000 is expected from sales tax diversion, income tax diversion and various fees.

Freedom...

A $17,330 budget was adopted at the Freedom township annual meeting. A salary increase from $2,400 to $2,700 was approved for the supervisor, but the clerk's salary and treasurer's one percent fee remained the same.
Major budget provisions include $4,200 for salaries, $3,000 for fires and $5,000 for roads. The road allotment will provide for one solid application of chloride only since the county road commission had discontinued the former program of matching funds for township road improvements.
Approximately 35 persons met with the board to agree to schedule a referendum within 90 days asking for a new township hall, to be built at the center of Lima Center and Pleasant Lake Rds., in the location of the old hall.

Battle of the Bands Slated Saturday

Dexter Jaycees "Battle of the Bands" will be held Saturday, April 12 at the Dexter High gymnasium from 7:30 until 11:30 p.m. The event will feature a Rock Hop (due to the location) and patrons may dance to their favorite band.
Special note to Dexter and Chelsea bands! It's not too late to enter the competition. Call 426-4988, now! First prize will be $75 and there will be a $25 second prize.
It is good, sometimes, to read a newspaper or a magazine that is about 10 years old just to see how many things we feared never happened.

CHS Baseball Team Loses Season Opener

Chelsea's varsity baseball team opened its season Monday by losing to Ypsilanti St. Johns, 12-9.
St. Johns started things off by scoring six runs in the second inning on 4 walks, 3 hits, and 1 error.
Chelsea came back and scored a run in the bottom of the third. After St. Johns scored another run in their half of the fourth, Herrst walked, Leonard Kozma singled, sending Herrst to third, and Mike Gaken grounded out, scoring Herrst. After an error and a walk, Doug Schoenberg singled home another run. Then Craig Houle fouled out, Mike Harvey singled, scoring Schoenberg, Harvey stole second and came home on an error by their shortstop.
St. Johns scored one more run in their sixth inning but Chelsea came back to take the lead again when they scored two runs in their sixth inning.
St. Johns won the game in the seventh inning when they scored four runs on one walk, a fielder's choice, two hits and two errors.
Although no team or coach likes to lose, this game gave Coach Getske a look at most of his ball players to find out where the major weaknesses are. It looks as if the fielding will receive the most work as the week progresses and he prepares for his league opener against Dundee next Tuesday.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

When a person is absorbed or obsessed with an idea, something often happens... Much of our progress, comforts, conveniences and possessions are traceable to someone's initial idea... Fulton's steamboat; Franklin's idea of electricity from the sky; our forefathers' idea of separation from England to form a democracy are just a few examples. Yet, these and many other ideas were initially scorned by unimaginative people.

Oppositionists to ideas are always around, and often heard. This is hard to understand. Least understandable of all, are the scoffers who jibe and discourage others who toy with the idea of serving their fellow men. The scoffers cannot understand how or why others may want to seek a job or career in service to others, that offers little financial reward... teachers, nurses, nuns, priests, ministers, and missionaries are only a few who could be mentioned. The world needs more of these people who are confronted with the presence of God in their being. Encourage them. Don't discourage them... BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. French Class Plans Trip To Montreal

Experiencing another culture, visiting a large city and using French will be three of the purposes of the planned Chelsea High school-French III class trip to Montreal, Canada next month.

Mrs. Ed Lathon, Chelsea French teacher and Kathleen Panko, French student teacher, will be among the 15 to 18 persons taking the train trip, scheduled for Tuesday, May 13 to Sunday, May 18.

The trip will be similar to one taken in April, 1968 by the French III class.

On their first night in Montreal, the group will probably go to a French movie or an American movie with French dubbed in. The next night Mrs. Lathon hopes to arrange for the group to visit seminary and college students from St. Lawrence College, a seminary, secondary school and college. The French class last year enjoyed a similar visit at St. Lawrence.

Chelsea students will see "Six Characters in Search of an Author," a modern play performed at one of three theatres within Place Des Arts. This cultural center was built before Expo '67 and provides unique architectural design. Saturday evening the group will dine at a French restaurant, visit a discotheque and board a train for home at midnight.

During the trip, the class will visit the University of Montreal, a French-speaking Canadian university.

Correction: It was erroneously reported in the March 27 issue of The Standard that sod for proposed football field improvement would be donated by John Eisenbeiser.

Product in the event that Mrs. Dudley Holmes is unavailable.

Cards every Thursday afternoon at Korner House.

Jerusalem Farm Bureau will meet April 10, 8:30 p.m. at the Kuhl home. Bring sweet rolls for refreshments.

DEATHS

Mrs. Asa Geigler

Chelsea Woman's Mother Dies at Ann Arbor Hospital. Mrs. Rose M. (Hirsh) Geigler, 402 S. Main St., died Sunday evening at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, after an illness of several months.

She was born Dec. 25, 1883, in Lima township, to Charles and Louise Alber Barth. Mrs. Geigler had been an Ann Arbor resident for the greater part of her life and lived in Gaylord from 1937 to 1961.

On Oct. 14, 1914, she married Simon Hirth. He preceded her in death June 26, 1926. She married Asa Geigler on Sept. 14, 1937. He also preceded her to death April 3, 1959.

Survivors include: a daughter, Mrs. Donald (Beatrice) Noffsinger, of Chelsea, formerly of Ann Arbor; four grandchildren, Walter Noffsinger, of Saline, Mrs. Pedro (Connie) Rodriguez, of Venezuela, Mrs. Richard (Carole) Spill and Miss Rose Mary Noffsinger, both of Chelsea; 10 great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Sam Andros, of Ann Arbor; a brother, Arthur Barth, of Chelsea; and several nieces and nephews. Two brothers and two sisters preceded her in death.

Funeral services were Wednesday from the Muehlig-Chalet, Ann Arbor, with the Rev. Ralph Piper officiating. Burial was in Bethlehem Cemetery.

BIRTHS

A daughter, Danielle Marie, March 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Osborne, 1985 Miller, Ann Arbor. Mrs. Osborne, the former Drinda West, is a 1965 Chelsea High school graduate. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Vivian West, 821 E. Middle St., Chelsea. Paternal grandparents are, 624 Duncan, Manchester.

A son, Jonathan Ray, April 4, to Rev. and Mrs. Frank C. Frinkle.

School Election

Intermediate School District will be able to vote on this proposal. If the millage is rejected the special education program will have to be cut back an estimated 25 percent.

Due to lack of funds this year the Intermediate School District substantially cut back the number of special education personnel and was unable to reimburse local school districts to the extent they have done in the past. As a result local districts had to make up these cuts out of their own budgets.

Chelsea has a type A, (mentally handicapped) special education room in Chelsea High school and Beach Junior High. Elementary students requiring special education go to Manchester, and Manchester junior high students have access to the Chelsea program.

The Chelsea School District also hires a full-time speech correctionist.

The Intermediate School District supplies diagnostic aid to Chelsea by testing potential special education students.

The state pays 75 percent of the cost of this program. The Intermediate School District attempts to pay the remaining 25 percent, so that Chelsea pays only for materials and space. However, if the Intermediate School District does not succeed in its request for additional millage, officials say they will be unable to reimburse the 10 districts within it the full 25 percent. Instead, it will pro-rate the funds available and school districts will have to finance the difference.

Since millage issues must be passed during the annual election the fate of this proposal will be decided July 9 for this year.

Basic Canoeing Course Offered By Red Cross

A free course in basic canoeing will be offered to Washtenaw county residents this Spring. Sponsors of the course are the American Red Cross and Marine Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 14 in cooperation with Wirth's Canoe Livery and Ann Arbor Recreation Department.

Miss Lois Bates is co-ordinator for the program, and other instructors will be Mrs. John Die, Miss Mildred Denecke, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harris.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Pachard visited her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Sanders in Charlotte, N.C., over the week-end. Her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boyer and family from St. Louis, Mo., were there spending Easter vacation. Visitors Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Laurance Boyer, son, Robin, and Mrs. Larry Wengron and baby. Mr. and Mrs. Winston Boyer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Boyer and family and Duane Boyer were Sunday visitors. All attended an open house pot-luck dinner at the home of former Chelsea residents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chaplin, now of Charlotte.

Mrs. Dick Foster of Ann Arbor, Miss Nadine Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Gilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson and Karen and Teddy Tarasow, all from Chelsea, were among the 90 who enjoyed the Sunday gathering at the Chaplin home.

Between now and April 16th the American citizen will discover that it costs money to exert leadership in the world.

"PUT DOWN SIX" from Victor Herbert's "Babes in Toyland," was sung by St. Mary's music students during the Easter Program Thursday afternoon. The third, fourth and fifth grade students taking the extra-curricular course hold their "slates" while getting ready to put down six. At right is Joseph Stanley, director.

St. Mary's Pupils Present Special Easter Music Program

As a final gesture before embarking on their Easter vacation, students of St. Mary's Parochial school assembled in the gym for a special hour-long program last Thursday.

The program opened with "St. Mary's School Song" which was written and dedicated to St. Mary's by Joseph Stanley, volunteer music instructor at the school. This was the first public presentation of the school song, which has a marching beat.

Stanley's special music class sang "Put Down Six" from Victor Herbert's "Babes in Toyland" with imitation slates used as props. The 31-member class then sang a version of "Easter Parade" revised to be suitable to a child's point of view.

Mrs. Pauline Greenlick, St. Mary's instructor, acted as commentator for a fashion show by 4-H girls who attend St. Mary's. The girls modeled their own creations.

The serious side of Easter was portrayed in a Passion Play by the sixth grade, with Paul Wood acting as narrator. Ed Jennings, music instructor, supplied piano accompaniment for the singing.

The 31-member group of third, fourth and fifth grade students has been practicing for his program day school and worship services.

6:00 p.m.—Junior and Senior Baptist Youth Fellowship.
7:00 p.m.—Evening worship.
Every Wednesday—
7:30 p.m.—Bible study and prayer meeting.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

Paradise

There is no paradise on earth. No matter how poor or rich an individual may be, happiness must be measured in the light of the individual attitude.

Money cannot guarantee that one will never be sick, will not combat a fatal disease, will not suffer the loss of a loved one.

None of us have the right to expect a life free from all sorrow and unhappiness. What we must do is have faith, faith in God, faith in tomorrow. If we have faith, we generally realize that trouble and discomfort are always temporary—and somewhere ahead, no matter how far, lies a bright and cheerful day.

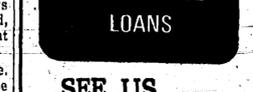

Live, therefore, a life of hope. Consider that tomorrow will be better, if we want it to be, if we turn our efforts to that purpose.

Live a life of love. Love turns aside deceit and selfishness. Love provides the incentive to do right, to be right. Love, like faith, provides strength and gives a sense of purpose to all things.

Life will be sweeter when you stop trying to remake your husband or wife.

Club and Social Activities

PAST NOBLE GRANDS For their March meeting... Past Noble Grand Club of Chelsea Rebekah Lodge met at the home of Mrs. Russell Bernath...

After a dessert luncheon, games were the evening's diversion. Mrs. Russell Allstaetter, program chairman, had a question and answer game on "Know Your Chelsea"...

WOMAN'S CLUB Woman's Club of Chelsea met Tuesday evening to hear Miss Elizabeth Robinson, formerly with the State Department of Social Services and Consultant on Hospitals and Nursing Homes...

Hostesses were Mrs. Winston Schenk and Mrs. Sylvester Wojcik.

BILLY IS NOW HAPPY with his "forever" family after four foster homes rejected him. Once hard-to-place because lack of permanent parents made him a troubled, ill-behaved boy who grew "old" in foster care, Billy represents the kind of child served by Spaulding for Children.

Spaulding Fund Campaign Opens

Spaulding for Children, the year-old adoption agency on Waltrous Rd., has launched a three-week drive by mailing to Chelsea residents 1,500 letters, membership cards and brochures explaining Spaulding's services...

On that date one year ago, a kick-off dinner at St. Paul's UCC church celebrated the beginning of agency operation. Keynote speaker was Gerald G. Hicks, associate director of the State Department of Social Services...

The agency's benefactor is lifetime Chelsea resident Warren D. Spaulding, an 86-year-old bachelor who donated his land and farm for agency use. He lives in one section of the farmhouse where Spaulding is headquartered...

If funds are received now to help the agency through a critical financial period, Spaulding looks forward to a bright future. At present the agency receives no United Fund support or tax money and is not endowed by any religious or secular institution or foundation...

Spaulding is a pioneer in developing a broader concept of adoption service similar to the far-sighted and world-famous Welcome House in Pennsylvania founded by author Pearl Buck. Parents are sought for a wide range of hard-to-place children, including those who are "older," of mixed or minority race, or have special physical, mental or emotional needs...

Spaulding is unique because it operates as an "agency's agency" on a purchase-of-service basis. Michigan courts and agencies who have been unable to find parents for particular children may refer them to Spaulding. For its home-finder service Spaulding charges the referral agency a fee equivalent to six months' boarding care...

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Knisely

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Knisely and P. Austin, David Knisely and at Dexter Methodist Church

Pauline Austin became a bride on Saturday afternoon, April 6, at the Dexter Methodist Church. She was married to David Eugene Knisely in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Wm. J. Rose...

The bride wore a gown of white lace and nylon with a bow-trimmed waistline. The sweep-skirt was fashioned of chapel-train. Her elbow-length bouffant bridal gown was secured by a crown of petals and simulated-pearl trim...

The bride, a graduate of Dexter High school, is employed in data processing at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Mr. Knisely, a teacher in the Chelsea school, graduated from Chelsea High school and Eastern Michigan University.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents Friday, March 28, with 18 guests present.

Pre-nuptial entertaining in honor of the bride included a miscellaneous bridal shower hosted by Miss Marie Scherdt and Mrs. James Eberts at the Scherdt home. Mrs. Ken Davidson entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Edison and Mrs. Lloyd Boyce and Mrs. Leroy Wing were hostesses at another miscellaneous shower recently. The bride was also feted at another miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Joe King at her home in Plymouth.
