Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

On May 14 President Nixon outlined to the American people his proposal for bringing peace to Vietnam. The President's proposal was both reasonable and achievable. He set peace as our primary objective and agreed to a mutual withdrawal of forces.

He made clear that this nation asks for no bases; for no Americanization of South Vietnam; for no permanent stationing of troops. Our only goal is the assurance that the South Vietnamese people are able to choose their own government in free elections. We agree to abide by that decision no matter what it may be.

Perhaps even more important than the specific proposals of the President was his clear commitment to procedural flexibility—his statement gave real evidence of interest in meaningful negotiations and provided the flexibility to make the Paris talks productive.

I was especially pleased by the President's speech because ever since the first year I came to Congress I have urged mutual de-escalation and greater flexibility in American policy towards Vietnam.

I recognize that not every citizen will be in complete agreement with the President's proposal. As in almost every decision that has been made on Vietnam in the last seven years, some will say the President went too far and others will say he did not go far enough.

But from the heated dialectic of the past few years a consensus is developing in this country that the war must be brought to an end. It is no longer worthwhile to debate how we got into the war.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Congratulations to the High School Choir and Miss L. Roy, their director for a very fine concert last Sunday afternoon.

The selections were varied to appeal to everyone. The program included works by Cesar Franck, the music from My Fair Lady, and two staged numbers—Sound of Silence (Simon and Garfunkle) and The Telephone Hour from Bye Bye Birdie.

It was evident that there was a great deal of time and effort spent in preparation for this performance. I'm sure it must have been discouraging to the choir to have to perform before 550 empty seats. (A large estimate of the audience would be 150 persons.)

The concert was given publicity on the front page of last week's Standard. If the public didn't support it, I feel that at least the families of their members should have been told of the concert. Those of you who weren't there missed a good thing.

Project Fails
A year-long, federally-funded project to increase minority representation on Michigan police forces failed, due to lack of enthusiasm by local officials and strict recruit standards.

That's the conclusion of a Michigan State University expert, Mrs. Carolyn Stieber, following an in-depth study of the "Police Recruitment Project" of Michigan.

Mrs. Stieber, a staff member of the MSU national center on police and community relations, appraised the project, financed by a $15,000 U. S. Justice Department grant, in a recent edition of the League Magazine.

The project was conducted from June, 1967, to June 1, 1968, with a goal of getting at least 1,000 police recruits, many of them Negroes.

Mrs. Stieber said final figures showed that 1,636 inquiries and 371 applications were received—but only a handful of blacks were actually hired.

What accounted for so few responses?

"While the sincerity of the police seems beyond question, the recruitment efforts appear passive and routine," Mrs. Stieber concluded.

The prevailing departmental attitude seems to be "we are here—come join us! We do not discriminate." This formula does not appear to be convincing many recruits of any race.

Moreover, she added, requirements that recruits take oral and written tests, attain a certain age and be a certain height and weight discourage many minority persons.

"Some departments that insist they would like to hire Mexican-Americans have height standards of 5-9 or 5-10, which very few Mexican-Americans can meet," Mrs. Stieber said.

"Chicago, on the other hand, recently gained 122 new men, many of Latin or Oriental descent, by lowering requirements from 5-3 to 5-7."

Mrs. Stieber asked that "why, in a tight labor market, is a pound or an inch disqualifying?"

The fact there are few blacks on major Michigan police forces and that even fewer gain promotion beyond patrolman accounts for hostility among Negroes toward law officers, the MSU researcher said.

"For many policemen the only Negro they ever see up close is the lawbreaker; the men with whom they work, and the neighbors in whose midst they live are all white," Mrs. Stieber said.

"The only policeman many Negroes ever see is an armed, smiling agent of the white 'establishment.' If there are some Negro officers on the force, they are quite often viewed with great hostility as agents of their oppressors, so that Negro policemen may take on the added burden of a double minority."

Mrs. Stieber said the recruitment project did prove that Negroes will apply for police work but did not demonstrate how many blacks can be hired.

And, she added, odds "are probably against a dramatic success" in future efforts to get more Negroes on police departments.

Nonetheless, Mrs. Stieber offered these recommendations:

Increase Negro representation on a force so that it is at least near the proportion of blacks in a community. "Large departments that add only one or two Negroes will be no better off than they are now in respect to recruitment," she said.

Re-examine recruit standards so they are relevant to police performance and not merely tradition, convenient or expedient.

Central testing of recruits. "Each department insists on its own test, and there is no coordination among the 400 or so municipal departments or the various townships and sheriff's departments," Mrs. Stieber said.

Aggressive recruitment in the Negro community, especially with regard to returning Vietnam servicemen.

"I Quit"

A personal campaign to help smokers kick the tobacco habit is Shaw, Michigan Bell Telephone executive, gave up smoking about a year ago. He is pleased with his will power and thinks that others can benefit by his plan.

Shaw designed a bumper sticker and had it printed in a small size. The small design was produced on a campaign button style pin.

The symbol shows a diploma, rolled and standing on end. Hanging from the diploma is a single letter "Q." From a distance, the symbol looks like a "Q." When anyone asks what it stands for, Shaw and anyone else who has one says, "I quit."

Shaw makes a set of the stickers and pin available to others who stopped smoking for 60 cents. He says this just covers the cost of producing the material.

Anyone who did quit, wants to stay off tobacco and encourages others to do so, can get a set of symbols by writing Shaw at his address: 1131 Old Hickory Lane, East Lansing 48823.

The Senior Citizens group has planned dedication ceremonies to be held Saturday at their meeting room in the Carl Schneider building at the southwest corner of Main and Middle streets. The program committee includes Miss Nina Greening, the Rev. R. A. J. Livingstone and Hushel O'Dell. A highlight of the ceremony will be a talk by J. Vincent Burg, II, giving the background of the Senior Citizens chapter.

Representing Chelsea at the Wolverine Boy's State convention at Michigan State University in East Lansing, June 16-22 will be David Clark and David Wood. Clark, 17, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Clark and is being sponsored by the Chelsea-Mackinac Post No. 51, American Legion. David Wood is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea.

Mayor Ross Lower, exchange mayor from Sturgis, who took part in Chelsea's Michigan Week activities Monday, was the guest speaker at the Monday night Kiwanis Club meeting.

A fifth candidate has filed a petition for nomination to the two positions on the Chelsea School District Board of Education. Herman Koehn has joined Robert Koch, Mrs. Harold (Barbara) Dresch, Jr., Charles Lancaster and Robert Taylor. Arthur Kuhl and Paul Mann, now ending four-year terms, have announced they will not file for re-nomination.

Honored on his 70th birthday recently by his alma mater, Olivet College, was Donald H. Bacon, president of Central Fibre Products. The establishment of the Donald H. Bacon Library Fund was announced last week. Bacon is a trustee at Olivet.

An eighth grader from Chelsea Junior High school placed fourth in a live telecast of the Metropolitan Spelling contest May 12. She is Shelley Baize, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baize, 140 Island Lake Road.

High kindergarten pre-enrollments and an increase of 50 in the high school next year were announced by Board of Education President Luther Kusterer Tuesday night to the special meeting of the board with the committees to help plan for the anticipated three-point construction program. Further inducement to act promptly was perhaps offered the committee by Kusterer's announcement that the high school would operate on split shift this fall.

Relatives and friends of Cpl. Harold West, home on furlough from the Hawaiian Islands, held a get-together Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison West, at Sylvan Center. Guests, numbering about 115, included relatives from Jackson, Ypsilanti, Parma and Chelsea. This is his first home visit since leaving for overseas three years ago.

About 150 members and friends of the Congregational church attended the fellowship dinner held in the church dining room Sunday. This gathering marked the successful completion of the campaign to raise a fund of $8,500 for repairs and improvements to the church and parsonage. The subscriptions exceeded the goal by $2,000.

John J. Ford, village clerk for more than a year, has tendered his resignation to the council, effective June 15, and President Walter Mohrlock has named William Schatz to fill the vacancy.

Protestant churches of Chelsea will unite for their annual Memorial service on Sunday, May 27. The Rev. P. H. Grabowski will preside at the service to be held in the Congregational church.

Major General William H. Gill awarded the Silver Star Medal posthumously to Staff Sergeant Robert W. Dvorak, son of Mrs. Anna Dvorak, formerly of Chelsea. Relatives of Second Lt. Hollis W. Freeman, Jr., Fortress navigator, have been notified by the War Department that he has been rescued from the German prison camp at Moosburg. He had been reported missing in a bombing raid over Germany, Nov. 21 and in January his family received word that he was a prisoner of war.

Sergeant Lyle J. Haselswerdt, husband of Dora Haselswerdt, 215 Park, was recently awarded the "Certificate of Merit" as an Theater of Operations commanding officer, in recognition of conspicuously meritorious and outstanding performance in military duty.

The re-examination of cases, ordered by Harry Federal-Tenure Administration, took place Monday morning in the sea area. All clients were notified that their cases were being re-examined and if it was necessary for their relief it would require an application.

Work was started Wednesday on the water main extension which will be installed in Chelsea relief project to eliminate stagnation of water in some parts of the village. It is planned to employ about 40 men on the job. The only cost to the city will be for materials used. The work will be done under the supervision of P. M. Boehm, superintendent of the municipal electric and water plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Schaefer received a congratulatory letter from President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Have you got one of them houses on wheels yet? The fellow that runs the store told us Saturday night that he ain't never seen the like of campers passing by his place this spring. He said we has come from "two chickens in ever pot" to "two houses fer ever family" in one generation.

Actual, he said, them rolling houses was pritty thick on the road by the store through the winter. Last fall, he said he figured when the youngsters had to stop riding and go to school the trailer traffic would slack off some. But now he figgers about as many retired couples has trailers as folks with youngsters, so the old folks ride while the youngsters is in school.

During the hottest spell last August, the storekeeper recollected, a family stopped in one of them campers that is built like a bus, where you set right inside and drive along. The fellow driving got out and come in. He said he was looking for a tow. He said the camper had blowed a fuse right in the middle of the cartoons on TV and the youngsters was screaming bloody murder. Furthermore, he said his old lady had just finished washing her hair and her hair dryer wouldn't work without that fuse.

The fellow said they wasn't going nowhere in particular. He said his camper had air condition and his regular house didn't, so they was just driving around cause it was cooler on the road than in their regular house. The storekeeper said he was afraid to think how thick highways of this country would get with them rolling houses if we was to have a power failure winter or summer in some big cities. Ever family would get inside their air condition shells and hit the road like a endless line of turtles, was his words.

Ed Doehltle said his daughter that works in the city was a member of one of these travel clubs. One of their trips last summer was a tour into Mexico with a band of them air conditioner trailers. Ed said his daughter reported they took their own drinking water, had parties and saw moving pictures ever night when they camped. She said they had to rough it one night and cook over a open fire cause the cooking gas run out. Modern trailer parks, she said, is just like motels, except the customer provides the room.

More than 132,000 of them homes on wheels was sold in this country last year, Ed reported, and he figgers they would be more this year. Sharp politicians will be coming up with more programs on camping, Ed allowed, but the trouble is, they'll have to set up roadblocks to stop the campers long enuff to tell about 'em.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

School Millage Discussion...

be replaced. Capital outlay includes a second coat of blacktop for Mayer Dr. and parking lot improvements at Chelsea High school. The old junior high property will probably be cleared.

Sources of Money

The 20 percent increase in the budget represents $280,000, which would be financed by $204,000 from increased millage rate, $24,000 increase in state aid and $52,000 from the $2 million increase in the district valuation.

The district will receive $27,000 less increase in state aid than had been anticipated while drawing up the state budget. The actual increase will represent approximately $10.20 per pupil, although the gross allowance in state aid increased from $326.75 to $408. However, the deductible per pupil factor based on state equalized valuation behind each pupil, increased $71.05, leaving Chelsea with a net increase of only about $10.20.

State Aid is equal to gross allowance per pupil ($326.75 for 1968 and $408 for 1969) minus the deductible factor (5.88 mills for 1968 and 9 mills for 1969) times state equalized valuation per pupil in the district ($19,708 in 1968, $20,766 in 1969). By cranking these figures through the state aid formula, Chelsea is given $221.10 actual state aid per pupil next year compared to $210.90 last year.

Comparisons

Many of the questions concerned Chelsea's expenditures and taxes compared to those of surrounding areas. Chelsea school district ranks third of 10 in Washtenaw county in per pupil valuation with $18,690, but our average cost per pupil ranks in fifth place. Teacher salaries are even farther down on the list—seventh of 10.

In reply to questions, the following figures were listed administrative salaries for the coming year: $11,896 for Assistant CHS Principal Bruce Galbraith; $14,720 for Sylvester Wojcik, South Elementary principal; $12,916 for Robert Benedict, North Elementary principal; $15,298 for Alan Conklin, Beach principal; $15,862 for Charles Lane, High school principal; $13,860 for Business Manager Fred Mills; and $20,394 for Superintendent Charles Cameron.

These figures were determined by a formula whereby up to 30 percent is added to the top teaching salary level for administrative ing. Registration fee is $5.

C's Finalize School Vote Campaign

Chelsea Jaycees are finalizing their "Get Out and Vote" campaign for the coming school millage election on June 9. To date the Jaycees have put out an information pamphlet outlining the details of the existing millage and the millage increase. The pamphlet will also spell out other important information, such as how to vote, how to calculate his new school tax if the millage is passed, where and when to vote, including a map. Any resident who wishes to vote but cannot because of transportation problems may call Walt Brown at 475-7634 for free taxi service to and from the voting polls. This service will be provided by the local Jaycees through the use of their own cars.

A second service that local voters may need is baby-sitting. The local Jaycee Auxiliary will be happy to watch small children at their homes while the mothers vote. Residents requiring this free service may contact Mrs. Walt Brown at 475-7634.

Posters showing location of voting polls and Get Out and Vote campaign material will be distributed to the local merchants for placement in their store windows this week-end. It is hoped that the informational pamphlet will also be ready for distribution throughout the community by the Jaycees this week-end. It is the hope of the Jaycees that each resident will receive a pamphlet and that he will read it. The Jaycees urge each registered voter to vote regardless of his or her feelings on the millage.

Seniors in Band Honored at Dinner Thursday Night

The 25 seniors in the Chelsea High school band were recognized at a dinner sponsored by Band Boosters Thursday night. Approximately 175 band members attended the dinner and program, where they saw slides taken at summer band camp last year. The speaker for the evening was Dr. William Fitch, professor of music at Eastern Michigan University. He predicted what might be expected in the future as far as music in schools is concerned. He recommended that graduating seniors planning to attend college take some type of class in music since it is a good outlet. He also traced the history of music education. Guests were Mrs. Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cameron, Charles Lane, Donald Irwin, the Rev. Fr. Umberto Mellare and Melvin Leach. 481 welt on Wednesday as the result of their infant twin sons Franklin Richard and Delano Douglas. Enclosed with the letter were two pictures of the President, which the proud father says he will have framed in gold for his sons. Arrangements have been made for the observance of Decoration Day when appropriate services will be held. Dr. Faye Palmer will officiate as officer of the day and Duane Weiss will act as chief bugler. Union Memorial services will be held Sunday at the Methodist church, beginning at 10 o'clock. The program will be in charge of the Rev. P. H. Grabowski. Michigan was the first state to guarantee every child the right to Day when appropriate services tax-paid high school education.

Class of 18 Confirmed At St. Paul's

The 1969 St. Paul United Church of Christ confirmation class of Janice Bauer, Dan Bertke, Judi Blass, Phyllis Buss, Kenneth Buxton, Carole Dietle, Carol Fairbrother, Ron Gauss, Bob Heynau, Tim Lencaster, Jeff Schmidt, Robert Schuelko, Dobby Shadowon, Stephen Sibert, Tom Skiffenholm, Bart Wellnitz, Beth Wolk, and Diane Weston received the Rite of Confirmation and their first communion at St. Paul United Church of Christ during the second service Sunday, May 25.

The service was the culmination of 36 weeks of study in depth of the fundamentals of Christian faith.

Class members each received a wall plaque from the church and could keep the gold-rimmed communion glass which symbolizes their first communion.

The course, taught by the pastor, the Rev. Warner H. Siebert, began with school in 1968 and covered many areas dealing with the Bible, God, Jesus Christ, the church and the person. World religions, ecumenicity, worship, church membership and church history were also those things covered.

A public examination of the class is held each year when the Church Council satisfies themselves that the young people are ready for church membership. This was done Friday, May 23, followed by a reception provided by one of the sub-groups of St. Paul Women's Fellowship.

This class showed more general depth of understanding than any of the other previous classes which I have reviewed, noted one board member.

Corsages, white robes and smiling faces all blended together for final color photos taken last Sunday. The class then presented Karen Johnson with an engraved pen and pencil set for her assistance to the pastor over the past year. The class gift to the church will be two religious paintings, to be displayed on the interior walls.

Another record-breaking finish was turned in by the 880-yard relay team of Mike Schnaidt, Larry Gorton, Jim Wojcik and Ted Bennett. They outran their week-old school record of 1:34.4 set last week at the regional meet with a 1:33.5 performance.

Slane jumped to a third-place finish with 19' 9" in the long jump. In the high jump Kargel jumped 5' 10" to place fifth in the high jump. In the pole vault, Larry Blackwell finished first with a 12' 6" vault, followed by Jim Wojcik with 11' 6"; Doug Weatherwax took first place in the mile run with 4:40.

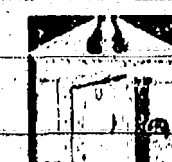

Mike Bassett took fourth in the 120-yard high hurdles in 1:16. Chelsea took first and fifth in the 880-yard run as Mike McGinn finished in 2:02.2 and John Hepburn finished in 2:10.1.

Rick Slane clocked :10 in the 100-yard dash, followed in second by Schnaidt in :10.6 and fifth by Bennett in :11.4. In the 180-yard low hurdles Gorton placed third with :22.1. Rick Slane finished the 220-yard dash in :23, followed by Schnaidt in :23.6 and Bennett in :24.5. The mile relay team took a first in 3:37.1.

KIWANIS CITIZENSHIP AWARDS were presented to 16 students from Chelsea High school, Beach Junior High and St. Mary's Parochial school Monday night at the Chelsea Kiwanis Club meeting. The annual awards are given to students selected by their peers for demonstrating citizenship, leadership and participation in activities. This year's recipients are, seated from left, Deborah Orlovski and Mike Nadeau, St. Mary's seventh grade students; Jennifer Tandy and Jeff Sprague, Beach seventh grade students;

Daniel Houle and Barbara Boylan, St. Mary's eighth grade; John Mann and Phyllis Buss, Beach eighth grade. Standing from left are Jeanne Haselschwardt and Wayne Welton, Chelsea High school ninth grade; Jane Haselschwardt, 10th grade; David Bust and Caryl Thornton, 11th grade; Tom Thomson and Shelley Balze, seniors. Jim Wojcik, award recipient from the 10th grade, was not present for the photo.

Questions and Answers On School Millage Request

Q. Who may vote in the election to be held on June 9?

A. Any registered voter may vote. Property ownership is not a requirement to vote. Persons renting a household may vote.

Q. Why isn't property ownership necessary to vote?

A. State Laws provide that all registered voters may vote on optional millage requests.

Q. How many mills additional for operating are requested in the June 9 election?

A. 4.33 mills.

Q. How many mills were voted for operation for the last school year, 1968-69?

A. 7.65 mills.

Q. What is the total millage request for operation June 9?

A. 11.98 mills, 7.65 mills renewal and 4.33 mills additional.

Q. Is the increase in the total school millage 3.33 mills?

A. Yes, the 4.33 mills additional for operation is reduced by a reduction of 1/2 mill to be levied for the debt retirement funds.

Q. How is the 1/2 mill reduction in the debt retirement levy possible?

A. Six mills were required to pay the principal and interest on the high school debt retirement fund and the Beach School debt retirement fund in 1968-69. Because of the increase in valuation in the school district, 5.5 mills will be required in 1969-70, a reduction of 1/2 mill.

Q. What was the total school millage for 1968-69?

A. 24.87 mills, for operating and debt retirement.

Q. What is the total millage request for 1969-70 including the 4.33 mills?

A. 28.70 mills for operating and debt retirement, an increase of 3.83 mills.

Q. Is any additional millage available for 1969-70?

A. No. The 7.65 mills voted for 1968-69 expired with the 1968-1969 school year levy.

Q. What does 11.98 mills represent in tax money?

A. Approximately $550,000, or about one-third of the total budget.

Q. State aid, according to the papers has increased substantially. How does this affect our district?

A. Our district will receive approximately $24,000 more in state aid or about $10.20 per pupil. However, based on figures available before legislative work on the state aid bill, we had anticipated an increase of $51,000. Therefore, we will receive approximately $27,000 less state aid than was estimated in the proposed budget.

Q. The gross allowance in state aid increased from $326.75 to $408.00 per pupil. Why will we receive only $10.20 per pupil?

A. The deductible factor in the state aid formula also increased from 5.88 mills to 9.00 mills. The deductible per pupil based on the state equalized valuation behind each pupil for 1968-69 was $115.85 and for 1969-70 it will amount to $186.90—an increase of $71.05. Although the gross allowance increased $81.25 per pupil, the deductible also increased $71.05 per pupil with the resulting increase of $10.20 per pupil to our district.

Q. What does the 3.83 mill increase represent in taxes?

A. The 3.83 mills represents $3.83 per thousand of equalized valuation. Examples:

$10,000 valuation—$38.33 increase in school taxes.

$50,000 valuation—$191.65 increase in school taxes.

$100,000 valuation—$383.30 increase in school taxes.

$200,000 valuation—$766.60 increase in school taxes.

Q. Why did the district lose the 7.65 mills?

A. The 7.65 mills was voted for only one year and expired with the 1968-69 school year levy.

Q. Why can't there be two ballots for the 7.65 mill renewal and the 4.33 increase?

A. Since the 7.65 mills approved for 1968-69 expired with the 1968-69 school year levy, the school district has no additional voted millage to carry over to 1969-70. Since there is no carry-over the total package must be voted for on one ballot.

15 Age Group counts for 81% of the Bicycling Deaths
Children under 15 years of age accounted for 34, or 81 percent, of the 42 bicycling deaths reported in Michigan, State Police records show.
Collisions between bicycles and motor vehicles totaled 2,588.
Of these, 2,330 persons injured, by comparison, there were 47
deaths and 2,308 persons injured in 2,598 bicycling accidents in 1967.
State Police analysis shows the new 15 age group year after year accounts for 75 to 85 percent of the bicycling deaths, and for 70 to 80 percent of the injuries.
In addition, two to three times as many bike riders are killed in all areas as urban. However, experience shows that the majority of the majority of injuries and the accidents resulting from the population of eight million people provides a large percentage of the state's production of fruits, vegetables and dairy, and other farm products.

Taxpayer Revolt

Student and non-student protesters in Michigan and across the country are calling for a revolution—the most often, it is a poorly defined revolt against the establishment.
The protesters are always the admitted rebels, the ones who are overthrown of the free enterprise system and our government—religious and educational institutions.
The key word, and this is as far in their minds as the protesters have gotten, is nothing about the chaos, but from the chaos, it is apparent that a new economic order, which is a revolt to prefer is to be a form of communism or socialism.

Too many years ago we had these people for what we call anarchists and saboteurs, with treason the proper word for much of what they do. They are all they are blind people to the freedoms they have, including the freedom of protest, and in most cases, from work.
Most socialistic, communistic countries including Red China and the Soviet system, all able citizens must work to support the government's production and five-year plans. In all men and most women at every description of job, a protest is not tolerated. A professional protester would himself in a labor camp if liquidated. To the hippies, the black militants and SDS, this should throw a whole light on the revolution they have been seeking.
It's been fun to riot and demand the impossible because it's much more exciting and easier than working within the system. Above all, it has been fun than working.

Parents, college administrators and law officials (in that order) should spare everyone a lot of trouble by cutting off the money that goes to rioting "students" by slapping anarchists and the nuisances into jails and houses.
Under these conditions they share in what are normal conditions of a revolution, without the rest of us (busy at work) too much.

8 from Track Team Compete In Jackson Meet

Eight members of the Chelsea track team closed the season Monday evening at the Jackson Citizen-Patriot Invitational meet.

The six best athletes in each track event in the Jackson area qualified for the meet. The Jackson Citizen-Patriot compiled results over the season and sponsored the meet.

Teams participating included those of all classes within the Patriot subscription area. In the meet Larry Blackwell won the pole vault at 12' 6". Jim Wojcik tied for fifth at 11' 8". The 880 relay team of Jim Wojcik, Larry Gorton, Ted Bennett and Mike Schmitt was third in 1:38.2.

Doug Weatherwax was fifth in the mile in 4:37.5. Mike McGinn finished sixth in the 880-yard run in 2:03.2. Rick Slane was third in the 100-yard dash, fourth in the 220 and fifth in the long jump. Larry Gorton was sixth in the low hurdles in 21.1 and the mile relay team finished fifth in 3:33.2.

Chelsea Coach Bart Kruse said he felt the team had a very successful year, finishing with a 7-2 dual meet record including a victory over the Class "C" state champion, Reading. The team won a share of the Southeastern conference championship, won the Eagle and Albion Relays and was runner-up at the Michigan Center Relays. Perhaps their biggest win was the regional crown. In all, five trophies were added to the case.

Seven varsity or school records were broken. They included a new pole record of 12' 6 1/4" by Larry Blackwell, a new high jump mark of 6' 1" by Mike Bassett, a long jump record of 22' 2" by Rick Slane. Two records were set by Doug Weatherwax, 4:37.5 in the mile and 10:35.1 in the two mile, plus he shared in the mile relay record of 3:32.2 with Mike Schmitt, Jim Wojcik and Mike McGinn and finally a new relay record of 1:33.5 was set by Larry Gorton, Jim Wojcik, Ted Bennett and Mike Schmitt.

Coach Kruse said he felt any success his athletes achieved during the year could be attributed to their hard work. "I was tremendously impressed with this team's attitude, willingness to work and something that generally is not found in an individual sport like track, an excellent team spirit," he added that he was pleased with the hard work and success of several individuals who put much extra effort into their performance and as a result performed to a greater degree of success.

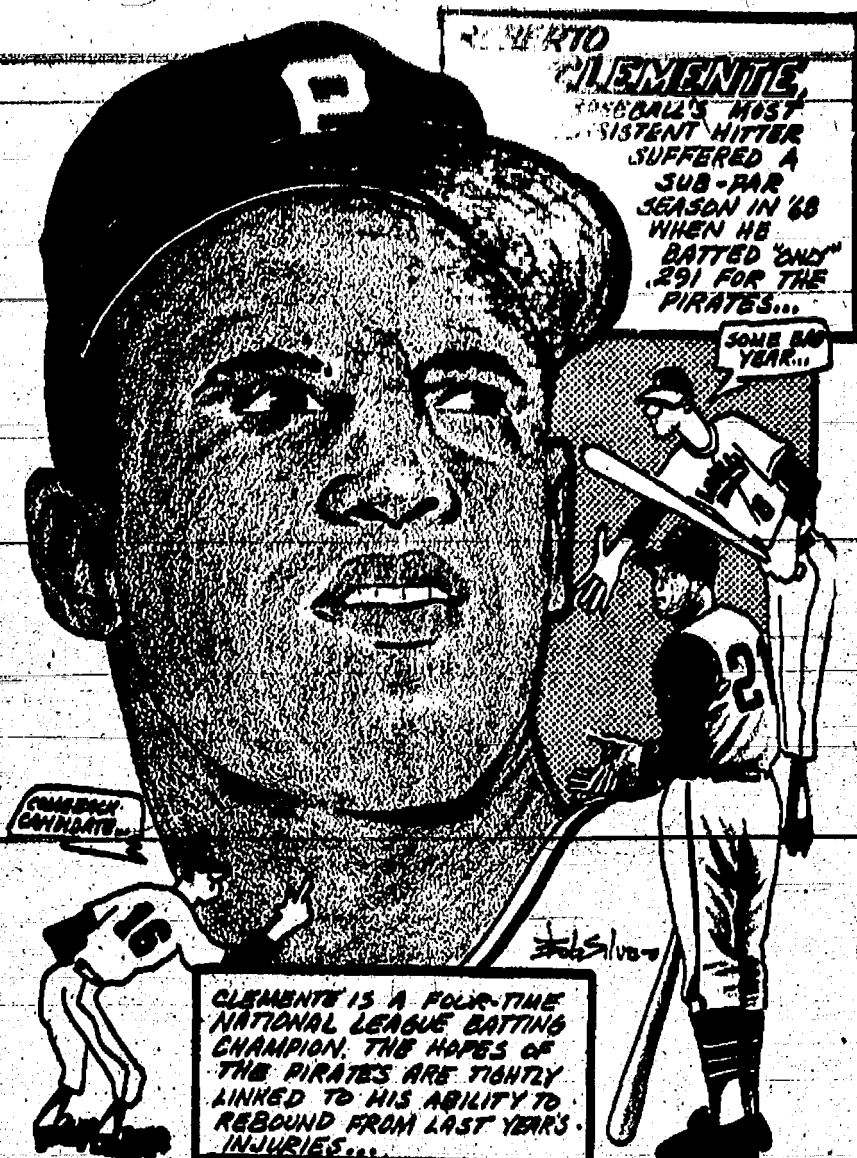

Tigers Father-Son Game Stated July 5

Detroit—The 10th annual Father-Son Game, matching Tiger players against their young sons in a "contest" played strictly for laughs, has been scheduled for Saturday, July 5.

The game and ceremonies, including introduction of Tiger wives and their daughters, will precede the Tigers' game with the Baltimore Orioles that afternoon. The ceremonies will start at 12:15 p.m., the game at 1:15 p.m. (EST). The Tiger Dads, who must bat and throw opposite to their normal manner and who must give the Sons six outs per inning, will be trying for their first victory in the popular series.

Campbell Kids Day Stated By Tigers

Detroit—Campbell Kids Day, being celebrated throughout the major leagues as a part of baseball's centennial season, will be held at Tiger Stadium on Saturday, June 7.

Youngsters 14 and under may obtain free tickets for the Tigers' game with the Oakland Athletics that day by mailing nine labels from Campbell-soup products bearing the major league baseball emblem, along with a coupon obtained from a newspaper or at the grocery, to: Tiger Kids Day, Maple Plain, Minn. 55359.

Tickets then will be mailed to youngsters in a colorful Campbell Kids Kit. Each kit will contain a membership card for the Campbell Kids Clubhouse, a baseball premium catalog and a message from Whitey Ford, former

New York Yankee star who is head man of the Kid Clubhouse.

JV Baseball Season Closes On 10-3 Record

Yesterday afternoon the Chelsea JV baseball team finished their season schedule by challenging Chelsea accumulated a 10-3 over-all season record.

Monday Brighton fell, 10-4, beneath winning pitcher Ron Sweeney. Chelsea boys collecting two hits each were Dave and Tom Lukasiak and Ron Sweeney. Howard Treaso had a triple that traveled 320 feet and drove in two runs. Sweeney brought his winning record to 5-1.

Last Thursday Chelsea was defeated, 4-3, by South Lyon. Tom Harmon was the losing pitcher and Chelsea collected only three hits, from Sweeney, Howard Treaso and Jim Wencel.

Last Tuesday Chelsea defeated Lincoln, 9-3, with Sweeney the winning pitcher and Keith Pfeifle the leading hitter with two. In a double-header with Milan, Chelsea won, 8-2 and 19-4.

Simulated Flight to Mars Offered at Planetarium

East Lansing—A simulated space flight bound for Mars is in store for visitors to the newest program at Michigan State University's Abrams Planetarium. Presented five times each week-end through June 29, the program recounts early legends inspired by Mars and offers illustrated views of the planet as imagined by science fiction writers.

Beef cattle, hogs and sheep are important livestock enterprises in Michigan, ranking second behind dairying in the number of dollars they earn for farmers. Livestock production is located in the Lower Peninsula on farms where corn is plentiful. Michigan is a "deficit" meat producing state. This means that three-fifths of the red meat consumed must be imported from other states.

CAMPERS: INSURE AND FINANCE YOUR VEHICLES AT AAA

INSURE your vehicle with the new Outdoor Living Package that offers broader and better comprehensive and collision coverage on owned, rented or borrowed motor homes, campers and trailers. For example, camper units on pickup trucks insured through the Exchange are covered up to $500 if owned by the insured. Additional coverage to insure full value can be purchased from the Exchange. If the camper, motor-home or trailer is borrowed or rented for 30 days or less, the units are automatically covered up to full value.

FINANCE your new recreational vehicle with AAA Member Loan and save money, compared to usual bank rates. Available at all 57 Auto Club offices, through a special arrangement with several leading Michigan banks, Member Loan is one of the most valuable benefits of Triple-A membership. Member Loan helps AAA members save money on cars, boats and snowmobiles, too.

Representing Chelsea at Scout Encampment

Mary Lou McClear is 15 years old and a typical teen-ager in many ways. Yet, there is a calmness and wisdom about her that speaks of maturity. She has been a Scout since she was 10 years old. Her friends say she is a "Scout" in every sense of the word.

Mary Lou McClear is a Senior Girl Scout and has been in scouting since she was eight years old. Her ambition is to be a nurse. "Scouting has helped me to meet people and to be independent," she says.

MARY LOU MCLEAR will be the Chelsea Girl Scout representative at the Reachout Encampment scheduled for June 23 to July 12. Girl Scouts from all parts of Michigan and Canada will gather at the 1,000-acre site near Pinckney to enjoy the natural surroundings preserved at the new camp.

Scout Troop Takes 11-Hour Canoe Trip

Boy Scout Troop 476 went canoeing on the Pine River May 23, 24 and 25, near Hoxeyville.

Boys who took part on the canoe trip were Dennis Cosgrove, Jeff Daniels, Rick Dellinger, Lee Hafner, Lloyd Hafner, William Hafner, Dave Heydlauff, Dave Leach, Bruce Parks, Art Paul, Jeff Reed, Peter Stahl, and Jim Wencel.

Adults who took part on the canoe trip were Harold Baker, Robert Daniels, Les Eisenbeiser, Charles Hafner, Vern Hiltz, Merle Leach, Robert Reed and Alvin Reinhardt.

Two boys from Detroit also went with the troop.

The trip covered 76 miles by canoe. Everybody made it, even though some of the boys and adults finished a little on the damp side. They were all a little on the tired side. The entire trip on the river took 11 hours.

Mrs. Mabel Artz was visited yesterday by her nephew from Ontario, Calif., whom she has not seen for 57 years.

Warren Moore, the son of Mrs. Artz's 98-year-old sister, Mrs. Lucy Leach Moore, visited his aunt at Chelsea Methodist Home for the first time since he was two years old.

The sisters were both born and raised in Chelsea, but Lucy moved to California in 1902 for health reasons. She married and has lived in California since that time. She returned to Chelsea several times but has not been back in 30 years.

Warren "Torchy" Moore and "Bunny", his wife, drove from California to Chelsea for the visit. They planned to tape record Mrs. Artz's voice for her sister.

Two Kidney Machines from Coupon Drive

Michigan Jaycee Auxiliaries have collected more than 1.2 million Betty Crocker coupons in their Operation Purchase drive to buy an artificial kidney machine.

Operation Purchase State Chairman Warren H. Newton of Ann Arbor has announced that the total collected is enough to provide for the purchase of two kidney machines. The original goal set in February was 600,000 coupons. General Mills has promised to reimburse the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliaries with $5,000, the approximate cost of one machine for every 600,000 coupons collected.

The two machines will be donated to the kidney loan closet of the Michigan Kidney Foundation to be placed with patients who are learning to operate their own artificial kidneys at home.

Coupons are still being collected. Canisters are placed in Stop & Shop, Dancer's and Chelsea Drug Store. They may also be mailed to Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary Chairman Mrs. Robert Updegraff, 14115 N. Territorial Rd., Gregory 48137.

JAYCEE PRESIDENCY was assumed by Walter Brown, right, at Saturday's Installation and Awards program. Presenting the gavel to Brown is outgoing Chelsea Jaycee President Don Proctor.

THE YEAR Award was presented to Art Steina Sunday at the Awards and Installation program. The award is given to the Jaycee who accumulates the most points for the year. Steina was chairman of numerous projects and an active participant in many others. He originated the assistance project at Halloween, when Jaycees wore umbrellas showing that they were available in emergencies; he was chairman of the Jaycee jackets project; saw that Santa Claus was in Chelsea this year; was fair float and fair queen last summer; and won the "Plunger of the Year" award for first to accumulate 100 points for activities.

NATURE WANTS YOU TO BE WELL

It is not natural to be sick. Nature will restore you to health if you will take the first essential step: meet the cause of your disease. When the cause is met, the symptoms naturally disappear. This is the Chiropactic philosophy. The Chiropactor does not claim to cure anything. Nature cures. With his skilled hands, the Chiropactor releases the tremendous natural powers of reparatory function already present in your body. Everything that is known about man, mentally and electronically; all the needed medications and chemical formulas are produced in your body and go to work to make you well.

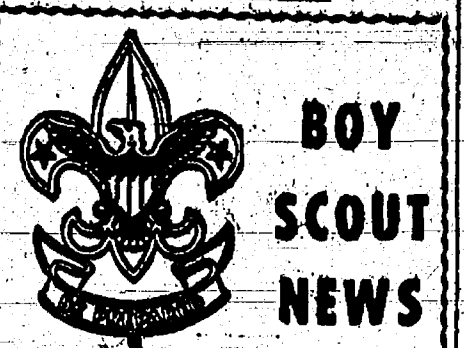

This is not "just theory." It is a condition demonstrated every day both from the scientific and physical planes of thousands upon thousands of Chiropactic cures, and this where other health methods had failed. Show beyond any reasonable doubt that "Nature wants you to be well."

The Chiropactic principle has not changed one since its discovery by D. D. Palmer nearly 75 years ago; however, there have been great strides made in its scientific applications. Give nature a chance to help you get well through an up to date Chiropactor.

Walter Brown Installed as President of Chelsea Jaycees

The Chelsea Jaycees held their installation of new officers and presentation of awards, May 24. The evening began at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Proctor, who hosted a cocktail hour. This was followed by a dinner and program at the Anchor Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Adair and Mr. and Mrs. George Potter were guests.

Ronald Adair, District 28 outgoing vice-president, was the master of ceremonies and George Potter was the speaker of the evening.

Don Proctor introduced his board and presented them with past officers pins. The new officers were then installed and presented the pins of their office.

Walter Brown was installed as president; Si Hopkins as internal vice-president; Arthur Steinway, external vice-president; Thomas Thainer, treasurer; Gary Packard as secretary; Ed GrienLeaf, membership chairman; Ernie Cameron and Dan Eder, directors; and Chuck Matloff, publicity.

Walt Brown, in his acceptance speech, challenged the Jaycees to many important issues of the day in Chelsea.

Proctor presented the awards, assisted by Brown. Receiving Spoke Awards were Vasant Bhird, Ernie Cameron, Dan Eder, Gary Packard, Joe Verway, Thomas Thainer runner-up and Doug Roberson, the Outstanding Spoke Winner.

Ed Akin was presented his exhausted roster. He has served the Chelsea Jaycees for 10 years.

Art Steinway was the recipient of the club's Outstanding Chelsea Jaycee Award. Don Proctor presented Ron Branham with the JCI Senatorship on behalf of the Chelsea Jaycees. This is the highest honor that can be received by a Jaycee and gives him a life-long membership into a special group throughout the world of the Jaycees International.

Breakfast followed the evening's events and was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Chelsea Jaycee President.

MSU Now Has Medical Alumni Association

Even though Michigan State University's College of Human Medicine is classed as a two-year medical school, it now has a Medical Alumni Association. The organization was formed under the auspices of the MSU Alumni Association by a group of seven medical students and 20 medical doctors who previously studied for graduate or undergraduate degrees at Michigan State.

Agricultural Dean Among Appointments At Michigan State

East Lansing—Michigan State University Board of Trustees has approved the appointment of Dr. Lawrence L. Boger, professor and chairman of agricultural economics, as dean of the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources. He succeeds Dr. Thomas K. Cowden, who became assistant secretary of agriculture in Washington, D. C., last month.

Other major appointments or changes included Dr. Frank H. Blackington, III, professor of secondary education and curriculum, as professor and director of the MSU Honors College; and Von Del Chamberlain, acting director of MSU's Abrams Planetarium, to assistant professor and director of the planetarium.

MSU Commencement Scheduled June 8

East Lansing—The annual spring commencement exercises will be held for Michigan State University graduates at 4 p.m. Sunday, June 8, in Spartan Stadium.

Delivering the address will be Dr. Calvin Hastings Plimpton, president of Amherst College, Massachusetts, and widely published medical doctor and commentator on the contemporary scene.

Dr. Plimpton has received many honors and awards for medical services performed both in the U. S. and other countries. He has been active in the World Peace Foundation since 1961.

Four flags have flown over Michigan—French, English, Spanish and United States.

Whatsoever Things

By Donald E. Williams

SAVING A LIFE OPENS A DOOR

While visiting with a neighbor, the son of a wealthy Englishman decided to go swimming. The young boy had not been swimming too long until he began to call for help. He was about to drown. The son of the gardener was nearby and he came to the rescue of the young boy. He went into the swimming pool and pulled the young boy to safety.

The wealthy boy's parents were so grateful for his deed that they wanted to do something in return for the gardener's son. Asking what they could do to show their appreciation, they were told of the poor boy's desire to become a doctor. Since the gardener did not have funds to finance his son's medical education, the wealthy family agreed to provide the funds to send the young man to medical school.

Entered Medical School
The young poor boy grew up and entered medical school. He made a good record for himself and was soon recognized as one of the outstanding physicians in all England. Soon his efforts were recognized beyond England and around the world. In 1945 he was named the winner of the Nobel Prize in Medicine for his discovery of penicillin. His name was Sir Alexander Fleming.

Life plays some funny cards sometimes. Here was a young man who had the ability and the desire, but lacked the money to reach his goal in life. And then, by a strange twist of fate, the door to his dreams opened as the result of his helping someone else.

A lot of folks would say it was nothing more than a coincidence that caused Alexander Fleming's dream to come true. Maybe it was, or maybe it wasn't. Maybe, by some mysterious way it was as much Providence as coincidence that opened that door. Now we know that a lot of folks won't buy the possibility that it was Providence, and not coincidence, that opened the door. But the evidence is just as strong that it was as it is that it wasn't.

Won't Buy Supernatural
We have seemingly grown to a place in society where we won't buy anything having to do with the supernatural. If it happens there must be a scientific answer to it. A lot of people seem to think that there's a scientific answer to everything. And while we aren't trying to belittle science or scientists, there are still some things that cannot be answered with a scientific rule-book. What causes love? Can you measure that by scientific rules? Or what causes one man to give his life for another? Try that one in the computers. Or why would a man be willing to die on a cross?

Sir Alexander Fleming later saved the life of that same boy again. It was during the Second World War and he treated the childhood friend, now a grown man, for pneumonia and saved his life for the second time. It's a good thing for England and the rest of the world that he did. You see, the man who twice owed his life to Fleming was the Prime Minister of England—Winston Churchill.

Michigan Industry Invests Heavily in Research, Development

East Lansing—Michigan industries spent $4.6 billion on research and development activities between 1962-66 and the investment is paying handsome dividends, says Dr. David Verway, a Michigan State University researcher. He writes in the current issue of the Michigan State Economic Record that in Michigan, proportionately more dollars are spent on developmental activities than in the nation as a whole. And the productivity of Michigan's industrial workers has risen more rapidly than the national average. Among the state's most active technology producers, he says, are the chemicals, machinery, electrical equipment, motor vehicle and instrument industries, which accounted for 70 per cent of company-sponsored research and development performed.

Holiday Traffic Will Be Heavy

Lansing—Given good weather, motorists will drive an estimated $98.3 million miles in Michigan during the Memorial Day weekend, a slight increase over last year, the Department of State Highways said today.

Although traffic won't be as heavy as during the Fourth of July and Labor Day holidays, congestion is expected on some principal highways.

Rural volumes are expected to exceed the daily average by some 25 percent, and motorists are urged to plan their trips in an effort to avoid peak periods.

Generally, northbound traffic will be heaviest from 2 to 10 p.m. Thursday, and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday. Southbound traffic will be more heavily concentrated during a shorter period, from 2 to 9 p.m. Sunday with the peak from 5 to 7 p.m.

The Department said that construction on state highways—excluding emergency repairs and other work which does not interfere with traffic—will be suspended from 5 p.m. Thursday to 8 a.m. Monday.

Every precaution will be taken to eliminate hazards and minimize inconvenience to the public due to road and bridge construction, the Department said. The moving of construction equipment on roads will not be permitted.

CUB SCOUT NEWS

DEN 2, PACK 455

Den 2, Pack 455 met at the home of their den mother, Mrs. Oesterle. The meeting was opened by the flag ceremony. The boys started a project to be finished at the next meeting. Games consisting of the crab walk, running race, broad jump and the kangaroo walk were played. The meeting was closed by retiring the flags. Jay Dellinger, scribe.

DEN 3, PACK 455

Cub Scout Den 3, Pack 455 has been busy and having fun. We went on a hike, saw some young fruit trees, an ant hill with ants busy going and coming, followed a deer trail and saw where they bed down and crossed a stream. We made Mother's Day gifts and cards and took a tour of Stop & Shop, and are now working on our Father's Day gifts. On May 24 we went with the pack on a nature trail hike.

DEN 5, PACK 415

Den 5, Pack 415 met May 20 at the home of Mrs. Norman Bauer and opened with the living circle. Members worked on their mascot plaques, practiced their skit, played games and closed with the living circle. Mrs. Richard Seyfried, assistant den mother, furnished treats.

PACK 435

Pack 435 held their monthly meeting Thursday, May 22 at the North Elementary school.

Den 13 had the flag ceremony. Ricky McUmber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McUmber, Kris Steinaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steinaway, Doug Wetzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wetzel were welcomed into the pack by Cubmaster Richard Kalmbach.

The boys recited the Cub Scout Promise and the Law of the Pack. They were presented with bobcat pins and wolf books. Webelos presented with forester badges were Danny Cobb and Jon Spaulding.

Doug Eisele was presented with a bear patch, gold and silver arrows and Webelos colors and book. James Stahl was presented with the bear patch, Webelos colors and book.

Matt McClear received the wolf patch and gold and silver arrows. Announcements were made of the coming summer events. Games and refreshments were organized by den mothers Mrs. Richard Kalmbach and Mrs. Vincent Stahl.

Different plants, grass and bird house displays which the boys had made during the month were exhibited.

The next pack meeting will be a ball game at the Spaulding residence June 26.

ROGERS CORNERS STUDY GROUP

Eleven members of Rogers Corners Study Group enjoyed a dinner May 20 at a restaurant in Brooklyn. The president called the meeting to order, minutes were read and approved, and treasurer's report was given. The picnic will be the second Sunday in July at the home of Mrs. Luther Schable. Next on the agenda was the election of officers.

President was Mrs. Vergil Hines, vice-president Mrs. Elmer Bristle, secretary-treasurer Mrs. Leroy Bus. The community project chairman was Mrs. Erwin Wolk, recreation leader Mrs. John Morris, project leader Mrs. Loren Koenigster, sunshine chairman Mrs. Luther Schable.

Thank-you notes were read from Spaulding for Children and the Alton Horning family.

YOUNG HOMEMAKERS

Young Homemakers Extension Study Group held their last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Donald Bauer, Thursday, May 22.

Mrs. Ralph Trinkle was co-hostess. Vice-president Mrs. Luther Nagel opened the meeting with the group saying the women's creed. 12 members answered roll call. The secretary and treasurer's reports were given.

The Frances Snow scholarship was discussed. Mrs. Robert Heller took the scholarship to be given to a junior or senior home economics college student. The group voted to open the membership to 18 instead of 16. Members also voted to drop the extension part of the group and continue as a social group with their own program and community projects. It was decided to retain the name of Young Homemakers.

A picnic will be held in September at the home of Mrs. Ron Satterthwaite. The picnic committee, besides the hostess are Mrs. Reuben Lesser, Jr., Mrs. Lloyd Grau and Mrs. Robert Heller.

Program committee for next year will be Mrs. Kenneth Halst, Mrs. David Luick, Mrs. Donald Bauer and Mrs. Luther Nagel. Officers elected for the following year are Mrs. Kenneth Halst, president; Mrs. David Wolfgang, vice-president; Mrs. David Luick, secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Grau, treasurer; and Mrs. Ron Satterthwaite, reporter. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. David Wolfgang.

After the meeting the group enjoyed working with ceramics. The hostess and co-hostess served dessert.

SOME TOMATO

Contrary to popular belief, the tomato is neither a vegetable nor a fruit. Botanically, it's considered a berry.

MARIAN KLINE CIRCLE

Members of the Marian Kline Circle of the United Methodist Church met May 21 for a p.m. luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles Wood. Mrs. Smith was co-hostess.

14 members were present. Mrs. Merrell, chairman, called the meeting to order by reading the "In May" A prayer followed reading.

Sunshine chairman Mrs. Chambers reported that she sent three cards and two vases to members ill during month. It was reported that clothing for Church World had been picked and delivered Ann Arbor by Mr. and Mrs. Mond Schaefer for shipment.

The Women's Society was announced to be an international group served at 12:30 p.m. church social center. Pledges were passed and they are filled out and returned June 4 meeting.

Mrs. Lloyd Merrell, chairman, used the topic "New Prophet" and was assisted by Mrs. Lyman Adams, Mrs. Lillie and Mrs. Robert. A prayer was read to the program, written by Vincent Benet. Mrs. Chambers invited the members to meet Methodist Home June 18 picnic at 12:30 p.m. It was decided to have a planned luncheon invite a member of the hostess as a guest for each circle meeting.

About Your Social Security

BY ROBERT A. KERO

Social Security District No. 3. What is meant by the "over" rule under the Medicare Part B of Medicare.

A. Medical insurance does pay any of the first $50 of expenses in a calendar year. After this deductible has been met, Medicare pays 80 per cent of the cost of services rendered in the three months of the year, apply toward the $50 deductible for that year, will also against the $50 deductible following year.

Q. Could a young man get a better deal by using some amount of money in social security contributions to buy a private insurance?

A. No, not for the average typical case. For one thing private insurance policy, or age of policies, cannot be the same range of protection from social security.

Would you like to hear a good clean story?

It goes like this: Buy a new Gas Range and forget about oven cleaning, forever. Not bad, huh? And that's not the whole story.

The new Gas self-cleaning oven will clean itself automatically, spotlessly and do the whole job for about 2¢. It's a new way of life for the housewife. No more rubber gloves, strong detergents or harsh cleaning agents.

And while we're on the subject, this new Gas range simply cooks food better than anything you've ever used. It provides complete heat control. At all times. No matter what you're cooking, it will cook faster. Cleaner. And do it all for less money. See the new Gas self-cleaning oven today at dealer or Michigan Consolidated Gas Company showrooms. It's great for women who like to cook, period. Cook with Gas... It'll serve you right.

The group will meet June 25 for a picnic at the home of Mrs. Turner.

FAMILY HONORS CONFIRMATION

Phyllis Buss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buss, was honored at a confirmation dinner Sunday, May 25 at the family home, 119

Clardale Court. Guests at the dinner were her grandfather, Fred Bollinger, Mrs. Lambert Mayhew, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bollinger, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Horning, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buss, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buss and Stephanie Aldrich, all from Chelsea; Mrs. Wilbert Buss and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Kothe of Manchester; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buss and William Polley of Ann Arbor. She was confirmed at St. Paul United Church of Christ.

GRACE OTTO CIRCLE

Grace Otto Circle of the Chelsea United Methodist church met May 20 at the home of Mrs. Robert Schaeffer. Twelve members and eight guests were present to share a time of farewell for Mrs. John Fall. A short business meeting was held during which plans for the June 4 WSCA meeting luncheon were discussed. The program, "Two in A Tugboat" was opened by Mrs. Clare Warren as narrator. Mrs. James Hoffmeyer led the worship service and Mrs. James Gaunt presented the part of the speaker. She used masks to represent the different "selves" each circle member might show herself to be in different situations. The important point of her talk was that each person might be able to know and accept herself as she really is. A dessert buffet, prepared by all of the members, was enjoyed by everyone present. Mrs. Fall was presented with a gift of remembrance of her years as a member of Grace Otto Circle. The next meeting will be a family pot-luck picnic June 17 at 12 noon at Pierce Park.

Dianne Brand Starts Career in Animal Care at Toledo Zoo

18-year-old Dianne Brand, an animal lover from way back, now has the chance to work daily with all types of small and large beasts while aiming for an animal technology career.

She's spending six months at the Toledo Zoo surrounded by a wide selection of creatures.

Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brand of 3145 Sylvan Rd. and 1968 Chelsea High school graduate, was considering a career in veterinary medicine when she heard about Michigan State University's lab animal technology course.

She compared the 18 months required to finish the course with the six years required for veterinary medicine and found herself enrolled in the 18-month course.

After spending six months in East Lansing studying English, math, biology, chemistry, animal care and handling and injecting medicine with the 17 other students enrolled, she moved outside to the University's farm for practical experience.

There Dianne learned how to catch a mink (go for its head first so it can't bite you), an opossum (grab its head and tail so they can't claw you) and a rabbit (pick it up by the scruff on the neck, not its ears).

She learned how to handle horses, sheep, cows, cats, dogs, monkeys, birds and wallabies. Many of these were familiar to Dianne before taking the course since her family raises beef cattle, sheep and feed on a 380-acre farm. She's had all the usual pets from hamsters to horses.

Diane has found that the assignment is not all glamour. She feeds animals, takes leaves, lifts sales and helps Zoo Veterinarian Dr. Charles Hardin.

She spends most of her time in Wonder Valley, the kiddies' part of the zoo. There she spends time lifting children onto "Gloppy" the tortoise and performing other chores. September will find her studying at MSU for another six months becoming familiar with radiology and pharmacology.

She will then be qualified to work with lab animals or in zoos. She votes for zoos.

Station Wagon Stolen From Used Car Lot

A 1967 Chevrolet station wagon was stolen from the used car lot of Palmer Motor Sales the night of May 23-24.

The car, parked in the rear of the lot, has not been found and police have no suspects. The Michigan police network, LEIN, has been notified.

Recent furniture market showings have indicated popular woods seem to be pecan, oak and walnut.

Court Proceedings

During the past week eight persons pleaded guilty to fishing without licenses before District Judge Patrick Conlin and paid $11 fine and costs. They are:

John W. Davis, 21, of Tecumseh; Arthur Woloff, 44, of Detroit; Larry F. Wagner, 26, of Tecumseh; Douglas T. Dowries, 18, of Ann Arbor; Paul E. Daniel, 17, of Ann Arbor; Sally E. Willard, 37, of Ann Arbor; Dale Hallmann, 37, of Ann Arbor; and Howard C. Maynard, 26, of Ypsilanti.

Richard P. Tudor, 28, of Plymouth, pleaded guilty to carrying a gun in a game area with no hunting license and paid $16 fine and costs.

Holiday at Hell To Feature Youth Group

The 8th annual Satan's Holiday celebration will be held Sunday, June 23 at 2 p.m. at Hell.

The Detroit Sing Out Group of 35 youngsters will feature the show and the theme will be "Up With Youth and the People of America." It will be fashioned on the League of Decency movement originated in Miami this spring when 30,000 teen-agers were treated to a fine show at the Orange Bowl, headed by Jackie Gleason and the Four Lettermen.

The Hell Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the affair and is negotiating for added headline attractions. Admission will be free to the public.

MRS. ROBERT UPDEGRAFF was presented the Outstanding Jayette of the Year Award Saturday night. The award is on the basis of participation in projects and activities during the past year. Mrs. Updegraff, just beginning her third year member of the Jaycee Auxiliary, has a 100 percent attendance record. She held two standing chairmanships, of membership Operation Purchase, during the past year, worked on hospital day and various committees all year, attended district and meetings, visited other locals, and had numerous other activities.
