THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

Of the 3,000 bills introduced in this year's legislature less than one-tenth are still alive—at least for the year 1969.

Budget bills have been passed with a general fund revenue and expenditure figures of about $1,550,000,000. This is a balanced budget but there will be no meaningful surplus to carry over—it will be tight.

I have long disagreed with the appropriation committee technique of reporting lengthy substitute budget bills out on the final day for their consideration and then ramming them all through before constituents back home have time to react. The argument is that this minimizes pressures of special interest groups but I respond in saying that we as elected legislators should be able to face and withstand such pressures. Consequently I did not vote for several of the budget bills and explained my "no" vote in the Senate Journal. I hope we can devote more "floor" time to these budget bills in the future. They are almost our most important business of the year.

Three bills which I sponsored passed the House last week after receiving earlier Senate approval. They bring state statutes into compliance with the Federal Truth in Lending Act which became law on July 1. In purchasing a car, in negotiating a home improvement loan and in making retail credit contracts—both buyer and seller need be concerned with only one paper form as a result of these three bills.

Another bill I sponsored and which has gone to the governor calls for the Director of the State Commerce Department being a member of the Great Lakes Commission.

Several other bills which I introduced have passed the Senate and are on the floor of the House. One which has received a lot of attention would permit the interest of 7 percent on home mortgage loans under the state usury law to be raised and thus make available more loan funds. Another makes basic revisions in the State Savings and Loan Act. Another amends the Regional Transportation Authority Act; another permits local transportation authorities such as the one in Ann Arbor to extend services 10 miles beyond the city limits.

Urban mass transportation is a subject I consider of the greatest importance for southeastern Michigan over the next decade. For that reason I have introduced a bill calling for a Joint Statutory Legislative Committee on Transportation to provide staff continuity of a sort not found in study committees created on a year to year basis. This bill has passed the Senate.

The Chelsea growth from 3,355 to 3,800 from 1960 to 1968 is in line with even larger percentages of growth for Washtenaw county and the entire seven-county Detroit region. Figures just released in a published report by the Planning Division of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments showed Washtenaw County's population as 172,440 in April 1960 and 235,000 July 1968.

The Washtenaw county population expanded by 36 percent during this time, while the number of dwelling units increased by 42 percent. Most of the population increase was in Ann Arbor, where more than 32,000 persons were added to bring the total to 100,000.

This represents an increase of 48 percent over the 1960 figure. Their 55 percent increase in occupied dwelling units leaves approximately 3.3 persons in an average unit.

Ypsilanti grew 24 percent, from 21,000 to 26,000, since 1960, while Ypsilanti township showed a more substantial growth of 35 percent, to their present population of 35,000.

Pittsfield township was the township with the greatest growth—67 percent from 6,000 to 10,000 inhabitants.

Other local township growths include Dexter up 21 percent to 2,050, Freedom up 13 percent to 1,200; Lima up 23 percent to 1,220; Lyndon up 20 percent to 1,250; Selo up 35 percent to 6,000; Sharon up 10 percent to 840; Sylvan up 17 percent to 1,700; Webster up 38 percent to 1,770.

All villages and cities in the county also registered substantial growths. Dexter grew nine percent, to bring their population to 1,850; Manchester grew eight percent to a 1968 total of 1,690; Milan showed a 20 percent increase to 3,420; while Saline grew 71 percent to 4,000.

The growth in Washtenaw county reflects the increase of 596,146 persons in the seven-county Detroit region during the eight year period. Population for this area is up 14 percent since 1960. Oakland county posted the largest growth with a gain of 210,000 over the 1960 figure of 690,259.

Most of the gain has been recorded in the urbanizing townships and newly incorporated cities.

SENATE ON ETHICS

Senate advocates have proposed that judges along with every other federal official making more than $18,000 yearly to publicly disclose how they make extra money. Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield has given his support to the proposal.

One of these days some people are going to learn that hard work only teaches a real appreciation of values.

Vandals Pelt New Dairy Queen With Big Rocks

The grand opening of a new Dairy Queen at 12880 Trist Rd., Waterloo Recreation Area, was cut short when vandals threw rocks through five plate glass windows some time early Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Paul, 1220 Rietmiller Rd., owners, said business was brisk for the first two days of the opening, but were forced to close operations until Wednesday when the vandalism was discovered.

Approximately $5,000 damage was caused by rocks breaking the plate glass windows, sign, cash register and an inside window. No signs of entry were found.

The Dairy Queen is operated by Duane Paul, who has been employed at Clark Equipment Co. for 20 years. He spent two weeks in a management course at the company's national training center in Minneapolis. 20 acres around the site have been zoned for general business. Mrs. Paul, who was formerly employed at Chelsea Medical Clinic, will assist with the business.

The Pauls' six children attend college or Grass Lake schools.

Father-Son Battle Slated at Tiger Stadium

Detroit—The battle lines are drawn for the 10th annual Father-Son game at Tiger Stadium Saturday, July 5. It's a highlight of the season for the Tigers as well as their sons and daughters.

The sons will face their fathers in the zaniest game of the year, trying to protect a perfect record—with everything going their way. The senior Tigers must bat and throw opposite their normal fashion and the juniors will get six outs per inning.

This four-team and their mothers—will be introduced to the crowd before the comedy classic starts, their cheer on the youngsters from the sideline. After it's over, they'll all retire to private quarters for a hot dog and ice cream feast.

Smy Ellet, the funnyman weather expert at Station WJW-TV again will be behind the plate as the wackiest umpire in the game.

Festivities will start at 12:10 p.m. with introductions of the Tiger wives and daughters and the Father Son game is scheduled for 12:30. After that, the Tigers will meet the Baltimore Orioles at 1:15 p.m.

It takes two managers to handle the kids in the game, so Pitchers Joe Spurna and Tom Timmerman have been delegated. Catcher Jim Price will direct the fathers to certain defeat.

The youngsters, all wearing their father's numbers on pint-sized uniforms, (with ages indicated) include: Jeffrey Brown (4); William James Brown, Jr. (4); Jay Cash (6); Pat Dobson (7); Darryl Horton (6); Mike (7) and Mark (11) Kaline; Michael McAuliffe (3); Denny McLain (2); Jim Northrup (8); Jeffrey (3) and Jimmy (8) Price; Steven Stanley (6); Mikey Trench (4); and Scott Wert (8).

Barn Ventilation Important to Animal Health

Let the outdoors breathe into your barn, an agricultural engineer at Michigan State University advises farmers contemplating the construction of free stall housing.

"It's not enough that a free stall barn provide shelter from the elements," explains Dr. James Boyd. "It must also offer proper ventilation. And to do this, it should be open at the ridge and eaves."

"Otherwise," he says, "the heat and moisture which animals give off condenses on the roofs, walls and windows. This moisture can build up and create a damp, unhealthy atmosphere for livestock and people."

For farmers who own structures that are not properly ventilated, Boyd recommends opening the windows and doors even in winter.

"Too often," he points out, "a farmer keeps his barn closed up tight in the winter because it feels cold and damp inside. The problem," Boyd explains, "is that the cold, damp feeling he gets when he enters the barn is due primarily to the moisture which is not allowed to escape when doors and windows are kept closed."

For those who wish help in selecting the right structure, a list of building plans offered by the Department of Agricultural Engineering can be seen at all county Cooperative Extension offices.

will answer. I like a girl and would even like a date but she is in a different popularity group.
Many people in school talk and joke with her. I am not as popu-hair the style it is in school. I would like your advice on how I could become more popular, get

OUR REPLY: A new hair style is not the key to 'instant' popularity. There is no such key. You will never be really popular until there is a real you. Some individuals seem to attract attention wherever they go because they were blessed with natural beauty or good looks. Yet some of these have nothing going for them except their looks. The really popular ones are those individuals who are friendly, good-natured, and a real individual. Not a pretender.

Not a put-on. Our advice is to be yourself. Be friendly. Like people. Don't try to be like everyone else. The style, whatever it is, in hair, might make you less attractive, less you.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORDS
BY LINDA NORRIS

As a happy change, music lovers may want to turn back the pages of time and relive some of the more melodic days of the musical world. They will be able to do just this in one of the LP classics of our time—The Best of Vienna featuring Sir John Barbirolli as he conducts the Halle Orchestra. . . . In this stirring LP, Barbinioli's is a listener's back to the grand halls of old Vienna when Strauss was the keyword to musical happiness. . . .
He contributes rousing renditions of Thunder and Lightning Polka, On the Blue Danube Overture to The Gypsy Baron, Perpetual Motion and Champagne Polka, all by Johann Strauss Jr.

Also included is Radetsky
March by Johann Strauss Sr.;
Gold and Silver Waltz by Franz Lehar and Waltzes from Der Rosenkavalier by Richard Strauss.

In his quarter of a century with England's wonderful Halle Orchestra, Sir John has developed a style of Performance of Viennese music which proves beyond all doubt that these superb melodies do not belong exclusively to Continental maestros and orchestras. . . . He captures the authentic Viennese accent to perfection with his fine shadings of the music's tempo changes.

Another great LP featuring music to reminisce by is The World's Greatest Night Music featuring Charles Groves with the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra. . . . Selections include Nocturne from Les Sylphides by Chopin, Dance of the Blessed Spirits, Nocturne from A Midsummer Night's Dream, meditation from Thaïs and Borodin's Nocturne. . . . If you thrive on good music, this is your cup of tea.

REPORT from LANSING

State Representative

Thomas G. Sharpe

I recently co-sponsored, along with Representative Roy Spencer of Attica, a measure to provide a tax break for farmers that I feel is deserved, vitally needed and long overdue. I am extremely pleased to report that this legislation has successfully passed the Michigan State House of Representatives.

House Bill No. 2533 permits a 50 percent write-off in property taxes on land that is used solely for farming, and by farmers who derive at least 90 percent of their income from such land.

Under these provisions, the bill could not be used by wealthy "gentleman farmers" or corporations that maintain subsidiary farming operations, often as tax shelters.

Instead, this legislation is intended solely to lend some badly-needed financial relief from property taxes to those farmers who are still attempting to make a living from the land in areas where land has become too high-priced or too heavily-taxed because of the encroachment of urban development.

To prevent speculators from taking unfair advantage of its provisions, the bill contains a "roll-back" clause whereby additional compensating taxes would be levied for three back years, and listed as a lien on the property, if it were sold for other than agricultural purposes.

The exemption would be limited to land zoned for agriculture, and it would apply only to land, not buildings. The total amount of the tax relief it would grant is estimated at $17.5 million.

There was previously some concern that our bill would run into trouble in the State Senate, since Chairman Harry A. DeMaso of the Senate Taxation Committee has publicly questioned its constitutionality.

However, Representative Spencer and I have since discussed this matter extensively with Senator DeMaso, and I think I can safely say that his doubts as to the bill's constitutionality have been largely cleared up.

As a result, I am very hopeful that this measure will pass the Senate and become law. I doubt that anyone can reasonably deny that tax relief of this type is needed.

Most businessmen pay taxes on the value of their business as businesses. The farmer is forced to pay taxes, as often as not, on the value of his farmland—not as farmland, but as subdivision land, industrial sites, or some purpose. This is totally unreasonable and unfair.

I believe, in fact, that this tax-reform measure is merely the beginning of what is needed. The only real answer, eventually, must lie in a major change from a property tax concept to an income tax concept for the financing of our schools, since this is the largest and most rapidly-increasing burden upon property-owners today.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Read this excerpt from a letter written by Benjamin Franklin to George Washington when our Constitution was being written—"In the beginnings of the contest with Great Britain, when we were sensible of danger, we had daily prayer in this room for Divine Protection. . . . Our prayers were heard and they were graciously answered. . . . To that kind of Providence we owe this happy opportunity of consulting in peace on the means of establishing our future national felicity, and we have now forgotten that powerful Friend. . . . Or do we imagine we no longer need His assistance?" . . .

Can any one who believes in God deny Franklin's words about the present day way of life of too many of us? Can any one who believes in God dispute on this 4th of July, when we celebrate the official founding of our freedom with displays of fireworks, bell ringing, picnics and oratory, that we ought to include special thanks to Him for our freedom? Can any one who believes in God dispute the obvious: that without such prayers we have no right to expect His continued protection of our freedom? . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Be Positive

Life should be positive, as should the attitude of every man toward every action that he undertakes.

While it is true that most of the Ten Commandments begin with the formula "Thou shalt not," we must remember the answer that Jesus gave when asked the greatest commandment of all: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart."

Does it not seem to follow that a positive approach to life begins with love of God? If we love God, we will find it difficult to hate. We will avoid the outward sin because it is a recognized offense. We will also avoid the sometimes negative sin of leaving undone the good thing that should be done.

With the positive approach, we will build a happier life—a life more complete—not merely because evil is less present, but more emphatically because goodness is more abundant.

Hybrid Spruce Developed at MSU

A new hybrid spruce has been developed at Michigan State University that combines the early growth characteristics of the white spruce with the ornamental qualities of the blue spruce.

The hybrid was developed from a new cross between blue spruce and white spruce, reports Dr. James Hanover, MSU forestry researcher.

The blue spruce is known for its ornamental qualities of form, appearance and drought resistance. Blue spruces are also used for Christmas trees and windbreaks but are slow growing in their juvenile stage (the first 10 years). The white spruce is primarily a timber tree; fast growing in both its early and late stages.

Dr. Hanover has grown some of the new hybrid spruces to a height of 24 inches in less than two years under greenhouse cover. This year he will produce enough seedlings for further intensive testing in nurseries and plantations.

The hybrid was produced from man-made crosses because white spruce and blue spruce do not grow together naturally due to their adaptation to different climates.

Arthur Godfrey Returning to State Fair

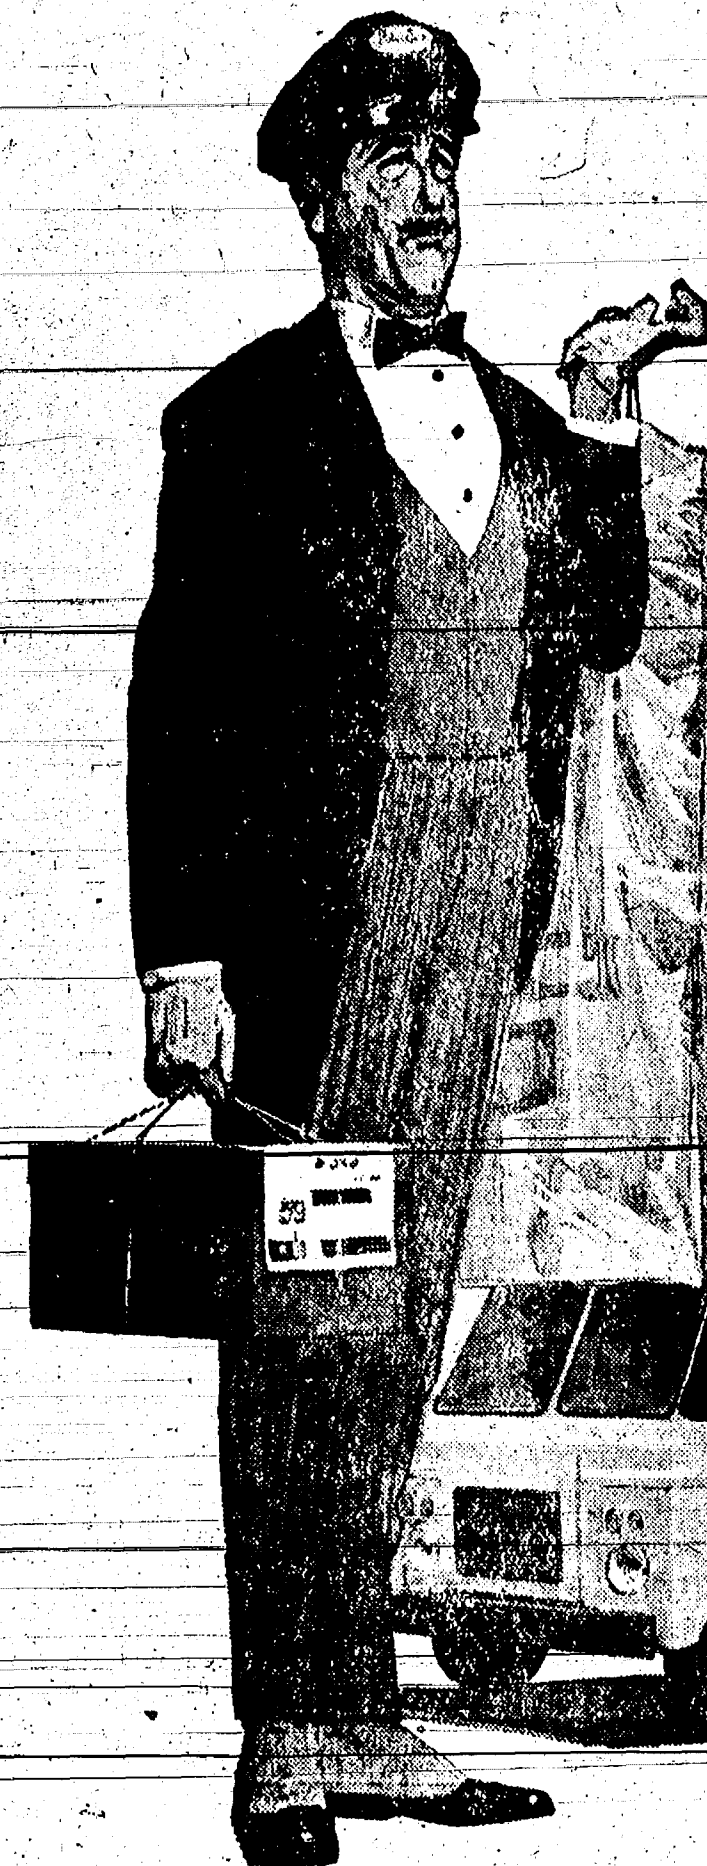

Arthur Godfrey, radio's famous redhead, will be a featured performer at five of the 15 horse shows during the 120th Michigan State Fair, which runs from Friday, Aug. 22, through Monday, Sept. 1, at the State Fairgrounds in Detroit.

Goldie, will be part of the Coliseum shows at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 22, and 1 and 6:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 30 and 31.

The 15 horse shows run from the beginning to the end of the fair, with at least one each day. Admission is free to State Fair visitors; as are the attractions in the Music Shell and in the Grandstand. This will be a repeat performance for Godfrey, who has shown horse shows at other State Fair entries in the past. Horse show premium money is being distributed automatically to former exhibitors.

Mrs. William Harold Polley Karen Buss, William H. Polley Wed Saturday at St. Paul Church

Karen Irene Buss and William Harold Polley were wed in an evening ceremony Saturday, June 28 at St. Paul United Church of Christ.

The Rev. Warner H. Siebert performed the ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Buss of 119 Clindale Court and the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Polley of 5741 Martin Rd., Ann Arbor.

Brace Calbraith sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because" for the couple and approximately 300 guests.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a linen A-line gown featuring a capelet of velvet and a chapel-length train trimmed with tulle appliques of white lace. The three-tiered illustration veil was secured by a headpiece of organza loops and white lace. She carried a Juliet bride's bouquet of white roses and white lilies.

Miss Kay Buss was maid of honor for her twin sister. She wore a powder-blue rayon-nylon gown with scoop neck, long-length sleeves and flowing skirt overlay trimmed with wide white lace and daisies. This train repeated at the empire waist. She carried a white heart-shaped bouquet of white and blue daisies accented with yellow sweetheart roses. A headpiece of white and blue daisies completed her outfit.

Bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Buss, sister of the bride, Mrs. Virginia Bennett of Ann Arbor, wife of the bridegroom, and Miss Marilyn Buss of Ann Arbor, cousin of the bride. Their costumes were identical to that of the maid of honor.

Mrs. Buss chose a white and powder blue dress with blue linen jacket.

White accessories and a corsage of white carnations surrounded by yellow sweetheart roses completed the outfit.

The mother of the bridegroom wore an aqua blue dress with eyelet sleeves. White accessories and a corsage like that worn by the bride's mother completed her costume.

Lynette Sexton of Chelsea was flower girl. She wore dress and carried flowers similar to those of the bridesmaids. Ringbearer was Jackie Bennett of Ann Arbor, nephew of the bridegroom.

James Austin of Milan was best man. Ushers were Melvin Buss of Chelsea, brother of the bride; Dennis Mull of Dexter; and Gary Radke of Ann Arbor.

A reception given by the bride's parents was given at the church Fellowship Hall after the service. Wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Waldo Horning, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Walter Gutekunst, St. Ann, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Gary Koch and Mrs. Joseph Steele cut groom's cake; Mrs. Harold Buss, aunt of the bride, poured coffee. Punch was poured by Mrs. Irvin Knickerbocker, cousin of the bride; the guest book was supervised by Mrs. John McGuire, Mrs. Dave Grossman and Mrs. Paul Prentice, cousins of the bride, supervised the gift table.

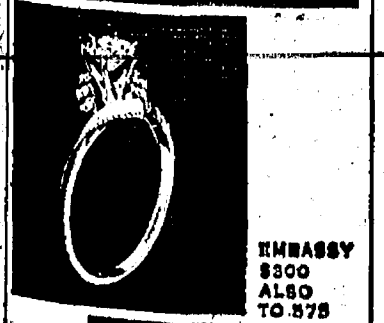

The bride chose a navy A-line dress trimmed in red with red accessories and corsage of white roses and daisies taken from the bride's bouquet for traveling.

The couple are taking a two-week honeymoon to Florida and the Grand Bahamas. They plan to return to 288 Clark St. Ann Arbor.

The bride is a graduate of Chelsea High school and Cleary College, and is employed at the University of Michigan. Her husband is a graduate of Saline High school and the Ann Arbor Joint Apprenticeship Committee. He is employed as an electrician in Ann Arbor.

Safety Tips If Caught in Violent Storm

What should you do if a violent summer electrical storm catches you in your car? Unless the storm causes poor visibility, there is no need for a motorist to stop his car, according to the Automobile Club of Michigan.

If you are forced to pull over and wait out a storm, one of the safest places to avoid lightning is in your car and in the open.

Rubber tires insulate a car and keep the current from grounding the vehicle, so there is very little danger that lightning can harm passengers, the Auto Club advises.

If you decide to pull over and wait for the storm to pass, these safety suggestions should be followed:

—Don't park under a tree or pole. If struck by lightning, it might fall on top of your car.

Try to avoid making under overhead power lines strung along the roadside. During severe storms many of these lines are knocked down.

If a wire does hit your car, you are safe when you stay inside. Since you can't tell the condition of the wire, sit tight and wait.

Avoid touching any metal parts inside the car. If you must summon help, use a wooden or plastic object to activate your horn.

FOOD BUYING

As incomes go up, the tendency is to buy more steaks, roasts, fruits and vegetables out-of-season, more convenience foods and more delicacies. We spend more total dollars but a smaller percentage of our incomes for food.

A department store is where you buy all sorts of wares under the same roof—and a beauty shop nowadays is somewhat the same thing on a small scale—a place where you buy all sorts of "beauty" so to speak: you assume, of course, that you'll find shampooing and haircutting and permanent waving and hair setting and manicuring and hair coloring and conditioning, but did you know you'll find also at our salon a process for stripping unwanted hair off your face? a process to give body to your hair? wigs? cards and gift wrappings? cosmetics? jewelry? Yes, it is somewhat of a department store of beauty and convenience, isn't it? How about shopping with us at

Blood Donors Needed To Fill Summer Slack

Each year in July and August the Red Cross Blood Program in Washtenaw county and nationwide faces a slump in the number of donors coming to mobile units and the Red Cross Sub-Centers.

The Washtenaw county Red Cross is making an appeal to all Blood-Clubs in the county to help relieve the slump by encouraging new members to participate in their own Red Cross Bloodmobile visit.

Since Chelsea is not scheduled for a clinic during the summer, residents may donate at the Red Cross Chapter on Friday, July 11, from 1 to 6:45 p.m. Groups or individuals wishing to donate at that time are asked to make their appointments by calling 471-5200.

Our own experience is that time, when allowed to work, will solve many problems.

Board Upholds Dismissal of Fired Teacher

ment is similar to that which the Jackson board has with Jackson prison and Ionia school board with Ionia prison.

The Chelsea Board of Education retains 10 percent of the state aid money to defray costs to Chelsea School District.

However, the Board of Education is reluctant to become involved in problems at Cassidy Lake, feeling that the Chelsea School's problems are of primary importance to them. Although no official action has been taken, they are examining the relationship between the establishments closely.

One source of dissatisfaction with the arrangement is the amount of time required to solve problems. The Tate case took two evenings of last week to complete.

Superintendent of Cassidy Lake Technical School is also dissatisfied with the arrangement and would like to see the legislature change the state aid provisions to allow the training school to be eligible for aid.

He said there are legislative proposals now to change this. The main problem, in his opinion, is the situation where the employees work in one facility and jurisdiction but are hired by another. Cassidy Lake administration's recommendations for selection of teachers carry considerable weight in the hiring procedure. A full line academic program similar to a high school is provided, and several vocational courses are available.

Crime-Proofing

in the United States has increased during the same period of time in which our population has increased by only 10 per cent. A Michigan Congressman has reported that a criminal has 94 per cent chance of "beating the rap" if he strikes" and our people so overly concerned with the rights of the accused are not considering the rights of the victim. Still, State Correctional Department Director Gus Kauts reports that Michigan prisons are now almost filled to capacity and even as the department reports a net increase over last year's commitment of 3,600 persons to the state's prison system.

It is not surprising that the incidence of criminal activity has increased greatly affecting the attitude toward law enforcement. One result is the increased attention which even city and farm leaders are giving to the problem of crime. Although most rural areas are less involved than city areas, still farm areas are plagued with an increasing number of rural crimes noted—burglary from rustling to rape.

"Crime Ordinance" is the July 1964 Topic for rural Michigan leaders under the leadership of 1,100 county Farm Bureau Groups. Discussion groups have been organized as part of the picture, and a major part of that—with crime—through prevention programs.

Unfortunately, criminal patterns are the result of one or two defined things such as a broken home, permissive attitudes toward crime, or subject poverty. But none becomes apparent that stems from a lack of character rather than from a lack of crime-prevention must be injected through character training, a process which appears effective in early youth.

Crime preventers in rural areas appear to be 4-H club members and the work of FFA and (Future Farmers, Future Farmers)—Farm Bureau Farmer programs, and activities which provide creative outlets and recog-city areas, Boy and Girl Scouts, YWCA and YMCA, the Big Boy Brothers and Big Sister and Foster Parents programs—similar—stability.

Crime Youths Follow

Waving Knives

16-year-old Grass Lake woman told to press charges against a group of youths who she followed her home in a car armed with butcher knives at her husband's.

Grass Lake, resident, told that she was driving through about 8 p.m., when she saw a gray car occupied by youths following her and waving knives. The driver attempted to pass her car on Waterloo.

Called police upon arrival and reported the incident, with the car description and license number.

Next evening Chelsea Police found the car, containing youths ranging from 14 to 17 years of age, none from Chelsea found two butcher knives in the glove compartment. One youth said belonged to her. One was identified as a girl, who said she could not give the identity of the driver. They were warned and

Red Cross Warns Swimmers
 The 100 million who will take to the water for recreation this summer were warned by the American Red Cross to "expect the unexpected" and not take their safety for granted.

"Basically, this means taking extra care to avoid the accidents which result in drownings that could have been prevented—some 6,000 last year," Thomas L. Mollet, safety program director of Washtenaw County Red Cross safety programs, said.

"Because more than 4,500 of these drownings occurred in unsupervised areas," he added, "our first caution to all swimmers, regardless of their ability, is not to swim alone in areas where there are no lifeguards."

"We urge non-swimmers to learn to swim and persons who can swim a little to learn to swim better. In most communities, the Red Cross chapter offers free swimming courses."

Mollet gave these suggestions for helping oneself in a water emergency: first, don't panic; second, think; third, save your strength.

Cramps
 The majority of cramps experienced in the water will be the kind that affect the fingers, toes, arms, or legs, and are usually caused by fatigue or over-exertion. They are of little danger to a swimmer unless they cause him to panic. If the victim will change his stroke and relax, this alone will bring relief many times. If the cramp continues, rubbing and kneading may help, but most important is the stretching of the muscle.

Stomach cramps are not common, but may occur. An abdominal cramp need not be fatal or even serious—as was formerly believed—unless the swimmer does not panic but relaxes, stretches, and changes his body position. He should be able to keep afloat until the cramp is relieved.

Currents
 Do not buck or fight a current. Swim directly across it, even though this may bring you further downstream. It will enable you to reach safety without being exhausted.

On ocean beaches, undertows, runouts, and rip currents tend to drag the swimmer away from the shore. Do not panic or struggle, swim parallel to shore across the current, and, once free, swim to land.

Washtenaw County Awarded $66,300 Highway Safety Grant

Washtenaw county Health Department has been awarded a national highway safety grant of $66,300 by the Federal Highway Administration, Gov. William G. Milliken has announced this week. The grant, which is part of the Highway Safety Act of 1968, helps to develop highway safety projects within the state and obtains matching grants for them.

Director Bufo points out that grants are available to state or local government units for projects in 16 different areas related to highway safety. To qualify, projects must be approved by the Office of Highway Safety Planning, 541 East Grand River Avenue, East Lansing, 48823.

Director Bufo points out that grants are available to state or local government units for projects in 16 different areas related to highway safety. To qualify, projects must be approved by the Office of Highway Safety Planning, 541 East Grand River Avenue, East Lansing, 48823.

The combination of rural and urban areas with two major freeways crossing Washtenaw county has brought about a high incidence of serious accidents with more than one victim requiring attention simultaneously, Bufo said. Covering the 720-square-mile area also presents the possibility of patients in remote areas having a long wait and lengthy transportation time, he explained.

The proposed radio communication network would enable attendants in ambulances and helicopter ambulances to give hospital emergency rooms advance notice of impending arrivals, as well as obtain advice from experienced physicians about treatment of severe cases or on long trips from remote areas to hospital.

Assisting Washtenaw county in evaluating the project's effectiveness will be personnel from the University of Michigan, Highway Research Institute and a

State Fair Offers Its Largest Free Entertainment Program

The largest Michigan State Fair free entertainment program ever offered is announced by E. J. (Jeff) Keirns, State Fair general manager.

Sixteen major entertainment acts will be offered, without extra charge, to State Fair patrons during the eleven days of this year's fair, Friday, Aug. 22 through Monday, Sept. 1 (Labor Day).

Kicking off the action in the Music Shell from Friday, Aug. 22, through Monday, Aug. 25, are Al Hirt and His Band, the Baja Marimba Band and singer Jerry Butler.

Hirt is one of the top trumpet players around. He and his band specialize in Dixieland, the New Orleans sound. The Baja Marimba Band is in the front rank of the new music groups and has a host of best-selling records. The group has appeared previously at the State Fair and on television many times. Jerry Butler is a leading recording star.

From Tuesday through Thursday, Aug. 26-28, the Music Shell will feature top singer Bobby Vinton, the popular group, The Brothers and Sisters, and comedian Stu Gilliam.

On Friday and Saturday, Aug. 29-30, the attractions will be singing stars John Davidson and The Three Degrees.

Winding up the festivities on Sunday and Monday, Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, will be Jimmie Darren, who is popular with all ages, and the Cowbells, who have previously played to large audiences at the fair. Also booked for these two days is TV star Roy Clark.

In the Coliseum, the old red-head himself, Arthur Godfrey, will be an added horse show attraction on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 29-31. Godfrey, a big radio attraction for many years and a long-time lover of horses, was at the fair last year for several horse shows, which were filled to capacity for every show.

In front of the Grandstand, Danny Fleenor's Hurricane Hall Drivers will present an auto-thrill show from Friday through Tuesday, Aug. 22-26. Spectators will see head-on collisions, precision driving and auto jumping, motorcycle-ramp driving and other "smashing" events.

Also scheduled for these days is the Nashville-Hawaiian Country All-Star Revue.

From Wednesday, Aug. 27, through the end of the fair, the Grandstand attraction will be the Gentle Ben Show, the big lovable bear which is sure to appeal to the youngsters. Dianne Shelton also will perform during the last six days.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Chelsea Residents:

Today I read the letter to the residents of Chelsea from a concerned alumnus and wondered since when is it the taxpayers' responsibility to provide summer recreation for the children, in other words being baby sitters for them.

We, the taxpayers, pay taxes through the nose to provide nine months of school and feel the parents should be responsible for their children for the summer months. If they want summer recreation for their children let them foot the bill. Perhaps if there had been more parent supervision there would not be the demonstrations now.

Farmers have plenty of work for their children and the most of the farm children don't participate in summer recreation and feel the other people could find things for their children to do if they lost their baby-sitter, meaning the summer recreation program.

Furthermore, we bought school buses to transport the children to school, not for summer recreation. The buses wear out fast enough without using them all summer long to transport children for summer recreation.

Again, I'm under the impression parents are responsible for their children until they reach the age of 18; not the taxpayers, so I say again put the responsibility where it belongs—parents. We were always glad to have our children with us during the summer and had many jobs for them—mowing lawn, house work, etc.

As far as the school board giving the people of Chelsea another chance, to vote on the millage, why can't you see the people don't want to be losing their places because of such high taxes on the millage would have carried, and one gets mighty tired of threatened tactics as has happened most every time a millage has been defeated. After working hard and saving for 30 years to get a new home, then maybe lose it because of unnecessary high taxes.

Perhaps if those who pay rent had an increase in their rent every time a millage was passed they might feel different. As for scholarships for sports, the ones scholarship are granted on OK, but cut out some of the tomfoolery, bowling, tennis, etc. Just a conscientious Parent and Taxpayer.

Parent and Taxpayer.

Milk Production Levels Told for Spike's Holsteins

A report of milk production levels attained by dairy cows in the area has been received from Holstein-Friesian Association of America. The actual food production output, recorded in the DHIR program, by these local registered Holsteins is:

Green-Acre R. P. Joyce, 5990491, a four-year-old, produced 18,700 lbs. of milk and 718 lbs. of butterfat in 365 days.

Eve, 5990492, a four-year-old, had 20,220 lbs. of milk and 709 lbs. of butterfat in 365 days. Green-Acre Birch Princess, 5990498, a four-year-old, had 15,940 lbs. of milk and 659 lbs. of butterfat in 365 days. Green-Ace Lucifer-Pauline, 6434434, a two-year-old, had 15,380 lbs. of milk and 659 lbs. of butterfat in 361 days. All are owned by Lowell Spike, Manchester.

These new production figures may be compared to the estimated annual output of 8,821 lbs. (4,103 quarts) of milk and 328 lbs. of butterfat by the average U. S. dairy cow, notes the National Holstein Association.

Production testing is made available through the co-operative efforts of the state and local testing associations and Holstein-Friesian Association of America. Dairymen enrolled in the program pay for the service.

Extra Holiday Patrols Slated by State Police Starting Thursday

Boostered by special car and plane speed detectors, the Michigan State Police will operate intensified holiday patrols beginning at noon Thursday, July 8, Col. Fredrick E. Davids, department director, reported.

About 100 patrol cars will be employing the department's new electronic speed computer called VASCAR (visual average speed computer and recorder). Officers have been in training the past several weeks so that the computer could be in use in all State Police districts about July 1. It is already in use in some areas.

The aerial detectors will be the department pilots and their officer observers. They will clock motorists by stopwatch over specially marked one-eighth mile sections of highway in various parts of the state. Information on the speed patrol, used as a deterrent, will be used to effect several years ago.

Patrol troopers, augmented motor vehicle check lanes and other officers as needed, will provide holiday coverage from noon July 3 to midnight July 6. Maximum attention will be devoted to traffic from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily during the holiday period.

July 4 holiday period also killed 26 persons in Michigan. The average toll for holiday time was 31 in the 1964-65. High loss for this year was 43 in 1964.
