

INGHAM BELLES 4-H club's float, with the "Bridges the Gap" was awarded first prize in the junior division of floats at the Community Fair parade. Members of the club rode on the float but they had no queen candidate.

MRS. LULU SWEENEY rode in Saturday's Community Fair parade as parade marshal, an honorary appointment by Fire Chief James Gaken. The Fire Department was in charge of all parade arrangements. Lulu has long been active in the work of the Community Fair restaurant, having served many times as kitchen chairman, a task now assigned to Mrs. Gerry Klink, assisted by several co-chairmen. Each year, for several years past, Mrs. Sweeney and Mrs. Klink have been presented corasges as personal tokens of appreciation from Rolly Spaulding for their willing assistance. Spaulding was this year's chairman for commercial exhibits at the fair. This was the first year a woman was honored by appointment as parade marshal. The Fair Board further honored Mrs. Sweeney with a free helicopter ride for which she took time off from her job as cashier at the fair restaurant.

FIRST PLACE honors in the adult division. The Jaycees queen candidate was Vickie Wilkerson. went to the Jaycee float with the Moonshot theme.

County Millage Election Slated Next Tuesday

Funds Sought for Law Enforcement, Recreation Area Development

In Washtenaw county will be held to voice their opinion on two major proposals in the millage election Tuesday.

Two proposals will involve a plan for improvement of law enforcement and a plan for improvement of the recreation areas in the county.

The levy for this improvement will also make the following possible: a criminal intelligence section, consideration of the "public defender" system, maintenance of present levels of operation for the sheriff's department, improvement of jail facilities, reimbursement of city and village police departments for service outside their areas, centralized radio communication, and a contingency fund to meet emergency situations.

Along with these will be quarterly master stores for centralized inventory of equipment, furnishing and equipping new district courts, friend of the court assistance for children of divorce, an improved data processing system, and plans for a rehabilitation center.

The proposal is for a one-mill tax to be levied for the next three years to improve the quality of law enforcement and administration of justice.

This means that all residents would pay a total of $1 on all property assessed at $1,000 value. This would be a total of $10 for property assessed at $10,000.

Proposal Number Two, for the recreation areas, requests a levy of 1/4 mill tax for three years to maintain and develop the parklands in the county and to acquire lands for new park and recreation areas.

These funds are requested to pay for carrying out a comprehensive program which would meet the fast growing demands for more of these areas in the county.

The plans include a "Land Bank," where necessary land areas are acquired by federal funds.

Cpl. D. Stoffer Tells Kiwanians About Vietnam

Cpl. Dennis Stoffer, home on leave after 18 months service with the U. S. Marine Corps in Vietnam, was guest speaker at the Kiwanis club meeting Tuesday evening. He told about conditions in Vietnam and also answered questions of Kiwanians.

It was announced a Kiwanis committee meeting will be held this evening (Thursday) at the home of George Palmer. Business at the meeting will be concerned with compiling a budget and calendar of events for the 1969-1970 club year.

Two new members—Peter Flintoff and R. G. Steger—will be inducted at next week's meeting, it was announced.

Bus Schedules Start Same As Last Year

Today will be the second day of the fall semester for Chelsea school district schools; books have been purchased, and fees are being paid.

The bus schedules will be the same as last year for the first week of school, until the administration can determine new routes and time changes according to enrollment this year.

Junior High school students will be asked to pay their fees for physical education locks and hall lockers. The lock fee is $1.50, with $1 returned at the end of the year when the lock is returned in good condition. Hall locker fees will be paid by new students, as all former students of Beach school have paid locker fees. The charge is 25 cents per year that the student will attend Beach school.

Sixth grade students attending the school will be charged a $5 book rental fee in addition to the lock and locker fees.

The same $5 fee for book rental should be paid by all elementary school students at either North or South schools. Children new to the elementary system should report to their schools today to register and pay fees.

School Opens On Schedule Wednesday

Negotiations Continue In Effort To Reach Contract Agreement

In accordance with a decision reached at a general meeting Tuesday evening, Sept. 2, at Rebekah Lodge hall, Chelsea teachers agreed to begin work as scheduled for the opening of school, yesterday, even though all items of a proposed master agreement were not yet resolved.

Don Young, chief negotiator for the Chelsea Education Association and members of the negotiating team—Miss Mary Weber, Patrik Wade and Leonard Solomon—were scheduled to meet last night (Wednesday) with Thomas Nordberg, Lansing attorney, who is the negotiator for the Chelsea Board of Education; in an effort to reach an agreement. Principal points on which agreement is still to be reached includes grievance procedures and a section on teachers' rights concerning academic freedom and orderly reduction of personnel should such reduction become necessary.

It is expected the school board will meet in executive session Monday, Sept. 8, to consider contract negotiations as brought up to date by that time.

After all agreements have been settled as negotiated, the complete contract will still have to be ratified by the teachers. If any parts are not accepted, such parts (or part) would have to be renegotiated.

At the general meeting Tuesday evening, the statement regarding the agreement to go to work to schools could be opened on schedule was qualified to point out that should the master contract not be agreed upon by the board and the teachers after further meetings of the negotiators, it is anticipated that fact finding will be the next step.

Recommendations of such fact finder's report is not binding on either side, it was pointed out, and if teachers accept the report and board members choose not to abide by such report, then the following Monday teachers will not report for work and this situation will exist until the total contract is agreed upon.

Customarily, in other districts where this procedure (fact finding) has been followed, it has taken approximately 10 days to secure the services of a fact finder and another two to five days to make a decision.

Teachers at Tuesday's general meeting expressed their willingness to continue negotiations in an effort, hopefully, to reach agreement before it should become necessary to resort to the fact-finding procedure.

1969-70 FAIR QUEEN: Jane Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mann, 637 Flanders, was selected Chelsea Community Fair Queen for 1969-70, and will reign over next year's proceedings. Jane was selected from a field of eight girls, and was crowned by Sarah Lindauer, this year's queen. She is 16 years old, and will be a junior at Chelsea High this fall. She was sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club.

Jane Mann Chosen '69-'70 Fair Queen

Chelsea Fair Queen for 1969-70 will be Miss Jane Mann, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mann, 637 Flanders, and candidate of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club.

Jane was crowned Saturday evening by Sarah Lindauer, this year's reigning queen, at the end of the pageant, after the talent presentations and interviews.

Jane was selected for her appearance, poise, personality, speech, and talent by four judges from out of the village. Judging were Mrs. Peter Persy of Ann Arbor, Mrs. William Willis of Grass Lake, Ronald Kuzmar of Whitmore Lake, and Thomas G. Sharpe, State Representative of the 1st District.

At the interview session on stage, Jane was asked what the word "responsibility" means to her, and for her talent presentation she played a piano solo.

She will be a junior at Chelsea High school this fall, and has been active in volunteer work at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor for the last two years.

She hopes to be a doctor, preferably a pediatrician, and enjoys working with the children and babies at the hospital.

As the newly chosen queen Jane received gifts donated by local merchants. Her gifts were the tiara she was crowned with from Winans Jewelry, a pillow donated by Shirley Rowe, a cosmetic kit from Joanne Rowe, Holiday Magic distributor, a set of coffee mugs from Western Auto, and a charm from the Fair Board.

She also received gift certificates from the House of Orient, the Patty Ann Shoppe, Pariah Cleaners, and the Dairy Queen. A record album certificate was donated by Frigid Products, a hot plate from Gumbles, a purse from Dancer's, a scarf from Vogel's, a candle from Merkel's, and a cosmetic case from Chelsea Drugs.

She also received a $120 membership in Spaulding for children donated by the Spaulding for Children Auxiliary in the queen's name.

Runner-up was 14-year-old Janet Wackenhut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Wackenhut, 11-780 Waters Rd., and candidate of the Terrific Tailors 4-H club.

Janet received cosmetics from Joanne Rowe, Holiday Magic distributor, slippers from Stop & Shop, a gift certificate from Grove 5 cent to $1 store, and a special charm from the Fair Board.

All eight candidates received (Continued on page six)

Record Price Paid By Schumm's For Jerry Kuhl's Grand Champion

Spirited bidding at the Chelsea Community Fair Fat Stock Sale Thursday evening raised the price paid for the grand champion steer to $1.10 per lb., believed to be the highest ever paid at the fair since the Fat Stock Sales have been featured.

Fair Board Reports New Attendance Records Set

Over 20,000 people attended the Chelsea Community Fair this year, and bravely sought parking spots, scrambled through crowds to ride on the Ingalls Co. amusements, spent hours watching parades and looking at exhibits, and, in general, enjoying what has been termed the best Community Fair Chelsea's had.

Over 1,000 season passes were sold, with nearly 500 sold on the first day. $48,000 was the total of the gate tickets, according to Lynn Kern of the Fair Board.

One highlight of the Fair was the mammoth parade held Saturday at 1 p.m. Fifteen floats were entered this year, with the eight queen contestants riding on them.

Floats were judged in two categories, the adult division, and the youth and school organizations division. Winners in the first division were Chelsea Jaycees in first place, Spaulding for Children in second, and the American Legion in third. Second division winners were the Gingham Belles 4-H Club in first place, with the Wide Awake 4-H Club in second, and the Junior class in third.

Special awards were presented by the Chelsea Fire Department this year, with one in each division. Firemen's Award winners were Chelsea Kiwanis Club in the adult division, and the Freshman class in the other.

Judging the floats were Carl Heldt, director of the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans, Fred Schmidt, Assistant Fire Chief of Ann Arbor, and Winnie Bicken, owner and director of the Clear Lake Camp.

Mrs. Fred Klink, who handled the Fairground Café, said that they had a tremendous turnout of customers every day of the Fair, but that she had all the help she could possibly have needed with volunteers from the community.

The Fair Board apparently chose four good days for the activities, last weekend being the first weekend in weeks that the area has had no rain. Four beautiful days and evenings made up the weather situation for the Fair.

Ingalls Amusement Co. reported a record attendance and total profit, with the Fair Board receiving 20 percent of the money taken in on the rides. It was reported that on the first day, the amusement company made nearly $5,000 on rides and concessions.

Fishing Violations Heard in Court

Carl W. Schenarly, 81, 1950 Waters Rd., Ann Arbor, appeared with his third offense for catching over the limit of blue gills. He was apprehended with 48 fish, and the limit is 24. He was fined $1 per fish, and fines and costs, totaling $71.

Charles E. Willoughby, 52, 800 Glazier Rd., pleaded guilty to using a fish trap in Glacier Lake. He was assessed $11 fines and costs. Jonathan D. Cook, 27, Ann Arbor, pleaded guilty to fishing without a license, and was assessed $11 fines and costs.

The crowning of Queen Jane Mann, and the garden tractor pulling contest wound up the Fair proceedings on Saturday night.

Police Chief Meranuck reported that there were no serious incidents reported during the entire duration of the Fair. He attributed this to the fine help offered by the Auxiliary policemen, and the good crowd.

"It was certainly a big crowd, but a good and calm crowd at the same time," he said.

Results of the tractor pulling contests, horse shows, and other activities, along with the premium list are published throughout this week's Standard.

JV Gridders To Open Season At Stockbridge

Their first game is with Stockbridge, at Stockbridge, beginning at 1:30 p.m. Following the Stockbridge game they will return to the regular game time of 7 p.m. Head coach is Jon Schaffner, with Tom Morrison as Junior Varsity assistant, and James Tallman as Freshman coach.

Games are scheduled as follows: Sept. 13, Stockbridge, away; Sept. 18, Dundee, away; Sept. 25, Novi, home; Oct. 2, Milan, home; Oct. 9, Lincoln, away; Oct. 16, South Lyon, home; Oct. 23, Saline, away; and Oct. 30, Dexter, home.

Varsity Team To Scrimmage At Tecumseh

Four home games and five away games are in store for Chelsea High's Bulldogs on the gridiron this fall, beginning with a home game Friday, Sept. 12, with kickoff at 7:30 p.m.

The varsity schedule involves six conference games, with Dundee, Milan, Lincoln, South Lyon, Saline, and Dexter, and three out of conference games with Stockbridge, Novi, and Erie-Mason.

The Stockbridge game will be the first of the season, Sept. 12, and the game with Lincoln on Oct. 10 will be Homecoming.

The team is looking forward to a good season, with 13 returning lettermen at the helm. Co-captains of the team are lettermen Richard Bollinger and Tim Colvin. Both played guard positions last year.

Also returning are lettermen Karston Kargel at tackle, three ends, Len Kozma, Glen Wilkerson, John Porter, defensive tackle Dennis Brown, and center Dave Bust.

In the backfield there will be five more returning lettermen, including Dave Conklin at quarterback, fullback Tim Orbring, and halfbacks Jim Wojcicki, Steve Thompson, and Art Farley.

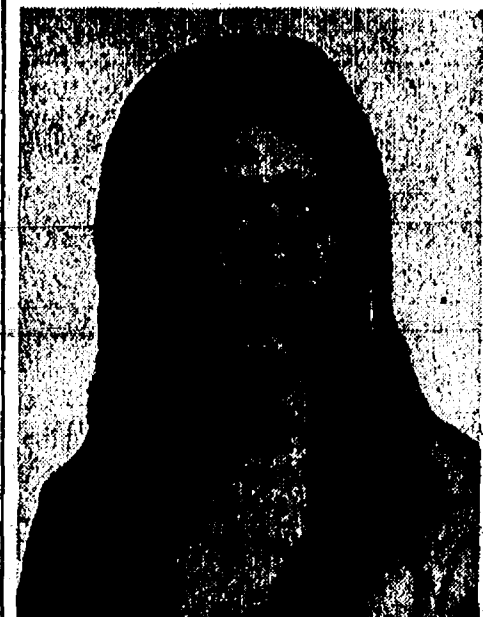

Head coach is Phil Bareis, with Bob Pursel and Richard Bareis as varsity assistants.

There will be three seniors out for the first time, and Coach Bareis expects them to do well. There are Paul Wenk at fullback, Norville Menge at center, and a transfer student from Willow Run, Keith Guster, along with a strong team of boys from last year's junior-varsity league.

Tomorrow the team will go to Tecumseh for a three-way scrimmage with Tecumseh, Brighton, and Michigan Center.

Also preparing for the first game of the season is the Varsity Cheerleading squad, composed of Laurie Lancaster, Kathy Leach, Joan Schmidt, Heidi Sprague, Becky Taylor, and Joan Yokum. Games are scheduled for Friday evenings, all beginning at 7:30 p.m. Scheduled games are as follows: Sept. 12, Stockbridge, here; Sept. 19, Dundee, here; Sept. 26, Novi, there; Oct. 3, Milan, there; Oct. 10, Lincoln, here; Oct. 17, South Lyon, there; Oct. 24, Saline, here; Oct. 31, Dexter, there; and Nov. 7, Erie-Mason, there.

Mrs. Raymond Clark is a patient at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Room 732, bed 1.

JANET SCHNEIDER, 219 Railroad, will be leaving to visit her brother, Douglas, in India, Sept. 5. He is an agricultural missionary for the United Church of Christ. Janet's address, while in India, will be Bhawanipatna, Kalhandi District, Orissa, India. She will be there for three months or more.

WCC EXTENSION CLASS

A Washtenaw Community College extension class will be offered in English 160: Introduction to Literature, Poetry and Drama, from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m., Monday evenings at Chelsea High school. This will be a three-hour transfer college credit class.

Prospective students may contact the registrar's office on the WCC campus.

Sensible query: "If you are so smart, why aren't you rich?"

Fair Queen...

Chelsea greenhouse also donated the long stemmed bouquet of roses awarded to the winner and large arrangements for the stage.

The pageant began with the rival of CKLW's "Good Guy" Martin, who arrived by helicopter just in time for the contest.

After the candidates were seated and introduced on stage, talent presentations were going ranging from a fiery baton twirling to a piano solo. Each was then asked to pick a word from a bowl and was to define, explain it in her own words, and being interviewed by Hal Mar.

During the judges' deliberations, Mrs. Thomas Thaler, Chelsea High Auxiliary president, was introduced to thank those who had with the pageant and to introduce Mrs. Michael Eubank, pageant committee chairman, who had the emcee and her committee.

LEARN HOW TO WALK, IT'S HEALTHFUL EXERCISE

This would be a happier world if more people as much attention and effort to learning how properly as they do to learning how to dance. Most people never are taught how to walk. It one of those accomplishments they pick up by menting and by imitating others; usually those lacking in grace, poise and rhythm. There persons who have given the matter enough thought what the best walking form is or how to know.

Walking is a healthful exercise, and is such portant part of our existence that we wonder at hazard acquirement. Adults frequently develop walking habits, due to postural defects and inequalities. People should have an annual check their spine, which forms the foundation of the. They need this as much as they need annual eye examinations.

Chiropractic fills a definite need, for it is done with the correction of postural defects that many of our physical troubles and ungainly habits.

SECOND PLACE WINNER: Spaulding For Children won second place award for their Community Fair float titled "Room for More," depicting the "old lady who lived in a shoe." The float was entered in the adult division. Third place prize was $10.

LEGION POST FLOAT: Herbert J. McKune of No. 31, American Legion, with its "crosses, on row," was awarded third prize in the adult division of floats in the Community Fair parade Saturday. LuAnn Strieter was the Legion's queen candidate.

KIWANIS CLUB'S "Hawaiian Garden" float won fourth place in Saturday's Community Fair parade. The Kiwanians queen candidate, Jane Strieter, was later selected as the 1969-70 Community Fair Queen. Prize for this fourth-place float in the adult division was a $5 award from the Chelsea Fire Department.

HEAVYWEIGHT SECOND: Dennis Trinkle, 8870 Trinkle Rd., and his John Deere tractor, won second place in the heavyweight, over 9,001 pounds, class with a pulling percentage of 239 percent, in Friday's Community Fair tractor pull competition.

FIRST AND SECOND: Neil Weldmayer of Kies Rd., and his first place Massey-Ferguson tractor totaled a pulling percentage of 282 percent in the light heavyweight division. Standing next to Weldmayer's tractor is Jim Jedele, who won second place with his John Deere tractor and a 280 percent.

Highlights of the 1969 Chelsea Community Fair

HEAVY WORK: Harold Trinkle operates the weight loader at the tractor pull held Friday evening, with the help of many. These men loaded the weight boat for more than 75 tractors, and worked until 2:30 a.m., then came back to handle the garden tractor pull at the contest held the next evening.

JUNIOR DIVISION SECOND PLACE: "4-H Community Fair parade Saturday. Butterfly-Wings to a Future" was the legend on the Wide-Awake 4-H club float which was judged second-place winner in the junior division of the Chelsea Community Fair parade Saturday.

Mulch Encourages New Lawn Growth

East Lansing—Mulching a newly-seeded lawn will keep it moist, reduce soil erosion and help the lawn get a head start over weeds, according to Dr. James Beard, Michigan State University turf-grass researcher.

Straw is the most commonly used mulch, he says, and should be spread over the newly-seeded area at the rate of 60 to 80 pounds per 1,000 square feet. The straw should be free of weed seeds, dead grass, quackgrass and nut-sedge.

After the straw is in place, it should be stabilized by rolling and watering. About 50 to 65 percent of the straw mulch should be carefully removed with a rake or fork when the grass is 1 to 1½ inches high. This will permit greater light penetration and insure rapid, uniform establishment, says Beard.

To hold straw on large areas, an asphalt spray may be used. Coarse burlap is frequently used on steep slopes where seed washing and soil erosion are severe problems. The burlap bag can be cut open and pegged down at the corners.

Night driving is more dangerous than day driving. Be sure that all your lights are clean to aid visibility and keep speed down to a reasonable level for road conditions.

TWO NUCLEAR radioisotope power generators, which have been dropped into the Pacific ocean off the California coast for long-term testing, are intended to provide a long-lasting, highly reliable energy source for use in ocean exploration and work at depths to 33,000 feet. The generators, called SNAP-21, are supposed to supply power for at least five years for underwater navigational aids, sonar beacons, seismological stations and for general-purpose oceanographic and ocean engineering applications.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Happiness

Happiness is something which every man searches for in his own way. Some seek happiness in a calculated manner, according to a certain plan. Others try to be happy by making a practice of avoiding things they do not like and doing only the things they like to do.

If given the opportunity to build yourself a happy life, what changes would you make in the way you live? In the way you do things? In your plans for today, and tomorrow?

You have that opportunity. Regardless of your problems and your obligations, there is much in your private world that you can change for the better. Evaluate your position in life. Determine if your outlook and your attitude would benefit from certain changes. Then take action, seek happiness in an active manner.

Seek happiness and you will be rewarded in some measure—to the extent that your search is a realistic one. Happiness is not a dream world; happiness is the job of living, of loving, of sharing, and of giving.

FAMILY POT LUCK

For a quick and easy dessert, top fresh or frozen blueberries, strawberries and peaches with a dollop of dairy sour cream.

Milk can be blended with many fruit juices to make a refreshing nourishing drink which will be popular with children.

A little garlic seasoning will do wonders for most soups, salads, sauces, meats, fish and casserole dishes.

Celery salt is a combination of pure salt.

SAUSAGE-CORN CASSEROLE
2 tbsp. butter or margarine
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup diced onion
2 cans cooked sausages, drained and cut into 1/2 inch cubes
2 cans corn (17 oz.)
each

1/2 cup salt
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1/2 cup bread crumbs
1 tbsp. melted butter
Melt two tablespoons of butter in large frying pan and cook pepper, onion and sausage over small flame, until onion is golden. In large bowl, mix together with corn, salt, and A. 1. Pour half of mixture into 1 1/2 qt. casserole. Sprinkle with half of cheese. Add remaining corn mixture and top with cheese. Mix bread crumbs with butter, and sprinkle over cheese. Bake approximately one half hour. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

As with most tools, good brushes make house painting easier and contribute to a more satisfactory job. The homeowner will usually require three sizes: a 3/4 or 4-inch brush for large areas; a 2 1/2 or 3-inch brush for shutters, windows and door trim; and a 1 or 1 1/2 inch oval brush, or sash tool for painting window sash and mouldings.

When selecting new furniture for your first home, remember that you can use two inexpensive armless webbed chairs to make a love seat; three to make a sofa. Later, when you can afford to buy the good quality sofa you desire, the chairs can be used as occasional pieces in living room or bedroom.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER:

"I am a 14-year-old girl who has a problem. Almost all the kids at my church ignore me. Every time I walk by them, they stop talking and stare at me. I just hate it. I heard they don't like me because I hang around with my brother and sister a lot, who are a year younger than I am. I can't stand to walk by them anymore, because they will talk about me most of the time. Some of my friends at school laugh at what I say. They think it's funny, but I don't. Do you think you could give me some advice?"

OUR REPLY:

The kids at church, if they dislike you, do so for some reason other than the fact you hang around with your younger brother and sister. It is more likely that they just don't know or understand you. Try to overcome this by being friendly, rather than so self-centered. When you walk up, speak in a friendly manner—say "hello," and see where things go from there. If you think people don't like you, or that they talk about you, you are not relaxed. You are uncomfortable around others, and they become uncomfortable, too. You flatter yourself when you say that people talk about you "most of the time." They don't. They may talk about you, but only briefly. If you think people are laughing at what you say, be more careful about the things you say. Don't talk just to be saying something. If you are friendly and if you have the right attitude, people will like you. It may take a little time; you may have a setback or two, but it's a sure thing if you work at it.

If you have a teen-age problem you want to have discussed or an observation to make, address your letter to "About Teen-Agers," Community and Suburban Press Service, in care of this news paper.

New Bulletin Tells How To Prepare Salmon

East Lansing—Lucky salmon fishermen who want to know how to prepare their catch for the dinner table can get the latest advice from a new bulletin published by the Co-operative Extension Service of Michigan State University.

Entitled, "Getting Your Salmon Ready for Dinner," the bulletin was written by Dr. Eugene Dice, extension specialist in recreation resource development. It tells how to select, clean, and cook your salmon (including the best ways to remove pesticides) and is amply illustrated with black and white photos.

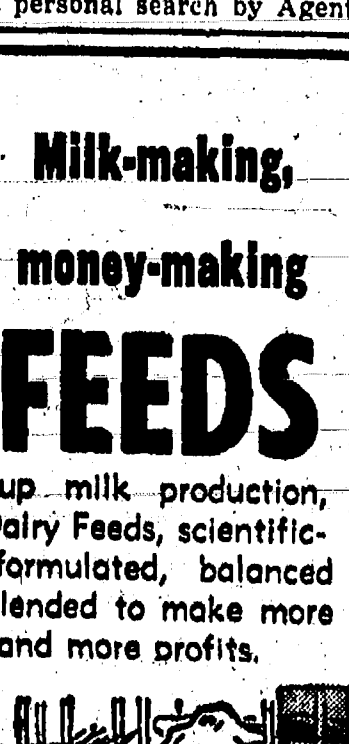

Single copies of the publication may be obtained free of charge by writing for Extension Bulletin E668 at the Bulletin Office, Agriculture Hall, Michigan State University, East Lansing 48823. Additional copies are available at 10 cents each.

HASHISH BY MAIL

Six recent seizures of 57 pounds of hashish arriving in the United States mails points up the increased use of this method of attempted smuggling. Thanks to the alertness of Treasury Customs mail examiners, the hashish was identified before delivery. In one instance, several pounds of the drug were found in the hollowed-out portion of a book. Another lot was found hidden in the soles of shoes. Four of the eight persons arrested were under 25.

Lumberman's Products Are Gardener's Aids

Go to a lumber mill when planning your garden? No, you won't find a blooming plant. But sawdust from your local saw mill operator can decrease maintenance requirements and give unity to your landscape.

"Inexpensive sawdust may be used as a 'common denominator' to relate individual flowers, shrubs, and trees together for a single pleasing effect," says Joseph Cox, extension specialist in landscape architecture at Michigan State University.

"It acts as a guide leading the eye from a focal point to the complementary flora. The focal point may be a single plant or tree or an artificial piece such as a sculpture or birdbath," he explains. "The complementary elements may be massed flowers, groups of shrubs, or any other less dominant arrangement."

Sawdust also provides an aesthetically pleasing contrast.

"The contrast," he explains, "may be between sawdust and foliage or between various planted areas. That is, between sawdust-covered areas and areas exposing darker soil."

Sawdust helps to hold more moisture in the soil, thereby decreasing the amount of water the gardener must supply.

"It also inhibits the growth of weeds. And since it is not a food source, it reduces the damage inflicted on plants by rodents," Cox adds. "However, sawdust should be kept several inches from the base of the plants to avoid mold or other fungus activity."

Due to its natural decay and breakdown, an application of sawdust won't last a lifetime. Additional sawdust will have to be added every two or three years.

"However, don't try to remove old sawdust," the specialist advises. "Instead, blend it into the earth slowly and it will eventually enrich your soil."

Cox issues a word of precaution though. "When sawdust decays, nitrogen in the soil is consumed. Unless replaced, this will cause a yellow appearance in your plants."

"Lost nitrogen may be replaced readily, however, by blending lawn fertilizer into the soil according to directions on the fertilizer package," he says.

"Chopped bark, either a by-product of local operations or commercially packaged, is available for use in the same manner as sawdust. Depending on the tree source of the bark, the bark may have both texture and color variation."

"Chopped bark is packaged and marketed commercially under several trade names. In addition to being inexpensive, it is also specially treated to be fire resistant," he explains.

Stones and gravel have also been used by many gardeners. "But," Cox warns, "they may be dangerous if they are thrown by children or are hit by the lawnmower."

Driving is a full-time job when you are behind the wheel. Think about the fun you will have when you get there—not on the way.

Mrs. Paul Vernon Bauers

Susan K. Grossman, Paul Bauers Exchange Vows in Ann Arbor

The Rev. David Bracklein presided at the double-ring ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Grossman of Madison St. with the son of Mrs. Frank Bauers and the late Mr. Bauers of Dearborn.

The bride wore a white floor-length, empire styled gown of puffed satin on English net. The fitted bodice and full puff bishop sleeves were of val lace, and the neckline was scooped. The A-line skirt was fitted in front and extended into a full chapel train edged in lace. A tiered illusion veil was attached to the satin Diobow. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of daisy-mums surrounding yellow and white roses.

Miss Sally Stimpson of Saline attended her cousin as maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Ruth Bauers, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Virginia Owens of Ypsilanti, and Miss Charlene Beauvais of Anchorville. Their full-length, A-line gowns were fashioned of brocade serano with white lace sleeves and were belted with white velvet. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow daisy-mums and orange sweetheart roses.

The best man was Thomas Holdsworth of Ypsilanti, while the ushers were Gary Grossman, brother of the bride, James Cook of Ypsilanti, and Edward O'Brien also of Ypsilanti.

The bride's mother chose an aqua silk dress and coat ensemble with matching accessories. The mother-of-the-bridegroom wore a print dress and coat accented with beige accessories. Both mothers had corsages of yellow roses.

Bridal showers were given by Mrs. Richard Thielek and Virginia Owens, Mrs. George Kattula and Mrs. Ronnie Braun, and Mrs. David Potter and her mother, Mrs. Lawton Steger.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bauers are graduates of Eastern Michigan University. She is employed by Huron Valley National Bank, while he is employed by Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. of Ann Arbor.

WILLOW CREEK GOLFERS RECEIVE SEASON AWARDS
Women's league golfers at the Stockbridge Willow Creek course completed their summer activities with a banquet held in the clubhouse Tuesday evening, Aug. 26.

Mrs. Haas was cited for reducing her score by 41 points during the season.

Newly-elected officers were Sue Proctor, president; Nadj Prater, secretary; and Ann Heene, treasurer. Rowena Gladstone was named chairman of publicity and Mrs. Basore named to arrange for team sponsors for next season.

Marilyn Mayer and Ann Heene were each presented with a gift certificate in appreciation for serving as president and treasurer for the past two years.

Mrs. Ruth Chriswell Installed To Head Legion Auxiliary

The monthly meeting of Herbert J. McKune Unit No. 31 was held at the Legion Home, Cavanaugh Lake, Tuesday, Sept. 2, with 15 members present and two guests.

Betty Finkbeiner of Saline, district president, was presented and given a hearty welcome. Also in attendance was Marcel Graban, district secretary.

A report was given on the plane that was given at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Ann Arbor on Aug. 12. A supper was served outside to 18 patients of the TB ward.

Ruth Walz gave a very interesting report on the Department Convention held in Detroit in July and was supplemented by Ruth Chriswell, both being the delegates from the Chelsea Unit.

Installation of officers was held with Betty Finkbeiner as the installing officer, assisted by Eleanor Hall as installing sergeant-at-arms and Hilda Kern as installing chaplain.

Officers installed are as follows: president: Mrs. Lyle (Ruth) Chriswell; first vice-president: Mrs. Herman (Doris) Reed; second vice-president: Mrs. Lero (Ethel) Buehler; secretary: Mrs. Luther (Evelyn) Hale; treasurer: Mrs. Howard (Ruth) Walz; chaplain: Mrs. Loretta Doll; historian: Mrs. Julius (Alma) Elise; sergeant-at-arms: Mrs. Lynn (Hilda) Kern; color bearer: Mrs. George (Ruby) West; executive committee: Mrs. William (Geraldine) Blas, Mrs. Henry (Helen) Rybak, Mrs. Elmer (Erma) Mayer.

It was voted to stay at Cavanaugh Lake for the October meeting and then to move into town for the November meeting.

Betty Finkbeiner, district president, gave a talk on her theme for the year, it being "Involvement." Involvement meaning that more members get involved in the work of the Units. By working together it is possible to make a better Unit for all to enjoy. If everyone in the Unit would do just one thing for the Unit in a year it would make the work lighter for all.

Gifts were presented to the district officers present and also to the unit president, by the past president and the unit. The meeting closed and refreshments were served.

Inverness Ladies Golf Awards Made for Season

Inverness Country Club's final Ladies Day was held Thursday, Aug. 28, with trophies awarded to winners of the contests.

First flight winner in the Match Play Handicap Tournament was Alice McGinn with runner-up Ruth Cook. Second flight winner was Dorothy Miller, with Bea Wilde as runner-up.

Season trophies were awarded to Madeline Kusch for the best Ring Score; and to Agnes Huesel-schwerdt and Dorothy Miller for the most improved handicap.

The final Fun-Day prizes went to Virginia Lyon, Joann Kruse, Anna Schrilla, Marge Cox, and Jeanette Smith.

Several door prizes were awarded, and they all enjoyed a pot-luck lunch.

SENIOR CITIZENS
Plans for the following months were discussed at the regular meeting of the Senior Citizens held Tuesday, Aug. 26, at 7:30 p.m.

The social party for September will be held Sept. 4, with Mrs. Margaret Dietle and Mrs. A. Dorer as hostesses.

The September birthday party will be held on Sept. 18, with Mr. and Mrs. D. Sweeney hosting.

The decision was made to postpone the euchre tournament until the new year.

In October, the social meeting will include a speaker from the Social Services Department of Washtenaw county. There will be a discussion about the workings and benefits of Medicaid and Medicare.

Following the discussion there will be a question and answer period, regarding the changes in Medicare, and will be beneficial to all Senior Citizens.

Give your steam iron proper care and it will last longer. Always store a steam iron in an upright position, on the heel rest, whether you leave water in or remove it from the iron. The upright position prevents chemical pitting or marring of the soleplate from moisture remaining in the iron.

Tractor Pull Holds Audience Till Late Hours

Approximately 75 tractors participated in the tractor pulling competition of the Chelsea Community Fair Friday afternoon and evening. Two "lightweight" classes—for vehicles weighing up to 4,000 lbs. and those weighing up to 6,000 lbs.—competed in the afternoon and the "heavyweight" classes—up to 9,000 lbs. and 9,001 lbs. and over—were scheduled in the evening.

The evening competition, in which 46 tractors were entered, held the interest of an exceptionally large crowd of spectators until the final event at 1:30 a.m. Saturday. The tractor event annually is one of the highlights of the fair.

There were four winners in each of the four categories with the two top drivers in each class finishing with very close pulling percentage averages.

In the first event, for vehicles weighing up to 4,000 lbs., Doug Engelbert of Ellsworth Rd., and Ralph Diible of Waters Rd., finished with load percentages of 241 and 239, respectively, for first and second place. Each drove a Ford tractor.

Third- and fourth-place winners in this category were Ken McCalla of Old US-12, whose percentage was 228, and Roy Weidmayer of Schneider Rd., with a percentage of 222. Their tractors were Massey-Fergusons.

In the class of tractors weighing up to 6,000 lbs., the winners and their percentages were as follows: John Weidmayer of Schneider Rd., 271 percent; Richard Weisenreder of Saline, 267 percent; Jim Jedele, Waters Rd., 256 percent; and Wayne Spiegelberg, of Dexter Township Rd., 244 percent. All drove Allis-Chalmers tractors except Jedele who drove a John Deere "B."

Winners in the category of vehicles weighing from 9,001 lbs. to 9,000 lbs. were Neil Weidmayer of Kies Rd., with a pulling average of 262 percent, driving a Massey-Ferguson tractor; Jim Jedele, with his John Deere had a 260 percent; Lawrence Bott, of Boyce Rd., driving an Allis-Chalmers and Charles Trinkle of Trinkle Rd., driving a John Deere, had percentages of 256 and 247 respectively.

With the heaviest tractors, 9,001 lbs. and over, Richard Weisenreder of Saline, with his Allis-Chalmers, had a percentage of 246; Dennis Trinkle of Trinkle Rd., driving a John Deere tractor, finished with 239 percent; Ken Heiber of Spies Rd., on a Farmall was only one point behind with 238 percent; and Pat Farrell, of Farrell Rd., Dexter, tallied 235 percent with his John Deere tractor.

Prizes in each of the four categories were $20, $15, $10 and $5, respectively, for first, second, third and fourth places in the competition.

Coupons Still Being Collected for Kidney Machines

Michigan Jaycee Auxiliaries have now purchased two kidney machines that have been placed and are being put to use with the Betty Crocker coupons they have been collecting.

It takes 600,000 coupons to purchase one machine, and they are well on their way to purchasing a third.

Chelsea Jaycees Auxiliary is still collecting these coupons, and canisters may be found in Dancer's, Stop & Shop, and Chelsea Drug Store for depositing them.

Anyone wishing to donate coupons may also contact the local chairman, Mrs. Robert Undergraff, 14112 N. Territorial Rd., Gregory.

At a recent State Meeting in Muskegon, the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary turned in 7,238 coupons by the organization including a credit for 2,481 coupons from St. Mary's Altar Society.

The two machines now being used were placed in the home of a 23-year-old Madison Heights bachelor, and in the home of a 43-year-old father of five near Traverse City.
