M. J. Anderson Dies in Arizona

M. J. (Andy) Anderson, 71, who owned and operated Anderson's Department Store here from 1954 until Feb. 1, 1964, when it became Dancer's, died Wednesday, March 4, at Sun City, Ariz., following a long illness. He had lived at Pleasant Lake south of Chelsea until moving to Sun City in November of 1967.

M. J. ANDERSON

During his residence in the Chelsea area he was active in the former Chelsea Chamber of Commerce and as president in 1956 was one of the organization's most ardent promoters of Chelsea's fall color tours now an annual event. He was also active in the Kiwanis club and in 1952 was elected governor of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International. He had previously been a member and past president of the Bay City Kiwanis club during the years he served as executive vice-president and general manager of the Bay City Cash Dry Goods Co. and The Diebel Co., of Saginaw which he helped found.

Prior to coming to Chelsea he had served as vice-president of the American Department Stores Corp. of New York.

In addition to the Chelsea store, he had a department store in Saline and was active in the Saline Chamber of Commerce.

For several years he was a director from this area on the board of the Southeastern Michigan Tourist Association.

Since his retirement he had spent considerable time promoting the interests of the Starr Commonwealth for Boys at Albion, a project in which he had long been interested.

Mr. Anderson was born July 20, 1898, in Leer, a small predominately Norwegian community near Alpena.

Survivors of Mr. Anderson are his widow, Grace; a daughter, Mrs. Charles (Shirley) Bash of Mission Viejo, Calif.; a son, Fred, who was in business with his father here, now living in Woodland Hills, Calif.; five grandchildren; and a brother and two sisters.

The Andersons' home is at 10213 Cumberland Dr., Sun City, Ariz., 85351.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Sunland Chapel, Sun City. Interment was at Sunland Memorial Park, Sun City.

Mrs. Anderson has requested that any memorials be sent to Starr Commonwealth for Boys at Albion, a project in which her husband was very deeply interested.

County 4-H Achievement Shows Slated

Mrs. Carolyn Little, Extension 4-H Youth agent, announced yesterday that 4-H Spring Achievement programs involving all clubs of Washtenaw county will be held at Dwight Beach school in Chelsea this week-end. Achievement award winners will be selected in knitting and clothing, woodwork and leathercraft which were the winter activities for 4-H clubs.

Symphony Band Wins District Honors

Chelsea High school's Symphony Band won straight first division ratings in performance and in sight reading at the District 12 festival held Saturday, March 7 at Milan. All three judges of performance were unanimous in rating the Chelsea band and the sight reading judge also gave the band the coveted one rating.

Band members and their director, Warren Mayer, were "elated over the win." They are now eligible to participate in the state festival to be held April 25 in the Flint area.

The Chelsea band's performance at Milan was scheduled for 10:45 a.m.

Chaperones who accompanied the band included Mr. and Mrs. James Gaunt and Mr. and Mrs. William Chandler. Don Pierson drove a truck carrying the band instruments.

The Chelsea High school concert reserve band, directed by Stuart Glazer, participated in the District Festival at Melvindale at 1:25 p.m. Saturday and brought back the best rating the group had ever received—straight twos by each of the three judges in performance and by the judge in sight reading.

Accompanying this band group as chaperones were Mrs. George Prinzing, Mrs. Arthur Schiller, Mrs. Duane Layher and Mrs. Donald Pierson.

Saturday, March 14, the Junior High Festival is being held at Saline, the eighth grade band scheduled to perform at 8:40 a.m. The band and their director, Stuart Glazer, with their chaperones, will leave from Beach school at 7:15 a.m.

At 4:10 p.m. the same day the seventh grade band, directed by Warren Mayer, will perform. They are to leave, also from Beach school, at 2:15 p.m.

J. McKelvie Is Victim in Auto Crash

An automobile accident early Saturday, March 7, fatally injured a former Chelsea resident, James McKelvie, of 5091 Jackson Rd.

According to reports of the mishap the car he was driving struck a bridge abutment on Jackson Rd. near the I-94 overpass.

Details of the accident are still under investigation. He was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, where he was later pronounced dead.

McKelvie attended Chelsea schools before enlisting in the Navy in 1958 and made his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bycraft.

Following his marriage to the former Kay Boggs, they made their home in Dexter, moving to their present home two years ago.

Drug Abuse Described for Kiwanis Club

Jane Mann, supported by Kathy Hafner, both members of the Chelsea High school speech bureau, spoke to the Kiwanians of the problem of drug abuse among school-age children across the country.

She told how the better students were aware of the dangers involved and that although some had experimented with drugs to some extent their use is higher in more ignorant groups.

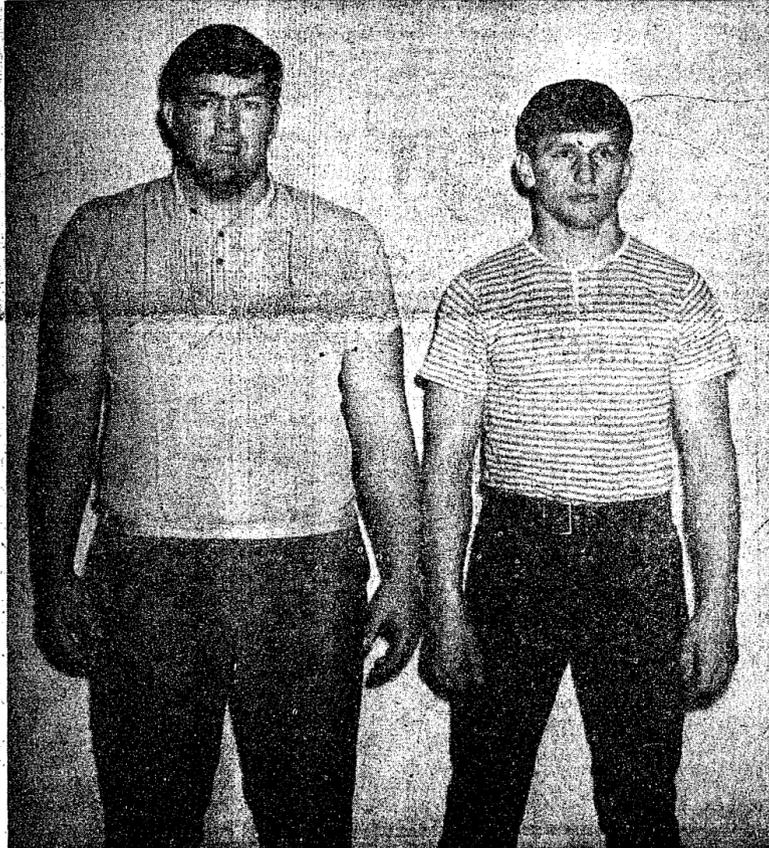

She closed her talk with a quotation that was reported to have been found by a policeman scribbled in a Long Beach phone booth. "Heroin is my shepherd; I shall always want. He maketh me to lie down in gutters; He leadeth me beside troubled waters, He destroyeth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of wickedness for his sake. Yes, I will walk through the valley of poverty and will fear all evil, for thou heroin and thy capsul' they comfort me. Thou stripped my table of groceries in the presence of my family; Thou robbed my head of reason; My cup runneth over with sorrow. Surely heroin will stop me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the damned forever."

At a short business session Walter Zeeb and George Staffan were elected as delegates to International Convention of Kiwanis to be held in Detroit, June 21-24. Clarence Pendley and Floyd Fowler were elected as alternates.

A moment of silent prayer for the honor member M. J. "Andy" Anderson who died March 4 in Sun City, Ariz., started the meeting.

CONFERENCE HONORS came to three Chelsea High school basketball players who were accorded recognition as choices for all-league honors among high school cagers. Jim Wojcicki, left, was named to the first team and both Ron Sweeney (center) and Howard Treado received honorable mention.

DENNIS BROWN, left, placed second in the heavyweight class in the state wrestling competition at Okemos Saturday, and Karsten Kargel, right, placed second in the state for his weight class of 185 lbs. Both Chelsea wrestlers reached the finals before they lost to the eventual state champions.

Wrestlers Gain 5th Place Tie in State Tournament

Four Chelsea wrestlers and Coach Richard Bareis were in Okemos Friday and Saturday for the state tournament finals for Class "B" schools and two of the four earned second-place awards in their weight class and the quartet tied for fifth place with Saline and Lansing Gabriel High school with 23 points each.

In first place was South Haven with 28 points; with Madison Heights, Dexter and Fruitport in second, third and fourth place with 27, 25 and 24 points, respectively. Chelsea's four contenders were Mark Montange, Jim Wencel, Karsten Kargel and Dennis Brown. The two second-place winners are Kargel and Brown.

Kargel (185 lbs.), first pinned Jim Hrit of Bishop Foley High school; then pinned Everett Keeman of Fremont; gained a 5-0 decision over Milt Weatherhead of Bentley High and went in to the finals against Roger West of South Haven and lost, 3-2, giving him second place.

Dennis Brown ended in second place when his arch rival, Gary Ernst of Saline won the decision in the finals, 3-1. Brown's record for the season is 31 wins and four losses and each of the four losses were to Ernst.

Brown first won a 1-0 decision from Ron Erwin of Lutheran East, Detroit; then defeated Marvin Watson of Plainwell, 6-2, and pinned Paul Dowd of Montrose High in the semi-finals before losing to Ernst in the finals.

Jim Wencel (107 lbs.) lost his match to Suane Langlois of Muskegon Catholic Central, 3-1. Langlois went on to become state champion in his class.

Coach Bareis said all four Chelsea wrestlers did a fine job at the state meet but went on to particularly commend Mark Montange, (98 lbs.), who is a freshman and freshman rarely become eligible for state finals. Bareis said Montange made a fine showing against his victorious opponent, Jerry Tichocki of Godwin High, Grand Rapids, who went on to become state champion.

In a consolation match Montange lost to Larry Townsend of Dowagiac who later placed third in the state.

David Dietle Named To Dean's Honor List At Elmhurst College

David Dietle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dietle, 1201 Freer Rd., was one of 180 students named to the Elmhurst College Dean's list for the first semester of the 1969-70 academic year.

The Dean's List is comprised of students who have earned at least a 3.2 over-all grade point average (out of a possible 4.0) in four courses during the semester.

Independents Win It All in Village Voting

Only 109 People Bother To Vote In Election Offering No Contest

A total of 109 votes were cast in Monday's uncontested village election.

Elected for two-year terms were Athel E. ("Mac") Fulks, president, who received 101 votes; Wallace Wood, treasurer, 99 votes, and three trustees, Keith Boylan, 105 votes, William Chandler, 90 votes, and Thomas Dmoch, 101 votes. All are members of the Independent party which was unopposed on the ballot.

Conference Honors Won By 3 Cagers

Chelsea High school has placed three Chelsea basketball players on the Southeastern Conference all-league selections.

Jim Wojcicki, Howie Treado, and Ron Sweeney were all named to the Southeastern Conference teams.

Wojcicki, a 5'10" junior on the Bulldog squad, was named to the first team. Wojcicki led the Chelsea offense during the year in the position of guard.

Named to positions of honorable mention were Chelsea forwards Treado and Sweeney.

Other selections included first team members Bill Busch, Dundee; Dave Brandon, South Lyon; Doug Woolard, Milan; and Gregg Ianni, Dexter.

On the second team are Wes Gall, Saline; Everett Meggitt, Lincoln; Steve Van Winkle, Milan; Phillip McMillan, Novi; and Mike Curley, Dundee.

Grass Fire Fought Along Railroad Track

Chelsea firemen were called out shortly after 1 p.m. yesterday (Wednesday) when a grass fire along the railroad on Chelsea Dexter Rd. appeared to be getting out of control and in one instance, at least, seemed to be threatening a barn on the Floyd Fowler farm on Dancer Rd.

The Chelsea men fought the blaze for approximately three hours, working as far east as Dancer Rd.

Fence posts and some trees were burned in the area covered by the blaze. Fourteen Chelsea firemen were on the scene, according to Fire Chief James Gaken.

As firemen were responding to the call east of Chelsea, a small fire was noticed west of the fire station behind the Road Commission yard and one truck extinguished that blaze before joining the others.

In the meantime, Dexter firemen had been called for similar grass fires along the railroad track west of Dexter.

Cagers Lose in Tourney Play To Brighton

Chelsea basketball tournament hopes were crushed last Thursday as they suffered a tough 79-84 loss to Brighton.

The loss eliminated Chelsea from tournament play while Brighton went on to defeat Dexter for the tournament championship.

Chelsea and Brighton played fairly even ball through the first three quarters with the Chelsea cagers coming out on top 60-54. However, Chelsea offense stuttered in the final stanza while Brighton scored 30 points in the quarter. Bob Musch scored 15 points in the final period to lead Brighton. Musch tallied a high of 38 points in the contest.

Chelsea had well balanced scoring as Jim Wojcicki scored 23 points and Dave Conkin, playing a strong game, tallied 19 points and grabbed 7 rebounds. Ron Sweeney and Howie Treado scored 12 and 11 points, respectively and grabbed 16 and 10 rebounds, respectively. Art Farley added 8 points for Chelsea.

Miss Grace Ward entered Green Meadows Nursing Home at Stockbridge on Saturday.

Tour of Hawaiian Islands in Store for Travelogue Audience

Julian Gromer, a native of Grand Rapids, one of America's skilled professional photographers is featured in the Kiwanis-sponsored Travel and Adventure series which presents the fifth in the series at 8 p.m. Saturday, March 14, in the Chelsea High school auditorium. The series is sponsored by the Kiwanis club.

The film is entitled "Hawaiian Paradise" and those who see this sparkling color motion picture will agree that Hawaii is a gem of beauty. The wonderful world of Waikiki Beach is the glittering gateway to Hawaii. Its many facets include the golden beach, bronzed surfers, colorful shops, and pretty Hawaiian girls who tell native stories in the Hula Dance.

The rugged beauty and lush vegetation on the eight islands is viewed on a thrilling air tour. On the Big Island of Hawaii there's a dazzling treasure of orchids, tropical flowers, macadamia nuts, coffee and wonderful people. After seeing the sparkling Black Sand Beach, City of Refuge, Kona Coast, and the masterpiece of all golf courses, the paniolas, or cowboys, thrill viewers with their dar-

Washington Report
 by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

The fight against pollution has had too much rhetoric, too little specific action. But a golden opportunity for significant action is before us now: saving the world-famous fishery laboratory in Ann Arbor.

Saying that lab has a real meaning for the River Raisin in Lenawee, the Huron River in Washtenaw and Lake Chemung in Livingston as it does for Lake Erie along Monroe and the rest of the Great Lakes.

The lab, in danger of funding reduction that will limit its usefulness and perhaps even eliminate operations, is a true giant in the anti-pollution field. It was the first to tell us Lake Erie was dead. It warned early of what the deadly sea lamprey would do to fish in the Great Lakes and the hazards of pesticides.

The information it has learned about the pollution of water, survival of fish and, in general, the restoration of our ailing environment is applicable in many ways to the thousands of lakes and streams in southeastern Michigan. It is applicable as well to the many thousands of lakes, streams and river in the entire eight-state

Great Lakes and, indeed, the entire nation. The issue is far more than preservation of a valuable organization for a local area, important as that is.

Every person who likes to swim, boat or fish, has, in the last decade, been dismayed by the steady pollution of our waters. In some cases, lakes used by generations of families for swimming have become so polluted authorities have had to close them.

In addition to the scientific advances the biological lab has made in more than 40 years of superior service, it has also served as a leader in winning public awareness of the pollution problem. Our single best hope to restore our waters, as well as clean up the rest of our environment, is to build upon the new public determination that pure water and clean air are worth fighting for.

That is one reason I am fighting so hard to keep the lab at its full strength. As it prospers it generates widespread enthusiasm for anti-pollution activity. Such enthusiasm is needed if we are to save Lake Michigan, for example, now in the early stages of going the way of Lake Erie, but also if we are to save the River Raisin.

Support Surfaces
 Abortion reform is one of those topics which come before the legislature which results in complete erasure of party lines.

There is support for and opposition to various shades of revisions of current laws in both political parties.

In the end, it becomes a matter of conscience for each individual lawmaker. There is no party line.

A poll taken recently among the members of both the Michigan House and Senate would indicate the lawmakers don't even do much talking with one another on the subject. It indicates the lawmakers drastically underestimate the strength of the sentiment for abortion law reform in both houses.

makers would say they will vote for some form of a bill while being dubious about passage of one, she pointed out the fact the issue is one involving an individual decision.

"Possibly, it's because the legislators know they are for it in their minds, but haven't stopped to assess the fact that many of their colleagues share their feelings," she said.

"And another reason for this is that abortion reform is a very individual thing," she said. "Many legislators are for reform, but they don't know what form it should take yet."

The eight bills being considered may be divided into three general categories:

—complete repeal. If passed, these bills would eliminate any mention of abortion and criminal consequences from the entire body of Michigan law.

—permissive. A bill recently introduced by Sen. Gilbert Bursley would allow a woman the right to a legal abortion in a licensed hospital, clinic or doctor's office for any reason during the first three months of pregnancy.

—moderate revision. These bills would revise the present law to allow abortions if it is shown that continuation of the pregnancy could pose serious threats to either the physical or mental health of either the mother or the unborn child.

Whatever the eventual outcome of the issue this year, it is sure to be occupying a great deal of public attention in the coming months.

And while the outcome isn't sure there is one thing that is: the final decision will come after much soul searching on the part of every legislator who casts a vote on this emotionally charged and highly complex issue.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 Ed Doolittle told the fellers at the country store Saturday night that this talk about what this country needs is a depression to pull us back together makes about as much sense to him as a bunch of fellers sitting around joking about the good old days when they were prisoners of war. Them that's wanting a depression ain't never had one, was Ed's words.

What got Ed riled was this statement he had saw in the paper by this feller that said the country was falling apart cause the people had forgot how to work. Life is too easy now, and success comes too easy. What this feller was saying was that when nobody had nothing, everybody scratched harder. And with everybody in the same boat nobody had time to rock it, so we all got along better.

Ed said he was strong agin all the Government handouts, but wishing fer hard times to come what ails the country ain't far from chopping off yore head to git rid of a toothache. They is a heap of difference between working to keep from starving to death and taking pride in yore work, was Ed's words, and he allowed that some folks in this country has got them mixed up.

Course, went on Ed, it is bad when a feller that tries to do a better job gets slapped down ever time he stands up. Ed had saw where this carpenter was fired cause his work was of "unnecessary high quality." It would be a rare thing these days, allowed Ed, if a feller got fired fer pore quality work.

Clem Webster reminded Ed that the last time the bottom fell out was when the Republicans was running things. He said he was worried the Nixon Administration didn't know the difference between putting brakes on the economy and putting skids under it. Clem said he reckons the Republicans will come up with a depression of strength, like the Democrats use to talk about them deficits of strength.

Course, went on Clem, he never had to worry about nothing back when he was on the job. He said his old lady took care of his money and her ma took care of his business, so all he had to do was work.

Right now, went on Clem, they is such a need for people in all kinds of trades until some colleges is offering classes in odd jobs. People is showed how to paint walls, trim fruit trees, fix plumbing and make general repairs. One of the trades where the biggest, Clem said, is balcksmiths, and colleges is offering this training too.

They is some serious problems in this country, allowed Ed, but starting new problems ain't the way to fix the old ones. Our trouble is that we has got to the place we want everything for nothing, but tearing down everthing and leaving nothing ain't the way to make us appreciate what we got.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

DAVID CLOUSE, shown above with his father and mother, Scoutmaster and Mrs. Cecil Clouse, was awarded the "Honor Scout of the Year" medal at Sunday's Court of Awards of Boy Scout Troop 420. The award winner's name remained a secret of the three judges—troop committee members, Richard Seyfried, Skeets Worden and Jack Pfeifle—until the announcement was made. The honor signifies attendance at every meeting, every work project and all planned camp-outs of the troop for the year.

Drag Racing Club To Be Organized

A drag racing seminar designed to teach racing fans the best ways to set up their cars and the safest way to drive them on the strips. The seminar is open to anyone in the area, interested in the popular sport.
Loehr and his team will also help set up a Ford Drag Club, co-sponsored by Palmer Motor Sales and the Ford Division. The club is open to anyone driving any make of car, it is pointed out.
It has been estimated that 20 million fans attended 10,000 drag racing events at 800 tracks during 1969.
Ford Division's Drag Teams are unique in the auto industry. The three teams—one for the eastern half of the U. S., one for the mid-west, and the other for the western half—travel via specially designed vans that also carry the team cars, Super Stock Mustangs and Mavericks. The vans and the cars are painted to match—pearl-essent white, gold, and Ford Division blue.
The drag team headed by Loehr was added this year. Loehr, who comes from Kalamazoo, has been a Ford racer since 1957.
Drag racing enthusiasts here will be given an opportunity at Tuesday's seminar to sign up for membership in a proposed local Ford Drag Club. Members elect their own officers.
In addition to their automotive-oriented activities, many clubs have undertaken community projects directed at safety and charitable activities. Several clubs have set up club competition days at their local drag strips where they may race among themselves and with other clubs under controlled, supervised, safe conditions. Regularly-scheduled gatherings called "Go-Ins," at major drag events across the country are open to participation by all members.
Palmer Motor Sales invites all interested persons in the area to attend Tuesday's meeting.

Driving Safety Tip
Speeds that may be safe in summer are murder on ice and snow, warns the Michigan State Safety Commission. The distance required to bring a vehicle to a safe stop on slippery surfaces may be three to nine times that needed on dry pavement, according to the National Safety Council. Each morning check yourself with a few quickie stops before sailing into the stream of traffic. who selected the winner were troop committee members Richard Seyfried, Skeets Worden and Jack Pfeifle. The honor signifies 100 percent attendance at meetings, work projects and all planned camp-outs for the year.
Other presentations made at the program were perfect attendance pins to Mark Seyfried, David Clouse, Carmer Slocum, Skeets Worden, Jr., and Billy Scott; service stars to all scouts for their respective years in scouting; miniature pins corresponding with their sons' rank to mothers for the scouts who received awards; and a scouter's senior training certificate and medal of the Boy Scouts of America to assistant scoutmaster Foytik on recommendation of the Portage Trails Council.

4-H LEADERMETE brought people from all parts of Michigan to attend activities planned on the Michigan State University campus, March 7-8. More than 300 adult and teen 4-H leaders participated. Several of those from Washtenaw county to attend the Leadermete are shown above. They are, from right, William Peltes of Dexter, Mrs. Donald Bowe and Mrs. Ellsworth Minock, both of Plymouth, and Ann Arbor representatives Miss JoAnn McCalla and Mrs. William McCalla.

4-H Teens, Adult Leaders Discuss Goals at Leadermete

William Peltes represented Dexter at the 1970 State 4-H Leadermete held March 7-8 on the Michigan State University campus.
The Dexter youth is a member of the Busy-Two-in-One 4-H club, which has Albert Ruhlig as its leader.
Activities at the Leadermete centered about a "We Listen—We Care" theme.
Arden Peterson, state 4-H youth program leader, and Leadermete co-ordinator, said, "We are trying to get teens and adults to listen to each other. We hope this conference provided some help in reaching that goal."
Highlight of the event was an address by MSU president Clifton Wharton.
Several 4-H leaders received the Clover Award for up to 45 years of service to young people through 4-H.
A Kalamazoo man, Dr. Gordon Stocking, was presented a national 4-H alumni award.
Workshops, campus tours and recreational activities were also part of Leadermete.
The Leadermete program is developed and co-ordinated by the State 4-H Council and Michigan 4-H Youth Programs state staff, and is sponsored by Michigan 4-H Foundation.

4-H Achievement

Friday, March 13, at 8 p.m. the Junior Miss Style Show will be featured and Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. is the time for the Young Miss Style Show.
Winners of the Junior Miss and Young Miss shows Friday and Saturday will join the Senior Miss group for their style show to be held Sunday, March 15, at 2 p.m.
Beginning Saturday morning, judging will take place to select winners in woodworking and leathercraft projects which will be on display throughout the three-day event.
Winners will be selected from the various categories to go on to State 4-H Show competition in East Lansing in August and winners of other honors will also be named.
All interested persons in the community are invited to attend the programs and view the exhibits.

JV Cagers in Tie for League Championship

Final statistics compiled for the 1969-70 basketball season of Chelsea's Junior Varsity team show Greg Howard leading the scoring with 273 points for a 17.1 average.
Next highest was freshman Jeff Schmidt with 155 points for a 10.3 average. Schmidt also led in rebounds with 160 for a 10.7 average. Second highest in rebounding was Jeff Daniels with 93 for 6.2 average.
Greg Howard was also the team's best free throw shooter, hitting 95 of 128 for 74 percent. Second in this category was Ed Koengeter with a 64 percent record, hitting 27 of 42.
The JV's averaged 55.8 points per game, hitting on 35 percent of their field goals and 54 percent of their free throws. They held their opponents to 45.9 points per game.
The Little Bulldogs ended their season with an over-all record of 12-4 and a conference record of 11-3 which gave a tie with Milan for the championship.

THE SURVEYOR
While supervising construction of the University of Virginia, Thomas Jefferson surveyed the site with pegs and twine, calculated the brick and lumber needed, hired bricklayers and carpenters, and sent a scholar to Britain to recruit professors.

Boy Scout Troop 420 held a Court of Awards dinner Sunday, March 8, at the American Legion Home at Cavanaugh Lake.
Senior patrol leader, Ric Foytik was master of ceremonies for the afternoon and assistant patrol leader, Carmer Slocum, introduced the troop committee and guests, George and Alice Atkinson, long time Scouters from the Chelsea-Cavanaugh Lake area.
The invocation was given by Russell Collins of the Flaming Arrow patrol and following the dinner, the Flaming Arrow patrol conducted the opening ceremony for the court of awards.
After Ric Foytik led in a candle lighting ceremony assistant Scoutmaster Dan Foytik presented tenderfoot awards to Mike Cameron and Kevin Krieger.
This was followed by a demonstration on rope making by the Wolf patrol and then the troop committee chairman, Arthur Stoll, presented first class awards to Paul Case, Richard Worden, Skeets Worden and Mark Seyfried.
A demonstration on tower building and lashing was given by the Beaver patrol, Committee man Richard Seyfried made the announcement that David Clouse, son of Scoutmaster and Mrs. Cecil Clouse, had been judged the winner of Troop 420's Honor Scout of the Year award and presented him with the honor medal. THANK YOU The family of Wilhelmina Seitz wishes to thank her relatives and friends who remembered her at Bank's Green Meadows with personal calls, cards and gifts at the time of her birthday anniversary.

THANK YOU I would like to thank all my relatives, friends and neighbors for the visits, flowers, gifts and cards that I received while in the hospital. Also thanks to those who have brought food to my home since my return. Special thanks to Mrs. Katherine Ellenwood for the care of the children and for all the help she has been to me. Everything was very much appreciated and may God bless all of you for these acts of kindness. Janet L. Rowe.

THANK YOU The family of Lloyd Collins wishes to express their thanks to all their friends and relatives who helped them and for the flowers and acts of kindness. Special thanks to the Rev. Nevin. All was deeply appreciated. Mrs. Lloyd Collins and Family.

CARD OF THANKS I would like to sincerely express appreciation and thanks to my friends and relatives for being remembered during my recent illness. A special thanks to Big "D" and "Mitzi". Jean Atkinson.

ORCHIDS AND TROPICAL FLOWERS of many hues make a spectacular background for some of the scenes in Julian Gromer's "Hawaiian Paradise" travelogue scheduled for Saturday evening, March 14 at Chelsea High school auditorium. This is the fifth in the Kiwanis-sponsored Travel and Adventure series. Gromer is familiar to Chelsea audiences because of previous appearances here. His film is personally narrated and enhanced with hi-fidelity musical background.

Travelogue...

(Continued from page one) is big business and the burning of cane is spectacular. To spend a day in the clouds at Haleakala, "The Sun" which is the largest crater in the world is like being in another world. The Garden Isle of Kauai is the fulfillment of a dream, a real South Sea Island vacation with its treasured legends and exquisite scenery. Amid some of the world's most fabulous beaches, colorful canyons and picturesque valleys is an enchanting boat ride to the unique Fern Grotto. The film is concluded with a return to Oahu, "The Gathering Place" to see one of Hawaii's most colorful events, the Lei Day Festival; also to visit Hickam Field and Pearl Harbor, the new Sea Life Park and other places of special interest.

FRATERNITIES GROWING Since World War II, college fraternities have grown at the average rate of 12 new chapters per month.

(Continued from page two) received his honorable discharge at Fort Bliss, Tex., on March 8. Remodeling and decorating of Grove Bros. 5c and $1.00 store will be completed this week. Through the efforts of a group of local men, an airport is to be available to serve this area, and the tract of land to be used for this purpose is only five miles northwest of Chelsea. Those interested in the project are Wallace Franklin, William Quigley, G. L. Staffan, Dr. John Doyle and John Meinel.

The WSCS of Salem Grove church met at the home of Mrs. William Broesamle on Wednesday, Mrs. George Heydlauf, president, was in charge of the meeting. At its annual meeting the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club elected the following officers: James Park, president; Armin Schneider, first vice-president; Robert Howe, second vice-president; Hugh Gaddis, secretary; Paul Eisele, treasurer; and A. D. Mayer, dog catcher. Board of directors include H. B. Murphy, John Keusch, and Paul Frayer.

Lois Eisele is a new pupil in the seventh grade at the Chelsea public school, it was reported by Buddy Johnson, seventh grade reporter.

Thursday, March 12, 1936 - In one of the quietest village elections in years Monday, only 87 votes were recorded as an unopposed Independent party were all elected. The ticket is headed by Roy Harris, president; James Munro, clerk; Ed Miller, treasurer; Conrad Lehman, Wilbur Hindner and F. W. Merkel, trustees; and Ed Keusch, assessor. Trustees elected last year who have one more year to serve of their term include J. E. Weber, H. B. Murphy and Ernest Adam.

The Child Study Club met Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Schable for a "Fathers' Night" program. Dinner was served to 45 members and guests at 7 p.m. Members of CHS music department entertained. Students appearing were Angelina Burg, Jean Blecher, Jane Belsler, La Rue Wolf and Maurice Lyons. In the Class C basketball tournament finals Saturday night, Cement City defeated Chelsea by a score of 17-9. Scoring honors for Chelsea went to Hart and Lyons, each scoring three points.

THANK YOU We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, beautiful floral offerings and Mass offerings in the recent loss of our loved one. We especially thank the Rev. Fr. Francis Wahowiak, the employees of Dana, Corp., and St. Mary's Altar Society. The Family of Edward P. Baczynski.

By LOUIS BURGHARDT At times, some people confuse the distinction between courage and cowardice. Courage does not always imply an absence of fear; nor does cowardice always imply an excess of fear. Common sense linked with conscience is involved in the distinction.

For example, some people think it takes courage to speed past a car on a hill or curve. Screeching tires, shrieking voices, swerving cars, and often head-on collisions point an accusing finger toward that kind of courage. Since common sense did not prevail, and since there was a lack of conscience for a possible tragedy, are such drivers really courageous—or cowardly?

Courage with a conscience gives us strength to face distinctions between right and wrong, between the things we should do and should not do. At times, it may even take courage to be classed as a coward. But as long as common sense is used with a clear conscience, cowardice is glorified beyond that of courage.

Life requires boldness. Boldness requires courage. But courage should never create tragedy or destruction when such catastrophes can be avoided. BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

MRS. MICHAEL SWEET, dressed in a native Korean costume, was a special guest of Brownie Troop 145 for their March 5 meeting at the Congregational church. Her dress is of white satin with colorful strips of taffeta down the front and around the bottom. Mrs. Sweet, originally from Korea, takes great pride in the fact that she is now an American citizen. She showed slides and told the girls about the Korean people, their country and customs. With her in the picture are, front row, from left, Dawn Krieger, Debbie Kelin, Cathy Myers and Tam MacDonald; rear, from left, Kim Hopkins and Nancy Tyson.

There is a game that children play. Most of us played it in our youth, as youngsters still do in spring and summer. We can still play it without arousing suspicion of our adult peers. It's called, among other names, "reading the clouds." It's an interesting game for one, but much more revealing when two or more are playing. When the blue sky is filled with clouds, study the clouds intently. See what forms take shape there. Listen to the children play: "I see the face of a man." "I see, over there, a horse." "That's not a horse. It looks like a dragon to me!"
In clouds, as with many other aspects of life, few things look exactly the same to more than one pair of eyes.
Did you ever consider that it is the same where people are concerned? Have you ever asked a friend, "Just what is it that you see in that guy? I don't like him at all."
Play the game of life as you would play the game of the clouds. Never believe that what you see, or what you believe or understand, is all of it. Listen to others. You may understand what they see and believe. And, you will be much better off for doing so.

The Rev. and Mrs. Thompson were missionaries to Japan from 1927 to 1967 working in Yokosuka and Okinawa. Learning of the needs of war-torn Vietnam, they went to the Saigon area in 1967 to work with the severely handicapped.
They will present many experiences in Japan and the Far East, and a question and answer session concerning the war in Vietnam.
An invitation is extended to the Chelsea community to the pot-luck supper, and to Rev. Thompson's presentation.

Missionary Home from Vietnam Will Speak at Methodist Church

The Rev. Everett W. Thompson, for many years a United Methodist missionary in education and social work in Japan, and for the last two years, a missionary in Vietnam, will speak at First United Methodist church Sunday evening, March 15. A family pot-luck supper will be held starting at 6 p.m. and the Rev. Thompson will speak at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Thompson and his wife, Zora, began their missionary service in Japan in 1927 in Hiroaki. During the depression from 1931 to 1938, due to a lack of funds to return them to Japan, Thompson served as a pastor in a rural church in New Hampshire.

St. Clair Church Young People Will Appear At Assembly of God
A special musical evening will be presented by members of the choir and band of the St. Clair Shores Assembly of God Friday evening, March 13 at 7:30 in the Chelsea Assembly of God, according to the pastor, the Rev. T. B. Thodeson.

The choir and band members are young people. The choir is directed by Elmer Drew, and the band by Eugene Sobek, both of St. Clair Shores.
The Rev. James Pierce, pastor of St. Clair Shores Assembly of God will give a brief resume of the program which will be about two hours in length.
The public is invited to attend.
National fraternities have chapters on 15 campuses in Michigan.

Child's Beligent 'No' Doesn't Always Mean Open Defiance of Authority

Children who look you straight in the eye and utter a defiant-sounding "no" when you've told them to do something may not really be defiant, says Mrs. Gail Imig, family life specialist with Michigan State University.

"For a small child, the word 'no' is probably just an easy word to say. And the sound it makes may be fascinating, so he uses it often," Mrs. Imig says.

Or, he may just be trying the word out to see what effect it has on those around him. The more fuss you make when he says "no," the more attraction it may have for him, and the more he'll use it.

"Your child may also be imitating you," the specialist suggests. How often during the day do you say "no"?

If your child says "no, no" and refuses to budge, you may help him over the hump with a little humor. Pick him up and smilingly reply, "yes, yes." Few children can resist such attempts at fun. Diverting his attention to another activity also helps end a child's sudden streak of stubbornness.

As children grow older, they are better able to fit this word into their vocabulary. If they continue to act negatively too much of the time, be alert to the situations in which they act this way, says the specialist.

Saline Resident Directs Product of The Year Search

Dennis E. Pearsall of 160 Harper Dr., Saline, has been appointed Washtenaw county Product of the Year chairman for this year's Michigan Week celebration.

The appointment was announced by Ralph Beuhler and John F. Eman, both of Ann Arbor, who are co-chairmen for Michigan Week District No. 16 made up of Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe and Washtenaw counties. Beuhler is vice-president of Ann Arbor Construction Co. and Eman is marketing and personnel officer for the Huron Valley National Bank.

As the county chairman, Pearsall is responsible for securing entries in the Product of the Year contest, one of the highlights of the week-long Michigan Week observance scheduled for May 16 to 23.

Consumer products manufactured in Michigan are eligible. Entries must be submitted to Pearsall by Monday, April 6. The county winner then enters the Region 16 competition with the regional winner entering the statewide contest.

Pearsall is an assistant cashier in the mortgage department of the National Bank and Trust Co., in Ann Arbor. He was born in Brighton, attended Glendale College in California and Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo and is a graduate of the National Mortgage School, Ohio State University, Columbus, O.

He is married and he and his wife, Joann, have two children, Kim, 3, and Mark, 2. He is secretary of the Bethel United Church of Christ in Freedom township.

When we think of pies we usually think of desserts, but have you ever thought of using it for the main dish?

This recipe used "JIFFY" Pie Crust, with a little extra added, dill seed and oregano. Then you can use your left over roast beef and cook it with a rich bouillon gravy. I assure you when served to family or guest it will be the topic of conversation.

- BEEFY PIE
(6 servings)
- 1 package "JIFFY" Pie Crust Mix
  - 1 teaspoon dill seed
  - 1 teaspoon oregano
  - 1 1/2 cups bouillon broth
  - 3 tablespoons cornstarch
  - 1/2 cup cold water
  - 2 cups cubed cooked beef
  - 1 package (10 oz.) frozen peas and carrots
  - 1/2 cup chopped onions
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
1. Heat oven to 425°.
  2. Prepare pastry as directed on package except stir in dill seed and oregano. Set aside.
  3. In large skillet heat bouillon broth; dissolve cornstarch in 1/2 cup water and gradually stir into broth. Add remaining ingredients.
  4. Pour mixture into pastry-lined pie pan. Cover with top crust which has slits cut in it. Seal and flute edge. Cover edge with 2-inch strip of aluminum foil to prevent excess browning; remove foil last 10 minutes of baking.
  5. Bake 35 to 40 minutes.

HAPPINESS IS GOOD HEALTH

Little children are always most expressive. When they are happy their laughter and smiles can light up a whole room. But, when they are not feeling well they do not even have to tell you. Their actions will let you know that there is something bothering them.

Keep your children happy by helping to keep them healthy. Regular checkups are a must by your family physician. Very often he will prescribe a daily vitamin to supplement their diet. In our Vitamin Department we carry a complete stock of vitamin products that are specifically prepared for children. They are good-tasting and children enjoy taking them.

★ Research Expands
Nation's Food Crops

The good thing about pollution is that the entire public is backing its defeat. But in the struggle some areas are inadvertently identified as the opposition.

One formula of thought development is the idea that technology causes pollution when the cause is really man's clumsy management. For openers take the population curve, where would it be without agricultural technology. It climbs to a higher notch each year because of the more food produced, more mouths are fed, so more people can live.

So what's happening in farm technology to increase the quality of living? Crops that traditionally were limited to geographic areas because of soil and climate are finding new land to grow on because of technological advances in farming.

Harvest of fruits and vegetables in the former Kansas "dust" bowl is an example that has been made possible by the technology of tapping deep underground water supplies with modern drilling equipment.

A more dramatic example of what technology is doing is the geographical spread of soybeans (traditionally a northern crop) to the Mississippi delta region in recent years.

One reason for this soybean surge, according to the Wall Street Journal, is that researchers, through genetic selection, have developed plants that can thrive in southern growing conditions.

A speedy new hybrid corn has been developed too, that matures in as little as 68 days. This variety is suitable for northern areas where the growing season is short and killing frosts come early in the fall.

Some crop specialists think that cheap, arid land in western states also can be made suitable for corn belt expansion.

Other developments include higher-yielding grain sorghums contributing to the boom in southwestern cattle feeding, and plant researchers are developing additional forage crops.

Senior High Pilgrim Fellowship members are holding a bake sale Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Congregational church to raise money to provide Easter baskets and an Easter "Bunny Hop" at St. Louis School for Exceptional Boys Sunday afternoon, March 22. This is one of a number of projects the group has carried out at the school.

Announcement of Saturday's bake sale and the March 22 visit to the school was made by Holly Powers, Senior Pilgrim Fellowship president. Advisors for the group are the Rev. Daniel Kelm, Mary Weir and Ralph Johnson.

Special feature of the March 22 party will be the appearance of a six-foot tall Easter bunny who will help distribute the baskets which the PF members are planning to prepare.

To hang wallcoverings over fixtures too difficult to remove, cut a large X in the paper before the stripe is hung—then slide covering over the fixture and trim with a razor.

February Traffic Death Toll Drops Below Average

February traffic deaths in Michigan numbered 132, a reduction of 26 or 16 percent compared with 158 in the same month last year, according to State Police provisional figures.
The toll also was four less than the February average of 136 for the five years 1965-69. This is in sharp contrast to February's all-time high of 159 set in 1964 and the low of 51 in wartime 1943.
The February deaths brought the accumulated toll for the first two months this year to 294 which was one less than the total of 295 for the same period in 1969.

Arbor Week Becomes Important With Need for Improving Our Air

The importance of trees to maintaining and improving the quality of man's environment gives impetus to greater observance of Arbor Week, April 19-25.
Trees and other plant life not only have great aesthetic value but do much to improve the air man breathes by taking carbon dioxide out of the polluted atmosphere and giving off oxygen which is mandatory for animal life, including man.
This is pointed out in Governor Milliken's proclamation calling upon all citizens of Michigan to observe Arbor Week by planting trees about their homes, schools and places of business.
Michigan is the only state to observe ARBOR WEEK instead of ARBOR DAY because one or two days do not give opportunity for full and proper observance of Arbor Day.
Michigan's national tree leadership warrants this extended annual observance of tree planting. Michigan grows more than 90 varieties of trees, more than any state in the union and more than may be found in all of Europe. With 59 national champion trees out of a total nation-wide of 117 species, Michigan leads the nation with most big trees of any state.
Fifty-four percent of its total land area is classified as commercial forest land but more trees are needed to fight against air pollution in the more heavily populated areas, especially since our cities have lost their great elms to disease.
In the past beautification has been given as the chief reason for tree planting, and this is important, but to that has been added the equally important reason of air purification.
There has been a tremendous increase in observance of Arbor Week on the part of schools, civic bodies, service groups and the general public in line with increased interest in beautification of residential and commercial property and our parks and cities—but the increased awareness of the importance of trees in the fight against air pollution should bring about even greater participation.
As in the past the Governor will plant a tree on the State Capitol lawn furnished by the Michigan Association of Nurserymen who as in the past will place a potted evergreen tree on the desk of each legislator.
The Michigan Department of Natural Resources in cooperation with the nurserymen's association has prepared a special pamphlet giving full information for the observance of Arbor Week which may be obtained free from the department's Publications Room, Stevens T. Mason Building, Lansing 48926.

EDUCATION IN ABSENTIA

A professor was called upon frequently as a guest lecturer. Not wanting to neglect his own classes, he began recording his lectures on tape and arranged to have the tapes played at class sessions in appropriate rotation. One day, returning early from a trip, he stopped in to see how the system was working. He found his machine on a table in the center of the classroom faithfully delivering his lecture. It was surrounded by 20 chairs on each of which sat a tape recorder!
Since 1934, more than 11,000 men have been initiated into college fraternities every month.

DRIVERS' DEAL
If the 92 million U. S. motorists were required to prove their right to drive through a basic medical-mental exam, at least 10 percent or 1.5 million drivers, would lose their licenses, the Catholic Digest estimates.

St. Louis School's Basketball Team Places 2nd in Tourney

St. Louis school basketball team played in a state tournament the past week-end at St. Thomas High school, Ann Arbor. Other teams participating included St. Thomas and St. Francis of Ann Arbor, and St. Mary's of Jackson, St. Louis received a second-place trophy.

This is St. Louis school's first basketball team and the first time any of the boys ever played in a tournament; thus, placing second and winning a trophy in the event was a gratifying experience, not only for the team but for their coach, the Rev. Fr. Umberto Mellars, other priests at the school, nuns at the school and others who assisted with the coaching.

Rooting for the team were the boys' parents and friends who came from Chelsea, Saline, Ann Arbor and Detroit.

St. Louis boys—15-year-olds in the eighth grade—won Saturday night's event, which gave them a chance to play in the finals Sunday.

The boys were handicapped because of the lack of a backup of players who could have served as substitutes to relieve them; however, with an enthusiastic crowd cheering for them (as well as for the opposing team, St. Mary's of Jackson) they were tied with St. Mary's until the final one and one-half minutes of play when St. Mary's gained an additional 30 points, bringing the score to 34-24.

MILKING COST UP
Michigan dairy farmers' investments in milking systems have increased 60 to 80 percent in the last 10 years, according to Michigan State University agricultural economists.

Newsmen Discuss Nixon's Role With Democratic Congress

East Lansing—President Nixon's role with the Democratically controlled Congress is explored on "News in Perspective," Sunday, March 15, at 11 a.m. on WMSB (Channel 10), Michigan State University television.

Tom Wicker, associate New York Times editor, and Max Frankel, chief of the Washington Bureau, join host Clifton Daniel, along with Ed Dale, Times economic expert, for the program. The four newsmen look at President Nixon's domestic and foreign plans, with particular emphasis focused on his role with the United States Congress.

Other WMSB highlights include:

SOUL MUSIC
Recording artist Jerry Butler hosts "Soul," a black variety-talk show, Sunday, March 15, at 2:30 p.m.

Among the guests, Butler, interviews on the program are: Gale Sayers of Chicago Bears and Jim Haskins, author of "Diary of a Harlem Schoolteacher." Guest artists include Roberta Flack, who sings "Something," "With These Hands" and "Do What You Gotta Do"; The Uniques, who perform a medley of 12 songs, and Patti LaBelle and the Blue Bells, who sing "Always Something There to Remind Me" and "Brand New Me." Butler entertains with "Only the Strong Survive," "Gotta Go See If I Can't Get Your Mama to Come" and "Back Home."

SPAIN
"NET Journal" revives the Spanish Civil War and its aftermath

The program examines the spirit of the times, which encouraged thousands of young men from England, America and other countries to fight in the Civil War. In a historical vein, the program reviews earlier political upheavals in Europe, in terms of the climate that led to the ouster of King Alfonso XIII, the brief ascendancy of anarchists and the eventual triumph of the nationalists, backed by German weaponry and manpower.

Finally, the program looks at Spain today, with its materialistic emphases, imitative of other European nations.

YOUTH
"NET Playhouse" features a drama focusing on today's youth on "Stopped Running," Sunday, March 15, at 11 p.m.

The drama is a part of the international series of plays, "A Generation of Leaves," revolving around the growing rift between generations. The play centers on Ed and his girl companion Tracy, a couple of disoriented college dropouts who are heading across the country to a commune in California. On the way, their auto is impounded and they are forced to find work to earn enough money to reclaim the car. In the end, one of them leaves town with a local hippie, while the other has apparently "stopped running."

MUSIC
Craig Sheppard, a talented young pianist from Philadelphia, performs on "Young Musical Artists," Wednesday, March 18, at 7 p.m.

He performs Prelude and Fugue No. 17 in A Flat Major (Book 1, Well-Tempered Clavier) by J. S. Bach; Sonata in G Minor, Op. 22, by Robert Schumann, and L'Isle Joyeuse by Claude Debussy.

Sheppard is a student of Eleanor Sokoloff at the Curtis Institute of Music. He has been soloist with The Philadelphia Orchestra on numerous occasions and has given numerous recitals in this country and in such European cities as Berlin, Geneva, London and Paris.

STARVATION
"To Feed the Hungry" examines the lives of 340,000 Cook county, Ill. residents who are fighting a daily battle with starvation, Sunday, March 15, at 1 p.m.

Cameras visit the homes of families living in uptown, South and West side ghettos, where the poor pay an average of $28 a week for rat-infested apartments and public aid families exist on 26 cents per meal per person.

Some of the few private groups trying to meet the need for feeding the poor describe their projects to provide food for the starving. Various solutions to the problem are offered by Sen. Charles Percy and Sen. George McGovern.

General interest programs, specialized sessions, programs for women, youth, activities, exhibits and tours of research facilities are scheduled for each day.

Farmers' Week Slated at MSU March 23-27

About 20,000 Michigan agriculturists are expected on the Michigan State University campus to seek information and helpful ideas during the 55th annual Farmers' Week, March 23-27.

Topics centering around the "Dawn of a Decade" theme range from horsehoes to no-tillage crop production.

Exhibits will include MSU's semi-automated milking system and a phone unit that allows a farmer to communicate with a computer.

The MSU Department of Agriculture Extension has 140 university demonstrators presenting Farmers' Week programs, which have sessions on interest rates, Michigan taxes, egg price fluctuations, financing dairy farm expansion, rural poverty, approaches to group action in marketing and how pollution control will affect farmers.

Thirty-two out-of-state speakers are scheduled to participate in the 1970 Farmers' Week, and 30 Michigan agricultural associations will meet during the week.

General interest programs, specialized sessions, programs for women, youth, activities, exhibits and tours of research facilities are scheduled for each day.

Boy Scout Troop Plans May 2 Paper Pick-Up
Boy Scout Troop 420 is planning a paper drive to be held May 2 and has arranged to have people call members of a committee if they have no place to store their papers for that length of time.

Those who will take messages about papers that need to be stored until the date of pick-up are Steve Hansen, 475-7212; Mark Seyfried, 475-2761; Timmy Hinz, 475-8811; Carner Slocum, 475-8186; David Stoll, 475-8846; Richard or Skeets Worden, 475-0814; or David Clouse, 475-8562. Persons calling should leave their name and telephone number.

A trailer will be parked at Stop & Shop Supermarket May 2 to receive old papers and magazines.

THREE ADULT WORKERS with Boy Scout Troop 420 were honored at the Iroquois District Roundtable meeting, receiving Scouters' Training Award certificates and medals. From left, they are assistant Scoutmaster Skeets Worden, Scoutmaster Cecil Clouse and assistant Scoutmaster Dan Foytik. The presentations to the three Chelsea men were made by Roger Claussen, Scout executive, at the Roundtable meeting held Wednesday evening, March 4, at Wylie school in Dexter.

Cub Pack 435 Holds Blue & Gold Banquet

Cub Scout Pack 435 held its Blue and Gold Banquet Feb. 26 at the Chelsea High school cafeteria. The menu included baked ham, cole slaw, baked beans, German potato salad, relishes, milk, coffee, cake and ice cream.

The Rev. Fr. Francis Wahowiak gave the invocation prior to the dinner. Entertainment following the dinner was a magic show presented by Cub Scout Tom Gleason.

Awards presented at the banquet were listed as follows: Gary Kelomen, one gold arrow; Joey Marentette, one gold and one silver arrow. These were presented by Cubmaster Ron Kiel.

The list continues with Doug Foreman who received one gold and three silver arrows presented by the assistant Cubmaster, Les Kelomen; and Webelo artist activity badges which were awarded to Jim Stahl, David Wetzel, Scott McClain, Robert Branham, Doug Foreman, Brad Myers, Jeff Kiel, Doug Eisele, Kirk Steinaway and Alan Roskowski.

These awards were presented by Webelo leader, Clyde Myers.

Tim and Brad Knickerbocker had completed their Bobcat requirements and received their pins. Tim also received a Bear book and Brad a Wolf book.

A Bill Baker, an Iroquois District committee member, presented awards to three den mothers—Mrs. Richard Kalmbach, Mrs. Clyde Myers and Mrs. Vincent Stahl—for their two years of service as den mothers.

It was announced that Pack 435 was awarded first-place honors in the Iroquois District for their Cub Scout window display during Boy Scout Week.

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter?

In wintertime, people in houses with flame-type heating wake up mornings with that stuffed-up feeling. With hoarse, dry throats. Furniture dries out and starts cracking.

Sound familiar? You bet it does. The best way to stop it is with electric heat. You see, electric heat isn't a dry or drying heat.

So, you usually don't need a humidifier. The moisture from bathing and cooking is all you need for natural comfort.

An Edison-Approved Electric Heating Contractor will be glad to tell you all about comfortable, moisture-retaining electric heat. He'll figure your operating cost, and there'll be no obligation. And right now, your contractor's offering a $100 trade-in on your old heating system. Call him for an electric heat survey, or mail the coupon below.

He'll show you how to turn your desert into an oasis.

Chelsea March Of Dimes Fund Hits $2,342.73

Mrs. Charles Koenn, chairman of the 1970 March of Dimes campaign for the sponsoring Jaycee Auxiliary, has completed her report for the year and last Thursday turned over to the county chairman a total of $2,342.73.

The total is divided into categories as follows: individual gifts, $46; clubs and organizations, $55; business and corporations, $155; Mothers March, $746; coin collectors, $272; individual mailers, $346; bowling, $469; teens, $114.50; and special events, $189.06.

There was also a donation of $1,000 worth of professional services from Dr. Jerald Flinn of the Chelsea Chiropractic Clinic.

Mrs. Koenn said credit for the success of the campaign is due all the many volunteers who assisted and all those who contributed to the fund. Among those who were helpful, she said, were all the Jaycee Auxiliary members; those who participated in the bowling tournament; the Citizens Band Radio Club who provided escort service during the Mothers March; the Boy Scouts and their advisors for the peanut sale; Chelsea Drug for the donation of candy for the teens sweetheart dance; the school administration for use of the high school for the dance; the teen-agers who promoted the dance; the high school faculty for their basketball game; the Senior Citizens for the use of their meeting room; Dancer's store for the window display space; and all who contributed time and effort of any kind.

Board Adopts Interscholastic Athletics Policy

Chelsea's Board of Education at its Monday, March 2 meeting approved administrative rules and regulations relating to the interscholastic athletics, among which is the excusing from physical education classes any youth at the varsity, junior varsity, freshman, or junior high level who participates in interscholastic athletics.

Besides this exclusion, the board noted that "a student takes part in varsity or interscholastic competition voluntarily. Such athletic competition is not required for school credit nor is academic credit given for it."

The board continued in its regulations statement:

"Top physical condition is a prerequisite for interscholastic competition. The coaching staff, individually and collectively, shall take great pains to make sure that the students know what the training rules are. They shall make it amply clear that a student's failure to adhere to training rules amounts to self disqualification from interscholastic competition.

"Interscholastic competition means that the teams are representing the student body and the citizens of the Chelsea School District. Therefore, the coaching staff must present teams adequately trained and coached to meet the high standards of the school and community. It is a high privilege, honor and achievement to play on teams engaged in interscholastic competition.

"No night football games are to be scheduled for junior high students."

Some interesting new citrus "cousins" are in the experimental stage. There is a "tangor," which is a cross between a tangerine and an orange; a "oramon," which is an orange-lemon mixture; a "tangermon," which crosses the tangerine with the "limequat," which is a descendant of the lime and kumquat.
