Michigan Week Plans Revealed

CHARLES F. COX

Michigan Week "Land of Hospitality" plans are nearing completion. This year's Michigan Week activities for Chelsea area residents are scheduled for May 16-23.

"Come back to Michigan" is the call this year as Michigan Week planners are issuing an invitation to all former residents, sons and daughters from all corners of the globe to join in the giant Michigan Week Homecoming.

Governor William G. Milliken has proclaimed May 16-23 as the 17th annual Michigan Week. Objectives of the week-long festivities, sponsored through the Greater Michigan Foundation, are to give Chelsea residents greater knowledge and appreciation of their village and state; to expand their assets and resources for industry, business, education, and recreation.

Michigan Week activities in Chelsea will begin with Community Pride Day, Saturday, May 16. This is the day when all Michigan gives expression to the deep pride of its citizens in the entire state, particularly to their special pride in their own community. Spiritual Foundations Day, Sunday, May 17, is a day to review the proud heritage of religion in Chelsea and to recognize its part in community life now and in the future.

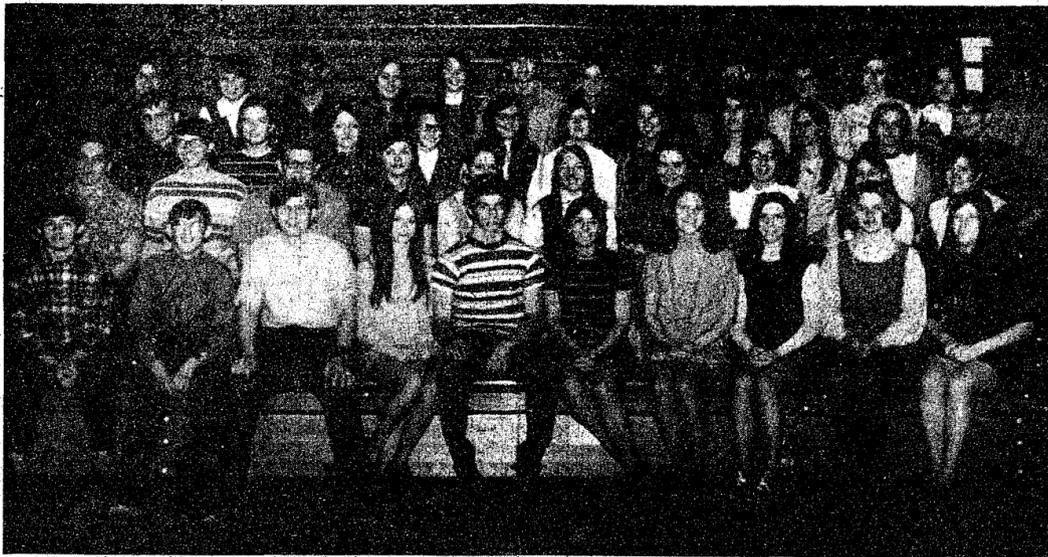

Our Government Day, Monday, May 18, focuses on our government and its work at all levels. The day will be highlighted by a Mayor Exchange with Milford, Thomas Dmoch is chairman for this day.

Our Heritage Day, Tuesday, May 19, is a day to recognize the contributions so many have made to Michigan's progress and the inventive genius of the men and women who make possible its continued growth.

Our Livelihood Day, Wednesday, May 20, is the day we direct our attention to the industry, business and agriculture which provide a livelihood for the community. We, as citizens, should pause a moment to think of how each earns his living. Each community should take stock of how it provides a livelihood for its people.

On Education Day, Thursday, May 21, the entire community should pay tribute to its schools—pupils, teachers, administrators, and other personnel.

Hospitality Day, Friday, May 22, symbolizes the theme of Michigan Week—that Michigan is a land of hospitality all year around. (Continued on page six)

South School Parents Form Organization

An organizational meeting of 20 interested parents of South School students was held Thursday, April 2, to explore ideas for improving parent-teacher-community communication.

Several ideas for programs were suggested by the parents. Interest was shown in obtaining information about South school and the Chelsea school system, about individual freedoms, and student rights and about child molestation. On Tuesday, April 14 at 7:30 p.m. at South school gymnasium, parents are invited to view the film being shown to elementary school children during school on child molestation. The title of this film is "The Riddle of the Unfriendly Stranger," featuring Gabby and her friends. At this time, the JC Auxiliary will also present their program, The Helping Hand. Following the programs, there will be a discussion.

Members of the South school parents committee include: Ellis Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harvey, Dean Devove, Don Schroeder, Mrs. Gene Miller, and Mrs. Leslie Eisenbeiser.

Forty-four juniors and seniors became members of Chelsea high school's Charles S. Cameron chapter of the National Honor Society during its ninth annual induction held Monday, April 6 at the school.

Nominated for their qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, the new inductees form the largest group of students ever to be so honored at one time.

New members include: Ginger Allhouse, Chris Barnes, Sue Blaess, Eileen Bristle, Jeff Bust, Bruce Clark, Tonya Clemons, Martha Ewald, Art Farley, Jill Flintoft, Milton French, Dorothy Gauss, Larry Gorton, Janice Guenther, Kathy Hafner, Regina Hardy, Jane Haselschwardt, Jim Hercules, Jack Jennings, Terri Kelly, Jill Kipfmiller, Deanna King, Laurie Lancaster, Jane Mann, Karen Menzell, Jackie McClain, Pam Parnell, Lisa Peffers, Susan Rasmussen, Dale Robbins, John Sacher, Diane Schroen, Kathy Susner, Beckie Smith, Steve Smith, Sue Stock, Steve Thomson, Ed Wade, Carol Weir, Debbie Weiss, Gayle Winans, Jim Wojcicki, Jack Wood and Pat Young.

A final challenge was presented to both new inductees and old members by Chelsea School Superintendent Charles S. Cameron who gave the concluding remarks. "The present National Honor Society," stated advisor George P. Bergman, "is one of the most active in our history. The students are committed to a number of worthwhile projects such as aiding their parents in the school's scholarship fund drive, and are planning a tag day and a Smorgasbord early next month to raise money for the fund."

In addition to Bergman, advisors to the society include Miss Lynn M. Williams and Joe Rossi.

Townships OK Higher Budgets For Next Year

Sylvan Adopts $71,220 Budget But Still Eliminates All Township Tax

Budget considerations and salary hikes highlighted the Saturday, April 4 annual meetings of the Dexter, Freedom, Lima, Lyndon, Sharon, and Sylvan townships.

Freedom Township . . .

Freedom township residents approved a budget of $19,570 at their annual meeting. The increase of $4,000 is attributable to salary hikes for township officials and costs for a landfill project which Freedom township is participating in with their neighboring townships.

Lima Township . . .

Lima township residents approved a budget of $32,000 at their annual meeting. The increase of $3,500 is attributable to salary hikes for township officials and costs for a landfill project which Lima township is participating in with their neighboring townships.

The township voted to levy one-half a mill to help pay for a new township hall. So far, $32,000 has been set aside for the hall. A motion was passed to spend a maximum of $36,500 for the building which will be located on the present site, the corner of Pleasant Lake and Lima Center Rds. Ronald Finkbeiner of Bridgewater Lumber Co., will be the contractor for the new hall.

The township board was authorized to sell and dispose of the old hall and any other assets in the old building not needed in the new hall.

It was announced that the township board will meet at 7:30 p.m. the second Tuesday of every month. The meetings are to be held on April 14, July 14, Oct. 13, and Jan. 12. Sixty-five persons attended the meeting.

Dexter Will Have New Township Hall

Dexter township officials were host to a few more residents than have attended the Annual Township Meeting in past years, at this year's meeting, Saturday, April 4.

A budget totaling $42,190 was approved for the year, and salary increases were voted for Supervisor Warren Eisenbeiser, Treasurer Mrs. Winifred Aberdeen and Clerk William Eisenbeiser. The increase voted for the supervisor was $1,000 annually, bringing his annual rate to $4,500, and the clerk and treasurer were each given $500 annual increases to bring their salaries to the $2,500 mark.

Residents anticipate completion of the new township hall, located on Dexter-Finckney Rd., near North Territorial Rd., in time for the primary election next August.

Following some discussion on whether the township should assume a greater share of the salary expense of township police officer Ralph Parker of North Lake, the citizens decided to continue his employment, even though the township will not be sharing salary costs with the Washtenaw. (Continued on page five)

Lyndon Township . . .

Salary increases for the supervisor, treasurer, and clerk of Lyndon township were approved at their annual meeting. The supervisor's pay was hiked from $2,250 to $2,350; and the treasurer and clerk both received salary increases from $1,400 to $1,450. A budget of $20,344 was also adopted. The previous budget had been $22,000. It was approved that the township will pay $2,000 to the Village of Chelsea for one year for using Chelsea's landfill.

Any parents interested in having their child attend should call South or North school to make arrangements for a specific day. This visit does not necessarily indicate that he will be assigned to that room or school in the fall.

New Pastor Begins Duties At Chelsea Methodist Church

After eight weeks without a pastor, the First United Methodist Church of Chelsea welcomed the Rev. Clive H. Dickens to its pastorate on Wednesday, April 15.

The Rev. Dickens replaces the Rev. Robert Worgess who left Chelsea, March 15 for Sebawaing. The Rev. Dickens, who graduated from Oberlin Graduate School of Theology in 1959, will preach his first sermon Sunday, April 19.

There will be a reception for the new minister, and his wife Sunday, April 19, from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., following the worship service. All are welcome to attend the event.

The Rev. Dickens graduated from the Detroit Public Schools in 1948, Magna Cum Laude, attended Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky., and graduated in 1953 with a BA, also Magna Cum Laude.

During this time, he was listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities in 1953."

The Rev. Dickens obtained his teaching certificate from Eastern Michigan University in 1958 and went on to Oberlin for graduate work in Theology. While at Oberlin, he was president of his graduating class; awarded a Monroe Fellowship as that member of the graduating class with the highest academic standing; and awarded the Thomas Graham prize as the outstanding preacher of the senior class.

In 1960, the Rev. Dickens married Susan Alice Maycock. They have two children, Mark Edward and Robert Clive.

The Rev. Dickens has been active in both community and religious life. He has held several district ministerial offices and presently holds the district offices of the Committee on the Ministry, Board of Missions and Church Extension, District Council and sub-district leader. He is also involved in the current conference offices of trustee of Michigan Christian Advocate, and a member of the Commission on Minimum Salaries and Sustentation.

Community interests of the new Chelsea pastor have led him to participation in the Sumpter Community chorus, the Belleville Area ministerial fellowship, the Belleville Human Relations council, the Van Buren Public Schools study committee, the YMCA, Indian Guides, the Denton PTO, and the Fowler-Lodge No. 1 164 F&M.

Mill Creek Reservoir Called 'Dead' Issue

A declaration that the Mill Creek reservoir is "dead," references to the Talus study, and the hint that the Southeastern Michigan Lake Erie studies would result in the recommendation for a reservoir on Mill Creek, were all part of the fifth annual meeting of the Mill Creek Research Council held Tuesday, March 31 at Lima Community Hall.

Several people, including three Dexter High school students members of PRIDE gathered at the Hall to hear Warren P. Miller, executive secretary of the Huron River Watershed Council speak before the annual meeting.

Miller told those who had gathered that he believes the Mill Creek reservoir as being planned by the United States Corps of Army Engineers through their Huron River studies was "dead," because at the present time there is no funding for study and no current budget request for further funds.

He continued that one of the principal reasons for the proposed reservoir was low-flow augmentation to dilute the discharge from the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti sewage treatment plants. Although these cities could, even by providing tertiary treatment to remove phosphates, process their sewage at less cost by continuing use of their individual plants, they will, in all likelihood, be forced to make use of the regional interceptor system which will be built to take all sewage out of the Huron River. In fact, if the Michigan Water Resources Commission sets water purity standards for total bodily contact on Ford Lake and other ponds, then all sewage will have to be removed from the Huron.

Miller commended the Research Council for their efforts with regard to the Mill Creek reservoir proposal. He said that there is a growing need for such citizen involvement in assisting with the decisions that are being made by all levels of government.

Although the reservoir was pronounced dead, it was revealed that there is still the possibility that the Southeastern Michigan Lake Erie studies, which are continuing, may eventually recommend some sort of a reservoir on Mill Creek.

Miller noted that change in the Mill Creek basin is inevitable. The recent Talus study predicted that Chelsea will become a city of 50, 000 persons; that Dexter would become one of Ann Arbor's "bedrooms." Such changes cannot take place without the kinds of land-use decisions now being made in Ann Arbor, Selo and Pittsfield townships, it was asserted.

Further it was presented that the Huron-Clinton Park Authority and the promoters of the "cross-state" canal have considered the natural assets provided by the creek itself. Huron-Clinton has become involved with park development at Belle Isle, but that probably has just put off the decision on another new park west of Ann Arbor in the creek basin or elsewhere, it was conjectured at the meeting.

The cross-state canal would reverse the flow of water up Mill Creek and along its southern branch (Guenther Rd.) across the county to join the upper reaches of the Grand River which flows towards Lake Michigan. Land would be bought for 800 feet on both sides of the water-way to be later resold for private use. This would help provide financing. A bill seeking authorization of such a project has been introduced to the Michigan state legislature this winter.

Both Miller and Mrs. Harry Denham, who is on the executive board of the Huron River Watershed Council, expressed skepticism that the "ditch" would ever be built; however, they felt that not enough is known about all the implications of a project of such magnitude and that it is not too soon for people to try to become informed about it.

The Berrien County Conservation Club has already voiced its opposition in an issue of the "Michigan Outdoors" magazine, and on Sunday, March 29, the Detroit Free Press had a letter of opposition from Port Huron, across the state.

Dave Bacon, chairman, presided at the brief Mill Creek Research Council meeting which preceded the talk. After some discussion, dues were left at $2 initiation fee and $10 annually. Dues may be sent to William Chandler, treasurer, 765 Howard St., Chelsea.

Mrs. Denham reported that the biggest project of the year was the preparation of a book, "A Summary of the Opposition to the Mill Creek Reservoir." This compilation of research reports, resolutions and statements of opposition, and other information was sent to interested persons, when it was learned that a statement had been made at an appropriation hearing that there had been no opposition to the project. Read during the meeting were letters of acknowledgment of receipt of the summary from Governor William Milliken and Representative Charles Cedarburg.

Abortion Law Uncertain

Gov. William G. Milliken added his voice to the rising chorus of persons working for reform of Michigan's abortion laws and gave the move for reform a significant push.

The Governor, after studying the issue carefully, came out in support of a law which would allow any woman to receive an abortion during the first three months of pregnancy if she wanted one.

Only qualifications in the proposal Milliken endorsed would be a requirement that any woman receiving such an abortion reside in the state three months before she could receive it.

The Milliken plan is almost identical to one already enacted in Hawaii, except Hawaii does not have any residency requirement in its law. It does, however, have several thousand miles of ocean between it and any other state which provides a natural barrier to the state becoming an "abortion mill."

"I believe that women, under appropriate conditions, should be permitted to make an individual judgment, and that the result of this judgment should be respected and protected by law," Milliken said.

"Under our present law, there are great excesses and violations through the procurement of illegal abortions in many cases under less than even hygienic or competent circumstances," he said.

"This is the real detriment to the public welfare. Our present law overlooks it totally."

The Governor said he recognizes "this is a controversial issue." Many people of good will and proper motive support changes in the law; many others of equal good will and proper motive oppose such changes.

"In such circumstances there can be no policy which will satisfy everyone," Milliken concluded.

"Accordingly, we must base our policy on the individual conscience of the individual citizen. A law such as I propose cannot compel any persons to take action against their conscience or against their will."

In reply to those who say abortions would be "legalized killing," Milliken said "it is necessary to act at this time so that lives can be saved, much suffering can be prevented, and the illegal abortion trade can be stopped."

"All evidence demonstrates conclusively that our present law does not do what it was intended to do," he said. "It does not prevent abortions. It does contribute to illegal abortions, often performed by unqualified persons, often in unsanitary circumstances."

"All too often, death, sterility, permanent injury or substantial suffering is the result," he said. "Conditions such as these must not be allowed to continue. I propose that we alter them by improving the law."

"He also said, 'Family units would be strengthened if we give to women the decision as to whether or not they shall bear children.'

Though it has picked up the Governor's support, however, abortion reform is far from being a sure thing during the current legislative session.

There are still many persons, including the Catholic Church, who are devoutly and unalterably opposed to any change in the law.

Shortly after Milliken issued his statement, Senate Democratic leader George S. Fitzgerald of Grosse Pointe said passage of any bill to liberalize abortion law would

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

There is a heap of concern around the country store about where wimmen's hems is heading, and it ain't cause the fellers is interested in style or leg. Ed Doolittle reported at the Saturday night session that longer skirts is a bad sign for the economy.

Ed said he never has been one to look the other way when a well turned ankle comes along, and thru the years he has saw skirts, hair and heels go up and down just about all the way. Without fail, said Ed, when hems go up times is good, and when they start down so does the country. Ed admitted it is a heap easier to predict the economy than the way wimmen think, but he had saw where 40 percent of this fall's fashions will be mid and maxi instead of mini.

This means, allowed Ed, that what them multi-experts call downturns is going to keep on turning down. The only part of the economy in good shape, said Ed, is the wimmen clothes business. When hems was going up, gals could jest cut out dresses shorter, but when they start down they ain't nothing to do but buy a heme new batch.

Clem Webster, that is looking fer reasons to be unhappy with Nixon, agreed with Ed that things is pritty slow right now, but he said wimmen's skirts ain't near as shore a sign as the Phds. Clem had saw this report where the more letters a feller's got, after his name the more likely he is to be missing in action in the inflation war. Unemployment, Clem said, is hitting the Phds harder than anybody.

In the days of the New Frontier and Great Society, went on Clem, all a Phd had to do was ask Ter a grant and it was granted. He could spend the money doing anything as long as he wrote a long report in six copies. So many Phds was doing research they had to study one another, was Clem's words.

Nixon sidetracked that gravy train, said Clem, and Phds that don't know how to do nothing but research is having a ruff time. Clem said he saw by the paper where this one Phd said it looked like he was going to have to lie about his education to get a job. We already is the most researched folks in the world, with the Government spending $200 million a year on statics, Clem said, and he was glad to see a cutback on statics that could git some Phds doing research on honest sweat.

Practical speaking, Mister Editor, I don't see much hope fer cutbacks when folks think Government owes them a living. I see where this bunch on welfare has got em a lawyer and sued the Government cause they was told they had to take jobs they didn't like. As long as handouts is dignified and work is a shame they ain't much chancet fer us.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Village of Chelsea officially joins with the Michigan State Chiropractic Association to proclaim the week of April 5-11 as "Protect Your Back Week," and urge that this period be dedicated to informing the citizens of this great village of their responsibility, both individually and as a family, to protect their jobs, their income, their leisure activities, their health and their way-of-life by protecting their backs and spines. The Village of Chelsea further commends the doctors of chiropractic and the schools of chiropractic for their efforts in the public's behalf, and specifically the doctors of chiropractic of this village and state for their co-operation in undertaking a public education program for stressing spinal hygiene.

FASHIONS AFFECT FIGURES

History indicates that the proportions of the body and the posture are affected by the type clothing worn. For example, in recent years, the waistlines of women have increased slightly due to the wearing of waistless dresses.

Some people leave their manners behind when they get into an automobile.

Area Youth Involved In Anti-Pollution Task

Want to save a life? Young people of the St. Paul church in Chelsea have decided to do their part to save what is a very important life, the life of the earth. The group wishes to save it from pollution by litter.

"We ask your support in a one-day campaign to pick up litter along the roads and highways. On Saturday, April 18, all of us will meet at St. Paul at 9 a.m., divide up, and launch our one-day task force to demonstrate our concern and willingness to do something!" exclaims a news release from the young people.

The youth of St. Paul express that the life of the earth, "needs saving. If it dies, where will you and I be? Yet, every day, we are helping to kill it. We dump polluted water down our drains, we litter the ground with paper, cans and bottles and never think twice about it."

In conjunction with the work day, area ministers will speak in their churches on Sundays, April 12 and 19 on obligations to nature.

The Saturday prior to the St. Paul litter pick-up day, Chelsea area Boy Scouts will hold their postponed street clean-up.

Scouts of Troops 425, 476 and 465 originally planned to clear the roadways coming into Chelsea of debris and paper on Saturday, April 11.

Highways to be cleaned of debris are M-52 north and south; Old US-12, east and west; and Dexter-Chelsea Rd. from the village limits into the village.

Motorists are warned to drive with caution near the areas where the Scouts will be working.

time for hobbies, which he lists as "fishing, fishing and fishing." Interspersed among his fishing the Rev. Dickens includes stamp, coin and rock collecting as special interests, although he adds again to the end of his list of hobbies fishing.

Boy Scouts TROOP 420

Boy Scout Troop 420 held a spring campout April 4 and 5 at Donald Doll's farm, southwest of Chelsea.

There were 22 Scouts and five adults present and they took advantage of the sunshine that weekend and took a six-mile hike. During the hike, they were able to watch the sap being taken from the trees and boiled down to make maple syrup. Larry Doll explained how this process was carried out to the Scouts.

Troop 420 is still planning to conduct its scrap paper drive on May 2. A trailer will be at the Stop & Shop store if residents have no place in which to store their papers. Residents are asked to contact Scouts at any of the following numbers if they have papers to dispose of: Doug Kansens, 475-7212; Timmy Hinz, 475-8211; Richard Worden, 479-6841; Rick Gaunt, 475-8078; Mark Seyfried, 475-2761; David Stoll, 475-8562; Carmer Slocum, 475-8186.

JAMES H. WALTER

RICHARD F. WINKLE

Two Young Men Die Saturday in Head-On Collision

Two Dexter area young men died and three passengers in the two vehicles were injured, as a result of what was termed by investigating officers as a 50-70-per cent head-on crash, shortly before 10 o'clock Saturday evening, April 4, on Stinchfield Woods Rd., approximately one-mile west of Dexter-Pinckney Rd.

James H. Walter, 24, of 2345 N. Zeeb Rd., Scio township, suffered fatal injuries when the 1966 2-dr. Ford he was driving apparently crossed the center line of the road, near a hillcrest, colliding with a 1965 Mercury sedan driven by Richard E. Winkle, 17, of 7465 Jackson Rd., Scio township.

The Winkle youth died at University Medical Center, Ann Arbor, early Sunday morning, April 5, as a result of injuries received in the accident.

Injured passengers in the Winkle vehicle who were also transported to a hospital by ambulance were John J. Wilkinson, 18, and Cloyd Williams, 57, both of 8461 Thurston Rd.

Marcia Lee Minneci, 25, of Stockbridge, a passenger in the Walter car, was also injured in the collision, and taken to University Medical Center where she was reported in good condition early Wednesday morning.

Young Wilkinson's condition was also reported as good, early Wednesday, and Mr. Williams was listed in fair condition.

Funeral services were held for Mr. Walter Wednesday, April 8, at 2 p.m., from the Hosmer Funeral Home with the Rev. Robert Grigoret officiating. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Dexter.

The young man was born March 8, 1946, the son of Harry and Virginia Finkbeiner Walter. He had lived in the Dexter-Chelsea area all his life. A graduate of Chelsea High school, he was attending Jackson Junior College, and was employed by Palmer Motor Sales in Chelsea.

He was a member of the Calvary United Methodist church, Ann Arbor.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a three-year-old daughter, Lisa Marie of Chelsea, and a brother, Ronald D., also

Minister Helping Former Parish Observe Anniversary

The Rev. Warner H. Siebert and his family have been invited back to his former pastorate, St. Mark United Church of Christ in Chicago Heights on the occasion of their 10th anniversary.

The Rev. Siebert, pastor of St. Paul United Church of Christ in Chelsea, was the organizing pastor of the congregation in Illinois beginning back in 1958, leaving in 1965 to assume his present pastorate in Chelsea.

After the Rev. Siebert delivers the morning sermon, entitled "The Blind Spot," he and his family will be honored guests at a catered banquet to be held in honor of the anniversary day.

Assisting the Rev. Siebert at the morning service will be the Rev. Louis Lammert, a former member, and now association pastor of the Central Association of the Illinois Conference of the United Church of Christ, and the church's present pastor, the Rev. Robert Klepper, Mr. Klepper's wife, Olga, is also an ordained minister.

During the Rev. Siebert's absence, the St. Paul pulpit will be assumed by another ordained woman minister, the Rev. Barbara Zikmund of Albion. The Rev. Zikmund, who holds degrees from Beloit College, Duke Divinity School and Duke Graduate School, is married to Joseph Zikmund, II, associate professor of political science at Albion College.

The Rev. Zikmund was born in Ann Arbor and raised in Detroit, where she grew up in the Mayflower Congregational church. She was ordained to the Christian ministry in 1964 by the Detroit Metropolitan Association of the United Church of Christ. Since that time, she has taught religion and history at colleges and universities near Philadelphia.

She and her husband reside in Albion with their five-month-old son.

GUEST MINISTER: The Rev. Barbara Zikmund from Albion will be the guest minister at St. Paul United Church of Christ on Sunday, April 12 during the absence of the Rev. Warner H. Siebert. The Rev. Siebert and his family have been invited to return to his former pastorate, St. Mark United Church of Christ in Illinois for the parish's 10th anniversary. The Rev. Siebert was the organizing pastor of the congregation.

Dexter Township . . .

County Sheriff Department, as was the case previously.

Dexter township residents were reminded that the township is participating in the Chelsea Sanitary Landfill program, although earlier publicity regarding a contract which had not yet been signed left some residents in doubt. Yes, say township officials, Dexter township residents may use this area, located on Werkner Rd., and most residents already have tickets for the dump. New residents, or those needing additional tickets, should contact either the township supervisor or the township clerk for further information.

The road maintenance program for the township was discussed at the annual meeting; it was decided to continue the chloride applications as in the past, and more gravel will be spread this season on township roadways.

Residents voted to adopt ordinances to permit enforcement of regulations in the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Parks within the township, notification regarding these to be published in the near future. Similar ordinances were adopted by Scio township recently.

Residents also acted on a motion to announce each meeting of the township board in advance of the meeting date.

The board met Tuesday evening, April 7, and the next regularly scheduled meeting will be the first Tuesday of June. Dexter township board traditionally meets on alternate months. Until the new township hall is completed, the board plans to meet at the home of the township supervisor.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Have you ever thought about the mental make-up of the anti this and anti that fault finders who seem to oppose everything and everybody? Do you wonder if they ever count their blessings? Whether they ever think of the privileges, advantages and benefits they enjoy as Americans?

Actually, all of us have many, many advantages and benefits we enjoy as Americans. More than any other people on earth, now or at any other time. We think every one should realize — and appreciate — that our advantages and benefits outmatch those of any other government at any time in any era.

We will list a few of these advantages and benefits for publication here shortly. It will be interesting. Watch for it. . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

 A Dream Halted

It probably all started when man tamed the first "Fido" and upset the balance of nature. You see, the two of them (man and canine) teamed up to improve the odds against the law of the fittest.

The order of things was further upset when a brighter than usual Cro-Magnon man must have discovered the idea of planting seeds of a sort in one limited area. The plan was to cover seeds with the soil and wait for plants to grow to provide edible food that could be gnawed at by pooch and man alike back at the cave.

The unheralded event must have marked the beginning of modern times. No longer would man spend full time roaming the valleys, planes and hillsides searching for that pacifier which would stall off his persistent, growling hunger pains. Now for the first time he had food in his own front yard.

Meanwhile, in the forest, less fortunate creatures were simply overjoyed. They probably figured that with this field of abundant food they could quit traveling and retire to enjoy the fruits of this man's labor.

Mr. Cro-Magnon must have found ways to somehow prohibit animals trespassing and eating up all of his hard work. But his protective methods certainly couldn't keep out the "little guys" like the bugs and insects—all of those nasty little crawling things that plunder and disease food and fiber. For the first time there was an abnormal concentration of food in one spot and the "little guys" took advantage. They multiplied their kind at an abnormal rate, to the point where the "garden party" really got out of control and the work of Mr. Cro-Magnon was in ruin.

Few crops sprouted for harvest and those that did were of immense poor quality, now infested with the pests of nature. Even old Fido suffered, having to put up with pests embedding under his skin, living off his flesh and while he scratched away, the pests took over. A dream was halted.

But our cave man kept planting. Discovering new methods, he progressed out of the cave into the cabin, and his best friend went with him too. In order for man to survive, better protection was needed for him as well as his food.

Yep, the balance of nature never was too good for man, and friend where the quality of living was concerned. In fact, thank goodness for the invention of pesticides which control those pests, or it's a good bet most of us probably wouldn't be here today.

Food prices were up about 5 percent in 1969 over the 1968 levels, but for 1970, the price increase is expected to be only about 3 percent over the entire year.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER
I am 15 and have a huge problem. You see, one night I was supposed to go to the movies. Instead, I went to the coffee shop, a place where teen-agers go to listen to music. Well, my girlfriend and I were sitting by the juke box when two boys came over. They were both really great! But guess what! The one I liked smoked hash, pot, etc. I told him I had a girlfriend. He said, 'I'm serious, I would like to help him understand what can happen if he doesn't stop. Please help me.'

Fickle Finger of Fun awards go to Leigh Beeman, Waterloo Rd., and Will Parks of Munnith not for naming the tune, but for naming the band members shown in a photograph of the Waterloo Band taken in 1909 and run in the April 2 issue of The Standard.

Last week, The Standard ran a photograph of the band on July 11, 1969. The photo named all but three of the members; those were called 'mystery men,' and offered a Fickle Finger of Fun award to the one who could not only name the band, but the reason for the photo which was brought to the office by William Tite of the Chrysler Proving Grounds.

The first call came from Will Parks of Munnith, who is the present Waterloo Band leader. Parks, who has held the position for 22 years, noted that the picture was a little before his time. He did, however, correctly name the three mystery men.

Leigh Beeman, who joined the band in 1913 as a piccolo player and later a trumpet player, named not only the mystery men, but also the reason for the photo. Beeman said the band had gotten new band uniforms just prior to a 1909 trip to the state band tournament in Lansing. The band, which took sixth or seventh place, according to Beeman, had its picture taken as it readied to go to Lansing.

The band members not named last week were Guy Westfall, who was standing between Johnny Lehman and a gentleman we identified as Ehlert Notten. Beeman noted that although Ehlert played for the Waterloo Band at the time, he played the cornet. The man in the photograph was Earle Notten, tuba player. Next to Notten was a man whose name was usually did not have a mustache, but grew one for a short time in 1909. The third mystery man was identified as Rubin Falmer, a dentist who has moved from the area, and was a brother of Faye Palmer, local dentist.

A letter was received from the Chelsea Planning Commission recommending a variance for Thomson Sign Co., in erecting a sign located at Sprague Buick-Olds & Opel.

A motion was made and approved authorizing the president and clerk to enter into an agreement with Dexter, Lima and Lyndon townships for use of the Village Sanitary Landfill.

A motion was made and approved authorizing the president and clerk to sign a supplement to the agreement of 1966 between the Chelsea School District and the Village of Chelsea relating to street improvements on Mayer Dr.

A motion was made and approved appointing Thomas Dmoch as representative to the Huron River Watershed Council and William Chandler as alternate.

A motion was made and approved to authorize and direct the clerk to issue checks in payment of bills as submitted.

A motion was made and approved to adjourn. Meeting adjourned.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

THIRD GRADE—
Teacher: Mrs. Edmonds.
For March and April Mrs. Edmonds' room made kites and bunnies. The kites were woven with all colors of paper. The bunnies are pink with white cotton tails.

In Social Studies we are studying about Tacoma. Scott Powders brought in tree trunks so we could see how old the tree was. Do you know how to tell the age of a tree? The rings on the wood tell the age.

In science, we are still bringing in plants. Some of the plants have begun to bloom. It won't be long before we start studying about mammals.

In arithmetic, we're regrouping in addition.
Our playground is muddy, we have no gravel, and the grass is practically all gone. Is there anything you can do to help us make our playground pretty again??

FOURTH GRADE—
Teacher: Mrs. Häfner.
Reporters: Karen Møisinger, Karen Bernier and Annette Schulz.
Our class made ceramics in art. They did dogs, turtles, mice and other things. After they dry we're going to fire them and then we're going to paint them, and then we are going to fire them again. Also in art we did Egyptian Mosaics.

Garry Packard brought in two guinea pigs for us to see.
We are studying plants in science. We are going to do some experiments with plants and mold.

We went to the gym to see a movie on the Ice Age. We saw avalanches happen and we also saw how they found things out about avalanches.

We have been studying about Rome in social studies and after that we're going to study Spain. The Romans were a sports loving people and we found them fascinating to study.

Teacher: Mrs. Heller.
Reporters: Teresa Arnett, Debbie Bollinger, Linda Brown, and Micky Marques.
Mrs. Heller's fourth grade, is planning to go to Ford Motor Co. on April 14. We also sent for some books about steel so we will know some questions to ask. We know we will enjoy this trip very much.

This month in math we have learned to subtract and add with Roman numbers.
In spelling we are having a review in the units 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23. In unit 19 the words are homonyms, unit 20 are compound endings, unit 21 are "y" endings, unit 22 are compound words and unit 23 are compound words.

Our class is making a study of habitats. Mr. Hodgson from the Waterloo Recreation Area talked to us about animals and how they live. He brought some animal skins for us to see. We felt a fox, squirrel, skunk, woodchuck, porcupine and many others. He helped answer our questions about the habitat dioramas that we are making. He sure helped us a lot and we thank him for coming.

Also in our class we are trying to make North School more attractive. The chairman is Craig Ferguson and Penny Collinsworth from our class. They meet in the library and think of ways to make our school prettier. We also would like donations. If you have anything to donate, we will be glad to take it.

Teacher: Mr. Schmuck.
Reporter: Lisa Scott.
Robert Walker went to Florida during Easter vacation. Gail Erke says they are raising quail and she says she could bring them to school.

Gerald Benjamin says his brother is bringing him some coins from the Mediterranean. Our trip to the Ford factory will be April 14 if Ford goes back to work.

FIFTH GRADE—
Teacher: Mrs. Paplowsky.
Reporters: Ellen Straub and Linda Meyer.
In art, we made kites out of tagboard and chalk. Also in art we made designs with the overlap crayon technique.

In social studies, we studied about the wheat, corn and dairy regions.
In reading, the class is putting on a play for some other classes at North school. Also, the Saturday reading group is putting on a play for our class.

Some of the people are volunteering for putting up bulletin boards. We have one bulletin board on poems by Karen Trinkle and Vicky Downer. We have another bulletin board on suggestions to change our school routine by Kim Brown and Tina Sindlinger.

In science we have been studying about weather and conservation. We had a notebook about clouds, weather instruments and drawings.
David Steinbach brought some goldfish, but they both died of over-eating. After we found out that they died, Mike Seyfried brought some guppies.

Rene Papo went to Colorado to go skiing; when he came back he had a broken leg.
Lisa Walworth left for Florida, March 19 and she won't be back until April 6.

Teacher: Mrs. Winkle.
Reporters: Michele Hall and Renee Poisson.
The children at North Elementary school are planning to beautify the school grounds. We would like to know if some of you parents would help. These are some of the ideas we have: blacktop over by incinerator; lilac bushes along creek; tennis court; 100-yard dash; painted rock in circle drive; flowers around the buildings; and shrubs on corners of buildings.

We might change our mind about some of these ideas because of the cost.

Golf Team Ready To Start New Season

As he announced the 1970 Chelsea High golf team roster, Coach Pat Wade stated, "I feel that we can have another successful year in golf. We have a nucleus of returning players. Dave Conklin, who was the most consistent medalist last spring is ready to go. Some of the new players look good and should make a fine contribution to the team. They way they perform will determine if they will make the starting five."

Returning lettermen include Dave Conklin, Mike Powers, Jim Poertner, Art Farley, and David Powers (JV letterman). New team members are Glen Musolf, Mark Policht, Don Conklin, Bart Wellnitz, and Randy Young.

Coach Wade also stated that the league looks stronger this year and feels that teams like Dundee, Saline, Milan, and Dexter should all be strong contenders. Chelsea is looking forward to the challenge and the members are eager for the season to begin.

First matches of the new season will be Monday, April 13 at Pinckney; Tuesday, April 14 at Dexter; and Thursday, April 16 against Saline and Dundee at Chelsea.

The complete season schedule is printed elsewhere in this issue of The Standard.

WEIGHT DIFFERENCE
Most persons differentiate between overweight and obesity. An individual whose weight is 10-20 percent above the "ideal" according to weight tables is considered overweight. Deviations of 20 percent or more are designated as obesity.

During baby's first year, he usually triples his birth weight. This growth is the result of an adequate intake of nutrients and calories.

There is no charge for the course. For registration or further information call 971-5300.

Forty-six percent of the 55 billion pounds of fresh fruits and vegetables marketed annually now are pre-packaged before delivery to retail stores.

Six Veterans Bring Baseball Title Hopes

Chelsea High school's baseball coach, Carl Genske, has announced his spring playing roster.

Members of the 1970 Bulldog team include pitchers Tom Harmon, Jack McClear, Ron Sweeney, and Wayne Walton; catchers Jeff Bust, Leonard Kozma, and Chris Marzec; outfielders Mike Griffin, Dave Heyaloff, Marlin Johnson, and Tim Lukasik; and infielders John Bennett, Randy Brier, Doug Schoenberg, Todd Sprague, and Howie Treado.

Of the 17 members of the team, six are returning lettermen. Because of the large number of sophomores and junior players, Coach Genske has expressed confidence that the Bulldogs will make a strong showing during the next several seasons.

2 Detroit-Grand Rapids
Trains To Be Dropped
Lansing—The State Public Service Commission has authorized Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad to discontinue two night passenger trains between Detroit, Lansing and Grand Rapids.

The Commission ruled that continued operation of the two trains
"would constitute an undue financial hardship" on C & O.
Chesapeake and Ohio told the Commission that it has been losing in excess of $400 a day on the two trains since the U. S. Post Office discontinued using the trains to transport mail last Dec. 31.

At no time during the last three years, the Commission noted, did the average number of passengers on the two trains equal the four-man crew that was required to operate the trains.

Stockbridge Jaycee Chapter Gains Charter

Stockbridge Jaycees officially became a member of the Michigan Jaycees Saturday, April 4 when they were presented with their National and JCI Charter.

The Charter Banquet was held at the Anchor Inn, Portage Lake, and was attended by 92 state and local Jaycees. Host chapter for the event was the Chelsea Jaycees who helped organize the new chapter last month.

The evening started off with a buffet dinner. After the introduction of the head table and other guests, master of ceremonies
by Walt Brown, Chelsea Jaycee president, the National Charter was presented to Stockbridge charter president George Lee by National Director Dick McClousky.
The JCI charter was presented next by District 26 Vice-President,
Don Proctor, also of Chelsea.

Induction of the officers and local charter members was handled by internal executive Vice-President Donn Wrench and external executive Vice-President
Larry Wine. Keynote speaker Pat
Nowak, Michigan Jaycee president, challenged the new chapter to do all that was possible in the community of Stockbridge and not let things go undone that need the Jaycees attention.

The evening finished with Brown speaking on the importance of the wife in the Jaycee movement. The Stockbridge Jaycees Jaycees have 32 members and are still growing. Charter officers are president, George Lee; Internal vice-president, Bill Smith; external vice-president, Roger Myers;
treasurer, Tom Taylor; secretary,
Winfred Williams; directors, Tom
Reynolds, Hardy Williams, Dave Sweet and Pat Heaney.

a new District vice-president.

Arbor's president placed Doug Hartman's name in nomination and Chelsea's president Walt
Brown gave the seconding speech.
The election was won by Dick

Portage, Base Lakes Association Discusses Plans To Control Use

Thursday, April 2, trustees of the Portage and Base Lakes Association hosted a luncheon meeting at the Dexter American Legion Home. Township Supervisors Warren Eisenbeiser and Carl Mast, County Drain Commissioner John Flock, County Manager Deputy Lt. Don Severance, Water Commission member George Tack, and DNR representatives Norm Roeske and Don Boyer were present to answer questions.

The Association is to be re-activated with goals to limit the excessive use of the lakes by those not residing on the lakes, secure aggressive enforcement of township and county zoning and health ordinances, and exploring the feasibility of a sanitary sewer system for the Portage and Base Lakes basin as immediate undertakings.

The Cub Scouts invited us to listen to Mr. Boyer, a conservation officer, tell about different kinds of animals and the conservation laws.

We spent the last few minutes sewing on our "sit-upons."

We closed with "taps and the squeeze."

TIPS for your TOP from TODDY and FRAN

Last week we granted ourselves a lowly pun and suggested you women would get ahead more effectively if you kept your mind on treating your head of hair as the first important part of your grooming problems. We'll carry it a step further and point out that not only is a weekly trip to your hairdresser the most effective way to keep that head saying good things about the woman whose shoulders it sets on—but she'll do well to have a spare head of hair on her shelves for those days after she's been caught in a spring downpour or some other minor catastrophe: a wig is no more a luxury to the working gal than her weekly trip to the beauty salon. We have some beauties that are so inexpensive, some women take two (or more)!

Adoption Agency Prepares For Annual 'Spaulding Day'

Five Chelsea women spent the better part of the past week-end in doing their part for parentless children.

This civic-minded group, with warm hearts and a special interest in children, prepared 1,400 sets of information materials telling area residents of the work of one of this community's special projects—Spaulding for Children. A special salute goes to these five involved women: Mrs. Fremont Boyer, Mrs. Mercedes Delatore, Mrs. Walter Gochanour, Mrs. Roy Guenther, and Mrs. Norman Wolf.

Spaulding for Children is a Chelsea-based adoption agency which specializes in cases of older, handicapped, and minority children. It operates throughout Michigan from its central office, the Spaulding farmhouse at 3660 Waltrous Rd., about four miles south of Chelsea.

As the Agency's role as a specialist agency serving only hard-to-place children grows, 23 Michigan counties are being served by the group. Artificial barriers of county lines or regional districts are no deterrents to an adoptive placement for a waiting child. A family in Kent county may well adopt a son of daughter from Kalamazoo county.

The third annual Spaulding Day, set for April 26, closely follows the March 1 birthday of the agency's founder, Warren Spaulding, whose life-long interest in children resulted in the gift of his home and property to the organization.

It is the growing demand for service that calls for more and more resources, Robert Daniels and again for support." Memberships begin at $5 annually and range upwards to life memberships of $1,000. The Child-a-Month Club offers donors of $10 per month a monthly illustrated bulletin to "introduce" them to the child they jointly helped find a permanent family.
