the children are Kipp Bertke, Darrow Keezer, Kraig Leach, Dickey Merkel, and Timmy Greenleaf. Mr. Mrs. Greenleaf, and Mrs. Bertke are in the background.

A TRULY UNUSUAL FLOAT was the winning entry in Group III, ages 9-10. Linda Shaw took first place with her entry which she calls, prosaically, "a picnic table."

CRUISING ALONG in her Kleenex boat is Alice Juergens, winner in the Group IV competition, ages 11-12. Alice, dressed as a sailor, fashioned a boat out of Kleenex and chicken wire, and attached it to her bike. A bright, and a winning idea!

CEA Sets Sept. 4 Strike Deadline Date

Board Must Accept Fact Finding, Arbitration, or Sign To Avert Strike

An informal meeting of the CEA was held Monday night, Aug. 24, to hear the recommendation of the CEA Executive Council. Approximately 60 Chelsea teachers attended the meeting. The following recommendations were heard and approved by the CEA.

Chelsea teachers will go back to school, on time, without a contract, in the event that the school board is willing to agree to accept the results of binding arbitration for settling the outstanding issues on the teachers' contract or in the event the school board is willing to agree to accept and abide by the results of fact-finding for settling outstanding issues.

If the school board does not agree to either of the above conditions, by Sept. 4, and no agreement has been reached on the contract, Chelsea teachers will withhold their services until a completed contract is reached.

If services are withheld, the CEA Executive Council recommends that coaches continue to carry out their extra-curricular duties, since these activities cannot be made up by the students. This is subject to the approval of the school board. It is the understanding of the CEA that the state High School Coaches Association has recommended to the state's school administrators that only coaches be allowed to carry on the duties of coaching.

This last decision is important to those Chelsea students who are active in the school's athletic programs. There is a regulation that requires a minimum number of hours of practice that a football team—or any other athletic team—must have to be able to play a game. In the event that Chelsea teachers miss one day of school, and the coaches are not allowed to coach, Chelsea's football team will not be able to play their first game, as they will not have enough hours of practice.

A brief description of the CEA's "outstanding issues" was printed in the Aug. 13 issue of The Standard under Teacher Topics. Briefly, those issues are:

1) Article V: teaching hours and class size. It is asked that the elementary school teachers be allowed time during the school day to confer with parents, other teachers and principals, plan lessons, work on classroom records, arrange for audio-visual equipment, prepare teaching materials, and many other tasks. To do so, they request that an art teacher, music teacher, and teacher of physical education be added to the elementary program to provide extra time for the teachers.

Also, it is requested that teacher preparation periods in the junior and senior high schools be equal for all teachers, and that class size in study halls, band and physical education should be limited to manageable numbers.

2) Article VI: department chairmen. It is requested that department chairmen be created for the following departments: vocational arts, physical education, and the 6th grade social studies bloc. Also in the elementary grades, department heads would be helpful. The teachers are not asking for money to support a department head, until they have proved to be effective.

3) Article IX: Requests that "professional days" be made available for all teachers. A professional day is a day away from the classroom which a teacher may use for professional betterment. The day may be spent at a teacher conference, workshop, or training program.

4) Article XII: involves probationary procedure. It asks that teachers in an extra-curricular position be justly and uniformly evaluated before being dismissed from their position. It is asked that the same procedures be followed for teachers in an extra-curricular position as those that are used for other probationary teachers.

5) Article XVI: Professional compensation: salary requirements for teachers, fringe benefits, and compensation for extra-curricular personnel.

That is an outline of what the CEA asks for the coming year, according to Mary Kay Weber, member of the CEA negotiating team. They are willing to submit to fact-finding, and abide by the decision reached, if the school board is willing to do so also. They are also willing to abide by any decision reached through binding arbitration.

FAIR QUEEN CANDIDATES, wearing the gowns they will wear Saturday night, Aug. 29, when they compete for the title of 1970 Chelsea Fair Queen, posed for this group picture and a pre-judging briefing session. Left to right, they are: Laurie Lancaster, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club; Bonnie Powers, sponsored by Rogers Corners Herdsmen 4-H club; Alicia Pierson, Sophomore

Hopes Still Exist For Negotiation on Teacher Contract

Chelsea School Board negotiators received a "feeler" from the CEA negotiators to discuss the as yet unsigned teachers contract, Tuesday night, Aug. 25, Howard Haselschwardt announced Wednesday, Aug. 26.

A new date has been set for the fact-finding session to be held Aug. 28. This date is late, for the fact-finder can legally take up to 30 days to file his report.

Shortage of School Books Still Exists

Chelsea school children may have to share some books this September for the first few weeks of school, Fred Mills, Chelsea schools business manager, reports. The school is having difficulty finding enough textbooks to start the 1970-71 school year, under the guidelines recently established by the Michigan state attorney general's office.

A book sale held last week, Aug. 18-20, at which Chelsea citizens

School Board Awaits Fact Finder Hearing

Chelsea Board of Education spokesmen released the following statement yesterday concerning the status of the scheduled hearing with a fact finding officer.

"The fact finding hearing as requested by the Chelsea Education Association has been scheduled for Friday, Aug. 28. George T. Roumell, Jr., has been appointed as fact finding officer."

"The function of a fact finding officer is to gather facts and figures and make recommendations, not to bind either party."

"By law the operation of the Chelsea School District lies with its elected board of education. This board of education may not adopt a deficit budget. It must retain the final responsibility for determining all operating costs. To bind themselves to a third party's findings could result in the operation of this school in such a manner as to produce a deficit budget. This board is confident that the citizens of the Chelsea School District did not elect them to turn over the fiscal operation of the school district to a third party."

Children's Day Parade Brings Out Hundreds

Fun and games shall reign in Chelsea for the next five days! That is what Chelsea Fair Queen Jane Mann meant as she cut the ribbon, Tuesday evening, Aug. 25, which officially ushered in the Chelsea Fair.

The attractive, dark haired queen led the annual Children's Day Parade down Main St., Tuesday evening, followed by this year's queen candidates.

The Junior High school band played as hoards of children, be-ribboned, and somewhat begrimed, poured into the fairgrounds to celebrate the first night of the Chelsea Fair. Any child who marches in the Children's Day Parade receives free entry to the fair, and a free ride on an amusement.

Dr. Gene Miller, Children's Day director, and organizer of the parade, was master of ceremonies at the grandstand show after the parade. He introduced the queen candidates, who in turn announced the winning entries in the Children's Day Parade.

Winning entry in Group I, age group 3-5 years old, was a float by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Greenleaf, and Mrs. Robert Bertke centering around the theme: "God Loves All Children," the float featured local children dressed to represent children of differing races and nations. Participating on the float were Timmy Greenleaf, Kipp Bertke, Dickey Merkel, Darrow Keezer, Jana Knickerbocker, and Kraig Leach.

Winning entry in the age group 11, 6-3 years old, was the Richard Scripter family, 524 Arthur St. Based on the theme "The Flintstones and the Rubbles," their float which was a "stone-age" car, featured the four Scripter children: Becky, 5, Dale and Dawn, 6, and Carmen, 8.

Linda Shaw, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw, was the winner in the Group III category, ages 9-10. She was dressed as a picnic table! Her costume was fashioned from a large box and paper plates.

Alice Juergens, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Juergens, 125 S. Fletcher Rd., had the winning entry in Group IV, 11-12 years old, category. Alice was dressed, very cleverly, as a sailor, and her bicycle was decorated to look like a boat.

All parade entries were judged by Chelsea Kiwanians.

Tractor Pulls, Queen Pageant Head Activities

Eight Candidates Seek To Wear Crown as 'Queen of the 1970 Fair'

A fun but hectic week is in store for Chelsea fairgoers. Starting with the excitement of Children's Day, the five-day fair will encompass many thrilling events.

Big events on the calendar for Thursday are the Garden Tractor Pull which will take place tonight at 7:30 p.m. following the Chelsea High school band concert at the fairgrounds.

Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Tractor Pulling contest will take place. This will be for the lightweight classes. Local farmers will try to pull a sled loaded with weights a distance of 10 feet.

The heavyweight Tractor Pull is scheduled for Friday night at 7:15 p.m. Also Friday night the queen candidates will be introduced to the public.

The big excitement comes on Saturday, the climactic day of the fair. At 1 p.m. a mammoth street parade featuring the high school band, and many beautiful floats will work its way through the downtown area. Guests bands will include the Centerline school band.

There will be a horse show at 9 a.m., and another one at 2 p.m. Climax to fair activities will come Saturday night when the queen candidates will give a talent show and participate in the annual Chelsea Fair Queen pageant. Who will be the fairest of them all? Does anyone know?

FAIR OPENING: 1969 Chelsea Fair Queen, Jane Mann, and Chelsea Mayor, A. E. (Mac) Fuks cut the ribbon which officially opened the 1970 Chelsea Community Fair. After the ribbon was cut, the band marched in, followed by the local children, lured into the fair by the rides and amusements in the background.

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

Congress has voted to create a Youth Conservation Corps. The idea is to provide useful work for youth while bettering the nation's environment. I strongly support the Corps and was an original sponsor of the bill which was eventually approved by the House.

The Corps would work this way: Boys and girls, ages 15 through 18, will be selected by the Secretaries of the Interior and Agriculture to work on conservation projects on federal lands and waters, such as national parks and forests. The work will be only in the summer and for not more than 90 days. The youth will be paid an amount the two Secretaries will determine. Young people from all segments of the society are eligible for the Corps, including disadvantaged youths.

Since this is a three-year pilot project, it is anticipated that only some 3,000 youths would be hired by the Corps in any one year. Hopefully, however, as the national economy improves and the Corps proves its worth, we will be able to significantly expand the program.

The concept of the Youth Corps is based upon the Civilian Conservation Corps of the 1930's. Then, with the nation in a serious depression, the primary need was to provide gainful employment for men out of work. While the economy of the 1970's is fundamentally strong, there are still many youth who need or want useful work or both.

At the same time, we have come to recognize the pressing national need to fight the environmental battle in every way on every front. Youth is in the forefront of this fight, and rightfully so.

This is one time we are able to combine both the idealism and practical needs of youth with the needs of the nation—and in a harmonious manner.

Washtenaw County Has Many Veterans

There are 29,760 veterans in Washtenaw County, and 1,159,000 in the state of Michigan, according to Robert M. Fitzgerald, director of the Veterans Administration regional office in Detroit.

The tabulation is based on America's 27.3 million former service men as of the beginning of 1970. According to the latest available figures, some 15,430 Washtenaw county and 1,668,000 Michigan veterans were in service during the Vietnam era, after Aug. 4, 1964. Of these, 290 county and 9,000 Michigan veterans also served during the Korean conflict.

Of 7,950 Korean conflict veterans in the county, 1,100 served in World War II. World War II veterans make up the largest group of veterans, with 12,890 from Washtenaw county.

Some 4,650 county veterans saw military service only between the Korean conflict and the Vietnam War, Feb. 1, 1955 to Aug. 4, 1964.

Of 61,000 World War I veterans in Michigan, 1,180 are from Washtenaw county.

An estimated 160 of America's 5,000 Spanish-American War veterans live in Michigan, and there are still two living veterans of the Indian Wars.

Fitzgerald said veterans with questions about benefits are urged to contact the Regional Office, Veterans Administration, 801 W. Baltimore at Third, Detroit 48223.

Marijuana Use Found Greatest in Affluent Society

East Lansing—High school students who are socially deviant in one way tend to be socially deviant in other ways, reports a team of Michigan State University social scientists.

"For example," says Dr. Arthur M. Vener, "if students use drugs, they are more inclined to be more heavily involved in sexual activity, drinking and smoking."

Dr. Vener and Dr. Cyrus Stewart conducted an 18-month study of students in three Michigan communities. One of the schools was in an upper middleclass community, one in the middle class and the third was in a stable working class community.

Among their findings, the researchers noted that 22 percent of the high school students in the most affluent community used marijuana at least once, the highest percentage for any of the communities. However, the degree of sexual activity was higher in the working-class community than in the middle communities.

Capsule Coming

It has been more than a year now since Americans watched their television sets transfixed as Neil Armstrong took mankind's first step on the moon.

Michigan residents will have a unique opportunity at the end of August to take a personal look at the capsule in which Armstrong, Michael Collins and Edwin E. Aldrin, Jr., made their ride to and from the moon.

The six-ton Apollo 11 command module "Columbia" and a moon rock sample will be on display at the State Capitol in Lansing Aug. 28 through Aug. 31.

Each of the four days it will be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The module is on a tour of the 50 states, and Michigan is the 20th state it will visit.

It will come here from Indianapolis and will go to Columbus, Ohio, from here.

Officials at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), who are sponsoring the tour, say 40,000 to 50,000 persons can be expected to view the exhibit in Lansing.

The spacecraft exhibit is being transported in a 40-foot long trailer van which has side panels that fold out when the display is set up. Visitors pass over two walk-through ramps on either side of the Apollo 11 spacecraft to view the interior through hatch windows.

School's Back

It's back to school time in Michigan again and if the best estimates of the state education department are correct, about 2,190,000 children will be swarming through the doors of Michigan's public school system.

The projected total enrollment is an increase of only 20,000 over last year's enrollment—an indication the massive increases in the numbers of children which have hit schools in recent years may be on the wane at least for a while.

The current estimate is a sharp drop from the original department estimate put forth back in January when it was estimated 2,220,000 students would be attending public schools this year.

The state Board of Education revised this downward to 2,210,000 in the spring and the Legislature dropped it to 2,182,000 when it drew up the school aid bill.

There are a variety of reasons for the variations in estimates. Among them are in-migration and out-migration to and from the state, dropouts and the enrollment of non-public schools.

Department experts say that in times when the economy softens dropout increases as more persons feel compelled to quit school to take a job.

At the same time, more families may move into the state because of a belief that jobs may be found in Michigan.

A weak economy which throws more variables into the picture just makes it harder to figure.

Boats Travel

If a sampling taken recently on the Mackinac Bridge holds true for the rest of the time, more boats go over the Mackinac Bridge than under it.

The Bridge Authority conducted a survey of vehicles crossing the bridge during a 48-hour period and found that 1,205 of the 16,005 northbound vehicles were either pulling or carrying boats.

It said about the same ratio existed for southbound traffic—meaning more than 2,400 boats went over the Mackinac Bridge.

During the same period only some 240 boats actually went under the bridge on water, the commission said.

Four Injured In Crash on S. Main St.

A traffic accident at the corner of S. Main St. and Old US-12, Tuesday morning, Aug. 24, resulted in minor injuries and extensive car damage.

Miss Susan Cecile Cobb, 615 N. Main, and her mother, Nellie Marie Cobb, were heading south on Main St. at approximately 7:45 a.m., when their car was struck in the side by a car driven by Neil Clemmer Buskirk of Vestaburg. Buskirk was heading west on Old US-12, when he failed to see a stop sign. Entering the intersection, he struck the Cobb car, which was driven by Miss Cobb, turning the Cobb car on its side, inflicting minor injuries to Mrs. Cobb and Susan.

Mrs. Ethel Buskirk, a passenger in the car, suffered major lacerations in the head, and was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Buskirk suffered cuts in his knees. Buskirk pled guilty to failure to stop for a stop sign, and was ticketed.

There was extensive damage to both cars.

Turner Heading for Home In Mountain Snow Showers

Don Turner dates his ninth letter from Banff, Alberta, Aug. 17. He writes:

Dear Readers:

By the time this note is published, I will be eating up the miles toward home.

After leaving Petersburg, Alaska, I had some problem getting aboard the ferry for Prince Rupert B. C., as I didn't have a reservation. I got bumped off at Ketchikan for two days. Those who booked their passage for a certain date, are put aboard first, and those that don't have reservations are put on stand-by and given a number. When there is room for the stand-by passengers, they are loaded. This is worth remembering for those who are planning to make a trip through southeast Alaska. If you are pressed for time, be sure to reserve your space in advance on the ferry, or you may be a few days late getting back to your job—especially during the peak of the tourist season.

After leaving Prince Rupert, B. C., the end of the Alaska state ferry system, I drove east on Canada's highway No. 16, stopping at Francois Lake for some rainbow trout fishing.

I then went on to Jasper National Park in the province of Alberta, where I have spent some time photographing scenery and wildlife. Canada's national parks here in the Rockies are no doubt one of the most beautiful parts of the North American continent. Everywhere one looks there are sharp mountain peaks, rivers, and lakes.

As I left Jasper for Banff, fresh snow was visible on the higher peaks, and at the summit of the Banff Jasper highway near the Columbian Ice Fields, I ran into snow showers. This morning there was frost on the grass at the golf course below the Banff Springs Hotel, so autumn is just around the corner which makes me wonder where was summer!

I have seen only one real warm day since leaving Michigan. That was one week ago, but I hope to see more warm days after I leave these higher elevations.

Banff is nearly 5,000 feet elevation, and when the sun goes down, one feels the cold coming off the mountains.

There are thousands of tourists here in the national parks. The camp grounds are packed to the limit with campers, trailers, and tents. The Trans-Canada highway has more traffic on it than I-94 in Michigan, and it's not a four-lane highway, so they go nearly bumper to bumper.

Homes Needed for Helping Hands Sign Project

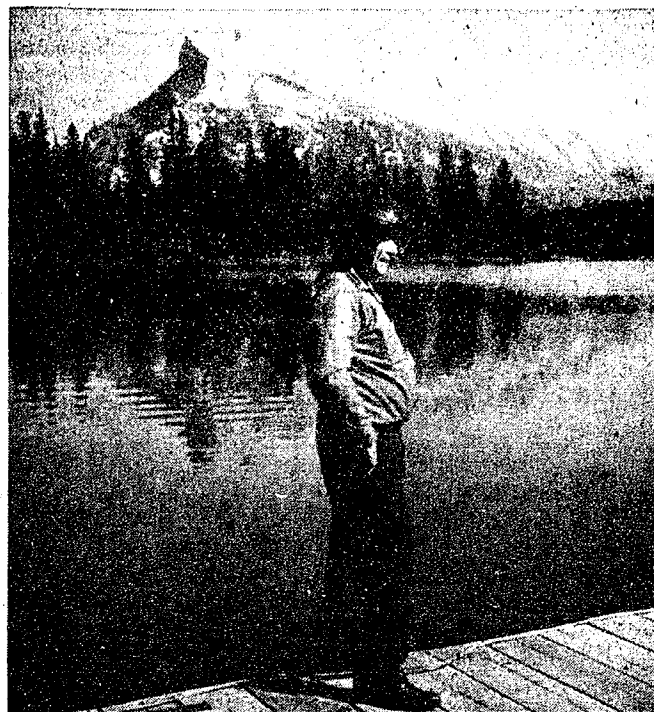

The Jaycee Auxiliary is still in need of homes for Helping Hand signs. This is a very useful function in the community. The signs earmark those houses in the community to which a child may go for help in the event that he is lost, injured, or in any way needing help. Many streets are still without signs.

If you live on one of the following streets which lack signs, please call Darlene Eder, 475-2663, or Sue Zink, 479-5361. The streets are E. Middle, Jackson, Elm, E. North, Hayes, Old US-12, Chelsea-Manchester, Meadow Lane, Wood, Book, Wendley, Railroad, Cleveland, and Werkner.

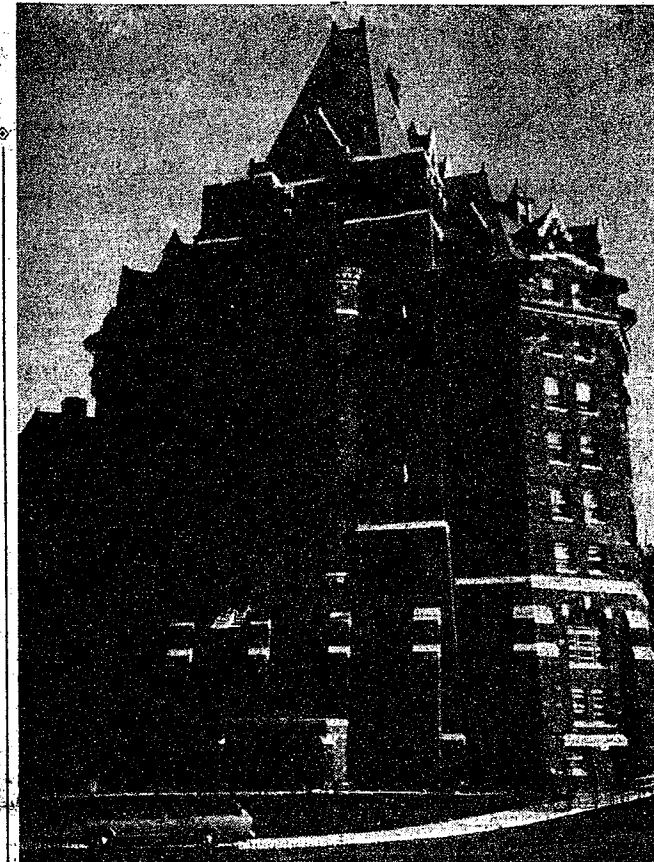

Jaycees also would like signs in homes in the country. Anyone interested is urged to phone.

For those who have already called for a sign, and those who may be interested, the Auxiliary will be delivering the Helping Hand signs the afternoon of Tuesday, Sept. 1 and would prefer that there be some one home to accept the sign.

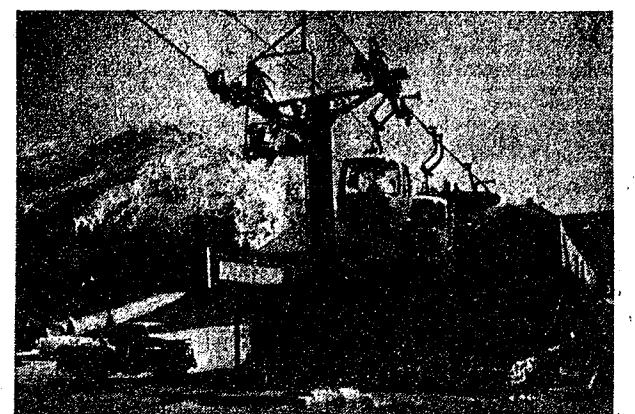

Mrs. Harold Craven, 345 Elm, is in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, Room 643. She entered Aug. 16, for major surgery, and will remain in the hospital for some time.

A QUIET LAKE reflects Mt. Rundel, one of the most photographed mountains in the area. The man in the picture—who else but Chelsea's Don Turner!

BANFF SPRINGS HOTEL, a luxurious old landmark, can be seen many miles away! It was built in the late 1920's by the Canadian Pacific Railroad before automobile roads were built to the area. It is a very plush hotel with an 18 hole golf course and a heated swimming pool. Obviously, not everyone who traveled to the more remote areas in Canada 50 years ago was looking for a place to camp and "get away from it all."

SUMMER TOURIST ATTRACTION: In winter, a ski lift, in summer, a tourist attraction. The Mt. Norquay chair and sedan lift takes thousands of tourists to 7,000 feet above sea level every year. The scenic ride is heavily used all year long, except in the winter, the way of coming down varies somewhat!

MORaine LAKE, nestled in the valley of the Ten Peaks, is about 40 miles west of Banff. Only five of the ten peaks are visible in this photo. The snow on the mountains appears to be very close to eye level—that means one is high up in the mountains!

Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Beach.

Old Barn
Destroyed
By Flames

Fire destroyed the interior of an old barn belonging to Elwyn Beach, 151 E. Summit, Monday, Aug. 24, destroying a 1968 Chevrolet and several lawnmowers, and appliances that were inside at the time.

The call went in at 3:30 p.m. and by 5:30 the fire was extinguished. The Chelsea Fire Department sent 14 men and four trucks to put out the blaze.

It was at first believed that the fire was caused by arson, as children were seen playing very near to the barn shortly before the fire broke out. Washtenaw County Sheriff Department Detective Kerr, who investigated the fire, however, reported that the fire was caused by natural forces. Evidently the fire broke out at the back wall, inside the partition, where there was an accumulation of fine dust, and sawdust.

Band Camp
Completed with No Problems

"Chelsea High School Band camp was a huge success!" That was the word from Warren Mayer, co-director of the band. The band worked mostly on fundamentals of marching, and worked up a half-time show for the football season this fall, and managed to have a good time too!

Mayer cited a few minor illnesses, and a sprained ankle or two that were incurred during the week-long stay, but added that camp nurse, Mrs. Jack Merkel, did a fine job.

The most common complaint was the wear and tear on shoe leather. Mayer was generous in his praise for all those who went along as chaperones on this year's trip.

Suit Filed
Against Game
Hunting Club

Five Dexter township couples have filed suit against owners of Louie's Big Game Shooting Preserve bordering their lands, asking an injunction prohibiting them from using the preserve either for hunting or for gambling.

The suit, filed Wednesday, Aug. 19, in Washtenaw Circuit Court, claims the preserve, owned by John J. Quigley and Louis (Big Louie) Ruggirello, is a nuisance and the center of a Mafia-run numbers racket, bringing in $200,000 daily.

Located at 12780 North Territorial Rd., east of the Hankerd Rd. intersection, the preserve was the scene last May 11 of Ruggirello's arrest by the FBI on charges of violation and conspiracy to violate provisions of the Interstate Transportation in Aid of Racketeering statute.

In the suit filed last week, the five couples claim that in addition to hunting, the "property is reportedly also being used by Louie Ruggirello and others reputed to be members of the Mafia as a home base for the numbers racket which is reportedly bringing in $200,000 in the Southeastern Michigan area." This, the suit continues, is resulting in the influx of a "highly undesirable and dangerous criminal element" into the area. In partial support for this claim, the suit included a copy of the FBI complaint against Ruggirello.

The suit further states that hunters at the preserve are using large bore rifles capable of projecting bullets more than a mile, causing danger of stray bullets. Many of the hunters, they claim, are unskilled and "are under the influence of alcohol" during the hunts. The couples add that increased traffic caused by the preserve is creating an additional hazard in the area.

Couples filing suit are Ernest and Grace Nickel, 7541 Dexter Township Rd., John and Nancy Tandy, 7055 Hankerd Rd., Alvin and Lorinda Jede, 13175 W. North Territorial, Junior and Charlotte Straub, 12721 W. North Territorial, and Gerald and Cecil Straub, 12721 W. North Territorial.

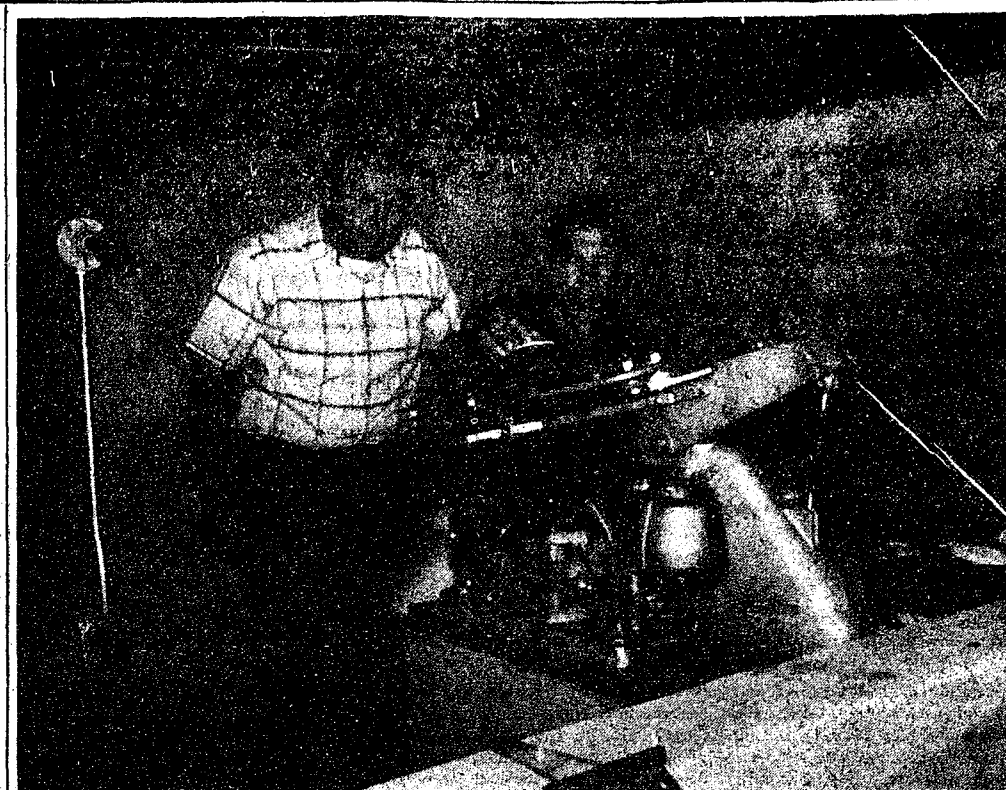

Earlier this year, Quigley and Ruggirello sued the township because it refused to rezone land to allow the preserve to operate. The owners claimed the township did not give them a fair hearing and that officials ignored information supporting a rezoning request. The case is set for trial in November.

NEW ELECTRIC TRAP: Ron Satterthwaite, president of the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club, and Jerry Herrick, chairman of the trap project, inspect the new electric trap, that electronically releases clay pigeons.

TAKING THEIR MARKS on three of the five new shooting stations at the new Rod & Gun Club Trap Range are Al Keezer, past president, Ron Satterthwaite, president, and Fred Klink, another past president of the club. The new range will be open to the public Sunday, Aug. 30.

New Trap Shooting Range
Built By Rod & Gun Club

One of the most modern trap shooting ranges in the state of Michigan has just been completed by the Chelsea Rod & Gun Club. The new range, located next to the club house, features a new electric trap, that semi-automatically releases clay pigeons. The old trap had a sling device that had to be worked manually.

Shortage of Books Still Exists . .

School Administrators met for the first time since the new ruling Monday, Aug. 24, and Mills said at that time that it will be a week before they know for sure what the financial implications are going to be. They will make some kind of recommendation to the board of education on Tuesday night, Sept. 1, concerning the policy that will be followed by Chelsea's schools.

The new ruling will not necessarily mean that the quality of education in Chelsea will suffer, Mills stated. He added, however, that it will be different—just how different he does not yet know.

Under the old system, according to Mills, a child never went without a book simply because he could not pay. Arrangements were always made with the family to provide a child's books in certain hardship cases. Many times the child was given a special "job" to help him "earn" his books, but he never was made to suffer the stigma of not having a book because he couldn't pay for it. The new ruling will create some problems. There will be changes, but it is too soon to tell what they will be.

I. Picklesimer Breaks
Arm in Fall from Broken Stepladder

Ishmael Picklesimer, 460 North St., broke his arm Friday, Aug. 14, when he fell from a stepladder while putting shingles on his house. The ladder broke, which caused his fall.

He was admitted to the Chelsea Medical Clinic for four days while the bone, which was broken just above the wrist, was set. The doctor estimates that it will be Oct. 1 before Picklesimer can go back to work. He is an employee of North American Rockwell Corp., and is chairman of the Bargaining Unit.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Have you ever noticed those who think twice before making a promise can usually be counted on to keep the promise? Careless promises should never be given — or counted on. A promise is a pledge; an obligation to be kept. A promise that can cause discomfort, harm or injustice to yourself — or to others — should never be made, no matter how much prodding or persuasion is involved. Common sense should tell us the more we are promised, the less we should expect.

It is usually very easy to make a promise . . . Expediency or change of mind is seldom a justified excuse for breaking a promise . . . A promise involves honor, duty and ethics . . . The best promise you can make is a promise to yourself . . . Promise yourself you will never make a promise to any one, unless you are fully prepared and able to keep your promise . . . In addition to spiritual benefit, it is a good way to gain honor, stature, praise and prestige among men . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

Chinook Salmon. The fish was caught at Manistee Lake at approximately 3 p.m. Sunday. Warren and Schiller had spent the week-end fishing for Coho salmon. They were trolling, and had been unsuccessful when they switched to a spawn sac. The Chinook was caught with the spawn sac, hooked in the gills. When asked what he will do with his mammoth catch, Warren replied that he is having it mounted, so that all can see it when they come to his barber shop at 105 W. Middle St. Doug and Glenn are cousins.

★ Color It Gray

Before color television, programs were in black and white. But the fact is, with black and white television there are no really true colors of black or of white, rather there are many combinations of grays. Some are lighter, others are darker which contribute to an illusion of just the two colors.

The illusion is like many people who fail to look beneath the surface. They only see in black and white, a right and a wrong, two valued thoughts of one good side and one bad side. The gray area is missed altogether. They fail to see that rarely is any one thing all good or all bad, but usually a mixture of both.

As an example, it is not completely true that "a rose is a rose is a rose." Now take the "white" subject of milk. Milk can be cream colored or chocolate. Maybe you drink dairy cows' milk, but is your table ever adorned with the milks of buffalo, camel, goat, horse, reindeer or sheep? It depends on where you live. Is it buttermilk, chocolate, concentrated, condensed, dried, fermented, filled, malted, modified, protective or reconstituted? Like roses it is not completely true that milk is milk is milk.

Nature's most perfect food is a beverage of diversification. And so are the problems of society. We need to see through the illusions drawn around the issues of society such as taxation, education, natural resources, conservation. The objective is to create better people and communities through the questioning, interest and support of citizens.

But the maltreatment given to issues through words can be atrocious. It is easier to generalize than to be specific, to emotionalize than to maintain calm and a questioning mind. It is hard work striving to be understood and to understand.

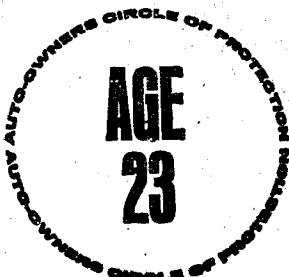

Then too, complexities of subjects contribute to communication breakdown. And there are those who don't wish to clearly communicate for social, economic or political reasons. Generalizations are dangerous. To assume that talker and listener are hearing the same message in truth may be as wrong as black and white are opposites.

It takes concerned citizens to assume the personal responsibility to do more than scratch the surface in working to solve the issues for better communication and a better society.

'Free School' Policy Guides Released By State Board

Books, pencils, crayons and other required supplies must be provided free of charge to students by state schools, the State Board of Education announced last week.

The basis of policy guidelines for schools is that all materials used as part of the school curriculum in required or elective classes must be provided to the students.

A policy statement grew out of a study, which the Michigan State Board of Education, in a case brought by Ann Arbor parents, the Court ruled that general stationery, books, pencils, and other school supplies, being essential to the program of instruction, must be provided without charge.

The State Board of Education has published its guidelines to help define responsibilities of the states' more than 400 districts. It has been made clear that only necessary or fundamental needs for a basic education must be provided free.

A careful distinction is made between extracurricular activities and activities that carry academic credit. For example, members of a football team participating in only interscholastic games would be required to furnish their own shoes, while band members, if credit is given toward graduation, would not be charged for instruments.

Close to Half Million Michigan Boats Registered

Lansing—There are about 400,000 registered motorboats in Michigan, but the prediction of the first 500,000 registration cycle appears to be close to reality.

Secretary of State James M. Hare disclosed that as of June 30, his Department had registered more than 380,000 motorboats and that the 400,000 mark will be realized before the end of July.

The current three-year registration is in its second year, Hare said. Motorboats may be registered at any branch office of the Secretary of State. Registration fee, good through 1971, is $5.00. Top previous totals were 437,000 at the close of the last registration period in 1968. Hare said that number could well be exceeded during the current boating year.

"There is no doubt that there are about a half-million motorboats in this state," said Hare. "Getting them all registered, however, is another matter."

"All boats with motors, whether they are 75-foot luxury yachts or small rowboats which have motors, must be registered and numbered."

Lima Citizens Seek Utility Fight Answers

The Citizen's Committee on Public Utilities in Lima township, under the chairmanship of Gen. Dwight Beach, and Herman Koon, has called an open meeting for the residents of Lima, Freedom, Dexter, and Bridgewater townships for Wednesday, Sept. 2 at 8 p.m. at the Lima Community Hall.

Purpose of the meeting is to sound out the citizens of Lima, and the surrounding communities on their feelings concerning the restriction of Detroit Edison's utility on the basis of zoning.

At a meeting Aug. 11, the Lima township Planning Commission decided that they would recommend to the Lima township board that it not allow the Detroit Edison power structure to go through Lima township on the basis of zoning, if the other communities of Freedom, Dexter, and Bridgewater agreed to act in a similar manner. The Sept. 2 meeting is very important, therefore, for the Planning Commission will determine on the basis of the turnout, and the opinions expressed, whether or not they have the support of Lima township citizens, as well as the support of the surrounding communities.

To oppose a major public utility company is a very difficult thing to do, however, with the help of all the people in the area, it is hoped that something can be done. All those with an interest or an opinion on the Detroit Edison public utilities issue are urged to attend next Wednesday night's meeting, and let their views be known.

Registered Holsteins Complete Test Period

A report of milk production levels attained by dairy cows in the area has been received from Holstein-Friesian Association of America. The actual food production output, recorded in the DHIR program, by these local registered Holsteins is:

Green Vale P. A. Lucy, 6243782, a four-year-old, produced 20,860 lbs. of milk and 697 lbs. of butterfat in 305 days. Brownson Marquis Roella, 6878957, a two-year-old, had 15,240 lbs. of milk and 669 lbs. of butterfat in 305 days. Both are included in the herd tested for Lowell Spike, Manchester.

These new production figures may be compared to the estimated annual output of 8,821 lbs. (4,103 quarts) of milk and 325 lbs. of butterfat by the average U. S. dairy cow.

Production testing is made available through the co-operative efforts of the state and local testing associations.

Ram Sale Set Sept. 9 at MSU

The annual Ram Sale Day, sponsored by the Michigan Sheep Breeder's Association in co-operation with the Animal Husbandry Department at Michigan State University, will be held at the MSU Beef Cattle Barn in East Lansing, on Wednesday, Sept. 9. Purebred sheep breeders will assemble more than 100 top quality rams and offer them for sale.

All rams will be inspected, weighed and priced and penned by breeders. This procedure makes it possible for buyers to look at a large selection of rams from some of the best flocks in the state with a minimum of time and travel.

The offering will include yearling and two-year-old rams from the more common breeds as well as a few outstanding ram lambs that have met rigid weight requirements. The rams will be for sale from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The use of a good ram is one of the first steps toward increased income from a flock. The cost of the ram spread over the number of lambs he will sire over a two-year period is a very small item.

Bike Safety Day Attracts 20 Wet But Enthusiastic Children

Bicycle Safety Day was held Saturday, Aug. 22, in pouring rain. Twenty ambitious, but wet children showed up in their water-proofed skins to compete in the contests. An added attraction for this year's contest was the 15-question quiz on safety, rules for bikes. The other contests were: braking, or who could stop in the shortest stopping distance, coasting, or who could coast slowest in a given distance, and a third, and very popular contest, was the obstacle course. Last but not least was the plain old-fashioned race. The committee also sold 15 licenses, and inspected and repaired approximately 25 bicycles. Bicycle equipment was given for first- and second-place prizes in the five events that covered the four different age groups.

First-place winners were Kipp Bertke, Timmy Greenleaf, Danny Rowe, Patty Hume, Gayle Hume, Jenny Clark, Kathy Slater; second row, Mary Hume, Pam Greenleaf, Tammy Greenleaf; fourth row, Ed Greenleaf, and Rick Walls.

Some 3,125 farmer-co-operators are functioning in the United States. In 1968, 58 percent of the United States production of vegetables was mechanically harvested.

Michigan State Fair Opens Gates Friday

With the biggest line-up of talent and exhibits in its history, the Michigan State Fair opens this year on Friday, Aug. 28 and runs through Monday, Sept. 7 (Labor Day).

It's the top entertainment bargain of the year. A million are expected to attend. They'll see and hear free of any extra charge.

—The Music Shell shows, featuring big name stars.

—Sixteen horse shows in the Coliseum.

—The Grandstand shows, including the Hurricane Hell Drivers and the Mark Wilson Show.

—Livestock and crop exhibits.

—Fine arts and community arts exhibits, demonstrations, and shows.

—Commercial exhibits.

—Children's contests.

—A Fairgrounds full of music and fun.

E. J. (Jeff) Kirns, State Fair general manager, said the line-up of entertainment stars "is the best we've ever had."

The list includes Johnny Cash, the living legend, who'll perform in front of the Grandstand on Monday, Aug. 31, at 4 and 8 p.m.

On the fair's first week-end, the Music Shell will feature radio-TV star Art Linkletter; the Young Canadians, a sparkling group of youngsters who sing and dance up a storm; and the Friends of Distinction, a unique new singing group.

Paul Revere and the Raiders, with Mark Lindsay, will perform Sunday through Tuesday, Aug. 30-Sept. 1, and Charley Pride, a top country star, will be on stage Monday through Wednesday, Aug. 31-Sept. 2.

TV and movie star James Darren will appear Sept. 3 and 4, along with the Three Degrees, a singing and dancing group. The final three days of the fair will find Roy Clark and the stars of the TV show, Hee Haw, and Oliver, the popular singer, on stage in the Music Shell. On Sunday, Sept. 6, the Fifth Dimension will make a one-day appearance.

The Grandstand shows will feature the Hurricane Hell Drivers, the first five days of the fair (through Sept. 1), and Mark Wilson and the Magic Land of Allah Kazam all through the fair.

In the Coliseum, there will be at least one free horse show each day, with ponies, Percherons, Apaloosas, Morgans, and Arabians being put through their paces by top riders and drivers. The Detroit Mounted Police will perform at each show. For the first three days, through Sunday, Aug. 30, Arthur Godfrey and his trained horse Goldie also will perform.

Michigan's farmers will bring in their top beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine, sheep, rabbits, pigeons, and poultry.

In the Community Arts Building, bakers and seamstresses and painters and sculptors and hobbyists will show their work.

Continuous demonstrations will take place on the Community Arts revolving stage—needlepoint, flower arranging, decoupage, cake decorating, and other arts and crafts. In the auditorium, there will be fashion shows, cooking demonstrations, and even shows telling how to lose weight (with all those cookies around?).

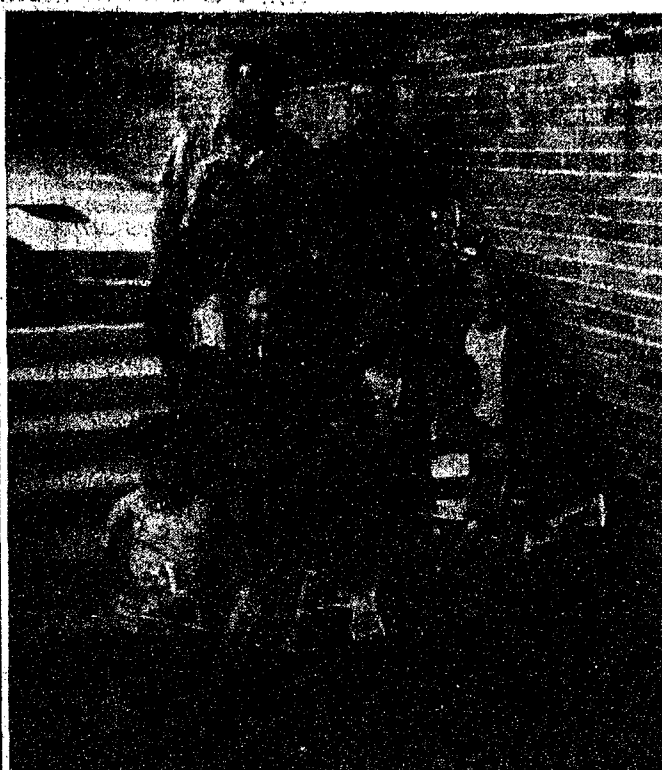

Again this year, the fair continues its theme "Consumer Meets Producer," with state and commodity agencies striving to show the city dweller how his food and clothing are produced by his country cousin. Meat and dairy products will be on display, as will fruits and vegetables.

Many commercial exhibits also are scheduled at the fair.

Senate Resolution Urges Abolition of Electoral College

The Michigan Senate has passed a resolution introduced by Senators Gilbert E. Bursley (R-An Arbor), Milton Zaagman (R-Grand Rapids), and Anthony Stamm (R-Kalamazoo) which memorializes Congress relative to a change in the electoral college, urging the abolition of the electoral college and the election of the President and Vice-President by a direct vote of the people. The resolution has been sent to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

The United States Senate is considering a proposal to this effect and it is the desire of the legislature that congress be advised of Michigan's support.

Area Youth Attending State 4-H Show

Several young persons from this area are currently attending the 1970 Youth Exploration Days, formerly 4-H Youth State Show, at Michigan State University, Aug. 26-28.

Action exhibit will focus on health careers, a computer will aid young persons' car-buying decisions, a bicycle skills program will test cycling abilities, and golf professionals will give an exhibition.

Young persons will have opportunities to explore such new sports as judo, squash and synchronized swimming under the direction of experts. Others will see how a professional play is staged or explore the sky at the MSU Planetarium.

A free grain marketing tour to Ohio will emphasize grain processing and marketing facilities.

For those interested in animals, livestock judging, dog care and obedience, a horse show, rabbit and poultry exhibits and a tour of the MSU Veterinary Clinic offer a wide selection of activities.

DANNY KELIN steps nimbly through the tires in the tire obstacle course. This event was a relay race, and Danny's teammates wait at the other end for his swift return.

READY TO PULL! Cub Scouts Leon Wheeler, Jon Osterle, David Boyer, Steve Kvarnberg, Todd Otto, Billy Burgess, Bob Liebeck, and Steve Bowen take up their end of the rope for the tug-o-war in their Cub Olympics.

Mitt Romney Visits Chelsea On Campaign

Mitt Romney, son of Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate from Michigan, Lenore Romney, and former Governor George Romney, was in town Wednesday to visit the Chelsea Methodist Home, campaigning for his mother.

He then went to the Chelsea Community Fairgrounds meeting people and shaking hands, on a day of campaigning that took him to Mt. Pleasant, and Big Rapids before returning to his Bloomfield Hills home.

The tall, good-looking young man has just returned from spending 2½ years in France, on a mission for his church, where he worked as a national advisor for his church's youth organizations.

He will return in September to Brigham Young University in Utah for his senior year in college, and hopes to go to law school at the University of Michigan, upon graduation.

Romney will return to Chelsea sometime this fall to address the people at the Methodist Home at one of their meetings.

There are 71.1 million customers of the electric utility industry in the United States, according to a Detroit Edison spokesman. This 1969 year-end figure represents a 1.4-million increase over that of one year ago.

Cub Scout Pack 455 Holds Annual 'Olympics' Contests

Chelsea Cub Scout Pack 455 held their annual Cub Olympics Thursday, Aug. 20, at 8:30 p.m., at South school.

Vern Otto, assistant Cubmaster, and Tony Bowen, were co-chairmen of the event.

The Olympics, an annual pack event, divides the pack into two teams. The first race was a team relay race through a tire obstacle course. For this event, the boys had to race through a 27-foot course, placing a foot in the hole in each tire.

Other featured activities were the tire roll relay, and the gunnysack relay. For the first, Cubs had to roll a tire a standard distance in the fastest time. Members divided into teams, and the fastest team won. The gunnysack relay was a relay race where Cubs, sheathed in gunnysacks, had to cover a standard distance in the shortest time.

A high jump event, and a tug-o-war concluded the evening's activities. The Cubs went home tired and happy, and the tires and gunnysacks were put away for another year.

Citizens Group Meets With Transportation Committee of School

"Mr. President, I love you ... but you are wrong!"

-- Paul Harvey, "the voice of the silent majority" speaking out against the invasion of Cambodia.

Paul Harvey, a newscaster with a conservative reputation, makes no bones about the fact that he's a Nixon supporter.

On the other hand, Paul calls 'em as he sees 'em. So when Mr. Nixon announced his intention to send troops into Cambodia, the outspoken Mr. Harvey let him have it:

"America's six percent section of this planet's mothers cannot bear enough boy babies to police Asia—and our nation can't bleed to death trying."

Mr. Harvey went on: "And quite frankly, Mr. President, out here (in the Midwest) we don't think there's anything in Indochina worth that."

This is the kind of thing we're seeing more and more of.

Conservatives and middle America speaking out against the War and what it's doing to us as a nation. But speaking out isn't enough.

While violence and lawlessness is too much.

The middle course is The Amendment to End the War.

This Amendment — sponsored by Senators McGovern, Hatfield, Goodell, Cranston, Hughes, plus 19 other Senators and endorsed by over a hundred Congressmen — provides that all American boys can be home by June, 1971.

It also provides money for a safe and orderly withdrawal.

For prisoner exchanges.

And for the protection and asylum of the South Vietnamese people.

In a few weeks, your Senator will be voting on this Amendment. A letter from you now could help him make the right choice.

It could turn the government around.

It could even alter the course of the world.

Please write to your Senator, care of Senate Office Building and urge him to vote for the house version of "The Amendment to End the War."

And if you would like to help us explain this crucial amendment to other people like yourself, then send a check made out to

TEACHER TOPICS

By Edward B. Lanhon
Discussions in this column on the state of negotiations and arbitration have no doubt stimulated both questions and opinions. Letters from readers with questions and opinions may be mailed to the CEA at any of the Chelsea schools. They may be addressed to: Miss Barbara Wenk, secretary; Leonard Solomon, president; Edward Lanhon, vice-president; or Paul Terpstra, treasurer. All signed letters will be shared with the entire CEA membership. If a question appears widespread among readers, the CEA can respond directly through its Teacher Topics column.

Readers may have many questions regarding salary. One such question may be, "If the salaries here are so low, why don't the teachers go somewhere else?" The best answer to this is that Chelsea has a lot to offer. Teachers would like to be able to stay here and command the same salaries they would earn for the same work somewhere else. From another angle, principals who are continually striving to develop a good, stable faculty must compete for the best teachers. One way to attract and keep good teachers is to offer competitive salaries. Research and communication from its state organization puts the CEA in a position to answer questions about conditions and progress in other schools. Questions regarding these are also welcome.

HAS PEACENIK CURE

Boise, Ida.—In a recent speech to the State's American Legion members, Governor Don W. Samuelson gave his ideas for curing beatniks and anti-war demonstrators. He said proclaim a "kick a beatnik in the seatnik week," and if necessary take them to the woodshed and put "a little sense in their heads through the seat of their pants."

Farmers in the United States today produce nearly three times as much per man-hour of work as in 1950 and over six times as much as in 1930.

Alexander and his dog, Carly; Connie Connelley and cat, Timmy; Mike Connelley, and his frog, Brownie; and Cheryl Bareis, and her dog, Gus.

Pet Show Draws Total of 18 Entries

Approximately 18 pets, and their owners, showed up Thursday, Aug. 20, for the Jaycee Auxiliary's first annual Pet Contest. The contest, held at Beach Junior High school, attracted various different kinds of pets, and people. The Rev. Dan Keln, Mrs. Judy Blough, and Mrs. Diane Loring judged all the entries.

First, second- and third-place winners received ribbons for their awards. First-place winners owners will walk in the Kiddies Day Parade, Tuesday, Aug. 25.

First-place winners were Kirk Steinaway's dog, Reggie, Lynn Eder's dog, Chico, Jimmy Alexander's dog, Carly, Connie Connelley's cat, Timmy, Mark Connelley's frog, Brownie, and Cheryl Bareis' dog, Gus.

Second-place winners were Cheryl Bareis' dog, Gus, Sheila Erskine's dog, Fifi, Tommy Donkin's cat, David, Mary Boylan's gerbil, Jack and Jill, and Becky Kraal's dog, Jocks.

Third-place winners were Mark, Diane and Matthew Stoll's dog, Sasha, Steven Jaskot's cat, Aunt Fanny Pussycat, Dora Alexander's cat, Susie, Katie Donkin's cat, Agnes, and Kirk Steinaway's dog, Reggie.

The pet contest was a new community project for the Auxiliary, and judging from the turnout, it will be run again next year. So to the owner of the waltzing Kodak bear, who was unable to show up last Thursday, you still have a chance to clean up on some prizes next year!

We've got all kind of self-serve stores but no self-serve banks.

Dutch Boy Nalcrete

for CONCRETE BLOCK, BRICK, STUCCO
ASBESTOS-CEMENT SHINGLES!

- The secret of Nalcrete's toughness is that it sets up a "breathing-type" film. Water droplets from the outside can't get in... yet water vapor from the inside can get out... before it has a chance to lift the paint and cause the usual cracking, blistering or peeling.
- "Dutch Boy" Nalcrete practically dries in 15 minutes, whether you use brush, roller or spray gun. You can't make a "dry-mark" if you try. Paint a section and let it dry. Start again with a 6-inch overlap. No one can tell where you started or stopped.
- The lovely Nalcrete colors form a perfect palette for exterior home decoration. And they hold their color in spite of sun, rain, heat or cold. From fresh cement walls that are "burning" with white alkali can be successfully painted with this truly different stucco paint.
- "Dutch Boy" Nalcrete gives a uniform color the very instant it's dry! Smoke, dust and ordinary dirt (like that splashed against walls from garden sprinkling) will often stain ordinary stucco finishes... but they wash right off a home that's protected with Nalcrete!

Stocked in white only.
Colors available by mixing.

Trailblazers Host Family From Florida

Chelsea's Trailblazers Riding Club assembled Tuesday night, Aug. 26, at the F & M Cafe, 104 N. Main as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Sharp. The occasion, a huge dinner party, was in honor of a visit from Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Baldwin, and their daughters, Norma Jean, and Karen, from New Smyrna Beach, Fla. The Baldwins had entertained Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, and their son, Lesley, and the William Williamsons of Monroe, along with Carol Curtis, two years ago, at Christmas time on a trip to Florida.

The Baldwins are members of the New Smyrna Beach Sandpurs Riding Club, a parent organization of the Trailblazers Club. Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson, former members of the Sandpurs Riding Club, were primarily responsible for the formation of the Trailblazers Club, hence the affiliation with Sandpurs.

The Baldwins remained in town only one night, before starting for home on the last leg of their vacation. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Sharp, and Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard Reith during their stay in Chelsea.

TIPS

TODDY and FRAN

Your hair is the most important thing you wear. We stole this sentence from a magazine story because it's so true it shouldn't be overlooked — and we couldn't possibly have said it any better. Your hair can make your best dress look baggy if your hairdo is below par. Or it can make your faded housedress or last year's skirt and blouse look like you chose it at Saks if your hair is exactly right for YOU, personally. Our operators work with YOU, personally, in mind. Let them show you what we mean.

Helen Hubbard, Daniel Schnaidt Wed Friday

Miss Helen Hubbard, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Hubbard, Jackson, and Robert Hubbard, Chelsea, and Daniel Schnaidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Schnaidt, 650 Island Lake, were married Friday, Aug. 21, in a Nuptial Mass at St. Mary Catholic church.

The bride wore a high-waisted floor-length gown of cotton tailored lace over taffeta. Her blusher veil was of French illusion with a crown of petals, and she carried a bouquet of carnations and stephanotis on an ivory-covered prayer book.

Maid of honor was Miss Pat Schnaidt, sister of the bridegroom. Her floor-length dress of yellow dotted swiss over taffeta was in the same style as the bride's. She wore a picture hat with a yellow ribbon and carried a handbasket of daisies and yellow roses.

Sue Freeland and Sarah Fisher, both of Grand Lake, were bridesmaids. They wore matching dresses of green dotted swiss over taffeta and green ribboned picture hats. They also carried handbaskets of daisies and yellow roses.

Mike Schnaidt, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Ben Bower and Ben Bower, Jr., both of Chelsea.

A reception at the Rod and Gun Club followed the ceremony. Mrs. Ben Bower, Miss Elizabeth Bower and Mrs. Charles Popovich assisted.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside on Waterloo Rd.

Karen Johnson Wins Majorette Award at NMU

Karen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, 722 Taylor St., was awarded the "Outstanding Majorette" award at Northern Michigan University Summer 1970 Band Camp, Marquette. Karen, a junior at Chelsea High school, received a scholarship from the Chelsea Band Boosters to attend the week-long camp session which was held Aug. 8-15. More than 450 high school students from across the state attended the session. Miss Johnson was the only participant from Chelsea.
