MCRC Votes Opposition to Proposed Park

Decision To Oppose Project Follows Receipt of Detailed Economic Studies

Major action was taken by the Mill Creek Research Council members at their annual meeting on March 31. Most important note on the agenda was the approval of a statement of positive opposition to the proposed park on Mill Creek sponsored by the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

Mrs. Harold Sias, spokesman for the group indicated that the members felt that since Wayne county has contributed the most money to the HOMA, has the most people to be served, and has until this time benefitted little locally in HOMA park opportunities, that he greatest need for park development is in Wayne county. Such parks should be close enough so residents have ready access within minutes of their homes, so individual families may make frequent use of such facilities by walking, bicycling, car, or public transportation.

Secondly, she said, the members felt that further parks in Washtenaw county should be small, 50 to 200 acres in size, and be within hiking, bicycling, or a few minutes drive so that children and families may have ready use of the park. The parks should also be close to population concentrations.

Thirdly, the group felt that when, and if, the need is demonstrated for a major day-use facility in the Chelsea area, that 3,000 to 4,000 acres should be taken from existing state land for further development, rather than take land away from other uses. If present state land acquisitions are achieved within the next five years, there will be a total of approximately 31,000 acres in the Waterloo and Pinckney Recreation Areas.

Presentation of reports of various studies which were completed during the past few months by committees of the MCRC were a major portion of the evening's meeting. Ben Haehnle reported on the attitude survey which covered families who live on the proposed park site.

Bill Ames, Co-operative Extension Service agent, presented the "on site" agricultural economic survey and analysis, which was made by MCRC with his assistance. Sylvester Weber then reported on the up-stream Mill Creek drainage basin agricultural economics study. The study covers 14,956 acres, which report nearly $5,000,000 in farm production each year.

Frank Messman reported that members collected nearly 1,000 signatures on petitions of opposition, which are being forwarded to the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners.

Ken Haist read the tax-loss figures to both the Chelsea school district and to Lima township. Based on 1970 figures, Haist reported that the loss to the school's operating budget would be approximately $21,000, while Lima township would lose about $950. There are 44 school-age children living in this area, Mrs. Sias reported.

Mrs. Harry Denham showed the slide presentation which she compiled of the homes, farmsteads, people and animals, crops growing, recreational uses, and agribusiness which occupy the 4,000 acres site sought by HOMA. This presentation has been shown to both the commissioners of the HOMA, and the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners.

Included in the series were slides Mrs. Denham had of maps of both the Waterloo and Pinckney Recreation Areas which show plans by the Department of Natural Resources to acquire and develop more land during the next five years.

Mrs. Denham also showed colored graphs which she made, summarizing the results of MCRC's study of existing recreation in the five-county area.

A tentative schedule of the upcoming actions of various agencies determining the park's future was also given. It included activities that will be planned between now and September.

Baseball Team Boasts Strong Pitching Staff

Despite the late arrival of spring, Chelsea's varsity baseball team is working hard to be ready for the season opener against Manchester, this coming Tuesday, April 6.

Coach Carl Genske indicated that this year's team, which numbers mostly juniors, and one senior, will have seven returning lettermen to fill out the positions around the bases this coming season.

Lettermen to return to the team include senior Dave Heydlauff, and juniors Randy Brier, Dave Lukasik, Todd Sprague, Ralph Stewart, Ron Sweeney, and Wayne Welton, while two "recruits" from last year's JV squad, juniors Joe Aspiranti, and Keith Pfeifle will also help Chelsea's strength. Tim Van Slambrouck, a junior, who is new to the school system this year, will also help Chelsea out, as he has played for many years in his former California home. Two new members juniors Steve Flint, and Mike Rossbach, have also been "drafted" to bring to 12 Coach Genske's ballplayers.

Genske indicated that a captain for this year's team has not yet been elected although the team has tentatively been assigned positions.

Strong point on this year's team is the pitching core, which will have Ron Sweeney, Wayne Welton, Dave Lukasik, and Tim Van Slambrouck to draw upon. In the infield, Genske said that he will have all veteran players, consisting of probably Randy Brier, Wayne Welton, and Todd Sprague. He admitted that he did not know who would play first base at this time.

Catching duties will be handled by either Ralph Stewart, or Keith Pfeifle, while outfielder positions will be shared by Dave Heydlauff, Joe Aspiranti, Steve Flint, Mike Rossbach, and Ron Sweeney.

Genske said that although this year's team is small, he has great hopes for its success this coming season.

Trackmen Place 17th in Huron Relays

Bulldog thunders traveled to Ypsilanti, to Bowen Fieldhouse on the EMU campus, Saturday, March 27 for the annual Huron Relays. The tracksters competed against more than 50 teams from across Michigan, and Ohio, in the first indoor track meet of the season, and the annual kick-off meet for teams across the state.

Chelsea placed 17th in the meet, Coach Burt Kruse claimed, with a total of 12 points over-all. Winners included a two-mile relay team composed of George Cameron, Jeff Marshall, Dan Hoover, and Dave Buxton, which finished in sixth place for a total of three points.

The shuttle hurdle relay team, Mark Collins, Mitchell Heard, Jeff Hughes, and Larry Gorton, finished fourth, with a time of 30.0 seconds, to net the team six points.

In the 880 relay, Mark Collins, Larry Gorton, David Porath and Jeff Hughes placed sixth for three points.

There were no individual placers from Chelsea in the meet, Coach Kruse commented. The Bulldog coach said that the team did what he termed an "over-all good job." For this early in the season "The boys in the relays put on an outstanding performance," he thought, and the over-all performance of the entire team was satisfactory. He indicated that the team will need more work on the field events.

Next track meet for Chelsea boys is the Spartan Relays which will be held Friday, April 2 in East Lansing.

Township Annual Meets Set Saturday

Township residents will have a chance to meet and consider a new township budget this coming Saturday at annual township meetings which will be held throughout the area.

Dexter township will meet Saturday, April 3, at 2 p.m. at the township hall, while Webster township will meet at 2 p.m. also, at Webster township hall. Lima, Sylvan, Lyndon and Freedom townships will also meet on the same date at their respective township halls, at 1 p.m.

Local residents are urged to attend these meetings, and participate in their township's democratic workings.

NO. 1 RATED SOLOISTS, who performed Saturday at the State Solo and Ensemble Festival in Battle Creek were Chelsea High school musicians Karlene Kargel, left, clarinet; Jeff Parsons, trumpet; and Sue Rasmussen, flute. Karlene played a piece by Marquet entitled "Solo de Concerto," while Jeff played "Contest Piece," by Gedalge. Sue played "Concerto in G, Mov. 1," by Quantz.

TOP RATINGS also went to this clarinet quartet in Saturday's State Solo and Ensemble Festival at Battle Creek. Playing "Melodie Petite," by Frangkiser, were, from left, Patty Young, Phyllis Buss, Darlene Beeman, and Janice Schenk. The group, which was the only musical ensemble to enter state competition from Chelsea, received a "T" rating for their performance.

Seven CHS Musicians Win Top Honors in State Festival

Seven Chelsea High school students participated in the State Solo and Ensemble Band Festival held this past Saturday, March 27, at Battle Creek's Kellogg Community College. One quartet, and three soloists performed, all receiving a rating of "T", the highest rating in the state.

Soloists performing included Jeff Parsons, Sue Rasmussen and Karlene Kargel. Parsons, who played trumpet, received a Division I rating of 90, in a Proficiency III level. The Proficiency III level is the highest classification level a performer may enter, band director Warren Mayer indicated, and is quite an honor. Jeff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parsons of Lima Center Rd.

Sue Rasmussen received a Proficiency III level, Division I rating, with a score of 92. Sue, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rasmussen, of Chestnut Dr., plays the flute. Karlene Kargel was rated I in Proficiency level II, with a score of 95. Karlene plays clarinet. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kargel of Island Lake Rd. A clarinet quartet composed of Darlene Beeman, Patty Young, Janice Schenk, and Phyllis Buss also received a rating of "T". The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Beeman of Cassidy Lake Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, McKinley St.; Mr. and Mrs. Winston Schenk, Rank Rd.; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buss, Clardale Ct., respectively.

Performers were all transported to Battle Creek by their parents, Warren Mayer commented. Mrs. Robert Rasmussen accompanied all the soloists during their performances.

Village Water Rates Hiked By Council Action

New Rates Effective Today But Billing for Quarter Due in July

Chelsea's Village Council met Tuesday evening, March 30, to hold public hearing and take action on the proposed resolution to adopt new water rates for the village.

Very few people were present to discuss the new rates which will result in approximately 100 percent increase in village revenue for the operation of the water system.

Village Administrator Frederick Weber said Wednesday, that the village had been contemplating the hike in water rates for several years. According to Weber, village engineers had drawn up a table of expenses pro-rated to determine the village's expected financial needs for the operation of the water system for the next five years. From this table, Weber explained, the increase in rates was drawn up.

Several factors in the water department's budget are stable costs, he explained, including the depreciation rates, and the bond reduction expenses. He also cited the $64,000 worth of construction the village will face within the next five years, and the ever-rising inflation of construction costs.

Weber also explained that up until the present time, the village electric profits had been used to subsidize both the sewer and the water systems. With the upcoming expansion of the electric facilities planned by the village, Weber commented, future electric department profits will be channeled into the expansion of electrical services. Hence, the new increase in water rates was needed, he claimed, to "put the water department on an even keel." This will also put the sewer departments on an even keel, he said, as the sewer rates which are presently calculated at 60 percent of the water rate, will remain at that level, and will, consequently, be higher also.

Water rates are determined by three factors, the first of which is a variable rate, and the second two are flat rates, varying with the size of one's meter.

First factor is how much water is used. Rates vary. As more water is used, the village found that the cost per unit is less. Although the user pays more money for his extra water, he pays less per unit.

Flat rates are charged for a minimum water charge. That is, even if no water is used within a given period, the village must still meet expenses, hence, the minimum rate. This rate is increased, as the size of one's meter increases.

A service charge is also charged, to help defray the costs incurred by the department to maintain and replace meters, and to supply adequate water for fire protection. This charge is a flat rate, which also varies with the size of one's meter.

Present water use in Chelsea is mainly residential, who use approximately 41 percent of the water. Industrial concerns use 30 percent of the village's water, while 10 percent is for "public" use, cleaning streets, fighting fires, and so on. Approximately 10 percent of the water is considered "lost," used to flush out the mains, or lost in water breaks, and leaks.

Revenues to the water department are paid for mostly by the residential users, as they pay 55 percent of the incoming cash. All other agencies, industries, and so on, pay the remaining 45 percent. Typical yearly expenses for the water department found that 46.4 percent of the revenue goes toward operation, while 8.6 percent is for maintenance, 11.4 percent for investment, 9.7 percent inflation, 8.9 percent depreciation, and 15 percent for the bond return.

Last time water rates increased in the village was April 1, 1968. A scheduled increase has also been slated for April 1, 1976.

Current increased water rates will be in effect today, April 1, Weber commented—although citizens will not be billed for the higher amounts until July. It is advised that the citizens of Chelsea run out and fix their leaky faucets—it could amount to a bigger bill in July for them if they do not.

No Serious Injuries in 2-Car Crash

A minor accident occurred Saturday evening, March 27 at about 8 p.m. on Old US-12, just west of St. Mary Catholic church. According to police records, the accident occurred when a vehicle driven by Ralph Stinehelfer, 48, 738 S. Main St., struck a vehicle in the rear which had just come out of the St. Mary parking lot.

The second vehicle, which was driven by Clarence Edward Ottoman, 54, 12835 Waterloo Rd., had no damage to it, police records stated, and there was none reported to Stinehelfer's car.

Stinehelfer, and Ottoman, and three passengers in his car, Blanche Ottoman, 50, Susan Ottoman, 18, and Theresa Ottoman, 6, of the same Waterloo Rd., address, were all taken to the Chelsea Medical Clinic where they were treated for minor injuries and released.

The pavement was wet, and it was raining at the time of the accident, police officials reported.

Two Win Coveted State FFA Degree

Steve Bott and Bill Kushmaul, delegates from the Chelsea FFA Chapter attended the state FFA convention March 24-26 accompanied by their chapter advisor, Doug Davidson, and eight fellow chapter members. This annual event held at Michigan State University was attended by some 1,000 FFA members and advisors from all parts of the state.

Official state association business, leadership contest state finals, and the convention banquet were some major activities taking place at this event. John Young, Harbor Beach, state president, presided over the business sessions.

Educational exhibits by chapters were on display in the main auditorium. The State FFA Degree was given to 189 members. Agricultural Proficiency awards for outstanding skill development in 15 different areas were presented.

Bill Kushmaul and Neil Rothfuss of the Chelsea chapter received the State FFA Degree. This degree is conferred upon the top 2 percent of the total membership in the state. The candidates Supervised Agriculture Experience Program is evaluated along with their participation in chapter activities and leadership activities in other organizations.

Kushmaul has been a member of chapter Farm forum, dairy showmanship, livestock judging, and dairy judging teams and has worked with the chapter poultry improvement project. He has served as sentinel and is currently president of the local organization. He is president of the Rogers Corners Herdsmen 4-H club and is on the Teen Leader Board as a member of the Teen Leader Club. Bill is a senior and plans to enroll in Michigan State University's Institute of Agriculture Technology in the Elevator and Farm Supply program this fall.

Neil Rothfuss has been on farm forum, livestock judging and crops judging teams. Neil is serving the chapter as secretary this year. Neil plans at this time to stay on the home farm with his father. John Stinehelfer and Rich Egeler entered an educational exhibit in competition with some 30 other (Continued on page five)

French Students Leaving for Paris

Easter vacation is just one week away, but for some Chelsea High students it has been a long time coming. Since early last October, 21 students at Chelsea High school have busily prepared for a spring trip to Paris. Passports were obtained, shots and vaccinations have been given money has been earned, new wardrobes were sewn, itineraries were planned, and long shopping lists have been drawn up.

After school on April 8, the Chelsea contingent will board a Boeing 707 at Windsor Airport, and six hours later they will land at Orly Airport just outside Paris. For one week everything from Easter Mass in Notre Dame cathedral to the Paris flea market will be seen. Many miles will be covered, much food will be sampled, and undoubtedly many souvenirs will be purchased.

Organizing the Paris trip began last October when the Conlin Travel Bureau of Ann Arbor contacted the French Department at the high school. At that time, any interested student was invited to visit Paris. Twenty-one students and two teachers enlisted. They are: Twinkie Beach (10), Denise Bycraft (10), George Cameron (12), Gina Cotterman (10), Carol Fainbrother (10), Larry Gorton (12), Alfretha Harrison (12), Sharon Heydlauff (12), Jill Kipfmiller (12), Jackie McCall (12), Sheri McCall (10), Tina Orbring (12), Bonnie Powers (10), Mary Slocum (11), Mike Spencer (11), Karen Sullivan (10), Becky Tibb (10), Becky Van Riper (12), Robbin Verwey (10), Mari Wood (10), and Joan Yocum (12). The two chaperones are Miss Terry Schreiner and Mrs. Nancy Gilbreath, high school French teacher.

This venture, is a first for Chelsea High, and it is hoped it will be a success. If it is, then many students can start planning now for their trip to Paris next year. If anyone wishes to know more about the Paris trip, they may contact Mrs. Gilbreath at the high school.

JOHN STINEHELFER, member of the Chelsea Chapter of the FFA, displays the educational display which he and Richard Egeler entered in State FFA competition this past week during Farmers Week at MSU. The display, which gained a bronze rating in the competition, dealt with the theme of conservation. In other competition, Chelsea's Parliamentary Procedure team took a silver rating, and trophy for their performance in the State FFA "Parli-Pro" contest.

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

Early in this session of Congress I introduced a bill to assist communities in adopting a single, uniform emergency telephone number aimed at bringing help quickly and shortening the response time when an emergency situation occurs.

The need for such an approach is unequivocal. Just run your fingers through your phone book and look at the innumerable choices you have for emergency numbers. In the District of Columbia, alone, there are more than 20 police numbers. This doesn't include those for poison control, fire, emergency health service, water, sewer, and we can name others. In Los Angeles County, there are over fifty numbers to reach the police. The results are that most persons prefer to forget about memorizing any of these numbers. I believe it can safely be said that not one individual in a thousand ever bothers to learn them. It's easier to shrug your shoulders and say, "I'll dial the operator if fate chooses to sock it to me."

Even this is not a surefire method. Recently when a Saline home caught fire, the woman resident alone in the house at the time, was unable to reach her phone book, and did in fact, dial the operator's number. When it became clear she was not going to get through, her only recourse was to get some water, downstairs, and put the fire out herself. Neighbors later did contact the fire department and they responded quickly, but the blaze was already out. If it had been a more serious situation, precious minutes would have been lost, and possibly even lives.

Because I feel that more communities and more citizens would be better protected with a single, easily remembered, concise phone number, such as the one to reach directory assistance, I have introduced the bill to streamline our emergency techniques. It earmarks a total of five billion in fiscal '72, and 7.5 billion in fiscal '73 to aid those towns and cities that want "911" as their emergency code number. The reason for 911 is that it has already been adopted by more than 100 cities, including Monroe, the first to take such a step in Michigan. This number then could, if enough towns and cities desired, become the nationwide emergency phone number. A move toward this end is not only practical but desirable. Support for such a proposal comes from the President's Commission on Law Enforcement, the FBI, and members of the Federal Communications Commission. Bell telephone company equipment, even outside pay phones, is being adjusted to provide for 911 calls.

When Mayor John Lindsay dedicated New York City's police communications center, which uses 911, he commented, "This is perhaps the single most important event of my administration."

I believe Congress should provide the wherewithal for communities that want to take the initiative and install 911. The cost is very moderate, only $150 monthly to Monroe. A city the size of Springfield, Massachusetts pays around $250. My bill will provide the funds to update existing facilities to make 911 possible.

It can be a major asset and life-saving device in our battle against crime, fire, and countless other emergency situations.

Look in the sky, it's...

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Some Are More Equal
Each member is equal, at least theoretically, in any group or organization where each member has one vote.

That was the theory behind the "one man-one vote" ruling handed down by the Supreme Court in recent years. But theory often doesn't translate into reality. One need look no further than the Michigan House of Representatives for an example. In the House, as happens in most legislative bodies, some men are more equal than others.

The "most equal" man in the House is Speaker William A. Ryan, a master in the art of rounding up 56 votes (a majority) any time he really needs them.

Effect a situation like this has on important legislation was shown when the abortion reform bill, which passed in the state Senate, arrived in the House.

The speaker of the House is the one who assigns bills to committees for study. Ryan, a devout Roman Catholic, makes no secret of the fact he opposes abortions. As a result, he decided to assign the abortion reform bill to the House Committee on Social Services and Corrections, whose membership is split 6-3 against abortion reform. The bill's backers, on the other hand, wanted the bill sent to a more favorable committee so that it would make its way back to the floor.

Had Ryan been in favor of abortion reform, he most probably would have sent it to a committee which had a membership more favorably disposed to the idea of abortion reform.

In theory then, each member of the House has one vote, but Ryan was able to make it improbable that the bill will not pass the House. Barring some unforeseen development, it won't get to the floor.

It does mean that the pro-life would pass if it made it to the floor, because an early count indicated it would have a stiff time of it in a vote.

It does not mean that the process originally designed to permit democratic consideration of issues—a vote by the elected representatives of the people—won't be used.

Instead we see some legislative procedures calculated to avoid this. This sort of maneuvering angers younger citizens who argue that the present government is not responsible to the people's needs.

Backers of abortion reform aren't throwing in the towel, however. Like others who are frustrated with some workings of "the system," they are going to take their case to "the people" if they have to.

Only in this case, instead of marching in parades, they're going to start a petition drive if they have to go over the heads of the legislature.

animus adopted a motion calling for April Fool ever day, except two months before ever national election. They were agreed that when elections get close, ever politician has the medicine to make this country well, and all he wants for it is our vote.

of the Legislature. The backers announced that if the bill doesn't pass, they will work to petition a proposed law on the 1972 general election ballot.

That device has already worked in one state—Washington—and they feel it will work here if they need to use it.

250,000 signatures are needed to get the issue on the ballot, but with all of the women's groups who are supporting abortion reform, that shouldn't be that big of an obstacle.

Kalkaska Trout Festival Listed as Top Attraction

Lansing—The National Trout Festival at Kalkaska, April 23 through May 2, has been selected by the Discover America Travel Organizations (DATO) as one of the nation's top 20 travel events for the month of April, according to William F. McGraw, director of the Michigan Tourist Council. DATO selections are distributed to media editors throughout the United States and Canada.

Parades, a Grand Ole Opry show, a carnival and the coronation of the National Trout Queen as well as traditional fishing contests for children and adults highlight the 35th annual tribute to Michigan's official state fish.

The National Trout Festival and more than 260 other activities are listed in the March-August edition of the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events, available free of charge from the Michigan Tourist Council, Stevens T. Mason Building, Lansing, 48926.

MSU Scientists Seek To Hike Productive Rate for Pheasants

East Lansing—Michigan State University poultry scientists have launched an effort to increase the reproductive rate of domestically reared pheasants.

The present wild population, they explain, is not meeting the demands from hunters, game preserve managers, and gourmets who like their ringnecks under glass.

"Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," goes an old saying. And there are a lot of women around who feel that they have been scorned by the Michigan House or Representatives.

Questionnaire Gets Notice
Legislative questionnaires are usually pretty ho-hum affairs.

The lawmaker asks his constituents to mark either yes or no to a series of questions such as, "Should Michigan's abortion law be changed?" He waits for the answers, has an aide tally them up, and gets an idea of how the people of his district feel about things.

But some of State Rep. Richard Friske's constituents decided he did more editorializing than asking in a recent questionnaire he mailed out.

"One question, for instance, asked, 'Should the state ignore the principles of the Bible, which is the law of God and morality, and legalize murder by abortion?'"

Another asks, "Would you object to paying less taxes each year if you felt the government could—by trying a lot harder—get along with less revenue?"

This prompted the Petoskey News-Review to declare "officials elected to serve all of the people should not be sending taxpayers loaded questions to establish backing for any partisan line of thinking."

And a Charlevoix couple, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Haggard, complained in a letter sent to Friske and the newspaper, "It appears that you really do not want voters' opinions but wish to force your own on those people you represent."

As for Friske himself, he has been causing a furor in his district ever since he won the Republican primary last August and it was learned he was a member of the German Luftwaffe in World War II and now is a member of the John Birch Society.

He just said he was "surprised" by the furor and had "designed" the questions to make people think.

JUST REMINISCING

Items Taken from the Files of The Chelsea Standard

4 Years Ago...

Thursday, April 8, 1967—Dr. Clare Warren, president of the Chelsea School District Board of Education, said this week that he will not be a candidate for reelection this year.

Ross W. Campbell was elected Monday to Washtenaw county's second probate judgeship in the only item on area township ballots. Campbell defeated Rodney E. Hutchinson, Ypsilanti attorney by a county-wide vote of 9,067 to 8,589.

Lloyd Heydlauff was reportedly the first area resident seen driving a motorboat on Cavanaugh Lake early last week. Heydlauff already well known for his winter snowmobiling and ice thickness testing enthusiasm, was seen whizzing around the lake with several cakes of ice in hot pursuit.

William J. Windle, Boy Scout district executive and Chelsea resident, will be leaving this area to become a district scout executive in Port Arthur, Tex., on May 1. Windle, who lives with his family at 118 Wilkinson St., is now executive of the Ironquins District, Portage Trails Council. He will report to Port Arthur on April 1.

Chelsea Milling Co., sponsored the winning Ann Arbor Jiffy Mixers amateur hockey team, which won the International Metro Hockey League championship last week in Windsor, Ont., and came in second in the OIPI Invitational Tournament in Erie, Pa., last week-end.

Jeff Hitchingham and John Lixey of Chelsea's Bulldog varsity basketball team, have been selected as members of the Southeastern Conference all-league second team for the 1966-67 season. Hitchingham is a senior, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hitchingham, 440 Chelsea-Dexter Rd. Lixey, a junior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lixey, 710 S. Main St.

Mrs. Elmer J. Bigford, the former Edith Schanz of Chelsea, was honored by the PTA of Zinser school, Grand Rapids, on Feb. 16. A $500 scholarship award was established in her name, to be given to a deserving student of the district. She is a widow, since 1953, and lives in Grand Rapids. She is the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schanz of Chelsea, and had 10 younger brothers and sisters.

Thursday, April 4, 1957—Chelsea's eighth grade basketball players had a very "satisfactory" year, with five wins, and only two losses. Eighth grade team members were Jerry Abdon, A. Homer Nixon, Danny Mayer, Herman Hoskins, Charles Koenig, Kenneth Larson, Alton Nixon, Tom Dunlap, Mike Marsh, Stanley Dyer, Max Mock, Daryl Keezer and Richard Schauls.

Alfred Kuhl was elected chairman of the first District of Michigan Milk Producers Association at the district's annual meeting. Among the five members named to the nominating committee were Herman Koenig, Chelsea; Arthur Schmitt, Carleton; Wesley And-sill, Dexter; Bertram Stout, Clayton; and David Dejanovich, Wil-lis.

Maurice Hoffman was re-elected to his post as Sylvan township supervisor over his Republican opponent, Thomas Smith. Richard Kern, Republican, regained his position as clerk, while Reuben Lesser was the successful Republican candidate for trustee. Other successful democratic candidates were Letha Beach, new treasurer, George Brettschneider, justice of the peace, Herman Bertke, mem-

Thursday, April 1, 1937—Through his excellent scholastic achievement of the last semester, Frederick Stricker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stricker, has received notice of his eligibility for membership in the University of Michigan chapter of Phi Eta Sigma, National Freshman Honor Fraternity. "Fritz" is a graduate of Chelsea High School, class of 1936.

The Rev. Ray W. Barber, Mrs. Barber, and their youngest daughter, Martha, arrived here today from Grandville, Ill. The Rev. Barber will assume his duties as pastor of the Congregational church at once. The parsonage has been redecorated and extensive repairs have been made.

Mrs. Joseph Kolb was pleasantly surprised Tuesday afternoon when a number of her friends and neighbors arrived to help her celebrate her birthday. Cards furnished the diversion of the afternoon, and high score was held by Mrs. Martin Merkel.

Thursday, April 3, 1947—The largest fire witnessed in Chelsea in many years resulted when an explosion occurred in the southwest part of the building directly under the office at the Central Fibre Products Co., on N. Main St., about 6 a.m., Monday, quickly spreading to the rest of the building, causing damage estimated at about $450,000. Exact cause of the explosion has not been determined. Firefighters from the Cassiday Lake Fire Department were called in to assist with the blaze, while Chelsea's fire department had the use of the state pumper from Ann Arbor. The factory could not be saved. It was determined.

Rural teachers of Chelsea and the vicinity met recently at the home of Mrs. N. Whipple to organize a club for the purpose of bettering rural schools and working with the rest of the rural Washtenaw teachers in having a voice in the MPA. The Chelsea Rural Classroom Teachers' Club officers are Mrs. N. Whipple, president, Mrs. B. Gadd, vice-president, Mrs. E. Zeeb, treasurer, and Mrs. M. Breitenwischer, secretary.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Katz in Munnith was the scene of a family gathering and dinner Sunday, March 23, in honor of Mrs. Katz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wahl, of Francisco, on their 53rd wedding anniversary.

SUPPORT FOR SST

The aircraft industry and organized labor are planning a joint effort to enlist public support for the supersonic transport plane (SST). The industry-labor group claim SST opponents have exaggerated reports of how the plane would foul the environment with noise and pollution.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE WEEK contest winners at Beach school are, from left, Pam Padgham, second-place winner in the poster division, and Shawn Spaulding, third-place poster, Linda Simon, first-place essay, Julie Tite, second-place essay, and Brenda Shadoan, third-place essay. Missing was

Tom Ball, first-place winner in the poster division, whose winning poster is held on top by Pam Padgham. Winners were announced at an assembly Friday, March 26, at the Junior High school. Theme for the week was "Wildlife—Who Needs It?"

Wildlife Week Contest Winners Are Named at Beach Junior High

National Wildlife Week at Beach Middle school, March 21 through 27, ended with a flourish Friday afternoon, March 26. Tom Hodgson, of the Department of Natural Resources, gave a talk entitled "What Wildlife Can Do for You," at an assembly held the last hour of the day.

Winners of the National Wildlife Week contest were named following this talk. According to Alcie Steinbach, science teacher at Beach school, and faculty coordinator of the contest, there were more than 200 entries in the essay division of the contest, which took as its theme the motto of the week, "Wildlife, Who Needs It?" There were 50 entries in the poster division, also, she noted. The photography division was cancelled, she claimed, due to lack of sufficient entries.

First-place winner in the essay contest was Linda Simon, who is in the eighth grade. Her winning essay is included at the end of this article. Second-place winner was 7th grader Julie Tite, while Brenda Shadoan, also in the 7th grade, took third place with her essay.

Honorable mention was given to essays by Barbara Hinderer, Julie Chapman, Michele Papo, Lisa Walworth, Suzie Mann, Teresa Breza, Scott Otto, Mark Houle, Danny Cobb, and Scott Holliday.

First place in the poster division was given to Tom Ball, while Pam Padgham, 8th grader, received a second-place award for her entry. Third-place winner was 8th grader Shawn Spaulding.

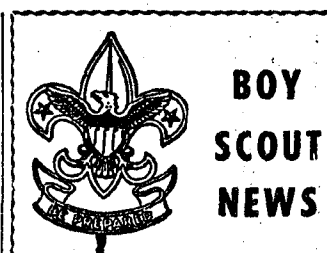

Honorable mention was given to Laura Shardein, and Faye Weirick for their poster entries.

Judges for the contest included Mrs. Tom Stock and Tom Hodgson in the essay division, and William Moore and Mrs. Mary Sapala in the poster division.

Linda Simon's winning essay, which was entitled "Wildlife, Who Needs It?" is included below: "Wildlife: Who needs it? Well, I'd say that's a pretty dumb question. I mean, we've only been dependent on wildlife for millions of years for food, clothing and other products. Now that man thinks he is 'superior,' he also thinks he can ignore wildlife problems. But he fails to remember that, if it had not been for wildlife, and this good land, man might have not even been here. What we must realize today is that we are still dependent on wildlife, upon the land. We can't live in an asphalt world. We are dependent on animals in many ways. For instance, if we didn't have predators, we'd be up to our necks in rodents! We need fish and wild game for food (well, sport, something very important to help ease pressure of this rat race). And wildlife needs a clean, safe environment just like us.

"Animals are sort of 'warning signals.' They tell us if the land is still clean enough for them, it's clean enough for people. I wonder why animals stay away from our cities? (Is this a warning?) Where wildlife won't go, man shouldn't be there either.

"For all the good wildlife has done for us, we've really made it rough for them. We've dammed the spawning rivers, killing millions of salmon each year. And

TROOP 476 CAMP-OUT

Twenty-four Boy Scouts and five adults of Troop 476 spent Friday night, Saturday and until 2 p.m. Sunday at a cabin camp-out at Camp Newkirk, Dexter.

Friday evening's entertainment included a "kangaroo court" and other games and on Saturday the scouts played football. All the scouts worked on advancement projects.

Adults who accompanied the scouts were Scoutmaster Charles Stoner, Assistant Scoutmaster, Lloyd Hafner, Charles Hafner, who is a committeeman, and Vern Hiltz and Bill Hafner.

Donald Oesterle, scribe.

DEN 5, PACK 415—

Den 5, Pack 415 met Tuesday, March 30 at the home of Mrs. Richard Seyfried. The boys opened the meeting with a song. They made Easter presents for their mothers, and sang "Happy Birthday" to Randy Ellis. They then held six dual contests.

(Meeting closed with the living circle. Treats were served by Randy Ellis.

Eric Case, scribe.

DEN 1, PACK 415—

Den 1, Pack 415 met at the home of their den mother, Mrs. George Atkinson Tuesday, March 30. The boys did their den spring cleaning. They also made puddle jumpers.

(Meeting ended with outdoor games. Bryan Herrick, scribe.

DEN 9, PACK 445—

Den 9, Pack 445 met Thursday, March 25, at the home of their den mother, Mrs. Andrew Ford. The boys had an Indian supper, prepared by Mrs. Ford, and Mrs. Stock. Menu included deer meat, lake perch, wild rice, beef jerky, corn on the cob, Navajo fry bread, adobe bread, dried fruits, pine-nut cakes, peach honey, apple cider, berry juice, and sunflower kernels. Cubs all agreed it was real good.

Kent Heller, scribe.

PACK 455

The March meeting of Cub Scout Pack 455 was held at 7 p.m. Thursday evening at South school. Theme of the month being "Cowboys and Indians" each of the dens presented a skit on the topic.

Awards earned by the Cub Scouts were presented as follows: Den 1, Mrs. Burgess, den mother; Leon Wheeler, silver arrow; Mark Schanz, wolf badge. Webelos, Den 2, Otis Titus, leader; Steve Dresch, Jon Oesterle, Steve Blaess, Jimmy Alexander, Brian Lewis and Donald Al-drich, artist activity pins.

Car derby kits were distributed to all the Cub Scouts for the boys and their fathers to compete for the derby contest at the April 22 pack meeting.

when rivers are dammed, they move less swiftly and can't clean themselves very well pollution builds up. We've taken away wild lands, homes for wildlife. Because of human vanity, and greed, we have taken feathers, hides, and furs of animals and wiped some species off the face of the earth. We have endangered many more, too. Are they doomed?

"Man and wildlife are interdependent. We need them and they need us, we can't destroy them. Some people have the narrow-mindedness of well, what is it? Wildlife or man? Actually, it's both or neither. Time is running out for man and wildlife.

"Wildlife: Who needs it? WE DO!!!"

Guy Freysinger Receives Injuries In Vietnam Action

Word was received Thursday, March 25, of the injury of U. S. Army Spec. 5 Guy Freysinger in Vietnam. Freysinger, who is 19, is the son of George W. Freysinger, 3220 S. Fletcher Rd. He enlisted in the Army in May of 1969, and was sent to Vietnam Sept. 3, 1970. A 1969 graduate of Chelsea High school, he was scheduled to return to the States in August.

The extent of Freysinger's injuries are not known, although a second telegram was received Monday, March 29 indicating that his progress was good, and that the Army was considering his transfer to another hospital unit.

His present address is: Spec. 5 Guy W. Freysinger, 335548309 Hospital Mail Section APO San Francisco, Calif. 96347

Freysinger, who is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freysinger, 124 Lincoln, has one sister, Terrie, living at the Fletcher Rd. address with her father, and three older sisters, Madonna, Ella Mae, and Alena, living in Manchester.

COMPLETES BASIC: Army Pvt. Larry J. Sanderson, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanderson of 750 N. Main St., recently completed his basic training at the Ft. Knox training center in Kentucky. Following completion of basic training, he was transferred to Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., for further training. Sanderson, who is a 1966 graduate of Chelsea High school, enlisted in the service Jan. 14.

First Assembly of God Church To Host Missionary Convention

First Assembly of God church, at 14900 Old US-12, will be host to the Missionary Conventions, now in progress across the state, on April 4, 6 and 7, the Rev. T. B. Thodeson announced this past week.

First of the three scheduled guest speakers will be the Rev. Alben Rance. The Rev. Rance has recently been approved for missionary service in Guatemala. He will speak Sunday, April 4, at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Rance with his wife, and three children will be located at one of the larger cities in Guatemala, where he will direct the evangelistic action, supervise the neighboring churches, and assist in establishing new ones.

James Shaffer, who represents the Michigan Home Missions program, will speak Tuesday, April 6, at 7 p.m. Shaffer's program calls for the establishment of six new churches a year. He is married, and the couple has three children. They live at Fa-Ho-Lo Park, in Grass Lake.

David Kent Irwin, Foreign Mission editor for the Assemblies of God church, headquarters at Springfield, Mo., will speak Wednesday, April 7 at 7 p.m. at the church. Irwin is responsible for reporting on the constituency and progress of the vast missionary program of the church, which services 1,018 missionaries in 82 countries. The Rev. Irwin served in Egypt as chaplain-administrator of the Lillian Trasher Memorial Orphanage in Assiut, Egypt. He was visiting lecturer at the Assemblies of God Bible School at Port Said, and has also served five years as a faculty member of the Malawi Bible Institute initiating the National Religious Broadcast Pulpit by invitation of the Malawi government. The Rev. Irwin is married and has three children.

Army Recruiting Plans Open House for Women

The United States Army Recruiting Service is having an open house for women having questions or an interest in the Women's Army Corps or the Army Nurse Corps. The open house will be held at the YWCA, 350 S. 5th Ave., Ann Arbor on Friday, April 2, from 7 to 11 p.m.

GIRL SCOUT
NEWSEaster Egg
Hunt Slated
By Jaycees

Chelsea's 40th annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by the Chelsea Jaycees, will be Saturday, April 10, at 10 a.m. at the High school athletic field.

Children eligible for this event include pre-schoolers, kindergartners, and first and second graders.

According to Mitch Zink, Egg Hunt chairman for this year's event, a total of 1,500 eggs will be hidden on the athletic field, and prizes will be awarded to lucky sleuths.

Members of the Jayettes who will color the eggs, will be under the direction of Mrs. Gale Rouse.

THANK YOU

A special thank you to all our relatives, friends and neighbors for all the prayers, gifts, visits, cards and dishes of food during my stay in the hospital and since my return home. These acts of kindness will always be remembered. A special thank you to the Rev. Ralph Kuehner and the Women's Fellowship of Emanuel.

John and Chrisoula Holfhanes and family.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank all my relatives and friends for cards, and visits during my stay at the hospital.

Sincerely,
Leo Guinan.

There's a new pencil on the market with an eraser at each end. It's being promoted as the perfect gift for people who do nothing but make stupid mistakes.

TROOP 58—

Junior Girl Scout Troop 58 held their meeting Monday, March 29 at the Methodist church. The girls were given their troop badges, and started sewing on them. Mrs. Bucholz and Mrs. Lorenz came to sign the badges.

Meeting ended with taps and the squeeze.

Tammy Lorenz, scribe.

TROOP 82—

Girl Scout Troop 82 met Thursday, March 25. The girls took dues, and then had treats, served by Theta Allen, the aunt of Tammy and Penny Collinsworth.

Later in the meeting the girls talked about their engineering badge. They discussed the blueprints for their own houses, which they were supposed to make.

Saturday, March 27, the troop went on a hike. They met at Mrs. Lane's house.

Gayle Hume, scribe.

Personal Notes

Charles Carty, a patient at Chelsea Medical Center since Feb. 3, was transferred Monday, March 29, to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, where he is to undergo surgery today, Thursday afternoon. He is in room 623.

Among the things that give a new and broader vision art travel, religion and a charge account.

PAUL R. DOTSON

Authority on Campus Unrest
Addresses Kiwanis Club

Paul R. Dotson, director of the Ecumenical Campus Center, in Ann Arbor, spoke at Monday evening's Kiwanis Club meeting. Dotson was introduced to the club by Louis Burghardt, who secured him as a speaker.

Ecumenical Campus Center deals also with the activities of the Ecumenical Association for International Understanding, the Ecumenical Hospitality Council, and the University of Michigan Presbyterian Ministry.

Dotson returned in March 1970 from a six-month around-the-world survey of youth student work, which was sponsored by the Presbyterian Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations, (COEMAR). During this time he worked as a consultant to the Government of Iran on Youth Affairs, and visited briefly centers of higher education and ecumenical projects in Israel, Egypt, Lebanon, India, Nepal, Thailand, Vietnam, Philippines, Hong Kong, Japan, and Hawaii. He concentrated on the new forms of missions in the Middle East and Asia, and the problems of campus unrest around the world.

Prior to this present position, Dotson held a number of related appointments dealing with ministry to Christian youth abroad. A graduate of Manchester College in Indiana, he holds graduate degrees from McCormick Theological Seminary, in Chicago, and Columbia University in New York. He is married and has four children.

Dotson spoke to Kiwanians on the relationship that exists between foreign students and American host families. He drew upon his many experiences with youth from abroad to discuss cultural barriers that one must cross when living with someone who has a vastly different background. He also dealt with his personal experiences, he encountered when traveling to the Asian countries abroad. Dotson indicated that it was of major interest to the native abroad to learn that he was a Christian, and he said that many asked him questions concerning his religion.

LYNDON TOWNSHIP

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gauthier, Chelsea, spent a week ago Sunday afternoon with his aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bott.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shanahan of Wayne, spent Saturday with her daughter and family, Mrs. John Steigerwald.

Tommy Shanahan, spent the week-end with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shanahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bott of Harrison, spent the weekend with their son, Delbert.

Mrs. Howard Reasoner and Mrs. Floyd Hartley, of Fenton, were Friday luncheon guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. Thomas Lewis.

Leonard Hafner is in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where he had surgery last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bott and family, entertained Sunday in honor of the birthday of their father, Austin. Guests were Delbert, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bott, Jr., and family, of Dansville, and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bott of Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Roderick entertained for their daughter, Dawn's 40th birthday. Guests were Cheryl Barais, Sue Williams, Margaret and Susan Lewis, Kelly and Leah Gaudet, and Karen and Becky Toth.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

KINDERGARTEN—

Mrs. Packard, teacher
Despite the snow and cold we have managed to find some signs of Spring. David French started us out by bringing in a pussy willow. We learned a song about a pussy willow and made a picture of some by painting with black and white. Vaughn Mills brought in a forsythia branch which continues to bloom. Jayne Weinberg heard a robin. But so far no one has seen one. Cathy Doll has salamanders down in the well at home. Margery Trinkle brought in some big tadpoles. Jana and Amy have some plants growing in their garden. John Smith saw a butterfly one warm day.

We thank the Centillis for our new long-haired guinea, Susie. We now have three guinea. Soon we'll have more. We are anxiously waiting the birth of Sheila's babies.

We are keeping track of the weather with Roly Poly our weatherman.

We enjoyed Mrs. Haydock coming in and reading us a story about how the bunny got a friend. After, we had a special treat of two cookies, a bird and a rabbit. They were the characters in the story.

We have been trying out our senses other than our eyes. Objects are hidden under a cloth on the table and by feeling they have to be identified. Sometimes children sneak things under. Many have been hard and not guessed.

We have begun our books about Sally, Dick and Jane. It's fun to have our own book.

Does everyone know their telephone number? I'm afraid not. I don't see everyone's name on our big telephone yet.

March birthdays are David Gipsen, John Smith, Jayne Weinberg, Cathy Doll, Tammy Sindlinger, Kipp Bertke, Timothy Dmoeh.

Dr. Warren came in to talk to the morning class about care of teeth and what a dentist does. He gave everyone an X-ray of teeth to look at and keep.

Our morning children have welcomed a new child. Her name is Tammy Sindlinger and she came from Ann Arbor.

schools. Their exhibit was well done and earned a bronze rating and a cash award for the chapter. The theme of their exhibit was "Time for Action" and referred to the need to take action now on conserving fish and wildlife.

In the Parliamentary Procedure contest, what had started as a field of 182 teams was narrowed down to eight for the final contest. All eight teams performed the necessary abilities perfectly according to the judges and the final decision was made on the basis of how well the teams solved the problems and answered judges' questions. Three gold awards were given, with Bay City-Handy receiving first place. Five silver ratings were awarded. Chelsea received a silver rating and fourth place in the contest. Team members are chairman, Marty Straub; vice-chairman, Dan Gaunt; acting secretary, Neil Bollinger; and Mike Bristle, John Stinehelfer, and Ted Hinderer.

Seeing ourselves as others see us wouldn't do any good. We probably wouldn't believe it.

FIRST GRADE—

Mrs. Stein, teacher
Chelsea Lumber Co. helped our first grades out in a "Goblick" making project. What's that? Sawdust, paste and water. Now we'll see what great modeling artists we are!

Our class is working on a grocery store unit. Our goals are things like learning about money, measurements, adding and subtracting, but today I learned how leaders are chosen. We divided into three committees. I asked each committee to choose a leader. Results: One leader was chosen for being the biggest, strongest and toughest; second leader was the littlest but could run fast, the third group chose their leader by each putting a foot in the middle and eliminated one by one by the chant "Bubble gum, bubble gum in a dish." Needless to say we will follow up on "How did your leaders work out?" Want to make any predictions?

SECOND GRADE—
Mrs. Hakala, teacher
(We have been thinking and talking about spring but the weatherman doesn't seem to be listening. We have cutouts of ourselves flying kites on our bulletin boards and we spend recess playing marbles.)

Neil Koch saw a woodchuck in his back yard. We always thought a woodchuck didn't leave his house until spring was really here.

Robbie Shears is riding around in a new green station wagon while Linda Bristle likes their new gold sedan.

Several of us have new pets. Kathy Honbaum has a puppy, "Buffy." Donald Buckenberger has a puppy, and Elaine Meyer has a cat named "Kitty."

Donna Jane Finkbeiner's dog "Tinker" met a skunk and isn't too welcome in the house these days.

We are sorry that Ben Schneider will be leaving us to live in Marine City.

Susan Satterthwaite showed us a ship in a bottle that her mother brought from California.

Whitney Jones' uncle John has been in the hospital. Kenny Elliott has a new niece, Theresa Marie.

We are having lots of fun with a big tractor tire on the playground.

Cheryl Ann Trepstra, 146 Park St., was among a total of 267 students honored as James B. Angell Scholars at the University of Michigan's 48th annual Honors Convocation, Friday, March 26.

This honor is given to those undergraduates who have earned an all-A record for two consecutive terms, although some Angell scholars maintain their straight-A record much longer.

The Angell Scholars were among 3,636 University of Michigan undergraduates who were recognized at the annual convocation.

Dr. William R. Keast, president of Wayne State University, was featured speaker at the convocation. University president Robben W. Fleming, and Mrs. Fleming hosted a tea for honor students and their families following the ceremonies.

Mill Creek Research Council Elects...

Dave Bacon, Research Council chairman, presided at the meeting. A board of directors was elected by the members to serve the organization during the coming year. The board will then select its officers.

Elected to serve for the next year were Dave Bacon, William Chandler, Mrs. Virginia Denham, Mrs. Robert Koch, Arthur Kuhl, Leonard McCalla, Mrs. Frank Messman, Mrs. Harold Sias, Sylvester Weber, Robert Wirtz, William Van Riper, and Bob Heller.

Retiring members include Clifford Bradbury, Mrs. Joe Egan, Robert Fiegel, Robert Kaercher, and Nelson Strieter.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

When McKinley was in Congress, he boarded a street car; took the only seat available. Soon after, a frail working woman boarded the car and stood in front of a Congressman colleague. The man hid behind his newspaper; pretended not to see her. McKinley noticed it and gave her his seat. Years later, when McKinley was President, the ungallant, selfish Congressman was recommended for an ambassador's post. McKinley refused to appoint him. He feared the fellow would fail to extend common courtesies expected of an ambassador. The disappointed Congressman never knew why he did not get the appointment.

A prominent industrialist was considering a certain applicant for an important job. He invited the fellow to lunch. When the food was served, the industrialist noticed the man douse his food with salt and pepper before tasting it. In doing this, the man eliminated himself from the job. The industrialist feared that any man who would decide food needed more seasoning before tasting it, would be similarly impulsive in making decisions before knowing all the facts. The applicant often wondered why he failed to get the job.

Both stories are true. Both stories illustrate how other people's eyes see things about us that can haunt or hamper our hopes. It does pay, periodically, to see ourselves as others see us. . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

DEATHS

Mrs. Norman Phelps, Sr.

Chelsea Woman's Sister Dies In Coldwater Nursing Home

Mrs. Charlotte Edith Phelps, 89, died Tuesday morning, March 23, at the Birchwood Manor Nursing Home in Holland, after a long illness.

Mrs. Phelps was born Feb. 9, 1882 in Chelsea, the daughter of Jabez and Eliza Hook Bacon. She was married on June 25, 1907 to Dr. Norman E. Phelps. He preceded her in death in June of 1964.

Mrs. Phelps was an active volunteer in the Red Cross program, former chairman of Branch county Republican party, and a former member of the State Central committee. She had been an alternate delegate at the National Republican convention, and had been a member of the Bon Ami Club as well as a life member of the Coldwater Country Club. Mrs. Phelps had been a Coldwater resident for 61 years, where she worked actively with crippled children.

Survivors include one daughter, Miss Jean Phelps, Royal Oak; one son, Norman E. Phelps, Jr., of Saugatuck; four grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Harris (Dorothy) Fletcher, Urbana, Ill., and Mrs. Henry (Marie) Schneider, Chelsea; two brothers, George Bacon of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and John Bacon of Empire.

Funeral services were held Thursday, March 25, at the Putnam funeral home in Coldwater, at 2 p.m. The Rev. William J. Fuerstenau officiated. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery, Coldwater.

Mrs. Edward Easterle

Dies Early Friday Morning Following Long Illness

Mrs. Edward H. (Marguerite L.) Easterle of 628 S. Main St., died early Friday, March 25, following a long illness. She is survived by her husband, and one sister, Mrs. Florence Romney of San Gabriel, Calif.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, March 28, at the Bughardt Funeral Home. Cremation followed.

Sherman M. Ross

Vermont Native Dies March 23 at Methodist Home

Sherman M. Ross, 67, died March 23, at Chelsea Methodist Home. He was born April 3, 1883, in Jay, Vt., the son of Harry and Mary Provostha Ross.

He married Genevieve Rogers March 16, 1919. She preceded him in death March 16, 1962. Mr. Ross entered the Methodist Home, Oct. 2, 1963, from Howell. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Helen R. Hafner, Pacific, Calif.

Funeral services were held Friday, March 26, at 10:30 a.m., at the Chelsea Methodist Home, with the Rev. Richard L. Clemans officiating. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Detroit. Arrangements were by Staffan Funeral Home.

Bonnie Wengren

4th in Women's Championship

Bonnie Wengren ran Sunday evening, March 28, at Cobo Hall in Detroit, in the State AAU Women's Championships, Coach John Bauer said this past week. She placed fourth in her heat of the 60-yard dash, with a time of 7.2 seconds, which equals her best time ever in this event.

Bonnie also placed fourth overall in the quarter mile. Some of the best runners from Ohio, and the best lady runner from Michigan competed in this event, Bauer claimed.

Vicky Meyers placed fourth in the four kilo shot put.

Chelsea High school's lady track season will start Friday afternoon, April 2, when the girls will meet teams from Dexter and Grass Lake. Chelsea's Fairer sex will beat the boys to the outside track, as this will be the first outside track meet of the season. The event will begin at 4:30 p.m., Bauer said.

Food Stamps Available

At Chelsea State Bank

Washtenaw County Department of Social Services has announced that food stamps will now be available to local residents after April 1, at the Chelsea State Bank. All persons, living in this area, who are eligible to receive such stamps are urged to call the department, to have their bank card transferred.

Questions concerning qualification for certification to receive the stamps may be directed to the Department also, by calling 665-4121.

Mrs. Michael O'Connor

Former Detroit Resident Dies at Methodist Home

Mrs. Cora O'Connor, 89, died Wednesday, March 24, at the Chelsea Methodist Home. She was born Dec. 8, 1881 in Vermillion, Ill., the daughter of William and Oliva Williams Hill. She married Michael J. O'Connor in 1902. He died Nov. 7, 1916.

Mrs. O'Connor came to the Chelsea Methodist Home March 31, 1966, from Detroit.

She is survived by one grandniece, Mrs. Lowell Morgan of Detroit, and a nephew, Wilbur Hill of Belleville, Ill.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, March 27, at the Chelsea Methodist Home, with the Rev. Richard L. Clemans officiating. Burial was in Huron Valley Cemetery, Flat Rock. Arrangements were by Staffan Funeral Home.

BEAUTY SHOP FOR PATIENTS: Among the many facilities available to patients at the Chelsea Medical Center is the beauty parlor which operates in the basement of the unit. As they say at the Center, "When a patient is concerned about her appearance, it is a sign she is feeling better." Sponsored by the Village Beauty Salon, operated by Loretta Pannone, the parlor is open Tuesday of each week for the ladies of the Center to be "prettied up." Above, Sarah Taylor, an operator at the Village Beauty Salon, sets the hair of Mrs. Leda Tapp, of New Hudson, a patient at the Medical Center.

4-H Club Members Exhibit In County Achievement Show

Freer Acres 4-H club members participated in the annual Washtenaw county Spring Achievement show held March 28 and 27 in Ypsilanti. Mrs. Robert Daniels, club leader, cited the girls in this club, which numbers 21 from ages 10 to 16, for their diligent work, and patience. They entered pant suits, dresses, jumpers, skirts, culottes, and coats in the annual events.

In the "Young Miss" category, winners included Laura Rademacher, Madonna Marzec, Cindy Griffin and Anne Schaefer. Laura gained special recognition by also winning the first-place Faber Award, and Denise Robbins won the second-place Faber Award. Madonna and Cindy will represent their club in the upcoming Country Fair at Greenfield Village.

Winners in the "Junior Miss" competition were Jodi Daniels and her young cousin, Kristen Ferguson, Kathy Dunn and Laurie Mann.

In the "Senior Miss" presentation, winners were Darlene Robbins and Diane Robbins, both of whom will also appear at the Country Fair at Greenfield Village. Special construction grand champion "purple" ribbons were proudly claimed by Laura Rademacher, Denise Robbins, Jodi Daniels, Lorie Schiller, and Stephanie Aldrich.

Other club members, including many "blue" ribbon winners were Sue Palmer, Kim Dunn, Kathy Treado, Judy Powers, Cindy Tur-cott, Judy Headrick, Kim Dresch, Sue Frisbie, and Cheryl Cantrell. A "Fashion Preview" was presented by the girls in this group for their mothers and friends March 22, at the Methodist church in the lounge. At that time the girls displayed their garments which they brought to the Spring Achievement this past week-end. Refreshments followed.

Other Spring Achievement winners from Chelsea included Barbara Duerr. Barbara is a member of the Gingham Belles 4-H club. She received a purple ribbon for special construction grand champion in the Senior Miss division, and took the first-place Faber Award in that division. She entered a two-piece wool suit in competition.

Lauri Klink, also of Gingham Belles, was selected as an alternate to attend the Greenfield Village Country Fair, in the Young Miss division. She was also one of the top 20 in the Young Miss Dress Revue division.

Wide Awake 4-H Clubster Karen Trinkle was selected as an Honor Group winner in the Young Miss division, while Pat Salyer of the Wide Awake group was one of the Dress Revue Winners in Young Miss division. Elaine Musolf, and Lynette Schiller will represent their club as delegates to the Greenfield Village Country Fair in Junior Miss division. Mary Niehaus will attend the fair, representing Wide Awake in the Senior Miss category.

Janet Wackenhut of the Terrific Tailors 4-H club will attend Greenfield Village as a delegate in the Senior Miss division.

Dress Revue winners from this 4-H club included Gail Wackenhut, Sue Heller, Victoria Downer, and Sue Heydlauff, who all placed in the Young Miss division.

HAROLD SAMUELSON, of the Dexter United Methodist church, who chaired the committee which selected the bulletin board, and the Rev. William Rosemurgy, pastor of the church, viewed with pleasure their church's gift, at the dedication ceremonies held Sunday, March 21, at the Home. Samuelson worked with the Residents Council of the Home to determine an appropriate and needed gift.

ure their church's gift, at the dedication ceremonies held Sunday, March 21, at the Home. Samuelson worked with the Residents Council of the Home to determine an appropriate and needed gift.

Lighted Bulletin Board Given to Methodist Home By Dexter Church

United Methodist Church of Dexter presented a large, lighted bulletin board to the Chelsea Methodist Home Sunday afternoon, March 21.

The bulletin board is behind glass, and is in three sections. It measures approximately seven feet long, and is four feet high. On two of the sections, the Home has made a directory of all the residents of the Home with their names and room numbers. The third section has notices and special announcements.

Harold Samuelson of the Dexter church was chairman of the committee which gave the bulletin board to the Home. He worked closely with the Rev. Stanford, chairman of the Residents Council, to determine an appropriate gift for the Home. The gift is the congregation's Lenten offering from 1970.

The Rev. Wm. J. Rosemurgy of the Dexter church was on hand to present the bulletin board at special dedication ceremonies held Sunday. V. O. Johnson, administrator of the Home accepted the gift on behalf of the residents.

Following the ceremonies, members of the Home, and members of the church present at the dedication, had a brief fellowship hour, with refreshments served by the Home.

Tom R. Thomson Starts Kalamazoo Career-Service Job

Tom R. Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson, formerly of Chelsea, and now living in Grosse Pointe, a sophomore at Kalamazoo College in Kalamazoo, will spend the three months of spring quarter working at the Bronson Methodist Hospital in Kalamazoo as a part of the college's Career-Service program.

The college's Career-Service program is a unique program in which students make their own selection of a job from a list of more than 500 possibilities provided by program director Warren Thomas, and assistant director William Hall. The student's selection is designed to give him a chance to gain experience in his prospective career through on-the-job training, or to serve in some religiously or socially oriented program.

Thomson will be among the participating sophomores to return to campus in June for the summer quarter, during which, in addition to carrying the normal three class course load, he will prepare for a second "off-campus" experience, the college's Foreign Study Program.

V. O. JOHNSON, administrator of the Chelsea Methodist Home, thanked the Rev. Wm. J. Rosemurgy, of the Dexter United Methodist church, for the church's gift to the Home at recent dedication ceremonies. The Dexter church donated a large, lighted bulletin board for the Home to place in their foyer with a directory of the Home's residents, and a place for special notices. The gift is the 1970 Lenten offering of the church, which has just been installed.

Evangelist Team Will Appear at Assembly of God
Evangelist and Mrs. Charles Fairfield and daughter, Valerie Kaye, will appear at the First Assembly of God church, 14900 Old US-12, April 8 through 18, the Rev. T. B. Thodeson, pastor, announced this week. The group, which is sometimes called "The Singing Fairfields," will present a series of "Good News" meetings, Thodeson said.

The Fairfields use electric guitar and accordion in their presentation, and relate easily to young people. They have presented gospel music with the modern beat at high school assemblies in a number of high schools.

Subjects such as "glossolalia" and "charisma" are not unfamiliar to this group, Thodeson said, and he hoped the local young people would take advantage of their visit.

Thinking preceded talking, the human race would have to develop some new form of exercise for the tongue.

Honduras has resigned from the Central America Common Market.

Sketch Erickson Will Appear at Ann Arbor High

Sketch Erickson, leading advertising artist and musician, will be appearing at Ann Arbor Pioneer High school, 7:30 p.m., April 3. Sketch often finds himself stepping on toes of people on both sides of the "generation gap." But the bearded Erickson usually wins the approval and respect of both after they hear him out.

Erickson presents programs in a series called "Pop Goes America," a no-holds-barred examination of trends in this country's so-called "pop" culture. His is an unusual, fast-paced program consisting of hundreds of hardhitting cartoon illustrations which he has created. These drawings are reinforced by the use of twin stereo tape amplifiers resounding with current "pop" music hits and dramatic vignettes from the sound track of his latest longplay record "Sketch Sounds Off."

In a whirlwind itinerary that takes him on a 60,000 mile criss cross tour of America each year, Erickson speaks an average of 12 times weekly. He is completely booked for the entire coming year for school assembly programs.

Appearing with Sketch will be Roger & Donna, Rose, bringing to the program the best in sacred and gospel music. Roger & Donna are both graduates of Moody Bible Institute and the University of Michigan. At present, they are associated with Camp Barakel, a year round Christian camping facility annually serving nearly 5000 people.

This program is presented by Huron Valley Youth for Christ. Admission is free.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ God and You

In the hustle and bustle of modern-day living, some of us find precious little time to devote to matters of faith and religion. We are busy. There is always something that needs to be done. We may budget an hour or two each Sunday to church attendance and let it go at that.

Everything works out fine—until we suddenly discover that we have come face to face with some problem situation that we cannot possibly work out alone. This is the moment that we send out a cry for help.

Perhaps we should be grateful that God is understanding. We should be thankful that God is not unaware of the frailties of human nature. If God were not so forgiving, would we dare turn to the pipeline of prayer in an hour of need?

We should try, even though it is difficult, to bring God more into the concept of our daily lives. This is not merely to say that we should go to church every day of the week. It is a more difficult thing. It is bringing God's commandment and God's will to the forefront, to a matter of constant realization. It is bringing God to the rightful position—to the center of all things.

TIME TO EXERCISE

Now that spring is here, try a little mild exercise. If you are in poor condition, get your doctor's okay, and then walk a block or two, or more. This is good advice, says the Michigan Heart Association, a Michigan United Fund agency.

Zion Lutheran Church Presenting Film Dealing With Behavior Problems

Lutheran Brotherhood of the Zion Lutheran church will present a movie Thursday evening, April 1, at 8 p.m. entitled "City of the Bees." The movie is sponsored by Sermons from Science, and will deal with problems of human behavior.

All members of other local churches, and interested parties may attend this movie which will be shown at the church located at Rogers Corners.

Pork Shoulder Offers Good Eating At Budget Prices

Pork, straight from the shoulder, offers "good eating at budget prices," says a Michigan State University consumer marketing information agent.

"The most popular pork cuts," explains Miss Ada Shinabarger, "and therefore the most expensive ones, are roasts and chops from the loin, hams and spare ribs. But, a porker is not all chops, hams and spare ribs."

"The Boston Butt, a square piece of meat from the upper part of the shoulder, leads pork cuts in its percentage of lean meat," the Grand Rapids-based agent points out. "It contains 84 percent lean, while ham is only 63 percent, lean, and loins 67 percent."

The Boston Butt is usually cut into pork steaks and a small roast, Miss Shinabarger explains. The steaks have the same blade-shaped bones as blade chuck beef cuts. The roast has only a small bone.

Roasts are sold both with bone-in and boneless. "The bone-in roast is the best value," Miss Shinabarger explains. "The bone is very small so with a boneless roast, you get only slightly more meat but not enough to pay even 10 cents more per pound."

Instructors Course In Canoeing Slated By Red Cross

An instructors course in canoeing is available to area residents this Spring through the Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Demand for the basic canoeing course is being given to increase that, for the first time, the instructors course is being given to increase the county's supply of qualified canoeing instructors. Previously this certification was available only through the 10-day Red Cross Aquatic and Small Craft Schools.

"Practice teaching" in tandem with experienced instructors will be part of the training. The training sessions will be conducted all day Saturdays and Sundays afternoons starting April 24 and concluding May 16.

Instructor-candidates must be 17 years of age, have either completed the Basic Red Cross canoeing course or be skilled canoeists, and be able to sustain themselves in deep water for 15 minutes and tow a "victim" 15 feet.

This course will be taught by Mrs. John Dice, program coordinator, who has received appointment from the Red Cross National Office as a Canoeing Instructor-trainer. Mrs. Dice is the only person in Washtenaw county to have this rating.

Interested persons may register for the course by contacting the Red Cross at 971-5300.

Porklets are pork cubed steaks, made from slices of boned cuts such as sirloin or blade loin, shoulder and fresh ham. The meat is generally put through a mechanical cubing machine.

Area, is especially fitted for this presentation.

The Burg collection consists of stone tools, arrowheads, and other artifacts of the tribes that once inhabited this area, gathered by

Red Cross Needs Motor Service Drivers

Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross urgently needs responsible motor service drivers. The volunteer driver provides efficient transportation for all Red Cross programs whenever and wherever needed, assisting hospitals and health and welfare organizations in transporting children and handicapped adults to and from clinics.

Also, drivers transport Veterans' Administration Hospital patients to recreational activities and deliver blood to five area hospitals.

To be a volunteer in the motor service requires a sincere desire to help people and pays big personal dividends to the driver who can spend a morning, afternoon, or day per week driving a Red Cross wagon. If you cannot drive on a regular basis, substitute drivers are needed too.

If you desire any additional information or are interested in becoming a motor service driver, please contact Mrs. Marilyn Coulson, Washtenaw County Chapter, American Red Cross, 2729 Packard Rd., Ann Arbor, phone 971-5300.

Civitan Club Seeks Performers For Talent Show

Frank Hill, president of the Chelsea Civitan Club, reminded local residents that auditions for the annual Civitan sponsored Amateur Talent Show will begin this week-end, and continue into next week-end. Auditions will be held Saturday, April 3, and Saturday, April 10, at the high school auditorium, from 10 a.m. until noon, each day.

Hill indicated that response thus far has been limited and that more acts are welcomed. The show will be held Saturday evening, April 17, at 8 p.m., and will feature individual acts, and group acts in both senior and junior divisions.

Those interested in auditioning are urged to contact Norm O'Connor, 475-7262, chairman of the program; Mrs. Jerold Heller, 475-7382; or Frank Hill, 475-7556, to arrange an audition time.

Co-Op Nursery Seeks Funds To Construct Tornado Shelter

In order to raise money to construct a tornado shelter at the school used by the Chelsea Co-operative Nursery, members are planning a rummage sale for Saturday, April 17, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the school on the Dexter-Chelsea Rd.

The old school building is without facilities recommended for such a shelter and the mothers hope to provide one. Clothing, household goods and appliances will be needed. Parents of "alumni" of Chelsea Co-Op are urged to contribute to the sale along with any other interested residents.

Those having contributions may call Dexter, 426-3368, or Chelsea, 475-5411.

Girl Scouts Entertain Fathers

"Keep the Fun Baby" was the theme of the Thursday evening, March 18 celebration of Juliette Lowe's birthday, by area Girl Scouts and their fathers.

Jane Mann, Miss Chelsea 1969, was Mistress of Ceremonies for the evening at the ceremonies which celebrated scouting. Jane has been involved in scouting as a Brownie, and continued through the 10th grade. Scouting still holds a warm spot in her heart. Chairman of the ticket committee for the school play, she is treasurer of the Student Council at Chelsea High school, and was the Chelsea recipient of the DAR award this year.

"Keep the Fun Baby" is a tribute to Juliette Lowe, founder of Girl Scouting in America. Mrs. Lowe was a very vibrant and energetic person, and she believed that service should be fun as well as a part of the program of scouting.

Chelsea Girl Scouts demonstrated their love of fun in their song presentations which they made for their fathers. Brownie Troop 169 started the singing with the most popular and traditional song of Brownies all over the country, "The Brownie Scout Smile Song." Brownies of Troop 247 then presented other "smile" songs, starting with "John Jacob Jingle Hymmer Schmidt," followed by "Rubber Ducky."

Junior Troop 58 presented a selection of songs sung in parts, presenting a song called "Caliope."

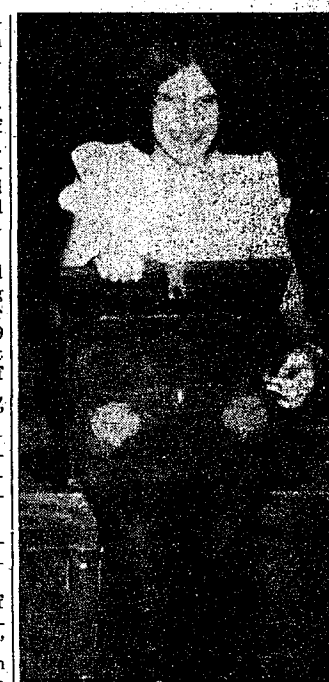

Showing their scouting sense of humor, Brownies of Troop 84 enacted a skit entitled "The Worm," which was followed by an action song presented by Junior Troop 82, entitled "Spades."

Cadet Troop 98 represented individual tastes, as Barbara Roy, Pam Marshall, and Bernice Pearson sang "Amen," while the rest of the troop sang "I Love the Flowers."

Brownie Troop 145 finished the program of singing with a song from the Philippine Islands, "Planting Rice."

Mrs. Lauri Moyle was speaker of the evening. She is presently an adult volunteer, with the Senior Planning Committee, and the Selections Committee for Wider Opportunities. Mrs. Moyle has been involved in scouting since she was in the 5th grade. She attended the Idaho Round-Up in 1965, and the National Convention in Detroit in 1966. As a Senior Scout, she was an advisor on the Senior Planning Committee. Mrs. Moyle spoke of her experiences in 1967 at the Swiss Chalet, an international scouting retreat sponsored by the Juliette Lowe Fund. Her trip to the chalet was paid for out of Juliette Lowe Funds, collected from Scouts all over the country.

Mrs. Moyle told of how the girls who visited the Swiss Chalet with herself ran the house on a patrol basis. She explained that this was GUEST SPEAKER for area Girl Scouts' Father-Daughter night, Mrs. Lauri Moyle, holds the treasure chest containing contributions from Chelsea Girl Scouts to the Juliette Lowe Friendship Fund. sometimes a very difficult thing, as Scouts from all over the world were present, and many language barriers existed.

She encouraged local Cadet Scouts to apply for any one of the many "Wide Opportunities," such as this one, which are available to girls in scouting, both nationally and internationally.

Following the talk, and slide presentation, a donation was taken for the Juliette Lowe Fund. Jane Mann then presented awards to Junior Troops 58, and 82, for their accomplishments in sales of cookies. She also presented a token gift to Mrs. Moyle for her appearance. A token gift was then, in turn, given to Jane.

Program closed with the singing of taps, followed by refreshments.

TEACHER TOPICS

By Cindy Carpmann
Speech Therapist, Chelsea Schools
The ability to communicate effectively can be our greatest asset or our greatest handicap. Whether we become a doctor, teacher, salesman, secretary—whatever—we are judged by others to a certain extent as to how well we present ourselves. Ideally, what we have to say should be the most important factor, but oftentimes how we say it overpowers the content.

"Speech is defective when it deviates so far from the speech of other people that it calls attention to itself, interferes with communication, or causes its possessor to be misunderstood." The seven-year-old child who says "wabbit" for "rabbit" or "thank you" instead of "thank ya," probably is far from being maladjusted, and really is not defective, but if this behavior remained until age 15 or so, chances are the child would call attention to himself.

The purpose of having a speech therapist see your child, therefore, is threefold: (1) to reduce your child's speech handicap so that the child may be more easily understood, (2) to reduce the auditory and visual abnormalities of the speech handicap, and (3) to help speech handicapped children become better adjusted to their environment by improving their communication abilities.

In Chelsea, we start by examining all children at the beginning of the year in the elementary schools for the purpose of detecting speech defects. Those children who have mild, moderate, or severe speech problems are enrolled in a speech class—as are other children who may be referred during the year by their teachers. The groups range in size from one to five or six children, at the most, so the child in the speech class has a good deal of individualized attention. In these classes we work on the many different areas of speech including articulation, (where the child works on specific sounds with which he has difficulty), voice quality, pitch, inflection, rate, rhythm, et cetera. The speechwork we do has a great influence on the child's reading, and many times is tied in with other concepts the child is learning in his regular classroom.

Another aspect of your speech therapy program begins when your child does... in kindergarten. Here, a half-year of a Speech Improvement Program (which began this month) is presented to each kindergarten class as a whole. They begin to learn the fundamentals of listening for sounds, and becoming aware of their own vocal mechanisms, and how we use different sounds to convey different meanings. The emphasis here is awareness—having the child learn to listen to himself, his peers and to the sounds of his environment.

The speech therapy program exists for your children—to help them along the rocky developmental road of language acquisition. It is a tool for learning more than one of remediation, for your child learns his own capacity to master his speech, to change the mistakes he does make, and to eliminate the handicap that would trouble him even more in future years.

Sixth Grade Hot Line

Mrs. Brown's Room
Did you know that in England the people call the hood of a car the bonnet? The 6th grade wouldn't have known it if Mrs. Jean Lewis had not given us a program on England. On Thursday, March 18, we saw slides and some money that Mrs. Lewis brought in. We thank Mrs. Lewis for her time and kindness.
Barbara Hinderer.

Help! Europe is six feet by seven feet! Did it shrink? No, Julie Chapman, Barbara Hinderer and Mark Warren made a huge map of Europe. It has all of Europe and part of USSR. It is a big help in studying our unit on Europe.
Lisa Walworth.

What is there to know about Europe? Well, Mrs. Brown's class it trying to find out. To make it a little easier, four or five of us are working on each European country. But that still is not quite right because that is a little too much to do. So, within each committee, each member is working on one special topic about that country. We're writing research papers and will put up bulletin boards later on telling the rest of the class about our country.
Sue Thompson.

On April 1, all of the sixth graders are going to Ypsilanti to see the play, "Indian Captive," by Lois Lenksi. I myself, think that it's going to be a scalping adventure.
Nancy Rossbach.

Do any of you know Johnny Tremain? We do because in reading we are reading historical fiction, and Johnny Tremain is one of the characters. We've been having fun trying different kinds of books. We read mysteries, science fiction, and soon will be reading animal and sports stories.

Julie Chapman.

Grass skirts, sun-tanned people, tough GI's and girls. I'll bet you can't guess what all that means. "South Pacific" of course! Last week, all of Beach Middle School went to see the Broadway hit, "South Pacific." It was, as a matter of fact, a very good play.
Dawn Albrecht.

Oh! Oh! Bad news! The Stanford Achievement tests are here! They are headed straight for Tuesday morning, Wednesday afternoon, and Thursday morning. They are on the 23rd through the 25th. Beware all 6th graders! The Stanford Achievement tests are coming!
Mark Warren.

We've got camp in an' we've got shoot us some varmints! With a camera, of course. We're going to Mill Creek Camp and can take along binoculars and cameras. We're going May 10-12 and a second group of us going May 12-14th. We're staying two nights, having many activities, bonfires, singing, telling stories, and eating.
Karen Simon.

Have you ever gone right home, changed clothes, put on your playclothes, and realized that not once during the day did you get a pat on the back? Well, that's the way we often feel. So, we have a NICE BOX. A NICE BOX is used this way—when someone is doing a good job or looks especially nice, we write a compliment down on a piece of paper and put it in the NICE BOX, unsigned. Every Friday, we take turns reading the compliments to the class. It really makes a guy feel good!
Steve Robbins.

Variety meats are more palatable than other meats. Don't overstock. This category includes liver, brains, heart, kidneys, sweetbreads, tongue and others. Sweetbreads are so delicate and fragile they need precooking (in water with lemon juice or vinegar) to make them firm enough for handling.
