Golf Team Primed for Shot at Title

Chelsea's golf team played in its first meet April 15, tying with Saline, although losing to Dexter. Dexter won the triangular match with a score of 179. Saline and Chelsea each scored 185. Don Conklin was medalist with a score of 41, followed by Dave Powers, 45, Craig Alter, 48, and Glen Musolf, 51.

Tuesday, April 20, the Bulldogs avenged their earlier loss to Dexter by defeating the Dreadnaughts, 166 to 179. Medalist for the meet was Jim Wojcicki, of Chelsea, with a score of 38, followed by Mark Policht, 40, Don Conklin, 44, Jack McClear, 44 and Dave Powers, 45.

Chelsea's record now stands one win, one loss, and one tie. Coach Pat Wade claims the Bulldogs are a very strong contender for the Southeastern Conference Championship this spring. His team totals 20 young men, who practice each day at the Inverness Country Club.

As in the past, the team is fortunate in its golf program to have the courtesy of playing at the Inverness Country Club, guests of the Club. Fritz McMullen, club professional, has been very helpful with his advice and suggestions, Wade said.

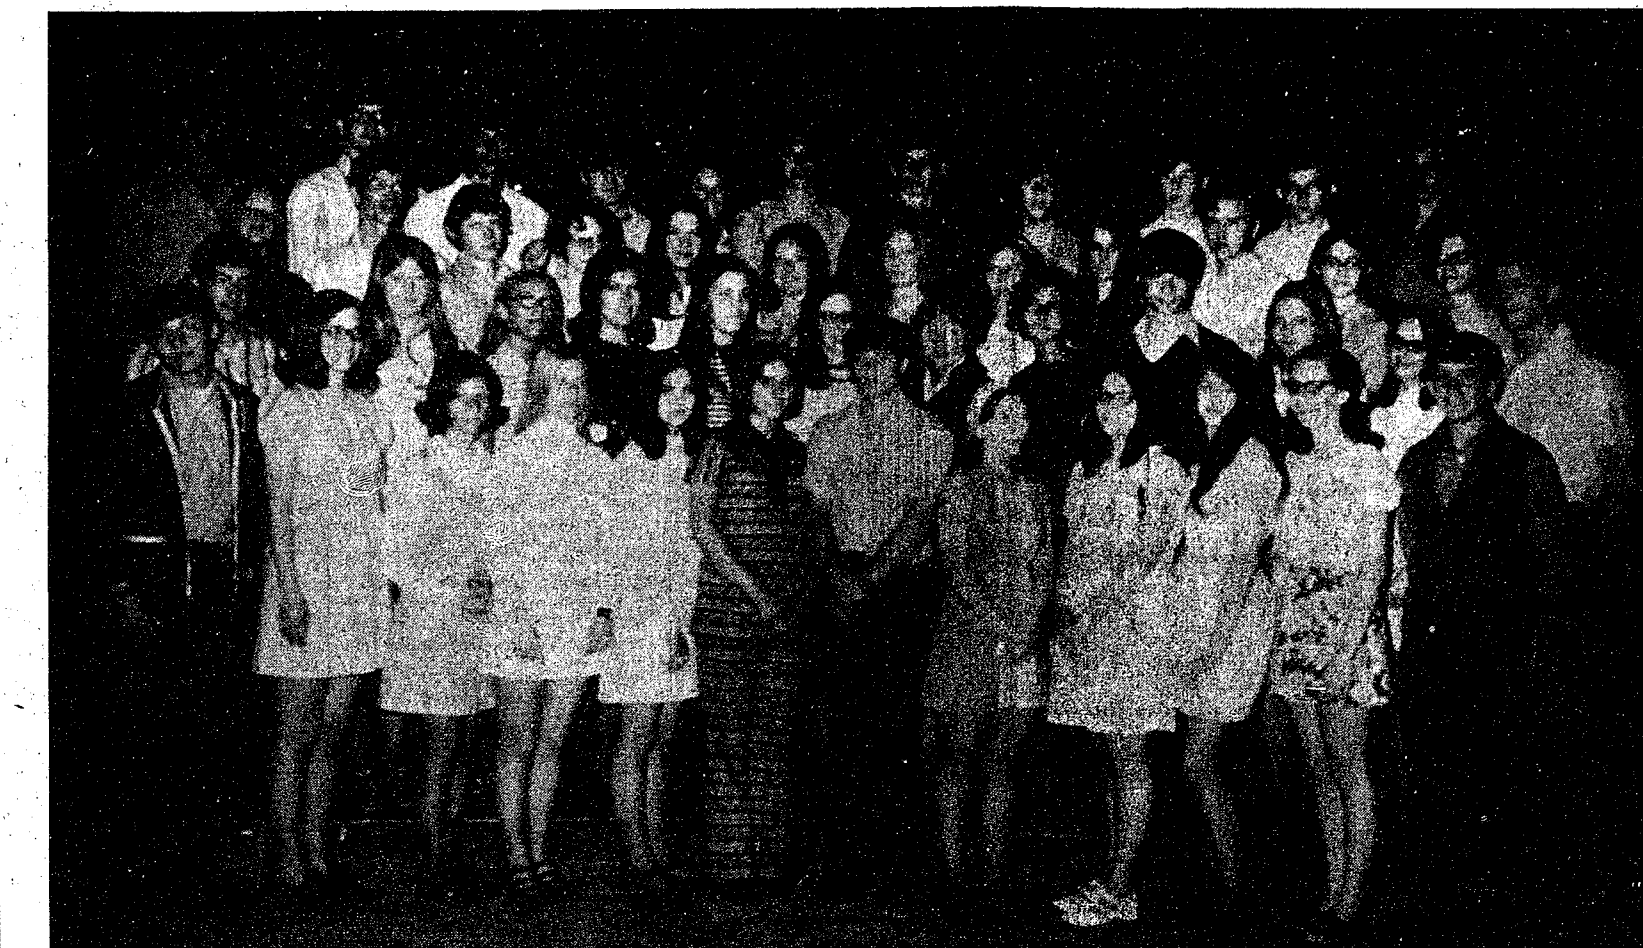

Players likely to see much variety action this season are seniors Mike Powers, team leader, newcomers Jim Wojcicki, and Jack McClear; juniors Dave Powers, and Glen Musolf; and sophomores Mark Policht, Don Conklin, and Craig Alter.

Chelsea was scheduled to play Stockbridge and Pinckney, Wednesday, April 21. Today, Thursday, April 22, Chelsea has a big triangular meet against Saline and Dundee at Saline.

St. Mary School To Remain Open

Rumors abound, and confusion is rampant concerning the future fate of St. Mary Catholic School, and the subsequent effect which a closing of St. Mary's would have on the Chelsea schools.

Officials at St. Mary Catholic school in Chelsea have assured the community that the school, which presently teaches grades 1 through 5, will remain open for the coming 1971-72 school year. No enrollment restrictions and no cut-back of grades will be made at this time.

Village Budget Is Approved For $325,216

Expenditures at Nearly Same Level But Tax Levy Will Be Reduced Some

Chelsea's annual Village Budget for the upcoming year was approved at a public hearing Tuesday evening, April 20. Only three residents turned out to take action on the proposed budget, which is about the same as last year's revenue allocations.

Village Administrator, Fritz Weber said that a total operating budget of $352,216.58 was approved. The new budget included few changes from last year. Weber added that the village will be operating on basically the same anticipated revenue as last year, although, he claimed the state-shared revenues have increased some, due to the results of the recent census.

Total assessment in the village increased an estimated 19.7 percent, Weber claimed, so the village appropriately decreased their millage by 18.7 percent. Last year's millage was 7.3, with 6.15 in the general fund; .35 in the library fund, and .30 for the sewer bonds retirement fund. This year the village will levy a 6.25 mill tax, to which 5.25 mills will go toward the general fund, .33 to the library, and .57 to the sewer retirement fund.

Baseball Team Undeclared in League Play

Bulldog baseball team, off to a slow start this spring, has been pretty busy of late. Wednesday, April 14, the team played Dundee at Dundee, winning the event by a 2-1 margin.

Chelsea scored their first run in the first inning, as Dave Lukasik singled, and went to second on an error. He scored when Ron Sweeney singled.

Dundee tied up the game in the bottom of the first with a home run.

Chelsea got the winning run in the seventh inning, on a double by Randy Brier. He scored on a single by Wayne Welton.

Coach Genske noted that Chelsea had the bases loaded in the fourth and sixth innings, but failed to score. Dundee threatened in the sixth inning, with the bases loaded and no outs. "Wayne Welton pitched himself out of a jam," Genske claimed.

Welton, who was on the mound for the Bulldogs for the first time this season, proved himself very effective his coach claimed. Welton struck out 10 batters, and gave up only three walks in the contest.

Tuesday afternoon, April 20, Chelsea met Milan at home for a long error-filled game. Final score for the afternoon was 12-8 Chelsea's favor, Genske said.

In the first inning, Chelsea scored two runs on three singles and a sacrifice. Milan retaliated in the second inning on a single, an error, and a wild pitch.

Chelsea picked up two more runs in the third inning on a walk, a stolen base, a double, a wild pitch, and sacrifice fly.

The Bulldogs broke loose in the fifth inning, scoring five runs on four hits. Dave Lukasik led off with a homer, followed by Randy Brier who walked, and stole second. Wayne Welton singled, and Joe Aspiranti tripled, driving in Brier, and Welton. Todd Sprague walked, Keith Pfeifle singled, scoring Aspiranti, and Sprague then scored on a wild pitch.

Milan came back in the sixth inning to score five runs on two homers, and four walks.

Girls Track Team Sets 2 New Records

Chelsea girls participated in an all-comers track meet at the high school Tuesday afternoon, April 20, competing against lady runners from East Jackson and Dexter.

Janet Sibley took first-place honors in the high jump, with a leap of 5'2", followed by Jan Nevill in second place, and Joan Yocum in third.

Vicky Myers set a new school record with her first-place toss in the shot put event, for 30'9". Anne Marie Lewandowski was second, and Lori Fritz third in that event.

Peggy Kraai placed second in the 80-yard hurdles in :11.7 for a new school record. Her performance places her second in the state in that category. Janet Sibley took third in that event.

Another new school record was set by the 440-yard relay team, of :35.5. This betters the team's already established first-place time in the state rankings. Runners on that team are Peggy Kraai, Alicia Pierson, Janet Sibley, and Bonnie Wengren.

Medley relay team took first place also, setting a new record, and established themselves as the top medley relay in the state also. Running the event in 1:57.6, members of the team were Janet Sibley, Pat Poertner, Peggy Kraai, and Bonnie Wengren.

Bonnie Wengren, still recovering from a muscle injury, placed second in the 100-yard dash.

Donna Brand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brand, 31455 Sylvan Rd., flew to Texas during her spring vacation, April 4-8, to visit her sister, Diane, in Amarillo.

WINNING DRIVER and navigator, who took top honors in Sunday afternoon's Rallye Day, USA, 1971, sponsored by Palmer Ford Drag Club, and the Ford Motorsports Association, were presented with trophies by Drag Club president, Richard Bol-

27 Vehicles Participate in First Annual Rallye Day

Palmer Ford Drag Club sponsored "Rallye Day, USA, 1971" was held Sunday afternoon, April 18. A bright day, and balmy weather greeted enthusiastic drag club members, and interested parties, who turned out in great numbers to compete in this first annual event.

A total of 27 cars started from the Stop & Shop parking lot, to try their luck at the complicated 60-mile circuit. Only 25 of the vehicles returned—and drag strip officials still don't know what happened to the remaining two cars! The rallye route directed drivers through tortuous routes in the Waterloo Recreation Area. Required time to complete the circuit was 65 minutes. Most vehicles, however, spent much of the afternoon driving round and round in the woods. One of the last vehicles to come in, officials reported, was a VW whose members had included a stop at a local drive-in before completing their round!

Winning vehicle was driven by Bill Hafner, and navigated by Dave Heydlauff. Second-place driver was Phil Musolf whose navigator was Connie Fletcher.

Winners were presented trophies provided by the Ford Motorsports Association. Presentation was made by Drag Club president Richard Bollinger and Marlon Smith, activity chairman.

Those who participated reported the day was a great day to ride around, and the event was much fun.

It is hoped that the two lost vehicles eventually found their way out of the Waterloo woods, even though they weren't able to find their way back to the Stop & Shop parking lot!

Junior-Senior Prom Set Saturday, May 1

Many persons have argued about what a young man's fancy turns toward with the coming of spring. Most young ladies, however, turn their fancies to thoughts of the prom. This year's Junior-Senior Prom promises to hold the fancies of many, as the event begins to take shape.

Chairman for this year's prom is junior Jackie Schiller. The event, which is little more than a week away, will center on the theme "Evening in Paris."

A banquet will precede the formal dance, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Robert Aeillo will be in charge of the banquet activities, and is to be assisted by mothers of the members of the junior class. Also addressing the revelers will be president of the junior class, Dave Lukasik, with a return address by Jeff Bust, senior class president.

Beginning at 8:30, the party will move into the school gymnasium, which will be decorated to resemble a garden overlooking Paris. Sidewalk cafes, and an Eiffel Tower will dot the scene. High point of the decorations will be a fountain in the middle of the gym floor.

Jackie Schiller indicated that by Saturday afternoon, hopefully, all construction in the gym will be completed, and the scene will be open for members of the town wishing to view it.

Activities at the school will conclude with the showing of a movie, which will take place in the auditorium at 2:30 a.m.

Chairmen for this year's prom include Tom McKernan, ideas; Randy Seitz, construction; Dave Lukasik, entertainment; Jeanne Haselschwardt, food; Patty Eisele, invitations; and Mary Slane, money making. Kenneth Larson, mathematics teacher at the high school, is adult advisor for this year's event.

Chairman Schiller says that members of the junior and senior class need not have escorts to this year's event. So all the mothers of local boys can get off their sons' backs, and stop nagging: "Why don't you take that nice little . . . to the Prom?"

Just remember men, it's only 10 days away.

ROADSIDES CLEAN-UP CREW: Members of the the Waterloo 4-H Club met Wednesday, April 14 to do their part for Ecology Week. The club picked up trash along Waterloo Rd., and Beeman Rd., gathering about 64 bags of trash, altogether, along with numerous pieces of larger "junk." Those who participated in the clean-up campaign included, front row, from left: Margaret Bassett, Mary Kate Lewis, Colleen Lewis, Dawn Roderick, Suzi Lewis, Margaret Lewis. Second row includes, same order: Jenny Bott, Joe Ewald, Tom Gilbreath, Suzanne Bassett, Gail Gilbreath, and Julie Tite. In the third row are: Leslie Gilbreath, Ricky Beeman, Floyd Schulz, Tim Bassett, Beverly Bott, Marjio Bott, and Terri Gilbreath. The eager "cleaner-uppers" announced following their spree that in the future they will think twice before they throw trash along a roadside!

Washington Report

by Congressman

MARVIN L. ESCH

As this report is being written, Congress is in the midst of an Easter recess. When it returns, there will be a great many important items of business, but few are more essential than the necessity for a new federal campaign spending law.

Eight out of 10 Americans want broad changes in our election procedures. I would guess that if members of Congress themselves were polled, the percentage favoring sweeping reform would be about the same.

Congress passed a political broadcasting bill last year. The President said it was discriminatory and exercised his power of veto. The broadcasters agreed with him. Now, a new Congress has the opportunity to offer a new bill. We also have the advantage of knowing the position of the White House. It should be the goal of this Congress to meet the objections of 1970, and go even further with a strong, effective and realistic law that has teeth in it.

I am drafting a campaign reform legislative package that will meet the present deficiencies familiar to all. These are: excessive costs; inadequate methods of reporting that are a sham and actually encourage cynicism and evasion in the election process; and the temptation of many candidates to lean too heavily on big contributions.

The legislation I propose will contain the following provisions:

1) Limit the amount a candidate can spend.

2) Set ceilings on how much a candidate can receive from any individual or group. (This will eliminate the sugar-daddy syndrome).

3) Full disclosure, with severe penalties for violations.

4) Central reporting, possibly in the Government Accounting Office.

5) Tax credits for those who donate up to $50. (Designed to encourage greater grass roots participation).

6) Repeal of the equal time provisions for candidates for the Presidency, the Senate and House.

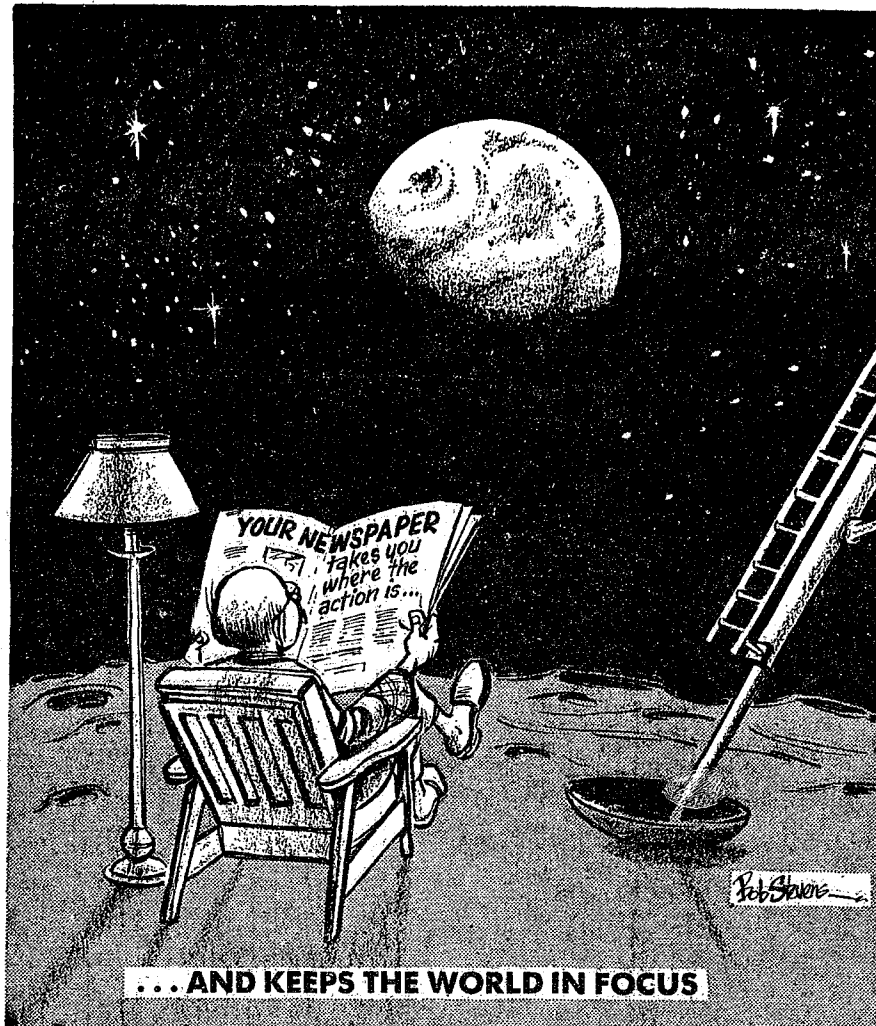

7) Provisions for selling broadcast time, newspaper space, and other advertising media at the lowest possible rates.

8) Equalize, as much as possible, the advantages the incumbent has over the challenger.

These are not new ideas, yet if we make certain the bill we pass contains many of them, then our proposal will be significant and will answer the summons.

Time, however, is short. Unless Congress acts this year, it will be 1972, and another election will be upon us, renewing partisan battle lines.

The time to perform affirmatively and meaningfully is now.

Cabinet Formed

Michigan Democrats have formed a sort of "shadow cabinet" to keep an eye on the way Republican Gov. William G. Milliken conducts the business of his office.

The group is headed, naturally, by former State Sen. Sander Levin of Berkley, the man Milliken defeated last fall. It includes Secretary of State Richard H. Austin and Attorney General Frank J. Kelley along with 30 other prominent Democrats.

Party Chairman James McNeely said one of the group's jobs will be "to develop responsible alternatives to policies and programs of the Milliken administration when, in the committee's considered judgment, the policies and programs are not in the best interests of the state and its people."

It can be expected to promulgate alternate programs to Milliken's whenever the Democrats feel they see flaws in the Governor's proposals.

"Government is a continuing process which neither begins nor ends with elections," Levin said.

When the committee was formed, "Our two-party system is effective because it offers a choice, not just among candidates, but a choice of programs and policies."

We are determined that the people of Michigan will continue to have that option in the daily conduct of state government."

"There is no shortage of issues. We hope to provide basic ideas, imagination and innovation in resolving some of these issues."

State Democratic leadership actually jumped the gun on its own committee by coming out in March in favor of increasing the state income tax, Oct. 1 rather than next Jan. 1 as Milliken proposed.

The membership released a report drawn up by University of Michigan economist Harvey Brazor, which said Milliken had placed too much blame on the General Motors strike and not enough on a sagging economy for the state's fiscal woes. The report said if the state is really to get itself out of economic trouble, the income tax increase will have to come earlier than Milliken wanted.

Levin was quick to say, however, that this criticism of Milliken and any others that might come along wouldn't be totally political in origin.

"Today the issues are too serious for playing games," he said. "The challenge before this committee is for real."

Savings Grow
The economic downturn which hit Michigan last year apparently made residents of the state more careful with their money.

Reports issued by the State Commerce Department on activities of both state chartered banks and savings and loan institutions, show savings increased more than $600 million in the last year.

The 230 state chartered banks reported their total assets increased by 6.3 percent last year from $10.4 billion to $11 billion. Of this increase, $573 million came in time and savings deposits, the banks reported.

At the same time, the 31 state chartered savings and loan associations saw the savings deposited in them grow by $103 million. This trend continued through January of this year when total savings increased another $20 million, the associations reported to the department.

Construction Increases
The Commerce Department reports at least one sign of increasing economic activity in the state.

Airport construction projects costing upwards of $30 million are expected to be placed under contract during 1971, it says.

D. Ramsey says this is nearly twice as large as it was last year, mainly because of increased federal appropriations under provisions of the National Airport Development Act.

Michigan will receive an estimated $15 million in federal airport funds under the act, compared to $7 million last year.

Scout officials claim they want the local public to attend their annual event for several reasons, most important of them: "It will help strengthen their (the public's) faith in America, seeing what scouting is and can do in carrying out the objectives of character building, citizenship training, and physical fitness."

Scout-O-Rama will be open from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, April 24, and from 6:30 until 9 p.m. On Sunday, the booths will be available for display from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

Any scout selling more than 10 tickets to the event is eligible for prizes. When he sells 10 tickets, he receives an official Scout-O-Rama patch. Twenty tickets sold and the scout earns a Boy Scout knife, while at 40 tickets sold, he receives a two-quart official canteen. A Boy Scout watch will be given to those selling 75 tickets.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

A few weeks ago, the fellows got in a discussion at the country store about this professor that was suing his college for firing him cause he was 69 years old. Well, Clem Webster came in Saturday night with this report how in a few years they won't be no old folks, so they won't be no call to fire em cause of their age.

Clem had saw this piece that said scientists is making progress in studies to slow down man's "aging clock" and even run the clock backwards. He said that inside of 25 years we will be able to stop our clocks at 40 and keep em there 60 years.

But Zeke Grubb was of a mind that the article left out more than it said. Per instant, ask Zeke; does a 40 year old feller get up one morning 30 year later and die from shock when he sees he is shaving a 70 year old face? (And if his stopped clock just lets him live 60 year longer, is he going to build time on the job to retirement, or is his clock stopped?)

It's one thing to stop the aging clock, allowed Zeke, but it's another to back it up. He ask the fellows what age they would like to go back to, and nobody could make up their mind. Ed Doolittle said he wouldn't mind going back to the year afore the arthritis got in his shoulder bad, but he had learned to live with it. Josh Clodhopper voted for 1932 prices and 1971 wages, and he said he'd settle for any age he happened to get below 75, cause he'd put enuff back in two year to live the rest of his days, no matter how long he lived.

Clem said after he read the piece he got to thinking about the wimmen, and how none of em would ever admit to being 40 in the first place. Clem said he wondered why the scientists figger to stop our clocks at 40, when most wimmen stop theirs around 30. One thing for shore, added Clem, the scientists won't go begging fer folks to try out whatever they come up with to run them clocks back, cause wimmen now is taking years off their lives working so hard to stay young.

Serious speaking, Mister Editor, time is strange. Ever now and then we see where the earth will get too close to the sun and burn up in another billion years. I wonder if anybody would pay attention if that was cut to 50 year, or 10? They say the Tower of Pisa will lean to far and fall in 200 year, but I ain't worried.

The truth is, we all jest live now and we don't think about how many times our heart beats a hour, or how many of our brain cells die ever day.

Like the feller said, life is hard by the yard, but it's a cinch by the inch.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

JV Baseball Team Opens Season Today

Chelsea's Junior Varsity baseball team opens its 1971 season today, Thursday, April 22, against Tecumseh on the local field. Game time is 4 p.m.

According to Coach Richard Bareis, this year's team is composed of 10 sophomores and 14 freshmen. Playing their second year of ball are Dan Berke, Dan Boham, John Mann, Steve Keiser, Steve Siebert, Bob Schaffer, and Keith Hume.

Doug Hillman, Mark Grambau, and Jeff Daniels are sophomores who are out for the first time this year.

JV managers are Don Morrison, Donald Nadeau, Mike Bareis, and Cindy Bareis.

Chelsea's JV team has been practicing since March 1. Coach Bareis said, and many boys show much ability. He claims the biggest problem facing the team at this point is whether or not the pitching staff will be able to throw strikes!

Coach Bareis is being helped this year by teacher Dennis Andarise.

Girls Are Tops...

and to make the Chelsea relay team first in the state in this event. Runners on that team were Peggy Kraai, Alicia Pierson, Robin Terns, and Bonnie Wengren.

The medley relay team placed second, with a time that ranks them third in the state. Members of that team are Pat Poertner, Alicia Pierson, Jill Peterson, and Janet Sibley.

Coach John Bauer, said that several other members of the Chelsea team did fine jobs, which shows lots of promise for his team.

A return match against Lincoln Park is scheduled for May 17, Bauer said. He claimed the Chelsea girls will have to work hard for that meet, and be able to "pull some surprises."

As a result of Wednesday's match, Chelsea now has the best lady track team in the state, and will be "the team to beat," Bauer claimed. He said his girls will have to continue to work hard if they are to maintain their hard won advantage.

13 Youthful Acts Compete in Civitan Club Talent Show

Chelsea's second annual Civitan Club sponsored Amateur Talent Show was presented Saturday evening, April 17, at the high school auditorium. Thirteen youthful acts competed for top honors in the senior and junior divisions.

First-place winners in the senior division were Haddi Brown, Alicia Young, and Nancy Young, who performed Country and Western favorites in a three-piece band. Second-place honors went to Dwight Bolanowski, while Jeanne Haselschwardt and Sherri Freeman took third place.

Other contestants in the senior division were Laurie Lancaster, Ed Koenigter, and Carolyn O'Connor.

Douglas Foreman, playing the organ, took first place in the junior division. David Wireman was second-place winner, and Kent Heller took third place.

Other contestants in the junior division included Alan Dalton, Pam Siebert and Michele Papo, Beth Bush and Rene Papo and Harold Vandervoort.

Winners in each division received U. S. Savings Bonds. First-place winners received $75 bonds, second received $50 bonds, and third took $25 bonds.

Judges for the event included Vic Vance, from WAAM radio station in Ann Arbor, the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Frinkle, and Mrs. Betty Rasmussen. William Rademacher was Master of Ceremonies for the show.

Al Nalli Music store provided the organ for use by some of the contestants.

Norman O'Connor was chairman of this year's show, while Steve Slane, president-elect of the club, was co-ordinator. Frank Hill is president of the Civitan Club this year.

Metal-Stubbed Tires Must Be Removed

From Cars By May 1

The use of metal-stubbed tires on Michigan highways is permitted until May 1, according to State Police officials.

To hard hit snow-belt areas in outstate areas, this may be welcome reminder as spring weather arrives. In many snow free sections of the state, motorists are already removing the stubbed tires from their cars and trucks.

Michigan's Motor Vehicle Code spells out specifications for the stubbed tires and allows their use on state roads from Nov. 1 to May 1.

WINNING CONTESTANTS in the Civitan Club sponsored Talent Show, in the senior division, were, from left, Haddi Brown, Mary Young, and Alicia Young. The girls have a three piece band, and played country and western favorites. They received a $75 U. S. Savings Bond for their efforts.

JUNIOR DIVISION WINNER in Saturday evening's Talent Show was Douglas Foreman. Douglas played selections on the organ for his top honors. Douglas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Foreman.

Pre-Kindergarten Registration

September, an entering student must have a doctor's statement verifying that the child has been immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, smallpox, and polio, and has TB test. This must accompany the child on his first day of school. Forms for immunization are available at registration.

Parents who will not be able to attend the meeting of May 18 are urged to call the school offices on or before May 18 or shortly thereafter, to arrange an alternate time. Children may be registered by phone. Numbers to call are: North school—475-2877, or South school—475-2913. All entering kindergartners must be registered prior to school's opening date, in order to be placed in a classroom for the first day of school.

All children who will be five years of age on or before Dec. 1, 1971, may enter kindergarten in the fall. Parents of these children are urged to be present on May 18 to take the first major step in providing for their children's education. School officials remind parents that they must see their child's birth certificate at this meeting, or not later than opening day of school. This is a state requirement, which must be met, they say.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Frank Myers, Wilkinson St., entertained her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Welch from Petoskey over the week-end. Mrs. Myers reported that she has grape hyacinths, tulips and daffodils blooming in her yard.

Unadilla Man Held on Charge Of Selling Heroin

Howell — A 22-year-old Unadilla man is being held in Livingston county jail on a bond of $25,000 after being arrested Monday on a charge of the sale of heroin.

He is William R. Tait of 18101 Hadley Rd., Unadilla. He pleaded not guilty Monday afternoon to the charge during his arraignment in District Court.

The arrest was made by officers from the Sheriff's Department and Brighton Post of the State Police. One of the officers posed as a buyer of heroin at the time of the arrest.

Social security payments are the largest single share—about 34 percent—of the income of people 65 or over and their spouses.

ACT Exams Slated Saturday

ACT exams, American College Testing, will be administered at Chelsea High school Saturday morning, April 24, in the library.

Protection Assured For Student Records

East Lansing — Michigan State University had developed new procedures to insure that individuals are protected from misuse of information contained in their academic records.

Requests for aggregate academic data for use in research for other purposes will go before a special screening committee for consideration.

Written approval from the student would be required for release of information or transcript from his academic records.

Students are asked to remember to bring their admission tickets to this exam, which is the last of its kind to be given in Chelsea for this year.

Any student who must still take the ACT exam for college admission may enroll to take the tests at either Jackson Parkside High school, or Washtenaw Community College this summer. Details may be obtained at the Guidance Office at Chelsea High school.

Students are asked to be in the library at 8 a.m., where the testing will begin at 8:20. Testing should be finished no later than 12:15 p.m., Chelsea High school counselor George Bergman stated.

Of some 260,000 adults who have been disabled since childhood and collect social security disability benefits, more than 65 percent suffer mental disorders.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for the flowers, calls, and cards, which I received while I was in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Also to the Rev. Fr. W. Nowiak for his visits.
Eugene Martin.

CARD OF THANKS

It is often said that wonders never cease. I believe this to be true, for I have just returned home after spending four weeks in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. I am deeply grateful for the gentle care of the many doctors and nurses who, guided by God's hand, made my return possible and who health. God bless you too, dear friends, who never cease to amaze me with your never-tiring loving deeds and prayers. Our friends are our greatest asset in life, much more important than any material asset we may ever possess. For if one owned the world, and there was no one to share it with him, how miserable it would be. We need friends not only to share our joys, but to share our troubles, to help us in time of trial and need. It is more important to make friends than money. Whatever else we achieve in life, if we fail to make friendship, we have failed in that which is most important to our happiness, and most needed in our day of trouble. I will always cherish the memory of the wonderful dinner, prepared and brought to my family at home, and in the days that followed. The many cards and flowers from friends and loved ones were deeply appreciated, as were the lovely flowers and pictures from the confirmation reception of the First United Methodist church, the Sarah Circle, the morning shift at MacDee, Inc., and the Chelsea Methodist Home. Thank you Rev. Clive Dickins for your prayers and words of encouragement. It meant so much. Last, but not least, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Howard, (Mom and Dad,) my husband, and my children, for their unselfish, untiring love. These memories I'll cherish always.
Mrs. Kelly (Joan) Allen.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

To my aunt, Mrs. Bertha Wallace, on her 85th birthday, April 25. I hope you have a nice day and receive many cards, telephone calls and visitors. May God continue to bless you with good health, a wonderful sense of humor and a generous heart.
Love, your niece,
Dorothy Taylor.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

To say, "I hope it will happen, but I'm sure it won't" is the first step to doom and defeat. Hope is a matter of proper thinking; positive thinking. It is an attitude conditioned by the mind.

Hopelessness can only occur when we give up hope itself. When one gives up hope, one gives up spiritual nutrition. Despair and despair are sure to follow... defeat is admitted... The possibility of success or triumph is rejected... Spirits spiral downward...

Frustrations are a fact of life for all of us. But frustrations are always worsened when hopefulness does not exist. Hope is the best antidote for the poison of discouragement. Look around you. You will always find the hopeful person feels better, looks better, acts better than the hopeless person. All of us have been born with an instinct to hope. Develop it. Don't discard it.

scoring three runs on one hit, two walks, one balk, and an error.

Genske stated that his players started out playing well, and then slacked off some as the game progressed. They hit the ball hard, he claimed, as there were some long balls in the game. He also praised his outfielders for good field work. It was, he said, a "hard earned victory."

Tuesday's win makes Chelsea undefeated in the league, with an overall 3-0 record, and a 2-0 conference record.

County Planning Staff Briefs Members on Proposed Park

Staff of the Washtenaw Planning Commission made an oral presentation of their study and conclusions concerning the Huron-Clinton proposed Mill Creek park to appointed members of the County Planning Commission in the supervisors' room at the Washtenaw County Building Tuesday evening, April 20.

There were barely enough commissioners present to make a quorum. About 30 additional persons were present including HOMA representatives and local township officials.

The oral report was supplemented with a thick written report. No comments were made on the plan by the commissioners who agreed to defer discussion until their next regular meeting on May 5.

The report was generally favorable to HOMA's park proposal. Its strongest argument being lack of public bathing beach facilities for Washtenaw county and the southwestern sector of Wayne county. It discounted any possibility of future beach use of Lake Erie because of continued pollution. The park would be just 13 miles from the center of population in Washtenaw county which is at the junction of Stadium Blvd. and Washtenaw Ave.

However, many critical questions which have been raised about the park proposal were left unanswered, although they indicated they believed satisfactory solutions would be worked out: traffic congestion and access problems to I-94 with probable need to close Fletcher Rd. south which would make local circulation more difficult; sewage and refuse disposal, and upstream drainage problems.

The likelihood of change in land uses from agriculture to other uses was tied to the route of I-94 through the area and no special note was made of the possible impact on the local economy should drainage be impaired in the upstream area, although the results of the recent Mill Creek Research studies were included in the report. Strong local land control was recommended to prevent undesirable development adjacent to the site.

Several alternate sites in the county were considered in addition to the Mill Creek site which was deemed most desirable. It is, however, least desirable due to its distance from Detroit. Arms Creek was rated fourth in desirability.

Other sites considered were Territorial Hill on the Wayne-Washtenaw county line and Nickwagh-Tobin Lake at the corner junction of Oakland and Wayne counties. The latter three were all short of water.

With respect to intensive day use development in the Waterloo or Pinckney Areas, the state does not have enough money for such development. The lands they have are not in sufficiently large enough blocks to create a large impoundment. There is too much private development which would be needed. Such land is expensive. Also, the state has not made it a practice to use its power of eminent domain to acquire recreation lands. Then too, many of these lakes have muck bottoms and would be expensive to develop.

Sites in Wayne county were not considered feasible due to lack of natural resources including availability of unpolluted water frontage, lack of impoundment sites as the land is very flat, and the cost of land there which is highly desirable for industrial and residential development.

Former Chelseaite Joins Owosso Furniture Firm

Moritz F. Brueckner, son of the late Rev. and Mrs. M. W. Brueckner of Chelsea, has been appointed vice-president of marketing and sales of Lee L. Woodard & Sons, Inc., of Owosso, it was announced this past week. According to Eugene N. Gordon, senior vice-president in charge of the home furnishings group of the Wickes Corp., who made the announcement, the appointment is effective April 15.

Brueckner, who was previously executive vice-president of La-Z-Boy, a successful furniture manufacturer in Monroe, has much experience in the furniture trade. He is credited with raising the firm's annual sales from $1.5 million in 1958, when he joined the firm to $43 million by 1969.

He was honored in 1967 by the members of the furniture trade as a "Pioneer in New Merchandising Concepts."

Brueckner and his wife and child will live in Owosso.

ARDENT TIGER FAN: Mrs. Omogene Cole, resident of the Chelsea Methodist Home, has been a fan of the Detroit Tigers for the past 66 years. Mrs. Cole, who is now 86, receives a Tiger Yearbook with pictures, and a roster, every year from the Tiger office, which she displays on the wall of her room in the Home, for the benefit of the other residents. She first listened to Tiger games over a radio with earphones, taking turns, sharing the game with her late husband.

Methodist Home Resident, At 86, Is Loyal Tiger Fan

When the first "Play Ball" sounds for the Detroit Tigers each year, there is certain to be at least one Chelsea resident who is eagerly listening to the game.

Mrs. Imogene Cole, a resident of the Chelsea Methodist Home, is perhaps the team's most loyal fan. As she claims to be a Tiger fan since 1905. At that time, which was two years before her marriage to Burnis A. Cole, she would follow her husband to ballgames, as he pitched for the "Belleville Boys," and "Ypsilanti Boys," as well as other local teams. Always interested in the Tigers, she recalls how, before her marriage to Cole, they would share a radio with earphones, taking turns listening to Tiger games. After their marriage they purchased their first radio where both could hear the game at the same time!

The couple traveled to Detroit often, to attend the games. They would take the Wabash trains to the ballpark, a distance of 27 miles. Since only two trains ran daily between the two cities, the Coles often had to wait for the midnight train following an afternoon game, as the 5 o'clock train was too early to allow them to remain to see the full game.

After the advent of television, the Coles never missed a game. As Mr. Cole was an invalid by this time, baseball became their main interest. Mrs. Cole recalled how often she and her husband would return to the games, with the help of a neighbor, as Mr. Cole was by this time in a wheelchair.

Mrs. Cole was recognized at a Tiger game recently on her birthday. Since that time she has received a yearbook and pictures from the Tiger office each year. She listens daily now at the age of 86, even if the night game in California keeps her up until 2 a.m. She claims that her favorites over the years have been Al Kaline and Jim Northrup.

Last Travelogue in Series Scheduled Saturday Evening

James W. Metcalf, native of Michigan, will present the final performance in the University of Michigan, and earned his way through school in the field of photography. Shortly after leaving school, he won a scholarship to the Professional School of Photography in Winona, Ind.

During the war he traveled extensively for the Army Ordnance Corps, producing training films. He then operated a commercial and portrait studio in Detroit following the war, and in 1953, he branched out to produce a series of travelogue films on various countries of the Western Hemisphere.

Since that time he has produced films for Coronet Instructional Films, Inc.; General Electric Co.; the Cessna Aircraft Co.; the Heddon Bait Co.; and Pan American World Airways. He has also done a series of films for Walt Disney Films of Hollywood, and he has published illustrated travel and textbooks for various book publishers, among them Rand McNally and Doubleday, Inc.

The Virgin Islands, topic of the travelogue, lie more than 1,000 miles east of Florida, where the Caribbean meets the Atlantic

JAMES W. METCALF

Ocean. The islands are primarily owned by Great Britain. America purchased three of the principal islands from Denmark during World War I, in order to prevent Germany from using them.

Today the Virgin Islands are a major tourist area, offering sandy beaches, and a warm climate to winter-weary northerners.

Chelsea's winter-weary residents may find solace in the last of the winter-long series of Kiwanis sponsored travel films, which will be shown Saturday evening, April 24, in the Chelsea High school auditorium, at 8 p.m.

Youth Arrested on Charge of Loitering

Nineteen-year-old Danny Adams, 18080 N. M-52 was arrested Tuesday afternoon, April 20 on a charge of loitering by Chelsea Police. Chief George Meranuck. Adams appeared before Judge Conlin in the 14th District Court, and pled guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to 90 days probation, and a $25 fine.

Chief Meranuck indicated that Adams was the first offender to be arrested under the loitering ordinance in a long time. He added that the young man had been aimlessly hanging around the downtown area for quite some time, and that Chelsea police officers were going to enforce the ordinance, which has been on the books for quite a while, more effectively than they have in the past.

Under the "Disorderly Person Ordinance," the Chief quoted, "Any person shall be deemed a disorderly person who shall, or shall aid and abet another to be found loitering or loafing about the streets or other public place without being able to give a satisfactory account of himself."

Tom Dunlap announced his resignation as president of the club. Elections were held following the program.

First National FMA event is scheduled for Friday through Sunday, June 11-13. Registration and escorted tours of the Henry Ford Museum, Ford's River Rouge Plant, and Greenfield Village will be held Friday. That evening will bring assorted small parties at local hotels.

Ken Callison discussed the meeting of the five Detroit area Ford Drag Clubs. This organization will create inter-area competition and more club activities. The other four participating clubs are Spitzer Dimmer, Stark Hickey East, Stark Hickey West, and North Brothers Ford.

Elections then took place with Richard Bollinger elected president, and Marion Smith the new events chairman.

Palmer Ford Salesmen Cited For Performance

John F. Popovich, Robert Rentzschler, and Lyle Chriswell of Palmer Motor Sales, Inc., were honored at a banquet Tuesday, April 20 for their outstanding sales performance during 1970.

The three Ford salesmen received their 300-500 Club membership pins during the banquet at the Elmwood Casino in Windsor.

The 300-500 Club was founded 2 years ago to recognize the performance of outstanding Ford salesmen throughout the country. About 41,000 of Ford's 27,000 salesmen from coast-to-coast became members of the club in 1970.

According to J. Carver Wood, Jr., Ford Division's Detroit district sales manager, an average member of the 300-500 club sold about $750,000 worth of automotive merchandise during 1970, in order to qualify for the national honor.

A total of 375 Detroit district Ford salesmen were honored at the April 20 banquet, including eight "Top Hatters," the highest ward any Ford salesman can earn.

Book Review Slated At Methodist Home

Mrs. Scott Westerman, Jr., wife of the superintendent of Ann Arbor Public Schools, will present a book review Tuesday afternoon, April 27, at the Chelsea Methodist Home. The book which she will review, "Portrait of Myself," is by Margaret Bourke-White. Mrs. Westerman will speak at 2:30 p.m. in the chapel at the Home.

French explorers discovered copper in the early 1660's in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

ANTIQUE and HOBBIES made and collected by the residents of the Chelsea Methodist Home, will be on display Wednesday afternoon, April 28, on the first floor of the main building of the Home. Mrs. Ermah Van Valkenberg, left, and Mrs. Ora Logan, far right, give Mrs. V. O. Johnson, co-ordinator of the show, a sneak preview of some of the many items that will be shown. Mrs. Van Valk-enberg holds a soup tureen which was brought to America by her husband's mother almost 100 years ago. The tureen is thought to be much older than 100 years. Mrs. Logan crochets afghans as a hobby. She has made more than 100 of them, and they are scattered over seven states, she claims. Senior Citizens of Chelsea will also display items in this show to which all local residents are invited.

Plan Hobby, Antique Show

Residents at the Chelsea Methodist Home, and Senior Citizens of the community will display their hobbies and favorite antique collection for members of the community, Wednesday afternoon, April 28. The show, which will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. on the ground floor of the new building at the Home is under the direction of Mrs. V. O. Johnson. Antiques and hobbies of all kinds will be on display as the Home residents and senior citizens will attempt in their own way to bridge the generation gap. Any senior citizen who wishes to display his favorite antique items or hobby-craft is urged to contact Mrs. Johnson at the Home. All local residents are invited to attend the show.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Example

The problem child is often a problem because parents believe they have fulfilled their responsibility when they tell the child what is right and what is wrong. Such an approach simply does not get the job done. Point a child in any direction and it is more than likely he will eventually fall back and follow in the footsteps of his parents.

The need, then, is for example. A child needs to be shown, not merely told. It is difficult for the child to establish a proper set of values when he observes that parents say one thing and do something else. A child may accept that some things are the adult prerogative, but such will not include the proper concepts of religion, brotherhood and fair play. If parents say, "go to church," and do not—what does a child think? If parents say, "love thy neighbor," and do not—why will a child do differently? There is no substitute for example.

Senator Philip A. Hart's

REPORT from WASHINGTON

★ Bumpers That Wreck Budgets

Almost everyone experiences a five-mile-an-hour collision on occasion. If he's lucky, it happens while he is walking rather than driving.

A human can walk into a solid barrier at that speed without incurring structural damage. But if it happens to your 1971 sedan, you'll be fortunate to get away with less than a $200 repair bill. Our investigations into auto repair costs have come in the past year or two to center increasingly on bumper design. Auto bumpers are supposed to protect the car from damage in minor collisions. Few do and many actually aggravate damage instead of preventing it.

Not long ago I chaired hearings at which the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety told of some tests in which a number of cars were driven forward into a barrier at five miles an hour.

Some results: A Chevrolet Impala suffered $367 in damages; Ford Galaxie, $341; Plymouth Fury, $202; American Ambassador, $415; Volkswagen, $130; Chevrolet Vega, $181; Ford Pinto, $164; American Grenlin, $121; Pontiac Firebird, $229; Buick Skylark, $427; Mercury Montego, $402; Plymouth Satellite, $98.

The reason Principally, the damage was caused because the bumper was too close to the sheet metal it is supposed to protect.

Moreover, it has become fashionable to design "molded" bumpers with curves and even very sharp "prow-like" points.

In a collision, the force of the moving auto is concentrated at those points just as the force of a falling axe is concentrated at its edge. That design makes the axe more destructive to the tree. It also makes the pointed bumper much more destructive to any car it happens to hit.

Why such designs? Well, it is true that molded bumpers are attractive and stylish. They give the car's looks a certain sweep that doubtlessly adds to salability. Moreover, it's a safe bet that the managers of the manufacturer's replacement parts divisions have not been the leaders in urging impact-proof designs.

The major auto companies, though, are moving responsibly by promising cars in 1973 that will sustain no-damage front end impacts of five miles an hour and rear end impacts at two and a half miles per hour.

Meanwhile, some insurance companies have promised rate discounts for drivers of these less fragile cars.

A bill to cut costs At the same time, I have introduced a four-point auto repair bill that hopefully will further cut insurance and collision costs. It is

Peace Envoy Will Speak at Methodist Church

Mrs. Russell (Barbara) Fuller, wife of the Rev. Fuller, pastor of the Memorial Christian Church of Ann Arbor and director of the Interfaith Council for Peace will relate her experiences during her recent trip to Paris, France on which she and two other Ann Arborites, former Ann Arbor City Councilman John R. Hathaway, and John A. Bailey, Assistant Professor of Near Eastern Languages and Literature at the University were members of a group of 170 concerned Americans who met with the principals on both sides of the Paris Talks on Vietnam.

Persons of all persuasions, and particularly all who are interested in a world at peace, are urged to meet at 7 p.m. in the Social Center of the Methodist church on Sunday, April 2.

An opportunity for discussion will follow Mrs. Fuller's talk.

WHALE SCALE
Researchers have found they can scare off whales by lowering loudspeakers into the ocean and broadcasting the sound of killer whale. The system has diverted whales from gobbling up schools of young salmon.

Now, a Chrysler priced $112* less than a Chrysler.

Royal.

Every inch a Chrysler. Yet with Royal, the deal starts $112 less than Newport, previously our lowest-priced series.

The Royal is just as big as our most luxurious New Yorker. And bigger than its competition—Buick LeSabre and Olds Delta 88. Outside and in.

Royal's 360 V-8 delivers more power, too. Power for freeway cruising without strain. Power for safe passing. All on regular gas.

Royal also gives you a better suspension system: torsion bars instead of coil springs. The ride is firmer. More controlled.

On a trip to the supermarket, you might not notice the difference. On a quick expressway lane change or a tight turn, you surely will.

Coming Through with more car, and more kinds of cars, within your price.

Outside of Chrysler products, only two American cars have torsion bars—Cadillac Eldorado and Oldsmobile Toronado.

Another difference: Royal's body is welded into a single solid Unibody. It's the strongest way to build a car. And there are no body bolts to work free and rattle.

Buick and Olds use the old body-bolted-to-frame technique.

A Chrysler priced to introduce you to Chrysler.

Yet for all this extra value, Royal is priced just about the same as LeSabre and Delta 88. Royal. With everything you expect of a Chrysler. At a price you don't.

CHS Students Thrilled with Paris Visit

Friday, April 16, 23 exhausted representatives from Chelsea High school returned from a week's visit to Paris. In only one short week, an attempt was made to leave no Parisian stone unturned, according to Mrs. Nancy Gilbreath, teacher of French at the high school, who accompanied the students on their trip. Mrs. Gilbreath said that no one admitted to being tired following the trip—in spite of the six-hour difference between Chelsea and Paris.

First day of the trip was spent in getting settled in the Hotel Cayre on the left bank. A general sight-seeing bus tour of Paris was then offered. Saturday, the Paris flea market was visited and later the students took a boat ride on the Seine.

Mrs. Gilbreath reported the weather was magnificent, and all the trees were just turning green. Easter Sunday, the students attended mass at Notre Dame Cathedral, and later climbed its towers. Then the famous bird market was seen, as well as the Conciergerie, where prisoners were kept before being beheaded during the French Revolution. Among these prisoners were Marie Antoinette, queen of France, and Robespierre, leader of the revolution during the infamous Reign of Terror. Sainte Chappelle, a beautiful church filled with stained glass windows, was next on the group's list. That evening, all the famous monuments and fountains of Paris were seen by night when they were all brightly lighted. During the rest of the week, the students saw the Place de la Concorde, the Champs-Élysées, the Arc de Triomphe, and Sacre Coeur. Versailles, the palace of Louis XIV, was visited, as well as Napoleon's tomb, the Eiffel tower, and the Louvre.

During the entire week temperatures remained in the 80's and no rain fell.

In between seeing the famous monuments, churches and museums, the students were able to find their favorite discotheques and cafes.

Emotions were mixed as the students boarded the plane to return to America. Mrs. Gilbreath said, but the time had come to go home, and home they went.

Everyone agreed that the trip had been a success—even if two passports were lost, and several students caught the "flu." Several students hope to go again next year. All Chelsea High students are invited to make the trip, and several are already planning on it. Mrs. Gilbreath reminded that "It's never too early to think about April in Paris."

New Faculty Member Joins Staff at St. Louis School

The Rev. Fr. Fortunato Turrati, of the Don Guanella school in Philadelphia, is the newest addition to the staff at the St. Louis School for Boys. He is to take charge of the younger boys at the school. The Rev. Fr. Turrati came to Chelsea over the Easter vacation. He has been in the U. S. for 2½ years.

The Rev. Fr. Germano, whom Turrati will replace, will now assume the duties of managing the workshop and painting rooms.

A new scoreboard has arrived at the school, thanks to the efforts of Bryce Fauble, athletic director at Chelsea High school. Fauble arranged for the board to be purchased by St. Louis through an athletic supplier in Michigan. The new scoreboard arrived over the Easter vacation, and was installed by the priests at the school, with the assistance of Tony Juergens, of Chelsea, a friend of the school.

Spring Concert and Open House for St. Louis school will be this coming Sunday, April 25, at 2:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend the concert, and hear the boys perform. Open House will follow. Door prizes will be awarded to three lucky tickets holders. First and second-place prizes will be oil paintings done by the Rev. Fr. Germano. Third prize is a cash gift of $50.

Among the recent flurry of activities at the school was a trip to the Hanneford Circus in Ann Arbor, Tuesday, April 20. The trip was courtesy of an unidentified donor, who gave the school enough tickets so that every boy could attend the circus.

The meeting, to which the public is invited, will be held Monday, April 26, at 7:30 p.m. at the Ann Arbor Public Library, 243 S. 5th Ave. Chairman of the Ann Arbor chapter's organizing committee is Walter Braunerger of Chelsea. Child's Wardrobe Requires Thought "Whether expensive or inexpensive, it's possible to find good buys in children's clothes. The trick is to choose the quality you want in relation to the purpose the garment will serve," says Mrs. Helen Fairman, home economist.

Mrs. Fairman serves Washtenaw, Lenawee and Monroe counties with the Co-operative Extension Service of Michigan State University.

Learning to shop for children's clothes is a skill that most consumers need at one time or another, the home economist pointed out. But learning to be a really competent consumer involves more than shopping skills.

The price of garments is affected by fashion; the type of store where you shop; special fabric finishes, and brand names. Some brand names cost more, but are worth the extra cost in guaranteed performance.

The price range for staple clothes, such as underwear, playclothes and jeans, is narrower than for clothes considered "fashion goods," she added.

She suggests that children's personalities influence clothing selection in the same way that adult selections are affected by personality. What other children are wearing is important also.

"Clothes that children dislike don't get much wear, and so they are a poor investment," the home economist pointed out.

A few mix and match separates in a child's wardrobe extend service. A few well-styled garments, rather than many less satisfactory, can perform better.

Size is another consideration. Because brands vary in size, the home economist stresses the need to try clothes on the child and be sure size, cut and style are right. Clothes that are too large look clumsy or bulky, and by the time the child grows into them, they may be faded and worn.

"Look for clothing design that adjusts itself more easily to growth," Mrs. Fairman advises. Features that allow some growth include such things as undefined waistlines, raglan or kimono sleeves, long tails on shirts and blouses, no tight cuffs or bands, stretch or knit fabrics, two-piece garments and deep hems or cuffs.

Child Psychiatrist To Address St. Paul Women's Fellowship

Women's Fellowship of St. Paul United Church of Christ will be host to Dr. Harold Lockett Friday evening, April 23, in a program which will begin at 7:30 p.m. All women of the community, and husbands, are welcome to attend.

Dr. Lockett has many fine credentials. He has a private practice in child psychiatry in Ann Arbor, and is a member of the staff of the Hawthorne School. In addition, he is president of the Ann Arbor School Board, and a director of Spaulding for Children.

Dr. Lockett will explore some of the problems and causes which he feels contribute to the so-called "generation gap," discuss the emotions and anxieties that beset family relations today, and share with the group some of the pathology that results when corrective or constructive steps are not initiated.

The psychologist would like to establish a dialogue with the audience, and try to deal with pertinent concerns of this community. He is trying to discover data which differentiates a community such as Chelsea from an urban area such as Ann Arbor. Refreshments will be served.

The future bridegroom is employed by General Motors Corp. in Lansing. Mr. Grable's mother is the former Alfreda Marshall of Chelsea. No date has been set for the wedding.

Recent ad agency survey showed Mrs. Homemaker, faced with higher prices, has changed her food buying habits. She is more concerned with costs and quality than convenience and brands. She watches for sales, substitutes less expensive foods, plans menus in advance, and does more food preparation herself.

A new product, diced prunes, soon to be on grocery shelves, will make snipping of whole prunes unnecessary.

North School Boosters Plan Many Projects

North School Boosters, who have been meeting periodically this past school year, have listed a number of goals to assist teachers of the school. Special projects for the group include: painting sidewalks for hopscotch, furnishing the school with tractor tire sandboxes, and swinging apparatus for the older elementary children, drilling holes for posts for volleyball nets, providing brightly painted barrels for climbing through, building steps for walking, and furnishing large rubber mats for climbing on.

Booster members added that any unused Hula Hoops could be donated for the general playground area, as well as clothesline for jumping rope. Other programs call for the construction of a balance beam, and wooden ramps for transporting things to and from the annexes. The group also plans to cover wooden barrels for children to sit in.

At the April 15 meeting of the group, a fun fair was discussed. A letter has been sent home to parents of school children requesting their help.

Next meeting, April 22, will be held to discuss the response from parents, and to form necessary committees to proceed with projects.

Varsity Track Team Rolls Over Hapless Novi Crew, 90-27

Chelsea thincads competed against the team from Novi in a make-up track meet, Monday afternoon, April 19. The Bulldogs won the meet, which was originally scheduled for Thursday, April 15, 90-27. Spring vacation player shortages on the part of both teams caused the earlier cancellation, Coach Bert Kruse claimed.

This was the third win in succession for Chelsea, giving the team a 2-0 league record. Chelsea is now tied with three other teams for first place in the league, sharing honors with Dexter, Saline, and Lincoln.

Coach Kruse said that this meet also marked the return to the team of several veterans who were away over vacation on various trips. The group has also been hampered by illness, injuries, and various other problems, and has not yet run at full strength. According to Kruse, "We are hoping to get it all together soon, and feel the team has yet to meet its full potential. We hope to do this in time for the bigger meets that are coming up."

Jeff Hughes was Chelsea's only double winner of the day, as he placed first in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. He was also anchorman on the winning 880 relay team.

Other good performances were turned in by Roger Fitch, in the high jump, who jumped 6', and still placed second, Mitchell Heard garnered a time of 1:61 in the high hurdles, and a 1:35.1 clocking for the 880 relay team.

Winners and placers for Chelsea included Randy Seitz, who placed first in the shot put, with a throw of 45, followed by Dale Robbins, who took second place with a toss of 39'3".

Mark Collins was first in the long jump, jumping 19'11 1/2". Jeff Hughes tied for second place with a jump of 19'1 1/2".

Roger Fitch placed second in the high jump, jumping 6', and Tim Lancaster placed first in the pole vaulting event, with a height of 10'6".

Winning 880 relay members included Mark Collins, Larry Gorton, Kim Aronson, and Jeff Hughes. The team ran that event in 1:35.1.

George Cameron took first place in the 880-yard run, in 2:03.8, while Tom McKernan followed in third place.

In the 120-yard high hurdles event, Mitchell Heard was in first place, with a time of 1:61.

Dave Buxton took first place in the one mile run, followed by Jim McGinn in second place. Buxton's time was 5:00, and McGinn came in with 5:23.8.

First, second and third-place honors went to Bulldogs Jeff Hughes, Mark Collins, and Bob Salyer in the 100-yard dash. Hughes ran the event in 10.8, followed by Collins at 10.9, and Salyer at 11.0.

Same pattern was repeated in the 440-yard dash as Kim Aronson took first place, Randy Seitz, second, and Tom McKernan, third. Winning times were :55.3, :59.5, :59.8.

Larry Gorton claimed first place in the 180-yard low hurdles, in :21.4, followed by Mitchell Heard in second with :22.4.

Two-mile run event saw Chris Phinney in second place, in a time of 11:29.6.

Chelsea came in one, two, and three in the 220-yard dash event, also, as Jeff Hughes took first, in :23.4, followed by Mark Collins, :24.5, and Bob Salyer, :24.6.

Winning mile relay team was composed of Larry Gorton, George Cameron, Dave Buxton, and Kim Aronson. That event was run in 3:41.7.

Next track meet will be (today) Thursday, April 22, at home, against Milan. Meet is scheduled to start at 4 p.m. Dexter and Lincoln will meet the same day, Coach Kruse said, and the results of their meet should be of interest.

(Saturday, April 24, Chelsea travels to Jackson Parkside High school to run in the Eagle Invitational meet. Preliminaries begin at 10 a.m., and finals start at 1 p.m. Both Class A and B schools, 12 in each section, will compete in this contest.

BUICK BARGAIN DAYS ARE HERE

Buick Bargain Days are saving days.

A bargain price on a stripped-down car is no bargain. But a Buick or Opel at a bargain is something else again. Because we're not selling some special stripped-down model. We're selling Buicks and Opels, the same great cars we've sold all year.

With one difference. The deals have never been better. Which means that you can move out in a new Buick or Opel at a price that's hard to believe. When Buick talks about a bargain, we give you something to believe in.

Opel 1900 Sport Coupe. With a 1.9 liter engine that operates efficiently on low-lead or no-lead gasolines, hydraulic valve lifters for quiet engine operation, power front disc brakes and more.

Skylark Custom. With Buick's exclusive nickel-plated engine exhaust valves for smoother operation on today's cleaner fuels, Comfort-Flo ventilation system and more.

Your Buick-Opel dealer will give you better reasons to buy a new car now than anybody else.

The business of auto safety:

Auto safety is everyone's concern. But it's our business.

And we think the attention that's being paid to auto safety now is a good thing. Because it will result in better driving for everyone.

And, frankly, better driving for everyone means better business for us.

We say Buick is something to believe in. That's why we're trying to make it easy to be safe by putting in safety features that work by themselves. You don't have to do anything to make them work.

Like side guard beams. And the energy absorbing steering column. And the cargo guard between the trunk and back seat. They start "working" even before you get in the car.

But two safety features, two of the most vital, are worthless unless you do something first.

Seat and shoulder belts. Unfastened they do nothing. And you've seen enough statistics to know what a difference they can make. So use them.

But that's not all you can do. Because the most effective safety feature of all can't be added to our cars or anybody else's.

That feature is you. And the way you drive. Which should be defensively. And rested. And sober. We're all in this together. And together we can solve the auto safety problem once and for all. And the time is now.
