Conference Title Won By Track Team

Chelsea track team clinched the Southeastern Conference track title Thursday, May 20, winning the league meet held at South Lyon. This is the fourth conference track title won by the Bulldogs in the past five years.

Chelsea tallied a total of 57 points to win the meet. Coach Bert Kruse claimed, followed by Lincoln who had 43, Dexter, with 42, Saline, 33, South Lyon, 18, Dundee 15 1/2, Novi, 8, and Milan 7 1/2.

Dexter and Lincoln built up early leads, as they scored heavily in the field events during the afternoon. As the meet progressed, however, Chelsea's strength in the running events began to tell the difference, the coach stated.

Dexter's Tom Snyder set two of the four new meet records which were tallied during the day's activities. Snyder set new meet records in the long jump, at 21' 1 1/4", and in the 120-yard high hurdles, which he ran in :15.2.

Chelsea accounted for the other two records, as the 880 relay team of Larry Gorton, Mark Collins, Kim Aronson, and Jeff Hughes ran that event in 1:38.8. Kim Aronson set a record for his performance in the 440-yard dash, which he ran in :50.5.

Chelsea took first place in six events, as George Cameron won the 880-yard run in 2:03.3, Dave Buxton won the mile in 4:44.1, Jeff Hughes, the 220 in :23.1, and the mile relay of Larry Gorton, George Cameron, Dan Hoover, and Kim Aronson won in 3:38.1.

Conference winners and Chelsea's placers are listed below:

Lincoln's Clyde Hall was first in the pole vault, at 12'. Tim Lancaster of Chelsea, was fifth, with 11' 3".

Chelsea was first in the 880 relay.

George Cameron, also of Chelsea, placed first in the 880-yard run in 2:03.3, followed by Dan Hoover, in fourth place, 2:07.1.

Conference Title Won By Golf Team

Chelsea golfers took first place at the Southeastern Conference golf meet, Thursday, May 20, at Godwin Glen in Novi, to claim the undisputed Southeastern Conference title. The Bulldogs also placed third in dual meets for the season.

Chelsea's team total was 356. Jim Wojcicki and Mark Policht both had scores of 88, while Glen Musolf, and Dave Powers tallied 90. The team's good depth was the deciding factor according to Chelsea coach, Pat Wade. "All team members turned in good rounds on the long and difficult course, he claimed.

Dexter and Dundee tied for second place, while the other teams finished in the following order, Saline, Milan, South Lyon, Novi, and Lincoln.

Medalists for the meet were Bull Busch and Vincent Goff, both of Dundee. They shot scores of 84.

Playing their final game for Chelsea were seniors Jim Wojcicki, Jack McClellan and Mike Powers, who was Chelsea's only four-year golfer. "Each of these athletes made a strong contribution to the success of the team this year," Coach Wade praised, "and will be missed in the future."

Baseball Title To Be Decided This Afternoon

Meeting Saline Tuesday afternoon, May 25, the Chelsea baseball team maintained their second-place position in the Southeastern Conference, defeating the Saline team, 4-3.

Chelsea tallied only two hits for the afternoon, while Saline counted three.

Chelsea scored one run in the first inning on a walk to Sprague, who stole second, and came home on Wayne Welton's single. In the second inning, the Bulldogs scored without the benefit of a hit, on a walk, stolen bases and a wild pitch.

Saline scored one run in the first inning on two walks and a wild pitch, following with a run in the second inning, scored on a walk, a sacrifice, and a double.

Chelsea pulled ahead in the sixth inning when Ron Sweeney singled, and went to third on a wild pitch. When the pitcher tried to pick him off third, he threw wild, and Sweeney scored.

Welton walked, stole second, and went to third base on a sacrifice by Joe Aspiranti. On a play for Welton at the plate he got into a run-down, and was awarded the score, when the catcher was called for "obstruction."

Saline rallied in the final inning, scoring one last run on an error, and two singles.

Tim Van Slambrouck, who started pitching for Chelsea, was relieved by Welton in the first (Continued on page seven)

President Fulks Enjoys Howell Exchange Visit

Village President A. E. Fulks, reported that his day in Howell, Monday, May 17, in conjunction with the "Mayor's Exchange Program," for Michigan Week, was very pleasant.

Fulks and his wife were escorted for the day by Roy Trim, city administrator. They were welcomed to Howell by a parade and official ceremonies, after which they were taken on a tour of the Pepsi bottling plant, and "Carpentry Engineering, Inc., Modular Home Division," a plant which builds pre-fab housing units. He also toured the city offices, and Howell's McPherson hospital.

The group luncheoned at the city's recreation center, a five-year-old structure which was totally constructed by public funds. All local clubs, Rotary, Kiwanis, etc., meet in the building, which also provides space for their club offices. Young people have access to the building also for dances and parties. The structure, which cost approximately $500,000 features a large ballroom, a kitchen, business club offices, and a recreation lobby.

The city owns and operates a large swimming beach and park along the lake. It is continuing to develop and expand this facility, Fulks stated.

Dinner was held at an old barn and house called "History Story," which has been remodeled to provide restaurant facilities and a museum.

Fulks noted that he was struck by the fact that the populated area of Howell is not confined to the city limits. There is as much development outside the city limits as inside, he claimed, which is due to the availability of city sewers to those living in the adjacent area. Howell officials explained that federal monies were obtained to assist with the building of their city sewers, with the stipulation that the city provide service to the adjacent outlying area.

He also stated that although the former city airport was taken over by the county, that both the city and county have applied for federal funds to assist in the expansion of the facility to afford more adequate service. (Continued on page eight)

Memorial Day Observance Set for Monday

Traditionally Memorial Day begins the summer festivities. It hails the end of school, and is the deadline for planting summer gardens. It is lots of things: family picnics, with ice cream in the park, the first peonies, and above all a parade to honor all veterans, deceased, and living, of American wars.

This year's Memorial Day parade will form at 9:30 a.m. Monday in the Municipal Parking Lot. Step off will be at 10 a.m., and the parade will follow the usual route, which will have Oak Grove Cemetery as its destination.

Leading the parade will be a procession of the colors, by members of the VFW and the American Legion. The high school band will follow, accompanied by a firing squad. Veterans of past and present wars are urged to attend, and will march in the parade. Cars will be provided for those not able to walk. Speakers, Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts will be next, followed by the Junior High school band, and the children on their bikes.

Parade marshal for this year's event is Walter Bolanowski. Duane Weiss is officer of the day, while Ray Lutovsky is to be master of ceremonies at the cemetery. The Rev. Daniel Kelin, and the Rev. Fr. Wahowiak will represent the village's clergy. Marty Straub, Chelsea High school student, will be guest speaker.

At the cemetery, Ray Lutovsky will present the opening remarks. He will be followed by the Rev. Fr. Wahowiak, who will offer an invocation. Nina Greening of the Woman's Relief Corps will then speak. She will be followed by a selection by the high school band, under the direction of Warren Mayer.

Marty Straub will then be presented, who will make a brief address. He will be followed by the playing of taps, and the salute by the firing squad.

Chelsea High school band will present a closing selection, while the Rev. Kelin will offer a benediction.

Returning to the parking lot, members of the American Legion will give away a certificate for a free Dairy Queen treat-to-all children who are of school age or younger participating in the parade.

American flags will be passed out prior to the start of the parade, American Legion officials announced.

The vehicle, a 1964 Dodge was owned by Miss Beverly May, of Clear Lake Trailer Park.

Whereabouts of the two boys is not known, although Chelsea police officials indicated that the older boy had been in trouble before, and has run away on other occasions. They feel that the boys have left the state.

Ricky's hair is slightly longer at present than in his picture, which was taken recently. He has brown eyes and light brown hair, is about 4' 10" tall, and weighs 77 pounds. He was barefoot at the time of his disappearance, and was wearing a blue and yellow striped knit shirt, and blue jeans.

LaFontaine indicated that Kroger Stores have shown an interest in the proposed development, as have Borden, Inc., (Yankee Stores), Federal Department Stores, and others. He will not be able to lease the land, however, until approval is granted.

Fred Schaff, Sr., is president of LaFontaine Construction, while Allen LaFontaine is vice-president. Others members of the corporation include James Patterson, secretary-treasurer, Willard Whitaker, and Fred Schaff, Jr.

All are general contractors, and are members of the Engineering Society of Detroit, according to LaFontaine.

Washington Report

by Congressman

MARVIN L. ESCH

Under the pressure of escalating welfare costs and case loads at least one branch of Congress appears ready to give the President a new welfare system. The first proposed such a move nearly two years ago. Undoubtedly welfare reform is needed. The present system does not work for the recipient or the taxpayer.

This is one of the more crucial pieces of legislation that will be taken up by the 92nd Congress. It is so innovative and of such far-reaching importance that I would like to outline it in rather detailed form in the weeks ahead.

The states have been complaining and rightfully so, that they are in a "financial box" and are in need of assistance. Major elements of the bill just approved by the House Ways and Means Committee are an important recognition of the problems of the states and amount to a federal takeover of welfare. Not only would the federal government take over cash payments but if the states wanted the federal government could assume the burden of administrative costs. For example, the Social Security Administration would assume the responsibility for old age assistance if the states chose. Preliminary estimates show that the State of Michigan in the five-year period of the program would save $254 million if the federal government took over cash payments. As yet, figures for administrative costs are not available but this too would be a substantial saving.

Other major provisions of the bill include family benefits. A payment from federal funds of $2,400 for a family of four—with the maximum amount which any family could receive totaling $3,600. A family would not be eligible unless it had countable resources of $1,600 or less.

This is only a thumbnail sketch of some of the major elements of this proposal. As I indicated at the outset of this report, we will be discussing other equally important, vital aspects in the weeks ahead.

The dust is yet to settle but the action in the House Ways and Means Committee is writing a bill that perhaps could be the single most important piece of social legislation in decades is indeed praiseworthy. It would be my hope that the other body and more particularly the Senate Finance Committee will recognize the necessity of welfare reform and continue this momentum.

Litter Increases

Increased awareness of the average American citizen about problems of the environment has had little effect on the litter dumped along highways, at least in Michigan.

Paul J. Marek, the Michigan Highway Department's chief maintenance engineer, says the spring thaws along the state's north-south highways "laid bare a monumental disregard for clean and attractive highway environment."

"It is rather obvious," Marek says, "that the huge growth in winter sports activity—such as skiing, snowmobiling and ice fishing—is attracting greater numbers of people from the southern part of the state to the north country. They have left a heavy trail of litter in their wake."

Evidence indicates that the litterers know they are doing something they shouldn't be doing, according to Marek.

He says the heaviest concentrations of litter usually are found just over a crest or hill or around a curve. That means, he believes, that litterbugs are dumping their rubbish in places not easily visible by following motorists.

Hardest hit, however, continue to be major metropolitan areas. More than 20,000 truckloads of litter will be picked up from the state highway system and its roadside facilities in the one year period which started April 1, estimates Marek.

Expense of this pickup activity is paid by the taxpayer. During fiscal 1970 it cost just over $1 million to keep the litter off the highway system. Ten years ago it was less than a third of that.

The litter mess doesn't seem to have been affected by the placing of many litter barrels at freeway rest sites, roadside parks and roadside picnic sites all over the state.

In fact, these containers cause a new problem, since some Michiganers now are dumping their household garbage in these barrels.

Increased public concern may turn the tide on litterbugs, even though it hasn't done so yet. That is the hope of Highway Director Henrik Stafseth.

"It is conceivable," he says, "that public concern for clean environment could result in a demand for more stringent penalties for violators of clean-highway environment—unless the public, itself, halts wholesale litterbugs."

Current Michigan law calls for fines of up to $100 for violators and gives the judge the authority to put litterers on cleanup details rather than making them pay a fine.

Billboards Multiply

Environmentalists appear to be losing ground at the same time they fight litter.

Recent testimony before the House State Affairs Committee, the State Highway Department reported that in the last year it has removed 70 illegal billboards from along Michigan highways.

Unfortunately, at the same time it said more than 200 illegal billboards were erected during the same period.

The testimony came during a hearing on a bill introduced by Rep. Marvin Stempien, D-Livonia, which would put much tighter controls on the erection of billboards in the state.

Stempien's bill would control billboards by placing them at least 1,000 feet from the center line of the highway. It also would limit their size to 500 square feet and would require that any lighting of the billboards not impair the visibility of motorists.

The bill also would require sign owners to apply for an annual permit from the Highway Department for each sign and post a $50 bond at the time of the application. If an illegal sign were found, the department would give the owner of the sign and of the land where it was located 30 days to remove it.

If the sign wasn't removed, the department would do so and bill the owner for the expense involved.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I made the mistake of bringing up to the fellers at the country store Saturday night how everything is getting switched around these days, and the subject caught on like striking a match to see how much gas is in the jug. The feller that runs the store final said he was going to have to switch to sleeping bags and working nights if we didn't wrap up the ball of yarn and go home.

Bug Hookum got the floor and kept it longer than anybody wanted him to, and Ed Doolittle went home with a handful of newspaper clippings he didn't even get to present as evidence. Bug was lit up about these claims lately of how worthless is all the medicine folks use.

This piece Bug had saw said Americans spend $1.8 billion a year on pain killer, mouthwash, laxatives and mouthwash that ain't worth a dime. Bug was wondering if copper bracelets for rumatism and deodorants was put in the same class, and if buying all this stuff can be wrote off as a tax loss.

Actual, Bug allowed, it probably could be proved that whatever a man thinks helps him does. He recollected a while back where this scientist said vitamin C would keep you from having colds and everybody made a run on the stuff. But since the permotion died down, Bug said, people probable have gone back to whatever cold remedy they think might do the job. Bug said he hopes nobody says a pint of carbolic tool at the first sneeze will prevent a cold, cause sure enuff somebody would try it.

Science has switched so many things around, Bug allowed, till we can't be shore what is real and what ain't. Even now and then we git reports where they is coming up with a pill that will take the place of eating, but Bug was of the mind that switch won't work. They is to many folks that live to eat instead of eat to live, was Bug's words.

Ed final got to report where he had saw 20 percent of the barbershops in this country was closing. He didn't git to go through his clippings on this matter, but he said it looked like more advertising for the papers. Some years back, Ed recalled, this big outfit that makes farm equipment quit running ads and invited barbers to their plant once a year for a feed and tour. The company figured barbers talking about their equipment was worth more than newspaper ads, but they'll have to switch back to ads to git the word out.

Personal, Mister Editor, in all this turning around I ain't shore the busiest feller allus is to be admired. The bee and the mosquito is busy, but we praise one and swat the other. I recall hearing that a fanatic is one that loses sight of his objective and redoubles his effort.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

PHARMACIST OF THE YEAR: J. Vincent Burg was named "Pharmacist of the Year" at the annual gathering of the Jackson County Pharmacy Association recently. Burg was cited for his participation in church and community activities which are a credit to his profession. He lives at 418 Chandler St., with his wife, Shirley, and six children.

J. V. Burg Honored By Jackson County Pharmacists

J. Vincent Burg, 418 Chandler St., was named "Pharmacist of the Year" for Jackson county at the annual spring Mortar and Pestle Ball, held May 15 at the Ann Arbor Hills Country Club. The ball is an annual event sponsored by the Jackson County Pharmacy association.

Burg, who currently manages the Weatherwax Pharmacy, 111 W. Prospect, Jackson, was cited for his participation in church and community affairs in addition to his activities as a pharmacist.

Past president of the Jackson County Pharmacy Association, in 1969-70, he is currently county chairman for the state sponsored "OHIP," Consumer Health Information Program.

Burg received the Distinguished Service Award from the Jackson County Sheriff's Department in December 1970 for his action in pulling a young woman from a burning car on I-94 following an accident.

A member of St. Mary Catholic church, and a past member of their church and school board, Burg is married, and is the father of six children.

Track Team Closes Season At Jackson

Members of the Chelsea track team traveled to Jackson Monday afternoon, May 24, to take part in the Jackson Honor Roll individual invitational meet. The top eight men in each event, in the Jackson area were invited to take part in this event, which attracted athletes from more than 24 schools, classes A through D.

Chelsea's 880 relay team took first place in the event. Winning the 880 in a time of 1:33.5 were Larry Gorton, Mark Collins, Kim Aronson and Jeff Hughes.

Kim Aronson was second in the 440, in :51.1, while Mitchell Heard was fifth in the high hurdles, in :15.6.

Dave Buxton placed fourth in the mile, which he ran in 4:38.4. George Cameron was fifth in the 880-yard run, in :26.6.

Jeff Hughes was fourth in the 220, in :23.5, and placed seventh in the 100-yard dash.

Mile relay team of Larry Gorton, George Cameron, Dan Hoover, and Kim Aronson came in third in 3:33.5.

Medals were awarded to the first five placers. Coach Bert Kruse stated. Times and distances were not up to par for the event, he claimed, due to the wind, rain, and cold weather.

This was the final event for Chelsea tracksters for the season.

Poppy Sale Slated Friday

spite of many veterans assistance programs of the federal, state and local governments, there still exist many gaps in the VFW budgets, which must be filled by private funds. Volunteers must also do their part, they say, so that "the man disabled in service of his country is to be properly cared for." The sale of Buddy Poppies to the public helps fill this need.

According to the VFW, at any time there are approximately 200 children who are cared for in a family home atmosphere at the VFW National Home at Eaton Rapids. More than 1,000 have been raised and educated since the Home was established in 1925.

Without the aid of the proceeds of the Buddy Poppy sale, this operation would be one of many which would have to be curtailed.

"Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, which are delivered each year to veterans and their families who are existing on a meager compensation or pension check, treats distributed during the visits of volunteers to a local veteran's hospital, the gift of a television set to a hospital ward, are among the many uses to which the proceeds from Poppy Day are applied.

VFW members remind that the purchase of a poppy, made by the disabled American Veterans, on May 28, is the least one can do for those who have given so much for their country.

Scout Awards

Tenderfoot awards were then presented by Scoutmaster Cecil Clouse to Bruce Dygert, Timmy Bassett, Greg Slocum, and Donnie Harris. Second class awards were presented by Assistant Scoutmaster Worden to Dennis Bauer, Kevin Krieger, and Bobby Sawyer. First Class awards were presented to David Stoll, and Mike Platt by Mr. Seyfried.

Mr. Seyfried, committee chairman, then presented David Clouse with the "Banner of Star," while Merit Badges were presented by Mr. Bauer to Eddie Dryman for cooking and pioneering, David Clouse, first aid, David Pletcher, first aid, Skeets Worden, rowing, and Doug Hansen, rowing and swimming.

Perfect attendance pins for two years were presented to David Clouse, David Stoll, Mark Seyfried, and Carmer Slocum, while Mike Cameron, Mike Patti, Mike Seyfried, Francis Grohert, David Stoll, and David Pletcher received one-year perfect attendance pins.

Dennis Bauer, troop bugler, played taps at the closing, and all in the audience sang "God Bless America."

Winner of the rallye was Robert Musolf. His son, Glenn Musolf was navigator. Second-place honors went to Bill Hafner, while Dwight Bolanowski was third. John Sacher was his navigator.

Proceeds from the rallye will help sponsor clinics for members of the next year's debate team, William Coelius, debate team advisor, stated.

THANK YOU Last week it was my pleasure to again serve as The Chairman of Good Government Day during Michigan Week. My wife and I enjoyed the opportunity of showing Howell's Mayor and Mrs. Richard Slayton and party the many facilities and points of interest which make Chelsea such a fine community. Mayor Slayton was very impressed with the Chelsea High School Band. I would like to express my personal thanks to Warren Mayer, director of the band and members of the band for their part in the day's activities. We are most fortunate to have so many fine young people in our community. I would also like to thank the many other private individuals, service organizations and businesses for their assistance in making our Mayor Exchange a tremendous success. Sincerely, Thomas S. Dmoch

CARD OF THANKS I want to thank Fr. Wawoniak for all the visits to the hospital while Eugene was there, and the comforting words. Also the American Legion and members of the Ladies Auxiliary. Also, Dr. Fisher, and Dr. Nixon, Dr. Gerkey, and all the other doctors that helped Eugene during his illness. Thanks to his relatives, friends, and neighbors, the K of C, the Usher's Club, Goodyear Rubber Co., the plant protection service, the Executive Board, and members of Local 185, Department 1521-1412. Also thanks to the Ladies Alter Society for helping put on the meal after the funeral, and to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schumm for their help. Thanks Mrs. Kathleen Chapman for the use of your home. Thanks for all the donations to the cancer society in his memory. Mrs. Eugene Martin and brother Clyde.

MORE ON WELFARE The government's latest statistics show the nation's major welfare program is continuing to record unprecedented increases of more than 200,000 recipients and $120 million a month. Welfare increases accelerated steadily in the last half of 1970. The increase accelerated steadily in the last half of 1970. The increase was 154,000 in July, 214,000 in August and September, 235,000 in October, and 282,000 in November.

Michigan ranks fifth or higher in production of more than 20 major food crops, although ranking only 22nd in land area.

MEXICAN EXPANSION Mexico City has chosen a site 30 miles from its center for construction of a new international airport. An official of the government's airport board said the city's present airport is handling 1,200 passengers per hour but will be unable to accommodate the volume of 4,200 passengers per hour expected by 1980.

Those interested in participating in this program are urged to contact Miss Carpmann at either elementary school.

All questionaire about the Parent Information Seminar should be returned before the end of the school year, according to Cindy Carpmann, speech correctionist at both elementary schools. Miss Carpmann stated that the success of the program depends upon the number of persons willing to participate in it.

Rent-A-Bee Business Is Booming

Rent-a-bee is booming in Michigan.

Bees are needed to pollinate nearly $100 million worth of fruit crops, cucumbers, muskmelons, clovers and alfalfa, reports E. C. (Bert) Martin, Michigan State University entomologist.

"The Michigan Beekeepers Association recommends a rental fee of $10 a hive, except for cucumbers, where a $12 fee is recommended.

"Bees for cucumber pollination cost more because the hives are heavier and more difficult to move in midsummer when the cucumbers need pollinating. Also, moving hives at this time reduces chances of a honey crop and hurts chances of the bees winter survival."

Martin says most crops require one hive per acre for pollination, but blueberries need two or more colonies.

He suggests growers contact beekeepers now to make arrangements for pollination periods.

New Farm Wheat Allotments For 1972 Crop

A new farm wheat allotment may be established for the 1972 crop of wheat for farms that did not have a 1971 allotment if they meet eligibility requirements, Raymond Gibbach of the Washtenaw county ASC Committee announced today.

A 1972 wheat allotment will be established automatically for all farms that had a wheat allotment in 1971.

To be eligible for a new farm allotment, the operator must expect to receive 50 percent or more of his income from farming. Neither the owner or the operator may have an interest in any other farm which has a 1972 wheat allotment, and the person making application must have had at least two years experience in the last five years in producing wheat.

Applications for a new allotment must be filed in the county office on or before June 30, 1971. An interested producer who can meet these requirements should contact the county office before the final date for filing an application.

Elementary Schools Plan Fall Meetings On Speech Problems

A series of informal meetings during the beginning of the 1971-72 school year are being planned by the Speech Department at both elementary schools. The meetings will discuss aspects of speech such as the processes of normal speech development, concrete reasons for the onset of speech problems, problems parents may be having with the speech of pre-schoolers, and a parent's role in speech and language development. Questions parents may have about speech and language development will also be dealt with.

All questionaire about the Parent Information Seminar should be returned before the end of the school year, according to Cindy Carpmann, speech correctionist at both elementary schools. Miss Carpmann stated that the success of the program depends upon the number of persons willing to participate in it.

Soil Conservation District Offers Summer Scholarship to Teachers

Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District will again offer a scholarship to the Higgins Lake Conservation School this summer.

The week of conservation training is not "nature study." It is a program teaching conservation concepts and principles and how these concepts and principles can be applied back home in the classroom.

Classes are held both indoors and outdoors. Facilities at the school are excellent. There is free time daily for class members to pursue their own interest in the library, at the beach, or in the beautiful northern Michigan woods. Teachers from all over Michigan will be there to share their ideas and experiences.

Interested? Write or call the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District, 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor, 48103. Telephone number is 761-6721.

Michigan Week Observed Quietly At Local Schools

Michigan Week was celebrated quietly at both elementary schools this past week, school officials announced, as each classroom "did their own thing."

North school took the prize for doing most, as members of the various classes planted trees and plants about the school, and made booklets, pictures, and stories about Michigan. Third graders at North school have been studying Michigan on television all year, Robert Benedict, North school principal indicated.

At South School, children have been participating in outdoor flag-raising ceremonies every day. During Michigan Week, the United States flag, and the State of Michigan flag were raised each day.

South school children also observed the parade on Monday, "Our Government Day."

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

A fellow was talking the other day about his way of living. He was telling—actually bragging—about his experiences with "quite a gal." The young lady has no sense of morals; never mentions the word or gives it a thought. They live with each other. They cuddle and cuddle every day. She is wild about him and he is crazy about her. In hardly no time at all, she discovered how she could twist him around her little finger. He likes it, and that is putting it mildly.

There is nothing strange about this at all. His experiences, his way of living, is a natural way of living. It happens regularly and everywhere. And—thank goodness it does. Do you doubt or dispute this? Don't. Ask any Daddy to tell you about his 2 or 3 year old baby daughter. He will tell you how true it is, just as this man did. . . . (Incidentally, the twist of this little story shows how easy it is at times to form a quick, mistaken impression, a wrong conclusion — before ALL the facts are known.) . . . Girls Track Team Prepares For State Meet

For the second Saturday in succession, Chelsea ladies participated in an invitational track meet held on their home track Saturday, May 22. This meet was the final meet for the Chelsea team until the state high school and junior high school girls championships, which will be held this coming Saturday at Lincoln Park.

Winners from Saturday's meet, which four other schools attended, included Bonnie Wengren, and Janet Sibley, who placed second and third, respectively in the long jump event, with leaps of 15'2 1/2" and 14'10".

Lori Fritz, a junior high school student, competing in the high school division, took first place in the shot put, with a toss of 28'9 1/2".

Janet Sibley was first in the high jump, jumping 5'4", while Jan Nevil was first in the junior high division of the high jump. She jumped 4'4". Lori Fritz was second in that division, jumping 4'2".

Bonnie Wengren tied for second in the 100-yard dash, running that event in :12.0. In the junior high event, Jill Peterson placed second in :12.4, which her coach claimed was "very fast". She was followed by Roben Terns in third place with :12.6.

Janet Sibley was first in the 220, in :27.5, while Bonnie Wengren was first in the 440 in :55.0. Peggy Kraai took first place in the 80-yard hurdles, with a time of :11.7.

Chelsea's medley relay team of Peggy Kraai, Lori Fritz, Jan Nevil, and Roben Terns were second in 2:09. Coach John Bauer claimed that Roben Terns, who ran the anchor leg in that event, ran her lap in :56.9, which was "very good."

The 440 relay team set a new school record for the Chelsea team, but was defeated by Warren Woods team. Warren Woods ran that event in :52.6, compared to Chelsea's :53.2. That drops Chelsea to the number two position in the state in that event, behind the team from Warren Woods. Runners on that team are Janet Sibley, Roben Terns, Bonnie Wengren, and Peggy Kraai.

This coming Saturday, May 29, the state championships will be held at Lincoln Park. Chelsea is no longer favored to be top dog in that contest, Bauer claimed, as the team did not put the effort into the second half of the season that they did in the first.

Those who competed at Chelsea this past Saturday, are Warren Woods, St. Mary Redford, Grass Lake, and Homer High schools.

DELUXE PLAY QUARTERS belong to Margery left, and Debbie Trinkle, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Trinkle, 12240 Scio Church Rd. Their father built this two-room playhouse for them to play in this summer. The structure, which measures 8' by 10', and is tall enough for a short adult to stand in, has wild cherry paneling on the exterior, and a bright red porch swing. Pansies bloom in the window boxes, which are located below real windows. Trinkle, whose daughters are 8 years old, and 2½, built the house this past winter. To the left of the house is a barn, which is about 6' by 8', which he built for his nine-year-old son, Dan, when he was younger. The barn shelter's a nifty sandbox. The little girls mentioned that they do, on occasion allow adults to enter their domain.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

By the time this report reaches print, the main topic being debated and debated by the Michigan State Senate will be a bill I am sponsoring to guarantee every schoolchild a legal high school "home." Since my proposal, Senate Bill No. 442, differs drastically from various school reorganization measures that have proven highly controversial in recent years, I would like to explain exactly what the bill does and why.

I want to assure every elementary school student that a full kindergarten - through-12th-grade program will be offered in the school district of his residence by the 1973-74 school year—this and no more.

My bill makes no attempt to establish enrollment minimums, curriculum standards, or any other criteria for K-12 districts. It merely requires that Michigan's 104 non-high school districts (of which 13 are "closed" districts operating no schools and sending all children to other districts as tuition pupils) either operate full K-12 programs or be annexed to existing K-12 districts.

Every effort would be made to achieve this needed goal through voluntary means prior to July 1, 1972. But after that time, the required annexations would be mandated where voluntary efforts failed.

Our Michigan Constitution, as approved by the voters, requires the legislature to maintain and support a free public system of elementary AND SECONDARY schools. Yet the State Supreme Court has ruled that no high school district can be forced to accept tuition pupils from non-high school districts.

This leaves 9,041 Michigan children without a legal high school "home"—without any statutory guarantee of a secondary education to implement the constitutional guarantee. Even in cases where a non-high school district has worked out a satisfactory arrangement for sending its student on a tuition basis to another district's high school, there is no real assurance that such an arrangement will be honored in future years.

All too often today, children are becoming pawns in a power play between non-high school districts that are resisting annexation and high school districts that are refusing to accept tuition pupils in order to compel such annexation.

To a very real extent, the non-high school districts of this state have become "tax shelters." Their average operating levy is 16.1 mills, as compared to the state-wide average of 25.75 mills. Taxpayers elsewhere are effectively picking up the tab for educating their children—or, more trouble some yet from a long-range view, paying the price of NOT educating their children to the extent required to function productively in today's fast-changing society.

The non-high school district is a relic from an era when 8 grades of education was the standard. It is not fair to the children to attempt the impossible task of perpetuating that era.

A do-it-yourself May basket of small bedding plants in clay pots makes an attractive hostess gift for spring and early summer. Line the bottom of a round basket with an aluminum pie tin and fill it with young, professionally started bedding plants, in two-inch clay pots.

There is a strong possibility that the use of studded automobile tires could be banned in Michigan, as a result of what I regard as, "a war between cement and safety."

The Michigan State Department of Highways is seeking a ban on the use of studded tires by urging the passage of House Bill No. 5050.

At a public hearing held by the House Public Safety Committee, the Department pointed to the cost of repairing state highways and the danger of grooves in pavements. Members of the Department claimed that studs are needed only 1 percent of the time because their main value is traction on glare ice and hard-packed snow, and Michigan has a so-called "clean roads" policy, whereby state highways are kept free of ice and snow.

On the other side, experts in highway safety testified that, in the four years since studded tires have been legal in Michigan, traffic accidents here have been reduced 23 percent during the winter months, based on figures from State Police records.

Tire manufacturers testified that they have improved studs in the past year and preliminary tests show that they have reduced road wear by 50 percent.

Tire dealers stressed the fact that customers are demanding studded tires, which are "optional safety equipment." Other safety devices, such as seat belts, padded visors, and padded dashboards, are demanded by law.

I sponsored the 1967 bill that legalized the use of studded tires, and I might point out that over half of all driving accidents occur within 25 miles of home, usually within city limits.

It is also in the cities that we have the greatest accumulation of ice and snow, and where steps are now being taken to reduce the amount of salt used because of the ecological side effects.

City and county roads are not part of the State Highway Department's "clean roads" policy. Without studded tires, they will be increasingly hazardous for the motorist.

I believe we must look for improvements in tire studs and pavement materials before we even consider denying the motorist the most effective winter safety device available.

Estimates have been made that highway repairs cost an amount roughly equal to $7 a year for each Michigan car with studded tires. I would point out, first, that other factors are involved in such costs—heavy scraping equipment, salt, increased numbers of vehicles, heavy trucks.

But more important, I would ask, safety? How can we equate the cost of concrete with the value of "How can we put a price tag on human life?"

Michigan is the automotive capital of the world.

Explosives Act Coverage Still Being Questioned

Michigan's "explosive act" of 1970, that became law on April 1, may not include provisions for regulating the sale, purchase or possession of black and smokeless powder as well as ammunition primers and muzzle loading percussion caps.

Col. John R. Plants, State Police director, expressed this view commenting on the day old law. "We are well aware of the discussion prior to and during the passage of the act and we must assume that black powder and smokeless powder were meant to be excluded from its language," Plants said. "Our officers have been instructed to recognize the exclusion of these powders until we have information to the contrary."

Early this year State Police officials asked Attorney General Frank J. Kelley for an opinion to determine whether black and smokeless powders are included in the definition of explosives in the new act. A question arises over the language of the law as to whether those substances, are in fact excluded even though they are not specifically named.

Under the law, a purchaser of explosives must be 18 years old and have a permit from a police agency. The purchaser must give his name and address, social security number and proof of age. The purchaser must also explain his intended use of the explosives.

Driving Record Set By Michigan Motorists in 1970

Lansing — Motorists in Michigan drove a record 53.1 billion miles in 1970, the Department of State Highways reports.

The total includes miles driven on all state highways, county roads and municipal streets and exceeds the 1969 total by 2.2 billion miles, or 4.3 percent. Total mileage driven in Michigan has increased each year since World War II.

While mileage was going up, the accident fatality rate dropped from 4.9 deaths per 100 million miles in 1969 to 4.1 in 1970. State police reported 2,177 highway deaths last year—310 fewer than the record 2,487 fatalities in 1969.

The national average fatality rate in 1970 was five deaths per 100 million miles.

The total miles driven is computed on the basis of motor fuel taxes paid to the state's Motor Vehicle Highway fund.

Pre-Schooler Registrations Still Accepted

A total of 132 preschoolers enrolled to start school at last Wednesday's registration activities held at North school. Last year, 137 signed up at the spring registration.

School officials estimate another 20 students will be added to the roster of prospective kindergartners before school starts in the spring.

Among the prospective members of the class of 1984, there are more children from the country than in the past, and fewer from the village.

Children may still be registered to start school this coming September, school officials state. Any child who will be five years old, or before Dex. 1, may be registered by phoning the offices of either North or South schools. Parents of children living in the country are urged to call South school, as the children must be entered on a school bus map, and that map is kept at that school.

Parents are reminded that according to state law they must present a birth certificate to the school prior to the first classes in the fall. It is asked that parents obtain a certificate from the office of the county clerk, rather than a hospital certificate.

Future kindergartners are now visiting school classrooms for Arrangements to have a child visit a kindergarten class may be made by phoning the respective school offices.

Registrations for this summer's head start classes, which will be taught by Mrs. B. S. Michelson at North school this summer may be made by calling Mrs. Katie Harat, 13675 Maute Rd., Grass Lake.

Fun Fair Is 'Big Success'

North School Boosters report that Saturday afternoon's North School Fun Fair was a rousing success. The three-hour fair was attended by approximately 300 to 500 pupils of the school and their parents. A total of $375 to $400 was made during the fair; Boosters reported, which will be used to pay for new playground improvement, and equipment for the school.

Among the many booths in which the fair-goers participated were cake walks, pony rides, fish pond, and a "white elephant" sale. A silhouette booth traced the children's silhouette and cut them out of paper.

An ecology booth, staffed by local Indian Guides collected paper and glass for re-cycling. All monies from this project will buy plants and trees to plant for the beautification of the school.

A favorite booth at the fair was a shaving-cream pie throw. Targets for the youthful pitchers were Principal Benedict, and the Rev. John Morris.

state meet held at Michigan Center. A total of 141 teams were represented at the event, according to Coach Kruse. Chelsea finished in the top 20 teams, scoring 10 points.

Placing for Chelsea were Kim Aronson, who finished sixth in the 440-yard dash with a time of 50.8. The first eight places score points in the regular events, Kruse stated, with the first 10 places awarded in the relays. Aronson's finish gained the team two points.

The remaining seven points were won by the mile relay team of Larry Gorton, George Cameron, Jeff Hughes, and Kim Aronson. They placed fourth in the event in 3:28.3, set a new school record in the process.

Kruse claimed that a sub-par performance by the 880 relay team which had turned in one of the better times in the state, hurt Chelsea's chances to finish in the top 10, which had been a team goal.

Dave Buxton ran the mile in 4:34.1 for a new school record, but he missed placing, as he finished 10th over-all.

The meet was won by Holly, while the perennial top finisher, Boerse, was runner-up.

Coach Kruse stated that both he and his assistant coach, William Bainton, have considered this year a very successful season for Chelsea. The athletes worked hard, they claimed, and have received re-

All in all, Fuiks thought his experience was a "well planned day." "Everything fell into place as it should," he claimed, which pointed to the fact that the city must have put its heart into the Mayor Exchange program. "JAMMING" IT UP at Monday evening's celebration of "Love" held at St. Paul United Church of Christ in lieu of baccalaureate were band members from Chelsea High school. A choral group also accompanied the band in some of the numbers.

MEMBERS OF THE CHORAL GROUP who assisted at the "New Baccalaureate" ceremonies held Monday evening are also Chelsea High school students. The program was designed to be oriented toward the youth, and their interests, rather than deal with the traditional themes of baccalaureate.

Students Try 'New Baccalaureate'

Replacing traditional baccalaureate ceremonies, a celebration of the theme "Love" was held Monday evening at the St. Paul United Church of Christ for all graduating seniors, members of the junior class, and interested members of the community. Aided towards the students' level and interests, the celebration featured rock music, and modern revivals of "old-fashioned gospel music." Dr. J. V. Fisher addressed the group on the topic, "Our Parents," while the Rev. Clive Dickens spoke on the theme "Personal Faith and Pop Music." Members of the high school graduating class also addressed the group. Several popular songs played at the fete included: "The Age of Aquarius," "Jesus Christ Superstar," and "Put Your Hand in the Hand." Refreshments followed in the basement of the church.

Tired of carry-outs?

Here's what you need—a Gas incinerator. It takes all the bother out of garbage and trash disposal. And it does it without smoke, odor, noise or polluting the air you breathe.

A Gas incinerator gobbles up all the combustible things you wouldn't dare put in a garbage disposal and can't burn outside. It makes short work of bones, boxes and boots—in fact anything that's combustible. And it does the job conveniently and completely.

So put an end to your carry-out service. Promise yourself you'll see your appliance dealer about having a Gas incinerator installed in your home. Or, visit your Michigan Consolidated Gas Company showroom for all the particulars. And remember, there's more than enough Gas for all your appliances.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Memorial Day
God is not dead; neither is patriotism. The few loud voices who proclaim otherwise are wasting their voices against the winds of truth and reason.
In the beginnings of Christianity, the swords of the tyrant failed to abort fulfillment of the promise that a Child born in Bethlehem would bring new hope to the world. This hope has endured, through the centuries, against fire and steel, and changing ideologies. It will remain.
When the founders of this nation saw fit to seek a new freedom, they gave birth to a national patriotism and gave words to a Copitition establishing a government "of the people, by the people, for the people." Since the first struggles of this infant nation there have been patriots sufficient to man the necessary defenses, to struggle for good, to fight oppression. The well shall not run dry.
We may live today in a world far from perfect; in a nation afflicted with too much apathy, too much dissension. But, we are hopeful, and we are strong. There is a church on the corner and nearby Old Glory unfurls its colors to the sky.

TEACHER TOPICS

TEACHERS' HELPERS

By Margaret Senne

We are so fortunate here at South Elementary school to have many of our talented parents assist us with some of our children. Many have volunteered their time and effort, and we have called on them as they were needed.

Miss Clare Charles, special helping teacher for both North and South schools, has done a great job of organizing this program. She has brought in individual tutors, special project teachers, and some of our high school students. A big hand is due Miss Charles.

Mrs. Marlis Williams is taking 15 of our 5th grade children to give them advanced science. The children then relate their information, research, and experiments to the other 5th graders, so that all benefit.

Mrs. Stephen Hastings has given much of her time in reading stories to many of the classes. These classes are approximately 30 minutes in length. This helpfully will inspire some of our non-readers toward a desire to read more on their own.

James Krichbaum, through wood-working, is doing an outstanding job with many children who might have social or co-ordination problems. For some, it is just a fine opportunity to succeed when it seems to them that, academically, life is sometimes pretty rough.

Mrs. Harold Troyer teaches art projects to the third graders in room 13. She has introduced the children to projects using unusual materials, which include peg-boards, nails, plaster of paris, seeds, beans, paper mache, plastic and wire flowers and weaving with yarn. The children are having fun and learning many techniques in this area.

Mrs. Troyer also reads to children in some of the lower grades.

Mrs. James Markel is doing a great deal in the art field too with a class of children ranging from grades 1 through 5. These students have been recommended to Mrs. Markel's class by their teachers.

Several other parents are doing individual work tutoring in spelling, mathematics and wherever a child may need special attention.

Some parents have discovered that working with these children has not been as simple as it might have seemed previous to the experience. Surely at times, we know they have been discouraged with their efforts, but they have also had days of deep reward and encouragement.

We, the South school teachers, again want to say thank you for all your time and effort.

Thank you, Mrs. Wayne Welton, Mrs. Donald Gaul, Mrs. Cas Case, Mrs. Edward Guljas, Mrs. Wesley Cowell, Mrs. Douglas Liebeck, Mrs. Jack Patrick, Mrs. Nelson Jones, Mrs. William Eisenbier, and Mrs. James Lorens. Thank you, Mrs. Marlis Williams, Mrs. Stephen Hastings, Mrs. Harold Troyer, Mrs. James Markel, and Mr. James Krichbaum. Thank you, Tim Orbring, Susan Rasmussen, Bob Sawyer, Rick Stewart, Rudy Hertlein and Bill Kushmaul.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

As a pastor of the Chelsea Ministerial Association I would like to clarify my own position on the "New Baccalaureate" which is being presented for the Chelsea High School graduating class of 1971.

I was stunned to think that the students of this class could and would cast aside this service in the manner they did. I am very sorry to see a departure of "God involvement" at this crucial period of their lives.

I want to refute any notion that I am satisfied that the Baccalaureate has been thumbed out of the graduating program; or that I support or endorse a substitute program, especially if it focuses on rock music, and "Jesus Christ, Superstar" in particular. I am not in favor of the youth ministering unto themselves in the name of religion and getting the sanction of the church.

What two or three ministers have done within the Association is their own concern, but I wish they had not done it in the name of the Chelsea Ministerial Association.

I love the hymns and gospel songs that exalt the Lord Jesus Christ and extends blood-bought redemption to the sinner and encourages a closer walk with Him, but I cringe at the way this "rock philosophy" degenerates the Only Begotten Son of God, and still gets approval in many churches or church leaders.

I love people, young and old, and have surrendered my life to God to minister to them. I would be no representative of my Lord if I kept silent as men tried to bring Him down to their level. He said, "I came to seek and to save that which is lost." His purpose is to bring men up to His level.

The Immanuel Bible church plans a special recognition of graduates on June 6 but we will NOT be using rock music nor will we be leaving any doubt as to the divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Pastor Frank C. Frinkle.

Welcome Rain May Halt Grass Fires

Grass fires continued to crop up this past week-end, until the heavy rain Monday cooled the area down somewhat, fire officials claim.

Saturday morning, at 11:45, firemen were called to extinguish a major blaze that occurred along the railroad tracks, from the cemetery to a point about half a mile beyond Blaess Elevator. The fire was caused by what fire officials call a "hot box" on the train, that caused even the railroad ties to burn.

Sunday morning, at 10, property owned by F. Thibault of Taylor, in Lyndon township was reported on fire. Danny Ellenwood lives on the property at present. Cause of the blaze was a trash burner.

Later that afternoon, at 2:05, firefighters were called to a stretch of land along the railroad tracks a quarter mile west of Hoppe Rd. That fire kept firemen on the scene for two hours extinguishing it. No damage was reported.

Robert Breitenwischer Is Office Manager for Humble Oil Division

Robert H. Breitenwischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Breitenwischer, of Chelsea, is presently a manager for the Humble Oil Co., in the South Texas Division Office, located in Corpus Christi.

Breitenwischer, who is a 1946 Chelsea high school graduate, received his degree in geology from the University of Michigan. He started working for Humble Oil in the Gulf Coast Division in June 1953 as a junior geologist. A few months later he went into the military service for two years, after which he returned to his prior position.

He has been involved primarily in the Houston and Gulf Coast area, where he has dealt with production and subsurface geology. He spent approximately one and one-half years in Headquarters Corporate Planning prior to his transfer to the South Texas Division in December 1970.

He is married, and the father of two teen-age sons.

Baseball Team 'Gives Away' League Title

Bulldog baseball players were knocked out of first place in the race for the Southeastern Conference baseball title this past week, as they dropped two games.

Meeting Novi on Wednesday, May 19, the Bulldogs were upset, 7-6. According to Coach Carl Genske, the team "played give-away." They lost, "on an accumulation of mistakes!"

Chelsea fell behind, 3-1, at the end of the first inning, but bounced back in the third inning to rally and score three times, going ahead, 4-3.

Novi tied the game up in the fourth inning, 4-4, and then added another run in the fifth inning, to bring the score to 5-4.

Chelsea's Joe Aspiranti hit a home run in the fifth inning to tie the game, 5-5. But then the Bulldogs tossed the game away, the coach claimed, as they made a number of errors, allowing Novi to score two more runs in the sixth inning.

In the bottom of the sixth inning, Chelsea rallied, scoring one run, but that was not enough, and the game ended, with Chelsea on the short end of the scoreboard.

Thursday, against South Lyon, the Bulldogs once again failed to pull the game out of the fire, as Coach Genske claimed they played the "worst baseball (he'd seen) from any Chelsea team in many, many years."

The team was all fingers that day, he claimed, dropping balls, missing fly balls, and in general, poor playing. Final score for the day was 10-2.

South Lyon scored in every inning with the exception of the third inning. Their big inning, however, was the fifth, when they scored four times on three hits. Chelsea's two runs came in the third and seventh innings.

Turning the tables on Monday, Chelsea defeated Stockbridge, 13-3, in an attempt to get back on the winning track. Randy Brier, Chelsea's catcher, took a turn on the other side of the ball, and pitched for the team. Coach Genske claimed that Brier may be a new pitching star for the team as he gave up only three hits.

Chelsea had a total of 12 hits for the afternoon, and four errors. Coach Genske cited the good hitting of Joe Aspiranti, who was two for three, including a home run, and had three RBI's and three stolen bases.

Todd Sprague and Mike Rossbach were also two for three for the afternoon.

Portion of M-52 To Be Resurfaced

Highway M-52 from Manchester north to Pleasant Lake Rd., will be resurfaced, as part of a $6 million emergency resurfacing and repair project the State Highway Commission announced this past week. The 2½ mile stretch of road will cost an estimated $150,000, officials claim.

The emergency program, at estimated cost of $6 million, is in addition to the annual resurfacing program, the Commission stated, and is a result of the particularly severe 1970-71 winter.

The annual, non-emergency program calls for resurfacing of 223 miles of state highways, at an estimated cost of $6.5 million.
