Attendance at Area Parks Setting Records

With record attendance and beautiful weather, the three Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority Parks strung along 17 miles of Huron River are getting a real workout this year.

So are the Park Rangers and supervisory and maintenance crews who keep these parks operating smoothly for family recreation during the summer. Well over 1/2 million people are using the Delhi, Dexter-Huron and Hudson Mills parks this year for picnicking, baseball, badminton, hiking, bike riding and just relaxing.

The three parks along the Huron are the best patrolled parks in the county. Folks who live nearby, or use the parks, are familiar with the white cars with the gold and brown arrowhead shaped design on the doors.

Rangers see their role more as a public relations job than one of law enforcement. Their constant presence during park hours, using the six rangers augmented by Washtenaw County Sheriff's Auxiliary on week-ends, has a quieting influence... those who are concerned that there might be trouble know help is close at hand; those who consider causing trouble have second thoughts.

There are 45 acres in Delhi Park, 115 in Dexter-Huron and 700-plus in Hudson Mills. Scouting activities are increasing in these areas and canoeing is very popular this year with two marinas near Hudson Mills renting canoes.

Charles A. Damm, park superintendent, remarked "Park problems are increasing and we're trying to meet that need. Our philosophy is service to the public within the parks. Policing and enforcement are a last resort."

Rangers are on hand, according to Damm, to remind people that there are standards of behavior and to provide a personal contact for the safety of those using the park facilities.

There is a strong feeling among the park personnel that they would be seriously hampered if it were not for Washtenaw Sheriff Doug Harvey's co-operation... his department and its auxiliary force. The support of the Sheriff's Department, its radio linkage to the parks and the standby personnel it provides, are a vital part of "making it work."

All the park rangers are deputized so when trouble does come they can act effectively in the capacity of a law enforcement officer.

This type of action, not nearly so pleasant a duty as park patrol, triggered an incident for which (Continued on page five)

Wm. Storey Will Head School Board

William Storey was elected president of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday night. Storey, who will be serving his first term as president, has served on the board for three years.

Carolyn Smith was elected board secretary, and Herman Koenig was designated treasurer. Mrs. Smith is serving her second year on the board. Koenig, who was board secretary during the last year, is in his second term on the board.

The only other action taken during the meeting, which Superintendent of Schools Charles Cameron termed "primarily organizational," was increasing each step on the annual salary schedules for clerks and secretaries by a $100 figure.

SHARON E. SUTTER, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Sutter, 564 McKinley, was graduated from the University of Michigan May 1, 1971. She received a BS degree in nursing. Currently employed by St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Miss Sutter graduated from Chelsea High school in 1967.

Jill Flintoft Will Appear In Recital

Jill Flintoft, an accomplished young pianist from Chelsea, will present a recital Tuesday, July 27, 8 p.m. at the Ann Arbor Women's City Club in Ann Arbor.

Miss Flintoft, 18, graduated in June from Chelsea High school. She has studied piano for 10 years, the last seven of them with Mrs. Carol Leybourn Kenney in Ann Arbor.

She appeared as soloist with the Chelsea High school Symphony Band in 1968 and was chosen to perform in the Honors Recital at Interlochen in 1969, where she studied with Joseph Banowetz.

In 1970, Miss Flintoft appeared in the Michigan Youth Fine Arts Festival in Jackson, having been chosen one of the 10 outstanding high school soloists in the state.

At Interlochen she was awarded a four-year full tuition scholarship to continue her study of piano at the University of Michigan School of Music beginning in August, 1971.

For her recital Miss Flintoft will perform works by Bach, Elizabeth Gould, Barber, Debussy and Brahms.

Her teacher, Mrs. Kenney, has both her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Michigan School of Music. She has given concerts in Europe under the auspices of the U. S. Information Agency, soloed with the Ann Arbor Symphony, and has appeared on nation-wide television.

THE SNAKE IN THE GRASS turned out to be a snake in the bag securely held by 4-H program leader Jim Chapman (right) for examination by a group of children. The children were participants in one of a series of programs held in Portage Lake and Sugar Lake Campgrounds designed to acquaint young campers with the wildlife in the Waterloo Recreation Area.

Children Study Nature Life In Program at State Parks

There had been a lot of talk about snakes; what they eat, where they live, and what to do if one bites you. But the talk exploded into excitement as a real live snake was brought out for the 30 kids in the park amphitheater to "touch and examine." The squirming sitting gave way to crowding around one of the 4-H program leaders who gently brought a hog-nose snake half-way out of his temporary home in a white plastic bag.

The kids, 4-H program leaders, Lois Roberts and Jim Chapman, and the snake were all part of one afternoon's program in a continuing series of programs being held in the Portage Lake and Sugar Lake campgrounds, as well as in other parks throughout the state.

Sponsored and supported by the 4-H clubs of Michigan with the co-operation of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the programs are designed both to teach kids, especially those from urban areas, how to be constructively involved with the out-of-doors, and to aid the expansion of 4-H programs into urban areas.

From the second week in June until the second week in August the program provides a weekly series of lectures and field trips for people camping in the Waterloo Recreation Area. Aimed mainly at children, the programs illustrate the kinds of wildlife found in the Waterloo Area.

In addition to programs on snakes, mammals and turtles, the program also takes children on berry-picking, rock and fossil hunting and fishing safaris. The programs run Tuesday through Saturday, with the various series of lectures repeating each week. Participation in them is voluntary, and anyone interested may join at any time. For children over eight years of age, there is an opportunity to enroll in the 4-H program.

For many of the kids, the programs are the first chance they've had to learn about a world not bounded by concrete and steel. Tom Hodgson, park naturalist notes. So, the 4-H leaders do a thorough job not only of giving basic information about the parks and the wildlife found there, but also carefully seek out and correct any false ideas the children have.

Many of the kids believed, when they first came in contact with the program that all snakes were dangerous, and that the thing to do when meeting a snake on a walk was to kill it. Some thought that all snake bites were fatal.

The program leaders, both biology majors in college, have a nice, easy style of presentation. It's just the sort that would reach kids, and it does.

On the afternoon Jim and Lois gave the week's program on snakes, Lois began by asking questions of the kids in the audience like, "How do snakes eat?" and "How do they catch their food?" Many of the children had ideas about it, and they waved their hands in the air, simultaneously shouting out answers.

After the kids had exhausted their ideas about one question, she would sort out the wrong from the right answers, and give a simple explanation of just how snakes did eat, and how they do catch their food.

There were questions from the kids too, such as "How long do snakes get?" "Do snakes eat other snakes?" and "Can you tell how old a snake is?"

The last question was highly controversial, and one little boy staunchly maintained that you could tell, at least about rattlesnakes, if you wanted to get close enough to count the rattles. But Lois explained that the method was unreliable. Snakes don't even grow rattles until they are in their second year, and often lose some of them during fights with other snakes and animals.

In the programs discussing snakes and turtles, the 4-H people use live specimens of the creatures being discussed. But only stuffed specimens of the mammals are used, since the law prohibits keeping wild animals in captivity. They have five different varieties of snakes, and study skins of the raccoon, skunk, opossum, woodchuck and red fox.

The rock and fossil, berry picking and fishing safaris are extremely popular since rocks found, berries picked and fish caught may be taken back to camp to show Mom and Dad (if Mom and Dad weren't along in the first place).

Although parents are welcome to participate in the 4-H programs, naturalist Tom Hodgson has a program of his own aimed mainly at adults. In the evening at the camp sites he presents slide shows also designed as an introduction to the out-of-doors, and the ways in which the recreation area may be used for activities other than boating, swimming and picnicking.

Information about the programs may be obtained from Waterloo Recreation Area Headquarters.

DAVID WILLIAM BLAESS
David W. Blaess Earns Pharmacy Degree at U-M

David William Blaess, son of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Blaess of Chelsea, graduated June 26 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Pharmacy from the University of Michigan.

David has completed a five-year curriculum which has included participating in the Michigan Marching Band, the Michigan baseball team, serving as both vice-president and president of the Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity, served as an officer of Fraternity Presidents Association and Inter-Fraternity Council.

His freshman year, Dave was honored as the Athlete of the Year of his dormitory and his fifth year was named to the All-Star football and basketball teams in the social fraternity league. During Dave's last two years, he has been a recipient of the Harry Helfman scholarship.

During his stay at the University Dave has participated in the Student Government Council (SGC) and was a member of Pharmacy Professional Fraternity.

Dave is presently residing in Ann Arbor and is a pharmacy extern at the Quarry, Inc. He plans to take a staff position at Wayne County General Hospital within the near future.

Mrs. Linda Mangene spent Friday until Tuesday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Julius Reule while her husband attended a convention. Linda is a stewardess for United Airlines.

Dr. J. V. Fisher Heads Michigan Academy Of General Practice

Dr. Joseph V. Fisher was installed last night (July 21) as president of the Michigan Academy of General Practice in a ceremony held at Boyne Highlands.

Conducting the inauguration was Dr. William Lotterhos, president of the American Academy of General Practice, of which the Michigan Academy is a constituent chapter.

The Academy is a nation-wide association of family physicians with more than 30,000 members. Dr. Fisher is a charter member, having joined the organization at its inception in 1948. The Michigan Academy represents more than 1,200 family physicians.

To retain their membership in the Academy, member physicians must complete a minimum of 150 hours of post-graduate training every three years.

The presidency of the Michigan Academy is the latest in a series of distinguished positions Dr. Fisher, who was named Chelsea's Outstanding Man of the Year in January, 1971, has held within the academy.

He served as the Michigan Academy's vice-speaker in 1969-1970, as president-elect in 1970-71, and will serve as president until July, 1972.

He was the president of the Washtenaw County chapter of the Michigan Academy in 1968-69, and is currently the National Academy's regional co-ordinator for Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia. He is also a member of its mental health committee.

Dr. Fisher is also certified as a specialist in his field by the American Board of Family Practice.

While serving as president, Dr. Fisher hopes to continue, and to initiate programs designed to further the goals of the Academy. He hopes to see Departments of Family Medicine, which will train family doctors, established in all the state medical schools. Dr. Fisher said, "I believe it is most important that people in Michigan have physicians trained in this discipline."

He wants to strengthen the family practice clubs existing in the medical schools, which are designed to acquaint medical students with active family medical practitioners.

Dr. Fisher also hopes to further the medical school's perception programs which allow senior medical students to spend part of their final year in medical school in service with a family practitioner.

Dr. Fisher believes strongly in the need to identify family doctors who are not members of the academy—especially younger physicians—and to enroll them in the academy; and in the need to provide practicing doctors with comprehensive programs of post-graduate medical education utilizing the post-graduate staffs of the state's three medical schools.

Dr. Fisher has a long and illustrious record of service to the (Continued on page six)

Conservation Officer Like Finally Finds Home in Chelsea

Robert L. Like, the new conservation officer for Western Washtenaw county has been a man on the move. But now that he's found Chelsea he'd like to stay put for a while.

Like joined the Department of Natural Resources only 10 months ago, but his assignment here is the third of his career with the department. He spent three months in Jackson county, and another two months in Allegan county before beginning his job here in the early part of May.

Before joining the department, a thing, he said, "I've always had my eye on." Like had a variety of jobs. He worked as a railroad man, as an assistant foreman at a parts plant in Toledo, O., and also sailed on the Great Lakes freighters.

Like, 28, attended Michigan Technological University in Houghton, studying forestry for two years. He attended high school in Toledo, O., and in Adrian, which he considers his home town.

Although Like began his assignment here in May, he and his wife, Sara, moved here only two weeks ago. Like said that they'd probably still be house hunting were it not for all the people in Chelsea who gave their time to help him look. "I really thank those people," Like said.

Like's job as a conservation officer is, he explained, a 24-hour-a-day seven-day-a-week job. In addition to enforcing fish and game laws, investigating reports of water pollution and other hazards to the environment, Like is available to speak to various groups on conservation topics. He may be contacted by phone at 476-1228.

The Likes make their home at 118 Pierce St., with their two children Ethan, 16 months, and Judith, three months.

Old Fashioned Threshing Party Planned

There'll be nostalgia, fun for the entire family, and a chance to do some hard work if you feel like it, when Donald Irwin hosts an old-time threshing party this Saturday afternoon.

Irwin, who hopes to have an old steam engine on hand, will definitely be using a 40-year-old John Deere separator. "We're going to do this like it hasn't been done for 30 years," Irwin said.

The threshing will begin around 1 p.m. at Irwin's farm, 16880 Grass Lake Rd., about four miles southwest of Chelsea. Irwin says those bringing their own "three-tined fork" will get free refreshments.

In case of rain during the day the event will be cancelled, but the grain will be loaded and kept under shelter if a rain should hit the area the night before. In such a situation the threshing will go on as scheduled.

Mrs. Thomas Stock of Royal Oak, was a guest of the Thomas Stock family from July 17 to July 19. Sunday afternoon guests of the Stocks were the Raymond Steinbachs of Cedar Lake.

THE NEW DOWNTOWN SIDEWALK was nearly completed Wednesday. Here, workers from the Washtenaw Asphalt Co. and the village begin the last stages of their work which started Monday morning. During the rest of this week crews will be working on the N. Main sidewalk between Letts Creek and Sycamore.

ON THE SCENE are Kimble Bear, 13 (top), and his brother Mark, 10, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bear, 317 McKinley. The boys are among the first to use the new culvert tile playground equipment delivered to North school Wednesday morning. The five tiles at North school were purchased by the North School Boosters with part of the money raised at their Fun Fair last spring. The Rev. John Morris, president of the group, arranged with a pipe company in Jackson for the purchase of the tiles, and their transportation to Chelsea was paid for by the School District. The acquisition of the tiles is part of an on-going project of the North School Boosters to improve the school playground. Four tiles were also delivered to South school and will be paid for by that school's parent's organization.

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

Congress has just put the finishing touches to an education appropriations bill and it is now awaiting the President's signature.

The first instance of direct aid to education by the federal government came more than a century ago, but the idea that the federal government had a role to play in support of education goes back even further to post-Revolutionary years when Congress set aside certain lands in every township in the Northwest Territory for support of public schools. It was 1862 before Congress acted again to aid education when it established in each state land grant colleges.

In 1917 Congress authorized federal aid to vocational education. Nearly thirty years later the federal government made its greatest total financial contribution to education through the G.I. Bill.

In 1950 in areas where federal installations added population to a given community and removed property from the local tax base, Congress established the impacted aid program. In recent years federal aid had included specific legislation in the fields of secondary and higher education.

That is a thumbnail sketch of the federal government's role in providing money for this country's education programs.

But today the financial crunch is felt across the country and there is a strong determination from a wide variety of sources that federal spending for education must continue at the highest possible level.

The federal expenditure as a percentage of total educational expenditures has remained stable for the past five years at 11.12 percent. Similarly, the federal percentage of expenditures for public elementary, and secondary schools since 1905 has remained stable at around 8 percent. At the same time state and local governments have been spending record amounts for education. Education spending at all levels for this year by the American people will come to just over $70 billion. $43 billion of that amount will be for public elementary and secondary schools. This is more than double the expenditures of 10 years ago, three times the expenditures of 15 years ago and eight times the expenditures of 20 years ago. The American people, with six percent of the world's population, spend one-half of all the funds for education in the entire world.

My committee is constantly assessing the merits of existing legislation and looking at new methods to improve the education delivery system. We are currently in the process of developing legislation to further assist institutions of higher education.

That is a thumbnail sketch of the federal government's role in providing money for this country's education programs.

But today the financial crunch is felt across the country and there is a strong determination from a wide variety of sources that federal spending for education must continue at the highest possible level.

Women Gain Legislation

Though most of the publicity in "women's liberation" has gone to the demonstrators, the more vocal proponents of "women's lib" as well as some quieter advocates of the cause, both male and female, have been working for some practical advances on the legislative scene in Lansing.

In the current session, two pieces of legislation focus attention on areas where women traditionally have faced obstacles not placed in front of men.

The first is the bill sponsored by Rep. Dennis Cawthorne, R-Manistee, to require that women be paid equal salaries with men when they do the same work as men. It is designed to correct the situation found in many places where men and women, working side by side at the same job, are paid different wage rates based solely on their sex.

The second is the bill sponsored by Sen. William S. Ballenger, R-Ovid, and would guarantee any Michigan woman a leave of absence if she becomes pregnant and would guarantee her her old job back after she has the baby if she wants the job back.

Again, many industries and businesses do not allow women to come back to their old job after they have been off work to have a baby. The worst example Ballenger cited involves a woman who had worked for a firm 17 years and 11 months before leaving work to have a baby. The woman's company would not let her go back to work after the baby was born.

Neither Cawthorne nor Ballenger have been overly vocal in pursuing their respective bills. But that doesn't mean they haven't been working hard on them. In a legislative body, the legislators who make the most speeches often are the least influential. While they are speaking, the quieter, more effective, lawmakers are going around rounding up support on a one by one basis for their legislation—the way most bills are passed.

Emergency Messages

The Michigan State Police and the Michigan Association of Broadcasters are co-operating once again this year in a program designed to notify vacationers if someone back home is trying to reach them with an emergency message.

The plan is simple, but effective. If someone needs to contact a relative traveling in Michigan with an emergency message, he can first contact the State Police. The State Police determine what area of the state where the person is probably traveling and contacts radio stations there.

The radio stations then broadcast, between noon and 1 p.m., the names of persons for whom emergency messages are waiting at State Police posts and instruct them where to call to receive the message.

Hundreds of messages of this nature are delivered, says State Police Director John R. Plante, particularly during the tourist and hunting seasons. But many times it is quite difficult, if not impossible, to complete their delivery.

Emergency messages are delivered only to persons when regular facilities such as telephone or telegram cannot be used.

Plants says while the system of using radio stations does not totally replace hand delivery of messages, it reaches many persons not otherwise located and reduces hours spent on hand delivered messages. So far as is known, no other state has a similar system.

Shootings Rise

Michigan workers injured on the job have included an increasing number of shooting victims in recent years, according to the Michigan Department of Labor.

Though it has no specific statistics available on shootings, it says 23 percent of the people who are injured on the job are struck by objects, and an increasing number of those objects are bullets.

A number of the employees shot are shot either during holdups or because of accidents which would not happen if there were proper training and supervision of employees who handle weapons, the department says.

But there are always the exceptions to any generality and that's true in this case, too. One of the shootings involved a slaughterhouse worker who shot himself in the hand when his aim was ruined by an unco-operative pig.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ed Doolittle is about as strong a Baptist as he is a Republican, and when he has somepup to say on his church or his politics he says it out plain. Saturday night at the country store, Ed was lit up about this piece he had saw in the papers about Baptists.

According to this piece, Ed told the feller, the head of the Southern Baptist Convention, which has 11 million members, had allowed that capital punishment is "part of the revelation of God." What got Ed on his high horse was not what the feller said, but that the papers give the idea he was speaking the mind of all them 11 million Baptists.

If they is one thing Baptists agree on, Ed said, it is that the opinion of one Baptist in church matters or any other matters don't bind the opinion of any other Baptist. Furthermore, Ed allowed, if one Baptist finds out what another is thinking, he is likely to "foot fer another way of thinking."

Personal, said Ed, he was not agreed with the feller that said God was in favor of capital punishment, but he said this feller was welcome to his opinion. From the piece he saw, Ed said he figured the feller was saying executing people was part of God's plan fer running the world, and that He had passed the idea down to man fer his own good.

Ed said God gets blamed fer a heap of things that He probable would rather man let alone. Fer instance, Ed said he recalled from history when them Crusaders went around killing everybody that weren't Christians, and he didn't figger that plan to save the world was God's idea.

Zeke Grubb was full agreed with Ed that man usual gets God mixed up with whatever man convinces himself is the thing to do. If you kill everybody that ain't Christian, allowed Zeke, you're shore to wind up with a powerful big percent of Christians in the world, but that ain't what the Lord had in mind when he said spread the word.

The trouble with capital punishment, Zeke went on, is not how efficient it is, but who decides what crimes fit the punishment. Fer instance, Zeke said, whose idea is it to execute you fer sitting fire to a house at night? A fire to a house at night? A drunk driver loose on the road is jest as dangerous, and all he gets is a fine and turned out to do the same thing agin, was Zeke's words.

Mister Editor, all the fellers was agreed that legal killing has the benefit of nipping the problem in the bud. Clem Webster said if capital punishment was used fer ever crime, it shore would ease the problems of prisons, and all them pore GIs coming back from Vietnam hooked on dope wouldn't be a worry long.

But none of the fellers were willing to be judge or executor. Uncle Lew.

Care of Greenery Vital to Maintaining Oxygen Supply

By Clark A. Facker

U. S. Soil Conservation Service Are you taking good care of the trees and the lawn at your home? If you are, you are helping supply the oxygen requirements for yourself and your family.

A healthy growing lawn 625 square feet in size (an area 25 area. Such a tree will produce enough oxygen for the average family. Most local lawns will have up to 10 times this area in grass.

From Mildred M. Smith, Beth any, Mo.: I wonder if anyone remembers the leach for making lye? I well remember Grandma making lye in a leach. Wood was the fuel used in stoves for cooking and heating. The ashes were carried to the leach and dumped in.

This receptacle was about five or six feet long and shaped like a "V" with a trough at the bottom where the black liquid lye ran out. Water was poured over the ashes every few days to produce the lye, which was mixed with cracklings from rendering lard. Some water was poured in, then boiled until the right consistency. The result was soft soap, which was the color and thickness of honey.

Grandma also made vinegar in half gallon glass jars. A large piece of "mother" was put into each jar, then sugar and water and after a time was very good vinegar.

She also made it with "vinegar bees"—a little round clear, jelly-like particles which were treated much the same as "mother vinegar."

The grass also removes sulfur dioxide, ozone and other impurities from the air.

A large tree will have 1,600 or more square feet of leaf surface area. Such a tree will produce 450 pounds of oxygen; enough to keep a man breathing for a year. An acre of larger trees can produce the oxygen needs of about 18 people. It will take 50 full-sized thriving trees to supply the annual oxygen demand for your auto.

A young stand of fast growing trees at the proper spacing will produce more oxygen than crowded older trees—an excellent reason for practicing good woodland management and the timely harvesting of mature trees.

Grasslands, woodlands and plant of the lakes and seas are all important producers of oxygen, which all living animals use. The plankton in the sea are the greatest producers of oxygen. Three-fourths of our oxygen is produced in the oceans.

Oxygen is the most abundant natural element, making up 50 percent of the earth's ecological complex. Photosynthesis is nature's process of recycling free carbon back into the life cycle. Carbon recycling is critical. It is estimated that if not recycled, the CO₂ supply would be depleted in about 40 years.

These examples suggest the value of plants in maintaining the balance of nature and in our lives. Oxygen is an invaluable natural element, essential to life itself. Through proper care and management of our living plant resources, we can help maintain our vital oxygen supply.

Members and friends of the Congregational church gathered at the farm home of Warren and Miss Bertha Spaulding, Friday evening, July 17, for the annual Family Night of the church. The Rev. and Mrs. Wm. H. Skentsbury were honored at the occasion in honor of their 35th wedding anniversary. The couple was presented with gifts from the Church Board and the Ladies Guild as a vacation gift. The Skentsburys will leave July 28 for a month's vacation in Panama.

Washtenaw county will be represented by 16 women at Farm the approximately 600 delegates to the affair will be Chelsea farm woman Mrs. Leonard Reith.

34 Years Ago...

Thursday, July 22, 1937—
Charles Bycraft is now located at Mohrlock's Garage, and is sales agent for John Hasel-schwerdt, selling Chryslers, Plymouths, and used cars; also electric appliances for David Mohrlock.

Claude S. Rogers, who graduated from the Law School of the U. of M. in June, 1936, has been admitted by Circuit Judge George W. Sample to practice before the bar. He was introduced to the court by Attorney Louis E. Burke.

Work of preparing Chelsea streets for dustless surfacing is now getting well under way. The first shipment of oil to be used for surfacing work will arrive next week, and it is hoped that work will progress satisfactorily, and that all streets in the village will be dustless before fall, surfaced with either an oil mix or seal coat.

Growing Welfareism

Welfare should not become a "way of life," but should be considered only as an emergency, or last resort program, but from all outward appearances the federal government is intent on perpetuation of the system.

President Nixon's new welfare plan is a socio-economic plan designed to turn over the major burden of welfare to the federal government. The most controversial provision of the welfare program is the "family assistance plan," better known as a guaranteed annual income.

Says the American Conservative Union, in Michigan there are 316,200 persons receiving aid. If the bill passes Congress, it will skyrocket to 646,400, which is an increase of 104 percent. Nationally, more than 12 million people will be added to the welfare rolls at an estimated additional cost of $10 billion a year. (Figures are based on Senate Finance Committee data.)

What is startling to the farmer is that under the plan there would be no check to determine if a person needs the money. The so-called "work requirement" section would actually encourage more people not to work than under the present system. It is reported that since 1967 there has been a "must work" requirement in the Aid to Families of Dependent Children (AFDC) but has never been enforced.

Reducing welfare rolls appears out of reach as the program would add 12 million persons to the already 10 million on welfare. In total, some 22 million people would be receiving checks from the federal government, or 11 percent of the U. S. It is reported that cost to the taxpayer could be as much as $275. Economist Henry Hazlitt says the welfare plan will cost $10 billion the first year. This money will have to come from the average taxpayer through still more taxes. ($275) or through still more inflation.

Welfare as a program of last resort appears to be a spot on someone's vacation itinerary, rather than an emergency plan. And why not, doesn't it look easier for a lot of people not to work?

Tourist Attractions Abound
Throughout Michigan in July

Whatever you enjoy most—fishing, sailboating or canoeing, a rodeo, showboat, centennial celebration or forestry exposition—

there's certain to be something to your liking at one of Michigan's 13 special events from July 22-31.

'Automobile Club of Michigan's seventh in a series of 14 feature maps this summer lists a large variety of fun-filled family activities for Michiganders who will be on the go this month.

A total of 210 boats are anticipated for the 47th annual Port Huron to Mackinac Island Sailboat Race. Trophies and plaques will be awarded those leading their classes in the 235-mile trip. The event is sponsored by the Detroit Bayview Yacht Club.

The World Championship Ausable Canoe Race from Grayling to Oscoda is set for July 30-31. Forty canoes will participate in the 240-mile race, which takes approximately 14 hours to complete.

The Lowell Showboat docks in this west Michigan community July 22-24 and 29-31 with a shipload of special attractions. Headlining the first week-end will be the Everly Brothers while singer Ray Stevens will perform the second week-end.

Anglers will have an opportunity to display their talents in Baldwin's Troutarama, July 29-31. Fishermen with the largest catches in various categories will be awarded prizes. A giant parade is planned for the final day.

About 60,000 visitors are expected for Fremont's 21st annual Old Fashioned Days. Featured are a parade, bargain shopping, free stage shows, pie eating contest and special programs for youngsters.

The City of Munger will commemorate its potato harvest July 29-Aug. 1 with its 17th annual Potato Festival. A carnival and fireworks display highlights the Venetian Festival at Charlevoix, July 23-25.

Mio's Great Lakes Forestry Exposition is slated July 22-24 with the Rogers City Centennial July 30 to Aug. 8. Allegan has an Art Festival July 24.

Art on the Rocks is scheduled July 21-Aug. 1 at Marquette. The U.P. Championship Rodeo at Iron River is July 31-Aug. 1 and the Hastings Steam Rodeo runs July 30 to Aug. 1.

CANCER RESEARCH FIND
Washington—Cancer researchers think they have found a body chemical that turns normal cells cancerous. They have also discovered a way to defeat the cancer-causing process with drugs. Scientists at the National Cancer Institute believe this is a very important development.

FIGHTS TOOTH DECAY
Detroit—Dr. Michael Bounocore, a researcher at the Eastman Dental Center in Rochester has predicted a clear plastic sealant he has developed will prove a weapon in the battle to wipe out tooth decay. The sealant is applied by the dentist then hardened by a brief exposure to an ultraviolet light.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER:
"I am 16 years old, and I have a big problem. I would like your advice on how to talk my parents into letting me get my driver's license. I have been begging them to let me get it, but they won't give in. My best friend has his license, so I go places with him, but I know he gets tired of it. My parents say the insurance is too high. They always have enough money for their liquor and cigarettes. I don't think they refuse me because they don't think I have enough responsibility. We have a large family and I carry my share of the load. I can't date because I can't ever get the car. What I can't understand is why they let me drive when it is for them, like going to the store, or to town, or taking one of the younger kids somewhere. I'm getting tired of sitting home on week-ends. My steady doesn't mind that we never go anywhere except when we doubledate, but I do, and I'm tired of it. I've got to find out what to do."

OUR REPLY: We can't tell you the "why" of your parents' attitude about not letting you get a license. And, we sure cannot understand why they won't let you get a license—but, you say they will allow you to drive to the store or take the youngsters somewhere. They are letting you drive—without a license—which won't help your side in the event of an accident, regardless of whether the accident is your fault or that of another driver. Talk to your parents again.

CARD OF THANKS

It is with sincere appreciation that we wish to thank all those who by their many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy helped so much during our recent bereavement. We especially thank the entire staff at the Chelsea Medical Clinic for their acts of kindness and courtesy shown us during the past two months. The prayers of Pastor Morris and Rev. David Kleis; and the comforting deeds of June and Louis Burghardt will always be remembered. A sincere thank you is extended to the many friends, neighbors and relatives who donated food, sent sympathy cards to the family and gave their donations to the cardiac department of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. God Bless you all and he will. x5

Legion of Honor Awarded R. Foster

Ranger Richard D. Foster of Chelsea was awarded the "Legion of Valor" last Friday in ceremonies at the Hudson Mills Park office.

On June 4, Foster, Chief Ranger Donald Stewart, and several other officers in the area responded to a call reporting a motorcycle fire. Arriving at the address, they found a woman, armed with two knives, threatening to set fire to a car.

In trying to subdue the woman, Ranger Foster was stabbed in the back and shoulder and required two weeks to recover from his injuries. Ranger Foster is back at his job, because he knows this isn't the usual run of things. Being a Park Ranger really is public relations, and most of the public behaves in a normal way.

The Park Authority appreciates Ranger Foster's attitude about his job, according to James J. Pompo, deputy director, who was on hand for the presentation of the award Friday. Fortunately the Legion of Honor, "in recognition of the previous injuries sustained in the performance of his duties" is not an award the Huron-Clinton Authority makes very often.

The best advice for modern people, young and old, facing all sorts of propaganda, is the single word: think.

Lively Week of Musical Shows In Store on MSU TV Channel

East Lansing—Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops, soul-jazz singer Roberta Flack, folk stars Donal Leace and the Clancy Brothers and jazz pianist Art Hodes take turns in the spotlight as WMSB (Channel 10) Michigan State University television presents a lively week of predominantly musical programs, starting Sunday, July 25.

Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra lead off the week with the opening of the new season of the Peabody award-winning series, Evening At Pops, at 12 noon Sunday, July 25.

The premiere program is devoted to the works of Tchaikovsky and features guest artist, Earl Wild performing the Piano Concerto No. 1 in B-flat Minor Op. 23.

Fiedler and the Pops open the program with excerpts from Swan Lake and Sleeping Beauty, chosen to set a romantic mood for Wild's performance.

The program comes to a climax with the performance of the dramatic 1812 Overture, complete with cannon fire.

ROBERTA FLACK

Roberta Flack, the brilliant young vocalist and pianist whose extensive repertoire of jazz, soul, pop, blues, folk and spiritual music has made her one of the fastest rising stars in all fields of contemporary music, is profiled on Artists in America at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, July 25.

Though her popularity has made her sought for performances all over the country, she maintains her home base in an upstairs room built especially for her at Mr. Henry's, an intimate nightclub in Washington, D.C.

The cameras follow her as she performs for her devoted fans at Mr. Henry's, appears at the Newport Jazz Festival, records a song for her third major album and relaxes with her husband, bass player Steve Novosel.

"Artists in America: Roberta Flack" will be re-broadcast at 7 p.m. Tuesday, July 27.

AMERICAN ODYSSEY

The Clancy Brothers, Donal Leace, Tom Paxton, Dave Von Sonk and McKendree Spring perform ballads and chanteys from America's seafaring era as Fanfare begins a four-part series on American folk songs at 10 p.m. Sunday, July 25.

Against a setting of the coastline at Bar Harbor, Me., program host Oscar Brand provides historical commentary on the origin of the mariner songs performed by the various folk artists.

Future programs, each taped in a setting appropriate to the music, will study songs of the miners, railroad men and music of the early colony days.

RICHARD WAGNER

The life of Richard Wagner, the extravagant, ruthless, egotistical, magnetic and, above all, brilliant composer of "Tannhauser," "Lohengrin," "Tistan and Isolde," "Parsifal" and the "Ring des Nibelungen" is dramatized on NET Playhouse Biography at 11 p.m. Sunday, July 25.

The dramatization, starring British actor Alan Badel as the composer, centers on Wagner's love affair with Cosima von Buelow from 1862 to 1870. These years saw his rise from poverty in Vienna to the bounty he enjoyed as a resident of Switzerland.

ler University in Indianapolis, Ind. She has been a soloist with the Indianapolis Symphony and the Port Wayne Philharmonic orchestras.

ART HODES

Pianist Art Hodes, a legendary figure in Chicago jazz, appears with cornetist Wild Bill Davidson in a program of non-stop jazz at 7 p.m. Thursday, July 29.

Hodes, born in Russia in 1904, arrived in the U.S. as an infant. He began working professionally in his teens, playing a concert with Benny Goodman at Hull House.

Inspired by the great blues pianists and singers he heard on Chicago's South Side, Hodes soon developed a very individual style. By the early 1930's he was one of Chicago's most prominent artists.

Hodes moved to New York in 1938 where he continued to lead his own groups and record, in addition to having his own jazz radio show. He returned to Chicago in 1950. He is a founding member of the Jazz Institute of Chicago and regularly writes for Down Beat magazine.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Public opinion is actually a spotlight for progress. Every business, including the business of government, concerns itself with public opinion to improve a progress program. Information is sought and detailed facts analyzed in a hoped-for process of progress in human relations. Sometimes the facts are misleading, misunderstood and misinterpreted. Hopes are squashed, undesirable and unwanted consequences follow.

Those who seek and those who give counsel would do well to remember the words of the psalmist, "Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked." Wicked people are ungodly people. They are motivated by selfishness, greed and the like. Consequently their counsel is too often based on wrong philosophy. With the mess our world is in today, would it not seem the world has too many wicked, ungodly people sitting in council chambers? . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Brighter Lights Installed in Business Area

Things are brighter at night in downtown Chelsea now, thanks to new 1000-watt mercury vapor lights installed over the last week. Fourteen new fixtures were put up to replace an equal number of old 400-watt lamps.

The new lights, which give 2 1/2 times as much light as the old street lights, run from the tracks to Palmer Motor Sales on Main St. East and West Middle have two new lights each.

The 14 fixtures which were removed will be reused, according to the superintendent of the Light & Water Department, Harold Bable. The lights were installed at a cost of approximately $1,750.

Bonnie Wengren 2nd in Jaycee State Track Meet

Bonnie Wengren, local track star, placed second in the 220-yard dash in the Jaycees State Championship track meet this last week-end, despite an injury to her foot.

medical profession and to his community.

Born in Huntington, Ind., in 1913, Dr. Fisher graduated from University of Michigan High School in 1931. He attended DePaul University in Greencastle, Ind., from 1931-33, finishing his undergraduate work at the University of Michigan from 1933-1936.

He attended the University of Michigan Medical School from 1936-1940, and completed his internship at Highland Park General Hospital in 1941.

Before entering the U.S. Army Medical Corps in 1943, he was associated in general practice in Chelsea with Dr. Malcom L. Sibbald.

During the war he spent 21 months with a portable surgical hospital operating in the China, India, Burma theater.

He returned to Chelsea, and to family practice, in 1946.

Dr. Fisher was president of the Chelsea School Board from 1953-1961. He has also chaired the village recreation council, the village planning commission, and the church board of the United Methodist church. He has been a member of the Washtenaw County Community Mental Health Board since its inception in 1963.

Dr. Fisher is the Chief of Staff of the Chelsea Community Hospital this year, and is also on the staff of Foote Memorial Hospital in Jackson.

Dr. Fisher's wife, his mother Mrs. Kenneth Kugel and her husband; his daughter and her husband from St. Joseph, Mo., and Mrs. John DeWane; his son, Joseph, and his daughter, Joanne, attended the inauguration ceremonies.

DEATHS

Mrs. Howard E. Walz Dies Tuesday at Medical Center After Long Illness

Mrs. Howard E. (Ruth M.) Walz, 66, of 16 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., died Tuesday, July 20 at the Chelsea Medical Center following a long illness.

Mrs. Walz was born June 18, 1905 in Sylvan township, a daughter of Guy and Susanna Gilbert Hulce. She was married to Howard E. Walz on Jan. 20, 1923 in Grass Lake. He survives. Also surviving are two sons, Donald Walz and John Walz, both of Chelsea, seven grandchildren, two brothers, Elwin Hulce of Roscomon and Charles Hulce of Portage Lake, as well as several nieces and nephews. Another son, Reynolds Walz, died May 23, 1943, while serving in the armed forces.

Mrs. Walz was a member of the First United Methodist church of Chelsea, the WSCS of the church, the American Legion Auxiliary, the VFW Auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, Olive Chapter No. 108, Order of Eastern Star, the OES Past Matrons Club, and the Gold Star Mothers.

Funeral services will be held Friday, July 23 at 2 p.m. at the Burghardt Funeral Home with the Rev. Richard L. Clemans officiating. Burial will follow in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Eastern Star Memorial services will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday (tonight) at the funeral home. Those desiring to do so may make memorial contributions to the Dr. John C. Nixon Cancer Fund of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Envelopes for that purpose are available at the funeral home, where friends may call.

Otto J. Weber

Sylvan Township Native Dies Friday at Age 85

Otto J. Weber, 17410 Heim Rd., died July 16 at the Chelsea Community Hospital at the age of 85.

Mr. Weber was born in Sylvan township May 16, 1886. He was the son of John and Lena Kirchgessner. He attended Chelsea High School then left the family farm in 1904 to be employed by Kodak of Rochester, N.Y. He returned to Michigan and joined the Detroit Fire Department. From there he went to Panama City and worked for the Canal Zone Fire Department.

He returned home in 1910 and managed the family farm until retirement. He made his home in Manchester from the time of his marriage until the death of his wife, Elizabeth May Cash. They were married Nov. 27, 1937. She died Oct. 5, 1960.

He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church in Manchester.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Loretta Doll of Chelsea; and several nieces and nephews, including Donald Doll with whom he made his home. Two sisters and one brother preceded him in death. The sisters were Celia and Genevieve; the brother was Lawrence Weber.

Funeral services were held Monday, July 19 at 10 a.m. in St. Mary's Catholic church of Manchester, with the Rev. Fr. Raymond R. Schinkert officiating. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery of Manchester. The Rosary was recited Sunday evening at 8 p.m. at the Staffan Funeral Home in Chelsea.

As soon as a local citizen does something to win wide recognition, he suddenly has a lot of friends he didn't know he had.

Council Briefs

More than 25 Chelsea residents, stunned by their water bills, turned out for the Tuesday night Village Council meeting.

After some discussion of the approximately 100 percent increase in the bill, including a summary of the need for the revisions by Council President. Fulk, residents appeared more understanding of the change, Village Clerk Richard Harvey said.

The new rate went into effect in April, but residents are only now feeling the consequences since water bills for the quarter beginning in April have just been received.

Before the revision in charges this year, Chelsea's water rates had gone unchanged since 1953.

Sewer rates, however, were slightly decreased in council action last night. The council acted favorably on a motion to base the sewer use charge on the water commodity charge only rather than on the base service charge, and the commodity charge combined. The new sewer rates will go into effect this quarter, and will represent a savings of about $1.80 for residential users.

The council also approved a bid of $2,587 for a chemical feeder at the wastewater treatment plant submitted by the BIF Division of General Signal Corporation. The feeder will be used to remove phosphorus from the water in accordance with regulations established by the state.

Chelsea residents, especially those living near Van Buren St., will notice that the 11:30 a.m. sounding of the fire siren was discontinued this past Tuesday.

The siren will no longer be sounded at that time, nor between the hours of 10 p.m. and 6 a.m. while the new alerting equipment for firemen is being operated on an experimental basis.

The ban will go into permanent effect if the experimental testing is successful. Firemen have been using the new equipment for about one month.

State Boundary Commission Members Named

W. de St. Aubin, director of agency development for Spaulding for Children has been appointed to the recently established state Boundary Commission.

The Boundary Commission will regulate the annexation of land to cities, doing away with the old dual election system that has existed since 1909.

The commission consists of three members appointed by the governor and two members from each county appointed by the Presiding Probate Judge who must appoint one member from a city and one from a township.

Appointed along with de St. Aubin was James W. Peepers of Ypsilanti township. The appointments were made by Judge Francis L. O'Brien.

The wife who snatches her husband's pay-check can hardly expect the old fellow to continue to say it with flowers and candy.

Did you ever stop to think how bad the situation would be if everyone agreed with you?

SENATOR GILBERT BURSLEY

Bursley Outlines State Problems to Kiwanis

Members of the Chelsea Kiwanis club heard Senator Gilbert Bursley speak about current problems facing the state legislature at their weekly Monday evening meeting. In addition to discussing the controversial tax restructuring which has been called for, Bursley also talked about the education reform coming up for legislative action. He assured Kiwanians that the Chelsea School District would not suffer a cut in the state funds it receives, adding that Chelsea would receive at least as much money this year as it received last.

He outlined the issues involved in the no-fault accident insurance bill, in the no-fault divorce bill and in the abortion reform bill. An advocate of abortion law reform, Bursley feels the bill will pass in the senate but fears it will face an uphill fight in the house.

Bursley also spoke briefly about his feelings concerning the bill giving 18-year-olds adult status, stating that he worried about the effect allowing 18-year-olds to drink would have on younger teens. Bursley pointed out that many 18-year-olds are still in high school, and may begin supplying their younger classmates with alcoholic beverages.

Before driving to Chelsea Monday, Bursley had attended a meeting in Detroit where the problems and possibilities of a rapid transit system for the city and its suburbs was discussed. Senator Bursley is in favor of the development of such a system, believing that it will aid in the revitalization of Detroit, and will add to the financial independence of the city. He favors the building of a downtown stadium for similar reasons.

The next Kiwanis program will feature Paul Rutt from the Walker Muffler Co., who will present slides illustrating the hazards of auto exhaust emissions.

At that time they will be exhibited at the Unistrut Corporation public relations building in Wayne.

An award will be given to the boy having the best totem pole. Judges of the contest will be George Adkins, Garry Packard, and Blane Lyle.

A racket is any form of making money without giving worthwhile service in return.

If everyone gave one minute of time per day to a charitable act, it would increase life's pleasures and life's accomplishments.

BIRTHS

A son, Douglas Frank, to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin C. Johnson, 1237 Freer Rd.

A daughter, Jennifer Louise, July 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Loring of Grass Lake.

A daughter, Paulette Jean, July 11, to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Shay.

CB Radio Stolen

A citizens band radio valued at $150 was stolen from a car belonging to Ernest Gauss, 247 Washington St., on July 12, 1971.

Gauss's daughter, Dorothy, had left the car in the Chelsea Medical Center parking lot while she worked, and discovered the radio was missing when she prepared to drive home that evening.

Chelsea police are investigating the theft.

2 Used Cars Damaged Monday In Sprague Lot

Two used cars at Sprague Buick-Olds Agency, 15000 M-52, were damaged on the night of Monday, July 19 when unknown persons attempted to start them.

The top on a black 1967 Mustang convertible was cut to give entry to the car, and in the attempt to start it, the ignition was also damaged.

The thieves left two ears of green corn in the Mustang.

A blue 1965 Ford Fairlane was also entered, and the 1971 license plate taken from a burned car in Sprague's lot was left inside it. Chelsea village police are investigating.

Chaos often results from a good intention in combination with an ignorant mind.

1 package Duncan Hines White Deluxe Cake Mix
1 package orange gelatin (4 serving size)
1 package vanilla instant pudding mix (4 serving size)
1 1/2 cups cold milk
1 tsp. vanilla or orange extract, if desired
Preheat oven to 350°. Dissolve gelatin in 1/2 cup boiling water. Add 1/2 cup cold water; and set aside at room temperature. Mix and bake cake as directed in a 13 x 9 x 2-inch pan (using egg whites). Cool cake 20-25 minutes. With cake still in the pan and warm, poke deep holes through top of cake with a meat fork or toothpick; space holes about one-half inch apart. With a cup, slowly pour gelatin mixture into holes. Place cake in refrigerator to chill while preparing topping.
Topping: In a chilled, deep bowl, blend and whip topping mix, instant pudding, cold milk and vanilla or orange extract until stiff and fluffy (3-8 min.). Immediately frost cake with topping mixture. If desired, garnish with thin orange slices.
Cake must be stored in refrigerator and served chilled. Frosted cake may be frozen for storage.

Make Your Farm Pond Safe

By Clark A. Backer,
District Conservationist
U. S. Soil Conservation Service

Going for a splash in a cool pond is quite a delight on a hot mid-summer afternoon. In winter, a pond makes a desirable place on which to ice skate. However, there are several measures the pond owner should consider to make his pond safer in both summer and winter.

1. Mark the safe swimming areas and restrict small children to shallow areas. During construction, one end of the pond can be designed with a gradual slope to provide a wading area.

2. Place lifesaving devices such as ring buoys, ropes, planks or long poles at swimming areas; long planks or ladders at skating areas.

3. Never allow anyone to swim or skate alone—a companion can give help to someone in trouble or go get help.

4. Provide boats that will float if swamped or capsized.

5. Insist that non-swimmers wear life jackets in boats.

The privilege of having a pond in his property gives the owner additional responsibilities. Each pond owner has the moral obligation to his family, friends and neighbors to make his pond safe by providing such safeguards as he can to prevent an accident from occurring.

The Soil Conservation Service incorporates safety features into its recommendations for pond designs. The Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District makes deep water warning signs available to pond owners who wish to identify deep water areas.

In addition to water safety, proper maintenance is also essential in managing a successful pond. The area around the pond should be maintained in a good grass cover to prevent soil erosion and protect the pond banks. Livestock should be fenced out of the pond and allowed access for drinking purposes only at controlled points.

Ponds constructed primarily for wildlife can be made to provide better habitat conditions by plantings of tall growing grassy ground cover as well as trees and fruit bearing shrubs. Trees and shrubs may be used as windbreaks and provide screening for additional privacy.

A picnic table, shelter, or barbecue grill can do much to make a pond more enjoyable to the pond owner and his family.

Many pleasant hours of recreation can center around a pond in addition to its other uses. But, like any body of water, certain precautions must be taken if the pond is to be made safe.

Likewise, a little extra maintenance effort can make the pond serve you in a more satisfactory manner for a longer period of time. The Soil Conservation Service helps landowners in Washtenaw county with pond design and installation. Safety and proper maintenance are a part of each plan. Further information on all phases of pond development and management is available at the SCS office located at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor 48103.

FAMILY POT LUCK

For a quick luncheon dish, cut luncheon meat in 1-inch cubes and alternate with 1-inch slices of banana on small skewers. Place on rack of broiling pan, 2 to 3 inches from heat. Broil until golden brown, turning once. Split round hamburger buns and toast in broiler at the same time. Serve a cabbage salad and milk.

A speedy topping for a meat pie is yours. Rely on refrigerated biscuits in tube-like cans. To add your own touch, sprinkle with an herb or grated Cheddar.

Here's a change-of-pace salad. On salad or luncheon plate arrange cold cooked asparagus tips. Top with chopped, hard-cooked egg and drained Norway sardines. Decorate with criss-cross strips of pimento and sprigs of fresh parsley for decoration. Serve with French dressing.

You can make your own French dressing by combining 1 part white vinegar or lemon juice to 2 parts olive oil, pinch of dry mustard, salt and pepper. Mix thoroughly.

CHEESE CHIPS

½ cup sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup butter
1 cup shredded cheese
1 teaspoon caraway (or sesame) seeds

Combine flour, salt and butter, cutting the latter in with a pastry blender until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Add cheese and press into a flat patty. Roll on a lightly floured board into a rectangle about 9 x 12 inches. Sprinkle with caraway or sesame seeds and cut into 3 x 1-inch fingers with a pastry wheel or into rings with a small doughnut cutter. Bake on an ungreased baking sheet in a 350 degree oven about 10 minutes, or until lightly browned. Makes 3 dozen chips.

Water Accidents Kill 88 in First Half of This Year

Michigan has had a reported 196 water accidents in the first half of this year which killed 88 persons and injured 96 others, State Police provisional figures showed.

Compared with the same period last year, deaths were down by 21, accidents by 33 while injuries were up by 46.

The deaths included 34 swimmers and waders, 14 boat passengers, 12 boat operators, 18 who died in various falls, two divers, three who attempted rescues, two who died in snowmobile mishaps, and three miscellaneous.

LEGION OF VALOR: In recognition of the "Grievous injuries sustained in the performance of his duties as a law enforcement officer," Park Ranger Richard D. Foster, Chelsea, of the Huron Metropolitan Park Patrol was awarded the Legion of Valor on Friday. Shown here during the presentation at Hudson Mills Park office are, left to right, Charles A. Damm, park superintendent; Ranger Donald Stewart; James J. Pompo, deputy director; Ranger Foster, and Brenton W. Schultz, Sr., supervisor. Foster sustained stab wounds June 4 when he and other officers tried to subdue a woman attempting to set fire to a car and house.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMER

From Minnie Sorrell, Owingsville, Ky.: One of the things of olden times I remember with nostalgia is the county court days. They were held every second Monday each month in Owingsville. Men would come from all around and bring horses and mules for sale and trading. There would be horses and buggies and riding horses hitched all along Main Street where, in those days, there was a hitching rail.

They would swap knives and small farm tools—as well as tall tales. In season, there would be sorghum and honey, watermelons and chestnuts for sale.

Sometimes a stranger would come through with a medicine show, selling patent medicine, a panacea, that would cure whatever ailed you.

Men would sit in front of the court house and talk of their farms and crops. It was so very good they could have this time together. It made them happy with one another for a while.

I was a little girl then, and my father would always bring me a treat... once a red glass cup with gold, and once a little basket, cut from a hickory nut shell. How I treasured those small things from the good old days we shall never see again.

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

July 20, 1971 Council Room

Regular Session
This meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. Present: President Fulk, Clerk Harvey, Administrator Weber, Trustees Borton, Gorton, Musbach, Boylan and Chandler. Absent: Trustee Dmoch. Approximately 25 village residents were present for the meeting.

Mr. John Stepp discussed with the Council his increased water consumption during the last quarter. Mr. Stepp was asked to work with the Electric & Water Department in seeking a solution to the problem.

A discussion was held with the residents present regarding the new water rates which were adopted March 30, 1971. President Fulk summarized the need for the revision of water rates and the recommendations of the consulting engineers.

Motion by Gorton, supported by Musbach, to revise the sewer rates as follows: 60 percent of water consumption for Residential and 30 percent of water consumption for Commercial and Industrial. The change to become effective with the billing of September 25, 1971. Roll call: Yeas—Borton, Gorton and Musbach. Nays—Boylan and Chandler. Motion carried.

Representatives from Owens Body Shop Company of Grand Rapids, discussed with the Council equipment for refuse collection. No action was taken at this time.

Bids for the chemical feeder at the wastewater treatment plant to be used for phosphorous removal were received from Wallace & Tierman Div., Pennwalt Corp. and BIF Div., General Signal Corp.

Motion by Chandler, supported by Boylan, to act on the recommendation of Finkbeiner, Pettis & Strout, consulting engineers, and accept the bid of BIF Div., General Signal Corp. in the amount of $2,587.00 for a chemical feeder at the wastewater treatment plant and to authorize the Village President and Clerk to enter into an agreement with BIF Div., for the same. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Borton, supported by Gorton, to authorize to the firm of Finkbeiner, Pettis & Strout, sanitary sewer engineers, in the amount of $1,000.00 from the Sewer Expansion Program. Same sum to be repaid upon the sale of sewer bonds. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Chandler, supported by Borton, to authorize the Village Administrator to prepare specifications and advertise for bids for a new contract for refuse service. Bids to be submitted by

THE LANSING REPORT

FROM
GIL BURSLEY

Unsettled questions of budget and taxation continue to dominate the Michigan legislature, with the new fiscal year more than two weeks old and the exact level of both revenue and appropriations measures still not determined.

At last report, a tentative agreement had been reached by a group of 12 legislators who have been meeting regularly with Governor Milliken on the budget levels to be established for the two largest areas of state spending—school aid and welfare.

As of the moment, it seems likely that the 1971-72 school aid bill will carry a total price tag of $1,067 million, while $537 million will be allocated for public assistance programs.

By themselves, these figures may not appear to be out of proportion, in a comparative sense. Welfare seems to cost us slightly more than half the cost of state school aid.

But we must remember that state welfare spending is matched by federal funds, roughly on an equal basis. This means the projected cost of welfare in Michigan for 1971-72 will run well over a billion dollars.

In the case of our schools, federal assistance has covered no more than 10 percent to 6 percent of the cost in recent years. Local and state taxes must carry very nearly the total burden.

Furthermore, the picture becomes even more alarming when we take a hard-headed, clear-eyed look at what has occurred, over the past year alone, in our two largest areas of state spending.

'70-'71 Appropriations: school aid, $983 million; welfare, $545 million.

'70-'71 Actual Expenditures: School aid, $951 million (down 3 percent); welfare, $413 million (up 21 percent).

'71-'72 Budget Recommendations: school aid, $1,027.5 million (up 4.5 percent over '70-'71 appropriations); welfare, $469 million (up 36 percent over '70-'71 appropriations).

'71-'72 proposals currently being considered after extensive bipartisan negotiations: school aid, $1,067 million (up 3 percent over budget and 7 percent over '70-'71 appropriations); welfare, $537 million (up 14.5 percent over budget and 56 percent over '70-'71 appropriations).

I think most enlightened citizens and elected officials alike are willing to face up to the fact that the disadvantaged in our society deserve our assistance and that the stigma of poverty existing in the midst of relative plenty is a legitimate and pressing governmental concern.

But I must certainly protest a system where the chief result of skyrocketing welfare costs is austerity programs in education.

Our public assistance system is almost totally controlled from Washington. The states pay half or sometimes more of the costs, yet have no control over the policies and price-tags alike. As a result, our schools are bearing the brunt of taxpayers' rebellion and legislative economizing.

The trend must be changed. To my mind, education is, in the last analysis, the most vital and productive welfare program yet evolved.

Florida was formally ceded to the U.S. by Spain, July 17, 1821. Douglas G. (Wrong Way) Corrigan flew to Dublin, July 17, 1938.

The U.S.-Canada St. Lawrence River Treaty was signed July 18, 1932.

A Women's Rights Convention was held at Seneca Falls, N.Y., July 19, 1848. A two-ocean Navy bill was signed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, July 19, 1940.

Pancho Villa was assassinated, July 20, 1923. German officers failed in attempt to kill Adolf Hitler, July 20, 1944. The Democratic party nominated Harry S. Truman for the office of Vice President, July 21, 1944.

Wiley Post, in his plane Winnie Mae, completed the first solo round-the-world flight, setting a distance record for solo, July 22, 1933.

All U-M Crew Staffs July 26 Moon Mission

Ann Arbor—About 100 University of Michigan students, faculty and staff members will watch from special VIP viewing positions at Cape Kennedy as Apollo 15 lifts off for the moon on July 26, carrying an all U-M crew.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) provided the VIP viewing passes to the U-M group because this is the first space mission where all members of the crew are alumni of the same University: The University of Michigan. The three Apollo 15 astronauts are Col. David R. Scott, Maj. Alfred M. Worden and Lt. Col. James B. Irwin.

Worden and Irwin hold master's degrees from the U-M Department of Aerospace Engineering. Worden, the command module pilot, received his U-M degrees in astronautical and aeronautical engineering and instrumentation engineering in 1963.

Irwin earned MS degrees in aeronautical engineering and instrumentation engineering at the U-M in 1957. Irwin will pilot the lunar module.

Scott is the Apollo 15 spacecraft commander. He spent his freshman year (1949-50) at the University before attending the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.

The U-M spectator group, which includes several deans and department heads, will board a chartered jet at Detroit Metropolitan Airport at 10 a.m. Saturday, July 24. The Apollo 15 launch is scheduled for the following Monday, July 26.

"Finding the right gate at the airport won't be a problem," says John LaFond, a U-M graduate student co-ordinating the trip. "It will be marked with an 18-foot blue and gold banner reading 'Michigan on the Moon'."

LaFond, a native of Menominee, reports the trip will feature a tour of the NASA facilities at Cape Kennedy on Sunday and a view of the actual launch from as close a distance as safety regulations allow.

"Few people who have seen an Apollo launch have ever been able to describe it adequately," LaFond said. "We'll fully expect it to be an awesome, humbling experience that we'll treasure the rest of our lives."

The Apollo 15 mission is full of "firsts."

It will carry the heaviest payload ever to leave earth. It is the first American spacecraft modified for missions as long as 15 days.

Scott and Irwin will be the first spacemen to use the lunar rover, a four-wheel, battery-driven vehicle with a top speed of eight miles an hour. Ranging as far as five miles from the lunar module, the rover will assist the astronauts in exploring the Apennine Mountains and the 600-foot deep, 60-mile long canyon called the Hadley Rille.

While Worden uses some 1,000 pounds of instruments to conduct experiments from the orbiting command ship, Scott and Irwin will make three excursions of six to seven hours each outside their landing craft. The two U-M alumni expect to spend 66 hours on the moon, nearly twice the time of Apollo 14's visit.

KMS Industries 2nd Quarter Sales Near $11 Million

KMS Industries second-quarter sales were $10,947,000 and the total pre-tax income was $442,000 according to Chairman Keeve Siegel. Net income was $230,000, he said.

Earnings per share were listed at four cents. No comparison is yet available with similar operations for 1970, Siegel said.

The earnings per share for the six-month period was one cent. The sales for that period ending June 30 were $20,662. Total pre-tax income was $1,170,000 and net income was $61,000 according to company figures.

The company reported a net loss of $4,188,429 for 1970 up from $4,139,506 in 1969. Net sales and other income had been reported rising slightly. No direct comparison between this year and last year was made because KMS discontinued or otherwise disposed of 10 divisions during 1970. Two divisions operate in the Dexter area, the company base is Ann Arbor.

INSPIRATION

Artificial refrigeration in ancient times was unknown. The canning process was centuries away. And so, sausage makers in warm Italy, sunny Greece and southern France developed dry sausage products.

Thought For Food

Thinly slice 1 pound small zucchini (about 6 squashes). Lightly brown in 3 tablespoons butter about 6 minutes. Sprinkle with 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, ¼ teaspoon oregano, and ½ teaspoon pepper. Pour 1 can (1 pound) tomatoes over. Simmer, covered, over low heat 12 to 15 minutes, or until zucchini is tender. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

WANT TO BEAT THE HEAT?

Install Gas air conditioning.

Be a cool customer. Choose Gas air conditioning. Why Gas? Operating costs are about half as much as electricity. And because a Gas system has fewer moving parts, it lasts longer. Requires less repairs. Also, Gas air conditioning customers are entitled to a special low rate on all the Gas they use, all summer long. There are other advantages, too. Less dust, humidity, pollen. And with full-house air conditioning, your windows and doors stay closed. Just call your air conditioning contractor or Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. And remember. There's more than enough Gas for all your home requirements.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS FOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITED IN MICHIGAN (Revised January 1969)

CATTLE
Cattle may not be exhibited from a quarantined premise or a quarantined area except upon permit from the Director of Agriculture or his authorized agent.
All cattle must be identified by ear tag, tatton, or registration number.

Cattle from other states, provinces or countries must be accompanied by an official interstate health certificate approved by the livestock sanitation official of the state of origin certifying that the animals meet Michigan requirements for importation.

OUT OF STATE FEEDER CATTLE

Feeder cattle originating in other states being held in quarantine on feeder permits may qualify for exhibition in the following manner:
1. Steers must pass a test for tuberculosis and shall have been removed from the feed lot and held separate from the quarantined feeders after having been tested. Such steers must be accompanied by copy of test chart ADE Form 22.
2. Male and female feeder cattle must be tested for tuberculosis within 90 days of opening day and animals over one year of age must pass a test for brucellosis within 90 days of the opening day of the fair or exhibition and shall have been removed from the feed lot and held separate from the quarantined feeders after having been tested.

SWINE

Requirements provided in Michigan Department of Agriculture Regulation No. 117:
1. All swine for exhibition must be free from infectious and contagious disease.
2. Native swine are not required to be vaccinated against hog cholera.
3. No swine shall be presented for exhibition purposes which have originated from any garbage feeding premise or that are in a quarantined area for the prevention of the spread of vesicular exanthema, or if a quarantine is on the premise for any reason (except upon a permit from the Director of Agriculture or his authorized agent).

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE REGULATION NO. 133

Regulation Relating To The Public Exhibition of Poultry
By virtue of the authority provided by Act 181, Public Acts of 1919, amended, the following rules and regulations are hereby established:

1. Feed and water containers provided for exhibition coops shall be new and properly cleaned.
2. Feed or water containers from which birds have eaten or drunk must be refilled so as not to contaminate the common supply of feed or water. Feed or water containers may not be removed from the exhibition coops except for the purpose of cleaning.
3. Exhibition coops must be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected, both prior to and following each exhibition.
4. Exhibition coops must be so constructed and placed as to provide adequate light for proper inspection of poultry or evidence of transmissible diseases.
5. Litter for exhibition coops must be of clean material and be renewed daily or oftener as needed.
6. Shipping crates used in shipment of birds by common carrier may not be used as exhibition coops. Shipping crates shall be cleaned and disinfected after birds have been removed for exhibition and before being used again. Whenever possible and convenient shipping crates shall not be stored in exhibition room.

Dexter Township Woman Charged With Assault

A hearing on a charge of assault with intent to kill was held before District Court Judge Patrick J. Conlin in Chelsea yesterday for Mrs. Maureen Lee Wiedeman, 38.

Mrs. Wiedeman is accused by sheriff's deputies of shooting and wounding her estranged husband almost two weeks ago. She was arrested late July 10 in Dexter a short time after her husband, John, 36, had been hit twice by .45 caliber slugs. Deputies said Wiedeman had been shot by his wife in a trailer at 59th Madden Rd. in Dexter township.

Wiedeman was released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after treatment and Mrs. Wiedeman was arraigned before Chelsea District Court Judge Conlin. She demanded examination on the charge, and was removed to the County Jail on a $2,500 bond.

Starting in April, the consumer may gain access to information in his credit file, may have grounds for legal action if the information listed is not correct.

SYNTHIA—MOTHER TO MICHIGAN'S DAIRY COWS

Synthia—the talking computer—can calculate a well-balanced, least-cost ration for dairy cows in less than a minute. Located in Ann Arbor, Cynthia has been programmed with the nutrient requirements for dairy cows by Dr. Donald Hillman, Michigan State University dairy nutritionist. The farmer needs only to supply the feeds available and their cost through a touch-tone telephone.

Just because fresh fruits and vegetables are plentiful, don't ignore the canned and frozen fruits and vegetables on your grocer's shelves. Sometimes store run special prices on these items.

Mrs. Michael Spears

Anita Martin Becomes Bride of Michael Spears at St. Paul Church

Anita Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Martin, 17705 Old US-12, became the bride of Michael Spears, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Spears, 3166 McKinley Rd., Saturday, July 17, at St. Paul United Church of Christ. The Rev. John Roschen officiated at the ceremony, before approximately 150 guests.

The bride chose a white A-line gown of nylon and taffeta, which featured an empire waistline, and a high, ruffled neckline. The gown had nylon bishop sleeves, with deep, ruffled cuffs. Trim of embroidered stephanotis was applied to the front of the gown, the hem, and sleeves as well as to the detachable train. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of white lace, trimmed with seed pearls, and diamond-shaped sequins, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, yellow sweethearts, and white stephanotis.

Maid of honor for the occasion was Miss Linda Hale, of Chelsea. She was attired in an A-line style floor-length gown of orange, with three-quarter-length sleeves, and a stand-up collar. Dark orange daisies, with green leaves trimmed the neckline, and cuff of the dress. Miss Hale wore a box-type headpiece, fashioned from the same fabric as her gown, and she carried a bouquet of orange feathered carnations, with yellow daisies, and orange streamers.

Miss Becky Barkley, Miss Diana Hale, cousin of the bride, Miss Evelyn Spears, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Jeanette Bailey, all of Chelsea, attended as bridesmaids. They wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor in a deeper shade of orange, and carried similar bouquets, with yellow streamers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Martin chose a mint green crepe dress with a lace collar, and matching duster. She wore mint green accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses, and a white carnation.

Mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Spears, was attired in a baby blue rayon crepe dress, which featured rayon chiffon sleeves, and a lace jacket, and stand-up collar. Matching accessories, and a corsage of pink roses, and a white carnation completed her outfit.

Flower girl was Miss Rhonda Carlson, niece of the bridegroom. She wore an orange dotted swiss dress, over beige, with an amber colored waist band, and white and orange lace trim. Ringbearer was

Homemaking Hints

Whenever you serve pork you're providing the family with the best natural source of thiamin. This member of the B complex group of vitamins has been referred to as the "pep" vitamin because of its contribution to a healthy nervous system, appetite and digestion.

The less-demanded economical cuts of beef, pork and lamb are just as nutritious as the more popular steaks, chops and roasts. They are just as tender and appetizing, too, when properly cooked.

The covering material fits so tightly over prepackaged luncheon meats because air is drawn from the package during the packaging process. This is done to eliminate oxygen that might cause deterioration of the luncheon meat. Fresh beef and pork are not vacuum packed in the same fashion because, in the absence of air, such meats look dark. Producers don't believe consumers would buy meat that is a different shade from which they are accustomed.

Some manufacturers of coffee-pots, teapots and other appliances for heating liquids are furnishing a shorter cord, hoping to decrease the number of household accidents in which burns are caused by cord entanglement.

U-M Denies Any Reports of Cohabitation

Ann Arbor—The following statement was issued July 14 by Robert L. Knauss, vice-president for student services at the University of Michigan:

"Published reports recently indicated that the Housing Policy Committee of the University of Michigan has abolished a rule against cohabitation and premarital sexual intercourse in University residence halls.

"This implies the University condones such behavior. This implication is incorrect.

"What occurred is that, while studying its publications, the Housing Policy Committee noted that such other unacceptable behavior as stealing, deviant behavior, extortion and assault are not specifically mentioned. It was also noted that the Housing Office, as a landlord, has an existing obligation under Michigan state law to refuse to allow lewd and lascivious cohabitation in its facilities. For those reasons, the Housing Policy Committee thought it appropriate to delete a specific mention of cohabitation. There was no intention of either condoning such conduct or of finding it permissible in the residence hall.

"Because a false impression of the University's attitude on this matter may now exist, the Director of Housing has been specifically instructed to see that incoming residents are advised that various kinds of conduct—including cohabitation—are not permissible in University residence halls.

Local Campers, Hikers Attend International Convention in Ontario

Local members of chapter 89 of the National Campers and Hikers Association joined 7,300 other members of the organization for the First International, 12th National convention held in Brantford, Ontario the week of July 12.

Members from Chelsea attending the busy and fun-filled event were Carol and Al Peterson; Vi and Whitey Guest; Chris, Marge and John Steele; Ruth and Al Mshar; Yvonne and Errol Jones and family, and their guest Sue.

Pinckney families attending were Peg and Ed Leemon; Tami and Bill Leemon and their niece, Brenda.

There are 17 families in the area chapter, and they have at least one outing a month from February through November.

The week of July 30, 13 families from Chapter 89 will be meeting at Crystal Falls in the Upper Peninsula with members of Marquette Chapter 160.

It is surprising how often you find the prettiest girl you ever saw.

Lt. and Mrs. James R. Mongioli

Kathleen Sutter, Lt. J. R. Mongioli Exchange Vows in Mississippi

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Sutter, 564 McKinley St., announce the marriage of their daughter, Kathleen Ann, to Lt. James R. Mongioli on July 2, in Biloxi, Miss.

Lt. Mongioli is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Mongioli, Cheektowaga, N. Y.

Kathleen is a 1965 graduate of Chelsea High school. She received her BS degree from Northern Michigan University in 1969 and then spent a year as a graduate assistant in mathematics at Southern Illinois University.

A lieutenant, she entered the U.S. Air Force in October, 1970, and is presently in communications electronics school, at Keesler Field AFB in Biloxi, Miss.

After graduation in August, the new Mrs. Mongioli will be a communications maintenance officer in the 2020th Communications Squadron at Shaw AFB in South Carolina.

Lt. James Mongioli is a graduate of Manhattan College with a BE degree in civil engineering. He also graduated from communications electronics school, Keesler Field AFB, and is now serving as a communications maintenance officer with the 68th Tactical Air Support Group at Shaw AFB in South Carolina.

Police, Broadcasters Join in Relaying Emergency Messages

Travelers in Michigan or those en the plan in other states for persons out of touch in camps or elsewhere can be informed of emergency messages they may get through a co-operating system arranged by the State Police with the Michigan Association of Broadcasters.

All they need to do is to have their radios turned on between 12 noon and 1 p.m. If there is an emergency at home, the affected persons will be told to call the nearest State Police post for the contents of the message.

Col. John R. Plants, State Police director, said the plan, initiated several years ago, has been updated and includes new stations covering virtually the entire state. Plants said, "We've proved the system works and we're anxious to make the plan known to the public." Publicity also has been given.

The plan embodies a fanout of messages to other stations to fully cover the area where the affected person is believed to be.

Broadcast time cannot be simultaneous throughout the state because of the program requirements of each station but it will be sometime during the noon hour.

Emergency messages of extreme urgency, however, generally are broadcast at any time. In addition, no messages will be broadcast or otherwise delivered if regular commercial facilities—telephone or telegram—are available to the persons concerned.

Although the plan does not entirely supplant hand delivered messages, it does facilitate contacting persons not otherwise located and reduces hours spent on hand deliveries.

Mrs. Dudley K. Holmes, II

Dawn DeWeese, D. K. Holmes, II, Are Wed Saturday in Ann Arbor

Dawn Cheryl DeWeese, and Dudley Kirk Holmes, II, exchanged wedding vows Saturday afternoon, July 17, at the First Presbyterian church in Ann Arbor, before the Rev. John R. Waser.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. S. DeWeese, of Columbia, Md. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley K. Holmes, of 146 E. Middle St.

The bride's gown of white organza featured a fitted bodice, and high neckline. A flowing A-line skirt was attached to an empire waistline, and the gown was trimmed with appliques of Venice lace. A band of staphanotis, freesia, and baby breath secured her finger tip veil, and she carried a nosegay bouquet of matching flowers.

Mrs. Robert (Diane) Ryan, sister of the bride, of Ann Arbor, attended as matron of honor. Her empire style gown featured a white organza bodice, and blue flowered organza skirt. She carried a nosegay bouquet of statice, roses, freesia, and baby breath, and wore a band of matching flowers in her hair.

Bridesmaids, Miss Pamela DeWeese, sister of the bride, Miss Susan McDowell, and Miss Lynn Williams, all of Ann Arbor, were attired in similar fashion to the matron of honor.

VFW Auxiliary 4076 held a potluck dinner at Pierce Park to celebrate the 26th anniversary of the Auxiliary on Monday, July 19. The Auxiliary was formed July 10, 1945.

Included in the out-of-town guests were the president of District VI and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kents, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Harry White of Ann Arbor. Mrs. White was the installing officer at the first meeting. Mrs. Luella Hilbert and Mrs. Eaye Bott of Ann Arbor were also present.

Frank White, commander of Post 4076, and Charles Ritter, the first commander of the post, were introduced.

Mr. and Mrs. Ren Hutzler were given recognition as former District and Department officers of VFW. The Circle of Friendship and The Lord's Prayer were recited by the 40 members and guests. Games were conducted by Mrs. Packard, who also read a Recipe for Happiness to close out the program.

Mrs. Klink, president of the Auxiliary, made the large sheet cake and decorated it in red, white and blue.

A get-well card was signed by those present to be sent to Auxiliary Secretary Mrs. Carl Lentz who is in the hospital. Members were reminded that Mrs. Otilla Guenther was also hospitalized, and that Mrs. Gail Bauer had returned from the hospital.

Post members present also attended the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans meeting held at Cavanaugh Lake Legion Home.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

As residents of the Village of Chelsea for many years, we feel free to express our feeling in the matter of the raise in the electric and water bills.

We feel a small raise would be residents, but to triple the amount, is absolutely outrageous.

I'm sure Chelsea isn't in such a financial bind that they have to get rich off each family individually.

Some of our neighbor's bills for one month were as high as their house payments.

A person can't afford to live in such a high class place.

I think someone needs their head examined, and soon.

What are you trying to do—force people to move out of Chelsea?

Any people thinking of moving to Chelsea certainly would think twice, before doing so, if they knew what to expect each month from the Electric & Water Dept., in billing.

We hope something will be done about this, and soon.

It doesn't cost us that much a month to heat our house in the middle of the winter.

It wouldn't be a bad idea to move out of the village, drill our own well, and buy all gas appliances.

What will they think of next?

Missionary To South Africa Will Speak at Assembly of God

The Rev. Ed Louton, missionary to South Africa, will be guest speaker Sunday, July 25, at 11 a.m. in the First Assembly of God, 14900 Old US-12, the Rev. T. B. Thodeson, pastor, has announced.

Mr. Louton comes from a missionary family, having spent much of his boyhood life on the mission field. He has great command of local dialects and languages. With his wife, Barbara, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Hughes of Clio, they were active in evangelism, literature distribution, establishing churches and the promotion of the youth work throughout the national church during their past term of missionary service. He served as superintendent of the North Transvaal District of the Assemblies of God, and as director of the Christ's Ambassadors Department, the Assemblies of God youth program.

In previous missionary activities the Loutons were involved in work among the Mulatto people of Cape Town and the Basuto people in the little African republic of Lesotho. The Loutons have three children, two of them born in Africa.

No Talent Show For Fair Queen Contest This Year

There will be no talent show in the Chelsea Fair Queen contest this year. The talent committee, Mrs. David Rowe, Mrs. Michael Eubanks, Mrs. Roy Greenleaf and Miss Dianne Brown, decided the annual Civitan Club talent contest held each spring should provide the major outlet for the young talent in Chelsea.

Three Share First Place in Little League

In Little League action last week the race tightened up with three teams sharing first place, and the last-place team only one and one-half games behind.

On Wednesday, July 21, Chelsea Jaycees defeated Dana by a score of 14 to 8 to move into the three-way tie for first. Brian McGibney, Gordon Evans, Steve Check and Jim Benjamin did the pitching for the Jaycees.

Getting hits for the Jaycees were: Steve Check, a single; Jim Benjamin, a single; Matt Tobin, a triple; Mike Check, a single; Brian Kalishek, a double; and Gordon Evans, a home run.

Getting hits for Dana were: Mike Foster, a single and a double; Jim Bollinger, a single; Anthony Houle a single and a triple.

In another Little League game last week, Chelsea Jaycees came through with a big win over North American Rockwell, 12 to 9. Although Rockwell took an early lead of 2 to 1, the Jaycees scored six runs in the third, and Rockwell stayed behind from then on.

Gordie Evans and Brian McGibney shared mound duties for the Jaycees. The big hitters for the Jaycees were Matt Tobin and Steve and Mike Check, each having two.

Don Morrison and Doug Craft were the pitchers for Rockwell.

Don Nadeau came through with three hits for Rockwell, including a home run. Don Morrison contributed three hits, and John Adams added two more.

VINTAGE YEAR FOR CHRYSLER ROYAL

ONE OF OUR BEST YEARS.

It takes something special to come up with a Vintage Year. But that's what '71 has been for Chrysler-Plymouth. We like to think our slogan "Coming Through" has had a lot to do with it, because it's our pledge, a dedication to one purpose: To come through with the kind of automobiles you want—in style, size and price—also in quality you can live with for years to come. A good example is Chrysler Royal.

OUR FINEST OF THE BIG.

Chrysler Royal did what few luxurious cars can do. It allowed people who put a premium on comfort and space to move up with ease. For despite its full Chrysler size and quality, here was the opportunity of driving Royally at our lowest Chrysler price.

NOW, A GREAT SELECTION COMING THROUGH FINAL CLEARANCE PRICED.

'71 has been a vintage year for Chrysler-Plymouth. Quality shines and shows in every line. A drive in a Chrysler Royal, Plymouth Duster, Satellite or Fury will prove how tight and sound our '71 models have come through. See our great selection. We think you'll agree: a quality car at a final clearance price is what "Coming Through" is all about, for us. For you.
