

Chelsea Community Fair All Started Way Back in 1937

As the 1971 Chelsea Community Fair gets underway, it's time for a trip through the dust of time to the beginning and back again. Remember—or imagine—with us how...

It all began on a brisk November Saturday in 1937. The organizers had rented the public school auditorium for one day, rounded up $100 in prize money, and the fair was on.

During the day, farmers and townspeople crowded into the auditorium to see the displays of "grain, potatoes, apples, vegetables, nuts, wool, eggs, handicraft, needle work, canning, poultry, livestock, etc." that the fair had to offer.

In the evening they sat through a speech by Dr. W. D. Henderson of the University of Michigan's extension department entitled "What We Do With Our Time," and a demonstration of milk testing by three boys from Ypsilanti.

Following the lecture and the demonstration was the brass quartet of Duane Weiss, Maynard Oesterle, Frank Novess and George Knickerbocker, accompanied by Mrs. Broesamle on the piano. And before the program ended there was a baritone solo by Donald Parsons.

That first fair, financed by donations from local merchants, sponsored by the FFA and the Kiwanis Club, put together by student fair president Wilbur Beeman and student directors Mary Sullivan, Paul Koch and Leon Marsh, was a great success.

The fair began to grow. By 1943, it had been moved from November to early October and had become a two-day event. The school was closed on Friday to allow the expansion of the exhibits into the classrooms.

The format was still similar to the earliest fairs, but the exhibits had been expanded, the prize money increased and a small scale "juvenile parade" had been added. The CHS band played, too, and tap dancers performed to the tunes of "Ida," and "Tea for Two."

Even though it was a bigger and better fair that year, the shadow of the war hung over the festivities. The last scheduled event of the fair was an auction of War Bonds, with the famous William (Billy) Rogell as auctioneer.

The 1943 Fair was the last during the war and the first few recovery years after it. But in 1948, the fair sprang to life again, and has not been interrupted since its resurrection.

On Oct. 15 and 16, 1948 the fair was held on the grounds of the Chelsea Implement Co., 1/2 mile south of the village on M-92. Free for the first time of the confines of a building, it was a real celebration with "hundreds of entries many classes of competition—everything from apples to hobbies." Fair manager that year was Anton Nielson, and he and all the others that gave their time, put together a fair unlike any other before it.

There were Shetland pony rides for the kids, a chicken supper—fish fry on Friday night that attracted 300 people, tractor backing and horse pulling contests... and the usual Saturday night entertainment in the high school auditorium.

Paul F. Niehaus was the master of ceremonies for the Saturday show. The CHS band played, Prof. J. G. Hayes of Michigan State College gave a humorous talk on "How a Cow Should Be Built," and the Elkaire's Barber Quartet of Ann Arbor sang barbershop favorites.

After the program was over, Lulu Sweeney and Irwin Lounsbury called square dances until the fair was over.

1950 and 1951 were significant years in the history of the fair.

In 1950 a parade and a queen were added. The parade was spectacular even in its first year. There were 20 floats, queen candidates the CHS and "Waterloo bands and drill teams from Lansing and Jackson, as well as antique cars and farm machinery.

Three U. of M. football players elected Wanda Eschelbach the first Chelsea Community Fair Queen. And the premiums list filled most of a newspaper page.

The fairgrounds were purchased and the first fair building erected in 1951 from the proceeds of land mortgage notes sold to all those in Chelsea and the surrounding area who loved the fair. The fair was held Oct. 3, 4, 5, and 6.

In addition to the horse pull, always a favorite of fairgoers, the main attraction that year was a Wild West Rodeo complete with calf roping and bucking broncos. There was an old-time fiddler's contest, too, open only to those over 50, square dancing, a magician and a tug of war between farmers and businessmen, won by the farmers.

The Saturday parade, delayed because of a drizzly rain, had 12 floats. The best, according to the judges, were a replica of Pierce Park entered by the Chamber of Commerce, the sophomore class float "Alice in Wonderland," and the Community service float entered by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The excitement of the carnival was added to the fair for the first time in 1952 when the W. G. Wade shows were engaged for the four-day October fair.

But the most unique event of that year's fair was a wedding. Many couples had applied for the fairgrounds ceremony, but the first applicants were the couple chosen.

On the opening night of the fair, Wednesday, Oct. 1, Betty Louise Robinson and James Ewald were married before 200 invited guests—and hundreds of other fair-goers—by a justice of the peace.

Their wedding gifts, donated by Chelsea merchants would be the envy of any newly-married couple. The gifts ranged from furniture polish, cake mix and gasoline to furniture, small appliances, and an automatic washer.

The fair has continued to grow since the early 50's but the basic formula for the fair's success was well established by 1952.

Each year, however, events occur which keep the fair continually new.

For instance, in 1969, Jenny, a 45-year-old 7,000-lb. elephant, spooked by braying mules, decided to have her own parade to the peace and quiet of the Municipal Parking Lot. Breaking into a trot, she made her way through the center of the ranks of the Chelsea High school band.

Jenny caused a lot of excitement, but fortunately no one was hurt.

During the 1970 fair, the tractor pull was truly a record breaking event. Not only did Doug Englebert of Saline set an all-time record for the largest percentage of weight pulled and Charles Koenig of Chelsea establish the record for most weight pulled, the event itself lasted a record breaking eight and one-half hours.

No fair is ever quite like the current fair, however, and this year new history and new memories will be made. The 1971 Chelsea Community Fair will run from Aug. 24 through 28. Don't miss it.

Seven Girls Competing for 'Queen' Title

Who will be the fairest of the fair? Seven lovely girls from Chelsea will be competing in the Community Fair Queen's pageant this year.

The Jaycee Auxiliary will also enter a candidate in competition, but she has not yet been selected, chairman of the queen contest, Joanne Rowe, said.

Queen candidates are taking an extremely active part in the fair this year.

In addition to participating in the Children's parade and the Queen's pageant on Tuesday, the candidates will hand out ribbons at the Fat Stock sale on Wednesday.

They will work in the Fair Kitchen from 2 to 6 p.m. on Thursday, and will also serve as targets at the Jaycee's dunk tank after 6 p.m. on Friday.

All queen candidates will ride in the mammoth street parade on Saturday, and the 1971 Fair Queen will introduce the Stockbridge Squares at 7 p.m. Saturday night.

1970 Fair Queen Lori Lancaster will participate in the ribbon cutting ceremonies opening the fair Tuesday, and will draw the winners of the two bicycles given away on Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Kiwanis Club Hears Judge on Juvenile Cases

The Chelsea Kiwanis club appointed delegates and alternates to the 54th annual Michigan District Convention to be held Sept. 16-18 in Flint.

Delegates are Louis H. Burghardt, George Staffan and Jack Fowler. Alternate delegates will be Chan Rogers, Paul Mann and V. O. Johnson.

William Rademacher introduced the evening's speaker, Judge Francis L. O'Brien of the Washtenaw County Probate Court, Juvenile Division.

Judge O'Brien spoke on the problems of juvenile guidance and control. He said that most juvenile problems occur in the 12-15-year old age group, adding that he believed many of those problems might be alleviated if the junior high schools provided greater outlets for physical activity through vocational training programs.

The judge also mentioned that it costs between $7,000 and $12,000 to house a juvenile offender in a detention home for one year. There were 39 members and (Continued on page six)

Season Tickets On Sale Friday in Downtown Area

Chelsea Community Fair season tickets will go on sale Friday, Aug. 20 at 4:30 p.m. and Saturday, Aug. 21 at 8 a.m. on the corners of Middle and Main, and South and Main Sts. The cost will be $2 for the admission of one person and the parking of his car on the fairgrounds.

1970 FAIR QUEEN Lori Lancaster shows her winning smile. Lori will be participating in the ribbon cutting ceremonies opening the 1971 Fair Tuesday at 5 p.m. She'll also draw the names of two lucky bicycle winners Tuesday at 7 p.m.

TWO YEARS LATE, but right on schedule. While it's confusing, it's true. The repairs on the Main St. railroad crossing were ordered over two years ago by the State Public Service Commission. But apparently due to the financial difficulties of Penn Central, the repairs were not scheduled until this year, and the railroad has managed to stick to its plans. The crossing will be closed for approximately two weeks.

D. Gaunt Wins EMU Debate Scholarship

Dan Gaunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gaunt, 6151 Sibley Rd., has just won a $1,600 full-tuition debate scholarship from Eastern Michigan University. He received one of seven scholarships awarded this year during a two week summer debate institute held at the school.

Gaunt and three other CHS debaters, Chick Lane (who won a similar scholarship at last year's institute), Mike Hergert and Janice Schramm attended the conference. The four will be seniors at CHS this year and will form the nucleus of the debate team.

During their two week stay at Eastern, the debaters heard many lectures both on debating technique and on this year's debate topic which is, "Resolved: that the jury system should be significantly changed."

According to debate coach William Coelius, the four compiled an impressive record of wins over losses during the institute's rounds (Continued on page five)

Mouthpieces for Gridders To Be Fitted Aug. 26

Head football coach Phil Barcis reminds both Junior and Senior High school football players that impressions for mouthpieces will be taken next Thursday.

Impressions will be taken at 1 p.m. Aug. 26 at the Chelsea Medical Clinic offices of Dr. Borton and Dr. Miller.

Cost of the mouthpieces will be $1. Shield-type mouthpieces will also be used this year, and will also cost $1.

A reminder, too, to varsity lettermen, juniors and seniors that equipment will be issued Saturday, Aug. 21. Lettermen will be outfitted between 9 and 10 a.m. Juniors and seniors will receive their equipment between 10 a.m. and 12 noon.

The first practice sessions will be held Monday, Aug. 23.

Top Weight Limit Placed on Tractors

The top weight allowed in the tractor pulling contest this year will be 14,000 lbs. the tractor pull committee announced today. Tractors between 9,001 and 14,000 lbs. will pull in the heavyweight class.

Five Juveniles Nabbed in Stolen Car

Five juveniles from Jackson were arrested by Chelsea Patrolman Bruce Sibert early Tuesday morning after he spotted them driving what later proved to be a stolen car.

Sibert stopped the youths at 4:50 a.m. at the corner of M-52 and Jerusalem Rd. He had noticed that the occupants of the car appeared to be under driving age, and also that there was an excessive amount of exhaust coming from the tailpipe.

The driver of the car was asked for his license, which he said he had lost. The other four were also asked for identification, which they said they did not have.

The driver did produce a registration for the vehicle which, when checked, showed that it had been stolen from a used car lot in Jackson.

The five were taken to the Chelsea police station where they were questioned by Police Chief George Meranuck. They were turned over to the Jackson Police Department at 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Chief Meranuck commended Patrolman Sibert for his handling of the arrests.

JCs Will Operate Dunk Tank At Fairgrounds

All Chelsea Community Fairgoers should sharpen their aim and strengthen their throwing arm—the Chelsea Jaycees will once again have a dunk tank at the fair.

Favorite targets will be poised precariously above a four-foot-deep tank of chilly water every day of the fair from 5 p.m. until closing time.

All proceeds from the dunk tank event will go to the Jaycee's scholarship fund. Names of all the dunk tank "victims" will be posted at the tank.

Community Fair Opens Next Tuesday

Five Big Days Scheduled With Exhibits, Parades, Entertainment

It's fair time again! The 1971 Chelsea Community Fair begins Tuesday, Aug. 24 and will fill five big days with parades, exhibits and entertainment again this year.

Here are some of the highlights planned for this year's fair.

Tuesday is Children's Day. The annual Kid's Parade, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, will begin at 6:30 p.m. and kiddie rides at the carnival will have reduced prices from 1 to 5 p.m.

The fair will be officially opened at 5 p.m. Tuesday when the 1970 Fair Queen Lori Lancaster cuts the ribbon at the fair gates. Also participating in the opening ceremonies will be Village President A. E. Julks and Fair President Allen Broesamle.

The queen of the 1971 Fair will be chosen at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Entertainment for the queen's pageant will be provided by Jeanne Haselschwardt and Sherry Freeman.

Wednesday is Dexter Day at the fair. Judging of the exhibits will begin at 9 a.m., and the Fat Stock sale will be held at 7:30 p.m.

On Thursday, Chelsea Day, the broom polo contest will get underway at 1 p.m. in front of the grandstands. The "Lake Valley Four" will present a program of Country and Western music at 7 p.m., and the Garden Tractor Pull will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Farmer's Day will be Friday, Aug. 26. The lightweight classes tractor pull will be held at 10 a.m. with the heavyweight classes beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Saturday, Queen's Day, is the day of the mammoth street parade.

Band Schedule Told for Fair Rehearsals

Rehearsals and performances of the Junior and Senior High School bands during the week of the Community Fair have been announced.

The seventh and eighth grade bands will rehearse for the Fair Parade at 8 a.m. Monday, Aug. 23 at the Beach Middle school band room. They will assemble at 6 p.m. at the old junior high school site on the day of the Children's Parade, Aug. 24.

The seventh and eighth grade band will also march in the Saturday parade. Assembly will be at 12:30 p.m. at the old junior high.

The band's uniform for both parades will be short-sleeved white blouses or shirts, dark shorts and shoes and socks.

The high school band will present a short concert in front of the fairgrounds grandstand at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 26. They'll be there and ready to play at 6:15 p.m. There will be no special uniform for that performance.

The high school band will also march in the Saturday parade. Members will assemble at 12:30 p.m. at the old junior high.

The band's parade uniform will be white short-sleeved blouses and shirts, white shorts, and white shoes and socks.

Council Briefs

Letters of resignation from the Chelsea Village Planning Commission from Dr. Joseph V. Fisher and Robert Rudd were received by the Village Council Tuesday night.

Both men, appointed to the commission at its inception in 1966 by Village President Donald Baldwin, resigned due to the press of personal commitments.

Dr. Fisher, chairman of the commission from 1966 to 1970, was elected president of the Michigan Academy of General Practice this July. He said that that office will occupy most of his time during the coming year.

Robert Rudd has served as chairman of the planning commission for the past year and was vice-president from 1966 to 1970. Rudd said that he had enjoyed his association with the commission, but that other responsibilities demanded that he resign his position.

Appointments to fill the vacancies will be made in the near future.

The council also learned last night that the Chelsea Medical Center will be adding another addition in the near future.

According to Dr. Michael Papo, director of the Chelsea Medical Center, Inc., and the Chelsea Community Hospital, construction on a 12,000 to 15,000 square foot Outpatient Facility will begin before the end of September.

The building will house additional physician's offices, an X-ray unit, an ambulatory surgery unit, the future emergency room, and a cardiac care facility.

At Tuesday night's council meeting Robert Kendall presented the preliminary plans for the addition to the Center.

A request for a variance from the village sign ordinance was requested Tuesday night by James Kessler of the American Sign and Indicator Corp.

The company wishes to erect a free-standing sign on the property owned by the Ann Arbor Federal Savings and Loan Association. The property is the site of a branch office which the Association is building in Chelsea. A letter from the Village Planning Commission recommending approval of the request was read.

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

The Tax Reform Act of 1969 was a much needed piece of legislation and justifiably so. It corrected many abuses and deficiencies that were long overdue, but now the Internal Revenue Service has discovered that certain segments of that bill may actually turn out to have a mouse-trap effect on millions of Americans by next April 15.

It has recently come to light that many wage earners may not be having enough money deducted from their paychecks for federal income taxes. Now the Internal Revenue Service says that taxpayers ought to take a close look at the possibility of additional withholdings through their employers if they want to avoid making a big lump sum payment to the federal government next April.

Tax brackets are going down, but unfortunately, because of the way the law was written, withholding is not necessarily covering the tax obligations being incurred. The bulk of the tax cuts were aimed at lower income groups but if you fit into that segment of our populace that earns over $10,000 and still take the standard deduction, or have itemized deductions totaling less than 13 percent you very likely will be faced with a bigger income tax bill than you thought on April 15.

Other employees who could be hard hit are those who are single and earning $15,000 or more—married persons who expect to earn $20,000 or more a year and whose wives or husbands are not working, and all working couples.

It would be wise for taxpayers to check their status at the earliest opportunity. If you think your employer may not be withholding enough from your salary you may want to drop an exemption to change the amount withheld from your pay for federal income taxes. An employee need only request a form W-4, fill it out, and return it to his employer. If your employer does not have them on hand, they are readily available through the Internal Revenue Service.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The feller at the country store Saturday night got to talking about some of the words we use and how some of em jest don't fit our style of living. The feller that runs the store said the first word needing some work was "housewife." He said the word was used way back when women's place was in the house. He figured nowadays the word fer them is "carwife."

Ed Doolittle said he couldn't judge by his old lady, cause she was good about the house, but from what he sees up and down the road, Ed said, he would agree with the feller that runs the store. It seems women spend more time hauling younguns around and going from one meeting to another than they do in the house, Ed said.

Actual, went on Ed, there is a lot of words that don't mean what they say. For instance, he said, a permanent wave really is a temporary wave. And you got a little word like "fix," said Ed, that means you can do it or you're in it. And we can do ones all the time. Ed went on, like the feller that saw a friend when he got on the airplane, said "Hi, Jack" and they arrested him fer trying to make em fly him to Cuba.

Course, broke in Clem Webster, you got some words that git it said fast. Clem said he had saw where scientists is working on a Z bomb. This is a bomb that blows everything to zero. And Clem recalls seeing a sign posted on some land near his place that said "No Huntin, No Fishin, No Nothin," and that don't leave no wrong meaning, he said.

General speaking, said Ed, the Government has more trouble saying what it means than anybody. When you hear a Congressman say they is looking fer "new revenue sources," you know they really is looking for someone new to put a tax on. And when you see where a project has been "referred to committee" you can figure it's been buried. What you can be sure of is that taxes is like cutting the dog's tail off a inch at a time with the idea it's easier on the dog, was Ed's words.

Clem said he had saw by the papers where the Government is making meat packers call goat meat that, instead of chevon, which means goat meat. The packers claim they say chevon cause people won't buy stuff they know got goat meat in it.

That's the way it goes, allowed Clem, and he was waiting to see some of the things meat packers mean when they put "meat by-products" on the label. Light bulbs now got to be listed in lumens, whatever they are, added Clem. He said it was getting where we need a label to tell us what the words on the label mean.

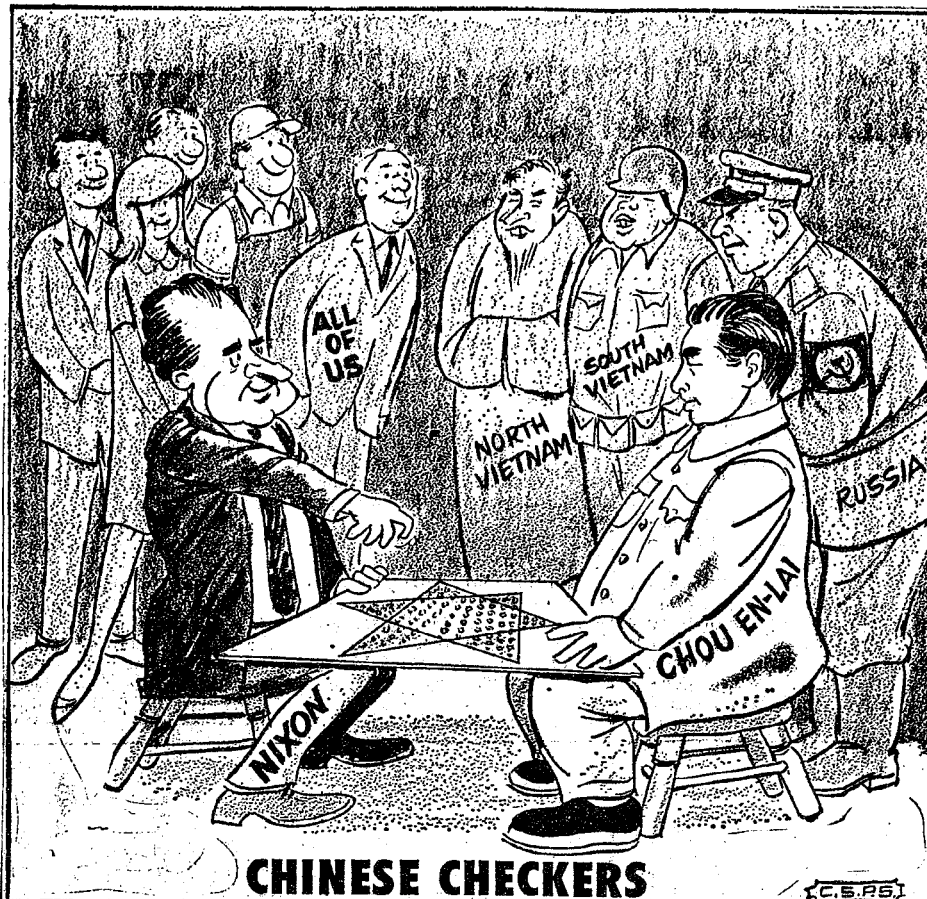

Talking about meaning what you say, Mister Editor, I recall the gal that said the feller that asked her out fer a boat ride not only lied about the size of his yacht, he made her do all the rowing.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Taxes Up Everywhere

It's probably not going to make anyone feel better, but Michigan taxpayers should at least know that they're not alone in paying higher taxes this year.

For example, the financially hard pressed state of New York raised its sales tax from 3 to 4 percent. That means in New York City a total sales tax of 7 percent is collected on purchases.

Texas also raised its sales tax to 4 percent, equalling Michigan's rate.

The cigarette tax has received most attention recently. Just last year Michigan's tax was raised to 11 cents per pack. But with the rates being adopted in other states that appears very moderate.

Texas is now the king of the cigarette tax collectors, taking in 15.5 cents for every pack sold in the state. Arkansas is right behind its neighbor after enacting the biggest single increase—going from 6 cents a pack to 17.5 cents a pack. And Florida is right behind with 17 cents a pack.

In all, a total of 26 states now impose cigarette taxes higher than Michigan's 11 cent per pack rate with another four even with her at 11 cents.

If the legislature goes along with Gov. William G. Milliken later this year and increases the gasoline tax, it won't be alone there, either.

Both Maine and Washington recently raised their gas tax to 9 cents a gallon—tying them with Vermont and North Carolina for the highest gas tax rate in the country.

Florida recently enacted an 8-cent-a-gallon tax and both Massachusetts and Georgia have raised their tax to 7.5 cents.

Michigan's rate is now 7 cents per gallon.

Flowers in the Desert

It's been hot, dry and unproductive much of the time in this legislative session. Legislators have been unable to agree on much without long, involved hassles. There has been much pressure in several directions at the same time. Tempers have been short. Functions have floundered.

But in the heat and tensions of the situation, one group deserves credit for improving the atmosphere. Staff members who work with the legislators make a great difference.

Included in this group are ladies of all ages, sizes, colors and backgrounds. They have these things in common: courtesy, efficiency, good grooming, willingness.

The secretaries of Senators and Representatives do much to smooth out the rough spots. They make excuses for the boss when he isn't one the scene. They answer many of the requests which come to his desk. They make the constituents feel cared for.

So if the legislative atmosphere is arid, the staff ladies bring the freshness and cheer that a flower brings when it blooms in the desert.

Drinking Drivers

If you've ever seen a car driving the wrong way on a major freeway in the state, chances are the driver has been drinking.

The State Highway Department says an analysis of all the "wrong way" accidents which occurred in Michigan from 1966 through 1970 showed that between 60 and 75 percent involved drivers who had been drinking.

A total of 219 wrong-way accidents were reported on state freeways during the period. They claimed 50 lives.

That total does not include the nine persons who died recently near Grand Blanc south of Flint in the worst accident ever to occur on Michigan highways.

A large portion of the accidents are caused by drivers who enter a freeway on an exit ramp, says the department. Others occur when vehicles cross a median or, and this is very rare, go the wrong way when leaving a freeway rest area.

The building of median guard rails has helped prevent some wrong way crashes, but no practical method has been developed yet to prevent vehicles from entering exit ramps, though many signs have been put up.

On standard interchanges, two pairs of reflective black and white and red and white signs are installed on each side of the ramps. The first pair warns the driver "Do Not Enter—Wrong Way." The second pair say merely "Wrong Way."

There is a year-by-year breakdown of the accidents which involved wrong-way drivers:

1967—19 accidents with 36 injuries and 10 fatalities. Sixty percent involved drinking drivers.

1968—41 accidents with 43 injuries and 16 deaths. Seventy percent involved drinking.

1969—55 accidents with 66 injuries and nine deaths. Sixty-nine percent involved drinking.

1970—60 accidents with 66 injuries and 12 fatalities. Sixty percent involved drinking.

JUST REMINISCING

4 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, Aug. 17, 1967—

It is time for the final preparations for the "biggest and best ever" Chelsea Community Fair. Mrs. Gerry Klink and Mrs. Lulu Sweeney head the committee which will run "The French Cafe," breakfast, lunch, supper as well as daytime and evening snacks will be served in the cafe. The Jaycees, Kiwanis Club, Chamber of Commerce, and the Teachers Club all plan to volunteer as waiters and short order cooks.

The Rev. Frank C. Frinkle assumed the pastorate of Immanuel Bible church this week. The Rev. Frinkle moved the Chelsea from Grayling where he had been pastor of the Calvary Baptist church.

Chelsea High School Band members—129 of them—are on their way to camp. Chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robbins, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kuhl, the band has a week to spend at Maplehurst Camp near Torch Lake. The band boosters club are paying half the cost of the trip, while the band members each pay one-half of their own way.

Michelle Sweeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sweeney, 111 Elm St., was named "Princess of Chelsea" in the baby photo contest sponsored by the Jaycee Auxiliary. Second-place winner in the contest, chaired by Mrs. Thomas Dunlap, was Lisa Walter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Walter, 19800 Cavanaugh Lake Rd. Paul Barkley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Barkley, 17711 Old US-12 West, was third. Each of the children received a personal savings account with the Chelsea State Bank.

Charles Spencer of Chelsea was installed as Washtenaw County Commander of the American Legion. During the installation of district auxiliary officers, Mrs. Ruth Christwell was installed as manager of the executive board.

The uniform for Chelsea's Auxiliary Police has been selected, and funds to purchase them are being sought from the county board of supervisors. The 26-man Chelsea platoon is divided into five squads, headed by Roy Guenther, Norman Stoll, Cal Summers, Ted Faist and Edward Judson.

A "Circarama" sponsored by the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce was held on South St. at the post office. Featuring at 29-foot circus ring, and such star performers as Jessie, the only elephant in the world trained to play a harmonica, the circus was a smash hit with kids. Merchants in the village provided tickets to those stopping in their stores to pick them up.

The Richard Powers farm near Chelsea was one of two farms in the area to be featured in the state farm management tour. The Powers farm was selected because it provides an excellent example of a highly specialized dairy farm. The 100-acre farm boasts a herd of 100 cows, and a modern stanchion type barn.

Chelsea's only blacksmith shop was scheduled either to be moved or to be demolished. A landmark in Chelsea for the past 68 years, the removal of the shop signals the end of an era. It has stood on Park St. for approximately 80 years where it was operated by Henry Schumacher until his retirement at the age of 80 in 1948. He started working in the blacksmith shop at the age of 15, when it was operated by his father, Joseph. At the time of his retirement, Schumacher recalled the days when he and his father received $1.25 for a set of four new horseshoes, and 15 cents per shoe for refitting and re-nailing.

Aug. 28 is the date set for a special school election. Voters from the Chelsea school district, and 12 surrounding school districts, will cast their votes for or against the proposed school consolidation. If the proposal is approved, more than 700 students throughout the districts will be affected. Anticipating approval, members of the Steering Committee made tentative plans for transportation by ordering two new school buses.

Chelsea residents are looking forward to the resumption of normal water service as repair crews work rapidly to finish repair and cleaning work on Chelsea's water storage tank. According to P. C. Maroney, superintendent of the Light & Water Department, more than 4,000 rusted rivets have been rewelded, and the lower third of the tank's seams repaired. Workmen inside the tank have been sweating in 180-degree temperatures as the heat wave continues. Due to the heat, men inside the tank are able to work only half an hour at a time.

The Grass Lake American Legion Post sponsored a gigantic V-J Day memorial celebration Aug. 14. Legion Posts and other organizations from all parts of the state participated in the parade which opened the festivities.

The Salem Grove Methodist Youth Fellowship is preparing for the presentation of "Kidnapping Betty," an hour-long play. The cast includes Donna Kalmbach, Duane Boehne, Lee Max Hoppe and Marjorie Proctor. Elsie Peterson is chairman of the publicity committee, Phyllis Kalmbach is in charge of the special numbers, and Taylor Davis heads the props committee.

34 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, Aug. 12, 1937—

The new Chelsea post office was opened to the public for the first time Monday, Aug. 9. The post office was moved from the Schneider building to its new location at the corner of Main and South St. over the week-end. Postmaster H. D. Witherell asked that children refrain from unnecessary playing and loitering in the lobby, and that patrons having lock boxes bring their keys with them.

The worst outbreak of hog cholera ever known in the area has hit Freedom and Sylvan townships. The disease was positively diagnosed at six different area farms, including one in the village.

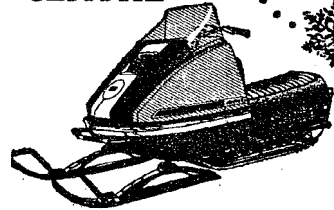

Employees of the local telephone exchange held a farewell party honoring Miss Clara Hutzel who retired after 24 years of service with the phone company. The assistant traffic superintendent of the Lansing area and his wife attended the pot-luck supper where Miss Hutzel was presented with a lamp.

Wilbur Beeman led Chelsea participants in the Southeastern Jersey Parish show judging contest, acquiring 409 out of a possible 500 points. Other winners and their scores were: Veryl Hatley, 391; Bob Gilbert, 385; Max Hepburn, 357; Raymond Ives, 354; Joseph Bartok, 344; and Gerald Heurion, 327. Beeman was presented with a 100-pound sack of 80 percent dairy ration for his achievement.

A severe rain and electrical storm hit Chelsea on Aug. 8. The residence of John Eder, Sr., was struck by lightning which caused damage to the roof and chimney. It was the fourth time that year the house was hit.

Boy Scouts Complete Long 50-Mile Hike

Members of Boy Scout Troop 420 chose a 50-mile hike in preference to boy scout camp this year. The hike began July 25 on the banks of the Au Sable River near Mio. The boys camped in the Oscoda County Park near Mio one night before beginning the trek that was to end July 30 at Lumberman's Monument. Supplied with dehydrated food—including spaghetti, chicken a la king, and biscuits—back packs, sleeping bags and abundant enthusiasm, the troop hiked nearly 20 miles the day they left Mio.

It was slower going after that. Held up by rain and a bit of fatigue, they spread the remainder of the hike over four days. Campsites included Pine Grove Park near McKinley, Alcona County Park No. 2, Clouse Rd. near Curtisville, and the Lumberman's Monument campgrounds.

While at Alcona County Park, two troop members caught fish. Bruce Dygert caught a bass, and Bob Sawyer caught a perch, both of which served as snacks.

Before reaching Lumberman's Monument, the troop stopped at Largo Springs to fill their canteens with spring water, climbing 456 steps to do so. Near the springs they halted again to watch canoe races.

While on their hike, members of the troop worked on totem poles made with materials found along the trail. The poles will be displayed at the Unistrut Corp., in Wayne, and an award will be given to the boy having made the best totem.

According to troop scribe Skeets Worden, the boys were "greatly relieved that the journey was over, and ready to go on another 50-mile hike."

Scout leaders accompanying the boys on their hike were Ken Piatt, Jerry Piatt (and his dog, Fred), Richard Seyfried, Charles Sell, Cass Case (hikemaster) and Skeets Worden, Sr., who was in charge of the hike.

A whistle was presented to the troop by Cass Case to use on its next 50-mile walk.

Janice K. Koenigter Graduates from U. of M.

Janice Kay Koenigter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Koenigter, 630 Flanders St., has received a Master of Arts degree in Education from the University of Michigan.

The degree was presented at the school's summer commencement. Klaus Schultz, governing mayor of West Berlin, was the commencement speaker.

Chelsea Youths Earn Degrees at WMU

Roger N. Frisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Frisinger of North Lake, and K. James Gorton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gorton, 507 Glazier Rd., received degrees from Western Michigan University Aug. 13. They were among more than 2,700 summer graduates of the school.

Aircraft Owners Must File Use Tax Return Before Aug. 31

Detroit—Owners of aircraft are required to file a federal property use tax return on Form 4638 by Aug. 31, Thomas A. Cardoza, IRS District Director in Michigan said today.

The tax year begins July 1, and runs through the following June 30. The tax is $25 plus 3 1/2 cents for each pound of maximum certificated takeoff weight of jet aircraft. On non-jet aircraft the tax is $25 and 2 cents for each pound of maximum takeoff weight for those weighing over 2,500 pounds.

IRS Publication 510, "Information on Excise Taxes for 1971," provides detailed information on this tax and may be obtained by dropping a post card to your District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Detroit 48226.

1970 DRUG SEIZURES
The Customs Department has reported seizures of drugs and narcotics doubled during 1970 over 1969. Confiscation of cocaine and other narcotics also showed a large increase.

Major Crimes Jump 26% During 1970

Reported major crimes in Michigan in 1970 totaled 336,326, an increase of 69,953, or almost 20 percent, compared with 266,373 in the previous year, according to the 12th annual "Michigan Law Enforcement Officials Report on Crime" compiled by the State Police on data submitted by 406 police agencies.

This gave the state a crime rate for the year of 3,787. major offenses per 100,000 population, an increase of 23.1 percent over the rate of 3,075.1 in 1969. Major crimes on which the rate is based included homicide, rape, aggravated assault, burglary, robbery, auto theft, and felonious larceny.

The report notes that Michigan major crimes increased from 168,513 in 1966 to 336,326 in 1970, a change of 167,813 or 99.6 percent in five years.

Last year crimes against the person (homicide, rape, assault, and robbery) numbered 51,090, up 24.9 percent from 40,917 the year before.

Crimes against property (burglary, auto theft, felonious and simple larceny) totaled 433,840, up 25 percent from 347,237.

Most major crimes, 73.1 percent, in Michigan were committed last year by persons under 22 years of age. This percentage which has been high since at least 1962, is down slightly from the levels of 74.9 in 1969 and 75.8 in 1968.

Of 73,879 reported arrests of persons suspected of committing major crimes in 1970, there were 80,990 or 41.9 percent below 17 years of age and 23,094 or 61 percent in the 17-22 age group. There were 19,722 persons, or 26.7 percent, who were 22 years or older.

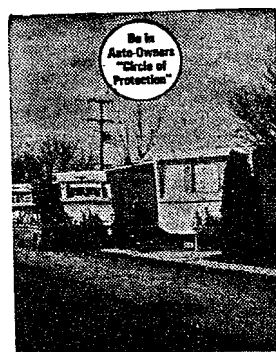

Research Team Finds Mythical Chivalry Dead

East Lansing — A team of Michigan State University researchers may have destroyed one of society's most enduring myths—that man is the great protector of woman.

Three MSU psychologists hired drama students to stage fights in which one antagonist clearly beat up the other. The researchers then watched from behind a one-way mirror to see if unsuspecting bystanders would intervene.

The most unexpected result of the unusual experiment turned out to be the fact that whenever the mock fight involved a man beating up a woman, no male bystanders came to the woman's aid. Men helped other men, and stepped between the combatants when both were women, but stood aside when their chivalry was most severely challenged.

The man who is superstitious isn't usually much interested in the truth.

THANK YOU

We would like to thank all of our wonderful friends, neighbors and relatives who helped us clean up after the storm last week. All the many acts of kindness done for us are greatly appreciated. Thank you again, God Bless You. Bob and Mary Bauer.

Washtenaw Farmers

Harvest 15,000 Acres of Soybeans Last Year

Washtenaw county farmers harvested 15,000 acres of soybeans for grain in 1970, according to Arvin Budge of the Michigan Crop Reporting Service.

Production amounted to 390,000 bushels, an average of 26.0 bushels per acre. This compared to the 1969 crop of 420,000 bushels from 20,000 acres.

New TV Series Premiering Will Feature Pop-Rock Artists

East Lansing — Boboquivari is both a Papago Indian word meaning narrow canyon and the name of a new television showcase for pop-rock artists. Premiering at 7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 19, on WMSB (Channel 10), Michigan State University, Boboquivari will give such noted artists as Roberta Flack and Odette a chance to be heard in a solo and uninterrupted half-hour performance.

Texas blues great Freddie King, whose work profoundly influenced other blues guitarists even before he reached national prominence as a solo artist, plays and sings on the first program.

King has played with Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf, Little Milton, Little Willie John and others, in addition to being the lead guitarist for Chess records for a number of years.

King recently signed with Leon Russell's Shelter Records and has cut one album on that label with titles.

Russell himself backing King on guitar and organ.

Boboquivari will be rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 21.

NET PLAYHOUSE

"The Lady with the Dog," a Russian film which won the Prix de la Meilleure Participation at the Cannes Film Festival is presented on NET Playhouse at 11 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 15.

Based on a Chekov short story, the film tells the tale of a love affair between a married bank official on holiday in Yalta and a beautiful young woman—also married—who is always accompanied by her white Pomeranian dog. Both the middle-aged banker and the young woman intend the affair to be brief, but, since both are unhappily married, their brief encounter turns into a deep love.

"The Lady with a Dog" has Russian dialogue and English subtitles.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Will Rogers said, "We all should live so we wouldn't mind selling the family parrot to the town gossip," — and added — "But who's that careful?" ... While it is true some people delight in gossip, we believe an overwhelming majority of people dislike gossip, mild or malicious. We believe most people would like to graciously discourage gossip but often hesitate through fear of hurting the feelings of the gossip.

When one listens to gossip, a grip occurs between the listener and the gossip. A good way to avoid the grip and keep gossip from coming out of the mouth is to refuse to lend an ear for it to come in. A few simple questions asked with a friendly smile can silence any gossip. For example, "Where did you hear that?" ... "Who started that rumor?" ... "You don't really believe that, do you?" ... "How many people have you told that to?" ... "Why do you think I'm interested in hearing that?" ... "You don't really think I believe that, do you?" ... etc. ... Such questions invariably squelch gossip. Friendships are kept and both you and the gossip feel better ... BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

Fire Department Answers Two Calls

Chelsea firemen had a light week last week, answering only two brush fire calls.

The first occurred at 5 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 12. The department sent two trucks to extinguish a grass and old railroad tie fire on Chelsea-Dexter Rd.

Two acres of land were scorched when a trash fire at the home of Wilbur Pluck, 3330 Waterloo Rd., got out of hand at 2:40 p.m. Aug. 16. Three trucks and 12 men were sent to the fire which was quickly extinguished.

Stolen Newspapers Found in Alley Area

Chelsea police report that the 50 copies of the Sunday Free Press stolen from in front of the Chelsea Drug store Aug. 1 were found later that week.

The papers turned up in abandoned part of a building behind the drug store when a thorough search of the alley area was made.

received as a novice. She took her professional vows on Aug. 15, 1919. She went to the St. Mary's Convent in 1959, after assignment as a housekeeper in convents in Utah, California and Idaho.

Surviving are a brother, Joseph Merkel of Chelsea, and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Hafner of Chelsea and Mrs. Gust Laier.

One sister, Clara Honeck and two brothers, Arthur Merkel and Edward Merkel of Dexter preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Monday in the Church of Our Lady of Loretto at St. Mary's. Burial was in Our Lady of Peace Cemetery.

A rosary was recited in the St. Mary's Convent parlor Sunday, Aug. 22.

John Arthur Lovell, 77, of 3389 Broad St., died Friday, Aug. 13, at the Chelsea Medical Center.

He was born Aug. 17, 1893 in Toronto, Canada, the son of John and Catherine Death Lovell. He had been a resident of Dexter since 1920.

Mr. Lovell served as the Chief of the Dexter Village Fire Department from 1925 to 1960. He was the owner and operator of Lovell's Electric Shop in Dexter from 1921 until his retirement in 1965. He was a member and former vestryman of St. James Episcopal church.

He was also a member of the Dexter Fireman's Association, a life member of the Washtenaw Lodge F&AM No. 65, a member of the Order of Eastern Star No. 302, the Farm Bureau, the Senior Citizens of Dexter and the Ancient Order of the Foresters.

On Sept. 30, 1915, he married Hannah B. DeWitt in Toronto, Canada and she survives. Also surviving are: two daughters, Mrs. Harold (Dorothy) Stein of Plymouth, Mrs. Robert (Alice) Walz of Chelsea; one son, John A. Lovell of Munroe Falls, O.; one sister, Mrs. Carl (Mabel) Brown of Seattle, Wash.; nine grandchildren, one niece and one nephew.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Mrs. Jean Dacosta, in 1962.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Monday, Aug. 16, from St. James Episcopal church with the Rev. C. Walton Fitch officiating. Burial followed at Forest Lawn Cemetery. Washtenaw Lodge F&AM No. 65 conducted services Sunday evening at Hosmer Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the St. James Church Memorial Fund in Mr. Lovell's name. Envelopes are available at the Hosmer Funeral Home.

Paul Mosier Leads Team to Win in Boondocks Tourney

The second annual Boondocks Scramble lived up to its name Sunday as 10 of the 46 four-man teams fought it out for the $100 cash first prize.

Three teams finished in a tie at 28 in the unusual tournament in which each player hits a shot, the best of the four is chosen, and then each player hits from that spot.

A team captained by Paul Mosier of Chelsea was matched hole for hole with a group headed by Gary Siegrist of Grass Lake. Each team likewise had 10 putts, but Mosier's team broke the tie by one-putting the second hole where Siegrist's had two greens strokes. Mosier gathered his forces from near and far; teammate Tom Stepp hails from Gregory, Bill Kimmer from Dexter, and Tony Kruse from Pinckney.

Teaming with Siegrist to win $60 in merchandise were Ron Lukasik and Bob and Ron Dutton.

Two other names prominent and frequent on the prize list were Pete Lindamood and Carl Bohne who entered four times with various partners. Larry Willis of Grand Rapids and Al Cooper of Grass Lake paired with the two Grass Lakers to fashion a 28 for third place.

Then, playing with Jim Baker of Grass Lake and Nervo Sanchez of Hasta Nogales, Mexico, Bohne and Lindamood carved out a 29 for fifth place. Another 29 with Baker and Willis earned them a sixth place tie and a total of $50 in merchandise.

Last year's defending champions led by Francis Lotte of Ann Arbor, were unable to come close to their 26 of a season ago when they put together three pars, three birdies, and three eagles. They finished in the middle of the field with 30 and 31.

Mosier's team used a completely different approach this year by firing seven birdies—six of them consecutively—over the testing layout.

Mike Vargo captured $10 for a shot three feet from the pin on the 145-yard eighth.

John Worthington led a foursome with eight one-putt greens and a total of 10 for the round to earn $16.

Art Clemes Scores Second Hole-in-One At Inverness Course

It was another hole-in-one for Art Clemes Saturday, Aug. 14. He hit the lucky shot on the fifth hole at the Inverness Country Club.

This was the second time in his golfing career that he has hit a hole-in-one at the Inverness club, where he is the medal play tournament champion.

This was the fourth hole-in-one at Inverness this year.

Bill Hunter Wins Seniors Tournament At Inverness Club

The Senior's Club championship play at Inverness Country Club has finally ended. Bill Hunter defeated Walt Forest in the finals of the Championship Flight, and Jon Dunn defeated Bob Foster of Ann Arbor in the First Flight. The men's tourney was open to those 50 and over.

Manchester Fair Now Underway

There are still three days to get in on the fun of the Manchester fair, now being held on the Manchester High school athletic field.

Here are some of the events going on now through Saturday. Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Civic Auditorium there will be a cooking school in short-cut cooking with the Consumers Power home economist.

At 8 p.m. Thursday the steer auction will be held, followed by a lamb auction.

At 10 p.m. Thursday, a fireworks display is planned.

On Friday from noon to 6 p.m. there will be an antique show and flea market in the Civic Auditorium.

Saturday's the day for the tractor pull. Large tractors will be weighed-in from 8 to 10:30 a.m. at Schaffer's scales, 210 S. Macomb St. Small tractors will weigh in between 8 and 10:30 a.m. at E. G. Mann & Sons warehouse on Union St.

At 11 a.m. the tractor eliminations will begin.

Garden tractor finals will begin at 6:30 p.m. (top four tractors in each class), followed by the large tractor finals at 7:30 p.m. (top six tractors in each class).

Queen candidates this year are Nicki Lents, Suzanne Krzyzaniak and Brenda Sutton, class of 1975; Becky Evisizer, Patty Kastanis, Marlene Engelbert and Trudy Randall, alternate, Class of 1974; Liz Hosmer, Pam Widmayer, Debbie Davis and Sherri McAtee, alternate, Class of 1973; Beth Merriam, Lou Ann Helber, Mary Simmons, and Karen Kastanis, alternate, Class of 1972.

Ellis Pratt, fair board president is also fair chairman this year. Other officials include Maynard Blossom, vice president; Ron Mann, secretary; and Elmer Kopa, treasurer.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
Now that summer is almost over, and the kids will be returning to school soon, I would like very much to say a few words.

We live in the Sorensen Subdivision, off Old US-12. As parents we wonder why our children cannot ride a school bus to and from school.

Have you ever checked the mileage from this subdivision to the schools?

In order for our small grade school children to get to South school, they have to walk through a marsh field—or go all the way around Wilkinson St., to Chandler St., or down Old US-12 to Main St., and a distance. Either way is quite a burden for small children, especially during the cold winter months.

South school is far enough, but how about Beach school and the high school.

We feel that the children down in our subdivision should have a bus to take them to school and back.

The bus wouldn't have to go door to door down each street. But what's wrong with a bus picking the children up on Wilkinson or Old US 12. The children could all walk to either place within a couple minutes.

These small children get picked on going through the marsh field. Before some child gets hurt or molested, why not consider a bus for them.

Thank you,
Village Resident.

Summertime fun in the sun should be tempered by thoughts of safety. Drowning is the fourth leading cause of accidental death. Do be careful. Don't be a statistic.

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

August 17, 1971
Council Room

Regular Session

This meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. Present: President Fulks, Clerk Harvey, Administrator Weber, Trustees Borton, Gorton, Musbach, Dmoch, Boylan and Chandler. Others present for the meeting were Police Chief Meranuck, Mr. Hurley, Bell Equipment Co., John Stepp, Robert Kendall, Chelsea Medical Center, James Kassler, American Sign & Indicator Corp., Mrs. Proctor, Ann Arbor Federal Savings & Loan Assoc., William Coltre, LeRoy Bauer and Robert Thornton.

A discussion was held with Mr. Kassler representing the American Sign and Indicator Corp. on their request to vary from Section 3.15.70(C) of Ordinance No. 55 and to erect a free standing sign on the property owned by The Ann Arbor Federal Savings and Loan Association. A letter was read from the Village Planning Commission recommending approval of the request.

Motion by Gnanider, supported by Musbach that upon the recommendation of the Village Planning Commission, the American Sign and Indicator Corp. be granted a variance to Section 3.15.70(C) of Ordinance No. 55 as amended, to erect a free standing sign on the property owned by the Ann Arbor Federal Savings & Loan Association located at 1135 South Main Street (M62), Chelsea. The sign shall have a set-back of seventy-six (76) feet from the front property line and that the height of the sign be restricted to the height of the proposed Ann Arbor Federal Savings & Loan building. Roll call: Yeas—Borton, Gorton, Musbach, Boylan and Chandler. Nays—Dmoch. Motion carried.

A discussion was held with William Coltre regarding the burning of refuse within the Village. Mr. Coltre was advised of the restrictions of Ordinance No. 68, an ordinance providing for regulations for the prevention of fires in the Village of Chelsea.

A discussion was held with LeRoy Bauer regarding the cost of a sewer tap-in for his property. No official action was taken at this time.

Robert Kendall, representing Chelsea Medical Center, presented the Council with plans for a proposed addition of the center. Mr. Kendall was advised that an addition as presented would require a Special Use Permit under Ordinance No. 55 (zoning ordinance).

Mr. Hurley, representing Bell Equipment Co., presented the Council with information on refuse collection equipment. No official action was taken at this time.

Robert Thornton of Chelsea Realty requested permission to erect a sign on Old US-12 and South Main St. (M52) to advertise a parcel of property for development.

Motion by Dmoch, supported by Boylan, to allow Thornton Realty to erect a sign at Old US 12 and South Main St. (M-52) for a period not to exceed one (1) year. The exact location of the sign to be subject to approval by the Chief of Police in regards to traffic safety. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Chandler, supported by Dmoch, to authorize the Village Administrator to make application for the renewal of the Village Solid Waste Disposal Area License and to file a Municipal Performance Bond with the Washtenaw County Health Department. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

VINTAGE YEAR FOR CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH

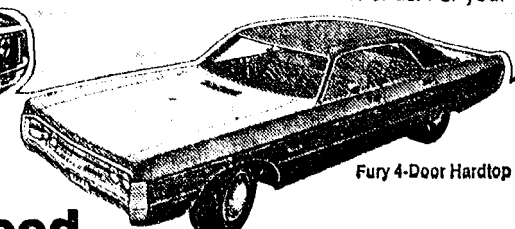

ONE OF OUR BEST YEARS. It takes something special to come up with a Vintage Year. But that's what '71 has been for Chrysler-Plymouth. Our slogan "Coming Through" had a lot to do with it, because it's our pledge: To come through with the style, size, price and quality you can live with for years to come. Two good examples are Plymouth Fury and Chrysler Royal.

OUR FINEST OF THE BIG. Plymouth Fury and Chrysler Royal are big ways to go for people who want the comfort and space befitting their style of living. Both have Torsion-Quiet Ride (which not only quiets road noise but gives you firm, sure handling). Both have a large interior and trunk space. And both turned out to be the finest cars of their kind in this vintage year.

NOW, A GREAT SELECTION COMING THROUGH FINAL CLEARANCE PRICED. '71 has been a vintage year for Chrysler-Plymouth. Quality shines and shows in every line. A drive in one of our '71 Chryslers or Plymouths will prove how well we've come through. Check our great selection. We think you'll agree, quality cars at final clearance prices is what "Coming Through" is all about. For us. For you.

Virginia E. White, David Watson Are Wed in Afternoon Ceremony

Mrs. David Richard Watson

Long Hair Now Safety Hazard For Both Sexes

Long hair, which once was a safety problem for only female employees, is now a hazard for the man on the job as well, according to the Michigan Department of Labor.

On jobs around machinery a tight fitting cap or hat should be worn to keep long hair from becoming entangled in machines and generally scolding the worker, the department says. Long hair is a hazard around open flames unless precautions are taken to properly cover the head.

Loose fitting clothing, open shirts, billowy sleeves and beads are items which also now endanger both men and women who work around machines.

In addition to dressing safely for work, the department also urges the wearing of safety glasses, safety shoes and the other protective equipment prescribed for various jobs.

Virginia Elizabeth White became the bride of David Richard Watson in an afternoon ceremony performed Aug. 14, at St. Barnabas Episcopal church, the Rev. C. Walton Fitch officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. White, Sr., of Chelsea. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Watson of Grass Lake.

The bride wore a floor-length empire gown with a lace bodice and a full skirt. Her long, full, ruffled sleeves were trimmed in velvet and lace. The floor length illusion veil was edged with lace matching that on the gown. She carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations, and baby's breath trimmed with long ribbon streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Debra Maynard of Chelsea, wore a similarly styled dress of light blue and white, trimmed with lace and ribbon. Bridesmaid Deborah Dressell of Jackson wore a dress identical to that of the maid of honor. Both girls wore white picture hats trimmed with lace, and carried bouquets of blue and white carnations and roses.

Dennis Morgan of Grass Lake was best man, and Paul Miller of Dexter was groomsmen.

Ushers were Miss Debra Meyer of Ypsilanti and Miss Denise Rodwan of Brighton. They were attended in "blue" flower floor-length gowns with short puffed sleeves. They each carried a single white rose with streamers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. White wore a brown dress topped with an ecru lace coat. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue and white dress of bonded material.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club. Mrs. Karen C. White of Jackson, sister-in-law of the bride, attended the guest book. Mrs. Diane Diver of Deerfield and Mrs. Barbara Hayford of Grand Rapids, sisters of the bridegroom, poured coffee and tea from the bride's tea service. Punch was served by Miss Dorothy Gauss and Miss Karen Manzel of Chelsea.

The couple will reside in Ypsilanti where the bride attends Eastern Michigan University. The bridegroom is employed at Malloy Lithographing, Inc., and also attends Washtenaw Community College.

A pre-nuptial shower was given by Miss Delphine Bolanowski.

You can't have too much fun without safety, warn safety experts. Be sure to have proper safety and signaling equipment on your boat. Otherwise, your happy trip might come to a sad conclusion.

Jaycee Auxiliary Awards Presented

Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary held its Aug. 17 pot-luck supper meeting at the home of Mrs. Dick Cail. Guests were Mrs. Earl Laughrey, District 22 vice-president, and her traveling companion, Janet Loader, president of the Saline Jaycee Auxiliary.

During the business meeting the auxiliary supported a district project of collecting clothing for Michigan Indians, a new elections policy to be used for state elections, a new districting procedure, and also decided to support the dropping of the Pro Comp and the FOYW programs on the state level.

President Sandy Brown presented sparkette charms to the members present. Awards chairman Barb Updegraff presented the May Girl of the Month award to Judy Eubanks, the June award to Darlene Eder, and the July award to Anne Steinaway. Darlene Eder also received the 90-Day-Wonder award.

The fall district meeting will be held Sept. 20 in Adrian. The meeting will have a country fair theme. Upcoming projects discussed were the Bicycle Rodeo, the fair kitchen, the Jaycee District meeting, and the chicken barbecue.

Household Bleach Can Be Deadly

A recent United Press International article appearing in the Detroit Free Press warns that deadly chlorine gas can result from the improper use of some common household cleaning aids. The following reprint of the article should prove helpful in both in-plant and home situations.

"Sometimes a homemaker, faced with a really stubborn stain in sink, bathtub or elsewhere in kitchen or bathroom, will use ingenuity. She'll combine two cleaning agents. The idea: if one is good, two will be better. What she may not know is that the apparent ingenuity may result in an accident that may send her to the hospital—or to her grave.

"Thomas Berk, safety consultant, told of two peculiar accidents involving such circumstances. In each instance a housewife applying an ordinary bathroom bowl cleaner was not satisfied with the way the product was removing stains.

"Each woman added a dash of household bleach. One died quickly and the other spent a long time convalescing in a hospital. 'What happened in these cases was that a poisonous gas was liberated when the two common household cleaners were mixed,' Berk said. 'Chlorine gas.'

"The same might be expected anytime the widely-used household chlorine bleach is combined with an acid or an acid producing substance (such as a down bathroom cleaner or vinegar). Lest you think such incidents are rare, a U. S. Navy medical newsletter told of 20 persons in separate incidents being overcome by gases released when women mixed cleaners—chlorine bleach and ammonia. If the gas is inhaled, it can cause serious injury, and as it has in at least one instance, death. Accidents of this type have occurred not only in the kitchen and bathroom but also in the cleaning and treating of water in swimming pools.

"Berk suggested following these safety rules:

"Use chemical cleaners only as the manufacturers direct on the label and keep in mind that now some scouring powders contain chlorine bleach.

"Don't mix chlorine bleach with—bathroom bowl cleaners, ammonia, lye, rust remover, vinegar or oven cleaner.

"In short," Berk said, "don't mix chlorine with any other cleaning agent."

Double knits are quite popular, particularly for travel, due to its wrinkle free feature.

FREY FAMILY REUNION
The Frey family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Gieske of Norvell, Sunday, Aug. 15. Forty guests from Howell, Tecumseh, Hamburg, Grass Lake, Jackson, Chelsea and Mt. Hope, Fla., were present.

The oldest member there was Herman Gross, 84, of Chelsea. The youngest were the six-year-old twins, Greg and Leanne Weed, children of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Weed of Howell.

The next reunion will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Brazee of Tecumseh.

Towels Are Important Part Of Investment for First Home

Seemingly small items like towels are an important part of the total investments for the home, especially in a first home, says Mrs. Helen Fairman, Co-operative Extension Service Home Economist. She serves Washtenaw county.

Towels should pass four tests she said: (1) durability, (2) absorbency, (3) practicality, and (4) harmony.

According to Mrs. Fairman, some authorities suggested that a minimum towel supply for a first home might include: six bath towels, 12 hand towels, six guest towels, six washcloths, three bathmats (Tubmats), and six kitchen towels. Personal preferences and situations will vary from this base.

Closeness of weave in towels means long wear, the home economist adds. No large, open spots should appear when a towel is held up to light. An even distribution of pinpoints of light should come through though.

Side edges of selvages are important points of wear. Types of selvages include: fast, over-edged and hemmed. Fast selvages should be tightly woven and uniform. Over-edged selvage should be evenly stitched. Over-edge selvages on washcloths should be close to avoid raw edges and loose threads. Hemmed selvages should be sewn with small, close stitches.

Hems should be sewn with small, even stitches. Towels with fringed hems should have dense fringe, uniform in length. Plain areas above the fringe should be tightly woven.

Towels should be tested for weight, softness and length of pile. Long, thick loops mean quick drying and high absorbency. The softness depends on the fineness of yarn used.

Mrs. Fairman adds, different size and weight towels are good for different purposes. Small, medium quality towels serve for

Karen J. Kelemen, Daniel Maurer Speak Vows at Methodist Church

Karen J. Kelemen became the bride of Daniel D. Maurer in an evening ceremony performed Saturday, Aug. 7 by the Rev. Clive Dickens in the Chelsea United Methodist church.

Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Kelemen, 14017 Ridgmont. Daniel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Maurer, 224 Jefferson.

For her wedding, Karen chose a chantilly lace gown with a Watteau train. A small seed-pearl crown held her illusion veil. She carried a French bouquet of pink sweetheart roses accented with white daisies and baby's breath. Ribbon streamers on the bouquet were tipped with white daisies.

Matron of honor Kathy Leach and bridesmaid Debby Kelemen, sister of the bride, wore empire-waisted gowns with multi-colored quilted skirts and sheer white ruffled tops. They held nosegays of pink carnations accented with white daisies and baby's breath.

Trombone music for the wedding was played by Russell Maurer, brother of the bridegroom, accompanied by Ann McKernan on the piano.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kelemen wore a sheer-sleeved pink crepe dress and white accessories. Her corsage was made of pink carnations interlaced with baby's breath and white daisies.

Mrs. Maurer wore a blue crepe dress and silver accessories. She also wore a corsage of pink carnations, white daisies and baby's breath.

Valerie Kelemen, sister of the bride, was the flower girl. Wearing a pink linen jumper over a sheer pink blouse, she carried a basket of pink petals and white daisies.

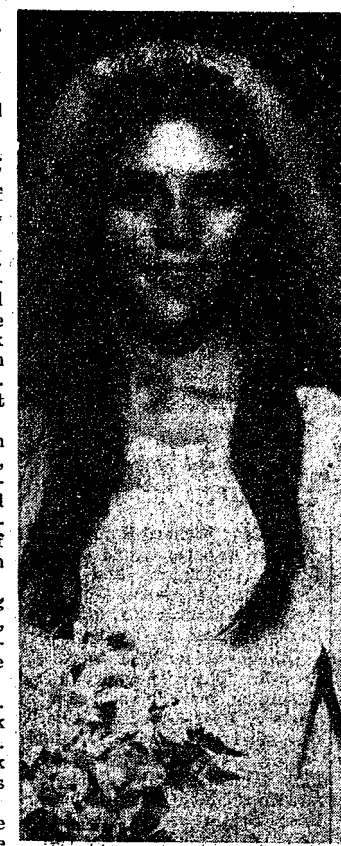

Kurt Kelemen, brother of the bride, served as best man. Jeff Haas was the usher.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club.

After the reception, the couple left for a week long trip to the south. Karen's travel costume consisted of a purple and white dress with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurer will make their home at 613 S. Main in Chelsea.

Daniel served with the U.S. Army in Vietnam and will attend Washtenaw Community College this fall.

Mrs. Daniel D. Maurer

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Your World

If we do not take the time to think and to observe, it is quite easy to agree with those who cry out that the "world has gone to the dogs."

It is still a good world. Even though much changed from a generation ago—from twenty years ago. We have now a world which is heavily populated. We have modern conveniences and methods of communications our ancestors would not believe in the realm of possibility. Because we have more people, we have more problems. Because of modern communications, no area of the world is isolated. Whatever happens can be "told" to the rest of the world in short order.

Can we excuse away the problems of our age so simply? Of course not. We must meet them, locally, nationally, internationally. The wrong way is to ignore the "wrong" things we see in the world about us on the premise that "that's the way things are today."

Make your personal world a better world. That's a very good place to start.

Sharon Diuble Has Champ Steer At County 4-H Fair

Young Sharon Diuble of 7650 Waters Rd., was the proud producer of the Grand Champion Steer at last week's County 4-H Fair.

Sharon's entry, a Charolais-Hereford cross breed, took top honors. The 11 year old owner produced a 1,065 winner that brought $1 per pound at auction. It was sold to the Campus Inn in Ann Arbor.

Fittingly for the time, during the moon-walk, the steer's name was "Astronaut."

A soft look is evident in most of the dresses and the knee length seems to be favored.

Commissioners Will Appeal Decision To Permit Retrial of Equalization Suit

The Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners decided at their Monday night meeting to appeal a decision by Circuit Court Judge John W. Conlin to allow the retrial of township lawsuits contesting the county's equalization procedures.

The first step toward the county's appeal to prohibit the trial of the suits is the filing of an application asking permission of the State Court of Appeals to appeal the matter.

If the application is approved, the actual appeal will be filed with that court.

Lawsuits have been filed by Ypsilanti, York and Superior townships, and Scio township supervisor

F. W. Perring said that his township intends to file suit before the Circuit Court deadline of Sept. 27.

The lawsuits were placed before Judge Conlin earlier this summer. At that time he ruled that he did not have jurisdiction in the matter until the townships had appealed to the State Tax Commission.

When Assistant County Prosecutor Lynwood Noah told Judge Conlin last week that the county would probably appeal his decision to allow the retrial of the suits, Conlin expressed hope that such an appeal might also serve to get the entire equalization matter before the appeals court.

Conlin said that he was willing to retry the case, but added that he felt more guidelines are needed from the higher courts to clarify the state laws regarding equalization.

Assistant Prosecutor Noah did not comment on whether or not the county might also try to have the entire case placed before an appeals court.

Suits filed by the townships argue that the county's equalization procedures discriminate against certain units of government, that they are not uniform throughout the county, and that they are partially conducted through illegal means.

John Popovich Completes Ford Marketing Course

John Popovich of Palmer Ford, Inc., has been certified as a graduate of the advanced retail selling course conducted by Ford Motor Company's Detroit Marketing Institute.

Certification of course completion was announced by D. B. Andrews, director of the Ford institute.

The course is one of a number offered dealers, their personnel and Ford Motor Co. employees. Classes are conducted by a staff of professional, full-time instructors.

Subjects range from management and merchandising courses for dealers and their department managers to salesmanship and specialized workshops for staff members. In addition, the school of automotive business administration conducts training programs for selected Ford Motor Co. personnel.

Courses are developed from methods used by successful dealerships. Group participation in simulated selling or management situations is a primary part of each course.

He did say, however, that if he had had jurisdiction he would have ruled in favor of the townships.

The townships did appeal the equalization procedure, but the State Tax Commission denied that they had received discriminatory treatment from the county. The denial by the tax commission brought the matter once again into Judge Conlin's hands, as the townships pursued their suits.
