Chest Goal of $26,007 Set for Fall Campaign

Preparations for the Oct. 10 opening of the Chelsea Community Chest fund raising campaign continued last Thursday as division chairmen met for the first time to discuss their goals, and the allocations for the various agencies served by the chest.

Division goals for the 1972 campaign are as follows: Rural, $1,186; Schools, $1,292; Professional, $1,640; Industrial, $17,531; Commercial, $1,970; Organizations, $425; and Residential $1,963.

This year's goal of $26,007 will be split between 42 agencies serving approximately 47 different organizations.

The largest Chest allocation this year—$6,000—will go to the Chelsea Recreation Council. Other allocations are: Salvation Army, $1,100; Huron Valley Girl Scouts, $2,120; Catholic Social Service, $1,000; Chelsea Social Service, $2,500; Chelsea Band, $400; Boy Scouts, $3,250; Washtenaw Association for the Retarded, $350; Huron Valley Child Guidance, $300; American Red Cross, $4,000; Child and Family Service, $500 and the Michigan United Fund, $4,487.

The $26,007 goal is an increase of 6 percent over the amount collected last year. While the 1971 Chest goal was not met during the campaign period last year, eventually $450 beyond the $24,850 goal was received.

This year's division chairmen have been drawn from all areas of the community.

Pat Whitesall, residential chairman, is a housewife and is serving her first year on the Chelsea Community Chest Board. A residential solicitor in 1970, this is her first division chairmanship.

Anne Steinaway, rural chairman, is having her first community chest experience this year. She has, however, served in the past as a general chairman of the March of Dimes, co-chairman of the Cancer Foundation, chairman of the Mothers March, and treasurer of the Mothers March. Mrs. Steinaway is also a past president of the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary.

Ann Schaffner, organization chairman, is serving her third year on the Community Chest board, and her third year as organization chairman. She is also a member of the Chest budget committee. She has been a Chelsea resident for three years.

Sherri Plank, served on the Community Chest board in 1970 and was a member of the budget committee. A housewife and a former second grade teacher at South Elementary school, she is a division chairman for the first time this year.

Hal Pennington, professional chairman, is the administrator of the Chelsea Medical Center, and has been active in the Community Chest for a number of years. He is a past chairman of the industrial division. Pennington is also an active member of the Knights of Columbus.

Dick Harvey, commercial chairman, is village clerk and also office manager of the Electric Light & Water Department. He was chairman of Michigan Week in 1964, and is involved in the Community Chest for the first time this year.

Conrad Hafner, industrial chairman, is Plant Superintendent at the Dana assembly plant. He has been a member of the Community Chest Board for three years, and has served on the membership and budget committees. A member of the Knights of Columbus and the Civitan Club, he is a division chairman for the first time this year.

In addition to the meeting of division chairmen, held last Thursday, residential and industrial committees held meetings Tuesday, Sept. 21. A training session for residential and rural solicitors will be held Thursday, Oct. 7 in the Municipal Building at 7:30 p.m.

Lee Rohrbaugh Dies Saturday In Auto Crash

Lee Robert Rohrbaugh, 25, 210 Hayes St., was killed Saturday night when the car in which he was riding crashed into a small bridge on Territorial Rd. in Henrietta township, Jackson county.

According to the Jackson Post of the Michigan State Police, Rohrbaugh was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident. The driver of the car was Rohrbaugh's half-brother, James Sheele, 20, of Henrietta township. He was treated and released at Foote Memorial Hospital in Jackson.

Officers said the vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed in the westbound lane of Territorial Rd. with it failed to negotiate a curve, left the road, and smashed into a small bridge, tearing down road signs in its path. Rohrbaugh was found 20 feet from the car. The driver was still in the vehicle. Rohrbaugh was married and the father of two step-children.

Firemen Back In Action After 2-Week Lull

Chelsea firemen were in action again last week, after nearly two weeks without being called to a fire.

Chelsea firemen extinguished an engine fire in a VW which had overturned on M-52 near the Chrysler Proving Grounds on Wednesday, Sept. 15 at 11:22 p.m. The car was driven by Joe Edwards, 6450 Conway Rd.

According to Fire Chief James Gaken, most of the damage to the vehicle was caused by the fire. Chelsea firemen were at the scene for approximately half an hour.

On Friday, Sept. 17, the firemen were called to extinguish a grass fire along I-94 near the Pierce Rd. exit. The fire, which was possibly caused by a cigarette, did no damage.

Burning trash in the back of a pick-up truck sent firemen to Werkner Rd., near the sanitary land fill, on Saturday, Sept. 18 at 4:07 p.m. Driver of the truck was John Norris, 633 S. Main. Owner is T. A. Norris, 120 Crescent, Ann Arbor.

Motorcycle, Auto Collide on Main St.

Carl Gullett, 552 McKinley, sustained injuries to his left knee Wednesday at approximately 7:30 p.m., when the motorcycle he was riding and a car driven by Peggy Katherine Buxton, 8405 Werkner Rd., collided on Main St.

Mrs. Buxton was attempting a left turn into the village parking lot between the railroad tracks and Heydlauff's store. The motorcycle, driven by Gullett in a southbound direction, struck the left rear side of the Buxton vehicle and he was thrown to the pavement.

Gullett was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital by Superior Ambulance where he was treated and released.

Mrs. Buxton was not injured.

SOIL SURVEY: Neil Stroesenreuther of Dexter, soil survey party leader for the Soil Conservation Service, examines the various layers of soil in a six-foot hole in Dexter township. The dryness of this year is indicated as well as the type of soil, in this case a kind called Hillsdale Sandy Loam.

Soil Survey Underway Throughout Area Townships

Even the Romans had a word for it . . . Cavius Emptor . . . "let the buyer beware."

A six-foot-deep hole in a cornfield on Island Lake Rd. in Dexter township, is a warning sign this year, if you know how to read it.

Soil Conservation Service people know, and they see a greenness to the soil that tells them how dry this year has been, but also, how wet that ground would be in normal years.

That's their business, being able to read the signs in the soil. At present the field survey men are completing the fourth year of a six-year project to test, sample and classify all the soil in Washtenaw county.

They've finished Dexter township this summer and are completing work in Freedom and Lima before the Nov. 11 cut-off date for this year.

During the summer they dig pits, bore holes and record their findings. During the winter they complete the maps and charts of the various townships showing what kinds of soils are located in every nook and corner of the area.

This is a joint project of the Soil Conservation Service and the Michigan Agricultural Experimentation Station being carried out for the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners.

What does all this have to do with the buyer being warned . . . the buyer of property for development is the party being warned.

Each type of soil is able to take some use. Some soil is fine for septic tanks, building sites, road beds, paved parking areas, commercial building, etc. Other soil is good for agriculture or park land, but not necessarily suited for the other uses.

Every type of soil has its limitations. What may be fine for one thing is not good for another.

As they test and map and chart the area, the SCS work party provides a picture of the subsurface of the land around us. What is on the surface may be lovely, but if you're building, it's what's underneath that counts.

An example: A man bought 20 acres of land in Lima township at about $1,000 an acre. Nice land, good location, great place to build, he thought. But, when the health department came round to test the soil for septic tank installation, etc., they found not one parcel suitable for building, not one they would approve for a septic tank.

This particular man had purchased the property without a contingency agreement in the contract stating that, should he not be able to build because of some fault with the property, the sale would be cancelled.

Now, what do you do with 20 acres of ground if you can't build?

Another example: People in the Honey Creek area built their homes after an extremely dry year, not even as dry as this one. They had full basements and all looked fine until the spring thaw and rains came and the water table returned to normal. Now, in one house, it takes two sump pumps running 24 hours a day just to keep the basement from flooding.

The point of the latter example is that when you dig a hole like the one in the cornfield, or in an area for a basement and don't run into water you assume that there is none at that level. The hooker is, that if you knew what to read in exposed soil, knew that the greenness indicated that the soil was normally very moist and that air never penetrated to that depth, you would be warned that, come normal moisture, there would indeed be water in that hole.

Neil Stroesenreuther, of Dexter, soil survey party leader, and Jim Barnes, soil scientist, are seeing places this summer where the water table is 10 feet below normal. Picture an eight-foot basement being built where the water will rise up around the walls come spring and you can imagine what will happen.

Some areas where the work party has tested this year, they've not been able to get into in normal years until the ground froze in winter.

How does all this help the potential home builder? Simple. The Soil Conservation Service, whose office is on Jackson Rd. between Zeeb and Baker, offers its services free to anyone who asks. They will supply a soil map for the property you're interested in, explain its limitations in detail, come out to the site and test the soil for you, examine the water table, in short tell you BEFORE you buy what can or cannot be done with that land.

It's easy to imagine your dream house on that nice rolling piece of land, but especially this year, today's dry land could have been last year's swamp, or, worse, next year's, after your house is built.

Soil Conservation Service scientists are seeing the sad aftermaths of mistakes made after the last dry year. They can help prevent the same kind of mistakes happening after this one.

Heated Debate Develops Over Sewer Charge

Approximately 50 Chelsea residents and representatives of local industries participated in a lengthy and often heated discussion of the sewer service charge and the method in which it is billed during the village council meeting Tuesday night.

Part of the discussion focused on the differences between the percentage rates established for residential and industries, but the most intense debate occurred over the percentage billing method itself.

Currently, the sewer service charge is based on a percentage of a resident's or industry's quarterly water bill. The residential rate is 40 percent of the basic water commodity charge, and that of industries is 30 percent. The basic-service charge—which for residents is $3 per quarter—is no longer included in the computation of the sewer rate.

The percentage method of establishing the sewer service charge came under heavy attack from many residents. They argued that the water used to water lawns during the summer is not returned to the sewer system, and that it is therefore unfair for the village to base the sewer charge on the amount of water used.

Alternatives discussed included charging a flat rate, basing the rate on the property tax, and eliminating or reducing the sewer charge during the summer.

It was discovered during the discussion that these alternatives would also result in inequities in the amount residents would have to pay, and an ultimate, but reluctant, consensus favoring the present method was reached.

The village council did agree, however, to give the matter further study.

Also at Tuesday night's meeting, a rezoning request of Robert Thornton and John Pierson was discussed.

Thornton and Pierson had requested that Lot 2, Block 16 of E. Congdon's Third Addition be rezoned from R-2 Residential to General Business. The Chelsea Village Planning Commission recommended, however, that it be rezoned from R-2 Residential to Transitional Residential Office District on the basis of the proposed long-range comprehensive development plan.

Final action on the request was tabled to allow Thornton and Pierson time to submit plans on parking spaces for the property.

It was also decided by the council to accept the low bid of D&S Refuse Service of Jackson of $32,000 for a two-year contract for refuse service to the village.

PP&K Contest Slated Here Monday Night

Chelsea boys eight through 13 years of age are getting ready for the annual Punt, Pass & Kick competition sponsored by Palmer Ford and the Chelsea Jaycees.

This year the contest, which challenges the skill with which a boy can punt, pass, and kick a football, will be held Monday, Sept. 27 at 7 p.m.

Any boy in the 8 through 13 age group is eligible to participate in the contest, and may register for it at Palmer Ford. There is no entrance fee.

Participants compete only against boys in their own age group. There is no body contact (Continued on page three)

Scholarship Exam Registration Urged

College bound high school seniors are urged to register for the Michigan Competitive Scholarship examination as soon as possible, George Bergman, high school counselor announced today.

Registration for the examination, which will be given Saturday, Nov. 13, will be open until Oct. 25. Students may pick up registration forms and information booklets from the high school guidance and counselling office. The test fee is $3.

Any college bound senior may compete for the scholarships regardless of whether he plans to attend a state supported or privately funded school, Bergman said. The scholarships or grants given under the state program are awarded on the basis of the competitive examination results, financial need, and a student's high school record.

According to Bergman, an average of 15 Chelsea High school students per year during the last three years—approximately one-quarter of those taking the exam each year—have received a grant or scholarship under the program.

Seniors are also advised that American College Testing (ACT) program bulletins and registration materials and College Entrance Examination Board (College Board) information bulletins and registration materials are also available at the high school counselling office.

Chelsea High school will be a testing center for the ACT in December, February, and April this year—the first time the test has been administered here.

The College Boards, which are comprised of the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and achievement tests, will be given in November, December, and January at Ann Arbor Pioneer High school. Bergman strongly advises that seniors who need to take the SAT should try to take it in November. Bergman said that if the student desires, he may take (Continued on page three)

Washington Report
by Congressman

ly in this session I proposed to structure another White Conference on Education, problems of compensatory education, the uncertainty of schooling, the growing public concern over increased costs for education, and the changing patterns of professionalism among teachers will soon reach crisis proportions and thus a need for a complete and analytical examination of United States educational policies is rapidly becoming an urgency.

Two such conferences have been held in previous years, in 1955 and in 1960, and a full decade later, a central issue is the relevancy of what was decided then and what is actually confronting American education today. The issues are that we have a whole new situation before us. On one hand, that of teacher shortage, on the other, that of teacher surplus. In the 1950s we faced a teacher shortage but today we have reliable estimates that tell us a teacher surplus in the neighborhood of 175,000. We need to know our once intense interest in school affairs so that we are in a better position to meet the situation that we now see developing.

My bill would call for a White House Conference on Education that would be patterned after the one held in 1955. At that time, 1,500 local and state conferences were held which involved nearly one million persons. I believe it is highly important that any new initiative we make especially stresses citizen participation. With this in mind we can develop the effectiveness that is essential to our success as we seek to return to the days of a greater public appreciation for the dimensions of the problems involved.

America's commitment to education is enormous. This year the American people will spend over $70 billion on education at all levels, public and private, a figure that is more than double the expenditures of 10 years ago; three times those of 15 years ago; and nearly eight times the outlay of two decades ago. With barely six percent of the world's population and less than a third of its developed resources, we spend half of all the money spent on education. The current amount reaches 7 percent of our gross national product. This outlay which has increased eight fold and far outstrips the inflationary increases of the nation's economy represents a commitment to education unparalleled in history.

Since the reconvening of Congress I have held many private discussions with my colleagues on the Education Committee to attempt to get hearings on this proposal. I believe that we are on the right track if we are to breathe new life into the nation's school systems.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR: This is things about folks in this country that is wonderful and sneaky at the same time. One man is that we can laugh at anything, and another is that we can sell anything. I was thinking about these two the other day while I was helping the old lady clean out the pantry. She says getting the pantry straightened out ever six months is a all-day, two-man job, and I believe her. While she moved 15 years old preserves and canned beans from one pantry shelf to another she was listening to the radio. I had to choose between her chatter about everything under the sun and the radio, and I found that if you can dial a station that ain't got all that grunting and hollering you can learn a lot from radio without even looking at it.

But what I liked beside the news was the music. I don't mean the regular music, I mean the music in the commercials. They was one real good tune that was set to a beer commercial, and cars and loan companies got some pretty good music. This one announcer must like em to, cause he played the beer music all the way thru out without the words, and he said he gets requests for "No Matter What Shape Your Stomach Is In," which he said was music fer stuff to take when you eat to much.

Then this nice ballad come on the air. Soft playing guitars, and this feller starts singing about worms. Yessir, it was a song about a dog wormer, but if you jest listened without paying attention to the words it come thru a heap easier on the ears than the kind yelled out by lead airplanes and iron butterflies. That pritty worm music made me realize that jest a dash of class is all a feller needs to peddle anything we can think up and make.

I thought how selling and jockeying is tied so close. I saw a piece in the papers where the TV commercials that got the best results was the funny ones, like the talking stomach and them extry long cigarettes that used to git caught in potter's wheels and everthing afore the Government decided they was doing their selling job to good fer the good of the country's health.

Actual, Mister Editor, it probable is a blessing that we can find fun in so much. I reckon in some cases we laugh to keep from cracking under the strain, like the feller that says he's fer President Nixon cause he's keeping us out of Northern Ireland. I see Georgia says she owns a chunk of North Carolina and Tennessee, but nobody will take Georgia serious, which may be the best thing, cause what would happen if she does? The North Carolina legislature passed a joke law giving the governor power to declare

Property Tax Used Heavily

One of the safest things for politicians to attack in recent years has been the property tax. Taxes in general have always been a safe thing to unleash some heated rhetoric upon, but the property tax in recent years has become the main whipping boy. Michigan voters, in fact, may be presented with one or more proposals in the next year to totally abolish the use of property taxes to finance school operations.

But despite their unpopularity, they remain the primary source of revenue for local governments. In Michigan, property taxes represent 91 percent of total tax revenue for local governments. Nationally, they account for 85 percent of the total.

When considering all tax revenues pulled in by both state and local governments in Michigan, the property tax accounts for 35 percent of the total. Nationally, it accounts for 40 percent.

This means that it would take a whopping increase in another tax before the property tax can be partially or totally eliminated. In his proposal to eliminate property taxes for schools, Gov. William G. Milliken said it would take an increase of at least 2.3 percentage points in the personal income tax to finance the going away with that part of the property tax.

Senate Taxation Chairman Harry DeMaso, R-Battle Creek, who has his own proposal for property tax relief in the form of a $5,000 homestead exemption on all property taxes, is using the same 2.3 percent number in calculating what it would take to make up the revenues lost from property tax relief under his proposal.

"I think we owe it to the people to tell them we aren't really giving them anything for free," DeMaso says. "Anytime you talk about cutting back sharply on one tax, it means you have to increase another to make up for what you lose."

A comparison of Michigan's property tax rates with those in the rest of the country, by the way, shows they are almost average. For example, Michigan in fiscal 1969—the last year for which comparable figures are available—raised $165 through property taxes for each resident of the state. Neighboring Indiana raised exactly the same amount per person.

Wisconsin had a higher per capita amount from its property tax—$193 per person. Ohio, on the other hand, raised $146 per person from the property tax. The national average was $152 per person for state and local governments from the property tax.

Warning Issued
"Pyramid" proposals are a new threat says the Michigan Consumers Council.

A pyramid proposal involves a scheme in which a salesman promises a reduction in cost for his product if the buyer supplies a list of friends as potential buyers and the friends also buy.

Council Chairman William Morrison says if one customer refers 20 names and those people each submit a list of 20 friends, by the tax before the property tax can be partially or totally eliminated. In his proposal to eliminate property taxes for schools, Gov. William G. Milliken said it would take an increase of at least 2.3 percentage points in the personal income tax to finance the going away with that part of the property tax.

In one case, he says, a salesman sold a vacuum cleaner for $400 and didn't stay in the vicinity long enough to contact any friends.

The employees, members of UAW-CIO Local 437, walked out in protest over the dismissal of another employee. The company denies that the man was unjustly discharged, adding that he had a poor work record, and had been given several warnings.

The Chelsea Public Library had 137 participants complete its summer reading program for children this year. The 137, who read 1,586 books among them, will all receive reading certificates at school. Patricia Oppedel led the list of summer readers with 105 books completed.

The board of directors of the Chelsea Community Chest has announced a campaign goal this year of $13,311, an increase of $2,311 over last year's goal. The chest drive will begin Oct. 14 with the traditional kick-off luncheon. Mrs. Warren Daniels will serve as campaign chairman this year. Shirley Riihimaki and Larry

Thirty-four sheep out of a flock of 72 belonging to N. H. Miles were killed by dogs this week. Miles, who lives on the George Hinderer farm on Scio Church Rd., had his sheep out to pasture at the Schneider farm on Conway Rd. Robert Schneider discovered the sheep. A number of attacks by dogs have been made on sheep in the area during the past two months. This is the second time Miles' flock has been hit. Dogs have also attacked flocks belonging to Ralph Keizer, Leonard Eder, Albert Hinderer, Clarence

Thursday, Sept. 23, 1937—

A telegram received by The Standard Wednesday afternoon from Murray D. Van Wagoner, State highway commissioner, stated that bids for grading and drainage work on the 4.5 mile unfinished gap of US-42 south of Chelsea will be opened on Oct. 6. The Methodist Episcopal church is now using the latest edition of the Methodist Hymnal, thanks to the generosity of Mrs. P. M. Broesma.

Chelsea and Belleville ended their Friday night football game in a tie last week. Although Chelsea at one time did get the ball across the goal line, they had been guilty of an infringement of the rules on the play, and failed to score following the penalty. At another point the Chelsea team was within two yards of the goal line but couldn't muster the strength to penetrate a strong Belleville defense.

Gridders of the Week

JOE ASPIRANTI (32) is a senior halfback who has been playing football for Chelsea since his sophomore year, when he and his family moved here from Detroit. An avid baseball player, Joe has been on the CHS varsity since his sophomore year, and has played Ann Arbor League baseball during the summer. He hopes to continue playing baseball, and is aiming for the Connie Mack League next summer. Joe plays hockey on the Chelsea hockey team, and loves to snow ski. He also fishes and enjoys deer hunting. He plans to go on to college, and hopes to major in business law. In preparation for a business career, he will join Junior Achievement this year. He works part time at the L & R Drive-In owned by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Aspiranti, 8710 Parkview, Gregory. Joe has one brother, John, and two sisters, Toni and Mary.

RANDY BRIER (22) is beginning his career as a CHS football player this fall. The senior halfback has, however, been a baseball player for four years, and has been on the varsity squad since his sophomore year. Along with Wayne Welton, he has been chosen as one of the co-captains of the baseball team for the 1971-72 season. Randy has also played Ann Arbor League baseball during the summer. He likes to fish and ice skate, and also plays hockey for the Chelsea team. Randy is also active in the North Lake Methodist Youth Fellowship. Thinking about a teaching and coaching career, Randy plans to go to college, and thinks he will major in physical education and minor in math. He has three brothers, Pat, Robin and Kris, and lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brier, at 111 Watt Rd., North Lake.

Frosh Grid Team Downs Mich. Center

Chelsea's freshman football team opened its season Tuesday, Sept. 21 at home with a 26-6 win over Michigan Center.

Chelsea received the opening kickoff and took just 40 plays to move the ball across the Michigan Center goal line. Karl Gauss got the touchdown on a 15-yard drive. Only moments later, Gauss ran 30 yards off tackle for the second Chelsea score of the game. Todd Ortring ran the extra point, and Chelsea led, 14-0.

In the second period, Ron Collins ran 30 yards to make the score to 20-0 at the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Randy Musbach went 24 yards in the fourth for Chelsea's last TD of the evening.

Michigan Center got their only points on a two-yard touchdown drive on the last play of the game. Earlier, Michigan Center had moved the ball to the one-yard line, but Chelsea's determined defense held.

The Bulldog offense, however, was forced to punt on the fourth down after taking over on their own one-yard line, and Michigan Center moved in again for the score.

The victory was a fine team effort for Chelsea, according to Coach Bill Bainton.

Gauss and Collins had good blocking from linemen Ron Kiel, John Coley, Dave Proctor, Mike Grambau, Mike Weir, Tim Eder and Don Bollinger.

The defense, led by Paul Wood, Terry Ellenwood, Perry Johnson, Tom Ball and Curt Winans, did an effective job of containing the Michigan Center offense.

Coach Bill Bainton was happy with the victory, and also pleased to have been able to get his entire squad into action.

The freshmen met Saline, at Saline, at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 22. The next home game will be against Lincoln at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 6.

How long should you keep bacon in your refrigerator? To maintain best quality, you should use it within one week.

Punt, Pass & Kick Slated Monday Evening...

Scoring is based on accuracy and range in the three events, with one point given for every foot of punting, passing and kicking distance, and a point subtracted for every foot off a center line.

Following the local competition here are zone, district, area, divisional and national levels of competition. The contest has its final eliminations at the NFL Super Bowl Game in New Orleans Jan. 16.

Nationally more than 1,200,000 youngsters are expected to take part in the program, which is co-sponsored by the National and American Conferences of the National Football League and the Ford Dealers of America.

Punt, Pass & Kick has attracted nearly 7.3 million participants since its inception in 1961. It has received the enthusiastic support of high school, college and professional football coaches across the country. National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle described Punt, Pass & Kick as "the finest youth athletic program of its kind."

Registration will be open until Saturday, Sept. 25. To register, a boy must be accompanied to the Ford dealership by a parent. Participation in the contest does not impair a youth's amateur standing.

Scholarship Exams...

(Continued from page one) the achievement tests at a later date, but that many colleges need SAT scores—which take approximately six weeks to process—for early admissions.

College Boards are also offered again in March, May, June and August, but Bergman suggests that students take the tests as early as possible since "August is simply too late for most schools."

College bound juniors will have the chance to take a combined National Merit Scholarship Qualification Test (NMQST) and the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) for the first time this fall. The test, which will serve the dual purpose of screening students for NMQS and giving them experience with the type of SAT test they will take in their senior year, will be given Tuesday, Oct. 19. As soon as registration materials are received, they will be made available at the high school office. Cost of the test is $2.50.

Public Announcement

Supt. Charles Cameron today announced a free and reduced price lunch policy for Chelsea School District school children unable to pay the full price.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income scale to assist them in determining eligibility:

Total Family Size	Free Lunch Scale	Reduced Price Scale
1	$2040	$2200
2	2670	2900
3	3310	3595
4	3940	4280
5	4530	4920
6	5110	5550
7	5640	6125
8	6170	6700
9	6650	7225
10	7120	7740
11	7600	8260
12	8080	8780

Each additional family member: Free Lunches ($480); Reduced Price Lunches ($520).

Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy the school principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. Fred A. Mills, Business Manager, whose address is High School Administration Building, has been designated as the Hearing Official. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy. The policy also provides that there will be no identification of or discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the Superintendent, where it may be reviewed by any interested patron.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE
High blood pressure is the most important single factor in bringing on stroke, and this is one of the best reasons in the world to get medical treatment for high blood pressure, says the Michigan

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

A clergyman can not control his hours... He has an around the clock, 24 hour job, 7 days a week. He is subject to call in times of misfortune, sickness or death. He is prepared to respond any time of day or night. And, incidentally, unlike many other people, he does not get double time for overtime.

This brings up an interesting point. Can you imagine how people would feel or what they would say if their minister failed to show up for Sunday service because he was "up late the night before"? Can you imagine how people would feel or what they would say if their minister stayed away from church on Sunday and preferred to stay in bed because he had a tough or exhausting week? Can you imagine how people would feel or what they would say if he stayed home because of bad weather? Or because he wanted to play golf or go fishing?

When you think of these things, can you imagine how a minister must feel when he sees people practice two sets of rules — one for themselves and another for him? ... BURG-HARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone GR 5-4141.

DODGE LEADS WITH ITS STRENGTH.

Polara/Monaco—the all-new look of '72 at familiar '71 prices.

ALL-NEW STYLING... SAME OLD PRICES.

In a year when most new cars look a lot like last year's, Dodge Polara and Monaco do not. They've been restyled for '72. The emphasis in the design of these new cars has been on strength, solidity, and silence. Their strong, expressive styling achieves an attitude of distinction with clean, fresh lines. And while the styling is all new, the prices of the '72 Polara and Monaco, and all Dodges, will remain the same as those offered on comparably equipped 1971 models. Prices may never be lower.

1972 DODGE MONACO Designed for the man who wants excellence without extravagance. The restyled 1972 Monaco has a look that sets it apart from the rest of the medium-priced field... like smooth lines, hidden headlights, and a streak of protective side moulding. CHS Debaters High in Tough Tournament

Chelsea High school varsity debaters finished fourth in a field of 30 as they opened their season Saturday, Sept. 18 in a tournament held at Flint Northwestern.

In the non-conference tourney, Chelsea took on larger, and supposedly stronger, schools to compile a five win, one loss record for the day.

Their biggest victory was that over Ann Arbor Huron High school, last year's Class A state champion. Chelsea also defeated East Lansing, Lansing Waverly, Comstock and Taylor Kennedy High schools, losing only to Marshall.

Affirmative debaters were Janice Schramm and Mike Hergert. Chick Lane and Dan Gaunt composed the negative team. Debate topic this year is "Resolved: That the Jury System in the United States Should Be Significantly Changed."

Today, the entire 21-man team will travel to Wayne State University for a combination debate clinic and tournament. Chelsea's varsity will again compete, with Carol Fairbrother, a novice debater who attended a debate workshop this summer, alternating with affirmative debater Janice Schramm.

The approximately 15,000 semifinalists named today will compete for some 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1972.

Semifinalists are the highest scorers in their states on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQST) which was given last February to more than 655,000 students in about 16,600 schools nationwide. They constitute less than one percent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States.

Lane is already the winner of a full tuition four-year debate scholarship to Eastern Michigan University. He was selected on the basis of his performance during a debate institute held at Eastern during the summer of 1970.

A forward on the Chelsea High school basketball team, Lane was the winner of the most improved player award last year. In addition to being a varsity debater and basketball player, Lane is a member of the National Honor Society and the Key Club.

Described by his high school counselors as an outstanding student, Lane plans a career in law, and is seriously thinking about attending Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Va., next fall.

National Merit semifinalists are among the nation's most intellectually talented high school seniors, according to Edward C. Smith, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC).

"These students bring honor not only to themselves, but also to their families, their teachers, and their communities. The future success of these young people will, however, depend upon their ability to become productive at the high intellectual levels that they are capable of attaining," Smith said.

Semifinalists must advance to finalist standing to be considered for the Merit Scholarships to be awarded next spring. Semifinalists become finalists by receiving the endorsement of their schools, substantiating their NMQST performance on a second examination, and providing information about their achievements and interests.

High school grades, accomplishments, leadership qualities, and extracurricular activities of the finalists are evaluated, along with test scores, in selecting Merit Scholarship winners.

NMSC identifies the semifinalists to all regionally accredited colleges and universities and to certain scholarship-granting agencies and other sources of financial aid. Studies in former years have shown that about half of the semifinalists received financial aid from sources other than the Merit Program.

Names of the winners in the 1971-72 Merit Scholarship Program will be announced in the spring of 1972. Some 28,000 students have received Merit Scholarships in the 16 annual programs to date. About $81 million in financial assistance to Merit Scholars and their colleges has been expended or committed through the Merit Program.

County Commissioners To Tour Proposed Park Area with MCRC

The Mill Creek Research Council (MCRC), a strong opponent of the proposed Mill Creek Park, is planning two tours of the Mill Creek area for members of the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners and their spouses on Sept. 26 and Oct. 3.

The tours are being held prior to the Commissioners' Oct. 5 meeting. It is expected they will make their recommendation concerning the park at that time.

Following the tours, which will end at approximately 4:30 or 5 p.m., area residents are invited to the Leonard McCalla Farm, 481 S. Steinbaugh Rd., to meet the commissioners and make their views on the park known.

The tours will begin at the McCalla farm, and will take the commissioners through the Mill Creek site, the surrounding area, and also through the Waterloo Recreation Area.

Waterloo is being included in the tour so the commissioners may see what state recreational facilities are available in the area, how they are used, and where they are in relation to the proposed Mill Creek Park.

The impetus to organize the tours came when MCRC members learned that one member of the Washtenaw County Planning Commission—which unanimously recommended that the park be built—has not seen the proposed site before the recommendation was made. "We were terribly disappointed," Mrs. Margaret Sias, a member of MCRC said. "We know that the planning commission can't visit every site on which they must act, but we felt that failing to look at the Mill Creek area where so much money and land and so many people are involved—especially after all this controversy—was inexcusable. We didn't want the same thing to happen again," Mrs. Sias added. MCRC is also planning a meeting for property owners in the proposed Mill Creek Park area, near the end of October. The date, time and place of the meeting will be announced.

Road Rally Scheduled Sunday

Palmer Ford Drag Club's second big road rally will begin at 1 p.m. this Sunday, Sept. 26.

The rally, which is a test of driving and navigating skill, will begin at the Stop & Shop parking lot, and will take participants over an undisclosed course of approximately 50 to 80 miles.

Competitors in the rally not only have to discover the course they are to drive from clues given in their directions, but also have to attempt to complete the course in a predetermined optimal time.

Cars, which must drive within the speed limit, are checked at three undisclosed areas on the route to insure that they cover the complete course. Winners are judged on the speed, distance and the time in which they cover the course.

Of the 30 cars entered in the spring road rally, only 28 crossed the finish line, an indication of the challenge offered.

Usually, a car is manned by the driver and a navigator who is responsible for computing the time each segment of the course requires, the speed at which the driver should drive, and the deciphering of the clues which determine the course to be driven.

The drag club will hold a party at the finish line for all the participants who make it. Participants are asked to bring their own refreshments.

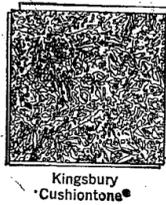

More than 7,000 varieties of apples have been grown and named, including hundreds in the United States alone.
