

Chelsea District Hockey Association Being Organized

Although the term, "grass roots movement" is most often applied to politics, it also fits the formation of the Chelsea District Hockey Association.

Last year, a group of high school students formed a hockey club and persuaded Larry Loasby to coach them. Getting a club off the ground was a task since there was no rink apparatus for arrangements, and no place in Chelsea to play them once they were arranged.

The boys struggled through at first season, renting ice in an Arbor to play the few meets they could schedule, buying the equipment they could afford.

But they wanted something more, and they wanted it not only for themselves, but for all boys who might be interested in playing that fast and fascinating sport.

At the end of the season last year, they approached Owen Loasby of Gateway Sports Center hoping to persuade him to sponsor a hockey team.

Loasby had a better idea. During the summer Loasby and other members of the community went to work on the formation of the Chelsea District Hockey Association, and the creation of a hockey program for all interested boys between 8 and 18.

As an affiliate of the Michigan Amateur Hockey Association, the District Hockey Association allows Chelsea to have invitational games with other members of MAHA in the area—an important first step.

The next step was finding support for the building of a skating rink.

Once it became clear that a rink would provide skating facilities for all the children in the community—not just the hockey players—support for the project mushroomed.

On the recommendation of the Chelsea Recreation Commission, the Village Council appropriated funds for the construction of a 200 by 85 foot rink, and the Fair Board approved its location on the Chelsea Community Fairgrounds.

But that was really just the beginning, and much remains to be done before the association finally takes shape.

According to Loasby, four businesses have agreed to sponsor teams in the five age divisions of the association—Ann Arbor Federal Savings & Loan, Chelsea Lumber Co., Gateway Sports Centre, and Mayer Insurance Agency—but others must be found to help buy the equipment for both the players and the rink itself.

This Saturday, a community work day to begin construction of the rink, which will be located in the "midway area" of the fairgrounds, will be held, with Jaycees, older hockey players, some teachers, and others having already promised their help.

On Saturday, all interested volunteers will assist in assembling sections of the rink. Carpenters will supervise the work, and do the necessary cutting, and the rest of the work will be done on an assembly line basis.

Loasby is certain that another work day will have to be scheduled to finish the rink, which will be lighted by the time play begins.

On Saturday, Nov. 13, an open registration period will be held at the high school. Fee for registration, which will partially cover equipment costs and ice maintenance, will be $15. Parents must accompany their sons to the registration, and must also bring the boy's birth certificate with them.

Teams in five age divisions—8 to 10, 11 to 12, 13 to 14, 15 to 16, and 17 to 18, will be formed following the registration period. So far, 40 boys have registered for the program, and another 40 have indicated their interest.

According to Loasby, every boy who registers will get to play in the games this winter. "We emphasize training and sportsmanship," Loasby said, "Winning isn't the most important thing."

In addition to the games, hockey players should be able to have approximately two hours practice time a week. "We think we'll match the ice time of teams with artificial rinks," Loasby said, stating that there would be ample time for open skating too.

To really give the program the strength and depth it needs, more volunteers willing to help coach, manage and referee are needed, Loasby said, adding, "We hope we will have the support of the entire community."

Teams in five age divisions—8 to 10, 11 to 12, 13 to 14, 15 to 16, and 17 to 18, will be formed following the registration period. So far, 40 boys have registered for the program, and another 40 have indicated their interest.

Chest Fund Reaches 70% at Close of Drive

Late Contributions Are Expected To Push Total to Near $26,007 Goal

The Chelsea Community Chest campaign period officially ended Oct. 31, and with less than complete results reported thus far, Chest contributions total 70 percent of this year's $26,007 goal $18,257.

According to campaign chairman James Hoffmeyer, both the residential and commercial divisions of the campaign have exceeded their goals by seven percent, even though all the contributions and pledges made through them have not yet been tabulated.

As of Tuesday, some industrial campaigns were still not complete, but at least one factory has exceeded its donation to last year's and this fall.

In extending his thanks to all who contributed to the campaign, Hoffmeyer also apologized to those in rural or residential areas not contacted, saying "We did try to contact everybody, but often when our canvassers went back to a house a second or third time, they found no one at home."

Hoffmeyer also expressed his gratitude to those who mailed checks to the Chest. "We appreciated them very much," Hoffmeyer said, adding that anyone who contacted who would like to give to the Chest may also send a contribution, payable to the Chelsea Community Chest, to P.O. Box 76.

Hoffmeyer also said that while the campaign period lasts only three weeks, the Community Chest actually functions on an annual basis, and contributions to this year's campaign may be made anytime until the beginning of next year's campaign.

It is still uncertain that this year's goal will be met, but Hoffmeyer said, "We're keeping our fingers crossed, it's likely to be so."

Final campaign period totals will be announced following the Community Chest board meeting Nov. 17.

Marching Band Prepares Final Football Show

Seniors in the Chelsea High school band will have their night Friday during the Chelsea-Milan football game half-time show, the last regularly scheduled appearance of the marching band this fall.

Senior band members have chosen the formations, and their musical favorites from their four years in band, for performance during the show. Seniors have chosen to play "Green Peppers," "Joshua," "Fever," "Light My Fire," and "Yesterday."

Majorities will be featured in a pom-pom routine during the playing of "Joshua," the flag twirlers will be in the spotlight during "Fever," and the three senior majorettes, Terry Blacklaw, head majorette, Karen Johnson and Mary Slane, will twirl flaming batons to "Light My Fire."

All senior band members will be introduced during the half, Band Director Warren Mayer said, adding that some or all of the band may make one final appearance during the faculty-varsity touch football game later this month.

Donald Beeman of Waterloo, who had both legs broken in a tractor accident last July 21, returned to Foeie Memorial Hospital in Jackson recently for a bone graft on one leg. He is still wearing a cast on each leg, and will for some time yet.

Bulldog Grid Team Tramples S. Lyon, 39-0

Perfect Record Goes On the Line Friday Against Milan Surge

Chelsea's Bulldogs, the only undefeated team in the Southeastern Conference, blanked the South Lyon Lions last Friday, 39-0, setting the stage for the key battle between Chelsea and Milan to be played here tomorrow night.

Milan, currently sharing second place in the league with Novi, downed the tough Lincoln Rail splitters, 38-0, last week, raising their conference record to 5-1, and preserving their status as the team most likely to share conference honors with Chelsea, should the splendid Bulldog team suffer a defeat.

Head varsity coach Phil Bareis said, when asked whether he thought the Milan game would be an especially tough one, "All our games are tough. Last Friday's game was tough. We go out every week to play the best football we can. We try to stay on an even keel."

The South Lyon game, however, was undoubtedly Chelsea's all the way. Chelsea scored once in the first quarter, four times in the second, to have an overwhelming 33-0 lead at the half, and rounded out the game with another six points in the fourth quarter.

In the first quarter, Chelsea scored on an eight-yard pass from Wayne Welton to Dave Lukasiak, and Steve Knickerbocker kicked the extra point, giving Chelsea a 7-0 lead.

Mark Collins returned a punt 63 yards for Chelsea's second score early in the second quarter, and Knickerbocker's extra point attempt was good. The second touchdown of the second quarter came as Jeff Daniels caught a 21-yard pass from Welton to climax a 33-yard drive. The extra point kick was not good.

Chelsea scored again in the second period on a 57-yard punt return by Jeff Hughes following a hand-off from Collins, and on a nine-yard touchdown run by Tom Lixey with 3:33 remaining in the half following an interception by Randy Brier which he returned to the South Lyon 19-yard line.

Chelsea and South Lyon battled back and forth during the third and most of the fourth period. (Continued on page three)

A GOOD IDEA paid off for the winners in the "Most Original" category of the costume contest sponsored every year by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club at Halloween time. First-place winners in the category were the "Land of Oz" characters. Tammy Patrick, Penny Wood, Kim Wood, and Arnel Minix. "Raggedy Ann and Andy," Jill and Eric Schaffner, were 2nd, and Kimberly and Tobin Boyd, a mushroom and a tree, took 3rd.

100 Gallons of Cider Gulped Down at Halloween Party

A tree and a mushroom were there, and so were a variety of other spooks, story-land characters, bums, and devils, and together they drank 100 gallons of cider and ate 140 dozen donuts.

The scene: the annual Halloween party, costume contest and parade sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, held this year Saturday, Oct. 30.

Following the official trick or treat hours, the kids—more than 400 of them altogether—gathered in the Municipal Parking Lot for the costume judging and assembly for the parade.

After the parade, they returned to the lot to receive their treats, noisemakers and prizes.

As usual, prizes were awarded in four categories, and prizes of $3, $2 and $1 were awarded to the first-, second- and third-prize winners in each category.

Winners by categories were: Most Typically Halloween: Kristie Centilli, 1st; three devils, Linda, Debra and Matt Monroe, 2nd; and Amy Hume, 3rd.

Spookiest: Gail Boone, 1st; David, Kathleen and Debbie Morris, 2nd; and Colleen Stubbs, 3rd.

Most Original: Oz Characters Penny Wood, Tammy Patrick, Kim Wood and Arnel Minix, 1st; Eric and Jill Schaffner, 2nd; and Tobin and Kimberly Boyd, 3rd.

Funniest: Cindy Jolly, 1st; Andy Weir, 2nd, and Debby Garmen, 3rd.

Kiwanians were especially happy with the clean-up job done by the kids after the party this year; according to one member very little post-party work was left for the organization to do.

Current School Budget Shows $98,422 Hike

Most of Modest Increase Over Last Year To Be Used for Salaries

The Chelsea Board of Education unanimously adopted a $2,154,344 operating budget for the Chelsea School District's 1971-72 school year Monday night during its regular bi-monthly session.

A public budget hearing, attended by two school district residents, was held prior to Monday night's board meeting.

This year's budget is $98,422 greater than the $96,270 budget adopted by the board for the 1970-71 school year.

Most of the increase, according to Business Manager Fred Mills, will be used in paying salaries of teachers and school personnel.

The bulk of the school district's budget—some $1,333,628—is supplied by the 21.20 mill operational levy, and an estimated $596,740 state aid will be received by the district this year. The remaining $223,976 will come from delinquent property taxes, other state sources, federal appropriations, and minor miscellaneous categories.

Parents Night Set for Friday Grid Game

Behind every varsity football player and varsity cheerleader are understanding parents who also endure the long practice sessions and tough games. This Friday, those parents will receive a little of the recognition they deserve.

Friday night's game against Milan, the last home game of the year, will be Chelsea High school's Parent's Night.

Parents of all varsity football players and cheerleaders will be introduced in a pre-game show beginning at 7 p.m. and following the game refreshments will be served to the players, cheerleaders and their parents in the Chelsea High school library.

This will be the last home appearance of many Chelsea grid-ders. Those seniors playing their last home game Friday are: captains Tom McKernan and (Continued on page eight)

World Day of Prayer Scheduled Friday

World Day of Prayer will be observed Friday, Nov. 5 at the First Congregational church on E. Middle St.

During the service, which begins at 1 p.m., Thomas Hodgson, park naturalist in the Waterloo Recreation Area, will speak on local environmental problems.

Some $609,506 will be expended on elementary level education, $506,583 in teachers' salaries. Expenditures on the secondary level, administrators', teachers' and secretaries' salaries, textbooks and teaching supplies, etc., are estimated $879,596.

The next largest budget categories are plant operation and transportation. An estimated $205,000 will be used this year to supply custodial services, heat, water, electricity, phone, and other services to the schools; and $123,700 will be devoted to maintaining the school district's transportation capabilities.

An expenditure of $80,570 will be used for administration of the schools. Salaries of the board members, the superintendent, business manager and two administrative secretaries comprise approximately 75 percent of the total.

An estimated $48,150 will be used for maintenance, and $48,286 will be spent on special education, including $46,386 for the salaries of five regular teachers.

An estimated $80,852 will be expended on fixed charges to the system, including insurance, workman's compensation, interest on loans, fringe benefits, data processing and athletic fund transfer.

In addition to the above, the school system also transfers $35,348 to Cassidy Lake training school (state funds only), maintains a $300 health service fund, and a $38,000 capital outlay fund which this year will cover cost of new band instruments, graphic arts equipment, microscopes, locks, lathes, bleachers for the athletic field and other items.

FESTIVAL CHOIR: The Chelsea High school Festival Choir, one of the winners in nationwide competition of the right to perform at the International Festival of the Americas to be held next April 4 through 10 in Nassau, has been rehearsing since school started in hopes of attending the festival, and will continue until the festival is actually held. Members of the choir, which is directed by DIANN L'ROY, are (left to right) front row: Jerry Bassett, Ann Merkel, Pat Knickerbocker, Jeanette Bailey, Karen Johnson, Joanne Harvey, Connie Salyer, and Carol Warywoda. Second row: Mark Wright, John Coley, Tim Wade, Dave Hess, Ron Gauss and Jeanne Thornton. Third row: DIANN L'ROY, director; Richard Egeler, Ed Koenigter, Jeff Schmidt, Keith Pfeiffe, Nancy Aldrich, and student teacher Louise Patrick. Missing from the photo are Marie Houle, Judi Blass and Randy Seitz. Students were admitted to the choir by audition. Originally Miss L'Roy had planned on having 24 voices, but "the 22 sounded so good they didn't need any more." Choir members are now planning activities to help raise the $5,000 needed to finance the trip. Each student must be credited with $250.

Chelsea Bulldogs! according to the Associated Press weekly poll of sports writers around the state. Despite the fact that this is the first time in many years any area team has received that honor, Chelsea's head coach Phil Bareis is not letting it go to his head.

"We will just try to keep the ratings out of it this week," Bareis said. "Naturally, Milan will be out to upset us. We'll just try to be level-headed about it."

There's no doubt, however, that the Chelsea team deserves the recognition. The only undefeated team in the Southeastern Conference this season, Chelsea wrapped up its fourth straight conference title last week with a 39-0 shut out against South Lyon.

Chelsea has also defeated Stockbridge (30-0), Dexter (16-7), Saline (14-6), Lincoln (31-24), Novi (38-23), and Dundee (30-3).

Bulldogs Are No. 1 Class B in State

Which team is the number one Class B high school football team in the state?

Chelsea Bulldogs! according to the Associated Press weekly poll of sports writers around the state. Despite the fact that this is the first time in many years any area team has received that honor, Chelsea's head coach Phil Bareis is not letting it go to his head.

"We will just try to keep the ratings out of it this week," Bareis said. "Naturally, Milan will be out to upset us. We'll just try to be level-headed about it."

There's no doubt, however, that the Chelsea team deserves the recognition. The only undefeated team in the Southeastern Conference this season, Chelsea wrapped up its fourth straight conference title last week with a 39-0 shut out against South Lyon.

Chelsea has also defeated Stockbridge (30-0), Dexter (16-7), Saline (14-6), Lincoln (31-24), Novi (38-23), and Dundee (30-3).

In his six years at Chelsea, Bareis has taken a perennial loser, and fashioned the Bulldogs into a spirited, well organized, and winning team.

But Bareis also gives credit to school administration and the non-varsity coaches for the team's performance.

"It takes facilities to have a good program. We've gotten good co-operation from the administration and we've got the best equipment for the varsity," Bareis said, adding, "We've got a pretty good feeder system, too. Jon Schaffner has coached our junior varsity team, and he has lost only one game in five years."

Chelsea fans will have their last chance this season to watch the Bulldogs play on home ground this Friday night as they meet Milan's Big Reds, the second-ranked team in the conference, and virtually the last team with a chance to share conference honors with Chelsea.

SPOOK SHOW: The "Spookiest" costumes worn to the Halloween party and costume contest sponsored by the Kiwanis Club last Saturday were those chosen by Gail Boone, 1st place winner: David, Kathleen and Debbie Morris, 2nd; and Colleen Stubbs, 3rd. Prizes of $3, $2, and $1 were awarded to the prize winners in each of the four categories.

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

The House of Representatives voted to settle a 104-year-old dispute with Alaska's Natives by approving the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Bill. The purpose of the measure is to provide an equitable solution to the claims of the Natives of Alaska through a combination of grant of land and money. The legislation will give to the Natives some million acres of land.

I supported this bill in the belief that our government has both legal and moral responsibility to the natives of Alaska. Over the years the Natives have established an indisputable claim to these lands. Their claims extend far beyond our purchase of Alaska and before the discovery of the world. And, while we deprive the Natives of what is rightfully theirs, we also deprive them of the only way of life they know—the only means of subsistence they understand. The poverty of these people has been well-documented, numbering approximately 55,000, and live on what could best be described as a subsistence income. Over one-half of them have an education below the sixth grade level and their average life expectancy is under 35 years.

This bill, I believe, will fulfill our legal and moral responsibility. It will on the one hand provide land that is necessary for a subsistence needs of those natives who continue to rely upon the land for their living, while the same time provide a financial settlement which will be used by the natives for promoting their economic development to the fullest extent possible. During that period that the House was considering this bill, I jointly co-authored an amendment which included a more ambitious land-planning proposal on the committee bill. After discussions with conservationists in the Second Congressional District and conversations with experienced planning professionals elsewhere, it became apparent that here the Congress had an opportunity to craft a law that was truly a balanced approach and comprehensive planning in every sense. I believe that this amendment answered the priority concerns of the various national environmental, and conservation groups and we were pleased to have their support. Basically, the amendment would have temporarily set aside portions of the land in question until such time as Congress determined, with final precision, where all of the natural interest reservations should be. I regret that the majority of the House did not concur in our efforts to protect a reasonable amount of prime land just a little longer to assure the matter was fairly studied and deliberated. However, despite the failure to pass this important amendment, Congress has finally grappled with this issue. By so doing it has permitted one of the nation's most deprived groups to have a larger voice in shaping their own destiny.

TROOP 425—

We held our meeting Monday, Nov. 1 in the Municipal Building. We opened the meeting at 7:30 p.m. with the pledge of allegiance. Then Mr. Branham, Jerry Milliken, Steve Norton and Leslie Sharp gave a demonstration on coin collecting. They told how to grade coins and tell their mint marks. Leslie Sharp brought his Morse code receiver and showed how it works. Joe Branham and Brad Myers helped young boys with their tenderfoot requirements. We closed the meeting at 9 a.m. Any boy 11 years of age is welcome to join our troop and be a scout.

Trade Encouraged

Michigan's drive for a share of the foreign export market is now aided by a brochure produced by the state commerce department. It is printed in both English and Russian.

The brochure is one of a series published by the department aimed at promoting the state's already extensive export trade. The Russian language brochure was taken to the Soviet Union by Gov. William G. Milliken.

Included in the brochure is a double-fold map showing the state's location on the St. Lawrence Seaway and explaining "Michigan's location surrounded by the Great Lakes makes it easily accessible by water routes."

The brochure actually comes in two different versions, each being "localized" for its target audience. The English language version is intended for use in Asia.

It points out that Michigan's population is about twice the size of Hong Kong and that Detroit is about the same size as Osaka, Japan. In land area, it says, the state is about the same size as the Japanese islands of Kyushu, Hokkaido and Shikoku combined.

The Russian language brochure points out that Michigan has about the same population as the Soviet Republic of Byelorussia and that Detroit is about the same size as Leningrad. In land area, Michigan is about as big as the Soviet Republic of Tadzhik.

It took substantial effort to get the Russian language version printed. First a Russian translator had to be located, and one turned up at Michigan State University.

Then a typesetting machine with Russian alphabet characters had to be found. One finally was located in New York City.

Milliken gave the brochures to several high-ranking Soviet officials when he was in Russia, including Konstantin Crupin, chairman of the board of foreign tourism in the Russian Republic, and officials of each of the eight republics he visited.

Stay Out

Michigan motorists with metal studded tires on their cars would be well advised to change their tires if they travel in Minnesota or Ontario this winter.

Both Minnesota, and Ontario have banned the use of such tires and have warned that non-resident drivers with studded tires will be fined just as heavily as residents. Ontario won't actually bar cars with those tires from entering, since a province cannot control international movement. But once you're in, they can arrest you.

A second state—Utah—also has banned the tires, but the ban is not effective until next April 15.

Michigan Highway Commission is trying to get the Michigan legislature to take the same step here.

The commission says studies show the tires soon will cause an estimated $28 million damage a year to state highways alone as usage continues to grow as fast as it has since they were legalized in 1967. It says the studs quickly rub out land-markers and anti-skid materials on highways, as well as digging dangerous ruts in the surface.

Further, it says studded tires are effective only on glare, and that on any other wet or dry surface they actually reduce traction.

Student Power

A most dramatic example of the effect of allowing 18-year-olds to vote and allowing students to vote in their university town can be found in East Lansing.

Before the voting age was lowered and students allowed to register, the smallest precinct in East Lansing was located on the southwest side of the sprawling Michigan State University campus. It had a total of 900 registered voters.

Now, 5,100 persons are registered to vote in that precinct, making it by far the largest precinct in the town. The second largest precinct handles 2,000 voters.

The 1967 Chelsea United Fund Drive has now reached approximately 75 percent of its $21,950 goal. The Chest received a big boost of a $4,056 check from Chrysler Proving Ground employees and Chrysler Corp. The check, representing more than 20 percent of the goal, was the largest received from any Chelsea organization. Campaign workers are continuing their efforts to push the drive, which ends this week, over the top.

The new Junior High school will officially be known as Dwight E. Beach school, the Chelsea District School Board announced Monday night. General Beach, a native son of Chelsea who rose during 35 years of military service to the rank of four star general, has distinguished himself in various assignments throughout his career. The board also announced that the road to the new junior high will be named Mayer Dr. in memory of Alfred D. Mayer, a prominent Chelsea business and community leader who died April 29, 1961.

Chelsea Bulldogs ended their 1967 football season with a 13-13 tie with Dexter, Friday night. Chelsea finished fourth in the Southeastern Conference with two wins, four losses and two ties. Closing out their Chelsea football careers were seniors Mark Lancaster, John Freeman, Mike Lehmann, Larry Gaken, Rob Powers, Ray Worden, Bob Taylor and Ron Morley.

Chelsea High school's first Homecoming in 20 years was a great social success, despite Chelsea's 26-0 loss to Lincoln Friday night. Sandra Karner, junior class candidate, was crowned Homecoming Queen by varsity co-captains John Eisenbeiser and Dennis Schumm during the half time festivities. Other candidates were Karen McAllister, who represented the football team, Janie Morgan, senior class, Carol Reddeman, sophomore class, and Linda Fisher, sophomore class. Contest judges were James Smith and Edward Kuivinen, U. of M. students, and Mrs. Elaine Beach, a North Elementary school teacher.

Mrs. Anna Hoag, the area's oldest resident, celebrated her 102nd birthday Friday, Nov. 1. Mrs. Hoag, who has been confined to bed for the last year, makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Staffan.

Ideal weather prevailed last Thursday as the Chelsea Kiwanis Club sponsored its annual Halloween parade and costume contest for kids. Winner of the first prize in the "Neatest" category was John Mann who dressed as a yellow cat. Don Dickelman's Bat Man costume was the first prize winner in the "Spookiest" costume division. Ann Marsh won first prize in the "Most Original" class with her robot man costume, and first prize winner in the "Most Typically Halloween" division was Bill Bowling who dressed as a headless horseman.

Herbert J. McKune Post No. 31 and its auxiliary will stage a most outstanding Armistice Day on Nov. 11 this year, in celebration of that eventful day exactly 20 years ago when the fathers, mothers, wives, sweethearts and friends went into a mad frenzy of joy over the fact that the World War had ceased. Assurance has been given the Legion by the local businessmen that they shall do their part to make this Armistice Day a memorable one.

Numerous floats are expected to enter the parade. Following the parade a dinner will be served at the public school auditorium. Later in the evening the Legion hopes to fill the auditorium with young and old people to dance to the music of Jerry Beissel's orchestra.

In connection with the forthcoming Prairie Farmer-WLS show, three local amateurs' broadcast over the facilities of WIBM in Jackson on Sunday. A solo, "Sleepy Hollow Tune" was rendered by Angeline Burg.

Watson Hart, day operator at the Michigan Central depot in Grass Lake for the past five years, has been appointed third trick man at the local depot. For six years before going to Grass Lake, Hart was second trick man at the local depot.

New officers were chosen by the Kiwanis club at their Monday meeting. Albert C. Johnson was elected president and P. G. Schable was elected vice-president. John L. Fletcher, Wesley Smith, Harold Every and James Hendley were named to the board of directors.

TROOP 169

Brownie Troop 169 met Nov. 1 with 22 Brownies present. We made invitations for our investment to be held Nov. 8. We practiced the Brownie story. Margaret Sweet brought treats.

Renee Satterthwaite, scribe.

TROOP 47—

Two patrols, Shooting Stars and Juniors, met at the Methodist church Wednesday, Oct. 27. We started our meeting doing needle craft, working with a cloth and embroidery hoops. We learned how to make a cross stitch and a chain stitch, an outline stitch, a running stitch, and a French knot stitch for our needlecraft badge. We passed out treats, and sang grace. One patrol, the Green Butterflies, met at the home of our leader, Mrs. Hoffman, to work on their cooking badge. They cooked a whole supper and enjoyed eating spaghetti, rolls, salad, chocolate pudding and milk. Valisa Pletcher, scribe.

Gridders of the Week

RANDY SEITZ (72), a senior tackle, is playing his third year of varsity football this season. Randy has also been a shot putter for four years, and a wrestler for three years. He is president of the Varsity Club, vice-president of the Trip Club, a member of chorus and the St. Paul church choir. He also likes to hunt and water ski. Randy took a 100-mile bicycle trip to Mackinaw Island year before last, and a 250-mile bike trip to Cedar Point with Tom McKernan this summer. "The first one was to see if we could do it, the second one was for pleasure," Randy said. He plans to attend Northern Michigan University next fall, and will probably major in business administration. The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Seitz, Arden Lane, Randy has three sisters and one brother.

JEFF SCHMIDT (79), a junior tackle, has been playing football since 7th grade and is playing his first year of varsity ball this year. He has also played basketball for four years, and has been a spring golfer for three years. He hunts, water skis, plays baseball and is generally sports-minded. He's a member of the choir, the madrigal singers, the 24-voice group which has been chosen for a spring vacation trip to the Bahamas, a member of St. Paul youth fellowship and choir. He plans to go to college, although he has not yet chosen a school, and would like to major in business administration. During the summer he works for Bill Eisenbeiser and the Lane Animal Hospital, where he also works during school-year week-ends. He has one sister, Joan, a freshman at U. of M., and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schmidt, 14356 Eisenbeiser Dr.

JV Gridders Squeeze Past S. Lyon, 7-0

Chelsea's JV football team defeated South Lyon, 7-0, last Thursday, in a game marred by penalties and pass interceptions. While both teams suffered from interceptions, Chelsea had the corner on penalties, receiving 135 yards worth, the largest penalty yardage accumulated by Chelsea JV's in four years.

Neither team was able to sustain a drive in the first half. Chelsea was called twice for roughing the kicker, and had two passes intercepted, while a pass interception by Chelsea's John Houle in the first quarter, and another by Mike Nadeau in the second period ended South Lyon's first half hopes.

Chelsea held a 64-yard drive together in the third quarter, however, to score the only touchdown of the game. A counter to John Beeman moved Chelsea to the South Lyon 12. John Tandy then picked up nine of the remaining yards, and Jeff Marshall ran a quarterback sneak from the one-foot line for the TD. Ishmael Pickersimer kicked the extra point.

Fourth quarter South Lyon drives were stopped by pass interceptions by Dale Poertner and John Houle.

Four offensive players picked up 60 yards for Chelsea. Half-backs Marvin Guster and Dale Poertner made short gains for Chelsea, wing-back John Beeman gained on four counter plays, and Chuck Foytick gained 40 yards on a pass reception, and additional yardage on two Statue of Liberty plays.

Defensively, Darryl West had 12 tackles for Chelsea, followed by Dale Poertner with 10, Jeff Marshall with 8, and Howard Hasel-schwardt and Rick Miller with seven each.

JV coach Jon Schaffner said simply, "it was a very frustrating night."

Chelsea will take on Milan's junior Reds in Milan next Thursday, in one of the key games of the season. Milan, Chelsea and Novi are currently tied for the league lead, and while Chelsea defeated Milan in a non-conference game earlier this season, Milan has been improving steadily all season. Game time is 7 p.m.

iods, and Chelsea ended the scoring with 54 seconds left in the fourth quarter on a 75-yard run by Tim Lancaster.

Six different ball carriers scored for Chelsea, and Wayne Welton completed passes gaining 79 yards for the offense.

Tomorrow night is Parent's Night. Parents of all Chelsea varsity football players and cheerleaders will be announced in a pre-game show which begins at 7 p.m. The Milan game, Chelsea's last home game of the season, begins at 7:30 p.m.

EATING PATTERNS CHANGE
High incomes, better education, and increased travel all have an influence on changing our eating patterns. Not only will eating be less conventional and rigid but 70 percent of our eating will be away from home by the end of this decade. When dinner is served at home, convenience foods will be used more often.

Cross Country Team 15th in Regional Meet

Accumulating 359 points, Chelsea High school's cross country team finished 15th in the State Regional cross country meet held in Blissfield, Saturday, Oct. 30.

Winner of the meet was Monroe Catholic Central with 73 points. Seventeen schools participated in the meet, approximately 120 runners.

Placing for Chelsea were Dave Buxton, 24th, with 13:49; Dan Hoover, 71st with 15:05; Robin Boyer, 82nd with 15:23; Jim McGinn, 87th with 15:33; Howard Schenk, 95th with 15:37; Lee Ferguson, 100th with 15:50 and Ken Buxton, 108th with 16:36.

Chelsea had their last meet of the season yesterday, a league quadrangular in Ann Arbor with Dexter, South Lyon, and Saline. The meet was the final cross country appearance for seniors Dave Buxton, Dan Hoover and Jon Schenk.

PACK 115
On Thursday, during October, Den 9 met at the home of Mrs. James McLaughlin at Cavanaugh Lake. On Oct. 7 we made plans for the projects we will work on. We all hiked to the top of Murder Mountain in the Waterloo Recreation Area on the 14th. We learned to do square braiding and started work on a braided whistle holder on the 21st. Last week Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Stock, assistant Den Mother, helped each of us carve a pumpkin.

James Stock, scribe.

School Board Briefs

Present at the Nov. 1 meeting of the Board of Education were President Storey, Trustees Smith, Koenn, Straub, Haselschwardt, Irwin and Schafer, Superintendent
Cameron, Business Manager Mills.
Also present at the meeting were J. Raymond Seitz, Mark Mc-Kernan, Harvey Lixey, Robert
Musolf, Keith Boylan, John Stepp,
Charles Ritter, Thomas Eder, Earl
Heller and Bruce Fauble.
Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President Storey.

Motion by Straub, supported by Koenn, to proceed with the agenda and set an adjournment time of 10 p.m. Ayes: Straub,
Smith, Koenn and Schafer. Nays:
Irwin and Haselschwardt.

Motion by Haselschwardt, supported by Irwin, to approve the minutes of the Oct. 18 meeting as presented. All ayes.

President Storey appointed Trustee Straub as temporary chairman at 8:20 p.m.

Mark McKernan and several other guests spoke to the board regarding the cutting and repair of the electric wiring on the whirlpool in the high school athletic locker room. An extended discussion on the matter ensued, and it was agreed that a state electrical inspector will examine the wiring on Nov. 2.

Trustee Straub returned the meeting to President Storey at 9:05 p.m.

Trustee Irwin reported on the tour of the school facilities by and recommendations of the Physical Plant Committee. The committee recommended paving portions of the play areas at North and South Elementary schools, installing some new bleachers on the football field, installing an exhaust system in the athletic student rooms of Beach school, and installing additional exterior lighting at North and South Elementary schools.

Treasurer Koenn of the Business, Administration and Finance Committee reported that the public hearing on the 1971-72 operating budget was held at 7 p.m.
in the High School library with Keith Boylan and John Stepp in attendance. The hearing was adjourned at 7:45 p.m.

Motion by Koenn, supported by Schafer, to adopt an operating budget of $2,154,344 for the operation of the Chelsea School District for 1971-72. All ayes.

Business Manager Mills reported that work on the Beach school

THANK YOU
Thank you to the Chelsea and Dexter Fire Departments for their prompt response to our call for help when fire leveled our barn.
By their quick response (7 minutes) they saved our other barn and house. A special thank you to Mrs. Paul Mann, who unknowingly work us up, and a most sincere thank you to our neighbor, Leonard Molsinger, who started the bucket brigade on the house roof before the fire departments arrived. A thank you to our other neighbors and friends who assisted in any way, and those who have offered their help in cleaning up the debris.

Don and Katherine Herrst.

THANK YOU
Thank you to the people of Chelsea for being so good to us during our four years here. South School teachers and administrators, the Brownies and Junior Girl Scouts, the Cub Scouts and Webe-loes have provided valuable training for our children, the Chelsea merchants and the Chelsea Clinic have been especially kind to us.
To all of our friends and neighbors, especially those of the Congregational Church thank you for giving us a chance to know you. It has truly been great!

The Daniel Kelins.

athletic and physical education field is to begin this week; and that work on the paving of portions of the play areas at North and South Elementary schools will also begin this week.

Superintendent Cameron reported that the fire which destroyed the equipment shed at the high school athletic field and the equipment in it has been investigated by the Chelsea Police Department, and those involved contacted. A meeting of the youths involved, their parents and the administration will be arranged.

Superintendent Cameron also reported that the Drug Education Committee is functioning and proceeding with an orderly study of materials and methods of implementing a drug education program. A student request to conduct a second drug survey was denied because of the recent survey conducted by the U. of M.
School of Social Work.

The Future Planning Committee will meet at 7 p.m. Nov. 8.

The superintendent's evaluation will be conducted by the board
Nov. 2, 1971.

Meeting adjourned at 10:10 p.m.

Recreation Commission
Studies Winter Program

The Oct. 11 meeting of the Recreation Commission was called to order by the president, Dr. Gene Miller. All members were present.

Recognition was given Gil Johnson, Robert Kelly and Matt Murphy for their work on the recreation board.

A discussion and evaluation of the summer 1971 recreation program, and the coming Christmas and winter program was held.

Dave and Phil Kwiecinski made a presentation explaining Tae Kwon Do, Korean karate, and Dr.
Miller and director Ken Larson will investigate their program.

A motion to purchase an adding machine was passed.

The next meeting will be held
Nov. 15, 7:30 p.m.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER:

About a month or so ago, I broke up with this boy, because I wasn't sure what I wanted and because he was very jealous of me and wouldn't let me do anything or say anything to my friends. In the meantime, I have been thinking about going back with him because my friends don't really mean that much to me. He was really hurt when we broke up and he told me to come back anytime. I asked him if he would go back and he said "no" because he was afraid the same thing would happen again. It really hurt me, because I love him and I know he still cares for me. I can't go out with other guys because I just don't have any fun at all. I am always thinking of my ex-boyfriend. Could you tell me what to do? I am sure everything will work out this time if he'd just give me another chance.

OUR REPLY: There is small chance it will work out unless you have both changed. He cannot expect you to give up all of your other friends and never speak to anyone but him. You should know from past experience what a difficult thing this is to do. Are you really sure you can do it? Are you really sure you want to do it?

If you have a teenage problem you want to have discussed or an observation to make, address your letter to "For and About Teen-Agers," Community and Suburban Press Service, in care of this newspaper.

Dec. 31 Deadline Nears for Filing Medicare Expenses

Robert A. Kehoe, district manager of the social security office in Ann Arbor, is reminding all people over 65 that an important deadline will fall on Dec. 31. That is the last day that persons enrolled for the voluntary Part B of Medicare, or the doctor bill insurance, can file for reimbursement for expenses in 1970 and the last three months of 1969. He encourages all persons over 65 to review all their bills and explanations of medicare benefits for 1970 expenses, and contact the social security office for claim forms and assistance with any outstanding 1970 doctors' and other Part B changes still not reimbursed by Medicare.

Kehoe further stated that there is not necessarily any rush to file claims on 1971 expenses yet. If persons have already had well over $50 in expenses so far this year, claims may be filed any time now; however, if the total reimbursable Part B expenses will be only slightly in excess of the $50 deductible, he suggests waiting until after Dec. 31, and filing a single claim for all 1971 expenses.

He reminds seniors that if they do not have $50 in Part B expenses in any one calendar year, all expenses in the last three months of the year may be carried over toward the next year's deductible.

For further information or assistance, telephone or visit the district office in Ann Arbor, located in the City Center Building at 220 E. Huron St., telephone, 769-7100.

Tom Stock is Chelsea's newest Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer.

But he already knows how to come through for you.

1972 Chrysler Imperial

1972 Plymouth Fury Gran Coupe

AUTHORIZED DEALER CHRYSLER
MOTORS CORPORATION

He's ready to go with a stock of brand-new 1972 Chryslers and Plymouths.

From the newly restyled Fury to the mid-size Satellite, to the small-enough-but-big-enough Duster.

From the luxurious Imperial to the easy-to-own Royal. Whatever kind of car you're looking for, he can come through for you.

But more than that, he's coming through by offering cars backed by Chrysler-Plymouth's commitment for the '70's.

They're dedicated to building their cars to run better and last longer than any they've ever built before.

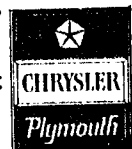

For example, every Chrysler-Plymouth car has a single, solid Unibody for strength and rigidity. And it's protected with layers of rust preventatives and a hard acrylic enamel paint. The exterior chrome trim is treated with their new micro-porous process to fight corrosion.

They're doing a lot of things like this to make their cars last longer because they believe that's the kind of car you want. And so does your new Chrysler-Plymouth Dealer.

That's why he's proud to back these cars with the service facilities and technicians that'll make you a satisfied customer.

That's why he's going all out to be the kind of dealer you want to come through for you. Stop by and see him soon.

Coming through with the kind of car America wants.

WEDDING RECEPTION IN HONOR OF MRS. A. OCHIONERO

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Occhionero

Phyllis Klingler, Former Chelsea Resident, Married in California

John's Catholic church in Mod. Calif., was the setting for a double ring ceremony in the Rev. Fr. William J. O'Connell's presence.

Phyllis Klingler, former resident of Chelsea, was married to Mr. Anthony J. Occhionero, son of Mrs. Delores Occhionero, of Cleveland, O., and the late Ralph Klingler.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Klingler chose a princess style dress of melon colored crepe with lace sleeves and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a yellow shantung dress with matching jacket and accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crockett of Gregory, and Mrs. Roland Wenk of Chelsea.

Following a honeymoon in Hawaii the newlyweds are at home at 4616 Birchwood Ave., Seal Beach, Calif.

Legion Auxiliary Will Have Gift Shop At VA Hospital

The monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Tuesday, Nov. 2 at Sylvan Town Hall with 15 members present.

It was announced that the Auxiliary would sponsor a gift shop in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Ann Arbor, Dec. 6 and 7. Any members who would like to work on those dates may contact Mrs. Ruth Chriswell.

The fact that volunteer workers are badly needed at the hospital was stressed.

Discussion was held on the Rummage Sale scheduled for Nov. 12 and 13 at Sylvan Town Hall, and hours of 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday, and 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Saturday were set.

A report on the Second District meeting held in Milan was given. It was reported that the Department President spoke on the fact that Russia was now ahead of the United States in defense materials and that it was urged that members write their congressmen making their wants known on the subject.

Magagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Marsh of Bloomfield Hills announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Ann, to Dennis White, of Mr. and Mrs. Chester White of Chelsea. Ann is a graduate of a high school and attended at Michigan University. Mr. Marsh is also a graduate of Chelsea High school, completed four years in the United States Air Force and is presently employed at the Instrument Co. A Dec. wedding is planned.

Club and Social Activities

SENIOR CITIZENS

Senior Citizens held their business meeting Oct. 28. Twelve members were present.

It was reported that seven members attended the October bing party at the Chelsea Medical Center, and that the Senior Citizens had presented 18 lap robes to the center in October.

Senior Citizens will hold social party Nov. 4 at 7:30 p.m. at Woods and Zita Hafner.

The November birthday party will be held Nov. 18 with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Serving on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Eisenmann and Mrs. August Jorner.

The business meeting will be held Nov. 30 at 7:30.

And, of course, every Friday night is fun night at the Korner House.

YOUNG HOMEMAKERS

Young homemakers Study group met Tuesday, Oct. 26 for their monthly meeting.

The members toured the holiday display at the Farm Council grounds.

The business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Joe Bauer. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bauer and co-hostess Mrs. Ron Satterthwaite.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Ken Haist.

The next meeting will be a Christmas Auction for members and guests at the Lima Community Hall, Nov. 18.

Convenience Foods Cost More But Offer Time Savings

"Many of the foods we buy offer built-in services," says Helen Fairman, Washtenaw County Extension home economist. "They might be pre-cleaned, peeled, mixed and/or cooked."

Some convenience foods cost more, some about the same and some even less than similar foods prepared at home, she says. A USDA survey conducted in Washington, D.C., revealed these comparisons:

Each of four commercially prepared, frozen, ready-to-heat plate dinners — meat loaf, beef, fried chicken and turkey — costs more than its home-fixed counterpart. The costs ranged from about 25 percent higher for the beef dinner to 110 percent higher for the chicken.

These costs are based on home-prepared dinners with the same amount of meat, potatoes, and second vegetable as the commercial dinners, Mrs. Fairman points out. The price of both, however, may vary greatly with different cuts of the same meat.

The cost of frozen main dishes varies with the brand, according to the survey. For example, in Washington stores one brand of beef pie cost twice as much while another cost about the same as a beef pie made from a home recipe. Usually, the more expensive brand contains more meat.

Preparation methods also make a cost difference, the home economist says. Frozen chicken chow mein was found to cost between 20 percent and 80 percent more than the home product. Canned chow mein was only 7 percent more.

The baked goods category showed the most variation between convenience and home-prepared costs, she says. Frozen waffles cost three times as much as homemade waffles; but canned, ready-to-bake biscuits were only one-third more than home-made ones. Ready-to-eat apple pie was about 80 percent over the home baked price, but ready-to-eat brownies and sugar cookies were about the same.

Comparisons like these (which can also be done by individual consumers) aren't meant to prevent homemakers from spending more on convenience foods, Mrs. Fairman points out. Instead, comparison shopping keeps you from spending more for convenience than you intend.

Available time, cooking skills and the desired size of servings may be more important than cost of the food.

Americans are cottage cheese lovers. We ate more than five pounds per person last year.

DEATHS

John F. Lindow

Retired Farmer Dies in Arizona Hospital at 97

John F. Lindow, 96, 600 Freer Rd., died Oct. 27 in St. Luke's Hospital, Phoenix, Ariz., where he had been a patient for approximately three weeks.

Born Nov. 16, 1874 in Brezen, Germany, he was the son of Christian and Sophia Bruckman Lindow.

He married Hattie A. Heidelemyer July 1, 1913 in Detroit. She died Sept. 30, 1969.

The Lindows came to Chelsea from Livonia in 1928. He farmed at 600 Freer Rd. until one year ago when he moved to Phoenix to live with his son, Herbert.

Mr. Lindow was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Ann Arbor.

He is survived by two sons, Elmer of Chelsea, and Herbert of Phoenix, Ariz.; four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday, Nov. 1 at 1 p.m. in the Stefan Funeral Home with the Rev. Norbert Mueller and the Rev. Carl Brauer officiating. Burial followed in Grand Lawn Cemetery, Detroit.

Rev. Lloyd F. Merrell

Widely Known Throughout Michigan for His Poetry

The Rev. Lloyd F. Merrell, 84, a retired Methodist clergyman, died at the Chelsea United Methodist Home Saturday evening, Oct. 30, after a long illness. He had been a resident of the Home since Aug. 4, 1969.

Born Sept. 13, 1887 in Princeville, Ill., he was a son of the Rev. Frank and Amelia Parsons Merrell. He received his education at Northwestern University, the University of Michigan and Albion College, and had spent 46 years in the Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church. He had served churches in many locations throughout the Conference area. A poet as well as an ordained Methodist clergyman, he had published three books of poetry and was writing a fourth at the time of his death.

On Jan. 1, 1914 he was married to Lillie Ollmann at Amboy, Ill. She survives, and is a resident of the Methodist Home. Also surviving are four sons, the Rev. Roger W. Merrell of Milford, Merrell E. Merrell of Jackson, Calif., and Robert L. Merrell of Richmond; one daughter, Mrs. William (Madelina) Burnson of South Holland, Ill.; 21 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Other survivors include two brothers, Llewellyn Merrell of Evanston, Ill., and Dwight Merrell of Arkansas, and one sister, Mrs. Fred (Violet) Gibson of Mt. Prospect, Ill. Another brother, the Rev. Morton Merrell, preceded his brother in death.

The Rev. Merrell was a member of Hiram Lodge, F&AM of Flat Rock. He had also served as a scoutmaster in the Boy Scouts of America in various towns where they had lived, including Pinconning, Hermanville and Bay Port.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 3 at the Chelsea United Methodist Home Chapel with the Rev. Richard Clemans and Dr. John Morgan of Adrian officiating. Burial followed in Hillcrest Memorial Park in Jackson. Funeral arrangements were made by the Burghardt Funeral Home. Those desiring to do so may make memorial contributions in his memory to the Chelsea United Methodist Home Memorial Fund.

NEW MEETING PLACE of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club is the Fair Service Center, located on the Chelsea Community Fair Grounds. The club held its first meeting in the Center Monday night. Speaker at the well-attended gathering was Don Turner who showed and narrated one of his films entitled, "Beyond Our Door-step." Featured in the film, which stressed the need for good conservation practice, were squirrels, sandhill cranes, geese, and other wildlife found in the Chelsea area.

Debate Team Participates in JCC Tourney

Chelsea's varsity debate team one of 22 teams participating in a varsity debate tournament held at Jackson Community college Saturday, Oct. 30, won three and lost three, one of their least spectacular showings of the season.

Debating for Chelsea were negative speakers Chick Lane and Dan Gaunt and affirmative speakers Mike Hergert and Donna Clark, who made her first varsity appearance of the year.

Negative speaker Mike Hergert was the winner of the fifth place speaker trophy awarded during the tournament.

Chelsea's novice and junior varsity debaters, however, had a perfect record in this year's first ABC novice and JV league meet held in Jackson last Monday.

Chelsea was the only school to remain undefeated in both divisions as the debaters took a firm hold on first place with 4-0 records in each division.

Debating for Chelsea in the JV division were Jeff Sprague, and Carol Fairbrother, affirmative, and Janice Schramm and Betsy Belser, negative. Janice was the only debater on the JV team not new to debate this year.

Novice debaters were Neil Bollinger and Pat Ball, affirmative, and Polly Van Slambrouck and Jennifer Lane, negative.

Other schools debating in the ABC league are Jackson Parkside, Jackson High school, Homer, Springport, and Parma Western. Four more Monday meetings of the league are scheduled before the end of the year, with the next meet set for Nov. 8.

DR. PAUL J. GERHART

Interim Pastor Will Serve Congl. Church

Dr. Paul J. Gerhart, an ordained minister of the United Church of Christ, will serve as the interim minister at the First Congregational church until a successor to the Rev. Daniel Kellin can be found.

The Rev. Kellin resigned from the Chelsea church Oct. 31 to serve as pastor of the Ascutney, Vt. Union Church.

A native of Pennsylvania, Dr. Gerhart has resided in Michigan since 1957. He has served as pastor of churches in Pennsylvania, and Albion and Detroit, in addition to filling various interim pastoral assignments in Michigan.

A graduate of Lebanon Valley College and Lancaster Theological Seminary in Pennsylvania, he also holds a PhD degree in Adult Education from the University of Michigan where he is a conference co-ordinator for the U. of M. extension service.

Mrs. Gerhart is a registered nurse, and a graduate of Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Md. The Gerharts have two children. They reside at 2062 Yorktown Dr., Ann Arbor.

UNICEF Nets $326 in Drive For Child Aid

Chelsea residents donated approximately $326 to the UNICEF campaign held Oct. 24, about $62 more than last year, Mrs. Jerald Beaumont, head of the Church Women United sponsored drive, announced today.

"We were extremely pleased with the response we got this year," Mrs. Beaumont said.

"If the UNICEFers missed you, and you wish to contribute something to help the millions of children in developing countries who depend on the fund," Mrs. Beaumont added, send your contributions to me at 335 Washington St."

The UNICEF collection of wrappers and seals from seven selected products will end Friday, Nov. 12.

Collection boxes will remain in Dancer's window, the McKune Memorial Library and Stop & Shop through that day. The makers of the products included in the list have agreed to contribute money to UNICEF in exchange for the following items:

Front panels from Birds Eye vegetables.

Empty outer wrappers from Clark gum.

Ingredient panels from the back of Hunt's Snack Pack cartons.

Empty Kool-Aid packages.

Support UNICEF seals from Peter Paul candy.

Fals or Fals Plus Iron vitamins box tops.

Labels from any Welch's jam, jelly or preserves.

Frosh Gridders Lose to S. Lyon

The Chelsea freshmen played South Lyon at home last Tuesday, and lost a hard-fought contest by a score of 13 to 6.

The game, marred by first half penalties and fumbles, was a real defensive struggle. Neither team was able to generate an offensive drive during the first half, and a threatened South Lyon field goal fell short on the last play of the second quarter.

After the smoke from the half-time equipment shed blaze cleared in the third quarter, both Chelsea and South Lyon started to move. A quarterback keep around Chelsea's left side netted the first South Lyon touchdown, but Chelsea's Ron Collins scampered 80 yards after taking the Lions' kick for a Chelsea TD which evened the score at 6-6.

The Lions took control late in the third quarter however, scoring on a 60 yard punt return after five Bulldogs tacklers hit the ball carrier to no avail. The extra point kick was good, and South Lyon led 13 to 6.

Chelsea threatened late in the quarter, but couldn't make the score. A pass from Perry Johnson on the South Lyon 20 yard line to Terry Ellenwood in the end zone was broken up, and the game ended.

The loss was the third in a row for the freshman gridders, and evened their record at 3-3.

CONSUMERS' CORNER

How can the quality of frozen food be protected?

To get the most satisfaction from the wide selection of frozen food sold today, family food shoppers are advised to protect the quality of frozen foods by keeping them cool enough and using them soon enough.

Storage at zero degrees or lower is recommended. At temperatures above zero, chemical changes in the food cause rapid loss of color, flavor, texture, and nutritive value.

If the temperature of the home freezer or freezing compartment is above zero, keep frozen foods no longer than a few days before using.

To prevent thawing, it pays to buy frozen foods last on a shopping tour. Carry them home in an insulated bag or use one paper bag inside of another.

Once they reach home, new purchases should be placed toward the back or bottom of the freezer compartment, so that older packs will be used first.

For large quantities of frozen food, it helps to write the date of purchase on each package, and also to keep a record of each package in the freezer, showing the date it went in and when it should be used.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

KINDERGARTEN—

Mr. Packard, teacher

We have had two children bring a taste show and tell. Dary brought each a peanut in the shell. We felt it and talked about it before we ate. We discovered the outside shell is rough and the peanut is smooth. There are usually two peanuts in each shell. Spot Richardson brought a cut up sugar beef. No one could guess what it was even when we tasted it. Some didn't like it but some thought it was good.

We enjoyed having Marsha come from the high school and talk to us about safety rules.

Scott R. brought some bulbs and Mrs. Winkle brought us some so we will be planting them in front of our room. In the Spring we hope to have pretty flowers to look at. We have more space if anyone has extra bulbs.

David Lane brought his cat, batha, to spend the day. Betsy mom and dad brought Missy their Dalmation to see us. She was all "polka dot" they decided.

We have learned all our shapes and have made things out of them. Everything has a shape.

We've cleaned out pumpkins and many saved some seed, to be planted or dried, salted and eaten.

Hanging pumpkins, costumes, black cats, witches and bats decorate our room for Halloween.

Roshelle Neeley and Fabia Faircloth have had birthdays this month.

We have finger painted right on the table! When we are finished the picture is put on paper to take home. That's fun!

We hope lots of fathers save Nov. 6 morning to come and help on our playground. We want some equipment like the older children have.

FIRST GRADE—

Mrs. White, Mrs. Stein and Mrs. Peebles, teachers

The highlights of October were the smell of apples cooking as we made applesauce and the excitement of getting ready for Halloween.

With Mrs. Winkle and Mrs. Walton leading them, the children appointed to the Beautification Committee met and discussed some ways to make the school grounds more beautiful. They decided to plant bulbs outside their classrooms. The first graders have planted some bulbs, and hope to plant some more.

First graders appointed to the Beautification Committee are: Joe Albrecht, Harold Bable, Sharon Buckenberger, Todd Guenther, John Smith and Jayne Weinberg.

We welcomed two new first graders to North school this month, they are Kimberly O'Quinn and Dallas Cole.

October birthdays were celebrated by: Tamara Cordin, Felicia Passow, Christopher Seitz and Kim Williams.

Mrs. Peebles' room showed the film "Mack Way for Ducklings" to the other first grade classes.

Dawn Murphy brought in five pumpkins from her pumpkin patch. Kim Boyd, Ernie Bristle and Neil Quigg also brought pumpkins to Mrs. Peebles.

In Mrs. Stein's room, Michael Galbraith brought in the story of Prouth Pumpkin by Nora, University of John Greene shared two books of a new kind called "Magic Motion" books. Damon Mark brought in a pumpkin from his garden.

Bonnie Faircloth shared something special with the children in Mrs. White's class: a Mexican sombrero. Andrew Simon showed the children some turtle shells. Amy Hume brought in a doll from Spain. David French grew his own pumpkin and gave it to his class for Halloween.

An especially good television program this month was "The Travels of the Monarch X" by Ross Hutchins. We all enjoyed

"I REMEMBER"

BY THE OLD TIMER

From Helen Sheridan, Lancaster, Calif.: One of the funniest things I remember from my childhood was something that happened when I was about seven and there was a contraption created by the Devil!

I was an orphan, living with Auntie and Uncle Dick, on a farm in Vermont.

The road to the village went through a place, called "The Dugway" for obvious reasons. A sheer drop to a river on one side and a steep hill on the other.

Anyway, coming home one day we met a CARI The horse reared. Auntie screamed. I sat petrified. Uncle Dick jumped out and grabbed the bride. Auntie went over the wheel and ran in front of the car and tried to scramble up the bank.

Anyway, the car went on: the horse calmed; but Auntie was still hanging onto a root that stuck out from the bank.

VODDOO

17 Killed in 1970-71 School Bus Accidents and learned a lot of things we didn't know about Monarch butterflies.

Hope your October was as much fun as ours.

SECOND GRADE—

Mrs. Walton, teacher

We've been running timed 50-yard dashes and a 400-yard dash in gym class.

We're getting ready for Open House, and for our Halloween party. We've been making decorations for our room, writing stories, and trying to do our work neatly.

Todd and Juanita had birthdays in October. Kirk and Tobin will have a birthday early in November.

Johnny brought a pheasant claw for us to see. We have three gold fish in our room now.

* * *

Mrs. Haka's, teacher

Bobby Pritchard had five stitches in his head after being hit by a stone. Melissa Arnett, Kefyn Pierce, Mark Machesky and Andy Castle had birthdays in October.

Renee Satterthwaite and Kevin Bell brought us pumpkins which we made into jack-o'-lanterns.

Paul Haydock and Jeff Cox saw three of the astronauts at the University of Michigan football game.

We are happy to have a new classmate, Deanna Ramey, in our room. Laura Hines brought some tulip bulbs to plant. Steve Graub brought in a cactus, so we could see and feel how prickly desert plants are. We learned that desert plants grow these spines to protect themselves from being eaten.

We were very busy getting ready for open house. We were pleased to have so many families visit us.

Today our thoughts are filled with Halloween. We are going trick and treating as witches, fairies, skeletons, ghosts, hippies, clowns and pirates. Hope we don't frighten you too much!

Ypsilanti Recreation Commission Appointed to Hunt

JESSE A. RUTHERFORD

Hunters Urged To Ask Farm Owner First

Michigan farmers will host nearly half a million hunters this fall, as an estimated 600,000 sportsmen take to the woods and fields in search of birds, deer and other game.

B. Dale Ball, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, points out that "our state has almost 12 million acres of farmland, and much of it is used for hunting." In addition, Michigan has about 20 million acres of woodland, and over 60 percent is privately owned, mostly by farmers.

"Hunting on private property is a privilege, not a right," Ball said. "Farmers' woodlots and fields provide a valuable recreational resource. Its availability depends to a great degree on the attitude and actions of those who invade it for sport."

"Many farmers share a love of hunting, and welcome city and suburban sportsmen to their land," Ball remarked, "as long as hunters don't damage crops or livestock."

Ball urged sportsmen to "ask permission at the farmhouse before you go into the fields. You'll often be rewarded with information on where crops are planted, where livestock is pastured, and you may even learn where the best deer game is located."

"Many farmers rely on fences to protect their livestock and crops," Ball explained. "Careless hunters can cause severe damage; they have even been cases where a big buck fell by a mirror turned out to be a dead cow."

Marked chances are ahead for

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

November 2, 1971

Regular Session.

This meeting was called to order by President Fulks at 8:00 p.m. Present: President Fulks, Clerk Harvey, Administrator Weber, Trustees: Borton, Gorton, Musbach, Dmoch, Boylan and Chandler. There were also twenty-four village residents present for all or part of the meeting.

A public hearing was held to consider a request for rezoning of Lot 2, Block 16 of Elisha Congdon's Third Addition from R-2 Residential to Transitional Residential - Office District.

A discussion was held with residents in the area regarding the request of rezoning. Some objection to the rezoning was heard because of parking and possible traffic congestion.

Motion by Chandler, supported by Dmoch, to adopt a resolution approving the request to rezone property located at 323 South Main Street being described as Lot 2, Block 16, of Elisha Congdon's Third Addition from R-2 Residential to Transitional Residential - Office District and to amend the zoning map giving a part of Ordinance No. 55 (Village Zoning Ordinance). Roll call: Yeas—Borton, Musbach, Dmoch, Boylan and Chandler. Nays—Gorton. Motion carried.

A discussion was held with Brad Smith, owner of Smith's Service, 1180 South Main Street, regarding the storage of wrecked and abandoned automobiles and trucks. No action was taken at this time to allow time for further study and investigation.

A request was received from Our Saviour Lutheran Church for a variance to Section 4.03 of Ordinance No. 55 (Zoning Ordinance).

and to erect a sign larger than provided for in a R-1 Residential Zoned District. The request was referred to the Planning Commission for a recommendation.

Motion by Boylan, supported by Borton, to authorize and direct the Clerk to issue checks in payment of bills as submitted. General Fund, $1,788.58; M-51 Major Street and Trunkline Fund, $30.00. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Dmoch, supported by Boylan, to adjourn. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.

RESOLUTION TO AMEND ORDINANCE
NO. 55 OF THE VILLAGE OF CHELSEA

BE IT RESOLVED AND IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, after public hearing held by the Village Planning Commission and Chelsea Village Council, pursuant to notices previously given in accordance with the statute, proof of service thereon having been filed and in accordance with the recommendation of the Village Planning Commission, the zoning map as presently constituted in Ordinance No. 55 and all other amendments thereto, to be changed to constitute the area hereinafter described as "Transitional Residential-Office District," which prior hereto was zoned "R-2-Residential District."

The re-zoned premises are described as follows:

Lot Two (2), Block Sixteen (16) of Elisha Congdon's Third Addition to the Village of Chelsea, according to the recorded plat thereof. (Parcel located at the north-east quadrant of South Main and East Summit Streets.)

The foregoing resolution was adopted at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Village Council held November 2, 1971.

Hunters Urged To Ask Farm Owner First

Nearby farmers will, however, half a million hunters this fall, as an estimated 600,000 sportsmen take to the woods and fields in search of birds, deer and other game.

B. Dale Ball, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, points out that "our state has almost 12 million acres of farmland, and much of it is used for hunting." In addition, Michigan has about 20 million acres of woodland, and over 60 percent is privately owned, mostly by farmers.

"Hunting on private property is a privilege, not a right," Ball said. "Farmers' woodlots and fields provide a valuable recreational resource. Its availability depends to a great degree on the attitude and actions of those who invade it for sport."

"Many farmers share a love of hunting, and welcome city and suburban sportsmen to their land," Ball remarked, "as long as hunters don't damage crops or livestock."

Ball urged sportsmen to "ask permission at the farmhouse before you go into the fields. You'll often be rewarded with information on where crops are planted, where livestock is pastured, and you may even learn where the best deer for game is located."

"Many farmers rely on fences to protect their livestock and crops," Ball explained. "Careless hunting can cause severe damage; there have even been cases where a big buck felled by a nimrod turned out to be a dead cow."

Marked changes are ahead for food retailers before the end of the 1970's. This is the way some crystal ball gazers see it: The trend toward larger stores located in shopping centers will continue, and stores will be more elaborate and complex, carrying many items other than food. The advent of in-home shopping (through use of cable TV), may be common before 1980.

"I REMEMBER"
BY THE OLD TIMER

From Helen Sheridan, Lancaster, Calif.: One of the funniest things I remember from my childhood was something that happened when I was about seven and my car was a contraption created by the Devil.

I was an orphan, living with Auntie and Uncle Dick, on a farm in Vermont.

The road to the village went through a place, called "The Dugway" for obvious reasons. A sheep trod to a river on one side and a steep hill on the other.

Anyway, coming home one day we met a CAR! The horse reared, Auntie screamed, I sat petrified, Uncle Dick jumped out and grabbed the bridle. Auntie went over the wheel and ran in front of the car and tried to scramble up the bank.

Anyway, the car went on: the horse calmed; but Auntie was still hanging onto a root that stuck out from the bank.

VOODOO

Haiti's countryfolk see little conflict between Christianity and voodoo. The Great Master, they say, shouldn't be bothered with little problems. Reverently asking his permission before starting a Saturday night ceremony, they set down to cases with deities whose job it is to take care of everyday matters: crops, sickness, love, money.

Marked changes are ahead for ood retailing before the end of the 1970's. This is the way some crystal ball gazers see it: They trend toward larger stores located in shopping centers will continue and stores will be more elaborated and complex, carrying many items other than food. The advent of in-home shopping (through use of cable TV) may be common before 1980.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sirs,
Here's the newsy letter I promised:

Kalamazoo College has four study centers in France. There are 16 students studying in Aix. We flew here on an Air France 747. Aix has a population of around 80,000. There are over 10,000 French students in town going to the different universities. There is very little industry in Aix.

All students from Kalamazoo are living with French families. This allows the French culture to be absorbed quite easily. I'm living with the same family that Jim Cameron of Freer Rd. lived with four years ago. A tennis friend from Kalamazoo is rooming with me.

We eat with our family except for lunch. Breakfast is rather skimpy, just cocoa and bread with jam and butter. Supper is just the opposite, it's huge and it's good. For lunch we are on our own, usually I just buy food like fruit and cheese from some near-by food stores.

Our house is a couple of kilometers in the country, so both my roommate and I bought small motorbikes. They are really just good bikes with a small motor attached. They can go 35 mph. The French people use this type of motorbike much more than Americans use bicycles. "Moby-Lettes," as they are called, are used mostly in going into town. Streets are narrow in the center of the old towns, and these bikes are a little smaller than the cars, although all European cars are smaller than American ones.

I'm taking five courses at an Institute for American Universities, two in French and three in English. My French is improving slowly but surely—living with a French family helps.

Between our house and the Institute there's a tennis club with seven good red clay courts. I can, and do, play as often as I wish. It's a good way to meet French people.

I'm not traveling much right now. On each Saturday I go on an art excursion to the local towns. During Christmas vacation, I think I'm going to visit Norway and Sweden although my plans are just tentative. I have an Eurail pass for the European trains. School gets out in mid or late January, and I'll travel for around a month before coming back to the states for the upcoming tennis season.

If you have any questions that I have not answered, please write.
Tom Thomson.

Dear Community,
I noticed how some of you people complain about how the kids in Chelsea are going bad. You never stop to look at the filthy magazines sitting on the store racks that anybody old enough to read can walk in and pollute their minds with. You shake your head when you hear a 12-year-old kid walking down Main St. cursing his head off. You wonder why, when some of the police themselves, who are trying to help the community, swear every other word and the sad part about it is that they don't even realize they are doing it!

You look at a kid with long hair and right away a lot of you condemn him and call him a dope addict. A lot of these kids are looking for love and happiness that they never had before and so they try anything they can get their hands on to find it, but they don't.

All I want to say is, people you've got to clean up yourself before you can clean up others. You've got to clean up your own hearts before you can help clean others. You can clean up all the slums in New York but they'll end up right back where they started because the people's hearts that lived in them didn't change. I and a lot of other people found only one way to do this cleaning up and changing of heart. The answer is Jesus Christ. I tried to find it in material things. That didn't work. I tried to find the true way of life and happiness through drugs. That didn't work either. Finally I found what I was looking for. I found real happiness. I found what peace really is. And I found eternal life. Jesus set me free and gave me real life, love and peace. I used to hate everybody I looked at but now I love everybody, with real love. What I am really trying to say is, I have found Him to be the only answer to this world. Just trust him with your life and see.

If you really mean business you'll get results. But don't play games with God. He never loses. Sure, you will still have problems and always will as long as you live on earth, but your problems will even seem beautiful because Jesus will help you take care of them.

So parents, I ask you to please let Christ into your lives and give your children His love as well as yours. It's better than having them find out the hard way. God sent his only son to die for us. To give us life and happiness eternally. Won't you trust God. You can't buy happiness. His way is free.

I love you all through Christ.
Eric Policht.

To the Editor:

There is legislation pending which, if carried, will severely restrict canoeing on the Au Sable, Manistee, Pine and Pere Marquette rivers. If you are concerned, it is necessary that prompt action be carried out to inform the Department of Natural Resources of your objection. A meeting of the DNR is called for Dec. 1 in Lansing to consider such objections.

People who canoe, or feel that this is one more step by an encroaching bureaucracy which should be stopped, are requested to send a postcard or letter to Canoeist, in care of The Chelsea Standard, so that the DNR may be informed of your feelings.

As a further outcome of this matter if sufficient people are interested we could form a Chelsea Canoe Club to promote the sport as well as better enjoy the facilities which do exist in this area.

COSTUME CONTEST WINNERS: Some real weird characters may be seen around Oct. 31 every year, and 60 of them could be found at the St. Louis school Thursday, Oct. 28, the night of the school's big Halloween bash. Winners of the costume contest at the school were Joe Vitale, Mike Randall and Mark Dew. In addition to the costume judging there were games, and, of course, refreshments of candy, cider, donuts and apples.

St. Louis School Boys Treated to Halloween Party

Ghosts and goblins, tramps, clowns and other assorted spooks attended the Halloween party held last Thursday at the St. Louis School for Exceptional Boys sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Gary Albrecht of Waterloo Rd.

The Halloween party started at 7 p.m. with a parade around the school, followed by a sack race, a marble race, a game of musical chairs, bobbing for apples, costume judging, and refreshments of apples, donuts, cider, popcorn and candy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner donated the cider, and Mrs. Norm Colvin furnished the large pumpkins used for decoration.

Judging the costumes were Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce and Joe Vitale, all of Detroit. Mr. Pierce donated the candy bars given to all the boys.

Early Corn Harvest Yields Down Slightly in Some Areas

Final reports from major Michigan corn producing counties indicate that per acre corn yields will be slightly below normal this year.

According to scientists at the Michigan State University Corn Light Information Center, this year's yield reduction is due to the unusually dry season rather than early blight diseases. Total yields for the state, however, will be about equal to last year, and no shortage of corn is anticipated.

Leaf blight causing organisms were widely distributed throughout the state this year, and are still present in all corn producing areas even though there hasn't been any danger of reduced yields due to blight since the first week of September.

The harvest of corn for grain is now underway in many areas of the state, especially where grain drying facilities are available.

Outbreaks of the European corn borer presented no problems for Michigan farmers this year, according to county agent reports. Borer populations have remained stable at slight to moderate levels since early in the season.

Late reports from Co-operative Extension agents and from MSU corn disease experts indicate that stalk rots and red root rot could still present problems in unharvested corn fields. If these fungus diseases—which have increased steadily in the past two weeks—are accelerated by the recent wet weather, infected corn fields may be highly susceptible to lodging (downed plants) in the event of light and moderate winds.

Studying the Bible may not end warfare but it will improve human beings.

Gridders of the Week

STEVE BERGMAN (85), a junior end, is playing his fourth year of football this year, his last on the varsity. He's a member of the choir, and likes to hunt in the fall and go ice fishing in the winter. An active member of his church, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints, he is a home teacher, a member of the church choir, and secretary of the MIA youth group. He plans to enter the service, probably the Army, following his graduation from high school, and will then go to college to major in physical education. Steve worked this summer as a mechanic for Palmer Ford, and now works on Saturdays helping Wally Grossman with the school bus maintenance. Steve has three sisters and one brother, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Bergman, 15642 Cavendish Lake Rd.

RANDY YOUNG (54), a junior center, has played football for four years, and is playing his first season of varsity ball this fall. He played golf last spring, and thinks he will go out for the sport again this year. Randy likes to fish, ride his Suzuki trail bike, and has traveled extensively with his family. He worked at the Dairy Queen last summer and may again this year. He plans to go to college, but has not yet chosen a school or a major field of interest. He has one brother, Tom, and one sister, Patty, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, 418 McKinley.

4-H District Program Planning Workshop Stated Next Tuesday

The Chelsea district 4-H program planning workshop will be held Tuesday, Nov. 9 at Chelsea High School, room 113. During the evening, which will start at 7:45 p.m., a 35-minute tape of three different leadership approaches to planning and conducting 4-H club programs will be shown and discussed. The workshop will also feature a model demonstration of "how to do an effective demonstration."

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Being Tough . . .

More often than not, someone tells a lie with the three words, "I don't care." When a victory is lost, when a dream goes up in smoke, we turn our back and tell the world that it doesn't make any difference. For some reason, we want the world to think that we are "tough," that we can take it. What we forget is that it is possible to be "tough" and honest at the same time. We can say, "Yes, I wanted to win. I wanted that dream. I didn't get it, but I shall try again."

To be tough is not to be indifferent. It is to be persistent. It is to carry on.

To be tough is to avoid the easy way, the quick gain at the expense of others.

To be tough is to adopt a personal code of conduct that doesn't change when someone says, "why not?" or reminds that "everyone does it."

To be tough is to care about the important things of life and show that you care in everything you do.

TYPICAL?—Winners in the "Most Typically Halloween" category of the Kiwanis-sponsored costume contest held Saturday, Oct. 30, were Kristie Centilli, who dressed as a witch, 1st; Linda, Debra and Matt Monroe, who came as a trio of devils, 2nd; and little Amy Hume, a smiling Halloween pumpkin, 3rd. Amy seems delighted to be in the spotlight, but Matt appears puzzled by all the attention.

Mill Creek Area Residents Consider Plans Against Park

Lima Community Hall was filled nearly to capacity again last Wednesday night, as concerned residents gathered to consider possible steps to block the Mill Creek park proposed by the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA).

It was the first public meeting held by the Mill Creek Research Council (MCRC) since the Washenaw County Board of Commissioners gave its stamp of approval to the proposed park on Oct. 12. During the meeting, the MCRC decided to take a mail vote of its entire paid membership to determine whether legal assistance should be engaged at this time to study the legal possibilities of stopping the park.

David Bacon, chairman of MCRC's board of directors, presided at the meeting, and reviewed the activities of both government agencies relative to the park plans, as well as those of MCRC. Bacon said that he believes that there is still a possibility of stopping the park through political pressure and legal action.

Bacon, who has attended all but one of the HCMA board meetings during the last year, said that he also does not believe that HCMA is financially able to undertake the large-scale land purchases demanded for the development of the park at this time.

While HCMA has appropriated funds for title search, land appraisals, and an aerial topographical survey of the Mill Creek site, the agency has not yet approved any funds for land purchase, Bacon said.

Mill Creek is only one of three park possibilities currently being studied by HCMA. Also under consideration are an as yet undiscussed site in Oakland county and a site in Ray township in Macomb county. County approval of the Macomb county site was given almost before residents in Ray knew the site was even under consideration, Bacon said.

In addition to the three possible sites, HCMA has also been given the opportunity to take over the operation of Belle Isle in Detroit. HCMA plans for Belle Isle would require $40 million, and additional funding.

HCMA receives approximately $5.6 million a year from the 1/4 mill voted them by the five-county area early in the 1940's, and it plans to seek approval of an additional 1/4 mill levy sometime in the near future—probably during the August, 1972 primary, Bacon said.

Jim Wojcicki on Hope College Varsity Grid Team

Jim Wojcicki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wojcicki, 716 Taylor and a freshman at Hope College, is a starting defensive half-back on the Hope football team.

Wojcicki, who stands 5-10 and weighs 165 lbs., was a quarterback at Chelsea high school.

He is also on the punt and kick-off return teams at Hope. He is averaging 20.7 yards per kickoff return.

Hope is currently tied for first place in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association with a 2-1 record. The Flying Dutchmen are 3-3 over-all.

Bake Shoppe Now Open On W. Middle

Chelsea residents with a hankering for pies, cakes, donuts, sweet rolls, cookies and decorated cakes, will welcome the opening of The Bake Shoppe, the first bakery shop in Chelsea in a number of years.

The Bake Shoppe, located at 107 W. Middle, is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pace of Parma, and managed by Glenn Allen of Chelsea. Staffed by two full-time and two part-time employees, in addition to Allen, the Bake Shoppe opened for the first time last Saturday.

The goods sold at the Shoppe, including peanut butter pie, are baked every night in Parma, and delivered in time for the Shoppe's 1:30 a.m. opening Monday through Saturday. The Shoppe is open until 7:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and Saturday, with a 10 p.m. closing on Friday.

During the day, the Shoppe will not only sell baked goods for home consumption, but will also serve everything they sell, except the cakes, as well as coffee, milk, tea, hot chocolate and ice cream in the shop itself.

All the Bake Shoppe's products are available on a daily basis except the decorated cakes which must be ordered two days in advance of delivery, Allen said.

Today's most beautiful table models—all with 19" diagonal measure screens! A. Contemporary—model 6282. B. Early American—model 6284. C. Mediterranean styling—model 6286.

TAC is a complete electronic system that automatically keeps flesh tones natural and pictures sharp. No more jumping up and down to adjust controls... you'll get a perfectly-tuned picture—with the right colors—on every channel, every time! The new ultra-rectangular and ultra-bright Matrix Tube—unlike many others—has a black, opaque substance surrounding each color dot—resulting in far better picture contrast, sharpness and far more brightness. The new Magna-Power Chassis, with predominantly solid-state components, assures better performance and greater reliability. And—convenient Remote Control for UHF/VHF is optionally available, also at great savings. It lets you turn your set on/off, adjust volume and select stations—all from the comfort of your easy chair. It even automatically turns off your set after the station leaves the air!
