Help Needed To Complete Skating Rink

The 85 by 100 foot skating rink the Chelsea Community Fairgrounds came a bit closer to being a reality this week-end as volunteer workers recruited by Chelsea District Hockey Association (CDHA) assembled and started those all important boards. While only 15 to 20 volunteers participated in the work days, the quarters of the boards have been assembled and half of those assembled have been painted, when Loasby, one of the CDHA organizers, said.

Blood Bank Nets 93 Pints At Clinic

More than 90 pints of blood were donated to the Chelsea Blood Bank during the annual drive held last Friday at the Congregational church. One hundred twelve people appeared to donate blood during the six-hour clinic, and with 19 deferred for medical reasons, 93 pints of blood were actually collected. It was an excellent showing, Mrs. William Rademacher, co-ordinator of this year's drive said. Although 128 pints were collected in 1970, Chrysler employees participated in that drive. This year, Chrysler held an independent clinic, a fact reflected in the total donations to the Chelsea bank. Many Chelsea residents volunteered their help at the clinic again this year. Assisting in the operation of the clinic were Mrs. Dudley Holmes, Dr. Lawrence P. Newman of the Chelsea Medical Clinic, and nurses Mrs. Gerald Linebaugh, Gertrude Young, and Mrs. J. Wilbert Smith. Working at the bottle table were Mrs. Al Penhalligon, Mrs. Haskell Worden, Jr., Mrs. Alfred Weinman, and Mrs. Toivo Rihimäki. Escorting donors following (Continued on page six)

Bread Sale To Get 'Bread' For Choir Trip

Members of the Chelsea Festival Choir will be selling home-made bread this Saturday—and you can either buy a loaf in the downtown area, or have it delivered to your home. The bread sale, the first of several projects the choir will use to raise money for their trip to Nassau next April, will feature bread baked exclusively by choir members—both male and female. Choir members will deliver fresh baked bread to your door on Saturday morning, but orders for delivered bread must be placed by 5 p.m. Friday night. Both (Continued on page six)

First Snowfall Snarls Traffic On Freeway

Readers of the Farmer's Almanac and woolly-bear caterpillar watchers know that Tuesday's cold, nasty, slippery weather is just a sample of the winter ahead. Tuesday was awful. The first snow fall of the winter, accompanied by record low temperatures, apparently caught area drivers unprepared for slippery roads. Sheriff's deputies and Michigan State Police responded to numerous accident calls in the area between Jackson and Ypsilanti. A trailer-truck that jack-knifed at approximately 6:20 a.m. Tuesday on I-94 at the Katmbach Rd. exit caused a gigantic traffic snarl that lasted until the truck was cleared from the road around noon. Eastbound I-94 traffic was rerouted to Cavanaugh Lake Rd. then to Pierce Rd. and finally back to I-94 to circle the accident. Several other minor mishaps which occurred during the time the traffic was rerouted were also reported. And while the skies are now clear, and the temperatures are somewhat higher, it probably won't be long before Tuesday's weather becomes almost daily fare!

Varsity-Faculty Benefit Game Set

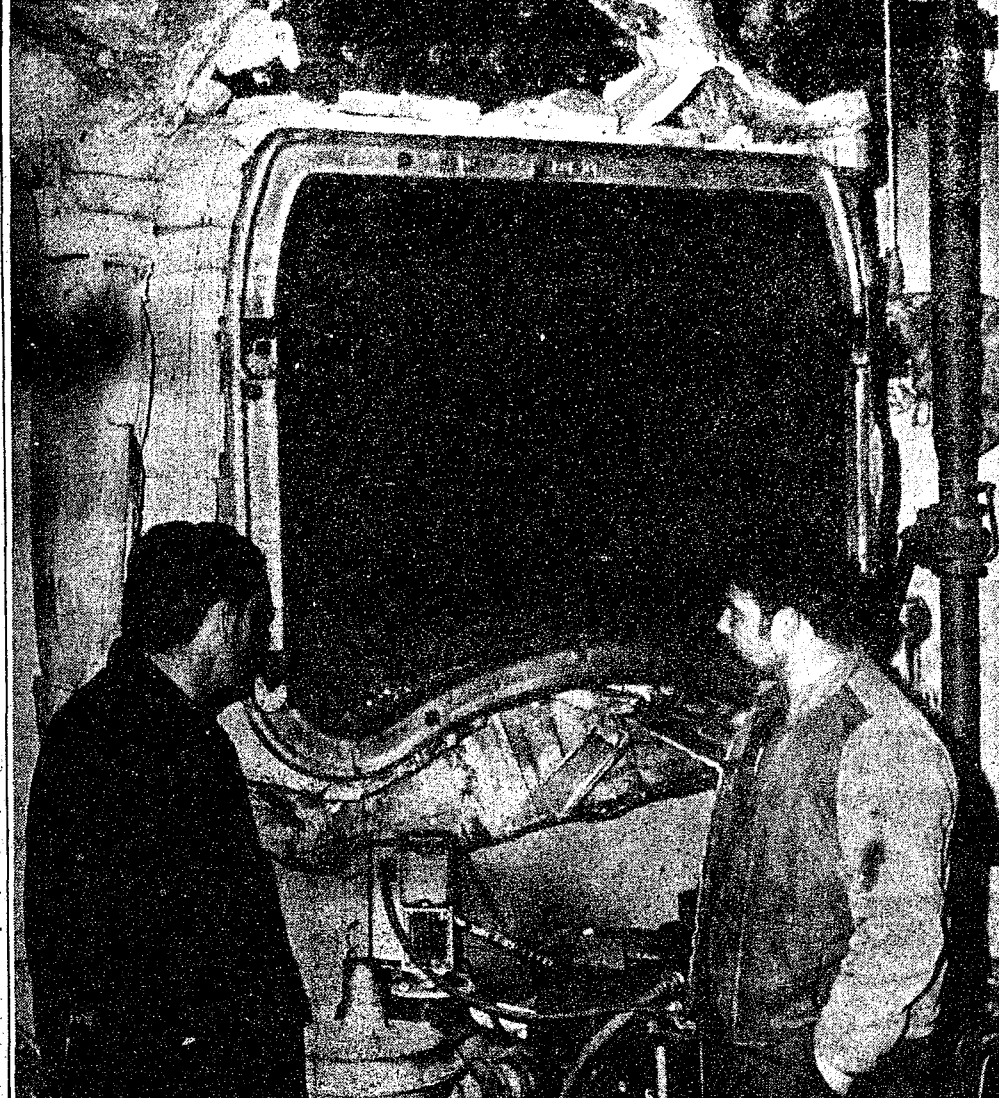

Pssst. There are rumors circulating that... Chelsea's Bulldogs may NOT be the No. 1 Class B team in the state. Apparently, a little-known but powerful team, carefully kept under wraps during the regular football season, has crept out of its locker room to challenge the mighty Bulldogs' title. The proud and confident Bulldogs have agreed that the matter should be settled—honorably—in one last post-season game. Thus, on Thursday, Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m. it will be the Varsity Bulldogs versus the Faculty Firebrands in a tough football classic which will benefit the Chelsea Baseball Clinic.

It may be the rockiest contest since David took on Goliath. The game will feature some things standard at Bulldog events, and a few things that are not. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students. The faculty team, coached by Paul Terpstra and Pat Wade, will be cheered on by female faculty members—dressed in cheerleaders' outfits, of course. Marti Hahn, Elaine Klatt, Nancy Corcoran, Judy Scott, Helen Bareis, Nancy Oswald, Kathy Hanke, Nancy Gilbreath, Janice Newhouse, Barbara Wenk, and June Winans will lead the faculty cheering section in favor of yells. Quarterbacking the faculty team will be Greg (could his middle name be Landry?) Harrison. Also in the lineup will be Phil Bareis, Richard Bareis, Jim Tallman, Jon Schaffner, Bill Bainton, Carl Genske, George Prinzing, Dennis Anderson, Mark Ruhlig, Ed Lauhon, Pat Clarke, Charles Waller, Randy Johnson, Bert Kruse, Al Smith, Bryce Fauble and Richard Lapanowski. The Bulldogs are keeping their game plan, coaches, and starting lineup a closely guarded secret at this time, and sources close to the varsity report they were unimpressed by the fact that their opposition planned to start practicing more than a week before the game. Varsity Co-Captain Tom McKernan said that while the faculty team did have greater experience than the varsity, he thought that the varsity probably had the edge in physical condition. "I think we're in better shape," McKernan said. But with the usual deference the undefeated Bulldogs have shown their opponents all season, McKernan refused to under-rate the faculty team, saying that he thought it could be a fairly close game. It's a chance to help the varsity baseball players with the $5,000 needed to support the trip to Florida for the clinic, and it's also a chance to find out who's calling George Prinzing "Little Alex," and why. Don't miss it.

Chest Fund Nears Goal

The Chelsea Community Chest had reached 95 percent of its $26,007 goal—$24,700—by Monday, Nov. 8, a little more than one week after the end of the official campaign period, and all the results are not yet in. "We expect now that we will actually reach our goal," James Hoffmeyer, campaign chairman said. "I hope that a week from now we can report that we've reached it." All the campaign workers were quite relieved by the news, Hoffmeyer said, adding that "When I told Board Chairman Gary Albrecht about it, he said the news (Continued on page six)

SURVEYING THE DAMAGE to one of the high school's two 600,000 BTU boilers caused by a furnace explosion Monday night are Ron Joseph (left) and Steve Dorr of the school's custodial staff. Dorr was in the boiler room at the time of the explosion, but was not injured in the blast. Apparently the explosion, which occurred at approximately 5 p.m. Monday, was caused by a faulty shut-off valve. Two 1/2-inch steel doors lined with refractory cement were blown off by the force of the blast, and half the windows in the boiler building were shattered, but there was no fire. No estimate of the damage or the cost of repair has yet been made. Business Manager Fred Mills said that all controls on both boiler units would be completely replaced.

Furnace Explosion Rocks Boiler Room

A furnace explosion, apparently caused by a faulty shut-off valve, caused extensive damage to one of the Chelsea High school's two 600,000 BTU boilers and the boiler building Monday evening. Steve Dorr, a Chelsea High school custodian, was in the boiler building at the time of the explosion, approximately 5 p.m. Monday, but was not injured. The force of the blast blew two steel doors lined with approximately two inches of cement off the boiler unit and broke half the windows in the building, but there was no fire. It was the second time in 10 years that the furnace had exploded. Chelsea School District Business Manager Fred Mills said that all controls on both boilers would be completely replaced. The two boilers heat the main building, the gym, the locker building and one or two smaller class room units. Although Mills said that he hoped the boiler could be repaired before extremely cold weather, he also noted that the buildings are

Bulldogs Win 4th Successive League Title

Great Team Effort Friday Night Shuts Out Milan for Perfect Season

Which team is... The number one Class B team in the state? The only undefeated team (8-0) in the Southeastern Conference? Winner of four consecutive conference titles? Chelsea's Bulldogs, of course! Chelsea proved it had the strength, depth and class to deserve all those honors by defeating the number two team, Milan, 31-0, in their second shut-out of the season last Friday before an overflow crowd at Niehaus Memorial Field. Chelsea was sooooo good they made Milan's Big Reds look positively over-ranked, a judgment not borne out by Milan's pre-Chelsea statistics. While praising both his offense and defense, Coach Phil Bareis gave most of the credit to Chelsea's out-standing defense. The defense cut the famed Patterson-Russell combination off with less than 100 yards Friday. Before meeting the Bulldogs, Patterson had been averaging 150 yards and two touchdown passes per game. Chelsea's strategy was to stop the Milan ground game. "We knew they didn't pass well, and we knew their quarterback didn't run much," Bareis said. "So we tried to stop the run, and we played them one-to-one on pass defense." The success of the tactic shows in the statistics—Milan had only three first downs all night (one on the first play of the game, one on a penalty, and one against the reserves in the fourth quarter); they gained only 106 yards rushing (as opposed to Chelsea's 257); gained only nine yards on passes; and were forced to punt seven times. Leading the unequalled Bulldog defense Friday was Co-Captain Tom McKernan. McKernan recovered one fumble and brought down Milan ball carriers 14 times. Also included on the defense were Jeff Hughes, who did an outstanding job on Chelsea's two punts, Tom Lixey, Ralph Stewart, Ed Koenigter, Randy Seitz, Bob Wojicki, Marty Cashdollar, Randy Brier, Dave Lukasiak and Mark Collins. Scoring for Chelsea started in the first period when Steve Knickerbocker kicked an amazing, wind-aided 43-yard field goal for Chelsea's first three points. Knickerbocker's field goal was only part of his outstanding performance that night. He booted five kick-offs into the Milan end zone, keeping the Big Red's with their backs to the wall throughout the game. Chelsea scored once in the second quarter on a perfect pass from Wayne Welton to Mark Collins deep in the end zone. Randy Seitz picked up the two-point conversion by recovering Mark Collins' fumble in the end zone, giving the Bulldogs an 11-0 lead at the half. Chelsea's second half scoring began after Tom Lixey blocked a Milan punt on their 12-yard line. Jeff Daniels picked up the loose ball and ran into the end zone for the TD. After another Knickerbocker kick through the end zone, Chelsea sea forced Milan into a fourth and one situation, and then took over as Milan failed to pick up the needed yardage. Three plays after taking possession, Chelsea's Welton passed to Jeff Hughes for 14 yards, and another TD. Knickerbocker kicked the extra point. And at the end of the third quarter Chelsea led, 24-0. Tim Lancaster, junior halfback, finished the scoring for Chelsea with less than four minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, following a pass interception on the Milan 37 by Dave Lukasiak. Lancaster ran 35 yards through six Milan tacklers for the score. The offensive line, led by Keith Pfeifle, sophomore Dave Tucker, and Jeff Daniels, did an excellent job on opening holes for the Bulldog backs, Bareis said. While Chelsea's conference title can't be touched, now that the league season is over, Chelsea will have what may be their toughest game of the season next Friday in Jackson. The Jackson North-West Mounties are also 8-0 this year and will, according to Coach Bareis "provide Chelsea with its biggest test of the year."

Methodists Seek $44,344 For Budget

A time of thanksgiving and commitment is the theme of the First United Methodist church financial crusade this year. The 1972 financial goal of $44,344 is 11 percent higher than last year. The budget break-down is as follows: general operating, $36,349, and benevolences, $9,995. Pledges will also be renewed for the parsonage debt retirement. The parsonage, which was purchased in 1970 at a cost of $45,000 will be entering the second year of a three-year debt retirement program. The parsonage was the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Donley Boyer and is located at 10 Sycamore Dr. A prayer vigil will be held Saturday, Nov. 20 from 2 to 6 p.m. in the church. All members are requested to provide prayerful support during this time. Worship services will be held Sunday, Nov. 21 at 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. to facilitate the completion of the financial and service commitments for 1972. After each service members and friends of the church will go to the newly-decorated social center to complete their individual pledge cards. Refreshments will be served by the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild. Members of the church who are not able to attend church worship service on Nov. 21 and have not been able to make arrangements to complete their pledging responsibilities will be visited Sunday afternoon by members of the administrative board and council on ministries. It is hoped that all pledging will be completed on Sunday, Nov. 21, thanksgiving and commitment Sunday. This year members will not only fill out a money pledging card or (Continued on page six)

UNICEF Fund Collection Hits Total of $402

The final figures are in, and Chelsea residents donated a record $402.65 to the UNICEF drive this year. Mrs. Gerald Beaumont, head of the Church Women United sponsored drive announced Monday. The collection of wrappers and labels for UNICEF will officially end on Saturday, Nov. 13. Additional money will be donated to UNICEF by the makers of seven products included on this list: Birds Eye vegetables (front panel); Clark gum and Smile sugarless gum (empty wrappers); Hunt's Snack Pack (ingredient panel from back); Peter Paul candy (support UNICEF seals); Pals or Pals Plus iron vitamins (box tops); and Welch's jam, jelly or preserves (labels). Collection boxes are still located in Dancer's window, Stop & Shop and McKune Memorial Library. Several rooms in South school are collecting labels for donation, and the St. Paul Junior high confirmation classes are having a three-way team race in label collections. Anyone with questions, or labels to be picked up, may call Mrs. Warner Siebert, 476-7307.

DOWNED: Mark Collins (24) gets nailed by the Milan defense after a short, first quarter run. Chelsea gained 257 yards rushing Friday night, holding Milan to 106, far below their pre-Chelsea average rushing gain. Stopping Milan's ground game was the key to stopping Milan, and Chelsea did it, winning, 31-0.

BULLDOG DEFENSE was the key to the whipping win over Milan Friday night. Here defensive backs Tom Lixey (42) and Joe Aspranti (32) drop Milan's Pat Snyder (32) as three more SKATING RINK WORK DAY: Volunteers, under the supervision of volunteer carpenters, spent Saturday and Sunday constructing and painting the boards for the skating and hockey rink now going up at the Chelsea Community Fairgrounds. Approximately 20 volunteer workers like Jaycees David Rowe, Dave Martin and Art Steinaway (foreground, left to right) got three-fourths of the boards assembled and half of those assembled painted. Volunteers will be at it again this week-end at the Fairgrounds, finishing the construction of the boards, and beginning to install them around the rink. Additional help is needed.

Washington Report by Congressman

Further improvements in air transportation from the standpoint of safety and efficiency have long been a subject in which I have been keenly interested. Before and since becoming a member of the Science and Astronautics Committee, this topic is one on which I will write in the months ahead, but for the moment, I will highlight just one major unresolved problem—congestion at the nation's biggest airports.

For sometime now those of us in Congress who share this concern, in addition to leading industry spokesmen and government officials, have advocated the introduction of new aircraft which we refer to as STOL (Short Take-Off and Landing Craft). Basically, STOL planes would require 2,000 feet or less of runway and be used in flights under 500 miles (which incidentally account for 80 percent of the domestic travel in the country). Air planners were quick to recognize how STOL could cut congestion and they have been anxious to move forward with development.

A leading spokesman, Glen A. Albert, who is also a founder of a United States Air Traffic Control System, writing on the subject of the airport bottleneck is recently said, "Since all air traffic originates and terminates at some point on the earth's surface, the overall efficiency of the AIR TRAFFIC CONTROL SYSTEM is directly affected by the adequacy of the landing-takeoff area—the airport."

"Improvements in airports and their utilization thus should be taken as part of overall improvements in ATC services, and in keeping with the development of new aircraft and expanding air traffic operations." Specifically, Gilbert recommended that short-haul traffic be transferred as quickly as possible to STOL-VTOL (including helicopters) and suitable conventional (commuter) type aircraft operating as separate city-center airports whenever necessary to unload conventional airports. When using existing airports, Gilbert proposed their operations be as independent as possible from the high-performance aircraft traffic patterns.

Last August NASA asked aircraft manufacturers to submit design and cost proposals for two experimental STOL planes. Studies project that the potential market for the STOL-type aircraft will reach 1,000 by 1985. By next Spring, the Federal Aviation Administration hopes to have a specific plan that will realize that projection.

We are at critical times with respect to air transportation. One of the major hurdles we must overcome is this one of congestion, and with the implementation of short-haul planes for short-haul traffic we will go a long way towards eliminating the congestion problem.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Hot Debate Expected

If the drive now underway to place abortion reform on the 1972 November ballot is successful, Michigan voters can expect a very emotionally charged campaign.

That prediction is based on the experience of the only state which has thus far held its voters on how they feel about abortion reform—Washington. In the campaign there, the battle grew hot as election day approached.

The one difference would be that in Washington state the issue was referred to voters by the legislature after both houses had approved a bill liberalizing abortion laws. In Michigan, the legislature failed to act. Since the matter was bottled up in committee, supporters felt the legislature was unresponsive to the people who wanted to see a vote.

Prior to the election, abortions were legal in Washington only to save the life of the mother.

Now, a woman in Washington may receive an abortion if she wants it through the first 16 weeks of pregnancy, providing she has lived in the state 90 days and has the consent of her husband if she is living with him. Unmarried women under 18 need parental consent.

During the campaign, the arguments used in Washington were much the same as the ones used in Michigan and other parts of the country where the issue has boiled over. Opponents of the change, designated referendum 20 on the ballot, called it legalized murder. They blanketed the state with billboards showing a 16-week old fetus with a caption saying "Kill Referendum 20, Not Me."

Proponents argued, on the other hand, that "no law or government should be able to tell you whether or not you must bear a child."

On election day, Washington voters approved the liberalization of the abortion law by a vote of 599,959 to 462,174 leaving no doubt where a solid majority stood. The total number of votes cast was only 6,000 less than were cast in the race for the U.S. Senate in which Sen. Henry M. (Scoop) Jackson won another term.

The best comparison in Michigan is the pro-life ban on the 1970 ballot—also considered a very emotional issue. Yet there were 160,000 fewer votes cast in it than in the race for governor.

Taxes Hit New High

Tax collections set a new record for state and local governments around the country in the fiscal year which ended last June. That probably surprises no one.

A compilation of state and local collections shows they passed the $90 billion mark for the first time, totaling roughly $94.3 billion. This was an increase of 7 percent, or some $6.2 billion, over the $88.1 billion recorded from state-local tax revenue sources the preceding fiscal year.

The increase in revenues was in all categories except for corporation income taxes which dropped 7.2 percent as the result of the economic recession to $3.39 billion.

The sales tax continued to be the biggest single producer of revenue for states as its production rose 8.8 percent to $17.7 billion. The champion over-all, of course, remains the property tax, which produced $38.26 billion, an increase of 7.1 percent. Most property tax revenues go to local governments.

The second most productive tax for state governments in terms of money raised was the income tax on individuals. A total $11.5 billion was collected. A hedge-podge collection of "all other" taxes including such as cigarettes, liquor and public utilities produced an additional $13.5 billion altogether.

The cigarette tax, by the way, continues to smoke across the nation. Connecticut just set a new record high for the tax by raising its rate to 21 cents per pack.

So far in 1971, legislatures of 14 states have increased the price smokers must pay to the state every time they buy a pack of cigarettes.

The second highest rate is found in Texas, which charges 18.5 cents per pack while Pennsylvania charges 18 cents per pack. Arkansas collects 17.75 cents per pack. Michigan's rate remains at 11 cents per pack.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I reckon you saw last month where them two 10 year old girls in Chicago got up a petition again younguns taking castor oil. They circulated their demands in the ward of the hospital where they was being treated, and I understand the hospital promised to give serious consideration to their petition that they not have to take mineral or castor oil in hospitals or anywhere else.

Mister Editor, I am full fer their ends, but I am agin their means. I ain't never been so sick that I thought castor oil was good fer what ailed me, but I've gagged on many a slug of the slimy stuff 'lest cause my Ma poked a spoonful of it at me. Fer some reason, and I know the reason, it never come to me to pervert. The reason is that Pa would of made me hurt where castor oil wouldn't help.

As a feller gets older, I reckon he finds the ways of younguns harder to figger. I have heard it said that younguns today are smarter, but I see by the papers where tests shows that IQ of schools kids has dropped some since the second war. Well, Sir, he only thing I can figger is that the IQ of parents must of dropped even more. I am full agreed with the feller that said one of the sure ways to tell a backward country these modern days is where children still obey their parents.

Furthermore, I think the lady school teacher who was ask on her 100th birthday about her years of teaching has the right idee. She taught 41 year until 1931, but she said she wouldn't try it today even if she was young. Back then, she said, parents disciplined their younguns and teaching was pleasant. Now, she said, she wouldn't know what to do if children rioted in her school.

Practical speaking, we got to admit things is more complicated now fer everybody. Used to, if a youngun didn't go to school somebody from the school went to find out why. Now the school board will hold a hearing to try and figger out what the school done wrong that caused the youngun to stay away. I think we has gone to far in the wrong direction when we ask the younguns what they want and then break your necks to satisfy their ever whim. We got the hole thing turned around till it reads "parents, obey their children."

Personal, Mister Editor, I am not of the mind that our education system is failing us. I think the system has got to work with the raw material it gets, and that pins the failing right smack on the parents. Its just a case of wearing the shoe that fits.

And on giving things turned around, I see where this expert says credit is a way of life, and that credit cards is the answer to bad checks. The way I read that state-ment is that if a feller couldn't charge somepun on a card he'd write a rubber check fer it. I can't figger who's going to come out ahead when the credit card bill comes.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Keith Boylan, post commander made the presentation to Librarian Mrs. Lewis Bernath Monday afternoon.

The season's first snow, accompanied by 30 to 40-mile-an-hour winds struck this area Friday night, and temperatures skidded to a low of 24 degrees by Saturday. The one-inch snow fall resulted in slippery streets and roads, and was listed as a contributing factor in a number of county accidents including a four car crash on US-12 and Lima Center Rd. Saturday morning.

Carmier Slocum was elected executive vice-president of Michigan County and Municipal Employees of Council 55 at a convention held in Grand Rapids Nov. 9. This is Slocum's second year with the council. Last year he served as secretary-treasurer of the group, and as president of his own Local 453 in Ann Arbor.

Ten members of Chelsea high's Bulldog varsity football team will be appearing in their last high school game tonight. Those ending their high school career will be Co-captains Dennis Schumm and John Eisenbeiser, Karl Riemen-schneider, Ed McDaniels, Douglas Collyer, James Grau, Tom Dault, Dennis Gary and Bob Brown. Also making his last Chelsea appearance will be Odis Richardson, a junior, who will be ineligible next fall due to the 19-year age limit.

The Junior Band elected its officers for the coming year during a rehearsal session last week. Katherine White was elected president, Virginia LeVan, vice-president, Christine Fisher, secretary, and Loretta Wahl, treasurer.

The Bulldogs suffered their third defeat of the season last Friday at the hands of Ypsilanti's Roosevelt high school. Roosevelt defeated Chelsea, 9-6, in a game played during the first snow storm of the season. This week the Bulldogs will play a game against Dundee that was postponed when a flu epidemic hit the local school system.

Thursday, Nov. 13, 1947—

The Hoffman sisters—Phyllis, Maurine, Rose Ann, Joanne, and Yvonne—were winners of the first prize in the Kiwanis sponsored amateur contest held Friday and Saturday evenings in the high school. The sisters will split a $100 savings bond for their unaccompanied performance of vocal numbers. Calling themselves the "South End Harmonettes," the girls range in age from 10 to 14 years.

Second prize winner was Donna Kalmbach for her piano solo "Rustles of Spring." "Corky" Dreyer and Buddy Johnson, musical comedians, were the third prize winners. The Bulldog's 18 to 12 win over Dundee clinched second place in the Southeastern Conference for Chelsea this year. Despite the close score, the game was not really a close one, as coach "Charlie" let "everyone but the water boy play in the second half." Chelsea will play its last game of the year—a non-conference battle against Manchester tomorrow night.

Colonel H.D. Vogel, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.P. Vogel of Chelsea, received the Distinguished Service Medal for "meritorious and distinguished service to the government in positions of great responsibility in the Southwest Pacific from January, 1944, to September, 1945," in Buffalo recently. Colonel Vogel is currently stationed in Buffalo, N.Y., with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Charles Cameron of Chelsea High school will attend the 19th annual Principal-Freshman conference at the University of Michigan today. Representatives of high schools participating in the conference will discuss college adjustments with former students enrolled at the University this fall. Cameron will be talking with former Chelsea students Robert Daniels, Barbara Luick, Patricia Mohrlock, Loren Munro and Paul Schiable.

The first Chelsea Community Fair, sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club and the Future Farmers club, will be held all day Saturday at the high school. Admission will be free, and premiums will be awarded. During the evening, fair-goers will hear a speech on "The Changing Order," by Dr. W. D. Henderson of the University of Michigan's Extension Department. Other features of the program will be musical numbers by the High school band, and a milk testing demonstration given by three boys from Ypsilanti. There will be approximately $100 in cash prizes awarded at the fair.

The Young People's League of St. Paul's church will present a comedy, "Getting Ira Married," next Friday night at the high school. The action of the three act farce, directed by Paul F. Niehaus, takes place in the Barnville fire hall. Included in the cast are David Strieter as fire chief Hiram Withers, Arthur Lindauer as Lieutenant Harry Harris, Margaret Lehman as Elvira Withers, Lucille Hawler as Rose West, Estelle Seitz as Mrs. Goodrich, Ralph Dingle as John Chadwick, Thelma Vail as Millie Myers, Elsa Bareis as Loretta Crawford, William Henry Seitz as Ira Evans, and Maynard Osterle as Carey Chadwick.

The County Health Council, under the direction of Miss Pearl Haist, is sponsoring a free tuberculosis test Tuesday morning. All children from the fifth to the 12th grade will be given the test with the consent of their parents.

Armistice Day activities will be conducted again this year by the American Legion Post and its Auxiliary. The Armistice Day parade, featuring the Chelsea High School band, will begin at 3:30 p.m. Parade marchers will assemble on Harrison St. The Legion also plans a dinner for 400 people from 5:00 to 8:30 followed by a dance featuring Jerry Beissel and his orchestra.

Gridders of the Week

BRUCE GUSTER (20), a junior halfback, is playing his third year of football, his first year of varsity ball, this season. Bruce has also been a basketball player for three years, but would rather work than play this winter — if he can find a job. A member of the track team for three years, his events are the long jump and the pole vault. In his free time, Bruce likes to hunt and fish, and to work on old cars. Adept at auto mechanics, he's put at least two old cars in running condition. At one time he thought about making mechanics his career, but now plans to attend Eastern Michigan University to major in physical education. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Guster, 3250 McKinley Rd., Bruce has two sisters and four brothers.

JEFF VAN RIPER (89), a junior end, has been playing football since 7th grade, and is playing varsity ball for the first time this fall. He has also played basketball for three years, and plans to go out for baseball this spring. He's played a lot of summer baseball, he said, and was a member of the Rogers Corners Herdsman 4-H slow pitch team that placed second in the state this summer. He has been active in 4-H for a number of years, and raises Holstein cows. He works with his father farming the Van Riper's 700 acres during the year. He also likes to hunt. Following his graduation, Jeff plans to study conservation, and is thinking about going to school in California. The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Riper, 1137 Haist Rd., Jeff has four sisters and two brothers.

JV Gridders Drop Final Game to Milan

Chelsea's Junior Varsity finished their season with a 6 win-2 loss record Thursday as they lost their final game to Milan, 28 to 6.

According to coach Jon Schaffner, "Chelsea just made too many mistakes. We had two interceptions and lost two fumbles while Milan did not turn the ball over once all night."

Milan picked up their first TD in the second quarter to lead, 6-0. Chelsea tied it up in the third quarter as Dale Poertner drove seven yards.

Disaster struck in the fourth quarter as Milan scored 20 points on three touchdowns and made one extra point run. Two of the touchdowns followed interceptions of Chelsea passes.

Chelsea was led defensively by Rick Miller and Jeff Marshall with 17 tackles, Dale Poertner with 16, Darryl West and Mike Nadeau with 10 each and John Houle with 8.

Frosh Grid Team Defeats Mich. Center

Freshmen gridders traveled to Michigan Center last Wednesday, defeating the Cardinal freshmen, 8-0, in their last game of the season. It was Chelsea's second win over Michigan Center this fall (the first was 28-6), and gave the freshmen a final 4-3 record for the season.

Michigan Center and Chelsea both started the first quarter with long touchdown runs nullified by penalties. Ron Collins made the 45-yard run for Chelsea.

Following the two touchdown spurts, both teams settled down to play defensive ball. Rodger Stewart, Ron Kiel and Paul Wood led Chelsea's defensive charge which kept Michigan Center from getting close to a score.

Rick Sweeny, starting his first game at end, threw some fine blocks for runners Ron Collins, Karl Gauss and Dave Keiser. Paul Wood made several catches for the Bulldog offense.

The Bulldogs put together a concerted drive in the fourth quarter. The drive, interrupted by a Cardinal pass interception on their own 20, was put back together when Ron Kiel forced a Michigan Center punt from their own 10. A fumbled center snap was recovered by Chelsea on the 3-yard line. Perry Johnson scored the touchdown on the first play, and then passed to Paul Wood for the extra points.

With one minute to play, Chelsea kicked off to Michigan Center, the defense held, and Chelsea was in possession of the ball again. Todd Orbring ran 30 yards on a quarterback option on the last play of the game but couldn't shake loose for the score.

During the season, Chelsea's freshmen scored two shut-outs against their opponents, and outscored them 98-0 for a 4-3 record.

PUNCH LINE OF THE WEEK

MEN MAKE PASSES AT GIRLS WHO WEAR GLASSES IF THEY HAVE THE RIGHT FRAME.

Archaeologists have discovered that even in the Stone Age, Thanksgiving Day was in November but they started the preparations for it in April. Which makes sense, after all. Did you ever try to stuff a dinosaur?

Don't set it and forget it.

If you use your thermostat wisely, you can save both Gas and money.

For example, at night when you're covered with warm blankets, you don't need as high a thermostat setting as during the day. It's a good idea to lower the thermostat a few degrees while you sleep. Besides being just as comfortable, you'll be saving Gas and money, too.

This is just one of many Gas and money-saving ideas you'll find in Michigan Consolidated Gas Company's free booklet, "The Great Escape." By checking and correcting the ways heat escapes from your home, you can make Gas (already one of today's big bargains) an even bigger bargain.

Fill out the coupon, and learn more ways to foil the great escape—and save Gas and money, too. Or pick up a copy of "The Great Escape" at any of our offices. It's free.

ANOTHER FIRST FOR MICHIGAN: In an attempt to decrease shut-down time during repairs on busy Interstate 75 Freeway in the Flint-Bay City area, the Department of State Highways for the first time will use pre-cast slabs of concrete to repair more than 20 pavement blow-ups. The slab repair method, developed by the Highway Department's Testing and Research and Maintenance Divisions, consists of cutting out an area of the damaged pavement, lowering the slab of pre-cast concrete into the slot and then sealing the joints. One repair operation can be completed in two hours, compared with the previous method which shut down highway lanes for several days.

Pre-Cast Concrete Slabs
Will Speed Highway Repairs

Lansing—Pre-cast slabs of concrete will be used this spring in an experiment to decrease highway lane shut-down time in the repair of more than 20 pavement blow-ups on busy Interstate 75
Freeway in the Flint-Bay City area, the State Highway Commission announced.

Developed by the Department of State Highways' Testing and Research and Maintenance Divisions, the slab repair method will be used for the first time on a major project during April and May. As far as can be determined, Michigan will be the first state to use such a repair method.

Pavement blow-ups occur on hot summer days when concrete expands and sometimes breaks or chips at highway joints. Emergency repairs usually are made immediately with permanent repairs scheduled when several blow-ups need attention in one area.

The former method of repair involved cutting away the damaged concrete, pouring new cement and letting it cure for several days before the traffic lane was re-opened.

The new method involves cutting out the damaged concrete and lowering a pre-cast slab of highway into the cut and then

Thought For Food

Chicken is an economical main dish and may be prepared many ways. Broiled chicken with fresh herbs is an example. Combine 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 2 tablespoons snipped fresh tarragon, grated rind of ½ lemon, 1 teaspoon salt, and ¼ cup bottled oil and vinegar dressing. Pour over 2 broiler-fryers. Broil and stand 1 to 2 hours. Broil, turning chicken once, to desired doneness. Baste occasionally with herb marinade. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

THANKS
We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the kindness shown us in our loss. Special thanks to the Rev. Diekema.

Looking for a new garnish for that delicious roast? Team two favorites, apples and mince meat, for a colorful and delicious go-along.
Remove apple cores, but do not peel. Place one tablespoon sugar in the center of the apple and fill with mince meat. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 45 minutes or until apples are tender.

Children enjoy fixing their own lunch when a tasty but easy recipe is provided! Let them slice frankfurters in thin circles and place on bread slices spread with butter, margarine or mustard.
Next, the sandwiches are topped with cheese slices, American or Swiss, before they go under the broiler until the cheese is bubbly hot.

TODAY'S THOUGHT
By LOUIS BURGHARDT

A small group of 12 apostles — certainly a minority in their time — founded Christianity... The American Revolution was started by a minority who visioned new liberties, a fuller, freer life... Fewer than 1% of the Russians overthrew the Czarist government. And, for the record, even today only 3% of the Russian people are Communist party members. It seems incredible that a mere 3% should be able to rule the remaining 97% — but they do... Hitler had only a handful of followers titling card but will be asked to also support the church work with their service preference. This would be selecting any manner in which they felt that they could serve, calling, typing, visitations, teaching, youth work, singing or whatever they would wish to do.

The commitment committee conducting the financial and commitment crusade is hopeful that in asking members to fulfill their obligations to the church in this manner, greater participation and a united effort of all will bring about a more meaningful commitment of the members to their church and their beliefs.

Leadership in this year's financial crusade is provided by Virginia Johnson and James Lorenz, co-administrators; Anne Steinaway, administrative committee chairman; Art Steinaway, publicity committee chairman; Helen Gadbery, prayer committee chairman; Bernice Packard and Alice Schumacher, co-chairmen refreshment committee; Glen Kraae, lay speakers chairman; Dr. Clare Warren, visitation committee chairman.

Christmas Wreath Sale Will Benefit Baseball Clinic Fund

Supporters of the Chelsea High school varsity baseball team's efforts to raise funds for the first Chelsea baseball clinic to be held in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., during spring vacation will be selling Christmas wreaths for the next two weeks.

Team members and their friends will attempt to visit all Chelsea homes in their house-to-house canvass. Both Standard sized wreaths, and special order wreaths will be available.

The sale of wreaths is only one project being undertaken to raise the approximately $5,000 needed to send 18 ball players to the clinic.

At least 24.5 million youngsters are now participating in the school lunch program, and 900,000 children are now being reached by the school breakfast program.

STOPPED COLD: On Milan's first option play of the game, Chelsea's Randy Brier, (22) tackled Milan's big halfback, Jim Patterson (40) right at the line of scrimmage. Outstanding defensive moves, like Brier's, were the key to Chelsea's overwhelming defeat of Milan's Big Reds.

Superb defensive play has been Chelsea's trademark all season, and it was never better than it was last Friday.

Bread Sale To Help Earn 'Bread' for Choir

choir director DiAnn L'Roy, 769-9466, and choir member Joanne Harvey, 475-8947, will accept orders.

Those shopping in the downtown area Saturday morning will be able to buy fresh loaves on the street.

If the sale is a success, Miss L'Roy said, it may be repeated in the weeks ahead.

The choir also plans to have a sauerkraut supper sometime in December to add money to their trip coffers, and donations to the effort may be mailed to the high school. Mark them "Festival Choir."

The 22 members of the choir, selected by auditions in September, have been practicing since the semester started for the International Festival of the Americas competition. The audition tape was submitted late in September, and Miss L'Roy learned approximately two weeks ago that the choir was among the groups selected to compete in the festival.

The choir will perform three selections, the warm up number, "Billy Boy" arranged by M. L. Daniels; the required number, "Alleluia," by Randall Thompson, and "When David Wept," by John Weelkes, at the festival.

On the basis of one performance, the competing choirs are ranked, and the top five choirs are awarded medals.

This is the first time the Chelsea choir has ever entered the International competition, and the first time the choir has taken an extended trip.

Miss L'Roy said that the choir must raise $5,000—$250 per member to take the trip. "It's a big task, both musically and financially," she added.

Flowers in November

Mildred Hopper of Cavanaugh Lake picked a bouquet of dandelions, violets and forsythia Saturday, Nov. 6. Mrs. Hopper said she had occasionally had her forsythia bloom in the fall, but never in November, and that she had never seen the violets bloom again after they finished blooming in the spring.

PERSONALS

Frank Reed has been moved to room 515 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor after spending one week in the Intensive care unit. Cards and letters from friends would be appreciated.

Caution Urged In Dealing with Strange Salesmen

Sgt. David McCormick of the Chelsea Police Department reminds residents to exercise caution in dealing with unfamiliar door-to-door salesmen.

Every fall, McCormick said, there is an influx of itinerate salesmen offering magazines and other goods for sale. Not all of them are dishonest, but not all are honest either.

All legitimate door-to-door salesmen operating in Chelsea must be licensed by the village clerk, McCormick said. If a salesman has a license, you may be sure he has been checked out by the Chelsea police.

Before making any purchase or allowing a salesman into your home, McCormick warned, ask to see the permit issued and signed by the village clerk.

If the salesman does not have such a permit, report the matter at once to the Chelsea police.

Think fire — think about the hardships and suffering involved — the dangers to your family and the loss of your home and personal possessions. Would you want a fire in your home? Of course not. Then think fire prevention. Safety check your home and eliminate the needless fire hazards and other causes of home fires, suggests safety experts.

Mrs. Rademacher said, "We're extremely grateful to all those who worked on the drive, and to the 93 persons who donated blood. Without them there would be no Chelsea Blood Bank."

Any resident of Chelsea, or any Chelsea worker may draw from the bank, Mrs. Rademacher said.

CHARLES FOSTER

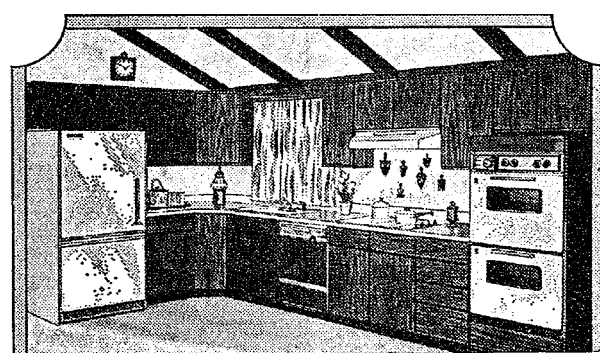

Kiwanians Hear of Proposed Mental Retardation Center

Charles Foster of the Washtenaw County Intermediate School District was the featured speaker at the Chelsea Kiwanis club meeting Monday night. Foster, who will become director of the proposed Mental Retardation Center if it is approved by voters Nov. 30, spoke on the inadequacies of the present programs and the advantages to retarded and handicapped children and their parents if the new center is built. The $2.7 million center, would allow greater depth and flexibility in programming and would also provide services—such as intensive vocational education—not now existing in the county. Approval of a .19 mill levy (19 cents per $1,000 assessed valuation) to be retired over a 12-year period is being sought in the Nov. 30 election.

Fun Night Slated Next Week at High School Gym

Fun Night, sponsored by the Chelsea Scholarship committee and the National Honor Society will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. Friday, Nov. 19 in the high school gym.

Kids attending the fun night (especially recommended for those in upper elementary and junior high) will be busier than fleas in cold weather. There will be games, contests, a trampolene, movies, and food at the senior stand. Every bit of Chelsea High's big, beautiful gym will be in use for something that is FUN! All proceeds will be added to the Chelsea Scholarship Fund.

QUESTION: "Does the Bible teach Denominationalism?"

ANSWER: "Denominationalism" according to the Standard College Dictionary (Funk & Wagnall) is "a disposition to divide into or form denominations."

The Bible teaches Unity rather than Division among believers.
Matt. 16:18 (Jesus speaking) —“I will build my church (singular) and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it (singular).”
Jno. 17:20, 21 (Jesus’ prayer for believers) —“that they all may be ONE; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in Thee, that they also may be ONE in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.”

I Cor. 1:10 (Paul’s plea) —“that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.”

Eph. 4:4 “There is ONE body” I Cor. 12:20 “ONE body” (Col. 1:18 “the body” is the church).

Market Exists for Squirrel Tails in Making Fish Lures

Every year hunters are literally tossing away many thousands of dollars from, of all things, squirrel hunting. The rodents' bushy tails have prime market value when sold to manufacturers of artificial fishing lures.

The annual harvest of squirrels in the U.S. amounts to well over 15 million, with more than a million bagged in each of several different states. Only a small percentage of the tails ever find their way into productive use as fishing lure hook dressing.

To this date synthetics have not offered a suitable substitute solution to filling the demand. None have met the quality characteristics of natural texture which seems to make the lures "come alive" with a pulsating flex as they're retrieved through the water... apparently spelling an irresistible meal to game fish.

An example of a regular buyer of squirrel tails is Sheldon's, Inc. of Antigo, Wis., for their Mepps Original French Spinners. The firm uses two to three hundred thousand tails each year for dressing on treble hook lures, and would buy many more from hunters who now throw them away after using the meat.

A. L. "Todd" Sheldon, president of the Mepps distributing firm, says "Sheldon will guarantee a market for all black, grey, and fox squirrel tails that hunters can supply. However, we're certainly not advocating killing squirrels just for their tails. But the fact is millions of them are thrown away each season by hunters who'd be far better off and some money ahead by selling them to us."

Interested hunters and organizations may get full details on prices, care of the tails, and shipping instructions by sending a postcard to "Mepps," P. O. Box 859A, Antigo, Wis. 54409.

BILL HARRISON (75), a junior tackle, is playing his third year of football, his first year of varsity ball, this year, and also plans on going out for track this spring — probably as a sprinter. A musician, Bill plays trumpet in the band, was in the orchestra for last year's play, and also listens to lots of music — especially rock. His other main hobby is reading, especially historical biographies, and the two, he said, point to either a history or music major when he attends college. He and his sister, Al-fretta, live with their mother, Mrs. Hellen Harrison, at 1185 Chelsea-Manchester Rd.

STEVE WORDEN (76), a junior tackle, is playing his fifth year of football, his first year of varsity ball this season. The versatile Steve is also a wrestler, a shot-putter, a member of the band and stage band, a First Class Scout, a writer and a movie maker. Bill has written quite a bit of science fiction, including some stories he hopes to have published eventually. He's produced two films, one in conjunction with Steve Siebert, and has also been involved in the making of one other 8-mm. production. Steve plans to major in biology following his graduation from high school, and is thinking about an ecology-related career. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Worden, 118 Lincoln, Steve has two brothers and one sister.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER:

Four weeks ago I met a real nice boy. He told me that he was in love with me and that I was "special." But, I'm not in love with him. He's moving to another state, far away, and said he will be back in two years to marry me. He already has the engagement ring. He wants to give it to me before he goes. He thinks I love him more than I really do. I'm only 16 and I don't think I'm ready for his plans. If I take the ring, I won't be free to date other boys for two years. What should I do? Take the ring now and not hurt his feelings? Or, tell him to wait until he comes back, if he does?

accept the ring, to avoid hurting his feelings, you will probably hurt him more when you return the ring at a later date.

If you have a teen-age problem you want to have discussed or an observation to make, address your letter to "For and About Teen-Agers," Community and Suburban Press Service, in care of this newspaper.

Tiger Team Members Play Winter Ball

Detroit—For nine members of the 37-man Tiger roster there has been no vacation between seasons. Instead of going home for a rest, they packed their bags after the regular season ended and headed south for more baseball.

Five of the Tigers on a busman's holiday are performing for the Detroit entry in the Florida Instructional League, which is already three weeks into its 47-game schedule.

Joe Niekro, John Young, Marvin Lane, Paul Jata and Bob Molinaro have teamed with a promising bunch of first- and second-year professionals to get the Duncedin-based club off to an 11-6 start and a tie for first place in their division.

Lane, a centerfielder, is the main cog in the attack with seven runs batted in and a .462 batting average, third best mark in the loop.

Molinaro (.323) and Jata (.280) flank Lane in the outfield, while Young is rotating between the outfield and first base.

Niekro is working on his knuckleball and has appeared twice, going three innings in each outing without figuring in a decision.

Four other Tigers will be playing south of the border.

Les Cain received a favorable medical report on his salary wing at the conclusion of the American League season and will concentrate on sharpening his control with Mayaguez in the Puerto Rican League.

Aurelio Rodriguez, a native of Mexico, will play for Los Mochis in the Mexican Pacific League before getting married in December.

Cesar Gutierrez has traveled home to Venezuela where he will play for Aragua this winter.

Tim Hosley, called up from Toledo to the Tigers in September, is now headed for the Dominican Republic, where he will catch for the Estrellas club in San Pedro de Macoris.

Boating Safety Course Offered By Sheriff's Dept.

The Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department Marine Division will offer another in their series of boating safety classes beginning Dec. 2 at 7 p.m.

Children from 11 to 16 years of age are encouraged to take the class if they are interested in boating. Successful completion of the course will entitle children in that age group to a certificate of boating safety enabling them to operate a boat over 6 h.p. by themselves.

Included in the free course will be lessons in boating safety, emergency first aid, navigation and state marine laws.

Those wishing to attend the class should contact the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, Marine Safety Division (971-8400, ext. 77), or Stan Dulgeroff (971-2245).

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

KINDERGARTEN—

Rooms 1, 3, 6
Teachers: Mrs. Bower, Mrs. Michelson, Mrs. Van Blaricum

The weather is changing our lives, and we discuss what is happening to us and things around us. Our Nature walks help us see what is happening.

We are all trying to recognize numbers and some of our letters.

We are planning a feast for Indians and Pilgrims; some of us will be Indians and some Pilgrims. Our menu will include corn bread and applesauce which we will prepare ourselves. We are learning about the Indians, how the Pilgrims came to this country and lived, and how the Indians and Pilgrims helped each other.

FIRST GRADE—

Room 4
Teacher: Mrs. Stewart

October has been a very exciting month in Room 4! We had Open House Oct. 28 and had perfect attendance. We went to Dexter Cider Mill the afternoon of Open House and bought some cider to serve our parents. It was good!

We had a guest visitor on Wednesday, Oct. 27. Mr. Stewart came in and carved a pumpkin for us. The jack-o-lantern had round eyes, a triangle nose, and a happy smile. We named him Mr. Stewart.

Our room mothers, Mrs. Dault, Mrs. Greenleaf and Mrs. Patrick made neat treats for our Halloween party. We wore our costumes and marched in a parade for the 3rd, 4th and 5th graders. It was a fun day.

Now that November is here we are busy getting ready for Thanksgiving. We will learn about Indians and Pilgrims and make many fun things. November birthdays are: Sally Moore, Nov. 6; Shawn Ball, Nov. 8; David Weber, Nov. 16; Mike Muck, Nov. 19.

Room 5
Teacher: Mrs. Thodeson

The last week of October was so exciting. We rode the bus to the Dexter Cider Mill. There we saw the chopped apples being pressed into cider. Then we sat on the lawn and had cider and doughnuts.

Thirty-seven visitors signed our room register at Open House. We liked reading our Halloween chart stories to our moms and dads.

Our Halloween party began with a parade around the school. When we got back to our room we had cupcakes and cider. Mrs. Donkin came as a witch with her magic cauldron. Those who were brave enough to put their hand into it got a treat.

Now we are working hard on our reading in our new book, Run with Our Friends. In arithmetic we are learning to join and separate sets. We are having fun games and exercises in gym class. Mrs. Wahl showed us how to make puff pictures.

We miss two children who moved this week. Larry Lindstrom went to Napoleon to live. Amanda, Kellin went to Vermont. Amanda promised to write to us. Jana Knickerbocker, Jeanette Koch and Anita Roderick will celebrate birthdays this month. Thanksgiving will soon be here. Happy Thanksgiving Day to you!

Room 2
Teacher: Mrs. Thornton
Reporters: Donald Marshall, Corinne Fletcher, Kipp Bertke, Jody Lucas
We had a great Halloween party.

We enjoyed showing our parents all our books and work at Open House. We really keep quite busy and are proud of our accomplishments. We are learning about the pilgrims and then we are going to amek a Thanksgiving mural.

Some of us finished Fun with Our Family and will start Fun Wherever We Are. We do like reading! Also, we like learning about the Letter People. Sometimes they do funny things to help us remember their special sounds. We've started adding and subtracting and are writing number sentences. Next, we will learn more about tens and ones. Mrs. Hastings has such interesting and exciting stories for us. Sometimes she'll read two stories to us.

We've been learning about our five senses. We are tasting and smelling different foods and we haven't been fooled yet, and we usually can guess what we are tasting.

We have a model of an ear and an eye and are beginning to realize how important it is to take care of our own eyes and ears.

Jon and Steve helped put up the flag, and then we said the pledge. David broke his arm playing football. We signed our names on his cast. Randy brought some fish for our aquarium.

Mr. Dean and Mr. Robeson came to visit our room last Friday after Open House.

We like to eat lunch in our room.

(Birthdays: Lynette Mepynans in October; Shannon Carpenter in November.)

Have a Happy Turkey Day!

SECOND GRADE—

Room 7
Teacher: Mrs. Lopez

A happy and safe Halloween was had by all of us. Mrs. Hafner and Mrs. Kalmbach, our room mothers brought cider, donuts, and candy for our party on Friday, Oct. 29. We had decorated our room with pumpkin men and scary owls. We used ghosts on our desks to tell our names.

We have many pet pictures on our bulletin board, and everyone enjoys looking at these. One of the most unusual pets is Connie Dault's lamb.

In science class we have been studying the energy that comes from sunlight. We have learned that green plants can store energy from the sun.

Mrs. Hastings comes after lunch every Wednesday and reads a story to us. We all love these stories, and we thank her for doing this.

We each made a book folder about a library book we have read. These folders are very colorful and tell something about the book. We all enjoy our Friday time at the school library, and the fun of finding two books we want to read.

Detroit Edison is asking for a rate increase. We want you to know why.

William G. Meese
President and Chief Executive Officer
The Detroit Edison Company

We at Detroit Edison must provide Southeastern Michigan with an adequate supply of reliable electric power. We feel this obligation strongly and our record for reliable service is better than the national average.

We will make every effort to continue this dependable service. But the demand for electric power is at record levels—and climbing. For example, we now have 250,000 more customers than we had in 1960 and the average family uses 90 percent more electricity than it did at that time.

To meet this growing demand, we are going ahead with a massive construction program—one of the largest in the country. Construction expenditures are at the rate of almost $2 million for each working day. This will add up to $2.5 billion over five years and will include tens of millions of dollars for electrostatic precipitators, cooling towers, and other equipment that will improve the quality of our air and water. Detroit Edison has been, and will continue to be, dedicated to improving the environment.

Our problem is: How do we pay for this new construction?

Inflation has made this problem worse. Fuel, wages, equipment, taxes, construction, and investment capital costs have all gone up to record levels.

That's why we've asked the Michigan Public Service Commission for an urgently needed increase in rates for electric service. We have supported the request with complete and accurate data. Without the increase we cannot complete our indispensable construction program.

Nor can we guarantee much longer our ability to meet the area's increasing energy requirements—essential to economic growth and employment opportunity in the area—and continued protection from brownouts and blackouts. Nor can we continue our efforts to clean up the environment.

Over the years we have reduced rates whenever possible. In the long period of inflation since World War II, we have fought rising costs by every possible internal economy and efficient engineering design. Between 1950 and today, as all other consumer prices rose higher and higher, our residential electric charges for the same power use did not increase at all. Can you name any other product or service of which this is true? In the same 20-year period, clothing went up 47 percent, food 54 percent, housing 63 percent, transportation 65 percent, and medical care 125 percent.

Specifically, here's why we need the average of 12 percent increase in rates:

- The cost of fuel for our power plants increased at a rate of 28 percent in 1970.

- To maintain a thoroughly capable work force, we must meet area wage levels, which have risen steadily. Our wage contracts with their cost of living provisions went up over 11 percent in 1970.

- Equipment costs have risen steadily. This applies to turbine generators, transformers, cable, and all the items that we, as a large electric service company, must purchase.

- Environmental control of air and water quality is the order of the day, demanded by citizens and being written into increasingly stringent laws. Through 1970 Detroit Edison invested $78 million in environmental control equipment and will spend some $65 million during 1971-1973. These costs will continue after that.

- Our construction program during 1971 alone will cost about $427 million. Our commitments and requirements for 1972 will total about $450 million. In 1973 we expect to invest about $495 million in construction projects. About 80 percent of these large sums must be obtained from individuals and institutions willing to invest in Detroit Edison.

- We have to compete for investment capital with every large company in the United States and many investment opportunities abroad. At one time we could sell bonds with a 3 percent interest rate. Now we must pay much more. Last year the interest on our bonds rose $10 million, or 33 percent. That's just for 1970.

- Local taxes supporting community services have been increasing, too. During 1970 they rose $2.7 million, or 6 percent.

- Meanwhile, however, earnings fell from $2.15 per share of common stock in 1966 to $1.88 in 1970. For the 12 month period ending September 30, 1971, earnings declined to $1.80 per share. Over this period dividends remained at $1.40, but were reduced in value by the effects of inflation. But to finance growth to serve you, we must continue to compete for new investment dollars through the sale of stocks and bonds at prices attractive to the investing public.

In sum, Edison is faced with four pressures:

1. Growing demand for power.
2. Need to finance plant expansion.
3. Rising costs.
4. Need to add environmental controls.

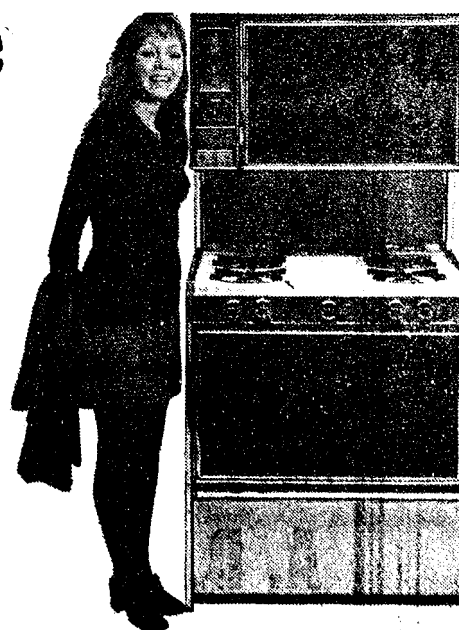

All of us struggle with inflation. Some have the option of cutting corners or doing without. In that area, we have gone as far as possible without threatening the quality of service. But we cannot cut the cost of the new generators that are needed, or further reduce our dedicated manpower, or stop building for the future.

If we did, Southeastern Michigan would not enjoy the dependable, plentiful electric power it needs and has received from us since we began operations.

This is why Detroit Edison needs a rate increase.

William G. Meese

No more dirty work with a self-cleaning Gas range.

Just think of it. You'll never have to get down on your hands and knees to scrape and scrub the dirty, greasy insides of your oven again. Because today's modern Gas ranges have self-cleaning ovens.

Forget about baked-on splatters. And rock-like spills. With a self-cleaning oven all you have to do is turn a knob and the messiest job in your home (oven cleaning) takes care of itself. Giving you time to take care of the more pleasant things in your life.

But a self-cleaning oven is just one good feature in today's modern Gas range.

With Gas you have the advantage of smokeless closed door broiling. Infinite heat control. And best of all, total economy. Because a modern Gas range uses less Gas to do the same job. And a Gas range costs about one-fourth as much to operate as an electric one.

So before the holidays, stop by your dealer or any Michigan Consolidated Gas Company showroom, and buy a new Gas range with a full range of features.

A new Gas range will save you Gas and money too. And remember—oven cleaning is no job for a lady.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Woman's Club of Chelsea met Tuesday, Nov. 9 in the club room of McKune Memorial Library with 20 members and one guest present.

Following the business meeting the program featured a review of Future Shock, current best seller by Alvin Toffler. Guest speaker, Mrs. Charles Winans introduced and reviewed major sections of the book. Other members of the panel were Mrs. William Travis and Shirley Smith.

The next meeting will be the Christmas party on Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. James Shadoan featuring a home-made gift exchange.

Thought For Food

Pork is especially tasty when broiled on skewers. Inch cubes take 25 to 30 minutes to broil to delicious doneness, a point to remember when selecting fruits and vegetables as kabob partners. Zucchini, parboiled carrots or eggplant, fresh onions or wedges of fresh pineapple or orange will be bright and tasty skewer partners. Or choose cherry tomatoes, fresh mushrooms or canned onions or pineapple and arrange the pork and accompaniments on separate skewers. When the meat is almost done, put the other skewers on to broil.

When the children arrive home for lunch, warm them up with hot toasted sandwiches of cooked chopped ham, beef or lamb blended with grated cheese, mayonnaise or gravy. This sandwich is the homemaker's answer for preparing a quick, nourishing meal while utilizing leftover meat.

Oranges top the list of all citrus fruits in popularity in U.S. households, according to a national survey. Grapefruit ranked second and lemons came in third.

RIDING HIGH: Two Chelsea students at Central Michigan University were riding high during Central's Homecoming week, Oct. 18 through 23. For the first time this year, CMU sponsored a Homecoming week carnival, and among the first ferris wheel customers were Marcia Kelley, Chelsea sophomore (left), and Eileen Bristle, Chelsea freshman (right). Accompanying the girls on their ride was Joe Schmucker, a Muskegon senior.

Altar Society Plans Christmas Bazaar

The regular monthly meeting of St. Mary's Altar Society was held Monday, Nov. 8 in the school hall with 25 members and one guest present.

The Rev. Fr. Francis Wahowiak led the members in the opening prayer.

Serving on the November Altar Committee is Mrs. James Gaken.

Mrs. Dennis Guinan, of the Good Samaritan committee, stressed the need for drivers for the Catholic Social Services. There is also an urgent need for temporary homes for young drug addicts.

Mrs. George Brettschneider announced Dec. 11 is the day of the Christmas Bazaar and bake sale. The Right to Life committee will present a program entitled "The Celebration of Life," Sunday, Nov. 21, 2:30 to 3:30 at the Masonic Temple in Detroit.

The president led the members in a closing prayer.

Mrs. James Hafner presented a cake decorating demonstration.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Henry Rybka and her committee.

Co-Op Nursery School Notes

Chelsea Co-operative Nursery is off to a roaring start again this fall.

A waiting list for the four-year and non-assist. classes has been established, and only one slot in the three-year-old class remains.

The pre-schoolers have taken trips to an apple orchard, to the Dexter Cider mill, and have also taken a nature walk on Mrs. Bradbury's farm.

Nursery pupils have been learning their colors and most can recognize printing of their own names and those of their friends.

Patrolman Schneider of the Chelsea Police Department explained the duties of a policeman to the children, warned them about taking candy from strangers, and asked them not to leave toys outdoors.

A look inside, and a ride in the police car followed Patrolman Schneider's talk.

A costume party on Halloween day and visits from animals have also been highlights so far this year.

Included in the animal visitors have been kittens, a piglet, a raccoon, a collie puppy, two guinea pigs, baby rabbits, two gerbils, a garter snake and goldfish. Nursery school students will be photographed by Lyndon Studios on Nov. 18.

Fresh vegetables, except root varieties, should be used within 2-5 days of purchase, even when stored in the refrigerator.

Shoes, Boots for Fall Are Big With Heavy Heels

Boots are big and heels are heavy this season, but there's much more to the "trendy" world of foot fashion, says Joanne Thurbur, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State University.

"One type of 'in' shoe for fall 1971 is sporty with heavy heels and soles, wide toes and stitched edges. It might have a heavy waffle sole and look like a work shoe, or a hiking shoe, or an athletic shoe," she says.

"But an equally important trend is the return of the pretty shoe. Faceted toes give these a slim look with an elegance and ease to match the softest of body-dresses."

Both styles place interest high on the foot, Miss Thurbur explains. Ties and straps—combined with any heel height—ride on the ankle, and sometimes venture to the knee.

New styling in boots will enhance clothing styles, the specialist predicts. Higher heels and new toe shapes are featured in ankle height or over-the-knee boots. Wrapped laces, cuff effects and cowboy boots are in for a big push.

Embroidery, painted designs, studs, appliques, fur and western detail decorate boot fashions, she says.

Both boots and shoes for evening are available in black suede, soft-smooth leathers, and stretch jersey, satin and peau de soie. The newest dressy look—metallic gold and silver combined.

Beach Junior High Gridders Undefeated Again This Season

The unique intramural and varsity football program at Beach Middle school ended this past week, as all four squads completed their season's schedules.

The varsity squad was again undefeated this year, scoring a total of 210 points to their opponents' 6 during the season. The 6.0 record upped the junior high varsity squad's winning streak to 13, and gives them a 32-1 record over the last seven years.

In their last three games of the year, the varsity defeated Jackson Catholic, 28-0; Brooklyn Columbia, 44-0; and Dexter, 48-0.

The splendid showing by the varsity squad was "due in part to having a very talented team as well as a general lack of stiff opposition," head coach Bert Kruse said.

Scoring in the Jackson Catholic game were Howard Salyer, David Pletcher and Randy Guenther. Salyer scored on a short run, and again after receiving a flare pass from quarterback Guenther. Pletcher also scored on a pass reception and Guenther scored on a quarterback keep.

In the Brooklyn game, Salyer again scored twice, and David Murphy, Randy Guenther, David Pletcher and John Elliott each scored once.

In intramural action, final standings for the six-game schedule saw Coach Johnson's team on top with a 4-1-1 record, Coach Waller's team at 4-2 and Coach Beard's squad 0-5-1. Following the completion of their regular schedule, the 7th and 8th grade intramural players squared off in a final contest, won by the 8th grade, 16 to 6.

It was hoped that the intramural program would afford more opportunity for more players to play under game-type conditions, and through the use of additional coaches, that more boys would receive individual attention, Coach Kruse said.

Approximately 50 boys were involved in the intramural program, and early indications are that the junior high football program has benefited from the intramural approach. The decision to continue or discontinue the program will come following a closer evaluation, Kruse added.

Kruse had praise for the 23 eighth grade players and one seventh grade player on the varsity squad. "They showed a tremendous amount of ability and poise both in moving the ball offensively and in stopping the opposition on defense."

"They did many things well, including many things that are not usually done on the junior high level such as downfield blocking, blocking on punt and kick-off returns, and pulling to block on sweeps," Kruse said.

"It is felt that the junior high program has also played a con-

Continually vital role in the success of the over-all Chelsea football program. Fundamentals and a basic football understanding are an important part of the program.

"But also important has been the success in attracting large numbers of candidates. This exposure to the game has not only interested most of the more talented athletes—important in developing a successful program—but also the late developers who, when willing to stick it out, often develop before graduation."

"Also important has been the development of a winning and positive attitude and the understanding that it takes work and co-operation to achieve certain goals. The program not only serves as a feeder system for high school programs, but offers many boys their only opportunity to play organized football."

"It is felt that the program is not only beneficial to successful football teams, but is also an important part of the educational process."

Scouts, Leaders Preparing for Busy Schedule

Area Cubs and Scouts will be getting a good workout this month as they take part in a number of group activities geared to the scouting way of life.

On Saturday, Nov. 6, area Cub Scouts traveled to U. of M. for a day afternoon, Nov. 7, there was a den chief conference at Camp Newkirk in Dexter on Huron River Dr.

A recognition dinner for Eagle Scouts, including Robert Miller of Troop 420 in Chelsea, will take place on Nov. 11, and on Saturday, Nov. 13, a cub pow-wow for all cub leaders and helpers and planners will be held at Washtenaw Community College on Clark Rd., near Ypsilanti. This is a four-hour training course for all cubbers, potential cubbers and commissioners, including sections on games, skits and puppets, crafts, pack administration, Webelos den operation and ceremonies.

Troquois District scouts and leaders from the area will be honing up on program tips for their groups and packs at these and other fall and winter meetings. Dave Bowbeer of Dexter is the district executive, along with Clarence Maloney, district chairman and Bob Armentrout, district commissioner.
