Hockey Action Starts Tonight At New Rink

Hockey season begins this week-end, with all three Chelsea teams seeing action.

In the first game of the season, Chelsea's Ann Arbor Federal Savings team will battle Ypsilanti Moving & Storage tonight at 9 at the hockey rink.

Saturday morning at 11 the youngest squad, sponsored by Chelsea Medical Clinic, is matched with Bimbo's squirt league group from Ann Arbor.

Lima Township Advisory Group Named

Lima township has formed an advisory committee on land use to assess the potential impact of the proposed Metro-Park.

The committee will work with Johnson, Johnson, & Roy, planning consultants, who were retained by the township following receipt of an $8,000 grant from the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

In addition to studying plans for the proposed park, the committee will assist the township in developing a long range land use and development plan.

Committee members were selected by the Lima Township Planning Commission to represent various segments and interests in the township. Members include Fred Mills, schools; Mrs. Robert Daniels, Chelsea region; Kenneth Haist, rural-urban interaction; Lawrence Dietle, industry; Ronald Satterthwaite and Robert Kushmaul, local business; William Van Riper, agriculture; Edwin Coy, township government and agriculture; Leonard McCalla, agriculture, business, and finance; and Virginia Denham, regional relationships. Four of the 10 committee members live within the proposed park site.

The Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission will also be represented.

Anti-Park Committee Organized

Zeroing in on legal problems, representatives from six townships met last Wednesday to discuss strategies in their fight against the proposed Metro Park.

According to Chelsea representative Sylvester Weber, the committee was formed "to plan how the townships can more effectively unite to combat the (park) situation." In their Jan. 26 meeting they dispatched Attorney William Rademacher to prepare a brief regarding legal aspects of possible anti-park actions, means of financing such action, and legalities involved in the participation of townships not directly involved. When the brief is completed, the Six Township Committee will meet to plan further action.

The park as proposed by the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Park Authority would include 4,080 acres of land, mainly in Lima Township.

Opposition to the project centers around the converting of good farmland into parkland.

"When we have thousands of acres of good park land no longer suitable for farming with modern machinery and hundreds of natural lakes, why try to take our best farm land for a park?" argued committee member Weber. Other arguments presented at the meeting centered around two points. First, new population growth projections have been revised downward, indicating less need for a park in the area.

Second was the legal question of whether or not the Park Authority had the right to condemn farm land for park purposes. Attorney Rademacher indicated that the Authority did have such a right, but if a land-owner did not wish to sell the Authority was obligated to prove necessity.

Most of the meeting, attended both by the six township representatives and by several supervisors, interested citizens from the various townships, and attorneys Rademacher and David McLaughlin, was spent in discussing what to do, how much it would cost, and who would pay. These questions will be researched by Rademacher and reported back to the Committee at its next meeting.

Chairman of the committee is Robert Heller of Lima township. Other members include Hector Devouler of Sharon, Russell Hugh-

More Than $1,200 Collected In March of Dimes Campaign

More than $1,200 was collected this week in one of the most successful March of Dimes so far, according to Mothers' March co-ordinator Mrs. David Rowe.

The total includes $809 from last Sunday's Mothers' March, $309 from mailers, $12 from Christmas cards, and about $192 from canisters, set up in almost every store and business in Chelsea.

There is still money from one canister and one marcher to be counted.

The high point of the campaign was the Mothers' March last Sunday, as more than 52 mothers braved freezing temperatures to go door-to-door receiving contributions. According to Mrs. Rowe, mothers collected $50 more than they had in last year's march.

Other leaders in the campaign included Mrs. Richard Loring of Grass Lake, march chairman, Mrs. Richard Kale, treasurer, and Mrs. Douglas Robeson, canister co-ordinator.

Fluoride Tooth Treatment Program Registrations Sought

Topical fluoride applications will again be offered Chelsea area children this summer, Mrs. Gary Albrecht, chairman of the community fluoride program announced this week.

Pre-schoolers, kindergartners and second graders who have lived in Chelsea since birth will be offered the treatments, Mrs. Albrecht said, since these children's teeth have had the effects of Chelsea's fluoridated water.

Parents of 5th and 8th grade students may enroll their children in the program up to March 1. Registration cards will be sent home with the students on or before Feb. 15.

The program fee is $3.50—50 cents lower than last year—due to the donation of dental equipment from Dr. Dale White of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Albrecht said. A special family rate of $12 for four or more in a family is also available, she said.

120 Students Attend Career Info Meet

About 120 students from Chelsea, Dexter and Manchester schools attended a meeting Jan. 27 at the Chelsea Medical Center concerning health careers.

Host and group advisor Dr. William Hawks said students expressed interest in nearly every health-related career. The idea for the careers program originated when a survey of area schools revealed that students wanted more knowledge of the medical and health careers.

"The purpose of this first meeting was two-fold," Hawks said. "First to find out what the students wanted to learn, and second to present the human side of health careers — to go further than just the mechanical aspects."

Hawks said the program will bring in professionals from areas in which students expressed interest and discuss, on a one-to-one basis, careers with students.

On Feb. 17, an overview of the nursing and medical fields will be presented with representatives from the U. of M. School of Medicine and School of Nursing, Mercy Hospital School of Nursing, pre-medical students and practicing physicians and nurses attending the meeting.

At later meetings, the careers program will explore specialized aspects of health careers, including dentistry, veterinary medicine and pharmacy.

has lived in Chelsea less than three years is eligible for the program. The fluoridation procedure consists of four visits to the clinic. The child's teeth are cleaned at the first visit and a fluoride solution applied. On the three succeeding visits, only the fluoride application is repeated.

In addition to tooth decay prevention, instruction by clinic personnel in proper dental hygiene is also stressed, Mrs. Albrecht said.

Michigan pioneered in the field of topical fluoride applications in 1949 and leads the nation in the number of community programs in operation. More than 200 clinics treat more than 40,000 children in the state. The program is supervised by the Dental Division of the Michigan Department of Public Health.

Wrestlers Win Two More At Holt, Novi

Chelsea varsity matmen came up with two more victories last week, defeating Holt, Jan. 25 and Novi, Jan. 27.

In league standings, Saline and Dexter are on top, with Chelsea and South Lyon tied for second with two losses. Wins against Dexter tonight and South Lyon Saturday afternoon will place the Chelsea squad in a good position for the championship at the league meet Feb. 12 in Milan.

Bulldog matmen handed the Holt team a close 27-22 defeat giving the Chelsea team a 8-2 dual record.

Sam Trachet, wrestling at 100 pounds, came up with a fine second period pin to start off the meet. Mark Montange, back in action at 107 pounds, came through with a fall victory at 53 seconds. Jon Marzee, at 114 pounds, scored an 8-0 decision, with Dale Poertner losing a decision at 119 pounds. Keith Kargel, also returning to action, came through in the 126-pound class with a pin at 3:44.

Weight problems for Chelsea caused a forfeit at 134 pounds. Larry Jones, wrestling at 138 pounds, lost a 7-1 decision to the defending state champion. Darryl West won a close decision, 3-2, at 145 pounds, and Doug McDonald, at 157 pounds, defeated a tough opponent, 7-3. At the 167-pound class, Jon Schenk lost by a decision as did Randy Seitz at 187. Steve Worden also lost a 1-0 decision at heavyweight.

Coch Richard Bareis indicated that the Bulldogs wrestled well against the former Class B champs. Bareis said exceptionally fine jobs were done by Trachet, Marzee and McDonald.

Bulldogs Down Manchester, Lose to Saline

The Chelsea Bulldogs traveled to Saline last Friday night to take on the league-leading Hornets. The game was a thriller, with the lead changing hands repeatedly, but in the end the Hornets won, 58-53.

Chelsea took command at the start with Ron Sweeney collecting 9 of Chelsea's 11 points in the first quarter. Sweeney added six more points in the second quarter, but by that time Saline's big guns, Dave Ziegler and Pete Slepisky, had piled up 24 points between them, spurring Saline to a 28-27 half-time lead.

Chelsea came back to outscore Saline, 14-13, in the third quarter to send the game into the final stanza all tied up 41-41. In the third period the Bulldogs were led by Jeff Schmidt, Ron Sweeney and Todd Sprague. But Jeff Daniels' ankle injury early in the game kept him sidelined for the rest of the game, and the Bulldogs sorely missed his rebounding.

The final period continued to be a see-saw affair as each team enjoyed two-and three-point leads, but neither team could put the game away. The two teams battled down to the last two minutes when Jeff Schmidt fouled out for Chelsea. Without his rebounding and with Ron Sweeney and Wayne Welton showing the effects of recent illnesses, the Bulldogs simply ran out of gas.

Poster Contest Will Promote Fluoride Plan

A poster contest conducted by the Chelsea Fluoride Program will be held in Chelsea again this year.

The contest is open to all 8th grade students who plan to participate in the community fluoride program this summer. The contest is under the supervision of Mrs. George Parker, art teacher at Beach school.

The poster contest was created to stimulate student interest in good dental hygiene and to stress the importance of fluoride in preventing dental decay, program chairman Mrs. Gary Albrecht said.

First- and second-place winners will be awarded with prize money at a presentation dinner given by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, sponsors of the community fluoride program.

A registration fee of $3.50, payment of the fluoridation fee, plus a registration card signed by a parent must be presented

Doctors Meet with Students To Explain Family Practice

Medical students from three Michigan universities met with practicing family physicians in Ann Arbor last Thursday night for a "rap session" on family practice.

Coming together for a joint meeting of the Family Practice Clubs of the University of Michigan, Wayne State, and Michigan State were more than 600 students and their spouses, along with approximately 100 practicing physicians.

Setting the tone for the evening was Dr. Jerome Waldgin of Kalispell, Mont., who spoke on "A Day in the Life of a Family Physician."

According to Chelsea physician Dr. J. V. Fisher, Dr. Wildgin's was a "soft-sell approach" dealing with the meaning and satisfaction of family medicine. After the talk, students and doctors met in small discussion groups. The meeting was organized by officers of the three clubs in conjunction with the Commission on Education of the Michigan Academy of Family Physicians (MAFP), of which Dr. Fisher is president. Dr. Wildgin is president of the national Academy.

The MAFP has been instrumental in organizing and supporting the Family Practice Clubs in an effort to encourage medical students to become family doctors. One of its proposals is a three-year residency in family practice similar to existing residency programs for other specialties.

Carroll Ordway (right) at the Kiwanis Club's annual Farmer's Night dinner Tuesday evening. Heath spoke to the group on farm-city relations, and dinner was served by the Key Club.

Farmers Hosted By Kiwanians

More than 60 area farmers were honored Tuesday night, Feb. 1, at the Kiwanis Club's annual Farmers Night.

Speaking to the group was Howard Heath, farm editor of Ann Arbor radio station WPAG for the past 26 years. Heath covered a variety of topics dealing with farm-city relations.

Dinner was served by the Key Club at Chelsea High school cafeteria.

The dinner was held in recognition of Farm-City Week and designed, according to Kiwanis Secretary Floyd Fowler, "to keep farmers and city people together" and to honor farmers for their contribution to the community.

All active farmers in the area were invited.

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

One of the most significant proposals in the President's State of the Union Address last week has received very little attention, and discussion. The President proposed a "new partnership in technological research and development" to make use of the tremendous technical skills and capabilities which have been underemployed as a result of aerospace and defense budget cuts and low capital investment in private research activities.

As the President said, "Historically, our superior technology and high productivity have made it possible for America's workers to be the most highly paid in the world by far and yet for our goods still to compete in world markets." However, our technological superiority is quickly waning. Indeed, Japan and many Western European nations now exceed our rate of capital investment in technical research and development and unless action is taken immediately to increase both public and private research, the U.S. will be in to fall behind in technological capabilities and in the ability to compete economically.

We now have a particularly excellent opportunity to make enormous strides in technological research. As a result of defense and aerospace cutbacks, more than 200,000 top flight engineers and scientists are out of work. The President's proposals promise to make use of these talents and abilities which are now going to waste.

For a number of years I have been deeply concerned that we were doing nothing to prepare for the inevitable economic dislocations and technological unemployment which would result when the Vietnam War came to an end. My bill, to create an Economic Conversion Commission, anticipated this problem and, had it been considered five years ago when it was first introduced, many of these problems and much of the unemployment could have been avoided. It is imperative that we no longer delay action on these proposals to make use of our great technical resources to meet urgent domestic problems.

The Science and Astronautics Committee, of which I am a member, will consider a number of proposals to make use of our technological capabilities in the next few weeks. The President's proposals to establish Federal incentives for private research and to fully fund additional research will certainly receive high priority.

These programs are extremely important for the nation not only in solving the short term technological unemployment problem but in strengthening our economy. We cannot hope to maintain our present standard of living, let alone solve the many urgent problems of poverty, health care, housing, transportation, the environment, etc., unless our economy is strong enough for us to compete in world markets. Technological advancement is vital to our ability to compete.

Thus, the President's endorsement of my proposals to increase our research capabilities can, conceivably, be one of the most important initiatives which we undertake in the years ahead.

Taxes Up

Tax collections by state government and the various governmental units set another record in Michigan during the past fiscal year.

The combined collections totaled $4.5 billion, an increase of more than $400 million over the previous year.

The state government took better than half of that total, with $2.5 billion. Only five years ago in fiscal 1967, the total collections for state and local governments were $2.7 billion.

Property taxes are still the backbone and muscle of the local tax picture. Of the $2 billion in local taxes collected during the year, $1.87 billion came from property taxes.

Local income taxes produced $123.1 million in revenues for local units and the remaining $14.5 million came from Detroit's utility tax, which yielded $10.7 million, and the documentary stamp tax, which produced $3.8 million. The property tax yield rose as spectacularly as any over the past five years. In fiscal 1967, local governments made $1.1 billion from the property tax, $700 million less than last year.

"International" Signs

The State Highway Department is going international in the way it marks highways in Michigan.

This system already used in other countries of the world, prescribes symbols or pictures for dozens of different messages. For instance, deer crossings will be marked by pictures of a deer. There are more than 500,000 highway signs in the state, so the changeover won't be instantaneous.

"This is not a crash program," says State Highway Director Henrik E. Stafseth. "As our existing signs wear out, they will be replaced with symbol signs under our regular maintenance program."

The new signs will be color keyed as well. All red signs will indicate a stop or a prohibition such as stop, yield, do not enter, or wrong way.

Yellow will indicate a general warning; green will describe permitted movements and directional guidance. Blue will indicate motorist services, and brown will designate public recreation and scenic guidance.

Orange will be used for signs, barricades and other devices relating to highway construction or maintenance projects.

Yellow lines will now be used exclusively to separate lanes flowing in the opposite direction on highways, the broken yellow line will be used to divide the lanes, and a solid yellow line will be put beside the broken line in no passing zones. Broken white lines will be used to separate lanes of traffic going in the same direction.

The signs themselves will look this way:

—yield signs will still be triangular with red lettering and a red border on a white background, instead of the old black on yellow.

—do not enter signs will have a red bull's eye circle with white lettering and a white bar through the center on a rectangular panel replacing the traditional black on white sign.

—school and school crossing signs will be pentagon shaped with silhouettes of a boy and girl walking with black on yellow design.

—pedestrian crossing signs will be diamond shaped with black on yellow design and the silhouette of an adult walking.

—no passing zones will be marked by a yellow pennant shaped sign posted on the left side of the highway in addition to the traditional sign on the right side.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Well, Sir, here we are in the month of Presidents, as they always say. This being a election year, the fellows had Presidents and politics on their minds at the country store Saturday night. As usual when the talk turns to politics, the discussion was led by Ed Doo.

Ed, that carries a picture of Abe Lincoln in the back of his watch, was in a sour mood general, and he allowed his outlook wasn't done no good by his doctor. Ed said he went for a check-up early last week and after the doc poked and gauged and listened, he told Ed his blood pressure weren't bad for a Republican.

Ed said that didn't help his blood none, but knowing the doc was a Republican to, he got to thinking about it.

After studying it up one side and down the other, Ed said, he was agreed with the doc that these are times to make Republicans blood pressure jump. Ed said he was thinking special about Humphrey that surprised nobody and said he still like to be President. Humphrey said Nixon had enough time to get out of Vietnam and he ain't done it. Ed said it's a good thing for Humphrey ain't trying to run on his public record, but trying to make Vietnam a Nixon war ain't improving his chances none.

If honest Abe was alive today to see what's being done to this country, he'd turn over in his grave, allowed Ed. He said this fellow that's mayor of New York City saw no chance as a Republican so he joined the Democrats where at least he can get lost in the crowd. One thing for shore, went on Ed, if Lindsay was to get the country moving like he's done New York City, it would be a end to civilization as we know it.

Clem Webster said he never spits on anybody "unless he gets beween me and the spittoon," but he said Ed's words was jest to strong-to-go-in the record. Clem agreed that Nixon is caught up in a lot of mess he didn't start, and he said it looked to him that the President was making headway in Vietnam and inflation. But that don't mean things can't be better. Clem said he was as wrong as we could be in that India and Pakistan business and Nixon more than anybody else made shore we was on the losing side.

Actual, went on Clem, the hole political picture this year remind him of the fellow that was going into town with a wagon load of watermelons. The tailgate fell out and all the melons rolled in the road and busted. The old fellow jest stood and looked. When somebody ask him weren't he going to say nothing, he jest shook his head.

"None," he said, "this is one of them situations where they ain't no words bad enough to fit."

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Park Opposition...

es of Bridgewater, Arnold Wild of Saline, Neil Stierle of Freedom, and Sylvester Weber of Sylvan. Heller had been elected to head the committee at a previous meeting of area supervisors.

A recent survey showed that 52 percent of the food products currently on the supermarket shelves were not there ten years ago; they are new products.

OVER THE LINE!

The border between the United States and Canada is the result of no less than seven treaties. Negotiators who signed the Treaty of Paris in 1782 relied upon a map drawn 27 years earlier in defining the border. The map's inaccuracies raised boundary questions that were not resolved until the Treaty of 1925.

Donkey Basketball Game Pits Faculty Against Students

The Chelsea baseball and wrestling teams are combining to take on the faculty in a donkey basketball game Saturday, Feb. 5 at 7:30 p.m. in the Chelsea High school gym.

Proceeds will go for payment on the wrestling mat and the baseball team's spring vacation clinic.

Playing for the faculty will be Carl Genske, Richard Bareis, Dennis Andarese, assistant principal Richard Lapanowski, Sam Vogel, Bruce Paulie, Phil Bareis, Pat Clark, William Wehrwein, Jim Talkman, Jon Schaffner, Ken Larson, George Bergman, student teacher Greg Harris and U. of M. football player Dana Coin.

The faculty's opponents (besides the donkeys) will be: Dave Lukasick, Randy Brier, Joe Aspinati, Ralph Stewart, Mike Nadeau, Dan Boham, Ron Clark, Howard Haselschwardt, along with wrestlers Paul Brown, Ron Adams, Mike Merkel, Jon Schenk, Steve Siebert, Ken Keiser and John Beaman.

Chelsea Recreation Council is sponsoring the half-time entertainment featuring 5th and 6th grade performers.

"The Craziest Show on Earth" is coming to town from Shaw Bros. The donkeys, characteristically stubborn and uncooperative, promise to be a problem for both teams.

According to donkey basketball rules, each shot must be made while seated on the animal. Loose balls may be recovered only while holding onto the donkey. These rules, of course, are all subject to how the donkey feels at the time, and that's where the fun comes in.

Advance tickets are available at the offices of the high school, Beach, North and South schools, Chelsea, Lansing and Strieter's Men's Wear.

Deficient Diets

Only 50 to 60 percent of American households have diets which meet recommended nutrition standards. Ironically, low income is not the only reason for malnutrition results simply because food choices are determined by personal preferences or dislikes, and because people do not know what kinds of food they should eat to maintain good health.

Taxpayer Help Offered By IRS In Ann Arbor

Ann Arbor—Taxpayers in the Ann Arbor area may obtain assistance with their 1971 Federal income tax returns Monday through Friday each week at the IRS office here. This announcement was made today by LeRoy Willis, local district director's representative for the Internal Revenue.

In announcing the 1972 tax assistance days, Willis pointed out that Internal Revenue does not actually prepare returns for taxpayers, but rather provides whatever answers, instructions or information individuals need to prepare their own returns.

Willis also discussed under what circumstances the IRS will compute the tax for individuals in accordance with a change in procedures introduced last year.

Taxpayers must fill in specified portions of their return if they wish to have IRS compute the tax. The information required is explained in the Form 1040 instruction booklet. These returns should then be sent to the Internal Revenue Service Center, Cincinnati, O. 45298, where the tax will be computed.

Willis suggested that area residents make note of this information for future reference. He also said that most taxpayers will be able to obtain answers to their Federal tax questions by phone on the designated assistance days. The assistance phone in Ann Arbor is 971-0370.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Winter ...

It's the middle of winter and many places in this country the land is desolate, cold, unfeeling. The trees look stark and dead. We feel an emptiness within ourselves. We wonder will spring ever come?

Now is the time to think about our lives, to renew our faith, to thank God for so abundantly providing for us in this great land, and to help our brothers in despair.

The beauty of winter unfolds when we use it as a comparison. How joyous our hearts feel when the first signs of spring appear. How renewed our spirit feels when we once again see the hills and valleys washed in greenery! How rejuvenated our bodies feel from the warm, succulent smelling breezes of the spring. How wonderful we feel that God's miracle of life has returned from the cold days of winter!

More American than European middle-aged women are in the labor force. In the U.S. about 55 percent of all married women age 45 to 54 are employed. This compares to 40 percent in Germany and 35 percent in France.

DEN 13, PACK 435—

At our last meeting we talked about going ice fishing. We worked on some art projects, drew a bear and wolf head on cardboard, made a bell out of paper, and glued it on plastic butter dish tops, for a hat. At our pack meeting we are having uniform inspection and are going to race our turtles made out of walnut shells and felt.

DEN 11, PACK 415—

We had a contest with a flip-flop and made some plans for the Blue and Gold Banquet, to be held Sunday, Feb. 20.

Impressive Design.

Get behind the wheel of a new Coronet. Put your whole family inside, too. (Notice how much easier it is, with four doors for entry and exit.) Notice how much room and comfort you get in a Coronet. That's because Dodge designed it to be a four-door and nothing else.

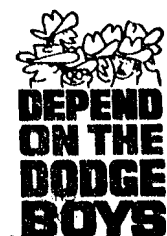

Interesting Demonstration.

Coronet's great-looking, with styling you'll be proud of and rear-seat headroom you may have found lacking in other makes and models you've looked at. Coronet has family-sized room for six people—plus a big trunk to carry the things you usually want to take along on trips.

Incredible? We think so. At a time when other, traditional "family cars" get bigger and bigger—Dodge Coronet does not become a giant-sized, high-priced car. And Coronet still gives you a wide choice to express your own tastes. For 1972, we offer five great four-door models—two Coronet sedans and three Coronet station wagons. Reading Should Challenge Child of Grade-School Age

When your child is tired of playing, encourage him to read a book geared to his interest level. Your children's librarian should be able to suggest many.

Sharing a book can be an exciting experience for both of you, says Helen Fairman, home economist from Washtenaw county.

Some of the classics capture a child's imagination, bringing new interests and experiences into his world. What boy or girl could pass up the suspense in Robinson Crusoe or a trip to Treasure Island? Fascinate them with the adventures of the Swiss Family Robinson, or let them relive the Oklahoma land rush in Cimarron.

Magazines, periodicals and newspapers can also make interesting reading for a youngster, Mrs. Fairman says.

But providing your child with good literature isn't the complete answer, according to Helen Fairman. Let him sit alone in a comfortable, quiet, well-lighted spot with few distractions. Ask him about the book as he finishes, or read it yourself. If you find your self reliving your own childhood, by all means show your excitement. As your child catches your enthusiasm, his reading appetite can only increase.

Helen Fairman suggests a test to determine what books your child might understand. Pick out a hundred words on any page and ask him to read them aloud. If he misses more than five, the book is too hard. Two or three words missed indicates the book is in his range.

WE'VE COME A LONG WAY!

Peter Brown, a pilgrim who arrived in America in 1620, was the first known man to wear eyeglasses on this continent. Today, it is estimated that approximately 90 million Americans wear lenses to correct their vision.

By the time he is 70, the average American will have used 28 million tons of water, 10,000 pounds of meat, 14 tons of milk and cream, and 9,000 pounds of wheat.

Girl Scout Leaders Plan Camp Program

With the snow and near-zero temperatures, it may seem the wrong time of year to be talking about camping and outdoor activities, but local Girl Scouts volunteers will be doing just that at the Western Washtenaw Area Association meeting on Feb. 7. The meeting, which will be held at the Chelsea Methodist church at 8 p.m., will feature a presentation by Bill Schief, year-round director of Camp Linden, the Girl Scout camp-site in Livingston county.

According to Mrs. Herbert Hinz, Chelsea, chairman of the Area Association, the program was planned to better acquaint Girl Scout adults with the camp and to show them the variety of program possibilities at the site. "There is so much to see and do at Camp Linden that a lot of troop leaders are just not aware of."

Mrs. Max Wilkinson, Saline, will report on the encampment at Linden that was held in 1970 for scouts from Chelsea, Dexter, Saline, and Manchester, and the association members will decide whether or not to plan a similar encampment in 1972, and if so, how to work with the girls in the troops now to determine the encampment activities.

Five delegates from the Western Washtenaw Area Association will be elected to represent local volunteers at the Huron Valley Council meeting to be held in Ypsilanti in March.

The Western Washtenaw Area Association is composed of the entire adult membership of Girl Scouting in Chelsea, Dexter, Saline, and Manchester, including troop leaders, committee members and administrative volunteers.

Thought For Food

A big roast, that gives double duty is a good buy. Any leftover from a special dinner can be sliced thin, spread with a homemade or commercial dip or spread, rolled up, secured with a small pick and arranged on lettuce for luncheon service. Or secure the rolled slices with several picks and cut each roll in two or three segments and serve as appetizers.

The 1970 human population figure is expected to reach the 3.6 billion point. With the world having a 2 percent increase rate every year in population, we are adding 11 million people every five days, 70-75 million people each year. To feed that many more people, agriculture must continue to utilize the tools and weapons of production efficiency: machinery, vehicles, fertilizers, and chemicals.

Potato Growers Will Vote on Research, Promotion Plan

Potato producers in all 48 contiguous states of the nation will vote Feb. 1-10 to determine whether a nation-wide Potato Research and Promotion Plan should be approved. This announcement was issued today by Washtenaw county Extension Agent Don son.

Ballots and voting instructions are being mailed to all growers of five or more acres of Irish potatoes. Any grower who does not receive a ballot by Feb. 1 may request one from his County Agent's office in Ann Arbor, telephone number 66-7511, extension 227.

The proposed Potato Research and Promotion Plan was authorized by special legislation and is based on evidence developed at a public hearing held last June and July. It would be administered by a National Potato Promotion Board, made up of producers selected by the Secretary of Agriculture from nominations by producers. Each state would be entitled to one board member for each 5 million hundredweight of potato production, with at least one member per state. Growers are urged to cast their ballots so that the results of the referendum will be truly representative.

The program would be financed by an assessment of up to one cent per hundred weight of potatoes handled. Handlers would be permitted to collect assessments from producers, but producers not wishing to contribute would be reimbursed upon written request.

To become effective, the plan must be approved by at least two-thirds of the producers voting, or by a majority of the producers voting if they produce two-thirds or more of the potatoes grown by those voting.

From Mrs. Edythe R. Hampton, Whittier, Calif.: When I was a child we lived in Louisville, Ky. There was an iron railing fence around our front yard. We were not allowed outside the fence, but we used to line up along the fence and watch the fire engines the beautiful horses almost flying.

We used to ride the big, red street car that passed in front of our house. We would ride five miles out, which was the country and go on a picnic. It was only one cent a mile!

Saturday night was always something to look forward to. It meant we went shopping and got a penny for an ice cone. Then we would go to a show to see the serials - "The Perils of Pauline", "W.S. Hart", "Elmo the Great" and all those "oldies". And we just had to return the following week to find out what happened.

On summer evenings, neighbors would gather at our house. Mother would play the piano and everyone would sing. There would always be pies, watermelons, and coffee.

I remember long cotton stockings, and high-buttoned shoes in black and red with tassels.

The Question of School Financing Reform

(Fourth in a Series)

What Constitutional Change Does the Governor Propose?

After appointing and receiving the recommendations of an Educational Reform Commission in 1969, Governor William Milliken proposed a package of 100 bills and two resolutions that contained a total school-financing reform program.

"However, no major 'reform' fiscal proposal won legislative approval in the 1969-70 session.

Revising and updating his recommendations to the 1971 legislature, the Governor urged that a constitutional amendment be placed on the ballot by joint resolution to make some basic and far-reaching changes in the system of locally levied taxes for school operating purposes.

More recently, he has initiated a petition drive, which is successful in obtaining 300,000 signatures by July of 1972, would place before the voters in November of that year an amendment similar to his earlier proposal.

Basically, the Governor proposes that we turn almost entirely away from property taxes for the financing of education.

Specifically, this proposed constitutional change would:

1. Totally eliminate locally levied taxes for school operating purposes. (Such taxes currently average 26 mills.)

2. Reduce the existing 60mill constitutional limit, accordingly, by 24 mills, to a new 26-mill limit, to be allocated in the following manner:

For counties, up to 8 mills. (Exact method of levying would require implementation by legislative action of governing board.)

For townships, up to 1 1/2 mills. (Legislative implementation similarly required.)

For counties and townships, by a vote of the people, up to an additional 6 mills.

For educational "enrichment" above the state-provided level, by a vote of the people, up to 6 mills.

(The Governor recommends that this optional millage be "equalized," with matching state funds provided to give each district $30 per student for each mill levied in combined state local funds. Districts with SEVs over $30,000 would realize and retain more than $30 per child for each mill levied.)

For vocational, compensatory and special education programs, and for intermediate districts, up to 4 1/2 mills. (Here again, the Governor recommends that state funds be combined with those raised locally. In this instance, however, not only differences in wealth but differences in need among districts would have to be "equalized.")

(These five provisions total 26 mills.)

3. Millage levied by cities, charter counties, charter townships, charter authorities, or for debt retirement by any governmental unit (including bonding for building schools) would continue to be excluded from the constitutional limitation.

In addition, millage levied by community college districts would be excluded.

4. The legislature would retain the authority to enact, should it choose, a state-wide property tax of up to 26 mills on business property to finance education.

The Governor has not recommended such a tax, but believes the authority to levy it must be granted in case the legislature is unable to agree on any other type of tax to replace school revenue lost through elimination of locally levied taxes on business property.

The legislature would not, however, have the authority to impose a state-wide tax on residential or agricultural property.

It must be stressed that this proposed constitutional amendment will NOT, in itself, impose

Michigan Water Accidents Claim 262 Lives in '71

Provisional State Police records show Michigan had 629 water accidents in 1971 which claimed 262 lives and injured 245 persons. Col. John R. Plants, department director, reported.

Compared with 1970, there were decreases of 38 in both death and injury categories and a reduction of 70 in accidents.

Of the total accidents, 248 were classified as fatalities, 183 as personal injury and 198 as property damage only.

In the breakdown of deaths, largest reduction in 1971 was 27 in the swimmer-wader category.

The death categories with 1970 figures in parentheses: Swimmers-waders, 113(140); Boat operators, 31 (39); Boat passengers, 40 (39); Falls into water-ice, 49 (47); Divers (scuba, skin), 5 (1); Skiers, 2 (1); Attempts to rescue, 6 (6); Snowmobile, 2(1); Miscellaneous, 14 (27).

any new taxes to replace the revenue sources it eliminates.

If the Governor's petition drive is successful and the amendment is approved by popular vote in November of 1972, the 1973 legislature will have the responsibility for increasing taxes and/or imposing new taxes to finance education.

The 1973 legislature will also have the responsibility for enacting a plan to distribute state funds to the individual school districts in a manner that is both workable and in accord with previously cited court requirements for equity.

Standard Ads Are a Good Shopping Guide!

The standard deduction is up this year. But maybe you should itemize.

Your best buddy Lenny might have told you to itemize your deductions because it would save you more tax dollars.

Your neighbor possibly suggested taking the standard deduction because you'd pay less taxes that way.

And Frank down at the office... he helps everybody with their return... what did Frank recommend?

If there's some way to save you money on your income tax, H & R Block will know how to do it.

Itemized and standard deductions are nothing new. We've been preparing returns for years using both. We'll figure out your situation both ways and then prepare your return using the method that's best for you.

You see, for only a few dollars more than it costs to do it yourself (with advice maybe from some other amateur), you can have your tax return prepared with complete confidentiality by a specially trained member of the H & R Block team. There are thousands of them in over 6,000 conveniently located offices.

Each member of H & R Block is warm, friendly and anxious to help you. A visit to H & R Block usually takes just a short time. Once in our office, you sit down over a free cup of coffee and possibly learn things about your income tax that you never knew existed. Things that we know, because income tax returns are our only business.

H & R Block's fees start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for over 7 million families we served last year.

Furthermore, if your return is audited we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we will not act as your legal representative.

It means that H & R Block also offers you year-round tax service for just one low fee, with no extra charge for audits and estimates.

Yes, it's true. The standard deduction is up this year.

It's one of the many things we'll consider when we do your return.

DON'T LET AN AMATEUR DO H&R BLOCK'S JOB.
