Thieves Take $8,000 Worth Of Art Objects

Thieves escaped with about $8,000 dollars worth of valuable art pieces from the home of former antique dealer George Pluck of 8330 Waterloo Rd., between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Friday, March 24. Five oil paintings worth $3,500, and several pieces of porcelain and art glass valued at $4,500 were taken.

No one was home at the time of the robbery and no witnesses have been found to aid the case. Although the pieces were insured, it is unlikely that any recovery will be made. The Jackson County Sheriff's Department with the aid of Michigan State Police have been working on the case.

The locked house was broken in to by way of the back door. All doors were found unlocked, presumably to aid a hasty departure. Footprints were also found going from the house to a driveway where it is believed a get-away car was parked. The stolen items would have fit into any average size automobile.

Boxes and wrapping material from the victim's home were apparently used to pack the stolen goods. Judging from the selection of the pieces taken the robbers had some knowledge of art. Although they avoided some of the more valuable paintings this could have been because of the paintings' large size. So far there are no leads in the case. Art dealers and antique shops throughout the area have been notified.

Track Team Hoping for Another Title

A tough schedule ahead is expected by Chelsea High for this season's track team. Preparation for it began as early as January by some of the more than 25 candidates.

Hopes were high after last year's success as the 1971 team compiled an 8-0 dual meet record, a league championship, first place at the Parkside and Albion Relays, second place in the Regionals and a high placing in the state meet. But, the loss of six senior lettermen and three underclassmen because of transfers, injuries, training violations and the decision not to participate, have dampened hopes.

However, the small veteran core and some promising new faces have worked hard. Potential exists for a serious run at the conference championship and a good showing in other meets. It takes time to develop potential and it may be reached only later in the season. Unfortunately, the most challenging dual meets come early with Tecumseh, Saline and Lincoln. Both Saline and Lincoln look like early favorites in the conference race.

Heading this year's returning lettermen are senior Dave Buxton running the mile, 880 and 440. He holds the school record in the mile at 4:34 and has hopes of closing that time to the 4:20's to finish high in the state meet.

Another strong returnee is Randy Seitz in the shot put, who hopes to get over 50 feet this spring.

Other senior lettermen are Dan Hoover in the 440 and pole vault, Tom McKernan in the 880, and transfer Marty Cashdollar in the 100- and 220-yard dashes as well as the shot put.

In the junior class, top men are pole vaulter Tim Lancaster and Lee Ferguson who does the long jump and runs the 440 and 220 relays. Also returning is Jim McGinn in the mile. Hopeful non-lettermen are Bill Tite in the high jump, Dan Bertke in the long jump, 440 and relays, Jeff Van Hise in the 880, Ken Buxton in the mile and Steve Worden and Randy Young in the shot put.

Returning sophomores include half miler and 440 man Jeff Marshall and Craig Coltre running hurdles, relays and long jumping. Good men are also Tom Hepburn in hurdles and Keith Kangel in the two mile.

A strong freshman contingent includes Don Pierson (pole vault), Karl Gauss (dashes), Ishmael Picklesimer (shot put and dashes), Rick Sweeney (high jump), Howard Schenk (two-mile), and David Proctor (hurdles). Working out but undecided about events are Bill Harrison, Dale Poertner, A. J. Hale and Jim Lantis.

As in the past the schedule for this season was opened by the Huron Relays run Friday, March 24 at Eastern Michigan's Bowen Field House in Ypsilanti. The squad failed to score in this prestigious meet, but some fine individual performances were shown.

OFF TO FLORIDA TRAINING CAMP: The Chelsea High school varsity baseball team is flying to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Friday for a one-week session of baseball instruction and practice. The entire team has had one goal in mind since the spring of 1971 when they were defeated in the state tournament. That goal is to topple South Lyon from the Southeast Conference throne room and go on to capture the state title. Through many ambitious money-making projects the young men — with the co-operation of the community — have earned enough to pay for the trip to

Baseball Team Florida Bound

Baseball season is upon us again and Chelsea High school's baseball team will begin the season by participating in a baseball school and camp at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Under the direction of Coach Carl Genske, the Chelsea team will leave for one week beginning Friday, March 31, and will return on Saturday, April 8.

Hard physical and mental exertion on the part of the athletes made this trip a reality. But, important contributing factors were the support of parents and the contributions of Chelsea citizens through donations and support of the team's money-making ventures.

This year's varsity team will be a good one consisting of 10 returning lettermen; three of whom are up from the junior varsity team and two who are newcomers. Of the returning lettermen competing for pitching duties will be Ron Sweeney, Wayne Welton, Tim Van Slambrouck, and Dave Lukasiak.

Behind the plate will be either senior Ralph Stewart or sophomore Mike Nadeau. In the infield, juniors John Mann, Dan Boham, and seniors Randy Brier and Todd Sprague will all battle for starting positions, along with some of those previously mentioned. Finally, the outfielders are seniors Joe Aspiranti and Steve Flint and juniors Jeff Daniels and Steve Siebert.

The squad has experience, and chances of dethroning South Lyon this season are good. The change in the league schedule to Tuesday and Friday games should also prove to be an asset.

The real competition, Coach Genske feels, will come from South Lyon and Novi. The schedule is full with 24 games set. The team is counting on a great deal of support from their fans, however, and hope to see crowded stands.

Winter Sports Awards Made at Athletic Banquet

As the winter sports season closes, Chelsea's wrestling and basketball athletic talents are given recognition. The annual Winter Sports Banquet held at Chelsea High Tuesday, March 21 at 6:30 p.m., began as a pot-luck dinner and later turned to award and letter presentations.

Cal Summers Retires from Federal Screw Works Post

CALVIN C. SUMMERS, chief engineer, retired Wednesday, March 29, from Federal Screw Works after 34 years. He's "kind of sorry to go," but has lots of visiting and fishing to catch up on. With him in the photo (left) is vice-president and manager of Federal Screw Works in Chelsea, Lawton Steger.

Calvin C. Summers, chief engineer at Federal Screw Works, retired Wednesday, March 29 at age 65. His job involved production engineering where he established prices and methods of manufacture. He has been with the company since June 1, 1948.

Summers began an apprenticeship with Michigan Screw in 1923 which later became part of Federal Screw and moved to Detroit. For a period he worked for Novo Engine Co. in Lansing, the Lansing Wheelbarrow Works, and the Reo Motor Co., also in Lansing. Before that he was a supervisor of plant 1 of the Federal Screw Works in Detroit.

Summers has plans to relax, work on his home and go fishing. He had looked forward to retirement but said, "when it gets here you're kind of sorry to go." He also will miss the travel and business acquaintances that went with the job.

He and his wife, Hazel, plan to take a month to visit their daughter, Mrs. Claude Ellis in California where grandchildren and a great-granddaughter also live. Calvin Summers, Jr., a son, is personnel manager at Chelsea Milling Co. and has five children. Another daughter, Mrs. James Perry, lives in Ann Arbor and has two children.

Township Annual Meetings Are Scheduled for Saturday

Area townships will hold their annual township meetings on Saturday, April 1. Anyone interested may go to these meetings and, in true democratic fashion, if they are a registered voter of the township, may vote on the issues presented.

Sylvan township will begin its meeting at 1 p.m. in Sylvan Township Hall on W. Middle St., Chelsea. In addition to regular business, there will be discussion of a budget covering proposed expenditures and estimated revenues of the township, after which it will be submitted for consideration. One plan for the coming summer is to continue their program of taking one section of unpaved rural road and paving it. Eventually, hopes are to have all the roads in Sylvan township paved.

Dexter township will have a budget hearing beginning at 1:30 p.m., which is a public hearing on the proposed 1972-73 budget. The regular township meeting will present the budget of proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for consideration and approval. Both meetings will take place at the Dexter Township Hall at 6380 Dexter-Pinecroft Rd.

Lima township will hold its meeting in Lima Community Hall on Jackson Rd., beginning at 1 p.m. They will talk about the proposed budget as required by law.

Lyndon township will hold its meeting at 1 p.m. in Lyndon Township Hall on the corner of Old M-52 and Townhall Rd. They will discuss and submit for approval the budget covering proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for that township. There will also be presented for consideration the reassessment of the township by a reputable firm, a township tax for road improvement, pay raises, and reimbursement for extra meetings.

Churches Plan Special Holy Week Services

Churches in the Chelsea area begin to celebrate Holy Week this Thursday with Maundy Thursday services. Local churches have planned many events to celebrate the cruel Passion and triumphant resurrection of Christ.

Maundy Thursday services will begin at St. Paul United Church of Christ with a special communion and the Office of Tenebrae. Exciting music with the Chancel Choir and a solo by Bruce Galbraith, the church choir director, entitled "It Is Enough," will be featured. The solo is written by Alice Tite of Chelsea. Then the Interpretive Choir will follow with their version of "God So Loved the World."

The Tenebrae, or "the extinguishing of the lights" centers around 12 candles representing the disciples. They will be extinguished one by one as the Passion narrative unfolds. For other churches celebrating the Tenebrae refer to the regular church listings.

Good Friday Community Service, ecumenical in nature, is a special event held for the first time this year at 1:30 p.m. The Meditation will be a dramatic offering arranged by the Rev. David Kleis of St. John United Church of Christ at Rogers Corners, and participated in by several clergy from Chelsea. Many local churches will not hold their own services this day so that members may participate in the community service at St. Paul church.

Music at the service will be varied and unusual. Traditional organ music will of course be present, the Interpretive Choir will share in the liturgy—an interpretation of the last words of Jesus. In the finale to this year's interpretation will be heard the finales to three different and quite distinct pieces of music.

The first piece is "John 19:41," from "Jesus Christ Superstar." The second is the closing bars of the less well-known and less controversial rock opera called "Truth of Truths." Heard "over and above, beneath and around" each of these will be "Pines of the Appian Way" by Respighi. The sound of a nightingale within the music fades as the mist of dawn begins to settle over the countryside. It's a brand new day. And, thus, the image is carried on throughout.

A solo will also be sung by Miss DiAnn L'Roy, director of the Chelsea High School Choir. Her selection is "Ain't Thou the Christ?" by Geoffrey O'Hara.

Red will be used at this service instead of the usual black to symbolize the intensity of Christ's Passion and the blood of sacrifice. There is no need to mourn Christ's death when we live in the shadow of his resurrection.

The Easter Sunday celebration of new life begins early at 6:30 a.m. with a Sunrise service. There are organ recitals and a brass instrumental "Thy Name We Bless," featuring Dave Wolter, Jeff Parsons, and Bruce Galbraith. A flute solo will also be presented by Pat Knickerbocker, entitled "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today." Following this there is the annual Easter Breakfast at 7:00 a.m. for the entire family. Reservations for this breakfast are requested. Any one is welcome and a free will offering will be taken. Easter will be rounded off at a St. Paul church communion service with Pastor Siebert.

At the Assembly of God, the pastor's Easter message is "Believe Me, the Resurrection Is Real," based on Luke 24:35-47, at the morning worship service at 11 a.m. The pastor is the Rev. T. B. Thodson. Music will be sung by the Teen Girls Chorus, from an Easter folk cantata written by Rosemary Hadden.

Other services will be at 6 p.m., a Youth Service for which the theme is "The Light and Dark Sides of the Cross," and a communion service at 7 p.m. The message at the evening gathering will be "The One Who Serves You Best Will Be Your Leader."

Chelsea Methodist Home will present special programs on both Maundy Thursday and Easter Sunday. On Thursday there is a 2:30 p.m. service and on Sunday an 8:45 a.m. Chapel service at which the Home choir will sing "Christ Arose." The Sunday sermon is presented by the Rev. Richard L. Clemans will be entitled "Crown's Become the Victor's Brow."

On Thursday, also, the First United Methodist church will have a candlelight communion and present a cantata by John Staiver, "The Crucifixion." The congregation will participate in Good Friday worship at St. Paul, and on Sunday the Easter Service will be at 10 a.m.

At St. Mary, a 7:30 p.m. service will be held on Thursday. There will be stations of the Cross at 12:30 p.m. on Friday, and a regular service at 11 p.m. At 7:30 p.m. on Saturday a Blessing of Fire Ceremony will be held with an Easter Vigil and Mass. The Rev. Fr. Francis Wahowiak will preside.

Bethel Evangelical and Reformed church will have a Maundy Thursday Tenebrae celebration with Holy Communion. On Sunday an Easter service will begin the day at 7:30 a.m., followed by breakfast at 8:30. At 10 a.m. is the Service of Worship with Holy Communion.

Immanuel Bible church will celebrate Friday with a special film called "I Beheld His Glory," the story of the last days of Christ from his entry into Jerusalem through the mock trial, to the resurrection. A traditional Easter sunrise service will begin at 6 a.m. which will be conducted by the church youth. At the 11 a.m. service the choir will sing and the talk will cover "The Miracles of Calvary," a discussion of such things as the three hour darkness at noon on Calvary, the miraculous earthquake, the opened graves

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

For too long Congress has been talking too much about fiscal responsibility and doing too little about it. There are at least four major areas of needed reform: Congress must institute a total limitation framework on spending. Each member of Congress has his own set of priorities, but generally they total up to more than the available revenues. By setting an annual spending limitation Congress would finally face up to the limitation in available dollars.

Secondly, there has been a lack of predictability in funding. The legislation has failed to pass appropriations bills on time and thus the agencies and departments have been forced to function on a costly and ineffective day-to-day basis.

Third, the Federal bureaucracy has often been slow in paying its own bills to local and private contractors causing undue hardship and costs for the individual citizen.

Finally, the legislative branch has never asserted its rightful role in determining that once funds were authorized and appropriated they should be spent. For too long the executive branch has held indiscriminate power to impound funds for specific programs and thus to subvert the intent of the Congress. The bill which I am introducing today, the Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1972, moves toward the correction of these deficiencies. It is not a bill which may attract dramatic headlines, but I believe it could become a most significant instrument for meaningful Congressional reform in the area of fiscal responsibility. It reaches out to the pressure points in the authorization appropriation expenditure cycle to develop more effective means of channeling federal funds. Surely our taxpayers deserve this.

In the last few months my Congressional office has received a large volume of mail requesting that I help put Congress back on the road to fiscal responsibility. On March 23 I introduced a bill which could be a long first step toward that bill.

The Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1972 has four titles. Title I moves the Federal Fiscal Year to coincide with the calendar year. This section will help federal budget planners and members of Congress in doing long range comprehensive planning for the budget. At present time members of Congress are forced to consider the 1,100 page budget document hurriedly if they want to decide on the budget before the beginning of a new fiscal year. In recent years this has forced Congress to pass a continuing resolution which allows an agency to operate while Congress finishes its appropriations process.

Title II of the bill requires Congress to establish an annual expenditure limitation. The Congress would be required to establish this limitation 45 days after the President's annual economic message. This would force Congress to consider our federal budget in light of limited dollars and competing priorities.

Title III of the bill establishes a federal impoundment procedure. It establishes two types of impoundment. The President may impound funds in a department or agency on a percentage across the board basis and must notify Congress immediately of this action. Either House of Congress then has 60 days to disapprove of the impoundment to force the President to stop the impoundment.

If the President decides to impound funds for a particular program in a department or agency without regard to the percentage limitations of his intention and wait 60 days before proceeding with this special impoundment. Congress has been increasingly critical of impoundments which are targeted at particular programs. This requirement should help to limit this procedure.

The impoundment position of the bill also includes a special section aimed at federal officials who are unreasonably slow in disbursing funds to state and local units of government or to private contractors. If extra costs are incurred by the recipient of federal funds because of a delay of 60 days or more, the federal government becomes liable for those extra costs.

The final section of the bill authorizes the Congress to undertake a study of alternative procedures. Hopefully this will allow Congress to continue in its upgrading of federal budgeting procedures.

The Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1972 offers some positive solutions to problems in our budgeting system and I am hopeful that my proposals will receive thorough consideration this year.

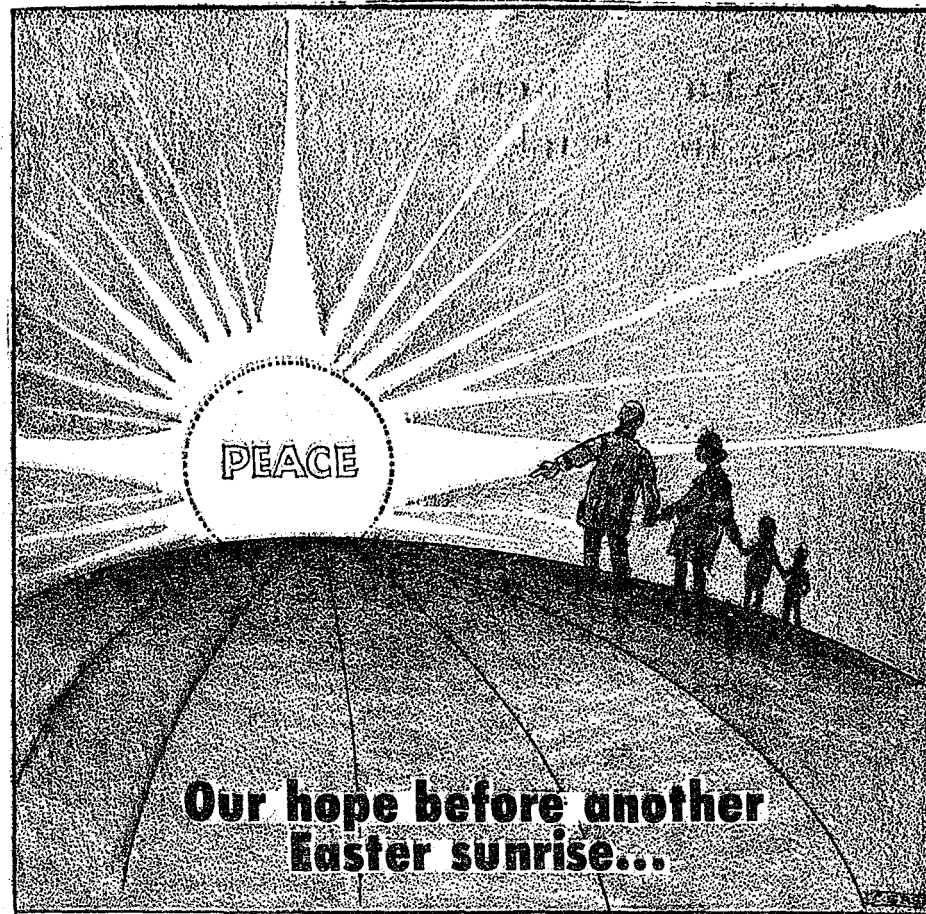

From Mrs. Viri Kessler, West Liberty, Ill.: I remember in the nineteen hundred and teens when all the neighbors came in to help saw wood. On a particular occasion, my sister's cat, "Midnight," had died the night before. After the men removed several logs, they found Midnight. When the kids found that out, a funeral procession started.

Even yet, I can see those kids (all but me, because even the sight of dead things made me sick) filling through the yard gate, two-by-two, behind those carrying Midnight on a shingle. They took it to a clump of plum trees and buried it. For a long time nothing but pure white rose could be put on that grave with the little white marker.

Those were the days. We didn't have to go far or fast to have fun. We made it ourselves, and it was really for "real."

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Primary Progress

Michigan voters will vote May 16 in a presidential primary caused by a series of events beginning in 1968 with the disruptions by dissidents in the Democratic Party. This "domino" effect was set in motion when a special commission, headed by South Dakota Sen. George McGovern, was appointed after the 1968 election to determine ways to assure the Democratic Party was made more open in its processes.

One of the recommendations made by the commission was adopted by the party: that the process through which a state delegation to the national convention is selected begin in the same year as the convention. This was to make sure such late blooming movements as the McCarthy drive in 1968 were fully reflected in the convention decision.

This new rule put Michigan's Democrats in a bind. This state's delegates were picked in a state convention in the same year as the national convention. But the process itself began in August, two years earlier when precinct delegates were elected. The Democrats were forced to devise a plan to get the process started in the same year as the convention or face a challenge to the delegation when it arrived in Miami Beach.

Their first plan, and the one they started pushing in the legislature, was to hold special precinct delegate elections in April. The idea was put into bill form and passed by the Democratic-controlled House in a remarkable display of party unity which even had such mavericks as Rep. E. D. O'Brien falling into line.

But when the issue got to the Republican-controlled Senate, there was no hurry to do anything with it. Many of the Republican lawmakers, with no similar dictates from their own national headquarters, were quite willing to kill the bill and watch the Democrats suffer the embarrassment of a challenge at their convention.

Democrats launched a campaign to put pressure on the GOP, accusing them of trying to keep the political process closed to the public and making some points in the publicity area.

Republican leaders, meeting with Gov. William G. Milliken, decided they had to do something. Instead of following the Democratic plan, they decided to do something else: select the precinct delegates through a primary election.

Now the Democrats were on the defensive. Earlier, in a leadership session, they had turned down the idea of even having the precinct delegates commit themselves to a candidate before their election. A primary in which the delegates were elected directly would strip the leadership of much of its power.

Where they had planned to name the delegates and then take them to the convention uncommitted for bartering, a primary would remove all bartering advantage.

A series of negotiations followed in which the final details were worked out. The Republicans scored a coup with the primary proposal. They were glad to allow the Democrats to elect precinct delegates at the same time and to provide for proportional representation among the delegates in relation to the primary vote of each candidate.

So what began as a dump-Johnson movement in 1968 had resulted, in one of its side effects, in a presidential primary for Michigan.

Accidents Trimmed

A change of only a couple of seconds in the time of traffic lights at some hazardous intersections around the state has actually made a sharp difference in the number of accidents occurring there.

The highway department says it turned the trick by providing for a brief interval with all red traffic lights before the green light goes on for whichever lane is next allowed to move. This change, it says, makes sure the intersection is cleared of drivers "cheating" on the yellow and provides a couple of extra seconds before drivers who drag race from a green light can start.

A two-year study at 17 intersections where the changes were made showed a reduction in total accidents from 428 to 385 and a reduction in injuries from 271 to 198.

All of that for just a couple of seconds' difference.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Maybe it was thoughts of spring that lightened their hearts, but the fellers at the country store (Saturday night weren't viewing everything with alarm during the session. Even Ed Doolittle was heard to admit that life could be worse than out in the open space and clean air where a feller still has room enough to move about and keep the joints loose.

It were Clem Webster that reported where he had saw in one of his farm journals this piece that spoke up for the farmer and rancher. The writer said that taking care of the land was being looked on more and more as an important job and farming was one of the ways a feller can combine this with making a living. Clem said he, for one, sees a lot of joy in living on the land, but making money fast was not one of the joys.

The spring is the best time for thinking on the bright side of farming and ranching but Clem said he allus liked the idea of having room to cuss his cat and stir the land. He got to thinking about how important land is when he read this piece about a high-rise, low-rent housing project in St. Louis. They spent $36 million putting up 83 big apartment buildings to find out that nobody would live all that bunched up. They got three quarters of the 2,800 apartments standing empty, and now they're talking about tearing the hole deal down. One feller said cramming 12,000 people on 57 acres of land was a bad idea, and Clem said he shore would agree.

Bug Hookum said he loved the land as good as the next man, but he was of a mind that farming needs to get out from under the federal Government. This year, Bug said, $4 billion is being spent in farm subsidies for everything from paying folks not to grow anything to paying support prices on what they grow. We got a situation where a rancher can't sell stock for the cost of the feed, and the cost of everything else keeps the squeeze on him. Bug recalled the farmer that was asked what he would do if he inherited a million dollars. The feller said he would keep on farming as long as the money held out.

The fellers talked pretty general about the problems ranchers and farmers has with financing. They was agreed credit is so easy the temptation to borrow to keep going is powerful. Bug said he had saw where 200,000 people went bankrupt last year, more than ever before, and he figured a good many of em was folks that was trying to keep a farming operation together.

Personal, Mister Editor, I am agreed with the farm journal feller that said the farmer has the kind of life a heap of folks wish they had. I saw this piece that allowed 57 percent of Americans feel the "quality of life" has fell off in the past 10 years. I bet they ain't many farmers in that group.

Yours truly
Uncle Lew.

St. Louis School Notes

Last Thursday, March 23, comedian, ventriloquist, and magician Bill Hart came to visit the boys at St. Louis as a luncheon guest of Joe Vitali. He brought his little friend, Harry, a real dummy—literally, and put on a show that began at 1 p.m. and went for about two hours. He took time out from his engagement at the Royal Ascot Supper Club in Lincoln Park to make this special performance. He was aided in several magic tricks by Joseph Vitali, Jr.

On Saturday, March 25 the school celebrated the birthday of Sister Eda with "Happy Birthday" in music presented by Fr. Umberto and the band.

Sunday, March 26, the boys took a trip to St. Joseph's shrine at the Irish Hills near Brooklyn.

Then, on Monday, another birthday party was held for Mrs. Fryback with more band playing and the presentation of a plant. Also present for the party were (Mrs.) Nancy Oswald, special education teacher in Chelsea, and her class. Cake and pop were served.

Wednesday a luncheon with turkey and all the trimmings will be served before the boys leave on a 10-day Easter vacation starting Thursday.

'Point Ten Law' Lowers Percentage for Drunk Driving

Chief George Meranuck of the Chelsea Police Department informs residents of the Chelsea area that Michigan's new, lower blood alcohol levels go into effect at 12:01 a.m., March 30.

Known as the new "Point Ten" law, the act amends Michigan's Implied Consent Law to provide the following lowered blood alcohol levels:

The presumptive level for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor will be reduced from 0.15 percent to 0.10 percent or more.

The impaired driving level will be reduced from 0.10 percent to levels in excess of 0.07 percent but less than the 0.10 percent.

When the blood alcohol level is 0.07 percent or less, a defendant will be presumed not to be under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Blood alcohol levels have been verified as reliable measures of a drinker's reaction to alcohol he has consumed.

Chief Meranuck explained that five (average) highballs or five beers, downed within an hour, will result in a blood alcohol level of approximately 0.10 percent in a 150-pound individual.

The new blood alcohol limits mean that a person formerly subjected to the lesser "impaired" driving charge will now be charged as a drunk driver.

"How fast the drinks are consumed and whether or not food is involved during the drinking will influence the rate of alcohol absorption into the blood stream," Chief Meranuck said.

Michigan's Implied Consent law provides that drivers using Michigan highways are presumed to have given their consent to a chemical test if arrested for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor (DUI). Refusal can result in loss of the driver's license. The Breathalyzer has been established as the approved instrument for making breath tests, and officers operating the instruments must be trained and recertified annually.

Qualifications for operators as well as operational procedures under implied consent are established by the Michigan Department of Public Health. More than 2,200 state, county, and city police officers have been trained to meet the breath testing requirements of the law.

"Alcohol is believed to be a factor in as many as half of the fatal traffic accidents on our highways," Chief Meranuck pointed out. "Enforcement of our state's implied consent law must be fair. But it's also obvious from the record that enforcement must be strict if we are to keep alcohol from making our highways disaster areas!"

Ridiculed Trappers

Hudson's Bay Company trappers were the first Europeans to see Plains Indians hunting buffalo from horseback. Their accounts were ridiculed by officials and settlers convinced that Indians couldn't ride.

DEATH PENALTY WILL STAY

East Lansing—Capital punishment will not be declared unconstitutional this year as a form of cruel or unusual punishment, predicts Prof. Harold J. Spaeth, a Michigan State University political scientist who uses a computer and a massive data bank to predict decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Jean sales in the United States account for one-fourth to three-quarters of all pants sales, depending on the type of store involved.

declamations; Heather Brooks, third place in storytelling; and Mike Hergert, first place in men's extemporaneous. At the far right is forensics coach William Coelius.

Forensics Winners Named

Chelsea High had three Forensics winners at the Brighton Invitational Tournament Saturday, March 25 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. As a group, Chelsea came in second in the contest.

First place individual winners were Marvin Guster, a sophomore, who competed in declamations, and Mike Hergert, a senior, doing men's extemporaneous. In third place in children's storytelling was Heather Brooks. Storytelling is a category just begun last year. Marvin Guster's selection was

"I Am the Devil" in which he took the role of Satan and thanked everybody for being so hateful and apathetic. It made his job easier.

Mike drew three topics, for each of which he had 30 minutes to prepare facts, argument and presentation. His topics were wiretapping, government invasion of privacy, and the effects of the George Wallace presidential campaign.

Heather's piece was a select cutting from Alice in Wonderland. A total of 34 Chelsea students participated in Brighton out of a total participation of 100. Some were members of Chelsea High's debate and forensics team while others were not. The students were coached by debate and forensics coach William Coelius.

A district competition involving only team members is scheduled for Friday, April 14 to run all day at Ann Arbor Greenhills school. Schools participating in the district contest are Greenhills, Chelsea, Saline, Ann Arbor Pioneer, Ann Arbor Huron, and Ypsilanti.

Dr. Palmer Scholarship To Be Given

certain. This will depend on future contributions. Applicants for the scholarship will be judged on three criteria. The first and most important is the sincere desire to study family practice medicine, general medicine, or devote a specialty toward family care. Dr. William Hawks stated that the fund committee is well aware students change their minds about careers many times. "We have no desire to force students to stay in a field they don't want." Yet, at the time of application, medicine should be the student's goal.

A second criteria is their participation in extra-curricular and community activities. "This can include anything," said Dr. Hawks, "from debating, working, or sports." The selection will also rest, somewhat, on financial need. All in all, they are looking for the well-rounded individual.

The deadline to make application is Sunday, April 30. Application forms may be obtained from the Chelsea High school counseling office. All applicants will be given a personal interview by a local physician. Then, finalists will be sifted by asking them to write an essay on the history of medicine, or some phase of it, in the Chelsea area. The award, once won, is not perpetual. Students must re-apply each year.

This fund was established last December in memory of Dr. A. A. Palmer, 79, who died after serving Chelsea for many years as a physician devoted to family medical needs. He was an old style doctor who approached his patients on a one-to-one basis.

The fund is sponsored by the Chelsea Community Hospital where Dr. Palmer was a staff member before his death. Contributions to it may be made with the hospital, with Dr. Joseph V. Fisher, or with Dr. Hawks.

Five Win in Solo, Ensemble State Contest

Chelsea High school students competed in the State Solo and Ensemble competition at Flint Northwestern High school on Saturday, March 25 with some success. Two solists won first and second division plates and two quartets won first divisions.

The first division winner in solo was Karlene Kangel, senior, who played "Concertina" by Von Weber, on clarinet. She competed or second, and received 90 out of which is more difficult than first or second, and received 90 out of 100 as a score.

Second division winner was Tom Hubert, trombone, who received an 80 at the second proficiency level. His piece was "Andanti et Allegro" by Robertz. It was his first year to compete.

Proficiency exams are based on a solo, prepared scales, and sight reading. Judges rate them according to their performance in all three. Quartets compete only on the basis of a prepared selection.

The French Horn Quartet competed with Katherine Schafer, senior; Sue Hafer, freshman; Jim Storey, sophomore; and Mary Beth Chandler, freshman. They were awarded first division playing "Fugata of the Little Bells" by Handel.

The Trombone Quartet consisted of Tom Hubert, senior; Norman Schafer, junior; Norbert Weber, senior; and Lee Ferguson, junior. They performed "Prelude Solelle" by William Spencer Johnson and took a first division award.

All students who compete and earn first divisions in the district competitions are eligible to compete at the state contest sponsored by the Michigan State Band and Orchestra Association.

Bell & Howell Rep To Meet With Students

A representative from Bell & Howell will give a presentation to all interested students at Chelsea High on electronics training programs offered by their company. It will be held Thursday, April 13, during third hour class in the auditorium.

Bell & Howell wants to interest students in entering their electronics training program after high school. There will be a film presentation and a talk given followed by a question and answer period. The representative will also be available fourth and fifth periods to talk with teachers and students.

The company has several institutes of technology around the country and part of their work is in producing visual-aid equipment for schools. They have also donated 18 volumes of "Illustrated Libraries of Human Knowledge" worth well over $100 to the high school library.

The time of the presentation will be announced over the public address system and students will be released from classes by permission of their teachers.

When you serve bacon Easter morning, you are faithfully following tradition as well as pleasing diners. From an old English history come these lines - "It was the unbroken custom to serve, at certain seasons, a particular dish . . . for instance, a gammon of bacon at Easter."

Successful Season Closes At Hockey Awards Night

The first annual "Hockey Awards Night" of the Chelsea District Hockey Association was held Friday, March 24 at the Chelsea Medical Clinic Cafeteria. It marked the end of the Association's first year in existence. More than 160 players, their families, members of the Association, plus sponsors and donors were present.

The evening was devoted mainly to awards presentations but also included a guest speaker and a film of the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Awards given included a Team of the Year award and Most Improved Player awards.

The Pee Wee team, sponsored by the Chelsea Medical Clinic, won the prize for best team. This trophy remains in the possession of the Association but each team member received a small representative trophy. Most improved player awards went to center Mike Hastings on the Pee Wee team, goalie Neil Schiller on the Juvenile team, and defenseman John Hertlein on the Bantams.

The Team of the Year is chosen by several judges on the basis of over-all team work and sportsmanship. The team that wins the most games may not win the trophy.

Owen Loasby, director of the CDHA, says he is proud of the way the youth have conducted themselves. The greatest value of the Association, he feels, is that it teaches sportsmanship, the importance of physical fitness and the ability to deal with failure.

Emphasis was also put on the use of hockey safety equipment. The sport requires a great deal of it and the high expense often causes speculation as to whether it is necessary.

Loasby anticipates a very bright future for the CDHA. Community support has been important to the Association as has aid and support from neighboring hockey groups such as the Ann Arbor association.

"I must admit that I was a bit skeptical before the awards night but now I feel the future looks bright," said Loasby. This change in feeling resulted from the success of the awards night. Membership growth of the association won't be reflected until September registration for the 1972-73 season. At that time they expect to double in size, possibly allowing the creation of two more teams for the age groups 8-10 and 11-14.

Meanwhile, they have "grown more in stature than anything." Interest in the games by spectators has grown so much the Association hopes to install equipment for artificial ice. On the whole this has been a good year for the CDHA.

Choose Help with Taxes Carefully

Detroit—Need help with your income tax return? If you do and you seek professional help, be sure to select only qualified and reputable advisors, the Internal Revenue Service advised taxpayers today.

A taxpayer may have someone else prepare a return, but the taxpayer is responsible for the accuracy of the information entered and the full payment of any additional tax, penalties, and interest charged. IRS District Director Thomas A. Cardoza, said today.

While most tax practitioners are competent and honest, Cardoza alerted taxpayers to these potential danger signals:

Never sign a blank return; Do not sign a tax return prepared in pencil (it can be changed later);

Avoid the advisor who "guarantees" refunds, wants a percentage of the refund, or supposedly knows all the angles; and

Sites Sought for 12 Area Police Libraries

East Lansing — Two Michigan State University graduate students are studying possible sites for 12 regional police libraries to be established in Michigan.

The collections, each expected to contain about 300 books and periodicals for use by local police officials, will be established at existing community college or city-owned libraries.

Food Substitution Formulae Listed

Avoid last-minute baking substitutions if you can, home economists suggest. But, for the times you'll have to "make do" remember these common items:

—Seven-eighths cup hydrogenated shortening plus one-half teaspoon salt equals one cup butter or margarine.

—One cup reconstituted non-fat dry milk plus 2 1/2 teaspoons margarine equals one cup fluid whole milk.

—Seven-eighths cup sifted all-purpose flour (one cup minus two tablespoons) equals one cup cake flour.

—One cup whole milk plus one tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice (or 1 1/4 teaspoons cream of tartar) equals one cup buttermilk or sour milk.

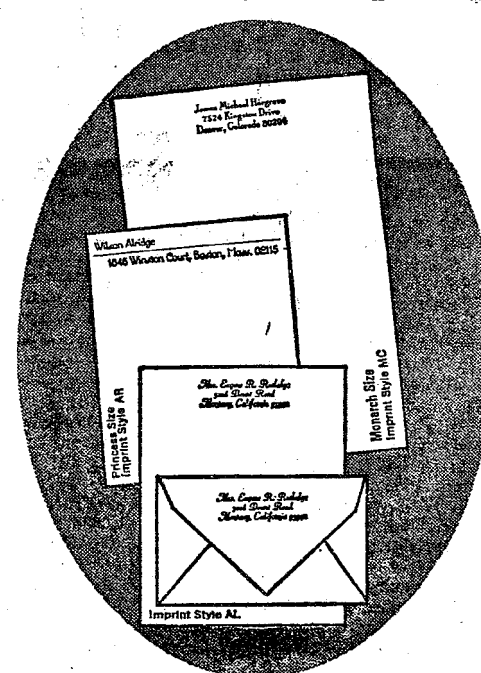

—One tablespoon flour equals one-half tablespoon potato starch, rice starch, arrowroot, quick cooking tapioca or corn starch in thickening.

—Two egg yolks equals one whole egg, in baking or thickening.

—Three tablespoons cocoa plus one tablespoon fat equals one ounce unsweetened chocolate.

—One cup sugar plus 1/4 cup liquid equals one cup corn syrup.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Easter Renews Hope

Easter, this year, comes again to an imperfect earth, offering hope and peace to all the world.
Easter comes during the season of spring, a time for the rebirth of flowers and trees, the greening-up of hills and mountains.

Nature gets this chance each year to bring into the world the beauty of the creator's hand, and we, too, can blossom into the beautiful people and nations that we should be.

It's as if we could start our lives
all over again—correct our errors of the past and begin on the straight and narrow path to a righteous, more meaningful existence. But that is the beauty of Easter—we can, right now, this Easter change our lives for the better.

What UL Label Means to Consumer

What does the "UL" symbol mean on products? Electrical safety is what is most often thought of in connection with the "UL" symbol, but the laboratories also test and certify safety in other areas: heating, air conditioning, and fire protection.

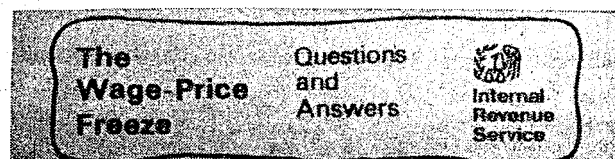

Products to be tested by UL engineers are submitted voluntarily by their manufacturers. They do this because they want to make certain their products measure up to UL's rigid safety standards.

The UL label is a symbol of safety. It is a symbol of trust. It is a symbol of quality. It is a symbol of reliability. It is a symbol of peace of mind. It is a symbol of the UL Label Means to Consumer.

DRINKING-DRIVING SURVEY: U. of M. Highway Safety Research Institute staff members Larry Jones and Gail Grigsby question a driver as part of the second annual drinking and driving survey. Institute members have been stopping drivers since March 13 and will continue their inquiries through April 17. Drivers' replies will be held in strictest confidence and used only for the survey, Institute members emphasize.

Detroit—The Internal Revenue Service today urged all wage earners to adjust their income tax withholding exemption certificates (Form W-4) according to the recently enacted Revenue Act of 1971. Otherwise, many will be subjected to overwithholding and unnecessary reductions in their take-home pay. Thomas A. Cardoza, IRS district director in Detroit, said new withholding provisions of the tax law apply to all wages paid after Jan. 16, 1972, and employees should file new exemption certificates as soon as possible.

The changes in withholding reflect the increases in the standard deduction and in the personal exemption provided by the 1971 Act, and are designed to eliminate the major causes of underwithholding.

THE LANSING REPORT

GIL BURSLEY

With the recent lowering of the voting age, and a Presidential election year at hand that will include a Michigan primary, we are going to see a great many young people becoming much more involved in political activity.

I hope very much that the responsibility inherent in the new prerogative will be recognized, that political activity by young people will go beyond a mere choice of candidates or echoing of slogans—and that the imagination, determination and fresh viewpoint of youth will be brought to bear on the crucial issues of our day.

We live in an age of change and crisis, in a nation that faces some of the most momentous problems of its history, both at home and abroad.

We may make mistakes and our motives misinterpreted. But we have no choice except to continue shouldering the responsibility of world leadership.

Here at home, we have a crime rate that has increased alarmingly. In this nation where individual freedom has traditionally been cherished, individual citizens no longer feel free to walk many city streets and sidewalks.

The very phrases we once waved like banners for the rest of the world to follow have returned to mock us today. We are not guaranteeing a reasonable degree of "Freedom from Fear" to our own citizens, particularly in urban areas. For all too many of our people, "Freedom from Want" remains a meaningless catchword.

Where "Freedom of Speech" and "Freedom of Religion" are concerned, there are those who make a strong case that Supreme Court interpretations of these traditional freedoms have gone too far and are now infringing on the rights and freedoms of society as a whole.

Those problems are certain to be compounded and intensified in the years ahead.

Yet the most immense and complex problems, whether in education or social services or any other area of concern, can be regarded as challenges, exciting challenges, for persons with new ideas and fresh concepts.

I call upon young people to respond to their new privileges and responsibilities by going beyond the surface symbols of political activity—the slogans and campaign buttons and bumper stickers—and bringing new viewpoints and enthusiasm and imagination to the vital issues of our day.

It has been said that man is the only known living thing that laughs and weeps, because man alone recognizes the difference between the way things

★ Home . . .

Poets and song writers through the ages have been writing about "home." Yet today we hear few mentionings of "Home, Sweet Home." Many say that the traditional idea of "home" is gone forever in this day of mass communications and transportation. The idea of "home" to them is a place to sleep and eat.

How wrong this is! The home is still a center of love, learning, and happiness for people who know the real and important values of life. The home is a place of rest—not just physical rest, but also spiritual and emotional rest. The home is a place of nourishment—for the body, soul, and mind.

A recent song says: "Once there was a way to get back home." There still is, if we only try to seek it. It is there, it is available. It starts with love and its goal is happiness. Begin today! Turn your house into a home through love and faith.

are and the way things ought to be.

Perhaps, after a certain number of years go by, those of us who serve in government tend to be somewhat dominated by the way things are.

Perhaps we need young people involved with us to remind us to remind us of the way things ought to be.

Miss Joanne Fisher Cited at U. of M.

Honors Convocation

Miss Joanne R. Fisher was named a James B. Angell Scholar at the University of Michigan's 19th annual Honors Convocation held Friday, March 24.

A total of 263 undergraduates at the University were honored with this award. It is given in recognition of an all-A record for two consecutive terms, although many Angell Scholars maintain a straight-A record for longer periods.

Miss Fisher also received Class Honors recognizing an academic record equal to at least half A's and half B's.

A December graduate of the U-M with an A-B degree in education she now teaches high-school English to hospital patients at the Rehabilitation Center of Boston State Hospital in Boston, Mass. She returned from Boston to attend the honors convocation, staying with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Fisher of 415 Washington St. in Chelsea.

Miss Fisher was among the 3,810 students who were recognized at the convocation. Nearly all received Class Honors. Dr. Roger W. Heyns, President of the American Council on Education, was the featured speaker. Later U-M President Robert W. Fleming and Mrs. Fleming hosted a reception and tea for honor students and their families.

Thought For Food

Who decides what meat to buy? Mrs. Homemaker makes the decision 74.1 percent of the time; her husband, 6.5 percent. It's a joint affair 18.4 percent of the time. Joint decisions are most likely among young families and suburban families.

Food marketing systems designed to save the homemaker time continue to be the trend in the U.S. One example is a return to telephone orders in one large southern city. But there's a new twist. The customer is provided with a list and prices of the same variety of foods found in a typical supermarket. The phoned-in order is delivered within four hours.

JC Auxiliary Notes

Last week's meeting of the Jaycee Auxiliary was a "destination unknown" meeting. Clues were sent in advance to the members, who ended up at Diane Loring's home in Grass Lake. Co-hostess was Barb Updegraff, and three guests from the Howell Auxiliary were present and presented the Chelsea group with the traveling trophy.

It was decided to drop the March of Dimes general chairmanship next year and just handle the Mothers' March and the canisters. Members also voted to adopt the girls in South Hall Cottage at Adrian Girls State Training School for a type of "big sister" program.

A slate of officers for the 1972-73 year was presented, with elections to be held next month, and a speech that will be presented in Dexter at the Spring District meeting March 29 was given. The meeting adjourned with the creed, and refreshments were served.

Fresh Pineapple Is Tasty Change For Dessert Table

Want a tasty, sweet change for your dessert table? Try fresh pineapple, a Michigan State University consumer information specialist suggests.

Choose one which is plump, fresh-looking and as large as possible. Ada Shinabarger suggests. The larger the fruit, the greater the proportion of edible flesh. One-half of a 5-pound fruit, for example, has more flesh than a 3½-pound one.

Look for deep green leaves rather than dry, brown withered ones, and avoid bruised fruit. Discolored or soft spots, traces of mold, unpleasant odor, or watery, dark-colored "eyes" are signs of decay.

Thumping a pineapple, pulling out crown leaves or checking shell color tell you nothing about ripeness, Miss Shinabarger says. (Practice is a good sign, but usually pineapple displayed in store is kept too cold to be fragrant.)

Eat pineapple as soon as possible after purchase. Pineapples cannot sweeten or ripen after harvest. They have no starch reserve, so there is no material to convert to sugar after it has been cut from the plant.

Know Facts in Bulk Meat Buying To Trim Your Budget

To trim your meat budget through bulk-buying, know the facts, advises a Michigan State University consumer information specialist.

Too often, shoppers who buy a whole hog, a quarter or a side of beef, or a flat-price "beef bundle" spend more, rather than less, for meat. Sheila Morley warns.

Unless specifically stated, the advertised per pound price almost always refers to the hanging weight, or weight before cutting and trimming. This means you also pay for all fat and bone that is trimmed off, Mrs. Morley explains. And cutting loss can run as high as one-third of the total weight.

Even if the loss were only one quarter, a customer buying 200 pounds of beef at 69 cents a pound would take home just 160 pounds of meat at an adjusted price of 62 cents a pound.

Find out if wrapping is extra. Some meat dealers charge an extra two cents a pound for wrapping.

Ask also if the meat will be cheap frozen or delivered chilled to be frozen at home. If delivered chilled, you could have problems freezing 150 pounds of meat in home equipment not built to do the job. The information specialist warns.

Two Break-ins, Car Theft Are Reported

Two break-ins and a car theft in Chelsea on Thursday, March 23, are suspected of being the work of an escapee from Waterloo Camp. Robert Lee Montgomery, 28, Montgomery escaped, wearing the blue denim uniform of the camp, at about 12:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 22. The first police suspect Montgomery of having entered illegally in the Chelsea Medical Clinic, at 4:30 p.m.

A nurse in the hallway heard noise in room 131 and went to investigate. Upon entering she observed a male figure wearing blue denim and entering the room through an unlocked window. He fled the same way when he was seen. The nurse, however, could make no positive identification.

The second job, police think, that occurred that early morning was an entry into the unlocked garage of Bruce Graham at 484 Orchard St. (There was an apparent attempt to hot wire the car. Several burned and unburned kitchen matches were found on the garage floor and scratches were discovered on the car fender where the matches were stuck.)

Nothing was missing from the garage even though some valuable tools were there. The car damage was not discovered until morning. (The home of Keith L. Boylan at 245 Park St. was the last place believed tried by the suspect and here he was successful. Between 2 a.m. and 6 a.m. the Boylan home was broken into through a nailed basement window.)

The robber took two purses from the dining room table on the first floor. They belonged to Mrs. Boylan and daughter, Barbara. The car keys were in Barbara's purse, making it easy for the thief to then exit through a side door leading to the driveway, and take the Boylan's green Ford Galaxie.

During the robbery all members of the house were asleep behind closed doors. No one heard any noise and the house was not ransacked or disordered though $32 was gone with the purses.

Later, the car was recovered in Muskegon by police there. A fingerprint was found on the shift lever but no identification has been made. Some matches in the car like those found in the Graham garage police think connect the two incidents.

The fact that Montgomery came from Kent county, where the car was found, make police also connect Montgomery to the Boylan theft. State police are searching for him as an escapee. Investigating officers in Chelsea are Chief George Meranuck and Officer Bruce G. Sibert.

CHS Festival Choir Leaving Next Tuesday for Nassau

Twenty-two Chelsea High school students will be traveling to Nassau next week to participate in the Festival of the Americas, an international music contest. The 22 make up the Festival Choir, a special group chosen by audition last fall.

The group will be leaving from Metro Airport on the morning of April 4 and will return home aboard a chartered flight on April 10. Their time in Nassau will be divided among rehearsing, competing, and free time.

This will be the first time any music group from Chelsea has participated in an international festival. To qualify, the group had to send an audition tape and resume to festival authorities. They were notified of their acceptance in October.

Each student is responsible for financing his own trip, but the group has worked together to raise money through such projects as bake sales and singing Valentines. They have performed in public as a group once before, at the Christmas concert at the high school.

Chorus director DiAnn L'Roy considers being invited to the festival a great honor for the group and for Chelsea. "No other school in the area has done anything like this," she says, adding that it is notable that a school the size of Chelsea's has a choir talented enough to be chosen. She also considers the raising of funds for the trip a huge undertaking and praises the motivation of Chelsea students.

"We'll be competing in the big leagues this time," she said, adding that she feels the chorus will be "good ambassadors for the village of Chelsea."

Use Checks or Money Orders To Pay Taxes, IRS Director Advises

Detroit—Use a check or money order to pay your 1971 Federal income tax, Thomas A. Cardoza, District Director of Internal Revenue for Michigan said today.

"Unlike a cash payment, a check or money order gives you a record of payment in case of loss or misdelivery."

Cardoza pointed out that payment can be stopped on a misplaced check or money order and a new payment made.

Checks or money orders should be made payable to the Internal Revenue Service. Write your social security number on the check or money order and state the exact purpose of the payment to help assure your payment is properly credited.

The chorus will perform three songs, "Billy Boy," "Alleluia," and "Echo Song." Chorus members include Nancy Aldrich, Jeanette Bailey, Terry Bassett, Judi Blass, John Coley, Richard Egeler, Ron Gauss, JoAnne Harvey, David Hess, Marie Houle, Karen Johnson, Pat Knickerbocker, Ed Koenigter, Ann Merkel, Keith Pfeifle, Connie Salyer, Jeff Schmidt, Tim Wade, Jeanne Thornton, Mark Wright, Dale Heydlauff, and Carol Warywoda.

Mobil Gas Station Reports Break-in, Theft

A robbery of Earl's Mobil gas station on M-52 occurred between 5:10 and 5:45 a.m. on Tuesday, March 28. Stolen was $85.93 in cash.

Police found a bottom window of the garage broken so as to appear as the method of entry, but the glass looked as if it had been broken, not from the outside but from the inside.

Owner Earl Stover, of 725 Archwood, Ann Arbor, reported having had all locks changed when he bought the station, but several of his employees have had access to keys. Former employees could have had copies made without his knowledge, according to Stover. Right now, there are no suspects in the case.

The investigating officer was Bruce G. Sibert.

Farm Production

Many people in less fortunate countries of the world must engage in farming, part or full time, in order to eat. Here in the United States, research education, resources and know-how combine to release 90 percent of the population for work other than producing their own food. Efficiencies in agriculture are so advanced that we're able not only to feed ourselves, but also others throughout the world.

Committees Named for Walk Project

Todd Gardner, student walk director of the Chelsea Walk for Mankind committee, has appointed the following persons to serve as members of the May 6 Project Concern steering committee: Joe O'Neil, treasurer; Sue Morrison, junior high walk director; Tom Skittenheim, public relations; Karl Gauss and Don Pierson, manpower committee; Dan Hoover, traffic control; Ron Gauss, schools and church committee; Tim Eder, awards and entertainment; and Debbie Bergman, refreshments.

Gardner stated that he is hoping that the walk, co-sponsored by the student group and by the Chelsea Jaycees, will raise a large amount of money for Project Concern's international medical relief programs. A good-sized crowd of walkers is expected to participate in the approximately 20-mile route.

Walk proceeds will be shared on a 75-25 percent basis, 75 percent going to Project Concern and 25 percent coming back to the community.

More information about the walk is available from Todd Gardner, 475-8306, and Jaycees walk chairman Mike Eubank, 475-2382.

At present, one-third of the world's land area is tilled or in pasture; one-fifth covered by snow and ice; two-fifths occupied by deserts, mountains, or arid zones. (There is an estimated reserve of 950 million acres available for tillage. Of these acres, 125 million must be tilled every year to meet the food requirements of the world's increasing population.)
