Baseball Team Wins First in Play-Off Series

Host Tecumseh Saturday Afternoon With Winner Going to Semi-Finals

The new SEC baseball champion Bulldogs are certainly not resting their laurels since winning the last week. Playing four games in three days over the weekend and their final league game with South Lyon Tuesday, they will finish the 1972 schedule with a flurry of non-league games in qualifying rounds for the Class B championship.

One of their "better" ball games of the year, according to coach, Carl Genske, the Bulldogs soundly defeated Dundee, May 19, 7-0.

Senior Wayne Welton pitched one of his finest games of the year in posting a one-hitter with only two walks and 14 strikeouts. One single in the third ruined an otherwise perfect afternoon for the ace hurler.

Chelsea hit the ball well all day, collecting 10 hits, with Todd Rague hammering out three bases and Jeff Daniels notching two 3B's on two single. Ralph Steward came through with the big hit the game, a triple in the third score two runs.

Chelsea was caught flat-footed the first half of a double-header Saturday against Columbia in an invitational game at Tecumseh.

The Bulldogs just couldn't hit the ball at all and made five errors in the field to lose, 3-0. Randy Brier with a double and Joe Spiranti with a single collected the only two hits for Chelsea in the losing encounter.

Tim VanSlambrouck went all the way for Chelsea and gave up six outs.

"He had some control problems," Genske said of his losing pitcher, "he kept putting the ball right over the plate all the time."

Central batsmen had no trouble finding the ball and it seems, for the first time this season, Chelsea fielders had trouble finding the handle.

The Bulldogs rebounded in the second half of the twin-bill, crushing Saline, 12-1.

Dave Lukasiak just missed notching a no-hitter when a fluke pop-fly in the seventh with two outs fell in for a base hit.

Catcher Mike Nadeau must have brought an awfully big bat as he went 3-4 at the plate, rapping out a single, triple and home run and recording four RBI's.

SEC champion Bulldogs sputtered their way through the first round of local playoffs with a 3-0 victory over hapless Ida on Sunday, May 21.

The Bulldogs couldn't get started at the plate, connecting for only two hits, but capitalized on five errors to win the lackluster encounter.

Ron Sweeney had a fine afternoon on the mound, giving up only three hits while recording seven strikeouts, but the hero of the day was Wayne Welton who scored two of the Bulldogs' runs. He stole two bases in the first after walking, and scored on a suicide squeeze bunt as Chelsea came up with two runs. In the fourth, he scored on a throwing error after walking again.

Chelsea now meets Tecumseh in the pre-district game at home on Saturday at 2 p.m. The winner of this game advances into the semi-finals at Blissfield, June 3.

Champs Rout South Lyon

Bulldogs completed league play for the season with a 14-0 rout of South Lyon Tuesday afternoon. With this final SEC game, Chelsea's record stands at 13-1 in conference play and 18-3 overall.

Wayne Welton again gained the victory, giving up only three hits and recording 15 strikeouts in his final outing in the SEC as a Bulldog.

CHELSEA KIWANIS CLUB Good Citizenship award recipients are: (first row) Judy Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powers, 7th grade; Elizabeth Haselschwardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haselschwardt, 8th grade; Jodie Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels, 9th grade; Michelle McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen McClellan, 10th grade; Phyllis Buss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buss, 11th grade; and Cynthia Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chandler, 12th grade. (Back row) Charles Wortley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Morgan, 7th grade; David Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Fletcher, 8th grade; Paul Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence

Wood, 9th grade; David Klemmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Klemmer, 10th grade; Dan Houle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Houle, 11th grade; and Tom McKernan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark McKernan. The club notes to the winners: "This award is presented to you by the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea as a token of acknowledging your outstanding achievements and your devotion to good citizenship. Our interest in you is based on your attitude toward school and civic activities and your willingness to do your best to further the essence of democratic living. We hope this award will help guide you to further understanding and fellowship with others and inspire greater achievements in the future."

Kiwanis Citizenship Awards Given

Chelsea Kiwanians held their annual awards dinner Monday, May 22 to honor the outstanding male and female members of each class from 7th through 12th grade in Chelsea schools.

The awards are meant to honor those students who best exemplify a "well-rounded" attitude towards school and the community. It is not a popularity contest, but an acknowledgment of the students' outstanding achievements in the fields of athletic, scholastic and community service, as well as good citizenship.

As in the past, winners were selected through the combined efforts of the faculty and the students. Students vote on a list of qualified candidates which is then narrowed down to the winners by the faculty. In this way the winners are really acknowledged by their peers in addition to the public recognition at the Kiwanis meeting.

This year's winners are: Charles Wortley and Judy Powers, 7th grade; David Fletcher and Elizabeth Haselschwardt, 8th grade; Jodie Daniels, 9th grade; Michelle McClellan, 10th grade; Phyllis Buss, 11th grade; and Cynthia Chandler, 12th grade.

In other business Monday night,

Bulldog Track Team Second in Conference

League champion Saline showed that their perfect record in the SEC this year was no fluke as they ran off with top honors in the conference meet Thursday, May 18 by the widest margin ever recorded. Saline's 78 far outdistanced second-place Chelsea's 30 and South Lyon's 29.

"They just have too much depth," said Chelsea Coach Bert Kruse. Chelsea took four firsts and set one new meet record, but it wasn't nearly enough to top the league's powerhouse.

Three Bulldog victories came in the field events with the fourth coming in the mile as Dave Buxton broke the standing record, set in 1965, by a full three seconds, with a time of 4:36 flat.

Randy Seitz took first place points in the shot put with a toss of 48'7". Teammate Ishmael Picklesimer placed fifth in the event with 41'73/4."

Roger Fitch and Tim Lancaster added the other two victories for Chelsea in the high jump and pole vault with 5'10" and 12'6" efforts, respectively.

Other Chelsea points were added in the relays, a fifth-place finish in the 180-yd. low hurdles by Craig Coltre in :22.2, and a fifth in the 220-yd. dash by Carl Gauss in :24.3.

The 880-yd. relay team of Gauss, Marty Cashdollar, Coltre, and Lee Ferguson took a fourth in the time of 1:35.6, followed by a fifth-place finish in the 440-yd. relay by Cashdollar, Gauss, Picklesimer, and Lancaster in :47.2.

The mile relay was a disappointment for the squad as they raced to a second-place finish only to be disqualified for using an "improper baton."

A makeshift baton used by the Chelsea contingent was found after the race not to meet size specifications.

But Shut Out In State Meet

SEC track representatives did not fare too well in the state meet held Saturday, May 20 in East Lansing.

Chelsea's Dave Buxton ran a 4:33.9 mile but it was not good enough to claim a point-placing position. Another Bulldog, Tim Lancaster, failed to reach the qualifying height of 12'8" in the pole vault. Saline's Mark Gage scored the only points for SEC schools with a fourth-place finish in the 120-yd. high hurdles.

Chelsea trackmen will have one final outing this season when 11 members travel to the Jackson Jaycee "honors roll" invitational Friday, May 26 at Michigan Center. This annual event honors the eight top athletes in each event from schools in the Jackson area. Classes A-D will be represented.

Shell Station Cash Register Hit for $53

$53 in cash was taken from the cash register at the Shell service station on M-52 in the early morning hours Monday, May 22.

Station employee Jim Phinney, 16450 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., phoned the Chelsea police stating that at 5:15 a.m. three black men had driven into the station seeking assistance and shortly thereafter all the money in the register was missing.

Phinney reported that a white compact car, possibly a Ford, drove into the station and parked out of sight behind several large displays in the window of the station. A man, described as being 18-25 years old, 5'9" tall, 145-160 pounds and wearing a black and white shirt with an Afro hair style and dark complexion, entered the station and told Phinney that the car was overheating. Phinney went out to look at the car and was engaged in small talk about car troubles by a second suspect, described as being similar in appearance to the first only with shorter hair and lighter complexion. A third suspect was seated in the back seat of the car and was not described.

Horse Show Scheduled at Fairgrounds

The Southeastern Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor will sponsor the Circle K Horse Show at the Chelsea Fairgrounds June 3 and 4. The all-Western show is the fifth annual show presented by the Kiwanians.

500 horses will be entered in the two-day event. Appaloosas will be shown Saturday, and regular Quarterhorses will be shown on Sunday. The first class begins at 9 a.m. both days.

Halter showing will be in the mornings on both days. Speed and action events are scheduled for the afternoons.

John Lake of Duncanville, Tex., will be the judge for the events. Food concessions will be available to the public. For further information call Brad Harding, 555-0400.

Memorial Day Observance Slated Monday

Plans have been formalized for the annual Memorial Day parade, Monday, May 29. Donald O'Dell will be acting parade marshal this year with William Schrader serving as officer of the day.

The parade is scheduled to form at 9:30 a.m. in the municipal parking lot and will step off at 10 a.m. to follow the usual route through the village. Before the parade starts flags and Dairy Queen certificates will be given to all those who participate in the parade.

The parade will be led by color units from the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, followed by a firing squad and local veterans. The Chelsea High school band will provide the marching music for the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Girl Scouts as well as Brownie Troops which will follow the cars in which the various speakers will ride. The Junior High band will be next in line followed by children walking or riding decorated bicycles.

The parade will end at Oak Grove Cemetery where a commemorative ceremony will be held to honor America's war dead. Ray Lutovsky, master of ceremonies, will open the service, followed by the invocation by the Rev. Fr. Francis Wahowiak. Mrs. Delphine Borianowski will then introduce members of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The Memorial Day observance will continue with a selection from the High School Band under the direction of Warren Mayer and an address by Dr. Gorton Riehmiller. The service will conclude with a salute from the firing squad, taps, and the "Star Spangled Banner" played by the bands. A benediction from the Rev. John Morris will end the ceremony.

The parade will then re-form to march back to the parking lot.

For further information contact Loren Keezer, 475-3431 or 475-2766.

Heidi Sprague Will Tour with Symphony

Heidi Sprague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sprague of 3490 Clear Lake Rd., will be touring the eastern and midwestern U.S. as a member of the American Wind Symphony Orchestra for 10 weeks this summer, beginning May 25.

Heidi, who has just completed her second year as a Music and French major at Eastern Michigan University, is one of 50 young musicians who are wind and percussion players.

Robert Boudreau, graduate of the Julliard School of Music and the orchestra's organizer, selects 50 musicians from more than 400 auditioners from all over the U.S. and Canada.

The orchestra will present 29

Junior High Band Plans Spring Concert

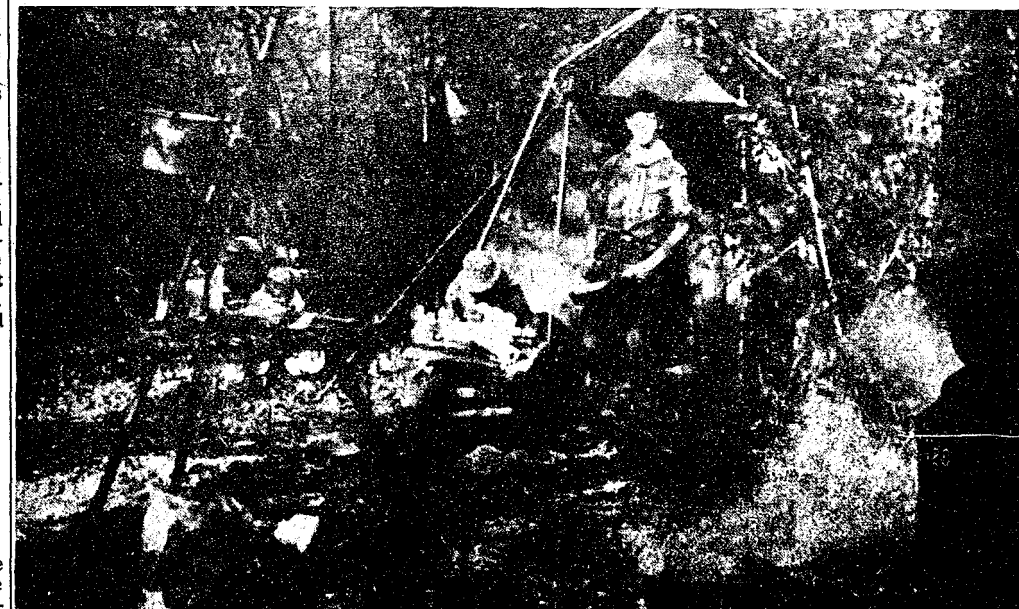

The 6th, 7th, and 8th grade bands will present their annual Spring Concert at the Beach school cafeteria on Thursday, June 1 at 7:30 p.m.

The program will open with the 6th grade band in their first public performance. Several smaller ensembles from the 6th grade will also perform, followed by the 7th grade band. A highlight of the 7th grade segment of the concert will be a cornet solo with the band. The 8th grade band will conclude the evening's entertainment.

There is no charge for the concert, which is open to the public; however, donations will be accepted at the door.

Lima Township Picks Convention Party Delegates

Official results of the May 18 Michigan primary for Lima township delegates have finally been announced. These vote totals were unavailable at press time last week. Delegates: Republican, Jay Bradbury, uncommitted, 47; Edwin Coy, uncommitted, 45; Virginia Denham, uncommitted, 44; and Walter Wolfgang, Nixon, 57; Democrat, Ann Wood, 88, and Wallace Wood, 11, both uncommitted.

TROOP 420, led by Cecil Clouse, puts a hand-made tripod table to good use in preparing the evening meal at the Spring Camporee Saturday evening.

Scouts had to pack everything they had for the three night campout on their backs, so they traveled light and improvised on many things.

Spring Camporee Draws 327 Scouts, Leaders into Woods

Three hundred twenty-seven scouts and adult leaders took part in the Iroquois District Boy Scout Spring Camporee, held in the wilderness section of the Donald Dolt farm southwest of Chelsea last week-end, May 19-21.

Every community in the district, which includes Chelsea, Dexter, Portage Lake, Manchester, Whitmore Lake, Saline, and Milan, was well-represented by 15 troops and one Webelo pack.

Dexter was represented by Troop 428, Jim Klapperich and Don Ray, scoutmasters; Troop and Troop 448, Bill Steptoe, scoutmaster; Troop 475, Portage Lake from Dexter, Walter Mosley, scoutmaster, was also present.

Chelsea was represented by Troop 420, Cecil Clouse, scoutmaster; Troop 425, Jim Brannham, scoutmaster; and Troop 476, Larry Poertner, scoutmaster, Chuck Stoner, a assistant scoutmaster. Troops 425 and 476 are sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club. Webelo Pack 455 of Chelsea also attended the event.

"Light packing" was the 477, Jack Brigham, scoutmaster; theme of the camporee. The scouts, following the prime rule of scouting, operated by the patrol method, and used only supplies and furnishings that they carried the mile back into the camp areas.

Each patrol, consisting of six to eight scouts, planned its own meals, campsite, and participation in the camporee program, under its elected patrol leader. The troops and their patrols were judged on their ability to

TOP JAYCEE AWARD: A highlight of the awards dinner Saturday evening was the presentation of a Jaycee International Senatorship to Walter Brown. This is the highest award that a Jaycee can receive and Brown's is only the fourth awarded in the history of the Chelsea Chapter. Art Steinaway (left) is a previous winner of the honor. Mitchell Zink (right) joins Steinaway in awarding the plaque to Brown.

Jaycees, Auxiliary Install Officers Saturday Evening

Chelsea Jaycees and Jaycee Auxiliary held their annual installation of officers and awards dinner Saturday, May 20 at the Hotel Haynes in Jackson. Richard Loring served as master of ceremonies as awards were presented to members for their outstanding service during the past year.

Mrs. Walter Brown, president of the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary, presented a brief annual report of their activities and installed the newly-elected board members: Mrs. Mike Eubanks, president; Mrs. Richard Cail, vice-president and treasurer; and Mrs. Richard Loring, secretary.

Mrs. Brown was then presented her past-president pin and a gift from her membership of a pewter wine goblet. She then presented Auxiliary awards to Sue Cail and Diane Loring as first year Sparkettes, Judy Eubanks and Joanne Rowe second year, Sandy Brown, third year, Barb Updegraff, fifth year, and Anne Steinaway, sixth year. These awards are given to women who have earned 110 points in community service and have attended two-thirds of the meetings during the course of the past year. The Outstanding Project award was presented to Mrs. David Rowe for "Lunch With Santa." The Outstanding Chairman award was given to Mrs. Robert Updegraff for "Balloon Ascension."

The Outstanding Jaycette trophy was awarded by Mrs. Mitchell Zink, last year's recipient, to Mrs. Mike Eubanks, this year's outstanding local member. Mrs. Zink was presented a plaque to replace the trophy and Mrs. Eubanks was also given a charm and certificate.

Mrs. Eubanks also was awarded the Key Woman award signifying her devotion and loyalty to the organization. Highlight of the Auxiliary presentation was the presentation of the "Lunch With Santa." The

Washington Report by Congressman MARVIN L. ESCH

Congress has just cleared for the President's signature a bill that establishes a national program for the prevention, treatment, and diagnosis of sickle cell anemia. Sickle cell is a disease that has already touched 200,000 blacks in the United States; and today estimates are that there are another two million who could pass it on to their children. Noted hematologists have warned if both parents possess the sickle cell trait, chances are one in four with every pregnancy that the child will have this dread disease.

Sickle cell is a genetic problem usually uncovered within a child's first few months. It can shorten a person's life substantially. Statistics have proven that the disease process not only causes lowered resistance to infectious diseases and repeated attacks of severe pain due to the clotting of changing blood cells but that there are only a few patients who have it that live beyond 40 and when they do, they most often live with crippled, sometimes long before that age.

Until a short time ago, few research laboratories or public health agencies delved into the sickle cell threat. Since recent events have proven that sickle cell anemia is more widespread than ever suspected, there has been a growing awareness that more dollars ought to be committed toward eliminating the threat of sickle cell anemia.

With this in mind Congress this year took action. The bill that has just been sent to the President authorizes $115 million for three years, fiscal '73 through '75, for programs to control and treat sickle cell anemia. It is the first time that U.S. government dollars have been committed in such a way. If it is hoped that now a concentrated effort may be started to combat what has proven to be a devastating disease. Up to this point little has been done and there is much ground to cover.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ever now and then, the fellows at the country store gits to wondering if all the rockets we shoot to the moon and everywhere has anything to do with the weather. Clem Webster brung up the subject Saturday night, and he was worried that if bad weather was blamed on the space shoots the Government might take over the weather fer the good of the country. Clem said that would be the best move since the Government took over farming.

If farmers and ranchers needed a drizzle they'd have to file a 20-page application that would have to go thru so many congressional committees they'd have to amend the request to a gully washer to end the dry spell. And once it got started, the country would be flooded afore we could go thru everybody from the precinct chairman up to it it stopped, was Clem's words.

Final, went on Clem, Congress would decide they had no business in the weather business. Then gitting the Government out of the weather would be like gitting the Government out of the mail business. We'd find jest we couldn't do anything with the weather without the Government support.

Mister Editor, I don't know about yore operation, but according to figgers kicked around during the session, this private mail corporation is going to have to bankrupt the country to show a profit. If they more than double the postage rates for magazines and newspapers in the next few years like they plan, I don't see how we can keep calling what we got in this country a free press. The fellows mulled this over and they agreed it would be better fer the mails to lose a little money than fer everybody that depends on the mail to lose their shirt.

Zeke Grubb pointed out that he allus claimed that the best way to make shore crime don't pay is to let the Government run it. He said the new Postal Service is having its trouble, but it can't be no worse than the old mail outfit. What can you say about a mail service that loses a note boxcar full of mail fer more than two years, ask Zeke, and he answered by allowing you could say what you'd say about a railroad that couldn't find the boxcar either.

Right afore the feller that run the store was fixing to lock us up inside and go home, the talk shifted to women. First off, it was agreed that the Government and no other earthly power could take them over, and fer that all the fellers was thankful. Wimmen keep us guessing, and the only thing we can be shore of is that the next thing they do will be a surprise.

Actual, the fellers usual thinks kindly of the wimmenfolks. Ed Doughtie said he liked the way his old lady looks out fer him. Used to when he'd leave the house, Ed said, she'd tell him to stay out of trouble, but now she jest warns him to watch what he eats. Ed said she knows her man.

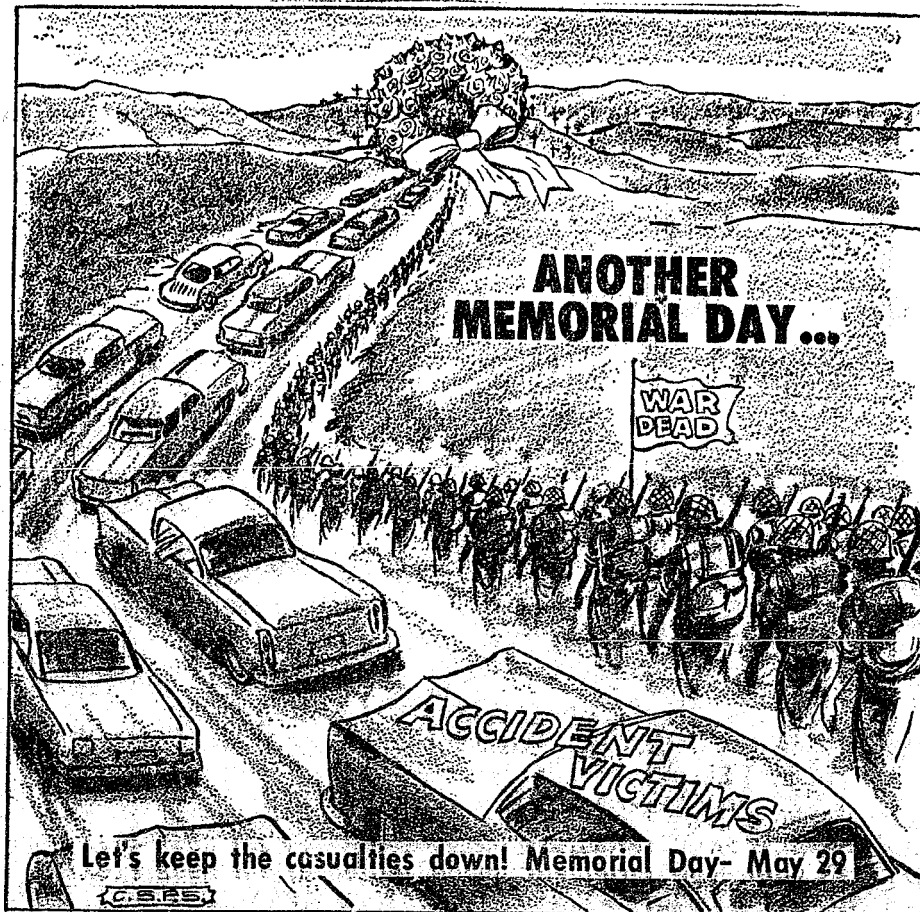

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Milliken Changes

The strength of President Nixon's position in the Republican Party this year is perhaps best demonstrated in the ranks of the Republican Governors Conference.

The conference includes his two chief rivals from 1968 days—Nelson Rockefeller of New York and Ronald Reagan of California. Its chairman this year, Gov. William G. Milliken, backed another man (Rockefeller) in 1968.

Yet all three are actively backing the President this year. In fact, they are half of a group of six Republican governors designated as surrogate candidates to stand in for Nixon until after the Republican convention in August.

The six are going to be traveling around the country, mainly in their own geographic areas, to keep the Republican faithful moving until Nixon starts working publicly on his re-election after the convention.

The three governors all had to make a change in their positions to back the President fully, and Milliken made as big a change as any.

In 1970, when he ran for a full term as Governor of Michigan, the Governor was very careful to keep a clear dividing line between himself and the national administration. The President never did visit the state in 1970 and Vice President Agnew came only once. On that visit Milliken found reasons to be elsewhere in the state than where Agnew was.

But that decision was a matter of practicality as it was ideology, since polls showed Nixon would be a negative rather than positive force for Milliken.

Now it's two years later, and the shoe is on the other foot. Nixon is running for another term, as is Republican Sen. Robert Griffin, a long-time friend of Milliken's. In Michigan and the Midwest, the Governor, who isn't running for office, is a plus rather than a minus for both Nixon and Griffin, so he is actively campaigning for them.

The Governor isn't pretending he agrees with Nixon on every issue. At the Republican Governors Conference earlier this spring he worked to keep a Vietnam resolution to a general endorsement of the President's withdrawal policy since he did not approve of such steps then going on as the bombing of the North.

He also said at a separate time the President's decision not to seek a constitutional amendment to ban busing was made for the wrong reason.

No two people agree completely on everything, and Milliken told an interviewer earlier that he doubts he'll ever agree 100 percent with any politician, Republican or Democrat.

He is sincere in his support of Nixon. The Governor admires the President's grasp of government and his approach to problems, even if he doesn't agree with some of the results.

Besides, this is 1972 and it's the President's turn on the ballot. If the President can stay out of Michigan to help the Governor in 1970,

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my friends, relatives, and neighbors for cards and visits while I was in the hospital and after my return home. A special thanks to the Chelsea Varsity Baseball team for their thoughtfulness. A thank you to Pastor Keller of Our Savior Lutheran church.

Harold Stewart.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank the people who bought our "Buddy Poppy," the merchants who displayed our posters, the Senior Citizens for use of the Korner House for our headquarters, the Chelsea Standard and all of my helpers who gave so generously of their time to make our "Buddy Poppy" drive a big success. Thanks again to all.

Lucy Platt,
Buddy Poppy chairman,
VFW Auxiliary No. 4076.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank my friends and relatives who visited me in the hospital and the Chelsea Farm Bureau and North American Rockwell for the plants. Also the Chelsea Blood Bank.

Clifford Heydlauff.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our loving husband and father, Frank Reed, Nov. 23, 1971. You bid no one goodbye. You were gone before we knew it. And only God knows why. You meant so much to us, in such a special way, and all who loved you shared with us the sorrow of that day. Your kindness lingers with us and the love we shared still shows. And when old time we often recall, that's when we miss you most of all. You left us quietly, thoughts unknown, but left us memories we are proud to own. Sadly missed by wife and all the family.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank my sister, Mrs. Carl Gieske, Jr., and Mrs. Peg Poertner, for caring for my daughter during my stay in the hospital. A special thank you to all the friends and relatives who sent cards and plants both during my stay and since my return home. A special thank you to the Chelsea Medical Center and the Rev. Paul Gerhart, pastor of the Congregational church. A very special thank you to my husband for standing beside me throughout.

Mrs. Edward Harok.

THANK YOU

Many thanks for the calls, cards and flowers from friends and relatives that I received during my stay at the Chelsea Community Hospital.

Anne Stofer.

PLANTING TIME

Now that the soil has warmed and almost all frost danger is past, gardeners can begin planting beans, cucumbers, squash, melons, okra, lima beans, watermelons, late potatoes, and sweet corn, say Michigan State University horticulturists.

American Legion Post 31, has announced the delegation of boys which will represent the Post at the 31st annual Wolverine Boys' State at East Lansing, June 12-19. James Boylan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boylan, 245 Park St., Thomas Thomsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomsen, 634 Flanders St., and Thomas Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Jr., 6693 Lingane Rd., were chosen for their leadership qualities to participate in Boys' State.

St. Thomas Lutheran church congregation saw nine young people confirmed May 19. The confirmands are Randy Weiner, Violet Egeler, Renee Gross, Alvin Ernst, Roy Weidmayer, Dan Houk, Carl Schneider, Aletha Haab, and Kathy Walworth. Pastor of the Freedom township church is the Rev. John W. Ribar.

Mrs. H. D. Lange, a teacher in Chelsea for 14 years, retires this June after a 22-year teaching career. Her 6th graders had done a bit of sleuthing behind Mrs. Lange's back, discovering that this was the last year she would be teaching. They put their heads together with the room mothers, Mrs. Olen Hart, Mrs. Duane Schiller, and Mrs. Arden Musbach, and everybody sneaked in a pink-frosted cake, popcorn, cookies, and "red pop" on May 24 to fete Mrs. Lange at a retirement party in the South school classroom.

4-H club members turned out in force to plant their yearly selections in the planters on the porch of McKune Memorial Library. Club members select the flowers and plants and pay for them from their treasury. This year geraniums, baby marigolds, and vines were planted. Club members present for the planting included Jeff Van Riper, Becky Van Riper, Joan Yocum, Cindy Van Riper, Billy Van Riper, James Bacon, Gina Van Riper, Linda Van Riper, Lynda Koch, Denise Bycraft, Diane Bycraft, and Sharon Heydlauff.

A life-long resident of Chelsea, the Rev. David W. Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne C. Harvey, will be ordained to the priesthood Saturday, June 1.

Chelsea Products employees were entertained Thursday evening at a special company dinner served by the Women's Guild of St. Paul's church in the church hall. Approximately 150 were present for the dinner, arranged for the purpose of permitting Chelsea employees to meet officials of the Dana Corp. of Toledo, O., who purchased the plant recently. Chelsea Products president Robert Wagner and vice-president E. W. Eaton met the officials at the plant.

Installation of officers of the Chelsea PTA for the 1958-59 school year took place at the May 21 meeting of the organization in the gymnasium at North Elementary school. The installation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Louis Vogel of Pleasant Lake, a past president of the Western Washtenaw Area PTA Council. Officers installed are Gerald Carr, president; Jack Good, vice-president; Mrs. Philip Rusten, secretary; and Mrs. W. J. Howes, treasurer.

Chelsea Jaycees Auxiliary members plan to inaugurate a long-planned "welcome wagon" project June 1, according to committee members working on arrangements. The Jaycee plan is to call on newcomers of the community, acquaint them with the various community activities, and generally help them to become acquainted. Members of the committee include the chairman, Mrs. Thomas McClellan, and Mrs. Homer Kuhl, Mrs. P. G. Schaible, Jr., and Mrs. Elton Guenther.

A new Home Extension study group was organized Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Donald Bauer. The group chose the name "Chelsea Suburbanettes," and will hold meetings every month, continuing through the summer. Officers for the new club are Mrs. Earl Kuhl, chairman; Mrs. Darrell Satterwaite, vice-chairman; Mrs. Bruce Bycraft, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Keith Schuelke, community chairman; and Mrs. Donald Bauer and Mrs. Robert Koch, project leaders.

Mrs. Reuben Steinbach entertained her piano pupils after a recital at her home on Steinbach Rd. Sunday afternoon. Those who took part in the recital are Carol Lynn and Laurie Reddeman, Cynthia Niehaus, Vilma, Judy, and Arlys Wiseman, all of the Chelsea area.

Chelsea men are making a fine showing in the organized Naval division which is headquartered at Jackson, according to Lt. Commander Marshall E. Collins, USNR, Inspector-Instructor. Next to the city of Jackson, Chelsea is found to be the community with the second greatest number of men enrolled. The men who keep Chelsea in the foreground are: Donald E. Baldwin, Lyle D. Christwell, Vernon Conk, Robert J. Freysinger, LaVerne Haffey, Clare Knickerbocker, David S. Longworth, Phillip Roy, Walter Tarnacki, and Jack Wellnitz.

The local VFW Auxiliary hospital committee sponsored a party for veterans at the Ypsilanti hospital last week on Tuesday evening. Members from Chelsea who attended were Loretta Doll, Bernice Rabley, Catherine Dorer, Myrtle Price, Florence Walker, Mary Kniss, Magdalen Weber, Ann Dvorak, and Janet Hutzel. Josephine Hochrein went with them as their guest. Chelsea ladies who made donations for the party but were unable to attend were Hazel Bycraft, Gladys Weatherwax, and Ned Perkins.

According to an announcement made early this week by Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, manager of the Washtenaw County Road Commission, representatives of Dexter, Lyndon and Sylvan townships have agreed to contribute half of the cost of black-topping the Werker-Stofer road link of 3.6 miles, which will complete the improvements of the road between Chelsea and North Lake, begun last summer.

Fire of undetermined origin burned a hole about four feet long in the roof of the Walter Jarvie Home on the Dexter-Chelsea Rd., Saturday afternoon. The fire began near the chimney.

34 Years Ago...

Thursday, May 26, 1938—

The Executive Board of the Chelsea Public Library has had several busy weeks organizing and formulating by-laws whereby it may give efficient service to the village and surrounding townships. Officers of the board are as follows: Henry C. Schneider, president; Mrs. Warren Daniels, vice-president; Mrs. Edward Eaton, secretary; Mrs. P. G. Schaible, treasurer; Mrs. A. A. Palmer, public relations; and William Kolb, director of extension.

Chelsea is now enjoying the greatest "building boom" that has been underway here for several years. Three new houses are now being constructed. William G. Kolb is building a new residence on E. Summit St., supervised by M.P. Swickard. Robert Lantis is building on Washington St. Sam Bohnet is the head carpenter. Lloyd Lantis' new residence at 127 Orchard St. is progressing rapidly. Robert Hagadon and Edward Schiller are the contractors.

The Women's Union of St. Paul's church were entertained for their monthly meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Samuel J. Bohnet. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Roland F. Wenk. Present were Mrs. William J. Beach, Jr., Mrs. W.J. Bentler, Mrs. Oscar Stierle, Mrs. H. L. Paul, Mrs. Martha Weimann, Mrs. William Luick, Mrs. Elmer Mayer, Mrs. Otto Mayer, Mrs. Ernest Guenther, Mrs. Cora Feldkamp, Mrs. John Metzger, and Mrs. Charles Mohrlock.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

BY LOUIS BURGHARDT

On Memorial Day, families and friends join in tribute to honor those who died in service to their country. It is a sentimental day which through the years has caused more and more families to listen to echoes of war time hopes and promises. Veterans organizations sponsor parades with reverent wreath-laying ceremonies in traditional respect for those who laid their lives on the line—and lost. Memorial Day does not symbolize militarism or glorification of war. It is a day on which it is seen there is no glory to war; only death. It is truly a "time to weep . . . and a time to mourn" . . .

It can and should be a time for rededication to the principles of universal brotherhood; a world wide brotherhood of reappraised attitudes to condemn war wherever it may be or whoever may be in it. It has been often asked if an atmosphere of brotherly respect and tolerance—without war—can ever prevail. Some thoughts on this subject will appear here next week. Watch for them . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone 475-4141.

your week ahead

BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period May 28 - June 4, 1972

ARIES Mar. 21 - Apr. 19
You can't kid stellar patterns. This cycle finds you doing the thing you do best - exaggerate. So, control the urge to stretch the truth... a challenger hides in ambush.

TAURUS Apr. 20 - May 20
Check into it. You have overstressed the importance of money. According to your chart, discussions of "making a fortune" has monopolized your conversation.

GEMINI May 21 - June 20
O.K., Gemini, the time has arrived - air your grievance. One other thing, don't borrow or lend money. If you do, a legal entanglement lurks farther down the road.

MOONCHILD June 21 - July 22
You might be too preoccupied to take notice - a new "friend" is attempting to manipulate you. So, don't pull chestnuts out of the fire for someone else.

LEO July 23 - Aug. 22
It's a fact of life, triangles do exist. Those under your sign, so afflicted, must be extremely careful of letting their emotions get out of hand. Put a check reign on your feelings.

VIRGO Aug. 23 - Sept. 22
In one form or another, your past memories will intrude on actions you contemplate taking in the future. Don't let bygones stand between you and a promising relationship.

LIBRA Sept. 23 - Oct. 22
According to your chart, you are expecting too much from an older person. Also, it seems as though you are moving toward a clandestine meeting, or at least, an affair of secret order.

SCORPIO Oct. 23 - Nov. 21
Many members under your sign will receive news from afar. By phone, mail or through a third party. An opportunity coming your way should not be ruled out as a "get rich scheme."

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22 - Dec. 21
There will be questionable motives hidden in the far corners of your mind. The point? Don't misread the action and words thrown your way - by a member of the opposite sex.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22 - Jan. 19
According to your chart, neglect of wardrobe; indifference toward grooming, could be a problem. A good first impression will be important during this week's cosmic cycle.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20 - Feb. 18
This cosmic cycle brings with it - the desire for solitude. Strange as it might seem, you will attempt to avoid social activities that have always appealed to you.

PISCES Feb. 19 - Mar. 20
You will do well this week, as a loner. It might seem to be a paradox, but, you must detach yourself from associates in order to reach an objective.

Plan Program To Control Summer Bugs

East Lansing—Each spring homeowners are "bugged" by insect pests attacking trees and shrubs. Controlling these pests often becomes a baffling task for the amateur gardener.

According to entomologists at Michigan State University, effective pest control is based on proper application of the appropriate chemical at the correct time. Although no one chemical will adequately control all pests, a combination of several applied periodically can provide an all-purpose spray and relieve some of the homeowner's headaches.

A mixture of sevin, malathion, and kelthane, applied on a regular schedule and in accordance with the label directions, provides general plant protection.

However, warn the specialists, all-purpose sprays are generally more expensive and will not control all insects. Certain pests will require special treatment.

For information on specific chemicals and their rates of application, see your local county extension agent or write to the Bulletin Office, Michigan State University, P. O. Box 231, East Lansing, 48823. Ask for EB-534, "Controlling Pests of Trees and Shrubs."

Letters to the Editor

Plea to Band Parents:

"Band Camp is fun." Ask anyone who has been there.

This is a last attempt to recruit parents to accompany the students to camp this summer, August.

Is it that you are not interested? We need couples as chaperones otherwise there will be no camp. I asked one couple who went last year (they have no children in band); "Sure we'll consider it. It's more fun than you think."

It is very important for all band members to attend camp. How can we have an efficient marching band if they can't march.

Many of you have made a considerable investment in an instrument for your child; it takes interest and involvement to maintain enthusiasm.

Many hours are spent by the band directors planning the shows for the football season. Isn't it a thrill to see the band take the field with assurance and vigor?

Does your son or daughter miss any practice for a sports activity because of missing band? What happens if they do? The same should be true of band.

Our band is a part of the school. They provide a boost to the morale of the school team and spectators during the football season.

Out of all these band members isn't it a shame we can not find six couples willing to go with them?

Try it... you'll like it. Contact Mrs. Bob King, Mrs. C. H. Buck, or Mrs. Ed Lauson if you want to go to camp.

All band parents are members of Band Boosters. You all help. Please attend the monthly meetings to help make decisions.

New officers for the coming year are James Sprague, president; Jim Lorenz, vice-president; Mrs. Earl Klemer, secretary; and William Chandler, treasurer. Barbara Lauson.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP: Anne Steinaway (left), a long-time member of the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary, was awarded a life membership at the awards dinner Saturday, May 20. Presenting the award was outgoing Auxiliary president Mrs. Walter Brown.

sentations was the Life Membership bestowed upon Mrs. Art Steinaway. Mrs. Brown presented a certificate and charm proclaiming Mrs. Steinaway a Life Member of Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary. She joins Mrs. George Ellenwood and Mrs. Elton Guenther as the only recipients of this award in the 16-year history of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Updegraff received a charm engraved with her husband's Jaycee Senator's number as a special token to honor her for her devotion.

The final presentation went to Mrs. Brown who was given a scrapbook to commemorate the many special events carried out during her term of office.

Following a brief intermission, Jaycee president David Rowe installed Mitch Zink and Doug Roberson as Jaycee directors, Richard Cail as internal vice-president and David Martin as external vice-president. Newly-elected Region 1 National Director, Walter Brown, then installed the new president, Mike Eubanks. Rowe was then presented his past-president plaque, pin and name tag.

Doug Roberson then presented Sparkplug awards as follows: first year, Richard Cail and Richard Loring; second year, Doug Roberson; third year, Mike Eubanks and Mitch Zink; fourth year, Walter Brown and Ed Greenleaf; sixth year, David Rowe and Bob Updegraff; and eighth year, Art Steinaway.

Rowe presented the Outstanding Board Member award to Richard Cail and the Project of the Year award to Dick Loring for "Fishing Trip for Fatherless Kids."

President's Key Man award was presented by Rowe to Art Steinaway and the Chairman of the Year award was presented to David Martin, editor of the "Blivet." The Outstanding Jaycee of the Year award was given to Mike Eubanks with the Ron Eder Sound Citizen award going to Art Steinaway.

Highlight of this year's installation was a special program "This Is Your Life" presented by Mitch Zink and Art Steinaway depicting the many facets of a member as he grows within the organization, becoming an outstanding Jaycee.

At the conclusion of the awards segment of the evening, Walter Brown was awarded a Jaycee Senatorship No. 14158 by Senator No. 12811 Steinaway and Mitch Zink.

tour concerts with stops in Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio, West Virginia, Connecticut, and New York.

Concerts are given on a barge converted into a floating concert hall with a huge steel stage structure designed by Japan's Yasuhide Kobashi.

Orchestra members travel overland by bus while Boudreau moves the barge from stop to stop along the Allegheny, Monongahela, Ohio, and Mississippi Rivers.

The touring group, in its 16th year, was originally funded by H. J. Heinz, head of the Heinz Co., with a grant of $15,000. This amount was matched by Duquesne University.

Selections for the concerts include show tunes and marches, but Boudreau's programs are heavily laced with such contemporary works as Penderick's "Pittsburgh Overture" and Banning's "Armageddon."

The group has been featured in articles in Time magazine and The New York Times.

Heidi, a 1970 Chelsea High school graduate, recently traveled to Washington, D.C., with 36 other members of the EMU Symphony Band. The band, conducted by Dr. Tyra, presented a concert at the Washington Hilton Hotel May 10, in honor of the passage of a Women's Rights Bill.

This spring, Heidi soloed with the EMU Orchestra, playing Hanson's "Serenade for Solos Flute," in a program featuring eight student soloists. Heidi gives flute lessons during the year to several Chelsea area students.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ Memorial Day

Once again Memorial Day is here—that one day each year when we dedicate our thoughts and prayers to those who have gallantly fallen in battles for our nation. It is also a time for us to realize we must use these vehicles—our lives—to help God's work in this world.

War, as America's young generation is realizing, can not be stopped by a shout or cry for peace. The reason for war and conflict is in each individual. We hate, we are jealous, we become angry, and we fight. The problem of war is almost a fundamental thing in the modern world. But there is an alternative.

God has let us know that we have the potential to do good, to love instead of hate, to share instead of to accumulate, to live as brothers and children of God. But the problems are in ourselves because we let evil enter into our lives, and we let it grow and breed there.

There is a solution though, and it is love. For love and good to work for the whole world, it must start on a more human scale - within each individual. And love is contagious. When we begin to love God and our neighbors, others too will want to latch on to this dynamic force. Love can spread rapidly from individuals to communities, from communities to nations, and from nations it can spread clearly around the world. That day can come when wars are finally over. But it begins with you and me and love.

CUB SCOUT NEWS

Cub Scout Pack 445 traveled to Forsyth Junior High Monday night, May 22 for a swimming party with their families. More than 20 cubs attended the party arranged by Nancy Pichlik.

DEN 7, PACK 445—
Last week the Cub Scouts made first aid kits for someone who is hurt or sick. The week before we made Mother's Day presents. Shawn Pierson, scribe.

PACK 415, DEN 1—
We met Thursday, May 18, at the home of our denmother, Mrs. George Atkinson. We opened the den with the flag ceremony and then had a coloring contest, coloring an American flag. Billy Freeman won first prize. Our den mother then served refreshments. Billy Freeman, scribe.

DEN 13, PACK 435—
Our last Den 13 meeting for this year was held Tuesday, May 23 at the home of our den mother, Mrs. Steinaway.

We have had a very busy year and lots of fun. We started with 16 boys and our seventh boy will be going into Webelos this month.

We have been very busy this past month. We made kits from silk screen which we painted pictures on with felt tips. We also had to cut the strips of wood and notch them.

We made a pair of scout pictures of bear and wolf heads with macaroni. We are also having a poster contest at our pack meeting for best poster for our rummage sale.

Our meetings are full of projects, physical fitness, games and learning.

Our last meeting was a fun picnic and we made wiener roasters for ourselves, ate lots of food, and played a loud game of baseball. Anne Steinaway, den mother.

Legion Auxiliary Reports $422 Total In Poppy Day Sale

The annual Poppy Day sale collected $422.04, reports Mrs. Eugene Martin, chairman, and John LaFontaine, co-chairman. "It was a very good day," Mrs. Martin said. 1,223 poppies were bought by Chelsea residents.

Twenty-six American Legion Auxiliary members and 15 Legion members assisted in the drive. The Korner House served as headquarters for the drive. After expenses, $38.64 was sent to the Ladies Auxiliary and American Legion. The poppies, made by disabled veterans, were ordered in January.

Donations to the sale give people a chance to contribute to the welfare of men in uniform. The American Legion will be decorating the graves of veterans with flags for Memorial Day on Thursday, May 25.

approach to the camporee theme, live in the wilderness and their. They were judged in four areas: equipment, site and improvements, patrol spirit, and health and safety.

The troops arrived Friday night and pitched their tents in separate troop areas by patrols. Saturday was spent on planned District activities, individual patrol experiences, and advancement opportunities supervised by the adult leaders.

Rolly Spaulding, past Council president and current Council Chairman, was in camp Saturday afternoon and evening to represent the Portage Trails Boy Scout Council.

Sunday morning's activities included breakfast, church services, camp break-up, and clean-up details.

The camporee ended Sunday noon with a complete District closing, consisting of a flag ceremony and presentation of award to patrols.

One of the highlights of the Closing Ceremony was the introduction of Donald Doll, owner of the property, who made the camporee possible. Doll received the thanks of all present and was presented with a Scout plaque of appreciation by District Chairman Clarence "Mick" Maloney of Dexter. Maloney, District Commissioner Robert Armstrong of Manchester, and a group of trained scoutmasters, supervise the Troop District, one of the four districts that make up the two-county Portage Trails Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

In September the group will be known only as Scouts, and many will be sporting red belts. The Scouts are inattentive major changes that will give Scouts a new image and more leadership responsibility that is intended to better prepare them for urban life.

The red belt is already being worn by some inner city troops and its use will be optional. A troop may elect to wear the field cap or the traditional Smokey-the-Bear hat. The neckerchief also becomes optional wear in favor of a casual open collar and the trousers are being restyled. Scouts 14 and 15 years old may decide to wear the Explorer-type green uniforms.

LONG-TIME CHURCH MEMBERSHIP HONORED: Waterloo United Methodist Village and First churches decided Sunday, May 21, Spiritual Foundations Day, was an appropriate day to recognize long-time members of their congregation. Of the Village church (left to right) are Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Prentice and Mrs. Jessie Schulz, 53-year members of the congregation, and Leigh Beeman, a 55-year member. Pastor, Mrs. Altha Barnes organized the recognition services.

Waterloo Churches Honor Long-Time Members Sunday

As part of the Michigan Week observance, Sunday, May 21 was Spiritual Foundations Day and the Waterloo United Methodist Village and First churches decided it was an appropriate day to recognize and honor long-time members of their congregation.

Mrs. Altha Barnes, pastor at both churches, dedicated the morning services to the oldest members, three of whom had been active in the church for 58 years.

At the Village church, Leigh Beeman has been a member of the congregation for 55 years while Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Prentice and Mrs. Jessie Schulz have been members for 53 years. At the First United Methodist church, Mrs. Mary Harr, Miss Jennie McGuffie and Will Parks were recognized for 58 years of membership. Miss Mae Howlett and Mrs. Lela Parks, 55 years, Charles Hardt and Norman Mollenkopf, 49 years, and Mrs. Lu Lu Walz, 45 years.

Carren Craft, granddaughter of Mr. Mollenkopf, was recognized for being a seventh generation member of the church.

Mrs. Barnes included in the service a short history of each of the two churches.

The first recorded services for the Methodist church in Waterloo was in 1850. Subscriptions for the present Village church building were first taken on Dec. 10, 1872. The brick structure was dedicated Nov. 15, 1874 at a total cost of $4,000 for the 33' by 48' building.

A board of trustees, elected to build the church was comprised of A. P. Gorton, Peter Finch, William Garner, Daniel Parks and J. B. McClary. Many relatives of these men still reside in the area and attend the church.

On the day before the church was scheduled to be dedicated it began to rain so brother Edwards, the bishop officiating at the ceremony, asked the congregation to pray that the rain would stop. Sure enough, the next day was a beautiful, sunny day and the dedication proceeded as planned. In an outpouring of religious fervor, the remainder of money owed on the structure was pledged by the

Steven Worden Granted Summer Scholarship At St. Joseph College

Steven Worden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Worden, 118 Lincoln, has been awarded a scholarship for the summer Honors Program at St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., June 25-July 23.

Steve, a junior at Chelsea High school, elected a biology program entitled "Death of a Natural Ecosystem." The course will be taught by Assistant Professor of Biology Charles Mack. Steve will earn six hours of college credit for the course.

Applicants for the session needed high scores on the PSAT or SAT tests, and a B average or better in school.

Unidentified Body

Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department has still not been able to identify the body of a young woman found off Silver Hill Rd. near Silver Lake in Dexter Township on May 12. The woman is described as being 17-25 years old, 5'2" in height, 150 pounds with brownish grey eyes, dark brown hair and a light complexion. The cause of death has not been determined. Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey asked that citizens who know of a missing woman contact his office.

NO MORE SALES: After 44 years, Thomas J. Wortley, 12336 E. Michigan Ave., closed his service station at the corner of E. Michigan Ave. (Old US-12) and Francisco Rd. Completion of new highway to Detroit by-passed the station.

Thomas Wortley Closes Gas Station After 44 Years

"I probably gave more directions than I ever sold in gas," reminisces Thomas J. Wortley, who after 44 years has closed his service station at the corner of E. Michigan Ave. (Old US-12) and Francisco Rd.

A gas repairman who traveled extensively throughout the area, Wortley figured that the site was perfect for a service station. He says, "This road (E. Michigan Ave.) used to be the main highway between Chicago and Detroit. We figured it would be a gold mine. So on Memorial Day, 1928, we opened up for business. We kept long hours and played a lot of cards. We even used to sleep in the station. It was the first job I ever had that I stuck with—and I was 35 then."

Although Wortley never kept track of the amount of gas he sold in the beginning, he says that "business was real good until '37, when they built the new highway (at that time US-12). That's when we were hit the hardest. We still got some trucks, but the completion of I-94 hurt too."

For 25 years Wortley has also operated his 138-acre farm at 12336 E. Michigan Ave., keeping the station open part-time.

Wortley married the former June Wakeman when he was 42 years old. The Wortleys have three children: Mrs. David (JoAnn) Feldkamp, 158 Park St., Mrs. Gordon (Jean) Hubbard of Grass Lake, and Jon C. Wortley of Anlesia, N. M. Wortley recently accompanied the Feldkamps on a visit to Anlesia to visit Jon and his family. They have four grandchildren. Wortley is a charter member of Herbert J. McKune Post No. 31, American Legion, joining after his return from World War I service in France. He has since transferred his membership to the Grass Lake Post.

Wortley, who hasn't decided on his future plans, finds it hard to adjust to a life of inactivity. He says, "After years of hard work, I just can't get used to doing nothing. I'll go scare up something to do, even if I have to start a business raising puppies."

In this final meet of the year, scheduled to begin at 8:45 p.m., Chelsea will have entries in all three relay events as well as three field and three track events. Those invited from Chelsea High school are: 880-yd. relay team of Carl Gauss, Marty Gashdollar, Craig Coltre, and Lee Ferguson; mile relay team of Ferguson, Coltre, Jeff Marshall, and Dave Buxton; 440-yd. relay team of Gashdollar, Picklesimer, Gauss, and Tim Lancaster; Randy Seitz in the shot put; Lancaster, pole vault; Roger Fitch and Bill Tite, high jump; Buxton, mile run; Gashdollar, 100-yd. dash; and Coltre, 180-yd. low hurdles.

DUAL MEET STANDINGS
	W	L	Pts.
Saline	7	0	14
Chelsea	6	1	12
Lincoln	5	2	10
Dundee	4	3	8
Milan	2	5	4
Dexter	2	5	4
South Lyon	2	5	4
Novi	0	7	0

In SEC scoring, the regular conference dual meets count half in determining the league champion and the final conference meet counts the other half. The conference meet held in South Lyon, Thursday, May 18 caused a slight revamping in league standings. A team picked up two points for every team that it outpointed in the meet, therefore with South Lyon's third place finish it moved up in the ranks in total conference points for the season.

Organ, Trumpet Recital Sunday at St. Paul Church

On Sunday, May 28, at 3 p.m., St. Paul United Church of Christ will present Donald Renz, organist, and David Wolter, trumpeter, in recital. Works by Bach, Franck, Stanley, Purcell, Hovhanness, and Messiaen will be featured on the program.

Renz, organist of St. Paul church since July, 1971, is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Music, where he studied with Robert Glasgow, and most recently with Donald W. Williams. He will tour Germany and Yugoslavia this summer, as a companion with the Youth for Understanding Chorale and String Ensemble.

Wolter, also a graduate of the University of Michigan, teaches in the Saline, Michigan, public school. He has played with the University of Michigan Symphony Band and the Philadelphia Orchestra, as well as appearing in numerous churches as soloist.

Help for Meat Budget

The shopper who wants to put more elasticity into her meat dollar should consider cuts that come from the shoulder area. This section, referred to as the chuck in beef and the Boston butt in pork, is the site of many good buys. Among them, blade steaks are increasingly popular.

Inverness Golf Pro Qualifies In First Round

Fritz McMullen, 6900 E. Bourne, North Lake, superintendent and pro at the Inverness Country Club has qualified in the first round elimination for the 1972 U.S. Open.

McMullen, a third year pro at the club, qualified Monday, May 22 by firing a 73 at the Grosse Ile Golf and Country Club and a 78 at West Shore Golf and Country Club. He must now make the cut-off in a PGA sectional match to be held June 6 in Birmingham in order to reach the Open June 15-18 in Pebble Beach, Calif.

The local pro usually plays in the Michigan Open but generally does not have the time to take to the road and follow the PGA tour. His wife though is keeping her fingers crossed. She sure would like to go to California in mid-June.

Personal Notes

WHAT A LIFE: It's spring in Alaska and to Don Turner that means it's time to take off. Turner left Tuesday morning on a 4½-month trip to Alaska, the Yukon and Northwest Territory. He will use the camper as home-base while exploring the still untamed regions.

Turner Off Again to Alaska

Don Turner just can't ignore the lure of the open road so he's off again this summer in a modified Dodge Maxi-van to explore the regions of the great north-west.

This will be Turner's fourth trip to Alaska and environs, having taken similar junkies in 1966, '68, and '70. An amateur photographer, he takes film nearly every inch of the way and says he's hot upwards of 17,000 feet on each of his previous trips. Upon returning to the more tamed region of Chelsea, Turner spends the entire winter months editing and splicing his film into fascinating travelogue format. This year he intends to shoot somewhat less film, around 4,000 feet, but he just can't resist recording sights in the land that he obviously loves so much.

Turner left Tuesday morning directly from The Standard offices and plans to travel across the Mackinac Bridge through Sault Ste. Marie and eventually into Yellowstone, Northwest Territories. He hopes to spend some time in Wood Buffalo National Park and plans to travel north from Dawson in the Yukon on the Dempster Rd. This road has an interesting history in the area. It is named after the man who set out to find an entire squad of Canadian Mounties who were lost in the Yukon. Dempster found the remains of the troop and the letters they wrote as they starved to death in the wilderness.

Turner plans to return to the Chelsea area in October, returning by way of the inside passage through southeast Alaska.

During his travels he will visit with many friends that he has met over the years and hopes to charter a brush plane and fly into some remote regions for what he calls "the best fishing in the world."

On the way out Turner will be attending Kiwanis Club meetings in Canadian towns whenever he has the opportunity. He has a perfect attendance record and doesn't want to spoil his record while traveling.

Turner, a former plastering contractor, retired in 1964, and says, "being single, I can just take off whenever I feel like it." Before his Alaskan adventures, he used to take extended fishing trips into Canada.

He is traveling in a modified camper van to which he has added a propane stove, furnace and refrigerator. While on the road he generally stops in campsites but says if none are available he simply pulls off into the brush and spends the night.

Ah, what a life! Good luck, Don. Wish we were going along.

He will be corresponding with The Standard throughout the summer to keep us stay-at-homes informed of his adventures.

Golf Team Places Third In Conference

Chelsea High school golf team boosted their conference record to 9-4 for the season with a 171-183 win over South Lyon Friday in their last dual match of the year. The Bulldogs are 14-5 in all matches this year.

The Bulldogs were paced by Mark Policht's 40, Glen Musolf's 41 and Don Conklin's 43. Dave Powers, Ken Kusterer and Jeff Schmidt all shot 47's to round out the team card.

The Bulldogs finished third in the Conference Meet held at Novi, Monday, May 27. Chelsea with a combined team card of 353 finished behind Dexter's 346 and Saline's 342.

Mark Policht again led the Bulldogs with a fine round of 78 with Kusterer's 88, Musolf's 91, Powers and Schmidt's 98's, and Conklin's 99 completing the team tally.

Chelsea will have one more outing this year in the Willow Run Invitational Friday, May 26 at Willow Run.

Bike Licenses On Sale June 1

Chelsea Police Department Chief George Meranuck announced that 1972-73 bicycle licenses will go on sale at the police station beginning June 1.

The cost of the license is 50 cents and all bikes in Chelsea must be registered. It is to their own advantage the Chief explained because if the bikes are lost or stolen they may more readily be returned to the rightful owner if they are registered at the station.

He also warned that if bicycles are ridden at night they must be equipped with both a headlight and a tail reflector.

"Parents should warn children about driving their bicycles from driveways into the streets," the Chief added. "We have received several complaints from citizens who have almost hit children as they rode into a busy street."

Boys State Hits Snag at Local Level

"Maybe it's a sign of the times or else it's their thing against the establishment, but they don't really know what they're missing," Kiwanis spokesman Charles Cox said of his inability to find suitable representatives for the annual Boys State week in East Lansing.

What used to be an honor for Chelsea area youths is now apparently viewed with scorn as six candidates have turned down the chance to attend the week-long exercise in governmental organization and operation.

"They all had reasons why they couldn't go," said Cox. "But I really don't understand it." This annual event is sponsored by the American Legion but is really run by the representatives themselves. Students travel to East Lansing and establish a "state," complete with city, county and state governments. They stay for a week in MSU dormitories and actually run the "state," gaining valuable insight into just how our government works. While on campus they have the complete use of all MSU facilities.

The Chelsea Kiwanis Club and the American Legion sponsor local representatives which includes their tuition and expenses.

Boys State will be held June 14-21 this year and Kiwanis members are hoping to find two deserving students well before that time who are willing to go and really work seriously.

Chest Drive Chairmen Named for Fall

Mrs. Timothy Whitesall, Community Chest campaign chairman, has announced the chairmen for the various divisions within the 1972 fall fund raising campaign.

"I'm very happy to say that I had only one refusal and that was from a woman who handled the job so well last year that we wanted to have her back. But she was really too busy," Mrs. Whitesall said of her appointments.

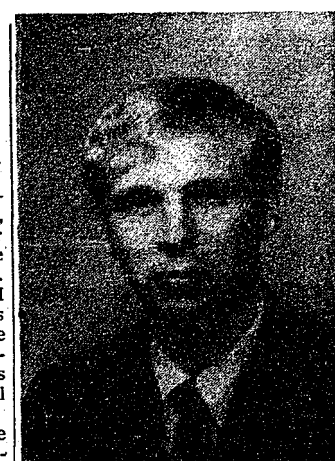

A new division to handle the schools was added this year because it was felt the task of soliciting contributions from Chelsea school faculty members was too large to be grouped with the professional division any longer.

This year's division chairmen will be: publicity and local organizations, Jim Hoffmeyer, 146 Orchard; professional, Peter Fintoff, 110 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., industrial, Conrad Hafner, 225 W. Middle; schools, Barbara Wenk, 133½ Van Buren; commercial, Paul Frisinger, 725 Freer Rd.; residential, Jeanene Riemenschneider, 125 Middle; and rural, Marketa Satterthwaite, 3050 McKinley Rd.

These chairmen will now begin to organize their own groups to cover their particular fields in the fall campaign.

The next official meeting of the committee will be Aug. 16 when they will present the budget hearing findings and announce this year's goal.

Calories Needed
Most men need more calories women. However, if you're female and between the ages of 22 and 35, you need more iron than they do. For the standard woman in this age group, the recommended allowance for iron is 18 milligrams, while caloric intake is 2,000 daily. In men, the iron recommendation is 10 milligrams while caloric intake is 2,800. Liver is the richest food source for iron. An average three and one-half ounce serving supplies 18.5 milligrams of iron.

Robert J. Cantrell Earns Degree at Eastern Kentucky

Robert J. Cantrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cantrell, 13910 Trinkle Rd., received a bachelor of Business Administration degree from Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Ky., Sunday, May 14.

Cantrell, a 1967 Chelsea High school graduate, finished school last December and has been in training as assistant manager for Kresge's in downtown Ann Arbor for the past three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Cantrell and their children, Stevie and Sheryl, both 15 years old, traveled with Robert to Richmond for the 65th spring commencement. A total of 1,686 candidates received degrees.

Variety Meats

Variety meats are more perishable than other meats. Buy them, planning to prepare them without holding. Included in this category are liver, brains, heart, kidneys, sweetbreads, tongue, and others. Sweetbreads are so delicate and fragile they need precooking (in water with lemon juice or vinegar) to make them firm enough for handling.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

THIRD GRADE—
Room 13
Teacher: Mrs. Yager
Reporters: Maleeya Morley and Karl Schenk

We have found May to be a fun month! Room 13 has been hit by a puzzle rage. Everyone has been bringing in jigsaw puzzles, and in our free time we are putting them together. Right now we are working on one with over 100 pieces. Hope we can finish before school is out!

In science we are trying to grow mold on bread and toast. We are also examining the parts of flowers and drawing pictures of them. We know where the stems, pistils, stamens and petals are.

We are beginning to study California in social studies. Recently, Billy Freeman visited California. We hope he will be able to give us some information on what he saw and what this state is really like. Everyone is getting anxious for the end of school. Some of us are counting the days. We are all looking forward to our last day of school picnic at Pierce Park.

Mrs. Yager says she has a lot of fun things to do, but she's keeping it a secret.

Our May birthdays are: Michele (instead on the 21st and Allison (instead on the 24th). Happy Birthdays Girls!

FOURTH GRADE—
Room 22

Teacher: Mrs. Meadows
Reporters: All the children

School is quickly coming to an end. We are now involved in lots of review work and have also started many new things.

In science we are studying the salmon and all the stages and life cycles of this beautiful fish. We are awaiting our snail eggs to hatch, also.

On May 24, we went to Greenfield Village. This was a great experience, and we saw lots of things.

On June 1, our class will be going bowling. For some of us this is the first time in a bowling alley. The scores may not prove to be pro, but we'll have lots of fun.

Room 20

Teacher: Mrs. Moore
Reporters: All the children

Earlier this year, Mrs. Bowen visited our class to tell us about England and show us some books and pictures.

Our windowsill plants are doing well, except for one geranium. We decided that it had all of the same variables except the tall grasses (weeds) that were growing in the same container. We concluded that this variable made the difference.

Martha Moore helped us with some microscopic viewing. Carmen Scripser and Bobby Aldrich had collected pond water a month ago and had added egg yolk. However, these specimens evaporated, so we used fresher ones brought in by Billy Burgess and Todd Koch. Todd's contained polywogs. We called this Discovery Day, as we discovered a whole new world. Also, we noted how close two small organisms looked to our naked eye in comparison to how far apart they looked under the microscope lens.

On May Day, we presented a May umbrella to our mothers, and on Mother's Day we gave them a card with a Helping Hand and our picture. Each of us included a poem or thought (most were original).

The trip to Greenfield Village means that school is about to end. It has been a rewarding year and seems all too short.

FIFTH GRADE—
Room 19

Teacher: Mrs. Fuels
In science class we have been growing green beans. We planted two seeds for one plant—a black seed and a white one, and they are all up.

We planted some Black Locust trees during Arbor Week. We did not take care of them, therefore some are dead.

Friday, May 12, we went to the Beach school and had a blast. We stayed at the school all day. While they did the work we just sat and watched. In gym they played softball which we got to play.

Monday, May 15, we went to Henry Ford museum and saw the old cars, airplanes and trains.

Room 24
Teacher: Mrs. Senne
Reporters: Joline Hibbs, Cheryl Bareis and Jeanine Arnett.

For Arbor Day we received a Birth of a Tree kit. The kit contained cakes of synthetic soil blocks and some seeds. Damian Marzec planted them and watered them. They have grown to a large size for the blocks, so Damian transplanted them into milk cartons. Toward the end of the year we will take them home at which time we can plant them in the ground.

During art class the boys and girls in the third, fourth and fifth grades are making programs for the Spring Concert. The concert is the 25th of May. The programs are made of construction paper and flint paper. They will look nice at the concert.

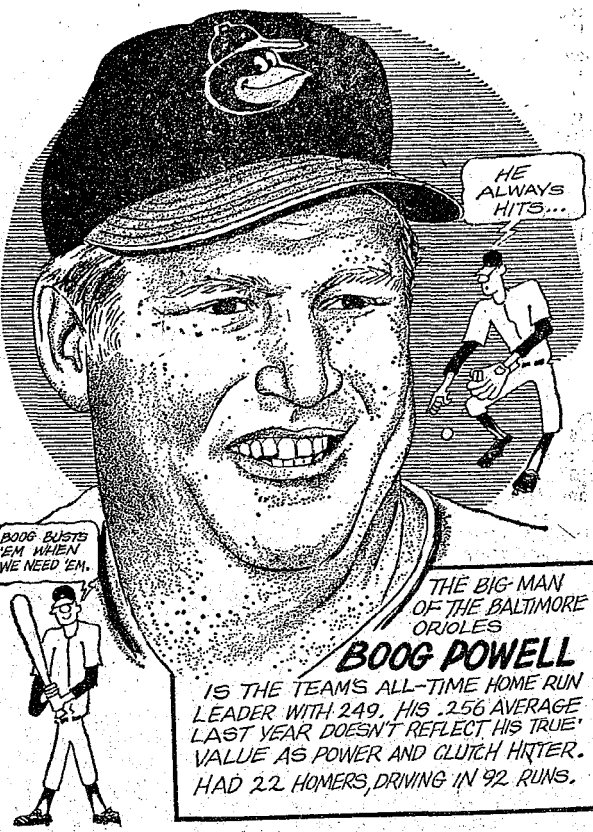

We had a great art show at South school on the 11th of May. There were approximately 500 adults attending and many children. Refreshments were served by the South School Parents' Association. They had punch, cookies and coffee. They presented Mrs. Wahl with a real nice corsage. We worked hard for the art show, but enjoyed it. This is the first year we have had an art teacher. Mrs. Wahl taught us a lot of interesting things in art this year.

The Library Helpers and Parent Tutors were honored on May 11th. Corsages were presented by the Association to the following for their many hours of service to this school: Mrs. M. Picklesimer, Mrs. R. Bareis, Mrs. W. Cowell, Mrs. N. O'Connor, Mrs. J. Markle, and Mrs. J. Dettling. The above people worked mainly in the library. Mrs. W. Geddes, M. C. Case, Mrs. J. Schnalder, and Mrs. D. Gaul all helped in the tutoring.

SPORTS CORNER

Area Residents Named To 4-H Program Council

Russell Beeman, 16610 Waterloo Rd., an adult 4-H member, and Art Sias, 650 Steinbach Rd., a 17-year-old junior at Dexter High school, have been elected to the Washtenaw County 4-H Program Council.

Nominated by outgoing members of the council, Beeman and Sias were then elected by 4-H members in the district to represent them for three and one-year terms, respectively, in the county governing body. Their chief duties during their terms of office will be to act as liaisons between the county organization and local clubs. They will attend bi-monthly meetings to help plan club activities and then return to advise local chapters.

Trouble getting started in the morning? It may be due to the lack of a proper breakfast. Surveys show that where an employee had a proper breakfast, the mid-morning coffee break resulted in no change in work output. Adding a coffee break in cases where no breakfast was eaten showed a gain in work capacity, but did not, of course, make up for the earlier work loss.

For And About Teenagers

THIS WEEK'S LETTER:

I have problems with boys because of my best girlfriend. You see, everytime I get a boyfriend, she starts saying "hi" to him and goofing around with him. The problem is, she ends up getting my boyfriends. Here's an example. If my boyfriend and I are invited to a party, she comes. Before we even get a chance to say hello to everyone, she starts in being lovey-dovey to him. I've lost about five boyfriends in the last three months. Please tell me what to do.

OUR REPLY: You said the girl busting up your romances is your BEST girlfriend. With a friend like that, who needs an enemy? Your girlfriend is probably jealous of your romances sound as solid as the "Rock of Gibraltar", this is an easy area for your girlfriend to interfere and get back at you. Sit down with your girlfriend and ask her what's bugging her. Tell her to stay out of your romances. If she keeps up, look elsewhere for a girlfriend. Concerning your boyfriends, since the two of you have scared off five boys in three months, try to find someone with the same interests that you have. That way, you may not lose him so easily to some lovey-dovey girl (especially your best friend!).

Good Records Help in Support of Dependency Claim

Detroit—Taxpayers must keep good records of the support they provide for dependents not living with them, Thomas A. Cardoza, District Director of Internal Revenue for Michigan, said today.

Failure to keep good records may cause some taxpayers to lose a dependency exemption they otherwise would be entitled to. For others it means the problem of assembling the needed records months after the expense was paid.

Cardoza said that of the five tests that have to be met to satisfy the legal requirements for claiming another person as a dependent, the one that gives taxpayers the most trouble is the support test.

To satisfy the support test, the taxpayer must show what it cost to support the dependent for the year and how much of this he provided. To gather such records for a child who does not live at home or a parent or another relative in another city is naturally more difficult than it is for a dependent who lives with the taxpayer.

Close relatives including a child, grandchild, brother, sister, parent, grandparent, aunts, and uncles do not have to live with the taxpayer to qualify as a dependent.

Joy is discovering that the great tradition of Valiant value lives on in Plymouth Duster.

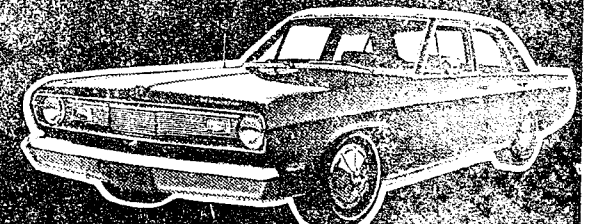

A couple of years ago we introduced a sporty version of the Plymouth Valiant called Duster. Duster has quickly become one of the hottest-selling small cars in America. It figures. Duster is just big enough, just small enough to be just right. So is the price. And so is our deal.

Joy is a comforting fact, like Chrysler is the roomiest car in America.

Chrysler Newport Royal is every inch a big car—the roomiest production car in America, according to Automotive Industries. But another comforting fact is that Royal is priced around a comparably-equipped Ford LTD Brougham and Chevy Caprice. That's what we mean by joy.

Joy is an economy car that keeps going strong. (While Corvair and Falcon have given up, Plymouth Valiant lives on.)

Valiant's success over the years proves that an economy car isn't just a cheap car. It's a well-built car that saves you money when you buy, saves while you drive, and brings you a fair return at resale time. That's Valiant.

We're trying to put more Joy into your car buying and driving.

Great Lakes Boat Watching Is Popular Pastime for Many

Like to watch the big ships go by, sometimes almost as if in a parade?

Michigan offers the best opportunity to do this of any state bordering the Great Lakes. As a guide to this popular pastime, Automobile Club of Michigan asked a panel of marine experts to compile a list of good boat watching spots in the state.

It's the first feature in a series called 20 Top Travel Experiences in Michigan, selected by Auto Club, which will appear in this newspaper at regular intervals as part of the annual "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" program.

Generally, the Soo Locks at Sault Ste. Marie, which have 15-foot high observation platforms, the Lake Huron shoreline, the St. Clair River and the Detroit River offer the best opportunities for close-up views of passing ships.

A multitude of different types of vessels pass through the Soo Locks in a year, varying in size from small pleasure craft to giant ships. The latter include auto carriers, bulk carriers, cement, package freighters, self-unloaders, tankers and combination passenger and cargo vessels.

Since the St. Lawrence Seaway opened in 1959, there has been an added bonus for boat watchers—a fairly constant parade of foreign ships going to and from Great Lakes ports.

South of Sault Ste. Marie, the Little Rapids Cut, opposite Sugar Island, is an excellent place to watch. A lookout point near St. Ignace, just west of the approach-way to the Big Mac Bridge is another. Other good spots in the Upper Peninsula include Escanaba and in the northern portion of the peninsula, Whitefish Point, Eagle Harbor, Great Sand Bay and Marquette Harbor, one of Michigan's busiest.

Boat watchers at the Soo Locks and the channel along the eastern Upper Peninsula shoreline, under the Big Mac Bridge and along the top of the Lower Peninsula now have an additional treat.

They can watch for the Stewart J. Cort, Bethlehem Steel Corp.'s new giant of Great Lakes shipping lanes which just went into service in May. The Cort, 1,000 feet long and capable of carrying a cargo of 58,300 gross tons of iron pellets, attracted large crowds on its maiden voyage past Detroit and up the Lake-Huron shoreline en route to its destination at Taconite Harbor, Minn., on the northwest shore of Lake Superior.

Hereafter the Cort will make 40 voyages a shipping season between Taconite Harbor and Bethlehem's mill at Burns Harbor, east of Gary, Ind. On its Lake Michigan course, the Cort, like other Great Lakes ships, will be too far out in the lake for good visibility.

The ship won't be seen again along the eastern Michigan shoreline and through the Detroit River for five years when it returns to Erie, Pa., for servicing.

The ship, longer than the luxury liners United States and Queen Elizabeth 2, is the largest ever to ply the Great Lakes. As a landmark comparison, if stood on end it would come within 110 feet of the roofline of the 100-story John Hancock building in Chicago.

In the Lower Peninsula, Mackinac City offers good vantage points for ships going to and from Lake-Michigan ports.

South along the Lake Huron shoreline, near Rogers City, is the world's largest limestone quarry. At Harbor View and Quarry View, there are excellent vantage sites for watching quarry operations and see vessels enter and leave the harbor, one of the busiest ports on the lakes.

Port Huron, where the big ships maneuver to enter the St. Clair River, is one of the best viewing areas. A park in the vicinity of the Blue Water Bridge is excellent. The ships remain close to shore past St. Clair, Marine City and Algonac and until they head across Lake St. Clair.

When they near Detroit, Belle Isle with its Dossin Great Lakes Museum is among several good points in the Motor City. Others include the Cobo Hall area, a park at the foot of West Grand Blvd., and parks in Ecorse and Wyandotte, south of Detroit. The Bob-Lo boats also offer good viewing.

If you'd like to do boat watching from a high elevation, the Blue Water Bridge at Port Huron permits pedestrians to do this without charge.

The western Michigan shoreline presents fewer opportunities for boat watching, since most of the ship parade takes place too far out in Lake Michigan for viewing.

At Elberta, near Frankfort, the Ann Arbor Railroad operates car ferries to Manistowic and Keweenaw, Wis., and there's a chance to watch the dock operations of these big carriers.

Farther south, at Ludington, there is even more activity. The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway operates passenger and auto ferries between Ludington and Milwaukee and Manitowic, Wis.

The St. Lawrence Seaway helped make Muskegon an important port, second in overseas tonnage only to Detroit in Michigan, and there is opportunity to see ships, both foreign and Great Lakes freighters, pull in there. In recognition of its position as a port-of-call, Muskegon presents the Seaway Festival each summer. This year the dates are July 1-9.

It takes study and practice to recognize the Great Lakes fleet ships by their stacks, but the average boat watcher might keep this cargo movement in mind:

Iron ore traffic goes one way—ore mined from the rich range of Minnesota moves by rail to the loading docks on Lake Superior, thence by ship to lower lake loading docks, for ultimate use by steel mills in such areas as Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland, Youngstown and Pittsburgh.

Coal moves the other way—by rail to the loading docks at lower lake ports, thence by boat to upper lake ports.

Grain travels in a generally eastward direction—from the Midwest grain belt to eastern ports.

Traffic in oil products, chiefly gasoline, moves in various directions, much of it originating in the refinery center of Chicago, northern Indiana, Toledo, Ohio, and Sarnia, Ont.

If you really get interested in boat watching, you might become a marine buff. In that case, you'll find a pair of binoculars helpful. But even if you don't want to go that far, guide books and charts showing how to identify ships of the Great Lakes are readily available at nominal prices from places like the Dossin Great Lakes Museum, the Bob-Lo boats and bookstores.

4-H Clubs

WATERLOO—

The Thursday, May 18 meeting of the Waterloo 4-H club was called to order by Karen Bassett. The club decided to give $2 to each member going to Youth Exploration Day. Mrs. Roderick announced we have a beef leader for next year. Our Dog Group is too small so if other than club members are interested they may participate. If interested call Mrs. Robert Bassett.

Mrs. Johnny Lee Hess

Linda Lou Schroen, Johnny Hess Wed Saturday at St. Paul Church

St. Paul United Church of Christ provided the setting Saturday, May 20 for the marriage of Linda Lou Schroen and Johnny Lee Hess. The Rev. Warner H. Siebert officiated at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Stierle, 12300 Trinkle Rd. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hess of 58 Chestnut Dr.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza and Venice lace, styled with a high neckline and lantern sleeves. The skirt was accented by lace appliques with a wide flounce around the bottom, ending in a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a headpiece of Venice lace, accented by pearl and crystal trim. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Diane Schroen of Minneapolis, Minn., a sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of yellow chiffon with long sleeves and a stand-up collar, accented by a floral-lace trimmed sash ribbon at the waistline. She also wore a yellow picture hat trimmed with long yellow tulle and carried a colonial bouquet of daisies and ivy.

Miss Suzanne Schroen, another sister of the bride, Mrs. Ralph Imbody, Ft. Wayne, Ind., a cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Margaret Rockol of South Lyon, served as bridesmaids for the ceremony. They wore gowns styled identically to the maid of honor's, except in turquoise. The three wore matching headpieces of turquoise tulle, accented by pearls and satin streamers. They also carried colonial bouquets of daisies and ivy.

The bride's mother wore a pink chiffon floor-length gown with bodice and sleeves of silver-threaded lace. She wore a corsage of gardenia and stephanotis.

The bridegroom's mother wore a princess styled, floor-length pink knit dress with matching coat of lace. She wore a corsage of white carnations and pink roses.

David C. Hess, a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, while Stephen Stech of Saline, a cousin of the bride, Ralph Imbody, Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Peter Hartner, Lafayette, Ind., seated guests for the service.

Donald Renz of Ann Arbor performed the organ music for the ceremony.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club. Mrs. Eugene Stech of Ann Arbor, the bride's aunt, cut the cake, while Mrs. John Stech of Saline, another aunt, attended the punch bowl, and Miss Margaret Rockol the guest book.

The newlyweds are traveling to Florida for 10 days before returning to live at 7550 Fourth St., Dexter.

Both the bride and bridegroom are 1969 graduates of Chelsea High school. The new Mrs. Hess is employed as a secretary for Dr. Parvis Panahi of Ann Arbor. Mr. Hess is employed by Wrigley's in Ann Arbor.

Rebekahs Host District Officers

Fifty-four members and guests attended the Rebekah Lodge 130 meeting at the Hall Tuesday, May 18. This was the annual District 12 Officers' Visitation night.

Mary Ann Coltre, lodge deputy, introduced visiting district officers: Mrs. Frances Laiman, president; Mrs. Phyllis Haligus, vice-president; and Mrs. Laurene Bailey, secretary. Other guests were present from Dexter, Jackson, Parma, Vandercook Lake, and Brooklyn.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Nina Lehmann was reinstated into the lodge after a number of years and Mrs. Helen Sibley and Mrs. Carrie Dunlap were elected to membership. A petition for membership was read from Mrs. Muriel Guest.

An announcement was read that Mrs. Eva Barber, a lodge member, had returned home from the Chelsea Community Hospital where Mrs. Veva Munro is still a patient.

It was announced that Mrs. Loydell Keezer will be the representative to the Michigan Assembly With Mrs. Phyllis Harok as the alternate.

The Noble Grand, Nadine Packard, reported on the cleaning bee held over the week-end and expressed a special thanks to all those who helped.

Members of the Harmony Lodge of Dexter presented a skit as the evening's entertainment.

May birthdays of Mrs. Velma Wolfe, Mrs. Lauretta Jarvis, and Mrs. Helen Yoder were celebrated.

Committee for the evening included Mrs. Marian Pickell, Mrs. Dorothy Keezer, Edith White and several other members who furnished dessert. Mrs. Helen Harris and Mrs. Olla Voelm prepared the table decorations.

The next Officers' visitation will be in Jackson on June 15. The next Chelsea lodge meetings are planned for June 6 and 20 with a family pot-luck supper planned for June 13.

Child Study Club Installs Officers

Chelsea Child Study Club annual spring dinner and installation of officers was held Tuesday, May 23. The dinner was held in a progressive manner, starting at the home of Mrs. Bruce Galbraith for hors d'oeuvres, then on to the new home of Mrs. Gerald Giffin for the main course. Dessert and the installation of new officers was held at the home of Mrs. Gene Miller.

The new slate of officers for the year 1972-73 are: Lynda Catell, president; Virginia Meyers, first vice-president; Diane Borton, second vice-president; Betty Cox, secretary; Mary Waldyke, treasurer; and Lynn Donkin, auditor-parliamentarian.

The installation ceremony was done by Mrs. Robert Daniels. The club had the pleasure of welcoming Mrs. J. R. Seitz as an honorary member. They also welcomed a new member, Mrs. Merle Barr.

Cecala - Dehn Vows Spoken In Chicago

Debra Cecala and William Dehn, Jr., both of Chicago, Ill., were joined in marriage in a civil ceremony in Chicago, Ill., Monday, May 15.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dehn, Sr., of North Lake.

The bride, attended by two friends, wore a floor-length lavender velvet gown.

Tom Dehn of Gregory served as the bride's best man.

The bridegroom is a 1968 graduate of Chelsea High school. He is a member of "The Unit," a band in Chicago.

The newlyweds will reside at 775 North Ridge, Chicago.

Sarah Circle Meets At Methodist Church

Ellen Kalmbach and Elaine Miller were hostesses to the Sarah Circle of the First Methodist church Wednesday, May 17, at the Kalmbach home.

Business was discussed. Ellen Kalmbach, treasurer of the group, reported on the sales amount from the recent pot-luck sale. Proceeds will be used to furnish the powder room.

Members were also reminded of the dues to the Circle. It was voted to continue saving cancelled U.S. postage stamps, as foreign stamps, for missionaries.

The "Need To Be Done" committee outlined the work on the agenda and necessary help was solicited.

Donna Palmer reported on the recent executive meeting of the WSCS. The next meeting is in July at the Methodist Home.

Sibyl Johnson urged members to attend the Spiritual Life Retreat at Walden Woods the week-end of May 19.

For the program, Virginia Johnson read the editorial "Prayer at the Top," taken from "Decision," a monthly magazine published by the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. She ended with the quote:

"I could hope that Billy Graham and other Christian leaders, both Roman Catholic and Protestant, who have contacts with responsible men at all levels of government, will use those contacts for good and thus make their influence count for truth and righteousness."

The June meeting will be at the home of Barbara Dresch, with a pot-luck dinner. Early snapshots and pictures of members will be identified.

hot lunch program when it gets underway.

The next meeting will be June 21, a picnic at the home of Mrs. Ray Schairer.

The meeting was dismissed with a prayer circle and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Phoebe Circle Hears Discussion On Life in India

Phoebe Circle of the United Methodist church met at the educational unit of the church May 17 at 1 p.m., for a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Dora Roderick was hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edna Adams and Mrs. Rae Lillie. Fourteen members attended.

Mrs. Robert Harris, chairman, opened the meeting with the 23rd Psalm and a verse entitled "I Purpose To Walk for His Company."

An informative and interesting discourse on India was presented by Mrs. Ray Schairer. She brought the group up to date on many improvements in farming, industry, and religion. She also explained the difference in the way their WSCS meetings are administered.

Mrs. Schairer also reported that one-sixth of the world's total population lives within India's boundaries. She concluded with a prayer for school boys with responses interspersed throughout by the members.

The Treasurer's report totaled $82.

Additional contributions to the Heart and Hand House Fund brought the total to $30.30. The money was forwarded.

As new business, volunteers were solicited to bake cookies for Vacation Church School beginning June 12. All cookies are to be taken to the educational unit on the selected day.

RUTH CIRCLE

Ruth Circle of the United Methodist church held their meeting Wednesday, May 17 in the social center. Mrs. Irwin Klumpp and Mrs. G.A. Barton served as hostesses for the salad luncheon.

Mrs. Edwin Gaunt opened the meeting in the absence of the chairman and the group discussed items of interest for the coming months. A thank you note was read for Mrs. Stanley Bond.

Mrs. Gaunt also presented the program for the day. She chose for her subject a poem from the "Ideal" magazine entitled "Mothers Are Very Special."

The next meeting will be held June 21 with a pot-luck dinner at 12:30 p.m. in the social center. Mrs. Roy Kalmbach and Mrs. Douglas Hoppe will be co-hostesses for the coming meeting.

OLDER ADULT GROUP

Older Adult Group met Saturday, May 20 at the United Methodist church for a pot-luck dinner with 28 members present. Mrs. Elsa Paul gave the opening prayer and devotion. Mrs. George Stanford made the birthday cake and the following members celebrated their birthdays: Mrs. Mildred Brown, Mrs. Lionel Vickers, Mrs. Freda Bommer and Mrs. Helen Lindeman. The Rev. and Mrs. George Spitzer presented the day's program in which the Rev. Spitzer reminisced about his boyhood days on a farm. Hymns were then sung with Mrs. George Stanford providing the accompaniment on the piano.

A picnic was planned to be held on Saturday, June 17 at the Methodist Home. The Rev. George Nevins gave the closing prayer to end the meeting.

ESTHER CHAPTER

Esther Chapter of the Congregational church met Thursday, May 18 at the church. Mrs. Richard Smith gave devotion, reading from a book entitled "God's Word." They then held a silent auction, using the money raised to help buy Sunday school material for a small struggling church.

It was decided that the annual pot-luck picnic will be held June 22, 6 p.m. at the North Lake home of Mrs. Clarence Vogel and should include all women of the Fellowship. The new officers for the Fellowship will be installed during the business meeting. Each member should bring their own dishes and a dish to pass. Anyone wishing a ride should call Lauryne White or Mrs. Mildred Smith.

The hostess, Mrs. Richard Smith served dessert and coffee to the group after the meeting.

GOD'S WILLING WORKERS

God's Willing Workers of the Chelsea Baptist church met Monday, May 22. Nine women were present. Prizes were made for Vacation Bible School. Devotions were led by Mrs. Jean Rudd. Hostess was Mrs. Bonnie Hubbel.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, June 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bradbury.

State Highways Prepared for Holiday Traffic

Lansing—A halt to all construction and maintenance work on state highways over the Memorial Day week-end has been authorized by State Highway Director Henrik E. Stafseth.

The order, effective 5 p.m. Friday (May 26) until 8 a.m. Tuesday (May 30), bans all but emergency highway work for the summer's first three-day holiday week-end.

Stafseth also ordered movement of all heavy equipment suspended; and all construction projects, including detours, to be in satisfactory condition to accommodate the anticipated rush of traffic.

Given good weather, Michigan motorists will drive an estimated 655.3 million miles between noon Friday and noon Tuesday. That is about three-percent more than the 636 million miles driven last year over Memorial Day week-end.

Building Permits Required for Swimming Pools

It was announced by Chelsea Building Inspector Smith that a building permit must be obtained for the construction of all swimming pools in excess of 24 inches in depth and/or 250 square feet in area. A permit is also required for all swimming pools, regardless of size, that are permanently equipped with a water recirculating system or involve structural materials for construction. These permit requirements are in accordance with Chelsea Village Ordinance No. 63.

Permits may be obtained from the Building Inspector between 8 and 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, at the Municipal Building.

Jill KipfmillerNamed to Freshmen*Honorary at Kalamazoo

Jill Kipfmiller, daughter of Mrs. Joan Kipfmiller of 11960 Jackson Rd., has been named to the freshmen women's honor society, Alpha Lambda Delta, at Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo.

Because of her high scholastic achievement for the over-all school year, Jill will be one of the 15 freshmen women to be inducted Thursday, May 25, at a banquet ceremony at the college.

Jill was named to the dean's list for the winter quarter of 1972. She was one of 211 students at the college to maintain a grade point average of 3.5 or better for the entire academic quarter.

TIME SQUEEZER?

If all the time since the beginning of the world were compressed into a year, the existence of man would represent only the final ten minutes and recorded history would represent the last 45 seconds.

Many prominent citizens play the same parts each year in the historical spectacle which will be each afternoon May 27, 28 and 29, 1972. Muzzle-loader rifle shoots, Boy Scout Indian dance competitions and tours of the restored fort and its exhibits provide entertainment at other times of day.

'Do-It-Yourself' Week on TV Features Gardening Tips

East Lansing—"Do-it-yourself" week begins May 29 on WMSB (Channel 10), Michigan State University television with the start of new courses on the art of paper folding, gardening, yoga and knitting.

Origami, or the ancient and delicate art of paper folding, leads off the week at 8:30 a.m. Monday, May 29. Samuel Randlett, author of several books on origami and editor of a monthly newsletter on the art, teaches the course.

The first program begins with an explanation of the materials needed and the basic procedures and folds. Subsequent programs concentrate on the transformation of a square piece of paper into a number of shapes including a lotus, an angel fish, a flapping bird, a frog and a dragon.

GARDENING

Gardening is the next topic during "Do-it-yourself" week with the debut of Green Thumb at 9:30 a.m. Monday, May 29. Herman Geske, an instructor in natural science at the Milwaukee Institute of Technology, hosts the series.

Aimed at solving individual garden problems, some of the topics covered during the series are preserving flowers, testing the soil, geraniums, mushrooms and terrariums.

YOGA

At 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, starting May 30, Lillias Folan, a Cincinnati housewife turned yoga-practitioner, teaches the ancient form of exercise known as hatha yoga.

There are nine different types of yoga, many of which deal with the mental and spiritual. Hatha yoga, which Lillias teaches, is the most basic form and deals mainly with physical improvement and the ability to relax.

Lillias began yoga six years and 20 pounds ago. She found that it was more exciting than traditional exercises, easier from a muscle strain point of view and, in the long run, just as beneficial to her figure, if not more so.

New programs will air each Tuesday and Thursday morning at 8:30 a.m. with the Tuesday program being rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday and the Thursday program being rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. the following Monday.

KNITTING

How to knit a Scandinavian type sweater is the subject for The Busy Knitter which debuts at 9 a.m. Tuesday, May 30.

Designed for both beginning and advanced knitters, the series carefully covers each step in sweater making. The first program con-

Other WMSB highlights include: PLAYHOUSE NEW YORK

Playhouse New York pays tribute to the American G. I. of the Second World War with the works of three authors who wrote about the '40s on "The Last G.I.s" at 11 p.m. Sunday, May 28.

The first segment, "Brewsie, and Willie," an adaptation of Gertrude Stein's short novel, focuses on the lives of two American soldiers stationed in Paris at the end of the war. Brewsie is played by David Birney, star of a new network show.

St. Louis School Notes

St. Louis school will celebrate its 16th anniversary Saturday, May 27.

Two-hundred-fifty invited guests will attend a Thanksgiving Mass at 11 a.m., followed by a noon brunch catered by Win Schuler's of Jackson.

The Rev. Fr. Antonio Ottaviano, Provost Father of the Order of the Servants of Charity, and the Rev. Fr. Angelo Iannaccio, his secretary, of Rome, Italy, arrived Monday, May 22 for the event. They stopped for a week's visit at the Don Guaneila school in Philadelphia, Pa. They will remain at the St. Louis school until Sunday, May 28.

Bishop Zielinski of Lansing and Cardinal Dearden of Detroit are expected to attend the anniversary celebration.

Mrs. Wilkinson, a teacher at St. Louis school, was honored Thursday, May 18 at a birthday party. The boys decorated the room and played "Happy Birthday" on the piano. Mrs. Perez and Mrs. Robbins, staff members, served birthday cake and punch to the boys. On behalf of the boys and the staff, the Rev. Fr. Fortunato presented Mrs. Wilkinson with a plant.

On Sunday, May 21, the Rev. Fr. Umberto and a few of the older boys visited the home of the Rev. Warner Siebert in honor of Rex Lawrence, who was confirmed that day at St. Paul's UCC. Rex will be leaving the school this year to attend Chelsea High school.

After the anniversary celebrations, the boys will return home with their families to spend the Memorial Day holiday. They will MARK E. BLANCHARD, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Blanchard, 755 S. Freer Rd., will receive his bachelor of arts degree in graduation ceremonies May 28 at John Carroll University, Cleveland, O. He plans to continue his education in law school. The Blanchards have been residents of Chelsea for the past two and one-half years.

MOBILE HOME FACTS

Over two and a half million families in both urban and rural areas of the country now use mobile homes as their only residence. Eighty percent of the mobile homes sold are never moved again.

Humans can make some 700,000 different, meaningful gestures through body movements and facial expressions.
