Varsity Cagers Almost Upset Saline, 49-54

Chelsea played its best basketball game of the season Friday night, only to lose to Saline's Hor-49-54.

Chelsea was hustling, with Guster and Jeff Schmidt leading the offense. With 1:48 left of play, the score was up, 49-49. A free throw by Saline, a Chelsea turn-over which led to a Saline bucket, and two free throws comprised the 1-k-fire series that brought the dogs down.

The Bulldogs started with an early lead until the very end of the half. After the clock had run out, Saline successfully pitched a free throw, giving Saline the advantage for the first time in the game, 25-24.

An even battle continued in the second period until Jeff Schmidt took out of the game with his personal foul. Without Schmidt, Chelsea fell behind eight points as Saline went to the offensive boards for a couple of easy baskets.

Chelsea was able to make up the deficit in the fourth quarter, and up the game, 49-49, until Saline's shots at the last minute. Schmidt, Guster and Ron Kiel most of Chelsea's rebounding.

Police Nab Escapace from Juvenile Home

The Chelsea Police Department made three arrests this week, one of which sent an escapee from juvenile detention back to the Training School in Lansing.

Patrolmen David Peables and Gerald Shaw were on patrol early Saturday morning, at 2:45 a.m., when they recognized the youth climbing into a blue Oldsmobile owned by his aunt.

The boy was arrested on charges of escaping from juvenile detention, and turned over to correction officers.

Willard Max Gould of 320 N. Main St., was arrested earlier this week on a charge of assault and battery filed by James Owen. Gould said to have bruised the complainant's eyes and mouth when he hit him three times.

The accused stated that Owen threatened him with a two-foot-long pipe. Nevertheless, he led guilty in front of Judge Arkon, and was fined $50 and costs. Patrolman Lenard McDougall made the third arrest when he picked up Carl Edward Gullett Friday night on a traffic warrant. Gullett had failed to appear in court on a traffic violation. Some time ago, he had been ticketed for parking in a space reserved for Judge Patrick Conlin.

Food Collection Growing for Christmas Giving

Eight Chelsea High school students and members of the Student Council ignored the cold Sunday, and made tracks door-to-door collecting canned food for distribution at Christmas time.

Their efforts are responsible for five good-sized boxes of canned goods, which will help to sustain the feeling of Christmas in homes of the less fortunate the next few weeks.

Through Friday, other students may bring in canned goods from home to add to the collection.

Messiah Sing Slated Dec. 17 At St. Paul's

Are you one of those persons to whom Christmas just is not Christmas without the singing of Handel's "Messiah"? If so, rest easy, because a new tradition is starting.

The first annual "Messiah Sing" will be held at St. Paul's church on Dec. 17, at 4:30. All persons are invited to attend and join with others in the singing of their favorite choruses from this great work. There will be some extra scores available, but persons are asked to bring personal copies if they have them.

Refreshments will be served following the sing in the basement of the church.

The idea originated with DiAnn L'Roy, vocal music director of the Chelsea School District, who approached the Rev. Siebert of St. Paul's with the suggestion. The Rev. Siebert, being a music enthusiast, picked up the suggestion and made the necessary arrangements for the use of St. Paul's.

The music committee of St. Paul's church is furnishing the refreshments. Truikie Amigh will be the organizer for the occasion.

Everyone, no matter how mellow or polished your tones may be, is invited to participate in making this event a meaningful tradition.

Sharon Township Farm Home Damaged By Fire

Santa's snazzy entrance was delayed slightly Saturday, when his chauffeur, the Chelsea Fire Department, was called to assist its counterpart in Manchester.

A Chelsea truck raced to the scene, 6520 Jacob Rd., Sharon township, bringing much needed water to battle the blaze in a two-level farmhouse. The fire was reportedly started by a space heater. The home was occupied by the Arnold Armstrong family.

Despite the efforts of the combined force, the fire did extensive damage. The loss was estimated at $3,500 by Jim Kensler, Manchester Fire Chief.

Chelsea's other fire truck was able to fill in at home, depositing Santa on the post office steps.

BUNDLED AGAINST THE COLD: Small Chelsea-ites ignored the cold Saturday to get their chance with Santa in front of the post office. Here Jennifer Kent holds the place of honor in Santa's lap, while her sister Angela waits to be next. Their mother, Mrs. Gary Kent, looks on. Santa assured us that he will be back again this Saturday, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the post office steps to greet kiddies.

Grapplers Win League Opener Against Saline

Chelsea's varsity grapplers scored an exciting 29-26 victory over Saline Thursday evening, Dec. 7. The match was extremely close throughout, only to be clinched by sophomore Don Bollinger's pin victory at 185 pounds.

Chelsea started out with the encouragement of a forfeit at 98 pounds. Dale Schoenberg, who was slated to wrestle in that category, moved up a weight class to score a 4-4 draw at 105 pounds.

Captain Mark Montagne scored a 49-second pin in his division, 112 pounds. This was countered by a marginal setback at 119 pounds. There John Beeman lost by a 8-7 decision. Similarly, Dale Poertner lost a 5-4 decision in the 126-pound class.

The discouraging trend continued with Dave Proctor's defeat in the final seconds of the 132-pound match. Although the sophomore wrestled well, he lost, 7-6. This setback was followed by yet another at 138 pounds, when Doug Reed was pinned by his Saline opponent.

It was Tim Lancaster, a senior and returning star, who brought about the reversal with a 4-3 victory at the 145 level. Darryl West added a pin to Chelsea's record after 3:06 minutes of wrestling in the 155-pound category.

Even though Greg McClain lost, 6-4, at 167 pounds, Chelsea was leading, 23-20, as Don Bollinger prepared to face his 185 pound challenger. Bollinger took down his opponent in 3:13 minutes. Steve Worden's loss by a pin in the heavyweight match was not (Continued on page eight)

Wrestlers 3rd In Dexter Invitational

Chelsea matmen grappled with stiff competition Saturday night at the Dexter Invitational, and as a team, placed a strong third. Two wrestlers, however, out-did their teammates, and came home champions.

Mark Montagne, captain of Chelsea's squad, continued on his winning way. A 15-2 decision, and two pins clinched the 112-pound championship for this senior, who placed third in state competition last season.

John Beeman followed Montagne's strong showing by pinning the number four seeded wrestler. He then posted a 7-6 and a 9-2 decision over the number one and number two seeded wrestlers, respectively. This left him champion of the 119-pound category.

The Bulldogs' total of 72½ points was not far behind the second-place team, host Dexter with 77½ points. Pinckney took top honors with 99½ points, and several championships.

Chelsea was way ahead of the fourth place contender, Jackson Northwest, which accumulated only 47 points. Other teams participating in the tournament, in order of their showing, were Brighton, Saline, Northville, and Willow Run.

Chelsea was well represented in the consolation matches, where five of the seven Bulldogs taking part placed third in their divisions. At 98 pounds, Dale Schoenberg lost a decision to champion Klapovich of Dexter, but defeated Northville, 2-1, and Northwest, 6-3. This left him the third-place title holder in the lightest class.

Dale Poertner also lost to a champ, Svarthout of Pinckney, 2-1, after defeating Kevin Stone, 11-7. Dale then defeated Saline, 4-3, and Northwest, 4-1, in overtime. He, too, was a third-place winner.

Dave Proctor, at 132 pounds, put on a good show. First he won a default over Brighton but then lost a 4-0 decision to champion Gerdell of Pinckney. Dave rallied after that defeat to overcome Northville, 4-1, and Saline, 2-1. The latter match was won by Chelsea in the overtime.

Tim Lancaster's matches were close, in the 145-pound category. He was the winner in a 4-3 decision over Saline, but the loser in a similar contest with Northville. Tim went on to pin Brighton and defeat Pinckney easily, 4-0.

Vocal Music Concert Set For Tuesday

Chelsea youngsters will sing in the season when the vocal music department of Chelsea School District presents a concert on Tuesday night, Dec. 19, at 7:30 in the Beach School Cafeteria.

The program will be divided into two parts, with the sixth grade music classes presenting, in song and story, various Christmas customs from different countries. Kathleen Skelton and DiAnn L'Roy are the teachers in sixth grade music.

Some of the songs will be "Deck the Halls," "Silent Night," sung in both English and German, and "Twelve Days of Christmas."

The second half of the program will be presented by the seventh and eighth grade select choir under the direction of DiAnn L'Roy, accompanied by Pamela Wilson.

The choir will begin their program with "Food, Glorious Food" from the play, "Oliver." Matt Dietrich, Jim Alexander, Billy Van Riper, Jeff Rudd, and Steve Blaess will sing solo parts. The choir will also include seasonal music such as "Do You Hear What I Hear," and "Children, Go Where I Send Thee."

The public is invited to attend this program which is free of charge.

JV Wrestlers Find Scarce Competition

Chelsea's JV wrestlers, who were disappointed earlier with a meager turnout of East Jackson opponents, faced another disappointment a week ago when Saline mustered only nine challengers. This left several Chelsea matmen without mates. Some of Chelsea's lightweight have yet to wrestle their first match.

Those who were given a chance on the mat did well, pinning six opponents and drawing one match. Carmer Slocum started the action by pinning his opponent after 3:37 minutes of competition. He was followed by Dave Kelsner, who chalked up a first period pin at 1:48 minutes. Steve Straub pinned his man in a time of 3:42 minutes.

Mark Pennington suffered one of the two Chelsea defeats, but his performance was admirable. He lost at the very end of the match. Mike Agopian was the Chelsea half of a 4-4 draw.

John Tandy, wrestling at 138 pounds, managed a pin after 3:18 minutes of battle. Tim Reed made his first appearance a good one. (Continued on page five)

Honest Woman Reports Finding $50 Cash; Now Returned to Owner

Chelsea police files contained some good news this week. Patrolman McDougall was approached by a woman in Polly's parking lot, Monday, to report that she had found $50 in cash, on the corner of Main and South Sts.

The police officer took her name and told her that she would be notified if anyone reported the money missing. The individual, who apparently dropped a bank envelope full of the week's shopping money, did report the loss, probably with little hope of reclaiming it. The money has been returned.

Village Joins Battle Against Proposed Rate Hike By Consumers

College Club Welcomes All Recent Grads

Returning Chelsea High graduates will have a chance to share some of their newly acquired experience at the annual College Club gathering Wednesday, Dec. 20 at 2 p.m.

Although the gathering is traditionally a college club activity, it hopes to attract all grads who have furthered their education.

In the library, present high grads will have an opportunity to informally talk about what is to be expected after graduation.

New college students will be offering their insights on the pros and cons of campus life as they have, experienced it. Retiring military men and those who have gone to trade schools or nursing schools may also share their inside view of the world "out there."

The gathering will be run in a very informal way by the Honor Society.

All recent Chelsea High graduates are urged to attend.

All Debaters Win Trophies In Tourney

Dec. 6 proved to be a successful day for the Chelsea high debaters as they returned from a league tournament with a trophy for every one that went.

In the competition with Howell, Saline, and Ann Arbor's Greenhills High school, Chelsea's novice team dominated the field, and captured first-place honors. Steve Bennett, Brian Smith, Keith Cocklerline and Dale Koch earned the laurels with a 5-1 record.

The varsity team also brought home a team trophy. They were second in the running, following Dave Klemmer and Betsy Belser, provided the arguments on that team.

The following day, Dec. 7, Chelsea veterans were back at work, traveling to Marshall High school for the last meeting of the WCTM league. They ended the season with a 4-8 record in that super-competitive league.

Saturday saw talkers at all levels going at it at the Colt Invitational in Comstock. There, two varsity teams and one novice team represented Chelsea.

The novice team, made up of Mark Pennington, Jim Storey, Kathy Rybka and Merry Hoffmeyer took third place with a 4-2 record. Jim Storey earned personal recognition for his performance, and brought home the fifth-place speaker trophy.

The two varsity squads tallied identical records, 4-2, but one amassed a greater number of speaker points which netted the first-place team trophy, a first for Chelsea in this state-wide competition this year.

Requested Rate Increase Could Hike Chelsea Electric Power Rate By 18%

Consumers Power Co., which sells power to the Village of Chelsea has requested a wholesale rate increase, which may hike Chelsea's power bill up 18 percent.

If the increase is approved by the Federal Power Commission, the village will be sharing the burden of payment when it resells the power to its citizens. That means a bigger electricity bill for the individual in 1973.

The request was formally made by the power company Nov. 6, but it will take months for the federal commission to determine if the increase is called for. In the meantime, the Michigan municipalities that will be effected by a rate hike are preparing to intervene.

They argue that their systems could not effectively handle a rate increase of the size proposed by Consumers. Chelsea is among them.

Although a representative from Consumers came to the Village Council meeting, Dec. 4, to explain the company's position, the council remains opposed to the hike.

They have joined with eight other Michigan communities in forming the Michigan Public Power Rate Payers Association. Together, the communities hope to tackle the expensive and complicated task of opposing the increase, a procedure too vast for a single community to take on alone.

JV Cagers Fall Short In Rally at Saline

Chelsea JV cagers added a bit of symmetry to their record Friday night when they lost to Saline, 50-40. That defeat rounded out the Pup's season record at 2-2.

Chelsea watched the Hornets swarm ahead during the first half. The Pups were down nine at the end of the first quarter, and down by 12 when the second period ended. But in a courageous comeback, Chelsea cut the Hornets' lead to three.

They were literally breathing down the necks of their opponents, 43-40, when the rally fell short. Saline jacked itself up with seven more points before the final whistle blew.

Dave Allen led the pack for Chelsea, making 12 points. Gary Wonders and Jack Hackworth were next in the scoring statistics. They each contributed six points to the cause. Paul Wood garnered a total of five.

Alber, Hackworth and Wood were primary rebounders, too. Alber, coming off as the most valuable player, snatched away 10 rebounds to put to Chelsea's use. Jack Hackworth took nine, and Wood grabbed seven.

Friday will see the JV's fighting Lincoln at home.

Beach School Concert

Beach school 7th and 8th grade bands will appear in concert this evening (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. The annual Winter Concert will be held at Beach Cafeteria.

At a Nov. 16 meeting in Lansing, representatives from the communities decided that the goal of the association would remain constant, even though the means to obtain the goal may change. They plan to use lobbying techniques in Washington to stop the increase.

Consumers Power Co. representatives argue that the rate increase is absolutely necessary in order to guarantee fair returns on the investment. Erv Roberts, the company representative, who came to the council meeting, points out that the price of everything has gone up. The cost of labor, materials, fuel to produce the electricity are skyrocketing. It is a familiar tune.

But Consumer's wholesale for resale rate, which effects Chelsea, has not been altered since 1959. At that time the company standardized its rates, giving most clients a small reduction.

Joe Herron, general government services engineer at the power company, expects that the request will be approved by the Federal Power Commission, at least in part. "Judging on precedent, I would say that we'll be allowed only part of the increase we have asked for," he says.

Although the Federal Power Commission's decision is subject to the review of the Federal Price Commission, Herron does not think the President's Phase II program will lessen the chances of a rate hike.

If the rate increase is approved, despite the efforts of the Michigan Power Rate Payer's Association, Chelsea is over a barrel. "We've dealt with consumers for years and years, and don't really want to switch to Edison," explains Fritz Weber, Village Administrator. If there is an increase, Chelsea will have to frown and pay it.

It would mean as much as a $40,000 increase in the village power bill for 1973.

How much and when will the hike hit the individual consumer? Weber says that there is a possibility that the entire 18 percent may have to be passed along to the individual.

The power company is attempting to enact the hike as of Jan. 6, but with the Rate Payers Association fighting it, Weber speculates it will not come to the individual that soon.

Merchants Report 11 Bad Checks Cashed This Week

Chelsea merchants were cheated with 11 bad checks this week, according to Chelsea police records. Four of the checks were written by the same women.

Deborah S. Green, a former Grass Lake resident, dipped into the profits of two downtown establishments by writing four checks on her closed Ann Arbor Bank account. Her present address is unknown.

Chief George Meranuck has issued a warning to all shopkeepers. Checks should be accepted cautiously.

'Holiday Homes' Are Being Readied for Sunday Tour

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas," as six local families hasten to add the finishing touches to their residences. They are preparing for "Holiday Homes," a fund raising effort sponsored by Chelsea Child Study Club, Dec. 17, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

At this time, ticket holders will be privileged to walk through designated areas of each of these homes, uniquely and splendidly decorated for the holidays. Proceeds will benefit the Chelsea Recreation Council.

Here is a glimpse of three more homes.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard K. Borton, 146 Orchard St., are spending their first Christmas in their spacious, Victorian home. The Borton family, normally consisting of four children, Kelli, Todd, Tracy and Jennifer, has been increased by one, Miss Ket-Vass, an exchange student from Norway. She has helped to add many charming and unusual items to the traditional family decorations seen in this home.

The entry hall is dominated by the long staircase trimmed with holly. The living room, to the right, contains the tree, heavily laden with a collection of hand-made and antique ornaments, white lights and Norwegian flags and baskets in the traditional manner of a tree in Norway.

CAROL PALMER, 3½, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Palmer, awaits your visit to her "Holiday Home," 665 Mayer Dr. This residence will be open for viewing Sunday from 6 to 9 p.m. as part of the Christmas tour sponsored by Chelsea Child Study Club. Proceeds will benefit the Chelsea Recreation Council.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers stayed longer than usual at the country store Saturday night, so they had time to catch up on a heap of odds and ends in their discussion. Zeke Grubb said he was staying away from home cause his old lady wanted him to address envelopes and lick stamps for Christmas cards, and he said who was he to make more trouble for the Postal Service. Clem Webster allowed he was supposed to be home cracking nuts for his old lady's fruit cake, but he said he wasn't nuts enuff to get stuck with that job agin this year.

Ed Doolittle had went to see his daughter during Thanksgiving, he works in the city, and Ed hadn't had time till Saturday night to give his usual report on his trip. What he remembered strong, he saw, was walking past one of them day care centers in the city. That's where wimmen that work outside the home put their young-uns while they're on the job.

There was this one little feller, Ed said, that must of been three year old. He was standing at the chain link fence that run around the center yard, and he was crying and holding to the fence fer dear life. He had fell and skinned his knee, Ed said, and all he wanted in the world was his ma. Ed said his ma probable was in a office keeping books so she could buy him a new electric train and a new suit like daddy's.

It ain't no wonder, declared Ed, that all this scramble after money is called a rat race. After you catch a rat, what you got? The daddy is working the morning shift, the mama works the night shift, and the younguns is shifting fer theirselves. Ed's words. Nobody in the family has got the same friends, and they don't hardly know one another cause they're never home at the same time.

Turning to economic statistics, Zeke had saw by the paper where the President's Council of Economic Advisors allows that wages is keeping pace with the price of a hamburger. The council said eight year ago the average working time to pay for a pound of hamburger was 11.8 minutes, and now it is 12.4 minutes. Zeke allowed that the council's word would be stronger if they had based their fingers on a cup of 15-cent coffee that sold for a nickel, not long back. Fathermore, went on Zeke, hamburger is so inflated these days as prices. He had saw where hamburger is so full of "meat extenders" like soybean protein till stores is having to call the stuff beef patties. They've already filled the hot dogs with spare chicken parts and cereal, said Zeke, and now messing up the all-American hamburgers shows they ain't nothing sacred.

Actual, Mister Editor, a lot depends on what you call things. I heard a youngun say a policeman helped her across the street, but a cop give her daddy a ticket.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

"Time Is Now" Every election year as young day draws near, Michigan people are reminded that they have this country's silliest way of electing members of the state Supreme Court.

They also are reminded of the manner in which they choose members of the State Board of Education; that the governing boards of the three major state universities is designed to be much less representative than it seems.

But then the election comes, everyone votes, everyone is tired of elections and politics and no one things about the next election year. The sad part about this is that by the time the election is drawing near, it's too late to change the selection process for that year. And when something could be done to change the selection process when the legislature is in session, no one thinks about it.

Supreme Court justices are nominated at partisan political conventions and then elected on a non-partisan basis.

Gardening Tools Are Welcome Gift For Homeowner

Are you having difficulty selecting the right gift for a certain person? If your friend has trees and shrubs, a pruning tool may be the answer.

Nearly every gardener would like to own a certain tool but never gets around to buying it. Check his needs through his family.

Pruning is a vital part of maintaining one's landscape, says Prof. Joseph Cox, Michigan State University extension landscape specialist. The right tool and technique is important to achieve the desired effect.

Extension type pruning shears are used for tipping back long shoot growth on high parts of shrubs. Long-handled or loping shears cut branches under one-half inch.

Hand pruning saws have straight and curved tapering blades, Cox explains. The straight blade is used to prune woody branches of shrubs and small trees. The curved blade removes large branches at ground level.

Head back new growth with a jack knife. Hedge shears make straight cuts for hedges or formal plant outlines.

One of these tools could help your friend do a better job of gardening. They could prevent backaches and blistered hands too.

A total of 2,874 physicians and 1,419 nurses and other health care personnel attended courses at the University of Michigan Medical Center during 1971.

That process was upset this year when voters named Appeals Court Judge Charles Levin to the court. Levin formed his own political party for the express purpose of nominating himself for the court after deciding he couldn't get the Democratic nomination.

He combined the state-wide familiarity with the Levin name, built up by former State Sen. Sander Levin and a strong media campaign to win one of the two seats. The other seat went to Probate Judge Mary Coleman of Battle Creek, who was nominated by the Republicans but whose strongest point was the fact she was the only woman in the field, which included eight men.

Both new judges are highly competent. But that is more luck than through any strength in the system.

Even less well known are the people elected to the four education boards listed on the state-wide ticket. Probably 99 percent of the people who voted Nov. 7 could not name the eight candidates they voted for to occupy the four board posts.

The winners were all Republican, not through any great merit of their own but simply because President Nixon and Sen. Robert Griffin both carried the state and carried the rest of the state-wide ticket with them.

When he originally announced his education reform program, Gov. William G. Milliken proposed completely abolishing the State Board of Education and allowing the governor to appoint the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The board had been looking especially silly at the time and there was some support for the idea, but it still didn't get anywhere.

In recent years there has been some thought of having the governor appoint board members with the consent of the Senate, the way the boards of other state schools are filled now.

The basic point is that some change should be made. And if it is going to be made somebody should start working on it in the near future.

Any change would require a constitutional amendment. A constitutional amendment would appear on the 1974 ballot and would not be in effect until 1976, unless a special election were scheduled prior to 1974 for some ballot proposal on outside possibility.

But if those in the legislature wait until shortly before the 1974 election to worry about the problem, it will be too late again. Michigan deserves to have a more modern, streamlined method of selecting the people who interpret its laws and govern the education of its children.

After all, we are in the 1970's.

"Bills Checked" A new look at the way every Thursday, Dec. 12, 1968—

The smiling faces of 84 children surrounded Santa Claus at the Kiwanis Children's Christmas party Monday night. Santa appeared during "Jingle Bells" as his habit each year delivered stockings full of goodies, and talked with the children for a few minutes. Boys and girls committee chairman, Charles Cox, said that the Kiwanis children had a great time singing, and devouring their candy. Richard Borton, Dick Boss and Eldon Gorton were other organizers.

Kalmbach noticed signs of labor yesterday and later became concerned enough to call Dr. Don Chapel, veterinarian from Grass Lake. Chapel arrived and performed a cesarean to remove the 195 pound calf, which he believes was approximately three months overdue.

Federal Revenue Sharing Funds Given to Local Units

A spirit of giving is in the air as the federal government generously participating in it. These initial payments, over the first six months of 1972, Payments which will continue during a five-year period, will cost the federal government $5.3 billion for 1972 alone. These figures, like all shares, are based in the community's tax load in 1971. There was some last minutes shuffling before the payments were sent out, since first estimates were based on the tax effort in 1965-66. The up-dated statistics did not greatly alter Chelsea's share, but they did affect Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti. The university city will receive $906,382, $ome $208,811 more than previously estimated. Ypsilanti will come into $436,210, an increase of $86,504. Washtenaw county government is entitled to less than was first thought. It will receive $909,064, $11,246 less than originally expected. The governments within the county will net $2,845,844 all together. Other local unit shares are as follows: Lima, $10,016; Lyndon, $4,580; Sylvan, $12,176; Dexter township, $7,466; Manchester, $10,338; Saline township, $3,076; Saline, $79,578; and Milan, $43,802. About one-third of all Michigan physicians were trained at the University of Michigan.

THANK YOU
I wish in this way to thank all my relatives, friends, and neighbors for the many kind remem-brances and help to myself and family during my recent stay in the hospital and since my return home. Mrs. Cecil Cobb.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish in this way to say thanks to all our relatives, friends, and neighbors who were by our side during the illness and passing of our wife and mother. To all those who sent cards, flowers, gifts, and for the wonderful things you have done. Our special thanks to the Rev. Dickens, the Rev. En-slen, the nurses, and staff at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, to Staf-fan Funeral Home, Norma Schil-ler, and to all my children, who were a tower of strength to me, and to the Ladies of North Shar-on Bible church. A very special thank you to Mrs. Dudley Homes and the Chelsea Blood Bank. The family of Betty, Stinehelfer.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Clay Lang-ston who passed away Dec. 15, 1962. The world may change from year to year and friends from day to day, but never will the one we love from memory pass away. Quietly remembered and missed every day by his loving wife, children and grandchildren. x21tf

Chelsea Students Score High in State-Wide Tests

The State Board of Education recently released the results of tests given earlier this year to all 4th and 7th grade students in Michigan's public schools. Chelsea students scored in the upper levels in all areas tested.

In the 4th grade, Chelsea chil-dren ranked between 76 and 86 on a percentile scale, when tested on their grasp of word relation-ships. This means that the stu-dents performed as well or better than 76 percent of the Michigan school children. In reading, their scores ran a range between 76 and 86.

In the mechanics of written En-glish, the 4th graders were espe-cially competent. They were rank-ed, for example, between the 69th and 83rd percentile.

Another strong area was basic skills of composite achievement. Here Chelsea children ranged from 81 to 87 percentile points.

Seventh graders were tested in the same areas, and showed similar competency. Apparently, reading is their forte. They scored 82-96 in that area. In word relation-ships, they averaged between 73-88 on the percentile scale. Their understanding of the mechanics of written English rated a 79-89 percentile score.

Chelsea 7th graders fell be-tween 75 and 84 on the percentile evaluation in mathematics. Their basic skill composite achievement score was between 86-89.

Dr. John Porter, State Superin-tendent of Public Instruction, says that the tests, which were admin-istered last January, are designed to indicate weak spots in the state education system.

"The result do not constitute a basis for comparing the quality of education in Michigan's school districts," he stresses. "There are too many other factors that must be taken into account when com-paring educational capabilities of different school systems."

The tests, which were given to 162,000 fourth-graders, and 164,000 seventh graders, attempt to mea-sure skills, "which most educators agree children should know at various stages in the development."

"If some children are not grow-ing in these skills, local educators are then in a better position to analyze the present educational services, to see if better ways should be sought to help children learn," says Porter.

Porter offers another guideline when looking at the test results: "No two groups of children, even in the same school district, will be exactly the same," he said.

"The talent of a group of students varies from year to year, and thus is not alarming when one class of students does better or worse than another."

The assessment process itself will be modified, and improved over the years, according to George Bergman, of the Guidance Services in Chelsea School District.

The state-wide assessment re-port was changed this year to show how students in each school district ranked on a percentile basis with other students. The per-centile band (range) used this year is also new.

The Michigan Educational As-sessment Program (MEAP) also yields statistics about the facilities in any given school district.

Chelsea's school district offers 47.2 teachers per 1,000 students, which places it in the 90th per-centile. The "average" school district had 41.8 teachers per 1,000 students during 1971-72 school year.

Chelsea employs teachers who have had an average of 7.8 years of teaching experience. That rates a 35th percentile rating. The aver-age district employs teachers with an average of nearly nine years teaching experience. Nearly 25 percent of them have master's de-grees while in Chelsea, 38.6 per-cent have master's degrees.

Chelsea pays its teachers $11-

351, on an average. State-wide, the average pay is $9,952.

Based on the 1971-72 facts, Chel-sea has 5.5 percent racial-ethnic minority children, which is above the state average, 5.1 percent.

Chelsea's drop-out rate is 4.6 per-cent, which is slightly higher than the state average of 4.5 students in 100.

Chelsea spends $539 of local re-venue on each pupil. This places it in the 87th percentile. State school aid adds $288 per pupil. The elementary instructional ex-pense per pupil was $436 last year. The total operating expense per child is $797 in Chelsea, which is more than is spent in 77 percent of Michigan communities.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Many church hymns, as everybody knows, stress the im-portance of prayer. Take for example, the popular hymn: "What a Friend we have in Jesus." People often sing it, hum it at home and elsewhere. Yet we wonder how often the basic thought of "Take it to the Lord in prayer" is acted upon.

Remember the message of the song? A privilege to carry everything to God in prayer? How we forfeit peace, bear needless pain through lack of prayer? How we have trials and tempta-tions, have troubles here and there? How we become discouraged, need some one to share our sorrows? How we have weaknesses and God knows about them? How we are heavy laden, have loads of cares? How friends forsake us but God will shield us?

In all these true to life situations, is it not strange the certainty of help through prayer is so often ignored or for-gotten? Can you explain it? . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone 475-1551.

en to them by their godparents. The large sleigh, which holds the Christmas gifts, was made by the children's great-grandfather.

The bay window in the adjoining library is highlighted by a large branch filled with dozens of birds; three wise-men, hand-crafted by Mrs. Borton, stand atop an antique pie safe. Many candle and evergreen arrangements will be seen.

Tickets may be purchased at the Borton residence during the tour hours.

A traditional atmosphere, formal but cordial, welcomes you to the Eldean J. Eisele residence, 616 Flanders St. Restful tones of soft blue and green flow through the living and dining areas, with many touches of red added at holiday time. A large red and green wreath hangs above the fireplace, flanked by authentic Williamsburg candle sconces.

The Christmas tree fills the front window; beneath it is a hand-made ceramic nativity scene. A complete collection of Wedgwood Christmas plates is displayed near the entry.

You will be directed through the formal dining room and kitchen areas into the comfortable family room, where a second tree awaits your visit; this one covered with tiny candles, birds and garlands of popcorn, strung by the Eiseles' enthusiastic son, John.

Antique Swedish sleigh bells and heirloom clasp-on ice skates are gaily combined with red ribbon to greet visitors to the George L. Palmer residence, 665 Mayer Dr. This charming, 125-year-old, colonial home exudes hospitality.

The Christmas tree, laden with a 14-year collection of wooden ornaments, is placed by the fireplace. At the base of the tree is a crowd embroidered tree skirt patiently worked by Mrs. Palmer. A hand-made arrangement of pine cone wreaths on a red velvet is placed on the brick fireplace. An 1818 Swedish bible is opened on the coffee table next to a contemporary Advent wreath. Because of Mrs. Palmer's decorations indoors are the highlight of these is a six-foot wooden tree made by Mr. Palmer many years ago. It bares well the burden of gifts.

A hand-made ceramic crèche graces the dining room breakfast. Above is displayed Mrs. Palmer's collection of Wedgwood, Hummel, and Norman Rockwell Christmas plates. "Holiday Homes" follow, aged to park your car and make the tour on foot, weather permitting.

Wrestlers 3rd In Dexter Invitational

by Brighton's big boy, Steve Bright, who pinned Northville and defeating Pinckney, 3-0.

Don Bollinger almost had his last opponent in the finals, but slipped, allowing himself to be pinned. This dropped him into fourth place.

Darryl West was another Chelsea grappler to gain fourth-place standing in his category. He pinned Northwest before losing to Willow Run. He returned to pin Saline only to lose his last match to Dexter.

Another Chelsea wrestler was Chris Steele at 105 pounds. He pinned the number one seeded wrestler, and then lost in the consolation bout to Saline, 7-6. Saline snatched this match by gaining a reversal in the last seconds of this, Chris's first high school meet.

At 138 pounds, Doug Reed was defeated by Northwest, 4-1. Greg McClain won his first match by an injury default. He was illegally slammed, which put him out of tournament competition with a back injury.

Coach Richard Bareis expressed satisfaction over Chelsea's showing. He heartily approves of Bulldog ability to come back after a defeat to pick up the important consolation points. This is essential for a strong tournament team.

Tonight Chelsea will meet Lincoln. They must travel again Saturday to Mason for their Holiday tournament which begins at 11 a.m.

Sweet Potatoes Same As Yams . . . Or Are They?

Sweet Potatoes and yams are actually different varieties of the same "spud," explains Michigan State University Consumer Marketing Specialist Maryann Beckman.

Technically speaking, yams are native to Africa and not grown in the United States. The proper name of the vegetable grown in the South, and commonly called a yam, is sweet potato, says Mrs. Beckman.

The two types of sweet potato sold are dry-fleshed or Jersey and moist-fleshed or Louisiana. Jersey sweet potatoes have yellowish skins with light yellow flesh and remain dry and mealy when baked. The Louisiana type has coppery skin and is more full in the middle with tapered ends. Louisiana have deep orange flesh that is soft, moist and sweeter than Jerseys when cooked.

Solo voices of Misses Linda Walker, Tanya Clemons and Margaret Hardy will be heard as children act out the pantomime.

Immediately after the program, light refreshments will be served, and the children will receive popcorn balls and candies.

On Dec. 24, at 7 p.m., there will be a Candlelight Vesper Service. This program is geared for the children and young at heart, with a slide presentation portraying life in Korea for children, the Christmas story, and an animated story of "Snowflake" to help children and adults alike better understand the meaning of Christmas.

Wrestlers Pin Saline in Opener

enough to turn the tables for Saline. The victory was Chelsea's. The match was significant, not only because it was the league opener, but because Saline is one of the better teams the Bulldogs will grapple with this season. Coach Richard Bareis says that the young wrestlers are making fast improvement, and that Chelsea should be in contention for league honors.

Nevertheless, the coach was concerned that Chelsea's wrestlers lost many close matches in the final seconds. "This is a true indication of inexperience," he says.

Noteworthy efforts were put in by Bollinger, West, Montagne, and Lancaster, according to the coach. He also praised Dale Schoenberg who was wrestling in his first high school match. In spite of the handicap incurred by moving up a weight class, he managed a 4-4 draw.

Dave Proctor must also be cited for a valiant effort in a losing cause. "Dave wrestled very well, and almost came through in the final seconds with a victory," said the coach.

Coach Bareis's final analysis is that Chelsea's was a good win, especially considering that the varsity line-up includes two freshmen and five sophomores.

Almost Upset Saline, 49-54

with 13, 11, and 11 rebounds, respectively.

Scott Skinner led the Saline attack with 16 points scored. Dave Ziegler was the Hornets' most effective rebounder, with 11 to his credit.

The Bulldogs will meet Lincoln's Railspitters Friday night, on Chelsea's court. Saturday night Novi arrives to play.

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1972

New Owners Take Over The Pub Bar

The Pub has changed hands again. The last time that happened was nine years and one month ago, according to Don McKinley. That was when McKinley moved in from Lansing to buy the establishment from Hank and Pat Orbring. Many long hours later, McKinley is through with the bar business. "I want more time with my family," he says. "There are too many headaches in that kind of work."

McKinley's eager exit from the bar business was another man's anxiously awaited chance. Jack LaSage had been wanting to find a bar to run for about a year. He asked a friend in a realty firm to keep his ears open, and then the Pub popped up for sale.

LaSage's in-laws, Louise and Walter Supron, are the new owners of the establishment. As LaSage tells it, their desire to do some investing toward retirement blended well with his willingness to try his hand as a manager.

The Suprons live in Dearborn Heights where Walter works for the Cadillac Motor Division. LaSage, who is presently looking for a home here in the area, is commuting from Plymouth every day. If his name sounds familiar, it's because his name and face often appeared on used car advertisements for an Ann Arbor Lincoln Mercury dealership. "I've sold a lot of cars to people in this area," LaSage says.

The new manager envisions a few changes in the bar, but only along the lines of the decor. "We don't want to change the direction of the bar," he says, "because we like the idea of a neighborhood bar." He'd like to "warm it up" a bit in appearance, but that won't come for awhile.

"Right now, we're just going along with it, seeing how best to run it in Chelsea," LaSage says. "After all, the bar belongs more to the people of Chelsea, than it does to us."

While LaSage is busy with plans, McKinley is relaxed, and a bit relieved to be out of the strenuous business of running such an establishment. "I'm taking it easy until the first of the year," he says, and then the job hunt begins.

The McKinleys would like to stay in the Chelsea area if they can. Their three children are of school age, and don't want to leave. McKinley is just going to see what happens.

LaSage is very enthusiastic about his new job. "The work is fun at this point," he says. He is encouraged that the regulars at the Pub have "accepted us" so soon. Without the regulars, we'd be done before we start," he says.

The University of Michigan Institute for Environmental Quality is one of the few institutes of its type in the country. Among other things, it provides "seed money" to U-M researchers for environmental studies.

THE REV. FR. DAVID DUPUIS

New Priest Serving St. Mary's Parish

The Rev. Fr. David Philip Dupuis, new pastor of St. Mary Catholic church, has been near and far, but mostly near this area during his life.

He was born in Jackson 45 years ago, and remained there to graduate from St. John High school in 1945. He then attended Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit, before taking a large jump to North American College in Rome, Italy.

He studied there from 1948 to 1952, acquiring a STL and a Licentiate in Theology degree. He was ordained in Dec. 8, 1951, and returned to the U. S. the following July.

Before being assigned to Chelsea's parish as of last Wednesday, the Rev. Fr. Dupuis had spent his entire priesthood in Genesee county. He comes to St. Mary's from St. Joseph Parish in Gaines, about 20 miles southwest of Flint. The affiliated mission, St. Augustine, is in Deerfield township, about 12 miles north of Howell. The parish pokes into three counties and covers eight townships.

The new pastor was greeted by his parishioners Sunday at the school hall. The occasion was partly a welcoming reception, and partly a celebration of the priest's ordination day. He has traditionally celebrated the anniversary of his ordination. This was his 20th.

North Sharon Church Now Has Basketball Team

North Sharon Bible church has started a basketball team. Participating in the Tri-County Church Basketball League, five team members play Monday evenings at Columbia Central school at Brooklyn.

Participating this year are Captain Donald Nutt, Pastor Bill Enslin, Tom Harris, Jim Harris, Bob Griffith, Don Miller, Bud McAtee, Aaron Livermore, Nelson Jones and John Roustner.

North Sharon is one of the few teams to also have cheerleaders. They are Sandy Patrick, Gwen Patrick, Mary Robbins, Judy Robbins and Teresa Arnett.

Special toll-free telephone service for veterans and their dependents in 96 cities in 29 states permits them to inquire about benefits by long distance to Veterans Administration regional offices. A newer system now operating in 14 states provides state wide toll-free contact with VA for the entire veterans population. Numbers to call are listed in the white pages of telephone directories.

Lyndon Assessor Attends Short Course Sessions at U. of M.

Thomas C. Lewis of Lyndon township was among the 480 participants in the 27th annual Short Course for Assessing Officers held in Ann Arbor, Dec. 4-6. The course is designed to bring assessors up to date on new information and developments in their fields.

Workshops on Equalization, Property Descriptions, and Residential Property were held, as well as general sessions on Personal Property and Property Tax Laws. Representatives from the State Tax Commission discussed new legislation related to assessment of property and taxation.

The short course was one of a series being held throughout Michigan and was sponsored by the Michigan Assessors Association in co-operation with the University of Michigan Extension Service.

JOINING FORCES: Representatives of the Wolverine Council (Dundee) and Portage Trails Council (Ann Arbor) voted to merge in order to better serve boys in Monroe, Lenawee, Washtenaw and Livingston counties. Val Wittenberg (left), will be the commissioner for the new council, while Judge S. J. Elden of Ann Arbor (right) has been elected president. James Holland (center), who is presently the Scout Executive for the Harrison Trails Council in Lafayette, Ind., has been selected to serve in the same capacity for Wolverine.

Portage Trails, Wolverine Scout Councils Will Merge

Area leaders of the Boy Scouts of America gathered for a historic meeting on Tuesday evening, Dec. 5. In a 7:30 p.m. session, called at the Milan Middle school, representatives of the Wolverine Council (Dundee) and Portage Trails Council (Ann Arbor) voted to join forces in a merger. Spokesmen for the Scouts stated that the action was being taken to better serve boys in Monroe, Lenawee, Washtenaw and Livingston Counties.

The new council comes into being on Jan. 1, and will be known as Wolverine Council No. 255. The Scout Service Center will be located in Ann Arbor, with the present Wolverine headquarters being retained as a regional office.

The merger is in keeping with a national trend to consolidate facilities, make better use of professional staff and services at both the District and Council level, and to release more volunteers to important jobs in the District.

One of the most noticeable benefits (at least where boys are concerned) is the provision of four prime camping facilities: Camp Kanesatake, Camp Newkirk, Camp Munhake and Wright's Lake Scout Reservation (a northern Michigan wilderness camp).

While the action provides for several new dimensions in scouting at a Council level, it will make very little difference where the Districts are concerned. The alignment will be the same as at present, with no changes in professional personnel.

The Honorable S. J. Elden of Ann Arbor was elected as Council President, while Valdemir D. Wittenberg, Lambertville, was chosen as Council Commissioner.

Judge Elden is a 35-year veteran of Boy Scouting and is himself an Eagle Scout. He holds the Silver Beaver Award (the highest recognition a local council can bestow upon a volunteer).

Wittenberg also has the Silver Beaver and first entered scouting in 1936 as a boy in Toledo, O. James Holland, who is presently the Scout Executive for the Harrison Trails Council in Lafayette, Ind., has been selected to serve in the same capacity for Wolverine. He will assume his new duties Dec. 15.

The Ann Arbor May Festival at the University of Michigan will celebrate its 80th anniversary in May 1973.

New Corporations

Lansing—Nearly 10,000 new corporations filed their articles of incorporation with the Michigan Commerce Department's Corporation & Securities Bureau during the first nine months of this year. The Bureau said that 7,019 profit corporations and 1,572 non-profit corporations have filed incorporation articles since Jan. 1 while an additional 889 out-of-state firms were admitted to do business in Michigan.

Research expenditures at the University of Michigan in 1971-72 totaled $65.5 million, an increase of $4.3 million over the previous year.

JAMES WOJICKI has received honorable mention on the roster of the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association's All-conference football team. The sophomore griddier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wojcicki, earned this recognition for his performance with the varsity squad at Hope College. Wojcicki played offensively for his school, and was the back-up quarterback. In that latter position, the former Chelsea High school quarterback threw 12 passes for seven completions and five touchdowns. Four of the touchdowns occurred in Soldiers Field when Hope was victorious over the University of Illinois branch at Chicago Circle. Wojcicki, who is majoring in science at the college, was one of eight sophomores on the squad. He led his teammates in punt and kickoff returns.

Cager of the Week

JOHN MANN (42) is six-foot guard on Chelsea basketball team this season. John judges that this will probably be his last season of sports since he'll be very busy with studies in college. He has decided to go to Albion College, "because of its good academic program," to study pre-med. John visited a friend there last week, and was impressed with what he saw. In past summers John has worked for the recreation department giving instruction, and acting as umpire at the Little League games. He's not sure that will be his pastime this summer, but he does know where he'll be during spring vacation. He and some friends have planned to travel to the ever-popular jaunt south. Ft. Lauderdale or Miami will be the primary destination. John is an avid movie-goer. Clint Eastwood is his favorite star, and "Dirty Harry" is, in his opinion, one of the all-time greats on the screen. "2001" is the best book he's picked up in awhile. John, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mann, has two younger sisters, and an older one in college.

New Officer Joins Police Department

Roger Graves may be a new face around the Chelsea Police Department, but he's no rookie.

He comes to Chelsea from five years with the Westland Police force. There, he was a motorcycle officer with the selective enforcement bureau, specializing in accident investigation. He also spent a short stint with the detective bureau.

Graves says he always wanted to be a police officer. After almost two years of engineering at Henry Ford Community College, and several years with Ford Engineering, he realized it was "now or never." He made the switch, and liked it.

Graves prepared for his new career with basic police training at Oakland Community College. There he picked up college credits in police administration and basic criminal law. He also took three credits in physical defense.

The Chelsea force acquired this highly qualified addition almost by chance. It started in July when Graves moved his family to Sugar Loaf Lake, and took a job with the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, an organization which comes highly recommended in police circles.

Graves found it to be a fine department, but he wasn't satisfied with his duties as jail officer. "I like police work because I enjoy working with people and kids, and occasionally catching a crook or two," he says. Those aspects were lacking in the jail job.

He was back at Ford Engineering when he heard of the possibility of a job in Chelsea.

It was Graves' neighbor, Bob Browning, an auxiliary police officer with the Chelsea department, who first passed along the word that Chelsea was looking for another man.

The village council approved Chief Meranuck's request to hire a sixth full-time officer about a month ago. At that time, the Chief had another man in mind, but when Graves spoke with him on Thanksgiving day, Graves secured the post for himself. He began work Monday.

While Graves was busy commuting to Dearborn, the last few months, his two boys, Roger, Jr., 9, and Randall, 8, and his wife, Diane, were getting acquainted with the Chelsea area. Diane has a part-time job in Ann Arbor, but still has time to lend a hand with the boys' Cub Scout activities.

Graves will be doing his part in that line, Saturday, when he braves the cold to sell Cub Scout Christmas trees in Meadon's parking lot. He also maintains a hobby of his own, which used to mesh nicely with his on-duty hours.

He is a motorcycle enthusiast who thinks it is great sport to ride through 100 miles of forest as fast as he can. He does this while competing in motorcycle endurance races in northern Michigan. He hasn't had an opportunity to do that for a year now, but he does own a Suzuki cycle.

Graves, who grew up in Redford township, acquired his law enforcement experience in a larger community of 80,000 residents, on a force of 88 men, but he doesn't expect to find the work here in Chelsea too much different.

"The same problems exist here, just on a smaller scale." With the slower pace, perhaps Graves can do a little more of what he likes best, "working with people, and kids, and catching a crook or two."

A dance group called "Wainani and her Hapa Heoli Maidens" danced to the music of the Hilo Islanders at NCB Hall, Roseville, last weekend, for the benefit of St. Louis School. Then the troupe came to the school on Sunday to dance and entertain the boys.

The boys chorus members were guests of Betty Flanders on WLEN radio station in Adrian, Monday. They sang again that night for the Altar Society of Our Lady of Fatima in Michigan Center. They were given a dinner there.

Friday, the boys go to Manchester to play basketball with eighth graders.

Chelsea Rod and Gun Club has donated a Christmas tree to the boys, which they decorated and placed in the lobby of the school.

Chelsea Women Start Campaign To Renovate Hall at State School

Have you ever visited an institution where mentally and physically handicapped children are crowded in a large, charmless room; where they are surrounded by rotting but cold tiles, and colder, hard floors; where they eat and sleep and play together, with nothing but a few attendants to protect the weak and slow from the more active children?

This disturbing question, unfortunately, is answered affirmatively by the mother of Donny Bauer, a resident of Plymouth State Home and Training school.

Mrs. Donald Bauer's dismay at finding her son in such a place, the day before Thanksgiving, was enough to spark her and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Norman Bauer, of Waterloo Rd., Chelsea, into action. In a week's time, they had organized the Binet Hall Fund by enlisting a board of directors and a slate of officers in the Chelsea area.

Their group is attempting to raise funds to better the conditions of Binet Hall at Plymouth State Home and Training school. While most of the buildings in the massive complex are adequately furnished and partitioned, Binet was left over when the money

Until recently, some of its inhabitants were the "forgotten children" whose families never visit them nor take them home. With the arrival of the new director, Dr. Womack, a rearrangement of residents placed the forgotten children in better facilities, their only home, and moved Donny and many others, to less comfortable surroundings.

The director's move was not only an act of kindness toward the forgotten ones, but a means of tapping the energies of loyal and loving parents.

When Mrs. Bauer of Scio Church Rd., Chelsea, arrived at the Home to pick up Donny for the holiday visit, she found his new residence to be a huge structure, housing 400 children. She discovered children of all ages and disabilities eating and playing together in a bare, echoing hall.

All this was in shocking contrast to his former assignment, a comfortable area shared with approximately 20 children.

A search through 100 strange faces produced no sign of her son. Finally, a nurse recognized Mrs. Bauer, and explained that her son had been removed to the bedroom in order to protect him from older, more aggressive boys.

During the week that followed, Mrs. Bauer met with the home administrators to see what could be done to better the conditions at the hall. They agreed upon a plan that would divide the large ward into smaller sections, separating the older and mobile children from the very crippled and infants.

The additional rooms would also force the state to supply a larger staff to care for the children. Presently, only a few attendants are responsible for the 400 children. "The state is required to supply a roof, beds, and food, and not much more," explains Mrs. Norman Bauer, president of the Binet

NIGHTMARISH ATMOSPHERE: Very little coziness characterizes this bedroom for 80 to 100 handicapped children in Binet Hall at Plymouth State Home and Training school. Mrs. Norman Bauer, president of a concerned citizen group, and the aunt of one of Binet's young residents, hopes that they will be able to partition the sleeping hall into comfortable rooms of no more than 20 slumberers.

AN ECHOING HALL: This large room houses 100 handicapped children of all ages, and provides for some the only home they know. Yet, there are none of the trappings of home to soften the noise of their play, or their loneliness. A group of area women hope to change this bare fact by providing curtains, carpets, and partitions for this room in Binet Hall at Plymouth State Home and Training school.

Hall Fund. "The number of attendants has little to do with the number of kids. They only assign so many staff members per room. If we make more rooms, they'll have to add more attendants."

The plan also stipulates that the existing bedrooms, which now sleep 80 to 100 children each, barracks style, will be divided into smaller areas, encompassing only 20 beds.

The vast day rooms would be partitioned into separate play areas, and separated dining rooms. While providing better care for the children, the smaller areas would also be more homey than the sprawling hall.

If the drive gathers funds which go beyond the cost of these most pressing needs, the group would like to put up curtains, and even add carpeting to soften the harshness of the floor and staring windows.

The Chelsea women not only organized a drive here. Mrs. Norman Bauer estimates that she has made as many as 400 telephone calls. As a result, a fund raising drive is gathering momentum in Detroit and another community.

A budget of $5,000 has been set to cover the renovation of the hall. So far the Kiwanis Club and the Young Homemakers Group of Chelsea have contributed to the cause. Mrs. Bauer is also pleased to announce that individuals have taken an interest. One woman offered to donate the cost of some curtains.

The fund organizers are also planning several money-raising activities. The first will be a bake sale, Dec. 22-23, beginning at noon on Friday. Items may be purchased on sight at Longworth Plating Co., or special orders may be placed with the fund organizers.

Volunteers are manning phones to take orders and offers of donations. They are: Mrs. Ralph Trinkle at 475-2985; Mrs. Warren Leisinger at 475-8739; and Mrs. James Krichbaum at 475-2805.

The organizers have also initiated a canister drive. Collection

HOMEMAKERS: In a mere week's time, these women have come together in hopes of transforming the bare and sterile quarters at Binet Hall at Plymouth State Home and Training school into a home. They have begun collecting money to furnish drapes to cover the large expanse of windows, and carpeting to cover the hard floor which is the playground and dining room for nearly 400 handicapped children. The group's first priority is to provide partitions which would divide the large, charmless room into smaller, more congenial living areas. Seated are the officers of the citizen's group. From left: Mrs. David Wolfgang, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Bauer, vice-president; Mrs. Norman Bauer, president; and Mrs. Warren Leisinger, secretary. In the back stand the board members: Mrs. Ronald Walter, Mrs. Kenneth Haist, Mrs. Earl Heller, and Mrs. James Krichbaum.

November Traffic Death Toll Less Than Last Year

Traffic deaths in Michigan in November provisionally numbered 159, which was 43 or about 21 per cent less than 202 recorded in the same month last year, according to State Police traffic division count.

The total was 61 less than the average of 220 for November in the five years 1967-71. High for the month was 283 in 1968 while the low was 87 in wartime 1942.

November was only the fourth month this year to show a decrease in deaths compared with corresponding 1971 months. Six other months had increases while October currently ties the count for that month last year.

Despite the November reduction, the accumulated total of deaths for the first 11 months this year was 2,065, which was 81 more, or an increase of over four percent, compared with the toll of 1,974 in the period 1967-71.

Looking ahead, Michigan's count of road fatalities for December this year will be compared with 178 last year, which was three less than the 181 average for the month in the period 1967-71.

Records indicate that the state's road toll for all of 1972 will likely rank fourth in the 12 worst annual traffic death counts which exceed 2,000. The higher counts would be the record 2,487 in 1969; followed by 2,392 in 1968 and 2,298 in 1966. Currently ranking fourth, fifth and sixth are the totals of 2,177 in 1970, 2,175 in 1967 and 2,152 in 1971.

A new insurance plan — modified life-age 70 — makes it financially feasible for 200,000 aging veterans with term insurance policies to convert to the new plan under which premiums remain at a level amount, VA reports.
