Five Minor Auto Accidents Close Out '72

In a matter of three days last week, five automobile accidents occurred in Chelsea. Three took place on Dec. 30, but none on New Year's eve.

The first of the accidents happened the morning of Dec. 28 when Doretha Rose Henry of Owens Ct. pulled into the intersection of Howard Dr. and Dewey. While making a wide right turn, she struck a car driven by Paul Edward Fletcher. She was ticketed for making an improper right turn.

Julius E. Blaess of Fletcher Rd., and Karen Cella Steinaway of Chandler St. were involved in the second accident of the day when the lady started to turn left onto Main St. from Dewey St. She saw a truck coming, and stopped. Blaess, expecting her to continue her turn, accelerated and bumped into her.

Dec. 30 had just begun when Charles Leon Koch, 18, attempted to pass a car and lost control. His car hit an aspen and slammed into a light pole. The police arrived a little after 12:30 a.m.

Chelsea patrolmen were called again in the small hours of that night when Peter William Vidor of Ann Arbor got caught on the railroad tracks crossing Cavanaugh Lake Rd., near the Chelsea United Methodist Home. Vidor's automobile slid off the road on to the tracks because of icy road conditions.

The final accident of the year in Chelsea occurred at 1:45 p.m. Dec. 30, on M-52, in front of Schumm's restaurant. Ernest George Hinderer of Waters Rd., rammed a car stopped in the north-bound lane, waiting for a third car to turn into Schumm's parking lot. This started a chain reaction which dented all three cars.

That's one way to finish the year with a bang.

Lauren Boyers Both Graduate at Eastern Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Boyer recently graduated from Eastern Michigan University at its 24th winter commencement.

Mr. Boyer received a Bachelor of Science degree and a secondary teaching certificate in Industrial Education, while his wife, the former Joan Dietle, received her Bachelor of Science and elementary certificate in Special Education for the blind and visually handicapped.

After a trip west the couple will be teaching in Ann Arbor.

Herds of Deer In Area Reported Crossing Roads

Several Chelsea area residents have reported seeing large groups of deer crossing highways lately.

Aloysius Bernard Vanroijen, of Ann Arbor, saw them too late. As he was driving along M-52 near the I-94 interchange, Dec. 27, a group of approximately five deer darted across the road. A large deer ran into the side of Vanroijen's Dodge with enough impact to be fatal. The animal ran off a few hundred yards and died.

The damage to the car was extensive, but the driver was not hurt.

Another driver reported counting a herd of 11 deer crossing I-94 near the Fletcher Rd. interchange. At least two were reported killed in this instance.

Dimes Fund Drive Kickoff Dinner Slated

Dr. Roy Schmickel, Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Communicable Diseases and Human Genetics at the University of Michigan will be the speaker at the Washtenaw County Chapter of the National Foundation March of Dimes 1973 kickoff dinner to be held at the Ann Arbor Moose Hall Monday, Jan. 8. His talk will pertain to a new clinic to be established in Ann Arbor. The clinic will be concerned with diagnosis of metabolic diseases and will provide a program of therapeutic and educational assistance in addition to prenatal diagnosis.

The event will officially launch the annual campaign to raise funds for the foundation's fight against birth defects through research and treatment. The county chapter provides direct patient aid to birth-defective children. College scholarships are awarded to selected area high school students who plan to enter medical or related fields.

Dr. Milton H. Bank, Westside Methodist church, will offer the invocation. Chairman of the dinner is Mrs. Thomas Pilkington.

Roy Holiday Promoted To Sergeant in Army

Roy N. Holiday, who is now serving in Germany with the 52nd Security Police Division, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. He will return to Chelsea in July on leave to visit his parents Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holiday of 19-636 Ivy Rd. The serviceman is a 1969 graduate of Chelsea High school.

Key 73 TV Special Set For Saturday

On Saturday night Jan. 6, a Key '73 launch television special entitled "Faith in Action" will be telecast into nearly every community in North America. Hundreds of thousands of Christians will be gathered in home groups to listen, watch, discuss and pray about the meaning of Christian witness in the 1970's.

You are invited to join the millions viewing this television special. Your own congregation may have already planned small groups to watch and discuss the telecast. If not, date your calendar for this important event. Invite friends in to your home or plan a get-together with other members of your church.

Churches from the Chelsea area participating in Key '73 activities are St. John Lutheran church of Bridgewater, St. Thomas Lutheran church, Zion Lutheran church, and Bethel United Church of Christ.

The Launch Television Special is the beginning of Key '73, a voluntary movement of more than groups co-operating in a massive attempt to reach every person in North America with the Gospel of Jesus Christ during 1973.

In Key '73, Christians will be working together to share Christ with millions of persons. The effort will include concurrent Bible studies in a million Christian homes; continent-wide radio and TV linking hundreds of thousands of participating small groups; massive lay witnessing programs; coast-to-coast mass media evangelism; creative resources for implementing local church programs; and thousands of area-wide evangelistic endeavors.

Deer Crossings Mean Caution For All Drivers

So many deer have been sighted on I-94 between M-52 and Baker Rd., that some late night drivers like Jack LeSage, manager of The Pub, have started passing through that area at a cautious 45 mph.

Another, Gary Lilly, a real estate agent in the area, decided after he hit a deer two weeks ago, that more than caution was needed. "I called the highway department to see if some deer crossing signs could be put up."

He received some encouragement for his efforts. One official remarked that the area used to be posted. Lilly was led to believe that new signs would soon be installed.

CENTENNIAL FARM: The Division of Michigan History has designated Helen Valant's home at 13050 Sager Rd., as one of the special Michigan farms owned by one family for a century or more.

The 11-room house which was hand built with hand-hewn beams, carries its age well. "I don't let anything run down," says Mrs. Valant.

Helen Valant Property Given Centennial Farm Honors

If the farm at 13050 Sager Rd. looks old but not run down, the credit partly goes to the Jenks family, settlers who cleared the land, and built a home to last. It also goes to Helen Valant, owner of the property, which has recently been designated a Centennial Farm.

The designation, as bestowed by Michigan Department of State's Division of Michigan History, can be earned by any farm which has been in continuous possession of the same family for 100 years or more.

Mrs. Valant, who inherited the property and a knowledge of its history from Charles Jenks 26 years ago, was not certain the property would qualify since it has left the hands of the original family. Nevertheless, she says, "I wrote them, and told them about the place, and I said if it wasn't what they were looking for, they could just throw my letter in the waste basket."

The impetus for the letter came from an article in the Ann Arbor News last month that outlined the Centennial Farm program. It reminded Mrs. Valant that when Charles Jenks died, the land had been in the family for a century. Says Mrs. Valant, "If we'd known about the program back in the 40's when it started, I figured the farm would have been alright for it."

Apparently, the Division of History thinks it's still all right. Mrs. Valant's application was accepted as of Dec. 22. The large metal marker, provided by the Detroit Edison and Consumers Power companies, is due any day.

Mrs. Valant, Detroit native came to the area with her husband years ago, and took up residence on a farm near the Jenks property. Mr. Jenks, then 93 and alone, having outlived his wife and three children, needed someone to keep house and care for him. In 1944, Mrs. Valant left a dissolving marriage to take the job.

For three years before Charles Jenks died, he shared the history of the homestead with his house keeper. He spoke of how his father, Denison, left Massachusetts in 1842 to clear the 140 acres in Michigan. During the early lean years, the Jenkses lived in a small log cabin on the north portion of the property, by the creek.

They moved to the spot where the farmhouse now stands after the railroad, which was due to come through Jerusalem, failed. Jenks told Mrs. Valant that two railroads were competing for Judge Dexter's business. The line that goes through Chelsea won, leaving Jerusalem forgotten, and a supply of ties on the Jenks property.

The family built their new house of railroad ties, a structure that stood until 1963, when Mrs. Valant finally had the rotting timbers removed. "It was rotting in the corners, and

Lakes Assoc. Studies Zoning Ordinance

Portage and Base Line Lake Association will meet at 7:30 tonight, Jan. 4, at Dexter Township Hall to review the present status of the proposed Dexter township zoning ordinance and to consider what action, if any, should be taken by the Association concerning the ordinance.

The zoning ordinance has been reviewed by the Washtenaw County Planning Commission and its recommendations were made public at a meeting of the Commission last night. However, acceptance of the Commission's recommendations and final adoption of the ordinance rest with the Dexter Township Board.

Many residents of the lakes in the township have been protesting certain requirements in the proposed ordinance concerning non-conforming structures and use, most particularly what residents believe to be a lack of clarity concerning a property owner's right to rebuild.

Jack C. Radcliffe, Jr., attorney for the Association, in a letter of Dec. 1 to Earl Doletzky, chairman of the zoning board, proposed a change in the ordinance which he believed would meet the Association's request for clarity of the property owner's right to rebuild.

Radcliffe suggested the wording "Nothing in this ordinance shall prevent the reconstruction or replacement and continued use of structure to the extent that the same existed on the effective date of this ordinance." He then suggested a separate clause listing steps which must be met before rebuilding could begin. These included "review and recommendations" on a site plan by the township zoning board, attempted reduction of non-conformity, and a waiver procedure for the 108-day reconstruction limit.

The waiver procedure has been incorporated into the proposed ordinance. However, the zoning board rejected Radcliffe's re-phrasing of the right to rebuild. Tom Ehman, secretary of the board, in pointing out the reason for the decision at the public hearing Dec. 4 said that Radcliffe's proposed wording removed the need for site plan approval.

Radcliffe proposed "review and recommendations" while the proposed ordinance says "A site plan shall be approved by the Dexter Township Zoning Board before such reconstruction or replacement may begin." Ehman said that removal of site plan approval could prove harmful to the interests of neighbors of a person rebuilding.

The Association will now consider what courses of action should be taken by it on the proposed ordinance.

I was afraid it would blow down in the wind," she explains.

Charles was 15 when he began hauling stones from the fields for the foundation of the farmhouse that stands today. "In those days," says Mrs. Valant, "people weren't independent like they are today. Everyone helped one another. All the neighbors came to help build the house."

The senior Jenks ordered heavy hand-hewn beams from Flint. They were transported by rail as far as Saline, where Jenks fetched them in an ox-drawn wagon.

Mrs. Valant recalls Jenks' stories about the chore of bringing those hefty 10 by 12 beams to the farm. "There was more snow in those days," she says, "and sometimes he'd get only halfway home by night time. Then he'd have to stay the night at the nearest farm."

Prices were different then, too. "All that wood cost $900," says Mrs. Valant.

Charles shared other memories with his companion. He recalled the little school house he attended on his neighbor's farm before the "modern," one-room, brick schoolhouse was built down the road.

The Jenks family is buried in Jerusalem Cemetery, a plot of land Mrs. Valant describes as "somebody's field that couldn't be farmed, so they donated it to the county."

Mrs. Valant has not changed the Jenks place a great deal since inheriting it in 1947. Many old pieces of Jenks furniture remain. The original plaster is there, as are the holes left by stove heat. She has kept the Jenks family Bible with its history of the family's comings and goings, its deaths and marriages.

"I should write a book with this," she says. She has added a furnace, plumbing, and hot and cold running water to the 11-room home. Stove heat and a little electricity were the only amenities in the farmhouse when she first came to it.

Of the original 140 acres, Mrs. Valant's 108 lie idle. "I farmed it like he used to, and had someone farm it for me for awhile," she says, "But then I got cheated, so I don't do it anymore." She receives government subsidy for some of her dormant acres.

She has given some of the land to her two daughters, one of whom has built a home there. A grandson has also built on the old Jenks land.

It is evident in Mrs. Valant's manner, that she inherited the family love for the place, as well as the land. She learned Charles Jenks' tales well, and loves to repeat them. Although no relative, just a friend, she represents the original family well.

Any Group of 10 May Form Village Political Party

Any group of 10 or more residents who are qualified to vote in the ensuing general election may band together and form a political party or organization, either partisan or non-partisan.

They shall supply the name of said political party or organization to the Village Clerk by the 15th day of January preceding the annual village election together with their names and addresses, and shall be entitled to hold a nominating caucus for the purpose of placing candidates on the ballot from such party or organization in the general village election.

High School Starts 'Open Registration'

The Chelsea High school faculty meeting Tuesday afternoon was devoted to trouble shooting as the teachers and administrators prepared for today's initiation of open registration.

This new policy, in which the students decide their class schedule for next semester, offers an alternative to computerized registration. The old method does not allow for individual preference in times.

The high school students will not enjoy the total freedom college students have to choose courses and times to fit interest, whim and convenience. Chelsea students are committed to certain courses that they elected with the help of an advisor last spring, when the 1972-73 year was being planned. But for the first time, they may indicate which hour they want to take what course.

The new system, according to George Bergman, counselor at the high school, will offer a "shopping tour" in the gym. The west side, "the girls' side," has been equipped with tables for each department. At each appropriate station, the student picks up a computer card for the hour he wishes to take the course.

Once through the various areas of math, English, social studies, or art, the student can submit his schedule in the form of computerized cards.

The transition to this modified open registration is not simple. Chelsea administrators have attended seminars and conferences, attempting to learn from others' experience, so that they can smooth over rough spots before they have a chance to irritate. Even the placement of tables is carefully considered to avoid congestion.

Even so, some hang-ups are expected. A few snags will not be much of a deterrent, however, since the computer system is not flawless. The high school had to make 400 alterations in last year's computerized schedule. "With the computer, we get students assigned to third year Latin, when they haven't had year one or two," Bergman explains.

If the new system proves to be unfeasible, the school can fall back on the old master schedule method.

QUOTE

"The great secret of education is to direct vanity to proper objects."

—Adam Smith.

"The computer is programmed to take the schedules just in case," says Bergman.

The seniors will be the first to learn about the new system today (Thursday) in civics class. Tomorrow they will go to the gym for their shopping tour, enjoying the privilege of rank. Since favorite classes at favorite times may become over-subscribed, it is an advantage to be first.

The juniors will get their chance the next week, when their history classes will be devoted to orientation. They should have a pretty good idea what they want by the time they get to the gym on Tuesday.

Wednesday, both sophomores and freshmen will be instructed in the ways of the new system in their gym classes. The sophomores will get the jump on the frosh by going through the registration procedure Thursday. Freshmen will make their time preferences known Friday, right before exams begin the following Monday.

Although the freshmen are the last to register, there is little concern that they will be closed out of their choices. There are very few courses shared by upperclassmen and underclassmen.

The advantage of the new system is that it obliges personal preferences, and gives students a greater say in their school life. If it runs smoothly, everyone may come out happier. Right now, it's wait and see.

Two Dogs Picked Up For Attacking Sheep

Chelsea Patrolman Gerald Ringe logged a complaint from Howard and John Klink Dec. 31, that two dogs were doing damage to their sheep.

Investigation revealed that one St. Bernard and a German Shepherd belonging to Larry Morse of Main St., had chewed three sheep so badly that they had to be destroyed. Four others were crippled.

Police caught and tied the dogs which were later turned over to the dog warden.

Veteran Drivers Retire from County Road Commission

Two long-time members of the Washtenaw County Road Commission, Oliver Walker and Leroy Satterthwaite, both of Chelsea, retired from their positions in the district yard, Dec. 20.

Walker, of 521 W. Middle St., worked more than 43 years with the commission. He joined the crew April 8, 1929.

Satterthwaite, who lives at 5885 Sibley Rd., has been an employee of the county almost as long. He began work with the commission April 23, 1933. He has been on the job for 39 years.

Both men began work shortly after Washtenaw county organized the Road Commission. They have seen the road system develop from the days of the Model T and narrow gravel roads, for horse and buggy travel, to the present dual lane expressways. In the beginning, they used horse-drawn dump wagons, which offer a remarkable contrast with the present day trucks and earthmovers.

Both men were equipment operators during their employment with the commission and have participated in the construction of many miles of new and improved roads in the county.

Service Award Nominations Sought By JCs

Chelsea Jaycees are again seeking nominations for their annual Distinguished Citizen Award which will be presented this year during National Jaycee Week, Jan. 21-27.

Anyone working or living in the Chelsea area is eligible for the award. Nominees should be people who have made a positive contribution to living and/or working conditions in the community.

Any person or organization may submit nominations to the Jaycees. A nomination blank is printed in this issue of The Standard. Nominations should be mailed to P.O. Box 277 Chelsea.

Last year's recipient was Dorothy Miller. Some of the past recipients are Don Alber, George Heydauff, Charles Cox and Dr. J. V. Fisher.

Cager of the Week

BRUCE GUSTER (12) may not be one of the tallest basketball players around at 5'10", but that doesn't keep him down. He has been a consistent scorer for the Bulldog cagers, after receiving the most valuable running back award at the end of football season. Bruce is an asset to the team, not only in terms of buckets made. His antics on the hardwood keep the fans smiling even when the blue and gold team is losing. Bruce will graduate in June and take off, atop a motorcycle, in search of freedom, adventure, and a little work along the way. This basketball tri-captain has lived in Chelsea for only a few years, but he has made a place for himself in the annals of Chelsea sports. Another chapter is due to be written during track season.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The feller got their laugh for the week when they reported Saturday night fer the meeting at the country store. The first thing they saw when they walked in the door was the feller that runs the store in all his Christmas glory. He was wearing this get up his son had give him, and Ed Doolittle allowed they ain't been nothing like it since Joseph and his coat of many colors.

The store owner's boy goes to college, and he told his pa he wanted to put some color in the old man's life. So he went to one of them stores that cater to college boys and got his pa a shirt and a pair of pants for Christmas. Mister Editor, the feller wouldn't know fashion if they tell over it, but they was agreed if what the store feller was wearing was style they'd a heap sooner be out of it than in it. They ragged him so bad about his outfit till he allowed it was the first time he had got up courage to wear it, and it looked like the last.

Actual, allowed Zeke Grubb, he didn't look bad for a girl. He was wearing ever color in the rainbow, his shirt sleeves were fluffly and the tips of his shirt collar dropped over his shoulders. His pants legs was bigger at the bottom than anywhere else, and they didn't have no cuffs or no belt. They was held up by little last strips on the side. Zeke said the store feller she looked awful pretty, but she shore weren't no kin to the big pot bellied guy that use to run the place.

Ed Doolittle said he had seen this disaster coming from the day they quit putting watch pockets and suspender buttons on pants. He said he never had use fer cuffs to drop cigar ashes in noway, but when he had to use them suspenders with snapjaw clamps on em he knewed the worst was to come. Ed said he had been aiming to lodge a formal protest agin shirt-tails anyhow, and it looked like the feller that runs the store had done it fer him. The shirt he had on would stretch like a sweater and it didn't even have a tail, it was cut even across the bottom so you can wear it in or out of the pants. It has always been a abomination unto decency for a m to let his shirttail hang out, was Ed's words.

Mister Editor, I think the feller that runs the store took all the attention good natured, and I think he was right when he said it don't matter what's on the outside of a man, it's what's inside that counts. But his Christmas outfit did remind us that men's clothes seem to be getting flashier and wimmen's are getting plainer. I even see by the ads in the papers that men can get beard dye to match their favorite clothes colors. But the stopper in the fashion jug was where I saw this football player sprained his ankle when he stepped off the curb in his high heel boots.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

by Carl P. Kentner

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

Pesticides of some kind are used on almost 85 percent of all farms, but farmers account for only slightly more than half of all the pesticides used in the United States. Urban dwellers have as big a stake in the use of pesticides as do farmers.

With the recent ban placed on the use of DDT, we need to remember some of the comments made by Dr. Norman Borlaug, the 1970 Nobel Peace Prize winner, and the only agriculturalist ever to be so honored.

In an address last year, Dr. Borlaug charged environmentalists with a desire to legislate a ban on DDT to prohibit it for any use in the U. S. A. If this happens, Borlaug warned, they almost certainly will start a world-wide propaganda campaign to have it banned everywhere in the world.

"This must not be permitted to happen until an even more effective and safe insecticide is available," he declared. "As soon as DDT is successfully banned, there will be a push for the banning of all chlorinated hydrocarbons, then, in order, the organic phosphates and carbamate insecticides. Once the task is finished on insecticides, they will attack the weed killers and, eventually, the fungicides."

"If the use of pesticides in the U. S. A. were to be completely banned, crop losses would probably soar to 50 percent and food prices would increase four to five fold. Who then would provide for the food needs of the low income groups? Certainly not the privileged environmentalists," stated the honored scientist.

All mankind stands to lose if we jump too fast. We need to seek knowledge and understanding of all the insecticides and pesticides to determine their worth as weighed against any detriment they may have before we jump at banning them.

Republicans Complain
Republican members of the Michigan House were making what could only be a futile gesture a few weeks ago when they all but called for the firing of State GOP Chairman William McLaughlin.

GOP members are understandably upset that they are going to be the minority party in the House for the next two years on the short end of a 60-50 split. They have been grumbling about that ever since election day, when Democrats held the House while losing every other state-wide contest.

Some Republicans feel if the party had tried a little harder they might have taken control of the House, since a total of 1,400 votes in six districts was the difference between defeat and victory.

So they issued a statement calling for an "open election" of the state chairman in February, despite the fact McLaughlin wants another term and, more importantly, Gov. William G. Milliken wants him to stay.

A closer look at the election indicates that the loss of the House for the third straight election can't be blamed on McLaughlin. First of all, the districts in which the House members ran were drawn earlier this year by Democrats and were designed to keep Democratic control no matter what. Party strategists privately say they could pick up 70 to 75 seats in a year that wasn't so heavily Republican.

Then there was President Nixon's failure to attempt to transfer any of his popularity to Republicans further down the ticket. The GOP is the minority party in Michigan and if it weren't for the busing issue, it is even doubtful that Sen. Robert Griffin would have been re-elected.

The feeling of the House GOP is understandable, but McLaughlin wants to keep the job and Milliken wants him to keep it, too.

So when the Republican convention comes along Feb. 18-17 in Detroit, don't be surprised if McLaughlin wins another term by acclamation.

Sign That Form
One of the ever present frustrations of state officials in Lansing is the form submitted, but not signed, by a citizen. This is true whether it's an income tax return or a driver's license application.

Secretary of State Richard Austin says that with the idea of sending for automobile licenses plates through the mail now catching on in Michigan, the problem has spread to that too.

By late December, roughly one in every 10 license plate applications wasn't signed. That means the form has to be sent back to the sender for his signature, a time consuming process.

Austin also wants people to know they aren't going to get back the same license plate number that they've had the past two years.

"Some people evidently think they're supposed to get the same number again," he says. "A few have actually mailed their plates back, telling us we've sent them the wrong ones."

"When we use tabs last year, they kept the same license plates," he says.

Enrollments Hold
A survey taken by the State Board of Education shows there are just a few more students at institutions of higher education in this state than there were last year.

Enrollments totaled 406,951, an increase of only 3,392 over the previous year. The 13 public four-year colleges and universities have more than half of the total with enrollments of 218,724. That is a decrease from the previous year. The 29 community and junior colleges have 137,634 students, while the 45 private colleges and universities have enrollments totaling 50,593.

The University of Michigan Real Estate Program, now in its 26th year, offers evening classes throughout Michigan.

The first national student convention of the Society of Women Engineers was held at the University of Michigan in 1972.

Thursday, Jan. 2, 1969—

With a new year comes a new court system to Washtenaw county, and a new court, the 14th District Court, to the village of Chelsea.

The Rev. Moritz W. Brueckner, pastor of Zion Lutheran church at Rogers' Corners from 1926 until his retirement in 1953, died Thursday, Dec. 26, at St. Luke's Hospital, Toledo, O.

Two Chelsea area men, Peter C. Flintoft and Lynwood Noah have been notified that they have passed their State Bar examinations.

Chelsea Bulldogs soundly defeated the Brighton Bulldogs, 75-57, to claim the Holiday Tournament consolation trophy Saturday at Chelsea High school.

Police are searching for persons who broke into Frigid Products and stole between $30 and $50 from a cash register the night of Dec. 29.

After being flattened by the flu last week, the Bulldog wrestling team is practicing hard in preparation for what promises to be a tough quadrangular meet Saturday.

William A. McHattie, president and chairman of the board of Michigan Seamless Tube Co., announced agreement was reached for acquisition of all the assets of Fortune Industries, Inc., located at 11770 Dexter-Chelsea Rd.

Monday evening Dec. 23, shortly before 9 p.m. Bill Sprental's Marathon Service at 1-94 and Fletcher Rd., was robbed of approximately $325 by two bandits who over-powered the station attendant, William Lounsbury, after asking him for change for a dollar.

Thursday, January 6, 1949—

Word was received here early this week that the Rev. Fred Mumby, a former pastor of the Methodist church here has been confined to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital at Mr. Clemens, since the day before Christmas when he sustained internal injuries in a fall on a downtown street in Marine City where he now resides.

The Chelsea Girl Scout Association has been formed and registered at National Headquarters to assume the responsibility for local Girl Scout activities. For many years this was done under the direction of the Chelsea Study Club committee.

On Wednesday, Dec. 29, Mrs. Mary Crissman Eaton celebrated her 90th birthday at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Eaton, with open house for friends and relatives.

Christian Koch, a building contractor since 1902, died Monday at his home on Fletcher Rd., after suffering a heart attack.

Frederick William Notten, more familiarly known as Fred Notten, died Thursday morning at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, where he was taken after suffering a stroke at his home Wednesday evening. He had been in failing health for the past three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Doll, Jr., are the parents of the first baby born in the Ann Arbor area in 1949, a baby daughter having been born to them three seconds past midnight New Year's Eve. Mrs. Doll is the former Jean Dexter.

Thursday, Jan. 5, 1939—

Action was taken at the December meeting of the Board of Directors of Chelsea State Bank to pay a dividend of $5 per share to stockholders of the bank. Checks covering the dividend payment were mailed on Saturday.

As the result of carelessness on the part of a postoffice patron, damage to the lobby of the building was narrowly averted on Monday when either a match or lighted tobacco was thrown into a waste basket. The fire was discovered by A. W. Wilkinson and J. E. McKune who quickly threw the basket out the front door.

Stanley Czaplak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Czaplak of Sylvan township, was in an automobile accident last week in Flint, while spending his Christmas vacation at the home of his grandmother. He is a patient in Hurley Hospital, Flint.

The Hirth estate property on Orchard St., has been sold to Mrs. Evelyn Smith. After making extensive repairs to the residence, Mrs. Smith and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Munro and Phyllis will make it their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Faist left Tuesday morning for their home in Los Angeles, Calif., after a holiday visit with his mother, Mrs. Mary Faist and other relatives here. They are making the return trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bareis spent Sunday in Britton, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. O. Lamson Brady.

Wool Incentive Pay Applications Due By Jan. 31

Jan. 31 is the latest date on which 1972 wool applications may be filed in order for producers to receive incentive payments in April, according to Raymond Girbach, chairman of the Washtenaw County ASC Committee.

To file for incentive payments on 1972 marketings of wool and unshorn lambs, a producer need only provide sales documents and fill out a short application form, Girbach said. Sales documents should include name and address of the seller, date of sale, net weight of wool sold, number of head and live-weight of unshorn lambs sold, gross and net proceeds, and name, address, and signature of the buyer or the marketing agency making the sale.

The incentive payment price is 72 cents a pound for wool marketings with payments based on a percentage of each producer's returns from sales. The percentage will be that required to raise the national average price received by all producers up to the 72 cents incentive price.

The ASC committee chairman also said that the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that the wool payment program will continue unchanged for 1973, with the same level of incentive prices. These prices are in accordance with the law which required that support shall be at these levels for each of the three marketing years through 1973.

The only President to become chief justice of the Supreme Court was William Howard Taft. He was appointed in 1921 by President Warren G. Harding.

Manchester Snowmobile Race Is Jan. 7

Want to participate in, or be a spectator at one of the most exciting snowmobile races in Michigan? The event is little Manchester's big annual Jaycee Snowmobile Race on Jan. 7. The big feature is the high banked oval race track. Race drivers get lots of speed and excitement.

This yearly event is MISA sanctioned and this year will be featured as a Class B race, one day only. Entry fee is $10 per driver with 90 percent of the entry money going for prizes. (Expected to reach $2,000 this year). Registration starts at 9 a.m. and ends at 11:30. The first race of the day starts at 12 noon. An extra attraction this year is the addition of a junior race, ages are 12 - 16 with a 300cc machine as the maximum. Boys and girls may enter the races.

Everyone is welcome to enter the races, novice or pro. Other features include free parking, bleachers and a concession stand plus a ramp for cars from which fans can watch the races from their cars.

The race is sponsored by the Manchester Jaycees and all 100 men are needed to make the race go smoothly. The proceeds from the race are then used by the Jaycees for community betterment. Examples are scholarships for students, sponsoring boy and girl scout troops, Halloween party etc.

Dr. A. W. Heilman Will Address Reading Council

Dr. Arthur W. Heilman teacher, author, and lecturer in the field of reading instruction, will address the Jan. 16 meeting of the Washtenaw Reading Council at Haisley school in Ann Arbor. Currently, Dr. Heilman is director of the Reading Clinic at the Pennsylvania State University.

Heilman enjoys a long standing reputation as a leader in the field of reading. He has been director of reading clinics in several areas of the country, and was a consultant to a Central American AID project for which he provided elementary school reading textbooks. He has written several texts regarding the teaching of reading, the recent of which is Smuggling Language into the Teaching of Reading.

The program will consist of two presentations by Dr. Heilman, one at 4:30 p.m. entitled "The Magic of Language in Teaching Reading," and the other at 7 p.m. entitled "The Teacher As Reader."

Washtenaw Reading Council members will use their membership cards for admission. Non-members will be admitted to the two sessions for a fee of $2.

Two meetings remain on the 1972-73 calendar for the Washtenaw Reading Council. A book and media display and sectional meetings will be held on March 19; and Dr. Leland B. Jacobs will address the group on May 17.

Information about the Washtenaw Reading Council may be obtained by calling the Washtenaw Intermediate School District at 769-6522, ext. 59.

Tax Deadline Near for Farmers

Detroit—Farmers who earned at least two-thirds of their 1972 gross income from farming should file their 1972 declaration of estimated Federal individual income tax and pay the tax by Monday Jan. 15, 1973, using Form 1040 ES.

However, farmers do not have to file a declaration if they file their 1972 tax return and pay all the tax due by March 1, 1973, according to Thomas A. Cardoza, District Director of Internal Revenue for Michigan.

Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Declaration of Estimated Tax," furnishes information on this subject. It is available free at your IRS district office.

Fishermen who expect to receive at least two-thirds of their gross income from fishing follow the same rules as farmers, Cardoza said.

Aliens Must Report Addresses in January

Armand J. Saturelli, District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service stated that aliens in the United States will be required to report their addresses to the Attorney General within the near future.

All aliens, with few exceptions, who are in the United States on Jan. 1 each year must report their addresses by the end of that month. Only the following classes of aliens are excused from this requirement:

- (1) Accredited Diplomats, and
 - (2) Persons accredited to certain international organizations.
- Forms with which to make the report may be obtained from any Post Office or Immigration and Naturalization Service Office during the month of January.

Saturelli said that the law provides severe penalties for failure to comply with the reporting requirement.

Visitor Arrested Here On Bench Warrant

Chelsea Police, responding to a call from Lenawee County Sheriff's Department, made an arrest Dec. 29, on a bench warrant issued by the Second District Court.

Approximately 8:45 p.m. Friday, Chelsea Police Department received word that Mary Lou Marshall was visiting at 319 Madison St. They went to that residence immediately, and made the arrest.

Opportunity on Dairy Farms

Farming without a farm is the trend for Michigan's young dairy-men, says James Gibson, co-ordinator of Michigan State University's Agricultural Production Program. As independent dairymen give way to partnerships and co-operatives, young people will break in as herdsmen and crop managers. The need for full-time hired workers will drastically increase during the next few decades, Gibson says.

Students trained in such programs as Michigan State's 18-month Agricultural Production Program may advance to salaries of $12,000 to $15,000, Gibson says. MSU's program includes a month internship that prepares students in dairying, leadership and human relations.

Women, too, will work on the expanding dairies, supplementing family incomes by working part-time in milking and calf care, Gibson predicts.

Advances in marketing, transportation and consumer demand will bring expansion of dairy farms. There will be fewer farms, but those remaining will greatly extend their boundaries. Furthermore, milk production on each farm will be two and a half times greater by 1985.

The number of farms with herds of 50 to 90 cows will dwindle, while those with 100 or more will triple. Although per capita demand for whole milk and cream during the next few decades will decline, population growth will keep the market for these products stable, Gibson says.

Personal Notes

Jean Walters of Lewiston, Me., who is in nurses training there, has been spending the holidays with her parents, the Howard Flintoffs.

Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shaver of W. Middle St., were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell of Atlanta Ga., and their grandchildren, Dr. John Mitchell of New York City, Pfc. Robert Mitchell of Romulus, N. Y., and Miss Nancy Mitchell of London, England, also Miss Irene Schmidt of East Orange, J. J.

More than 48,000 veterans trained for policemen, firemen and related protective services under the GI Bill in fiscal year 1972. Enrollments increased 27 percent over fiscal year 1971, which brought the number trained in public service occupations to 80,000 since the beginning of the program. With the end of the fiscal year on June 30, the VA tabulated that 264,000 veterans had taken some type of apprenticeship or other job training since the programs began October 1947. The VA pays the veteran while in the program and the employer also pays an increasing amount as the VA payment decreases each six months.

THANK YOU — I would like to thank my family, friends and neighbors for the gifts of plants, cards and cookies. Also the women of Zion for the fruit and cookies I received while I was in the hospital and at home. Also Pastor Morris for his visits and prayers. Mrs. Carlton Burkhardt. 29

So what's the fuss about women getting men's wages...? My wife has been getting my wages for 12 years.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

A new year is here. The old year probably had moments of fear, distress, disappointment and unfulfilled hopes. But you had days of good cheer, beauty, variety and happiness too. It is the usual pattern of life.

There is really no use in mourning the past year or the years before. The New Year is here for all of us. It gives all of us a chance for new hopes, new dreams, new individuals if we make it so. It gives us a new chance to have good intentions; a chance to have whole-hearted instead of half-hearted resolution to do better. It gives us a chance to live better through guidance from the Good Book and the counsel therein. It gives us a chance to do good things; write long delayed letters, live cheerfully with new understanding and concern for others. It gives us a chance to have new enthusiasm.

It is a God given opportunity for all of us. Can you think of any reason why any one should not at least try to make the most of it? . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone 475-1551.

DESIGNS OF THE DECADE

A Collection of Beautiful All-New Homes Designed By Nationally-Famous Architects

THE TALISMAN MODEL

The Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation has designed an entirely new concept in tri-level homes. The exterior, an outstanding expression of contemporary styling, incorporates wide overhangs, angles, natural-finished wood, and a dramatic use of glass accents the facade. Inside, the kitchen, dining room and living room are on the ground level. Master bedroom, family room and bath are on the upper level with two bedrooms and bath on the lower. Of course, there's plenty of closets and storage space and a two-car garage.

DEATHS

Mrs. James Bisbing Former Flint Resident Dies at Methodist Home

Mrs. James (Edith M.) Bisbing died Dec. 31, at the Chelsea United Methodist Home at the age of 89. She was buried yesterday (Wednesday) in Graceland Cemetery, Flint, following a service in the United Methodist Home Chapel.

Mrs. Bisbing was born in Otisville, July 30, 1883 to L. D. and Ellen Aldrich Cole. She married James Bisbing Sept. 23, 1933. He died March 2, 1962, only seven months after Mrs. Bisbing came from Flint to the Chelsea Methodist Home. Mrs. Bisbing is survived by one niece and one nephew.

The Rev. Richard L. Clemans performed the funeral services. Arrangements were handled by Staffan Funeral Home.

Mrs. Edward Wise Methodist Home Resident Formerly Lived at North Lake

Mrs. Edward (Carmen) Wise, formerly of 13500 North Lake Rd., died Dec. 29, at the Chelsea Methodist Home. She was 78.

Mrs. Wise, who was born Aug. 26, 1894, at Swanton, O., was the daughter of George A. and Pearl A. Areganall Miller. She was a member of North Lake United Methodist church and a past member of the Chelsea OES chapter. She was a member and past chairman of the Women's Entomology Group.

She is survived by one son, George E. Wise of Belleville, and two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Trimmer of Maumee, O., and Mrs. Betty Wise Garlick of North Lake. She also leaves six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren, and one brother, Stanley R. Miller of Ida.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Jan. 2 at 10 a.m. at the Chelsea Methodist Home Chapel with the Rev. Harry Weeks officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Toledo, O.

Contributions may be made to the Memorial Fund of the North Lake United Methodist church.

Mrs. Emmett Hankerd Dies Unexpectedly at Her Home Last Thursday

Mrs. Emmett M. (Beatrice) Hankerd of 1223 Meadow Lane, died unexpectedly at her home on Thursday, Dec. 28. She had been in poor health for several years.

Born on Oct. 8, 1914 in Marquette, she was a daughter of Felix and Emily Master Thibodeau. She was married to Dr. John Doyle on April 17, 1933. He preceded her in death on May 24, 1959. She married Emmett M. Hankerd on June 15, 1963. He survives. Also surviving are two sons, Ronald Doyle of Rockford, Ill., and Patrick Doyle of Crossville, Tenn.; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas (Terry) Fisher of Plymouth and Mrs. Gary (Barbara) Sowpel of Detroit. Other survivors include a sister, Mrs. Eugene (Blanche) Bromfield of Durand, and two brothers, Alvin Thibodeau of Arizona and Raymond Thibodeau of Wisconsin and 10 grandchildren.

Six stepchildren also survive, including Sister Helen Hankerd, O.P., at home, Mrs. David (Theresa) Scharphorn, Mrs. Raymond (Mary) Houle, Mrs. Duane (Eileen) Boyer, Mrs. James (Rose Ann) Kallish and Paul E. Hankerd, all of Chelsea, and 16 step-grandchildren.

Mrs. Hankerd was a member of St. Mary Catholic church of Chelsea.

The Rosary was recited at 8 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 29 at the Burghardt Funeral Home. Funeral services were held at St. Mary Catholic church, with the Rev. Fr. David P. Dupuis officiating, at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 30. Burial followed at Oakwood Cemetery, Traverse City, on Jan. 2.

CORRECTION

Dale Schoenberg was not the first from Chelsea to be a novice wrestling champion, as was stated in the Dec. 28 issue of The Standard. Bob Schneider took that honor in 1964.

Eugene J. Ellison, vice-president of SOS Consolidated with corporate headquarters in Birmingham, is chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority. A former mayor of the City of St. Clair Shores, Ellison has served as a governor appointee to represent the district-at-large since May of 1965. The Authority has nine "Metroparks" in public use.

Ann Arbor Power Squadron Offers Free Boating Classes

Commander John M. Barr, 1200 Whittier, Ypsilanti, took the helm of the Ann Arbor Power Squadron January 1. He was unanimously elected commander of the 120-member group at their December annual meeting.

The Ann Arbor Power Squadron is a unit of the United States Power Squadron with a National membership of more than 75,000 members and 407 squadrons. This non-profit organization is dedicated to teaching safe boating and sponsors free classes each year.

All teaching is on a voluntary basis by squadron members. The squadron offers free boating classes in both spring and fall to interested persons. The squadron just finished a successful class at Ann Arbor Pioneer High school with 70 members graduating. The next course is offered by the squadron at Pioneer High school in Ann Arbor starting Jan. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

Barr stated that the squadron offers courses in boating, seamanship, advanced piloting, navigation, sail, marine electronics, weather and engine maintenance. According to him the courses are graduated in complexity and the more advanced courses are equal to the navigation taught at the U. S. Naval Academy. During the Second World War many members of the United States Power Squadron were called upon to teach navigation to fledgling naval ensigns.

In private life Barr is an attorney with the firm Freatman, Barr & Anhalt of Ypsilanti. Originally from Mount Clemens, he still keeps his boat there. Barr does both power and sail boating and has sailed in the Mackinac Race and also the SORC-MIAMI to NASSAU, Lipton Cup and Nassau Cup races on several occasions.

Other Power Squadron members installed at the meeting include Dr. Dan J. Witt, DDS, of 1475 Borgstrom, Ypsilanti as educational officer; Russel E. Taylor of 2760 Nixon Rd., Ann Arbor, executive officer; Leo H. Laakso of 2966 Shady Lane, Ann Arbor, administrative officer; Jadin C. Root of 10920 Tuthill Rd., South Lyon, treasurer; and George E. Eitel, 9741 Gillett Rd., Clark Lake, as secretary.

Commander Barr indicated that the Ann Arbor Power Squadron is non-profit and receives no assistance from any government organization. All funds to run the group are raised by dues and social functions. He indicated that the group has sponsored a travelog by Captain Irving Johnson, master of the famous ship, "Yakoe" and hopes to put on a similar show in 1973.

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

January 2, 1973
Regular Session.

This meeting was called to order by President Fulks at 7:30 P.M. Present: President Fulks, Clerk Pennington and Administrator Weber.

Councilmen present: Borton, Dmoch, and Boylan.

Councilmen absent: Gorton, Musbach and Wood.

Others present: Police Chief Meranuck.

The minutes of the regular session of December 19, 1972 were read and approved.

Motion by Borton, supported by Dmoch, authorizing Village expenditures through February 28, 1973 at a monthly rate equivalent to what was expended monthly during 1972. This is to adjust for the new budget year. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

A committee report was given by Borton on proposed sites for the storage of wrecked autos. No sites investigated were available.

Discussion was held regarding the vacancy of the Village Assessor position. This will be finalized at the next regular council meeting.

A letter from Finkbeiner, Pettis and Strout was discussed relative to alarms at the pumping stations. Further investigation will be made regarding alarm devices.

Personnel policies and rate schedules were discussed. A committee will review these and make recommendations at the next meeting.

A letter was received from the Michigan Department of Public Health regarding improvements to our waste water treatment plant. No action was required, at this time.

A motion by Dmoch, supported by Borton, authorizing the Village to proceed with the addition to the Public Works Building. The Village will act as its own general contractor in this project. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

A letter was read from the Michigan Municipal Electrical Association giving an update of action against the proposed increase of electrical rates by Consumers Power Company.

A discussion was held on dilapidated buildings in Chelsea. Fire Chief Gaken will further inspect two of the structures.

A motion by Borton, supported by Boylan, to pay bills as submitted. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Rebekah Lodge Installation Slated Jan. 15

The first meeting of the New Year for Rebekah Lodge No. 130 was held Jan. 2, at the hall with Noble Grand Nadine Packard closing her year of service.

Reports were given on the Christmas gifts, which went to the adopted brother at the IOOF Home in Jackson, and to the shut-in members in the area. Mrs. Dorothy Pasquith and Mrs. Irene Walker were introduced as new members, and they were allowed to sign the Lodge register. They were taken to Parma by five Chelsea members to be initiated on Dec. 19.

The Chelsea Lodge will join the Dexter Lodge on Jan. 15 for installation of new officers. Long dresses will be worn and each officer is to furnish one dozen whole sandwiches for the committee. Anyone needing transportation may call Mrs. Donna Feldkamp, Mrs. Loydell Keizer or Mrs. Mary Ann Coltre. All members are invited to see the open installation by the Earl Grey Degree Staff from the Plymouth area.

The officers for 1973 are: Helen Harris, noble grand; Nina Lehmann, vice-grand; Eulahlee Packard, secretary; Donna Feldkamp, financial secretary; Dorothy Keizer, treasurer.

Appointed officers are: Loydell Keizer, chaplain; Mary Ann Coltre, right supporter to noble grand; Lucille Altsaetter, left supporter to noble grand; Elsie Hinz, warden; Ida Nixon, conductor; Helen Sibley, right supporter to the vice-grand; Charlie Danlap, left supporter to the vice-grand; Lina Reule, outside guardian; Evelyn Hall, inside guardian; Velma Wolfe, musician; Mary Ann Coltre, lodge deputy; and Marian Pickell, three-year trustee.

Junior past noble grand will be Nadine Packard, and the financial committee will be Jacques Beyer, Marian Pickell and Phyllis Harok. Incoming noble grand and vice-grand gave the unwritten work to qualify for their offices.

The PNG Club was set for a Jan. 23 meeting with a 6:30 potluck at the home of Mrs. Altsaetter.

The next meeting of the Rebekahs will be held on Jan. 16, at 7:30, with the new officers taking their chairs. The out-going noble grand donated a new coffee maker to the lodge.

Central Michigan University's fall semester begins on Aug. 28 with about 15,000 students expected to enroll.

STEELE - KOENIGER: Mr. and Mrs. John W. Steele of 6800 Portage Lake Rd., Munith, announce the engagement of their daughter, Diane, to Robert L. Koeniger. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Koeniger, of 3015 Fletcher Rd. Both Diane and Robert are 1970 graduates of Chelsea High school. He is now employed at Huron Farm Supply in Dexter, while his fiancée works at Federal Screw Works in Chelsea. A spring wedding is being planned.

BARNYARD SOCIETY

Hens laying eggs may be affected by that age old practice of "keeping up with the Joneses." A report from Pennsylvania State University indicates that a pullet lays better if housed in a pen containing only other pullets like her in age, size and development. New pullets may be retarded by the "bossism" of older hens.

Senior Citizen Activities

The December business meeting of Chelsea Senior Citizens was held at the Korner House Thursday, Dec. 28, with 15 members present.

The group discussed the Washenaw County Council on Aging, and six Chelsea senior citizens plan to attend a meeting in Ann Arbor, Jan. 18. Plans were also made for the social party Jan. 4, at 7:30 p.m. The committee is Zita Hafner and Leona Evans.

The January birthday party has been changed from Thursday, to Friday Jan. 19. It will be celebrated with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. The committee planning this event is Katherine Hafner, Vera Heim, and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Hart.

Senior Citizens gather for fun night every evening at 7:30.

In 1971-72 the University of Michigan received gifts totaling $25.6 million.

New Rules Govern Correspondence Courses Given for Veterans

New rules designed to provide better protection for veterans and dependents taking correspondence courses under the GI Bill will become effective Jan. 1. The 301,000 veterans already enrolled in correspondence courses will not be affected by the new regulations. The new legislation protects veterans from costly payments should they terminate a course before completing half of the lessons. It also gives a veteran or eligible dependent a "cooling off" period of 10 days from the time he signs an application for a correspondence course. If the course is cancelled before this time, a full refund is due the veteran. The school must furnish a complete copy of the enrollment agreement.

The University of Michigan Board of Regents has set aside up to one hour as part of its monthly meetings for anyone who wants to address the Board.

Margie Lee Johnson, W. Miller Speak Vows at Methodist Church

Margie Lee Johnson and William Lindsey Miller became husband and wife at a Yuletide wedding ceremony Dec. 30, at the First United Methodist church. The Rev. Clive Dickins led the couple in their vows during an afternoon service before 120 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilford R. Johnson of 550 Howard Rd. Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Miller, parents of the bridegroom, are from Ann Arbor. Mrs. Beverly Slater sang "One Heart, One Love" and "O Perfect Love" as part of the marriage ritual.

The bride was dressed in a traditional gown of ivory silk organza. Peau d'ange lace covered the bodice, high neck, long sheer sleeves, and skirt front. Venice lace was used as accent. The detachable train and headpiece were of matching ivory lace.

A colonial nosegay of white roses and baby breath complemented the bride's costume.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. Stephen Miklos of Linden, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of ivory batiste and crocheted lace over a pink bodice. She carried three pink sweetheart roses tied with pink velvet ribbons.

The bridesmaids were Sara Johnson, sister of the bride, Wendy Lindquist, a sorority sister of the bride, and Sandra Bonquiovanni of Northville. They were outfitted in dresses like the maid of honor's.

The mother of the bride wore a long beige crepe gown with a brown tipped orchid. The bridegroom's mother was also attired in a floor-length gown, a nylon print. She chose a purple orchid for accent.

Paul DiPirro of East Detroit was the best man, while Lester Miller, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, John Sherburne, and Roger Day ushered guests to their seats.

The wedding reception was held at Pointe West, at the Holiday

Questions; Answers on Michigan's New No-Fault Auto Insurance Law

Gov. William G. Milliken has signed into law the Michigan No-Fault Auto Insurance Act of 1972. It has been called the best no-fault law in the United States.

The following questions and answers are designed to give general information about Michigan's no-fault law which will go into effect next October.

EFFECTIVE DATE

1. QUESTION: When does Michigan's no-fault law take effect?

ANSWER: Oct. 1, 1973. Auto accidents before then will be handled as at present — auto accidents on or after Oct. 1, 1973, under the new law.

2. QUESTION: Do I have to have auto insurance after Oct. 1, 1973?

ANSWER: Yes. Everyone in Michigan who owns a car must have auto insurance after Oct. 1, 1973.

3. QUESTION: I already have auto insurance. Is there anything more I need to do before the new law takes effect?

ANSWER: Your insurance policy will automatically cover you for at least the required coverages beginning on Oct. 1, 1973. So there is nothing you have to do unless you want to change your optional coverages such as collision insurance, or your deductibles. Before the new program goes into effect next October 1, your insurance agent or your insurance company will contact you and will let you know what coverages are required, what deductibles and additional coverages are available and what the rates will be for the various coverages.

MEDICAL BENEFITS

4. QUESTION: What are the benefits under the new law for medical expenses and rehabilitation?

ANSWER: Medical expenses and rehabilitation as much as and as long as necessary. There are other benefits for wage loss, child care, dependents in case of death, and property damage which will be described later.

5. QUESTION: Please be more specific. Do you mean if I am in an auto accident and have Michigan no-fault auto insurance and get seriously hurt, I can have my doctor and hospital bills paid for life?

ANSWER: Yes. This is one of the best features of Michigan law and there is only one other state that provides unlimited medical expenses.

6. QUESTION: What if the accident is my fault? What if I fall asleep, drive into a telephone pole, and am paralyzed for life?

ANSWER: You get medical benefits for life — regardless of who or what caused the auto accident.

7. QUESTION: Are there any limitations?

ANSWER: Hospital care is limited to a semi-private room, unless special or intensive care is needed. You may take various kinds of optional deductibles, especially if you already have some hospital and medical insurance, in which case your policy is cheaper.

8. QUESTION: Is that the only limitation?

ANSWER: Yes, that is the only limitation.

9. QUESTION: What if I have Workmen's Compensation or Social Security?

ANSWER: You don't get double compensation — you don't make money on being in the hospital. Workmen's Compensation or Social Security medical benefits would be subtracted.

10. QUESTION: What about Blue Cross or my union sick and accident benefits?

ANSWER: If you do not take an optional deductible in your auto insurance you would collect duplicate benefits for whatever your Blue Cross or union sickness and accident benefits cover. But you may take an optional deductible in your auto policy which will reduce your premium and eliminate some or all of the duplication with your other insurance and benefit programs.

11. QUESTION: What kind of benefits can I receive if any wage loss?

ANSWER: You will receive your regular earnings (minus 15 percent to make up for the fact that there is no income tax on insurance benefits) for a maximum of $1,000 a month and a total of 3 years if unable to work.

For example, if you earn $5 an hour for a 40-hour week — $200 a week — you would receive $170 a week ($200 minus 15 percent). If you can prove your income tax would be less than 15 percent, then the actual amount of your tax would be deducted.

12. QUESTION: What if I am off work six months, go back to work for a few weeks, but I can't "cut the mustard" because of the injury? Can I still get benefits?

ANSWER: Yes — if you can't continue to work because of the injury, you can get benefits any time in the 3-year period from the date of the accident.

13. QUESTION: What is the maximum earnings I will receive for life?

ANSWER: $1,176.47 a month. $1,176.47 minus 15 percent equals $1,000.

14. QUESTION: What if I earn more than $1,176.47, can I receive more?

ANSWER: [Not from mandatory no-fault benefits. However, if the other person was at fault, you can sue. However, no-fault benefits would be subtracted so you wouldn't collect twice. You may voluntarily buy a policy covering wage loss in excess of $1,176.47 on either a fault or no-fault basis, then you wouldn't have to sue to collect.]

15. QUESTION: I am a widower earning $150 a week as a clerical worker. I take care of my three children, ages 8, 10 and 12. If I am in an accident and can't care for my children, can I be paid for getting someone to care for them?

ANSWER: Yes, you would receive $127.50 a week in benefits ($150 minus 15 percent). In addition, you could receive up to $20 a day for the reasonable cost of child care — so long as you were unable to care for the children, to a maximum of three years. But the total for wage loss benefits and child care benefits is limited to $1,000 per month. If the cost of child care is over $20 a day and if you could prove fault of the other driver, you could sue for the amount of the cost over what you collect from your own insurance policy.

16. QUESTION: I am a housewife with small children. Believe me I work 20 hours a day, seven days a week (sometimes it seems like nine), caring for the kids, but I get no check. If I am injured can I receive any benefits similar to a wage loss?

ANSWER: Yes — up to $20 a day for three years for the cost of hiring someone else to perform your duties as a mother and homemaker — up to a maximum of three years. If the cost of replacing your services exceeds $20 a day and if you can prove fault of the other driver you could sue for the amount of the cost over $20 a day.

17. QUESTION: You said something about rehabilitation. What are some examples?

ANSWER: The rehabilitation is one of the best provisions of Michigan's no-fault law. This includes all costs for medical rehabilitation. It also includes costs for all economic rehabilitation, such as learning a new skill if you can't return to your old job because of the accident.

18. QUESTION: Does my policy only cover me?

ANSWER: No. It covers you as named insured, your spouse, and relatives living in your household. You are all entitled to the same benefits.

19. QUESTION: Can a car thief receive benefits?

ANSWER: No.

20. QUESTION: What insurance company pays my "no-fault" benefits?

ANSWER: Your own. This is called "first party" benefits, instead of the present system of "third party" benefits — where you collect from the other person's insurance company, based on fault.

21. QUESTION: What if I am hurt while riding in someone else's car?

ANSWER: You still collect from your own insurance company. But if you have no insurance of your own you would collect from the insurance company that insured the owner of the car you were riding in.

22. QUESTION: When does my insurance company pay my medical bills, wage loss, and rehabilitation?

ANSWER: When due.

23. QUESTION: What if the insurance company stalls in paying?

ANSWER: The insurance company must pay 12 percent interest and reasonable attorney's fees on any payment more than 30 days overdue.

24. QUESTION: What if the insurance company agrees on most of the bill, but disputes a small part?

ANSWER: The insurance company must pay what is reasonably proved, and when the amount in dispute is reasonably proven, must pay that within 30 days of proof, or pay 12 percent interest and reasonable attorney's fees on anything over 30 days due.

25. QUESTION: What is reasonable proof?

ANSWER: Copies of any bills and a claim form signed by you giving the details of the accident and the benefits you claim. Claim forms will be available from your insurance agent and your insurance company. A court could ultimately decide, if a serious dispute arose.

26. QUESTION: It sounds pretty good so far — my insurance company pays me for my medical costs, rehabilitation and wage loss up to $1,000 a month for three years. But what about dependents? What if I am killed?

ANSWER: Your spouse and children could receive up to $1,000 a month for three years. The benefits would be the economic value of what you provided your family — thus a working woman or man who earned $1,500 a month and contributed $900 a month to the spouse and children would have his widow or widower and children receive $900 a month for three years.

Dependency of a spouse ends with remarriage and of a child upon reaching 18 years, unless the child is incapacitated from earning or is attending school full time.

27. QUESTION: Can I ever sue for damages for pain and suffering?

ANSWER: Yes — but you can collect only if the injured person suffered "death, serious impairment of body function, or permanent serious disfigurement."

28. QUESTION: Death I can understand, but what is and how does it determine what is "serious impairment of body function?"

ANSWER: This is a question for the courts and jury ultimately to determine. First, you would have to show the other person was at fault — and then prove to a judge and jury that there was "serious impairment of body function" — unless you settled out of court.

29. QUESTION: Wouldn't I be better off under the present law where I can sue for wage loss now and in the future, medical costs past and in the future, and pain and suffering now and in the future?

ANSWER: Usually not — the jury must "guess" your future medical costs and wage loss and pain and suffering. For example, the jury — from the evidence of yourself, doctor and economists may decide your past wage loss, medical bills, and pain and suffering, and the future losses would total $120,000.

You would have in case of a trial, wasted a year or two or more to get the $120,000. The $120,000 would either under pay you or over pay you. No crystal ball of a jury could be exactly right.

While waiting for trial, you might accept $40,000 for a $120,000 case to get the cash you needed. And you would have court costs and legal fees deducted — often on third if the case went to trial.

Under Michigan no-fault, you get actual medical care for life and wage loss to $1,000 a month for three years — regardless of who is at fault.

Statistics show that under present law small claims tend to be overpaid, serious ones underpaid, and about one-half of all injured persons get nothing from auto liability insurance.

30. QUESTION: Can I continue to receive no-fault benefits of $1,000 a month and my medical costs even if I sue for more?

ANSWER: Yes — but if you win your lawsuit, there will be a subtraction for economic benefits received, so you don't get double recovery.

31. QUESTION: What if someone sues me for pain and suffering for an accident in Michigan involving serious injury to him? Will my auto insurance policy protect me?

ANSWER: Yes.

32. QUESTION: What kind of property damage do I have?

ANSWER: You are protected for damages to property — OTHER THAN AN UNPARKED CAR OR ITS CONTENTS OR A TRAILER. In Michigan up to one million dollars on a no-fault basis. If you hit a gasoline station and a pump explodes, your insurance company is liable up to one million dollars in damages (NOT TO UNPARKED CARS) — regardless of whose fault the accident was.

33. QUESTION: What if I hit another car and it is my fault, must I pay for the damage to that car?

ANSWER: No. But if the car was parked, your insurance company will have to pay.

34. QUESTION: What if another car hits my car, can I collect?

ANSWER: No, unless your car was properly parked and not moving. However, if you want to, you MAY voluntarily buy a collision policy protecting you if your car is damaged either by someone else's fault or regardless of fault.

35. QUESTION: Wouldn't such a policy cost more than a present liability policy to another car and a collision policy for my car?

ANSWER: Probably not, unless your car is worth more than the average car on the road today. Your present property liability policy must include in the premium the possibility you may hit a $10,000 Cadillac or Porsche. Under no-fault, your collision premium would only be based on the maximum value of your car.

36. QUESTION: I'm a careful driver so I don't buy collision insurance on my own car. But if I can't sue a negligent driver for damaging my car, is there some other way I can protect myself from having to pay for damage to my car by a negligent driver?

ANSWER: Yes, some insurance companies plan to offer a limited collision coverage that will pay you for damage to your car only if it was the fault of some other driver. This coverage will cost much less than full collision coverage and will probably be comparable in cost to what you now pay for property damage liability to other cars.

37. QUESTION: What if I am in an accident in another state or Canada, will my Michigan no-fault insurance policy help?

ANSWER: Yes — It will provide the insurance required by that state or possession or territory of U. S. or Canada — no-fault if that state has no-fault or conventional financial responsibility coverage if that is what is required in that state. You will also receive no-fault benefits for your legal fees deducted — often on third if the case went to trial.

Under Michigan no-fault, you get actual medical care for life and wage loss to $1,000 a month for three years — regardless of who is at fault.

Statistics show that under present law small claims tend to be overpaid, serious ones underpaid, and about one-half of all injured persons get nothing from auto liability insurance.

38. QUESTION: What if I am hit in Michigan by an out-of-state car?

ANSWER: You are protected by your no-fault policy with your insurance company — regardless of the license plate on the other car.

39. QUESTION: Does a car include a truck, a bicycle, a taxi, an airport limousine, my employer's car, a parked car?

ANSWER: A car includes trucks, cars, trailers, three-wheel motorcycles, but not two-wheel motorcycles or bicycles or a horse or buggy. The owner of a properly parked car can receive property damage if it is hit by another car. If you are in a cab or airport limousine, or car of your employer, you would collect your benefits from the insurer of that car, not yours, but in the amount as if you collected from your own insurance company.

40. QUESTION: What if I am hit by a hit and run driver?

ANSWER: Your policy would pay you.

41. QUESTION: What if my spouse or child is injured by a hit and run driver?

ANSWER: Your policy covers the named person, his or her spouse, and all relatives in the same household. Therefore your spouse and child living at home would be paid by your insurance company.

42. QUESTION: Now I've got you. What if I am a pedestrian, who doesn't drive, has no relative with a policy, have no insurance at all, and am injured in Michigan by a hit and run driver?

ANSWER: You are protected by the assigned claims fund. This is a fund set up by all insurance companies in co-operation with the insurance commissioner to provide funds to take care of the example you just gave.

43. QUESTION: This all sounds pretty good — but won't it cost me more?

ANSWER: Many people will pay less, some will pay more. The new no-fault system will save much of the money that now goes for lawyer's expenses, duplication of other insurance programs and so-called "pain and suffering". This saving is being used to provide more adequate benefits to more people for medical bills and lost wages.

Whether you will pay more or less than you now will depend on how much insurance you have now, the make and model of your car, your income level and number of dependents, where you live, the deductibles you select, and last, but not least, which insurance company you have. The price of auto insurance varies substantially from one insurance company to another. No insurance company will know for sure what the new system will cost until several years after it goes into effect. So in the meantime each insurance company will have to base its prices on its own estimates of what the new system will cost. Which means that it will pay to shop around.

OTHER STATES AND CANADA

37. QUESTION: What if I am in an accident in another state or Canada, will my Michigan no-fault insurance policy help?

ANSWER: Yes — It will provide the insurance required by that state or possession or territory of U. S. or Canada — no-fault if that state has no-fault or conventional financial responsibility coverage if that is what is required in that state. You will also receive no-fault benefits for your legal fees deducted — often on third if the case went to trial.

Under Michigan no-fault, you get actual medical care for life and wage loss to $1,000 a month for three years — regardless of who is at fault.

Statistics show that under present law small claims tend to be overpaid, serious ones underpaid, and about one-half of all injured
