

Dave Klemer Garner Two High Awards at International Science Fair

Dave Klemer, a winner of top honors at the Southeastern Michigan Science Fair last month, took off for the International Science Fair at San Diego, Calif., last week with modest expectations. He returned a winner.

His exhibit, "Data Storage and Retrieval Using a Holographic Memory" rated a fourth-place certificate and a $25 check in the physics category. It earned a second-place award worth $75 and a youth membership from the American Optical Society and an honorable mention from the Society of Photographic Scientists and Engineers.

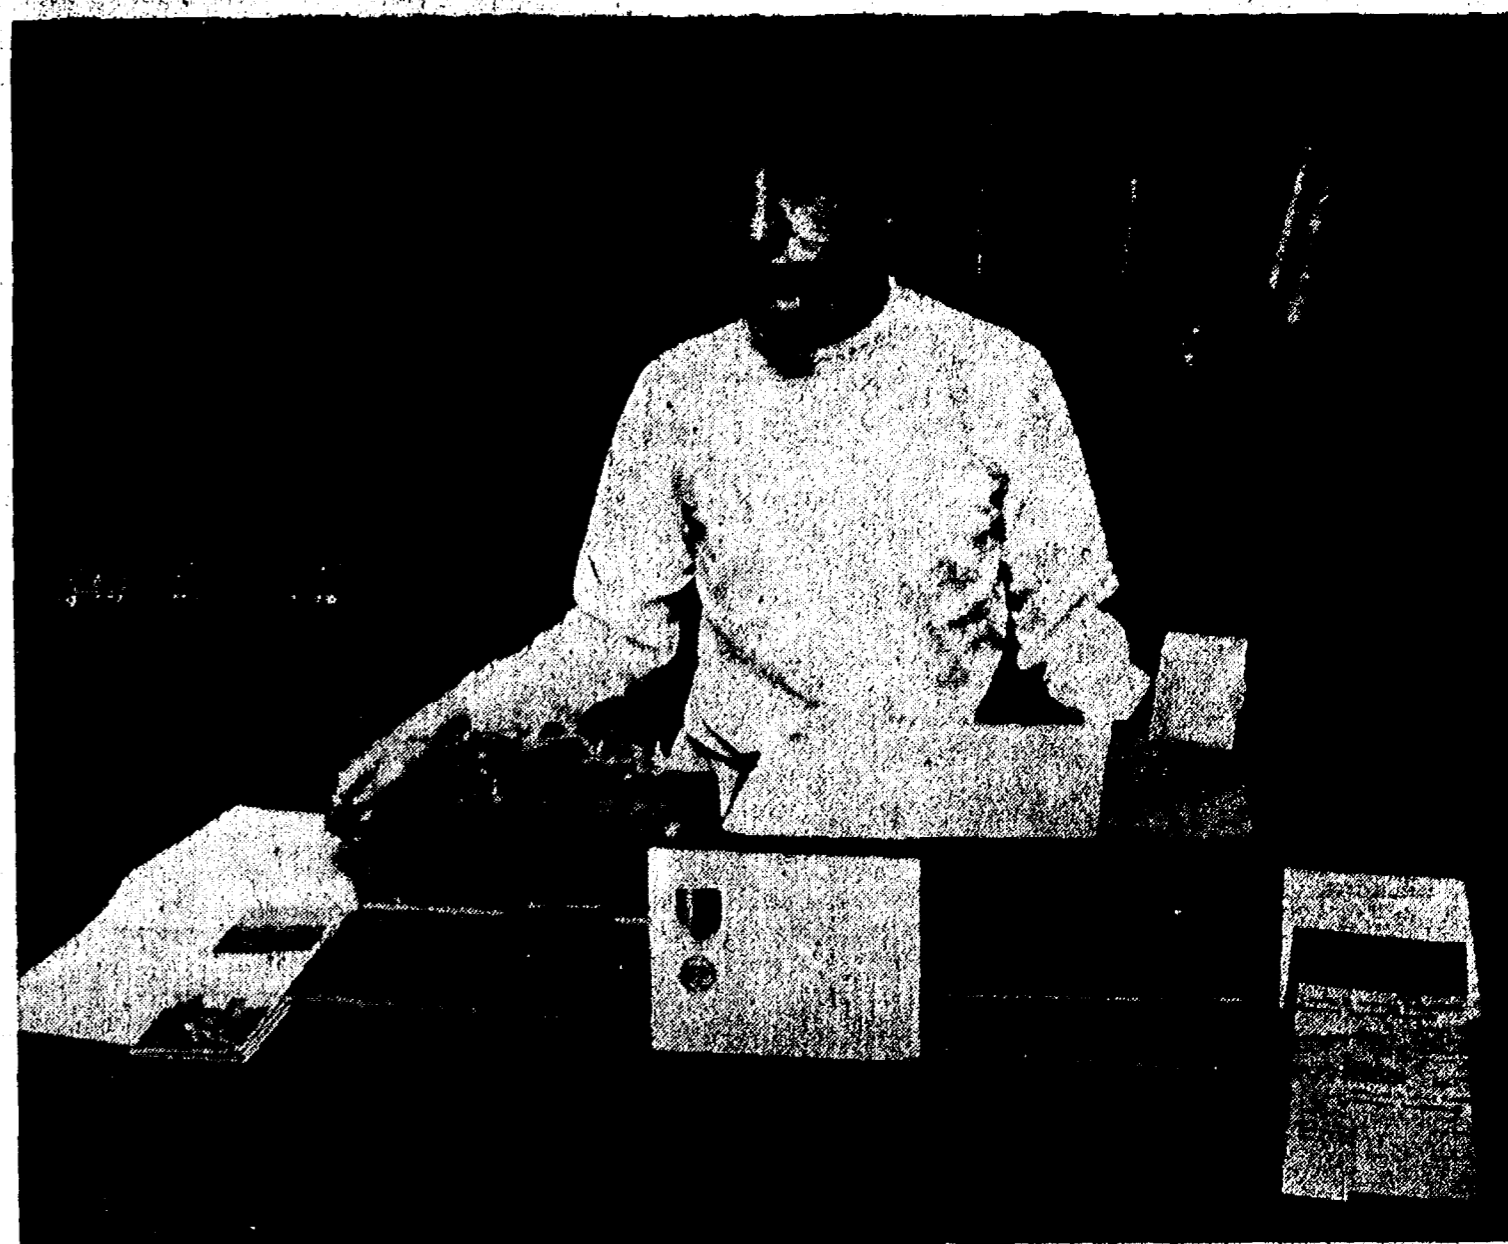

The later two awards were among the many honors bestowed by the business and technical organizations that attend the annual fair looking for young talent. The armed services were also present, giving awards for scientific achievement.

The national awards bring Dave's earnings in the two science fairs to $235. The value of the honor attached to them runs even higher. Dave had given credit to his competition before even touching down in San Diego by saying, "Most of the people who make it to the International Fair are working on things no one has done before." Once he got there he realized that many of the other Science Fair contestants were using university equipment, sophisticated apparatus no individual could afford to buy. If Dave goes on with his interest in the uses of laser beams, as he hopes to, he too will somehow have to gain access to university equipment.

While most of the four-day, expense-paid trip was spent in setting up and exhibiting his project, Dave was able to take advantage of a few of the tours the Science Fair planners had arranged. He was enthralled by the Naval Electronics Lab which the group inspected thoroughly. He also took in the San Diego Zoo and the University of California Hospital before returning to Michigan last week-end.

Dave, a sophomore at Chelsea High school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Klemer of 634 Flanders St.

Dave Klemer displays the awards he won at the International Science Fair.

Brown Elected to State Jaycee Office

It was a big week-end for the Chelsea Jaycees. Not only did their chapter bring in two first place awards and two honorable mentions, but their very own Walt Brown was elected administrative executive vice-president of Michigan Jaycees.

Brown's election to the number two position in the state organization climaxes six weeks of hectic campaigning. His campaign committee, headed by enthusiastic Art Steinaway, had canvassed the state before launching an overwhelming assault on delegates at the State Jaycee Convention in Detroit, starting last Friday.

The campaigners checked into the Hilton headquarters Thursday, a day early, so that they would be ready with hand-outs and favors when the convention started.

And so they were. Brown buttons (plain brown buttons), sun-tan packets inscribed with "Don't Get Burned, Vote for Brown" and brownies baked by Jaycee Auxillary members greeted and wooed the delegates so thoroughly that the election was a landslide.

After only a fraction of the votes had been counted, Brown's opponent threw in the towel, acknowledging that it was silly to prolong the inevitable.

As second in command of the state organization, Brown will be working with the president above and the internal and external vice-presidents under him. He'll have both administrative and speaking duties. "It's a nuts and bolts kind of job," says campaign manager Art Steinaway.

The chapter itself also had its moment at the convention. Chelsea Jaycees received first place awards for their public relations work and their human relations activity. The work during the snow storm of March 18 contributed to the later citation.

They were given honorable mention or second-place awards for

Village Council OKs $455,545 Yearly Budget

Twenty citizens in addition to the Village Council were present at the public hearing, Tuesday night, to consider the village budget for 1973. The proposed budget, which forecasts balanced revenue and expenditures at $455,545, was accepted by the Village Council at their regular Tuesday night meeting.

Judson Goltra, village assessor, submitted a report listing the village's total assets at a value of $28,771,650. This figure is made up of real estate values totalling $18,138,150 and personal assets worth $10,133,500. The council accepted the assessments as submitted.

The council also moved to set the 1973 millage rates at a total of 9.75 mills. 7.25 mills of that will go into a general fund with 25 mills going to the library. The 1959 bond retirement plan will require 50 mills and the 1973 issue will drain off 1.60 mills.

$57,700 in the Federal revenue sharing monies and general contingency revenues were distributed among general government expenditures ($139,500) and other funds such as public works, sanitation and recreation.

The council resolved to sign a contract between the Michigan State Highway Commission and the village for the period of July 1 through June 30, 1974. Frederick A. Weber was designated maintenance superintendent on sections of State Trunkline Highways shown on the municipal maintenance map and budget sheets. President A. E. Fulk was authorized to sign the contract.

Just before President Fulk proclaimed the week of May 19 through May 26 Michigan Week, the council appointed Chelsea Jaycees custodians of "Welcome to Chelsea" signs located on M52 near the north and south borders of the village.

Five Track Men Qualify For State Meet

The Bulldog's relationship with closely matched Mason has evolved into a frustrating rivalry. Chelsea is left the runner-up after Saturday's Class B regional meet at Michigan Center.

Mason scored 44 points, Chelsea 32, and Charlotte and Saline tied for third with 24 points each. The remainder of the 16-team line up was strung out far down the list.

"We had come out of the field events with our usual lead," says coach Bert Kruse, "but Mason's strength in the dashes, relays, and an unexpected win in the high hurdles was just too much."

In the process of coming in second, Chelsea qualified five men for the state meet which is to be held at Flint Northwestern High school this Saturday, May 19. Preliminaries and final events start at 10 a.m. and final events take off at 1:30 p.m. To qualify for the state-wide competition, athletes or relay teams had to finish in the top three of their event.

Leading Chelsea's contingent will be Bruce Guster who won the long jump with a leap of 21'2 1/2" and the 440-yard dash in :51.2. Bill Tite qualified for the state meet by taking a second in the high jump. He threw himself over six feet. He also finished fourth in the high hurdles in 16.4 seconds.

Craig Coltre gained entrance to the inner sanctum by securing a second place in the 180-yard low hurdles. His time was 21.5 seconds. Tim Lancaster's 12-foot pole vault gave him a third place in the regionals and a trip to Flint.

Rounding out the state meet group is Rick Sweeney who jumped by the 5'10" mark in the high jump to place third.

Other placers for Chelsea at Michigan Center included Karl Gauss who took fifth in the 220. The 880 relay team of Howard Salyer, Bruce Guster, Craig Coltre and Karl Gauss was fourth with a time of 1:35.3 and the 440 relay team of Ishmael Picklesimer, Bill Tite, Lee Ferguson and Tim Lancaster was fifth in :46.9.

Patty Ann Shoppe Has New Owner

The Patty Ann Shoppe changed hands, Tuesday, when Karen Johnson of Ann Arbor purchased the business from Rena Johnson the owner for the last three years.

The new owner, who has gained expertise in the clothing business as a model and fashion co-ordinator in Ann Arbor, says there will be no drastic changes immediately. The name will change, however, to Karen's Boutique.

Karen says that in time she will add a junior department, a mod shop, she calls it. This will come once the store is remodeled.

This will be her first try at running a store herself. Certainly her sales experience at Hadley's and her husband's experience as manager of Kroger's in Westgate will stand her in good stead.

She plans to move to Chelsea with her husband and three children in a year.

Meanwhile, Rena Johnson, the former owner, who incidentally is no relation to the new owner, will be taking advantage of her retirement. Nothing is planned except a trip "up north".

WHAT WILL THE FUTURE BRING? Linda Trevino (left), fortune-teller-in-residence at the Beach school fortune telling booth, attempts to answer that question to the satisfaction of Anthony Willan. Her assurances are that the future will be rosy, especially tomorrow when Beach school has its annual carnival from 5 to 9:30. The fortune telling booth is only one of the old favorites that will be returning to Beach this year. Several new ones will also be erected to delight carnival goers.

High School Art Classes Stage Open House Tuesday

When your child enrolls in an art class, you may wonder whether he or she will learn something worthwhile. Perhaps your suspicion is that he'll gain an easy credit without the strain of nightly home-work.

Students, too, on occasion have had misconceptions about the study of art. This minority is indeed surprised to learn that they aren't going to spend their semester listening to hard rock and doing their own thing.

Others are taken aback when they hear that art students often have six-week and semester tests.

Most, however, appreciate the opportunity to learn how to use artistic tools to make personal statements.

Students at Chelsea High under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Kamler, Miss Laurie Hartman, Miss Cathy Moore and Dennis Andariese begin their studies in art by learning the basics of drawing, composition and color theory. During the remainder of the year, these basic principles are used in a variety of projects such as acrylic painting, textile design, silk screen print-

Visiting Mayor Day Highlights Michigan Week

Michigan Week (May 19-26) will be spotlighted locally on May 21, when 10 residents from Sparta descend on Chelsea to take part in Mayor exchange Day.

Sparta is sending its president, two councilmen, the fire chief and the police chief with their wives, while Chelsea's village president, A. E. (Mac) Fulk, and village administrator, Frederick Weber, take their wives to Sparta.

The purpose of the exchange is "to see how the other guy does it." Chelsea's guests will begin the tour of the village at the United Methodist Home where they will be entertained by the Chelsea High school bands. After a thorough tour of the home, the group will be shown the Chelsea Medical Center.

The afternoon will be spent by the ladies at Chelsea Milling Co. The men will get to inspect Chrysler Proving Grounds.

The exchange will end with a dinner meeting in Grand Rapids where the two delegations will meet to compare their observations.

Chelsea Public Works Department wants to make sure all Chelsea residents have an opportunity to benefit from Michigan Week, too, so they have taken this time to open the doors of their facilities. This will allow any interested citizen to know more about Michigan by learning more about his home town.

The water plant and sewage treatment plant will be open for tours Monday and Tuesday, May 21 and 22, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Public Works buildings will be open to visitors all week.

Regional Planners Will Gather Data On Area Problems

The Chelsea Area Regional Planning Commission has informally shifted its function from being primarily a discussion group to being a data gathering body.

The change occurred May 3 when members volunteered to investigate the varied topics of common concern that were pinpointed at the committee's December meeting. Committee member Thornton suggested that the committee integrate the separate reports that will come out of the investigations. He suggests holding public hearings and disseminating the information.

Dines and Bauer of Lima township agreed to examine legislation affecting local planning efforts while Doletsky and Bohne become acquainted with the assessments of agricultural and open lands. The latter duo will be considering the extent to which agricultural land should be preserved.

Thornton's assignment deals with community-school relations. He will be researching the effect of school board decisions on communities.

Robert Ward volunteered one of his students at Washtenaw Community College to review the future impact of state ownership of land but he admitted the results of such a review might not be in final form within the year. Tandy and Lewis may take part in the project.

Schaeffer and Liebeck will become the experts on industrial and commercial development in the area while Curtis takes on recreational development and the change-

Poppy Sale Slated Friday

Tomorrow, Friday, May 18, volunteers will be on the streets selling memorial poppies. This is a once a year drive to collect funds to be used for veterans, both hospitalized and at home, and their families.

In spite of veteran assistance programs of the federal, state and local governments, there still exists many gaps which must be filled by private funds. The work of volunteers is necessary if the man who is disabled in the service of his country is to be properly cared for.

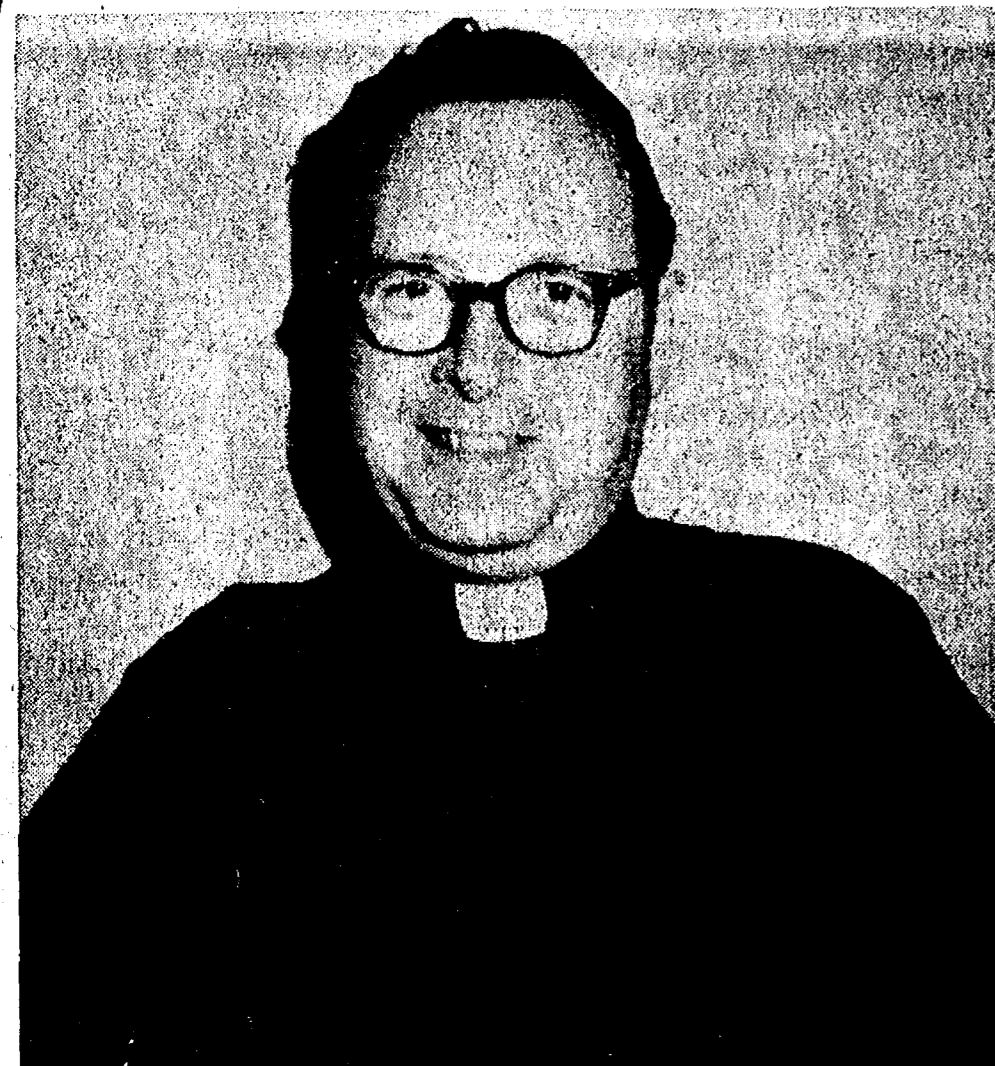

Buy your Memorial Poppy and wear it proudly.

Eight File For School Board Posts

The ballot in this year's annual school board election, June 11, will offer an unusually large selection to Chelsea voters. Six individuals have submitted petitions for the two four-year positions, and another two are running for the one-year term.

At the school board's special Monday night meeting, petitions for the full terms were accepted from Gary C. Cook of 20970 Waterloo Rd.; Kathrynne M. Harat of 13675 Maute Rd.; Thomas R. Hodgson of 16030 Cavanaugh Lake Rd.; James Stirling of 45 Chestnut Dr.; and incumbents, Howard R. Hasel-schardt of 754 Book St.; and William F. Storey of 216 Jefferson St.

Petitions for the one one-year term were received from Robert L. Daniels of 665 Washington St. and Eino S. Michelson of 13600 Waterloo Rd.

THE REV. JERROLD BEAUMONT

Jerrold Beaumont Ordained Deacon

After five years of preparation, Jerrold F. Beaumont took the first formal step toward priesthood, Saturday, when he was ordained in the presence of his fellow members of St. Barnabas Episcopal church. His first assignment is to that church.

The Right Reverend Richard S. Emrich, retired Bishop of Michigan, conducted the ordination ceremony, while the congregation, several personal friends and Beaumont's family took part. His wife, Marjorie, directed the choir and his daughter, Sue, sang a solo. The eldest Beaumont son, Gordon, acted as Bishop Emrich's chaplain and Douglas, the youngest offspring, was an acolyte.

The Old Testament lesson was read by a personal friend, Dr. James Shadoan and a theology school classmate, the Rev. George McCullough of St. Clare's in Ann Arbor read the epistle, 2 Corinthians 4:1-2.

A childhood friend, the Rev. Father C. F. Harrison of Catholic Central High school was also included in the ceremony. He read the gospel while Leonard Platt of St. James in Dexter was the liturgist.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

My old lady come home Friday night all fired up about an idea kicked around at a get-together of wimmen in the neighborhood. She said they had decided to start some kind of home canning and meat processing project, and they had voted to get advice from the men folks on how to do it.

Mister Editor, I know that wimmen smart enuff to ask men for advice ain't dumb enuff to take it, so I didn't offer none. And if her meeting was anything like some of the wimmen gab sessions I been to, no man would be able to get a word in sideways. So of the stuff they gave serious discussion to is enuff to shake a feller's faith in the fight of the female to vote.

Actual, the price of meat and other groceries being so high no working man can reach 'em on his tip toes, the home canning idea might help. But it would be my suggestion if I got a chance to offer any that the wimmen forget the meat end of the deal. If you got a patch of land and half a decent weather you can grow beans and corn and tomatoes, but growing meat is somepun else. Unless you got plenty of grazing they ain't no way a feller or even a woman can raise a hog, or a cow up to market size and get enuff meat out of it to pay the cost of feeding it. I don't even think you can break even feeding out a chicken from biddy to frying.

Practical speaking, you got to have land for any cash crop, meat included. I don't do any ranching or farming myself, but I read my farm journals. I see where these big chicken outfits, for instance, will make or break a million in a week based on a quarter of a cent price change. The average little feller caught on the down draft wouldn't ever be heard of agin.

Saturday night, I went to the country store to find out how I could balance the world situation agin the local reports I got from my old lady the night before. Ed Doolittle was telling the fellers about a law that says you got to boil your own slop afore you can feed it to your own hogs. Ed said you ought to be able to feed your hogs when and what you please, but some of the fellers was disagreed. Zeke Grubb was of a mind that at the price of pork we could give the hogs pie and ice cream for dessert.

And Clem Webster was upset about a item he had saw where the Japanese is over here buying market-ready beef in our feed lots. They use to buy our feeder calves and our feed, but they figgered out they can buy the ready made beef and ship it home cheaper. Beef over there is $15 a pound.

Personal, Mister Editor, I can't help thinking what a good deal we got back in the thirties when we sold all our scrap metal to the Japs. I won't be surprised to find that when hamburger hits $15 a pound here, the Japs will be shipping our T-bones back and selling 'em at a profit for $4 a pound.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Virginia Denham Named To Head Lima Planning

Virginia Denham was elected new chairman at Tuesday evening's Lima Township Planning Commission meeting to replace retiring William Van Riper. Mrs. Denham's former responsibilities as a secretary have been shouldered by Jim Richards.

The newly-appointed member, Jim Bradbury, attended the meeting but a seventh member of the commission has yet to be appointed. Some discussion followed the elections concerning a long range plan for renovating the township hall. An old building, whose history reaches well back into the 19th century, it could be renovated in such a way as to play up its historical value.

The commission approved a resolution that the town would be meeting with the Environmental Law Society within the next week to draw up an initial draft of a township zoning ordinance. It will be based on the recently accepted township development plan. Dines believes that within the month a rough draft will be available for consideration by the volunteers on the zoning ordinance committee.

Tax Cut Unfathomable

Only one thing is safer and more popular in American politics than motherhood and cherry pie. That's a cut in taxes.

If there is one thing nobody likes in this country, it is taxes. Even the most patriotic person figures his tax bill is too high. It's been that way since the Boston Tea Party.

Thus, when Gov. William G. Milliken came up with his proposal in January to cut the state income tax through a combined increase in the personal exemption and an increase in property tax credits, there were few protests heard. And they were drowned out by the cheers of approval.

The legislature has a hard time working out the details of a lot of problems, but the tax cut made it through in record time—just a little over three months from start to finish.

The new tax cut means a cut of at least $10.70 per person beginning next January in personal income tax bills since the personal exemption is raised $300 to $1,500 per person.

With a flat rate tax of 3.9 percent, that $300 additional exemption is worth $10.70. And it means a family of four will pay no taxes on the first $6,000 of income.

That plus a property tax relief program designed to aid those whose property tax bill represents an overpowering portion of their income is a political pie no one can throw out.

A few of the more liberal lawmakers talked briefly of how the state has too many unmet needs to begin cutting taxes, but they quickly quieted down.

A Democratic strategist recently likened the governor's tax cut program to President Nixon's trip to China.

It won't, he conceded, make things any easier in 1979 when the Democrats try to defeat Milliken. Indeed, the idea was so unbeatable almost every Democrat voted for it. In the final tally in both houses, only six of the 148 legislators had the temerity to vote against it.

Height Requirements

One of the causes put forth in recent years by persons complaining about the racial makeup of police forces is the attempt to have police departments do away with height requirements.

The argument is that height requirements, whatever their reason, result in discrimination against persons of Mexican-American background.

Despite the arguments, however, the Michigan State Police has remained with their requirements that any state policeman be at least 5'9" tall. And Police Director John Plants recently came up with some strong arguments for retaining the height requirement.

Cong. Chamberlain's Poll Shows Opposition to Amnesty

Congressman Charles E. Chamberlain (R-Mich.), today released the results of his annual district survey which was conducted by mail in April and just tabulated by computer.

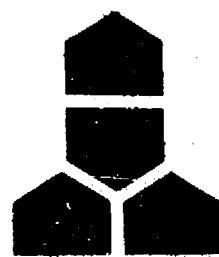

Responding to his questionnaire, Michigan's Sixth District residents have clearly indicated opposition to granting amnesty to draft evaders, providing aid to North Vietnam, and spending more money for foreign aid.

According to Chamberlain, "The thousands of responses indicate that 81 percent are against amnesty, 79 percent against financial aid to North Vietnam, and 93 percent oppose spending more on foreign aid. In other areas of strong response, 68 percent favor expanding foreign trade with China and Russia, 66 percent support the enactment of some form of war power legislation, 71 percent call for banning the so-called 'Saturday Night Special' handguns, 79 percent oppose legalizing marijuana, 74 percent want the death penalty for certain crimes, such as hijacking and kidnapping, and 67 percent would like to see a special lower minimum wage for students and young people under 18 to help create employment opportunities for youth."

Chamberlain noted, "Of particular significance is the indication of support for efforts to hold down Federal spending. Seventy-one percent of the respondents support the President's impoundment of funds to keep government spending within a $250 billion ceiling in 1979."

The poll also provided constituents an opportunity to indicate whether more, less, or the same amount should be allocated in nine broad areas of Federal programs. Said Chamberlain, "It is interesting to note that, with the exception of spending Federal funds for crime control and drug abuse prevention, the majority felt that we should not increase spending for defense, education, environmental protection, foreign aid, job training, and anti-poverty programs. Obviously, there is a widespread feeling that Federal spending must be cut back."

A silver tray, suitably engraved, was presented to Mrs. Paul (Ruth) Niehaus by Chelsea Kiwanis Club president William Rademacher in appreciation for the many years of service she and her late husband, Paul F. (Jerry) Niehaus contributed to the club. Mrs. Niehaus has provided piano music for the Kiwanians every meeting for many years. The club is planning some permanent memorial to Niehaus, who was a member for 44 years.

A 100th birthday is one few people are lucky enough to celebrate, and Mrs. Mary Todd had quite a party Tuesday at the Methodist Home. Mrs. Todd looked festive and chipper as she greeted scores of old and new friends in a white hand-made dress with a hoop skirt and orchid corsage. Although she says she has no formula for youthfulness, friends eagerly chimed in to say "keeping her mind alert by learning useful things" was her fountain of youth.

Army Sergeant Thomas M. Steele called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Steele, yesterday from Washington D. C., to tell them that he would be home Wednesday night or Thursday. Sgt. Steele, a recent recipient of the Silver Star for gallantry in action in Vietnam, has completed his military obligation.

Last Sunday night many sections of Chelsea resembled a drive-through rummage sale with free merchandise, according to reports by local residents. Individuals and small groups in cars cruised slowly through town peering out into the darkness at stacks of miscellaneous furniture, brush, household and yard items. The piles contained old items that had outlived their usefulness for their owners and had been put out for the annual public works pick-up.

The Castro Rebels Chapter of the Brothers of the Brush won the tug-of-war at Veterans Memorial Park last Sunday afternoon with approximately 300 spectators on hand. Members of the Castro Rebels had taken up the challenge of the Jaycees Chapter of the Brothers of the Brush.

Chelsea's Brothers of the Brush created quite a stir in Detroit Friday night as they marched down Michigan Ave., some 300 strong to Briggs Stadium to attend the ball game. They were led by the Brothers of the Brush Band which, incidentally, "did themselves proud." The band played intermittently throughout the game and everyone had a hilariously good time.

The library at the Chelsea High school, a room approximately 10 feet square, is so inadequate for the number of pupils it serves that it is given as the reason the local school cannot be given a three-year accredited rating with the University of Michigan. The high school has been on a two-year accredited list for a number of years and had this year requested a three-year rating. If the library facilities were improved, the high school could be given this coveted three-year rating.

Fifty-one daughters and mothers attended the annual American Legion Mother-Daughter Banquet on Thursday, May 12, at the Legion Home at Cavanaugh Lake. A feature of the pot-luck dinner was a beautiful three-tiered cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Edward Visel.

A telegram of congratulations from the governor of the state, an exceptionally entertaining talk by Dale McIntyre of radio station WJR, congratulations from the president of the village and special musical numbers which highlighted the program, together with the presence of many old and new friends all helped to make the banquet in honor of Howard Brooks a memorable occasion. The last meeting of the Young Mothers Child Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Emmet Harker on Wednesday evening. New officers were elected: Mrs. James Munro, president; Mrs. Norman Schmidt, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Potts, secretary; Mrs. George Mansfield, treasurer; Mrs. Harold Wildmar, auditor; and Mrs. Martin Steinbach, parliamentarian.

Michigan Song Written During Civil War Days

Most men sent to war soon experience a yearning for home. Soldiers from Michigan during the Civil War were no different and by their letters sent home and the songs they sang this yearning was greatly reflected.

Shortly after the Battle of Fredericksburg took place, Winifred Lee Brent, a Detroit woman, composed words for a song to be sung to the tune of the old German song, "Tannenbaum." The verses were printed first on a leaflet and then were printed in the "Detroit Tribune." Later they were reprinted and published for the army at the front. The song was very popular with Michigan soldiers as well as in the state. The first verse is as follows:

Home of my heart, I say to thee!

Michigan, my Michigan
Thy lake-bound shores I long to see,

Michigan, my Michigan.
From Saginaw's tall whispering pines

To Lake Superior's farthest mines,
Fair in the light of memory shines,

Michigan, my Michigan.
The poet, Douglas McCulloch, composed new words to this familiar tune in 1902 and these are the most generally used words today.

4-H Talent Contest

Stated Saturday

The Washtenaw county 4-H Share-the-Fun Festival (talent contest) will be held on Saturday evening, May 19, 7:30 p.m. in Pioneer Little Theater, Ann Arbor. The public is invited to view this 4-H event.

A PENNY FOR YOUR WISH: A wish may be made for as little as a penny in the bright orange wishing well made by Bob Fisher for Friday's Beach school carnival. Kyle Parker and Cindy Miller (right) are seen here registering their wish for a successful carnival, a hope that is shared by carnival sponsors, the 8th grade French classes and the Beach school Student Council.

Beach School Carnival Scheduled Friday Evening

As anticipation of the Beach school Carnival grows, so does the pile of items donated by local merchants for the drawing Friday evening. The drawing at 9 p.m. will climax carnival fun that begins at 5 p.m., tomorrow at the school.

A 10-cent ticket gives the holder a chance at one of the more than 40 prizes that will be given away.

The carnival sponsors, Mrs. Jane Cummings's 8th grade French class and the Beach school Student Council under the supervision of Jim Thompson and Susan Harding, are grateful to the following merchants who have donated articles for the drawing:

Dancer's, a suitcase; Chelsea Drug Store, a camera; Winans Jewelry, a clock, thermometer, pen holder set and two wiggle desk toys; Chelsea Hardware, a shovel; Heydlauff's, a Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young double record album; Jim's Union 76 station, a free front end alignment; Foster's Men's Wear, knit summer shirt; A & W Root Beer, four one-gallon gift certificates for root beer; Tailfeather Boutique, one Crazy Candle; Gambles, one orange dish; Vogel's, one pair fishnet panty hose; Patty Ann Shop, three pairs of shoes; Car-Nett's, stationery; Strieter's, 10 ties, a pair of pants and a shirt; Schneider's, three bags of potato chips; and Pats & Paints, a ceramic bunny.

The Student Council and the 8th grade French classes have donated 12 stuffed animals for the drawing, and more donations are coming daily.

The excitement of the drawing will be in addition to the entertainment found at the carnival booths and at the paper-back book show. A hot dog dinner will also be available at the carnival.

Named to MIAA All-Conference Team

The Kalamazoo College tennis team won its 35th consecutive MIAA title this week-end, and named four players to the all-conference team. Tom Thomson, former Chelsea resident, was in that group.

Another son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Thomson now of 1318 Three Mile in Grosse Pointe, Steve, was also a winning player on the Kalamazoo squad.

Michigan's population, according to the 1970 U.S. census, is 8,878,063.

When cooking with fresh herbs, use about four times as much as when using dried herbs.

MARIONETTES are a natural part of the never-never carnival world that will have its bright shining hours tomorrow from 5 to 9:30 at Beach school. Marionettes are always a favorite of wide-eyed youngsters. Mary Spencer (left) and Kathy Burns are shown here arranging the furniture on the puppet stage in preparation for Friday's performances.

TISSUE FLOWERS in bright colors will be in full bloom for the May 18 Beach school carnival, tomorrow, from 5 to 9:30 p.m. The festive flowers are being inspected here by Kathy Burns (left), Kyle Parker and Anthony Willan.

Walt Brown Elected to State Jaycee No. 2 Position...

His youth development activities such as the Punt, Pass & Kick contest that is held every year and for their money raising projects.

Attending the convention from Chelsea were Chelsea Jaycee President and Mrs. Michael Eubanks, Neil Ernst, Doug Robeson, Robert Rilloraza, the Phillippino exchange student who has been living with the Steinaways (he has been a Jaycee for two months), Mr. and Mrs. Norm Colby, and, of course, Walt and Sandy Brown and Ann and Art Steinaway.

The Chelsea people spent the majority of their time in Detroit manning the walkie-talkies and running the campaign machinery. Quoting President Richard Nixon, Art says, "The Jaycees are the most political non-political organization around. I sure learned a lot about politics."

High School Art Show Slated...

Learning how to draw a face or how to form a pot on the potter's wheel is only part of the educational process in art classes. Students also learn to recognize and appreciate a well designed work of art. "Learning the 'why' of art or an appreciation of art is just as important as learning the techniques or the 'how' of art," says Laurie Hartman.

Art in the 20th century is a practical and important part of every person's life, according to the art teachers. A student can call upon his knowledge of design later in life when he is faced with such decisions as choosing a well-coordinated wardrobe or redecorating his home.

What the students have learned will be on display, Tuesday evening, May 22, when the high school art and graphic arts students will be exhibiting their work. Everyone is invited to come to the Art and Graphic Arts rooms anytime between 7 and 9 p.m.

The four art teachers and their students will be on hand to chat about their works of art with interested guests. There will be works of interest even to those whose children are not art students.

THANK YOU

I wish to extend a sincere thanks to all my family, relatives, neighbors and friends, the employees of Double A for gifts, cards and farm work during my stay in the hospital and after my return home. A special thanks to Pastor John R. Morris and Pastor David Lintner for the prayers and visits.

Government Benefits Explained to Veterans

The VA has stepped up its "outreach" program of informing Vietnam Era veterans and servicemen, including returned prisoners of war who are leaving the military, of the availability of government benefits. Outreach efforts begin while servicemen are on active duty and continue after discharge. GI Bill details have been provided to two million servicemen in Vietnam; 250,000 have been counseled in military hospitals; and three million at separation points. Four million letters have been mailed to veterans and millions of telephone calls have been made. One and a half million interviews have been conducted with veterans at the VA's 72 Veterans Assistance Centers around the country.

Michigan is a four-season tourist attraction. Tourism brings more than 16 million travelers to Michigan each year.

Michigan has more than 11,000 inland lakes and more than 36,000 miles of streams.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all my wonderful customers for making my business such a pleasure. It's been three years that have gone in a hurry because it's been such enjoyment. A special thanks to Georgia Howe who gave her time so willing and to my dear granddaughter who made a great help and made my working hours a pleasure. I shall miss my daily chats with my friends. I wish Karen the best. I hope her time with the store is as good as mine has been. Thanks to all of you.

Rena Johnson.

SCULPTURE is just one medium that Chelsea High school art students learn about during their course. The scope of their exposure to various kinds of art will be evident at the annual exhibit at the high school next Tuesday evening. The show will include wheel-formed and hand-built pottery, acrylic and water color paintings, silk screened posters and designs, mixed media sculpture, drawings, photographs, macramé and textile designs. The clay head shown here, molded over styrofoam by Greg McClain, will also be on view.

Girl Scout Council Plans To Build New Troop House at Camp Linden

A new troop house to be constructed this summer at the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council's Camp Linden in Livingston county will be named Allen House for Mr. and Mrs. Wyeth Allen, it was announced today by Mrs. Louis Galan, council president. A University of Michigan professor and former chairman of the U-M Industrial Engineering Department, Allen died last week in Milwaukee.

Allen served the Huron Valley Council as chairman of the Long-Range Planning Committee in 1967-68, as chairman of the Consulting Committee and as a member of the Steering Committee which planned and conducted the organizations Camp Development Funds Drive from 1968-70 and as a Member of the Finance Committee from 1968-71.

Mrs. Allen served as the first vice-president of the Council Board of Directors for six years, retiring in March, 1972. She has also held national office for the Girl Scouts of the U. S. A., sitting as a member of the Regional Committee for a four-state region including Michigan.

The troop house which will be constructed this summer at a cost of about $50,000 will be a winterized structure of about 4,000 square feet. It will be used for overnight camping and week-end camping accommodations for 40 girls. It will also be used as a training center for adults and girls as well as an administration building. It will be funded by the Detroit United Foundation.

"In their contributions to Camp Linden and to the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, the Allens have earned a special place of affection among our members," Mrs. Galan said. "We are happy to recognize their contribution in this way." Invitations for bids to construct the building are going out this week. It was designed by Walter Patchek, Ypsilanti architect.

16 Confirmed Sunday at Congl. Church

During a worship service whose theme echoed the familiar hymn "Take Time To Be Holy," 16 youngsters were confirmed Sunday at the First Congregational church. The Rev. Carl Schwarm with the assistance of Dan Robbins, chairman of the Board of Deacons, conducted the confirmation ceremony.

The confirmands went through the rite of confirmation as follows: Julia Anne Chapman and Karen Kay Kern; Victoria Lee Downer and Susan Frances Tompkins; Jeffrey Lee Eder and Anthony Michael Robards; John Thomas Hafer and Randy Charles Everett Sweeney; Nancy Kay Hepburn and Dawn Marie Robards; Morris Len Johnson and Mark Richard Kern; Susan Marie Leach and Susan Jean Mann; Paul Lawrence Marshall and Trent Howard Satterthwaite.

The youngsters had introduced themselves to the congregation the previous Sunday when they planned and conducted the service of worship. Their theme was "God Is Love." Six of the confirmands prepared two-minute meditations on this theme which they read during the service.

Frank B. Campbell, organist at the First Presbyterian church in Caro, was the guest organist for Sunday's service. A graduate of the University of Michigan where he studied organ, and a member of the Saginaw Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, Campbell is the grandfather of Susan Mann, one of the 1973 confirmands.

The newly confirmed Christians were the guests of honor at a reception in the church basement following the service. The reception was sponsored by the Christian Education Committee.

of St. Andrew's, Ann Arbor, who, according to Mrs. Beaumont, was instrumental in Beaumont's decision to change his vocation, preached the ordination sermon.

Mrs. H. Settles, of Manchester, sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a prelude to the service. The organist was George Hunchie of St. Andrew's. Mrs. William Tite and Mrs. Daniel Lyons assisted Mrs. Beaumont by singing in the choir.

Master of Ceremonies was the Rev. C. Walton Fitch, vicar of St. Barnabas. George Johnston, senior warden of the church, presented the ordination to Bishop Emrich.

Others participating were Mathew Lindauer, an acolyte; Don Buckenberger, crucifier; and James Almond and R. Buckenberger, ushers.

After the ceremony, the Episcopal Church Women gave a reception for the new Deacon. Judy Birdsall acted as chairman of the event.

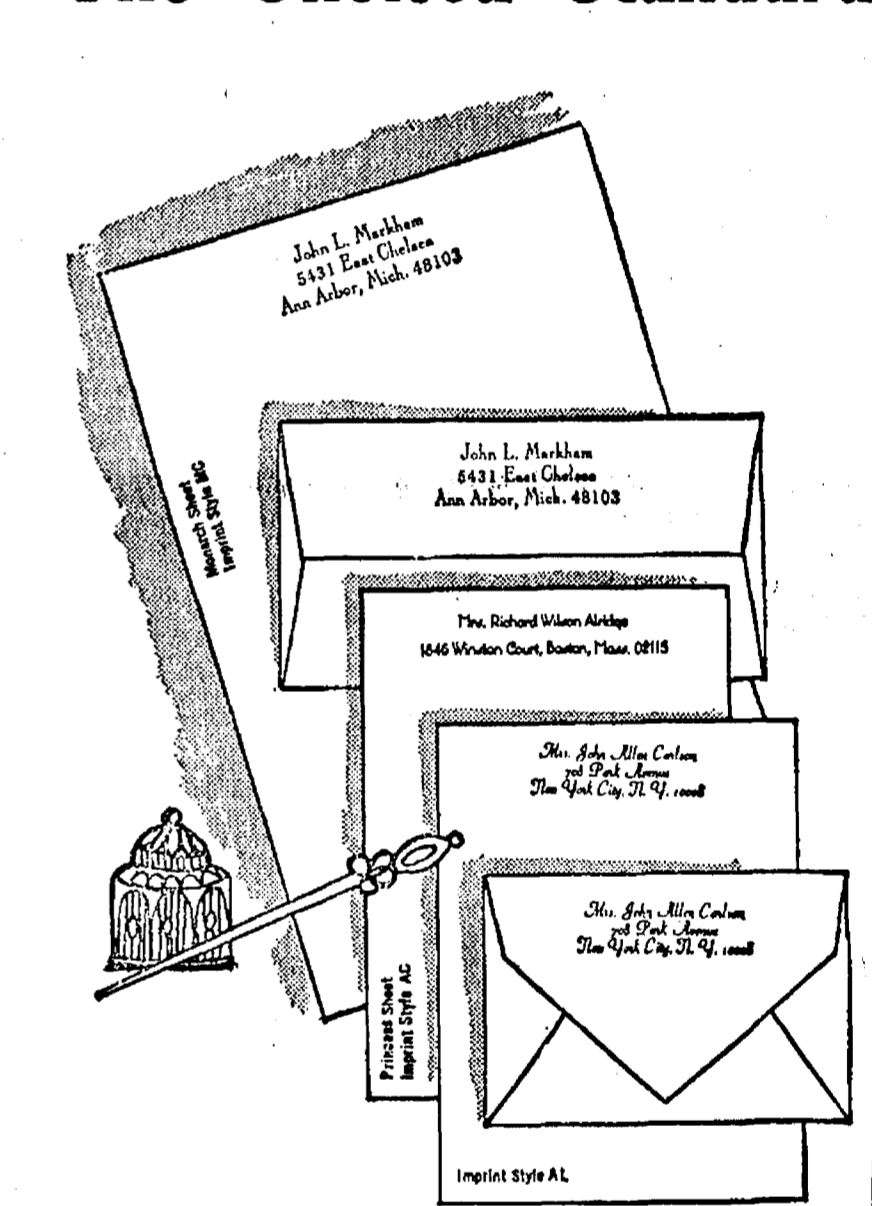

Dr. and Mrs. Shadoan gave a luncheon at their home for Bishop Emrich, the Beaumont family and participants in the ceremony. Among the guests were Dean of the School of Theology, the Rev. Robert Whitaker, Canon William Logan of St. Paul's Cathedral, Mrs. Beaumont's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hesman of Windsor, Ontario, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Herman of Simcoe, Ontario.

Mrs. Robert Merrill Russell

Rhonda Lou Kern, Robert Russell Speak Vows in Nevada Ceremony

A 3 p.m. ceremony in the garden of the bridegroom's home in Boulder City, Nev., was the setting for the marriage of Rhonda Lou Kern and Robert Merrill Russell. The Rev. Guy Holliday performed the ceremony, May 12.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Kern, of Chelsea, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Russell of Boulder City, Nev. For the double-ring ceremony the bride wore a candle lace gown with a sailor square back collar. The fitted bodice was accented with a candle satin band and a bow at the empire waist. The A-line skirt was trimmed with several rows of ruffling of Legoda lace around the bottom.

Her headpiece was a camelot of the same lace and accented with a candle bow. The hat held her three-tier elbow-length bouffant veil, also of candle. She carried a cascade of heritage white spider palms, daisies and baby's breath.

Mrs. JoAnne Stevens of Manchester was matron of honor. She wore a pale blue gown with an empire waist. The bodice was trimmed in ecru lace with a band around the neck and around the wrist of the sheer blue puffy sleeves. The skirt was A-line chiffon. She carried a nosegay of light blue daisies. In her hair she wore a blue ribbon band accented with matching daisies.

Dana Russell, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and wore a gown matching the matron of honor's. She also wore a ribbon band of blue daisies in her hair.

Mother of the bride wore a light blue floor-length gown with an empire waist. The A-line skirt was accented with two ruffles of the same material. She wore a corsage of light blue and white daisies.

Here are some onion tips: Prolonged cooking takes the flavor out of onions. Cook them only until they're tender when tested with a fork. To keep eyes from watering while cutting onions, slice or cut the onions under cold, running water. Slice the onion from the top rather than the root end. Onions will behave, even with company in the parlor, if you cook them uncovered, in a large amount of boiling salted water. The flavor's better, too. Onions, also, are a valuable source of important minerals, calcium, phosphorus, iron.

Lyndon Board OKs Plans for Subdivision

The entire board except for Norman Kaiser, was present May 12 at the monthly Lyndon Township board meeting to hear Neil Fahrner of the Washtenaw Engineering Co. explain the final plans for the Mar-Kris subdivision to be built at the intersection of Wernker and Waterloo Rds.

The board gave their final preliminary approval to the plans so that the company may now begin construction. The subdivision plans had already received the preliminary OK from the County Road Commission, the Health Department, and the Township Planning Commission.

Carol Clark, Jr., attended the meeting to voice his concern about trailers that have been seen around Long Lake during the week-ends. Because the trailer owners own the property on which they have been camping for week-ends, the township is not certain if an ordinance is being violated. The board's attorney has been asked to check into the zoning ordinances.

Board member Lancaster volunteered to look into the price of installing tile on the floors of the Township Hall.

The latest revenue sharing money has arrived bringing approximately $2,600 into the township treasury. The use of that money will be discussed at the June meeting.

The employment of a part-time zoning inspector will also be discussed at the next meeting. At present, the township does not have an inspector in its employ as it has relied on Ann Arbor's inspector to check new township buildings. With the growth of the township, it becomes necessary for the township to take on the responsibility themselves.

The next township meeting will be June 9.

PROCLAMATION

Michigan Week is the traditional program through which Michigan citizens themselves learn more about their state and promote it in many ways throughout the year. Michigan Week began in a small way two decades ago, and has grown into a unique institution which is observed on a giant scale in communities of both Michigan peninsulas.

Again this year, Michigan Week embraces eight days, each designating a particular facet of life in Michigan. Saturday, May 19, will be Community Pride Day; Sunday, May 20, Spiritual Foundations Day; Monday, May 21, Government Day; Tuesday, May 22, Heritage Day; Wednesday, May 23, Our Livelihood Day; Thursday, May 24, Education Day; Friday, May 25, Hospitality Day; and Saturday, May 26, Our Youth Day.

The Michigan Week theme this year is "Michigan—What You Seek Is What You Get," based on the state's official motto, "If You Seek a Pleasant Peninsula, Look About You" (Si Quaeris Peninsulam Amoenam, Circumspice).

We are proud of our community and our state. When we observe Michigan Week, we proclaim our pride in Michigan for others to see and emulate.

Therefore, I, A. E. Fulks, President of the Village of Chelsea, do hereby proclaim the week of May 19 through May 26, 1973, as Michigan Week. I urge local citizens, young and old, to take pride in their Michigan heritage and to fittingly observe this traditional eight-day period.

A. E. Fulks, Chelsea Village President.

JV Baseball Team Downs Lincoln, Novi

The Chelsea JV and freshman baseball teams were in play last week, returning with two wins for the older group and a defeat for the frosh.

Lincoln was the JV's first victim, 15-5, last Friday, as Todd Orthing pitched the Bulldogs to victory.

Bill Clark collected three hits while Randy Guenther and Tim Reed each had two hits. The JV's now boast at a 4-1 record.

Tuesday was Novi's turn to try to take down the Chelsea nine but it went to the Bulldogs, 3-5. Bill Clark can take much of the credit offensively and defensively.

Novi began the contest by scoring two runs in the first inning on walks and errors. Chelsea matched that maneuver. The bases were loaded by walks when Bill Clark stepped up to bat. His hit, the only one of the game, brought home two runners. A third run was scored on an error, giving Chelsea the lead.

Their advantage was established for keeps when two unearned runs came in during the fourth.

Bill Clark then turned to defense and pitched a fine two-hitter while striking out 16 Novi Panthers. Dave Keiser and Francis Grohert also played good defensive games.

Chelsea freshmen were defeated by Jackson Northwest, 15-1, on the local diamond a week ago. Hitters for the home squad were Randy Guenther and Tim Reed. Performing well on defense were Mark Dalton, Dale Schoenberg and Jim Marshall.

GI Home Loans

GI home loans in January rose 4 percent higher than a year earlier, sustaining a six year upward trend. VA approved 30,600 loans in January compared to 29,600 in January 1972. The December total was 32,600. On a yearly basis, loans last year climbed to nearly 300,000, about a 25 percent increase over 1971. Included in the total were 5,500 mobile home loans, a 162 percent hike over 1971. VA guarantees 60 percent of home loans. (Maximum guarantee of $12,500.)

Huron Watershed Council Annual Meeting Slated

Huron River Watershed Council will hold its annual meeting at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 23, at the Campus Inn in Ann Arbor.

The meeting will begin with a business session which will review the year's activities and discuss programs planned for the coming year. New officers will also be elected.

Highlight of the evening will be an illustrated presentation "The Boardman River Study: Application of Resource Analysis to a River Corridor" by John Koerner of the Landscape Architecture Firm of Johnson, Johnson & Roy. This study focuses on the application of landscape analysis techniques to land use problems adjacent to the Boardman River in northwestern Michigan. The Huron River Watershed is experiencing similar problems as development pressures increase. The annual meeting is open to the public, as are all meetings of the Watershed Council.

GI Educational Benefits

Donald E. Johnson, Administrator of Veterans Affairs, has pointed out that veterans using the GI educational benefits have the chance of almost doubling their income in life if they graduate from college. Department of Labor statistics show that high school graduates can expect to earn $371,000 in a lifetime, while college graduates earn approximately $808,000. Johnson said single veterans receive $220 a month for full-time college training, up to a maximum of 36 months, or a total of $7,920. Allowances are increased for veterans with dependents.

After the program, the chairman, Mrs. Ralph McCalla, opened the meeting by reading a verse entitled "Such a State of Affairs." There was no secretary's report due to the illness of Mrs. Guy Barton. Treasurer's report was read by Mrs. George Knoll.

A note of thanks from Mrs. Stanley Bond was read expressing appreciation for the tea and cookies the group supplied following the memorial service for Mrs. Bond's husband. Mrs. Watson Hart sent a message of thanks for the flowers she received while in the hospital.

The June 20 Circle meeting will be a pot-luck luncheon at 12:30 at the Crippen Building. Fun and games will follow.

HALF BUSHEL OF LOOT: Mrs. Vivian Lindstrom spent several weeks of futile searching in the Chelsea area before venturing to more foreign regions in pursuit of the elusive morel. The trip was fruitful as the picture shows. In a wooded area and an open field she found both dark gray and yellowish snake head and regular morels just waiting to be picked. "I had to be practically dragged from the scene," she said, "or I'd still be there picking." Mrs. Lindstrom is unwilling to divulge the location of her find but she will say that it's not in the Chelsea neighborhood.

PACK 455—

Pack 455 went to Scout-O-Rama and came home with one of the top honors. Last Saturday they put on a display at the U. of M. stadium that told the story of why we have a five point star on the American flag.

They painted the story and cut out the stars which they gave to the public. Those who helped were Brad Flanagan, Todd Koch, Bill Blank, Leon Durgan, Phil Hoffman, Tim Roy, Mike Stauch, Steve Hughes, Roland Klink, and David Waldyke.

Adult helpers were committee chairman Jerry Durgan, Fred Hoffman, Larry Koch, Phil Roy, cubmaster Dr. Waldyke, Webelos leader Otis Titus, and Mary Ann Burgess, den mother.

We will hold our last Pack meeting of the school year May 24, at South school. Everyone is welcome and we would like to see any parents and their sons who will be eight years old and would like to see how Cub scouting works.

We have fun. Come and have fun, too.

sons have received such grants totaling $112 million since 1948. Initially the grant was for $1,600 but was increased to $2,800 in January 1971.

Michigan Leads the World In Manufacture of Autos

The first successful car built in Detroit appeared on the streets March 8, 1899, driven by Charles B. King who built it in a machine shop. Three months later, on June 4, Henry Ford made his first run with a carriage powered by a four-cycle engine. King was more interested in art and music and soon refused from making autos but Ford continued.

The first automobile company organized in Michigan was the Olds Motor Vehicle Works. Ransom E. Olds and Frank Clark were partners; Olds' father made gasoline engines and Clark's father made carriages. The sons, combining the two, made their first car in 1898. The Oldsmobile, like most cars at that time, had but one cylinder. Clark soon sold out to Olds who established a factory in Detroit in 1899. Three years later the factory was destroyed by fire and Olds moved to Lansing.

The first auto show was held in 1900 in Madison Square Garden. All cars were shipped by rail that year but the next year Olds asked a young employee, Roy D. Chapin, to drive an Olds to New York. Driving through Canada, he crossed over to Buffalo and used the road of the Erie Canal as long as he could because the roads in New York were so bad. He had to make many repairs on the way and in New York City smashed a wheel when the car skidded on the wet asphalt street. The trip took one week, the longest drive up to that time. Chapin later became one of the founders of the Hudson Motor Co., and later president of the company.

In 1899 the Detroit Automobile Co. was organized. Henry Ford was chief engineer and one of the owners. Two years later he withdrew from the company because of a difference of opinion and the company reorganized as the Cadillac Motor Co.

Ford was first most interested in producing fast powerful racing cars. He raced the famous 999 himself and then hired Barney Oldfield who broke the record in 1902.

After Ford left the Detroit Automobile Co. he organized the Henry Ford Automobile Co., which failed in 1902. The next year the Ford Motor Co. was incorporated with several investors. Ford owned 25 percent of the common stock and John F. and Horace E. Dodge, the "heavy first, hard drinking" brothers, were given shares in return for manufacturing engines and other parts for the Ford cars.

In 1906 Ford held 51 percent of the stock when the coal dealer and banker in the company, Alex Macdonald, sold his shares to Ford. Ten years later Ford began production of the Model-T in his new factory in Highland Park, a sturdy, inexpensive car selling for $950. That first year 10,600 cars were turned out and assembled in a plant designed for mass production.

Ford began paying his employees a minimum of $5 for an eight-hour day in January, 1914, and as a result, hordes of people swarmed into the employment office of the Highland Park plant from all over the country. Then, in 1919 Ford bought out all the stockholders, who included men such as the Dodge brothers, Horace H. Rackham, and James Couzens.

manufacture of automobiles in Michigan was David D. Buick. The Buick Co. began in Detroit in 1902 and the next year James Whiting of the Flint Wagon Works bought the business and moved it to Flint. In 1904 Whiting sold to the Durant-Dort Carriage Co. William Durant, grandson of Michigan Governor Henry H. Crapo, in 1908 established the General Motors Co., with the Buick, and soon acquired the Olds Motor Works. Two years later Cadillac and Oakland were added to General Motors.

In 1911 Chevrolet Motor Co. was incorporated and it was soon purchased by Durant and moved from Detroit to Flint. Durant was forced out of General Motors in 1921 by a financial crisis but soon he gathered other companies into a combination. His plans were ruined by the depression of 1929 and he then retired. Durant had made a fortune but in 1936 filed for bankruptcy listing his assets as $250 in clothing. Three years later he died. Largely as a result of his genius, Flint was transformed from a small northern town to an industrial city.

Chrysler, last of the big three automakers, was the result of combining the Maxwell and Chalmers companies of Detroit in 1925. The Plymouth car was developed by Chrysler as a low-priced automobile and the DeSoto as a middle priced car.

Other automobiles manufactured in Michigan were the Dodge, Hudson and Packard. The Dodge brothers organized in 1914. Their cars were the first to have all-steel bodies. The Hudson Motor Co. was founded in 1909 by J. L. Hudson, Roscoe B. Jackson, Roy D. Chapin and Howard E. Coffin. This company built the Essex, a medium priced car, in 1921, the first automobile with a closed body.

In 1903 the Packard car was made in Detroit, although the first one had been made in Warren, O., in 1898. About 25 percent of all cars made in 1917 were made in Michigan. Many companies failed after a brief existence. Some were: Flanders, Abbott and Brush, the Roamer, Earl, Lion and Willis-St. Claire. Still others were: Columbia, Detroit, Downing, King, Leslie, Liberty, Saxon, and Scripps-Booth all made in Detroit; the Dorr and Patterson made in Flint; Austin, Grand Rapids; Brixco, Hackett, Höller in Chelsea, and Jackson and Handley of Jackson. Some of these models are owned by collectors today.

Due to the increase in automobiles, people of Michigan soon began to demand improved roads. The first mile of concrete road in the United States was laid on Woodward Ave. in Detroit between Six Mile and Seven Mile Rds., in 1909. Good roads, in turn, created the desire of larger and faster cars. The automobile industry continues to be a major element in Michigan's economy.

FROM OUTER SPACE? Even his own mother wouldn't recognize Larry Koch of the Chelsea Fire Department as he enters the Lithocrafters building on Jackson Rd., Saturday evening. Equipped with fire protective coats and helmets and wearing smoke masks was the only way firemen were able to enter the building in search of the fire. Extreme heat and dense smoke filled the building and made it difficult for firefighters to penetrate far enough to locate the blaze.

Teen Volunteers Are Needed at Chelsea Hospital

For the third year, the halls of Chelsea Community Hospital will be brightened this summer by the young faces of teen-age volunteers. An orientation for those youngsters who wish to take part in the program will be this Saturday, May 19, at 10 a.m. at the hospital.

The orientation will include an outline of the scope of volunteer work. The youths in the past have visited patients, organized card games and taken patients on walks, provided transportation and in some cases helped feed them. The duties are varied and greatly needed.

The staff of teen-age volunteers numbered 15 a year ago. As many as 25 youngsters are needed, but if even more than that apply, one of the organizers says, "We'll find jobs for them."

Mrs. Patrick Turcott is in charge of collecting the applications and handling the references and paper work. Applications, which are available at Chelsea, Dexter and Manchester High schools and Beach Middle school, may be either sent to Mrs. Turcott or brought to the orientation, Saturday.

Motor Vehicle Highway Fund Payments Show Increase

Lansing—First quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund revenues being distributed among the state's counties and municipalities are up 8.6 percent from the same period in 1972, the State Highway Commission said today.

Chelsea will receive $20,199, an appreciable increase over the $18,755 the village received during the first quarter of 1972. Dexter will take in $10,178, approximately $700 more than in the same period in 1972.

Grass Lake's share is $7,756, while Manchester is entitled to $11,311. Milan will get $22,885 while Novi receives $34,971 and Pinckney rates $6,588. Saline's portion is $22,164. That city received $20,468 in the first quarter of 1972.

While Ypsilanti will receive $125,428, Ann Arbor will take in $532,251. Washtenaw county will be $1,138,368 richer after the Motor Vehicle Fund revenues arrive.

The Commission said net receipts from the fund for state highways, county roads and municipal streets during the first three months of the year amounted to $158,108,023. This is an increase of $12,572,664 over the first quarter of 1972.

All state taxes on gasoline and diesel fuel, plus license plate fees, go into the Highway Fund.

The first-quarter increase reflects growth both in fuel consumption and the number of motor vehicles as well as the first month's collection of a nine-cent-a-gallon state tax on gasoline, which went into effect Feb. 1. The new law raised the gas tax by two cents and earmarked one and one-half cents for highways, roads and streets and one-half cent for urban transportation.

Under distribution formulas spelled out in state law, the Department of State Highways will receive $72,208,298 as its share of first quarter collection. The 83 counties will receive $55,208,974 and the 531 incorporated cities and villages will get $31,690,752.

Jim has covered over 1 1/2 million miles and hasn't had an accident in 30 years of driving in all kinds of traffic and weather. We wanted you to meet Jim, especially during National Transportation Week, because without him, and the millions like him, rural Michigan would not have the benefit of competing in the market places of the world.

Mich. Youth Symphony Begins Tours

Carol Spencer, a member of the Michigan Youth Symphony and a sophomore at Chelsea High, will be traveling to Interlochen and Central Michigan University this week-end on the symphony's first two-day tour this season. They will be performing at both stops.

Carol, who plays the viola, has been a member of the symphony all winter, ever since she met its conductor who was a judge at the Solo Ensemble Festival in Dearborn. Since there is no string program here in Chelsea, Carol jumped at the chance to join the group. She had learned to play the viola before she moved to Chelsea two years ago.

The symphony, composed of high school students from all over the state, practices in the University of Michigan School of Music in Ann Arbor. The week-end concerts are most often in small towns. The symphony played in Chelsea two years ago with part of the proceeds going to Chelsea Band Boosters.

Non-High School Grads May Now Enlist in Army

The U. S. Army recruiter in Ann Arbor has announced that as of Monday non-high school graduates are being allowed to enlist in the Army.

The policy, established May 14, states that non-high school graduates who score an average of 45 or better on the General Education Development test (GED) may enlist as long as they meet other physical and psychological standards.

The average score of 45 on the state administered test entitles the youth to a high school equivalency diploma.

More information may be obtained from the recruiting office in Ann Arbor at 665-3731.

What money does not go to local band groups goes to scholarships for symphony members.

According to Mrs. Herbert Spencer, Carol's mother, applications are being taken for next year's symphony membership. She says both she and Warren Mayer at the high school can supply more information about the program to interested persons.

FIREMEN from Dexter, Chelsea and Ann Arbor were on the scene Saturday evening at the LithoCrafters printing plant, on Jackson Rd., Scio township. Because of the dense, biting smoke from burning paper, chemicals and film, the firefighters had a difficult time for the first hour in getting water to the source of the fire. But cutting holes in the roof they were finally able to control the blaze which had been tightly confined in the modern block and steel building. Tanker trucks from both Chelsea and Dexter departments were hard-pressed to keep enough water on the scene for the pumpers.

Beach Track Team 3rd in Tecumseh Relays

In spite of a late arrival, that some Chelsea field competitors off their stride, Beach Middle school trackmen (and women) emerged third in a field of 12 at the Tecumseh Relays, Friday.

Hillsdale took the top prize with 54 points; Monroe was next with 47. Chelsea tied in the third slot with host team Tecumseh, both had 38 points. Blissfield, Saline, Temperance Bedford, Dexter, Ida, Dundee, Jackson Catholic and Madison followed.

All races were run with four-man teams while the field events were determined by the efforts of two-man combinations.

Chelsea was unable to come in first in any of the contests but several second-place efforts kept the score up in the competition. Seconds were taken in the shuttle hurdle relay, the 440-yard girls' relay (an exhibition event that did not add points to the total), the Tecumseh relay and the distance medley.

Anthony Houle, with an excellent time of 13 seconds flat, led a team of Jeff Sweet, Rod Sweeney and Randy Sweeney in the shuttle hurdles.

The girls ran their 440 race in :55.5, a time to be proud of.

Competing for Chelsea were Sue Frisbie, Leigh Haker, Kathy Treado and Carolyn Skarlein. They were defeated by a tenth of a second.

Coach Pat Clarke has a theory that if the winning girls team had run in the same heat with Beach's girls, the outcome might have been different. "They were not pushed in their heat," he says of Chelsea's female four.

Another second-place finish came Chelsea's way in the Tecumseh relay which incorporates two quarter-mile runs, a mile and a half-mile. Chelsea's team of Morris Johnson, Dean Thompson, Dave Dawson and George Menge finished in near record time at 9:53.7 but Tecumseh secured their name-sake event with a record-breaking performance. The anchor man did the mile in 4:52. "We don't even have a high schooler who can do that," said the coach.

Chelsea's final second place came in the distance medley that included two quarters, and two 220's. Tony Robards, running a quarter mile in :59.8, did the best in a team made up of Robards, Anthony Houle, Mike Smyth and Chris Smyth.

Mike Smyth and Chuck Minix combined for the shot put competition and placed third in that event. Smyth pitched the shot 43'3".

In the pole vault, Matt Heydlauff and Randy Sweeney reached fifth place while Mike Check, Dave Hendricks, Matt Heydlauff and John Toon took fourth in the 440-yard relay. Hendricks stood out in that group with a time of 1:12.6.

The spring medley was the final event in which Chelsea placed. Jerry Armstrong, Mark Smyth, Mark Houle and Jeff Peterson ran to fifth place with Houle covering the mile. The Beach team met Stockbridge Tuesday and will close its season with a home meet Thursday, May 24, against South Lyon. The Beach team remains 3-0 in the dual conference statistics.
