Graduation Set Friday Evening At CHS Gym

The class of 1973 will become graduates tomorrow evening after completion of the long-awaited ceremony in Chelsea High school gym. The program will begin at 8 p.m.

The Rev. Warner Siebert has been asked to give the invocation which will be followed by the High School Choir's rendition of "Everything's All Right" by Rice and Weber. The High School Band will continue the mood of jubilation with Jager's composition "March and Rondo."

Patricia Ball and Jeffrey Daniels, seniors picked by their classmates to give the commencement speeches, will then have the podium. Pat will speak on the past, present and future before Jeff asks to "Spare the Hot Air."

Then the graduating seniors will receive their diplomas. Presenting the sheepskins will be William Storey and Robert Schaffer of the Board of Education, Superintendent Charles Cameron and Chelsea High School principal Charles H. Lane. After the benediction by the Rev. Warner Siebert, the graduates will proceed out on their way to further education, jobs and families.

Debate Team Auction Lists Good Items

"I had expected people to use us to unload their junk," admitted Chelsea debate coach William Coelius this week, "but I would say that 75 percent of the items we collected last week-end are in excellent condition, and 25 percent are new!" The forecast is for an auction that will benefit both buyers and sellers.

The highlight of the auction, which begins at 11 a.m., Saturday, will come at 11:30 a.m. when a 1969 Mach 1 Mustang will be auctioned to the highest bidder. Coelius says this "real muscle car" is fully powered equipped with 390 cubic inch engine, power steering and power disc brakes. A special instrument panel and a spoiler make the jade green car particularly sporty.

Other finds at the auction will include appliances of all descriptions, toys, antiques, books, and miscellaneous items too numerous to mention. Village merchants have also donated new items to help the cause.

The auction is being held to raise money for the Chelsea High School debaters who want to attend debate clinics this summer. The debaters hope to pay two-thirds of the $150 each student needs to attend.

They hope to see you in front of McKune Memorial Library at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Sidewalk Sale Will Include An Art Fair

Chelsea merchants are expanding the yearly sidewalk sales to include an outdoor art fair. The event, called "Chelsea Sidewalk Festival" will be held Friday and Saturday, Aug. 10 and 11.

Plans include live music and special decorations to add to the festivity of the occasion. An ice cream social or a church supper are also possibilities for Friday night.

Area artists are invited to participate. A $10 entry fee will entitle the participant to a 10-foot display area assigned in the downtown district.

MARY'S LITTLE LAMB followed her to school one day; Steve Moore brought his the occasion was Pet Day, May 2, at Chelsea Co-op Nursery when all the children were allowed to bring their pets. Here Steven, left, feeds his lamb from a bottle while Kirk Eubanks, center, looks on, and Joel Rinn, right, feel the soft wool. Applications are still being accepted for the fall session. Mrs. Virginia Meyer is the teacher and mothers take turns assisting her at the nursery.

Senior Awards Presented Wednesday at Class Night

Senior Class Night, last night, was one of those emotion-packed evenings when the secret thirst for recognition is quenched for some of the deserving graduates. For the others, the High School Choir's selections from "The Wizard of Oz" were perfectly attuned to their excited sense of "we're off!"

The Chelsea High School Band launched the evening with a sprightly performance of "Pomp and Circumstance." The Cum Laude graduates deservedly topped the program. They were introduced by Chelsea High school principal Charles Lane. They are: Ronald Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Adams; Craig Alter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Alter; Elizabeth Belsler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Belsler; Gunilla Bohlin, Chelsea's Swedish exchange student staying with the Robert Koch family, who brought an impressive record with her;

Barbara Boylan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boylan; Phyllis Buss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buss; Eileen Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Evans; Carol Fairbrother, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fairbrother; Diane Klemmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Klemmer; John Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mann; Norman William Schaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schaffer.

Stephen Siebert, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Warner Siebert; Karen Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sullivan; Janet Wackenhut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Wackenhut; Mary Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood; and John Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young. George Bergman, Chelsea High school counselor, then announced the names of the many students receiving honorary and financial awards from the many scholarship funds. He noted that there are more scholarships being awarded this year than last.

The University Regents - Alumni Scholars were the first to be announced. They are Carol Ann Fairbrother, Diane Michaela Klemmer and John Randolph Young. They will enter the University of Michigan in the fall.

Dr. William Hawks, Jr., took the podium temporarily to announce the recipients of the Palmer Medical Scholarship for this year. They are Ronald J. Adams, who will attend Albion College, and Craig Brian Alter who will go to U. of M.

Of those who took the National Merit Scholarship test last fall, Ronald J. Adams received a Letter of Commendation. Carol Ann Fairbrother and Steven F. Worden each received Certificates of Merit for being National Merit Finalists. In addition, Steven became a National Merit Scholar. He received the William A. McHattie Merit Scholarship and will enter Michigan State University in the fall.

Diane Michaela Klemmer and Reatha M. Treado, who will attend Northern Michigan University, were the recipients of National Foundation of the March of Dimes Scholarships.

Eight Seek Election to Three Posts on School Board at Monday Vote

Polls Open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. for Board Election

The school board election will be Monday, June 11. The polls, located in the Large Group Instruction Room of Beach school, will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Three Injured In Separate Auto Crashes

Three area residents were injured in auto mishaps, Sunday, leaving two of them, Jon H. Schenk of 1715 Rank Rd. and James E. Kalishek of 518 Lane St., hospitalized at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Schenk remains in fair condition after losing control of his car on a curve on Old US-12 near Fahrner Rd. His car is reported to have gone into a sideways skid for 300 feet before sliding into a ditch and hitting a tree.

Kalishek, who is reported in good condition by hospital officials, was driving with his son, Bryan, on Island Lake Rd., near North Territorial Rd., when he lost control of the vehicle.

The accident is reported to have occurred when the older Kalishek attempted to close the door on his side of the car after it had come open.

Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputies said the car apparently swerved off the road and into a tree leaving Kalishek pinned between the door and door post.

Both Kalishek and his son were transported to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. Bryan has since been released.

Summer Band Program Will Start June 12

Youthful band members need not lose their touch during the summer season. There will be a Chelsea Grade School and Junior High Band Program, June 12 through July 13, to keep them in form.

Warren Mayer, band director, who is again in charge of the summer program, has announced that a $5 fee is required for all Grade School and Junior High School Band members for the summer session. The money may be paid any time between now and the start of the session. Checks should be made payable to the Chelsea schools.

Mayer is also hopeful of organizing a Community Band that would practice every Thursday evening at 7:30 at the high school. No charge would be required for this program which intends to draw high school and individuals not involved in a band program into a group. If the program is a success, the group would put on Friday evening concerts in the Municipal Parking Lot.

Starting June 12, the schedule for grade school and junior high school students will be: 8th grade band, 7:30 to 8:30 a.m.; 7th grade band, 8:45 to 9:45 a.m.; 6th grade french horns, 10 to 10:45 a.m.; 6th grade saxophones and oboes, 10:45 to 11:30 a.m.; 6th grade flutes, 11:30 to 12:15 p.m.; 6th grade clarinets, 1 to 1:45 p.m.; 6th grade cornets, 1:45 to 2:30 p.m.; 6th grade trombones, 2:30 to 3:15 p.m.; 6th grade percussion, 3:15 to 4 p.m.

From 4 to 4:45 a make-up class for 6th graders will be held for those students who could not attend their scheduled class because

The eight candidates who will be vying, June 11, for two four-year and a one-year term on the Chelsea Board of Education were asked by The Standard last week to respond to three questions: 1) What are your thoughts on the school board's recent transfer of principals? 2) Should Chelsea School District participate in a county-wide vocational training program operated by the Washtenaw County Intermediate School District, or should it develop an expanded local program or continue offering the existing curriculum? 3) What are your reasons and qualifications for wanting to serve as a member of the Board of Education?

William F. Storey . . .

The other incumbent is William F. Storey, currently Chelsea Board of Education president. A communications consultant for Michigan Bell Telephone, Storey has two children now in the school system. Another is a Chelsea High school graduate.

An MSU graduate and a retired major in the Marine Reserves, Storey is 50 and has lived in Chelsea since 1950. His address is 216 Jefferson.

"As an incumbent on the present School Board," says Storey, "I approve of the unanimous action taken by the board in the transfer of principals."

He believes, "Chelsea School District should develop and implement an expanded local program for vocational education, supplemented by use of existing programs and facilities of the Washtenaw Community College which have already been paid for by the taxpayers of the county. This plan retains local control and responsibility for our students' learning experience."

In answer to the third question, Storey says, "In my opinion, the requirements for a board member are: Accountability for student

FOOD FANTASIES IN PRINT: Mrs. Judy Parker's art students put their love of good food to work inspiring illustrations for the soon-to-be-published cookbook authored by Modern Mothers Child Study Club. Nell Cockerline and Michelle Ziegler, sitting in front, won the contest and took home $5 prizes. Michelle's sketch will appear on the cover of the book printed with Nell's title.

"Recipes You Have Always Wanted . . . but were afraid to ask for." Other winners, who received passes to the "Mini-Putt" for the illustrations of divider pages, are from left, Judi Pennington, Delain Seitz, Tina Sindlinger, Sue Mann, Becky Kraai, Jeff Polchit, and Len Hafner. Mrs. Parker is on the right. (See story on page 18.)

PROTECTION: Mrs. Richard Slater and son made the trip to Chelsea Fire Department last Saturday to get an Operation Red Ball sticker from Fire Chief James Gaken. The sticker will be placed in the youngster's bedroom window so that in case of fire, the firemen will know where to begin their rescue operations. The Chelsea Fire Department and the Chelsea Jaycees are sponsoring Operation Red Ball in Chelsea. The Fire Department will be manned again, Saturday, so that concerned adults can protect the children or invalids in their care with the red stickers.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR: The federal final has got around to picking at the Watergate lock and dealing with such crooked matters of public interest. After they studied the situation up one side and down the other at the country store Saturday night, all I can report is they didn't do nobody's credit—gave any good which I figger putter them right up there with the other experts.

It was Democrat Clem Webster that brought up the subject. He said from what he reads in the papers it's clear that President Nixon didn't have a thing to do with the break-ins or the shady money dealings. Clem allowed that when all that happened the President can prove he was somewhere else. Nixon has got a airtight alibi, declared Clem, cause he's allus somewhere else. If you keep count of the time he spends in his White Houses in Florida and California, Clem said, not to mention riding around in boats working up real estate deals and resting at Camp David, they ain't no way the President could spend eight hours in Washington's White House to plant any bugs or work up a break-in.

Zeke Grubb was agreed with Clem on the President's alibi but he was of a mind that the whole deal is just another case of the mice playing while the cat's away. Zeke said them boys Nixon hired to run the Government while him and Bamboozle was buying up Florida must of stuck cheese in every cubbyhole in Washington. Clem said as far as he is concerned they is a pritty thin line between blame and responsibility.

and he allowed he don't know of a single case where a college football team kept losing and they fired the players.

Even Ed Doolittle, that carries Abe Lincoln's picture in the back of his watch, was agreed that the idea that all's fair in war and politics has been took to far. Ed said he was of a mind the Republicans caught up in all these shady doings are using the same plan to fight Democrats they use agin communists and other enemies. They got the notion, Ed said, that it's all right to do anything they can to save the country from another political party.

Furthermore, declared Ed, he figgers them break-ins was not to find out what the Democrats were up to, but to learn what the Democrats had on the Republicans. They couldn't be after money, Ed said, cause they already had all of that.

Final, Mister Editor, Bug Hookum broke in to report where the FBI says a higher per cent of country folks are crooks than city folks. Bug said he would go one better and declare the per cent of crooks is higher in the FBI than anywhere in the country, excepting the CIA.

Personal, Mister Editor, I'm agreed with Bug. And the way things is going, the FBI and CIA is setting a good example that crime don't pay.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Abortion Still Debated

The abortion issue is far from settled despite the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling that abortion cannot be outlawed in the United States. The highly controversial subject still is debated.

The final determination that it is legal has produced other problems. For example, should a doctor or nurse who believes abortion is murder be forced to take part in such an operation?

Legislation guaranteeing any medical facility or person the right to refuse to participate in an abortion already has passed the Senate and appears sure of legislative approval. Its backers hold that persons with a strong moral objection to abortion should not be subject to any penalties for refusing to participate.

The issue simply isn't that simple.

Some people feel such legislation might have the effect of depriving a woman of an abortion when the nation's highest court has ruled she has the right to have one if she wants it.

Nancy Hammond of the Michigan Women's political caucus said such bills "in effect give publicly-funded institutions the right to deny medical services to women in Michigan on religious grounds without regard for their constitutional rights."

It's impossible to resolve the question to the satisfaction of everyone involved because it is such an emotional issue and people on both sides are convinced they are right.

Backers of abortion are firmly convinced the operation does not constitute "murder" of the embryo since it is at a stage where it is unable to sustain itself outside mother. They do not concede human life begins at the moment of conception.

Opponents feel just the opposite. It's an issue, in other words, that may figger for a long time with neither side convincing the other.

Otherwise, he said, when it was decided to repeal prohibition, it wouldn't have been necessary for congress and the state legislature to pass a repeal amendment.

Kelley's ruling didn't convince all the members of the legislature and a few say they'll keep trying to rescind the approval anyway.

Rep. Josephine Hunsinger, D-Detroit, the lawmaker who originally asked for Kelley's opinion, said she'd ignore it because "I believe that there is a substantial legal doubt in his opinion."

Senior Awards Are Presented At Class Night

Senior Awards were presented at a class night held at the Chelsea High School on Wednesday evening, June 6.

The awards were presented by the Chelsea Scholarship Committee, which was organized to honor the recipients of the Chelsea Scholarship.

Each of these winners received a $50 bond.

After a break for the High School Band's presentation of "American Civil War Fantasy" by Jack, a variety of non-academic awards were given.

Mrs. Ann O'Hagen passed out the homecoming awards that went to three girls: Karen Sullivan, Betty Crocker Award; Mary Beth Chandler, the Civic Award; and Sally Gacken, the Sittling Silver Award.

Mrs. Philip Baris announced Carol Dorte as the recipient of the DAR Good Citizenship Award and William Coelius presented Robert Schneider, Jr. with the speech award.

David Klosser, Jennifer Lane and Ann Merkel were the students elected by the junior class to receive the American Legion Award of Merit presented by Herbert J. McKune Post No. 31. The John Phillip Sousa Award, presented by Warren Mayer, went to Norman "Bill" Schaler.

As the evening drew to a close, Miss Lynn Williams announced that Barbara Boylan had been selected as "the most representative girl." Philip Baris announced Jeffrey Daniels as "the most representative boy."

Finally, Mary Beth Chandler, editor of Chelsea's 1973 year book, announced the dedication. This year's book goes to Mrs. Marjorie Plumb and George Bergman for their service to the student body.

Stereo Units Stolen from Mobile Homes

Lloyd Bridges Traveland was robbed of over $1,000 in stereo equipment during the night of June 3. The stereos were taken from six motor homes parked at the Traveland facility.

Manager Ernie Marcotte reported the loss the next morning. Officers Roger Graves and Lenard McDougall found no evidence of breaking and entering on any of the vehicles. They surmise the culprit had a key. Their investigation and search for fingerprints has so far yielded nothing.

TODAY'S THOUGHT
By LOUIS BURGHARDT
Lots of people strive for and glory in a stunning status symbol. Other people, equally proud, have a sad status. For some families, a status symbol is a heritage given in the cradle, released at the grave. A status symbol is an accomplishment. However, a moral stature linked to the material status is far more important. Surely all good people will agree moral stature should overshadow material status. A status symbol is a fragile possession. Bad judgment, bad breaks, bad behavior - even other people can crash a status symbol to smithereens. A moral stature is not so fragile. You can destroy it of course, but no one else can destroy it for you. A status symbol is a part of the world. Moral stature is a part of the person. This is another way of pointing out, "We are in the world - we are not of the world." BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone 475-1551.

Youngest Graduate on His Way to Career in Medicine

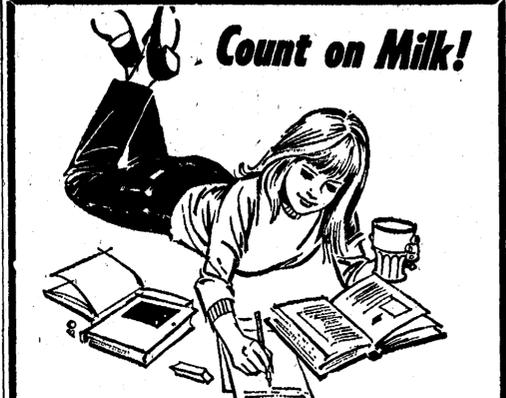

For Steve Siebert and many other members of the class of '73, Friday evening will mark the end of a very special period in his life, a prelude spent in stretching his energies and interests to new limits. Like many others, Steve was successful, but his success in one respect is unusual. This graduate is 16 years old. The son of the Rev. Warner and Mrs. Siebert, Steve skipped kindergarten and second grade. He will enter Kalamazoo College in the fall, sped on his way to a medical career with grants and loans from three different sources. His outstanding academic record coupled with financial need earned a four-year scholarship package from Kalamazoo that nearly covers the total cost of tuition through loans, grants and a promise of a 10-hour-a-week job on campus. Some of the monies in this package were freed for use by other worthy Kalamazoo freshmen when Steve was awarded one of the most generous scholarships from the Michigan Competitive Scholarship program. He will receive $1,200 a year from this source. His third scholarship came from the George Pullman Education Foundation, an Illinois-based program designed to finance the education of Pullman Co. dependents. Steve was considered for the monies in this fund because both his great-grandfathers on his mother's side were Pullman Co. employees. His mother went through Elmhurst College, where she met her husband, on the same scholarship. Steve's exceptional credentials apparently overshadowed the fact that he is two generations removed from the company and no longer living in Illinois. While Steve was achieving Cum Laude standing with a cumulative A- average, he was also busy with many other activities, including being church caretaker one summer, working a paper route, and now working at Chelsea Lumber Co. His youthfulness did not keep him from competing admirably in sports with fellows two years his senior. He was a three-year participant in wrestling and baseball. This season, at the last minute, he decided to try his hand at tennis and came away with a letter in that sport. Steve's musical proclivity has been demonstrated both on the piano and the organ. He has received instruction in the latter instrument at the hands of Truoke Amegh, St. Paul's organist, and has occasionally filled in for her as a guest organist at the church. Steve also admits to fiddling occasionally with a bass violin. As a health science major next year, Steve is not certain he will have time to pursue all these interests but he does hope to continue playing the organ, if only for his personal pleasure. "Perhaps I'll join a music group at college," he says, "but as I kept going it got less and less noticeable." He says without hesitation that there have been more positive than negative consequences from that distant decision to let him surge ahead. Now the irritations such as not having a drivers' license when his friends do, hardly disturb him. He's on his way in spite of them.

Construction of a dance hall addition to the Inverness Inn was stalled again last week by the Dexter Township Zoning Board. After a public hearing, May 31, the board refused to act on the request for a conditional use permit until all the required information is assembled. The site plan, as required by law, had been submitted, but according to zoning board secretary Tom Ehman, it failed to meet specifications of the township's zoning ordinance. Another hearing will be held June 27. Inn owners want to enlarge their establishment at 13996 North Territorial Rd. in order to accommodate entertainment. Construction on the addition, which has already begun, was halted temporarily last month with a restraining order. The suit claimed that an addition to the inn, which represents a non-conforming use in a rural residential district according to the township's 1981 zoning ordinance, would be in violation of the ordinance. A hearing, June 7, in Washtenaw County Circuit Court will determine if a restraining order should be re-issued. Judge Edward Deake rescinded the restraining order, May 9, after hearing testimony from both sides. The proper shoe is very important for growing children. A birth baby's foot is composed of masses of soft cartilage with only one developed bone in his heel. It takes about twenty years for his feet to fully develop.

Conviction Closes Case of Body Found Near Silver Lake

On May 12 of last year the body of an unidentified woman was found off Silver Hill Rd., near Silver Lake in Dexter township. Last week the case concluded in Detroit Recorder's Court with the conviction of Michael Stanek of Detroit for manslaughter. The woman, who was identified as Darlene A. McClellan, remained unidentified in the University Hospital morgue in Ann Arbor for several days. Dr. Paul Gikas, a deputy medical examiner from Ann Arbor, said that death was caused by a severe blow at the back of the head. Detective Sgt. Harold Kerr of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department conducted the major part of the investigation before it was learned that the murder was actually committed in a parking lot outside of a Detroit bar. Attorney General Frank Kelley then ruled that venue in the case was Wayne county, not Washtenaw. Investigators said Stanek and Miss McClellan had been dating steadily since Stanek was discharged from the army after serving in Vietnam. They said an argument occurred in a bar parking lot when Miss McClellan decided to end the relationship. During the argument, Stanek inflicted the fatal head injury. The weapon used was never found, although investigators say Stanek possibly used his fist. After the killing, detectives say Stanek loaded the body into the trunk of his car and drove to his factory job in Wayne. He worked his regular shift then drove to Silver Lake and dumped the partially-clad body on a grassy knoll a short distance from the road. Stanek, 19, has been given a 25-to-40 year sentence in Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson. A jury found him guilty after three hours of deliberation.

College Week Class Will Offer Strip Tease in Reverse - Would you believe a strip-tease in reverse? That's how Betty Austin describes the clothing class she will teach at College Week for Women June 18-21 at Michigan State University. "What I'll be doing," she explains, "is starting with a basic outfit—a simple dress or a pants suit—and applying the principles of good design to build a wardrobe around it." "The class will provide tips for the woman who likes to look well dressed," she says. "And that's all of us, whether we're trying to dress well on a limited budget or traveling and having to get by with just what we can carry in a suitcase. For information on other classes and registration, contact Helen Fairman, Extension Home Economist.

DEAR FRIENDS... It is my sincere desire to see each and everyone of you in my office. I know you have heard a lot of things about Chiropractic and you're not sure if you should try it or not. You're still sick and you're not getting any better. In fact some of you are getting worse. D. R. ELWART, D.C. Health to most of you is confusion and you would rather put your health in the hands of someone you think will take care of it. We are literally a sick nation. Here in this community we find people who must give up their jobs and life's work because their bodies are sick. The sad thing about it, is it is needless — because they stopped looking for an answer to their problems when their doctor told them they would have to live with it. I wish all of you who are afraid to come to us could listen and talk to our patients and hear some of the trials and tribulations they had before they tried Chiropractic. They now know that their suffering was needless. Many have brought in their families so they wouldn't have to suffer needlessly when they get older. We don't claim to heal — only your body heals — but it can't if it is interfered with. When a bone (vertebra) pinches a soft nerve (spinal nerve root) it interferes with your body and shuts off life to a part or all of you and you get sick — EVERY TIME — we as Chiropractors take the vertebra (bone) off the soft nerve — and your body does the healing — EVERY TIME. Don't wait till you get sicker, c'mon in right now. Don't even wait till Monday to call — Time is Life. We are doing everything possible to make Chiropractic available to you. Give your body a chance for a change — Let us show you how you can have better health through Chiropractic. We want to see you well just as bad as you want to be well. Call us today and get back on the road to health. Yours in Life, Dr. D. R. Elwart, Chiropractor. WE ACCEPT ALL PEOPLE REGARDLESS OF CONDITION OF FINANCIAL ABILITY TO PAY. 7970 Clark Lake Rd., Chelsea, Michigan. Call 475-7683

Vocational Education To Be Studied

A special Chelsea Board of Education meeting focusing on vocational education has been scheduled for Monday evening, June 11, at 7:30 in the Beach Middle School library. The public is urged to attend.

The purpose of the meeting is to resolve what responsibility Chelsea School District, Washtenaw Intermediate School District and the Washtenaw Community College have in providing career and vocational education.

The principal speaker will be Dr. Ralph C. Wenrich, who is professor and chairman of the Occupational Education Program in University of Michigan's School of Education.

Also present, in addition to Chelsea citizens and Board of Education members, will be representatives from Washtenaw Intermediate School District and Washtenaw Community College.

Chelsea School Board election results will be known after this meeting, which is sponsored by the Ad Hoc Committee on vocational education.

The Standard erroneously failed to cite David Klemmer as Memorial Day speaker in last week's coverage of the event.

Stolen Tent Recovered as Teen Hideout

The large tent stolen from Patrick Milliken's yard, 600 Taylor St., May 27, was recovered last week, May 30, pitched in the woods near the Chelsea Fairgrounds. Allen Machnik, who was apprehended returning to the tent to spend the night, has pled guilty to possession of stolen property.

The discovery of the stolen tent came about after a citizen informed Chelsea Police Officer Roger Graves that a tent fitting the description of the stolen article had been erected in the woods west of Old Chelsea-Manchester Rd. After further investigation, Graves reports that, dressed in civilian clothes, he positioned himself in the woods and waited for the occupants to return.

While waiting, he apprehended a juvenile who reportedly said he had come to the scene to visit friends staying in the tent. The youth was returned to his father after being questioned about the theft of the tent.

At approximately 8:45 p.m., according to police records, Graves apprehended two more individuals, William Eric Bury, 18, of Bramble Brae and Donald Gene Arnett, 17, of Hadley Rd., both of Gregory, who had come to the tent drinking beer.

The youths were questioned about the tent and arrested. Arnett was charged with being a minor in possession of alcohol and Bury was charged with furnishing that alcohol.

They were conveyed to Washtenaw County Jail where Arnett posted $50 bond. He will appear in 14th District Court June 20. Bury, unable to post bond, remained in jail until the next day when he pled guilty in 14th District Court to furnishing alcohol to a minor. He was fined $50 and placed on six months probation.

At 11:10 a.m., May 30, Machnik arrived at the tent where Graves arrested him for possession of stolen property. He pled guilty to the charge, May 31, in 14th District Court and was fined $75 fines and costs and placed on six months probation.

Milliken identified the tent as the one stolen from his yard and has claimed it.

Stay Off the Grass on Newly-Seeded Ballfields

"Stay off the grass" is the request of the Chelsea Area Recreation Council when anyone gets near the new ballfields at South school. The recent addition of two new baseball diamonds and the seeding of their outfields is the latest project of the council. They are requesting that teams not use the fields until the grass has time to establish good roots. Once the new turf is well rooted, the fields will receive heavy use from many area sports enthusiasts with the council's blessing.

BOUNTIFUL NATURE: Mary Spencer, a member of Mrs. Alice Steinbach's 8th grade science class, has found that the world around her is full of good things to eat. As part of her independent study project she collected and raised approximately 35 plants found in this area which are full of nutrition. While describing the plants and how to prepare them to her classmates, she offered samples. In addition to such familiar wild treats as sassafras, dandelions and mushrooms, Mary suggested thistle, milkweed, and burdock shoots. She is shown here with part of her collection.

Eighth Grader Finds Way To Beat High Cost of Living

Is it the high price of food that's got you down? Or is it the thought of all those preservatives and nutritionless processed foods that makes you want to gag? Before you give up eating, listen to the menu ideas offered by Mary Spencer, Beach school 8th grader.

Why not brighten that salad with violets, stems and all? They are as nutritional as they are pretty. Try the inner stalks of thistle instead of celery. If your children won't eat spinach, try cooked nettles. Just don't forget to wear gloves when collecting them for the evening's meal.

Mary's list goes on. Burdock shoots are as versatile and tasty as waterchestnuts (and much less expensive!) when cooked. Cooked yellow rocket is much like broccoli. Even the young shoots and newly-formed pods of milkweed are good.

For your sweet tooth, she offers jellies made from may apple and hawthorn berries. The latter make good tea as does sassafras. But you can have your tea and eat it too, says Mary, if you use cat-nip. Boil the leaves for tea and the entire concoction is edible.

Mary's knowledge of edible plants was gleaned while doing an independent study project for Mrs. Alice Steinbach's science course. She shared her discoveries with her fascinated classmates by bringing in examples of the many plants she'd found and raised. All of them grow wild in the area. Her talk was spiced with samples for her audience to try.

research by an expert on the subject, Mrs. Ellen Weatherbee of Ann Arbor, seasoned her food suggestions with some sage advice.

Don't nibble on plants you find in the wild unless you are sure they are edible. While foraging for these goodies, don't become so engrossed in your search that you forget to notice where you're going. If you get lost, your search may take on an unpleasant urgency.

Watch too that you don't do damage to the environment, urges Mary. Be certain not to uproot protected plants and watch not to trudge on nesting birds.

She also suggests sensible clothing to wear while trekking through the underbrush and urges foragers to avoid poisonous plants and questionable water supplies.

Mary's talk and exhibit of approximately 35 different plants was received with such enthusiasm by her classmates that she was asked to speak to five other science classes. Mrs. Steinbach says that several students liked the natural foods enough to talk their mothers into serving them.

Who knows, perhaps Mary has started a diet revolution of her own. Move over, Euell Gibbons.

Lima Township Board Asks For Parker Rd. Resurfacing

Township business at Monday night's Lima Township Board meeting included the passage of two resolutions and a decision to call for public comment on the historical character of the township.

The board also resolved to support the efforts of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners' Public Works Committee, which is holding funds from HCMA.

The board accepted a grant from America the Beautiful fund to finance a study of the historical character of the township by two graduate students from the Department of Landscape Architecture, University of Michigan.

Like before it was converted to the town hall. Although the modest sum that has been allocated to renovation at this time is not enough to restore the building to its original appearance, the board hopes to outline a plan that would allow a slow restoration over a long period of time.

The township voted to renew its membership in the Association of Townships and Ed Coy, township supervisor, reported on the recent meeting of the Association of Township Supervisors.

The hearing will be held in Detroit's City-County Building, on the 13th floor, in the auditorium.

Speak Up Now To Help Keep State's High Quality Hot Dogs

Just as the issue for lovers of hot dogs, sausage and bologna is about an eight-cent stamp to us the federal congress know that Michigan should keep the right to have high meat ingredient standards, said B. Dale Hall, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Michigan Senator Robert Griffin has proposed an amendment to the federal meat law, Senate Bill 991, that would allow states to have meat ingredient standards higher than the federal minimum standards.

Hall urged everyone who supports Michigan's high standards to contact the Senate subcommittee before its June 14 hearing on the bill. Chairman of the Senate subcommittee on Agricultural Research and General Legislation is Senator James B. Allen of Alabama.

Other members of the subcommittee are Senator Henry Bellmon (Oklahoma), Richard Clark (Iowa), Robert Dole (Kansas), James O. Eastland (Mississippi), George McGovern (South Dakota), Milton R. Young (North Dakota). They may be reached at the Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C.

Michigan's hot dog standards suffered a severe setback recently in a case brought against the state by three large out-of-state meat packing firms, Armour, Wilson and Hormel.

Federal courts supported the meat firms' claim that the federal meat law did not allow states to have high ingredient standards such as Michigan's. The federal meat law allows a wide range of animal by-products to be ground into sausages, hot dogs and other comminuted meat products. Michigan's 20-year old standard allows only fresh skeletal meat.

Senator Griffin's bill, S. B. 991, would change the working of the federal Wholesome Meat Law of 1907 to allow any state to have standards more stringent than the federal minimum standards.

New Farm Wheat Allotment for '74

A new farm wheat allotment may be established for the 1974 crop of wheat acreage for farms that did not have a 1973 allotment, if they meet eligibility requirements, Raymond Girbach, chairman of the Washtenaw County ASC Committee announced today.

MCRC, Lima Share Grievances Against HCMA

Representatives from Mill Creek Research Council and Lima township carried their resentment of the planning techniques used by Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority to Wayne county, May 30. They were heard by a sympathetic audience.

The Public Works Committee of Wayne County Board of Commissioners invited the delegation to share with them their experiences with HCMA. Wayne county is currently attempting to pressure HCMA into developing a park in that area. The board of commissioners has voted to withhold its share of HCMA contributions until it is given assurances that some of the money will be spent "at home." The resolution is now being reconsidered.

The invitation, which came in response to support of that resolution voiced in a letter from the council, was accepted by six council members and Lima township administrative assistant, Allen Dines.

Dave Bacon and Dines were the principal speakers for the local delegation. They recounted their grievances and stated that they, too, wanted a better shake from HCMA. They praised Wayne county for attempting to make HCMA instigate a different planning policy.

School Board Briefs

Attending the regular Board of Education meeting, Monday, were board members Haselschwardt, Schafer, Straub, Hopkins, Irwin, and Storey. Superintendent Cameron, Business Manager Mills, Principals Lane, Conklin, Benedict, Assistant Principal Lapanowski and Attorney Flintoft also attended. Several guests were also present.

The board accepted the business manager's recommendation to extend the present contract with Gulf Oil Corp. for gasoline for the school buses. The extension was negotiated for six months at 18 cents per gallon. The previous rate had been 11.84 cents a gallon. The business manager was directed to increase the gasoline storage capacity in the most economical manner possible. The capacity at the present time is 6,000 gallons a month.

The board signed the contract with Tom Baillstrey for 1973-74. Baillstrey will be the varsity basketball coach and teach physical education.

George Palmer reported on the progress of the Vocational Education Advisory Committee.

Mrs. Ann Schaffner, representing the Chelsea Area Recreation Council, said that the council is ready to install tennis courts at North school.

Edward Brown of the Building and Site Advisory committee requested that any action on the placement of tennis courts be deferred until the committee completes its study.

The board tabled action on placement of the courts until the first meeting in July.

Luther Kusterer and Louis Burghardt, representing the Kiwanis Club, informed the board that the club has made $2,000 available toward the cost of installation of bleachers at the high school football field. The board will discuss the possibility of bleachers in relation to the 1973-74 budget at a later date. It will take at least $6,000 of school district money, in addition to the Kiwanis contribution, to complete the project.

The board requested that the Ad Hoc Committee considering the number of periods in the high school day for 1973-74 report to the board by June 18.

The meeting was adjourned at 11 p.m.

Resurfacing Authorized on Area Roads

Nearly 660 miles of state highways throughout Michigan will be resurfaced in the year beginning July 1, the State Highway Commission has announced.

This extensive resurfacing program is necessitated in large part by increased use of tungsten carbide studs in tires, which wear roadway surfaces 100 times faster than conventional tires, and normal wear.

Roadways in the Chelsea area due for a face-lift include the westbound lane of I-94, 7.7 miles from a point near Race Rd., east to Kalmbach Rd. This project alone will require approximately $450,000.

M-52, six miles from the Penn Central Railroad in Chelsea, north to a point four-tenths mile north of North Territorial Rd. in Washenaw county, will be resurfaced to the tune of $270,000.

Another section of M-52, 6.3 miles from US-12 north to the Manchester east limit will be improved. That project has been estimated at a cost of $220,000.

In addition to resurfacing, the Commission has also authorized spot patching on 25 state highways, and resurfacing of numerous bridge decks, roadside parks and roadside shoulders.

Limited funds permit resurfacing only of highways showing most critical surface conditions, of about 30 percent of those showing more than average surface deterioration.

The 128 projects in the year-long program will cost an estimated $26 million, to be financed entirely with state funds.

Vinegar today is known in almost every land and its uses have multiplied through the years.

The Safety Valve

Question: We're loading our trailer and taking a bunch of gear up to the cottage for the summer. Does the weight of the trailer or load affect the speed at which the trailer may be towed? K. O. Z., New Buffalo.

Answer: Yes. The law says no passenger vehicle drawing another vehicle or trailer shall exceed a speed of 50 miles per hour unless the vehicle or trailer is two wheels or less and does not exceed the combined weight of 750 pounds for the vehicle or trailer and load (being hauled). So, if you pack enough in that trailer, you'll have to stick to the 50 mph limit.

Question: Will the weight of the supplies and equipment I put in my trailer affect the speed at which I can legally haul it with my family car? K. O. Z., New Buffalo.

Answer: In the case of the trailer...
