

WORKING TOGETHER: The congregation of Zion Lutheran church, which worked together to plan a new church, worked together last Sunday to break ground for the project. Pastor John North directed the plow while the entire assembly joined in pulling it. The event concluded Sunday's worship service and began work on the construction that will result in a new sanctuary, capable of seating more than 280 church-goers, and 22 classrooms. The new structure will be built around the existing parish hall, across the street from the old church, built 106 years ago. The new church will be finished in a year.

STOKING THE ENGINE: The newest attraction at Don Irwin's old-fashioned harvest last Saturday was the oldest specimen there, a steam tractor built in 1913. Its 40 h.p. was enough to run the long belts that propelled the old grain separator. It takes approximately three hours for such a steam engine to get up steam and once working, it must be continually refueled. In the lower left corner Melvin Fox, the owner of the bright green beauty, from Napoleon, is seen adding more fuel to the fire. He sat atop the engine most of the afternoon, bouncing with pride.

Death Takes Businessman Leigh Palmer

Leigh G. Palmer, a distinguished Chelsea businessman and life-long resident, died July 24 at Chelsea Methodist Home. He had resided at 74 Cavanaugh Lake.

Mr. Palmer was the Ford dealer in Chelsea for more than 60 years. At the time of his death, at the age of 91, he was the oldest dealer in the state of Michigan.

Born to Dr. George W. and Ida Collins Palmer April 10, 1882, he graduated from Chelsea High school in 1899. He then went on to graduate from the University of Michigan Literary school in 1904 and the engineering school there in 1905.

As a civil engineer, he was instrumental in laying out some of the streets in the village and he worked on the Michigan Central Railroad tunnel to Windsor.

Mr. Palmer, a charter member of the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, married Lois Stokoe Oct. 30, 1926. She survives. He is also survived by his son George of Chelsea; a daughter, Mrs. James (Mary) Becker of Miami, Fla.; one sister, Miss Florence Palmer of Detroit; and four grandchildren, Chris and Anne Becker, and Susan and Carol Palmer.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Sally, in 1927 and a brother, Dr. A. A. Palmer, in 1971.

Gravestone services will be Thursday, today, at 1 p.m. at Oak Grove Cemetery. The Rev. George P. Stanford will officiate. Arrangements were by Staffan Funeral Home.

The Palmer family will receive friends at 74 Cavanaugh Lake after the services.

St. Mary's High school graduating class of 1923 had a 50th anniversary reunion Tuesday night over dinner at Schumm's restaurant. Two members, Edward Eder and Margaret Canfield Klan, are deceased, but the rest of the class met to prove that it wasn't so long ago after all.

Members of the class attending the reunion are Mrs. Clifford (Lucille Liebeck) Loos, Ruth Liebeck, Paul Hoffman, L. D. Gulnan and Kenneth Schanz.

Lima Township Hall Will Be Renovated

Virginia Denham and Art Lindauer, a committee of two appointed by the Lima Township Board to look into possible improvements on the township hall, met last Thursday and decided that new lighting will be the first project.

Renovation of the structure will be carried out over a long period of time because of limited funds, but the committee intends that, even if it is piece-meal, the project will preserve the historical character of the old building.

The new light fixtures, for example, while providing good light, will not appear glaringly modern, or so the committee hopes.

All individuals who have any knowledge or documents concerning the architecture of the structure as it originally appeared when it was a church, are asked to contact Virginia Denham at 682-5240. Old photographs in particular are sought.

In connection with preserving the historical character of the building, the old township documents and state publications found moldering in the basement of the township hall are being added to township files.

Allen Dines, administrative assistant for planning and recreation, explains that making these old documents available to township residents at the township hall is consistent with the township plan to keep Lima's history alive.

Currently the records are being aired out and examined by experts to determine their value.

Fiddler on the Roof Opens Next Thursday

"There's only a week to go," is the refrain that is going through the minds of the cast of "Fiddler on the Roof." It should also be playing in the minds of residents who want to make a date to see the production.

Opening night is a week from tonight, Thursday, and there are still lots of seats left. Those who wish may also secure tickets for Friday and Saturday performances but they are going fast.

The costumes arrived this week and dress rehearsals have begun. The excitement and anticipation is mounting as the finishing touches are applied by set designers, actors and dancers alike. The production: "A professional job."

Wheat Harvest Very 'Spotty' Across County

It's wheat harvest time, and although it may be too early to know the final yield, predictions about this year's crop are coming in.

According to Bill Ames, extension agriculture agent, a good portion of the county crop has already been harvested because farmers "made good use of the weather the last few weeks." He adds that the yield has been "spotty."

"The wet weather in the spring, and during the entire year, in fact, cut the yield to 30 or 40 bushels an acre in some places but they're getting 60 bushels in others. It depends where you are," he says. In a good year, those most fertile fields yield as much as 70 bushels an acre.

The early county statistics are echoed locally, according to Lester Hall, a farmer who reports that area men are "hitting about 40 bushels or a wee bit less per acre." He said Monday that about 50 percent of the local crop was in.

The first load of wheat arrived at Honegger's & Co., July 13. From what he's seen so far, Jerry Heydlauff, elevator operator there, predicts they'll be hard pressed to reach their 100,000 bushel goal.

"The harvest is definitely short but the quality, in general, is good," said Heydlauff Monday. He had not seen the grain that would be coming in this week after last week-end's down-pour, but he expected the test weight would be effected. Quality usually diminishes when rain interrupts harvesting.

Chelsea Milling Co. started taking in grain July 16 and saw a relatively small sample before the rains came. The quality of that grain, says Dudley Holmes, is only satisfactory. "It's not the best but it's not the worst we've seen; call it average," he said. Holmes stresses that it is too early to say much about what the yield will be. "Ask me in September when we have the facts," he says. He does say, however, that Michigan is predicted to produce about as much grain as it did a year ago while Indiana and Ohio

WHAT IS ART? Eve Policht (left), Robert Merkel and Pat Dittmar, as members of the jury for the first Chelsea Art Fair, are continually asking themselves that question as they review the samples of workmanship that are submitted to be considered for the fair. All art work displayed in booths along Main St. during Sidewalk Sale days, Aug. 10 and 11, must first be approved by the jury.

Fair Queen Hopefuls Need No Sponsors

With little more than a month to go, preparations for this year's Chelsea Community Fair are beginning. The process of picking Chelsea's Fair Queen, one of the most traditional elements in the festivities, is underway.

This year the Chelsea Jaycees Auxiliary will plan the Queen Pageant, the highlight of the first night of the fair, Aug. 28. Candidates are to register with Judy Eubanks at 475-2382.

As in the past, all community organizations and clubs are urged to sponsor a Queen candidate but this year individuals may register without sponsorship.

Mrs. Art Steinaway explains that the change of policy has come about because of the drop in candidate sponsorship in the last few years. "We used to get as many as 12 candidates," she says, "but now we're lucky if six or eight organizations sponsor a girl. I'm not sure what the reason is."

The Auxiliary is thinking of attaching a patriotic theme to the pageant this year, but they have not decided upon the particulars.

Tuesday, the first day of the fair, will be a busy one for the Queen candidates. They will be guests of honor at a tea in the afternoon and will then ride in convertibles in the evening Kiddies Parade. The pageant will follow. The judges, of course, will be from out of town.

Although only one of the candidates will be asked to participate in handing out ribbons and prizes during the five days of community fair events. They will also receive gifts from local merchants.

Art Festival Planned With Sidewalk Sale

Those who didn't get their fill of shopping for hand-made items at the Ann Arbor Art Fair last week may have another go at it right here in Chelsea, Aug. 10 and 11.

The local sidewalk sales held annually will be set out this year in connection with an art festival. Already 30 artisans have been accepted by the festival jury. After paying a $10 entry fee, they will be allowed to display their work in 10-foot spaces along Main St.

Mrs. Pat Dittmar, who has been very active in recruiting artists for this first art festival in Chelsea, says she had hoped to see all the 94 display areas filled with craftsmen. "We're going to have a nice little exhibit, although I had wanted 80 or 90 displays," she says, "but the merchants are pleased with what we have." Reservations for display areas will be accepted through Aug. 3.

Chelsea's merchants will be well represented during the event with bargains both inside and out. They will be entitled to space in front of their stores while the artists will be assigned somewhere in between.

Non-profit organizations, such as churches and scouting troops, will be allowed as they have in the past to set up booths on the sidewalks during the sales. However, they should check with Mrs. Dittmar as soon as possible to make sure their spot hasn't been taken.

Missouri Plane Crash Claims Mrs. W. Cordin

It was less than a year ago that the Walter Cordin family was among the passengers of a Delta Airlines passenger plane that was hijacked between Detroit and Miami. They emerged from that terrifying experience unharmed only to meet tragedy in the skies over St. Louis Monday night.

Mrs. Doris Cordin perished and her two youngest daughters, Nikki, 12, and Tamara, 7, suffered injuries in the crash of an Ozark Airlines plane that took the lives of 36 persons. Witnesses said the plane was struck by lightning in the midst of a severe storm.

Walter Cordin and 15-year-old Laura, a cheerleader at Chelsea High school, had remained in Chelsea and were not on the fatal flight. They were notified of the tragedy late Monday night and were told only that young Tamara was alive. They left Tuesday morning for St. Louis.

Nikki has since been listed in critical condition at Barnes Hospital. She was transferred to the intensive care unit there from St. Louis Children's Hospital. Tamara is in good condition at Cardinal Glennon Hospital. There were only five other survivors.

All three Cordin girls have attended Chelsea schools since their family moved to the area from Dearborn five years ago. Laura has been employed as a car hop at Chelsea's A & W Rootbeer stand.

Their home at 1520 Waterloo Rd. is located on one of three farms Cordin purchased in the area. He owns a trucking and railroad business in Detroit and is involved with other business ventures. He is a successful cattleman as well.

Second Victim in Cordin Family Dies Wednesday From Crash Injuries

Nikki Cordin died about 6 p.m. Wednesday from injuries received in the plane crash near St. Louis, Mo. No further details were available at press time.

4-H Achievement Show Opens Aug. 2

The work of many months will be climaxed for area 4-H'ers next week at the annual county 4-H Youth Show. It will be held July 31 through Aug. 3 at the rural activities center on Saline-Ann Arbor Rd.

As always, the show has been planned to provide an impetus for 4-H members to plan worthwhile projects while learning to work with one another. It also provides the public with an opportunity to see the results of the projects.

The many areas of competition at the show, which are too numerous to mention, include cultural arts, food preparation and preservation, agronomy, horticulture and plant science, photography, emergency preparedness and horse showing.

Local clubs, the Terrific Tailors and Wide-Awake will be participating in the cultural arts division Tuesday, July 31. They will be judged at 11:30 a.m.

They will also enter the food preparation competition. Terrific Tailors will be judged in the young division Tuesday, July 31, at 2 p.m. Wide-Awake's hour of judgment comes the next day at 10 a.m.

The highlight of the annual show is the Livestock Sale which will be held this year at 8 p.m. Aug. 2 at the Farm Council Grounds on Ann Arbor-Saline Rd. The 4-H youths will offer for sale six rabbits, 34 steers, 76 swine and 84 lambs. The animals have all been raised with great care as an educational project and have been fed high concentrate rations. They will go to the highest bidder.

Prospective buyers may look over the sale bill that lists the breed, weight and owner. Bidding will be per pound of live weight.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Statutes Outdated

Michigan's law books are a patchwork affair. They have been pasted together and amended a year at a time since statehood was achieved.

The result is that numerous laws become outdated or no longer necessary, but they remain on the books because no one notices they are there or worries about removing them.

That is the reason for efforts like those of House Judiciary Chairman J. Bob Traxler, D-Bay City, to write a revised criminal code.

Now comes some up-to-date evidence of that antiquity of some of our laws from State Rep. William R. Bryant, Jr., R-Grosse Pointe.

Bryant put together the study and says he found "a hodge-podge of laws enacted over scores of years with no attention paid to systematic review and updating."

"If we want people to respect our laws, and we do, and to obey them, those laws must be rational and acceptable to a great majority of people," he says. "Without this, our system of laws cannot survive."

For instance, Bryant found a law providing a prison term for anyone who "willfully blasphemes" or profanely curses or damns. At another point he found a 90-day jail sentence for anyone convicted of using "indecent, immoral, obscene, vulgar or insulting language in the presence or hearing of any woman or child."

That's sort of a double standard in reverse, since it appears okay to swear in front of men.

Another old-time law conceivably could be used to ban the sale of cigarettes in the state. It forbids the sale or giving away to anyone "any cigarette containing any ingredient deleterious to health." And yet, every pack of cigarettes sold in Michigan carries a warning that the Surgeon General has found cigarette smoking dangerous to health.

Movie posters and television ads involving violence appear to be banned by a statute which forbids any "representation of murder, assassination, stabbing, fighting or of any personal violence, or of the commission of any crime."

There are still laws on the books, but there in 1952 requiring all communists to register, keeping communists or the Communist Party off the ballot and precluding communists from any public job, even though all those have been struck down by the Supreme Court.

Hot air balloons are banned by a law making illegal the possession or use of any "balloon which requires fire underneath to propel it."

Another law makes it a crime to advertise liquor using any reference to or the picture of any deceased ex-president of the United States.

It is illegal for a man to seduce a woman, unless she is married, but it is legal for a woman to seduce a man.

It is illegal, but only in the Upper Peninsula, to drive a sleigh faster than a walk "without having bells on at least one of the animals" pulling the sleigh.

Some of these examples are ludicrous and most are humorous, but Bryant thinks the situation is also serious.

"It is not in the interest of freedom that laws exist which reasonable and moral men cannot help but violate in a daily routine which most of us would view as productive and untainted by any action adversely affecting society," he says. "Respect for law demands rational and limited laws which are widely known, understood and accepted and which are vigorously, fairly and impartially enforced."

Alien Appointed

There is often cynicism in Lansing whenever a former legislator is appointed to a state agency position.

There have been enough instances in the past when lawmakers with rather undistinguished records grabbed onto rather lucrative jobs.

For that reason, it is worth noting the recent appointment of former Rep. Richard Allen of Ithaca as director of the Michigan Tourist Council is an exception to that rule.

Allen was very highly regarded by both Republicans and Democrats during his tenure in the House and is a very capable individual.

The 39-year-old veterinarian was the prime sponsor of a section of the 1972 transportation act which allocated $3 million annually for facilities, paths, lanes and trails for bicycles, horseback riding, hiking and other forms of non-motorized transportation.

Former Chelsea resident, Sgt. Gregory A. Kuhl, has been selected as Minot Air Force Base "Airman of the Month." He attended Chelsea High school and was employed at Chrysler Proving Grounds before entering the Air Force in April, 1966.

Chelsea residents, most of them glued to their television screens during the historic moon landing of Apollo 11 astronauts earlier this week, shared in the nationwide excitement over the 500,000 mile space voyage, which is scheduled to end with a splashdown in the Pacific sometime today. Most local residents interviewed at the successful space addressy Mrs. Daisey Feeman of 805 W. Middle St. said the lunar voyage was "almost beyond belief."

Two ranking members of Chelsea Scouting, Harold "Bill" Baker and Peter Stahl, represented Chelsea at the 7th National Boy Scout Jamboree.

Each received a blue ribbon. Tom Bust having the fullest beard, was automatically entered in the shaving contest which took place Saturday evening preceding the anniversary pageant.

Sale of seven rural schools in Chelsea School District was approved by electors of the district at the election held Thursday. They are Palmer, Waterloo, Lima Center, Jerusalem, Jewett-Stone, Beach and Rogers Corners.

At the Leon Fox home, E. Middle and McKinley Sts., four inches of asphalt on a newly surfaced driveway completed six weeks ago was no match for a toadstool which pushed its way through about six inches from the edge. Mrs. and Mrs. Fox had noticed the bulging in a spot in the pavement and Fox casually had remarked that Nature does many odd things. Both were surprised when they came home after a few hours and saw a toadstool had grown through the pavement.

If the weather this week remains favorable, local grain elevator operators stated on Monday, the week would see the bulk of the wheat crop in this vicinity harvested and sold. Harvesting has been in progress in this area for about three weeks, the first load being brought in to the Chelsea Lumber, Grain & Coal Co. early in the week of the fourth. Thomas Wortley of Francis was the first grower to bring his wheat in to the Chelsea firm. Chelsea Public Works employees began digging early Wednesday.

CONSUMERS' CORNER

TRY SEWING FOR THE MEN

The way to a man's heart may be through the sewing machine. Instead of the stomach, especially with today's high clothing prices. Many women and girls have found that stitching up a vest, jacket, trousers, jumpsuit or robe for her man has endeared her to him.

Even though sewing for men has been an American tradition, it has taken on new meaning with the home sewing boom. And the new patterns with easy to follow instruction guides have allowed even the beginning seamstress to sew for her brother, boyfriend, husband or father. Fabrics are more exciting, there's a full range of synthetics and blends that make creating men's fashions more alluring. Color, textures, and patterns add new dimensions to clothing for the stronger sex. The easy care aspect of the fabrics is appealing to both men and women.

Before beginning such a venture, take a few key measurements in order to select the correct size pattern. Chest, waist and length measurements are very important.

Diane Klemmer, a 1973 graduate of Chelsea High School, was recently notified that she is to be featured in the seventh annual edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1972-73, the largest student award publication in the nation.

Students from more than 18,000 public, private, and parochial high schools throughout the country are recognized for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities or community service in the book. Less than two percent of the junior and senior class students nationwide are awarded this recognition.

Diane, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Klemmer, of 634 Flanders St., was active in National Honor Society, Symphony and Marching Bands, Girls' Athletic Association, and Junior and Senior Trip Clubs. She was the recipient of a March of Dimes Health Careers Award, a University of Michigan Regents-Alumni Award, an honorary State of Michigan scholarship, and a scholarship from the Chelsea High School Scholarship Committee.

Diane is enrolled for the fall term at the University of Michigan's College of Pharmacy.

Kilometers Coming to State Highways

Lansing—"Clare 62 miles; 100 kilometers."

That's the type of information that motorists traveling US-27 between Lansing and Grayling will be seeing soon on distance signs along the highway.

The State Highway Commission, in an experiment, has authorized placing 23 signs giving distances both in miles and kilometers. It is an early step in preparing the public for what is expected to be nationwide conversion from the imperial to the metric system of measurement within the next 10 years.

Twenty-one of the dual markers will replace existing signs along the 137 miles (220 kilometers) of US-27 between Lansing and the intersection with I-75 south of Grayling.

Two special signs will be erected on M-90 near the Crosswell-Lexington High School in Sanilac county. Science students at the school have been studying the metric system and the planned nationwide conversion and made the first request to the Department of State Highways to put up dual markers along a state highway.

The new signs are expected to be in place by the end of the summer.

About 92 percent of the world's population now uses the metric system or is committed to conversion. It measures length, area and volume in meters, capacity in liters and mass and weight in grams.

A kilometer is approximately five eighths of a mile. Conversion from miles to kilometers is made by multiplying the number of miles by 1.61.

Thus one of the new signs will read: "Lansing 61 mi (98km)".

State Highway Director John P. Woodford has appointed a committee on metrication, made up of Department engineers, to lay early groundwork for use of the metric system in Department operations. Its chairman is Adrianus Van Kampen, assistant to the chief of the Department's Bureau of Engineering. He studied engineering in the Netherlands and grew up with the metric system.

Ask The GOVERNOR

by William G. Milliken

Question: Summer is a busy time on Michigan highways and safety is a problem. Do you think we are doing better in Michigan regarding traffic safety?

Governor: There is both good and bad news regarding traffic safety for Michigan drivers. Because more people are driving more miles each year, the total number of people seriously injured or killed is generally increasing and this is bad. We cannot allow so many people to die each year in accidents. However, fewer people are involved in accidents in relation to the number of miles being driven so the mileage death rate is declining. The best guarantee for any of us is to do our very best to see that we do not become a statistic, that we exercise caution every second we are in the road.

Question: There seems to be a strong interest in bicycling now. Do you ride a bike and if so, is it something you have recently begun?

Governor: Both my wife and I have ridden bicycles for a long time, mostly I think because we enjoy the fresh air, exercise and the fact that you can see and enjoy so many sights. Of course, many people are bicycling today, realizing that there is great pleasure and satisfaction in riding, feeling afterward that you have accomplished something really worth while.

Question: Could you tell me what it was you recently said about the energy crisis we are experiencing?

Governor: Basically, I said we, as a nation, are too wasteful, that while we have six percent of the world's population, we consume 35 percent of the world's energy, and it is increasing. I hope we can begin practicing energy conservation, driving slower, cutting out unnecessary use of lights and moving toward an improved mass transit system.

Question: You have been talking quiet a bit about Michigan's economy lately. With so many national issues involving finances, do you see any bright spots in this state's economy?

Governor: There are several good indicators. Let me mention just a few. About 3.6 million people have jobs in Michigan now, more than 30 percent above the number of full-time job holders just 10 years ago. Per-person income has increased nearly 35 percent in that 10 years and during 1972, the amount of money spent for new manufacturing plant and equipment increased 56 percent over the previous year.

We often look at the problems rather than the positive points and in the case of Michigan's economy, there definitely many encouraging signs.

Question: Would you please tell me something about the Governor's house on Mackinac Island, such as how big it is?

Governor: Michigan Governors since 1945 have used the three-story Victorian residence. The 24 room house overlooks the Straits of Mackinac with an excellent view of the entire area, including the bridge. It was built by the Young family from Illinois in 1909 and is a favorite place of mine and Mrs. Milliken. We hope to go there frequently this summer, if even for very brief periods.

Lynette Ford, John Hand Wed Recently at New Baltimore Church

Lynette Ford and John Hand, both teachers at Pinckney High school, became man and wife June 30. They are currently taking a three-week honeymoon in Europe before returning to the area.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ford of New Baltimore. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hand of Pinckney, formerly of Chelsea.

The evening wedding was performed in St. John Lutheran church in New Baltimore by the Rev. Roger Marlow. A reception at the local VFW Hall, given by the bride's parents, followed.

The bride chose a satin gown which fell to the floor in an A-frame shape. Long chiffon sleeves trimmed with chantilly lace and a long train softened the effect. Her headpiece was a mantilla also trimmed with chantilly lace, and she carried a bouquet of blue and white daisies with baby's breath and ivy.

A friend of the bride's, Mrs. Doane Atkinson of Taylor was matron of honor. She was dressed in a long blue dotted swiss dress with long sleeves and lace trim. Her flowers were blue and white daisies with baby's breath and ivy. She wore daisies in her hair.

Also attending the bride were Mrs. John Allore of Richmond, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Dennis of Brighton. Their gowns were also of blue dotted swiss.

The next meeting will be held in September at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Berner.

PIONEER FARM BUREAU—Mrs. Neil Nixon was hostess to members of the Pioneer Farm Bureau at her home recently. Ten members attended.

Mrs. Mae Mast, chairman, conducted the meeting with the secretary's report read by Mrs. Wiloughby Wisely. All members participated in the discussion on "Grain Handling."

The next meeting will be held in September at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Berner.

Molly M. Foster, Arthur Grissom Speak Vows at St. Mary Church

St. Mary's church was the scene of a wedding ceremony Saturday that united Miss Molly Maureen Foster and Arthur Daniel Grissom, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Foster and Mr. and Mrs. James Grissom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sisters, Mrs. John (Diana) Neely of Boca Raton, Fla., and Mrs. William (Kathy) Snyder of Chelsea. They were matrons of honor.

In addition, Miss Tina Ortring and Miss Loween Rowe, cousins of the bride, Miss Susan Cobb of Chelsea and Mrs. Ralph Hickerson of Pleasant Lake were bridesmaids. Miss Lara Ann Snyder, niece of the bride, was junior flower girl. Donald Pickell, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Assisting as best man was the bridegroom's brother, James Grissom of Grass Lake. Groomsman were Michael, Scott, Stephen and Patrick, brothers of the bride, and Tom Snyder, her brother-in-law.

The bride dressed for the evening ceremony in a long, A-line gown of sheer white nylon. Lace panels were inserted in the sleeves and bodice. Tear-drop pearls added accent. A full, floor-length lace and nylon veil trailed to the floor.

Molly's bouquet was made up of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

The matrons of honor wore matching gowns of mauve dotted swiss with white accents and lacey white picture hats. They carried Early American bouquets of roses and tatted daisies.

The four bridesmaids wore matching gowns of pink dotted swiss. They too wore picture hats and carried daisy bouquets. The flower girl wore a full-length mauve gown. Her princess bouquet was complemented by a crown of summer flowers.

At the reception immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Albert Woods, aunt of the bridegroom, served the wedding cakes. Miss Kathy Hopkins poured coffee.

Thought For Food

Turn steaks with tongs or spatula rather than piercing with a fork to avoid loss of those delicious juices.

For a true picture of elegance on your table, glaze a traditional ham-whole or half with a berry-red sauce. It's so easy to glaze ham, it's a shame it isn't done all the time. Simply remove ham from the oven 45 minutes before it is done, remove the rind, spread the surface with cranberry glaze and return to the oven to complete the cooking. To prepare the glaze, combine a cup white corn syrup, a cup of cranberry sauce, a fourth teaspoon ground cloves and a fourth cup raisins and cook until thickened.

Freezing is an excellent way to preserve leftover beef in top condition. To avoid losing track of or forgetting about small packages of leftovers in the freezer, consolidate them by grouping individually wrapped items together in a large transparent bag. Be sure to label each.

A family of four with a weekly budget of $50 can save as much as $500 a year by checking price differences in competing supermarkets.

VOLCANO WITHOUT LAVA?

Though an erupting volcano brings to mind pictures of flowing rivers of boiling lava, not all active volcanoes emit lava. Mount Taal in the Philippines, with a history of death and destruction, has spewed forth noxious gasses, steaming mud and ash, and white-hot rocks-but never lava.

HOT DIGGITIES

Split frankfurters lengthwise, tuck in small amounts of sauerkraut or cheese. Put franks in buns, wrap buns in foil and place on grate on grill, turning often until piping hot.

Fabric softeners make washable fabrics feel softer and fluffier. They also reduce wrinkling and clinging due to static electricity and make ironing easier.

Cheryl Jean Trinkle, Darrell Pidd Wed at Dexter Gospel Church

The Dexter Gospel church, glowing with candlelight and decked with gladiolas, chrysanthemums and greenery was the setting, July 21, for the wedding of Cheryl Jean Trinkle and Darrell Lee Pidd.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Charles Trinkle of Trinkle Rd., Dexter, to the son of Mrs. Milan Frank and the late Erwin Pidd of Dexter.

She was attended by Mrs. Gary (Kathy) Koscielniak, sister of the bridegroom and matron of honor, Miss Ellen Tilt, Miss Karen Trinkle, cousin of the bride, Miss Kathy McCalla, and Mrs. Dennis (Jeannie) Trinkle, another cousin.

The bridegroom chose Tim Gross of Dexter to be best man. Ushers were Don Trinkle, brother of the bride, Rod Knieper, Gary Koscielniak and Dennis Trinkle. Ricky Lyndon, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

A niece of the bridegroom, Janet Pidd, was flower girl.

For the double-ring ceremony conducted by the Rev. Henry A. Campbell of Dexter Gospel church and the Rev. James Hynes of Dexter United Methodist church, the bride wore her mother's lace and satin wedding dress. Seed pearls added accents to the lace that flower from the bodice to the sides of the skirt and onto a cathedral train. Her long sleeves were topped in lace and the satin continued to her wrists.

Her attendants were dressed in lavender chiffon trimmed in lace. All but the matron of honor carried lavender orchids. Mrs. Koscielniak had white orchids and stephanotis with lavender streamers.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Charles Trinkle, selected a chiffon dress of lavender. It was trimmed in lace and had a matching full-length coat.

The mother of the bridegroom was dressed in a long pink polyester dress accented with a corsage of carnations and white roses. Mrs. Trinkle wore sweet-heart roses.

Five hundred guests attended the reception at the Chelsea Fairgrounds Service Center that followed the wedding. It was catered by the Dexter Jayettes.

Mrs. Erwin Trinkle and Mrs. David Miles, both of Chelsea and aunts of the bride, cut the three-foot high cakes. Mrs. Roy Miles of Fowlerville, and Mrs. Harold Trinkle served punch and coffee, and nieces of the bridegroom, Carol Heller and Sandy Steers, were in charge of the guest book.

The elaborately decorated wedding cake, topped with figurines representing the wedding party standing above a lake, was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Alvin Schroeder of Trenton.

The couple will honeymoon in Pennsylvania before returning to their home on Swan Rd., Stockbridge. The bride is employed at an A & W Root Beer stand while her husband farms.

The bride was entertained at six showers before her wedding. They were given by Mrs. Gary Koscielniak, Miss Ellen Tilt, Mrs. Erwin Trinkle, Mrs. David Miles, Mrs. Kenneth Proctor, and the ladies of the Dexter Gospel church. All were miscellaneous showers.

Art Festival Plans Told...

Polish. Those wishing to show their wares must submit examples or slides of it to the jury.

Mrs. Dittmar says that several local artists have been approved, in addition to several who participated in the Ann Arbor fair last week.

"Some very good quality work will be shown," she says. "Some of the hand-made jewelry, for example, is in the $30 to $60 price range." Rock jewelry, weaving, batik, pottery, hand-made toys, sculpture and photography, as well as oil and acrylic painting will be on display. Artists will be coming from Jackson, Ypsilanti and Saline to set up next to the local talent.

As Mrs. Dittmar will explain when she talks on the Lucy Dobson morning show on WPAG Aug. 3, at 10:45, work must first be approved by the jury, and then an entry fee is required. The fee will cover the cost of advertising in the area.

Artists are supposed to display their work for both days of the fair. They are expected to provide their own tables or easels for display purposes and to bring water-proof covering.

They are encouraged to display their craft while showing their work. A glassblower, for example, will be here to demonstrate his art. Painters will be painting and potters will be throwing pots.

Those wishing to participate in the art festival may contact Mrs. Dittmar, 105 Main St., phone 475-2512.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY of hard work was recognized July 18 when Mrs. Lauryn White was honored by her fellow employees at Chelsea Drug store. Her 25 years of work mean she has been there longer than one of the partners himself, Dan Murphy has put in 24 years there. A generous meal and a cake accompanied the gift of appreciation, a silver vase.

25 Years of Service Honored

Mrs. Lauryn White was treated to a surprise that brought tears to her eyes, July 18. Her fellow employees at Chelsea Drug store hosted a party to celebrate her 25 years of work there.

"She's been here longer than I have," admits Dan Murphy, a partner with Charles Lancaster, who says Mrs. White has always been a dependable and loyal employee. Mrs. White's modest response is "They've been good to me."

During the years, Mrs. White has worked all over the store. She has watched many a Chelsea youngster grow up after his stops at the candy and magazine counter she manages in the front of the store.

When asked if she was surprised with the party, she replied, "Was I!" They came in the back of the shop while she worked in the front and set up a regular smorgasbord for the Wednesday noon meal. It included roast beef, mashed potatoes, vegetables, salads and fresh bread. A cake topped it all off.

She was presented with a silver vase as a token of appreciation.

Dozing Driver Demolishes Fire Hydrant

Remember when the old Keystone Cops used to run over fire hydrants in their cars? The water used to shoot to the skies.

Luckily, it doesn't happen in real life or Patrick Allen Gregory of 3360 Edison St., Dexter, would have been very wet early Sunday morning.

Gregory told Chelsea police that he had apparently fallen asleep at the wheel of his car while driving South on Main St., July 22. His car continued through the intersection of Main and Park Sts. and plowed into the fire hydrant in front of Merkel's Store.

The car went over the hydrant, breaking it off, and into both a No U-Turn sign and a parking meter. Both were bent badly by the impact.

Patrolmen Jack Dettling and Gerald Shaw responded to the call and investigated the accident. No ticket was issued and Gregory was not badly hurt.

Dvoraks Report Recent Burglary

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dvorak on Waterloo Rd. was the scene of burglary several weeks ago. Mrs. Dvorak discovered the crime upon returning to the house in the late evening.

According to Mrs. Dvorak, the thieves gained entry by breaking open the door leading from the garage into the house. They literally kicked in the door. The Dvoraks' watchdog was apparently not enough to deter the looters.

After methodically rifling through every drawer in the house, they got away with a radio, 15 silver dollars, a gold plated Eisenhower coin and nine silver presidential spoons. They also took a large jug containing approximately $35 in pennies.

Mrs. Dvorak says she has also discovered that two watches were taken from her dresser drawer. She has heard that another robbery occurred in the area that night which makes her reluctant to leave the house unattended now.

Lyndon Board Studies Rural Road Patrols

In addition to its regular monthly meeting, Lyndon Township board met in a special session this month to discuss sheriff patrols of township roads and the state Tax Commission's assessment of local property.

The meeting was called by supervisor Thomas C. Lewis in order to inform the board members of what he had learned of these matters at a recent Supervisors Association meeting. Both issues are without resolution.

While the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department is attempting to halt its practice of patrolling rural roads, the townships are attempting to prove that the deputies are required by law to give the service. Lewis reported that the estimated cost of maintaining the patrols independently is too exorbitant for a rural township to undertake.

Lewis also reported that the State Tax Commission has recently made a survey of all the townships in Washtenaw county and found many, like Ypsilanti, have undervalued their lands. Lyndon is among those cited.

It is not clear yet, however, what this finding will mean to the township this year. So far, no orders have been issued to make landowners pay taxes according to the state assessment.

Also at the special session, the board discussed the need to hire a zoning inspector who would handle all zoning violations. Miller Ford was appointed to the position.

At the regular monthly meeting, July 14, the specifics of Ford's job were discussed with him. Because the township never before has had a zoning inspector, there is no precedent for the role he should play.

The salary will be set after Ford has worked at the job for awhile. Then an estimate can be made of the time involved.

The board also discussed the repairs needed on the township hall. It accepted a bid for repair of the roof and downspouts from Harold Harry Koch & Associates.

In other business, the board drafted a letter of complaint against individuals illegally operating a land fill on state land. It also signed a contract with Manatron Co. which does the tax billing for the township, and it tabled consideration of the use of revenue sharing money until August.

The board granted the use of the township hall to Gary Roderick for two months in order to hold 4-H square dances there. There will be no charge for the use of the building since the square dancing is considered a community activity.

Pond Safety Campaign Announced

Thirty years ago farm ponds were typically stock watering holes, choked with weeds, stagnant water and serving as breeding grounds for mosquitos. Today's pond, on the other hand, can frequently be used for swimming and fishing as well as providing water for irrigation or fire fighting. But in order to choke out aquatic weeds and provide recreation potential, ponds are built deeper with a drop of up to one foot for every three to four feet into the pond. A child or poor swimmer can get into trouble quickly should he slip off the bank and into a pond that drops to over-the-head depth within a dozen feet or so from shore.

The Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District will place summer-long emphasis on farm pond safety as part of its recognition of National Farm Safety Week, July 25-31, announces chairman William Fishbeck of Ann Arbor. About 15,000 ponds have been installed in Michigan with Soil Conservation Service assistance. There are many more. Fishbeck estimates that Washtenaw county has a total of about 300 ponds.

Why is action on pond safety needed? There were 18 drownings in farm ponds in Michigan during 1972, Fishbeck reports. An analysis made by the Aline Safety Section, Department of Natural Resources, shows that ponds and gravel pits were equally involved in the 90 drownings reported in such areas during 1970 to 1973.

All types of activities, including diving, wading, falls from banks, falls off docks, and even breaking through the ice resulted in fatalities. The most typical drowning in a farm pond involved 15- to 19-year-old male swimmers, but there were victims of various ages and sex. "It can happen to anyone, especially when there is lack of supervision and rescue equipment," Fishbeck says.

Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service points out that posting warning signs, allowing only supervised swimming, providing rescue equipment and clearing an area for swimming can lead to greater safety.

During the next few months the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District will make a special effort to inform people about this hazard. In addition, the District has information sheets describing how to build and install a variety of water safety devices. As part of their continuing water safety campaign, the District also has deep water warning signs and U. S. Coast Guard approved life-ring buoys available at a nominal cost. For assistance in making a pond both a safe and economical resource, contact the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District Office at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor, 48103. Phone: 761-6721.

Michigan Traffic June Death Toll Hits Total of 208

Michigan counted 208 persons killed in traffic accidents in June, which was one less than 209 charged to that month last year, according to State Police traffic division provisional figures. It was seven fewer than the average of 215 for the month in the five years 1968-72. High for the month was 236 recorded in 1969 while the low was 57 in wartime 1944.

The June deaths brought to 1,040 the accumulated count of deaths for the first half this year, five more than the total registered for the same period in 1972.

OLD-FASHIONED HARVEST: Ed Schiller (left) and Rueben Lindemann (center) were among the many men who came to visit Don Irwin at his farm last Saturday to help harvest the wheat the way it was done 50 years ago. The ritual of feeding the loosely bundled wheat into the separator was not new to most present. They had either seen it the last two years when Irwin staged the old-fashioned harvest or they could remember the days when the gangly contraption was commonplace.

Old-Fashioned Wheat Harvest

Don Irwin's third annual old-fashioned grain harvest took on an even quainter look, last Saturday, with the addition of a 1913 steam engine.

In the past, a Baker tractor, dating from 1929, had provided the power for the Oliver Red River Special, the separator that threshes the grain from the straw and blows the discarded shafts into large stacks.

Don Irwin, who saves a portion of his wheat harvest each year for this event, had tried unsuccessfully before to persuade Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fox to bring their steam tractor from Napoleon for the harvest. They were busy the last two years, but this year they called him and said they wanted to come.

Transporting the ungainly tractor is no easy task. "It's a three-day operation," Mrs. Fox explained. They trucked the tractor to the Irwin farm at Sharon Hollow and Grass Lake Rds. Friday so there would be ample time to build up steam Saturday morning. It takes a good three hours to get up a good head of steam. Once up, the engine must be continually stoked with large chunks of coal to keep the fire hot.

After the first session of harvesting was completed about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the engine was driven onto a low-boy trailer under its own steam. It had to sit overnight to cool down, and then the water was drained out of it. Only then could the Foxes make their trip back to Napoleon.

The Foxes make of hobby of collecting old engines of all kinds. In addition to the steam tractor, they brought a hydraulic ram, a pumping device found in many rivers that was used before the advent of electricity to pump water into fields and homes.

There real love, however, is riding their velocipedes, precursors of the bicycle. The Foxes appeared in the Rose Bowl Parade last January on these large-wheeled vehicles.

The other equipment displayed at the harvesting exhibition dated from before the 1930's. Dave Curtis' Baker tractor had the original Wisconsin engine when it was purchased 12 years ago. It has since been converted to gasoline.

Arrested Tuesday On DUIL Charge

Chelsea Policemen Roger Graves and William Detling arrested Leroy David Lobdell of 3247 Lijna Center Rd., Dexter, July 24, for driving under the influence of liquor.

The arrest came while the officers were investigating the report of a hit and run accident in which a parked car had been damaged. A witness described the car and the officers headed out Chelsea-Dexter Rd. in search of it.

There they found the described vehicle being driven in an erratic manner by 43-year-old Lobdell. He took the breathalyzer test and registered a .23 and a .22 reading. He was transported to county jail and was arraigned Wednesday afternoon on the drunken driving charge. Charges of leaving the scene of a property damaging accident are pending.

As in the past, the separator, an imposing sight with its many conveyor belts and clanking gears, was a primary attraction. City folks as well as farmers taking a busman's holiday took turns pitching the loosely bundled wheat into the separator.

As it fell through the mechanized rakes in the neck of the machine, the grain was separated from the straw, which was then blown up through a spout and out onto a straw stack. The heavier kernels fell into a collecting bin.

It's hard work and, as usual, a supply of beer was available to dampen the dryness.

A good sized crowd of all ages had gathered to witness the urday and Sunday. For the old old-fashioned harvest both Saturdays, it was a scene from the past. For the children, the funny looking machines were as frightening as they were fascinating.

AMERICAN SPECIALTY

Tornadoes are an American specialty, striking more often in this country than in any other. A late twister ravaged a London suburb in 1950, and they have hit Canada, Africa, Central America, Australia, and New Zealand. The primary severe storm belt known as "Tornado Alley" cuts through the American Midwest.

You can make sandwiches more interesting by using a variety of breads. There's white, rye, whole wheat, French, pumpernickel and many delicious seeded rolls. For a large family outing or a friend-gathering, home sandwiches are ideal. You can prepare them ahead of time and keep chilled until ready to serve. Try splitting large loaves of French bread through the center, lengthwise. Spread both sides with your favorite sandwich spread and add fillings. Michigan favorites include meats, turkey or chicken sandwiches, bits of bacon. Michigan specialties are lettuce, tomatoes, cucumbers, onions, ground beef, corned beef, pickles, salad, and baked beans. They're good in varying combinations. Cut into portions for easy serving.

Little League action last Thursday was highlighted by Rockwell International capturing its first victory of the season.

The game was sparked by Phil Heydlauff, who struck out two batters and slammed a home run. He also did a brilliant job on the mound, striking out seven batters in a three inning appearance.

Rockwell's Little League pitcher, Heydlauff, also slugged out two hits, along with teammates Alexander and Luck, who also collected two hits.

Webster Construction did manage to start out a few hits with Sprague, Barnes, and Aldrich at bat.

This game was the battle of the color duellers of the Little League, with Rockwell International supplying an excellent team effort to escape last place and register their first win.

Jaycees 7, Murphy's 6
Murphy's Barber Shop Little League Team is learning the meaning of "close but not close enough."

For the second time in a row last week they tasted defeat by a margin of one run.

The Chelsea Jaycees put together a barrage of hits while Murphy's collected only one hit. That came from Clark's bat.

Stevenson, Moore and Bullick each had two hits while Dan Alber came through with one base hit.

Although Murphy's managed only one hit, they made six runs off the good pitching of Garrett and Moore of the Jaycees.

Clark and Mackesky of Murphy's also did a fine job of hurling for their team.

People eat better in America today than anywhere else in the world. One important reason is because farmers and ranchers boosted beef production a whopping 2 1/2 times in the past 20 years—despite often discouraging prices. During this time U. Jiffy Mix and Zion Lutheran church teams labored to a 8-1 outcome, July 18, in Fast Pitch Softball League play. Jiffy went away the winner.

The winning pitcher, Jim Gaken, gave up six hits as opposed to loser Earl Heller's three, but Heller allowed five walks. Jiffy made two errors and Zion made one. Zion's one run came in the second inning after four hits. That was the same inning in which Jiffy made two runs.

In another low scoring event, Methodist Home slipped by M & M Gravel, 5-3. R. Nix took the honors at the mound while R. Thomas lost. Both hurlers gave up seven hits. It was timing that kept the Chelsea Home players ahead.

St. Paul blanketed the Sweepster's efforts, July 18, by defeating them 10-8. The winning pitcher, J. Marshall, allowed nine hits but so did his counterpart, R. Boham. The turning point was in the top of the seventh when St. Paul scored nine runs with home runs from Kozma and Stirling. Up to that time they were down 8-1.

The most decisive victory of the week was Westgate's over Adair Printing. Jones, Westgate's man on the mound, allowed only one hit and three walks while Austin and Klapper for Adair watched 10 hits and 17 walks march by. The score was 24-3.

School Board Meeting Briefs

At Monday's night meeting, the Chelsea Board of Education, represented by five trustees, tabled action on the controversial recommendation to house 5th graders at Beach Middle school next fall, and voted to accept a new contract with the school administrators. The principals will be staying on in their present positions.

In one of the first items of business, board members Schafer, Hasek, Koenn, Stirling and Daniels heard the labor relations committee report to the effect that an agreement had been reached with the administrators on a contract for 1973-74.

A motion by Daniels, supported by Stirling, that the board accept the contract as drawn up by the board attorney, passed unanimously.

An earlier directive by the board to the superintendent to transfer each of the principals to new assignments was never translated into action. Superintendent Charles Cameron explained that in both the old and new contracts it states that "administrators are subject to reassignment at the discretion of the superintendent." He chose not to use his prerogative.

After Trustees Daniels, Schafer and Stirling and Superintendent

Cameron summarized the sentiments expressed at the public meeting, July 17, concerning the transfer of all Chelsea 5th graders to new rooms in Beach Middle school, the topic was thoroughly discussed by all the board members, administrators and guests present. Mrs. Pog Pennington, Ed Brown, Jim Gaunt, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hinz, Mrs. James Markie, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and G. Richards, guests at the meeting also participated in the discussion.

Several motions followed, none of which passed. Koenn moved, with support from Schafer, that the proposal be tabled until the next meeting and asked that a detailed report be compiled. With four years needed, the motion failed, three to two.

Trustee Daniels' motion, supported by Stirling, that the board accept the recommendation of the administrators to move the 5th graders to Beach and to bring the kindergartners back to the elementary school was also defeated, two to three.

After Stirling suggested that the board consider the facts of the situation at the next meeting, Koenn, supported by Schafer, moved that the arrangement of housing kindergarten students at St. Mary school be continued as it was last year and that the board consider a complete report on the situation at the next meeting. That too failed. With that, the board moved on to other considerations.

The board conditionally accepted the resignation of Tom Thompson, a counselor at the Beach Middle school, providing that a suitable replacement is found. They also unanimously granted a 1973-74 contract to Mrs. R. A. Wotila. She will be teaching Spanish on a part-time basis.

Mrs. R. H. Ameigh, a music teacher who will carry on Barry Fate's work with the elementary string program, was also granted a contract for 1973-74.

The board passed a motion to have the report by the citizen advisory committee, given in public, Aug. 13, at 8 p.m. in the high school.

The business manager's recommendations concerning the 1973-74 salary schedule for secretaries and clerks in the school system were accepted as were his recommendations concerning bus drivers' salaries for 1973-74.

Leonard Solomon, grievance chairman for the CEA, verbally presented a grievance on behalf of a teacher. The board was merely asked to listen. No action was taken.

Richard, Manson, Jackson & Canine, architects for the board, presented plans and specifications for the proposed bus transfer point drive around Beach Middle school. It will replace the transfer point at the site of the old junior high school.

The motion to accept the plans, less the rumble strips (small corrugations in the pavement to prevent speeding), passed and the board directed the architects to advertise for bids for the project.

Board secretary Schafer read several letters addressed to the board, including a letter of resignation from Trustee Gerald Straub, dated July 21. He is giving up his position because of a new job requiring the majority of his time.

The remaining board members will appoint an individual to assume Straub's responsibilities until the next Board of Education election, next June. At that time an individual will be elected to fill the remaining year of the unexpired term.

The board accepted Straub's resignation with regret and moved to draft and send a letter of appreciation, thanking Straub for his service in his years as a board member.

The motion to adjourn, offered at 12:15 a.m. was supported at 12:40 a.m. when the meeting came to a close.

YOU & YOUR CAR

★ If You're Going To Pull A Trailer . . .

Millions of Americans double their vacation pleasure by taking along all the comforts of home, including the kitchen sink. Trailer travel is comfortable, convenient, safe and economical if the car's towing capacity and the equipment needed for maximum safety and durability are properly matched.

You can go in either of two directions. Select the trailer, then find a car with the towing capacity to handle it, or pick the car first, then choose a trailer to fit the car's capabilities.

Car makers specify the maximum gross (loaded) trailer weight for each vehicle and the maximum permissible tongue load (the load exerted on the hitch by the trailer). A properly loaded trailer has a tongue load of about 10 percent of its gross weight. In some cases the maximum allowable area of the trailer is included, since wind resistance increases power requirements.

With a small car like a Chevrolet Vega, a maximum trailer weight is 1,000 lbs. A Ford Maverick or other compact can haul a 2,000 lb. trailer. A typical intermediate car, a Dodge Coronet, can handle a 4,000 lb. trailer. Some large model cars can pull trailers up to 7,000 lbs. For your requirements, check with your car dealer.

All car makers offer factory-installed trailer-towing packages. Components may differ, but usually included are heavy-duty springs and shock absorbers; extra-capacity radiator and engine cooling fan; heavy-duty automatic transmission with larger cooler; power brakes and steering; larger tires; extra-capacity alternator and battery; and a higher ratio (lower speed) rear axle. Trailer hitch and wiring harness are usually packaged separately.

Auto manufacturers consider these items compulsory for any car hauling a trailer of over 1,000 lbs. Without this equipment, the car warranty may be void.

Car makers often recommend non-essential options, such as a more powerful engine or a limited-slip differential. Whatever route you take, mating the right equipment will make vacation time more enjoyable and trouble free.

WINTER TENNIS?

Maj. Walter Wingfield, credited with inventing modern lawn tennis in England in 1874, envisioned it as a year-round outdoor sport. "In a hard frost the nets may be erected on ice," he wrote, and the players equipped with skates; the game assumes a new feature, and gives an opening for the exhibition of much grace and science."

EARLY GOLDFISH

By the time fancy goldfish firmly appeared in recorded history, during China's Sung Dynasty (A.D. 960-1279), they were well established as household pets.

MURPHY'S BARBER SHOP: Little League takes up a great deal of time and energy, according to the coaches and boys involved in it, but it is worth every minute. These youngsters appear to be enthusiastic as they wait for one of their Tuesday and Thursday night games. A general world-wide demand for food has had much to do with changing food prices in the past year. American farmers in 1972 paid $2.8 billion in farm real estate taxes and another $2.5 billion in federal and state income taxes. The latest automatic bale wagons allow one man to pick-up haul and stack up to 3,100 bales of hay in an eight-hour day.
