Mrs. Balogh Takes Over Kitchen

There's a girl who can't say "No" to a good meal. Mrs. Mary "Red" Balogh, who has taken over the kitchen of the Chelsea Community Fair, said this year is going to be a very busy personal life.

According to Mrs. Balogh, she has no much else to do but take on this too, but they called her into it. The Chelsea Club members who have been eating Mrs. Balogh's good cooking at their Monday night meetings wouldn't take no for an answer.

Her husband is understanding. Chief cook of the Fair Kitchen is one of the biggest jobs around. Predictions based on last year's business have warned the staff, Mrs. Balogh, her daughter Celeste, and Juanita Hoiser, that up to 1,000 hungry people a day will pour in during their 5 a.m. to midnight hours.

Starting at 5 a.m. each of the five days of the fair, they will serve breakfasts of bacon, sausage, ham and eggs, toast, pancakes, french toast and sweet rolls to get the day off to a good start.

Lunches will be served up between 11:30 and 1:30. The menu includes hot beef or pork sandwiches, mashed potatoes, and barbecued beef and pork. The latter is Mrs. Balogh's addition to the traditional fare.

Throughout the day, short orders of hot dogs, hamburgers, cheeseburgers, fishburgers, french fries, potato salad, baked beans, cole slaw and home-made pies and cakes will be available.

The evening meal menu varies during the week, as do the organizations that will take on the responsibility of serving the 400 dinners each night. Tuesday night's meal, served by the Kiwanis Club and Key Club, will include roast beef, roast pork or meat loaf.

The Knights of Columbus will take over as waiters Wednesday (Continued on page six)

LOOKING OVER THE LOOT: Washtenaw County Sheriff Fred J. Postill is shown here with some of the $10,000 of stolen property his detectives have recovered while investigating an alleged theft ring operating out of the Chelsea area. Eight young men from the area were arraigned yesterday in 14th District Court in connection with the case, and more arrests are expected.

Clippers Win City Softball Championship

Walt's Clippers, champs from the American League, met Rula Farms, Aug. 14, to fight for the city slow pitch championship. It ended in a fireworks finish that Rula would like to forget.

In the first inning, Rula Farms jumped to a 1-0 lead on singles by Andreise, Zezulka and M. Ruhlig. Both teams played outstanding ball for the next three innings with neither team getting a scoring chance.

Then in the top of the fifth inning, Collier led off with a home run to make the score 1-1 but Rula came back in the bottom of the fifth to grab a 3-1 lead on singles by Trapp, Altenbert, Andreise and J. Ruhlig.

In the top of the seventh, Walt's

Clippers used a walk and a single by Stephens and a two-base error to tie the game at 3-3. In the bottom of that inning Rula went down 1, 2, 3.

As the eighth inning began, French led with a single. Another man followed later when Rula's shortstop made a throwing error on a double play ball allowing a runner to reach first safely. R. Meyers followed with a single, putting runners on first and second with two outs.

Cornish then lined a single to left and scored as Rula players threw the ball around committing four errors on one play. That mammoth blunder let three runs come home. It cost Rula the game, 6-3, and the championship.

THE MAGIC REMAINS: It is still an honor, according to these Chelsea Community Fair Queen candidates, to be swept up in the excitement of a Queen contest. Although fewer and fewer organizations have been nominating queen candidates in the last few years, the girls say that they aren't losing interest. They will prove that they can do more than look pretty, Tuesday, during the Queen Pageant sponsored by the Jaycee Auxiliary at 8:30. Each

Six Seeking Fair Queen Title

For Robbie Navin, Jodi Daniels, Sherry Moore, Diane Klemmer, Jennifer Tandy and Carol Warywoda, Fair Week will be especially exciting. They are the candidates for this year's Chelsea Fair Queen.

Robbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Navin of 408 Wilkerson St., is the freshman class nominee. She says that several of her classmates turned down nomination during the class meeting because they were afraid of performing in front of a crowd, one of the things a Queen candidate must do during the pageant Tuesday night.

Robbie says the talent competition doesn't bother her a bit because she has a talent; she plays the organ. The uneasy moments that came along when the Fair Board said they were unable to supply an organ for the talent competition have passed now that she has recited a selection. It will be played during the competition while she models clothes from a store in Ann Arbor.

A native of Chelsea, Robbie plays the clarinet and is one of three Queen candidates away at Band Camp this week.

She finds the prospect of reigning over the fair "kind of exciting and scary, too." She has written a poem to present during her talent spot. It concerns the thoughts of a little girl as she looks forward to attending the Chelsea fair the next day.

Sherry, too, is a clarinet player. She was chosen from among the 20 nominees put up at the sophomore class meeting.

The nominee from the junior class, Jodi Daniels, got a preview of the excitement she is experiencing this year when she was the member of the sophomore candidate's court a year ago.

When Jodi tells the children's story, "Horton Hatches the Egg" during Tuesday night's competition, it will not be the first time she has performed in public. A cheerleader, she has also appeared in two local musicals. She first prepared the story for a forensics project at the high school last year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels of 665 Washington St.

Another seasoned performer is the senior class nominee, Carol Warywoda. She has been a member of the cast of several productions and she is also a member of the band. She plays the drums and the accordion.

As of the night before she left for Band Camp, Carol was planning to model six of the many outfits she has made using original ideas to spice up store-bought patterns. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warywoda of Clear Lake Rd., Grass Lake.

Diane Klemmer, who graduated this June from Chelsea High, registered for the Queen competition when she read that the Jaycee Auxiliary was having difficulty getting nominees. "I didn't have much to do and I thought I'd help out," says Diane. She is the first candidate to take advantage of the new ruling that sponsors aren't required.

All the girls agree that to be a fair queen candidate is still an honor in this day and age of the woman's movement. Sherry, who admits that there isn't as much interest in queens as there used to be, still believes it's a nice institution. Diane says the fair wouldn't be the same without it.

The girls also agree that a queen pageant wouldn't be the same without a talent competition. They weren't enthusiastic about the idea at first, but they devoted to perform after Mrs. Mike Eubanks, chairman of the event, pointed out how much the pageant would help the fair.

The last one to know that she would be included in the Fair Queen festivities was Jennifer Tandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tandy. She was notified Tuesday morning that the Kiwanis Club had chosen her for their representative in the competition.

"I was completely taken by surprise," says the high school senior who is a member of National Honor Society and a football cheerleader. She was having difficulty deciding what to do for her act given this short notice.

Each of 5 Days Has Attractions For All Ages

On the surface the Chelsea Community Fair may look slightly different this year because of the addition of the new fair building, but the events themselves will be largely the same.

Once again the Kiwanis Club has taken on the responsibility of beginning the five days of fun, Aug. 28, with Children's Day. The club has put up the prize money and organized the kiddies parade that will end at the ribbon cutting ceremony at the fairgrounds at 5:45 p.m.

Although the fair week is not officially open until that ceremony, rides, concessions and exhibits will be set up throughout the day and will be open to the public. Children will be entitled to reduced rates at all children's rides between 1 and 5 p.m. that day and Peanuts the Clown will be on hand to welcome them.

The evening's events, arranged by Kiwanis chairman Weldon Harbaugh, will start with the Children's Parade. At 5:30 p.m. participants will gather at the municipal parking lot where they will be judged. The parade, which will include the queen candidates and the 7th and 8th grade bands will move out at 6 p.m.

The ribbon cutting will take place at 6:45 at the gates to the fairgrounds with Village President A. E. (Mac) Fuls and Fair President Allen Broesamle assisting 1972 Fair Queen Judi Blaess.

On the way to the Queen pageant, sponsored by the Jaycee Auxiliary, the crowd may watch local fire departments from Dexter, Ann Arbor and Chelsea fight it out in a fierce game of water polo. This event, a traditional crowd pleaser, is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

The Fair Queen pageant is next on the agenda, beginning at 8:30 with David McLaughlin manning the mike. The program, which begins with introduction of the hopefuls and continues with the talent competition, will be capped with the crowning moment when the winner is announced.

The judges' choice will be presented with a dozen roses and a list of the prizes donated by local merchants. The runner-up is also honored with gifts and all nominees receive a charm from the Fair Board.

Wednesday is traditionally Dexter Day since Chelsea's neighbor doesn't have its own fair. The day will be taken up with a horse show and the judging of livestock and exhibits.

At 5 p.m. fair-goers may view an old-time thrashing rig which will be set up on the grounds. The old binder will be in operation so that young whippersnappers can see how it used to be done.

V. O. Johnson will take over master of ceremonies duties at 6 p.m. when the famed Fowler Puff Derby gets underway. The women's small tractor event will be followed by the man's compact tractor pull.

Thursday evening will once again draw people to the arena where they may get another look at Chelsea's Fair Queen and her court. Herman Koenig will introduce the celebrities who will then present showmanship awards. This will begin at 7:10. The sale of livestock by Price Brothers Auctioneers will follow at 7:20.

The day will end in a burst of activity with ATV races starting at 8:30. This is the first year for this competition featuring everything from dune buggies to motorcycles.

Friday, as in the past, will be (Continued on page three)

Festivities Start With Children's Parade

The Children's Parade, organized as always by the Kiwanis Club, will wind its way down Main St. Tuesday night. It will be a colorful beginning of the Chelsea Community Fair festivities.

Weldon Harbaugh, the Kiwanis chairman of the event, has announced that the parade will move out at 6 p.m. from the Municipal Parking lot. In addition to parents and children of all ages, the Chelsea Queen candidates and 7th and 8th grade bands will take part in the procession.

Harbaugh says that the judging will begin at 5:30. Children should assemble according to the various age groups, three through five, six through eight, and nine through 12. Signs will indicate where the groups are meeting in the parking lot. A miscellaneous group will also be judged. First, second and third prizes will be awarded in each group.

Horses, pets and two-wheel motor vehicles will not be allowed in the parade. All powered vehicles in the parade must be operated by an adult, according to Police Chief Meranuck.

Kiwanis members will be on hand to supervise the older children but parents should accompany the young ones.

A Hard Look
Democrats are searching the landscape for a candidate to run against and defeat Gov. William G. Milliken next year.

There is no shortage of would-be candidates. Probably every person who makes his way to the legislature or some other reasonably advanced political job entertains secret dreams of holding down the governorship "some day."

But at this moment no one has come along to sweep the Democrats off their feet and lead them in an enthusiastic charge against Milliken next year.

If the current situation continues, the odds are that former State Sen. Sander Levin will take the party nomination again and run against Milliken.

The Democrats have a number of problems.

First of all, there are the lingering effects of 1972, when the party had its worst campaign in years and lost every state-wide race. Then there are issues such as crime and busing which have racial overtones that wreak havoc in the traditional coalition of blue collar whites on the one hand and blacks and academic liberals on the other.

Milliken and his middle of the road stance also creates a problem. He has taken much of the steam out of the Democrats with his programs, some of which cleared the legislature only with strong Democratic backing.

Indeed, Milliken at times has had much more support from Democrats in the legislature than from Republicans.

Not the least problem is the lack of a charismatic candidate who could congeal the party into a single enthusiastic unit.

Former Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanaugh has been stumping the state on his own behalf this year. It is considered he "lost one too many elections" to be considered a serious threat because he was forced to back out of the Senate race last year before he was officially in it.

A lot of other secondary names known in Lansing but not elsewhere have been batted back and forth. None have any sort of organization functioning well on their behalf, and in this day and age there is no such thing as a genuine draft.

Levin is keeping active since losing in 1970. He still has a number of supporters around the state from 1970 and the time he served as state chairman to deliver the state for the Democrats in 1968.

The only real threat would come if a candidate were able to spark the interest that Daniel Walker did in Illinois when he defeated the Daley Machine and won the governorship as a Democrat. Walker had money and a public name already established when he decided to run.

This may seem a bit premature to start talking about 1974 politics, but campaigns are not won in a day. Some one must start moving in the near future if a real challenge is to be made. At this point, the horizon is vacant.

Enrollments Off

Higher education was a rapidly expanding field in the sixties when expanding enrollments and new buildings were the norm.

From 1960 to 1970, enrollments in two and four-year colleges in Michigan more than doubled from 171,284 to 365,703.

Now that explosion on the campus has been muted. For the first time, the State Board of Education has warned colleges to take a second and third look before they do any more building.

The board says enrollments are increasing at a much slower pace and that they will actually start declining about 1978. Current projections say 1978 should see the peak with 458,500 students attending a two or four-year college in Michigan.

Then the enrollments are expected to start declining, with a drop of 8,000 by 1980.

The board is urging college planners to "proceed cautiously in proposing, approving or financing new programs and facilities. It is equally important for them to examine carefully existing programs and facilities to determine how adjustments can be made in the most effective and efficient manner."

It isn't just the end of the postwar baby boom that's causing the drop off.

In each of the last three years, the ratio of college enrollments to population in the 18 through 21 age brackets had declined. College education lost some of its glitter as some students turn to other more lucrative pursuits in terms of economics as well as self fulfillment.

In fact, if the ratio continues to drop, the reversal in enrollments could come sooner than 1978.

Council on Aging Seeks Aid for Elderly

The Washtenaw County Council of Aging (WCCOA) has recently launched a grassroots planning project with the intent of determining and meeting the needs of middle aged and senior citizens in the area.

Specifically, the project hoped to zero in on sections where senior citizens live and provide resource centers in those areas. It also intends to set up delivery systems that would be convenient to the senior citizens.

The driving force behind the project is Miss Carolee Uits, who received training for her job while working with community organizations in Detroit. She has a masters degree and a professional specialist certificate in aging awarded by the Institute of Gerontology, Wayne State University.

Members of the planning staff have already begun making contact with area residents. Loren Keezer, village clerk, and Mrs. Irwin Klump, secretary of the Chelsea Senior Citizens, have been contacted and will serve as resource people in the immediate vicinity.

In Dexter, Mrs. Katie McKillen, Dexter librarian, and Carl Mast, Webster township supervisor, have served as sources of information. Soja board members Floyd Layton, Evelyn Navarre and George Smith have also been tapped.

WCCOA and the Washtenaw County Citizens Committee of Economic Opportunity (CCEO) are working together to establish a permanent body dedicated to planning for all citizens 55 years of age and older.

The proposed commission will be considered at an open meeting, Wednesday, Sept. 5, at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, 306 N. Division, Ann Arbor.

Chaired by county commissioner Elizabeth Taylor, the meeting will last from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

The resolution discussed at this meeting will then be submitted to the county board of commissioners for consideration.

ASK THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Milliken

Question: What does the governor think it's trying to prevent? You can't buy beef for a good price anywhere. What are you doing about this?

Governor: Recently, I joined with other governors from the Midwest in asking President Nixon to personally review the current situation with the hope that the government policy maintaining a freeze on the price of beef until Sept. 12 can be changed. It is obvious to me that the current economic policy and Phase IV have not worked and that the freeze is proving to be counterproductive to the effort to maintain reasonable prices.

Question: Last year I read a lot about no-fault insurance and the legislation you supported, but I haven't heard much since then. Are we going to have no-fault or not?

Governor: Yes. Michigan's no-fault insurance law becomes effective on Oct. 1 of this year. That law—the most comprehensive of its kind in the nation—will mean prompt payment to those injured in accidents and greater benefits to consumers for each premium dollar.

Question: Insurance Commissioner Russell Van Hooser earlier this year established the Michigan No-Fault Insurance Information Council. That council has embarked upon a concentrated information campaign to inform the state's motorists about the change.

Governor: The freeze, according to information I have received from the Department of Agriculture, is having a negative effect on the production, processing and distribution of beef, and, in the long run, will mean higher prices. We have reached a point in this country when we're going to have to take some pretty tough and, if necessary, drastic action to get to the problems of prices and inflation, but it's obvious that the policies that have been adopted up to this point have not been successful.

Question: Can you tell me how a person goes about getting a tour of the Capitol Building?

Governor: Capitol building tours are offered every half hour each weekday beginning at 8:45 a.m. and ending at 4 p.m., and every half hour from 12 noon to 4 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. Last year, more than 192,000 people from across the state and around the world toured Michigan's Capitol Building, more than had toured the building in any previous year.

The present Capitol Building is the third in our state, and was formally dedicated during ceremonies on Jan. 1, 1879. Its total cost during that year was $1,510,130.

Community Chest Sets $28,362 Goal For Fall Campaign

The sum of $28,362 will top the Chelsea Community Chest's progress charts this year. The goal, $1,362 more than last year's, was set by the Community Chest Board at the Aug. 15 monthly meeting.

Mrs. Robert Riemenschneider, elected general campaign chairman last spring, will be in charge of seeing that the goal is met.

She will be aided in the drive by Mrs. Charles Waller, professional; Mrs. Thomas Dittmar, commercial; Arlene Barels, schools; Mrs. Jack Barnes, industrial; Mrs. Richard Kvarnberg, residential; Mrs. Dottie Riemenschneider, organizations; Mrs. Judy Aldgren, rural; Mrs. Charles Koenn, rural; and Mrs. Sam Coomes, rural.

A treasurer's report given at last week's meeting indicates that Chelsea Community Chest has paid $27,175 to its 12 dependent agencies this year. The biggest chunk, $7,000, went to the Chelsea Area Recreation Council which will be the biggest recipient again in 1974.

According to the 1974 allotment schedule approved at the meeting, $7,400 is earmarked for Chelsea's recreation program. That is not, however, as much as the Recreation Council members had hoped. They had put in a request for $8,400 to run both the summer and winter programs.

The 1974 allotment schedule includes increases for every one of the agencies, but few will be getting as much as they have requested. The local Boy Scouts of America, for example, bid for $7,333, the same request they placed a year ago. Their share is $3,550 in the new budget, $50 more than in the 1973 budget.

Similarly, the Washtenaw Association for Retarded Children will be getting an increased allotment but it will still be short of the agency's desires. $800 was the request; $400 is the allotment. Washtenaw county's chapter of the American Red Cross wanted to receive $5,281 in contributions from Chelsea's Community Chest in 1974. It has been given a promise of $3,600, $100 more than it was allowed in the 1973 budget.

Chelsea Band, another of the agencies supported by the Chelsea Community Chest, had hoped to receive $550 but $350 is all the Chest can promise.

Huron Valley Girl Scout Council upped their request from 1973's $2,500 to $2,650. Their actual share of the money collected this year will also go up, from $2,300 to $2,350. Huron Valley Child Guidance, which received $600 last year, will be getting $625 for programs in 1974.

A few of the agencies will get what they ask for if the goal of the campaign is reached. United Way of Michigan, for example, is due to receive its request of $4,487. Chelsea Social Services has been allotted its $2,700 request, which represents a $200 increase over the 1973 allotment. The Salvation Army has been promised nearly what it asked for, $1,200 instead of the hoped for $1,250.

To get less than what was requested is better than getting nothing at all. That is the opinion of the organizers of Chelsea Home Meal Service who were represented at the meeting by Carole Hoffmeyer and Mary Ann Merkel. They requested a membership for the Meal Service in the Chelsea Community Chest.

Their request cannot possibly be answered until May of '75, according to Community Chest board member Roy Greenleaf. Membership can be granted only after all current member organizations give approval.

In the meantime, the request has been referred to the budget committee. The board also voted to grant Chelsea Home Meal Service a special bequest of $500. Chelsea Community Chest chairmen were given notice at the

Mrs. Robert Riemenschneider

August monthly meeting that they are expected to be present at the next monthly meeting, Sept. 19. It will be their one and only training session before they begin the work of canvassing Chelsea for Community Chest contributions.

A portion of that meeting will also be devoted to consideration of changes in the by-laws. One such change would rename Chelsea Community Chest the Chelsea United Way. The title change is being considered because the state-wide agency, Michigan United Fund, has recently renamed itself the United Way of Michigan.

Although Chelsea's campaign is independent from the state drive, the local organization does contribute to the larger organization so that local residents need only contribute at home. The name change would lessen confusion, the board reasons.

Even a realize the material things of this world have a place, but you have been giving them too much thought, worry and bother. You step back and look at yourself and see your situation: you must come back to God for true happiness.

dedicated to farmers. The weighing in of tractors at Chelsea Milling Co. will begin the day's activities at 8 a.m. in preparation for the 10 a.m. tractor pulling contest. The lightweight classes will compete first, and competition will continue throughout the day.

Once again rides, set up by the Ingalls Amusement Co., and concessions will be in operation as will the Fair Kitchen. Those attending the fair shouldn't miss a chance to taste some home cooking at the one attraction that makes money for the fair.

Without the restaurant, this year operated by "Red" Balogh, Chelsea's Fair could not keep expanding as quickly as it has. All profits from the kitchen go to cover fair expenses.

The queen and her court will once again be in the spotlight at 6 p.m. Friday when they are formally introduced to the audience in the arena. Don Johnson and Bill Ames of the extension service will have the pleasure of introducing the girls before resuming their commentary on the tractor pull contest. The heavyweight tractor pull event will begin at 6:45 p.m.

The last day of the fair, Saturday, Sept. 1, promises to be the biggest yet. Throughout the day, starting at 9 a.m., horse and pony shows will take place. Co-chairman of this event are Mrs. J. Botsford and Andrew Ford.

A parade through town to the Fairgrounds will kick off the afternoon activities at 1 p.m. Floats put together by local organizations and high school classes will compete for prizes in two categories. The winners will take home $35, $25, and $20.

The annual bicycle give-away will be held at 2 p.m. just before the horse show resumes. Fair Board and Ingalls Amusement Co. will be footing the bill for the bikes.

Two shows, emceed by William Rademacher, will fill the evening hours. Four professional acts will make up the shows at 8 and 10 p.m. Bill Bishop and Ann will tickle funny bones while doing old magic tricks with new twists, while the Olmedas from Spain amaze the crowd with their unicycle act. The jugglers, The Torsos Brothers, and Chris Anderson on the organ will round out the show.

There are two major types of hearing loss, according to hearing specialists. One type is a conductive loss, caused by a problem in the outer or middle ear. The other type is a sensorineural—or "nerve" loss—caused by a problem in the inner ear.

Lima Priorities Discussion...

lined as areas of natural urban growth. Small settlements such as Lima Center and Jerusalem also border land that could be developed for residential use and the area around the intersection of Trinkle and Lima Center Rd. also has potential.

The largest area for residential development is around the intersection of Jerusalem and Steinbach Rds., the recommended site for an agri-community.

The element is even more specific. By analyzing the soil capabilities at each area, the report specifies what kind of residential development should occur. The land around Lima Center, for instance, should not be turned into a densely populated subdivision when its soil is suitable only for rural, that is sparse, residential development.

Similarly, by referring to soil types and present use patterns, commercial and industrial sites were found.

The element will be explained in detail Tuesday night with the visual aid of two overlays that are used with the township planning map. The translucent sheets show what areas are developed, which could be and how they should be.

If there are no serious objections, to the philosophies and intentions elaborated in the element Tuesday evening, the document should be ready for a vote of approval shortly. Then the planners can focus all their attention on the zoning ordinance which will be based on the element's specifications.

Chelsea Merchants Cream Adair In Fast Pitch Softball Game

In one of the best games of the fast pitch season, Chelsea Merchants defeated the Adair team 3-2 in a game that ended 8-1. Waller, the winning pitcher, gave up a mere four hits while Porath gave up 13.

Base hits for Chelsea's side came from Graue, who had three, Jacobs, who had two, and L. Heller, Koenigter and Lesser, who had one each.

Westgate faced Zion Lutheran in the last game of the league play Aug. 8. It was a smashing defeat for Zion, 27-9. Hitting for Westgate in the five-inning game were Beeman, Wireman, Smith and Rendell, each of whom had three hits; Boham, Wheeler, Garontakos and O'Haver who made two each; and Adams and R. Miller, who had one each.

Zion's hits came from L. Heller, a homer and a single; Graue and Bycraft, with two each; and Schoenberg, Koenigter, Jacobs and R. Bareis.

Babe Ruth All-Stars Down League Champ

Babe Ruth baseball 1973 came to an end Aug. 13 when the All-Stars faced the formidable Murphy's team which had gone through the entire season undefeated. It was Murphy's Waterloo, but they were down fighting.

The first inning of this well-played contest featured Dave Alber on the mound for Murphy's. He demonstrated one reason why he was named MVP of the season. The All-Stars went down in order by strikes.

In the second inning the All-Stars were able to take advantage of a couple of errors and a stolen base to take the lead, 1-0. They increased that lead in the fourth when Tom Nadeau led off with a double, stole third and scored on a pass ball.

In that same inning, Murphy's got their first run and added another in the sixth. Dave Alber singled, stole second just before Ben Miles, Murphy's big hitter, smacked a long triple, propelling Alber home.

In spite of this defeat, the League Champs played well with Alber, Miles and Marshall hitting well over 400. Gerald Benjamin was the most improved player on Murphy's team and Dave Alber was the most valuable. He is said to be the best pitcher by far in the league this season.

Murphy teammates are Dave Murphy, Dave Alber, Rex Miles, Tim Marshall, Don Harmon, Francis Grohner, Jammie Boyer, Mark Barnett, Doug Craft, Steve Lyerta, Jeff Eder, Randy Harris, Gerald Benjamin and Matt Merkel.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

by GLENN K. KLEINER
MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

★ Liberated from What?

The average farm wife isn't uptight about the current women's liberation movement. "Liberated from what?" most would ask. If "liberated" means being free to "do your own thing," and able to function as a first-class citizen within her world—these rights are already hers. She has no hang-ups about her identity so the "Mrs." label doesn't turn her off. She knows who she is—a full-time partner in a business enterprise where she has no need to break any discriminatory barriers to drive a tractor or help deliver a calf.

Off the farm, she takes no backseat in public affairs and in her farm organization's activities. Well-educated and well-versed on current affairs that affect her chosen way of life, you'll find her where the action is. She's a legislative leader traveling to Washington, D.C. to discuss issues of importance with her Congressman. She's a delegate to the state or national conventions to take part in deciding what the policies of her farm organization shall be. She's at a local store promoting the products raised on her farm.

When her urban counterpart took up picket signs and marched to the marketplace with demands for food price rollbacks, the farm wife went into action. The city consumer was not her enemy; on the contrary, their relationship was one of co-operation and compatibility with many common goals.

Because she knew that boycotts and price controls could mean food scarcity and higher prices, she took her only "weapon"—truth—to the arena of public opinion. In the supermarkets, at shopping malls, in the schools, she told the amazing story of a productive agriculture. Through the Farm Bureau Women's "Speakers' Bureau," she shared with urban groups the facts about food production and food prices.

How effective will she be in her efforts for understanding and support? Will consumers join forces with her in fighting the real reason for higher prices—inflation caused by irresponsible government spending?

The farm woman hopes so. Empty meat counters and bare grocery shelves are not her idea of "liberation"—for either the consumer or the producer.

Rockwell Wins Two In Slow Pitch Battle

Rockwell International defeated Chelsea Methodist church, Aug. 7, in a slow pitch game that ended 8-1. Waller, the winning pitcher, gave up a mere four hits while Porath gave up 13.

Rulea Farms faced off with Lanewood that same night and won, 14-5. Foster helped the cause for the winners with a home run and a triple. Vogel was on the mound while Hume pitched for Lanewood.

When Rockwell International met Rulea Farms on Aug. 8, it was Rulea's turn to taste the dust. Rockwell won, 15-3, a score that was helped by Waller's three home runs and a triple.

Mark IV and Lanewood fought in a high scoring and close game that ended 19-18 in Mark IV's favor. Home run hitters were Reifel, Stagner, K. MacColman and Schaffner. Lanewood lost in the bottom of the seventh when Mark IV's Stagner hit a double and scored on a single from Yedlin.

Walt's Clippers blanked Mark IV, 12-0, in their last game. Hitters were Myers, 3; Collier, 2; Bellers, 2; and French, 2. Mark IV's battery was made up of Reifel, 2; White, 1; and Attimis, 2.

Village Motor Sales got twice as many runs as IPSCO did in one of the last games of the season. The final score was 16-3. Village Motor Sales scored 12 runs in the first inning on hits by Ladley, Kiel, Everly, Erwin, Hockstra, Kaiser and Memmel and then hung on for dear life as IPSCO threatened every inning. Hits for IPSCO came from Messer, Brooks and Roberts.

Charlene J. Powers, Randall Lange Wed at Congregational Church

Charlene J. Powers and Randall Lange were united in marriage Sunday, Aug. 19, at the First Congregational Church. The Rev. Carl Johnson officiated during the 1 p.m. ceremony.

Charlene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Charles Powers of Chelsea. Randall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Lange of Lodi, Calif.

The wedding ceremony was a formal affair and made by the pastor. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a dark bow tie. The bride wore a white gown with a full skirt and a long train. The ceremony was held in the sanctuary of the church, which was filled with guests.

Mrs. Theodore Jacques, of Wisconsin, attended the bride as matron of honor. She was dressed in a white gown with a full skirt and a long train. The bridesmaids were also dressed in white gowns with full skirts and long trains.

Bridesmaids included the bride's sisters, Mrs. William J. Foster of Ypsilanti and Miss Bonnie Powers of Chelsea. They were all dressed in white gowns with full skirts and long trains.

Misses Wendy and Amy Wolfgang of Chelsea attended as flower girls. They wore long, flowing white dresses with full skirts and long trains. The ring bearer was also a young girl, dressed in a white gown with a full skirt and a long train.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Powers chose a floor-length, sleeveless pink knit dress with an accented pleated skirt. Mrs. Lange chose a citrus-colored knit floor-length gown featuring long sleeves and a v-neckline.

The Madrigals of Chelsea High school provided the music during the ceremony by singing "Bereft for Bach," "Sunrise, Sunset" and "Close to You." Clinton Fisk of Manchester accompanied them on the organ.

A lawn reception was held at the bride's home following the ceremony. Mrs. Walter Wolfgang poured punch, Mrs. David Wolfgang cut the cake and Miss Cathy Powers, cousin of the bride, attended the guest book.

Out-of-town guests included persons from California, Pennsylvania, Texas, and Ontario, Canada. After a honeymoon in Lake Tahoe, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Lange will make their new home at 718 Westwood Ave., Lodi, Calif.

Monday, Aug. 20 at 7:30 p.m. the group will hold its regular monthly business meeting.

Two Retiring from Penn Central

Frank Lachowitz of 710 W. Main St. and Earl Ward of Dexter have been railroad men as long as most people can remember. Both retire this month.

Lachowitz first signed on with Penn Central in 1927. He began in the signal maintenance department and remained there until his retirement last Friday.

Lachowitz says he was retiring about six months ahead of time because he is only 64 1/2 years old, but he figures he has worked the rails long enough. He will now devote his entire time to running the Sylvan Flower Shop, a business he has tried to maintain on a part-time basis for several years. A native of Detroit, he moved to Chelsea in 1939.

Earl Ward has put in his 47 years with Penn Central's track department. He comes from a railroad family. His father was also a track workman. He retires Aug. 31.

Lachowitz says the railroad business has changed appreciably since he first hired on. "There used to be 100 trains through here a day during World War II," he recalls. "Six would stop here." These are slower days.

Ward says he has worked for Penn Central for 47 years, retiring at 65 Aug. 31.

He put in 46 years as a signal repairman for the Penn Central. Ward, a member of the track department who has worked for Penn Central for 47 years, retires at 65 Aug. 31.

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist
Quantities of fresh Michigan vegetables are appearing in market places as harvesting of late summer crops goes into full swing, according to marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

To get the most value for your money, nutritionists warn that it's important not to overcook vegetables. Most of the nutrients and flavor in fresh vegetables is lost from overcooking and allowing them to soak for long periods of time in water during washing.

Most vegetables should be refrigerated until ready to use and not allowed to set at room temperature. For example, when sweet corn and peas are left at room temperature, the sugars they contain are quickly changed into starches and the sweetness and delightful flavor are lost.

Nutritionists suggest adding butter to vegetables after they are cooked because heat destroys the vitamin A content in butter. Salt should be added to vegetables after cooking for another reason. Salt attracts moisture. When vegetables are salted at the beginning of cooking, many of the juices and minerals are drawn out and lost in the liquids used for cooking.

That leads us to still another factor. Liquids in which vegetables are cooked should be used because they carry important nutrients and flavor. Yet this is impossible when vegetables are cooked in large quantities of water. Therefore, try adding only enough water to cover vegetables and cook over low heat.

The natural color of vegetables like bell peppers and tomatoes is preserved if properly prepared and cooked. When prepared and cooked quickly, little acid is released and the bright color remains. Hard water also destroys the attractiveness of fresh vegetables. So if you must use hard water, add a drop or two of vinegar.

Boy Scouts Home From Jamboree

Scout leaders Jim Branham and Chuck Stoner report that the young men who attended the National Jamboree this month have returned in good health, in good spirits and full of gratitude for the local people who made their trip possible.

The Kiwanis Club is foremost on the list of benefactors who aided the boys of troop 425 and 476 on their way with a generous donation.

There are also several individuals who worked in the background without whom the trip would never have been such a success. They have said "no thanks needed" but the boys know who they are and want their thanks expressed anyway.

"Without mentioning them all by name," said Chuck Stoner, "we are grateful to all those who helped make this Jamboree a memorable scouting adventure."

Methodist Home Residents Enjoy Outing at Lake

One of the highlights of the summer season for Chelsea Methodist Home residents is their trip to the Lloyd Heydlauff home on Cavanaugh Lake.

There, for the last three years, residents have been offered lemonade while they take a cruise on the Heydlauff's pontoon boat with Lloyd Heydlauff at the helm.

Friday, Aug. 17, was the date of this year's excursion which was enjoyed by 37 home residents. Ten of the guests were nursing patients who especially appreciated the chance to get out and enjoy the sparkling summer weather. The group was lucky enough to be safely home when the afternoon showers began.

They were taken to and from the Heydlauff home in the Chelsea Methodist Home limousine driven by Kathy Glenn, program service director.

As is always the case after the outing, the residents returned wishing they could adequately express their appreciation.

The average family eats its way through about 260 loaves of bread in a year.

Two Break-ins Reported in Past Week
There were two reported break-ins in the village this week, one in a home and the other in a place of business.

Thieves gained entry to Barbara Lemaster's home at 548 W. Middle some time between Aug. 17 and Aug. 20 and completely ransacked it. The contents of every drawer in every room, except for the children's, were overturned and searched. Even pictures were taken from the walls and inspected.

The culprits got away with loot totaling $250. Among the items stolen were a Kodak pocket camera, a Swinger camera, a Polaroid Square Shooter, a tape player and pearl earrings.

Entry was gained by forcing a sliding door in the basement. Fritz Schumm, at whose restaurant the other break-in occurred, was more fortunate. Nothing was found missing from the establishment, although marks were left on the liquor cabinet where someone had tried to force the lock.

Officer Roger Graves discovered the crime at 4:40 a.m., Aug. 21, while on a routine check. He saw the back door had been left open 1/2 inch. Because entry was gained by detaching a two by two foot grill at the back of the furnace room, Graves speculates that the door was left open when the would-be thieves fled.

He had conducted a similar examination of the building at 4:15 a.m. and believes that may have scared them out. The building appeared secure at that time.

There are over 7,000 known varieties of rice grown around the world.

THE FIGHT AGAINST MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY is a serious matter but one way of helping can be fun. This is what Kathy Wal-dyke and Jeff Boyer, center, discovered last Saturday when they organized a backyard Carnival for Dystrophy behind the Boyers' home. Fair Kitchen in Good Hands... Queen Contest...

night when fried chicken is the featured dish. Zion Lutheran's softball team will do the honors Thursday and turn over the trays to the Auxiliary Police Friday. Saturday, baked ham will offer a change of pace for the "regulars."

For several years now the Fair Kitchen has been the one making operation at the fair. It cleared nearly $1,000 a day a year ago, all of which went to cover fair expenses.

In the past the profits have been largely attributable to the generosity of those who donated food to the kitchen. This year, once again Carl Heller will donate the beef. Three steers will keep the kitchen well stocked.

Many pies are being donated by the Kiwanis Club, the Auxiliary Police and others, but other than that, Mrs. Balogh hasn't had much luck getting donations. As a result, prices, except those for breakfasts, will be slightly higher than last year.

While her mother was away on vacation this week, Celeste has ordered 100 pounds of hot dogs, 300 pounds of turkey and 300 pounds of pork. That is only a beginning. She says, "We are expecting even bigger crowds than last year." It sounds as if they'll be prepared.

Jiffy Mix Starts Softball Tournament
Jiffy Mix is sponsoring an invitational softball tournament this week which will pit eight teams against one another Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Seven of the competing teams are veterans of Chelsea Area Recreation Council play. The other team will come from Saline.

The games will take place at Chelsea High school field at 6 and 8:30 Thursday and Friday, and throughout the day on Saturday. The winning team will take home a trophy.

This is the first time Jiffy has sponsored such an event.

geant would lack without entertainment.

The possibility of working up a routine in which all the girls would sing and dance was rejected since three of the five nominees are away this week. There is too little time to rehearse.

Fair week will start for the girls Tuesday evening when they don their evening gowns and gather at a tea given by Mrs. Eubanks and her committee. The judges will be there to meet the girls and appraise their poise.

Judging this year are Bob Kime, a Manchester resident who is a member of the Michigan Kidney Foundation; Marge Lester of Jackson; and Pat Schoenfeld, past past-president of the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary. She resides in Swartz Creek.

After the tea the girls will be whisked away in shiny convertibles to take part in the annual children's parade which will end in the ribbon cutting ceremony at the fairgrounds gate. Judi Blaess, last year's queen, will wield the scissors with help from Village

President E. A. (Mac) Fulk and Fair President Allen Broesamle. This event will take place at 8:45. Then the candidates are off to an interview conducted by WPAG radio.

They will next appear on the stage in front of the grandstand at 8:30 when the pageant begins. The candidates will be introduced by emcee David McLaughlin. After each has demonstrated her talent, McLaughlin will ask them questions to help the judges make their final decision. The crowning will conclude the program.

The queen will be given a dozen long-stemmed roses and gifts donated by local merchants. Each of the contestants will be given a charm by the Fair Board to help her remember when she reigned at the Chelsea Community Fair.

Kiddies Carnivals Net $82 for M-D

Christine Schirmacher's backyard Carnival for Dystrophy was a roaring success last Saturday. It was the one organized by Jeff Boyer and Kathy Waldyke at 515 Chandler St. The two events brought in $82.07 to fight muscular dystrophy.

"We had a mob," said Christine, obviously thrilled that the

Tokens Permit Entry To Eat at Fair Kitchen

The Chelsea Boy Scouts, who will be parking cars again this year at the fairgrounds, will be offering a new convenience to those who wish to lunch at the Fair Kitchen without paying admission to the Fair.

Scouts at the main gate will be selling Good Faith tokens, small tags that allow entry to the restaurant between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m., Tuesday through Friday. The tokens cost 50 cents but the money will be refunded if the token is redeemed immediately after lunch as the patron leaves.

In past years many persons who wished to patronize the Fair Kitchen during the lunch hours resented having to pay the admission fee when they were not going to take in the fair.

Some people were able to talk ticket sellers into allowing them in on their word, but the practice was sometimes abused. "Most people did just eat, but it was the 10 percent who took advantage of it that caused the trouble," says Art Stelmaway, scoutmaster of troop 465.

The Good Faith Tokens will be sold only at the main gate on the east side of the fairgrounds, and only during lunch time Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. No tokens will be sold for dinners and none will be sold on Saturday.

The four scout troops will take turns manning the parking lots during the first four days of the fair and they will share the work Saturday. Each troop will be given 10 percent of the money they take in while selling admission tickets as they park the cars.

In the past, most troops have earned approximately $150 that way. The money goes toward troop projects. Troop 465 is general chairman of the project this year. Other participating troops are 420, 425, and 476.

H. Koenns Attend NAAB Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Koenn of Chelsea were part of the record crowd of more than 600 persons attending the 27th annual meeting of the National Association of Animal Breeders in New Orleans.

They heard Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Clayton Yeutter explain foreign influence on domestic agriculture and food costs. He was the keynote speaker at the convention which was held Aug. 12-15.

dismal turnout of the week before was not repeated. She had originally scheduled her carnival for the week-end of the Sidewalk Sales and no one came.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was the announcement of raffle winners. Bea Dobbs of 524 N. Main St., took home a fondue set that had been donated by Winans Jewelry Store. Lovella Altwater of 19200 Oak Ridge Dr., was the lucky winner of a clock, while Kathy Doll of Helm Rd. won the large stuffed animal that had been eyed by all the kids. Larry Doll contributed to the $82.07 collected at Christine's carnival by selling sweet corn during the afternoon in the Schirmacher's back yard. He donated a large portion of the money he earned.

The Chandler St. carnival featured a magic show, with magician Jeff Boyer, and fortune telling with Kathy Waldyke. Such attractions as a bean bag and sponge throw kept the kids busy while they contributed $30 to the Muscular Dystrophy Fund.

As Christine Schirmacher said, "There were lots of nice prizes given away, but the best gift of all will be received by the kids with muscular dystrophy who will be helped by the donations."

Cub Scout Den Holds Summer Olympics

Sunday afternoon, Aug. 19, Cub Scout Pack 415 held its summer Olympics at Waterloo church grounds. James Sprague was in charge of the activities.

On hand were cubmaster Gene Ahrens, den mothers Mrs. George Atkinson and Mrs. Roger Graves and many cubs, guests and parents.

Tony Klobuchar made a day of it, taking first-place honors in the rope climb, the high jump and the distance run. His success earned him the medal for excellence for his Den 5.

Andy Ahrens was the medal for excellence winner in the Webelo Den and Todd Sprague was the recipient in Den 1. Andy was third in the rope climb, first in the baseball throw and first in the wheelbarrow race when he aired with Chuck Spencer.

Todd's competence came out in the basketball shoot and the dash. He took first in those events and second in the rope climb and the baseball throw.

Roger Graves also did well for himself in the events. He was third in the high jump, third in the baseball throw and third in the distance run. He and his brother Randy were third in the wheelbarrow race. Randy was second in the basketball shoot.

Mike Bice was third in the basketball shoot and received his Webelo book and pin.

In addition to being first in the wheelbarrow race with Andy Ahrens, Chuck Spencer was third in the dash.

All the events built up appetites which were satisfied with a potluck picnic.

Registrations Now Taken for PP&K Meet

Local youngsters will be "dusting off" their footballs and loosening up their throwing arms soon for the 1973 Punt, Pass & Kick competition.

This year the local level of PP&K, now in its 13th year, is co-sponsored by the National Football League and the Ford Dealers of America. Since it was started in 1961, the program has attracted more than 9,350,000 youngsters—and participation this year is expected to top the 1,200,000 mark.

Participants in the Punt, Pass & Kick program compete only against others their own age. Any youngster 8 through 13 years of age, accompanied by a parent or guardian, may register to compete in PP&K at any partici-ing Ford dealer. There is no entrance fee and no body contact during competition. No special equipment is needed and participation does not impair a youngster's amateur standing.

Scoring is based on accuracy and range with one point added for every foot of punting, passing and kicking distance, and a point subtracted for every foot off a center line.

Twelve national finalists will compete for the National championships in their age group during the halftime of the Super Bowl Game in Houston, Tex., Jan. 13. Winners will have their names permanently enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, O. Their trophies will be presented by Football Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Thousands of medical workers are trained each year by the Veterans Administration to staff its own hospitals and to serve in the private sector.

Neil Bollinger Attends State FFA Chapter President's Conference

Neil Bollinger represented the Chelsea FFA Chapter at the Chapter President's Conference on the Michigan State University Campus, Aug. 20 and 21.

More than 100 local, regional, and state FFA officers participated in the conference designed to prepare chapter officers for their leadership roles during the coming year. Bill Kingma, Davenport College, Grand Rapids; Larry Ewing, Michigan Farm Bureau, Lansing; Richard Arnold, WKAR Radio, East Lansing; and Robert Hinton, National FFA Southern Region Vice-President, Sydney, Fla., served as resource persons during the conference.

The conference, sponsored by the Michigan Association of FFA, a 9,000 member organization of Vocational Education students preparing for agricultural careers, and the National FFA Foundation, focused on providing opportunities for all local chapter members as well as on state and national activities.

VETERANS ELIGIBLE
While veterans with non-service connected disabilities are eligible for Veterans hospital treatment on a bed available basis, beds are always available to veterans with service connected disabilities.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By LOUIS BURGHARDT

Abraham Lincoln said of the Bible, "It is the best gift God has given to man." His words might also be paraphrased, "It is the best gift man can give to man." The birth, growth and functions of the American Bible Society illustrate the truth in both statements.

The American Bible Society was formed on May 11, 1816, in New York City, for the purpose of making the scriptures available to all people everywhere. From a modest start with 60 American Christians (including many prominent men of the time), the Society now includes 55 denominations which actively support it. In the past 150 plus years, over 750 MILLION copies of scriptures have been distributed in 95 countries. The Society is dedicated to the purpose of supplying a copy of scriptures in his own language to every person in the world who wants the word of God. When you think of it, it must be admitted that the Society was the pioneer for our widespread unumcinal movement for Christian unity. The Society does not need or want congratulations. It needs and is entitled to support in their dedicated effort. . . . BURGHARDT FUNERAL HOME, 214 East

Farm Pond Provides Many Benefits If Safely Designed

A farm pond, like any body of public and charge a user fee. It may be discovered that additional protection, through insurance, will be needed.

It should be definitely decided what use is to be made of the water so proper safety measures may be planned prior to construction. For example, placing guards over conduits where swimming will be allowed, or where diving facilities are to be provided, establishing a minimum water depth for safety.

Additional safety measures that the contractor should take during construction is the removal of stumps, snags, big rocks, trash, wire, rubbish, junk machinery, and fences from the reservoir area that are potential hazards to swimming and boating. Sudden dropoffs, steep side slopes and deep holes should be eliminated. Escape ramps should be provided where side slopes are steeper than 3:1.

After completion of the pond, safe swimming areas should be designated and appropriate warning signs placed near specific danger areas. The addition of a rescue station with lifesaving equipment is a very economical method of improving safety. Equipment such as a ring buoy, rope, inner tube, wooden plank, long pole, or a screw cap gallon plastic jug with about one inch of water in it, any one of which is located in plain sight or use, can reduce injuries and perhaps save lives.

According to William Fishbeck, chairman of the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District, 25 farm ponds were constructed last year. The privilege of having a pond on his property gives the owner additional responsibilities, states Fishbeck. Posting the pond against trespassers does not relieve the owner of these responsibilities. Each pond owner has the moral obligation to his family, friends, and neighbors to make his pond as safe as possible by providing appropriate safeguards that can prevent an incident from becoming an accident or even a fatality, continues Fishbeck.

Your farm pond can be a source of pleasure as well as profit but only if it is safe: it's all up to you!

KEY EXHIBITION Chelsea Community Fair was a success story as Susan Horst discovered a year ago when she showed her prize Holstein. After a long day of exhibition, ranging from horse shows to tractor pulls, she was ready for a nap with a good friend. She will be back again this year, Aug. 28 through Sept. 1, this time with her rabbit. She and her brothers and sister, Hob, Erwin and Elizabeth, are members of Rogers Corners Herdsmen 4-H club. They all will be participating in the livestock competition. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Horst, Freer Rd.

Youth Dies Tuesday in Auto Crash

A Dexter youth died early Tuesday morning on Dexter-Chelsea Rd., when the car he was driving struck a tree.

Richard Alan Young, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Young, 8310 Huron River Dr., was westbound on Dexter-Chelsea Rd. at 9:20 a.m. Tuesday.

Washtenaw county sheriff's deputies say he lost control of his car near Lima Center Rd. and went into a ditch on the right-hand side of the road. The vehicle then travelled for 360 ft. between a sign and a fence before striking a tree. Young died instantly.

Film Showing of Fulfilled Prophecy Set at Immanuel

On Sunday night, Aug. 26, at 8:30 p.m., at Immanuel Bible church, 145 E. Summit St., will be presenting a 16-mm. color film entitled "The Return." Filmed in the Holy Land, the film proposes that the events of our day are really the unfolding of the intricate and incredible plan of which the prophets spoke. It suggests that we are standing, not at the end of things, but where they begin in the literal return of Jesus Christ.

According to the Rev. LeRoy Johnson, it challenges people of a searching generation to pause and give God a chance to provide forgiveness and hope. Everyone is invited to attend.

Debaters Return From EMU Clinic With Honors

Chelsea debaters have returned from Eastern Michigan University's debate institute with honors. Of the six novice and one varsity members of the squad that attended the session Aug. 5-18, Terry Gilbreath and Sharon Schiller were the most accomplished. They earned the title of third-ranked novice team and they tied for the third best individual speaker award.

Brenda Shadoan and Kurt Alhouse tied for fifth ranked individual speaker in the novice division.

Jim Rady, Brad Glazier and Keith Cockerline, who was the one varsity debater attending from Chelsea, were the other members of Chelsea's contingent.

School Board Briefs

There were many contracts and business arrangements to be approved at Monday night's Board of Education meeting.

Attending were trustees Hasel-schwardt, Koenn, Hodgson, Daniels, Irwin, Schafer, and Stirling. Superintendent Cameron, Business Manager Mills, Principals Conklin, Lane and Wojcik and Assistant Principal Lapanowski also attended.

Janice Newhouse and Art Schiller were guests.

The board certified the 1973-74 tax levy for operation at 22.2 mills, the 1968 debt retirement fund at 1.23 mills and the 1968 debt retirement fund at 1.75 mills. The total, 25.2 mills, is the same as the 1972-73 levy as stipulated by district residents at the polls a year and a half ago.

The board accepted the bid of the Michigan Association of School Board's Group Insurance Services for administrator's insurance for the 1973-74 year. The total premium comes to $12,095.04.

The board accepted the bid of the Hickory Ridge Farm Dairy of Stockbridge for 7.25 cents per half pint for white milk and 8 cents for half pint of chocolate milk. Last year's contract listed white milk at 6.35 cents per half pint and 6.5 cents per half pint for chocolate.

Other bids submitted for the school included a price escalator clause which would allow the price to go up during the year. Business Manager Mills advised against those and suggested the board take a sure price even though it was not the lowest.

The board signed contracts with Joe Rossi and Mrs. Jane Lehmann for the coming year. Mrs. Lehmann is the new director of the instructional materials center at Beach school. Rossi signed a new contract because he has moved from the BA to the MA category.

The board adopted a resolution requesting that Washtenaw Intermediate School District take action to place the issue of an area vocational technical program on the ballot in February 1974.

The board adopted a resolution to institute an insurance program to cover all students in the school district during school hours at the school district's expense. Coverage is to be provided by GM Underwriters, Inc. at $1.20 per pupil. This policy covers all athletes, as well. Before this action was taken, insurance was taken out individually by students.

The board adopted state guidelines for free and reduced-price lunches. The guidelines will be published in full in next week's Standard.

The board directed Superintendent Cameron to actively involve himself in the efforts of the Career Education Planning District in the best interest of career education in the district. He was also requested to make regular reports of CEPD activities. The previous board of education had expressed little official interest in CEPD activities.

A letter from V. O. Johnson was read in which the general chairman of the citizen's advisory committee thanked the board for his opportunity to serve and for the board's co-operation.

Principal Lane discussed the proposed building trades program which is to be instituted in 1973-74. The school system is still looking for a qualified teacher to take on the new program.

A bid from Ayling Cunningham for the construction of the bus transfer facility at Beach Middle school was accepted. It will cost $48,570. Construction has begun.

The school district received no bids from fuel companies to supply the schools with fuel and oil so it will now have to negotiate a price with the company that has been supplying it.

The board rescinded its earlier action vowing to comply with Federal Bus Safety Standard No. 17. It will comply with the federal standard as soon as the new buses arrive. In the meantime, it will comply as nearly as possible with the safety rules as regulated by the State Department of Education. The buses the district now has can not accommodate all students in seats which the Federal standard requires. The buses are expected in late November or December.

Summer Blood Donor Clinic Nets 86 Pints

Bob Blank's blood drive was turned a success last week by Red Cross spokesmen who said the 86 pints given superseded their expectations.

Responding to sign-up sheets posted in places of business in the community, 109 would-be donors visited the Bloodmobile, Aug. 18, while it was parked at the fairgrounds for the afternoon.

As is frequently the case, a handful were turned away because they did not satisfy the stringent requirements that must be met before blood may be given.

Given the number of persons who have made appointments to give blood, the Red Cross expected to take in only 80 pints. They were pleasantly surprised when that quota was achieved and passed.

Bob says Dick Cail of the Chelsea Jaycees is due some of the credit for the good turn-out. He furnished Bob with a valuable list of past donors.

Mrs. Jerrold Beaumont and Mrs. George Staffan joined the many volunteer workers named in last week's issue of The Chelsea Standard to see that donors were ushered through the giving process.

Bob, a member of local Scout Troop 476, organized the bloodmobile visit to fulfill one of the requirements for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. He now must make a report on the project.

Bob commented that organizing the project was fun and a good way for him to meet many people in the community. He and his family only recently moved to the area.

7th, 8th Grade Bands To Lead Kiddies Parade

Seventh and eighth grade bands will be providing the music for the annual Kiddies Parade, which will usher in Chelsea Community Fair Week.

The bands will practice for the event Monday, Aug. 27, 8 a.m. at Beach Middle school. The marching rehearsal will be held on the grounds.

They will meet again the next evening at 5:30 p.m. in the municipal parking lot to prepare to strike up a tune for the parade which will begin at 6:00 p.m.

Karen Nye Graduates With Honors at WMU

Karen M. Nye, of 13787 Waterloo, was among the 169 scholars graduating with honors at Western Michigan University's summer commencement, Friday, Aug. 17. She graduated cum laude with a grade point average between 3.5 and 3.69.

FUTURE TOURIST ATTRACTION?

In 1880 Thomas Hughes, whose classic "Tom Brown's School Days" was modeled after Rugby, his own British school, founded a settlement of the same name about 50 miles northwest of Knoxville. The venture failed, but the old buildings of Rugby, Tennessee, are now being restored and may become a tourist attraction.
