Spook Houses, Party Readied For Halloween

Chelsea's annual Halloween activities are being prepared for this week. The Kiwanis Club's annual octogenarian night is being held at the Kiwanis Club on Monday night. The club is sponsoring a party at the Kiwanis Club on Monday night. The club is sponsoring a party at the Kiwanis Club on Monday night.

A multi-episode version of Hell, complete with infernal, has been prepared for the annual octogenarian night. The club is sponsoring a party at the Kiwanis Club on Monday night. The club is sponsoring a party at the Kiwanis Club on Monday night.

Inspired Grid Team Defeats S. Lyon, 14-9

Second Half Rally Pulls Bulldogs Back into Serious Title Contention

Ron Kiel's two-yard touchdown gallop with 34 seconds remaining in the game ended an 11-play drive from Chelsea's own 47-yard line to bring home another victory for the Bulldogs, 14-9. The defeat of South Lyon put the local team's record at 3-1 and kept them in contention for the Southeastern conference title.

Despite a lot of Big Ten style fanfare provided at half-time by 170 visiting members of the University of Wisconsin's marching band who stayed overnight in South Lyon Friday, the Lions' loss nearly eliminated their SEC crown aspirations. The Lions' record now stands at 2-3.

Marathon Basketball Set for Friday

Although the quality of the game may not quite be up to that of, say, the Celtics and the Lakers, the "cause" for the National Honor Society's marathon basketball game tomorrow night beats any the pros have offered in a while.

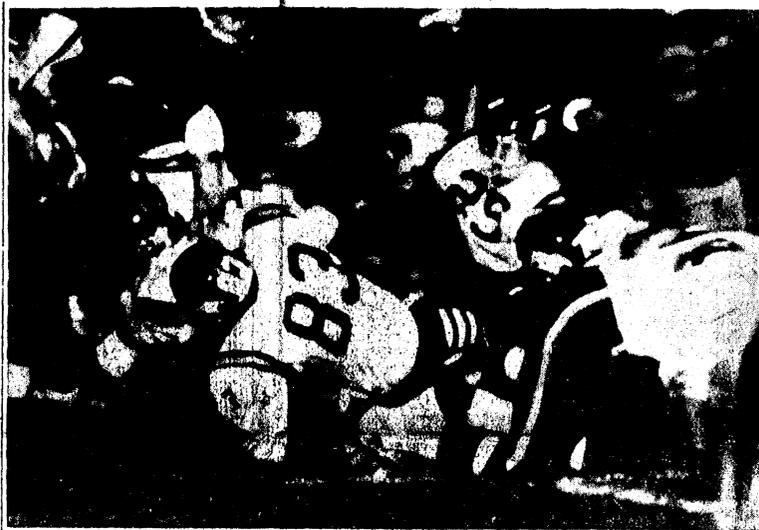

Apparently a bit of locker-room rhetoric by Coach Phil Bareis put some kind of inspiration into the local blue and golds, as they returned to the field after half-time ceremonies with more than a little fire in their performance.

Offensively Chelsea was led by 83 yards rushing from both Doug Reed and Ron Kiel, and 38 yards from Todd Ortbirg. Defensively, the team was paced by Howard Haselschwardt's total of 15 tackles; Rick Miller's 10; and nine each by Dale Poertner, Dave Tucker, Rodger Stewart, and Dennis Bauer.

School Bond Issue Is for $4.8 Million

Chelsea Board of Education and concerned residents working for passage of the school millage proposal Dec. 17 wish to supply a bit of alternative wording to the millage story which appeared in last week's issue of The Standard.

The board reports that it has worked long and hard to arrive at a figure which it considers more acceptable to village taxpayers than the original one presented by the architects, while still retaining the basic propositions cited as necessary by the citizens ad hoc advisory committee.

IT LOOKED LIKE THE BULLDOGS OF OLD when Ron Kiel plunged a yard on third down for the winning touchdown of the night last Friday with only 34 seconds remaining in the game. Kiel is somewhere amid the falling bodies in the picture above, although not quite visible, but rest assured he is over the goal line. Chelsea took the game from the South Lyon Lions, 14-9, in what was termed "the battle of the year thus far in the Southeastern Conference." The Bulldogs remain in contention for the SEC title, and meet Milan, another contender, tomorrow night at home.

Funds collected in the drive will aid in support of UNICEF's multi-phase program in developing nations for preventative medicine, disease control, education and other basics generally taken for granted in this country.

The Monday, winners of Chelsea Recreation Council's Halloween poster contest will be announced. At the moment Mrs. Terry Kamler and Mrs. Laurie Lazebnik, Chelsea High school art instructors, are judging the entries which were to be submitted by Wednesday, Oct. 24, for originality and design.

Local teens have turned the place into a haunted house, complete with all the elements of spookiness needed to enable children to indulge in the entertainment of scaring themselves half-awards will be presented for costumes found to be most comical, most original, spookiest, and most typical of Halloween. Three prizes will be given in each category, with winners receiving first, second, and third prizes of $3, $2, and $1, respectively.

United Way Campaign at 48% of Goal

Although the originally designated time span for this year's United Way campaign ended 10 days ago, Mrs. Robert Riemenschneider reports that the drive will continue until planners are certain all persons and parts of the community have been contacted for contributions. She expects the drive to end Oct. 31.

Mrs. Riemenschneider emphasizes that, "We certainly hope we meet our goal, and we think we should be able to do it with this expanded drive. We want to make certain that everyone in the community is contacted."

Presently with only rural, school, and residential chairman submitting final totals, the amount collected stands at $13,634.92, a little less than half of the 1973 goal of $28,362.

Other local beneficiaries include Chelsea Social Services, which acts as an interim aid agency to local people in need of help too desperately to await transferral to the appropriate county, state or federal service; local Boy and Girl Scouts; Catholic Social Service of Washtenaw County; and the Salvation Army.

BRINGING HOME THE TROPHIES is getting to be a weekly thing like bringing home the bacon for Chelsea High school debaters. Last Saturday at Ann Arbor Huron High school, the team received the first-place team trophy for its performance against 37 other schools, many of them Class A. Coupled with individual speakers trophies received, the effort was rated the finest ever by Chelsea debaters.

Debate Team Sweeps Tourney

In what was termed a "highly successful week-end" by coach William Coelius, Chelsea debaters received four speaker trophies and the first-place team trophy in last Saturday's tournament at Ann Arbor Huron High school.

Receiving top awards in their individual classifications were Brenda Shadoan, who received a first place among the first negative debaters; Brad Glazier, a first among second negatives; and Sharon Schiller, a first among second affirmatives.

Participating in the debates were one switch-side team, composed of varsity debaters Steve Bennett and Brian Smith, who finished with a 2-2 record; a novice team of Terry Galbraith and Sharon Schiller as affirmative

UNICEF BEGGARS: All-American-looking children like these will collect Sunday afternoon for children all over the world, as Church Women United sponsors its annual UNICEF Halloween drive. Some of the canvassers who will be among the door-to-door workers are, from left, Anne Weber, Shelly Weber, Joan Weber, Tim Greenleaf, Vaughn Mills, and Scott Mills. Mrs. Ronald Bardsers, chairman of the drive, who is just barely visible behind her charges, reminds children to turn their collections in at the basement of the First United Methodist church that afternoon, where they will be served treats by Mrs. Thomas Eisele.

UNICEF Collection Will Help Youth in Undeveloped Countries

In one of the larger incongruities of our society, children of this, one of the best-fed and best-clothed countries in the world, have made "begging" for candy and assorted treats an annual event from what used to be a religious holiday.

By 1936, UNICEF assisted more than 118 countries with its 540 programs. It had changed its emphasis from providing relief entirely for natural and man-made disaster to attempts to conquer some of the basic causes which endanger, weaken, cripple and stunt children. The most immediate and alarming of these problems were wide-spread hunger and disease, which UNICEF attacked with campaigns against tuberculosis, malaria, trachoma, yaws, leprosy, and malnutrition.

Gridders of the Week

DOUG REED (32) is a junior fullback playing his first year of varsity football. Inexperience doesn't seem to be hindering his abilities, however, as last week he was tied with Ron Kiel for leading-rusher honors at 53 yards. Besides football, which he has played since 7th grade, Doug is a member of the wrestling and baseball teams. He is an active member of the student council and enjoys "typical things" like waterskiing, hunting and fishing in his spare time. The son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Reed, 13850 North Territorial Rd., Doug has two younger brothers, Tim, 15, and Greg, 13.

ISHMAEL PICKLESIMER (33) is the Bulldog kicker of whom Coach Barcia has been heard to declare, "I'm going to paint the kid's toe gold if he has another game like the Homecoming one." So far Ishmael apparently has managed to avoid the coach's artwork, however. He was moved up to the varsity squad during his freshman year (he is presently a junior), and intends to begin working out for track as soon as football season ends. His future after high school is presently somewhat indefinite, as he plans to attend college but is uncertain which one or what major he will pursue. In his spare time he enjoys hunting and waterskiing. His brothers and sisters number nearly enough for a football squad in themselves: Ted, 24; Jerry, 23; Linda, 20; Rita, 19; Sam, 12; and James, 11. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ishmael Picklesimer of 460 North St.

First of Kiwanis-Sponsored Travel Films Shown

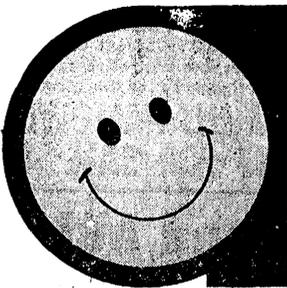

In the first offering of the 1973 Kiwanis Travel series, Julian Gromer last Saturday presented "Wheels Across Europe," his film of a bicycle excursion by 44 college men.

Gromer, who has produced films dealing with the Atlantic, Pacific, and Gulf coasts, and the Columbia, Amazon, and Colorado Rivers, plus various sections of the United States, personally narrated the presentation at Chelsea High school auditorium.

High adventures and beautiful scenery characterized the film. Proceeds of the presentation benefited local Kiwanis club projects.

Next in the series will be Robert Brouwer's "America—of The I Sing," on Nov. 17.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

THIRD GRADE—

Teacher: Mrs. Lawver
Mrs. Lawver's third graders have been very busy learning about plants. They learned that a desert plant has much longer roots than a plant in the forest because it must go deeper to find water. Pop corn, field corn, sugar cane, impatiens, wild cucumbers and apple seeds have taken much of their time to plant.

We have several new additions to our class, a gerbil named Sylvester, and a bowl full of guppies. The guppies recently gave birth and so their are many little ones. Sylvester perhaps could be a little more sociable.

The class has been very busy learning about some of the groups of Indians in America. The class has divided into four groups and are busily making scenes for the Plain Indians, Woodland Indians, Pueblo and Pacific Coast Indians. Their creative writing papers on "Who I would like to be" turned out most interesting. We have several hopeful football and baseball players, movie stars, and even someone who would like to be a bird.

Teacher: Mrs. Sanders
In Miss Sanders, third grade class, we have been doing some creative writing. This week we pondered the question, "How did the camel get its humps?" We came up with some very interesting answers. Here are just a few of them:

"One day a camel had the hiccups. Evertime he hiccupped his back went up. And once his back went up and stayed up. And that's how the camel got his hump"—Nancy Weir.

"One day a camel named Fred was walking down the street. He was very thirsty. Suddenly he saw a pond. He got a drink. Suddenly a big large frog went down his throat. That is how the camel got his hump"—Mark Brosnan.

"One day a baby camel was walking down the street. He saw a red car and the man looked familiar. He was the zoo keeper from the Pennsylvania zoo. The camel said, Pardon me sir, but I've lost my way." The zoo keeper could hardly believe his eyes, a talking animal. He kept saying, "A talking animal." He said it three times. The camel got so tired of saying yes that he fell over, and when he got up he had two bumps on his back. So that is how the camel got his humps"—Melanie Lee.

Teacher: Mrs. Peet

We've been learning about American Indians. Mark Smith brought in an Indian collection that belongs to his great-grandfather. It had lots of Indian arrowheads and stone tools and other things. Kim Boyd brought in an Indian doll whose head was made from a shrunken apple. We are going to each make one of these in our room.

We have put a woodland terrarium together also. It has many plants and a pond. We have also got some animals: a toad, a tree frog, a frog and two salamanders.

We feed them flies and hamburger and they have also eaten a moth and caterpillar. Damon Mark has brought in his hamster to add to our collection of animals. We have been planting seeds and have lots of flowers and vegetables coming up. We are learning to take care of plants.

FOURTH GRADE—

Teacher: Mrs. Hafer
Reporters: Angela Richardson, Jennifer Classon, Todd Sprague and Leon Walworth

In social studies we just finished studying Alaska. Mrs. Hafer taught us a song "Umiak, Kayak" and we learned some Eskimo words. Umiak means a boat for many men, mukluk is an Eskimo boot, tupik means an Eskimo tent and nanook means polar bear.

We have a guinea pig in our room this year and her name is Brandy. She has a little tuft on her back. We are getting ready for Open House. We put fall leaves on bright paper and covered them with contact paper. Greg Ackley, Steve Grau and Craig Wirtz brought in wheat, hay, soybeans, feed, corn and oats. Then they made a bulletin board showing farm animals and what they eat.

We have a new Individualized Reading Center. We enjoy reading in our free time. Mrs. Hafer brought in some new math games that she made. They are really fun.

This year the fourth graders have safety patrol and safety duty.

Last Friday six members of the advanced speech class from the high school gave us a presentation on Hawaii. It was very good and we learned some new things. The students were: Karen Bassett, Rob in Schneider, Chuck Clemons, Bob Tobin, Becky Collins and Andrea Dowhol.

Teacher: Mrs. Pietila
Reporter: Philip Powers
So far this year Mrs. Pietila's class has been great.

In gym we played Mrs. Schmidt's room in goal-line soccer. We won in a three out of four series.

In social studies we have been studying Hawaii. It is very interesting. We made maps of the eight islands. Randy Graves carved an outrigger canoe out of balsa wood.

The new people here are Dan Kleis, Mark Bullock, Doug Burchett, and the teacher, Mrs. Pietila. Dan Kleis and Doug Burchett like to play kickball. Mark Bullock likes to play with his friends. Mrs. Pietila likes to teach.

One day Mrs. Pietila brought a turtle she found to school. She let it go after school near the creek and the next day Randy Graves found it on the playground hill.

Birthdays in September were Karen Armstrong and Phillip Bowers.

Birthdays in October: Melissa Arnett. We will have more soon.

Teacher: Mrs. Schmidt
Reporter: Kathleen Ingram

We are studying about the 4th state, Alaska. Paul Burkhouse, Karyn Pierce, Alan Hale and Cathy Williams reported on Alaskan cities. A lot of people in our room made totem poles for the Alaskan Bulletin Board.

In reading, a lot of people reported on Revolutionary War personalities.

In English, we are learning how to read poetry to the class. This year we have a new pet guinea pig named Snoopy. One of the teachers from last year, Mrs. Mortensen, gave him to us.

We have new students in our 4th grade room: Laurie Voita, Jahine Hoffman and Paul Burkhouse.

We have had quite a few birthdays. Juanita Bycraft, Matt Bennett, Bobby Pritchard, Karyn Pierce, Sue White, Paul Burkhouse and Robert Benedict are all one year older.

Third grade students have made large paper mache birds and bugs painted with an assortment of colorful patterns and coated with a shiny finish. The birds fly over while the bugs crawl under a woody setting in our school showcase.

We have just completed crayon engravings (lines scratched through paint to reveal a bright underlayer of crayon) Indian project of simulated dyed leather scenes with symbol borders.

St. Louis School Notes

Last week the boys celebrated two October birthdays, those of Scotty Mitchell and Dino Clay. As for every such celebration, everyone enjoyed cake and ice cream, but a special treat was balloons sent by Dino's mother, which decorated the room. Each boy also received a hat, and the usual candy and nuts.

Last Thursday, the older boys went to the planetarium at the University of Michigan's museum of natural history. They also observed a number of exhibits of animals, and even dinosaurs.

designs derived from the patterns they found in sliced fresh fruits and vegetables. Though they were tempted to nibble on the oranges, they resisted, and their finished works are beautiful.

The next challenge for the fourth graders was still life drawing in ink from an assortment of antiques, shells and weeds. They enriched their ink drawings with shapes of richly colored tissue paper.

The day of fish printing was full of excitement. Pressing paper onto inked flounder, salmon, white fish and bass as has been done in Oriental countries for centuries proved to be a new experience for many fourth graders.

On Saturday, the boys participated in a basketball game against boys from Boysville in Macon, directed by Brother William Fall-ella. The Boysville crew defeated the St. Louis Roosters, 65-60. After the game the entire group enjoyed punch and cookies, and then played pool and generally entertained themselves for a social hour.

Sunday Father Germano took the boys on a bus ride to the Grass Lake and Brooklyn areas, and around by the Irish hills, where they enjoyed a beautiful afternoon.

Monday the boys picked out their Halloween pumpkins, compliments of Mr. and Mrs. Widmayer.

For Veterans' Day Monday, the boys observed silence in the dining room.

This week the Don Guenella feast will be celebrated in honor of the founder of the order which staffs St. Louis school.

Friday the boys will go home to their parents for the week-end and will return Sunday.

THE L & R RESTAURANT, THE DAY MENI & over a cup Joe Aspiranti, has expanded its service with a large addition to the former drive-in. The L & R Restaurant, a family enterprise of the

The family that works together stays together and, happily, makes a profit.

That's what Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Aspiranti, owners of the L & R Restaurant have learned.

For the past six years their four children have pitched in and kept the family business going at the corner of North Territorial and Dexter Townhall Rds. And after building a large addition and redecorating the restaurant this summer, they have become even more involved in the business.

While dad took away at his job in sheet metal construction, mom oversees the work of Joe, Jr., 18, who is the chief chef, John, 17, also a cook, Mrs. Toni Lynn Burnett, 20, waitress, and Mary Beth, 12, who helps out on week-ends.

"The older kids were just 10, 12 and 14 years old when we bought the drive-in," notes Betty. "They've kind of grown up with the business and seem to enjoy it." She adds that Joe has become a first-rate cook with pizza his current specialty.

Two years of planning and building went into the 30x50 foot dining room addition. "My husband, Joe, is the chief designer and builder," adds his proud wife. "He did most of the building himself."

In order to make room for the addition, the Aspirantis had to cut down some lovely oak trees. They made good use of them, however, in beams for the ceiling.

The cheerful turquoise booths and shades and many tables in the dining room area make for pleasant dining. During the summer rush, the Aspirantis hired extra help. During the winter months they will be open for lunch and dinner (See their ad inside for October specials).

While keeping the well-known L and R name, the dining room is now known as the Little Rooster.

The Aspirantis live at Half Moon Lake. Although Betty admits she "really doesn't like to cook," she says the restaurant business has been part of her family life. (Her brother was one of the youngest chefs hired by the Ponchartraine Hotel.) Even so she seems to have instilled a fondness for the food business in her children.

Here Are the Answers To Questions on Millage Vote

Authoritative answers supplied by School Board, School Administrators, and State Representatives

Q. Why are additional facilities needed?

A. Transferring of the fifth grade to Beach school should give some insight into the critical space problem. Because of the shortage of rooms, there are nine periods in the high school program. Expansion of the Vocational Education program is badly needed—electronics, power mechanics, drafting, graphic arts, metal shop. More room is needed for Physical Ed. Areas for special teachers are necessary—remedial reading, speech correction, special education, arts and crafts, music. Increased enrollment and projected increased enrollment.

Q. Passing of the Dec. 17 millage vote will, of course, mean higher taxes, right?

A. Not necessarily so! According to the 1973 Legislative Report, the biggest tax cut in Michigan history was recently passed by the Michigan legislature which will provide property as well as income tax relief for the majority of Michigan citizens which means you may end up paying the same or a little less in taxes as last year, if that's any consolation.

Q. I'm suspicious! How can the state, after going through a severe fiscal strain only a few years ago, reduce taxes more than ever before?

Again, quoting from the Michigan Legislative Review—Several combined factors are responsible: an expanding economy, federal revenue sharing, a close control over state expenditures, a leveling off of school and welfare pressures, and revenue from the new state lottery.

WAITING FOR YOUR SHIP?

Before you sit down to wait for your ship to come in, be sure you have sent one out.

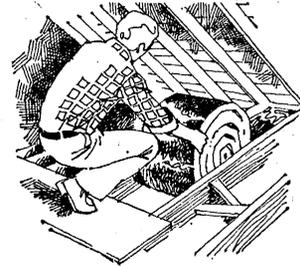

Now. An official program that can cut heating costs up to 17% and conserve Natural Gas.

If you're like most people, holding down heating bills is an idea that hits you right where you live. And, chances are, you'd like to help save Natural Gas, too. Especially during this time of energy shortages. Now there's an official program that supports both of these objectives. It was developed at the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, which is seeking ways to conserve Natural Gas and hold down utility bills by the wise use of energy.

The heart of the program is simply this: Installing ceiling insulation in your home. It's quick. Economical. Easy. A recent White House study found that "the most significant opportunity" for homeowners to conserve energy was through "improved insulation of houses." "Such improved insulation," the government said, "would benefit the individual homeowner by reducing winter fuel bills, summer air conditioning bills, size and capital cost of heating and cooling equipment, and air pollution."

The Michigan Public Service Commission agrees with this conclusion. It has supported a study prepared by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company which found that Michigan homeowners can achieve fuel savings of as much as 17% by adding six inches of insulation to their attics. Naturally, results for your home may vary due to architectural differences and your heating habits.

To help you realize fuel savings in your home, we've designed an easy home insulation program. Here's how it works. First, you can install the ceiling insulation yourself. It's a simple do-it-yourself project and the most economical way to put in ceiling insulation and hold down your heating bills. Many customers can accomplish the task for less than $100. Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has even prepared a helpful booklet that shows you just how to do the job. Secondly, you can call a contractor of your choice and arrange to have the work done. Or call Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. We'll have one of our participating insulation subcontractors install it for you.

Our insulation program is easy on your budget, too. Many houses with up to 1,000 square feet in the ceiling area can be insulated for less than $200. And, there's a payment plan to suit most every customer. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay just 20% down at the time the contract is signed—then simply have the remaining cost included in your gas bill. Pay it off on your next three gas bills with no interest or carrying charges. Finally, you can pay for the job over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.

Whichever you choose, you'll be taking an important step toward holding down your heating bills. And cutting down on the use of Natural Gas. Why not plan on doing it now. Contact us today for additional details. And if you're a do-it-yourselfer, ask for our free booklet.

Federated Women's Clubs Will Publish Legislative Alerts

A new service for member clubs is being initiated by the Washtenaw County Federation of Women's Clubs. Factual "Legislative Alerts" on measures upcoming in local, state and federal halls will be published for use by member clubs.

Decision was made by Mrs. Stanton G. Roesch, Manchester, Federation President following the organization's fall meeting held in Ann Arbor. The program will be forwarded by Ann Arbor Zonta Club member and veteran educator Miss Ethel Hedrick, Federation chairman of International Relations and Legislation.

In view of "major funding legislation pending in Congress" education will be the subject of the first Legislative Alert. Informal legislative "Dutch Lunch" forums suggested by the legislative department speaker will be initiated shortly due to delegates' interest.

Problems pressed for priority are: debt spending via national, state and local budgets; the quality of the school curriculum and of instructors; and public health, with particular emphasis on the alarming decrease of protective inoculation of youngsters. These will be topics of upcoming "alerts."

Requests for any and all donations to Girls Town at Loch Rio in Belleville was forwarded to members from the General Federation Girls Town Committee and decision was made to continue the County Federation basic fund raising sale of "Handi-Grips" for those hard-to-open jars.

Social Service Planning Now For Christmas

Christmas means decorated trees and presents and too much food for everybody. At least, that's what Christmas means for most of us, who can afford such good things in life.

For people who can afford only the basics, Christmas can be the worst time of the year—a time when everyone is celebrating, and they have not even the most meager items about which to rejoice.

To make certain that Chelsea Social Service can provide for such disadvantaged local people, Mrs. Linda Ormsby, new director of the agency, requests that area clubs and organizations notify her soon of exactly what they'll be able to contribute to Social Service in its annual provisions for "real Christmases" for all of Chelsea.

Families or organizations who are aware of people who are in such need should also make certain they contact Mrs. Ormsby and alert her to their cases. In either case, call Mrs. Ormsby at the Social Service office Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, at 475-1581, or at home at 475-1012.

Miss Wilkerson is also a graduate of Alexandra Betty College. Mr. Eresten is employed at Norris Industries of Ypsilanti.

programs designed to restrict the very inception of disease were begun. Plants were equipped to produce DDT, penicillin and vitamin capsules. Modern dairies and clear water supplies were developed, and seeds, garden tools, and other supplies were provided to aid in cultivation of more varied and nutritious foods.

Later, in an even broader step, UNICEF began to meet not only the physical needs of children and youth, but also their intellectual, vocational, and emotional needs, as its executive board said. After establishing that more than half of the world's school-age children have no schools to attend, UNICEF began equipping classrooms, helping to train new teachers, and attacking the educational deficiencies which underlie many of these emerging nations' varied problems.

At present, UNICEF's major form of aid continues to be supplies and equipment. Mrs. Ronald Borders, chairman of Chelsea's UNICEF drive, reports that, "A 26-cent donation to UNICEF will cure five children of trachoma, or buy 175 vitamins, a basic education kit for a primary school child, or protect three children from malaria for a year."

"Each year UNICEF must rely on voluntary contributions—from governments, groups, and individuals—as its only source of income. An income which, interestingly enough, was once characterized by the group as only eight percent of what is spent on world armament in one day."

In 1965, when UNICEF received the Nobel Peace Prize, a member of the Norwegian Parliament said, UNICEF has realized that children provide the key to the future; that the children of today are the history of tomorrow. UNICEF is now forging a new link of solidarity between the rich and the poor countries. In an age when so many people are terrified of the forces that science has placed in our hands, UNICEF offers young people in all countries an alternative which is worth living and working for—a world with freedom for all people, equality between all races, brotherhood among all men."

Watch for the orange and black UNICEF collection boxes on Sunday, Oct. 28, and share in the honors of the Nobel Peace Prize.

TERRIBLE DISPOSITION

Girl Receives Broken Leg in Car Mishap

A five-year-old Chelsea girl who darted into Dewey St. in front of a car last Thursday afternoon may be in traction for up to three weeks with a broken leg.

Police reports say that Pamela Ann Briggs, of 148 Dewey, had emerged from a car parked at the curb near the intersection of Dewey and Howard. She walked a few feet in front of the car, and then ran into Dewey. A car driven by Kevin L. Smith, 17, of 24 Sycamore Dr., was heading west on Dewey at an estimated 30 miles per hour. Although skid marks at the scene indicate that Smith attempted to stop, he struck the child after 20 feet of his skid.

Smith contends that his vision was hindered by the car from which Pamela had emerged, and did not see her until she was completely in front of his vehicle. One witness, who was 150 feet from the scene, and Thomas Briggs, Pamela's father, who observed the incident from inside the family home, agree that she did, indeed run in front of his car.

Another witness, however, is certain that Smith was traveling at an excessive speed. Briggs also agrees on this point.

Pamela is presently confined to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. Her mother says that doctors expect her to be in traction for another three weeks, although Pamela herself is "in good spirits."

Funeral Services

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 2 p.m. at Staffan Funeral Home. The Rev. Bill Todd officiated. Burial followed in North Lake Cemetery.

Novi, Milan, Chelsea Still in Title Race

Novi squashed Brighton's Bulldogs Saturday to run their winning streak to six games this season, and effectively eliminate all Southeastern Conference teams but Chelsea and Milan from title competition.

The 38-7 defeat left Brighton's high hopes for Homecoming with a rather bleak ending, as their record dropped to 2-4 over all and 1-3 in the conference.

Milan's Big Reds, who hold a 4-1 record by their defeat of Lincoln, 12-7, encountered a bit of a hard time at the hands of the Rail-splitters, who would be anticipated to be silly putty in a good team's hand with their unassuming 1-4 record.

Lincoln, however, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter and held it until the last period, when they mounted an 80-yard drive that looked extremely disheartening to title-hoping Milan. However, the Reds held the drive and then took the initiative and the game on a nine-yard run by Harvey Tacker and an eight-yard effort by Ben Amrhein.

In the third quarter Kevin Keith ran 37 yards. His game total of 116 yards rushing on 19 carries raised his season total to 516 yards in 78 attempts.

Chelsea's dramatic 14-9 decision over South Lyon in what was locally termed the "battle of the year" thus far in the SEC dropped the Lions to 2-3 in the conference, and allowed the Bulldogs to anticipate a head-on collision with Milan, also still contenders for the conference crown.

Across the way in Dexter, although Saline downed the Dreadnaughts in a deluge of scoring, 32-13, and raised their season record to 2-2-1, they were shut out of the title race by Novi's defeat of Brighton.

Highlighting the Hornet's effort were Tim Slepaky, who threw two touchdown passes, one each to Dan Scott and Al Kaufman, and Doug Peck, who raced in with TDs on five- and six-yard runs. Slepaky also hit Duffy Williams for the only successful Saline conversion of the evening.

The defeat further established Dexter's grim position as doormats of the SEC. They have yet to emerge with a victory this year.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE Standings as of Oct. 29

Milan	4	1	1
Chelsea	4	1	1
Saline	2	2	1
South Lyon	2	3	0
Brighton	2	4	0
Lincoln	1	4	0
Dexter	2	5	0

Junior High Gridders Have 4-0 Record

After completing the first four games on the schedule the Beach Middle school varsity has compiled a 4-0 record.

In the first game of the season, a recovered fumble in the end zone by Jim Bollinger brought a 4-0 win over Saline. Although the team wasn't really ready for their game, with only two weeks practice, the following week they got untracked and handled Lincoln, 30-0.

In their game Richard King scored on runs of 80 and 40 yards and Mike Young on runs of 70 and 35 yards. King also scored on three two-point conversions.

The following week the varsity had an easy time with Novi, winning, 36-0. Richard King scored three times on short runs, Mike Young on a short run, and Tim Welshans on an 85-yard run. King again had three two-point conversions.

Last week, Tuesday, Oct. 16, Beach again rolled over their opponents, defeating Brighton, 38-14. Chuck Broderick opened the scoring with a 40-yard punt return. Mike Young followed with two touchdowns and Richard King also scored twice and had three two-point conversions.

This week, Tuesday, Oct. 23, was an open date. The team will round out its schedule by playing Milan Tuesday, Oct. 28 and finishing against a strong Dexter team on Tuesday, Nov. 6. Both games are away and start at 4 p.m.

This year's squad is made up of 28 players, all 8th graders. The starting offense is made up of Chuck Broderick, Chris Smyth and Jerald Benjamin at ends, Leon Brown and Victor Verchereau at tackle, Jason Lindauer and Kurt Owings at guard, and Don Harris at center.

The backfield includes Jeff Powell at quarterback, Richard King at fullback, Mike Young at tailback and Randy Harris at flanker.

Additional starters on defense have been James Bollinger and Tim Welshans as defensive guards, Todd Weber as defensive end, and Todd Headrick as tackle, and Marc Feeney as a linebacker.

Additional members include Scott Pennington, halfback; Steve Dresch and Steve Check, guards; Matt McClear, linebacker; Don Waly and John Scott, tackles; and John Daniels and Ed Paul, backs. Two other players who have played or will see action, but have been out with injuries are Matt Fisher and John Beaman.

In intramural play these teams have been competing against each other and will have played a four-game schedule upon completion. The intramural teams are made up primarily of 7th graders but also 8th graders who it is felt will benefit more by playing in the intramural league. At present Joe Beard's team leads with a 3-0 record, while Charlie Waller's group is 1-2 and Jim Tichnor's squad 1-3. Following the completion of the intramural schedule a 7th grade game against Dexter will close out their season.

73 Graduates Will Receive Questionnaire

1973 graduates of Chelsea High school will be receiving a questionnaire next week in the mail. Purpose of the questionnaire is to determine what has become of the students since graduation and to find out what courses were the most valuable to the former students and to try to help determine what courses should be added to the curriculum to increase the educational value of the high school years.

The greater the return from the questionnaire, the greater will be the value of the information gathered by it. Parents of '73 graduates are urged to forward the survey form to the former student if he is not now living at home.

It is hoped that by systematically following up each graduating class at set intervals, employment trends may be followed in order that the class offerings in the high school may be changed to reflect the changing needs of the work world for new knowledge and new and different skills.

Though the questionnaire is six pages long it will not take more than a few minutes to complete. It has been laid out so that the data may be key-punched and the information then statistically analyzed by computer. The information given by the students will be held confidential and only statistical information will be published by the computer.

The survey is part of a statewide vocational graduate survey required by the State Board of Education. Chelsea has elected to survey all '73 graduates because they feel that the data will be of greater value.

4-H Clubs

TRAIL DUSTERS—The Trail Dusters Jackson county 4-H Horse and Pony Club elected their officers on Oct. 16. Those elected were: president, Liz Foster; vice-president, Jamie Foster; secretary, Jeff Shepherd; treasurer, Ken Shepherd; sergeant-at-arms, James Shepherd and Dennis Shepherd.

Lt. Mongioli Completes Air Force Course

First Lieutenant Kathleen A. Mongioli of Chelsea, Mich., has graduated from the Air Force Communications Service (AFCS) Chief of Maintenance School.

The school is designed to train AFCS junior officers and senior non-commissioned officers on the duties of an AFCS chief of maintenance. Training includes all aspects of logistics activity and other important areas, such as performance evaluation, manpower, personnel and host-tenant support. Ten classes a year are conducted at Command headquarters, Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base, Mo.

Lieutenant Mongioli is a maintenance officer with the 2020th Communications Squadron, Snaw AFB, S. C. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Sutter, 564 McKinley St.

Lieutenant Mongioli's husband is First Lieutenant James R. Mongioli. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Mongioli of 168 Evergreen Place, Cheektowaga, N. Y.

Girl Scouts Re-enact Investiture

As the new Troop 145's past year night activities Monday, new and old members re-enacted a re-presentation of their investiture ceremony which took place at the week-end and showed what they had learned at investiture meetings.

WITH ENMITY FORGOTTEN, Chelsea's Chuck Foytk and South Lyon quarterback Tony Kern do their own conversational instant replays of Friday night's game with post-game handshakes. Both players were removed by their coaches.

DOUG REED AGAIN, this time trying to charge through what looks like a wall of South Lyon potential tacklers. The Lion players' efforts were in vain, however, as they were dumped on a last-minute touchdown by Ron Kiel, to lower their season record to 2-3.

WISCONSIN'S MARCHING BAND showed up on the side of two losing causes last week-end, when it played half-time shows supporting both South Lyon and Wisconsin. The band's appearance at Friday night's Chelsea-South Lyon game was the product of efforts by Tom Steinmen, Wisconsin bandman and 1972 graduate of South Lyon High school, who arranged overnight lodging for 170 of his fellow band members in exchange for a performance at his former high school's half-time. But even this kind of Big Ten fanfare didn't help the Lions, who fell to Chelsea, 14-9. And Saturday's result was even worse, as the Badger music men saw their home team dismantled by Michigan, 35-6.

SCARY? Maybe it's not now, but next Friday and Saturday, out on dark and ghostly Grass Lake Rd., in an old house that's been deserted for quite a while, when rooms designed to produce fear are finished . . . well, maybe you'll have to go see for yourself. The room above, which looks innocuous enough with normal human beings like Patricia Brady, Shari Haab, and Art Haab just standing around, will be transformed into a black-light-lit horror peopled by skeletons and bloodshot eyes and various other atrocities.

Girls Schedule 10 Games in Basketball

Interscholastic sports has opened its doors to girls this year at Chelsea High school. The girls will compete with five other schools in the league in three sports during the school year beginning with basketball right now and finishing with softball and track in the spring.

Basketball practice began for the girls on Sept. 20 with their first of 10 games being played on Oct. 2. Practice is held every day in the high school gym. The coaches feel that the turn-out is adequate for the first year and that the attitude and willingness to work are excellent. Each week the team's performance improves.

The following girls are playing on the varsity team: Marilyn King, Charlotte Steinaway, Kathy Kuhl, Lynn Roskowsky, Connie Edwards, Mary Verchereau, Mary Clark, Julie Asmussen, Pam Boyer, Kim Longworth, Lori Fritz and Shawn Spaulding.

The junior varsity consists of: Lorraine Clark, Theresa Breza, Colleen Coomes, Dana Clifton, Alice Juergens, Karen Tobin, Brenda Lovely, Sue Schulze, Sharon Donovan, Karen Keiser, Karen Milliken, Teri Lutovsky, Ann Kulishek, Dawn Bollinger and Kyle Parker.

So far this season the team has played Saline, Novi and Dexter, the record for both teams being 0-3. The team will have a second game with each of these schools plus two each with Brighton and Lincoln. The girls are hoping to improve their record with each game.

The junior varsity plays at 6:30 followed by the varsity game.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

★ He Asks More

There is nothing wrong with desiring a nice place to live in, good food to nourish the body, and good clothing that will shelter the body. Our excessive desires for more and more materialistic possessions are where we go wrong.

God takes very good care of us. Most of us have very nice homes and apartments, decent clothing and good food. But God asks more of us than just to use the things of this world and demand more and more. God asks us to aid one another with love, charity and concern.

One of the easiest things in life is to desire more and more of the material things of this world, while forgetting about the needs of others. When our minds are filled with greed, our neighbors in distress seem unimportant. Yet the satisfaction that comes from helping someone is one of the richest rewards in life — a reward of the eternal spirit and soul of our existence. God asks more — will you answer?

World Community Day To Be Observed

Expanding the question, "Where is the World in My Neighbor?" the Church Women United will observe World-Wide Community Day Nov. 2 at St. Paul United Church of Christ.

Highlighted through the words of the performers will be the special concerns of the aging, single women, migrants, prisoners, draft resisters, blacks and other minorities in our country and across the world, American military and business personnel on overseas assignments, and political refugees who have fled from their countries.

Particularly on World Wide Community Day, too, church women purchase $3 gift certificates which act as contributions to the various areas of interest of the group.

THE UNITED NATIONS-FRIEND OR FOE?

The President has declared Oct. 24 United Nations Day

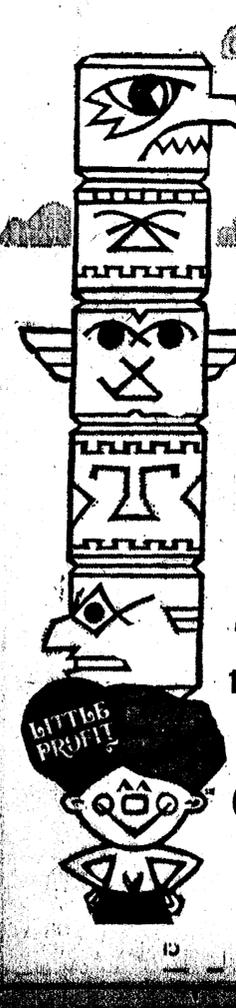

Of the seventeen persons who had the key roles in founding the U.N., sixteen were later identified in sworn testimony to be Communist agents. They included Alger Hiss and Harry Dexter White.

These are only two of the "skeletons" in the U.N. closet which have been kept from us while we have been conditioned to look to the U.N. as "the only hope of mankind."

Considering that our President has committed us to a policy of gradual disarmament through the S.A.L.T. talks and to eventual surrender of our national sovereignty to the U.N., shouldn't Americans attempt to learn more about this world organization?

If you're willing to learn, write:

NOT THE SCARY CHAIR! Robert Brady greets a guest before he sits at the unceremonious table. He is the North Sharon Bible church member of an election chamber. The perpetrator of Brady's ill fortune is Mickey Laska, the head of the high voltage switch, and Sandy Brady, Bud McAtee, and Sandy Patrick. This room, along with 17 others in the three-story "haunted house" prepared for this Halloween week, is the product of nearly a month of work by North Sharon's youth group.

Cyclist Leads Police Car on Wild Chase

In what must have seemed to be a flashback to some Hell'ing is s.ue at best, and a modified Keystone Kops cut at worst, Main Street's early morning silence was abused early Saturday morning by a police-cycle chase.

Police reports says that Dann Salyer of Stockbridge attracted the attention of officers on routine patrol near the railroad track when he rather conspicuously produced an antic on his motorcycle, commonly termed a "whicelle" in front of The Pub at around 2:30 a.m.

After this initial exhibition, Salyer sped north on Main St. at a speed well over the limit, past the interested officers in the patrol car, who were heading south until they spotted his cycle. In Department terminology, they "turned and proceeded north behind Salyer's vehicle."

Despite the fact that the officers began flashing their car's blue lights, Salyer unheedingly turned left onto Sibley Rd., where he reportedly reached speeds of 90 to 100 miles per hour in the high point of the chase.

At Bush Rd., Salyer attempted another feat, a right turn, but landed unceremoniously on his, and the cycle's, side in a field, where officers greeted his performance with handcuffs and arrest.

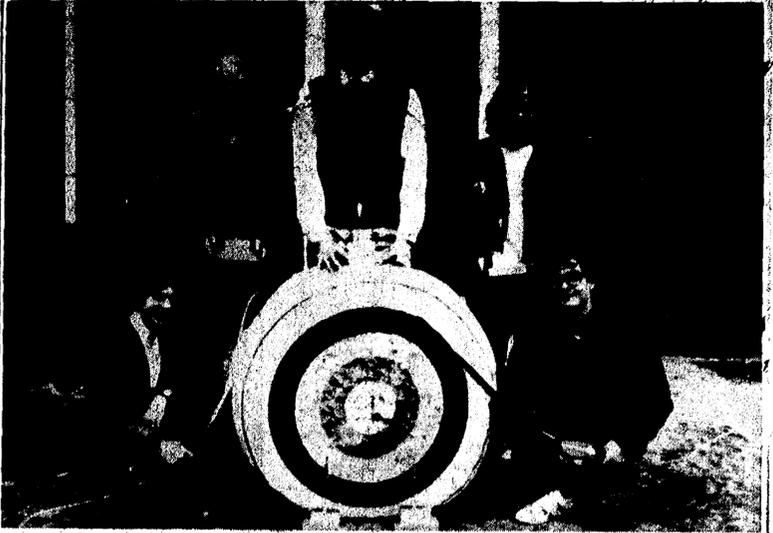

He was taken to Washtenaw County Jail and has been charged with failure to stop upon a police signal.

Methodist Home Residents Prepare For Fall Bazaar

Chelsea United Methodist Home will look like a craftsman's heaven this Saturday, Oct. 27, when residents turn out their creations in force for the Home's annual fall bazaar.

For sale will be ceramics, quilts and knitted items, all products of residents' labor. A grab bag and other miscellaneous items will also be featured, while Salem Grove Methodist church will cater to hunger pangs of purchasers by providing a bake sale.

The bazaar will be located in M Building, which is the ground floor of the nursing unit, in back, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Coffee and donuts will be served as refreshments.

BEST ARCHERS in high school physical education classes took time out from their exertions to gather around with their trophies for official recognition. In front are Kurt Longworth and Bob Burgess, both freshmen. In back are Bob Rosentreter, freshman, Ron Kiel, advanced, and Gary Marriotti, advanced. The phys. ed. classes receive several weeks of practice and instruction in the sport and then compete against each other for top ratings in individual classes.

Youth Arrested On Warrant from Jackson County

A slightly confused incident Sunday afternoon led to the arrest of a Grass Lake man wanted by the Jackson County Sheriff's Department.

Officer Roger Graves spotted William J. Osinski, whom he knew to be the subject of a warrant for arrest from Jackson sheriff's deputies, while on patrol in the area near Grant and Lincoln Sts. Upon checking the lein list, however, Graves found, or thought he found, that he was wrong, and allowed Osinski to proceed about his business.

Checking further into the matter, Graves discovered from the Jackson county sheriff's department that a warrant was, indeed, out for the arrest, but that the name had not been placed on lein.

Graves returned to the site of his observation of Osinski and placed him under arrest. He was turned over to Deputy Hashey of the Jackson County force at Clear Lake Rd. and 134.

John Birchers Want U.S. Out of U.N.

The designation of Oct. 21 as "United Nations Day" by President Nixon has prompted the local chapter of The John Birch Society to offer a program intended to enlighten area residents about this world organization.

In announcing this program, Norm Brehob, local chapter leader, pointed out that providing this opportunity to study and learn is in keeping with the primary purpose of the Society: to provide the means for concerned individuals to educate themselves regarding the real significance of events taking place around them.

The educational program consists of the showing of a filmstrip and the offering of pamphlets and books containing documented information about the origin, record, and goals of the United Nations, according to Brehob.

It is the conviction of Birchers, added Brehob, that the real nature and activities of the U. N. are hidden from most Americans by pious sounding reports and claims promulgated with the aid of well-meaning educators and members of the mass media. We feel, said Brehob, that the control of the U. N. by those who aim to "bury us," namely the International Communist conspiracy, is becoming more and more evident to anyone willing to critically review U. N. action in the area of sanctions, World Bank activities, the seating of Red China instead of the Republic of China, and U. N. backed treaties such as the Seabed Treaty and the Genocide Treaty.

Brehob stressed the belief that each person must decide for himself or herself regarding the validity of the Society's position with respect to the U. N.'s threat to a free and strong United States, and that all that is asked is that the meticulously documented information offered by area Birchers be reviewed carefully and objectively. Once informed, we can make self-government work only by pressing the issues with our elected representatives.

Four Youths Injured as Car Strikes Tree

Four area youths were injured early Saturday morning when the car in which they were riding went out of control on Dexter-Chelsea Rd., one half mile west of Parker Rd.

Washtenaw County Sheriff's deputies say that Richard A. Laraway, 18, of 4155 Railroad St., Ann Arbor, was heading east at a speed too fast for road conditions when he lost control of his vehicle off the right side of the road. The car skidded more than 20 feet before hitting a tree.

Conveyed to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor with minor injuries were Laraway and his passengers, David Barrow, 8182 Gregory Rd., Dexter; Michael D. West, 8385 Jackson Rd., Dexter; and Mark York, 9072 McGregor Rd., Pinckney.

THE LETTERBOX

Dear Editor,

In last week's Chelsea Standard there appeared a blanket condemnation of a certain group, and I wish to take exception. If the anonymous writer thinks I'm going to plead nolo contendere on the strength of a single letter, the writer is wrong.

Just because a dog got into some Lanewood garbage doesn't necessarily mean it was a Lanewood dog. There are many dogs who are almost (but not quite) Lanewood dogs and the difference is very clear. For one thing, we're not afraid to sign our name.

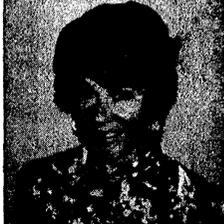

Lanewood dog.
