Career Center Vote Slated Next Tuesday

Those old television ads that declared "College is America's best friend," ignored the fact that America is made of people, and one person's best friend might well be another's worst enemy.

In Washtenaw county, 39 percent of each year's high school graduating class trips merrily off to either a two or four-year college.

The Washtenaw Intermediate School District (which serves the constituent school districts of Chelsea, Ann Arbor, Dexter, Lincoln, Manchester, Milan, Saline, Washtenaw Lake, Willow Run, and Ypsilanti) estimates that of the remaining 61 percent, only 22 percent, or approximately 300 students, have participated in vocational education programs in their respective high schools that would prepare them in some form for employment.

The rest, presumably, hit the streets in search of "a job"—something in line with the skills they have to offer—which are quite often very few.

Next Tuesday, Jan. 22, voters will consider a plan by the WISD to establish a county-wide career center that is aimed to serve the needs primarily of those who graduate from high school with little or no saleable skill.

Among the 40 vocational programs projected for the center are ones in areas of business and clerical skills, computer operations, data processing, photography, hotel-motel operations, commercial art, medical-dental fields, specialized construction skills, and environmental occupations.

Last month in the Chelsea School District, voters approved a $4.8 million bonding proposal that includes plans for an expanded vocational education facility—one that will cover arts and crafts, agriculture, power mechanics, electronics, drafting, science and business additions, plus remodeled home economics, metal shop, and graphic arts spaces.

The county career center would be an expansion, rather than a duplication, of the programs offered in the high school here and in others county high schools. Younger students might try the high school's courses before deciding exactly what field they would like to become involved in; then later, in 11th or 12th grades, they could participate in the center's offerings.

Students would attend the center for a half-day session and spend the other half in local schools meeting their graduation requirements. In addition to serving students who plan to enter the job market immediately upon graduation, the facility is projected to provide supplemental programs for college-bound students, remedial instruction for special education and handicapped children, and adult programs needed for graduation requirements.

The center is planned to be built at a centrally located spot in the travel time from any of the county's high schools. Further, transportation will be provided by state funds with passage of the millage

Drug Charge Dismissed By Judge Deake

A charge of delivery of the hallucinogenic LSD against Patricia Stoffer, 20, of Chelsea, was dismissed last week by Circuit Judge Edward D. Deake.

In granting a defense motion to quash the complaint against Miss Stoffer, Judge Deake ruled that there was insufficient evidence to show probable cause that she had committed the crime. Deake said that 14th District Court Judge Henry D. Arkison had abused his discretion in binding her over to circuit court for trial.

Miss Stoffer was arrested last June after Washtenaw Area Narcotics team officers apprehended her 22-year-old sister, Diane, and Gregory S. Small, 24, as the two removed 50,000 capsules of LSD from the trunk of a car in Maple Village Shopping Center in Ann Arbor.

Officers reportedly had spent two months investigating the case before seizing the drugs and arresting the Stoffers and Small. Investigators said that Patricia had accompanied her sister on one occasion to Small's Lyndon township farm house to help pick up a supply of LSD.

Diane Stoffer, charged with six counts of delivery of LSD, allegedly sold more than 15,000 LSD capsules to an undercover narcotics agent during the course of the investigation. Small was charged with intent to deliver.

Judge Deake has ruled that the search of the car by narcotics officers was legal, thereby denying a motion to kill the complaints against Diane Stoffer and Small. Next step for Diane is a hearing to determine whether she was entrapped by police, followed by trial. A trial date will be set for Small.

Driver Caution Urged At School Crossings

It's not an unusual sight to see Chelsea schoolchildren walking to classes with flashlights in the morning, now that Laylight Saving Time brings dawn somewhere around 9:00 a.m.

It's also not at all unusual to see early-morning drivers zooming down Main St. at speeds not indicating a great deal of the "due care and caution" that's necessary on such dark mornings, says Chief of Police George Meranuck.

"We've already had one accident at the crossing light at Pierce St.," says Chief Meranuck. "A minor one, between a school bus and an automobile. There have also been several near-misses. People just have to be on the alert at that crossing."

To aid drivers approaching the crossing area, the chief says, crossing guard Carroll Clark has been equipped with a fluorescent over-vest and red flares to make himself more conspicuous. These new items are in addition to the yellow flashers that have already operated at Pierce St.

Chief Meranuck reports, however, that Clark's fluorescent outfit doesn't really fluoresce, and is of little value. "But with those flashers, drivers should be able to see him—and most of the people driving in this way in the morning know the crossing is there, anyway. They're just not being careful."

Clark himself says that people are "still going too fast. They've slowed down for the first couple days, but now they're not paying any attention whatsoever."

The crossing guard says that a number of parents seem to be driving their children to school instead of allowing them to walk in the potentially dangerous darkness.

South Elementary school principal Sylvester Wojcicki agrees, estimating that around twice as many parents are driving youngsters to school as were under standard time. "We're not saving much energy that way," Wojcicki noted.

The board of Education, in a resolution at last week's meeting, recommended safety measures of "bright outer clothing, flashlights, and observance of good safety practices" be instilled in children by parents.

The problem, however, seems to lie with the elders, not the young. Kids equipped with flashlights and aided by a crossing guard are still not much match for a speeding car. Watch for them.

DEEP CAVERNS OPEN in winter's white stuff as Chelsea's new trunk sewer system moves right along. Installation of the sewer, which will eventually stretch from M-52 at Sibley Rd. to Old US-12, began early in November and is expected to be completed some time in March. Workers encountered an "unavoidable" problem last week when a clay and silt mixture beneath one of their 45-ton machines shifted, dropping the machine some four feet into what can only be called "soup." The machine was recovered, however, and installation is progressing as before.

Cagers Lose Two With Poor Shooting

A subdued Coach Tom Balistrere reports that he is considerably concerned about the inconsistency apparent in his Chelsea cagers after a pair of losses last week-end to second-place Milan and non-conference Jackson Northwest.

With the 67-44 trouncing by Milan's Big Reds, Chelsea dipped to a fourth place tie with Brighton at 3-3 in the Southeastern Conference. South Lyon, who tagged the Bulldogs with a heart-breaking overtime defeat last week, 72-63, has taken over third place behind Milan and undefeated Saline.

Friday night's game was reasonably close until the half—the Bulldogs were behind by but 10 points, a respectable margin when battling a team of Milan's caliber.

The third quarter, however, saw the Bulldogs paralyzed by what Balistrere termed "very poor" shooting—a one for 16 output, or a meager six percent. Over-all snooting was at a 21 percent level, Balistrere reported, which is comparatively poor.

Leading scorer for Chelsea was Dave Aker, with 14 points. Lagging behind in production were Tim Treado with seven, Gary Wonders with six, and Rick Miller, with five. Rick Sweeney added three, Jack Hackworth, Randy Musbach, Ron Kiel and Joe Musogon contributed two, and Paul Wood hit for one point.

Against Jackson Northwest Saturday, the Bulldogs were again plagued by poor shooting in their 40-30 loss.

Dave Alber again led the squad with 15 points, followed by Rick Miller with 14. Tim Treado and Ron Kiel added eight each, while Gary Wonders contributed five. Rick Sweeney and Marv Guster were each good for four.

Miller topped rebounders with 13, followed by Treado with 10.

In addition to poor shooting, Coach Balistrere cited the squad's large number of turnovers, "stuffed" (Continued on page six)

Matmen Place 11th in Schoolcraft Tourney

In the two-day Schoolcraft Invitational Tournament last week-end, Chelsea's wrestlers managed to place 11th in the 32-team competition. More than two-thirds of the squads entered in the tournament were Class A schools, which gives a fairly credible idea of what opposition was like.

Winning individual honors for the local team were Mike Agopian, who placed fourth, and Dale Poertner, who placed third. Others who wrestled well and just missed qualifying for a place were Darryl West, Dennis Bauer, and Tim Reed. In addition to these Ken Keiser won a match on a quick take-down, with only five seconds in the match, and then lost a 5-4 decision in a very close match.

Coach Richard Bareis explained that "the value of competing in a tournament of this caliber is to expose your wrestlers to superior competition and to prepare them for state competition."

Coach Bareis also indicated that Chelsea's fine showing should earn them an invitation back to the tournament next year. "Hopefully we can do better," Bareis added.

The tournament was won by Wayne Memorial High school.

Individual performances were listed as follows:

Tim Reed: record for tournament 2-2; pin loss to Plymouth; 5-2 win over Southfield Latrup; 2-1 win over South Lyon; pin loss to Churchill.

Mike Agopian: record for tournament, 4-2; pin win over Troy; 8-0 win over Plymouth; 5-4 loss to North Farmington; 8-0 win over Warren Woods; 4-1 win over Garden City East; 2-0 loss to North Farmington.

Darryl West: record for tournament, 3-2; 11-5 loss to Farmington; injury forfeit from Gurney; pin over Clarenceville; 5-2 win over West Bloomfield; overtime referee's decision loss to Trenton.

Dale Poertner: record for tournament, 6-1; 6-5 win over Clawson; pin win over Clarenceville; 2-1 win over North Farmington; 11-4

Wrestlers Pin Holt, Milan in Dual Meets

Chelsea wrestlers continued their impressive whirl through the dual meet season with a pair of decisive victories over Holt and Milan last week.

Holt, called "always a very representative team from the Lansing area" by Coach Richard Bareis, was clearly no match for the Bulldogs, as Chelsea tagged them with six pins in their 39-15 romp.

At 98 pounds, Jim Stahl came through with a pin at 2:40. At 105 pounds, Nick Keiser was defeated, 1-2. At 114, Dale Schoenberg came up with a pin at 3:34. Chris Steele, wrestling at 119 pounds, scored a fall victory at 2:31. Mike Agopian continued to be very impressive, as he scored a 6-2 win over a tough opponent. At 132 pounds, Dave Keiser lost a 6-2 decision. Doug Reed, wrestling at 138 pounds, lost a 4-0 decision.

At 145 pounds, Mark Pennington wrestled a very strong match, even though he suffered a pin loss at 3:54. Darryl West then pinned his opponent at 1:50 and Dennis Bauer scored a default victory in the first period. Ken Keiser, wrestling a tough opponent at 185, lost an exciting 11-4 decision, and Rex Miles continues to improve, scoring a pin at 3:03.

Coach Bareis expressed particular pleasure in the way young wrestlers like Stahl, Steele, Pennington, and Miles have been im-

Banks Home Destroyed By Fire Friday Afternoon in Bitter Cold

Three fire trucks and 15 men from the Chelsea Fire Department battled a blaze at 663 W. Middle St. for four hours Friday afternoon before eventually bringing it under control.

The fire gutted the inside of the house of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Banks and family. It was discovered by one of the Banks children, Jimmy, nine years old, and his seven-year-old brother, Michael, had gone home to change clothes after school. The two boys and five-year-old Elaine Banks all stay with a babysitter on W. Middle while their parents are at work.

Jimmy called me at work and said that they were at the house, and it was on fire," reports Mrs. Margaret Banks, who works with in blocks of her home at the House of Orient Beauty Salon. "I told them to get out of the house immediately."

She left the beauty salon and arrived home to find the children outside. The Fire Department arrived within five minutes of a call from her employer, Paul Higgins, she said.

The blaze began when a toaster shorted out and caught the kitchen curtains on fire, Mrs. Banks said. "At one point, the firemen thought they had it under control, but there's no insulation in the walls or anything, so the fire was sucked right up the stairs and up through the roof."

Firemen managed to rescue the only potential casualty in the incident, the Banks couple, which was recovered from the basement of the house an hour after the fire began.

There were no injuries. Mrs. Banks said that the fire marshal called it "one of the worst fires I've seen around here, in terms of spreading so fast."

Fire Chief Jim Gaken agreed, noting that the lack of insulation in the home contributed to the speed. "A lot of these old houses in town have no insulation or what they have is inadequate, so the stairs act just like a chimney," he said.

Mrs. Banks called the house "completely destroyed" on the inside, although it remains standing. "We've lived here for two and one-half years, and we'd just got it to the point where it was nice," she said. She and her husband had recently remodeled and painted the house and new carpeting had been installed in December.

The gray a-frame-shaped dwelling is approximately 30 years old, Mrs. Banks said, and was formerly owned by the Ames family. The Ames family is presently staying with the Marshall family on W. Middle until accommodations can be found.

"We've called and called around town, but there are no houses to rent," Mrs. Banks said. "Right now, we're planning to rent a mobile home."

The adjuster from the Banks' insurance company was to inspect the home Monday, but no one from the family could be reached for comment after his visit.

Sewer Trunk Line Work In Progress

"Most people don't think about sewers until one backs up in their basement," says Jim Grau, and he does have a point. Undoubtedly the topic is pretty much neglected territory among everyone but sanitary engineers and city councils who decide when to install and repair them.

Grau, however, consulting engineer for the system of trunk sewers currently being installed within the village, has quite a few good words for Chelsea's sewage project. "The trunk sewer being installed right now are part of a master sewer plan for the village," Grau reports. "And the value of such a master plan is that it gives us something to follow, something to go by. Sewers used to be installed completely helter-skelter."

Not so for Chelsea. The master plan for Chelsea is presently moving along with the installation of a series of 27-inch wide trunk sewers, stretching from M-52 at Sibley Rd. to Old US-12. Financed totally by the village, the Toledo firm of Finkbeiner, Pettis & Strout acted as consulting engineers, while the Mayo Co. of Novi is the contracting firm.

A "trunk" sewer is one that connects to the main plants—in a larger city, local sewers serving houses are first connected to interceptor sewers, then to the large trunks. But in a village the size of Chelsea, the names are fairly well interchangeable.

Laying of the sewer began in early November of last year. At completion, the Village of Chelsea will possess a "sewer system quite a bit more effective" than those in many larger, older cities. Old cities, Grau says, are often equipped with combination sewers that drain both sanitary waste and rain water.

Such systems frequently flow at one-half to two-thirds capacity just with sanitary waste; during storms it is nothing new for them to overflow, forcing a great deal of waste into rivers and streams.

Such polluting incidents are impossible with Chelsea's system, which drains only sanitary waste and so is not effected by the ravages of the weather. The new sewer will provide for better sewer flow and for a larger capacity to reach the treatment plant. Eventually, too, the new system will be able to flow the entire distance to the plant by gravity, bypassing the present pump station.

Chelsea's sanitary waste system of sewers also does not prohibit the village from sometime in the future adding a storm system. "And, by having the two systems separate as they would be," Grau says, "We would avoid the problems encountered by cities with combination sewers." Further, the system is large enough to still have capacity to spare as the village annexes more areas and more homes are built and connected into it.

Still, let it not be thought the project has been without any hitches. One "unavoidable incident" that occurred last week, and is not at all that unusual, was the shifting of ground beneath pipe. The machine dropped about four feet into the ground, Grau said, and had to be pulled out by another machine of the same sort.

To return to its work, the machine had to be mounted on a "mat," a structure made of beams bolted together that acts to distribute the weight over a larger area. In this case, Grau said, the earth beneath the machine, a blue clay and silt mixture, had quite simply moved beneath the weight.

Accidents like these are what engineers of sewers systems attempt to avoid by sampling the soil where work is to be done, but the work remains occasionally unpredictable, since soil can differ radically within a few feet of a sample.

The laying of the sewer has progressed as of early this week to within some 300 feet west of Veteran's Park, and is only minimally hampered by cold weather. Completion is scheduled for March 1, although Grau estimates realistically that the job will be truly finished nearer to the end of March, what with seeding, sodding, and paving necessary.

CHAR STEINAWAY displays a winning smile and the shooting form that earned her post-season basketball honors this week. Char, who was high point scorer for the Chelsea girls' varsity squad and was voted most valuable player by her teammates, was given honorable mention in voting for the all-league girls' team.

Wins League Honors

A Chelsea High school basketball player has been accorded honorable mention for the all-league girls' team.

Char Steinaway, who was high point scorer for Chelsea's squad and voted most valuable player, received honorable mention in the listings. Chelsea's team finished the season tied for fourth place in the league.

First team for the all-league squad included Donna Lambert, guard, Dexter; Carol Padgett, guard, Novi; Nancy Pihla, forward, Novi; Kim Toth, forward, Brighton; Pat Robinson, center, Novi.

Second team was Carol Wald, guard, Dexter; Kay Wilson, guard, Lincoln; Debbie Napier, forward, Lincoln; Marilyn Feldkamp, forward, Saline; Liz Snyder, center, Dexter.

Others receiving honorable mention were Nancy Brezinskiak, Novi; Laura Valentine, Novi; Laura Till, Brighton; and Darcy Boye, Brighton.

FIRE GUTTED the Banks home at 663 W. Middle St. last Friday afternoon, as Chelsea firemen battled with three trucks and 15 men for four hours before bringing it under control. The 66-year-old asphalt-shingled home had been recently remodeled, carpeted and painted by Mr. and Mrs. Joel Banks, who have lived there for 2 1/2 years. The blaze began in the kitchen when a toaster shorted out, caught kitchen curtains on fire, and spread rapidly to the rest of the dwelling.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

All the bad mouthing the fella has been giving this country during sessions at the country store set me to thinking. After figuring the situation up one side and down the other, Mister Editor, I say this still is the world's greatest land of opportunity. No where can big money be made so easy, and folks are staying up nights thinking up new ways.

For instant, I see where Rep. Aspin of Wisconsin is complaining cause soldiers can get $3,500 just for signing up for another hitch. This is provided they play in one of the 143 bands that cost the armed services $40 million last year. And mamas all over the country thought them music lessons was wasted, and neighbors waiting in the night give no thought to their value to national security.

And consider all that land being used to raise gords, where loop-hole lawyers declare a big loss cause there's no market for gords. These gord farmers now can raise cotton and soybeans and make real money. With the price of beans, Mister Editor, it would pay farmers and ranchers to draw all their land out of the farm bank and go back to work. For the first time in 15 year, a fella can get more for his crop than it cost him to raise it. If things keep looking up, all them golf courses that was made out of farms can go back to pasture and maybe even catlemen can operate on at least a break-even base.

Saturday night, I mentioned some of these ways of making money, and the fella got in a better frame of mind. Clem Webster said he recalled where this commuter train in California goes past a nudist camp, and it runs full over day. That's good for the railroad, allowed Clem, and good for the fella that sell their seats by the winder.

Furthermore, declared Bug Hookum, he has figured out a way of his own to git on the money boom. He had saw by the paper where pennies now cost more to make than they're worth. He plans to round up all the copper pennies he can afford the new aluminum ones come out, hold em a few months, then sell em to the Government for two cent apiece. Actual, went on Bug, they might as well fert the new pennies and melt down the old, cause they won't buy anything any more. He had saw where the dollar is so cheap the Government is thinking of bringing back the $2 bill.

Actual, said Ed Doolittle, with paper being in short supply, it won't be worth the paper they're printed on. Ed said he was trying to look on the bright side, but running out of everthing reminded of the old pioneer that told folks in his settlement he had some bad news and some good news.

The bad news, the old feller said, is that we ain't got nothing but buffalo chips to eat this winter. The good news is, they ain't enuff of that to go around.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

Consumers turning to eggs for high quality protein should note that sizes of eggs have no relation to the grade indicated on the carton, according to marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Grade designations are the most important factors for consumers to check when buying eggs. Grade determines quality. A Grade AA egg is the highest quality and will have a high upstanding yolk and white which indicates freshness and ideal handling. Grade A is next in quality and, like AA, is preferred for frying and poaching.

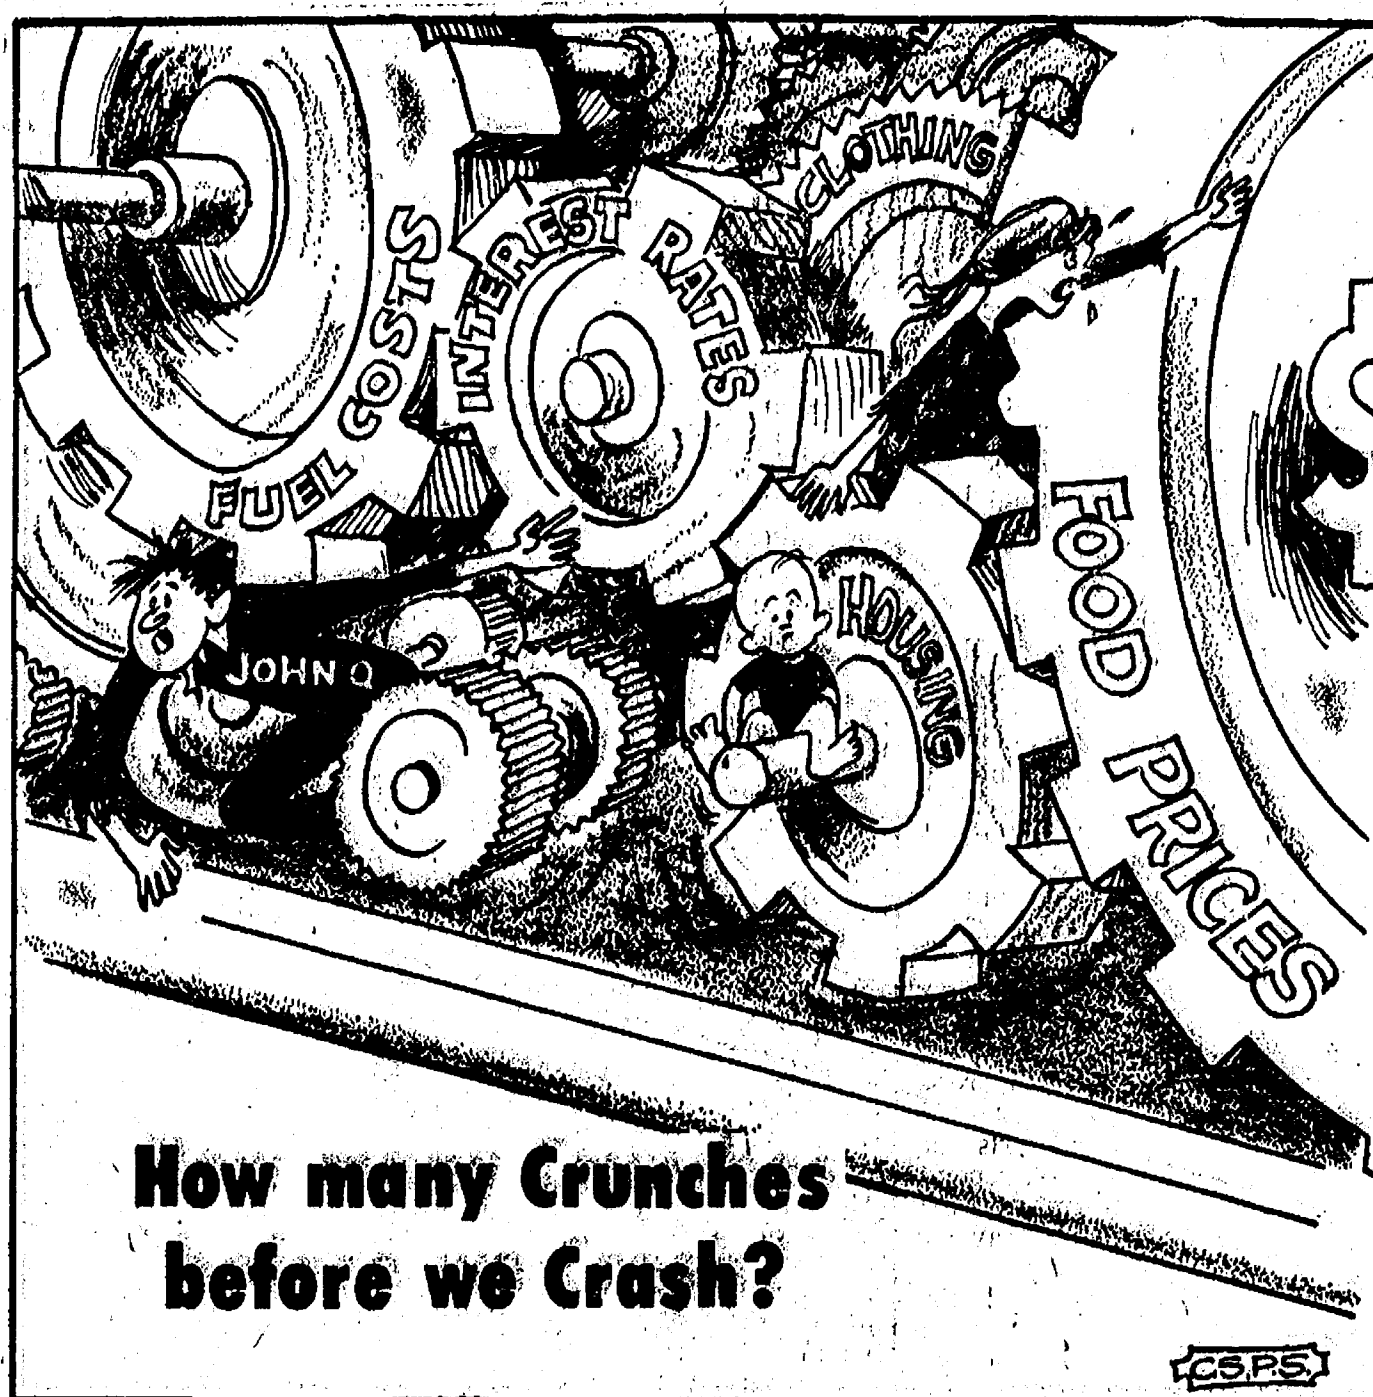

Egg sizes are based on minimum weight per dozen. Large eggs must have a net weight of 24 ounces or more per dozen. Small eggs must weigh from 18 to 20 ounces; medium, 21 to 23 ounces; extra large, 27 to 29 ounces; and jumbo, over 30 ounces.

Appearing less frequently on the market are Grade B eggs which may not have the shell texture, cleanliness, and interior quality required in the higher grades. Grade B eggs are good for baking and general cooking and are considered a good buy for these purposes.

Large size eggs are most common because they are produced in greatest numbers by today's chickens. Egg prices vary by size for the same grade, but large grade A eggs generally tend to be the best all-around buy.

Official USDA grade shield on the carton indicates the eggs have been certified by federal-state authorities as a specific quality and size at time of grading. It's the consumer's best assurance of quality.

State Clean Water Bond funds totaling $1,558,134 were granted in November by the Department of Natural Resources for construction of 18 sewage treatment works projects. An additional $322,125 was approved for three collecting sewer projects.

How many Crunches

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Who Is She?

They wanted middle names for the holidays. They didn't get them—but there is a glimmer of hope.

The Committees to Encourage Richard H. Austin to Give Michigan Women Their Middle Names took their plea to Lansing, asking the Secretary of State to allow them their maiden names on drivers' licenses.

For some time, it's been Michigan Department of State policy to allow only given names on the licenses. That means if you were born Jane Ann Jones, got a license with that name on it, then married and became Jane Ann Jones Smith, you couldn't be Jane Jones Smith on your license. You'd have to be Jane Ann Smith. You could sign the license with your choice of names, but officially, you'd still be Jane Ann Smith in the Department records.

You could be Jane Ann Jones still—not using your married name at all. But you just couldn't use maiden and married name unless you went to court for an official name change.

The policy, initiated long before Austin took office, bothered some women not at all. But it irritated others constantly, and they finally decided to try doing something about it. The woman is threatening legal action. Others petitioned Austin to change the policy.

The Secretary of State, who says he's received about 50 letters concerning the middle name controversy in recent weeks, is looking into the problems that would be encountered by such a policy change.

"When there are these many interested, it is a concern we have to address ourselves to," Austin says. "Since we do not allow options, we do not have to maintain an alias file."

Among possible options, Austin says, would be a complete change in the coding system, so the records would involve just first and last names. That way, the licensee could be known by Jane Ann Smith or Jane Jones Smith—and the Department would know her as Jane Smith.

Austin declines to predict when the required cost data will be pulled together. But he emphasizes that it's not just another "study" that's going on. "We're really working on this question."

Michigan has yet to follow the lead of some states setting up stringent regulations against smoking in certain areas.

But there is at least one smoking-related bill pending in the Michigan legislature. Sponsored by Democratic Sens. John McCauley of Grosse Ile and Jack Faxon of Detroit, the bill would authorize the State Public Health Department to designate areas in hospitals in which smoking or carrying lighted tobacco would be prohibited.

Michigan's Air Pollution Control Commission already has acted against the pollution of smoke at its meetings. It's banned smoking at its own sessions.

"It didn't seem reasonable to me that we are so concerned about the external environment and then we sit in a smoke-filled room," Commissioner Richard Rasmussen of Grand Rapids says.

Cigarette sales in Michigan hit an all-time high of more than $47.6 million in gross cigarette tax revenues collected during the first four months of the current fiscal year (July-October). That compares with some $46.1 million in a similar period in 1972.

Opposing Death Penalty
Michigan should continue its constitutional ban on capital punishment, says the State Council on Crime and Delinquency.

A formal resolution adopted by the council says the death penalty is not a compelling deterrent to crime, and it contends that the recidivism rate for those convicted murderers who are paroled is "significantly lower than it is for those of other types of crimes."

The council resolution comes after the start of a petition drive aimed at putting the capital punishment question on the November ballot.

Rep. Kirby Holmes, the Utica Republican spearheading the drive, says the penalty for premeditated murder should be death. And, assuming he gets the required signatures, Holmes will undoubtedly have more and more to say publicly on the issue.

Senior Citizens May Now Enroll In Doctor Bill Portion of Medicare

Robert A. Kehoe, manager of the Social Security office in Ann Arbor, is reminding all persons over 65 that they have the months of January, February and March to sign up for Part B, or the Doctor Bill portion, of Medicare if they missed their initial enrollment period at age 65. This opportunity is also extended to those new Medicare eligibles who have been on the Social Security disability rolls for at least two years.

Whereas, Part A, or Hospitalization, is essentially automatic for all persons 65 and over who receive or would be eligible for Social Security checks, as well as all disability beneficiaries in their 25th month, Part B is strictly voluntary, costs a monthly premium of $6.30, and you can sign up for it only at certain designated times.

Until recently a person who failed to enroll for Part B at his first opportunity had only three "open seasons" or General Enrollment Periods after that in which to enroll. Thus, if he didn't enroll by the time he was about 68, he was forever excluded. Under a change in the law late in 1972, however, a senior citizen—no matter how far beyond age 65 he is now—may sign up for Part B in the first three months of 1974.

Moreover, anyone who had previously asked to have his Part B terminated may now re-enroll, regardless of age. This is an important provision of the law and may affect many people who were previously told they were too late to sign up! Disabled persons, who first became eligible for Medicare in July 1973, may also sign up for Part B if they declined it initially. Kehoe speculated that many disabled individuals who said "no" to Medicare last summer will now, on the advice of social workers and private insurance representatives, want to change their minds and sign up.

After an annual deductible of $60, Part B pays 80 percent of the allowed charges for doctor bills, out-patient x-ray and laboratory work, emergency ambulance service, and nearly all medical expenses outside of in-patient hospitalization.

To enroll, or for any information about Medicare or any other aspect of Social Security or Supplemental Security Income, contact the Social Security Office at 2929 Plymouth Rd., Ann Arbor. Telephone, 769-7100.

Thursday, Jan. 18, 1940—
Fire destroyed the pump house on a farm owned by Mrs. E. W. Daniels Tuesday, in a blaze that firemen believe started from a spark from the motor on the pump. Although the building was just 15 feet from the barn, firemen prevented it from spreading to the nearby buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glenn reside on the farm.

Chelsea will join in the celebration of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's 58th birthday by co-operating with thousands of other communities throughout the nation in raising funds to combat infantile paralysis. Mrs. W. R. Daniels has been named chairman of the local drive.

There may be reason to complain of slow mail service but somehow the bills arrive earlier than they should.

To Puff or Not To Puff

"Non-smokers have rights too." That's the theme this week (through Jan. 17), dubbed National Education Week on Smoking by the National Interagency Council on Smoking and Health.

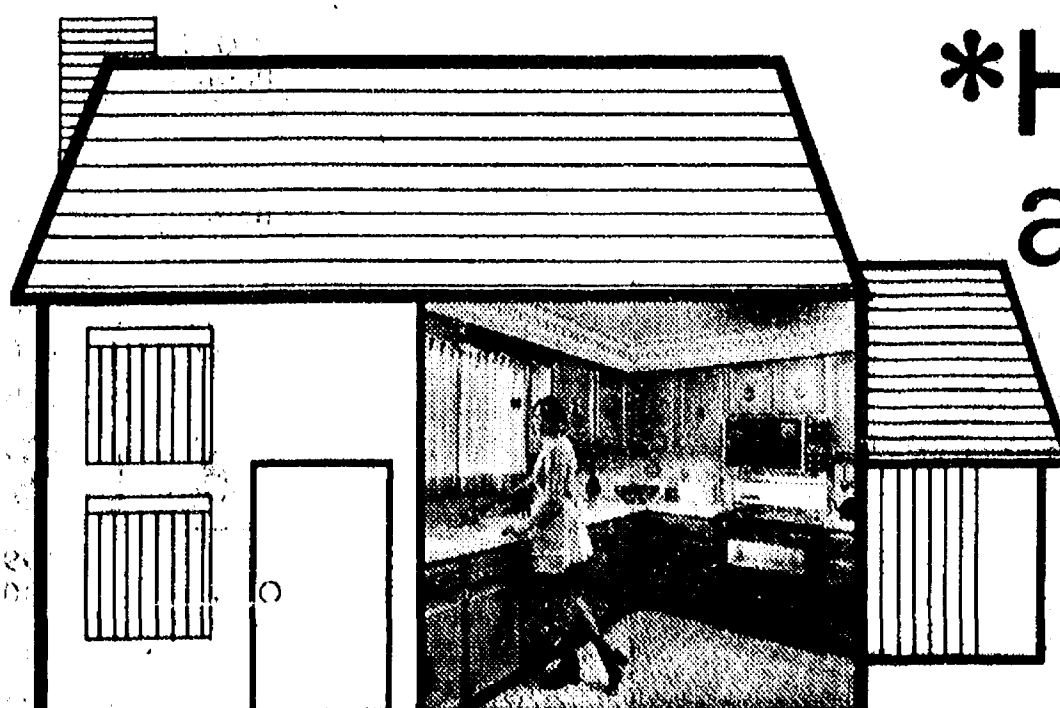

In conjunction with the observance, the Michigan Health Council and the Wayne County Council on Smoking and Health are stepping up their urging that smokers stop and non-smokers not start lighting up this year.

In addition, the Michigan State Medical Society recently distributed special editions of the publication "Smoking and its Relationship to Health and Disease" to schools throughout the state.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

KINDERGARTEN—

Room 3
Teacher: Mrs. Bower
With all of this snow, we are busy with our coats, boots, mittens and scarves. It is so nice to have mother label our outside clothes for us.

Keeping healthy is very important. We have to sleep enough, keep clean, eat the right food, brush our teeth and dress warmly when we go outside. If we all do our best to obey our health rules, we will all kill the germs that try to make us sick.

Todd Wenk brought us a crab, and he eats bread and lettuce. It is great to see him walk in his cage.

Later this month of January we are going to cook a real meal at school and see how interesting it is to see food change when it is cooked and how delicious it is when we cook it ourselves.

We hope everyone stays safe and happy on the snow and the cold.

Room 1
Teacher: Mrs. Van Blaricum
Christmas was good to us. We had our party the Wednesday before vacation, and Santa came to see us. Each child got to climb on his lap and talk with him. Then we broke the Pinata we had made. Special treats from the room mothers were greatly appreciated. January is our Health month. The morning groups were treated to special visits by Mrs. O'Hagen's class from the high school. The girls worked with the children in small groups talking about the four main food groups. The presentations were great, and the children really enjoyed learning. We hope they can come back again.

The cold weather and snow lead to talk of how we can dress and eat properly to keep healthy. We enjoy recess but have had to stay in on some of the colder days. When we do go out we dress in all our snow clothes and have lots of fun.

Once we have seen, smelled, touched and tasted foods from the different food groups, we hope to prepare ourselves a meal. It should be a good experience.

Our birthday people for December and January are: Tammie Trinkle, Kristen Muncer, Kelly Fletcher, Christine Alken, Craig Lapanowski, David Mayer, and Christopher Tarasow.

FIRST GRADE—
Room 4
Teacher: Miss DeVries
Miss DeVries's class was terribly busy during the Christmas season preparing for their Christmas program. It was a great success!

After Christmas they quickly finished their parents' gift—a 1974 calendar. What a project! Now the students are busy adding numbers in math and reading more and more words every day. Plus they are learning all about the land where the Reindeer live—Lapland. The class is even learning a song in Finnish—the language the people in Lapland speak.

Room 17
Teacher: Mrs. Thodeson
On our first school day of January we had our Christmas party. Now we are working hard in our new reading books. We have a box of library books that are easy and fun to read. In science we studied about the thermometer and temperature. We all were surprised to find that a pint jar of snow when melted made only about a half cup of water.

We are printing stories and drawing winter pictures for our January book. We have a new boy in our class whose name is Michael Winkle, and he is from Georgia. Dana Lanning from the Mott Children's Hospital showed the first grades a filmstrip about the hospital. She answered our questions, and then gave each of us a balloon. Todd Brown has our only January birthday.

Room 2
Teacher: Mrs. Thornton
Reporters: Missy Young, Mark Stebelton and Mary Grifka
December birthday: Yvonne Gaken.

January birthday: Nicki Haller and Bonnie Scott.

It seems good to be back in school after our lovely Christmas vacation. We had our party here at school, and Mrs. Grifka made cute Christmas socks for each of us.

We are starting our dinosaur unit, and it's fun to learn their names. We will be going to the museum in Ann Arbor to find out more about them.

A teacher from Mott Children's Hospital came to talk and show us a filmstrip about the hospital. It was very interesting.

Our guinea pig had two babies. We are thinking of names for them. They are so cute and fluffy.

SECOND GRADE—

Room 10

Teacher: Mrs. Grinnell
Since our return from Christmas vacation we have been reading, reading and reading. The Joker's Wild and the Super Stars just finished their testing and will be starting a new reader and Think and Do book next week. Batman reading group will start their testing next week and will soon be into their new reader, also. One group has been working primarily with our dictionary, learning more and more about words and their meanings.

During our math classes, we have been concentrating on renaming the numbers between 12 and 19. In science we have been studying fuels and how they work. We also discovered how we get heat and light energy from burning fuels. We also discovered that we can help the energy crisis by cutting down our use of fuels, even though it may be very hard at times.

All in all, we have started the New Year with a smile and hope it continues just that way.

Room 8
Teacher: Mrs. Hamilton
The boys and girls in Mrs. Hamilton's class have been busy this month writing short stories. Their favorite writing was one in which they were to create a machine to do a job they disliked. The real fun came when they read them to their classmates.

They are also starting a unit on the four basic food groups. They have been cutting food pictures from magazines and have been putting them in the appropriate food groups. They also divided into three groups, to show good breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Some of the boys and girls continue to work hard on book reports. Laurie Heller, Kevin Wahr, Chris Lewis and Maria Staphis have all received free books.

For spelling the boys and girls have been getting extra bonus words. These words are usually a little harder than their regular words. Sue Riemschneider, Kevin Colombo, Kevin Wahr, Tanya Mattoff, Mary Vaughn, Scott Luckhardt, Laurie Heller, Maria Staphis, and Greg Schafer were all awarded for the bonus words.

Birthday for this month are: Kevin Colombo and Tanya Mattoff.

Room 5

Teacher: Mrs. Lopez
We all enjoyed the Christmas party, and we want to thank Mrs. Feldkamp, Mrs. Oosterle, and Mrs. Peterson and all the others who helped.

We are beginning to study Light in science. In health we are learning how to keep healthy. We made book covers for the book we read. The covers are very colorful.

We have a news bulletin board and can bring items from the newspaper to put up.

Glenn Sprigg and Dianne Desmyther had birthdays on Christmas day.

MUSIC—

Unfortunately snow days cancelled our first, third and fourth grade music programs, and a chance to wish all the parents a Merry Christmas. Please feel free to drop by the music room at any time to see what we're working on in music.

ON THE PHONE

Once again my daughter was on the phone last night and it must have been something important. The call lasted two apples and two colas. I only get to use the phone once a month when I call the phone company to tell them my bill couldn't possibly be that high. But, they are always right.

Miami, Flo.—When Charles Wrinkle refused to give up his money as he was accosted in a hamburger shop, it cost him his pants. The assailant fled with the pants, wallet inside, but Wrinkle caught and held the man, the police reported.

Phone Companies Merge into New Corporation

The Michigan Public Service Commission has approved merger of seven telephone companies all owned by the same national company into one "Mid-Michigan Telephone Corp.," serving nearly 30,000 subscribers.

The new corporation, headquartered in Stockbridge, remains a subsidiary of Mid-Continent Telephone Corp. which is headquartered in Hudson, O. Mid-Michigan Telephone Corp. becomes the third largest among Michigan's 34 telephone companies. Only Michigan Bell and General Telephone Co. of Michigan serve more subscribers.

Merger of the seven "will not result in any change in local exchange service rates to the subscribers of any of the companies, nor any diminution of the level of service," the order said.

Involved in the merger were New Lawrence Telephone Co., serving 2,320 subscribers in Van Buren and Allegan counties; New Citizens Telephone Co., serving 5,356 subscribers in Berrien county; New Glenn Telephone Co., serving 498 subscribers in Allegan county; Calhoun Telephone Co., serving 6,542 subscribers in Hillsdale, Lenawee, Calhoun and Branch counties; Whitford Telephone Co., serving 6,910 subscribers in Monroe and Lenawee counties; Ogemaw Telephone Co., serving 2,742 subscribers in Ogemaw, Arenac, Oscoda and Iosco counties; and Rural Telephone Co., serving 5,602 subscribers in Ingham, Jackson, Livingston, Washtenaw and Eaton counties.

proving. "Having young wrestlers coming along really helps out the veterans in that it allows them to get a little rest," Coach Bareis noted.

But who needs rest really? Only two days after swamping Holt, the Bulldogs matmen routed Milan, 44-11, once again exhibiting "fine team balance," according to Coach Bareis.

Jim Stahl started the action, pinning his man at 1:17. At 105, Brian McGibney was pinned, then Nick Keiser came back to score a one-sided 16-2 decision at 112 pounds. Co-captain John Beeman and Mike Agopian each scored second period pins at 119 and 126, respectively. Co-captain Dale Poertner then scored a fine 4-0 win over a strong opponent. At 140 pounds, Doug Reed was defeated, 4-2.

Darryl West then picked up a 7-1 win at 145 pounds, and Dennis Bauer came up with a late period reversal to earn a 4-4 draw at 155 pounds. Tim Reed at 167 pounds then defeated his man, 16-0. Ken Keiser scored a fall victory at 3:33 in the 185 pound match, and then Rex Miles came through with an 11-0 decision.

Although Chelsea scored a lazy victory in varsity competition, the junior varsity "was badly beaten," said Coach Bareis. Only Brian McGibney and Tim Reed managed to pick up victories.

The Bulldogs' record in dual meets now stands at 8-1, with a conference record of 4-0, which puts them in a tie with Dexter for the league lead.

Chelsea will meet Novi tonight and then travel to Parma Saturday for a triple dual, with wrestling at 10 a.m., 1 p.m., and 3 p.m.

Village of Chelsea Garbage Contract

Following are important sections from the garbage contract made between the Village of Chelsea and "Bob's Hauling" of Jackson, Michigan. The present contract went into effect November 8, 1973 and will expire November 7, 1975.

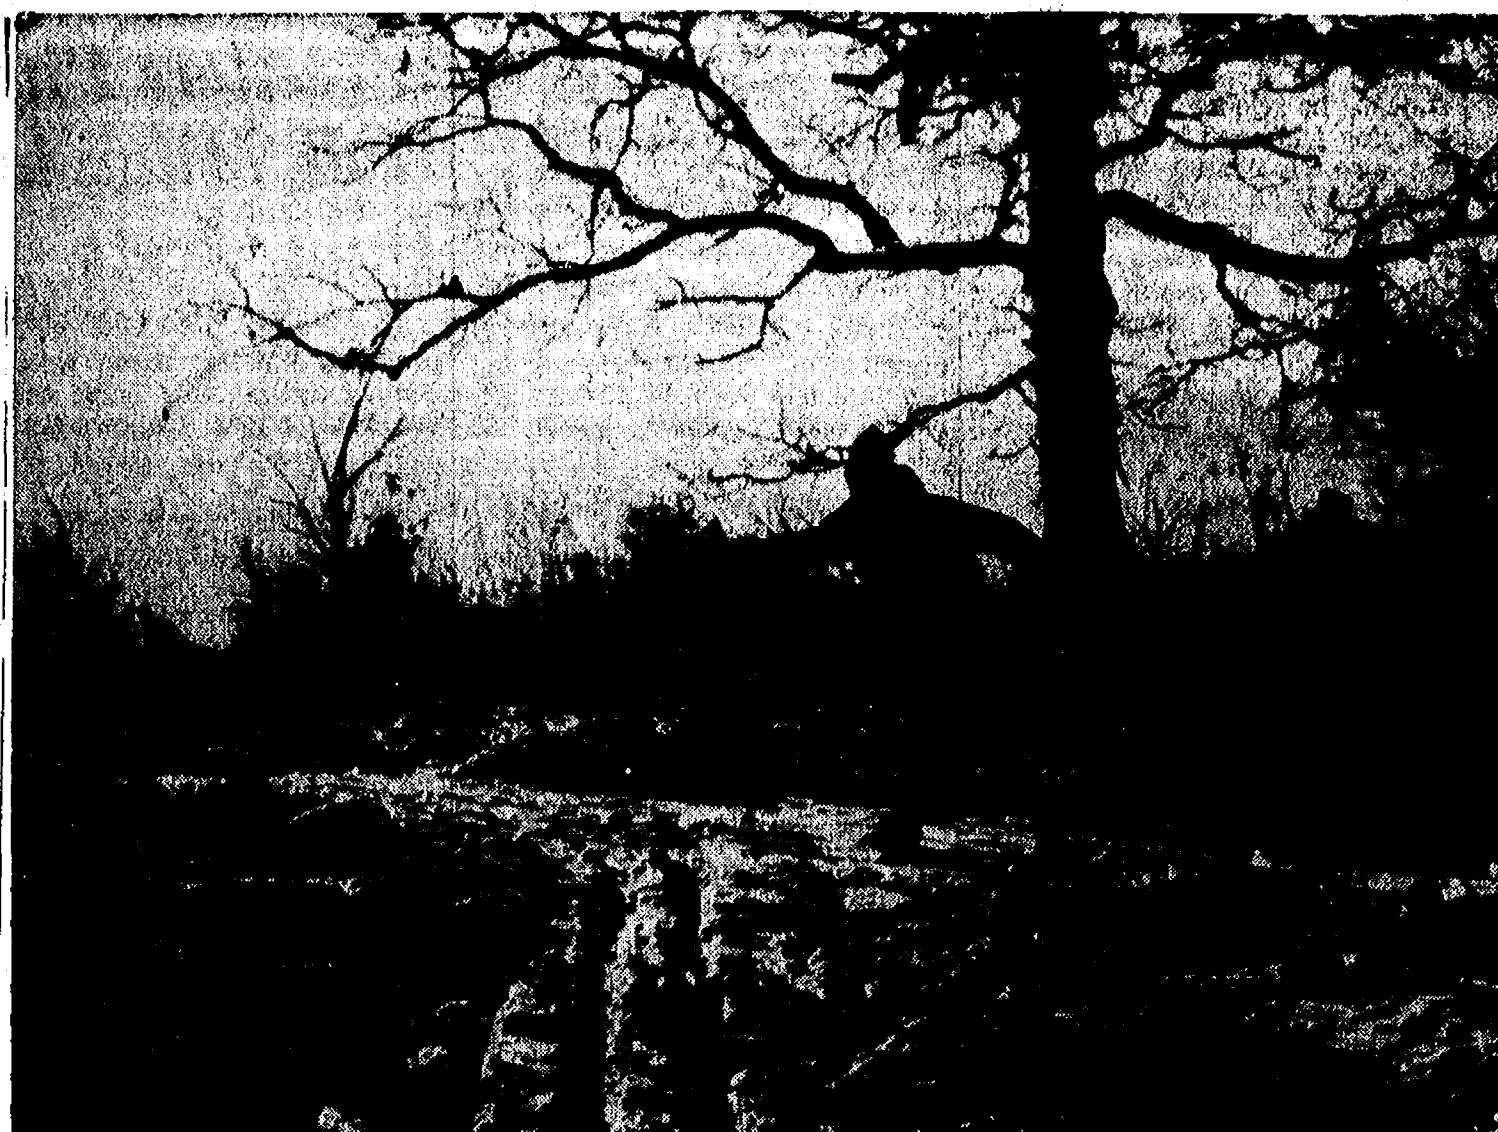

Rubbish and garbage shall be removed from all residences on Tuesday and Friday of each week. Collection will not be made on either day before six (6:00) o'clock a.m. nor after six (6:00) o'clock p.m. If days and times for collection must be changed, two (2) weeks prior notice in The Chelsea Standard is required.

RUBBISH shall be defined as ashes, papers, magazines, tin, plastic or glass containers, lawn rakes and other solid materials, but does not include building materials, trees or shrubbery trimmings or large items, such as appliances.

GARBAGE shall be defined as all vegetable wastes, and rejected food wastes, fruits, vegetables and animal matter resulting from the preparation of foods, plus all spoiled or decayed food.

Following are regulations imposed upon the residents relative to garbage and rubbish collection:

- All users of the municipal rubbish service shall be requested to use fly-tight metal cans. Said containers shall have no more than a twenty (20) gallon capacity and not to exceed two (2) in number for both rubbish and garbage.
- All users of the garbage service may use plastic garbage liners inside metal cans, if properly tied at the opening. Contractor is not required to collect plastic bags if they are ripped, improperly tied, or are too heavy to withstand removal.
- Village residents who wish to dispose of extra rubbish and garbage through the contractor may do so by buying rubbish bags for 20¢ apiece at the Village of Chelsea offices, 104 East Middle Street, during business hours.
- The contractor is under no obligation to collect the garbage and rubbish unless the metal cans are placed next to the curb. In those cases where residents, because of age or disability, are unable to place the garbage or rubbish at the curb, the contractor will go upon such residences for collection if trash is in proper containers.
- All ashes placed in containers must be wrapped or placed in a plastic bag.
- Users of the municipal garbage service are requested to wrap all garbage in adequate paper during the freezing months.

CROSS COUNTRY SKIING is the subject of three separate sessions of instruction that will begin next Wednesday, Jan. 23, at Ann Arbor's Island Park by the Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission. The 5,000-year-old sport is seen as the answer to residents' need for close-to-home recreation, as cross country skiing is possible in places like parks and school grounds, since only two inches of snow is needed.

Cross-Country Skiing Lessons Offered By County Parks Group

With record snowfalls turning the county's parks and school grounds into white landscapes, the newly-established Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission is encouraging people to get out and enjoy them. This encouragement comes in the form of three separate sessions of instruction in the simple techniques of a 5,000-year-old activity called cross-country skiing.

The Commission sees the sport as the answer to residents' need for close-to-home recreation. A suitable site is within walking distance of practically every home in the county. The only requirement is two inches of snow.

The sport's convenience is matched by its inexpensiveness and total flexibility. The skier controls his speed and direction so anyone of any age can safely enjoy the skiing and the winter environment.

In the 720 square miles of Washtenaw county, there are not only parks and school grounds, but miles and miles of hiking trails and Indian paths that are perfect for cross-country skiing.

To help locate these areas, the Commission has published a directory containing a list of sites, descriptions, and maps. Almost every suitable piece of property has been offered to skiers by the county and its cities, villages and towns. This directory is available free of charge from the Commission.

The cross-country skiing sessions will be held on Wednesday evenings at 7. The first session takes place at Ann Arbor's Island Park on Jan. 23. The second occurs on Feb. 13 behind the Middle school in Ypsilanti, and the third in Saline on Feb. 27 at Henne Field, north of North Union school. Skis, boots and poles are supplied without charge by Raupp's of Ann Arbor and Sun and Snow Sports of Belleville.

Registration for every session is open to all county residents. Send a postcard with name, address, phone number and session choice to Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission, County Building, Ann Arbor. The cost per person is $2 payable with registration in the form of a check or money order.

Registration and cancellation deadlines are the Friday preceding each session. Early registration is recommended since the number of participants is limited by site capacity.

In the event of no snow, alternate dates will be Jan. 30, Feb. 20, and March 6, respectively.

For more information, call 663-7511, extension 213.

BROWNIE TROOP 145—On our first meeting after Christmas Brownie Troop 145 had a skating party. Then we went over to Amy Hume's house. We had hot chocolate and lots of cookies by the fire. It was fun. We had some Christmas presents from the other Brownies. Our leaders gave us some kits to make tote bags. At the next meeting we made them. Trina Mindykowski's mother and Kathy Degener's mother came to help us sew on their sewing machines. The tote bags have patches on them that say Huron Valley Girl Scout Council. It was fun to make them. Hallie Schmidt sent us treats, but she has chicken pox. Pretty soon we are going to have a sledding party, too.

Carol Stirling, scribe.

TROOP 689—Girl Scout Troop 689 enjoyed going to the Methodist Home. We gave out little snowmen. Saturday, Jan. 5, we went to the Rod and Gun Club and went sledding down the hill. Thursday, Jan. 10 we had a meeting of the court of honor.

Mrs. Jack O. George

Gail Maistre, Jack George Wed Saturday at St. Paul Church

On Jan. 12, Gail Michelle Maistre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Maistre of 758 S. Main St., was united in marriage with Jack O. George, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William George of Jackson.

The Rev. Warner H. Siebert performed the candlelight service at St. Paul United Church of Christ. Bruce Galbraith sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For the ceremony, the bride wore a gown of white satin organza. Cluny and Venice lace adorned the bodice, styled with an empire waist and banded with white satin ribbon and edged with Venice rose trim. The full skirt had a cluny lace panel with ruffled hem. Long sleeves were trimmed with satin cuffs. Her chapel-length illusion veil was trimmed with lace and pearls.

The bride carried a flowering cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis accented with baby's breath and streams of ivy.

Attending the bride as her matron of honor was Mrs. Stephen F. Harris, her sister. She wore a blue jersey gown with smocked bodice and criss-cross trim, pointed Peter pan collar, full circular skirt and long bishop sleeves. She carried a light bridal arrangement of white sweetheart roses and blue miniature carnations and dark blue star flowers, accented with baby's breath and a white candle.

Bridesmaids were Michelle R. Maistre, also the bride's sister; Mrs. Dennis Hawkins, cousin of the bride; Shirley Howell, and Mrs. Michael Hammett. They wore dresses and carried bouquets identical to those of the matron of honor.

As his best man, the bridegroom chose Douglass Boyce, his cousin. Ushers were Richard Lewis, Daniel Kingston, Charles Sprang, and Michael Hammett.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will reside in Jackson.

The bride is a graduate of Chelsea High school who attended the Lansing Business University and graduated as a legal secretary. Presently she is employed by the Michigan Department of Corrections at Cassidy Lake Technical school as secretary to the superintendent.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Michigan Center High school who served two years in the United States Army and is now a Correctional Specialist at Cassidy Lake Technical School.

Celebration Leads Man to D & D Charge

A party and post-party celebration led to a telephone pole on W. Middle St. and a drunk and disorderly arrest for a Jackson man early Sunday morning, Chelsea police say.

At 2:50 a.m. a citizen reported to Officers Graves and Detling, who were on patrol, that an accident had occurred near 325 W. Middle. Arriving at the scene, the officers found a 1971 two-door green Mustang had struck a telephone pole.

The driver of the vehicle, Lester D. Carty, 20, of Jackson, emerged from the vehicle with staggering gait and slurred speech, and was unable to produce either his driver's license or any other identification, police said.

Officers reported that Carty appeared "confused and extremely intoxicated," and witnesses agreed with their accounts.

Carty and his passenger, who police said "was not under the influence," were transported to the Chelsea Police Station, where Carty was placed under arrest and told his rights. He said that he had been at a party, then continued drinking at a local bar.

He was taken to Washtenaw County Jail to either await sobriety or posting of $50 in bond. He pled guilty to a charge of drunk and disorderly in 14th District Court Monday and paid $50 in fines and costs.

Reception Scheduled For Siebert Family

Career Center ...

What the career center will do, however, in human terms, is provide active, on-the-job experience for high students—and one has only to look at Chelsea's building trades class to see what interest such practical experience can arouse.

For years, while 80 percent of all educational funds were spent toward college preparation for students, educators noted the presence of "sit-ins"—students who attend high school only because parents or society says they must, attending with little interest and graduating with little skill.

A county career center could change a lot of that.

Heydlauff's, Independents Lead Recreation Basketball League

In Tuesday night's action in the Recreation Basketball League, Heydlauff's maintained its perfect 2-0 record with a 49-40 defeat of Lloyd Bridges Chevrolet. Consistently accurate shooting by both teams kept this game close until the final quarter, when a couple of steals broke the game open.

High scorers for Heydlauff's were Riemenschneider with 16, Policht with 12 and Terpstra with 10. Gary White scored 12 for Lloyd Bridges.

Dunlavy Farms lost a heart-breaker to the Independents, 34-13, after leading the entire game. A last-second basket turned the tables for the Independents. Sweezy and Guster led the scoring for the winners, with 12 and 10, while Mull hit for eight points for Dunlavy.

In another close game, Dexter Rabble came from behind to defeat North American Rockwell, 38-35. Again this game was decided in the final seconds. McCale scored 12 for Dexter, while McLaughlin led Rockwell with 14.

In last Thursday night's games, two closely-contested games saw Heydlauff's defeat Dunlavy Farms and Lloyd Bridges' edge Dexter Rabble.

In Heydlauff's 43-37 defeat of Dunlavy, Paul Terpstra was high scorer for the winners, with nine points, while Jack Davidson led Dunlavy with 10.

Dave Clark led Lloyd Bridges' scoring with 12 points to defeat Dexter Rabble, 54-47. Jack Risner also contributed 10 for Bridges. Ron Nurnberger led Dexter scorers with 16 points.

DOUG REED (left) is a junior whose wrestling experience goes back to 7th grade. In addition to wrestling, he plays football and baseball for Chelsea, and is a member of the high school student council. Outside of school, his activities include snowmobiling and hunting. Like several other wrestlers, he expects the Chelsea squad to take the conference title, but won't predict any further than that. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, and he has two brothers, Greg and Tim.

DARRYL WEST (right) is a junior presently competing in his third year of varsity matches. He was the only Chelsea wrestler chosen to participate in the area all-star squad that met the Japanese Cultural Exchange team in Ypsilanti on Jan. 5. Although he did not compete in the meet, Coach Richard Bareis called his selection for the team "quite an honor." He also plays football for Chelsea High. Darryl expects that Chelsea will take conference honors and should be able to have some wrestlers place in state competition, and thinks "it's possible the team could finish right up there." He lives with his mother, Mrs. Vivian West, and a brother, Duane, and sister, Della, still live at home.

Down with VD Campaign Is Launched

The Washtenaw County Health Department today unveiled a county-wide campaign to lower the incidence of Venereal Disease, especially gonorrhea. Dr. John Atwater, county health director, noted that gonorrhea is the most prevalent reported communicable disease in the state and county with an increase of almost 300 percent within Washtenaw county since 1971. "Craig Rosey, a Michigan Department of Public Health, representative will help us co-ordinate this program," announced Dr. Atwater.

Dr. Atwater mentioned that the health department's efforts in this program will include public information about the disease and need for treatment and where to get it. Also, emphasis will be placed on increased screening for undiagnosed cases in clinics and private physician's offices, health education efforts in schools and groups for prevention and control, and the opening of a new "VD" clinic in the department's office in Ypsilanti. "Private physicians will continue to diagnose and treat most of the cases under a co-operative program of surveillance and treatment," said Dr. Atwater.

The major means of trying to control the VD epidemic is by detecting cases and tracking down contacts. For gonorrhea, the task is far more formidable than it is for syphilis. "There is, as yet, no simple blood test for screening patients. Also, the lack of symptoms in females often causes transmission of the disease to occur without notice," Rosey added.

Venereal diseases include the two most common ones, gonorrhea and syphilis. The word venereal comes from "Venus", the Roman goddess of love. Venereal diseases are spread from person to person via skin to skin contact, usually during sexual intercourse.

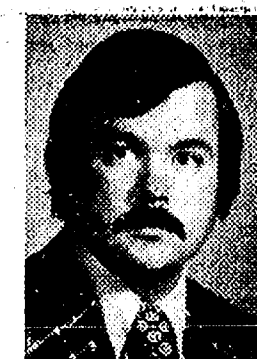

Although less deadly than syphilis, gonorrhea is far more prevalent and harder to control. The disease is spread by a bacterial gonococcus which thrives in the moisture of mucous membranes. The first signs of infection usually appear within a few days. In males the bad news usually comes in the form of pus while urinating and a discharge of pus from the penis. Unless treated the gonococci may spread through the reproductive system leaving scar tissue and sterility.

In women, gonorrhea may produce no painful symptoms. In fact, almost 60 percent of the females with gonorrhea don't know they have it. This makes the disease hard to control because it is transmitted unknowingly to sexual partners. In these cases, the disease may also spread through the female reproductive tract scarring the Fallopian Tubes—a condition that is a biggest cause of infertility in American women.

"People who suspect that they may have contracted a venereal disease or have been in sexual contact with someone who does, are urged to seek medical advice and attention and for more information, please call the Washtenaw County Health Department," urged Dr. Atwater.

Cards of Thanks

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Charles Patrick who passed away three years ago, Jan. 17. We miss you now our hearts are sore as time goes by, we miss you more. Our gatherings will never be the same. Your loving smile, your gentle face, no one can ever take your place. Sadly missed by his family.

Mrs. Charles Patrick.
Chuck Patrick.
Sue and Don Wood.
Penny and Kim.

Jack and Kathy Patrick, Tammy, Kevin and Julie.
Mary and Dick Casteline, Jennifer and Jodi.

IN MEMORIAM
In memory of Clifford Heydlauf, who passed away one year ago, Jan. 19, and is missed by his wife and family.

The Vacant Chair.
I shall never cease to love you, Tho' I'm saddened and alone.
The place where we found happiness.
Is now a house, not home.
And oftentimes I'm dreaming I see a vacant chair.
And know how other mourners feel.

Whose love's no longer there.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to thank everyone who was so thoughtful to me and my family while I was in the hospital and since my return home. I am sure all your prayers helped me get well. Thanks again.
Ethel Buehler.

JV Cagers Drop Two Games Over Week-end

Chelsea's junior varsity cagers dropped two this week-end to Milan and Jackson Northwest to fall to an even 5-5 record for the season.

In Friday night's contest against Milan, the junior Big Reds led all the way, despite a final quarter surge by the junior Bulldogs, in which they outscored Milan, 15-10. Final tally was 59-38.

High scorer for the evening for the local squad was Randy Sweeney with 11 points, followed by Randy Guenther with eight, and Mark Burnett with seven. Sweeney and Guenther shared rebound honors with nine each.

In Saturday action against non-conference Jackson Northwest, Jackson pulled a hot second quarter out and outscored the local team, 16-11, which made much of the final difference. In every other quarter, Chelsea was only outscored by one point.

Final result was Northwest 57, Chelsea 51.

Randy Guenther hit for 21 points to lead the junior Bulldogs in scoring and also topped the pack in rebounds with nine. Randy Sweeney contributed nine points and six rebounds; Mark Burnett, five points; Mike Tobin, seven rebounds; and Jim Marshall and Howard Salyer, six rebounds.

Chelsea will visit Dexter tomorrow night.

SEC ROUND-UP:

Saline, Milan Continue To Set Pace in Conference Race

Saline and Milan continued their conference-leading ways, and South Lyon moved into the number three spot in last week-end's Southeastern Conference action.

Saline 78, Brighton 66—

Fourth-place Brighton managed an astonishingly close game with undefeated league-leader Saline Friday night. At the half, the score was all tied up at 32-32, although the red-hot Hornets eventually pulled it out by nine points.

Saline's Dan Scotton led the Hornet attack with a career high of 20 points in the effort, followed by Jim Slepisky with 20, and Dennis King with 15.

Jim Johnson scored 24 for Brighton, which fell to a fourth-place tie with Chelsea.

Milan 67, Chelsea 44—

Some embarrassingly inept Bulldog shooting and a tough Milan team combined to lower Chelsea into fourth place with Brighton.

The game, reasonably close at the half, saw Chelsea's offense stumble in the third period, hitting for but one shot of 16 attempts.

Led by Stan Joplin's 28 points, the Big Reds lost no time in putting the contest away. Jay Cummings added 15 points for the tough second-place squad.

South Lyon 80, Dexter 63—

On the move are South Lyon's Lions, who managed to up themselves to a third-place tie last week with their overtime defeat of Chelsea, and then took third all by themselves this week, mauling Dexter, 80-63.

Three Teams Still Undefeated in Beach Intramurals

In the second week of competition in the Beach Intramural League, the Owings, Dresch, and Simon teams are sporting perfect 2-0 records atop their respective leagues.

Leading scorers in the past week of play are Greg Ringe with 26; Don Aldrich, 21; Mike Sweeney, 14; Brian Lewis, 14; Carolyn Schardein, 13; Steve Check, 11; Curt Owings, 10; Sue Heydlauff, nine; and Lori Miles, nine.

The game for all practical purposes was decided in the second quarter, when South Lyon outscored the Dreadnaughts, 26-13.

High scorers for the winners were Ed Segars and Tony Kern, who pumped in 20 and 19 points, respectively.

Lincoln 75, Novi 44—

They're running out of novel adjectives to describe the utter futility of Novi's Wildcats in basketball this season, but the ones used most often seem to be "hapless," "winless", and more of the same.

At any rate, heretofore none-too-exciting Lincoln walked all over the Wildcats, who appear to be getting tamer by the week, 75-44.

Despite an early-game lead, Lincoln rallied by the second quarter, led by a tough press and Derek Thomas' hot scoring. Thomas finished with 26 points. Kevin Woods, Bill Cole, and Keith Parks followed with 12, 11, and 10 points, respectively.

The Great Wonder of Nature's Healing Power

One of the most amazing marvels of life is the ability of the body to renew itself. To repair damage to its organs and go forward.

If the vital nerve energy needed for healing is blocked by spinal displacements causing pressure on delicate nerves, the healing process is slow and sometimes ineffective.

Chiropractic preventive care will keep your nerves free and unblocked so nature's wonderful healing power will have a better chance to reconstruct your body and keep it healthy.

Mean Mary Jean, Superstar of our Economy Team, says:

Think again.

Super Bug
$2849⁰⁰*

Plymouth Duster
$2661⁰⁰*

The VW Super Bug is bigger than our Duster in one important category—price.*

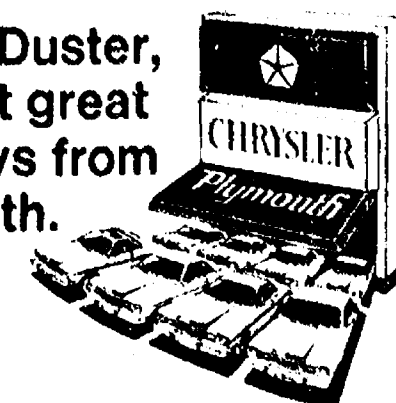

That's something to think about. Especially when you consider that Duster seats five adults comfortably. Volkswagen—only four. Duster offers three times the trunk space. Duster has an electronic ignition that virtually eliminates ignition tune-ups. VW doesn't even offer one.

And finally, Duster still looks and acts like a compact. With easy handling and parking. Good gas mileage on regular gas.

So c'mon down! And let a member of our Economy Team show you how easy it is to own a Duster.

*Manufacturers suggested retail price, excluding destination charges, dealer preparation, state and local taxes. Whitewalls and wheel covers as shown are optional.
