School Board Enlists Help of Room Mothers

With the third attempt to gain voter approval of needed funds for the Chelsea School District coming up on June 10, Chelsea area mothers of school children will be meeting at Chelsea High school cafeteria Saturday morning, June 1 to work on plans to gain approval of the operational millage request.

Room mothers for grades kindergarten through five and mothers of children from grades six through 12 who have volunteered will meet with Board of Education members and administrators.

"We need to impress on area voters the urgency of our situation," said Howard Haselschwardt, president of the board. "Virtually all of our request is for a renewal of existing taxes which represents 60 percent of our budget for the coming year. We seek only one additional mill, $1 of tax for every $1,000 of state equalized valuation."

Haselschwardt emphasized that the board had cut the proposed budget to the minimum needed to continue existing programs.

"As with everyone," he said, "we are caught in inflationary times and need to meet the rising costs of electricity, fuel, materials and other essentials. The board does not intend to curtail existing programs unless there is no alternative."

Volunteer mothers will discuss school needs with officials at the Saturday meeting. They will then be asked to contact other area voters in an effort to get out as many voters as possible. Fewer than half of the eligible voters in the area have gone to the polls in the two previous elections.

"On March 26 we asked for 14.78 mills and were turned down," Haselschwardt said. "We trimmed the request to 13.5 mills at the May 15 election and lost again. We must return with that same request which is really a hold-the-line situation."

"Our goal is to get a large voter turnout to decide this election," he said. "We hope that the people of the district will help us maintain the fine educational system we now have."

Haselschwardt pointed out that applications for absentee ballots for the June 10 election may be obtained by calling the school district offices at 475-1377.

Donald Doll Named K-C Grand Knight

Elected officers of the Chelsea Knights of Columbus Council No. 3092 for the coming year are the following: grand knight, Donald Doll; chaplain, the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis; seignior, gmnshae Jard tynd Dupuis; deputy grand knight, James Kalshek; chancellor, Leonard Juergens; recorder, James Gaken; financial secretary, Donald Blacklock; treasurer, Douglas Brown; lecturer, William Harvey; advocate, George Atkinson; wardens, Charles Smith; inside guard, Larry McKinnon; outside guard, Albert Forner; and board of trustees, Vincent Hafner, Walter Bolanowski, and Maynard Poertner.

Delegates to the state convention held on Mackinac Island May 23 through 25 were grand knight Donald Doll and past grand knight Walter Bolanowski. Alternate delegates attending were Maynard Poertner and George Merkel.

State officers elected for the coming year are: John Matthews, state deputy; Julian Joseph, state secretary; William Walsh, state

Serving Residency At Hospital in Massachusetts

Michael E. Schrader, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schrader, Jr., of 233 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., is currently serving as Administrative Resident at Wesson Memorial Hospital in Chicopee, Mass. He will receive a master's degree in hospital administration from Washington University in January, 1975, upon completion of his residency at the hospital.

Schrader is a graduate of Michigan State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in economics. He was a member of the economics honorary society and was graduated with honors.

Track Team Trounces Dexter 82-41

Chelsea's track team won its final dual meet of the season last Thursday, trouncing Dexter, 82-41. The win gave the squad a final 6-1 record in Southeastern Conference action and an over-all 9-1 record. This year's graduating seniors thus finish with a 33-3 record over the past four years.

Chelsea roared out of the field events with a Commanding 30-6 lead, and after a one-two finish in the 880-yard run, the Dreadnaughts could never get close enough to challenge.

Craig Coltre won long jump, low hurdles, and finished second in high hurdles to pace the scorers. Karl Gauss won both dashes.

"Times were not particularly good," Coach Bert Kruse noted. "Due to the very strong winds during this meet."

With the wrap-up of the dual meet season, final outcome of the conference was to be decided Wednesday, May 29, at South Lyon. South Lyon, Coach Kruse reports, is favored to win, "but in conference meets anything can happen."

Winners and Chelsea placers in the Dexter meet were:

Shot put: 1st, Ishmael Picklesimer, 46 ft., 8 1/2 in.; 2nd, Rex Miles, 42 ft., 8 in.

Long jump: Craig Coltre, 19 ft. 7 1/2 in.; 2nd, Dennis Blaier, 18 ft., 3 3/4 in.; 3rd, Howard Salyer, 17 ft., 11 1/2 in.

High jump: 1st, Rick Sweeney, 6 ft., 1 in.; 2nd, Randy Sweeney, 5 ft., 8 in.

Baseball Team Downs Dexter In Tourney

Chelsea's Bulldogs were swamped by Dexter Friday in their final game of League play, 11-1, but came back when it counted the next day to shut out the Dreadnaughts, 4-0, in the qualifying round of district tournament play.

In Friday's game, which left Chelsea's final record in the SEC all even at 7-7, the Bulldogs managed only a run in the opening inning, while Dexter went wild in the fourth and fifth for five runs each time, then cruised home, adding a single run in the sixth.

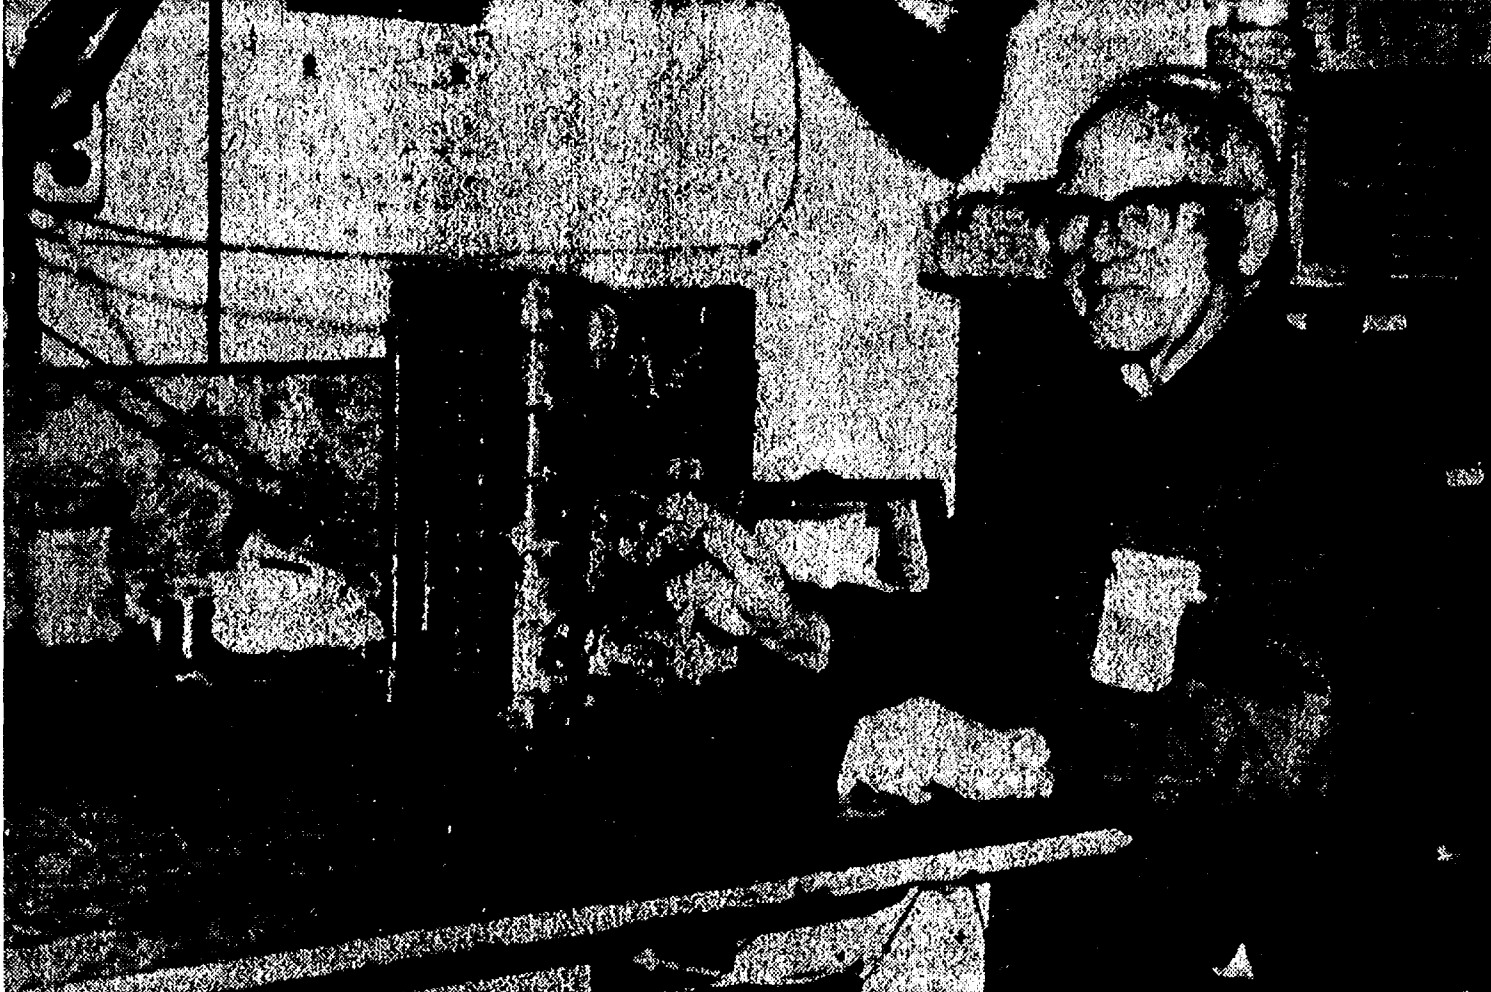

John Houle was big hitter in the Bulldog cause, clouting a home run and a triple. Tres MacCollum was good for a pair of singles.

Bill Clark suffered the loss, which left Chelsea's over-all record at 10-13.

In Saturday's contest, the Bulldogs jumped to a quick 3-0 lead in the first inning on a base-on-balls and three Dreadnaught errors, and the four-hit pitching of John Houle contained Dexter the rest of the way.

Chelsea managed only two hits, to Dexter's four, a double by Jeff Sprague and a single by Tres MacCollum.

Winning pitcher Houle was in SOMETHING OF AN INSTITUTION will leave the repair world at Heydlauff's today, when Vern Parks puts in his final day of work prior to retirement. Parks, pictured above repairing one of the last items that will come his way as an employee of Heydlauff's, has worked at the establishment "just two months short of 25 years." He came to Heydlauff's from a now-defunct radio shop in Ann Arbor, and has remained as what he describes as "Jack of all trades and master of none, you might say." Parks and his wife, Gladys, will retire to Lakeland, Fla., where they have recently purchased a home.

Music Man Try-Outs Attract Talent from Previous Shows

Leading the big parade to the Chelsea Players' performance of "The Music Man," scheduled for July 31 to Aug. 3, will be a number of familiar names from Chelsea theater productions of both recent and more distant past.

Jeff Daniels, home from college, scored the lead as Harold Hill, the music man, and Tom Schill will be featured as Mayor Shinn. Other male leads will be filled by Dave Clemons as Marcellus Washburn and Steve Figg as Tommy Dijas.

Chris Albright, performer in many local productions and featured as Sally Bowles in Eastern Michigan University's production of "Cabaret" last fall, will portray one of the female leads, Marian Paroo. Joan Yocum, who returned from Eastern Michigan University during this school year to choreograph the high school's production of "Mame," will appear as Zanetta Shinn, while Michelle McClellan, fresh from her role as Mame's "bosom buddy," will play Eula Mae MacKecknie Shinn.

Director DiAnn L'Roy reports that a large number of potential performers turned out for tryouts last week-end, with a particularly large turnout of youngsters eager to start their stage careers who auditioned, especially those young students," Miss L'Roy said. "It was hard to decide the children's parts with so many good possibilities." She also noted that an announcement is forthcoming regarding a summer theatre program for grades four through eight, so those of you who didn't get a part in this show, don't be discouraged."

Other cast members for the show include, as traveling salesman, Dennis Stoffer, Steve Knickerbocker, Howard Salyer, Craig Johnson, Jon Lewis, Jim Powers, and Jim Redding; as the conductor, Norman Bauer; as Oliver Hix, Dennis Bauer; as Jacey Squires, Keith Pfeifle; as Olin Britt, Bill Tite; as Maryylin, Marcia Warren; as Winthrop, Patrick Powers; as Gracie Shinn, Jill Van Slambrouck; as Alma Hix, Lenore Mattoff; as Maud Dunlop, Polly Van Slambrouck; as Ethel Toffelmier, Pat Knickerbocker; as Mrs. Squires, Lisa MacPhail; as Mrs. Britt, Kathy Stoll; and as Constable Locke, Jim Redding.

Appearing as the Library Dancers will be Jennifer Lane, Carole Dietle, Susan Leach, Howard Sal-

New Facility Open House Set for Sunday

The Governing Board of Chelsea Community Hospital today announced plans for a county-wide open house to be held Sunday, June 2, to mark the completion of the Hospital's new $3 million Surgical Center and Ambulatory Care Unit.

Board chairman Paul Mann will cut a surgical gauze ribbon at 2 p.m. Sunday, officially opening the structure for self guided tours which will last until 5 p.m.

Also featured will be an Art and Flower Display on the Hospital and Chelsea Medical Center grounds, 775 S. Main, as well as refreshments.

Particularly invited to the open house are all residents of the Washtenaw area served by the hospital, including the communities of Dexter, Stockbridge, Grass Lake, Manchester, Chelsea, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Jackson, Mann said.

He added that the Surgical Center will go into operation on Monday, June 3, and that the open house may be the only time that area residents and their children may get a first-hand view of the fully equipped operating rooms and other surgical areas normally closed to all but staff and patients.

Paintings by Betty Maxwell will be on exhibit and for sale, with proceeds going to the medical scholarship fund of the hospital.

Designed, built and equipped for outpatient surgery, the modern Surgical Center is the first new unit of its kind in Michigan and a national pace-setter in the trend toward surgical treatment without hospitalization.

It also represents an important addition to the health care complex at Chelsea which has grown in six years into the main treatment facility for 70,000 patients.

Explaining the operation of the new unit, Hospital Administrator Richard Hinds noted that the Surgical Center has the same facilities as any modern hospital, including a patient receiving and preparation area, a surgical suite with four operating rooms and a 12-bed recovery area.

However, most patients will bypass the usual and costly hospital stay completely. They will check in, have their lab tests, undergo surgery, rest and recover a few hours and then leave for home the same day. Those requiring hospitalization will be admitted to the main Hospital building which is attached to the Surgical Center.

According to James D. Shadoan, M.D., director of anesthesia and operating room service for the hospital, this change from traditional medical care largely has been made possible by the development of modern anesthetic agents which quickly lose their effect after surgery.

He said the outpatient concept originally was instituted as a cost-saving measure, eliminating hundreds of dollars in hospital bed costs for patients and their medical insurers, however, experience at other surgical centers has brought out additional benefits.

It was found that patients prefer to convalesce at home, Dr. Shadoan said, and that patients tend to recover more quickly with less discomfort, complications and infections in a familiar environment. This also reduces emotional trauma if either children or their parents must undergo non-major surgery.

The Surgical Center also contains four other units of the 110-bed Chelsea Hospital: coronary care, emergency suite, x-ray, and diagnostic offices.

The six-bed coronary care unit additionally will serve as an intensive care area for other critically-ill patients. A unique feature will be a telephone link for transmitting electrocardiographs of heart-attack patients directly to the specialists in the Heart Station of the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor.

This remote readout system is being installed through a research grant to Chelsea Hospital and the U-M Hospital to test the feasibility of using the system between other community hospitals and regional medical centers.

Heart patients further along in their recovery in Chelsea Hospital, will have their heart action monitored by portable telemetry devices which they may wear while walking around the building.

The Emergency Room area now in the Chelsea Medical Clinic adjacent to the Hospital will be relocated in the Surgical Center and continue to offer 24-hour emergency treatment for all but the most major injuries which will be referred to Ann Arbor hospitals.

The Surgical Center also contains a complete diagnostic radiology department with two fluoroscopic rooms, a control room, a film-processing room, a film reading room, dressing room, reception and waiting rooms.

There are 18 exam and treatment rooms, eight offices and four waiting areas in the diagnostic section of the center. Some of these rooms will be used by surgeons who will serve as visiting consultants to family physicians in the Chelsea Medical Clinic.

A large number of surgical procedures are possible in an outpatient facility, Dr. Shadoan said. These include ear, nose, throat and eye surgery as well as some general surgery, hernia and varicose vein repair, plus urologic, gynecologic, plastic and orthopedic procedures.

Major surgery will be referred to the large regional hospitals in Ann Arbor although many of these same Ann Arbor surgeons will be operating at the Chelsea facility for the convenience of their patients and themselves, Dr. Shadoan said. The Chelsea surgical capacity therefore will relieve overcrowding at Ann Arbor hospitals as well as bringing specialists into the rural community.

Describing the background of the Chelsea facility, Hinds said that its most unusual facet is its location — in a town of 4,000 instead of a major city. This is because of a decision made six years ago by several family physicians, headed by Dr. Michael Papo, to form a

Rec. Tennis Classes Should Start June 10

Chelsea Recreation Council's summer tennis program is tentatively scheduled to begin the week of June 10, with adult, junior, elementary, and semi-private and private lessons projectedly being available.

Tennis instructor Terry Schreiner, a Chelsea High school physical education teacher who boasts 13 years of tennis experience, will teach the courses. She asks that interested tennis players (or tennis players-to-be), drop her a postcard or short note at 800 Book St. to pre-register for the summer courses. The various groups should include the following information:

For adult classes, which will be scheduled on Thursdays from 6 until 8 p.m., participants are asked to list for pre-registration: —name, —level, i.e., beginner, intermediate, or advanced, —time preference, 6 p.m., 7 p.m., or 8 p.m. Thursday.

Adult classes would begin June 13 and will last eight weeks.

Registrants who qualify as juniors (ages 13 through 17) will meet on Tuesdays beginning June 11 from 3 until 5 p.m. for an eight week period.

To pre-register for a junior class, they should also send notice to Miss Schreiner, listing name, level (beginner, intermediate, or advanced), and time preferred, 3, 4, or 5 p.m.

Elementary lessons for children under 13 years will be held Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Possibly two three-week sessions of nine lessons will be held during the course of the summer.

Elementary pre-registrants should indicate their name, age group (five through nine years or 10 through 12 years), and time preferred — 10, 11, or 12 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings.

Cost for adult and junior programs will be $5 per applicant; cost for elementary students will be $1.

Semi-private (two to four persons), or private lessons may be arranged by calling Miss Schreiner at 475-2536 and setting up a time anytime during the summer.

Miss Schreiner stresses that these times are not final. "These times depend upon the amount of interest shown. If enough interest is shown, these times will prevail."

Pre-registrants are urged to send their information to Miss Schreiner as soon as possible.

Little League Registration Set Saturday

With summer just around the corner, Chelsea Recreation news is coming in thick and fast.

Registration for Little League baseball, for boys 8 to 12 years, is scheduled for Saturday, June 1, from 1 to 3 p.m. in Chelsea High school gym.

Registration for T-ball, which is for boys 7 to 9 years, (and not 8 to 12, as stated in last week's issue of The Standard), will also be held Saturday from 1 to 3 p.m.

Jim Ticknor, director of these two leagues, will be on hand at registration to welcome registrants and their parents, who are asked

Golf Team 6th in Willow Run Tourney

Chelsea golfers placed sixth in a field of 22 teams in last Friday's Willow Run Invitational, shooting a 350.

Top teams were Northville in first place, followed by Parma Western, second, and Ypsilanti, third.

For Chelsea, Mike Fouty shot an 82, Roger Policht, 89, Chris Rabbitt, 90, and Dan Shirilla, 98.

This tournament ends the season for Chelsea linksmen.

CUM LAUDE STUDENTS from Chelsea High school (those who maintained an A- average throughout their four years of high school) were honored at an Honor Banquet presented by Modern Mothers Child Study Club on Wednesday, May 15. Those attending were, front row, from left, Jeff Sprague, Dave Klemmer, Ron Clark, Phyllis Jedele,

Former Chelsea Resident Featured In California Story

Nancy L. Prather, the former Nancy Carter of Chelsea, was featured in this month's issue of Savings and Loan magazine for her work at Glendale (Calif.) Federal Savings & Loan. Currently she acts as director of Glendale's retirement plans and is in charge of all questions regarding Glendale's Keogh account.

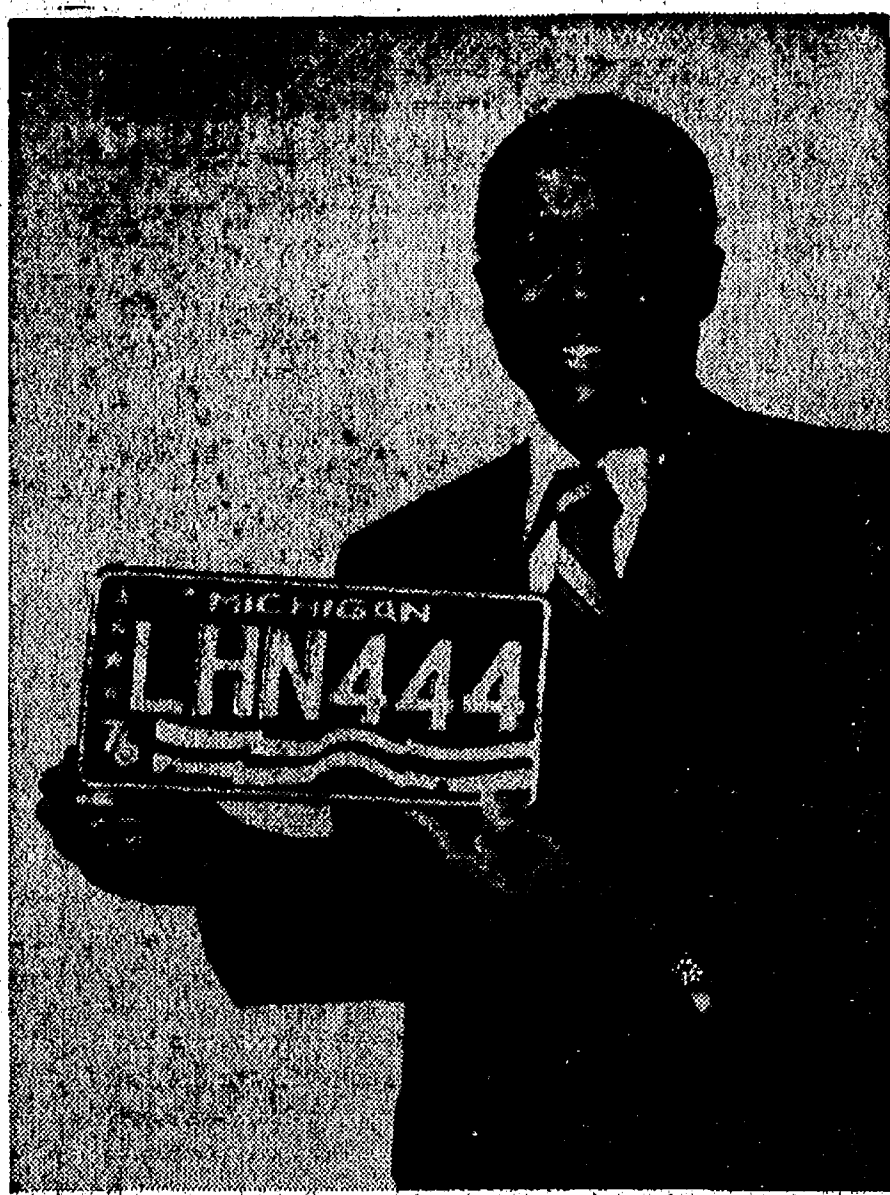

Keogh accounts, which draws their name from the Keogh-Smathers Act, formally the Self-Employed Individuals Retirement Act of 1962, allows self-employed persons to enjoy the tax advantages of a formal retirement plan.

Since 1969, when Glendale Federal had opened 35 Keogh accounts totaling $70,000, that figure has grown to some 1,200 investors with accounts of $4 million as of last January.

In addition to quoting Mrs. Prather as a source for the article, a brochure she designed to promote Glendale Federal's Keogh plan is pictured in the article. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Blaess.

Pamela D. Spencer Graduates at U. of Maine

Among a total of 1,444 students who graduated at the 149th commencement exercises of the University of Maine at its Orono campus on Saturday, May 25, was Pamela D. Spencer of Chelsea. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Spencer, 20931 Island Lake Rd.

1976 PLATES: Secretary of State Richard H. Austin today unveiled a new license plate design for 1976, a red, white and blue symbol of Michigan's role in the United States Bicentennial Celebration. The "Old Glory" license plate features white letters and numbers on a red background with four white stars on a blue field and two wavy ribbons of white across the bottom. The symbolism incorporates our national flag, the bicentennial logo and reminders of Michigan's role in American history. "The design of Michigan's new license plate was developed by our staff to commemorate the American Revolution Bicentennial and to relate the role of our state to the history of our nation," Austin said. "The four stars can be viewed as representing the four flags—French, British, Spanish and U. S.—that have at one time waved over what is now Michigan."

Improvements Noted This Year in Library Program

McKune Memorial Library notes a number of changes and improvements in the past year.

Circulation for the year totaled approximately 19,500.

During the year many new books, filmstrips, records, study prints, and circus posters were added to the library's collection.

2nd, 3rd, and 4th grades had regular weekly periods, with 1st grades taking books after the first of the year.

Class of '54 Gathers for 20th Reunion

Chelsea Rod and Gun Club was the scene of much merriment and reminiscing Saturday, May 25, when some 60 people gathered for the 20th reunion of Chelsea High school's 1954 graduating class.

Lloyd Grau, class vice-president, was master of ceremonies, with Helen (Eisemann) Bareis in charge of arrangements. Marjorie (Robards) Plumb was the program chairman and she was assisted by Cynthia (Paul) Bear and Doug Kolb. Shirley (Marsh) and Don Schneider made special presentations to class members.

Honored guests were Mrs. Irene Clare, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cameron, and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Conklin.

A catered dinner was served to the class members, followed by an evening of dancing.

Merchandise Needed for Rummage Sale

You name it, Chelsea Jaycees want it... if it happens to be usable rummage.

With less than a month to go before their annual rummage auction, scheduled this year for Saturday, June 29, Jaycees report that the rummage business is not booming and they need more donations to make the auction the rummage event of the season that it has been in the past.

Jaycee promoters of the auction remind residents that the rummage sale can assist them in two ways—by prompting people to get rid of things that are no longer useful, and by raising money through the sale of those unused—but usable—items for the activities of a community service organization like the Jaycees.

For information about pick-up of rummage by Jaycee members, see the Community Calendar in this issue of The Standard.

Recreation Survey Rates Chelsea Facilities 'Much Improved'

The survey, conducted by Chelsea resident Richard F. Stoll, states that the generally accepted standard for tennis facilities is one per 2,000 people; Chelsea, with a 1970 population of 3,885, has therefore met a quota of sports.

Stoll's survey, conducted in early December of last year, was a random sample of 100 Chelsea residents. The survey was written as a major requirement for his undergraduate degree in the Department of Geography at Eastern Michigan University. Completion of two tennis courts at North Elementary school that seemed such a Recreation Council pipe dream only two months ago represents an accomplishment in terms of over-all recreation for the village, according to a recent survey.

He was aided in the study by Chelsea High School's Key Club, under the direction of Sam Vogel.

Stoll states in his introduction that one means to "maintain the small town atmosphere" that presently prevails in the village is by "the effective use of recreational areas."

Current recreational land use in the village includes two small parks, a fairgrounds with new fair, service center, nature center, three school playgrounds on elementary school sites, ball diamonds at all the public school sites with lighted diamonds at Chelsea High school, and shuffleboard at Chelsea United Methodist Home.

Stoll divided his survey of residents into three segments: the first, primarily records respondents' opinions of existing recreational facilities in the village; the second, in a specific series of questions, asked not only what particular facilities are needed ("Is there a need for handball or paddleball courts?") but also whether the respondent would, indeed, make use of the facility were it provided ("Would you use a handball or paddleball court?"); the third question, in a more open-ended manner, asked for suggestions of other possible facilities deemed necessary, and also gathered statistical information regarding age and sex groupings of those surveyed.

Stoll reports encouragingly that "the opinions of the residents of Chelsea toward their facilities have improved overall since the survey of 1967—a recreational study completed in 1967 by Chelsea Jaycees and later updated by Parkins, Rodgers, & Associates of Detroit, which was used in Stoll's report for comparison."

Most dramatic improvement in any area was shown in the category of teen-age meeting places, which in 1967 was rated 72 percent poor. Stoll's survey shows that residents now rate community facilities as 40 percent average and 39 percent below average.

The change in rating is presumed to be the result primarily of the addition of a teen center in the former Methodist church parsonage, which was established with the assistance of Chelsea Jaycees and the "drive and ability of the teen-agers themselves."

Availability of large group meeting places was also rated significantly higher in this survey than the previous one. It now stands at 30 percent good and 40 percent average, compared to 27 percent good, 29 percent average, and 22 percent poor. The addition of the new fair service center is seen as prompting the change in this rating.

Stoll also mentions the completion of the new middle school and the activities of Chelsea Recreation Council as "the strongest factors in improving the community's opinion of its recreational facilities."

Recreation Council, he says, "is working toward a comprehensive program of recreational classes for all age groups... by offering varied classes taught by people in the community." He concludes, "There are few communities of this size with the facilities and programs that are available here."

Of the four facilities that were shown to be needed through Stoll's survey, two of them—more tennis courts and an indoor swimming pool—may be removed from further consideration, since the one is finished (the courts will be dedicated this week) and the other approved by voters (an indoor swimming pool for Beach Middle school was approved as part of a building program by Chelsea School District voters last Dec. 17).

Two other facilities considered worthwhile for the village—handball and paddleball courts and additional baseball diamonds—were viewed as necessary by 62 percent of the population. Stoll notes that, although there are no immediate plans to construct handball and paddleball courts, a total of 56 percent of his respondents said that they would use them if they were available.

Tony Bowen, president of Chelsea Recreation Council, noted Monday that the council was unaware of the desire for such courts. "Now that we know, that's something we can work on for the future," he said.

Terry Schreiner, high school physical education teacher, has recently been attempting to gain support for a proposed indoor recreational facility that would feature handball and paddleball courts and indoor tennis courts. In an article in The Standard in February, she said, "Right now there's no facility like this in Chelsea, but there is a real need for it."

Stoll disputes the community's desire for additional ball diamonds, however, stating that the present number is "ample for the population. Better co-ordination and use of existing diamonds may answer this need," he says.

Stoll concludes by terming Chelsea "Washtenaw county's model village" and extends most of the credit for this rating to the community's "planning for the future in their recreational facility needs."

Chelsea Recreation Council, he says, "is fulfilling its role by such action as getting the additional tennis courts at the North school site and working with the other local government bodies."

With a prediction of more of the same for the future, Stoll reports, "The current status of recreational land uses in fulfilling the needs of the people is rising" though the efforts of the Recreation Council.

POISON PREVENTION:

What To Do If Poisoning Found

Many people, and in particular children, die every year from poisons in the home. Here are some suggestions on the prevention of deaths from poisons.

First, keep all drugs, poisonous substances and household chemicals where children cannot reach them. Poisons or substances which contain poisons should never be stored on open shelves or in unlocked cabinets. Containers that contain poisons or poisonous substances should carry labels that identify the contents. Otherwise, serious and even fatal mistakes may occur. Also, it is hazardous to give or take medicines in the dark.

Once it is learned or suspected that a member of the family has swallowed one of the poisons or poisonous substances kept in the home, fast action is vital. A doctor should be called, and until he arrives, it is urgent to treat the victim.

The American Medical Association advises that it is hazardous to try to cause the victim to vomit:—when the patient is in a coma—when the patient is in convulsions—when the patient has swallowed a petroleum product (kerosene, gasoline, lighter fluid)—when the patient has swallowed a corrosive poison of which the symptoms are severe pain, burning sensations in the mouth or the throat and the patient "throws up."

To the patient one to five years old, give one to two cups of milk or water, and to an older patient up to one quart. Then place the blunt end of a spoon or your four fingers at the back of the patient's throat or give him an emetic (two tablespoons of salt in a glass of warm water). Once the patient starts to vomit, he should be placed face down with the head lower than the hips which must be done to keep the vomitus out of the lungs.

The National Association of Retail Druggists has for many years carried on a campaign to persuade people to examine the contents of the home medicine cabinet to make sure that there is nothing in it that could be harmful. The odds are 100 to one that it contains medicines and other items that ought to be in a locked closet. Published reports of deaths from drugs that children took from the home bathroom cabinets include heart medicines, drugs used to induce sleep, over-doses of aspirin and many other drugs. None of the medicines prescribed by physicians should be left where children can reach them.

Specialists Offer Helpful Tips On Buying, Planting Rose Bushes

For success in growing roses this year, buy from a reputable source, say Michigan State University horticulturists.

An excellent selection of high-quality plants is available through mail order nurseries. They usually guarantee their roses will grow and bloom if given normal care.

Mail order catalogs are also useful if you don't know what variety of rose you want. The varieties listed are favorites with professional rose growers.

Local nurseries and garden centers are also good sources of rose plants. They carry the most popular varieties in your area.

Drug stores, supermarkets and department stores are good sources if their stock has been kept dormant and protected from drying, say the specialists.

Plant dormant rose plants in April and May, as soon as possible after you purchase them. In Michigan, don't plant actively growing or flowering rose plants until the threat of frost has passed. Follow this procedure:

—Locate your roses in an area with good drainage where they will receive a minimum of at least half a day of sunshine.

—Dig a hole approximately 15 inches wide and 18 inches deep for each plant. Add a quart of peat moss or compost to the soil into a cylinder and place it in the planting hole.

—Prune the rose canes of dormant plants to 12 inches and remove any broken or injured roots.

Position the rose plant on the cylinder of soil so that the bud union, the swelling at the base of the stem, is about one inch below the surface of the surrounding ground. Spread the roots out and down the cylinder of soil.

—Work soil around the roots to eliminate any air pockets. Fill the hole three-fourths full, firming the soil as you go.

—Fill the remainder of the hole with water and allow it to soak in—then refill.

—Complete filling in the hole with soil and pack it down. Head canes back to about eight inches.

New Farm Wheat Allotment for '75 Now Available

A new farm wheat allotment may be established for the 1975 crop of wheat acreage for farms that did not have a 1974 allotment, if they meet eligibility requirements, Earl Dolezky of the Washtenaw County ASC Committee, has announced.

A 1975 wheat allotment will be established automatically for most farms that had a wheat allotment in 1974.

To be eligible for a new farm allotment, the operator must expect to receive more than 50 percent of his income from farming. Neither the owner or an operator may have an investment in any other farm which has an allotment, and the person making application must have had at least one year production experience in a prior year.

Applications for a new farm allotment must be filed in the county office on or before July 1. Any interested producer who can meet these requirements should contact the county office before the final date for filing applications.

ASK THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Milliken

Question: As a mother, I have to protect the way in which school teacher settlements are reached. For each of the past several years, our state has been plagued by strikes by school teachers which delay the opening of school, and force a hardship on parents and children alike. I think that something should be done.

Answer: I am trying to do just that. In the last few years, Michigan has consistently led the nation in the number of school strikes.
At the beginning of the last school year in our state, nearly one-third of the teachers and students were not in their classrooms.

It is apparent to me that our present law governing teachers strikes is not working and that other alternatives must be found to help assure that teachers, students and the public are not continually frustrated by the effects of strikes—strikes which serve to benefit no one.

Legislation is pending which would help to remedy our present problems. One such bill—House Bill 5655—would set up timetables moving up the bargaining and mediation process, provide for realistic but enforceable penalties for illegal strikes, and establish a new form of arbitration. It also recognizes that in some cases—after all other efforts have failed—employees have the legal right to strike. I support the concept of this bill and believe it can be a vehicle for solution.

It is imperative that everything possible be done to avoid the potential disruption, inconvenience, hard feelings, and danger to the educational process that has occurred and that can occur again under our present system.

Question: Governor, our Vietnam veterans are forgotten men.
I've seen TV programs and read articles that point that nothing is being done to help them. I think it's a tragedy.

Answer: Two weeks ago, the Michigan legislature adopted a bill to place the question of a bonus for Vietnam veterans on the November ballot. That legislation had my strong support, and its enactment by the legislature was the result of firm bipartisan cooperation and support.

If the people of the state approve the $205 million measure in November, combat veterans of the Vietnam-era would be provided with a bonus of $600 and non-combat veterans a bonus of $75 per month of service to a maximum of $450.

I firmly believe that our Vietnam veterans deserve the full measure of our support and our gratitude for their substantial sacrifices during a long and unpopular war. A bonus is one way of demonstrating that gratitude, and I am pleased that the legislature has placed the issue on the November ballot.

Question: What areas of Michigan are eligible for the special gas allocations for tourist traffic?

Answer: Various areas will benefit from action by the Public Service Commission to provide gasoline for travelers in Michigan through its Tourist Gasoline Availability Plan. The Commission approved a plan whereby gasoline stations staying open on major tourist routes could draw extra allocations from the state's gasoline set-aside. This action is responsive to requests for concrete actions that will help meet the recreation needs of citizens.

Under the new plan, added gasoline may be obtained by stations within a half mile of "approved tourist routes" which remain open until 10 p.m. on Friday, Saturday, Sunday and holiday evenings. Major tourist routes for purposes of the plan have been identified as follows:
1-75 from Toledo to Sault Ste. Marie (excluding Detroit from Woodhaven to Anchor Bay);
1-94 from Mount Clemens to Port Huron; US-23 from Ohio line to Standish; US-23 from Standish to Mackinaw City; US-10 from Bay City to Clare; US-27 from Lansing to Clare; M-76 from Standish to Higgins Lake; I-69 from Indiana line to Charlotte; US-131 from Indiana line to Cadillac (excluding inner Grand Rapids from Cutterville to Belmont); I-94 from New Buffalo to Ann Arbor; I-96 from Coloma to Holland; US-31 from Holland to Mackinaw City (excluding inner Muskegon from Ferrysburg to N. Muskegon); M-22 from Manistee to Traverse City; I-96 from Muskegon to Livonia; M-15 from Clare to Frankfort; M-72 from Grayline to Acme; M-25 from Port Huron to Bay City; and M-46 from Saginaw to Pt. Sanilac.

Upper Peninsula—US-2 from Mackinaw City to Ironwood; M-28 from Dafter to Wakefield; US-41
from L'Anse to Copper Harbor;

"I REMEMBER"

BY THE OLD TIMER

From Miss Lena Wing, Winfield, Kans.: I remember papa bringing the Majestic Range home. It was big, with a reservoir which it was my job to keep filled, so there would be hot water for dishes, hand washing, and baths long after the fire went out. On each side of the stovepipe were warming ovens where food could be kept if someone was late for meals. Out of that oven pies, cakes and hot breads emerged daily. Once or twice a week, eight large, high-rising loaves of bread entirely filled it.
None of us equalled mama's skill in building a fire which baked to perfection. There was no temperature control, nor way of testing it except for a bare arm thrust in at the half open door.

On washday the lids over the firebox were removed and the water heated and clothes boiled in a washboiler directly over the blaze. On the back of the stove a pot of beans simmered all morning long, and just before dinner a pan of cornbread was popped into it to help satisfy appetites sharpened by muscle-powered washing machines.

Big Mac, arching five miles over the Straits of Mackinac to connect the Upper and Lower Penin-sulas, is one of the world's great bridges.

US-41 from Menominee to Powers; and US-95 from Iron Mountain to Champion.

Retail gasoline stations in these locations that require additional volumes for tourists can make their needs known by calling the State Energy Office at (517) 373-8250.

The Energy Office will determine on a case-by-case basis the amount of product to be ordered for the Tourist Gasoline Availability Plan.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

FOURTH GRADE—

Room 24

Teacher: Mrs. Huebner

Reporters: Howard Whitaker

Shawn Blough, Cathy Pearson

All the 4th grade classes went to Greenfield Village. It was fun. We would like to thank all the mothers who helped on the field trip.

In science our class is studying protzoans. Three high school students came in with four microscopes, through which we looked at some pond water. Our class learned how to use the microscope.

Our class has 100 new books; some are mysteries, some are funny, but most of all they are good reading. These books are from the Washtenaw Intermediate School District Reading Center.

One of our reading groups, called Gamma, is having a game to see how many books they can read.

DEATHS

J. Fred Reinhart

Former Ann Arbor Resident Dies at Methodist Home

J. Fred Reinhart, of 805 W. Middle St., died Tuesday, May 28, at Chelsea United Methodist Home at the age of 88.

Born Dec. 15, 1887 in Ypsilanti, he was the son of Charles and Catherine Steiner Reinhart. He was married to Elsie Houghton June 11, 1912. She died in March of 1953. He came to the Home Aug. 17, 1971 from Ann Arbor.

He is survived by two sons, Charles R. Reinhart of Ann Arbor and Fred Reinhart of Pleasant Ridge, and one daughter, Mrs. Mary Kincaid of Owosso.

Funeral services will be conducted today, Thursday, May 30, at 10 a.m. at Chelsea United Methodist Home Chapel by Dr. Donald B. Strobe. Burial will follow in Redford Cemetery, Livonia.

Arrangements were by Staffan Funeral Home.

Guy Murphy

Retired Railroad Employee Dies at Area Nursing Home

Guy Murphy, 80, a former Chelsea resident, died Sunday, May 26 at the Whitmore Lake Convalescent Center after a long illness.

He was born Sept. 13, 1893 in Chelsea, the son of Owen and Mary Murphy. He was married to Stella Barry in 1940. She preceded him in death in 1971. He was a retired employee of Penn Central Railroad.

Surviving is a step-son, Robert Barry of Chelsea, three step-daughters, Mrs. Ann Johnson of Hot Springs, Ark., Mrs. Helen Bowen of Carleton, Minn., and Mrs. Dorothy Kolander of Carson, Calif., and a cousin, Cecil Murphy of Pinckney, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 29 at the Burghardt Funeral Home with the Rev. Carl W. Schwarm officiating. Burial followed in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Physician Dies in Hunt Club Mishap

A Birmingham physician died within minutes after an accident Sunday at Waterloo Hunt Club when he was thrown from the horse he was riding and the horse then fell on top of him.

Witnesses said that the victim, Dr. John M. Clapperton, 42, was riding up to an obstacle when the horse halted, throwing the doctor to the ground. The horse then tumbled over onto him.

Dr. Clapperton was transported to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, but died shortly thereafter. Hospital officials reported that the doctor's chest and trachea were crushed.

Funeral services were held for Dr. Clapperton Wednesday in Birmingham.

VFW Post Installs New Officers

Chelsea Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4078 held its open installation of new officers Wednesday, May 22, at the post home, 105-B N. Main St.

A silent prayer was offered for the commander of the department of Michigan VFW, Leo Bazman, who died Tuesday at the age of 48. The funeral was held in Dearborn Heights, Saturday, May 25. The Veterans' Prayer was given by Kermit Sharp.

Past commander of the 6th district, William Goodwin from Post No. 6132, Lansing, was present to give the charges and install the new officers. He was presented with a gift for his services by Commander Frank White.

The past commanders pin was presented to Commander Frank White by newly-elected Commander Kenneth Platt. Mrs. White, the VFW Auxiliary president, was introduced and presented Mrs. Goodwin with a rose bowl, and life membership was given Clarence Roy Bohenna for membership in the national home at Eaton Rapids, purchased by the Auxiliary.

Guests present included Pat Merkel and Bill Coltre, commander and commander-elect of the American Legion, and Miller Ford from the Grand River Post, Detroit.

Refreshments were provided by Mrs. Bessie Sharp, aided by the Auxiliary. The evening's entertainment was provided by Mac Packard. New bingo supplies were tried out and robbers bingo was played by all.

Announcements were made pertaining to the Memorial Day Parade. The bingo license was issued by the State of Michigan, to begin June 6.

Ken Platt, Kermit Sharp, Fremont Boyer, and Mac Packard attended the 6th district meeting at Mason. Mac Packard was elected to the office of surgeon and Fremont Boyer was appointed district inspector.

New Surgical Center

rural group practice offering comprehensive medical care to the scattered population of western Washtenaw county.

The physicians met with local leaders and secured loans to build the Chelsea Medical Center. The functioning core of the Center is the group practice clinic operated by the doctors and the non-profit Chelsea Community Hospital, now controlled by a volunteer citizen governing board. Other units in the Center include a pharmacy, optician's office, ophthalmology office, dental offices, laboratories, and x-ray unit and a central medical records unit.

The mansard roofed, brick buildings are placed among the trees of a wooded, 37-acre tract in a campus-like setting in the village of Chelsea.

The 10-doctor group is now one of the largest family group practices in Michigan with the physicians seeing as patients, infants, children, parents and grandparents from communities and farms up to 50 miles away.

This sort of outpost medicine has become the subject of national attention as an example of the resurgence of family medicine. The Chelsea doctors are helping to train more physicians by teaching medical students and young graduates of the U-M Medical School who observe and assist at the Hospital and Clinic.

The Chelsea practice has been successful because it delivers the kind of care patients want, according to Dr. Papo. He said this means easy access to good quality, comprehensive medical care delivered with personal attention and at reasonable cost.

Registrations Taken for Swimming Lessons

Registration for this summer's swim lessons from Chelsea Recreation Council are currently being taken by Jim Tallman at 475-7068 (after 4 p.m.).

Lessons will consist of three two-week sessions, with sessions scheduled for June 24 through July 5, July 8 through July 19, and July 22 through Aug. 2.

Lessons will again be conducted at Half Moon Lake, with buses leaving from South school.

Spaghetti Dinner To Benefit Home Meal Service Project

St. Barnabas Episcopal church on Old US-12 is planning a spaghetti dinner for this Saturday, June 1, with proceeds to be donated to Home Meal Service of Chelsea and towards the Chelsea area school children's physicals that were required for participation in the Special Olympics.

Children who participated in the district Special Olympics were required to have a current, thorough physical either by their family physician or a physician who visited their school. Some families were unable to afford this physical, a spokesman for St. Barnabas notes, and the church desires to raise money to contribute toward these physicals in order to encourage handicapped children to participate in activities like the Special Olympics, without being discouraged by the expense of a physical.

A limited number of tickets are available for the dinner. For information and tickets, contact Joan Waller at 475-8816.

Who pays for living expenses (elsewhere) while they repair your home?

Most policies provide the coverage you expect—fire, lightning, storms, riots, vandalism and the like. They cover the cost of repairs due to these losses. But have you thought about the cost of living elsewhere if your home has to be repaired or rebuilt? It could run into hundreds of dollars. Or, it could be covered in black and white in our Homeowners Policy, so we would pay those extra living expenses! Give us a call. We'll put your home insurance all together in one policy for convenience and saving's sake.

David Klemmer Wins MOD Scholarship

Chelsea High school's David Klemmer, who already has a Chrysler Corporation Fund National Merit Scholarship under his belt, has been named as one of five Washtenaw County recipients of the 1974 March of Dimes Health Career Awards scholarships.

David will receive the award at the annual March of Dimes meeting planned for next Tuesday, June 4, at Briarwood Hilton in Ann Arbor. This annual meeting and awards dinner will mark the end of the 1974 March of Dimes campaign.

David, who will graduate cum laude from CHS next week, plans to study bio-engineering at the University of Michigan's College of Engineering.

A recitation of his accomplishments in high school reads like a Who's Who of high school honors: this year, while serving as president of Chelsea's chapter of the National Honor Society, he has also performed as a member of the marching, pep, and symphony bands, and some months ago earned a first division rating for his tympani performance at the State Solo and Ensemble Festival. As a participant in high school forensics, he earned a first-place individual trophy for his radio broadcast in the Brighton Invitational Tournament.

For his work in holography

DAVID KLEMER

(three-dimensional laser photography), he was named this year as a member of the honors group of the Westinghouse Science Talent search. Similar exhibits earned him three International Science Fair awards and a first place in the Southeastern Michigan Science Fair in previous years. He was also chosen as a Boys' State delegate, and was the recipient of the Kiwanis Club Citizen-ship award.

CHEVY PICKUP OWNERS, HERE ARE 25 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD CONSIDER BECOMING A DODGE OWNER.

10 advantages Dodge has over Chevy.

1. Dodge has the Electronic Ignition System—Chevy doesn't.
2. The standard payload capacity of a Dodge D100 is 375 pounds greater than that of a Chevy C10.
3. The Dodge Boys' 52 pickup models give you a wider choice than Chevy.
4. Dodge offers you the famous Club Cab pickup—Chevy doesn't.
5. Dodge has a factory-built Sno-Fitter power wagon—Chevy doesn't.
6. Dodge's fuel tank capacity is greater than Chevy's.
7. Dodge's 225 Slant Six is smaller than any six-cylinder engine Chevy offers.

8. Dodge offers an antispin rear axle on its 1/2-ton models—Chevy doesn't.

9. Dodge has 1/2-ton chassis/cab models—Chevy doesn't.

10. Dodge offers an automatic speed control option—Chevy doesn't.

11. Front disc brakes are standard.

12. Double-wall construction.

13. Easy-off tailgate.

14. Independent front suspension.

15. No exposed bolts on the box floor.

16. Extra rust protection.

17. Easy engine accessibility.

18. Roomy, quiet, comfortable cab.

19. Carlike instrument panel and steering wheel.

20. The fuse box is located right inside the glove box.

21. Optional AM/FM radio.

22. Optional integral air conditioning.

23. Optional auxiliary jump seats on all Club Cabs.

24. Optional built-in and lockable tool box.

25. Optional LoadFlite automatic transmission. It's the same one used on 80 percent of all motor homes built in America.

1974 Dodge D100 Sweptline.

Modern Mothers Child Study Club Installs Officers

Modern Mothers Child Study Club held its last meeting of the year Tuesday, May 28, at 8 p.m. at the home of Barbara Brown. Installation of new officers was the major portion of the program for the evening.

Jackie Warner, first vice-president of Michigan Child Study Club Association, performed installation ceremonies. Jackie is from Mt. Clemens, and is not a member of the state board, although she is and has been involved with a local child study club for 18 years. Jackie also gave the group information as to the functions of the state board and how it services local child study clubs.

Robert Daniels, school board member, spoke to the group concerning the millage issue of the Chelsea School District. He presented many facts and answered a variety of questions from club members.

Four new members were welcomed into the club at this meeting: Sandra Mayer, Jane Lehmann, Marilyn Chastee, and Janet Grenier. Refreshments were served to 28 members and one guest, Nancy Sprague, by the co-hostesses, Kathy Lanktree and Sue Kett.

BROWN-WOJCICKI: Mr. and Mrs. Albert K. Brown of Traverse City announce the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Ann, to James Patrick Wojcicki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wojcicki of 716 Taylor. The bride-to-be is a junior at Hope College majoring in mathematics and psychology. Her fiancé is a 1971 graduate of Chelsea High School, is also a junior at Hope College, majoring in biology. Both plan to continue their education. An August wedding is planned.

Young Homemakers Elect Officers

Young Homemakers gathered at Thompson's Pizza for dinner last week. While there, secret pairs were revealed and gifts exchanged, followed by a brief business meeting.

Mrs. Earl Heller obtained several volunteers to help in various areas of the Chelsea Community Fair.

Officers elected for the next year are: Mrs. Richard Bareis, president; Mrs. Joe Bauer, vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Trinkle, secretary; Mrs. David Roehm, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Strong, reporter.

Appointed to the planning committee, along with the president and secretary, are Mrs. Earl Horning and Mrs. David Wolfgang. Activities will resume in the fall with a picnic planned by Mrs. Robert Heller, Mrs. Ronald Satterthwaite, and Mrs. Robert Strong.

The group closed the evening with bowling at Chelsea Lanes.

Susan Lynn Rogers, John Hailey Wed at Chelsea Church of Christ

Susan Lynn Rogers became the bride of John William Hailey on Saturday, May 18, at Chelsea Church of Christ in a ceremony officiated by David Rushlow.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rogers of Grass Lake, formerly of Chelsea; and Mr. and Mrs. George Hailey of Jackson.

For the ceremony, the bride chose a white voile gown with smocked bodice, trimmed with Venice lace and matching picture hat. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and miniature carnations with baby's breath.

Acting as maid of honor was Gwendolyn Rogers of Grass Lake, a sister of the bride, who appeared in a cream silk knit with pink and purple violet pattern and picture hat. Her bouquet was a colonial bouquet of silk violets.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carolyn Gishall, a sister of the bride, and Miss Lee Ann Rogers, a sister of the bride, and Miss Debra Schilling of Jackson. Their costumes were identical to that of the maid of honor.

Acting as best man was Robert Elkins of Jackson. Ushers were Greg Kinney of Jackson, Tony Greggs of Jackson, and Rick and Craig Rogers, brothers of the bride. Shelley Adkins of Chelsea and Beth Adkins of Jackson, both cousins of the bride, attended the bride as flower girls. They wore dresses similar to those of the bridesmaids and maid of honor.

The mother of the bride appeared in an aqua and white knit floor-length gown, adorned with a corsage of aqua and white miniature carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a floor-length green and white knit. Her corsage was of green and white miniature carnations.

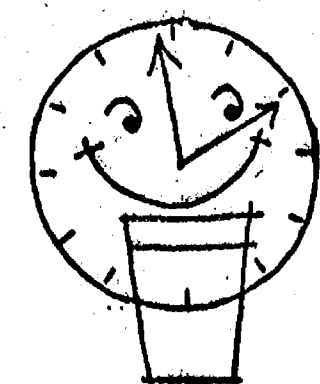

A reception at Chelsea Fair Service Center followed the ceremony. Assisting at the reception were:

Club and Social Activities

BRIDAL SHOWER

Miss Cynthia Boyer was honored recently by a bridal shower held at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mac Packard. Mrs. Packard was assisted by Mrs. Laurence Boyer and Mrs. Packard's granddaughters.

Eighteen relatives were in attendance, coming from Ann Arbor, Milan, and Chelsea. Games and visiting were the evening's entertainment, and a dessert luncheon was served. The prospective bride received a number of gifts. Assisting at the gift table was her sister, Wanda Boyer.

KINDER CLUB

Members of Kinder Klub went to Pete's in Jackson on May 21 for their spring dinner.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Carol Marshall, Mrs. Patricia Roberts, and Mrs. Elaine Stahl. Upon their return to Chelsea, the group met for coffee and conversation at the home of Mrs. Veretta Whitaker.

A hobo lunch for club members and their children is scheduled for June 19 at Pierce Park.

Food service careers apparently are gaining wider acceptance among young people. Enrollment in courses preparing youth for such careers has risen 113 percent over a six-year period.

ANN MARIE BARNES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnes, 9 Maple Court, recently completed her sophomore year at Western Michigan University, and an active woman on campus she was, too. While majoring in special education of the emotionally disturbed and minor in family life, she also was active as a member of Western's Associated Women and Men Students (AWMS), chairing several committees and earning several honor awards including the AWMS outstanding worker award this past winter term. She also held several offices in Chi Omega sorority and was elected national vice-president of the Intercollegiate Associated Women Students at the group's convention in Baton Rouge, La., in March. She is currently attending spring term classes at Western and will return to Chelsea in June.

WATER IN OUR ATMOSPHERE

The atmosphere contains only about 1-100,000th of the Earth's total water supply. But if the humidity and clouds all condensed into rain, about 3,000 cubic miles of water would fall—still only enough to cover the earth with no more than about an inch of rainwater.

Piano Recital Slated Sunday

Piano students of Betty Rasmussen will present a recital for the public on Sunday, June 2, at 2 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church.

Students participating will be Melanie Lee, Eric Pichlik, Douglas Pichlik, Kirk Stubbs, Jennifer Prinzing, Shelly Warren, Marsha Warren, Emily Bonius, Jeanne Thornton, Cheryl Nadeau, Chris Johnson, Carrie Lane, Tonia Williams, Cindy Turcott, Dawn Krieger, Beth Snyder, Linda Stillion, Keith Stillion, Becky Watson, and Julia Smith.

RECREATION REPORT

Governor Milliken has charged the Department of Natural Resources' Recreation Advisory Committee to prepare by mid-summer a report on community recreation issues with recommendations on how to meet local recreation program deficiencies. The governor-appointed committee works with the DNR's Recreation Services Division.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

★ Lesson in Economics

Suppose you had a goose that laid golden eggs—how would you go about making it more productive? Squeeze it so more eggs would come out? Let the government eat the goose and lay the eggs itself? Or would you decide to put a little fat on the goose—plow a little profit back into it—let the goose eat an egg once in awhile so it knows what they taste like, and if the goose likes the eggs, it will lay more?

History's records of various economic systems show that the latter stimulates increased "golden egg" production. It's called the incentive system responsible for this productive, young nation of ours having the highest standard of living in the world. Any society, to be affluent, must be a high-producing society.

Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz recently illustrated a basic lesson in economics by comparing two systems.

"There are two ways to make men work; you can use the stick—or the carrot. The totalitarian system uses the stick. You assign each worker a quota. If he does not make it, you banish him to Siberia—or some equivalent fate.

"The American system uses the carrot. You dangle dollar bills in front of a person—most of them just a little further away from him than he can conveniently reach. He innovates to get them. He improves his product to get them. He strives to please the consumer to get them. He dreams to get them. In short, he works to get them—and when he does produce, he gets those dollar bills."

It's this very simple economic fact of life that made last year's meat boycotts such a dismal failure. Even leading consumer groups have come to the conclusion that boycotts don't work. Boycotts and price controls resulted in less production and higher prices than would have been the case if the market had been allowed to function.

The sad part of that hard lesson is that consumers continue to bear the consequences of "squeezing the goose," because market distortions take time to heal.

Sadder yet—some did not learn the lesson in economics and continue to try to undermine our successful American incentive system by making "profit" a dirty word in our vocabulary. Whatever the name—carrots, golden eggs or profit—remove that incentive and the products and services they take for granted would no longer be.

Michigan fish plantings for 1974 were begun in mid-March by the Department of Natural Resources. This year's program will see 8,800,000 trout and salmon stocked in the Great Lakes and 2,262,000 in inland lakes and streams.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The citizens of Chelsea are a rare breed of people. At times they seem to be complacent and withdrawn from the issues of the day. But let there be a situation arise that challenges the entire community, they unite and overcome the challenge. Our community spirit was visually evident a little over a year ago when a snowstorm closed I-94 for two days. People were hungry, cold and tired, yet the citizens of this town arose to the occasion and fed, clothed and opened their doors to the stranded motorists.

Another such challenge is before us. The crisis involves people just as a year ago. The people are the children of Chelsea. The question each and every citizen must consider and decide upon is whether to pass or defeat the 1 mill increase in operational millage June 10. The facts are these:

1) The Chelsea schools have not increased the operational millage since 1969.
 2) The failure of the millage will cost the district a reduction of its budget by 60 percent.
 3) Chelsea schools wish to maintain a comprehensive program for the coming year. The loss of the 1 mill will make such a complete program impossible. What cuts will be made are yet undetermined, but whatever they may be, all children will be affected.

4) The cohesiveness of the staff of the school district is improving daily. A good, happy and experienced staff is a very crucial part of any business. A failure of the millage June 10 will undo all the improvements and advancements this present staff has made toward running and maintaining a valuable and comprehensive curriculum that has some appeal to all students. The staff will undoubtedly be decimated by a failure on June 10. No teacher is guaranteed a job next fall and many will be looking for new positions if the millage fails.

5) Inflation is at an all-time high. School expenditures are increasing almost daily. If costs of materials increase by 15 percent so too must the appropriations for these items be increased. The board has trimmed the budget to the bone, yet the increase by 1 mill is necessary to cover such inflationary costs.

6) Whether property valuation increases or not the Chelsea schools will not receive such a net increase in their tax dollars because of the Bursley Bill. What the bill does is this: It guarantees so many dollars behind each child in the district. If through re-evaluation the district receives $20,000 more from taxes, then the State reduces Chelsea's State Aid by $20,000. Hence the school receives no extra funds through property re-evaluation. Before the Bursley Bill such re-evaluation of property had been the means by which Chelsea was able to cover the spiraling costs of running a school. Now it receives no such increase monies.

These six items as listed above are the facts the voters must consider before they vote June 10. If any one of the items causes the voter some concern, then he must vote yes. Remember to vote June 10.

Joe Rossi

To the Editor:

School needs are always a concern to the school board, administrators and taxpayers, but why confuse the taxpayers by stating "School Board seeks increase of only 1 mill," while the ballot stated "...2.52 is additional millage?" The operational millage requested is no less than the original request in dollars to the taxpayer since there would only be a delay in payment of the 1.52 mills debt retirement, called "reduction in debt retirement" and still must be paid. This 1.52 delayed payment would be used along with the 1 mill to produce 2.52 mills increase for operational expense, but must be replaced eventually in the debt retirement funds. It seems that publicity beclouds the facts.

The expense of additional elections could well have been avoided had the "renewal" and "increase" been put on separate ballots, since it is quite obvious that the majority was voting against the increase because assessments and the resultant taxes were too greatly increased for 1974.

Since the board has taken steps to dismiss all teachers and administrative personnel, in other words... close the school... it appears they are determined to make the public have all, or nothing. This is ridiculous. School elections are actually a farce in that a negative vote is never allowed to stand and is counteracted by threats of all types, all of them drastic, such as teacher dismissals and other ways that would hurt education the most; when in reality if it became necessary to make major cut-backs many other less important areas could be reduced. There is no necessity for the children to lose their basic education. They should not, and would not if the millage proposals were submitted to the voters as they should be.

E. Kuhl

Dear Editor:

I would like to congratulate the North school 3rd and 4th grades, their music teacher, Mrs. Dye, and Miss Schneider (student teacher) for their excellent spring concert on Tuesday evening, May 21. It is a shame that the mood of the evening had to be ruined by the millage propaganda that was interjected by Principal Benedict and Trustee Stirling. If, as stated by them, there are numerous meetings planned concerning the upcoming election, then their words were very unnecessary and inappropriate for this type of program. It was in very bad taste and probably did more harm than good.

A disgusted parent,
 R. Buckenberger

United Way Agency Helps Stroke Victims

Chelsea United Way directs this message to everyone who is not planning to have a stroke or a crippling accident; it is true that no one plans these things.

When they happen, disability, either partial or total, may occur. In the case of a wage-earner, that's serious indeed. And that's where the Kenny-Michigan Rehabilitation Foundation can and does help. The Foundation, a United Way service, provides complete patient rehabilitation care aimed at both vocational and daily living requirements. It works constantly to help the disabled and their families to get back to the business of enjoying life. For information, write or phone the Foundation at 6131 W. Outer Dr., Detroit.
