

Tuesday Primary Yields Few Surprises in Generally Light Vote

Tuesday's primary election yielded few surprises for most townships in this area, as most local candidates were incumbents running unopposed for re-election.

In Sio township, where two slates of Republican candidates were on the ballot, Robert Jones, who was endorsed by the Sio Township Citizens' Committee, defeated George L. Stauch, 576 to 483. Democrat Charles H. Griffiths, Jr., received 157 votes.

Edwina Ryan, who appeared on the slate of candidates headed by Jones, defeated incumbent clerk George H. J. Smith, 469 to 418. The other Republican in the race for clerk, Harlette Haight, received 135 votes.

Evelyn Navarre swamped Carl P. Willoughby in the race for township treasurer, 674 to 388.

Elected trustees for the township were Robert Foster and Frank Lovejoy, who defeated Kenneth B. Klinge and Vincent

H. Meldrum. William Kett was elected constable, defeating William Bernard.

In Webster township, where a pair of Republicans were vying for the position of supervisor, Raymond T. Dotts edged out Donald Zeeb, 89 to 30.

Receiving 24 write-in votes for supervisor on the Democratic side was James Dunlavy.

In Sylvan township, which featured the only actual race in the Chelsea area, Democrat Barbara Dresch defeated incumbent treasurer Fred Pearsall, 165 to 141.

Incumbents Maurice Hoffman, supervisor; Dan Murphy, clerk; and Reuben Lesser, Sr., trustee, were re-elected without incident.

In Dexter township, all incumbents ran unopposed but Democratic clerk William Eisenbeiser. His Republican opponent, Nicholas Holly, edged him out in this primary voting, 93 to 89.

In Lima, Freedom, Lyndon

Sharon, and Manchester township local officials ran unopposed.

In the race for 2nd District county commissioner, incumbent Jay Bradbury defeated Tom Roberts, his closest contender, 361 to 221.

In the race for the newly-created 14th District Court judgeship, Kenneth Bronson swamped opponents Charles E. Miller and Lynwood Noah by more than a 2-to-1 margin.

Challenger to State Senator Gil bert Bursley's seat in the November election will be Ann Arbor Democrat Peter Eckstein, who defeated four Democratic contenders to earn his party's nomination.

The November election in the 6th Congressional District is shaping up into a race between Democrat M. Robert Carr and Republican State Senator William S. Ballenger. Carr defeated Charles P. Larowe by more than 2-to-1 to earn the Democratic nomination, while Ballenger edged out a pair of Republicans, Clifford W. Taylor and Bruce Barton.

Republican Michael H. Conlin turned up the top vote-getter in the 23rd District state representative contest, as he piled up more than 600 votes over the total of his closest contender. Republicans also seeking the nomination for the seat were Richard D. Hitt and Evangeline Mills.

Earning the Democratic nomination was Earle Stevenson who defeated Robert L. Freels, 830 to 285.

Washtenaw County supported the generally state-wide trend of Democrat Sander Levin for governor over former Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh. The vote in the county was Levin, 14,794 and Cavanagh 6,824. Levin will now face incumbent Republican Gov. William Milliken in the November election.

Four Arrested After Early Morning Clash

A six-inch by one-inch piece of cement block was pitched through the plate glass window of Foster's Men's Wear on Main St. early Thursday morning, beginning an incident that lasted until mid-morning and involved four young men, a local businessman, an apartment renter and manager, five Chelsea police officers, and Michigan State Police.

Chelsea Chief of Police George Meranuck says that the Chelsea Police Department received a report at 2:20 a.m. Thursday that a window at Foster's had been smashed. Upon arriving at the scene, officers found no suspects, and the man who had made the report said that he had heard glass breaking, but had seen no one.

Within minutes, however, Officers Peebles and Yager of the Chelsea Police Department received a report that four young men emerged from an alley across Main St. and started making nasty comments regarding what had happened.

The four, identified as Ronald Osborn, 20, of Saline, Larry D. (Ronnie) Stanley, 18, 20437 Sager Rd., Mario R. Trevino, 18, and Ricky Shemeleska, (Ricky Risner) 18, 20437 Sager Rd., ran from the scene as the officers attempted to question them, taking refuge in an apartment at 103 W. Middle St., belonging to Neil Davis.

Officers followed the four up the stairs to the apartment, police reports say, but when the four threatened them with physical force if they did not leave, since the officers did not have a warrant, the officers left the scene. "Not knowing for sure that they were involved," the report says, "we left."

Chief Meranuck injects at this point that two of the subjects involved in this incident, Ronnie Stanley and Ricky (Risner) Shemeleska, had been taken into custody Tuesday afternoon by Chelsea officers for their alleged part in the dumping of a large red cedar planter, two and one-half feet in diameter, in front of State Farm Insurance on Main St. Sunday evening.

Officer Graves of the Chelsea force transported Stanley and Shemeleska to Washtenaw County Jail to be processed for malicious destruction of property valued at less than $100 but was informed that the pair could not be accepted because of crowded conditions at the jail.

They were then taken to Jackson County Jail under a special arrangement with officials there, to be detained until posting $50 bond or until arraignment.

When arraigned Wednesday in Chelsea's 14th District Court, the pair pled not guilty. Shemeleska was released from custody on personal recognizance and Stanley on $100 personal bond, awaiting trial Sept. 4.

After retreating to the W. Middle St. apartment, Thursday morning, however, the young men reportedly began shouting obscenities at police officers and telephoned Michigan State Police with a report of a dead man in a nearby alley. State Police arrived on the scene, Chief Meranuck reported, to find Chelsea police and no dead man. State Police are considering obtaining a warrant for the four subjects for filing a false report, a misdemeanor, Chief Meranuck said.

At this point Chelsea police left the scene. At approximately 4:30 a.m., however, officers received a call that stated that one of the subjects who had been holed up in the apartment, Ronald Osborn, had returned to Foster's Men's Wear while Foster was attempting to clean up glass. According to witnesses, Osborn verbally abused

"I guess that he came back because I had said when they were all yelling at the police that I would like to get a piece of him, if I were a policeman," Foster, who was unharmed, says of his part in the incident.

"Even 10 years ago, any policeman would have punched a guy who was calling him those kinds of things, and rightly so," Foster said.

Once again Chelsea police took up their vigil outside the Davis apartment, stationing themselves at all possible exits. Chief Meranuck said that Washtenaw County Prosecutor Lynwood Noah had advised the officers to await a warrant before proceeding to the apartment.

Officers McDougall and Peebles obtained a warrant from the Prosecutor at 8 a.m. Thursday. When Shemeleska and Stanley exited, they were brought to the Chelsea Police Department, where they were placed under arrest after a struggle that was eventually controlled by Chief Meranuck, Officer Yager, and Dick Harvey.

Soon thereafter, the owner of the building appeared at the apartment and with the assistance of Neil Davis, occupant of the apartment "who had previously not cooperated" according to Chief Meranuck, forcibly ejected Osborn from the apartment. A violent struggle in the hallway ensued, with Osborn eventually being brought under control and taken into custody.

The fourth man, Mario Trevino, surrendered to officers without incident.

All four were transported to (Continued on page six)

2 Windows Broken at Chelsea Bank

A pair of inside and outside windows above the Orchard St. entrance to Chelsea State Bank were broken early Tuesday morning by unknown persons who tossed a piece of cement block through them, Chelsea police reports say.

The damage was discovered by a janitor at the bank. The windows, an inside pane measuring 12 in. by 36 in., and an outside pane measuring 18 in. by 36 in., valued totally at $50, are believed to have been broken between 3 a.m. and 5 a.m. Thursday.

Officers Peebles and Yager report that two possible suspects were seen in the area at the approximate time of the incident. Investigation is continuing.

North Lake Church Plans Fun Fair

North Lake United Methodist church will be the setting for the fourth annual Fun Fair this Saturday, Aug. 10, starting at 10 a.m. and lasting until dark.

Friends and members of the church will be selling bazaar items such as rugs, pictures and afghans. A kitchen booth will offer articles used in the kitchen. Home-made bread, cookies, cakes and pies will be sold, as well as house plants, garden vegetables, fruit jelly and jams.

Ladies of the church will be serving hot dogs and barbecues for lunch. Starting at 5 p.m., a smorgasbord dinner will be served. Junior MYF is planning to construct an arcade of such attractions as the fish pond, pyramid balls and darts where visitors may try their skills.

Outstanding ELP Participants Chosen

Eleven young participants of Chelsea Recreation Council's Earn, Learn, and Play program were announced last Thursday as the most outstanding members of the six-week program.

The youngsters who were recognized as the program's closing campfire ceremony last Thursday, are Shelly Boham, Sheila Erskine, Mark Fall, Andy Fletcher, Dee Dee Hammel, Dan Pennington, Christina Pax, Carmen Scripser, Debbie Steinaway, Steve Stoddard, and Will Rosentreter.

Outstanding participants were selected on the basis of regular attendance, outstanding completion of work duties, participation in all special days and events, and leadership in work crews.

The 11 honored participants will walk with the Earn, Learn and Play float in the Chelsea Community Fair at the end of this month.

Band Camp Meeting Set For Tuesday

A meeting for all band camp participants is scheduled for next Tuesday, Aug. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium to discuss rules and regulations of band camp. Participants will also have an opportunity to sign up for buses, says Band Director Warren Mayer.

Director Mayer reports that the critical need for chaperones for the camp has subsided. "We can make it with the number of chaperones we have now," says Mayer, "but we could use some more."

Those interested in acting as chaperones for the band for the week of Aug. 18 should contact Mayer.

Approximately 150 band members will take part in this year's band camp, Mayer says. Participants should stop into Chelsea High school soon to pick up their music, he adds.

Penn Central Ticketed Again for Blocking Traffic

It was ticket time once again for Penn Central last week, when the immovable iron horse again figuratively ran up against Chelsea Police.

Police reports say that a train bearing caboose No. 21632 blocked the Mayes, Main, East and McKinley crossings from 11:15 to 11:40 Wednesday morning. Police issued a ticket to the company.

Traffic was backed up on Main St. south to Pierce St. the report notes.

Sidewalk Sale, Street Art Fair Starts Friday

Dick Jennings figures that people buy photographs for one or both of two reasons—and only one of them immediately applies to his photography.

Jennings is another returnee to Chelsea Sidewalk Sales and Art Fair for artists and craftsmen this year, which opens tomorrow, Friday, Aug. 9 and continues Saturday.

He says that "People come up and look at my stuff and say it's nice or something, but usually people only buy because they either fall in love with the picture or it's prestige to have a certain one. Obviously buying my stuff doesn't have prestige attached to it, so they have to fall in love with it."

Jennings is probably best known around Chelsea, according to art fair general chairman Pat Dittmar for his photographs of Chelsea musicals. "Some plays are made for black and white; others are made for color. Plays like 'Fiddler on the Roof' and 'The Fantasticks'—plays that have more meaning than a simple love story, lend themselves more easily to black and white," Jennings says. "A musical like 'Music Man'—you almost have to do that in color because the color is so much of the actual musical."

Although his sales at last year's fair were not a whole lot to speak of, Dick reports, he did get a job offer from a man who happened by his booth to do school portrait photography. With local photographer Vern Otto he has done portrait photography at a number of schools in the northern Detroit suburbs during the past year.

"Lately I have somewhat gotten into portrait photography," Dick says. "In portrait photography, the subject is real, something that is reacting to you. When the portrait is finished, I can remember the time when I did it, how the person reacted, whether I was uncomfortable or not while doing the portrait."

He also "does things" in the darkroom, and displays a vivid blue and yellow water and surf print that began, he says, as a black and white print.

As of Monday, Jennings was uncertain of exactly what he would display at the Chelsea Art Fair. "You can say Dick Jennings is only certain that he is uncertain," he grins.

The more or less certainty is, however, that Jennings will display some examples of his photographic talents at his booth—beyond that, no promises.

In addition to photography, fair chairman Pat Dittmar reports that approximately 50 other artists and craftsmen have been assigned booths, which makes the venture "almost as big" as last year.

For the bargain two days, merchants will display their rock bottom-priced wares out on Main St., interspersed with the artists and craftsmen's booths. Community organizations will also get into the act with stands selling hot dogs and coke for the low, low price of 30 cents. Tacos will also be on sale and a buffet luncheon at the VFW Hall.

In addition, a student art display, for any students up to and through high school age, will be set up at the showroom area that now is Longworth Plating Co. Students interested in entering an exhibit in the youth display should (Continued on page seven)

Last Call For Queen Candidates

"We've really considered not running the contest, just because of the lack of response from the community so far," says Judy Eubanks, a Jaycee Auxiliary organizer of the Fair Queen contest for this month's Chelsea Community Fair.

Thus far, only four candidates and sponsors have submitted their entries to the Auxiliary, Judy reports—the four Chelsea high school classes. Although the original deadline established for entry by the Jaycee Auxiliary has passed, entries will still be accepted.

The seemingly early deadline for entry, Judy noted, is due primarily to the fact that band camp occurs between now and the fair, and may claim some applicants and make it impossible for them to rehearse for the pageant.

This year, instead of the usual individual talent competition, Joan Yocum, Chelsea High school graduate and Eastern Michigan University dance major who choreographs local musical productions, will provide the direction for the entrants to perform a dance routine. Also this year, there will be no formal gown requirement.

Entrants' sponsors must provide a car for the Tuesday kiddie parade and a float for the Saturday parade.

Anyone interested in entering the contest should contact Judy at 475-2382, or Anne Steinaway at 475-2923, immediately.

Congregational Church Awards Wurster-Crowell Scholarships

Recipients of First Congregational church's Scholarship are Garry Collins and Carol Weir, the church has announced.

Garry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collins of 144 Dewey, will attend Eastern Michigan University in the fall, working toward a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education. Carol, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Weir of 870 McKinley, will also attend Eastern Michigan University, with the intention to major in psychology in preparation for a career in counseling.

Wurster-Crowell Scholarships were organized earlier this year in conjunction with First Congregational church's 125th anniversary celebration, and will be awarded annually. Applications are received for the scholarships in the spring.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I allus knowed that if a feller kept his clothes long enuff, he'd be in style soon or late. Double-breasted suits has been discovered at least twict in the last 30 years, and neckties has gone from wide to narrow to wide to none. And now I see by the papers where my kind of haircut is pulling barbers from depression to boom. Mamas is seeing their boys ears and eyes for the first time in five years, and now when a feller yells "crazy woman driver" he can be pritty shore that's what it is.

The styles come and go, Mister Editor; and that's the way it's been since Eve figured out fig leaves wasn't the only thing to wear. But I can't recollect any time in our history when ever time somepun went out of style somebody formed a association to remember it by. Ever time you pick up the paper you see where a convention has been held by some new outfit. The one I saw the other day was the Funny Book Association, and Bug Hookum saw that one too.

Bug brung a clipping to the store Saturday night, and he was telling the fellers about old 10-cent comic books that was bringing $1,000 apiece at the convention of the Funny Book Association. Furthermore, they had folks there that played the funny book characters in the movies and on the radio, and they were peddling autograph pictures of themselves. Actual, Mister Editor, the price went up cause the name was changed. All this stuff is called nostalgia now, and the best the fellers could figger it, nostalgia is to funny books and old moving pictures what junk is to antique dealers; Clem Webster said if a man had a gift fer looking ahead at what folks want he could git rich without turning a hand. All he'd have to do is leave everthing on his place jest like it is fer 25 years and then have a antique auction.

General speaking, went on Clem, a farmer or rancher could use his tools and harness till it wore out and sell it fer four times what it cost, provided he'll wait 25 years. What we ought to do, declared Clem, is built a aging barn on ever farm where we could store junk while it becomes antiques. A barnful of junk would be a better investment than stocks and bonds, cause all they pay you is money and that gits cheaper ever day, was Clem's words. He said antique dealers can swap with one another and double their junk at these meetings held all over the country this summer.

Ed Doolittle said he had been tollering the conventions to, and he had saw where members of the oldest perfession had a first national meeting. Zeke Grubb said law is older than the other cause where else did the chaos that was here in the beginning come from.

While Ed and Zeke argued their perfessions, I recalled seeing a ad that said bring a antique friend to the sale. We bring em to the store ever week.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Senator Bursley Campaign Office Open in Ann Arbor

The re-election campaign headquarters for Senator Gilbert Bursley (R-Ann Arbor) was formally opened Wednesday evening, Aug. 7, at the Ann Arbor Inn with an Open House from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Senator Bursley said, "I welcome all possible support from people who want to assist at the campaign headquarters and in the re-election effort. The headquarters at the Ann Arbor Inn will be open during normal business hours and everyone is welcome."

"The upcoming campaign will provide an invaluable opportunity for close contact with the people in the 18th Senatorial District. I intend to wage a thorough and energetic campaign between now and Nov. 5. I plan to call on some 10,000 homes throughout the district. I will seek the fullest possible discussion on the principal issues, and the concerns of individual citizens as they relate to the legislative process in state government."

ENERGY SENSE:

Energy Saving Suggestions For Your Summer Vacation

By John C. Sawhill
Federal Energy Administrator

So you like to splurge on your summer vacation! Go ahead. Enjoy yourself! But remember that you don't have to waste energy to have a good time.

Week-end drives, visits to friends and relatives, recreation, trips, and vacations will consume about 382 million gallons of gasoline each week this summer. At a national average of 56 cents a gallon for regular gasoline and 60 cents a gallon for premium, we'll be spending more than $200 million a week on such trips.

Like to save some of this? —Vacation closer to home this summer. The joy of vacationing is in your state of mind and cannot be measured by the distance you travel from your home. The serenity of a sunrise in the forest can be equally rewarding in the closest forest to your home as in the distant one. You'll spend less money and expend less energy getting to the closer one.

—So think for a moment of the attractions others come to see in your area which you have never thoroughly explored. You'll probably be surprised at the number of things you may be missing in your own backyard!

—If possible, leave your car at home. Generally speaking, trains and buses have greater energy efficiency than the automobile. They can get you to your vacation destination with as much fun as you can have in your car. Depending on the distance and the number of people traveling, they'll probably get you there faster and more cheaply as well.

—If you must travel by car, find some friends who are planning a motoring vacation at the same time and combine trips. Again, you'll save on energy and money while adding to your enjoyment. The more, the merrier!

—Avoid vacations which find you hopping all over the map in your car. Better to choose a metropolitan area, a resort area, or a spot in the country where you won't be dependent on your car once you're there. Remember, it's not going to be much of a vacation if you have to spend your time packing and unpacking your car's trunk, shuttling between traffic jams, and looking for parking lots.

—Finally, no matter what your choice of vacation activity, remember that you are standing on the oldest and most energy-efficient mode of transportation ever devised, your legs. Your legs can walk you, climb you, hike you, bicycle you, or trek you to vacation fun anywhere, at no charge. So use your legs a bit more on this summer's vacation. It makes health sense; it makes money sense.

WELL... IT WORKED BEFORE!

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

"All in the Family" Ever notice "centennial farm" markers as you drive through the Michigan countryside on a Sunday afternoon?

There's a wealth of history—and more than a bit of family pride—behind each of those signs. The plaques designate those farms that have been in the same family for 100 or more years. And that's no small feat, especially in recent years when developers have gobbled up rural territory, and some farming families have abandoned their businesses in favor of more stable work.

In recognition of this family stick-to-it-iveness, the Michigan Historical Commission grants "centennial farm" status to those who can show unbroken family ownership for a century or more. The program, which the commission says is unique in the United States, began more than 25 years ago. To date, nearly 8,000 Michigan farms have been certified and awarded plaques, which are paid for with the help of Detroit Edison Co. and Consumers Power Co.

"The value of this program isn't just in publicity," declares Jerry Roe of Lansing, chief of the Historical Commission. "It brings our heritage to the forefront," he contends. "The marking of anything like these farms lets people understand it's part of history."

Non-Happenings

Things you won't get to vote for or against this fall:

—Election of 18-year-olds to state offices. A proposal to put that question on the ballot fell short of the required two-thirds vote in the Michigan Senate and is dead for this year at least.

—Ban public ownership of handguns. Backers of that proposed constitutional amendment failed to collect the required number of petition signatures, coming up with only 200,000 of the needed 265,000 validated names. They blamed a late start in circulating petitions and inadequate funding, and began talking about other ways to implement their plan.

—Capital punishment. Same problem here, with not enough petition signatures collected by backers of the drive.

On the other hand, a Michigan voters will have an opportunity to decide whether the state should eliminate the 4 percent sales tax on food and the 2 percent on prescription drugs.

Supporters of that constitutional amendment handed in some 315,000 signatures earlier this month. Their issue will go on the November ballot if at least 265,000 of those signatures are found to be valid.

Douglas Ross, director of the Michigan Citizens Lobby, which sponsored the food and drug sales tax referendum, estimates adoption of the amendment could save the average Michigan family up to $70 a year.

Budget officials, meanwhile, figure it will take a 0.5 percent hike in the present 3.9 percent income tax to make up for lost revenue if the sales taxes are eliminated.

Two other issues destined for ballot spots this fall are a proposal to give up to $800 case bonuses to Vietnam veterans and another dealing with use of motor vehicle fuel taxes.

The latter question, placed on the ballot by the legislature, would ban use of motor vehicle tax revenue for highway patrol purposes by law enforcement officers.

Can She Bake . . . ?

Get out the cherry pie recipes —Michigan's crop looks like a super one this year.

The Michigan Crop Reporting Service says the state will grow some 95,000 tons of tart cherries in 1974, nearly two-thirds ahead of the freeze-damaged 1973 crop.

In addition, the service reports that the state will maintain its solid fourth place among the nation's sweet cherry producers.

Michigan's Agriculture Department, in a newsy publication touting agriculture as the second largest source of income in the state, says that "along the Lake Michigan shoreline are thousands of Michigan's cherry orchards thriving in the almost perfect climate and soil conditions which exist there."

The report says that Michigan grew 66 percent of the nation's red tart cherries last year, with a 58,000 ton crop worth some $390 per ton.

The department says also that there was a 1973 sweet cherry crop of some 16,000 tons, valued at nearly $4.5 million altogether.

Twenty-five representatives of the Riemenschneider family were present for the annual family reunion Sunday at Salem Grove church. Those present were from Ann Arbor and Chelsea and vicinity.

W. R. Guest, named by Village President M. W. McClure last week as Chelsea's director of civil defense, has announced that he has much of the groundwork of organization here completed and is calling a meeting of representatives of all co-operating agencies for Tuesday.

Chelsea's Junior Baseballers defeated Grass Lake Friday night, 14-8, chalking up 14 runs on eight hits. Bill Clark, Bob White, Don McClellan, Al Knickerbocker, Richard Bareis, Neil Buehler, and Emmet Harker all counted in the hit-and-run column. Buehler led the hitters as he collected two doubles and a single in four at bats.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Duerr had a surprise caller whose name they still do not know, but whom they do know is really an honest and appreciative young man. He came for the express purpose of repaying Mr. Duerr the sum of five dollars which the latter had loaned him on a train on which both were traveling from Frankfurt, Germany to Rotterdam, Holland, last year.

34 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, Aug. 8, 1940—

Just to prove that he hasn't lost his skill at landing "the big ones," Vince Burg came into town Monday with two fine pike weighing six and eight pounds.

At the regular meeting of the village council Monday, President Alfred D. Mayer appointed J. A. Conlan, John Frymuth and J. N. Strieter as a board of special assessors for the year.

With the pitching of Rosebach and Policht, Chelsea played Dexter for the last time this season, and went on a rampage, fattening their batting averages to the tune of 15 hits, counting for 16 runs. Big hitters in the shutout of Dexter were Miller, Policht, Schneider, and Rossbach.

Included in a proposal by the State Highway Department for resurfacing of roads in Washtenaw, Ingham, Shiawassee, and Livingston counties is the resurfacing of Old US-12 the entire distance between the east and west intersections with the new US-12 highway.

VOLUNTEER ARMY

Army Secretary Howard H. Callaway reports that the volunteer Army is a success. The service ended the fiscal year with more than 1,000 men over the strength authorized by Congress.

The government will buy up to $100 million worth of beef and pork for school lunch programs this summer in an attempt to aid the depressed cattle and hog industry.

for themselves and a partner.
Husbands will bid on the box lunches and the winner of each bid will get to eat the lunch with the person who prepared it. Teenaged girls of the congregation are also being encouraged to take this opportunity to show their talent in the cooking field, with the young men urged to bid on the results.

Auctioneer will be "Hard Sell" Warren Murdock. We've been assured he will keep the bids coming in until every last box has been sold.

Families with children are encouraged to bring them along, preparing a sack lunch for them to eat.

I REMEMBER
THE GOOD OLD DAYS

From Bessie Oates, Mt. Olive, N.C.: When I was a child we lived on a farm. My parents raised most of the food that we ate. Back then, people raised rice in this area. They also grew wheat and carried it to the mill to have it ground for flour. Corn was ground for meal. Most people killed their own hogs for meat and I remember how cold it used to be when my folks killed our hogs.

During hog killing time, we young people were in school and it was a happy time to come home from school and smell the aroma of fresh sausage and other good things. It seemed especially good after walking three miles home from school, which was a one-room schoolhouse. We had one teacher and she taught all seven grades. At the end of seventh grade you were finished with school. Very few people finished high school in those days because you had to leave home and live in a town with a high school. That meant a lot of money that most people didn't have.

It's no accident that the New Jerry Lewis Telethon is held on Labor Day. Organized labor has contributed actively to the fight against neuromuscular disease since 1950, and its contribution of time and money has increased each year. Led by AFL-CIO President George Meany and seven national union presidents, more than 30 labor groups contributed to Jerry's 1973 Telethon and helped raise over $13 million for the fight against muscular dystrophy.
Says noted labor cartoonist Bernard Seamon, "We'll be there with Jerry, and against muscular dystrophy this year also. Why?
Because it's Labor's fight, too!"

July Milestone . . .
Here's a July milestone in America's history. Stephen Collins Foster, the first great American composer of popular music, was born in Lawrenceville, Pa., in July of 1826. In his brief, 37-year lifetime, he composed 189 songs and a number of instrumental pieces, many of which have been played all over the world. Although he is perhaps best remembered for his songs about the South, Foster made only one short trip below the Mason-Dixon line. At Greenfield Village in Dearborn, you and your family can see the house where Stephen Foster was born.

Here's a July milestone in America's history. Elias Howe, who made the first successful American sewing machine, was born in July of 1819. Howe perfected his machine in 1846. He used an eye point and needle and intermittent feed, improving on the earlier fork-needle English model. In the following five years, the invention of the bob-bin, automatic cloth feed and the foot pedal made possible the development of the modern sewing machine. At the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, you and your other important milestones in our country's history and prepare for

July Traffic Death Toll Decreases

Michigan recorded 104 traffic deaths in July, which were 61 or 27 percent less than the all-time high of 225 charged to that month last year, according to State Police traffic division figures.

The provisional total includes 34 deaths that occurred during the July 4 holiday week-end.

The July toll was 53 below the average of 217 for that month in the recent five-year period, 1969-73. High July on record was the 225 shared by that month in both years 1972 and 1973 while low for the month was 59 in wartime 1944.

The July deaths brought the accumulated toll for the year to 942. Compared to the 1,291 deaths in the same seven-month period last year, this was a reduction of 349 or 27 percent.

Michigan traffic deaths have shown decreases in each of the last 12 months compared with corresponding months a year earlier. Credited as factors in these reductions have been the lowered speed limit, a slower economic pace in some phases of industry, and some decrease in travel mileage attributed to availability and cost of motor fuels.

Reports of delayed deaths charged back to the months in which the accidents happened will increase somewhat the tolls for July and the accumulated period.

Girl Scout Leaders Urged To Attend Training Sessions

Girl Scout leaders and other volunteers from Dexter, Chelsea, Saline and Manchester will prepare for the fall by training in child development and special troop activities at a Leader Encampment to be held Aug. 17 - 18, it was announced today.

The Encampment which will be held at Huron Mills Metropolitan Park on North Territorial Rd., from 10 a.m. Saturday to 11 a.m. Sunday, will feature a special presentation on pre-adolescent and adolescent behavior by psychologist, Dr. Carol Smokler of the Washtenaw County Community Mental Health Center and social worker, Mrs. Rita Castagna of the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic.

The Encampment is free with participants cooking their own food in groups, according to co-chairmen Mrs. Kay (Robert) Koch of 6040 Walsh Rd., Whitmore Lake, and Mrs. Marcia (David) Piper of 3519 E. Pineview, Dexter.

Overnight facilities for tent camping at the Group Camping Area will be provided for those wishing to spend the night.

Day-time sessions will include lashing, use of compass and maps, outdoor cooking, firebuilding, backpacking, outdoor activities for troops, nature study, edible plants and crafts.

Troop leaders, assistant leaders, troop services directors and other Girl Scout volunteers interested from western Washtenaw county may get further information about the encampment by calling Mrs. Koch at 426-4754 or Mrs. Piper at 426-8876.

★ National Smile Week

Aug. 4-10 is National Smile Week.

What's there to smile about? The impeachment proceedings? Inflation? Will a week encouraging us to smile be enough to lift Americans out of the "Blue Funk"?

Probably not. The grimness of current events are more conducive to frowns than smiles.

But by focusing on the value of a smile, perhaps a better perspective may be gained for use in the difficult days that still lie ahead of us.

Granted, our country is not in the best of health, but as we have in the past—we will survive the crisis; the wounds will heal with only enough scars to remind us to steadfastly protect it against illness and injury. The eternal optimism of the American people—in times of difficulty and during tests of durability—has played a vital role in the building of this great nation and will hold them in good stead now.

An example of this uplifting optimism is an idea two women, 700 miles apart, had almost simultaneously regarding the 200th birthday of our country. A Washington, D.C. writer and an Illinois housewife have suggested that Americans celebrate the occasion by holding hands and forming a human chain from sea to shining sea.

"Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could do something to reassure ourselves and each other and the rest of the world that this is a great country and that we love it very, very much? Let's hold hands, because we care about each other and because we've been through a lot lately," one of them wrote.

If you have trouble finding something to smile about during National Smile Week—just think of that beautiful idea. Millions of Americans—all ages, all colors, from all walks of life, with all political and religious persuasions—forming one great, handclapped chain from shore to shore.

True, a human chain would only be a symbol—like our flag—and symbols don't solve problems. But it would be a living symbol and serve as an effective reminder that we are truly unique and very, very special. And because we are—we can, and will, meet the challenges our country faces.

That's enough to make everybody smile...

FRENCH PORK LOIN ROAST

This is how the French pork loin roast is identified: After being cut from the center of the pork loin, meat is cut away from the tips of the ribs of the roast to expose about 1 inch of bone. Paper frills are placed on the bone tips after roasting. The roast contains the loin eye and usually includes a portion of the tenderloin at the sirloin end. The backbone should be loosened at the market by sawing across rib bones at base. It is usually prepared by roasting.

Few Attractions Match Beauty of Michigan's Pictured Rocks Shore

"The park consists of 17 miles of multi-colored cliffs, some 300 feet high, which stretch along the south shore of Lake Superior from Munising to Grand Marais," Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager, pointed out. "While a few can be seen from land, they are best viewed from the water."

Pictured Rocks cruises, lasting three hours, leave from the Munising Municipal Pier through the summer and early fall. Two trips daily are scheduled through June with five trips from July through August during the height of the tourist season. After Labor Day the schedule reverts to two trips daily.

The king-size murals are composed of red Cambrian sandstone, interlaid with mineral oxides and other geological sediments that have hardened through centuries into this strata. Years of glacial ice, wind, sun and rain has carved spectacular patterns on the face of the cliffs. Soluble oxide deposits then stained them with many hues.

The result, Auto Club noted, is weird and beautiful forms, including soaring towers, domes, profiles and even the prow of a gigantic "ship." Numerous caverns some with an area of five or six acres, have been cut into the cliffs by continuous motion of the waves.

The beauty of these rocks and the thunder of the waves in the caverns filled the Indians with awe. The Chippewa, who controlled most of the Upper Peninsula and camp here each summer, believed that the gods of thunder and lightning lurked in the resounding caverns. Here originated the legends of the Chippewa's warrior-hero, Hiawatha later made famous by poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

White men first saw the Pictured Rocks when French explorer Pierre Radisson led an expedition along the southern shore in 1658. He wrote in his journal: "These coasts are most delightful and wondrous... at one point we came to a remarkable place... a bank of rocks that the wild men made a sacrifice to... they sling much tobacco and other things on it in veneration. The rocks are so high and so steep it is impossible to climb to the top... Along the shore are many caves caused by the violence of the water... when the lake is agitated the waves go into these cavities with great force and make the most terrible noises, like the shooting of great guns."

Father Marquette came to the area in 1668, followed by other missionaries and traders, who visited regularly until the French relinquished the territory to the English. After the Americans defeated the British in the War of 1812, Gen. Lewis Cass, accompanied by Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, noted student of Indian lore, explored the Upper Peninsula. Longfellow derived much of his material for Hiawatha from the works of Schoolcraft.

During calm weather, smaller boats enter the caves and crevices as the Indians once did, but larger ones must stand offshore, Auto Club said.

Stereo Equipment Returned to Owner

Stereo equipment which was missing from the Magdalen Hess property on Dexter Township Rd. has been returned, according to sheriff's reports. They add that the suspects, Thomas W. Smith and Malcolm Jones of Dexter, are no longer implicated and the case is closed.

OOOMPH! is probably not part of the Karate Class vocabulary, but it sounds adequate to express the looks on some of these faces. The class, part of the summer offerings of Chelsea Recreation Council, meets Tuesday and Thursdays and is instructed by Dr. Dennis Burke, pictured above, at left, a first degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do. Some of the participants (at right) seem to be getting into the fashion of the sport, although cut-offs and T-shirts might work as well for beginners.

County Planners Issue Booklet on Housing Services

Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission has recently completed a study of housing activities in Washtenaw county, entitled Inventory of Housing Services. The study is a survey and description of the housing-related services provided to county residents by 62 public and non-profit organizations that function on a local, county, regional, state-wide or national basis.

The County Planning Commission contacted organizations active in areas such as emergency housing, housing law reform, and housing data collection as well as those groups which actually finance or sponsor the construction of housing units. The organizations range from federal agencies to neighborhood groups. Findings of the study indicate that the greatest single concentration of housing-related services is in the area of permanent housing and information services, followed by emergency housing, legislative activities, data collection and research, and landlord-tenant mediation. It was found that the involvement of county and local organizations in actually placing persons in permanent housing is minimal.

This study was funded through a comprehensive planning assistance grant from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Copies of the Inventory are available from the Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission office.

National Council on Crime Supported By United Way

Where do you think is the worst place to put a troubled child? The National Council on Crime and Delinquency, a United Way service, says it's jail. The Council says 60 percent of the kids who go to jail have not committed a very serious crime. But when they come out of jail, four out of five do commit crimes and three-fourths of them are back in jail within five years. We all want law and order, but jailing kids won't get them for us.

Crime and delinquency can be reduced when each citizen recognizes that it is his problem, too, and does his share in halting the growth of crime. If you see a crime, report it promptly. If you are called for jury duty, serve willingly. It is your priceless democratic privilege.

If you are asked to testify in court, do so, even if it is an inconvenience. Support our system of justice. It can't work well without your co-operation.

Protect yourself! Don't make it easy for the burglar by carefully locking the front door and leaving the side door or windows open.

You can cripple the syndicate by not gambling illegally. Do not vote into office politicians who have visible links with crime. You can help counter crime, by working with children, since criminal patterns are usually set in youth. You can give an extra dollar to the Chelsea United Way which supports those agencies in conducting programs to fight crime.

These are some ways for you, the individual citizen to express concern and take action against crime. And the Chelsea United Way advises you to start now. The problem is growing.

The National Council on Crime and Delinquency is the only national voluntary, non-profit organization which combines professional expertise and citizen action to foster better crime-control programs.

Established in 1907, NCCD provides consultation and guidance to federal, state and local governments. It sponsors much-needed research. Its citizen-action councils in 18 states are active, well-directed forces for crime reduction whose success has been widely acclaimed. Thousands of Americans are now participating in NCCD programs.

The problem of fighting crime, however, is awesomely large and difficult. We urge you to help NCCD by contributing to and supporting information on citizen-action projects; and for free copies of "How To Protect Your Home", and "You and the Law," please write: National Council on Crime and Delinquency, 411 Hackensack Avenue, Hackensack, N. J. 07601 or Michigan Council, 200 Mill St., Lansing, 48933.

What's Cooking in Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

Stock up on fresh Michigan blueberries for home freezing. Michigan is tops in the nation in blueberry production and the peak of the season is during the month of August, according to Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Select plump, firm berries with a dark blue color and silvery bloom. MDA officials say the silvery bloom is a protective wax coating provided by nature to seal in flavor and juices.

Freezing blueberries is an easy process. Some home economists recommend you blanch berries for about one minute to keep skins tender. They may be frozen either sugared or unsugared. Package in convenient size containers, label, seal and store immediately. You can use them all year 'round.

If blueberry pie is a favorite in your household, why not prepare several pints of pie filling at one time and store in your freezer? Fresh fruit pie fillings can be stored from four to six months. Or, you can prepare whole berry pies, baked or unbaked, and freeze, allowing about one pint of filling for an 8-inch pie.

Fresh blueberries make attractive garnishes, tasty sauces and nutritious snacks. To make blueberry sauce for pancakes or waffles, combine one cup of fresh blueberries, 1/4 cup water and 1/2 cup sugar. Bring to a boil, crush berries with the back of a spoon. Simmer two to three minutes and serve hot. The recipe makes one cup.

Nutritionists say fresh fruit should be an essential part of your meal planning as they are valuable sources of vitamins and minerals and relatively low in calories.

Wildcats Clinch Girls Softball League Title

Wildcats clinched the Girls Softball League title Tuesday afternoon by downing the Amazons, 17-4.

Although finishing in a tie in won-lost record with the White Sox, 5-3, in the league standings, the league trophy winner was decided, by prior arrangement among the teams, by the team which had the highest total of runs scored between the two tied teams.

In Tuesday's Wildcat victory, Cathy Voita, who far and away led the league in home run output, smashed her ninth of the season to aid the Wildcat attack.

Carolyn Schardein also pounded out a home run.

Also Tuesday, the Amazons kept pace with the contenders by dumping the Queens, 19-9. Penny Collinsworth led the Amazon home run parade with three round-trippers, while Gayle Hume chipped in two and Lori Miles and Tammy Downer each hit one.

For the Queens, Becky Dawson, and Carrie Goins added a solo home run.

Tomboy attack consisted of three players who slugged out four hits each—Nancy Knott, Cindy Figg, and Jackie Lamb. Knott was also good for a round-tripper.

In last week's action, Thursday, the White Sox gained a share of the championship by edging the Wildcats, 21-17.

For the White Sox, Jane Barnes and Veronica Satterthwaite each had five hits, while Colleen Collins, Dawn Bucholz, and Barnes hit home runs.

In the Wildcats' losing cause, Cathy Voita, Carolyn Schardein, Annie Umstead, Beth Flanagan, and Cindy Burns all pounded out homers.

Also Thursday, the Amazons kept pace with the contenders by dumping the Queens, 19-9. Penny Collinsworth led the Amazon home run parade with three round-trippers, while Gayle Hume chipped in two and Lori Miles and Tammy Downer each hit one.

For the Queens, Becky Dawson, and Carrie Goins added a solo home run.

Lori Barth, and Carrie Goins each homered.

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1974

BIG, TOUGH JIFFY MIXES came away from last week's Chelsea Fast-Pitch tournament with the championship trophies in their hands, and then continued their winning ways with a victory in the districts over Old Heidelberg. Jiffy now moves on to regional competition, some of which will be held in Chelsea. Team members are, in front, batboys John and Charles Koenn; second

Jiffy Mixes Fast-Pitch Team Moves into Regional Tourney

Chelsea Fast-Pitch champs Jiffy Mixes captured the city Fast-Pitch Tournament title Friday and then roared into Class D regional play Sunday by defeating Old Heidelberg. In the Chelsea tournament, Jiffy bounced Zion Lutheran, 7 - 1, in a game called "well-played by both teams" by league director Charles Waller. Underdog Zion, a surprise finalist in the tournament after dumping Thompson's Pizza, 7 - 4, Wednesday and upsetting the Independents Thursday, 11-2, won only three games during the regular season. Bycraft recorded the win over Thompson's and Wackenhut earned the victory over the Independents. On its way to the top, Jiffy edged the Sweepsters, 7-5, in an exciting contest that featured a four-run sixth inning by the Sweepsters that included a three-run homer by Lew Freeman. Jiffy also faced a strong Westgate Auto team in the semifinals, and just managed to pull out the victory in the last of the seventh on Craig Houle's two-run double. Jiffy had led until the top of the seventh, when Westgate scored three runs and took control by one run. The win slid from Westgate's grasp, however, when McCalla walked, Roberts singled, and Houle delivered his crucial double. Jiffy simply overpowered Zion in the championship game, as the Mixes scored in four of six times on two singles, a double, and two errors by Zion. Tom Voelker received the Jiffy win. In the District No. 16 Class D Fast-Pitch Tournament, it was Jiffy all the way over a tired Old Heidelberg team. Once again Jiffy proved to have too much hitting and pitching for the Ann Arbor team, as Jiffy rested McCalla and pitched Tom Voelker, who went all the way. The contest ended in the sixth inning under the 10-run rule, as Jiffy had rolled up a 12-2 lead. Big hit of the evening was Lenny Kozma's two-run home run. To gain a place in the finals, Jiffy had come from behind to defeat arch-rival Westgate Auto in the semi-finals. Once again it was Craig Houle who supplied the winning punch, this time a three-run homer in the bottom of the seventh to launch Jiffy into the finals. McCalla recorded the win. Old Heidelberg had upset P&R Sports of Saline to earn its final berth. Jiffy will now go on to the Regional Tournament and face a team from Jackson or Adrian. Part of that tournament, as yet uncertain, will be played in Chelsea.

Turner Visits Dawson City, Famed for 1898 Gold Rush Days

Editor's Note: Don Turner's latest report from the north country is dated July 24.

In my last report on the Dempster Highway and Klondike Highway, I was so near the famous Klondike gold rush town of Dawson I just had to take another look at the area that held so much fame at the turn of the century.

Dawson City, Yukon, was known as the City of Gold, and had a population of 30,000 in the years 1898 and 1899. Today only a few hundred residents keep the old spirit alive for the hordes of tourists who go there each summer. Here one can relive the past from guided tours of the city and surrounding area, or one can stroll around, walking on the board sidewalks, looking at ancient buildings, some of which have recently been rebuilt or repaired by the Yukon Territorial Government, since Dawson City has been listed as a National site, and much of it will be preserved for posterity.

I think the project should have started some 10 years earlier, since a number of the old buildings have been torn down or are in such a state of disrepair that the cost of restoration will be enormous. The Palace Grand Theatre, built by Arizona Charlie Meadows for a sum of $2,000 in 1900, cost more than $64,000 for restoration of its original profile. But here at the Palace Grand Theatre plays are put on by professional artists, some from the Dawson area, for the tourists. In 1900, professional performers from many parts of the world came to entertain the miners and their "light of loves," where champagne at $100 a bottle was served to impress the European performers by gold barons who had more gold than they knew what to do with.

Here at the Palace Grand, miners from the creeks with gold pokes filled with nuggets would sit in the front seats and pitch nuggets onto the stage and bet one another that could pitch a gold nugget down the low-cut front of a dance hall girl's dress. Money and gold meant nothing to many, as there was nothing else to spend it on but places that furnished entertainment. Many a dance hall girl became wealthy, first by favors paid her by miners and admirers if she had the personality and good looks. It was said that more gold was dug by the smile of a dance hall girl than by a shovel on the creeks during Dawson's heyday.

Diamond Tooth Gertie's Gambling Casino is the only legalized gambling casino in all of Canada, where games of chance and cards are played the same as at Las Vegas, and, I might add, the manager of Diamond Tooth Gertie's is from Las Vegas.

Dawson had many such places in its heyday, where fortunes in gold were won and lost just by the turn of a card. So I guess it is appropriate to allow one casino to operate at the sight of the world's last gold rush, where roulette cards, dice, and other gambling devices are operated and floor shows are put on by the waitresses that serve your favorite drink, just like in the past. But I want to stress that the young people who put on the performances of today are straight-laced, hard working, trying to make a career in the theatrical arts, and in no way does their employment imply the practices of the dance hall girls of the turn of the century. It's all a part of show business.

Now maybe you are wondering who Diamond Tooth Gertie was, who the gambling casino is named after. Well, the records of Diamond Tooth Gertie are a bit hazy. Some say she was one of the madams of the time, others say she was a promoter of many enterprises, to include gatherings of wealthy people of the area, both male and female, of which she had quite a list and seemed to know all in the vicinity.

However, and whatever her business was, she became quite wealthy and had a large diamond implanted between her two front teeth, which gave her the name Diamond Tooth Gertie.

There are some questions as to what her real name was. Regardless of what one hears, I do recommend anyone traveling to Alaska and Yukon to include Dawson City. The road is good, the atmosphere will take you back a ways in life, there is good fishing on the Klondike Rd., and I might add that new gold operations are springing up on the creeks in the Dawson area. Don't forget to do some gold panning on Bonanza Creek. There is a place where you can pan for gold at $2 a pan and keep all you get, and you will be assured of some gold in each pan.

Look up Poverty Bar—you won't be disappointed—it's on the Bonanza Creek Rd., and it's on this road you will see gold mining being carried on as in the days of '98.

I must be running along, as I have much more of Alaska and Canada's northwest to cover. I will be letting you know of my wandering.

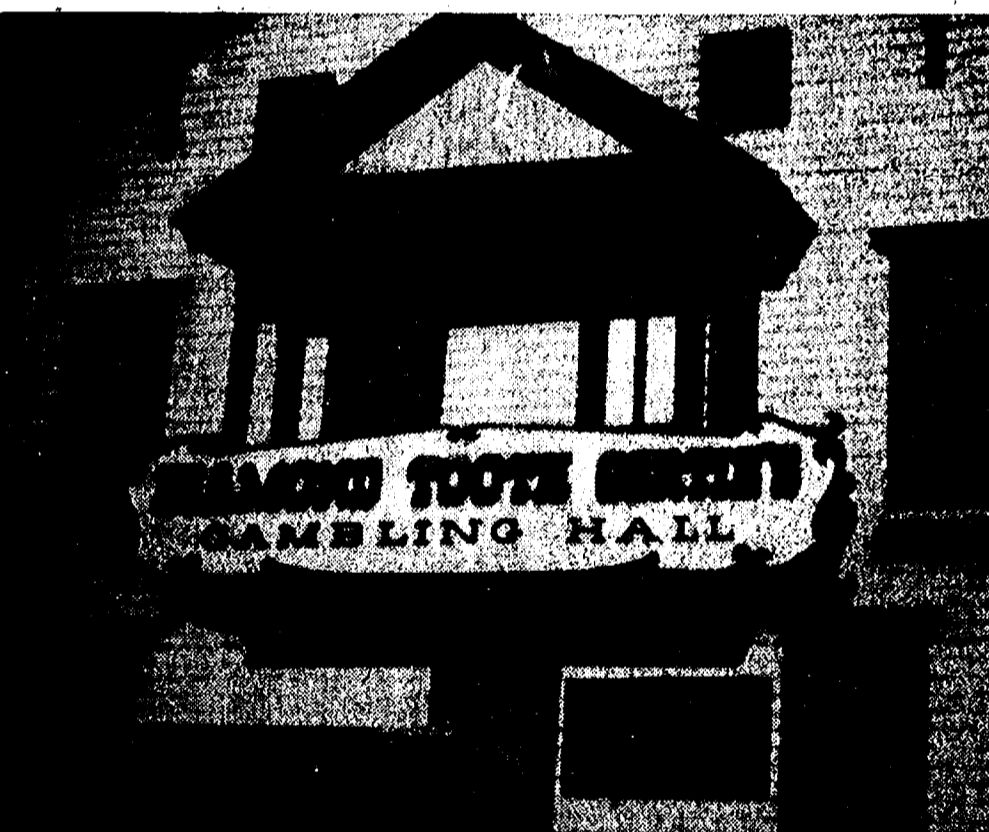

Your wandering reporter,
DON TURNER

TURNER'S VIEW OF DAWSON CITY at this point is from a spot called Midnight Dome, where he can also observe the Klondike and Yukon Rivers and the start of the 66-Mile Highway. In the upper right of the photo, the 60 Mile Highway connects with Alaska Taylor Highway and the Alaska Highway at Tetlin Junction, completing the Klondike Loop.

PALACE GRAND THEATRE, where plays are put on to resemble the days of the gold rush of 1898, reportedly was built by a local man named Arizona Charlie Meadows for $2,000 in 1900, and recently restored for $64,000. In its heyday, the Palace Grand was the setting for European performers and champagne at $100 a bottle.

DIAMOND TOOTH GERTIE'S, the only gambling hall in Canada, houses bingo, black jack, over and under, crown and anchor, roulette, and you-name-it among its gambling offerings. The establishment is named in honor of a character from the days of the gold rush who became so wealthy that she had a diamond implanted between her two front teeth.

KLONDIKE SUE, a current personage around Dawson City, is in reality Sue Ward, a member of the cast at the Palace Grand Theatre in Dawson City. Turner called her "an excellent actress and a joy to know."

Several nations have adopted decimal currency systems and now issue dollars, but Liberia is the only one to use exactly the same coin denominations as the United States. Founded by freed American slaves in 1882, Liberia has many of its coins struck by the U.S. Mint, and United States currency is legal tender.

Jamaica, world-renowned as a vacation and tourist haven, is rapidly becoming one of the most industrialized of the developing nations with its own oil refinery and plants which produce steel, cement, glass, chemicals, fertilizers, flour and feed, paper, heavy machinery, textiles and tires.

GIRL WATCHING DON TURNER snapped this shot of "just one of the pretty actresses who take part in the entertainment at Diamond Tooth Gertie's Gambling Casino." Turner noted that in the days of the gold rush, "pretty smiles and good personalities dug more gold than the miners shoveled from the creeks."

Lukasiak League Champs Down Babe Ruth All-Star Aggregation

Babe Ruth League's Lukasiak team recorded another first to go with their title-winning season—last Saturday they earned a win over the Babe Ruth League All-Stars, 4-0.

Among the Babe Ruth all-stars who went down to defeat were such young notables as Ernie Hadley, who poked six home runs this season; Tim McAllister, who boasted a .543 average; John Daniels, who earned a no-hitter during the season; and Mike Machesky, one of the league's most consistent pitchers.

Starting pitchers in the contest were John Daniels for the Stars and Kurt Owings, carrying a 7-1 record, for Lukasiak. In the first inning, Daniels mowed down the Babe Ruth League champs, while All-Stars could manage only a single by Mike Machesky for their first offensive attack.

In the second, Lukasiak came alive with a single by Mike Check, who then stole second, and sacrifice by Steve Check that scored Mike. Dean Thompson then singled. An error on Jeff Sweet's hit then allowed Dean to cross the plate to make it 2-0 for Lukasiak.

In the third, Lukasiak pulled off a double play and retired the All Stars in order.

Lukasiak earned another run in the fourth, as the champs recorded a single by Dean Thompson, a single by Don Aldrich that scored Thompson, aided by a wild throw to the plate.

Lukasiak's final run came in the fifth, on a single by Kurt Owings, a fielder's choice on Mike Check's hit, a stolen base by Check, and Steve Check's single that scored Mike Check.

Remaining innings saw both teams threaten, but fail to score. Kurt Owings earned the hero honors for Lukasiak, going the distance in a superb job. He struck out 10 All Stars.

Both squads received trophies for a season and a game well-played at the end of the contest.

Babe Ruth League Director Dave Lukasiak extended his thanks to all of this year's coaches who took men to try to enjoy the game of baseball. Coaches were George Sweeney, Tom Morrison, Roger Schrotenboer, and Ralph Machesky, who also coached the 1974 All-Star team.

Whitmore Lake Man Picked Up Here, Wanted in Livingston

Chelsea police officers arrested a Whitmore Lake man, John A. Schumacher, 27, Sunday, when they pulled him over for driving without tail lights, but found that he had no driver's license.

Officers discovered that Schumacher was wanted on a warrant from the Livingston County Sheriff's Department for non-payment of child support and was transported to Livingston County Jail.

Letters to the Editor

John D. Cherry, Regional Director
U.S. Bureau of Outdoor Recreation 3853 Research Park Dr.
Ann Arbor, Mich., 48104

Dear Mr. Cherry:

I was able to attend the informational meeting concerning the Preliminary Draft Environmental Impact Statement of the Mill Creek Park proposal on July 23 in Chelsea. In response to your published request, I am pleased to offer my comments in this regard.

In view of remarks made at the meeting, what seems to be missing is a conceptual analysis of HCMA policies and an objective evaluation of whether HCMA by adhering to these policies is responding adequately to the regional recreation needs of their five-county taxing district. Of particular concern is the validity of the following criteria:

1. Regional parks must be very large.
  2. Regional parks must have bodies of water, especially impoundments.
  3. Regional parks are solely dependent on private automobile transportation for access and should therefore be located where water resources and highway access coincide, regardless of other factors.
- A careful study of these criteria might conclude that any or all of them should be changed if regional recreation needs are to be adequately met in the five county area.

Regarding the specifics of the Mill Creek proposal, there appears to be a need for more data and analysis of the impacts of the proposed park as follows:

1. The impact on the existing fragile environmental quality of rural western Washtenaw county.
2. The impact on highway requirements an traffic patterns not only in western Washtenaw county and near the park, but in and around Ann Arbor and point east as well. Of particular interest are combined impacts of Briarwood, U. of M. events and the proposed park.

3. The impact on the over-all growth patterns of Washtenaw county and the leap-frog effect the park development could contribute to uncontrolled spread of urbanization in the county.
4. The social impacts on the rural community, its existing institutions, economy, history and identity, and its ability to provide the needed services such a dramatic change would generate.

5. The impact on Washtenaw county's food production and needs, and an unbiased value judgment on the relative priorities of agriculture and recreation requirements for southeastern Michigan.

Federal regulations require that Environmental Impact Statements include careful consideration of alternatives to proposed actions. The Preliminary Draft Enyrion mental Impact Statement appears to be deficient in this regard. In addition to the alternatives noted (which need more complete analysis) it should be determined whether various combinations of smaller parks could provide equal recreation benefits to the region and at the same time be more accessible and have less severe impacts on any given area.

I appreciate the effort the U.S. Bureau of Outdoor Recreation is making to achieve a thorough evaluation of this controversial proposal and thank you for the opportunity to comment.

Most sincerely,
Gilbert E. Bursley,
State Senator.

To the Editor:

Once again the summer musical gave us a most enjoyable evening. The very special efforts of DiAnn L'Roy to present summer musicals in Chelsea helps make each year a bit more fun, a bit nicer, a bit fuller. The "Music Man" production compared with many professional versions and we might all take a little pride in that this fine version was by our own Chelsea Players. Thank you DiAnn, Jeff, Chris, and Joan, and all the other special people who spent long hours in rehearsal so that we might have a few hours of excellent entertainment.

We look forward to next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bonos.

To the Editor:

There are more than 275 people in Michigan who are blind or are progressively going blind. The sad fact about this is that these people can regain 100 percent of their sight. I hope to impress people with the need, the importance, the meaning and the know-how in donating one's eyes or someone's close to them (husbands, sons, daughter's etc).

I have been legally blind for 3 1/2 years and have been waiting for 20 months—over 1 1/2 years—for a call from the ophthalmologist saying he has received a donor eye suitable for a corneal transplant: the grafting of the clear part of the eye from a donor to a person with a deformed cornea. I have heard about a woman in Grand Rapids who has been waiting well over two years and three people in the Port Huron vicinity who have been waiting a year each. There are also 250 more spread throughout the rest of Michigan in Detroit, the Tri-Cities, Lansing and other cities.

Eyes may be donated even if somebody wears glasses. This does not affect the use of the clear corneal tissue. Even some totally blind people's eyes can be used.

Does removal of the eyes mar the appearance of the body? No. Enucleation (removal) of eyes is carefully done and modern morticians close the eyes so skillfully that they appear normal.

Eyes for transplants have to be removed within 2 to 4 hours after death. They are good for corneal transplants for approximately 24 to 48 hours. Any eye from a person between 1 and 50 years of age can be used even those who have had certain types of operations. In the event a patient is not available within the time limit, needed to use fresh tissue, the eyes are shipped to Eye-Banks to allow for redistribution elsewhere.

If a donated eye is diseased or cannot be used for grafting it is carefully studied in research to help find causes and cures for blindness. If there is any doubt as to whether the eye is suitable or not, I suggest this judgment be left to the eye surgeon.

It certainly takes a lot of courage and self-restraint to think and help someone else when a close member of the family suddenly dies. It is obviously a very

With his own doctors advising a rest, Dr. Blanchard will be away from his practice for several months.

ALL ABOUT FOOD

F. A. KENNEDY

I dedicate today's column to the new bride who wants to please her man with meals, "like mother used to cook" . . . but doesn't know nearly as much as she'd like to about selecting and preparing different cuts of meat.

This could be confusing, because there are actually more different cuts and kinds of meat than there are days in a year. But fortunately, there are really only a few basic retail cuts — whether you're talking about beef, pork, veal, or lamb — and they are fairly easy to identify. These are the breast cuts, the shoulder arm cuts, the shoulder blade cuts, the rib cuts, the loin cuts, the sirloin cuts, and the leg, round, and ham cuts.

There is one way to learn what you need to know about these basic cuts of meat and that is to see our butcher some time and ask him for a few pointers. He'll be glad to explain, meat identification, meat buying, care, storage and freezing of meats.

Also important to the new bride are her sources of information on meat cooking. Unlike the meat "mother used to cook," twenty years ago, meat today is brought to the market younger and it's more tender. So make sure your cookbook is new or updated.

Meat buying and meal planning can be a real pleasure, once you are sure you know how to prepare your meat choice.

In addition to the hundreds of cookbooks you can buy today, remember your local gas and electric utilities generally are most anxious to answer your questions about cooking.

And of course, all of us at Polly's will be glad to help too, in any way we can. If you ever have a question about meat or any other grocery item, we hope you'll feel free to ask.
