Inflation Has Also Hit United Way Budget

With an additional member to provide for and the evaporating dollar to contend with, Chelsea United Way has increased its 1975 campaign goal to $29,994, an increase of $1,632 over last year.

Approved at last Wednesday's campaign kick-off meeting in the Village Council chambers, the new budget includes a $600 allocation to Home Meal Service of Chelsea, which only recently received approval of its tax-exempt status to gain United Way membership. Last year, Home Meal Service received a $500 "special allocation" from Chelsea United Way.

Topping the list of allocations for the 13 local United Way agencies is Chelsea Recreation Council, which is slated to receive $7,600 toward running its extensive year-round recreation programs. The sum is an increase of $200 over the amount provided for the council last year by the local agency.

Receiving the next largest amount will be Michigan United Way, itself a federation of 23 state health and community service agencies, which has been promised $4,619 by Chelsea United Way to support its services of planning, budgeting, and financial support for member agencies. Last year Michigan United Way received $4,487 from the local campaign coffers.

All 10 other agencies, except Boys Scouts of America, Portage Trails Council and Chelsea Bands received at least minimal increases in their 1975 projected allotment from the campaign. Boy Scouts have been budgeted $3,550, a decrease of $50, while Chelsea Band's allocation remains at $35.

An increased figure of $1,250, $50 more than last year, is earmarked for the Salvation Army, while Catholic Social Service of Washtenaw County is scheduled to receive $1,325, $75 dollars more than its 1974 figure.

Other increases were gained by American Red Cross, which received a $150 increase to a total allocation of $3,750; Washtenaw Association for Retarded Children, up to $500 from $400 last year; Huron Valley Child Guidance, scheduled for an increase of $50 to $500; Child and Family Services of Washtenaw County, which had its allocation upped to $650, a $25 increase from the 1974 campaign drive; and Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, which had its share of United Way funds increased by $75 to $1,325.

Heading this year's drive for funds is Mrs. Pat Borders, who has announced her area chairmen: Mrs. Paul Weber, residential; William Chandler, schools; Mrs. Warren Porath, Jr., clubs and organizations; Mrs. Richard Borton, professional; Gerald Ringe, industrial; Jeff Flintoft, commercial; and Mrs. James Chasteen, Mrs. Robert Musolf, Mrs. Beulah Kleis, and Mrs. Donald Manson, rural.

Canvassers working for various chapters have not yet been announced. Residential drive for the United Way campaign is scheduled for Oct. 1 through 15.

Local Youths Face Charge of Property Theft

Two local youths, an 18-year-old and a 16-year-old juvenile, will be charged with possession of stolen property of goods from Nixon Auto Parts, 8830 Jackson Rd., Dexter, Chelsea police say.

The pair, who were observed and questioned Monday by Chelsea police when they pulled their 1962 Chevrolet to the curb at the corner of W. Middle and Cleveland Sts., were in possession of two cases of American Parts anti-freeze, valued at $80; a Delco stereo-tape player, valued at $30; a stereo masters 8, valued at $60; and a fifth bottle of whiskey, all of which were missing from the auto parts company, owned by Leroy Schaefer of Dexter.

Also found in the car was a five-gallon can, with "Oak Grove Cemetery" inscribed on one end. Police believe that the two youths may be responsible for recent "petty vandalism" at Oak Grove Cemetery, which has consisted primarily of stealing gas and oil from a workshed.

When officers questioned the two youths, the 18-year-old admitted that he and the juvenile had broken into Nixon Auto Parts and stolen the property. The juvenile later admitted the theft to police when his parents arrived at the police station.

The juvenile will be petitioned to juvenile court on a charge of possession of stolen property valued at more than $100; a warrant is being sought on the same charge for the 18-year-old. The name of the 18-year-old was not yet released.

Contracts Let For School Buildings

Awarding of contracts for the Chelsea School District's $4.8 million building program, approved last Dec. 17 by voters, began last week. District business manager Fred Mills said Tuesday that more contracts, including the electrical, will be awarded at next Monday's special meeting of the Board of Education.

Construction of the Beach Middle School pool, planned additions to North and South elementary schools, renovations to Chelsea High school, and construction of a bus service facility is expected to begin within two weeks of the final awarding of bids.

Contracts for section B and C concrete work was awarded to General Concrete Corp., for $301,533 and $183,174, respectively; while American Prestressed Concrete, Inc., was awarded the contract for precast twin tees in the amount of $45,688.

Wigginton Builders Supply will provide the hollow metal work for the school district, for the amount of $55,143. Aluminum windows will be provided by Metal Building Specialties Co., for $24,985. Shively-Bourne Co. will do the finish hardware for the construction, with its low bid of $45,000.

Masonry work at North school will be provided by R. T. Mitchell Construction Co., for $92,000; Baker Construction was awarded the South school masonry for $69,000; Dale Krull Construction Co. will do Beach Middle school's masonry work for $103,185; R. T. Mitchell Construction Co. was awarded the contract for Chelsea High school's additions for $205,257; and Baker Construction Co. will do masonry work for the bus service building for $25,257.

Tolar-Notar, Inc., received the contracts for plumbing work, air heating, ventilating and air conditioning, temperature control, and hydronic heating for $266,756 for Beach Middle school and for $329,000 for Chelsea High school.

Finnish Exchange Student's Home Is Near Arctic Circle

From only 10 kilometers below the Arctic Circle comes Finnish Kristina Toivanen, one of three Youth for Understanding foreign exchange students who will spend the next year in Chelsea.

Kristina, 17, a senior at Chelsea High school, is living with the Glen Allen family, 17250 Garvey Rd.

The stereotypes of Americans that often accompany foreign visitors, Kristina seems to lack. "I talked to friends who had been here (as foreign exchange students) and they told me how things were. One of them was in Idaho and one in Arizona," she says, grasping for the pronunciation. "A friend of mine—she is in Wisconsin—was filling out an application, and so we filled them out together."

Her home city in Finland is quite a bit larger than Chelsea, she says, with apartment buildings where everyone lives in the center. "But here it is—quite looking, with all the houses in town."

As a student, her world so far in the United States has consisted of much exposure to the school system.

"I like it here," she says, firmly, referring to the schools. "In Finland, we cannot choose our classes at all. We take nine years of school starting at seven, of language, Swedish and English, mathematics, chemistry and physics, art, biology, geography, and religion. When we are 16, we go to high school if we want to graduate. I will have two more years to go in school when I return to Finland; I will be 20 when I graduate."

The atmosphere of near-formality in schools that prevails in her home country is lacking in this country, she says, a fact she seems to find another in American schools' favor.

"In my country, when we see an older teacher, we do not say 'hi' or 'hello'—we... and she stands to demonstrate a tiny drop-knee action not unlike a modified curtsy. "But here, everyone says, 'Oh, hi!' It is very friendly."

In Finnish schools, too, she notes, students are much more politically inclined, as groups of socialists, communists, conservatives, and others—"I think anyone can start another group," she laughs—bid for the students' attentions. "Mostly they fix votes," she says.

But she has found Chelseaites, if not American students in general, more likely to speak out in classes than their Finnish and European counterparts.

"We are more naturally shy," she believes. "In classes, in Finland, when the teacher asks a question, only a few people will try to answer, the people who are not shy. Here it is not like that."

She finds this tendency to "express their opinions" a likeable one. "It is good that people here say what they think—except when it hurts someone—but it is good most of the time."

She has been surprised, somewhat, by her many fellow students with cars. "In Finland, there is a street, and students' cars are there, there, and there," she says, jabbing at points drawn along an imaginary street. "But here, the whole parking lot is filled."

"It is nothing for people to have two or three or four cars," she marvels. "But I don't think that my parents here or the people that I have met here are not saveful—it just the way you Americans live."

"Just the way you Americans live" will be the way Kristina will live for a year, too—a year projected full of things to do—

"I am a very active person"—including skiing, possibly a trip to Wisconsin to see her YFU friend, and participating in a new international club at Chelsea High school, hopefully with the warm Chelsea welcome she has felt so far remaining year-long.

In Finnish schools, too, she notes, students are much more politically inclined, as groups of socialists, communists, conser-

Bulldog Grid Team Loses To Saline, 3-0

Frustration was the name of the game for Chelsea's Bulldogs last Friday when penalties, stalls, and a wobbly offensive attack characterized Chelsea's disheartening 3-0 loss to Saline.

In the first quarter of Chelsea's conference opener, Saline moved via the pass to the Bulldog 10-yard line, but was held by local defense and a couple of penalties. Hornets unsuccessfully attempted a field goal.

Chelsea's offense then learned that penalties were not restricted to Hornet players. The big play in this quarter was a fake punt, on which Doug Reed, ran the ball to Saline's 25. A penalty called the ball back, and the play was made doubly defeating by the injury of Reed, who was then removed from the game.

Second quarter was the Bulldogs' best quarter on offense, as they moved to Saline's 15-yard line and had a first down, but a penalty and missed blocking assignment proved their undoing. A field goal attempt from the 23-yard line was off to the left.

Steve Kincer then intercepted a Hornet pass and returned it to Saline's 30-yard line, but the opposition defense held as three Bulldog passes went incomplete.

A long Saline punt put Chelsea in a hole at the one-yard line, but Ron Kiel worked it to the 20, only to be forced to have punter Jim Marshall kick it away. Marshall punted seven times and averaged 33 yards.

In the same quarter, Bulldog quarterback Randy Guenther hooked up with split end Paul Wood for a 26-yard pass completion to bring Chelsea to Saline's 35, where the local squad stalled again.

The half ended at 0-0. Chelsea's offense disappeared in the second half, as the Bulldogs picked up a lone first down, and that by virtue of a penalty.

Defensive team played most of the second half, while the offense ran but 16 plays.

Pass defense and lack of rush on the quarterback hurt the Bulldogs repeatedly, the first example being a 40-yard pass and run play, as Chelsea defense had forced Saline into a third-and-25 situation. Defensive back Howard Salyer knocked down two passes in the end zone, and safety Dave Keiser knocked a receiver out of bounds to aid the defense. Saline again was unsuccessful in an attempt for the field goal.

In another Saline drive, Hornets scored, but a penalty disallowed the TD. Chelsea defense held on as Tim Reed recovered a fumble on the Bulldog three-yard line. The whole scoring story came in the final quarter, when Saline kicked—finally—a successful field goal from the 20-yard line with 57 seconds remaining.

Defensive players leading the way for Chelsea were listed by Coach Phil Bareis as Dennis Bauer, Rodger Stewart, Tim Reed, and Steve Kincer.

Bulldogs will open the home season tomorrow (Friday), with a Southeastern Conference contest against Lincoln. Chelsea is 0-1 in the league.

Frosh Grid Team Loses To Saline, 22-8

Chelsea's freshman gridders were buzzed by the Saline Hornets last Tuesday, 22-8, in their season opener.

Little Hornets struck early in the first quarter, after stopping Chelsea in its first series. Taking to the air, a 40-yard pass put Saline deep in Bulldog territory, and a short run yielded the touchdown. A pass netted the extra points.

Chelsea came back to score on a 10-yard plunge by Matt Fisher with five minutes remaining in the half, but a penalty nullified the points.

Saline passing once again took over, as they scored on a 44-yard toss 36 seconds before halftime.

After an even third period, Saline broke out of the Bulldog bind that had contained their running game, and mounted a time consuming drive. They scored on a short run with eight minutes left on the clock.

Little Bulldog Mike Young took over as Chelsea received the kickoff, contributing two long runs to put the local gridders in scoring position. While Young was catching his breath, Matt Fisher went the final eight yards.

Once again Fisher and Young, this time assisted by Steve Pennington, threatened to score for the Bulldogs in the waning moments of the contest. Once again a penalty killed the drive deep in Saline territory.

Coach Bill Bainton called the game "a good opening effort for the Little Bulldogs, who showed a tough defense against the run, but could not move the ball consistently."

Leading the defensive charge were linebacker Gerald Benjamin and linemen Matt McClellan and Bill Van Riper, while Jeff Powell played a good game at safety. Leading the way for the backs on the touchdown drive were guards Steve Dresch and Todd long.

Cross Country Team Splits Pair of Meets

Chelsea High school's varsity cross country team split a pair of non-conference encounters last week, falling to a tough Jackson Lumen Christi team, 15-47, then returning to dump Tecumseh, 23-32. Chelsea's record is now all even at 2-2.

In the Tuesday meet, Lumen Christi senior Pat Fitzgerald, number two runner in the state, broke the course record by 2 seconds with a first place time of 15:30. "They're an extremely powerful

Band Prepares Half-Time Show

Friday night's football game will be Chelsea High school band's first performance for the home folks, but if members look like seasoned professionals already, there's a reason: last Friday, members played in conjunction with the Saline High school band at the Saline-Chelsea football encounter, and Saturday, the local band was among some 15 bands featured at Eastern Michigan University Band Day.

Friday's band show is a Civil War conglomeration entitled "Songs of the North and South" that will premier the talents of new drum major Kevin Schmitke and a flock of majorettes and flags, enhancing the band performance.

Fanfare of the show has been arranged by Max Plank especially for the Chelsea band, says director Warren Mayer. Plank also has provided the arrangement for the band's first number, "Camptown," a take-off on "Camptown Races."

Sandwiched between "Camptown and a trumpet solo of "Just Before the Battle, Mother," also arranged by Plank, is a routine to "The Yellow Rose of Texas."

Featured as trumpet soloists in the final Plank arrangement will be Duane Luick, Dale Heydlauff, Alan Werdehoff, and Mark Walter. Flags, headed by Joann LaFontaine will also be included in the number. Other flags are Sherri Moore, Sue Frisbie, Karen Romo, Roxanne Orlowski, Nancy Hepburn, Sara Johnson, and Karen Keiser.

And what could a Civil War theme be without a little "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," you ask? Don't worry, because that will be a feature of the band's repertoire also, as will a "battle scene." The show will conclude with, naturally, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Other participants in the big show will be majorettes, headed by Vicki Push, and including members Sue Morrison, Cindy Giffin, Lisa Allhouse, LeeAnn Hafer, and Diane Luick.

Saturday band members will be included among the multitude of bands performing at the University of Michigan's band day, where the program will range from the classics to "Rock-a-bye Your Baby," to "Stars and Stripes Forever."

In the not-too-distant future for band members is a first-time appearance Oct. 22 at Belleville's Marching Band Festival, a contest judged both on performance and inspection.

"We've been conducting inspections for the first time this year, in preparation," noted Director Mayer.

Registration Deadline Near For PP&K

Only eight days of registration remain for local punters, passers, and kickers to stop practicing long enough to grab a parent and trot over to Palmer Motor Sales to register for this year's Chelsea competition Oct. 7, says dealership representative Lyle Chriswell.

Any youngster 8 through 13 years of age is eligible to enter the competition, and will receive a free PP&K Tips Book upon registration. The book includes a complete set of rules, conditioning exercises, and important punting, passing, and place-kicking tips by leading professional players.

The contest involves no body contact, and entrants compete only against their own age group. No special equipment is required, and participation does not impair a youngster's amateur standing.

Band Boosters Still Seeking Two Chairmen

Chelsea Band opened the year by participating in the Chelsea Fair Parade, last Friday appeared in the half-time show at the Chelsea-Saline game, and last Saturday took part in High School Band Day at Eastern Michigan University.

Mrs. Barbara Dresch, chairman of snow cone sales, reported that the booth should be redesigned to be used outside. Mrs. Dresch managed the snow cone booth during sidewalk sales and the fair.

Uniform chairman Mrs. Nellie Cobb and her helpers have readied and dispersed uniforms.

Mrs. Eve Kiel, candy sales chairman, will have candy ready for sale at the first home football game this Friday.

President Boyer announced at the executive meeting that two chairmen are still needed, for fruitcake sales and publicity. Volunteers may call Mrs. Boyer at her home, 475-8437. A vice-president is also needed, due to a resignation.

An amendment to the by-laws will be discussed at the October meeting, concerning the selection of new officers. Also at this meeting, Charles Burgess, Camp Maplehurst director, will report on this year's band camp experience.

Next Band Boosters meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 10 at 8 p.m. in the high school band room.

Stereo Speakers Stolen from Parked Auto

A pair of 9 in. by 9 in. tape deck speakers were stolen sometime during the evening of Sept. 16 and the morning of Sept. 17 from a car parked in the Municipal Parking Lot, Chelsea police reports say.

The speakers were stolen from a 1973 Charger belonging to Francis Kathleen Smith, who had left the car there overnight.

Harriers 9th In Big Olivet Invitational

Chelsea harriers finished ninth in a field of 21 in Saturday's Olivet Invitational Meet, 27 points and two places better than their performance in the same meet last year.

"We lost three seniors, and finished better this year than last," explained Coach Pat Clarke. "I guess that must mean we're better."

The meet, composed of "good Class B teams," according to Clarke, was won by Grand Rapids West Catholic High school, with 69 points. Chelsea finished with a total of 269.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Bug Hookum never was one to run from work. He could lay down beside it and go to sleep any time. When Bug was in his working years, he was about a job like some folks are about a preacher. They hire the laziest preacher they can find cause what they want is no preacher at all. What Bug wanted was a job with no work in it at all.

For the past 20 year, Bug ain't hit a lick at a snake. Folks usual is interested in things that is strange to them, which may explain why Bug keeps up with what's going on in the field of work. He come to the session at the country store Saturday night with this piece that told about his kind of job. He had saw where this service station feller in town had won the Gates Rubber Company Mystery Car Award. Bug wasn't so much interested in the feller that won the award as he was in him that drove the car.

This company has cars all over the country. They got some little thing wrong with em, like a wore out windshield wiper or fanbelt. They go into service stations, and if the attendant notices what's wrong and offers to fix it, he gets the award. Bug said he allus had wanted to see the country, and that looked to him like the way to do it. Jest drive around from service station to service station.

For a long time, Bug had thought that this feller on TV that travels all over the country reporting unusual stories had the best job in the world, but these Gates drivers has got him beat. You don't have to make pictures or report nothing, Bug allowed, jest drive the car.

General speaking, one man's job may be another man's joy. I heard a feller talk about work once. He said it was all attitude. One feller on a construction job might say he's beating up rocks all day, and another feller doing the same work might say he's helping build a hospital for crippled children. Clem Webster said he had saw where this feller went all over the country talking to people about their work. About the best attitude he found was when he asked a woman how come a smart, educated gal like her was waiting on tables in a little cafe. "Why," the woman said, "don't you think you deserve to be served by me?"

Actual, Mister Editor, the fellers was general agreed that folks will do jest about anything if they can make it look like useful work. Most of our hobbies really is work. Zeke Grubb. He said a feller will spend a month of weekends at home building a coffee table and call it woodcrafting, but if he had to make tables in a factory he'd call it work and all he'd look for was quitting time. And Zeke said the stuff people collect, from string to old airplanes, is work made into fun.

As for collecting, Ed Doolittle said he knowed a feller in town that done right good collecting lost golf balls and selling em. Only thing was, Ed said, he collected some afore they quit rolling.

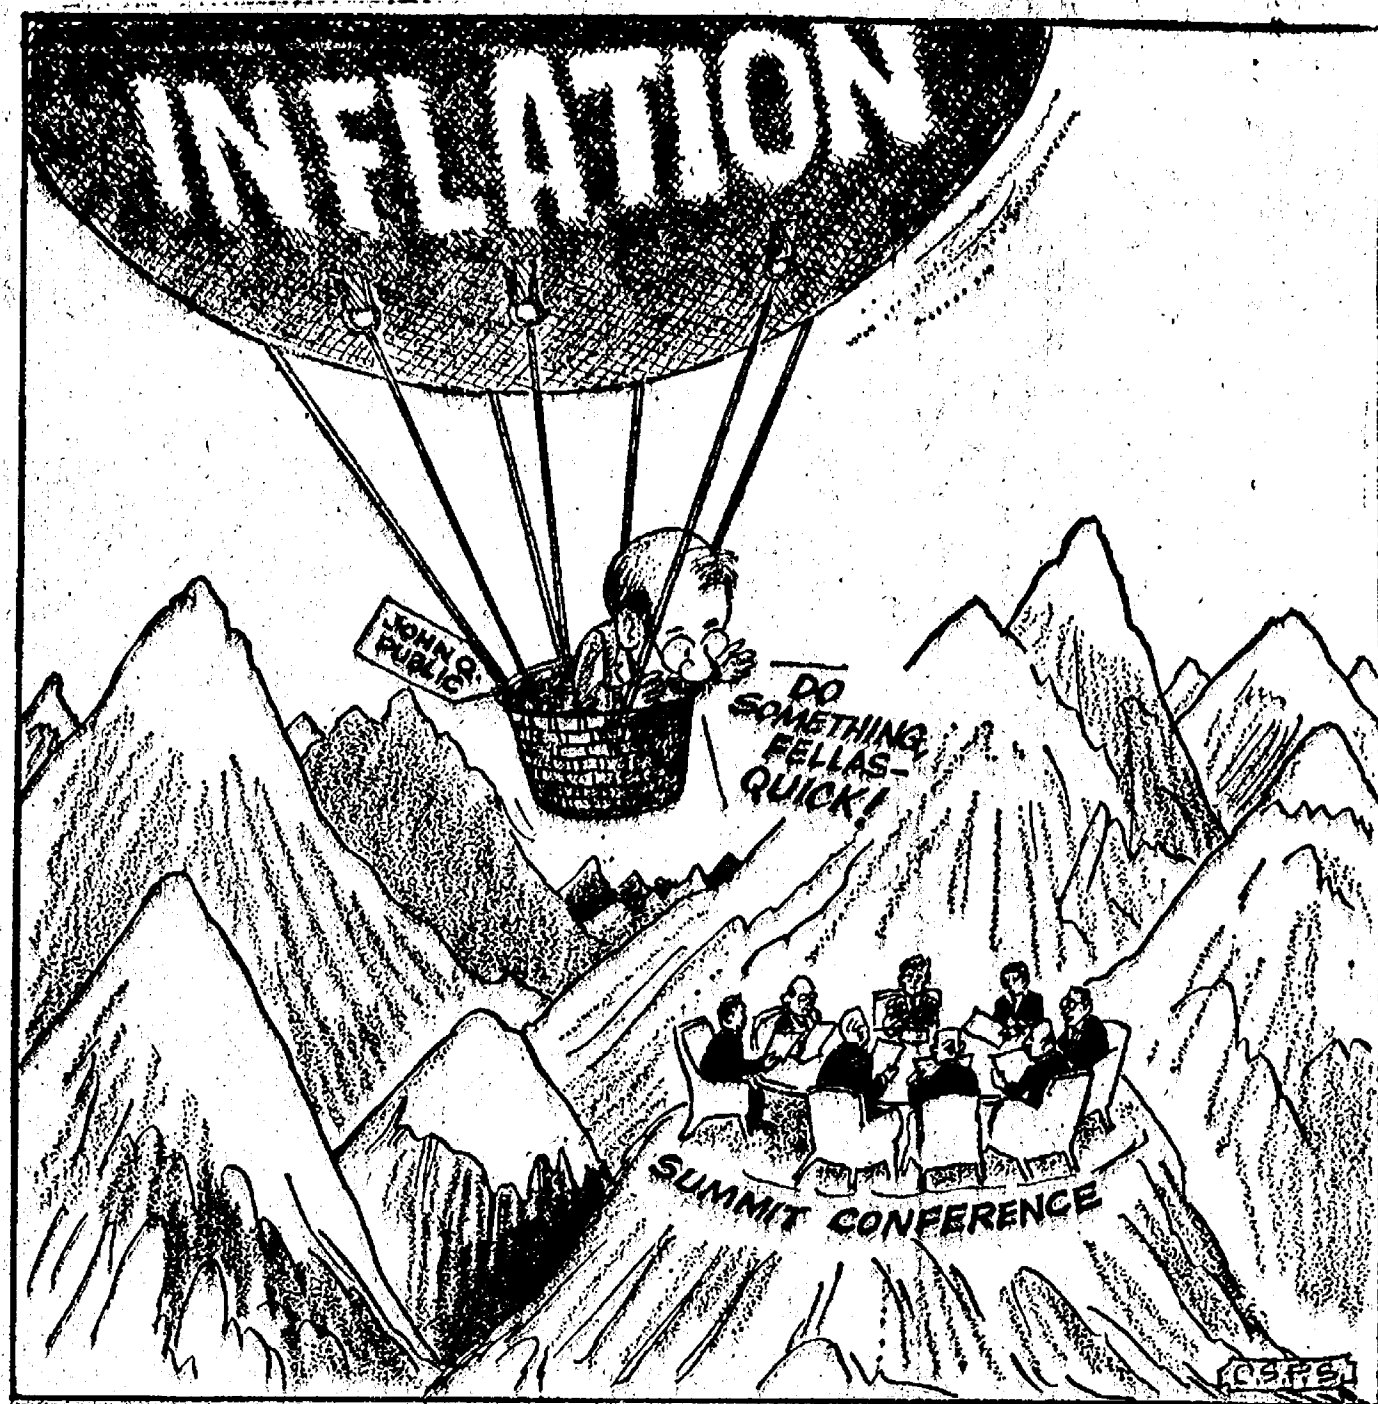

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Who for What?

When Gerald R. Ford moved into the White House Oval office, he was the first man ever from Michigan to become President of the United States.

John McCabe wants to be the second.

McCabe, a chunky greying gentleman from the Jackson area, already has paid for some 22 billboards touting his candidacy.

AGRICULTURE
MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU★ Thou Shalt Be Protected - and Pay

Remember impatiently waiting for the mailman to see if he'd brought your Jack Armstrong hike-o-meter? Or your Lone Ranger silver bullet? Or Ted Williams' baseball ring? This bit of Americana may become just a pleasant childhood memory as consumers, young and old, come under the ever-expanding umbrella of "protection" provided by the Federal government.

According to some consumer-ists, the average citizen does not have the intelligence to save himself from being bilked, deceived or malnourished. So he is protected by numerous agencies with enough initials to use up the entire alphabet: FTC, FCC, EPA, OSHA, CPSC, CFSA—the list could go on and on.

Now, a new set of initials looms on the legislative horizon—CPA—Consumer Protection Agency, a superagency which would have the authority to represent the consumer, and intervene in any issue involving anyone else, such as farmers, business and professional people. As powerful as this agency would be, there's one big area it exempts: labor-management. The authors of this proposed legislation claim that consumers have no interest in discussions between labor and management. No interest in a 25 percent increase in a supermarket clerk's salary, reflected in the price of groceries? That's hypocrisy so blatant that even the most dedicated consumerist should question just exactly who is being protected.

In our private enterprise system, serving the consumer is what it's all about. An economy which serves the consumer optimally will also produce jobs, profits and wages. It provides him with a freedom of choice—a Cadillac or a Volkswagen, a Manhattan shirt or a Brand-X irregular.

The consumer is also a taxpayer and it's his money the federal government will use to launch yet another agency for his "protection." He may decide he needs an agency to protect him from protection.

Extending from Toledo to the Upper Peninsula, the signs proclaim the errors of Watergate and the virtues of a free press. "A free press is the first line of defense for a free people," says one billboard near Lansing.

The 60-year-old McCabe, until recently chef at the Country Club of Jackson, is NOT kidding.

He ran as a write-in candidate in New Hampshire in 1960, then became active again briefly in 1964. He's a Democrat now, although the earlier forays were as a Republican.

McCabe says he believes a public servant should "have the guts to enforce the law or the guts to demand that the law be abolished."

"One-Stop Shopping"

"Everything under one roof."

"One-stop service center."

Sounds like a discount store, doesn't it? But it's government service that's the topic here.

Gov. William Milliken asked lawmakers to release funds that could speed up implementation of government service centers outside Lansing. "We must accelerate the development of the 'one-stop' concept of providing government services outside of Lansing," Milliken says.

"The public will be better served and consolidation of state services will improve effectiveness by improving communications and efficiency among the agencies."

To understand the problem, one must hark back to a 1970 study which prompted Milliken to say such centers would be justified in Alpena, Benton Harbor, Detroit, Flint, Grand Rapids, Jackson, Marquette, Pontiac, Saginaw and Traverse City.

Since then, new facilities have been acquired in Detroit, and the state is constructing an office building in Grand Rapids.

Now Milliken is asking the Legislature's Joint Capital Outlay Committee to approve funding for site studies for office facilities in four more of those cities: Flint, Jackson, Saginaw and Traverse City.

How About a Cable Car?

Clang, clang, clangety-clang, clang.

That's what a San Francisco cable car sounds like as it chugs up and sweeps down that city's roller-coaster hills.

It's not the cable car-type transportation, but high-speed trains and other forms of rapid transit that probably will be the glamor stars in Michigan's public transportation future, says Jim Kellogg, deputy director of the Department of State Highways and Transportation.

And, says Kellogg, it's the familiar intercity buses that will play an important role in determining if these new methods of transportation are successful.

"As Michigan builds expanded transit systems serving high travel demands, we'll depend even more on intercity buses to inter-link with other transportation modes," Kellogg says.

He's looking for ways to encourage expansion of bus service in the state.

Versatile Wheels

Cutting the number of wheels may increase efficiency—and save gasoline. That's the hope of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, which is issuing motor-cycles instead of automobiles to 18 conservation officers.

"We expect these motorcycles to increase patrol mileage, offer additional versatility for on and off the road enforcement and act as a deterrent to off-the-road vehicle violations," says George M. Dahl, chief of the DNR law enforcement division.

The Department says the automobiles used now by the officers get about 8 miles per gallon. They expect about eight times that—70 miles per gallon—from the motorcycles.

SEC ROUND-UP:

Conference Play Highlighted By Saline-Chelsea Defensive Battle

In a game marred by 20 penalties totaling 165 yards, Chelsea and Saline played to a scoreless tie until only 57 seconds before the final gun, when Hornet Bucky Skinner booted a 30-yard field goal to put the contest in the Hornet win column, 3-0.

Both squads were less than powerhouses during most of the game, as penalties killed both Saline and Chelsea drives, and both were plagued by unsuccessful field goal attempts earlier in the game. Both teams are now 1-1 over-all. All other Southeastern Conference squads also played their opening league games.

Novi 26, South Lyon 12-

The Lions' roars were contained until the fourth quarter, when two Ray Foley passes of 18 and 70 yards that hit for TDs made South Lyon's 26-12 loss to Novi look a good deal closer than it was.

The Wildcats, who suffered a non-league loss last week, relied on their ground game in the encounter, rolling up a 14-0 half-time lead.

Milan 34, Dexter 14-

Hapless Dexter Dreadnaughts fell to Milan for their second straight loss in the young season, as the major Big Red damage was done on return yardage. Milan's Mike Love returned the opening kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown and raced an identical distance on an intercepted pass.

Don Trinkle and Bill Bernard scored on short runs in the final period for the Dreadnaughts, and a Mark Cunningham pass to Al Ritt for two points completed the Dexter scoring.

Brighton 14, Lincoln 9-

Five fumbles and two interceptions combined to make seven mistakes that the Railsplitters just couldn't afford in their contest with Brighton last Friday.

Leading the way for the Bulldogs was Jeff French, who scored both of Brighton's touchdowns, on runs of 37 and one yards.

Tim Hess was the entire Lincoln show, hitting paydirt with a one-yard touchdown and a 37-yard field goal.

Letters to the Editor

Washtenaw County Council of Veterans, which includes local American Legion Post No. 31 and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4076, sent the following letter to President Gerald Ford.

President Gerald Ford
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D. C.
Dear President Ford:

We members of the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans, representing 16 member organizations and the 35,000 veterans of Washtenaw County, Michigan, wish to declare that we are totally opposed to the recent amnesty program which you have declared to be your intention to establish.

We are ashamed and humiliated by your actions in this matter, and by your lack of any concern for the thousands of American citizens who remain in the miserable captivity of the Communists in Southeast Asia.

Your indifference to their fate is unpardonable.

The very idea of repatriating those who chose to evade their responsibilities as citizens of this nation is insult enough to those of us who performed our duty. Many of us still bear the scars and disabilities from the sacrifices which we made.

By your actions, you have made many of us feel that those sacrifices were futile and that those who died, died in vain.

Now you propose to offer "alternate service" as a means of redemption for those who did not obey the laws of our land. Why should we, as taxpayers and veterans, be subjected to this? Why should these offenders be provided jobs, at Federal expense (tax dollars), when there are thousands of veterans who are either unemployed or underemployed?

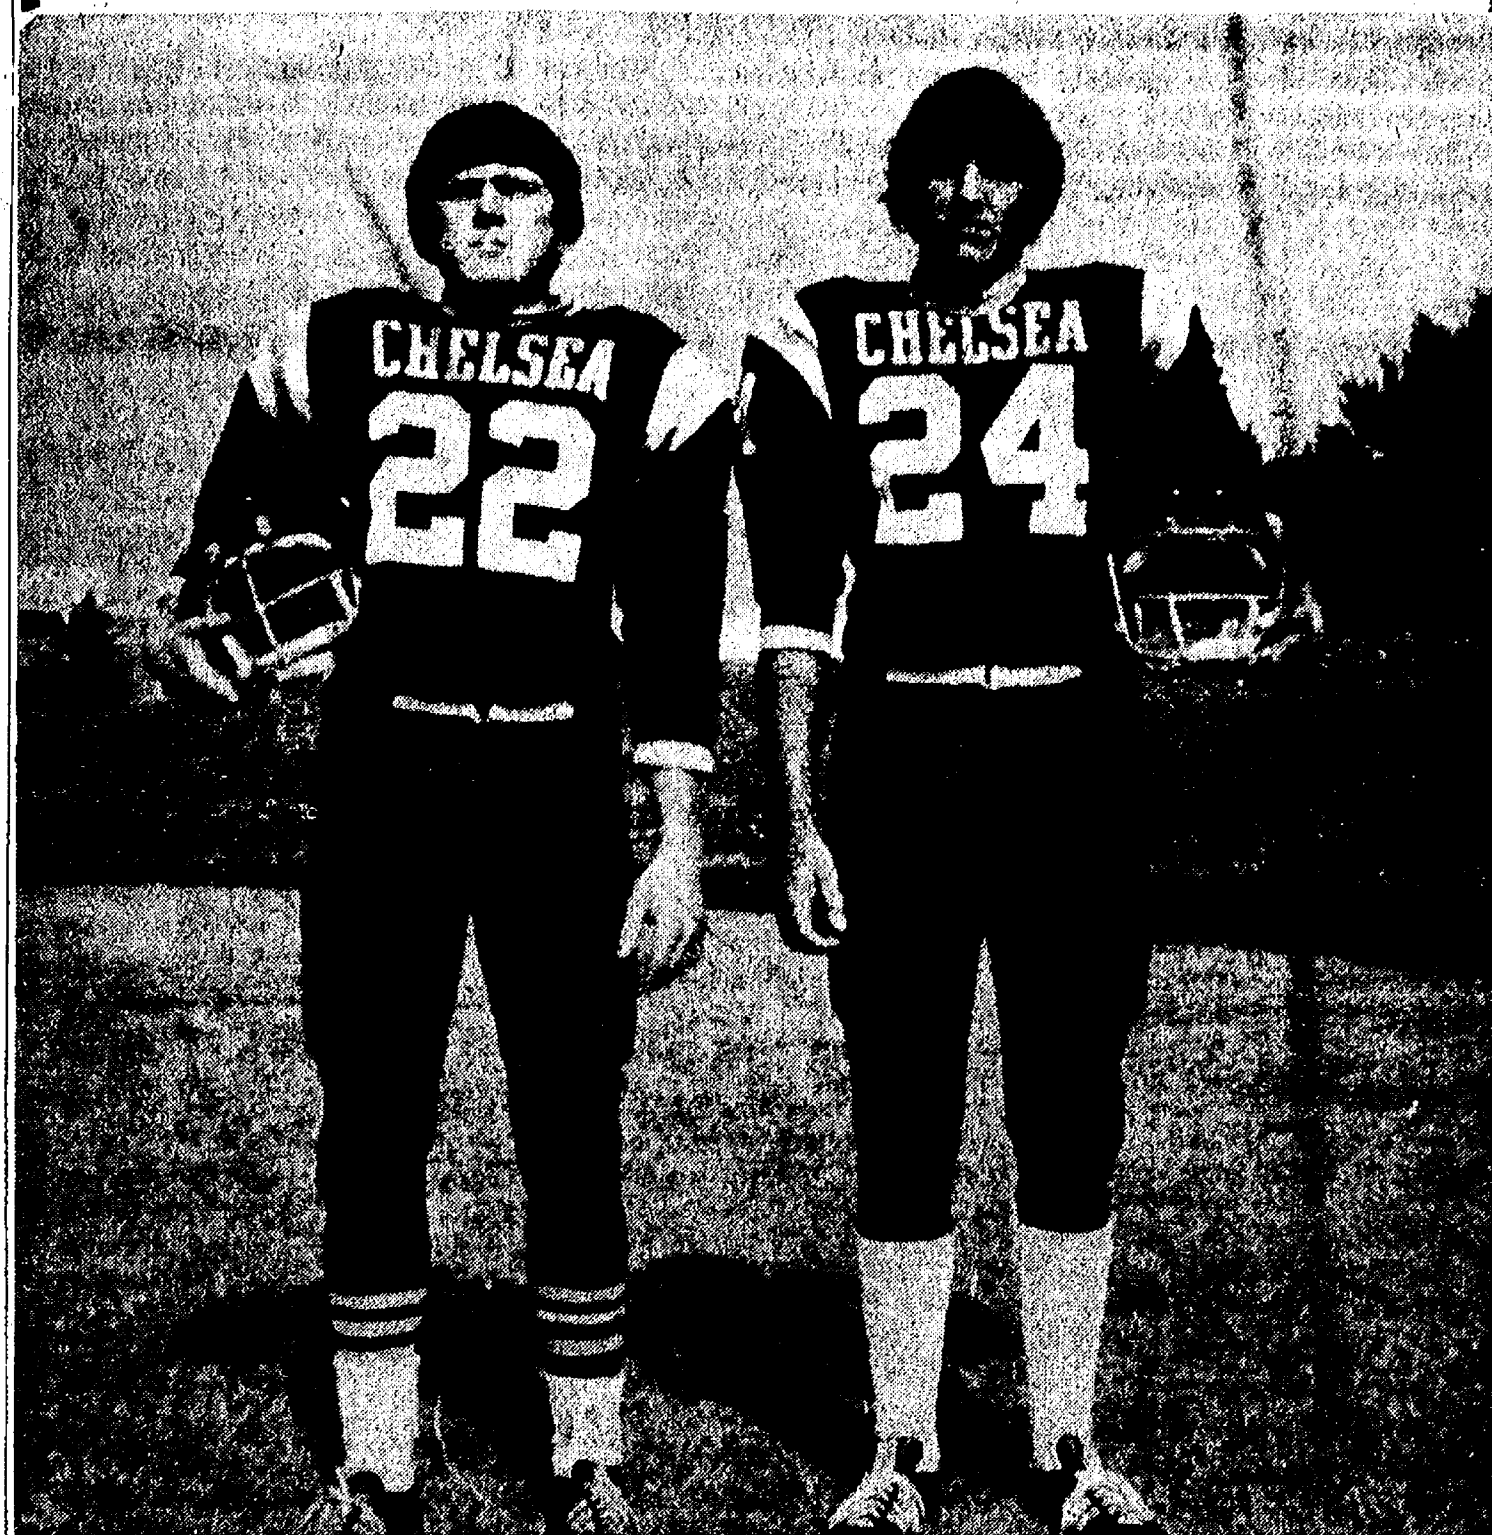

If these creatures are to be allowed back, why should they be provided with any chance of "alternate service"? Let them obtain employment on their own. If any jobs are to be created, create them for the veterans; they are the people who have suffered from this situation; were deprived of their loved ones; were sent to fight a war, unrivaled in its unpopularity; were subjected to the worst of conditions—and all this while those who evaded their duty enjoyed all the comforts of life.

Tell us, President Ford, to which group does this nation owe more: its veterans, or its criminals?

Washtenaw County Council of Veterans.

People often seek excuses for their failures instead of trying to do something about them.

Gridders of the Week

HOWARD SALTER (22) is a junior halfback presently playing his first year of varsity football for Coach Phil Bareis, after toiling on the junior varsity squad. In last week's disheartening 3-0 loss to Saline, Salyer knocked down a pair of Hornet passes in the end zone to prevent more opposition scoring. He predicts that the Saline defeat of Chelsea will be the last loss of the season. In addition to football his athletic prowess extends to track and basketball, sports that he has played at Chelsea High school for two years each. He has also been a frequent and active participant in Chelsea High school and community musicals. He is the son of Mrs. Roma Salyer, 151 E. Middle, and has two brothers, Bob, 20, and Rod, 19, and two sisters, Wanda, 24, and Brenda, 15.

RANDY GUENTHER (24), is Coach Bareis' 5'11", 165-lb. junior quarterback, one of the large number of veterans returning to the squad. Guenther, who has played football for Chelsea all three of his high school years, has also played varsity baseball and junior varsity basketball. Outside of school, he is also a member of the youth group at St. Paul's United Church of Christ. He is certain that college will be in his future after high school, although he is currently unsure of his career plans. He is the son of Elton and Ruth Guenther, 601 Grant St., and has two sisters, Sue and Jan.

★ Auto Service Reaches Computer Age

The most important step in correcting an automotive service problem is to accurately identify the cause of the problem. Years ago, when cars were relatively simple, the only diagnostic equipment needed by a service technician was a good ear and a well-stocked tool box.

As cars became more complex, the equipment needed to diagnose the car's ills also became more complex, evolving from simple meters and gauges that indicated what was happening inside the engine to oscilloscopes, which are electronic machines that display on a TV-like screen various patterns relating to the condition of an ignition system. Their function is similar to oscilloscopes used to monitor the human heart during surgery.

When the dynamometer, sometimes referred to as "the indoor road," emerged in the late 1950's, service technicians could fully diagnose trouble without taking the car out of the shop. The dynamometer simulates different road and driving conditions by making it possible for the technician to place varying loads on the engine. Instruments attached to the dynamometer and to the car engine indicate to the technician any problems that may exist, as well as measuring the power output of the engine.

The most recent concepts in diagnostic equipment involves computers. One car manufacturer has developed a system whereby a computer is plugged into the car and the condition of various components is tested.

DHS Auto Shop Receives GM Equipment

The Dexter High school's automotive training needs were given an additional boost today when General Motors donated some of the latest automotive components to the school. The equipment included a transmission, six generators, six distributors, and three carburetors.

The donation reflects General Motors' continuing interest in education and is one of many such contributions which have been made to schools to help train students in the field of auto mechanics.

In 1973, GM made donations of automotive and appliance components and other equipment to some 1,049 junior and senior high schools, technical institutions, and colleges, valued at more than $1.3 million.

In addition to these parts and tools, GM granted allowances totaling $15.5 million to GM dealers for 40,989 new cars and light duty trucks which were loaned to high school driver education programs during the 1972-73 school year. This amounted to 63.7 percent of all vehicles loaned to high schools for driver training during the year.

Canoe Trip Offers Spectacular Views of Michigan's Fall Colors

Canoeing down Michigan's first highways—its rivers and streams—offers fall color tourists spectacular views of rugged wilderness scenery unavailable to car travelers, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Canoeists can enjoy Michigan's brilliant autumn leaves in a setting that can seem remote even in the most urbanized areas," said Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager. He added that most canoeists can be handled by the first-time canoeist, who usually can obtain free instruction from liveries.

The accompanying Auto Club map pinpoints 75 canoe routes in the Upper and Lower Peninsulas that cover a total of more than 3,340 miles. Listings detail the maximum distance and travel time, the terrain, fishing prospects and locations of canoe liveries for each route.

Since most liveries offer pick-up service, canoeists can follow Auto Club's routes for just a few hours or for their entire lengths. Renting a standard-size, three-seater canoe generally costs $8 to $10 for the first day and $5 to $7 for subsequent days.

"If planning a camping trip, canoeists should remember to keep equipment at a minimum and, especially if inexperienced, put their items in plastic bags," Ratke said. "Standard camping equipment—a ground tent, sleeping bags, utensils and a portable stove—are suitable for canoe trips."

Auto Club recommends that all canoeists have at least one canoe outing under their belts before trying an overnight venture.

As a result of a State Department of Natural Resources program, most of Michigan's major canoe routes have signs showing camping, picnic and toilet facilities. In addition, liveries usually provide customers with well-marked route maps.

For detailed information on the location of liveries along Auto Club's designated canoe routes, Ratke suggested that fall color tourists contact local chambers of commerce.

"Although most liveries do not require advance deposits for canoes in the fall, persons planning weekend trips should check with Liveries two to three days in advance said. "If good week-end weather conditions," the Auto Club official said. "If good week-end weather is predicted, canoeists definitely should get their names on a reservation list."

Michigan's fall color season, signaled by the crimson leaves of the sumac, offers tourists outstanding views of more than 85 species of hard and soft wood trees.

Although most forests throughout the state are now tinged with autumn's bright hues, Michigan's fall colors will first peak in the Upper Peninsula late this month. Then at the rate of 50 to 75 miles a week, peak viewing conditions will move down the state, reaching southern Michigan by the end of October.

Cold weather with heavy frost and strong wind can bring peak fall colors to an abrupt end, while warm temperatures with sunny days can keep maximum color development in an area for up to two weeks.

Auto Club's calendar showing the general periods for the most spectacular fall color viewing in Michigan is:

—Upper Peninsula and northern tip of the Lower Peninsula—Sept. 27 to Oct. 9.

—Northern third of the Lower Peninsula—Oct. 4 to Oct. 14.
—Central Michigan—Oct. 11 to Oct. 23.
—Southern Michigan (roughly south of a line from Holland to Pontiac)—Oct. 18 to Oct. 31.

CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

September 17, 1974
Regular Session.

Before the regular session of the Village Council was called to order, the Village Council, acting as the Zoning Board of Appeals, convened to hold a public hearing on an appeal for a variance from the strict application of the provisions of Section 5.3D of Ordinance No. 79 (Zoning Ordinance). Said appeal was filed on August 5, 1974 by the Federal Screw Works.

In the absence of President Pennington, President Pro-Tem Dmoch presided over the hearing.

Present: President Pro-Tem Dmoch, Acting Clerk Weber, Trustees: Borton, Gorton, Galbraith and Wood.

Others Present: Chelsea Police Sergeant Leonard McDougall, Building Inspector Judson Goltz, Gene Borders, T. Neumeier, Clark Bushnell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Worden, Paul Cole, S. Myers, L. Clark, V. Dorer, and Planning Commission Representative D. Palmer.

Following a discussion with Vincent Dorer, representing the Federal Screw Works, and residents of the Federal Screw Works area, a letter from the Chelsea Planning Commission was read, referring the variance request back to the Zoning Appeals Board without a recommendation.

At this point President Pennington entered and presided over the meeting.

Motion by Borton, supported by Wood, to grant Federal Screw Works a variance from Section 5.3D of Ordinance No. 79 and to allow construction of an automobile parking lot, with perpendicular parking, having a parking aisle of only 21 feet. Roll call: Yeas—Borton, Gorton, Dmoch, Galbraith and Wood. Variance granted.

Motion by Galbraith, supported by Gorton, to adjourn the Zoning Board of Appeals meeting. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.

The regular session of the Village Council was called to order at 8:00 p.m. by President Pennington.

The minutes of the regular session of Sept. 2, 1974 were read and approved.

Trustee Borton requested Sergeant McDougall to investigate the feasibility of making Jackson Street, between Main and East Streets, one-way going east. Reason for the request is the bottleneck which is caused when west bound traffic must swing out around the Penn Central Depot. In many instances, trucks have hit the overhang of the depot roof and caused extensive damage to both truck and depot.

Clark Bushnell asked if it was necessary to have council approval to use the new sewer trunk line after it has satisfactorily passed the engineers testing. Mr. Bushnell was informed that Council approval would be necessary.

Motion by Dmoch, supported by Wood, to authorize the use of a septic field system for a single-family residential home on property along Gene Drive tax code number CVI-233 B. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Borton, supported by Gorton, to adopt a resolution awarding a contract to D. W. Spangler of Brooklyn, Michigan in the amount of $16,940.00 to construct an earth dike lagoon for the water filter plant. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Galbraith, supported by Wood, to adopt a resolution authorizing the Village Administrator to sign, in behalf of the Village, a supplement easement agreement with the Chelsea School District. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Budget reports were submitted by the Village Administrator. Discussion of the reports will be held at the next regular meeting.

Trustee Borton reported that the Electric and Water Committee had met to discuss the Village's present electric rate structure. Dr. Borton reported the committee had determined that due to increased cost of energy purchased by the Village and the increasing fuel adjustment costs added onto the energy costs, it will be necessary to increase village electric rates. Cummings and Barnard, Electrical Consultants for the village, are presently working on the final draft of the proposed rate increase which will be presented to the council at the next regular meeting.

Trustee Gorton reported to the council that the Personnel Committee had met to discuss the new State Construction Code Act, and it is the Committee's feeling that code enforcement should be turned over to the county. A final report and recommendation will be submitted at the next regular meeting.

Trustee Dmoch reported that Steve Haydock had submitted his resignation from the Chelsea Planning Commission. Motion by Dmoch, supported by Galbraith, to accept the resignation of Steve Haydock from the Planning Commission. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

A letter of appreciation from Earl Heller, Fair Board Member, for help given by the village during the 1974 Community Fair was read.

A letter from Sandra Huber regarding the dragster that was in the Fair Parade was read. Council advised the Administrator to forward the letter to the Fair Board.

Motion by Galbraith, supported by Dmoch, to approve a resolution making the week of September 15, 1974 "National Constitution Week" in the Village of Chelsea. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Borton, supported by Dmoch, to appoint Thomas Neumeier to fill the unexpired term of Village Clerk. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Galbraith, supported by Wood, to authorize payment of bills as submitted. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Gorton, supported by Borton, to adjourn. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.

Frederick A. Weber, Deputy Clerk.

Wayne Dari-Blen Rations...

"New Concept" Feeds of the 70's

When a Wayne Dari-Blen ration starts working in the rumen, it keeps right on working... hours and hours longer than ordinary dairy feeds with only a single source of protein. Dari-Blen offers multiple-source protein and other key milk-producing ingredients which work together to increase the level of Volatile Fatty Acids in the rumen. This is the "secret" of Dari-Blen... the secret of top milk production.

Many dairymen want to "cash in" on the economy of non-protein nitrogen. If this is you... if you feed a medium level of milking ration, ask us about Wayne 42 Dari-Blen. It's 22 percent natural protein and 20 percent non-protein nitrogen. It's one of Wayne's NEW CONCEPT feeds of the 70's.

Q. We're nearly completed with a family room addition and thought now is the time to start planning my decorating scheme. Any suggestions?

A. Next to the kitchen the family room is the most important room in the house. It's an all-purpose room, a place to do things, a room to cater to all sorts of activities. Against a quiet background sharp colors can be added which stimulate without being overpowering. Everything in the room should be easy to care for, walls, woodwork and even upholstery should be washable. Make it a shoes-off kind of personal retreat and inevitably friends will discover it too.

When it comes to color, the rule today is forget the rules—and let your personal tastes be your guide. While your own taste dictates the harmonizing of the colors, it is still desirable to employ a central plan or idea for over-all unity. Perhaps a ready-mixed texture paint for the walls in a quiet color, a plaid rug or carpet, odds and ends of furniture, some painted pieces and unique accessories will give the room its character.

JV Rallies To Defeat Saline, 24-22

Although Saline's JV led Chelsea at one point in last Thursday's game, 16-0, the Junior Bulldogs recovered their composure, added a touch of spectacular runs, and defeated the Hornets, 24-22.

In the first quarter, Chelsea was again hampered by inability to move the ball, when John Adams recovered a fumble, but with no results. Saline later intercepted a Chelsea pass and went on to score, to put the tally at 8-0, with the extra point run.

In the second quarter, Hornets roared into action immediately, chalking up another TD and extra points to boost the score to 16-0. Chelsea came back to record a safety, however, when the Junior Bulldogs backed Saline up to their goal line and watched a snap for a punt sail over the punter's head and out of the end zone for the two points.

With Saline trying to put the clincher on just before half-time, John Toon intercepted a Saline pass and made a spectacular run of 75 yards for a TD to put the score at 16-8. Mike Check added the extra points to make it 16-10.

After half-time, Junior Bulldogs returned with renewed enthusiasm, opening with an Anthony Houle sweep around end for 64 yards and a touchdown to even the score at 16-16.

Then Scott Owings recovered a Saline fumble and on the first play, John Toon passed to Joe Branham on a play that covered 60 yards for another TD to move the JV in front, 22-16. Another Houle sweep scored the extra points, 24-16.

Saline made its final futile effort with a minute remaining in the contest and scored, to put the final tally at 24-22.

Defensive players who received Coach Jon Schaffner's praise were John Toon, who led the squad with 10 tackles; George Menge, who recorded eight; Rick Davis, seven; Anthony Houle, Leon Brown, and John Adams, five; Bruce Stubbs, Mike Check, Bob Burgess, Joe Branham, Scott Owings, and Dale Headrick, three.

Today (Thursday) the Junior gridders will journey to Lincoln for a conference game at 4 p.m.

Girl Scout Uniform Exchange Planned

A Girl Scout Uniform Exchange is planned for next Thursday, Oct. 3, at First United Methodist church, 128 Park St., from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Uniforms that parents wish to sell or donate may be brought to the church between 2 and 4 p.m., Oct. 3, says Mrs. Sandy Schmunk, Troop Services Director.

Those unable to bring uniforms to the church Thursday may take them to the home of Mrs. George Prinzing, 421 Chandler (475-8461) on Monday, Oct. 1, or Tuesday, Oct. 2, in the afternoon or evening.

Money or unsold uniforms must be picked up at the Prinzing home after 1 p.m. Oct. 4 through Oct. 10.

For further information, contact Mrs. Schmunk at 475-8175.

Harriers Set Records But Lose to M-C

Chelsea harriers ran a tight race on a fast course but were edged out by Michigan Center, 25-33, despite placing record-setting Bulldogs in first and second places.

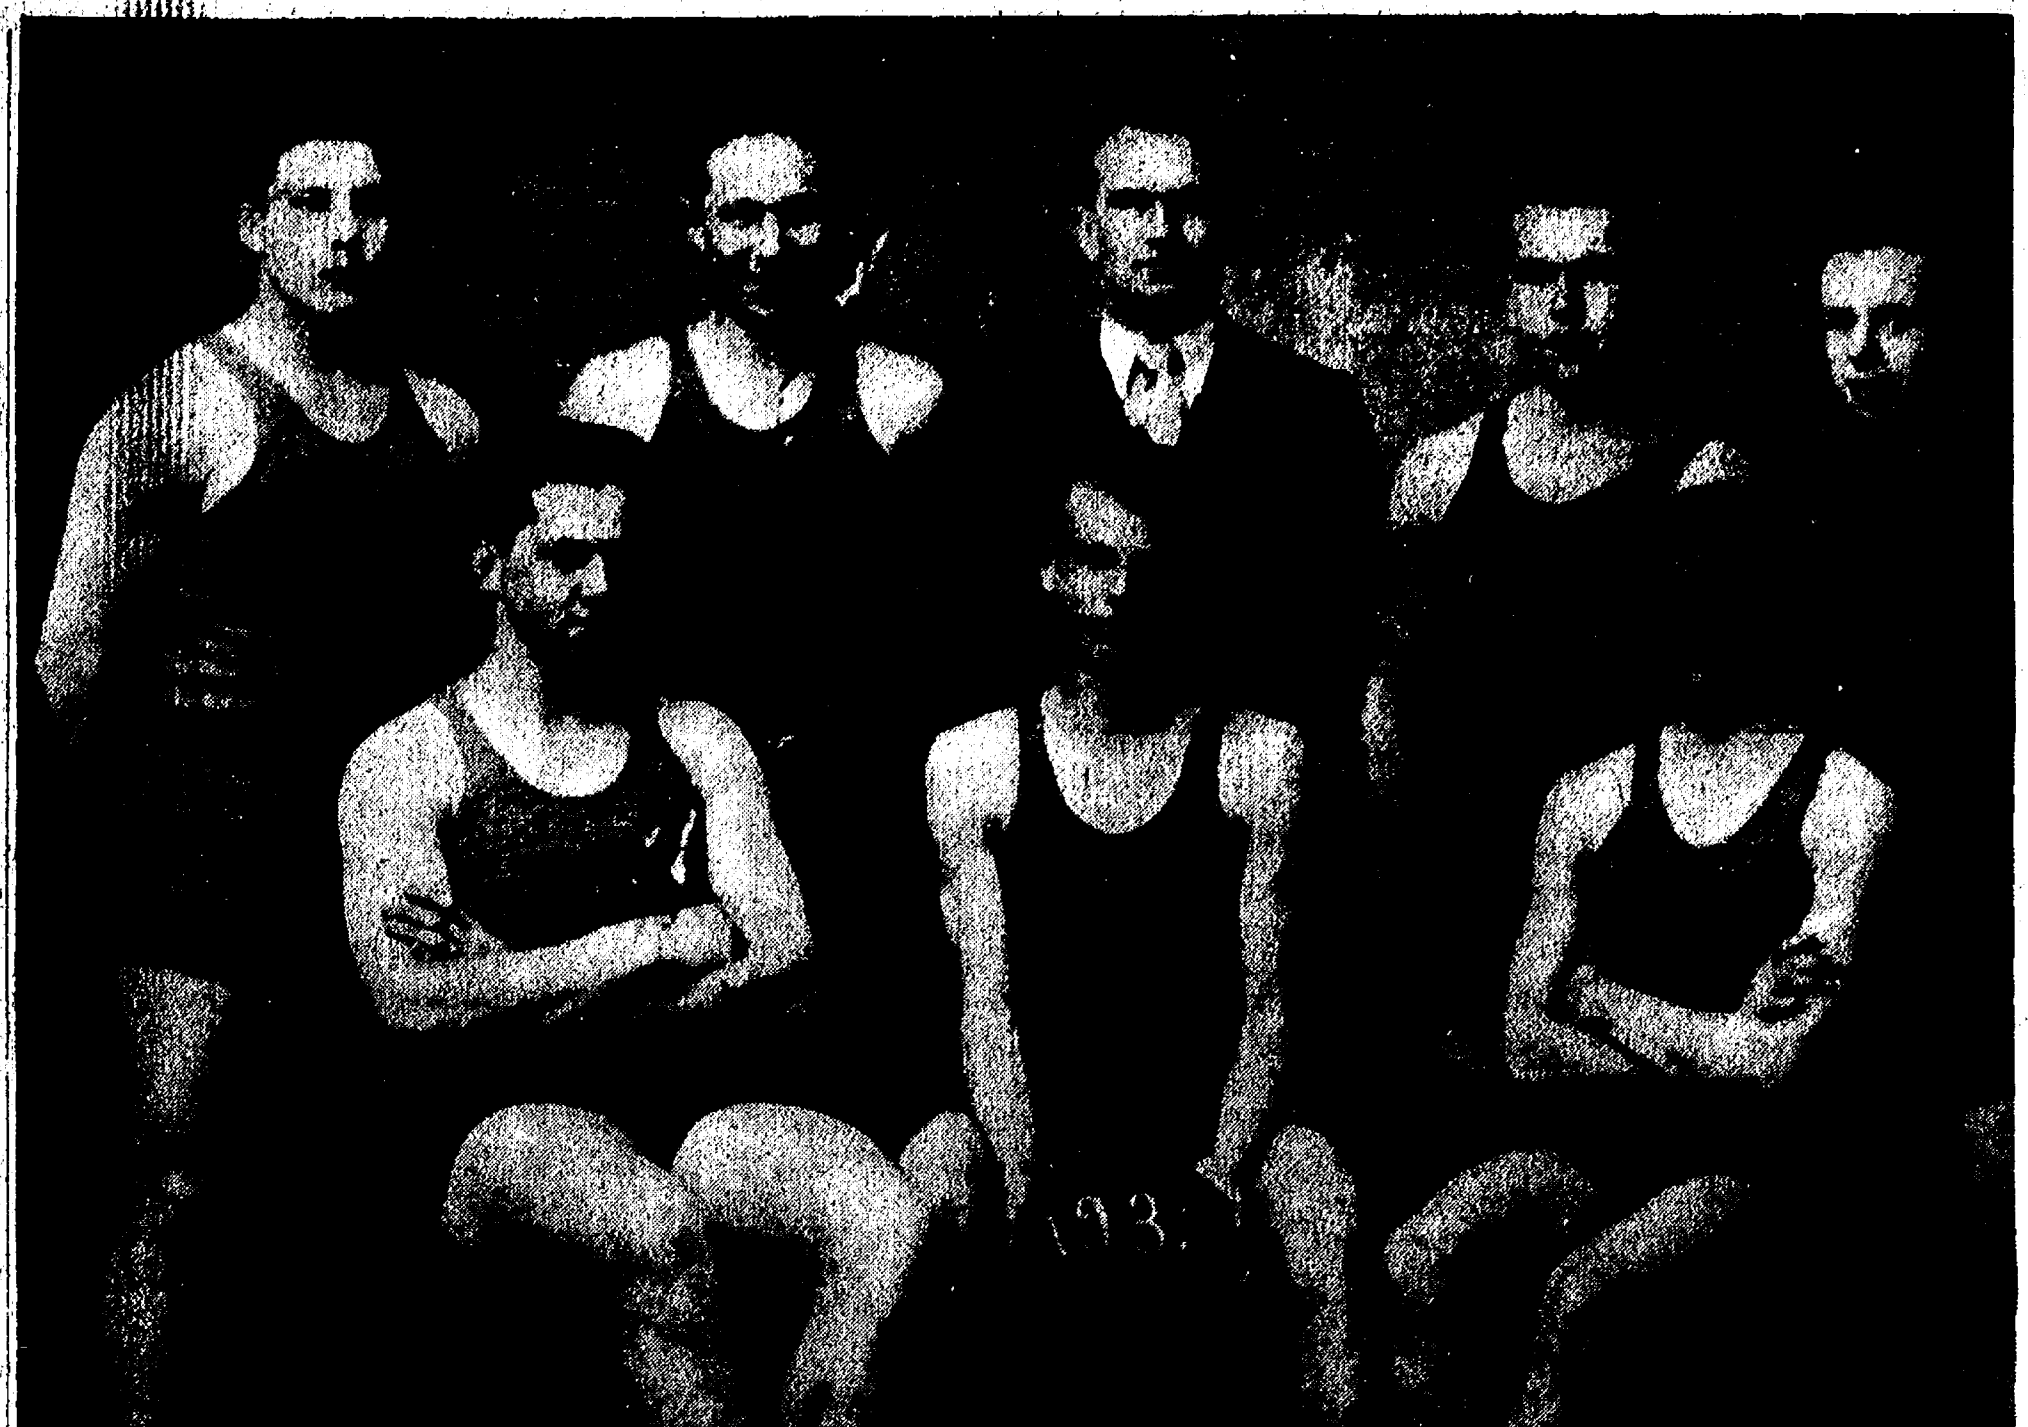

Leading the pack at the meet was junior captain John Storey, who set a new junior record of 16:28. Trailing him was Dave Dawson in second place with a 16:34. Dawson shaved some 40 seconds off the standing freshman time for the course.

Five Michigan Center runners then bunched up behind Dawson and Storey, all within 30 seconds of each other.

Other Bulldog placers were Phil Frame, 9th, 17:17; Morris Johnson, 10th, 17:19; Rick Haller, 11th, 17:23; Dean Thompson, 12th, 17:28; Mark Kern, 14th, 17:57; Dan Shirilla, 17th, 18:19; Matt Heydlauff, 19th, 18:31; Bill Rademacher, 20th, 18:43; Mark Bucholz, 21st, 18:44; Randy Harris, 23rd, 18:56; and Jeff Sweet, 24th, 19:05.

All Bulldog runners except Heydlauff, Rademacher, and Haller recorded their own personal best times of the season. "Of course, it's a really fast course," admitted for The Standard by Mrs. Harold Lantis of Stockbridge, whose father, James McMannis, operated a photography studio in Chelsea from 1918 to 1951.

CHS Basketball Team of '32 Remembers

In January of 1932, pork sausage was selling for three pounds for 25 cents at Dexter's Market, a Pontiac V-8 was listed at less than $850 at Harper Sales & Service, and Will Rogers in

"Ambassador Bill" was featured at the Princess Theater.

And over at Chelsea High school, an anonymous "High school scribe" was covering Chelsea High school's basketball games for The Standard, predicting prior to an encounter with tough University High that a victory would provide "the Purple and Gold," (purple, then) with "an excellent chance of taking the championship of the Huron Valley League."

Team members included Walter Mayer, Russ McLaughlin, Dale Kern, Ren Hutzel, Harvey Lixey, Carl Schneider and Donald Adam, and was coached by Ralph Thayer. Kern, Hutzel, and Adam are now deceased, 42 years after they panted and stretched and dribbled and passed for dear old Chelsea High. Mayer lives in Michigan's Thumb area; McLaughlin resides at Houghton Lake and Florida; only Lixey, an employee of Federal Screw Products, and Schneider, of Schneider's Grocery, remain in the area.

"We won a few games," Schneider recalls. "It wasn't that big a thing."

Schneider's reticence, however, is far less entertaining than the newspaper accounts of the '32 Chelsea team, a squad touted as "displaying a well-balanced team of veterans with a smooth passing attack and strong defense" in their opening win over Milan.

Chelsea went on to win their second district championship in as many years, defeating Sand Creek, Manchester, and Tecumseh, but fell to Melvindale in the first regional game, 22-10. This defeat "was considered one of the upsets of the tournament. An inspired Melvindale team had little difficulty in defeating Chelsea, as the local team was truly off form."

This "off form" was in contrast, of course, to the squad that dumped Dundee by the then-gigantic score of 34-14 while playing "in perfect form;" the squad that lost its final home game to undefeated first place Roosevelt, 34-22, after fighting "valiantly," but encountering a Roosevelt team that "cut loose like a bunch of dynamites;" the basketballers who defeated Clinton and Manchester, displaying "a smooth passing attack, accurate basket-shooting, and an impenetrable defense to romp away with an easy victory."

1932...not Chelsea High school's best basketball year, but one worthy of a few memories here and there.

Public Hearing Slated Oct. 3 on Proposed School Funding Plan

A public hearing will be held on a new legislative plan for increasing state funding of the public schools, with proportionate reductions in school property taxes.

Senator Gilbert E. Bursley (R-Ann Arbor) announced today that the Senate Education Committee will hear public testimony on Senate Bill 1290 at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 3, in the cafeteria of the Dwight E. Beach Middle School, Chelsea.

Senator Bursley, chairman of the Senate Education Committee and Assistant Majority Leader of the Senate, has been joined by 15 Democratic Senators and 13 other Republican Senators in sponsoring the new plan, which specifically proposed:

—That the level of Michigan's new "guaranteed yield" school aid formula be raised from $40 per pupil per mill guarantee scheduled for 1975-76 to a $60 per pupil per mill guarantee.

—That districts be required to "roll back" the property taxes they levy in return for the higher state funding, thus shifting a larger portion of school support from property taxes to the state personal and corporate income tax. "We have already made certain technical improvements in the roll back plan, as a result of computerized analysis and expert recommendations," Bursley said.

"We anticipate that we will be able to make further improvements as a result of input received at the state-wide series of public hearings we are initiating."

Most districts, under the Bursley roll-back plan, would reduce operating taxes by from 30 percent to one-third, yet have basic revenue increases of 7½ percent or more.

Area School Districts Receive
State Help on Bond Obligations

Senator Gilbert E. Bursley (R-Ann Arbor) announced today that three area school districts will receive payments from the state this year to assist with their bonding obligations.

Senator Bursley, chairman of the Senate Education Committee and Assistant Majority Leader of the Senate, explained that this new form of state aid enacted in 1973 as an integral part of Michigan's new state school aid act, calls for the first disbursement of state funds this 1974-75 school year.

Whitmore Lake school district will receive $18,806 from the special funding. Milan area schools will receive $91,195 and Howell public schools will receive $26,896.

In the first year of funding debt assistance is limited to districts that levy less than 22 mills for operating purposes in 1973-74. Next year districts currently levying less than 25 mills will be eligible.

In effect, bonding reimbursement serves as something of an offset for the fact that districts with higher operating millages receive greater amounts of state membership aid under the "equal yield" formula of the Bursley act.

The state will distribute about $8 million this year and some $20 million next year for debt assistance.

Eventually, Senator Bursley explained, the debt levies of most if not all Michigan school districts will be "equalized" by the state so that all bring the same number of dollars per pupil per mill in the same manner as operating levies.

At that time the Senator estimates that the state will distribute $80 million annually for this new form of state aid.

I REMEMBER THE GOOD OLD DAYS

From Pete Silari, Hollywood, Calif.: I remember when the movie studios started springing up right near my Hollywood home. Big, new feature movies were promoted lavishly here, too. All the stars would turn out to see the grand productions of the burgeoning industry.

Yes, it was in the 1920's that Hollywood, California became a household word. The influence on other parts of the country—and the world for that matter—was incredible. Movie-goers everywhere dressed and behaved like their favorite stars on the screen. Those studios where they made the pictures sure grew fast, too. The movies were fun for everybody then. I hope it's true that more people are starting to go to the movies again. Back then it sure was exciting what with all the new people coming to town. Splendid homes grew out of the ground. New stores, too, selling all kinds of different things. Best of all these studios began

Who pays for living expenses (elsewhere) while they repair your home?

Most policies provide the coverages you expect—fire, lightning, storms, riots, vandalism and the like. They cover the cost of repairs due to these losses. But have you thought about the cost of living elsewhere if your home has to be repaired or rebuilt? It could run into hundreds of dollars. Or, it could be covered in black and white in our Homeowners Policy, so we would pay those extra living expenses! Give us a call. We'll put your home insurance all together in one policy for convenience and saving's sake.

September in Michigan Is Ideal Month for Vacationing

September is the bridge between summer and fall. The weather moderates, there's more room at "favorite spots" and leisure time assumes its true definition. September in Michigan is an ideal vacation month accented with festivals, fairs and fun for all, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

The month begins with a tribute to Bishop Frederic Baraga (the Snowshoe Priest), who devoted his life to the Chippewa Indians of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. The ceremonies will take place Sunday, Sept. 1 at the Baraga Shrine, which rises six stories above the Red Rock Bluffs, between Baraga and L'Anse overlooking Keweenaw Bay.

Sept. 1-2 is Old Time Summer Festival time at Greenfield Village, Dearborn. Strolling minstrels, a medicine show, colorful yarns spun from the writings of Mark Twain, heated debates between Stephen Douglas and Abraham Lincoln and a musical revue called, "Gaslight Melodies" are some of the bygone diversions and entertainment that will be featured.

If you're physically fit, "in the pink" or just have an excess of energy to expend, lace-up your most comfortable walking shoes and join the annual Mackinac Bridge Walk, Sept. 2, from St. Ignace to Mackinaw City.

Sept. 7-8 will be a busy weekend. The Old Car Festival at Greenfield Village, Dearborn, will feature antique automobiles a high-wheel bikes "jazzed-up" with Dixieland music and flapper hostesses straight from the days when America first started rolling on wheels.

The Merry Marketeers Flea Market will be beckoning bargain hunters to the Port Saginaw Mall in Saginaw. It's also the weekend of Marshall, Michigan's 11th annual Historic Home Tour. In addition to the tour of nine vintage homes, a variety of collateral events are scheduled, including an arts and crafts fair and antique sale. The potato harvest and the customs of a Polish heritage are the main ingredients of the Posen Potato Festival. Parade, carnival, Polish dances and dinners will help to keep the festivities on a lively note.

Potatoes are the king crop in the Edmore area and the folks there also feel that a festival is in order at harvest time. The Edmore Potato Festival is a three-day celebration, Sept. 13-15, complete with dancing in the streets, a big parade, pony pulls and good things to eat.

Chesaning will be "buzzing" in the most literal sense of the word, Sept. 12-15, when the Michigan Honey Bee Festival will be in residence. In addition to graphic exhibits showing how the busy little bees make honey, there will be a slo-pitch soft-ball tournament, canoe race, honey baking contest and a gala parade of bands from all areas of the state. Some 40 acres of campsites will be available at Showboat Park.

Art 'n Apples may seem like a strange combination but that's the name of the Festival, Sept. 12-15, at Municipal Park in Rochester. The purpose of the festival is to expose the public to area arts and crafts and encourage artists and craftsmen to compete for quality. As for the apples, they will be available in dessert, candied and cider form for visitors' refreshment. The Folk Life Festival, Sept. 14-15, at Charlton Park, near Hastings, brings pioneer days to life with demonstrations of early crafts and folk art. Spinning, weaving, sausage, soap, bread, butter and "likker" makin' are some of the activities on the agenda. The village smithy will be making the anvils and there will be appropriate toe-tapping music to set the pace.

Harvest time of the fruit of the vine in southwest Michigan heralds the Grape and Wine Festival at Paw Paw, Sept. 17-22. Festival guests are invited to tour the wineries and sip a sample of the mellow merchandise. Other attractions include grape stomping, a turtle derby, art show and carnival.

The Detroit Ethnic Festival Program for September has the Mexican Festival in residence 6-8, the Arab Festival 13-15, and closing the 1974 season will be the Latin American Festival, Sept. 20-22. Detroit's Fall Antique Show and Sale is set for Sept. 18-22, at the Light Guard Armory. Some 166 dealers and exhibitors from all over the U.S. are expected.

On the outdoor scene, the Titabawassee Amateur Canoe Race from Wooden Show Village at East M-61, the Au Sable River Raft Race at Oscoda and the 200-Mile Off Road Endurance at Rose City are all taking place on Sept. 1. The Lakeside Bicycle Tour at Charlevoix will be Sept. 14 and Canoe Races will paddle away from Honor Sept. 21-22.

The Fair schedule shows: Saline Community Fair, Sept. 3-7, at Saline; Allegan County Fair, Sept. 6-14, Allegan; Saginaw Fair at Saginaw, Sept. 7-14; St. Joseph County Fair, Centerville, Sept. 16-21; Hillsdale County Agricultural Fair, Sept. 22-28; Hillsdale; and the Marquette County Harvest Festival at Marquette, Sept. 26-28. And there's still more to enjoy during September's 30 days in Michigan. For a complete listing, write for a free copy of the Michigan Calendar of Travel Events from the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 48906. Michigan residents may now call for vacation information by dialing 1-800-292-2520.

All interested persons are invited to the kick-off meeting of the planning group of the Huron River Watershed Council on Wednesday, Oct. 2, 7:30 p.m. in the upstairs meeting room of the Hamburg Fire House, 7252 Stone St., Hamburg.

The agenda will include election of planning group leader and secretary, and organization for developing a plan for the natural rivers program.

ALL ABOUT FOOD

F. A. KENNEDY

Today I'd like to tell you some things I'll bet you didn't know about pineapples.

For instance, I always thought "pineapple" was practically Hawaii's middle name. But they aren't even native to Hawaii. They are believed to have been brought there by Polynesian settlers. In fact, the Hawaiian word for pineapple is "halekahi" which means "fruit from a foreign land!"

For that matter, the Hawaiians weren't even first to can pineapples commercially. Some enterprising Floridians got that idea, back in 1871. But the Hawaiians made up for lost time when they did start, and today they produce 70 per cent of the world's canned pineapple.

Fresh pineapples for the United States come chiefly from Mexico and Puerto Rico. But that doesn't really amount to much, because 90 per cent of the world's pineapples are canned. And that makes the pineapple second only to the peach in value as a canned fruit.

Curiously, it wasn't until 1932 that the first pineapple juice was canned. What happened to it before 1932? You won't believe this, but it was discarded as waste material and poured into the ocean!

Finally, pineapples are getting better all the time. The pineapple companies spend an estimated million dollars a year trying to make them even juicier and tastier than they already are... and they devote 150 acres on the Hawaiian island of Oahu to that one purpose.

So if you haven't enjoyed some pineapple recently, enjoy some today. You'll find Polly's is an Island of values.
