Bulldog Errors Result in Loss To Novi Team

Novi's Wildcats moved into undisputed control of the Southeastern Conference league lead Friday, taking advantage of Chelsea, 28-14. Chelsea's improved passing attack and solid defense that had emerged a week before in their defeat of Lincoln were simply not strong enough to overpower defending SEC champion Novi, now 3-0 in the conference.

Although the Bulldogs moved the ball offensively three times in the first half, they were unable to score. Novi, meanwhile, rolled up touchdowns on runs of one, 62, and 34 yards to take a 21-0 lead into the locker room at half-time.

In the second half, both squads returned to score despite a sloppy third quarter. Bulldog defensive end Tim Reed scooped up a Novi fumble on the Chelsea 18-yard line and raced 82 yards for the touchdown, putting the tally at 21-6.

Novi returned immediately, however, intercepting a Bulldog pass from 24 yards out to boost their lead to 28-6.

Quarterback Randy Guenther engineered the second Chelsea touchdown, going 74 yards in six plays. Howard Salter started by rushing for six yards, then grabbed a pass from Guenther which covered 44 yards.

Guenther then passed to Joel Sprague for six yards to move the ball to Novi's 24-yard line.

Cross Country Team Pushes For 1st Place

A Chelsea victory this afternoon over title-favored South Lyon will put Bulldog runners into a tie for first place in the SEC with only one league contest remaining prior to the league meet Oct. 23.

In cross country action this week, Bulldog runners edged out a veteran-packed Brighton squad, 27-28.

John Storey led local contestants with a time of 17:07, good for second place. Brighton's leading runner, Proulx, who took first, broke the course record at Brighton by some 20 seconds with a time of 16:23.

Other Chelsea placers were Dave Dawson, 4th place, 17:45; Rick Haller, 6th, 17:52; Morris Johnson, 7th, 17:59; Phil Frame, 8th, 18:06; and Mark Kern, 11th, 18:24.

Junior varsity runners also dominated.

ASSISTANCE BY THE TRUCKLOAD went from Chelsea to Honduran hurricane victims through the work of local students and teachers Mrs. Rosemarie Wotila and Mrs. Nancy Glibreath.

Two Loads of Clothing Collected For Honduran Hurricane Victims

Two pick-up trucks full of mostly clothing were collected this week-end in Chelsea High School students' drive to provide for Honduran hurricane victims. Mrs. Rosemarie Wotila, teacher at the high school, reports, "We collected articles, which included some canned food, have been delivered to the VFW post in Ann Arbor, where students hit a momentary snag when they were informed the VFW was no longer collecting the needed items."

Mrs. Wotila reports, however, that by Tuesday the collected goods were on their way. Clothing is still being collected by the Salvation Army, she noted, and food

Volunteer Labor, Money Needed To Complete Depot Restoration

"Elbow grease" was pinpointed a month ago by a member of the Michigan Association of Railroad Passengers (MARPA) as the item most in demand if Chelsea's long-unused and time-abused railroad depot is to be fit and proper for the Amtrak trains that are scheduled to stop there at the end of this month.

Elbow grease, however, seems to have gone the way of some other good old American virtues, if attendance at week-end renovating sessions at the depot is an indication.

Last Sunday, with the depot partially painted, the interior partition not installed, and the roof still leaking, seven people turned out to aid in the restoration of Chelsea's piece of Americana—and only two of them were from Chelsea.

"I think that people must have the misunderstanding that the depot is 'being restored' by some group," says Mrs. Carla Schwarze, a Chelseaite who did show up. "That's not true. It's not 'being done' by anyone else—if the depot gets fixed up, we have to do it. A lot of people drove by and looked last week-end, but not many stopped. We need some help."

Ten more painters, Mrs. Schwarze says, would probably be able to finish the painting chores this week-end. "And if they can, they should bring their own brushes."

Also needed are carpenters, to provide the necessary interior carpentry work that will seal the waiting area of the station off from the warehouse area still used by Gambles; electricians to install interior and exterior lighting; and landscapers to do a small-scale face-lift around the depot grounds.

"We really don't think that people realize how badly we need help; we can't see any other reason why people wouldn't be out here helping us," Mrs. Schwarze adds.

Another unexpected problem that the restorers have encountered is the uncomfortable discovery that the roof of the old structure leaks.

"We're going to have to have the roof repaired," Mrs. Schwarze admits. "Or replaced. So another thing that we need right now, besides people's help, is money." Any donations for the roof project can be given to Sam Johnson at Gambles.

Workers will continue their labors at the depot Saturday morning and Sunday after 1 p.m.

Fall Recreation Program Starts Oct. 20 With New Offerings

Some old and some new will be on this year's Chelsea Recreation Council fall program, scheduled to begin Oct. 21, says Recreation director, Tom Balistrere.

Returning for repeat performance as part of this year's program will be flower arranging and cake decorating, included in Christmas Crafts, taught by Gloria Greenleaf, with emphasis including both interior and exterior home decorations for the home; "Ladies Night Out," a taught by Chelsea High School physical education teacher Terry

Schreiner, with emphasis on basic recreational skills designed entirely for the women in the community; and ceramics, taught by Miss Barbara Van Reis, who is completing a double major in art at the University of Michigan.

Among new course offerings this year are "Introduction to Bridge," taught by Charles Waller, designed to cover the basic mechanics of playing bridge; Tae Kwon Doe, a self-defense course taught by Dr. Dennis Burke, a second degree black belt, and Dwight Derow, a third degree black belt; and a volleyball course; which Director Balistrere hopes will emerge as a co-educational league.

Any person 18 years or older is eligible to register in any class. Exceptions in regard to age must be cleared with the director prior to enrollment in the class. Fees have been decided according to course content and materials needed or length of the class.

Registration may be completed with the director, instructor, or at the first meeting of the class.

Director Balistrere notes that classes must have sufficient enrollees to defray costs of instruction, or the class will be cancelled.

Suggestions of other activities not offered by the program should be directed to Balistrere at 475-8511.

Course specifics are as follows:

Course: Ladies Night Out.
Instructor: Monday, Oct. 21, ends Dec. 2.
Time: 8 to 10 p.m.
Place: High School gymnasium.

Everything 'Go' for JC Chicken Barbecue

For 13 years, Chelsea Jaycees have had chicken on the menu for their annual fall barbecue, but so far no one is complaining about the lack of variety.

Once again this Sunday, Oct. 13, Jaycee chefs Hank Ortring, Jim Gaken, and Joe Doering will serve up culinary masterpieces of barbecued chicken, dinner rolls, potato chips, and cole slaw, boxed for those who wish to proceed from the barbecue site to an afternoon of color-touring.

Jaycees will provide those interested in the autumn colors of the area with maps and poster routes of the Pinckney Recreation Areas. For those not up for adventuring off into nature's autumn show, Jaycees will set up chairs and tables near the 75-foot concrete block pit where dinner will be cooked.

A total of 1,500 chicken dinners will be available at a price of $2.25 per dinner. Proceeds from the annual barbecue finance Jaycee community service projects.

Methodist Home Starts $8 Million Expansion, Improvement Program

Balistrere Invited To Address EMU Recreation Class

Chelsea Recreation Director Tom Balistrere will speak at Eastern Michigan University Oct. 14 regarding Chelsea's Earn, Learn, and Play Program.

Balistrere will address a class of 50 students enrolled in a community recreation course.

Golfers Finish Second in Conference

Chelsea linksmen completed fall league dual match play with a 5-2 record and finished second in the Southeastern Conference meet to conclude fall league competition.

In their final week of league action, Chelsea downed Milan, 177-182, with Dan Barnes shooting a 42, Jeff Policht a 44, Mike Fouty a 45, and Roger Policht a 46.

Local golfers fell to a tough Dexter squad Thursday, however, 171-192. Mike Fouty led Chelsea's effort with a 43, while Jeff Policht added a 47, Don Harmon a 50, and Chris Rabbitt a 52.

Ground-Breaking Ceremony Slated Sunday Afternoon

Sixty-eight years ago, almost to the day, "sod-turning" was started for the first building of what is now called the Chelsea United Methodist Home.

In three days, this Sunday, Oct. 13, ground-breaking ceremonies will be conducted at the Home initiating an $8 million enlargement and improvement program that is designed "to provide a totally supportive retirement community for an elderly population of 300 persons."

Two major additions are planned: first, the addition of a 120-bed nursing wing to replace the current 60-bed nursing area. This wing will consolidate the dependent residents into one area, eliminate current code violations on the nursing floors, and improve supervision and control of the medical and dependent resident areas.

The 120-bed area will be created from the present nursing area and the "dormitory room" areas; some of the dormitory type rooms will also be converted into rooms with semi-private baths.

The second area of expansion is the kitchen and dining areas, which will be expanded into the other addition. The link that will stretch across the existing interior courtyard is planned to be an "epicenter," a major activity space where many of the communal needs of the residents, including such facilities as a post office, snack bar, and beauty shop, will be located.

In addition, the roof of the epicenter is expected to be landscaped, to maintain the view of greenery that has until now been enjoyed by residents whose windows overlook the courtyard.

In existing facilities, major renovations have been planned to replace old and obsolete spaces, rectify code violations, enlarge or relocate existing spaces, and improve the standard of safety.

New Autos Damaged in Dealer Lot

Nine automobiles parked at Village Motor Sales were damaged last week, apparently by some unknown persons who kicked in fenders and grills of the various cars.

Tom Sticks and Donald Knoll told officers they discovered the damage when they arrived at the dealership last Thursday morning.

The cars, six of which were 1975 models, suffered damages totaling $761. Police took an impression of a size 7 or 8 shoe with high heels from the damage on one of the cars, reports said. Officers are continuing their investigation.

Sunday morning, officers responded to a call from the Checker Service Station, in which the manager of the station reported that a 15-foot section of air hose, with air gauge, had been cut off from an outside fixture during the night.

The hose and gauge were valued at $25. Officers have no suspects in the case.

Also on Sunday, officers received a report of a bicycle stolen from 777 S. Main.

The bicycle, a red, 27-inch, five-speed Schwinn, had Chelsea license number 447, serial number EH 095639.

The bicycle was apparently stolen sometime between 8:30 and

Fund Started For Depot Restoration

To obtain funds for shingles, paint, and much-needed roof repair, Chelsea Kiwanis Club has begun a fund-raising drive centered around the restoration of the Chelsea railroad depot.

Donators to "Chelsea Railroad Station 1974" restoration will have their names appear on a plaque to be hung in the station, Kiwanis Club says.

Checks should be made payable to the Chelsea Railroad Depot Fund and mailed to the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, Chelsea 48118.

A pair of Amtrak trains are scheduled to begin stopping in Chelsea daily at the end of October.

$25,000 CONTRIBUTOR: Jack Reed, plant manager of Dana Corporation, Chelsea, presents check from Dana, Holmes reports that currently the funding drive has hit a total of $6.3 million, with a $7.5 million goal.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers at the country store studied this country's problems up one side and down the other Saturday night, and it was final agreed in a majority opinion spoke by Ed Doolittle that, as usual, the only hope we got is the good old USDA.

The new Department of Agriculture plan, allowed Ed, is the best idea to come down the pike since the Army called a shovel a manual operated excavating tool.

It was Ed that had saw in one of his USDA pamphlets where we are going to solve all our problems by just reclassifying em. The Agriculture folks in Washington is setting the example by getting more meat on the market.

The extra supply of meat will come by changing the grades of meat. We can let more of our choice grade get into the prime class, Ed told the fellers, and that makes more room in the choice class for some of the cuts that has been hard to move out of cold storage.

Actual, went on Ed, what would be left after we set up a new choice class would be graded too tough to chew, but by the time you git it ground up and mixed with soybeans and all them other "extenders" we'll never know we're eating closer to the bone than under the old grading plan.

Ed said it looked to him like the USDA meat grading idee is like raising the class of folks in the neighborhood by letting more of em in the country club. You got the same people, you jest got neckties on more of em, was Clem's words.

Clem Webster said the meat grade plan reminded him of the feller that said he had figgered out a way to keep the wolf from his door. He's going to call the wolf a dog. The USDA plan will work to git all prime beef out of reach of the average working man, Clem said, and it'll leave him with upgraded gristle that the wolf at his door would have a hard time getting down. We might as well tell the feller with a flat to down-grade the pounds of air it takes to fill a tire and go on about his business.

Farthermore, went on Clem, if the USDA plan spreads we'll have to come out with new rules for everything. Right now, Clem said, we got grades for water and air that change ever time Government experts review em. Clem said he saw by the paper where towns that had sewage treatment plants that met the water standards were in a latter cause the streams the plants is on has been classified to a higher level.

Practical speaking, broke in Zeke Grubb, he would like to see grades of crime changed in line with the USDA meat plan. Zeke said he would move driving drunk up to side with murder and kidnap, and he would jump throwing beer cans along the road to a life sentence. The real worst crimes now would be moved up to automatic hanging, and Zeke said that would cut off a heap of repeat business at the top grade.

Personal, Mister Editor, I was in the minority on the USDA plan. A steak by any name is rare at my house.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew

Feeder Cattle Graded By State Before Fall Sales

Feeder cattle to be sold at six sales in northern Michigan this month are being graded by Marketing division personnel of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

This fall's sales, totaling an estimated 11,500 head of calves and yearlings, are scheduled for Oct. 7 at Paulding, Oct. 8 at Rapid River, Oct. 10 at Gaylord, Oct. 15 at Alpena, Oct. 16 at West Branch and Oct. 18 at Baldwin.

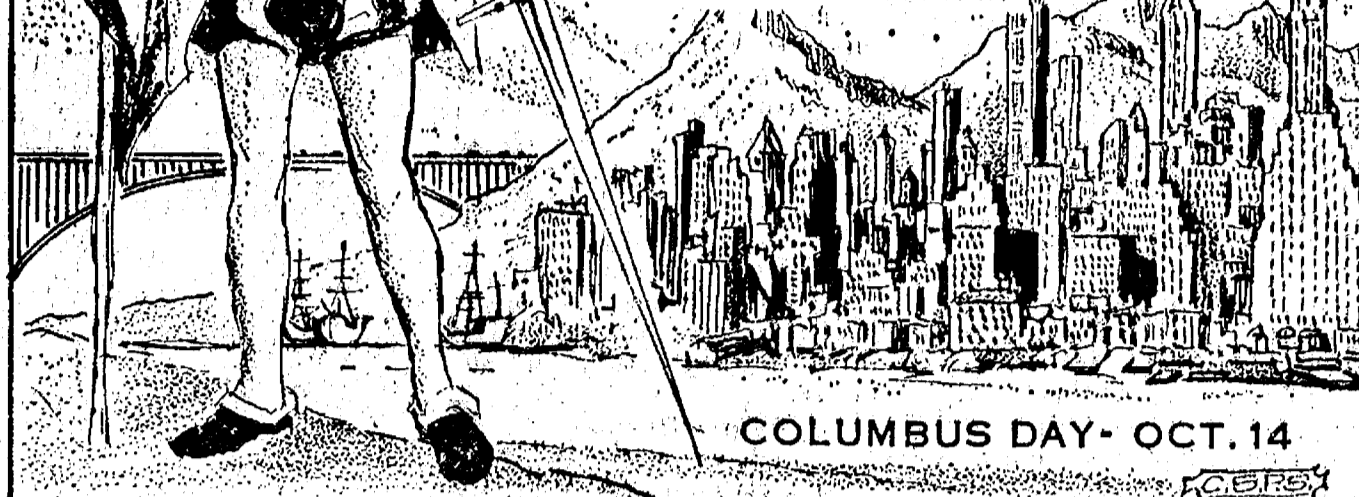

"MDA co-operates in operation of the sales at the request of the sellers," said B. Dale Ball, MDA director. "Government grading assures sellers and feedlot owners and other buyers a fair, skilled appraisal of the animals and assists in putting together larger, more uniform lots of cattle to improve marketing of Michigan beef."

According to Dr. Ralph Morrow, deputy director, Bureau of Agricultural Development, before the auction the breed, sex, weight and ownership of each animal is recorded. "Each calf or yearling is given a grade, such as standard, good, choice or prime feeder cattle. Cattle are penned by these classifications and, by morning of the sale days, are ready for inspection by prospective buyers," Morrow said.

MDA graders receive special training each year at a feeder cattle grading clinic.

More veterans have attended college under the Vietnam GI Bill than under any other GI Bill in the Nation's history. Of these two million veterans and more, nearly 100,000 are servicemen on active duty.

From the first footfall upon this green land, America has been blessed with strong men and women who have fostered a heritage of freedom and justice for all. In 1974 this land-- America-- stretches from the Gulf to Canada; from the Atlantic to the Pacific; it is farms, villages, cities, deserts, plains, forests and mountains. And it is people. We share diverse national origins; we are of many creeds, and always, in moments of local or national emergencies, each of us, in his own way, re-discovers the true America.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Enough Shots?

Most youngsters hate shots. But consider the possible consequences of failing to have your child immunized: polio, measles, rubella, mumps, diphtheria, pertussis, tetanus.

October--Immunization Action Month in Michigan--is the time to think about shots and disease.

State officials say nearly one-half the children in Michigan need to update their immunization status against polio, measles or rubella. And others lack full protection against the other mentioned diseases.

Folks behind the immunization drive--health agencies, drug firms and the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, Ga. say that immunization levels among pre-school children have been decreasing "at an alarming rate" in this country recently.

Just one example: immunization levels for polio dropped to 60.4 percent last year, from a high of more than 84 percent 10 years earlier.

Michigan ranked highest in the country with its 5,293 reported cases of mumps from the beginning of this year through late July. The state was second highest with 1,139 reported cases of rubella, and fourth highest with 1,882 reported cases of measles during the same time period.

While it's noted that some states might not have as good reporting facilities as Michigan, the figures bring home the need for parents to check their children's immunization status.

Officials offer this reminder too. The state provides vaccines to all local health departments at no charge. The departments in turn administer vaccines to children and offer them to physicians upon request.

No Money from Lawyers

The hassle over whether it's proper for judicial candidates to ask for and accept campaign contributions from lawyers may be calming down these days, thanks to the new Canons of Judicial Ethics recently adopted by the Michigan Supreme Court.

Under those Canons, the high court said lawyers may not be solicited for more than $100 by any judge's campaign committee. But the Canons placed no ceiling on the amount lawyers could contribute to judges.

At least one candidate for a top judicial post figures that's fine as a minimum standard. He, however, plans to neither solicit nor accept campaign money from lawyers.

The candidate is Supreme Court Justice John W. Fitzgerald, who voted for the Canons.

"Though the new Judicial Canons of Ethics permit judges and justices to accept such campaign funds, it is my personal decision that I will not take money from any lawyer to finance my candidacy for the Supreme Court," Fitzgerald says.

"The Canons contain many good provisions," Fitzgerald explains, "but they are a compromise. Any candidate is free to set his own higher standards."

Stopping Shorter

At 70 miles per hour, it takes 346 feet to stop. Cut that speed to 55 and there's a dramatic drop--some 125 feet--in the space needed to stop a vehicle, and thus, an increase in driver control over the car.

That, says Michigan's Office of Highway Safety Planning, is "an obvious and significant factor" in favor of the lower speed as a maximum.

The notation is included in a report from the office to Gov. William Milliken. The report recommends keeping Michigan's maximum speed at 55, at least until mid-1975.

The lower speed limit, formally imposed last March, helped reduce Michigan's traffic fatalities.

"It would be wrong to claim that the 55 mph reduction is solely responsible" for such reductions, the report says. It cites other factors such as decreases in traffic volume, changes in driving patterns, "public zeal for fuel conservation" and decreased gasoline availability.

"Note, however," the report urges, "that our favorable crash experience has continued in recent months (although to a lesser extent), even though those 'other factors' have largely dissipated." More in-depth analyses of the relationship of the lower speed limit to fatal highway crashes should be conducted before any decision is made on how to proceed after next year, the report says.

It also recommends consideration of "various social and economic aspects of this issue."

Deer Creating Traffic Hazard On Area Roads

It isn't even deer season, and a pretty little fawn met its fate Friday at the Chrysler Proving Grounds near Chelsea.

With the cold weather approaching, says John Carrafino, conservation officer with the Department of Natural Resources, the deer are moving around and many are hit, not only at the proving grounds, but on the roads.

Carrafino took the deer to be dressed out and the meat will be distributed to needy persons, he said.

NUTRIENTS

The National Research Council's Food and Nutrition Board has concluded that significant numbers of Americans suffer a variety of vitamin and mineral deficiencies. They recommend that all foods made of wheat, corn and rice be enriched with 10 essential nutrients.

PLANT EVERGREENS!

A good time to plant our home-grown evergreens; and at LOW, LOW PRICES! Do you realize that $50 will buy about 20 fresh-cut potted pines, spruces or cedars of nice planting size? This often will increase the value of your property by $1,000 or more in a few short years, providing you take care of your trees like I take care of mine. Compare that by saving $50 cash and putting it in your sock or in the bank. What will you have left in a few short years? Think about it!

IN THE PAINTING STAGE are renovations of Chelsea's depot, as the old faded green gives way to light green and forest green, the old Michigan Central colors that adorned the original building. At mid-week, workers reported that more painters, carpenters, electricians, landscapers, and generally more workers are needed if the fix-up job of the depot is to be completed by the end of this month, when Amtrak trains will begin stopping at the depot twice daily.

ASK THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Milliken

Question: I keep hearing people say that you politicians in Lansing are scheming to get a tax increase out of us very soon. Is that true?

Governor: No. Recently, I sent to the legislature an update of Michigan's budget situation in which I emphasized that it is possible for us to manage a Civil Service pay increase, meet our current needs, and provide for a reasonable increase in spending to meet future needs without an increase in taxes in the 1975-76 fiscal year. I am convinced that this can even be done if the voters of the state approve the Proposal B Veterans Bonus and the Proposal D Transportation Bonding in November.

It is my firm intention to prepare for the legislature next January a balanced budget that will meet our essential obligations, with revenues derived from existing taxes. It is not my intention to recommend increased taxation in 1975.

During the last two years, we have enacted tax relief programs that will total more than one-half billion dollars—tax relief that will be of benefit to virtually every taxpayer in the state.

I believe that it would be a violation of faith to all the citizens of Michigan to come back immediately after the election or early in the spring and raise taxes. I do not believe it is necessary and I do not believe it should be done.

Question: I have read about a bill to cut down on auto repair cheats and frauds, but it seems like it is not getting anywhere. What has happened to that bill?

Governor: Final legislative approval of a bill to regulate the auto repair industry in Michigan during the closing hours of this past legislative session helped to make this session highly productive for legislators and extremely significant for the consumers of this state.

The bill—which I strongly supported—represents a major step toward the protection of one of Michigan's largest consumer groups—the motoring public. It also is an important first step toward upgrading the skills of mechanics in our state. The new Auto Repair law will require all automobile repair facilities in the state—excluding gas stations which registered with the Secretary of State. It requires that the customer be provided with a written estimate before repairs are begun and provides that the total cost of repairs shall not exceed the estimate unless approved by the customer. It also gives the customer the right to look at all parts which were repaired on his vehicle.

It requires that auto repair firms possess a surety bond and that—as of Dec. 31, 1977—all facilities have at least one master mechanic or specialty mechanics.

It creates a program for mechanic training and gives the Secretary of State the power to take action against firms that utilize unfair or deceptive practices in the course of their business.

Passage of the bill—the most comprehensive auto repair legislation in the country—is a significant step toward better protection for the consumers of Michigan.

Question: You seem to spend an inordinate amount of time on the question of rail service. I don't care to travel by train, so what does it mean to me? Governor: Agriculture, Michigan's third largest industry, and all of outstate and rural Michigan have a major stake in our efforts to reverse the deterioration of the state's railroad network. That was demonstrated in a review by the Department of State Highways and Transportation on the extent that agriculture relies on rail transportation.

Of particular importance are the efforts to get the federal government to curtail its proposals for rail abandonment, and the efforts to secure voter approval in November of the Proposal D $1.1 billion bond issue.

In fact, 53 of Michigan's 83 counties ship more than 50 percent of their production by rail. Inbound, more than 50 percent of the feed, fertilizer, seed, lime, chemicals, farm machinery and other supplies to Michigan farmers arrive by rail.

The majority of lines classified by the U.S. Department of Transportation as "potentially excess" are in rural, agricultural areas. Although I have received assurances in response to my protest of the initial federal abandonment proposal that it will not be as extensive as first thought, the state still needs to develop a strong case for retention. As part of this effort, I have asked the Department for information on the importance of rails to Michigan's agricultural economy.

Letters to the Editor

Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners
County Building
Ann Arbor, Michigan 48108

This resolution was approved by our membership meeting. All 1,200 members in Washtenaw, Lenawee and Monroe counties will receive a copy in October.

Whereas the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority has plans to build the Mill Creek Metropark in Lima and Freedom Townships of Washtenaw County; and

Whereas intensive day-use recreational opportunities should be located as close as possible to population centers; and

Whereas the Mill Creek site is distant and therefore inaccessible to thousands in the metropolitan areas who need recreation most; and

Whereas the proposed Mill Creek Metropark would destroy thousands of acres of excellent farmland; and

Whereas an intensive day-use park can be created on most any soil types; and

Whereas damming Mill Creek to create an impoundment would destroy marshes and woods, and disturb natural ecological systems in the Mill Creek watershed;

Be it resolved that the Tri-County Sportsman's League hereby urges the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners to withdraw its support of the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority's proposed Mill Creek Metropark and request the H.C.M.A. to cease all action relative to the proposed project.

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be sent to the following: Governor William G. Milliken; Hillary Snell, Chairman, Michigan Natural Resources Commission; David H. Jenkins, Acting Director, Michigan Department of Natural Resources; John D. Cherry, Regional Director, U.S. Bureau of Outdoor Recreation; Senator Gilbert E. Bursley; Representative Hal W. Ziegler; Representative Raymond J. Smith; Representative Perry Bullard; Roger Wenk, President, Michigan United Conservation Clubs; James V. Stable, Editor, Michigan Out-Of-Doors; David O. Laidlaw, Director, Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

Sincerely,

Dan Robbins, chairman

It is a volunteer program that links retired businessmen and women who have management expertise with the owners and managers of small business and community organizations that need management counseling. SCORE has responded to more than 200,000 requests for assistance since its inception in 1964.

The Service Corps of Retired Executives needs retired men and women with the required experience to counsel on business-related problems. Local needs dictate more specific qualifications. There are now more than 200 SCORE chapters across the country encompassing 4,600 volunteers. SCORE volunteers work in their home community or in a nearby one. There are very few forms of private enterprise that have not received their assistance. Included are grocery and drug stores, restaurants, hardware stores, fast food franchisers, repair shops, dry cleaners, clothing stores, truckers, and a wide variety of

Preparing Meat for Home Freezer

Protect your meat dollar by always wrapping meat properly before freezing.

Foods and nutrition specialists at Michigan State University explain that moisture-vapor-proof wrapping is important to maintain the quality of frozen foods.

Because freezer air is very cold and dry, improperly wrapped foods lose their moisture, flavor and quality.

So to protect your meat, use freezer foil or plastic wrap. Waxed paper and butcher paper aren't good for freezing because they aren't moisture-proof and can't be sealed airtight. Meat frozen in them will be dry, tasteless and possibly discolored.

Novi, Saline Ramble on Past Opponents Toward Showdown

Novi roared over Chelsea, 28-14, and Saline pounded Milan's Big Reds into submission, 28-6, to set the stage for next week's Hornet challenge of the Wildcat league-lead.

Saline 28, Milan 6—

Hornets jumped to a 13-0 half time lead over previously undefeated Milan, with two long plays, a 45-yard touchdown bomb from Tim Slesky to Don Scotten and a 55-yard interception run, accounting for Saline's first half scoring.

Milan's Kevin Keefe came back with an 11-yard TD run, but the Hornets continued their scoring binge with another pair of touchdowns in the final quarter, scored by Kaufmann and Vanderpool.

The Saline victory put the Hornets into prime position to challenge undefeated Novi when the squads meet Friday.

Novi 28, Chelsea 14—

Chelsea's new-passing attack and insurmountable defense all came to naught last Friday as Novi's Wildcats overwhelmed the Bulldogs at their own defensive game, then scored on a series of Chelsea errors.

Although Chelsea managed to gain scoring position a number of times, chalking up a total of more than 150 yards total offense, Wildcat defenders consistently held Chelsea in.

Wildcats scored on a fumble, an interception, a 63-yard run from scrimmage, and a 77-yard drive.

Chelsea's first scoring came in the third period following error-ridden opening moments, when Tim Reed grabbed a Novi fumble and charged 87 yards for the Bulldogs' first six points. Only other Chelsea scoring came on a Randy Guenther pass to Dave Pletcher.

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture advise consumers to cut costs by taking advantage of foods in seasonal abundance. During October, plentiful Michigan foods include major vegetable crops of cauliflower, cabbage, onions, celery and carrots. Other locally grown vegetables available are squash, rutabagas and turnips.

Vegetables in season usually cost less. They also give you the benefit of better, fresher flavor. Nutritionists recommend three to five servings daily from the vegetable-fruit group to supply nutrients vital to good health.

You can prepare vegetables in several ways to please any finicky eater. Bake, braise, stuff, steam, pan fry or broil vegetables, by themselves or with added ingredients. Spices and herbs will enhance the natural flavor. A buttered, creamed, scalloped, candied or au gratin vegetable dish is an appealing variation and sometimes a meal in itself.

For variations in serving, dress whole, cooked, drained cauliflower sprinkle with 1/4 teaspoon each of chopped chives and parsley. Or, spoon hollandaise sauce over it and garnish.

Dexter 14, Brighton 0—

Dexter's grotesque 21-game losing streak came to a healthy end Friday night, when the Dreadnaughts trounced Brighton, 14-0, for their first win since the final game of the 1971 season.

After playing to a scoreless tie to halftime, Rob Toth ran the opening kick-off back 80 yards for six points, then Joe Toma took a two-point conversion pass from Mark Cunningham to make it 8-0. In the fourth quarter, it was Toma and Toth again, when Toma grabbed a Bulldog fumble, and Toth took an option pitchout down to the one-yard line, scoring two plays later.

Dreadnaughts will challenge Lincoln Friday.

South Lyon 20, Lincoln 18—

Lincoln dropped into sole possession of doormat status in the SEC with Friday's loss to South Lyon.

The contest was made especially obnoxious to the Railsplitters by the fact that they were beaten by only two successful Lion kicks for points after. Railsplitters led at the end of the first quarter, 18-6.

IMPACT OF INFLATION on non-urban parts of the Sixth Congressional District was the theme of this discussion last week between Clifford W. Taylor, Republican candidate for the Sixth District seat, and Jake and Larry Grant, 6393 Jackson Rd. Taylor stated, "The problem of inflation hits people in the pocketbook no matter where they live, and the only way to stop it is for the Congress of the United States to take immediate and effective action to reduce and bring into balance the national budget."

Pickle Making Can Be Tricky

Ever had one batch of pickles turn out fine and the next batch, made from the same recipe, turn out different?

Don't blame your kitchen gremlin. Weather, growing conditions and the time that passes between pickling and pickling can make for pickle problems.

Using vinegar with more or less 4 to 7 percent acidity will throw your recipe off. Table salt is a no-no; use only pure kosher or pickling salt.

The recipe may be the source of your problem. Some methods just seem to work better than others.

Mistakes in measuring ingredients are easy and common mistakes. So is failure to process pickles in a boiling water bath. A boiling water bath is needed to kill spoilage organisms and inactivate enzymes that cause undesirable changes in color, flavor and texture.

Even the way you store pickles can make them turn out funny. Temperature is a key factor. Pickles should be stored at room temperature in a dry, dark place until the jars are opened. Then keep them in the refrigerator.

If your jars of pickles didn't seal, it might be a good idea to review your pickling procedure. Lids often won't seal or quickly lose their seal if you use them on nonstandard jars. Use only regulation canning jars—not mayonnaise, peanut butter or applesauce jars.

The water bath method is the recommended canning method for pickles. For a good seal, have the pickling solution boiling hot when you pour it in the jars. Fill and cap one jar at a time so the liquid doesn't have time to cool down before you put the lid on and screw the band tight.

Filling several jars with cold cucumbers, pouring hot pickling solution over them and then capping the jars will allow the jars and liquid to cool. All the air will not be forced out of the cucumbers and jars; and the lids, if they seal at all, will loosen in a few days.

QUESTIONS ON PICKLES

Q. Why can't you make pickles in a galvanized metal container?

A. Acidic foods like pickles, fruits, juices, tomatoes and punch should never be placed in galvanized metal containers because the acid in them dissolves the zinc coating on the metal, and this makes the foods poisonous. For the same reason, do not use galvanized containers for brining pickles, processing olives or making sauerkraut. Acid forms during the processing of these foods.

Q. My home-made pickles have darkened. Are they safe to eat?

A. Darkening may be caused by corrosion of the metal lids on the jars, by the iron present in your water or by iron utensils used in making the pickles. Using ground spices rather than whole ones, packing spices in with pickles or using too much of one or more spices can also cause pickles to darken. Though not attractive, they are safe to eat.

Q. I found an old pickle recipe my grandmother used, and it calls for alum to be added. Why?

A. Alum was used to help make pickles crisp. If other conditions are controlled you don't need to use it.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

KINDERGARTEN—

Teacher: Mrs. Michelson
“Yes, school is where you work too.”
“I know, but sometimes it's hard.”
“It's not—not when you do it!”
“We come to school to find out.”
We learn to follow directions, listen, know rules of safety and try to be responsible for keeping our room in order. Colors and shapes are everywhere and we try to remember what they are called.

Mr. Brier came to school with a school bus and told us how to be safe on a bus. Mr. Coelius' class came to tell us about safety. They had a very good program. “It was neat.”

Science—Things we find and see are exciting. Some children brought insects and animals and praying mantis. We also had crickets, locust, grasshoppers, many kinds of frogs and toads, and turtles, a salamander, caterpillar, woolly bear, tree hopper, a turtle shell, leaves, nuts, shells, evergreens, and food for our two guinea pigs. Scatter and Butterscotch.

We talked about our visit to Frisinger's Farm for a long time. Weren't they nice to have us? We are going to the fire station too.

FIRST GRADES—

Teachers: Mrs. Packard, Mrs. Peebles and Mrs. Stein
Hello and welcome back. We are finally settled into our routine and finding 1st grade is harder work than kindergarten.

In reading we have read The Bus Ride, and Head to Feet. Some of the children have taken The Bus Ride home to read. The rest will be taking it soon, since we share them. We are working on beginning letter sounds also. All the color words have been taught to the children and most are able to read these.

In math, we are working on matching the numerals and their sets 0-10. The children are able to do them in proper order and out of order.

Have you heard about Magic Circle? Three days a week we break into small groups with Mr. Meyer and Mrs. Miller and talk about our thoughts and feelings and get to know one another better.

We are talking about signs of fall and have taken a walk to collect some of these signs.

Mrs. Packard's room 1's two teachers this semester. Mrs. Lapanski is doing her student teaching in our room. She is a student at EMU.

Chris Vanderwaard is coming from the high school for an hour three days a week to help in Mrs. Stein's room.

All the 1st grades have two high school students from Mr. Coelius' advanced speech class come one day a week and tell or read a story.
Happy birthdays for September go to Marie Kapolka, Chuckie Downer, Clayton Clark, Jeffrey Wheaton, Theresa Carlson, Nancy Case, Scott Rowe, Steven Smith and Melinda Fletcher.

October birthdays are: Donald Merkel, Ronald Heydauff, Valerie Hosler, Laura Ramsey, Andy Morgan, Anne Albrecht and Darla Simonson.

Good-by—See you next month.

SECOND GRADE—

Teacher: Mrs. Walton
September was a busy month for learning rules and getting settled down for work.

We were waiting for Rebecca to come back from California and she is finally here.

Mark brought his two gerbils from home. They like to be held, but not squeezed or dropped.

We have been going to the library every week to check out two books. We have also been doing something special called the Magic Circle. Mr. Meyer and Mrs. Miller help us with it. Brenda, a senior at the high school, comes every morning to help us with reading. Andy and Martin have birthdays in October.

ART—

Mrs. Coulam, teacher.
Classes K-1-2

Our 1st graders are currently building trees from leaf rubbings. We made them by rubbing the side of a crayon on paper laid over real leaves. We then cut out our leaves and attached them to cut out tree trunks.

Second grade students have just completed autumn pictures. We learned that far away things in pictures are smaller than close-up things, and that they are drawn higher up on the paper.

Scholarship Tests Starting At High School

A number of college and test-related announcements are once again oozing out of Chelsea High School's counseling office to remind students of their responsibilities for the future.

Saturday, Oct. 19, Chelsea High School will again be a test center for the American College Test (ACT). Registration has closed for this test; however, registration for the next testing session, Dec. 14, is open until Nov. 18.

Any senior interested in participating in Navy, Army, or Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) at college and interested in ROTC scholarships must register for the SAT by Oct. 24.

Counselors also noted that seniors should pick up copies of the Parents' Confidential Financial Statement if they intend to continue in school and are seeking scholarships or other financial assistance. ## Golfers Finish Second in Conference

Chelsea finished six strokes behind Dexter in the SEC meet Monday, with a fine 331 team score.

For Chelsea, Mike Fouty shot 81, Jeff Policht, 82, Roger Policht, 82, and Chris Rabbitt, 85.

Dexter totalled a 325 team score. Medalist in the meet was Doug Gross with a 75.

Standings for the meet were Milan, third place; Saline, fourth; Novi, fifth; Brighton, sixth; South Lyon seventh; and Lincoln, eighth.

Second phase of the golf schedule will be played in the spring, and fall and spring totals will be combined to determine the champion in the spring.

Bulldog golfers were scheduled to play a dual match with Willow Run Wednesday, and will travel to Marshall Saturday to compete in the State Class B Regional.

Vietnam Bonus Proposal Endorsed By Milliken, Levin

Tuesday, Nov. 5, Michigan voters will enter the voting booth to exercise their privilege of franchise. At this time the voter will find a question on the ballot of whether or not Michigan Vietnam veterans should be paid a military bonus.

Early in May of this year Governor Milliken signed legislation placing this question on the ballot. At the time the Governor signed the legislation he said, “Michigan's Vietnam veterans, like ‘Vietnam’ veterans all across this nation, are finding that jobs are not easy to obtain; that inflation is eating into their savings; and that the transition from military life to civilian life is not an easy one. We can help to make that transition a smooth and successful one—and one way to do that is to approve the Vietnam bonus proposal in November.”

Michigan paid a bonus to its World War I, World War II and Korean Conflict veterans. The World War II bonus cost the State of Michigan $220,186,120 for 618,250 eligible veterans. The Korean Conflict bonus totaled $7,481,775, paid to 209,348 applicants. In addition, a total of $935,920 was paid to 1,888 eligible beneficiaries. The beneficiary benefit total for the World War II bonus is included in the total payment figure.

Sander Levin, Democratic nominee for the Governorship, has also gone on record favoring the payment of a Vietnam bonus. He said that “Military service is in many ways the most demanding service a citizen renders his or her country. This ballot proposal will provide these veterans a bonus that goes a little way toward recompensing them for substantial personal sacrifice.”

To be eligible for the bonus a veteran must have been a resident of the State of Michigan for at least six months prior to entry into service and must have had at least 180 days of honorable service during the period of service, evidenced by an honorable or general discharge or separation under honorable conditions. Persons currently in service must qualify in the same manner as the veteran or combat veteran.

Novice squads pulled in “very good records,” according to Coach Coelius, considering that this was their first competition ever. The first team of Mike Hastings, Rick Haller, Ken Brown, and Erin Headrick turned in a tournament record of 5-3, while a team (including substitutes) of Dave Pletcher, Julia Chapman, Doug Wenk, Steve LaBarbara, Doug Foreman, Barbara Hinderer, and Don Morris finished the competition at 4-4.

Junior varsity finished with an 0-8 record.

Next competition for the entire debate squad will be Saturday, Oct. 26, at Jackson Community College.

Defensively Chelsea was led by George Menge, who rolled up 14 tackles; Dale Headrick with 10; Scott Owings, Bruce Stubbs, Rick Davis, eight; Joe Branham, six; John Adams, five; and Howard Bush, three.

Tonight (Thursday) comes the test of Junior Bulldog strength, as Brighton's Junior Bulldogs come to Chelsea at 7 p.m. for a contest that will decide the Southeastern Conference championship at the JV level.

“Brighton's JV has rolled over three straight SEC foes,” says Coach Jon Schaffner, “and the kids who are junior varsity haven't lost in two years. Last year as freshmen they rolled up 256 points and allowed 16.”

Jeff Daniels Appearing in CMU Play

Chelsea native Jeff Daniels, a sophomore at Central Michigan University, will appear in CMU's University Theatre production of “The Caretaker,” directed by Eugene E. Rydahl and scheduled for Oct. 18-19 in the Fred R. Bush Theatre on the campus at 8 p.m. Jeff, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels, 665 Washington St., and a 1973 graduate of Chelsea High School, is majoring in theatre and English, and portrays “Aston” in the play.

“The Caretaker” concerns an old tramp, rescued from a fight and taken back by a kind, but slow-witted man to his home shared by himself and his brother. The tramp establishes bonds with each of the brothers. Each tries to woo him away from the other by offering him as job as caretaker. The tramp misuses the trust of both brothers and pays for it in the end, losing the support of both men.

Debate Teams Score Well in Tournament

Chelsea debaters managed a “fairly good” afternoon of competition last Saturday at the Pioneer High school tournament in their first outing with a complete team.

Coach William Coelius entered two swing-side varsity teams in the debate, with Brad Glazier and Brenda Shadoan rolling up a 1-3 record, and a team of Paul Marshall and Kurt Allhouse finishing even at 2-2.

Marshall and Allhouse, as one of the top 16 team entrants in the debate, qualified for the championship division of the Huron High school tournament next weekend by virtue of their speaker points.

Home Nursing Course Offered By Red Cross

Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross will offer a course in Home Nursing starting Wednesday, Oct. 30, from 1 to 3 p.m. at Chapter Headquarters, 2729 Packard Rd., Ann Arbor.

There will be five sessions on consecutive Wednesdays. It is especially designed for homemakers and potential homemakers. It is based on two premises: (1) that the care of the sick at home is a family affair and (2) that basic nursing procedures can readily be adapted to the care of mass casualties in the event of a major disaster.

Home nursing instruction offers people the opportunity to learn how to make the best use of time, energy, and material, how to carry out their doctor's orders and how to apply what they have learned to a variety of changing situations.

Those interested in attending may call 971-5300 to register. Since enrollment is limited, this should be done as soon as possible.

First Aid Course Starting Nov. 5 Offered By Red Cross

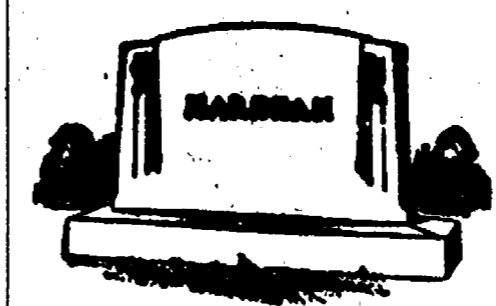

The new Red Cross Standard First Aid and Personal Safety course will be offered by the Washtenaw County Chapter starting Tuesday, Nov. 5. Classes will meet weekly from 7 till 10 p.m. for seven weeks and will be held at the Red Cross Operations Center, 2729 Packard Road, Ann Arbor.

The new course is extended in content, skills and length and represents a real change from the “green book” course that was so familiar for years. In addition to the basic life-saving skills such as artificial respiration, bleeding control, and treatment of shock, basic bandaging, splinting, and transportation skills will be taught. Emphasis will also be placed upon accident prevention techniques and recognition of potential hazards.

Although there is no charge for the course, which will be taught by a volunteer instructor, class members will be required to purchase the textbook ($1.95).

Pre-registration for the class is necessary and may be done by calling the Red Cross office Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. till 5:00 p.m. Enrollment is limited with class assignment on a first come-first served basis.

HOME DECORATING CORNER

By SUE CALUS

If you have a question on home decorating send it to Decorating The Chelsea Standard Chelsea, Mich. 48118.

Q. I know that color creates many moods. Could you explain how to determine a certain mood in a room.

A. When you can feel color, and sense its many moods, you are well launched as your own decorator. Colors don't just talk. They shout, whisper and sing. They can be gentle or rough, naive or sophisticated. Learn to hear, see and feel color. Then select hues that express the mood you want.

Do you want a comfortable and mellow mood? Then select colors that are neither light, dark nor vivid. Middle value and greyed colors will be your choice. Perhaps you want a sleek and shining look, all crisp and new. This calls for white, with staccato touches of bright colors, for the glitter of glass, metals and smooth textures. Finally, should you yearn for elegance, rich, deep colors will create the right mood. The background color, the color used on the walls is, in a sense, the captain of the ship. Effectively wall color can speak for you.

Home Started in 1905 With Total Assets Listed at $2,000

In September, 1905, the Detroit Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church voted to establish a home for older people. Trustees were elected and Articles of Incorporation were signed on Oct. 30, 1905.

The project began in the vision of a small group of interested men. Among them were: Dr. James E. Jacklin, who before becoming a minister taught Greek and Latin at Detroit Central High school. He was associate editor of "The Michigan Christian Advocate" for 24 years. There was the Rev. Seth Reed, who had been a missionary to the Indians, and at the age of 83 became field agent for the Home. Julius E. Beal, of Ann Arbor, gave business leadership.

On Jan. 4, 1906, less than four months after the Conference authorized the project, 18 trustees and advisory members met in Central Church, Detroit, to get the Home started. Dr. Jacklin wrote of this meeting: "The organization work was finished and it was ready to face the problems of selecting a location, providing a building, admitting old people, and getting money to meet expenses. At the outset, there was neither property nor money at hand or in sight; no man or woman of wealth was putting himself or herself behind the undertaking; it was simple and solely a matter of faith."

The first plan was to locate the home in Detroit. An approach was made to Hon. T.W. Palmer, who owned a tract of land just beyond the northern city limits and adjacent to Woodward Ave. Two visits were made to Mr. Palmer "and he showed some interest but no inclination to respond to the prayers of the visitors." Consideration was given to Lenawee Junction, Flint, Dexter, Romeo, and St. Clair. The St. Clair location had considerable appeal. It was on the St. Clair River bank, a mile north of the city.

At this time Hon. Frank P. Glazier, of Chelsea, sent word that he would donate a piece of land, and contribute $10,000 to the construction costs. This was in April 1906. In June of that year, Mr. Glazier's offer was accepted and plans were started for the first building. "Sod-turning" day was Oct. 11.

Assets of the Home have shown a steady increase through the years.

1905	2,000
1915	36,589
1925	125,295
1930	275,000
1959	1,466,962
1973	4,576,500

Significant dates in Building History have been:

Oct. 31, 1907, the first building was dedicated with three floors containing 36 rooms. It cost $27,500.

Dec. 13, 1915, the south wing was dedicated. The two floors contain 24 rooms, and cost $18,750 to build.

May 13, 1926, the north wing was completed and occupied. This unit cost $61,000, and provided 28 rooms.

Oct. 1929, the first elevator was put in operation.

Sept. 22, 1942, Kresge Hall, the fourth unit, was dedicated. It was named after Sebastian S. Kresge, and made possible by a gift from the Kresge Foundation. Its cost was $214,000.

1943, second elevator installed.

Oct. 9, 1949, a four-story residence wing, named for Mr. and Mrs. O.C. Kimball, of Hillsdale, was dedicated. It cost $400,000.

May 25, 1952, the Chapel and duplex cottage for retired ministers were dedicated. The colonial style chapel, seating 175, was the gift of Mrs. Anna E. Kresge and friends.

Oct. 1957, new residence for the administrator was dedicated.

Dec. 7, 1962, the M-building, consisting of Medical Facility and apartment units, was dedicated. It has four floors, 59 hospital rooms, and 22 apartments. The total cost was $1,250,000.

Oct. 1, 1969, first two units of Village Apartments opened for occupancy. The other four units were built in 1970.

May 14, 1972, dedication of the Crippen Memorial Building, a memorial to Mrs. Catherine B. Crippen, of Ann Arbor.

It was not until 1912, five years after the opening of the first building, that 36 persons filled the Home to capacity. There were four sources of income during this period: offerings from the churches; personal donations; fees from members of the Home; and income from investments. The per capita cost of care was from $150 to $175 a year. Visitors paid 25 cents for a meal, and 25 cents for an over-night room.

Superintendents and Administrators of the Home have been:

Rev. and Mrs. Seth Reed	1907-14
Miss Frances Dunning	1914-16
Miss Anna B. Atkinson	1916-17
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wood	1917-18
Mr. and Mrs. Allen Spencer	1918-19
Mr. and Mrs. I.B. Broscus	1919-27
Rev. and Mrs. W.J. Balmer	1927-34
Rev. H. Addis Leeson	1934-40
Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Lord	1940-48
Rev. and Mrs. Matthew J. Betz	1948-57
Rev. and Mrs. Edwin J. Weiss	1957-66
Rev. and Mrs. John M. Fall	1966-69
Mr. and Mrs. V.O. Johnson	1969-73
Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Closson	1973-

The years since 1930 have presented a number of special problems to the Chelsea Home and all similar institutions in the United States. These changes have been economic, social, political, and physical.

There was the Depression of the 1930s. Supt. Leeson reported: "We maintain a small farm of some 25 acres. We are able to produce all our garden vegetables for the summer. We raised 250 bushels of potatoes. Our strawberry patch yielded 475 quarts of fine berries." The farm operations had a full quota of livestock—cows, hogs, a horse, and chickens. He questioned the economic value of the livestock, but said they added interest. Two purchases brought the Home farther into the mechanical age. The first motion picture projector, and the first automatic potato peeler were bought.

World War II, which began for the United States with the bombing of Pearl Harbor, brought rationing and shortages. The war economy caused wage-costs to increase. In 1943, the salary of the Head Nurse was increased from $65 to $75 per month. In 1944 the food costs per member came to 28 1/2 cents per day.

Social Security and pensions: In 1930 Old Age Pensions were in operation in only a few states. In Arizona and Pennsylvania the state courts had declared old age pensions unconstitutional. Pensions were limited to military, civil service, and a few large companies. Teachers' pensions began with Chicago in 1893, and New Jersey in 1896. The idea of a pension for workers has been extended until in the 1970s it is an accepted practice in most labor contracts. The age of retirement has been lowered.

Inflation, wage rates, hours of work: Inflation has had its effect on investments, prices, heating, food and operating costs. A marked increase in wage-rates, a gradual shortening of working hours, have changed the costs of operation.

State and Federal Regulations concerning Building Codes, Food Service, Hospital and Housing Care: The rapid growth in the number of homes offering care for the aged led to some abuses, and resulted in a system of licensing and inspection.

The 1950 amendment to the Social Security Act required that states establish and maintain standards for the institutions. These standards covered the physical plant, overcrowding and hazardous conditions, adequate living, dining and recreational rooms, food planned by a trained dietitian and prepared by an efficient staff, adequate staff of registered and practical nurses, physical therapists, social workers and recreational directors, and hospital care.

Increased life expectancy, increasing number of older persons, and shortened working life: While the number of older persons has increased, their job opportunities have declined. The best age for getting employment is between 25 and 35. Compulsory retirement systems have become the accepted practice in American industry. Changes in types of houses, caused by building costs and heating systems, have brought a change in the practice of living with children. The old large house of many rooms on a farm or large lot has been replaced by a small house on a small lot. Living with children has come to mean problems for three generations. Gerontology has become a new word in the English language and a special science.

The 1930s administrator reported to the Conference that there was need for a chaplain. But at the time there was no money for such a project. Twenty years later, in 1958, this need was met. The Rev. George P. Stanford, of the West Michigan Conference, was appointed. He came to the job with a long and full experience in churches and in lumber camps of northern Michigan. Mrs. Stanford brought musical training and skill. Other chaplains have been the Rev. William A. Johnson, who served a number of long pastorates in Detroit Conference churches; and the Rev. Richard L. Clemens, who serves also as director of program services. A native of Texas and graduate of Perkins School of Theology, Dallas, the Rev. Clemens came to the Home in 1969 after serving six years

ENTRANCE OF THE HOME will remain largely unchanged, but architects point to the front doorway as a major change: no longer are there steps at the front; rather a ramp, far more useful for wheelchair patients, will lead to the Home.

Open House, Ground-Breaking Slated at Methodist Home

It will be the 27th annual Open House at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement facility, but the special event of the day will be the groundbreaking ceremony initiating a multimillion dollar enlargement and improvement program.

On Sunday afternoon, Oct. 13, the doors will open wide to the public at 2 p.m. In addition to the special ceremony, guests can expect to enjoy visitation with residents and other friends as well as the many interesting features existing now at the Home. Among the points of interest are the crafts studio, the nursing area, the chapel, the heritage room, and the garden apartment village. A display of the new building project may also be seen. All present will be entertained by the Nardin Park United Methodist Church Explorer Troop No. 389 Band from Farmington. Home residents and staff will be available throughout the large facility to give welcome and guidance.

The ground-breaking ceremony is to be held at 2:30 p.m. in the open court at the center of the main buildings, weather permitting. The following program will be followed:

Organ Prelude by Mrs. Clara Warren of Chelsea.

Call to Worship.

Hymn: "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

Announcement of Purpose by Bert Pearson, president of the Chelsea Residents' Council.

Invocation by the Rev. John M. Fall, executive director of the Retirement Homes.

Introductions by Paul S. Closson, administrator.

Special Music by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walker of Livonia.

Address by Dr. Robert P. Ward, Ann Arbor District Superintendent.

Charge to Break Ground by the Rev. Bert Hosking, president of Board of Trustees.

The Act of Groundbreaking.

Litany of Groundbreaking. Prayer of Thanksgiving by the Rev. Edwin J. Weiss, former administrator.

Benediction.

The Rev. Clare Tosch of Milan will be presiding. Others involved in the act of ground-breaking will include Hal L. Pennington, Chelsea village president; Home resident Sam Youngblood; Mrs. Dale Fillmore, president of the Retirement Homes Friends; Edward H. Terry, former executive director of the Retirement Homes; and Nathan Levine, architect of Southfield.

The public is cordially invited to attend all of these festivities.

OFF FOR A JAUNT are these two spry home residents, Bert Pearson and Mrs. Clara Ziegler, on their sturdy tricycles.

RESIDENT AND VOLUNTEER join together for a discussion about a rug under construction as part of the crafts program at the Home.

RELIGIOUS ASPECTS of Home life are always foremost in the minds of residents. Here Mrs. Clara Ziegler presents a spiritual reading.

In 1957 a ruling from the Washenaw County Department of Health put an end to the long-used practice of Harvest Festival gifts of home-canned food and fruit. This source of revenue in food had been of great help. The ruling stated that fear of botulism was the reason. The administrator called upon churches and youth groups for gifts of cash and commercial packed foods.

The Resident Council was organized in February, 1967. It is a representative group of members who plan activities, and allows residents to have a larger voice in the functioning of the Home. Elections are held in May of each year. It meets monthly. In 1972-73, the Residents' Council Activities Fund made significant gifts to the Home and other projects. Among them were: refrigerator, $299.95; engraver, $247.78; TV antenna and amplifier, $532.39; two geriatric chairs, $210; communion set, $33.54; Retirement Homes, $1,500; World Wide Communion, $180; Committee on Overseas Relief, $160; Children's Village, $126; Church World Service, $60; Michigan Council on Alcohol, $50.

Several important changes have been made in the areas of food, building maintenance, and health care. Starting in 1971, Hospital Dietary Service provided all food service, under the direction of a

Home Meal Service Needs More Drivers

Home Meal Service of Chelsea, dependent entirely upon volunteers for its hot meal service to the elderly and home-bound, is operating now on a "skeleton crew" of drivers, according to Mary Ann Merkel of the meal service.

Nineteen meals per day are now delivered to people along three routes — in town and two in surrounding areas. Driving schedule is set up so that each driver spends only one hour per day in delivery, after being trained by an experienced person.

Home Meal Service is in particular need of people to deliver meals in town on Sunday. Substitute drivers are also needed. Home Meal Service recently received membership in Chelsea United Way, which makes it an entirely community-supported program, not government-supported. Those interested in driving should contact Ann Steinway at 475-2923, or Caralee Hoffmeyer at 475-8014.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to thank all my relatives, friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness shown me and my wife while I was in the hospital and since my return home. I also wish to thank the Rev. Dickins for his calls and prayers, and the Chelsea Farm Bureau for the beautiful plants. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
Roy Kalmbach.

The family of

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank relatives, friends, and neighbors for the cards, gifts, and calls during the time I was in the hospital and since my return home. I am especially grateful to my family for all they did for me during this time.

CHOW MEIN
Chinese chefs often sprinkle a little extra turkey on each serving of this dish—for more flavor.
It is one of many dishes they make using leftover roast turkey and chow mein. It only takes 15 minutes to cook—once the chopping and slicing is done.

Frosh Grid Team Nips Blue Streaks

A 25-yard Little Bulldog reverse with two minutes remaining in the game enabled Chelsea to just nip the Blue Streaks of Ida, 18-12.

In an even game all the way, Chelsea drew first blood when a long pass from Jeff Powell to Chris Smyth moved the Blue and Gold deep into Ida territory.

Mike Young then scored from 10 yards out behind a picture block from Matt Fisher in the final play of the first quarter.

Blue Streaks tied it on a short pass midway through the second period, but Chelsea came right back with Mike Young again receiving the glory, by sprinting 40 yards for a TD.

Chelsea's 12-6 lead held until midway in the third period, when Ida clicked on a 46-yard TD pass. Jason Lindauer tipped the extra point kick to keep the score tied.

Some good defense by both squads from this point on set the stage for Steve Pennington's final 25-yard dash. Ida desperately attempted to score after the kick-off but a penalty and a strong pass rush by Steve Check, Brad Smith, and Bill Van Riper insured the Little Bulldog victory.

Coach Bill Bainton noted that the game featured some fine line play by both teams. Doing a good job in the offensive line for Chelsea, he said, were Jason Lindauer, Gerald Benjamin, Dave Schrotenboer, Don Harris, Don Harris, Don Walz, Tim Welshans, and Vic Verchereau.

"Their blocking gave Chelsea several key first downs, and opened the way on the two long touchdowns," Bainton said, "but they certainly were the key to this Chelsea victory."

BOY SCOUT NEWS

TROOP 465

Troop 465 took a bike hike to Bruin Lake last week-end, leaving North School at 12:30 p.m. and arriving at Bruin Lake about 1:20 p.m. After a short rest they started on the 17 mile-long Pottawatomie trail. At the five-mile mark it was noted that at the speed of one mile per 20 minutes we could not return until about 9 p.m. Checking the map we found we could take a short cut and still cover about 11 miles.

The troop returned to their bikes about 6 p.m. As it was too dark to ride back to North School, the boys' bikes were returned by truck. Those taking the hike were Mark, Andy and John Bulick, Doug Clark, Keith Hegadorn, Brian Lewis, Brad Smith, Kris Steinaway, and Mark Steinaway. The leader in charge for the day was Art Steinaway.

Draft Registration Required Of All 18-Year-Old Youths

The area Selective Service Office in Ann Arbor registered 451 men during September, according to Harold Cross, office manager. The office registered 101 from Lenawee, 154 from Monroe and 196 from Washtenaw counties.

"Men turning 18 years of age still have the obligation to register with Selective Service and this should be done within the 60-day period starting 30 days prior to their 18th birthday," Cross stated. He noted that the Local Board continues to meet and many young men are still being classified 1-A following the annual lottery during the year of their 19th birthday. During their 20th year these young men are part of a national available pool of 100,000 who may be inducted in any national emergency declared by Congress. No men are currently being drafted, Cross added.

Students may register with Mrs. Greta Welfton at Chelsea High school.

Individuals unable to appear in person may obtain mail-in registration forms from colorful poster displays located at the Chelsea Post Office, High school, and Police Department.

Forms may also be obtained by writing to the Ann Arbor Selective Service System area office, Room 210, First National Building, 201 S. Main St., Ann Arbor 48108 or telephoning 665-3766.

ALL ABOUT FOOD

F. A. KENNEDY.

Once upon a time there was this cave man, and he was chewing on the seeds of some wild grain. And somehow he figured out that breaking the seeds would make them easier to chew. So he put some on a hollowed-out rock and pounded on them with another rock.

Well, it started to rain, so he ran inside his cave. And his grain, which by now was a crude form of flour, got all wet. Then the sun dried it out. And when our hero emerged from his cave, he discovered that he had baked history's first loaf of bread!

A true story? Well, historians believe it may well have happened that way. And they know that bread has been around for many, many centuries. Remains of the Swiss lake dwellers, who lived ten thousand years ago, show that they had an advanced baking industry. And an actual loaf of bread 3,500 years old was found not long ago in an Egyptian tomb.

Actually, bread making has changed little since that Egyptian loaf was baked. The grain is ground, the dough is mixed and allowed to rise or ferment, and the loaf is baked in an oven.

The main difference is that so many kinds of bread are made today, and so much more bread is eaten. Nobody is really sure of the exact amount, but that our annual consumption is at least a hundred one-pound loaves for every man, woman, and child on earth!

So, next time you enjoy a slice of bread in any form, be thankful you don't have to pound on some grain and wait for rain. Be glad you have such a wonderful variety of fine, fresh breads to choose from. And, if you got your bread at Polly's, be especially glad that it didn't take much "dough!"
