

Lima Township Residents Debate Development Plan

A development plan for Lima township that has been designed to provide "inherent stability" by establishing criteria for growth and maintaining them was the subject of a public hearing Thursday night at Lima Township Hall.

Some 40 local residents turned out for the meeting to hear Virginia Denham first present an overview of the development and present design of the plan, prior to opening the meeting to public comment.

Mrs. Denham, while noting that the township's current zoning ordinance is 15 years old, but provides "very usable regulations, simple and direct," said, however, that "When you make decisions without a plan, it becomes spot zoning."

She also stressed the significance of a general plan in court cases: "They ask, 'Does the township have a plan?' —We have to answer 'no.'"

The original impetus for a township development plan, she said, came when Johnson, Johnson, & Roy of Ann Arbor were chosen to develop an impact study of the effects of a metropolitan area by Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority. Although HCMA later withdrew its support of the project, which amounted to 85 percent of the cost of it, Lima township found the study favorable and forwarded it to the County Planning Commission.

The county, however, suggested that the JJR plan was "too long range" and could accommodate growth up to five times that anticipated for Lima township.

Returning the idea of a plan to the citizens ad hoc committee, the group began a lengthy series of meetings to elicit opinions from residents and to "review the whole process of township development."

Basically, the value of the JJR study, Mrs. Denham said, is its graphic illustration of natural resources and soil types, streams, drainage systems, and wetlands and woodlands that need to be protected.

"Our plan," she noted, "should be a guide that we'd use to protect these resources that provide us all kinds of services at no cost."

Briefly, the plan would consider both natural resources and existing development in its assignment of areas to categories of preservation areas, agricultural areas, urban areas, and development areas.

Preservation areas are by definition ones unsuited for development in their soil content and generally areas that are currently in their natural state. Preservation areas would be excluded from development and alteration as much as possible.

Agricultural areas are deemed particularly worth saving, since, Mrs. Denham said, "Farms in Lima township have a 20 percent larger income than the average in either Washtenaw county or the state." Within five years, she predicted, "the state or federal government will act to preserve areas of agriculture like this."

Urban areas, including the portion of Chelsea located within the township and the tiny urban areas of Lima Center, 1-94 and Fletcher Rd., and Dexter-Chelsea and Lima Center Rds., will be presumed to remain urban in the plan. Development areas in general are found near existing pockets of urban development, with one major exception, an area near the intersection of Steinbach and Jerusalem Rds.

Audience members reacted vigorously to Mrs. Denham's presentation. One man disputing the committee's contention that soil content in some areas would prohibit heavy industry, snorted, "If they can build Beach school where they built it, they can build anything anywhere. If they'd have left that the way it was, they would've had their swimming pool right there."

Another, disagreeing with the theory of possible development at Steinbach and Jerusalem Rds., demanded, "Why put something in there where it's all farmland? It may be all right according to the soils, but keep that stuff up by the highways."

Dave Bacon retorted that "If we put it along the highways, —it's a mess. Compare Jackson Rd. between Baker Rd. and Mer- cywood now with 10 years ago. Is that what you want?"

Although the consensus seemed to be that that was not what the audience wanted, many seemed to feel the township's efforts fruitless. "You can't stop it... you can't stop prosperity," muttered several. The problem of potential rural residential development was also pointed out, when it was stated that an assessed valuation of $80,000 is needed to put one child through the Chelsea School District. "This township can't support itself with clusters of rural residential development; it will need industrial taxes if we have clusters of residential development."

Further study will be devoted to the general plan, Mrs. Denham said at the end of the hearing, noting that she felt "general agreement with the idea of preserving the rural environmental quality of the township and the general thrust of keeping development localized."

Thief Loots Heydlauff's, Steals Truck For Get-Away

A mysterious stranger who was seen early Sunday morning driving away from the downtown area in a Heydlauff's stake truck apparently got more than the truck in the deal.

Chelsea police believe that the man, identified by a witness who saw him in the truck as a large-framed white male, in his mid-30s, sporting a full beard and wearing a stocking cap, is responsible for a breaking and entering that occurred at Heydlauff's at approximately the same time.

An undetermined amount of television and stereo equipment was also loaded into the truck, police reports say.

Officers report that entry to Heydlauff's was gained by very professionally breaking or cutting glass at the rear loading doors, snipping a wire mesh screen with metal cutters, and reaching in to unlock the door and lift up a two-by-four board that braced it.

The appliance equipment was then loaded into the 1971 Chevrolet stake truck, which was parked in the lot adjoining Heydlauff's. The witness told police that the driver, who he believed he would recognize if saw again, headed south on M-52.

Officers checking in local establishments later found that a man fitting the description provided had been earlier thrown out of the Wolverine Bar. Officers said that the suspect was believed to have been from Massachusetts.

Police are continuing their investigation.

Tuesday the truck was recovered in Wayne, abandoned and in good condition. Officers have no further leads on the suspect.

Cross Country Team Dumps Dexter, 23-36

Chelsea harriers dumped Dexter last Tuesday, 23-36, in their final league meet to tie for second place in the Southeastern Conference with a 3-2 record.

Going into the league meet, which was held Wednesday evening at Cass Benton Park in Northville after press-time, Chelsea shared the runner-up spot in the SEC with Saline, while South Lyon and Brighton lead the pack with 4-1 records.

"Any of the top four teams can make it," Coach Pat Clarke said (Continued on page four)

United Way Campaign Creeps Toward Half-Way Point of Goal

Chelsea's United Way torch is edging closer daily to being "lit," as community contributions creep upward toward the local goal of $29,994.

Current contributions amount to $11,553.28, says Mrs. Pat Borders, campaign chairman. "Our chairmen are working very, very hard," she reports. "Most of the rural areas are finished, and people in residential areas who still would like to contribute may send their donations to residential chairmen."

Mrs. Borders adds that she has received some $337 in the mail from local residents.

Agencies benefiting from Chelsea's local drive include Chelsea Recreation Council, Huron Valley Child Guidance, Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, Boy Scouts of America, Portage Trails Council, Chelsea Bands, Home Meal Service of Chelsea, Chelsea Social Service, American Red Cross, Washtenaw Association for Retarded Children, Salvation Army, Catholic Social Services, Michigan United Way, and Child and Family services of Washtenaw County.

World Community Day Set for Nov. 1

"Discover the Aspiring Majority," which leads into the subject matter of the United Nations International Women's Year, 1975, will be the theme of this year's World Community Day, scheduled for Nov. 1 at North Lake Methodist church.

Members of local Church Women United, who organize World Community Day, note that "As women, who are now a majority in the world, examine their values and goals, they will discover the aspirations that bind them together."

In celebrating this day, women will be giving expression to the stated goals of the International Year which are those of striving for justice for women and increasing their participation on all levels to bring the welfare of the world and the course of peace nearer to realization."

Local program committee members for World Community Day, Peg Hamilton and Pat Stirling, are planning group discussions for the event. More information will be available about the program next week.

World Community Day had its origins in the week of Pearl Harbor during World War II when the constituency convention of the United Council of Church Women, the forerunner of Church Women United, met in Atlantic City. This committee's observance of a

Aerial Attack Nets Victory Over S. Lyon

It was hard to tell where Chelsea's "homecoming show" was last Friday night—the field at half-time or on the field with the Bulldog grid team.

The show, in fact, was in both places, as Chelsea provided a captivating display of offense for the homecoming folks, then allowed the crowning of the queen and such frivolity at half-time for good measure.

Bulldogs' 28-21 edging of South Lyon effectively eliminated the Lions from their hopes of tying Novi, now 5-0, for the SEC championship. South Lyon, Chelsea, Saline, and Milan are now all jammed up behind the "Wildcats" at 3-2.

The two squads battled to a 14-14 showdown before the intermission Chelsea scored first, at 10:44 in the opening quarter, when Tim Reed ran seven yards for the TD and Ishmael Picklesimer kicked the extra point.

Not until the second quarter did South Lyon return with a score of their own, when Lion Steve Gurney trotted three yards into the end zone for his squad's first six points. Extra point attempt was good.

Less than five minutes later, Lion Ray Foley uncorked a 38-yard touchdown pass to Dan Chersko that put South Lyon ahead, 14-7, with the extra point.

Not to be outdone by this opposition quarterback, Todd Ortring lofted a similar 38-yard touchdown pass to Howard Salyer. Picklesimer was once again good for a successful kick, and the score stood all tied entering half-time.

After the homecoming festivities at intermission, both squads took a breather from scoring for a few moments until South Lyon returned with another TD, this one on a five-yard run by Don Geise. Ken Given added the extra point.

Once again responding in kind, Todd Ortring came back to score on a five-yard run of his own, which, without a successful extra point attempt, put the score at 21-20.

With only six minutes remaining in the contest, a game-saving team of Ortring and Jim Boyer joined together to put things away for the Bulldogs. A 23-yard TD pass from Ortring to Boyer boosted Chelsea into the lead, 28-21; then the two battled again for a two-point conversion play that yielded the final score, 28-21.

Refusing to roll over for the Bulldogs, however, the Lions renewed efforts to score, only to suffer a pair of interceptions. Instrumental in holding the South Lyon offense was Paul Wood's halting of a rally, and the call-back of a long Ray Foley TD pass on a penalty.

Chelsea defense was led by Dennis Bauer, who recorded 13 tackles, and Tim Reed, who earned eight. Paul Wood pulled down a pair of Lion passes, while Dave Keiser was good for a single interception.

Quarterback Ortring completed seven of nine passes for 176 yards and a pair of TDs. Chelsea gained 332 yards, to 256 for South Lyon.

Tomorrow night (Friday) at Milan, Bulldogs and the Big Red will square off to determine which of them will retire from a tie for second place in the Southeastern Conference.

Halloween Party Set for Next Thursday

Halloween is in the air once again, and for Chelsea youngsters it means more than the smell of chocolate candy in the air and ghosts behind every bush.

Artistic Halloween interests are being served this very moment by Chelsea Recreation Council's annual Halloween Poster and Picture Contest.

Entries must be from artists in kindergarten through eighth grade range, and naturally must deal with a Halloween theme.

Artists should submit their ghosts, goblins, and Great Pumpkins, and all other creative efforts, to art teachers in any of the schools.

Judges will be high school art instructors Mrs. Laurie LaZebnik and Mrs. Terri Camler.

Winning entries will be announced Monday, Oct. 28. First place girl and boy entry at each grade level will receive a $5 prize.

Sunday the Halloween spirit will join with the spirit of giving when local children canvass residential areas for contributions to UNICEF, the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, under the sponsorship of local Church Women United.

Young people from the age of six through high school will be

Two Suspects Nabbed in Bank Theft

Two of five suspects in the abduction-bank robbery of the Richard Green family, 4104 Sylvan Rd., two weeks ago, were apprehended by FBI agents last Thursday in Long Beach, Calif.

In custody are Luther L. Leath 24, and Lonnie Fisher, 25, who is actually Timothy R. Thomas, an escapee from the Lorton Correctional Facility in Fairfax, Va., who had been serving five to 15 years for armed robbery, assault, and carrying a concealed weapon when he escaped in 1973.

Others accused in the case but still at large are James Trambell 25, Lorenzo Paige, 24, and Jerome Hunter, also 24.

Green, manager of the Ypsilanti Savings Bank branch at 1422 E. Michigan Ave., and his family, were held hostage in their Sylvan township home through the night Oct. 9. On Oct. 10, Mrs. Green and the children were driven to a Pittsfield motel while Green took some $35,000 from his bank's vault and dropped it at a Ypsilanti schoolyard for the bandits.

Library Story Hour Will Start Nov. 6

Story hour for three and four-year-olds will begin Wednesday, Nov. 6, at McKune Memorial Library.

Time for the every-Wednesday event will be 10:30 to 11:15 a.m. at the library. In charge of the children's hour will be Mrs. Joanne Weber and Miss June Dobija.

1974 HOMEcoming QUEEN at Chelsea High school is senior Linda Fulcher, who was crowned Friday night at half-time of the Chelsea-South Lyon game. The crowning of the queen capped five days of Spirit Week activities at the high school that included everything from a Dress Down Day to tricycle races.

Gridders of the Week

TODD ORTRING (10) is Chelsea's flashy senior quarterback who last week hit seven for 10 passes for 157 yards in the Bulldog victory over South Lyon. Ortring, a 5'10", 150-pound second-year man, also earned all-conference honorable mention last year as a pitcher for the varsity baseball team. In his spare time he enjoys hunting and "all kinds" of art work, and is thinking about attending Eastern Michigan University after graduation, to major in art. He lives with his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett, on Wilkinson St., and has two sisters, Tina and Terese, and a brother, Tim.

STEVE KINCER (30) is a 5'7", 145-pound senior fullback, who is also playing his second year for Chelsea's varsity. Kincer, who has also played baseball for Chelsea, enjoys hunting, and fishing in his spare time. He expects the Bulldog gridders will "keep winning from here." At present he is undecided as to his future after graduation. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Kincer, he has two sisters, Penny and Elizabeth, and a brother, Ben.

Frosh Grid Team Downs South Lyon

Chelsea freshmen came from behind to down South Lyon last Tuesday, 34-20.

Little Bulldogs stumbled through the early going, as they gave up a touchdown on a long pass in the first quarter, then tied the score on a 12-yard Steve Pennington run in the second period.

Late in the second quarter, however, Little Bulldogs turned the ball over in their own territory, enabling South Lyon to score again. With extra points, South Lyon then led, 14-6.

Brad Smith then took a short kick into Lion territory, and running without a huddle, Chelsea managed to tally a minute later on a short run by Jeff Powell, making the score 14-12 at the half.

Chelsea got a big lift when Gary Packard recovered Tim Welshans' onside kick to open the second half, setting up a Jeff Powell to Chuck Broderick touchdown pass. Matt Fisher ran for the conversion.

When Chelsea next gained possession of the ball, this duo struck again, with Fisher again converting, to give Chelsea a 28-14 lead. South Lyon scored on a short run midway through the fourth quarter, but the Little Bulldogs iced their victory when Pennington dashed nine yards for his second score of the night, making the final tally 34-20.

Defense played another strong game, led by Steve Check, Tim Welshans, and Gerald Benjamin. Coach Bill Bainton noted that Jeff Powell also turned in a fine game at safety.

The victory runs the freshman record to 4-1, with games remaining with Tecumseh this Wednesday and the season finale at Napoleon Wednesday, Oct. 31.

Children Flirting With Danger in Substation

Recent discoveries of stones and chunks of wire within fenced-in area of the Consumers Power substation west of Wilkinson St. have prompted Chelsea Police and Consumers Power security advisor Jack L. Brouard to warn local residents, particularly children, of the dangers involved in such practices.

Brouard explains that a piece of copper thrown into the area might hit a conductor, ground, onto something else, and put out service in the area or to the "pool" area surrounding for an indeterminate length of time.

Brouard also noted that historically hunting season is another time when Consumers' facilities receive a good deal of abuse. "Hunters don't see any animals, so they start shooting at our insulators," he shrugs. "What people don't think about then is you're paying for this eventually in your electric bill."

"We're primarily concerned with the welfare of the kids—and we're assuming they're kids—throwing this stuff inside these areas," Brouard said. "We're talking about 138,000 volts.

School Board Briefs

Present at the special Board of Education meeting on Monday, Oct. 21, were President Haselschwardt, Trustees Tobin, Hodgson, Daniels, Schafer, Irwin, and Stirling. Superintendent Cameron, Business Manager Mills, and Principal Wojcik.

Guests were Arlys Schutzer, Paul Terpstra, Dave Lukaski, and Jerry Cullimore of Construction Co-ordinators, Inc.

Meeting was called to order by President Haselschwardt at 8 p.m. Minutes of the meeting of Oct. 7 were accepted as presented. Minutes of the meeting of Oct. 14 were presented as corrected. President Haselschwardt appointed Thomas Hodgson to the curriculum committee and Martin Tobin to the Recreation Council.

After a presentation by Arlys Schutzer regarding the Washtenaw County Vocational Residential Center, the board agreed to pay the Chelsea School District's "fair share" of $800 to the center for the period Jan. 1, 1975, to June 30, 1975.

Contract for pre-cast tees was awarded to the Great Lakes Structural Concrete Products for $43,725.

The board approved the request of James Hoffmeyer to make application to participate in the exchange teacher program.

The board responded to the survey of Dr. James Phelps of the Governor's office, stating that it favors $42.50 per mill up to 28 mills for 1975-76 and to $46 per mill with unlimited millage applicable for 1976-77 to better represent the increase due to inflation.

The board approved the administration of a drug survey by Behavior Change Laboratories of Ann Arbor as a follow up to the survey conducted two years ago.

The board will meet with the North and South Elementary school staffs at 8 p.m. on Nov. 11 in South school library.

The board agreed to co-operate with the University of Michigan Study of Infant and Child Anthropometry for the FDA Children's Hazards Division of the Bureau of Product Safety, US Consumer Product Safety Commission of the HEW. This involves taking measurements of students to determine safety standards.

Business Manager Mills reported that the budget hearing was held in the library from 7 to 7:50 p.m. with four citizens in attendance.

Meeting was adjourned at 10 p.m.

Cross Country Team Dumps Dexter, 23-36

Monday, "although Brighton is a shoe-in for at least a share of the title. It's pretty much a matter of some other team managing to get a share of it with Brighton."

(In cross country, season standings count for one-half a team's over-all league standing, while the league meet counts the other half, to decide the league championship.)

In Tuesday's contest with the Dreadnaughts, Chelsea was paced by junior captain John Storey, who placed second with a time of 17:05.

Runners who recorded personal highs in the meet were Dave Dawson, who took third place with his best time at Inverness Country Club for the season, 17:09; Rick Maller, who placed fifth with his best home time, 17:22; Phil Frame, who pulled in behind Haller in sixth place with his best time at home, 17:29; and Mark Bucholz, who ran his best season time anywhere, 18:55, for 14th place.

Others placing for Chelsea were Morris Johnson, 7th, with 17:52; Dean Thompson, 9th, with 18:01;

Bill Rademacher, 10th, with 18:16; Dan Shirilla, 11th, with 18:43; Matt Heydlauff, 12th, with 18:51; and Jeff Sweet, 13th, with 18:53.

SEC-leading Brighton showed its stuff Saturday at the Manchester Invitational, taking first place with a low total of 77 points, while Chelsea earned third with 112.

Manchester took second place in the invitational with 89 points, while following were Columbia Central and Saline, tied for fourth with 123 points, Grass Lake in fifth place with 142; Ann Arbor St. Thomas, in sixth place with 159; Napoleon, in seventh place with 172; Dexter in eighth place with 195; and East Jackson in ninth place with 201.

John Storey again led Chelsea runners, turning in his best time ever, 16:22, good enough for fourth place in the standings.

Turning in a "real outstanding effort" as Chelsea's fourth man was Phil Frame, who landed in 16th place with a time of 16:59. Other Bulldog placers were Dave Dawson, 27th, with 17:25; Morris Johnson, 31st, with 17:37; Rick Haller, 34th, with 17:40; and Dean Thompson, 39th, with 17:45.

In the JV run, times were unavailable at press-time, but standings showed that Matt Heydlauff took fifth; Dan Shirilla, eighth; Randy Harris, 23rd; Mark Bucholz, 24th; and Rick Robbins, 46th.

Girls Varsity Cagers Lose To Brighton

Chelsea's girls varsity basketball squad "lost it in the second quarter" and were dumped by Brighton, 30-23, Tuesday night.

The defeat moved Brighton into first place in the league, and Chelsea fell to second, with a 4-3 record.

High scorers for Chelsea were Char Steinau with 12 points; Karen Tobin, five; and Mollen King, Kathy Kuhl, and Alice Juergens, two.

JV women, meanwhile, edged out Brighton, 31-29, in what Coach Cindy Bradbury called "an excellent game." Penny Collinsworth led scorers with 19 points, and also rebounded and blocked well, according to Coach Bradbury.

"In this game we effectively used the press," the coach added.

Other scorers were Theresa Breza and Karen Keiser with four points.

Junior varsity record now stands at 3-1. Both squads will meet Lincoln next Tuesday.

CONSUMERS' CORNER

Improper appliance use is often the cause of those washer and dryer woes. For maximum efficiency, take care to:

- Sort properly.
- Use proper detergent.
- Load correctly.
- Use hot water for white cottons and linens, warm for most other loads.
- Use proper cycles.
- Clean lint filters after each use.

To save repair costs check the following on your own before calling the serviceman:

- Be sure controls are properly set.
- If washer doesn't fill, faucets may not be turned on.
- Make sure lid is closed or washer won't spin.
- Unbalanced loads often cause vibration and lower spinning.
- Keep drain hose unkninked and free of debris.
- If dryer takes too long to dry, make sure lint trap is clean, check vent, use correct heat settings and don't overload.

LEAVE THE DUST

Getting ready for the big move? A good rule of thumb is to wash, scrub, dust, polish or otherwise clean before packing. There is enough to do in a new house without bringing along some of the dust and dirt from a previous address.

Today, 84 soil conservation districts provide soil protection programs in almost every area of Michigan. Learn how you can help to prevent soil erosion by contacting your local Soil Conservation district, or the State Soil Conservation committee, Michigan Department of Agriculture, Lansing 48913.

Missionary Christmas Set For Sunday

Immanuel Bible Church will hold its annual "Missionary Christmas" Sunday night, Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. There will be singing of the old Christmas carols, special music and an outstanding film of primitive jungle treachery, "Peace Child," as missionaries Don and Carol Richardson journey by canoe into the sunlight and shadows of a rain forest inhabited by some of the world's most primitive people.

A special love offering will be taken for the six missionary families Immanuel Bible church helps to support and these monies will be divided among them and sent as a Christmas gift.

Following the service, a fellowship hour is planned with refreshments, and tapes with recorded greetings will be made to send to each of the missionaries in Ecuador, S.A., Tokyo, Japan; Bonaire, Netherlands Antilles; Kalbar, Indonesia; Manitoba, Canada (among the Indians); and Peru, S.A.

Youth Sunday Scheduled at Two Waterloo Churches

Youth Sunday, featuring the "Children of the Son" teen musical group, is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 27, at First United Methodist church of Waterloo and Waterloo Village United Methodist church. The Rev. Altha Barnes, pastor of the two churches says that the group will appear at the First United Methodist church of Waterloo at the 9:15 a.m. worship service and at Waterloo Village United Methodist church at the 11:15 a.m. worship service.

Sen. Gilbert Bursley Reappointed to State Reading Advisory Board

Senator Gilbert E. Bursley, (R-Ann Arbor) has been reappointed by the State Board of Education to serve on the Michigan Right to Read Advisory Council.

Senator Bursley, assistant majority leader of the Senate and chairman of the Senate Education Committee, served on the advisory council throughout the first year of the Right to Read Program which is essentially a federally-initiated assault on illiteracy among all age groups in this nation.

The Right to Read effort will now be proceeding to Phase II of its plan which will involve training personnel and approximately 120 local school districts through regional workshops.

Who pays for living expenses (elsewhere) while they repair your home?

Most policies provide the coverages you expect—fire, lightning, storms, riots, vandalism and the like. They cover the cost of repairs due to these losses. But have you thought about the cost of living elsewhere if your home has to be repaired or rebuilt? It could run into hundreds of dollars. Or, it could be covered in black and white in our Homeowners Policy, so we would pay those extra living expenses! Give us a call. We'll put your home insurance all together in one policy for convenience and saving's sake.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

To veterans who have received bonuses in the past, apply the Golden Rule: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Our vote is always needed. A Vietnam veterans bonus is long overdue.

Let's pay our debt and vote for the Vietnam veterans bonus! American Legion Post 31

To the Editor:

Although the current excitement about renovating the local Penn Central depot seemed to me to be a peculiar reflection of community values and priorities, I had intended to keep my opinion to myself because whatever I might say would be discounted as prejudice. However, when a request came to my desk to mobilize our youth organization and other church groups to canvass the community and solicit funds for renovation of the depot, I not only felt obliged to say "No!" but also felt the necessity of publicly making my reasons known.

I am aware that Penn Central has declared bankruptcy and is unable to pay for renovation of the depot. I am also aware that, solvent or insolvent, Penn Central is unwilling to do anything non-income-producing for any community unless legally forced to do so. If, therefore, any community wants to see any immediate improvement where Penn Central property is involved, it will largely be up to that community to initiate and fund the project by assuming the responsibility that would normally be Penn Central's.

If the Chelsea Community is to be mobilized to assume a responsibility of Penn Central, safety ought to take priority over appearance. Should not a responsible order of priorities call first for the safeguarding of all crossings within the community?

If this community is willing to help Penn Central why not first a community campaign for a crossing signal at Freer Rd.? In the light of expansion of school facilities at Beach school and the lack of any strenuous effort by the School Board to ensure the safety of the site, it seems to me that any community action to assume Penn Central responsibility and improve Penn Central property ought to occur first where the safety of our children is concerned.

Present rail traffic at that crossing consists of 26 rail movements in a 24-hour period limited to a speed of 60 mph. The new Amtrak service, which the depot is being painted to accommodate, will bring additional rail traffic including a "3.5 million train" capable of speeds up to 120 mph.

...but restricted to 70 mph until the roadbed is upgraded. I am not sure that our first response to the arrival of this juggernaut should be "paint the depot!"

Acknowledging that renovation is underway, without casting negative reflection on other community-concerned individuals who find this project to be their thing, I am nevertheless opposed to promotion of the project and mobilization of the community resources on that basis of priorities.

As a lover of beauty I appreciate the improved appearance at the depot; but it grieves my heart to realize that an outside group (M.A.R.P.) could stimulate such community effort to deal with a cosmetic problem while there is such apathy within the community toward the life-death issue of a crossing signal.

Isn't it ironic that while Penn Central is busy spending its time and money fighting individual efforts and Public Service Commission orders to install crossing signals for the safety of the community, the community is mobilizing its efforts to paint Penn Central's depot?!

The community can have a crossing signal anytime it is willing to pay for the project. Maybe that's an avenue we ought to explore. Then I might more readily agree that we are doing ourselves a favor and not Penn Central. Clive Dickens.

WOMAN IN CHARGE

A recent survey indicates that about 55 percent of food bought for households is purchased by the woman-of-the-house.

MARRIAGES AFTER 64

There are some 35,000 marriages every year in the United States of persons above the age of 64. Reasons given for taking the step include love as well as companionship and economy.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP 82—

At the meeting of Troop 82 this week, we had treats and then we picked what each patrol should do for the Halloween party. Next week we will have our Halloween party. Then after that we will have our rededication ceremony. Susan Herrst, scribe.

TROOP 442—

Troop 442 met Monday to plan for our Halloween party Oct. 28. We also played a game that was really fun. We talked about our hayride with our sister troop. Donna Fitzsimmons, scribe.

BROWNIE TROOP 189—

The treats went down fast at Investiture Monday night when the new girls in Troop 189 become official Brownie Scouts. Name tags were given to moms, dads, friends and relatives of the scouts. All the scouts sang songs for the guests. This Saturday, Troop 189 gets to go on a hayride and will visit a cider mill. Debbie Garman.

Troop 689 met Oct. 16 at St. Mary's school. Two people went to the workshop meeting and we discussed that. Roll call was taken and our dues were collected. Kathy Degener brought treats. Mrs. Williams came and taught us some songs. We had a flag ceremony. We reviewed our rededication ceremony. We had taps and went home. Beth Heller, scribe.

TROOP 82—

We talked about management and how we could be an organized troop. Uniforms for the troop, we will have to vote on this. We broke up into patrols. Our leaders are going to give us a Halloween party next Monday, at Sally Ellenwood's at 8:30. We had our rededication ceremony, and Barb Glowicki was pinned with the Girl Scout pin. Linda Durgan, scribe.

Cold Winds Hamper Sunday Trap Shooters

Cold winds inhibited scores in last Sunday's trap shoot at Chelsea Rod and Gun Club, as Mel Stevens' high score for the morning of 20 (of a possible 25) indicates.

Other high scores were by Mark Steger and Bill Clark, who scored 18, and Mel Stevens, who scored 17.

Monday night, two Boy Scout Troops shot at the trap. This Sunday, Oct. 27, will be the final day for shooting at Chelsea Rod and Gun Club.

DOLLAR

"A dollar may not go very far these days but what it lacks in distance it makes up in speed.

Until recently the abalone shell-fish found off California waters was enjoyed mainly by Oriental Americans. Now it is readily available and can be fried, stuffed or cooked in chowder for a most delicious dinner.

DOOR-TO-DOOR FOR UNICEF: Area children will be collecting for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) this Sunday, Oct. 27, from 2 to 3 p.m. Among the young people who will be canvassing will be, from left,

Solicitation for UNICEF Slated

Trick-or-treating for UNICEF is once again scheduled for this Sunday, Oct. 27, to raise funds for the United Nations fund that aids youngsters all over the world. Local youngsters, from six years through high school age, will be soliciting contributions from Chelsea residential areas between 2 and 3 p.m. Sunday, joining in the battle to stem "the quiet emergency"—the threat of starvation of children all over the world. UNICEF canvassers should pick up their collection boxes from local churches, and return them to the Educational Unit of the First United Methodist church, where cookies and punch prepared by local church women will be served after canvassing. Some collection boxes will also be placed in downtown stores.

The annual Halloween collection for UNICEF is sponsored locally by Church Women United.

4-H Awards, Recognition Night Scheduled Tonight at Saline

Washtenaw county 4-H youth leaders and community supporters will be recognized at the annual Awards and Recognition Night, 8 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 24, at Saline High School Auditorium.

Friends of 4-H Awards will be presented to community organizations who continually support the 4-H Youth programs. Those receiving the award this year include Fingerle Lumber Co., Quarry Photo, Singer Co., Ypsilanti Parks and Recreation, Eastern Michigan University and the 4-H Service Club.

Silver Clover Citations will be presented to the Ann Arbor Bank & Trust Co. for the continual support to the Michigan 4-H Foundation.

4-H leaders will be honored for their years of service while the 4-H members will be recognized for County Award Medals, Key Club, Tel Awards and "I Dare You." Citizenship Short Course participants will receive certificates presented by the Ann Arbor Kiwanis Club.

The public is welcome to the Awards presentation.

Chelsea Woman Decorated With Air Force Commendation Medal

An Air Force first lieutenant from Chelsea was decorated with the U. S. Air Force Commendation Medal in recent ceremonies at Lindsey Air Station, Germany.

Lieutenant Kathleen A. Mongiovi, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Suter, was cited for meritorious service at Shaw AFB, S.C.

Lieutenant Mongiovi, a maintenance control officer, now serves at Lindsey with the 2033rd Communications Squadron.

A 1965 graduate of Chelsea High school, she received her BA degree in 1969 from Northern Michigan University.

She was commissioned in 1971 upon graduation from Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex.

INFLATION

CAN THE STATE LEGISLATURE
HELP CONTROL INFLATION?

YES-By controlling waste such as welfare mismanagement. Fraudulent ADC payments of $77 million were discovered by a recent federal study of just part of Michigan's Department of Social Service.

YES-By electing EARLE STEVENSON, whose management experience and education equip him to see that procedures are written into budget laws to protect our tax dollars.

Save money by spending enough.

The cost of painting a house or a room isn't all in the paint. A lot of money goes for labor, trouble and time, even if you do it yourself. So it makes sense to pay a little more for the paint you buy, to lengthen the time between paint jobs and save all those other costs. The quality of Dutch Boy Paints keeps them looking good longer. That's why millions of homeowners are willing to pay more for Dutch Boy. That's why you should, too. Spend a little more and save a lot. Buy Dutch Boy quality.

Win a silver Granada for a year

Granada, America's newest new-size car from Ford. An elegant car, about the size of a Mercedes Benz 280. Luxurious detailing and family-size comfort. The brand-new 1975 Ford Granada. The silver lining you've been waiting for.

Twenty 1975 Ford Granadas to be given away.

If you're looking for the silver lining, see your local Ford Dealer. He has twenty silver linings for you. Twenty brand-new 1975 Ford Granadas* for twenty lucky people to use for a whole year. It's free to enter. Just drop into a participating Ford Dealer now (or before midnight, December 31), fill out an entry form, drop it into the entry box, and cross your fingers. Twenty names will be picked at random. If you're 21 or over and a licensed driver, you could win a 1975 silver Ford Granada for a whole year. There's nothing to buy and nothing to do except fill out the entry form at your local Ford Dealer. But don't wait. Look for the silver lining at your Ford Dealer now.

*No purchase necessary. Only licensed drivers 21 years of age or over. One entry per person. Twenty 1975 Ford Granadas to be given away for one year's use. Color and model dependent on availability. Chances of winning determined by total number of entries. Contest closes midnight, December 31. All prizes will be awarded by a random drawing at the end of the contest period. Entry forms available at all participating Ford Dealers in Metropolitan Detroit, Toledo, and adjacent counties within the Detroit District FDAO boundaries.

Woman's Club Hears Talk on Mental Health

Woman's Club of Chelsea met Tuesday evening at McKune Memorial Library to hear Mrs. Winifred H. Hays, director of the Washtenaw Community Mental Health Department and staff persons of Ypsilanti State Hospital describe "Project Transition."

Project Transition is an outpatient therapeutic and social program designed to offer support for non-institutionalized people who are adjusting to community life again.

Mrs. Theodore Spence reported a profit of $23.55 from the recent rummage sale.

Mrs. Thomas McClellan reminded members that the next regular meeting on Nov. 12 will be a Christmas wreath workshop held at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church. Members are asked to bring scissors, towel, dish pan, any trim desired, dried corn husk, and $2 for the cost of the wreath form.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Steven Pawlowski and Mrs. Winston Schenk.

Harvest Luncheon Planned By Elizabeth Circle

Elizabeth Circle of the First United Methodist church of Chelsea has scheduled a harvest luncheon, including a menu of turkey, tetrazzini, tossed salad, homemade rolls, and home-made pie, for Thursday, Nov. 14.

Serving times for the luncheon will be 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., with special consideration given to those coming on their lunch hour.

Advance tickets may be purchased until Nov. 10 from members of the Elizabeth Circle or at the church office, open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon. For additional ticket information, contact Mrs. Warren Borath at 475-7418.

Proceeds from the luncheon will be used to purchase an artificial tree for the church narthex.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS

Past Noble Grands Club met at the home of Mrs. Luther Hale, with Mrs. LeRoy Hoffman as co-hostess. After a business meeting it was decided to invite the Past Noble Grands from the Dexter lodge to an evening of entertainment on Oct. 29. The balance of the evening was spent in wrapping gifts for the ladies at the Ypsilanti State Hospital.

Ruth Circle Takes Collection for World Community Day

Ruth Circle of the First United Methodist church met Oct. 16 at 1 p.m. at the Crippen Memorial Building.

Refreshments were served to 2 members and four guests by Mrs. Vesta Hoppe and Mr. Hazel Summers, assisted by Mrs. Bessie Luxton and Mrs. Iva Barton. Mrs. Elaine McCalla presided at the business meeting.

A collection of $21 was taken to be given to Church Women United for World Community Day, scheduled for Nov. 1 at 12:30 p.m. at North Lake United Methodist church.

Mrs. June Warren visited the meeting with a message of "Harvest Luncheon" to be served at First United Methodist church Nov. 14 for the community.

Mrs. Iva Barton chose the theme, "Your World, Your Attitude," for the program and devotion.

Guests for the day were Mrs. Ruth Niles, Mrs. Ruby Klager, and Mrs. June Warren, and Mrs. Annabelle Closson. Invitations were extended by the chairman to Mrs. Niles and Mrs. Klager to join the group.

Modern Mothers Work on Revising Club Constitution

Modern Mothers Child Study Club met Tuesday, Oct. 22, at the home of Gloria Greenleaf. Co-hostesses for the evening were Carol Kvarnberg and Lois Shively.

Members held their second session regarding the revision of the club's constitution. This committee includes Carol Flinoff, Lenora Matloff, and Chairman Barbara Brown. There will be another meeting amending and discussing the constitution in January.

Program for the evening was "Horoscope for Real" and featured Mrs. Robert Paul, who teaches astrology at Jackson Community College. Mrs. Paul talked about astrology and the birth signs, and described each in full detail. She worked up horoscope charts for two club members from data supplied earlier.

Guests for the evening were Barbara Krichbaum and Virginia Meyer. Next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m., with a program on self-understanding.

Mrs. W. Brian Cox

Lynn A. Visel, W. Brian Cox Exchange Vows Saturday

Lynn A. Visel and W. Brian Cox exchanged wedding vows Saturday noon in St. Mary church.

The Rev. Father Dupuis performed the ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Visel of Chelsea with the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cox of Coldwater.

The bride's floor-length gown was of white polyester seersucker, fashioned with long sleeves and square neckline edged with miniature heart lace. Her illusion veil was trimmed with applied lace. She carried a single long stemmed red rose.

Gina Weber of Lansing served as maid of honor. She wore an orange seersucker floor-length gown, with square neckline and short puffed sleeves edged in white lace. She wore an orange picture hat and carried a basket of fall flowers and ivy.

Bridesmaids' gowns were fashioned the same as that of the maid of honor, and they wore matching picture hats. Barbara Stewart of Chicago, Ill., wore yellow and Kay Schmittler of Big Rapids wore brown. Both carried baskets of fall flowers and ivy.

Riley Swinehart of Allegan served as best man. Acting as ushers were Kevin Cox and Ladd Cox, brothers of the bridegroom.

Mother of the bride wore a floor-length gown of mint green crepe with long sleeves. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length gown of peach crepe with matching coat. Both wore corsages of talisman roses.

A dinner reception followed the ceremony at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club. Assisting were Vickie Chirillo of Chicago who cut the wedding cake. Serving punch was Renee Lark of Chicago. Jo Ellen Cox, sister of the bridegroom, attended the guest book.

The couple are both graduates of Ferris State College, where they majored in accounting.

The couple will make their home at Randlewood Apartments in Grandville.

GOBLIN PATROLLERS, with the recognition of Chelsea police, will be making the rounds next Thursday night, Halloween, when holiday trick-or-treaters will be on the streets after dark in the village. Chelsea Jaycees, who have formed the patrol, say that they hope to prevent soaping of windows, or other acts of destruction or foolery that tend to occur on Halloween. Above, are Officer Roger Graves of the Chelsea Police Department, Bob Wheaton and Steve Lewis of Chelsea Jaycees, wearing the white armbands that will identify goblin patrolers on Halloween night.

Goblin Patrol Set for Halloween

collecting between 2 and 3 p.m. Sunday for funds to deal with what organizers of the Halloween collection call "the quiet emergency," the problem all over the world of starvation.

As part of more typical Halloween festivities, trick-or-treaters will begin the evening with their candy-hungry ravages of residential neighborhoods from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Thursday night.

During trick-or-treat time, and during other evening activities, Chelsea Jaycees members have organized a "goblin patrol" to "watch out for soaping windows, big kids taking little kids' candy, and generally make sure things are going right." Jaycee goblin patrolers may be recognized by their white armbands.

At 6:30 p.m., youngsters decked out in their ghostly finery should gather at the Municipal Parking Lot on Park St. for costume judging prior to the parade.

Kiwanis judges will choose best costumes in four categories well-related to Halloween—most comical, most original, spookiest, and most typical of Halloween.

First, second, and third-place winners will be awarded prizes of $3, $2, and $1, respectively, for their dress-up efforts.

Costumed young revelers will then join a Chelsea Fire Department fire truck and Beach Middle school's marching band for the Kiwanis-sponsored parade through town.

The parade will follow a route from the parking lot to East St., north to E. Middle St., west to Main St., south to Park St., and back to the parking lot.

Although unlikely that the kids will need it with all the goodies that they will no doubt have in their trick-or-treat bags, a bowl of punch and donuts will be served after the parade in the parking lot.

TLOCDH&DSAA Stories Should Be Ready By Nov. 7

The Loyal Order of Confirmed Deer Hunters and Deer Slayors of America, a m a l g a m a t e d has planned its annual meeting for Thursday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club.

The club was organized 23 years ago by a number of Chelsea businessmen who decided that a full evening was necessary and should be devoted to the telling of their experiences and various methods of getting their big buck.

The first meeting was held in the late Vincent Burg's recreation room with nearly 100 persons present.

All deer hunters are invited to attend and tell their secrets for stalking the big whitetail. Any exaggeration or careless use of the truth is acceptable. Program and lunch will be furnished.

CHS Seniors Receive Merit Scholarship Commendations

Four Chelsea High school seniors have received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corp. on the basis of their high performances on the 1973 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT-NMSQT).

The four are Steven Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett, 8215 Beeman Rd.; Merry Hoffmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hoffmeyer, 146 Orchard St.; Richard Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Robbins, 13200 Trist Rd., Grass Lake; and Basil Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott, 415 North St.

The 38,000 students nationally who receive letters of commendation are in the upper two percent of those expected to graduate from high school in 1975. Their scores are just below those of 15,000 semi-finalists who were announced in September by the National Merit Scholarship Corp. Commended students do not continue in the Merit Scholarship competition.

Pinckney Man Arrested After Wild Chase

Chelsea police and Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputies were involved in a wild chase down M-52 early last Thursday morning that ended in the arrest of a Pinckney man.

David K. Allred has been charged by county deputies with fleeing and resisting arrest after the incident, which featured a reported 105-mile per hour chase south on M-52, with county and local officers in hot pursuit of Allred's 1973 Dodge Challenger.

Police reports say that the chase began when Allred allegedly failed to stop for a stop sign at Old US-12 and M-52. When officers attempted to pull him over, Allred sped away, finally ending the chase in a ditch.

He was transported to the county jail and has been charged with resisting arrest and fleeing police officers.

DEPOT RESTORATION of Chelsea's Penn Central station received a big boost Monday afternoon when John Guidinger, center, representative of the Michigan Association of Railroad Passengers, was presented with a pair of checks to aid in roof repair. Paul Frisinger, left, presents Guidinger with a check that includes contributions from individual Kiwanis Club members and the Club's civic fund, while Sam Johnson, right, presents a check from interested citizens. Total amount, $450, equals nearly half of the amount needed for a new roof. A plaque will be hung in the renovated depot listing the names of all contributors to the 1974 Chelsea Railroad Station Renovation Fund.

Round-Up Sunday Slated At N. Sharon

Round-Up Sunday, Oct. 27 at North Sharon Bible church will feature chief Talking Stone who will appear in authentic tribal regalia. Former missionary the Rev. David Harrison, authority on Indian culture from Hammond, Ind., will appear as the chief. He will tell Indian stories and display Indian articles in both the Sunday school hour at 10 a.m. and the church hour at 11.

In keeping with the Indian theme, each of the church's seven buses has been given a tribal name for the day. Each child and teen attending will receive an Indian headdress and a pumpkin.

The goal of Round-Up Sunday is to round up in one gathering as many as possible of those who have ever attended North Sharon. Pastor Bill Enslin says he expects that at least 650 people will be present.

To-your-door bus transportation is available in the Chelsea-Cavanaugh Lake area by calling the church at 428-7222.

Often the first step in construction of a new highway, subdivision or shopping center is to remove all cover from the land. Thousands of tons of sediment may reach streams and lakes and interfere with industrial, domestic and recreational uses of water before the area is again stabilized. FFA Poultry Judging Team Wins Plaque at National Meet

If judging poultry were the only thing Chelsea Future Farmers of America had done at last week's FFA National Convention in Kansas City, Mo., odds are even they would have rated it a less-than-exciting week.

But the local FFA-ers, including the poultry judging team of Brad Smith, Tim Edick, Dave Frame and alternate Nelson Bollinger, and chapter members Tom Clemens, Jerry Heuhl, and Doug Welshans, besides earning a bronze plaque and medal for their competitive efforts, had some unexpected adventures.

For openers, President Gerald Ford's nationally-televised World Series-bouncing speech last week was at the FFA convention. Another speaker, who did not receive nearly so extravagant media coverage, was Baltimore Oriole Brooks Robinson.

Other activities included a trip to the Agriculture Hall of Fame, to Littens Charlois Ranch, where Charlois cattle are raised, bred, and sold; and to the Allis-Chalmers Gleaner combines manufacturing plant.

Last Year's CHS Graduates Rate Job of Their High School

Last year's college-bound Chelsea students' impressions of the school from which they were about to graduate is the subject of information recently released to Chelsea High School counselors from the American College Test (ACT) Program.

ACT compiled the answers to a series of questions submitted to students taking the test and received the following answers from the Chelsea group of 52 men and 56 women.

Regarding the education they had received to date, the largest percentage, 52 percent, rated Chelsea School District education "good," while 30 percent called it "average." Only 14 percent found it excellent while five percent believed Chelsea education to be "below average." None, however, found it "inadequate."

Voting on various aspects of their high school, students were able to rate themselves as "satisfied" or "dissatisfied." Chelsea students were most satisfied (51 percent) with the instruction at their school, and least satisfied (15 percent) with school policies.

Course offerings were rated the second most satisfactory aspect of Chelsea High school (48 percent), although 38 percent of Chelsea students also said they were dissatisfied with course offerings.

Grading, always a touchy area, found the dissatisfied votes edge out the satisfied, 37 percent to 34 percent.

Tests, however, were found satisfactory by 40 percent of the college-bound local students, and unsatisfactory to only 25 percent.

Guidance department met with generally favorable ratings, as 44 percent of the high school students rated Chelsea counselors "satisfactory." 24 percent were dissatisfied.

Library facilities, however, were found lacking, as 44 percent of the students were dissatisfied with the present library. Twenty-nine percent said they were satisfied with the library.

Laboratories were found to be barely satisfactory, as 34 percent said they were satisfied, against 30 percent who were not.

School policies received the worst rating of any category, with 69 percent of students calling themselves "dissatisfied" and only 15 percent, satisfied.

"Assistance for special needs" was also an area in which students felt Chelsea High School was lacking, as 38 percent were dissatisfied with such assistance, against 22 percent who were satisfied.

"Gifted student assistance" received almost equal ratings from the students, as 31 percent found Chelsea satisfactory in this area, and 32 percent rated themselves dissatisfied.

By more than a two-to-one margin, Chelsea students were dissatisfied with the school's emphasis on career education. Dissatisfied were 52 percent, while only 20 percent were satisfied.

ACT reported that the typical Chelsea student earned a composite score of 21 on the test, compared to the national average of 18.9, and had a high school average of 3.2, compared to the national average of 2.9.

Serious-minded is the word for Chelsea students when they were deciding colleges to send an application, as they rated their potential field of study as most important in their decision. Other factors that contributed, in order of their importance, were cost, location, composition of student body (co-ed, all boys, all girls), institutional type (four years, two years, etc.), extra-curricular activities, and size.

When considering what their educational major in college was to be, business and commerce was far and away the first choice of Chelsea students. Only 10 percent planned to attend an out-of-state college.

Chelsea students believed that they needed special help in college for math (52 percent), educational and vocational plans (51 percent), study skills (39 percent), reading (31 percent), and writing (21 percent).

At the college level, 49 percent of Chelsea college-bound students expressed interest in independent study; 25 percent in honors courses, 37 percent in foreign study, and 63 percent in some kind of advance placement.

At the financial end of things, 68 percent of Chelsea students expected to apply for financial aid, and 67 percent expected to work at a job during the school year and asked for help in locating a school-year job.

Some 63 percent of Chelsea students had participated in special interest groups, such as ski club, judo club, chess club, etc., and expected to continue participation in college. However, the area in which most students had participated in high school but had no similar plans for college was instrumental music (26 percent).

ACT test will be given at Chelsea High school three times this school year, Oct. 19, Dec. 14 and April 26. Registration period is closed for the Oct. 19 test, but remains open for the other two sessions. Seniors interested in registration should contact their counselors.

Dexter Featured as Tourist Attraction in Motor News

Dexter, with its rolling terrain and sparkling Upper Huron River, is highlighted as a top Michigan travel destination in Automobile Club of Michigan's September Motor News magazine.

"Nearby Hudson Mills Metro park features a scenic loop, a nature trail, fine picnic and playground areas, rustic bridges, off-shore fishing and a canoe campsite on the Huron River," Auto Club's 1.1 million reader-members are told.

An article titled "Ten Favorite Southeast Michigan Fishing Spots" cites the Upper Huron River from Dexter to Hell as a fishermen's hotspot for black bass and panfish.

The September Motor News is devoted exclusively to Southeast Michigan and the wide variety of tourism attractions it offers. This eight-county region of woods and waters—which begins at Monroe and stretches almost to the tip of Michigan's Thumb—is extolled in more than a dozen articles, columns and editorials.

One article emphasizes that "Southeast Michigan, with 55 percent of the state's population, has cultural centers, resorts, ski areas, sandy beaches and blue waters. It is a splendid blend of busy urban activity, suburban comforts and rural tranquility."

Dozens of interesting museums, hundreds of lakes, some 200 miles of Great Lakes shoreline; fishing, camping, hiking, boating, sightseeing, plus excellent shopping, sports events, theaters and fine dining contrast with automobile manufacturing and the busiest inland waterway in the world, Motor News points out.

Sid Baker, president of the Southeast Michigan Travel Tourist Association, writes: "Whatever you seek in a vacation trip can be found here. Our lakes, sparkling blue and filled with fighting fish, offer every kind of water sport. Our forests and farmlands provide opportunities to hunt, pick fruit, or just relax. Our hills and valleys afford good hunting, hiking, skiing and snowmobiling. Our many natural and man-made attractions afford ample chance to enjoy culture, history and fine dining. Outstanding parks, recreation systems and camping areas are easily accessible by excellent, toll-free roads."

A gas-saving Southeast Michigan "Think Tank" tour suggests a 180-mile family-fun color tour through the Irish Hills area, which includes some of the state's most breathtaking scenery, among rolling hills and sparkling lakes. Historic spots intertwined with resorts and interesting things to see and do made this trip "an adventure near home."

The publication's "Conservation Corner" column points out that "Southeast Michigan's eight counties team with people and its attractions might seem to lean toward more urban offerings. But for those attracted to the outdoors, this area is by no means the desert one might think."

"Take fishing, for example," the column continues. "It is hard to beat Lake St. Clair, 3,000,000 acres of amazing fish productivity. Some 13 percent of all the fishing that is done in Michigan is on Lake St. Clair, for some 17 varieties of highly desirable game fish. These include the mighty muskellunge, small and largemouth bass, perch, walleyes, bluegills, white bass, catfish and many more."

Motor News Editor Len Barnes points out that Southeast Michigan boasts the state's greatest concentration of fine restaurants, offering every kind of food plus night clubs and resort complexes. He adds that cultural experiences range from symphony and great art theater. Barnes says that Southeast Michigan also has Michigan's single greatest tourist attraction, Greenfield Village. The Detroit River is cited for its constant parade of ships from every country and its easy access to a foreign country (Canada).

"If it were possible to design an area as large as Southeast Michigan ideally for tourism, it would be hard to improve on what is already there," Barnes concludes.

The September Motor News is one of six issues being published this year urging Michigan families to "See Michigan First." Other issues have explored Michigan's vacation potential with other editions devoted to attractions in the Upper Peninsula, East Michigan, and West Michigan. A future Motor News will be devoted to Detroit.

NORWEGIAN FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT Rolf Lomo looks over some schoolbooks with his American brother, Bill Fox. Rolf, 17, is spending this year with the Donald Fox family on Harper Dr.

YFU Student from Norway Still Marvels at American TV

While most high school graduates would be rejoicing at never having to see another day within high school walls, Rolf Lomo was getting ready to attend a high school a good deal different from the one from which he graduated.

Rolf, 17, is a Norwegian high school graduate and this year a foreign exchange student at Chelsea High School.

Classified as a senior at the local school, Rolf is studying government, German, typing, Spanish, and physical education in a system that he notes "is quite different" from the Norwegian educational set-up.

"In Norway," he says, "our classes are different every day—we don't follow the same schedule all week, but the same people are in our classes."

When he returns to Norway, Rolf will have the option of attending the folkehogskole, a level of education that he says has no American equivalent.

"We go to the folkehogskole for the 10th year of school—if we want to," he says. "It is possible to graduate from high school after nine years, or to go on for one more year. During the last year, we are allowed to do what we want, study whatever we like, to see what we want to do. After this year, we are ready to go to college."

Rolf is currently considering the possibilities of a career in nursing or medicine, and in fact was initially enrolled in Chelsea's nurse's aide course, but decided to wait until next term for such a time-consuming course, if he still wishes to take it.

The son of Annelise and Tore Lomo of Rena, a small town "about the size of Chelsea" in southern Norway, Rolf has three sisters, one 23, living in Denver Colo., with her husband, who was provided with a scholarship to the university providing that he would compete in ski jumping; another, a secretary in Oslo; and the third, a nine-year-old adopted Vietnamese girl.

Since arriving in Chelsea, Aug. 13, he has traveled to northern Michigan and Cedar Point with the Donald Fox family of Harper Dr., with whom he lives, and has found that Chelsea "is not much different from my home."

Noticeable differences, he says, he says, are obvious things like American television—he seems still amazed at the very quantity of it. "In Norway—I am almost embarrassed to say—we get one channel, from around five to six at night," Rolf explains. "We get some news programs, and some old American movies—oh, and 'Columbo' every week. And sometimes things are on twice in a week, so everyone can see them."

Norwegians also eat a good deal more fish and correspondingly less meat than Americans, notes. "In fact," he adds, "I have not had fish since I came here."

Rolf, who enjoys skiing, hopes to visit his sister in Colorado to try his skill at American mountains. A visit to Rochester, N.Y., to see an American Youth for Understanding student who stayed with his family this summer for two months is also hoped for.

All in all, a year in the United States—even for more high school—seems an interesting way to spend a year for Rolf.

WHEAT

Wheat is the most basic human food of the temperate zone. It grows well under fertile, well-drained conditions—but can rapidly exhaust the soil. Newer breeds are more resistant to disease and have shown marked improvement in yield to that of their predecessors.

Then vote your convictions on Nov. 5th. Keep in mind that the best way to "throw away your vote" is to vote for "the lesser of two evils"; it's still evil, and self-defeating as well!

NORM BREHOB supports

1. Large scale, across-the-board tax reduction thru
2. Reduction in Government size and reach and
3. More individual responsibility — less welfare.
4. Lower utility rates and better service thru less regulation and more competition.
5. Mass transit supported by users — not tax-payers.
6. Total local financing and control of public schools.
7. Uncompromised individual right to own and control private property.
8. Keeping "revenue sharing" money in Michigan — eliminating Federal brokerage fee.
9. Michigan independence from Regional Government as imposed by Executive Order 11647.
10. The Constitutional right to own firearms.
11. Protection of the unborn.

State Survey Shows Majority of School Districts Favor Bursley Plan

Michigan's new state school aid law, the Gilbert E. Bursley School District Equalization Act of 1973, has won a dramatic vote of approval in a recent state-wide survey of all Michigan school districts.

Seven out of 10 Michigan school districts favored the Bursley Act over any past method of funding or over any other potential plan they could suggest.

The actual question put to all 586 school districts in a survey made by the Office of Governor William G. Milliken read as follows:

"Would you favor staying with the principle of the Bursley Equal Yield Formula or returning to the principle of Gross Allowance and Deductible Millage? If you favor another approach, please describe."

Of the 430 districts that responded to the poll, 296 or 69 percent favored the Bursley Equal Yield Formula. These districts represented 61 percent of the student enrollment.

Only 46 districts or 11 percent favored returning to Michigan's previous Deductible Millage Formula. These districts represented only 4 percent of the enrollment.

Sixty-one districts or 14 percent or 6 percent favored some other potential approach to public school finance.

Of this latter group, 10 districts favored the so-called "Equal Quality Plan" which was discussed in state government some years back. Only five districts favored turning to a system of full state funding. The remaining 12 districts had various other suggestions for alternate models of state aid distribution.

One feature of the Bursley Act drew an even stronger endorsement than the basic formula. Fully 79 percent of the districts responding praised the multi-year nature of the Bursley Act and stated that it had helped in their planning. They favored a continuing of the practice of writing state school aid acts for two or more years.

"I am tremendously gratified by the response by this survey," said Senator Bursley, chairman of the Senate Education Committee and Assistant Majority Leader of the Senate.

"I had received many individual statements of approval from districts throughout Michigan, but this is the first total survey made with the results clear for anyone's analysis."

"The very basis of the Bursley Act was my belief that education is and must be legally regarded as a fundamental interest which cannot be conditioned upon wealth, whether individual wealth or the tax-base wealth of a school district as a whole."

"The fact that such a large portion of our Michigan districts find the direction we have taken to be superior, not only to our former system but to any other finance concept that might be considered, is very reassuring to me."

Ralph Wurster Named Plant Superintendent of Alloy Metal Abrasives

Ralph Wurster, personnel manager and purchasing agent of the Alloy Metal Abrasives Division of Ervin Industries, Adrian, has been named plant superintendent of the division.

Wurster joined Ervin Industries in 1953 at the Ann Arbor headquarters. In 1961 he was transferred to Adrian as purchasing agent and in 1971 he was named personnel manager. He lives at 120 Arden Lane, Chelsea.

SAYING GRACE

When the missionary came upon a lion in the jungle he naturally went to his knees in prayer. The lion knelt beside him. "Great to have you join me in prayer," trembled the cleric. "Don't interrupt me when I'm saying grace," roared the lion!

First in Series of Travelogues Will Be Presented Saturday

On Saturday evening, Oct. 26, Chelsea Kiwanis Club will present its first program of the "Travel and Adventure Series" at 8 p.m. in Chelsea High School Auditorium.

Robert Brouwer is a resident of Grand Rapids, a former electrical contractor whose avocation took over from his vocation. His background and experience have proved valuable in planning and designing much of the special equipment used for his unique presentations. Three screens, four projectors, quality stereo music and sound, and controlled lighting and blending contribute to the drama and artistry of Brouwer's productions. The realism of panoramic views and dimensional sound succeeded in putting the viewer on the spot.

His first presentation "America—Of Thee I Sing" was awarded a Freedom's Foundation of Valley Forge medal for distinguished service in promoting the American way of life. He was commissioned by interested groups, and the national tourist association of the Netherlands, to produce a travelogue on Holland—an unprecedented arrangement in the travelogue field. In 1973, he was the recipient of an Award for Film Excellence from the International Platform Association.

Brouwer here presents a sequel to award-winning "Of Thee I Sing." The subject is presented with an unusual artistic theme. Tour the gallery called American to see the best of America's beauty framed in mood-setting music.

See patriots portraits blend into their former surroundings. Our first subject never sat for his portrait. He is the American Indian. His scenes haunts ranged from the sleepy southern bayous to the rugged northwest coast. Lincoln met many people who shaped his future as he strolled the shaded street of New Salem and Springfield, Ill. Ulysses S. Grant was a familiar figure on the porch of his handsome brick home or on the town streets of Galena, Ill.

Street scenes beckon you into historical restored towns. View America's oldest house and the impressive fort in St. Augustine, Fla. Mystic Seaport, Conn. holds an unsurpassed collection of storied sailing ships in appropriate maritime settings. The decor of yesterday is displayed in gracious Southern plantation mansions along the Mississippi River.

Contemporary Skylines lure you to bustling New York, romantic New Orleans, stately Washington, D.C., cosmopolitan San Francisco, thriving Chicago and Detroit. Enjoy splendid waterfalls, from America's highest to the rippling cascades in the Porcupine Mountains.

Reminisce upon your own travels as you view this artistic collection. Come away with renewed appreciation of our cultural and natural heritage.

LEMMINGS—Every three or four years, a population explosion of these small rodents triggers a mass migration which sees thousands of them die. While living they grow to a length of about five inches, have short tails and ears covered with thick fur.

CELEBRATE—Is it possible that Americans celebrate the 4th of July because there are over 4 million kids away at camp on that day?

ROBERT BROUWER

He is the aura of fiestas in San Diego and San Antonio.

Seascapes of striking coastal settings are combined with pictorial lighthouses along the ocean and Great Lakes. Interesting underwater shots prove that not all the beauty is above the surface of the sea.

Fantastically created sculptures carved by wind and sand are seen in Garden of the Gods, White Sands National Monument, and many locations famous for color and contour.

Mountain landscapes include views of the Rockies, the high Sierra crests, tantalizing Mt. Ranier, craggy Mt. Olympus, the spires of the Tetons, the hazy Smokies, autumn in the Copper Range, and the memorials of faces of Mt. Rushmore.

Enjoy splendid waterfalls, from America's highest to the rippling cascades in the Porcupine Mountains.

Reminisce upon your own travels as you view this artistic collection. Come away with renewed appreciation of our cultural and natural heritage.

CELEBRATE—Is it possible that Americans celebrate the 4th of July because there are over 4 million kids away at camp on that day?

Vet Groups Seek OK on Vietnam Bonus

Two years of intense activity by the state legislature, Governor's office, the State Commanders Group, Michigan Veterans Trust Fund Board of Trustees, and other persons involved in the states veterans program came to a fruitful end when Gov. William G. Milliken approved Act 106 early in May, placing the question of paying a Vietnam bonus to Michigan Vietnam and other veterans on the November general election ballot.

Michigan's Vietnam veterans are hoping that the approximate 112,000 "no" voters that defeated a similar proposal in 1972 have had a change of heart and will vote "yes" on this issue when they go to the polls Nov. 5.

The bonus proposal calls for an authorization by the people to allow the state to borrow $205 million and issue general obligation bonds and pledge the state's faith and credit to pay the bonus.

In addition to the bonus proposal a $1.1 billion bond issue will be on the ballot to raise funds for mass transit use. Michigan's veterans, who have wholeheartedly supported the legislature and Governor Milliken in their efforts to get a bonus proposal on the ballot have supported the mass transit issue, and ask the voters not to overlook the fact that the question of the bonus being a smaller bond issue should not influence the voter's conscience in November.

Recently the State Commanders Group went on record by making the following statement: "Michigan Vietnam veterans deserve a military bonus. The state paid a bonus to its World War I, World War II and Korean Conflict veterans. The State Commanders Group challenges one and all to follow its lead in seeking active support of this bonus proposal."

More than 1,500 local posts of the American Legion, AMVETS, Disabled American Veterans, Marine Corps League, Military Order of the Purple Heart, United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Veterans of World War I of the U.S.A., have been supplied with a bonus promotional packet by the Commanders Group; and through a co-ordinated effort at the local level, these posts will be asking Michigan voters to vote "yes" on the bonus proposal N.p.v. 5.

Postal Service Halts Delivery Of Unpaid Mail

Postmaster General E. T. Klassen announced Sept. 30 that the Postal Service intends to discontinue delivery of unpaid mail.

The new policy is seen as benefiting the general mailing public now paying for their postal service. "It is unfair," Klassen pointed out, "to burden the vast majority of mailers with costs created by the few who mail without prepayment of postage."

The Postmaster General said postage due delivery has also caused severe financial loss for utility companies, banks, and department stores as well as other business establishments whose volume of unpaid mail has been increasing.

Postal Service officials estimate annual postage due losses to recipients of unpaid mail and the additional losses to the Service run in the million dollar range.

As of Sunday, Nov. 17, all unpaid mail—mail without any postage—will be returned to the sender. Previously unpaid mail was generally delivered postage due.

Mail matter of any class, received at either the office of mailing or the office of the addressee without any postage on it, will be endorsed: "returned for postage," and returned to the sender. No attempt will be made to collect postage due.

If the envelope does not contain a return address, it will be sent to the dead letter office for appropriate handling.

The Postal Service said the new regulation does not affect business reply mail, federal government and free mail delivery to the blind, armed forces mail, or keys and identification devices returned to owners.

According to postal regulations, which have the full force of laws, prepaid postage is required on mail matter. In addition, under the Federal Criminal Code, any person who willfully deposits unpaid mail in a mailbox or collection facility with intent to avoid prepayment of postage can be prosecuted and is subject to a fine of as much as $300.

What's Cooking in Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Department
Marketing Information Specialist

Michigan harvest days for fresh vegetables are nearing an end, according to marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, but you have a few weeks left to enjoy them.

Whether you cook vegetables fresh, can or freeze them for later use, nutritionists say they offer vitamins and minerals essential for a well-balanced diet.

Prepare a winning combination of flavors, colors and textures with Michigan vegetables. Mrs. Lenore Swank, a resident of Cassopolis, did and brought home $3,000 in the national 1974 chicken cook-off recently.

Using mushrooms, carrots, onions, wine and poultry, she prepared an economical recipe for Wine-glazed Chicken and Vegetables and placed third among 51 contestants.

To prepare Mrs. Swank's recipe at home for your enjoyment, spinkle a broiler-fryer chicken, quartered, with a teaspoon of flavor enhancer, 1/2 teaspoon salt and teaspoon pepper. Heat one-fourth cup vegetable oil in skillet over medium heat. Add chicken, brown lightly; then remove.

Mix together two tablespoons flour, a teaspoon sugar, one-eighth teaspoon each of dry rosemary and thyme, stir into pan drippings to make a smooth paste. Add two tablespoons lemon juice, liquid from a 4-ounce can of mushrooms. And 1/2 cup of chicken broth cook, stirring until it boils. Add 1/2 cup of burgundy wine, 12 small onions, peeled, one pound of small carrots, the mushrooms and chicken. Reduce heat, cover and simmer 30 minutes.

Remove cover, continue cooking over higher heat until most liquid is evaporated and chicken and vegetables are coated with thick, rich glaze. Garnish with parsley. Serves four.

Conservation in the Cold

By John C. Sawhill
Federal Energy Administrator

Want to save energy and money while keeping Jack Frost's chill out of your home this winter? Here are a few tips.

Before you switch on your furnace, have it serviced by a reputable dealer. A well-adjusted furnace will use up to 10 percent less fuel. At today's energy prices, think of how much you'll save!

Be sure to ask the service man to oil the motor, tighten and oil blowers, adjust or replace fan belts, check thermostat operation; clean or replace air filters; check air volume, burners, combustion chamber, and flue. Also ask him about the possibility of installing smaller jets in the burner to increase heating efficiency.

Once your furnace is in tiptop shape, don't forget the savings of energy and money you can make by lowering your thermostat to 65-68 degrees during the day and 60 degrees at night.

Doctors tell us it's not healthful to step out of overheated homes and offices into the winter's cold. So let's keep those thermostats down like we did last winter. Each one degree you dial down can save between 2 and 3 percent of the fuel you buy.

If you have a steam or hot water heating system, you can conserve energy by draining the pipes once before you turn the system on this winter; by using heat reflective enamel paints on radiators; and by keeping radiators clean.

Also, try placing a sheet of aluminum foil against the wall behind your radiator. This will help reflect heat directly into the room you're paying to keep warm. Have an electric heating system? Consider installing a heat pump. These devices take latent heat from the cold outside air and use it to warm the inside of your home. They also supplement your air conditioning unit in the summer. They're expensive, but can cut your electric heating costs as much as 80 percent.

Don't forget that any heating system will give you more warmth per dollar with proper home insulation. Six inches of mineral wool, fiber glass, or cellulose in your attic can cut fuel costs by 20 percent. Caulking, weatherstripping and installation of storm windows and doors can also cut your fuel costs.

Saving America's energy this winter must be everybody's business. So take a close look at your heating system and keep those thermostats down—two simple steps that make energy sense and save your money.

ASCS Sets Committee Election Date

Earl Dolezky, chairman of the Washtenaw county ASCS office, announced that the election of ASCS community committees is scheduled for Dec. 2, a farm vote that will affect virtually every farmer in the state.

ASC committees are responsible for administering ASCS farm programs through the county ASCS office. County ASCS offices are field offices of the USDA and serve as headquarters for the ASCS committees in carrying out farm programs.

ASC committee elections are unique in that only farmers may vote and serve on the committees and the elections are held by mail. Farmers are already nominating candidates, by mail, to be placed on the ballot for community committee. By Oct. 29, all nominating petitions will be mailed to county ASCS offices where ballots will be prepared, listing at least six candidates for the office. By Nov. 22, ballots will be mailed to all farmers eligible to vote. Farmers have until Dec. 2 to mark their ballots for the three farmers of their choice to serve on the community committee.

Shortly after Dec. 2, the ballots will be counted and the three winners will be notified of their election. All three community committee members will serve as delegates to the convention where they will elect area farmers to fill vacancies on the county committee and to select the chairman and vice-chairman of the county committee for the coming year. Committee members take office Jan. 1, 1975, and are responsible for the day-to-day administration of USDA farm programs.

The farmer committee system, originated over 35 years ago, has continued to be the most effective method of administering farm programs yet devised, stated Dolezky, and no other group of citizens has so direct a voice in running government programs.

ASK THE GOVERNOR

by William C. Milliken

Question: Now that gas prices are so high and there is a fuel shortage, drilling for natural gas and oil in the Great Lakes?

Answer: No, I am emphatically opposed to off-shore drilling for natural gas and oil in the Great Lakes. The potential dangers from a "well incident" in those waters far outweigh any benefits that could be derived from drilling and production activities.

At the same time, this state adopted a ban on drilling in Michigan waters of the Great Lakes several years ago. I see no reason to abandon that posture. To permit off-shore drilling in the Great Lakes would turn back the clock on the substantial progress Michigan has made in protecting the environment.

Today, the Department of Natural Resources is stocking trout and salmon in the Detroit River because of improvement in the river's water quality. Lake Erie, classified by some just a few years ago as a "dead sea" has a vigorously expanding sport fishery. And throughout the Great Lakes waters of Michigan, levels of pollutants in fish have dropped dramatically. To permit off-shore drilling after the substantial problem of a monumental environmental blunder.

A program permitting off-shore drilling in the Great Lakes could not only be detrimental to the environment but would have a substantial negative impact on our state's tourist industry—now the second leading contributor to our economy.

Question: It seems to me that too often our government responds more readily to special interests than to the people's needs. Can't we do something about lobbyists?

Answer: In October of 1973, I proposed far reaching political reforms in the areas of campaign finance, open meetings in government, candidate personal disclosure, and lobby disclosure. Michigan's legislature has enacted one of these, campaign finance reform, and in those 11 months, has held only one committee hearing on lobby reform. Our present lobby law is inadequate and must be updated. It does not, for example, provide for any public disclosure of lobbyist expenditures on behalf of public officials. If we are to restore public confidence in politics and government, we must expose the entire system of special interest representation to public scrutiny.

I believe that a lobby reform act should require at least quarterly open and public reporting of all expenditures made by lobbyists which benefit public officials in branches of government, with strong enforcement penalties.

The days of secret transactions, special interest group purchases of legislation, and behind the scenes trading should be put behind us. Michigan's citizens demand and deserve a full accounting of whom public officials owe to whom. Disclosure of lobbying activities should be high on the legislative list of needed governmental reforms.

Question: Can you tell me about Vietnam Bonus program in Michigan?

Answer: On election day, Nov. 5, state voters will have the opportunity to vote on whether or not to provide a bonus to our Vietnam era veterans.

Proposal B, if adopted by the people, would provide a bonus of $600 to the state's combat veterans, and non-combat veterans with a bonus of $15 per month up to a maximum of $450.

I strongly support Proposal B and I hope that the citizens of Michigan will join me in voting "Yes" on the proposition.

There are many, many reasons why I believe so strongly that the people of this state should approve that proposition.

State voters approved a bonus for World War I veterans, World War II veterans, and for our Korean veterans. I can't think of a better way of showing our Vietnam-era veterans that we appreciate the sacrifices they made than by approving the bonus by an overwhelming margin.

I want to emphasize one other fact, and that is that the voters of Michigan can approve Proposal B and Proposal D—the transportation bond issue—without creating the need for new taxes next year.

We can meet the obligations of Proposals B and D, as well as our other essential obligations, with revenues derived from existing taxes while preserving the one-half billion dollar tax cut that was adopted at my request.

CIRCA 1905 PHOTO of Chelsea's railroad depot and some of the men who worked for the then-Michigan Central Railroad, was brought in to The Standard for publication this week by Mrs. Marian Page Rutledge of 501 W. Middle St. Mrs. Rutledge says that from the lack of a hedge near the tracks, which was there in her childhood, she believes that the photo may have been taken

SEC ROUND-UP:

Novi Needs Only One More Win To Clinch Third Conference Title

Novi roared into an at-least-a tie situation in the Southeastern Conference by dumping the toothless Brighton Bulldogs Friday night, 28-8, for their third SEC title in as many years.

A big total of 300 yards of total offense led Novi into their domination of the Bulldogs, headed by Randy Worten's performance, which included TD's scored on 20-yard and 30-yard passes.

Novi, now at 5-0 in the SEC, must win only a single game to clinch the conference title.

Chelsea 28, South Lyon 21—

Chelsea defense, long-touted as the only game in town, lost out to the Chelsea offense as the prime factor in Friday night's edging of South Lyon that eliminated the Lions from SEC title contention.

Down 21-20 with six minutes remaining in the game, Chelsea quarterback Todd Ortbring hit junior end Jim Boyer with a touchdown pass on a third-and-five play, then passed to Boyer again for the two point conversion play.

Early Chelsea touchdowns were penetrated by Tim Reed, on a three-yard run; Howard Salyer, on a 38-yard pass from Ortbring; and Ortbring, on a four-yard run of his own.

Milan 28, Lincoln 23—

Railsplitters and Big Red traded touchdowns until the end, but Milan managed to stay ahead by virtue of its tough air game.

Scoring for Milan were Mike Love, on a 61-yard run; Fred Peterson, from two yards and one yard; Pat Burns, on a 35-yard touchdown pass from Brian Polzin; and Gary Girard, on a 33-yard pass from Polzin.

Saline 40, Dexter 8—

Saline went wild on the down-trodden Dexter Dreadnaughts Friday night, allowing only a pair of Dexter tallies, Rob Tot's two-yard touchdown and Mark Cunningham's two-point run in the third period, to struggle through into the endzone.

Meanwhile, Hornets who scored included Gene Robinson, who went in for six points from a yard out in the first period; Rick Stemm, who grabbed a 26-yard pass from Tim Slepky for a TD; Mark Vanderpool, who scored on runs of nine and 27 yards, Ed Charlton, who came in after catching a 22-yard Steve Monty pass; and Jim Hart, who plunged for the final TD.

Listed in Who's Who for High Schools

1974 Chelsea High school graduate Dale Koch was recently notified that he will be featured in the eighth edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students for 1973-74.

Dale, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Koch of 613 Main St., during his high school years was an active member of the National Honor Society, the Chelsea High school varsity debate squad which placed in the top 10 in state championship competition, and in the Senior Trip Club.

He compiled a number of awards in industrial arts and in debate. He was the recipient of the 1974 Industrial Arts Award and in state competition he placed fifth twice with entries in electronics. In debate he compiled three first-place trophies, one from the Ypsi Novice Tournament and two from State League. He also received the Certificate of Merit from the Detroit Free Press for outstanding achievement in Debate during the 1973-74 season.

A cum laude graduate of Chelsea High school, he was also the recipient of certificate of recognition from the State of Michigan Competitive Scholarship Program. Dale is presently attending Michigan State University, and is majoring in electrical engineering.

Jayvees Drub S. Lyon, Still Undefeated

Chelsea JV griders drubbed South Lyon, 34-0, to retain their undefeated Southeastern Conference record.

Junior Bulldogs began slow in the first quarter, running the score to 8-0 when John Toon went 40 yards on a counter and Tony Robards ran for the extra points.

Neither squad scored during the second-quarter defensive battle. Chelsea opened the third quarter with an 85-yard drive, with Anthony Houle going the final five yards for the touchdown. Tony Robards again added the extra points. Junior Bulldogs went wild in the fourth quarter, beginning with the second play, when Anthony Houle went one yard for a TD to boost the score to 22-0.

John Adams then ran 30 yards on a counter for another six points, then Joe Branham intercepted a pass deflected by Anthony Houle and ran it for 20 yards for another TD.

With the score 34-0, Houle intercepted a South Lyon pass on Chelsea's five-yard line to stop the Junior Lions' last opportunity to score.

Defensively Chelsea was led by George Menge with 11 tackles, Scott Owings with nine, Rich Da-
