Gridders Close Out Good Season With Loss to Jackson Northwest

A reasonably bright over-all season for Chelsea's varsity gridders came to a gloomy finale on the home field Friday night when the Bulldogs were roundly trounced by a rampaging Jackson Northwest squad, 38-13.

The defeat by non-league Northwest dipped Chelsea's season record to 6-3, but did not affect the team's 5-2 conference record that earned them a tie for second place with Saline and South Lyon in the Southeastern Conference.

Chelsea led off the scoring in the first quarter, when a 28-yard halfback pass from Randy Guenther to Jim Boyer yielded paydirt. An Ishmael Picklesimer kick for the extra point was good, to put Chelsea ahead for the only time during the contest, 7-0.

Bulldogs then mounted a drive that consumed 78 yards in 12 plays before Northwest recovered a Chelsea fumble on the 15-yard line.

From that point, the game turned to Northwest, which came back with a string of three TD's, three successful extra point kicks, and a field goal to take a 24-7 half-time lead. Paul Moniodis led the Jackson offensive attack, scoring a pair of six-pointers on runs of 20 and three yards. Roger Buksar kicked the points after following the Moniodis touchdowns, then added a 13-yard field goal to ice the Jackson lead.

Keith Wilcox also scored, running 78 yards after a pass interception.

Chelsea returned after the half, scoring on a 66-yard Todd Ortbright pass to Tres MacCollum. The run for two points after was not good.

Northwest's second half performance was almost totally Buksar. He ran five yards for a touchdown to open the half, then kicked his own extra point, before Brian Wilcox stole some of the second-half show by grabbing a 40-yard pass and running into the end zone. Buksar then kicked the extra point for the final Jackson tally.

Northwest turned up a net rushing of 147 yards and net passing of 111 yards to yield a total offensive figure of 258 yards. Despite their low score, however, Chelsea gained nearly the Jackson figure, a total of 250 yards.

Defensively the Bulldogs were led by Dave Keiser with eight tackles, Doug Reed with six, and Dennis Bauer and Les Sharp with five.

Social Service Agency Staff Asks Help in Preparing for Christmas

Nobody normal who is over the age of 10 is counting the days until Christmas—except Chelsea Social Service.

Where anticipating Thanksgiving and the very idea of eating that much seems quite enough, thank you, without also considering buying presents, wrapping, decorating, and baking for the big holiday, Chelsea Social Service has a few more people to care for than your average American family of mother, father, and 2.5 children.

So forgive Mrs. Linda Ormsby and her Social Service helpers if they seem to be jumping the gun a bit on old St. Nick.

Starting with first things first, Mrs. Ormsby, director of Chelsea Social Service, needs initially to know how many Christmas lists her agency will be on; that is, how many families are in need of the agency's help at Christmas time.

Last year, 38 families were able to eat heartily on Christmas day, thanks to donations of canned goods from the community, Jiffy Mixes from Chelsea Milling, and purchase orders good for meat from Chelsea Social Service.

And 88 children came away with that special Christmas glow that comes of being remembered by an unexpected friend. Toys ranging from footballs and basketballs to dolls in the most delicate finery were picked and chosen by needy children of the community who otherwise, in these days, probably wouldn't even get coal in their stockings.

Like the scrupulous Santa-surrogate she is, Mrs. Ormsby is currently reviewing her 1973 list of recipients of Social Service's Christmas cheer in an effort to determine who still needs assistance during the time of giving.

She asks that people who know families who would otherwise probably have a less-than-merry Christmas, or the families themselves, contact her with this information soon, to enable her to gear her collections of food and toys to the correct number.

"People needn't think that a family has to be receiving some kind of aid to benefit from Chelsea Social Service," Mrs. Ormsby pointed out. "A lot of our cases we have one year, then the next year we don't, and we never have them again. A family that has a personal or financial crisis and is in temporary need is certainly eligible for Christmas assistance from us."

Potential benefactors of Social Service's Christmas generosity must also make themselves known as soon as possible, Mrs. Ormsby noted. "We have to have a good idea of what we're getting and know well ahead of time how much food or how many toys we need to buy."

To notify Mrs. Ormsby of donations, or of families who are in need, contact her at the Chelsea Social Service office, second floor of the Municipal Building, or call 475-1581 Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. She may also be called at home.

Break-in, Theft Discovered at Chelsea Lumber

Unknown persons attempted to pry open a rear door to the office of Chelsea Lumber Co. sometime during the night Friday, Chelsea police report.

An employee reporting to work Saturday morning discovered that a door knob facing west from the office had been pried off, police said.

Employees of Chelsea Lumber reported Tuesday that $200 worth of socket wrenches that can not be located are believed to have been stolen in the break-in.

Girls Cage Teams Both Down Lincoln

Chelsea girls varsity basketball squad "downed" Lincoln, 40-13, last Thursday, to move into sole possession of first place.

High scorer for Chelsea was Kathy Kuhl, who Coach Cheryl Turner also said "did a particularly outstanding job on rebounds." Kuhl rolled up 17 points.

Other scorers were Julie Assmussen, with six; Char Steinaway and Shawn Spaulding with five; Mickey Bridges with four; and Debbie Bertke and Alice Juergens with two.

Coach Turner called the game an "excellent defensive game in particular."

JV women also downed Lincoln, 28-11, in a contest in which they "outrun" the opposition, according to Coach Cindy Bradbury.

High scorers for Chelsea were Penny Collinsworth and Teresa Breza with eight points; Sharon Donovan and Nancy Knott with four; and Kyle Parker with two.

SPEAKER TROPHIES were earned in the Dearborn Invitational Novice Tournament Saturday by two Chelsea debaters, Steve LaBarbara, first negative, and Barb Hinderer, second negative.

Novice Debaters Earn Trophies

Negatives turned out to be a positive force Saturday for Chelsea High School novice debaters, as a pair of negative-side speakers came home with speaker trophies for their efforts in the Dearborn Invitational Novice Tournament.

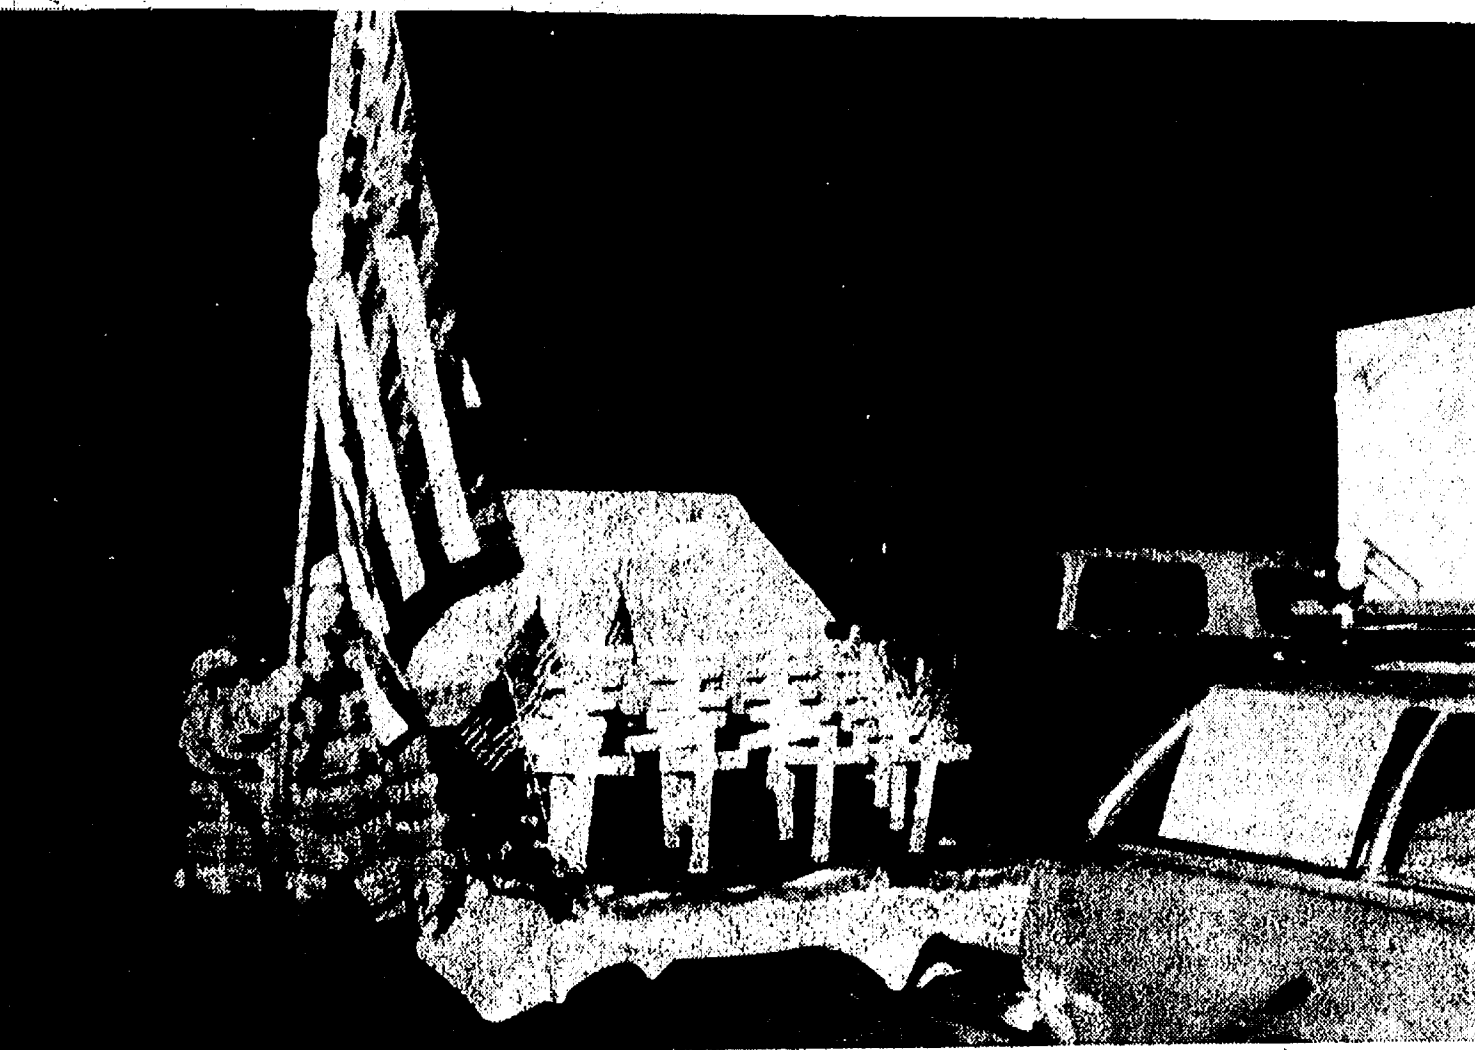

Steve LaBarbara, first negative, and Barb Hinderer, second negative. The pair were members of one of two Chelsea novice squads entered in the competition, and earned a 7-1 record, good for seventh place, in a field of 45 entries. Debating affirmative for the high-placing squad were Dave Pletcher and Rob Wenk. Also earning a respectable score for themselves was the other Chelsea novice entry, which finished with a 5-3 record. Team members were Rick Haller and Mike Hastings, affirmative, and Doug Foreman and Erin Headrick, negative.

VA HOSPITAL VOLUNTEERS, who provide the cheery words and helping hands for veterans hospitalized in Ann Arbor, also provided a float for Monday's Veterans Day parade in Chelsea. The parade, sponsored by Washtenaw County Council of Veterans, is generally held in Ann Arbor, but is now being rotated among surrounding communities to provide them with an opportunity to honor veterans.

Veterans Day Parade Held in Chelsea Honors War Dead

American Legion Post 557, Dexter, participated in the Veterans Day Parade in Chelsea on Monday, Nov. 11 in which a large number of color guards, floats and vehicles representing local, county and state organizations marched in honor of the men and women who died in the service of their country.

The Dexter color guard and several post members marched in the evening parade. George Johnson is commander of the Dexter post. The Dexter Fire Department was also represented with its Model T fire engine.

Michigan is one of a number of states which has returned its observance to the traditional Veterans Day on Nov. 11, instead of Oct. 28 when it was celebrated nationally.

After the parade the Dexter Post returned to their hall for the post meeting and to re-seal the cannon outside the Legion Home. Honored at the meeting were five men who received an award for 30 years consecutive membership in the American Legion. They are Louis Farrell, Harry Boyd, Frank Friesinger, Robert Bailey and Donald Gould.

Hockey Team Organized at Chelsea High

Another facet of the sports world has entered the scene at Chelsea High school, a Chelsea High school Hockey Club, which will begin play Nov. 24.

Although the squad is certain of its first playing date, the opposition team is not yet known. The club is scheduled to play Class A and B Jackson area teams at Jackson, Hartland, and Lansing Metro arenas.

Any player of high school age interested in joining the club is urged to contact Coach Jerry Ringe at 154 E. Middle St., or call 475-2865.

Donations are also needed to help fund the group's necessary expenses for ice time and uniforms, which may also be sent to Coach Ringe.

As part of the Sesquicentennial celebration, documents placed in the cannon in 1914 were removed on Memorial Day. Some of the historic papers included the history of the cannon, a history of soldier's monument, a history of the first GAR Post 5 to initiate the request for the cannon and an Aug. 20, 1914 issue of The Dexter Leader. The Legion replaced these documents and included a Memorial Day issue of The Dexter Leader before they re-sealed the cannon.

Parade marshal for the Veterans Day Parade was Mac Packard, a member of both Chelsea VFW Post No. 4076 and the American Legion Post, No. 31.

JV Gridders Fall to Tough Northwest 11

Chelsea's junior varsity gridders ended a fine season last week by falling to a tough Jackson Northwest squad, 14-6.

Junior Bulldogs began the scoring in the first quarter, when Joe Branham intercepted an errant Northwest pass and raced 21 yards for the TD to put Chelsea in the lead.

Jackson returned in the same period, tallying six points after a 65-yard pass play moved them to the Chelsea six-yard line.

The contest remained all tied up until the third quarter, when Northwest intercepted a Chelsea pass and charged 35 yards for a touchdown to make it 12-6. A fake kick and a pass were then good for two points to yield the final score, 14-6.

Coach Jon Schaffner reported that defensively his Junior Bulldogs were led by John Adams, who recorded 10 tackles; Tony Robards and Rick Davis, who earned nine each; Leon Brown, George Menge, and Scott Owings, eight each; Bruce Stubbs, seven; Joe Branham, six; Anthony Houle and Mike Check, four each; John Push and Dan Cobb, three each; Tim McAllister, Don Holland, and Dale

Other groups represented were the Chelsea Police Department, Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, the U. S. Army Recruiting station of Ann Arbor, Fontana Ambulance Service, Veteran's Administration Hospital in Ann Arbor, Co. D, 158th Sig. Bat. of the Michigan National Guard, U. S. Post Office in Ann Arbor.

Others were American Legion Post No. 31 of Chelsea, Chelsea Fire Department, Washtenaw County Chapter of 40 and 8 with their box car, Beach Middle school and Chelsea High school bands, Girl Scout and Boy Scout troops.

Novice Debate Team Leads in ABC League

Chelsea novice debaters continued their dominance in the ABC League Monday night, as local entries in both the X and Y divisions remained in first place.

Debating for the novice X squad are Julie Chapman and Liam Colvin, affirmative, and Doug Foreman and Barb Hinderer, negative. Debating for the Y squad are Mike Hastings and Rick Haller, affirmative, and Kim Brown and Erin Headrick, negative.

Junior varsity debaters, including Sue Dowhal and Shelley Porath, affirmative, and Dave Frame and Paul Dowhal, negative, are now tied for fourth place in the JV standings.

ABC League is the league in which both beginning debaters, that is, novice, and junior varsity debaters compete to gain experience.

Mother Held In Slaying of Two Daughters

A somber Daniel Schnaidt Tuesday recalled his wife's fear that she might be "gypping" their family of its happiness by her own mental problems.

Mrs. Helen Schnaidt, 23, is being held without bond in Washtenaw County Jail on two counts of first degree murder in the strangulation deaths Friday of her two young daughters.

"Helen's entire life, revolved around those two girls," Schnaidt remembered sadly. "She hadn't had a very good home life herself when she was a child, and she wanted to make sure that they were happy—that they always had enough to eat, and good clothes."

She made sure that they watched "Sesame Street" on television—a good educational show—and she watched closely over the other things they watched on TV.

"When she came home from Mercywood the last time, we discussed getting a 'homemaker' to come into the house and help her with the children," Schnaidt said. "But Helen said, 'I want to do this on my own. These are my children; they're my responsibility. I want to care for them myself.'"

Chelsea police and Washtenaw County Assistant Prosecutor Lynwood Noah report that the two Schnaidt girls, Jean Marie, three, and Arlene, two, were strangled in the family home at 219 Railroad St. at approximately 2 p.m. Friday.

Chief of Police George Meranuck was alerted to the situation by a call from Ann Arbor psychiatrist Dr. Arcadio Ramirez, who had been treating Mrs. Schnaidt recently. He asked that officers investigate at the Schnaidt home.

At the home, Chief Meranuck and Officer Roger Graves found Mrs. Schnaidt in her living room.

"I did it. They're in the bedrooms," Mrs. Schnaidt said, according to Chief Meranuck.

Police found the girls on beds in separate bedrooms, they said. One had been strangled with a child's jump rope, the other with an electrical cord. Dr. Marguerite Shearer of the Chelsea Medical Clinic arrived within minutes of a call and pronounced both girls dead at the scene.

Mrs. Schnaidt was placed under arrest and police contacted Prosecutor Noah, who authorized a warrant charging her with two counts of first degree murder. She was transported to Washtenaw County Jail, where she remained Tuesday.

"I spoke to her Friday night on the phone," Schnaidt said, "and she was numb. She was like a person I had never known before."

He mentioned, however, the possibility that doctors may have sedated her after her arrest: "Probably they think that she would try to kill herself once she realized what she had done."

Saturday night Mrs. Schnaidt was arraigned before Judge Henry Arkison in 15th District Court in Ann Arbor. A preliminary examination has been set for Nov. 21 at 9:30 a.m. in 14th District Court in Saline. Dan Schnaidt confirmed

Tuesday that defense attorneys intend to enter a plea of insanity at that time.

"No one will ever be able to convince me that Helen did this thing—not Helen as I knew her. She simply wasn't herself when it happened," Schnaidt maintained. "It will be a long time before anyone knows what really happened to her."

Schnaidt disputed published reports that Mrs. Schnaidt had more than once threatened to kill herself and the children. "She told me that once she had thought of killing the children, but wouldn't do it because she knew how much it would hurt me."

Schnaidt said that his wife had been suffering from "severe depression" for several months prior to committing herself to Mercywood Hospital Aug. 9. "She had problems that went far back into her childhood that had been—submerged, I guess, for a long time when we were dating and after we were first married."

Mrs. Schnaidt was released from Mercywood after 30 days after treatment that included electric shock. Her emotional state then was better than it had ever been, her husband said, until she was re-admitted to depression some 13 days after her return home and re-admitted herself to Mercywood.

After another 15-day stay in the hospital, her husband said, Mrs. Schnaidt was more determined than ever to solve her problems. "I want to make it on my own," he quoted his wife.

The couple attended counseling sessions at Child and Family Services of Washtenaw County, Schnaidt related, where his wife continually expressed a desire to be a good parent and teach the girls herself. "She didn't want to send them to nursery school; she said teaching them was her responsibility."

She had made an agreement with her psychiatrist, Schnaidt said, that she would call him whenever she was upset, or became severely depressed. "She tried to call him Friday morning, but he was at the hospital and never got the message," her husband said. "She didn't get through to him until after it was all over."

Schnaidt expressed no bitterness toward his wife. "If anything, I love Helen more than ever... she is all I have left now. It's going to take more time, more patience, but with the right care, I hope that she'll be better."

He added that he hopes that his wife will soon be transferred to Ypsilanti State Hospital's Forensics center. "That's where she belongs," he stated wearily, "not in jail... but I guess that's the way the law works."

Wednesday morning, Mrs. Schnaidt appeared in 14th District Court. Her attorney, David McClaughlin, requested and was granted, a waiver of his client's preliminary examination. Mrs. Schnaidt is now scheduled to appear in Circuit Court in Ann Arbor on Friday, Nov. 22 for arraignment.

Bowling Tournament To Aid Burns Fund

"Bowling for Burns," which sounds like it might be a little risky, is actually all for a good cause.

Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary will sponsor the event the week of Sunday, Dec. 15, through Sunday, Dec. 22, to raise donations for the Institute for Burn Medicine, located in Ann Arbor.

People should realize that 40 percent of burn patients are children 10 years of age and younger," said Auxiliary member Sandy Brown. "Chelsea is very fortunate to have the Institute so nearby in Ann Arbor."

Top prizes of $50 will be awarded to winners in categories for both men and women for high series with handicap. Second place winners in each category will receive $25.

Auxiliary and Jaycee members will be at Chelsea Lanes prior to the beginning of each league. Mrs. Brown stated, where participants may register for "Bowling for Burns." Registration fee is $1, and participants should be certain to hand in their scores to a Jaycee or Auxiliary member after their night's bowling.

Support of the Institute for Burn Medicine is a state-wide project of Jaycees and Jaycee Auxiliary. Any non-bowler who would like to contribute to the burns fund should send donations to Chelsea Jaycees, P.O. Box 227, Chelsea 48118.

Barn Destroyed By Fire Friday on D. Raney Farm

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a storage barn on S. Fletcher Rd. Friday afternoon, Chelsea Fire Chief Jim Gaken reports.

The fire, at the Donald Raney home at 1276 Fletcher Rd., also consumed the contents of the barn, which included a garden tractor, roto-tiller, motorcycle, tools, and toys.

Animals that had been housed in the barn escaped, however. Chelsea firemen responded to the call with four trucks and battled the blaze for approximately one-half hour, between 3:30 and 4 p.m., before extinguishing it.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I've heard about looking gift horses in the mouth, but it's seldom you see a feller kick one in the teeth. It looks like that's what William Field is doing. He is a farmer near Shelby, Michigan, and he got a $10,000 grant from the Government for damage to his crops. Now he is spending half of the money to urge folks to get rid of the law that let him get it.

Clem Webster brung up this matter during the session at the country store Saturday night. He said Field ain't biting the hand that feeds him, he's trying to cut off the hole arm. Ed Doolittle said he was glad to see somebody try to make a case again all the giveaways, but he wasn't shore the place to start was on programs for farmers and ranchers.

Field said he wants to put a stop to giving money to everybody that asks for it without looking into the reasons. Ed said Field was complaining cause some folks weren't waiting fer disasters, they was putting in fer grants if the weather report called for a 50 per cent chance of a cold snap that would hurt their crops. Ed said the way he read the papers, the feller was just trying to cut down on disaster grants without disasters.

General speaking, Clem allowed, the federal Government has kept a heap of small farmers and ranchers from going under in bad years, and he was strong in favor of most of the programs. Clem said he would admit that it gits out of line when a big farmer can plant 200 acres of gords knowing he's going to plow em under and collect his disaster grant cause they ain't no market fer gords. But Clem was of a mind that tax money is used in a heap worse ways than to help the farmer.

Bug Hookum was agreed with Clem. Bug said he don't know nothing about foreign policy and he gits that mixed up, but he is yet to figger why some folks think it's the merciful thing to do when we cancel billions of dollars in debts India owes us cause India said it was embarrassing to owe that kind of money. Then they use our money to build a atomic bomb. A feller like Spiro Agnew can settle the $175,000 worth of improvements taxpayers made on his house fer $1,100 and then sell the house at a big profit. Bug went on, but if a dirt farmer gits a low-interest Government loan to try to keep the bank from taking his tractor he's violating some guideline.

Practical speaking, broke in Ed, the bigger you are the more help you can git. Ed said he recalled in the Depression President Hoover set up the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and one of the first loans the RFC made was to the Bank of America. Hoover said later that 90 per cent of the RFC loans went to small businesses, but he didn't add that the big outfits got 90 per cent of the money.

It was Zeke Grubb that put the stopper in the jug, Mister Editor. Zeke said if we think we got a giveaway Government now we ought to let Nelson Rockefeller run it a couple of weeks.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Help on the Way

Consider: 76,321 people died in Michigan in 1971. Estimates are that more than 2,000 of them could have been saved with adequate emergency care.

Consider: 4,428 accidental deaths occurred in Michigan that same year. Estimates are that 684 of those persons, or 15 percent, could have been saved with better rescue and resuscitation techniques.

Frightening figures, included in a public policy statement on "Emergency Medical Services in Michigan," issued earlier this year by the State Health Advisory Council and the Office of Health and Medical Affairs.

A new law may help cut those statistics. Signed into law recently by Gov. William Milliken, the measure allows training and licensing of paramedic units.

This, Milliken says, "gives the green light to the communities that have been waiting for state action to spell out the legal status of emergency medical units and it clarifies the status of the units in cities where they already are operating."

In addition, Milliken declares, "this new law moves us a stage closer to a statewide emergency medical service system which could save as many as 3,000 lives a year—lives now lost needlessly to accidents and heart attacks."

Spelled out in the law is authorization for advanced emergency medical technicians to perform certain life-saving techniques at the scene of an emergency, in conjunction with a cooperating hospital and when given the go-ahead by a doctor.

Such techniques include monitoring and stimulation of the heart, administration of drugs and intravenous fluids, relief of pressure in the chest cavity and removal of fluids from the stomach and air passages.

The legislation also includes liability protection for emergency care given in good faith and in accordance with specific procedures.

Free Trees

Michigan is giving away wood again this year.

Last year, the state says more than 15,000 cords of free wood were carted away from state forests in the northern Lower Peninsula and in the Upper Peninsula.

Interested residents must obtain special permits—available from area foresters in local field offices of the Department of Natural Resources. The permits authorize bearers to take "dead and down" trees remaining in the state forests after timber cutters have been through the area.

Under the wood gathering plan, those who take advantage are not allowed to sell their booty, nor can they use it for commercial purposes.

Any "Dude Farms"?

Dude ranches of a different stripe—that's what the Michigan Department of Agriculture is seeking.

Director B. Dale Ball wants to know if there are any "vacation farms" in the state. That's the type where farmers open their homes and farms to urban dwellers who want a taste of rural life.

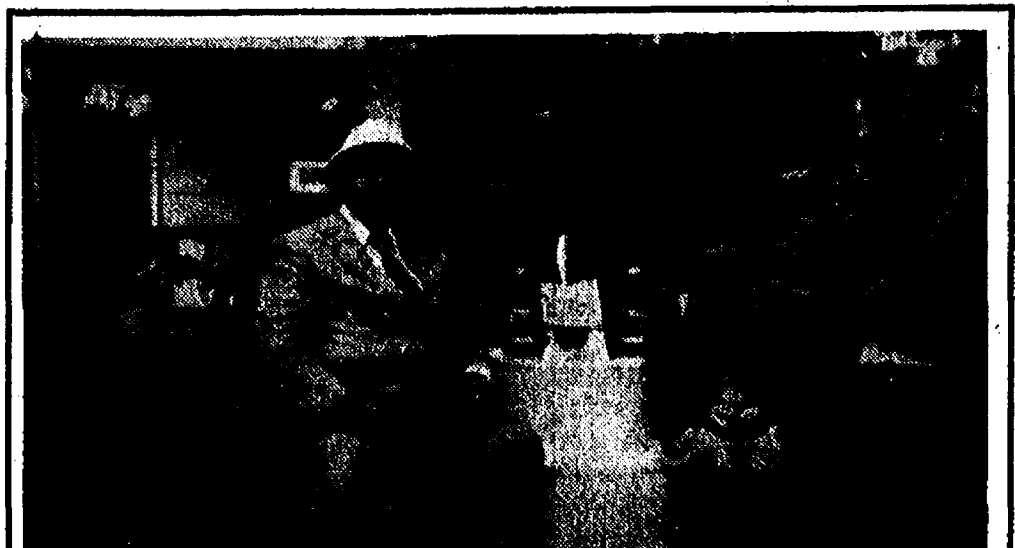

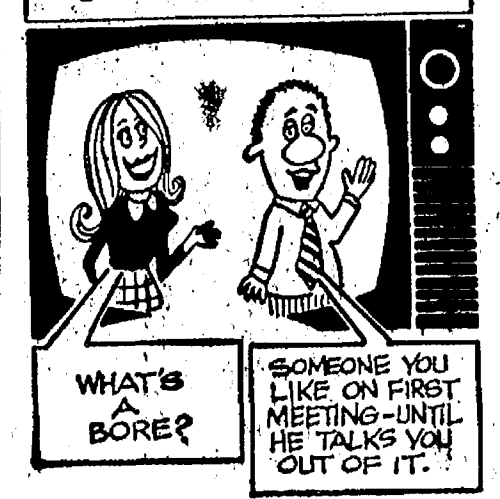

Those paying guests "learn there is more to farming than planting seeds in the earth and watching them grow," Ball says. "When a city child drinks milk he may believe it originated in the supermarket," Ball suggests. "Watching the cows being milked will be a revelation." And a note for parents: "Eating his vegetables might become a pleasure when he's seen ears of corn on the stalks, crisp cucumbers on the vine and has helped to dig potatoes in the field."

A farm vacation can provide insight for adults too.

"Everyone is concerned about food these days, but not everyone understands the work involved in growing food," Ball says. "Living on a farm for a brief period would bring about person-to-person contact between farmers and consumers."

Those Michigan farmers who provide such an experience for city folk are asked to write Ball—at the Michigan Agriculture Department, Lewis Cass Building,

TRAFFIC TOLL DOWN

Chicago — The National Safety Council has reported that partly because of the 55-mile-an-hour speed limit on the nation's highways, 6,000 fewer persons were killed during the first half of 1974 than in the same period a year before.

ED VASAS (55) is a senior end, who at 5'8" and 155 pounds is playing his second year for the varsity squad. A football player since eighth grade, he also enjoys waterskiing in his spare time. After graduation from Chelsea High school, he plans to find a job somewhere in the area. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Vasas, he has one brother, Keith.

MARK BURNETT, a lanky 5'10", 145-pound junior end, is playing his initial year for the varsity squad after participating in football at the junior varsity and freshman levels. An active sports enthusiast, he was last year a varsity track man and bowls in a weekly league Saturdays. Although graduation is far away for this junior, he anticipates that after high school he will attend a trade school or enter some kind of computer work. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Burnett, he has three sisters, Vicki, Jody, and Elaine.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

READING

Teacher: Mrs. Maitland

Brian Donovan won the big owl picture for reading the most books during October. He brought 21 signed slips from his home reading. Dawn Scripser and Jay Marshall tied for second place and took home huge red bookworms to decorate their rooms. They read 19 books each.

The reading classes have been having fun following the adventures of the lost kangaroo. Booklets have been made with stories, pictures and news items. Children have shared books and articles from home about kangaroos. Stories are read in class from readers and library books. Many new things have been learned that we didn't know before about kangaroos and their habits. We all hope that he is caught before he is hurt on the highway.

Everyone wants to join the Reading Team in November. To be a member five books must be read this month. A figure of a football player is then received. Each may choose a helmet color and have his own number put on the shirt. The prize will then decorate the child's room. Three cheers for the Chelsea Reading Team!

FROM MR. WOJICKI

Our Halloween Parade was a sight to see! About 500 children and teachers were dressed in costumes.

We appreciate the Chelsea Police in providing a car to lead the parade.

Our latest count on Campbell Soup labels is 4,100.

THIRD GRADE

Room 15

Teacher: Mrs. Holeska
Reporters: Tanya Matloff and Ted Merkel

Our class is learning how to make cursive letters. We've accomplished writing all the small letters and are now working on the capital letters. In English we are working on nouns, verbs and pronouns. Our word birds help us remember what they are.

In science we are talking about the forms of things and electromagnets. Kurt Eisenbeiser brought in a magnet set with big magnets, little magnets, bar magnets and two electromagnets.

In social studies we are studying the city of Boston, and we have five groups making reports on Paul Revere, the Revolutionary War, lobster fishing, the Boston Tea Party and making shoes.

We are making apple head dolls that will look really old! We have a bulletin board that helps us learn what homonyms are.

In Allen's Pocket we have a riddle every week and some are hard! We also have a Write On corner where we go to write stories.

Tanya Matloff and Jodi Rowe made up a song about Mrs. Holeska. You should hear it!

November birthdays: Danny Darrow, Nov. 1, and Jodi Haller, Nov. 18.

Room 11

Teacher: Mrs. Richardson
Reporters: Kim Smith and Gretchen Vogel

Mrs. Richardson lets us go on into most things fast or slow. On different holidays we make different things. On Johnny Appleseed's birthday we made applesauce; on Halloween we made poems. We are making many reports and stories.

We have mailboxes in our room. They are helpful to Mrs. Richardson, because she can just reach over and stick a letter in.

We made bodies and a report to go with them. We hung them up in the room and hall for open house. We are writing a report on space which has to be finished by December to go to the planetarium.

Room 7

Teacher: Mrs. Verrelli
Reporters: Diane DeSmyther and Shana K. Parker

Room 7 worked on a Halloween bulletin board. In the picture we had ghosts, goblins, skeletons, witches and tombstones. They hung in and out of a haunted house. There is also another bulletin board of a large ghost with a poem written on it. We each made a ghost and wrote our own poems on them. The big ghost fits in the middle of the board.

We have four birthdays in the month of November. The names of the birthday people are: Ricky Boham, Kevin Feldkamp, Susan Oesterle and Dennis Hailey.

Our room had a Halloween party, and we all thank the mothers that helped with the party.

Room 13

Teacher: Mrs. Yager

In social studies we studied about New York City. We drew pictures about transportation. The three important types are: subway, taxi cabs and buses.

In English we are learning about nouns, pronouns and verbs. A verb is what someone is doing; a noun is a person, place or thing; pronouns take the place of nouns. We have written some books. The titles are: We Wonder Why, Sadness Is, Happiness Is, and Have You Ever Seen?

We are busy reading about Pilgrims. We have been writing Pilgrim reports and stories. The Pilgrims made good friends with the Indians.

November birthdays are: Kevin Wahr, Mary Hellner and Mrs. Yager.

FOURTH GRADE

Room 24

Teacher: Mrs. Clark
Editors: Randy Simon and Matt Villemure

Mrs. Clark's class has a papier mache volcano made by Troy Otto and helpers. It has a can in the middle in which we are going to put ammonium dichromate crystals and ignite with a long wooden match. This should make it erupt.

In our studies about Hawaii Mr. Stanfield brought in a muu-muu dress, a Hawaiian shirt, some necklaces, some coral rock and volcanic rock. We had a taste of Hawaiian pineapple and kept the crown. When it gets roots we are going to put it in dirt and hope to get a pineapple in 18 months! We tasted real Hawaiian coconut which we had a little trouble cracking. We also tasted Hawaiian Kiwi. Some of us worked on murals of Hawaii's four important resources: pineapple, sugar cane, trading, tourist attractions.

Supertankers Preferred

Washington—It is more economical for a supertanker to carry oil from the Middle East to European consumers around the southern tip of Africa than for a number of small ships to carry the same quantity through the Suez Canal, according to Petroleum Today magazine. This is true even though rounding the Cape of Good Hope adds weeks to a voyage.

Motor Vehicle Fund Collections Decrease for First Time Ever

For the first time in more than 20 years—ever since Michigan's basic highway law was enacted in 1951—quarterly income for the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund has decreased instead of increasing, the State Highway Commission reported last week.

The fund, generated by the state's tax on motor fuels and license plates, is the major source of revenue for construction and maintenance of the state highway system. It also provides road and street financial assistance to Michigan's counties and incorporated municipalities.

After deductions from the total collection for the Waterways Commission (1.25 percent), one-eighth for the General Transportation Fund (public transit), and administration and collections

If Fuel Shortage Hits Again Remember This

Washington—Should a gasoline shortage occur again, Petroleum Today has dug up this advice from a 1908 automobile instruction manual: "If your engine is warm and you run out of gas, you can nearly always get home on kerosene, or alcohol, or even bad whiskey." Skool!

DIAMONDS

Pike County, Arkansas, is the only locality in the U.S. in which diamonds have been found. More than 10,000 of the precious stones, the largest of which weighed over forty karats, were found there between 1906 and 1930.

All food processing establishments from pickle packing plants to Michigan's many bakeries receive periodic inspections by the Consumer Protection Bureau of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Save money this winter.

Cut your heating costs up to 17% with our official insulation program.

Last fall, at the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Michigan Consolidated introduced a low-cost home ceiling insulation program designed to conserve Natural Gas and cut heating costs up to 17%.

How successful has the program been? Well, in the past 10 months, more than 37,700 homeowners have installed ceiling insulation and, as a result, over one billion cubic feet of Natural Gas per year is being conserved. That's enough to heat over 6,500 additional homes this winter. And, that's why we're continuing our insulation program again this fall. Because now is the time to insulate and save.

The heart of our program is simply this: Install six inches of ceiling insulation in your home. It's a quick, easy and inexpensive project that most homeowners can accomplish by themselves for about $100.

How can you get the job done? First, you can do it yourself, and we'll gladly provide a free handbook that tells you how. Secondly, you can have it done by an insulation contractor and, if you wish, we will provide you with a list of qualified firms. Or, third, we can have the job done for you through one of our participating subcontractors. The cost is often under $200 for homes with less than 1,000 square feet of ceiling area.

If you want the job done through one of our participating subcontractors, we have a payment plan to suit every budget. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

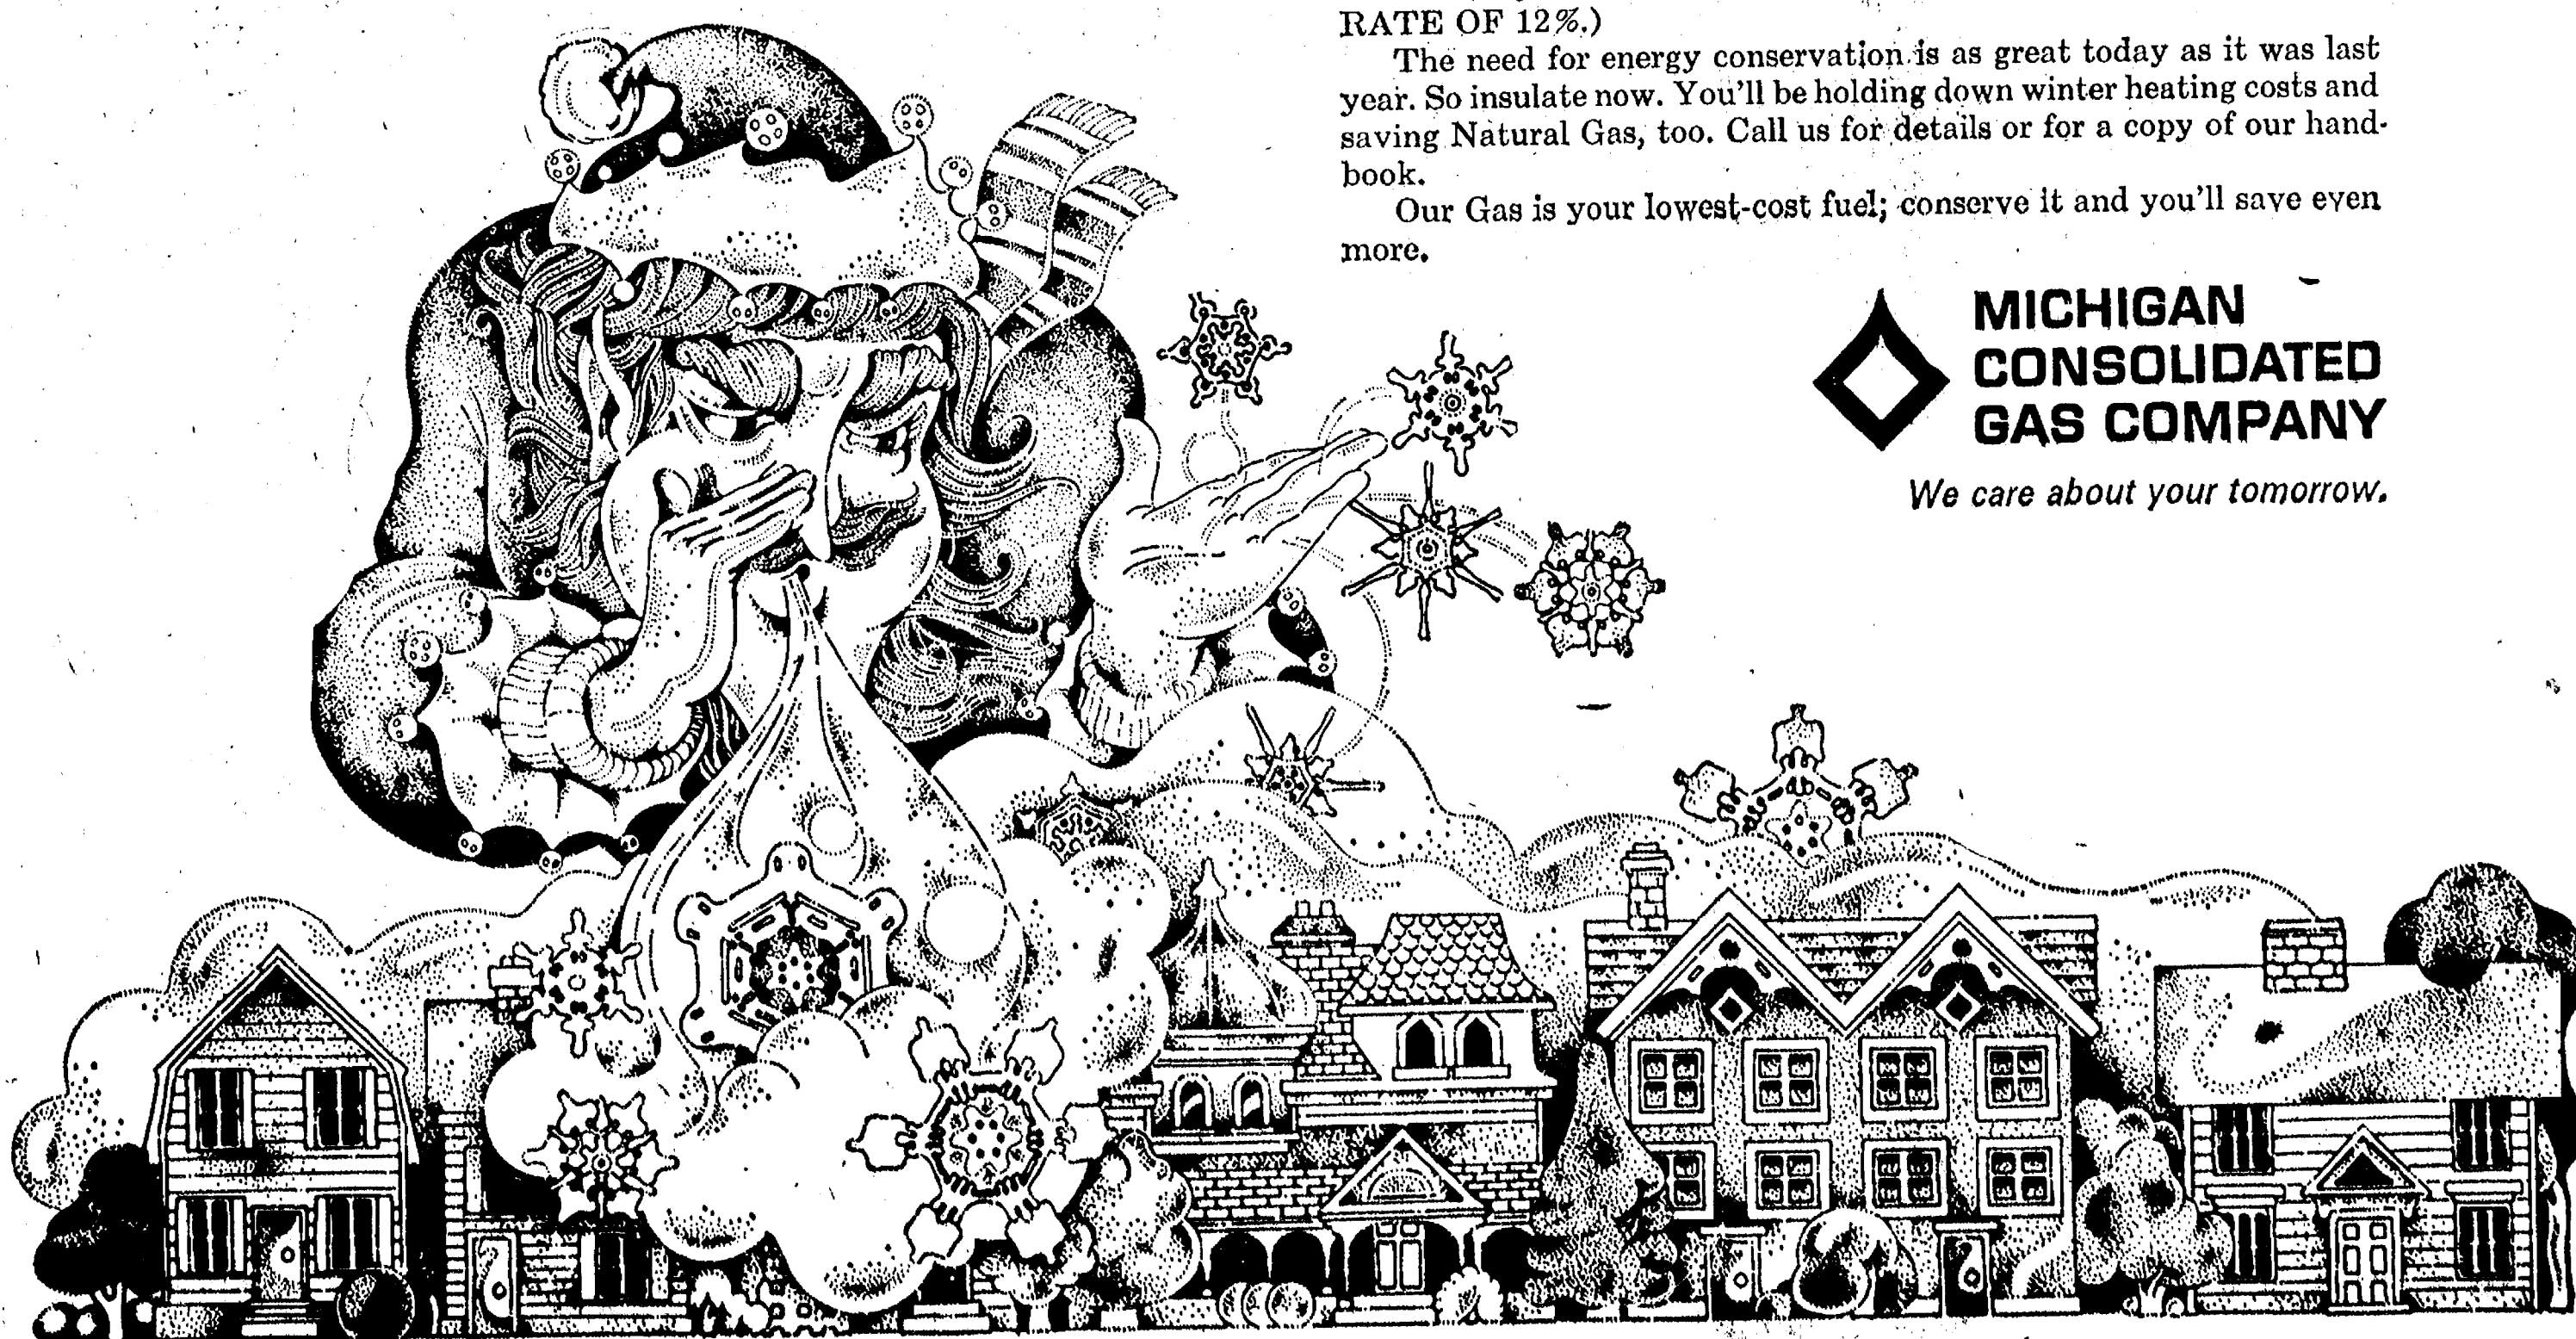

The need for energy conservation is as great today as it was last year. So insulate now. You'll be holding down winter heating costs and saving Natural Gas, too. Call us for details or for a copy of our handbook.

Our Gas is your lowest-cost fuel; conserve it and you'll save even more.

Season Ends with All Teams Meeting Non-Conference Foes

All non-league encounters were the fare for the concluding games of the eight Southeastern Conference squads Friday night, as the 1974 grid season drew to a close.

Carleton Airport 18, Novi 13—

Novi's frequent punchiness against non-SEC squads continued Friday, as the fearsome Wildcats lost a close one to Carleton Airport that dropped their over-all record to 6-3.

Airport came from behind for the win in the fourth quarter, when Dave Malone scored on a three-yard run, his third touchdown of the contest, to nullify a 13-12 Novi lead.

Novi scoring came on touchdowns by Mike Collins and Andy McComas and an extra point kick by Bill Barr.

Saline 28, Blissfield 0—

Tim Slepisky took care of a pair of Hornet touchdowns and Mark

Vanderpool, Al Kauffmann, and Bucky Skinner added the rest to enable Saline to shut out Blissfield in the season finale.

Slepisky's 29-yard pass to Rick Stemm yielded the Hornets' second TD of the evening, then Slepisky himself went in on a keeper for the final six points. In between, other Hornets kept things buzzing in the end zone.

Milan 7, Dundee 6—

Milan came from behind in the fourth quarter with an Al Tallas scamper across the goal line into the end zone and Greg Kellman's extra point adding up to just enough to down Dundee, 7-6.

Dundee mounted a drive in the final minutes of the game, but Big Red Kevin Keefe grabbed an errant Dundee pass to maintain the winning margin for Milan.

Matt Schultz dove two yards for Dundee's only six points in the second quarter.

Michigan Center 20, Dexter 16—

Dexter rolled up a 16-0 first quarter lead but had fallen by the wayside by the third quarter, when Michigan Center turned an interception into a 35-yard touchdown.

Scoring for Dexter were Rob Toth and Joe Toma, who recorded touchdowns. Toth added two runs for extra points.

Jackson Northwest 38, Chelsea 13—

A tough Northwest team went wild on the Bulldogs Friday night, with Roger Buksar accounting for a total of 14 points and Paul Moniodis for 12.

Chelsea's only scoring came on a 28-yard halfback pass from Randy Guenther to Jim Boyer, and a 66-yard pass from Todd Orbring to Tres MacColum. Ishmael Picklesimer was good for an extra point kick.

Pinckney 59, Brighton 12—

Roger White and Rick Winslow led the Pinckney attack that ground Brighton's Bulldogs into the ground Friday night, as Winslow rolled up three touchdowns for himself, while White, playing in his initial varsity game after finishing the season with the Pirates' undefeated JV's, rushed for 240 yards, including touchdowns scored on runs of 89 and 59 yards.

Other Pinckney scorers were Tom Mirahan, who ran a 28-yard reverse, and Brian Dewey, who went 12 on a reverse. Rick Stone scored a pair on a 13-yarder and a 10-yard pass.

Brighton's only scoring came when quarterback Bob Schmidt hit for a TD after a 19-yard run, and when Dave Lewallen returned a kickoff 88 yards for the Bulldogs' second six points.

Erie Mason 34, Lincoln 7—

Only Ron Domas could manage to penetrate the Erie line for the Rainsplitters Friday, when he grabbed an opposition pass and returned it 15 yards for Lincoln's only touchdown. Tim Hess engineered the extra-point kick.

CHELSEA HIGH SCHOOL BAND and Beach Middle school's band both turned out to give veterans and parade-goers a rousing musical evening Monday during the county's annual Veterans Day parade, held for the first time in Chelsea.

WARC Christmas Cards Offered

A red patchwork Christmas tree and a snowy forest of bare trees are this year's designs for WARC Christmas cards. The Christmas card sale is the one fund-raising project that the Washtenaw Association for Retarded Children carries on as a group.

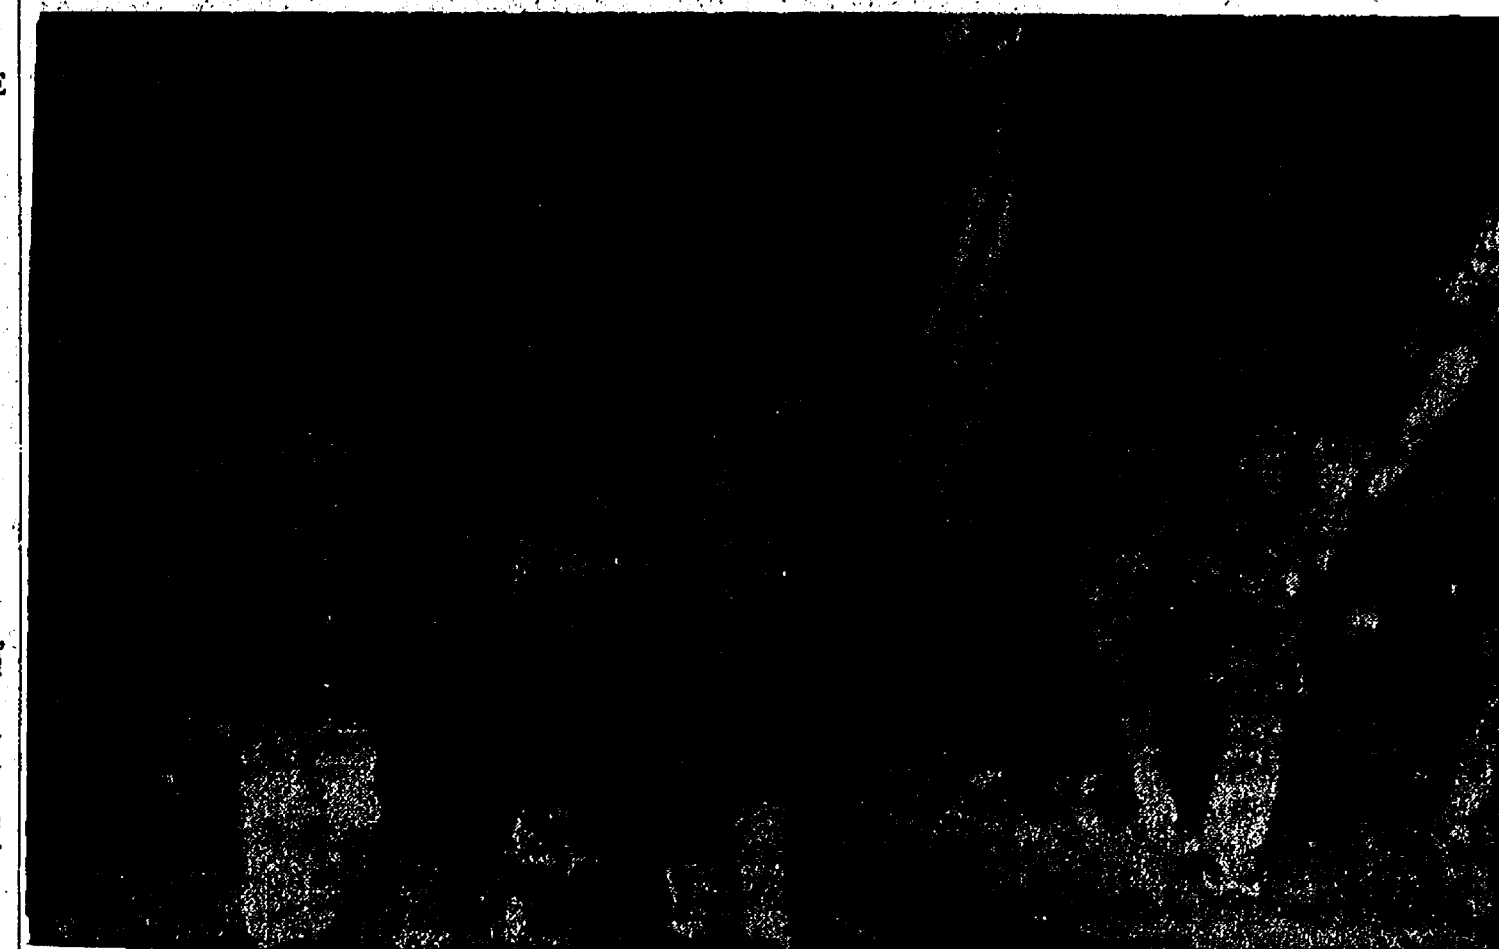

The special boxes of cards may be obtained at the Dexter Bakery as well as at stores in Saline and Ann Arbor. The cards were designed by Eastern Michigan University students.

The Christmas card sale has a two-fold purpose: to bring public attention to the many programs available to retarded children and adults in the county and to expand services to the handicapped.

Resident Deputy Now Patrolling in Manchester Area

The Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department has been operating a Resident Deputy program in the Manchester area for the past month.

Deputy Gerald Shaw, who lives in Manchester township, has been assigned to patrol the southwestern townships of the county. He uses his home as his base and is available 24 hours a day to answer calls for assistance from within this area.

This area of the county had been patrolled by officers from the Sheriff's Department main office in the past. By having Deputy Shaw maintain a Sheriff's patrol car and radio at his home, response time has been reduced significantly.

A further benefit of having a resident deputy is that over an extended time he will become quite familiar with the area, its residents, and its law enforcement needs. By gaining this knowledge, he will be better able to provide services to the area.

Deputy Shaw reports that citizen response to the program has been quite favorable during its first month.

USED TO BE

Her bouquet was a cascade of white sweetheart roses, white pinks, carnations and baby's breath with dark green ivy.

Acting as maid of honor was Amy Lillywhite, who appeared in a green crepe-back satin dot gown, with collar, edged in lace, and featuring long sleeves and empire waistline. She carried a colonial bouquet of mint green carnations, white mums, and baby's breath. Chosen bridesmaids were Virginia Risner, a sister of the bride, Sherry DuBois, and Annette Schulz, sister of the bridegroom. They wore gowns and carried bouquets identical to those of the maid of honor.

Charles Belser was best man for the bridegroom, while Douglas Hansen, Floyd Schulz, a brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Risner, a nephew of the bride, acted as groomsmen. Ushers were James Lindstrom and William Lindstrom, brothers of the bride.

Mother of the bride wore a capucine crepe gown with high neck and long sleeves. Mother of the bridegroom wore an orchid lace gown with high neck, long sleeves, and pleated front panel.

A reception followed at the UAW Hall in Chelsea. Assisting were Gloria Sampson, who cut the cake, Kathryn Heldreth, an aunt of the bride, who served the punch, and Randall Risner, a nephew of the bride, who attended the guestbook.

MASTER'S PERPETUAL TROPHY for Hunt Teams is displayed by Patti Shier, left, and Kate Donkin, two-thirds of the winning team that earned the trophy at Waterloo Hunt Club Hunter Trials. Patti rode April, Kate rode Bittersweet, and the third part of their winning combination, Mindy Moore, rode Egan in the victory.

Area Riders Claim Awards at Waterloo Hunt Club Trials

Winning team at Waterloo Hunt Club's recent hunter trials were Kate Donkin on Bittersweet, Patti Shier on April, and Mindy Moore on Egan. The trio earned the Master's Perpetual Trophy for hunt teams for their performances.

At a hunter trials, horses and riders exhibit the skills needed for fox hunting. It is a colorful as well as exciting competition as the riders dress in formal hunting attire.

Kate and Patti began the season with a first place win in pairs of hunters at the Stoney Ridge Farm Hunter Trials. In this event pairs of horses are ridden abreast over a course of fences. Performance, manners, and way of going count 75 percent, while resemblance of the horses and the appointments of the rides make up the other 25 percent of the score.

Other local riders placing in the pairs class at Stoney Ridge were Pete Mathews and Bonnie Thompson coming in second on San Luis Rey and The Judge.

Sue Gates with her horse, Evermore Ruler, paired with Scott Alder and Bacardi for the third place ribbon.

The Handy Hunter class requires the rider to show the ability and ability of his horse over a complicated course of jumps and includes such difficult skills as flying changes of lead, halting from a gallop and then jumping a fence. Scott Alder was second in this class at Stoney Ridge while his sister Kim was third riding Country Mile. Pat Sontag's horse, Odyssey, was ridden to a fifth place by Penny Bartlett. Lin Donkin on her horse Dakari was placed second in the Hunter Hack in which the horses way of going over typical hunting terrain is judged.

The Open Working Hunter class is for more experienced horses and the fences are higher. Sue Gates won this class with Kim Alder third and Shelley Spenser on With No Regrets, placing sixth.

Wearing the traditional red coat, Nelson Vander Hyden led the Fox hunter class which simulates an actual hunt. Scott Alder was second, Patti Shier took third, Michael Behrman riding Magnum Force was fifth, and Debi DeTurk was sixth on Country Music.

The final event is always the Hunter Teams, in which three horses are ridden tandem over a course of jumps. In the middle of the course the riders make their horses change positions and over the final fence they must come together and jump abreast. Scoring is the same as in the pairs of hunters.

Winning at Stoney Ridge was the team of Shelley Spenser, Scott Alder, and Sue Gates. Leading the second place team was Michael Behrman, followed by Patti Shier and Craig Lark on his horse Bar Digger. Third place team included Mindy Moore on Egan, Marti Hense on Roundabout and Kate Donkin. In fourth place were Pete Mathews, Bonnie Thompson, and Debi DeTurk.

Junior Working Hunter Championship was presented to Scott Alder and his horse Bacardi. This award is given to the horse and rider combination which accumulates the most points in classes open only to riders under 18 years of age.

Hunter Trials Champion is decided by adding up points earned in classes open to riders of all ages. Evermore Ruler ridden by Sue Gates was a close second for this award.

Another exciting moment for Sue Gates was at the Hunter Trials at the Waterloo Hunt Club in Grass Lake, where she won the Ginger Beer Challenge Trophy for Working Hunters. Evermore Ruler also placed third in the Working Hunters under saddle.

Kate Donkin and Patti Shier came in third in the Pairs of Hunters. Then, teaming up with Mindy Moore, they won the Master's Perpetual Trophy for Hunt Teams. Patti's horse, April, also placed sixth in Green Hunters while Kate and Bittersweet were second in Open Equitation and fifth in Equitation over Fences.

Other Stoney Ridge riders bringing ribbons home from Waterloo were: Andrea Behrman on Paper Moon, third Junior Working Hunter and a sixth in Open Equitation and Equitation over Fences. Joy Gillet placed fourth in Green Hunters with her horse Night on the Town. Country Mile with Kim Alder in the irons took fourth in the Working Hunter and sixth in the Green. Mike Behrman and Scott Alder were on the third place Hunt Team. Scott also collected a third in Open Equitation and a sixth in Working Hunter on Bacardi.

Hunter Trials at Outlands Farm in Birmingham proved to be a big day for Bittersweet. The horse, owned and shown by Kate Donkin, accounted for the Reserve Hunter Trials Championship.

Kate and Bittersweet won the Handy Hunter, took second in Open Hunter and fifths in the Junior Hunter and Green Hunter classes.

A fourth place in the Pairs of Hunters went to Kate and Shelly Spenser who rode With No Regrets. Shelly and Kate also got together with Jim Lees on Abou to make the second place Hunt Team.
