

STILL SMOULDERING is the barn leveled by fire early Easter morning at the farm of Henry J. Huelsberg, 20936 Sager Rd. in Lima Township. Village police and officials of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department are investigating suspected arson in the blaze that killed 91 pigs on the Huelsberg property.

Arson Suspected in Barn Fires

The Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, together with the Chelsea village police are investigating a rash of barn fires that occurred early in the morning Easter Sunday.

The fires, suspected to be the result of arson, leveled a barn belonging to Henry J. Huelsberg of 20936 Sager Rd. in Lima township, killing 91 pigs and caused minor damage to a barn located on property belonging to L. D. Guinan of 17753 Waterloo Rd., Lyndon township.

The Chelsea Fire Department was called at 2:49 a.m. to the Huelsberg farm. They received assistance from the Dexter Fire Department.

The large barn burned for nearly three and one-half hours before men from both departments were able to extinguish the blaze.

Chief Gaken reported that arson is highly suspected, based on reports received concerning a car seen fleeing from the area at approximately 2:40 that morning. Gaken added that by the time the Chelsea Fire Department arrived it was impossible to discover any evidence in the area that would confirm arson as the cause.

Just hours later, the Chelsea Fire Department received another call. This time to put out a fire at the Guinan farm on Waterloo Rd., in Lyndon township. Upon arriving at the scene, Chelsea fire fighters found neighbors working together to extinguish the blaze, having formed a bucket brigade.

Flames were scattered across the floor and up against the wall boards causing only minor damage to the barn. Arson is listed as the cause of the fire. Chief Gaken reported that there "was no other way it could have started."

Other than the loss of 91 pigs on the Huelsberg farm there were no injuries suffered in either fire Sunday morning.

Help Sought To Nab Arsonists

Village Police Chief George Meranuck has requested that area residents assist police and the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department in the apprehension of person(s) believed to have set fire to two area barns early in the morning Easter Sunday.

These fires are "very serious," reported Meranuck, and could become even more so should arsonists be inclined to set fires in the immediate area of the village.

Anyone having any knowledge they believe might assist police and officials of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Dept. in their investigation of the fires should report it to police immediately.

In addition, license numbers of suspicious looking vehicles lurking in the vicinity of barns should be taken and reported to police or the Sheriff's Department.

Grass Fires Welcome Spring

For the Chelsea volunteer fire fighters, the spring onslaught of grass fires has just begun. Each spring, patches of dry grass along the railroad tracks go up in flames as a result of sparks sent out by the locomotives rushing by.

While these fires are usually minor in nature, Chief Gaken reports they could be of "potential danger" should they spread into farmer's fields.

Fortunately this was not the case on April 1 when volunteer firemen were called upon to fight three such fires, one of which Chief Gaken believes resulted from someone "just horsing around."

Recreation Dept. Offering New Spring Classes for First Time

Would you like to learn to play guitar, upholster that tattered easy chair, throw a pot, or perhaps care for and repair your bicycle? Well, these are just a sampling from the many new and special courses to be sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Council this spring.

Council Director Tom Balistrere has announced that for the first time Chelsea will have a full scale spring program.

With the introduction of this spring program, Chelsea now has a special program designed to fit each season and special events throughout the entire year.

The following courses will be offered this spring:

Course: Beginning Guitar.
Instructor: Jeanne Haselschwardt.

Time: 6 to 8 p.m. Mondays.
Place: High School, Room 112.
Fee: $8.
Dates: April 14-June 2.

Course Description: This course is designed to acquaint the beginning guitarist with the most common chords and strums used in folk and contemporary guitar playing. The course will begin with the basics, and by the end the student should be able to play most of the songs that are popular today. Students will be divided into groups, so that those with previous experience will be dealt with at the appropriate level. Everyone must bring his own guitar, and the music that he wishes to learn.

Course: The Modern Approach to Upholstery.

Instructor: Mrs. Georgia Shepard.
Time: 7-9 p.m. Mondays.
Place: Shop Area at the High School.
Dates: April 14-June 2.
Course Description: The course is designed to teach the step by step method of upholstering a piece of furniture. Participants are to provide the piece of furniture they would like to upholster.

Course: Volleyball.

Instructor: Nancy Oswald.
Time: 8 to 10 p.m. Tuesdays.
Place: High School Gym.
Fee: $8.
Date: April 15 to June 3.

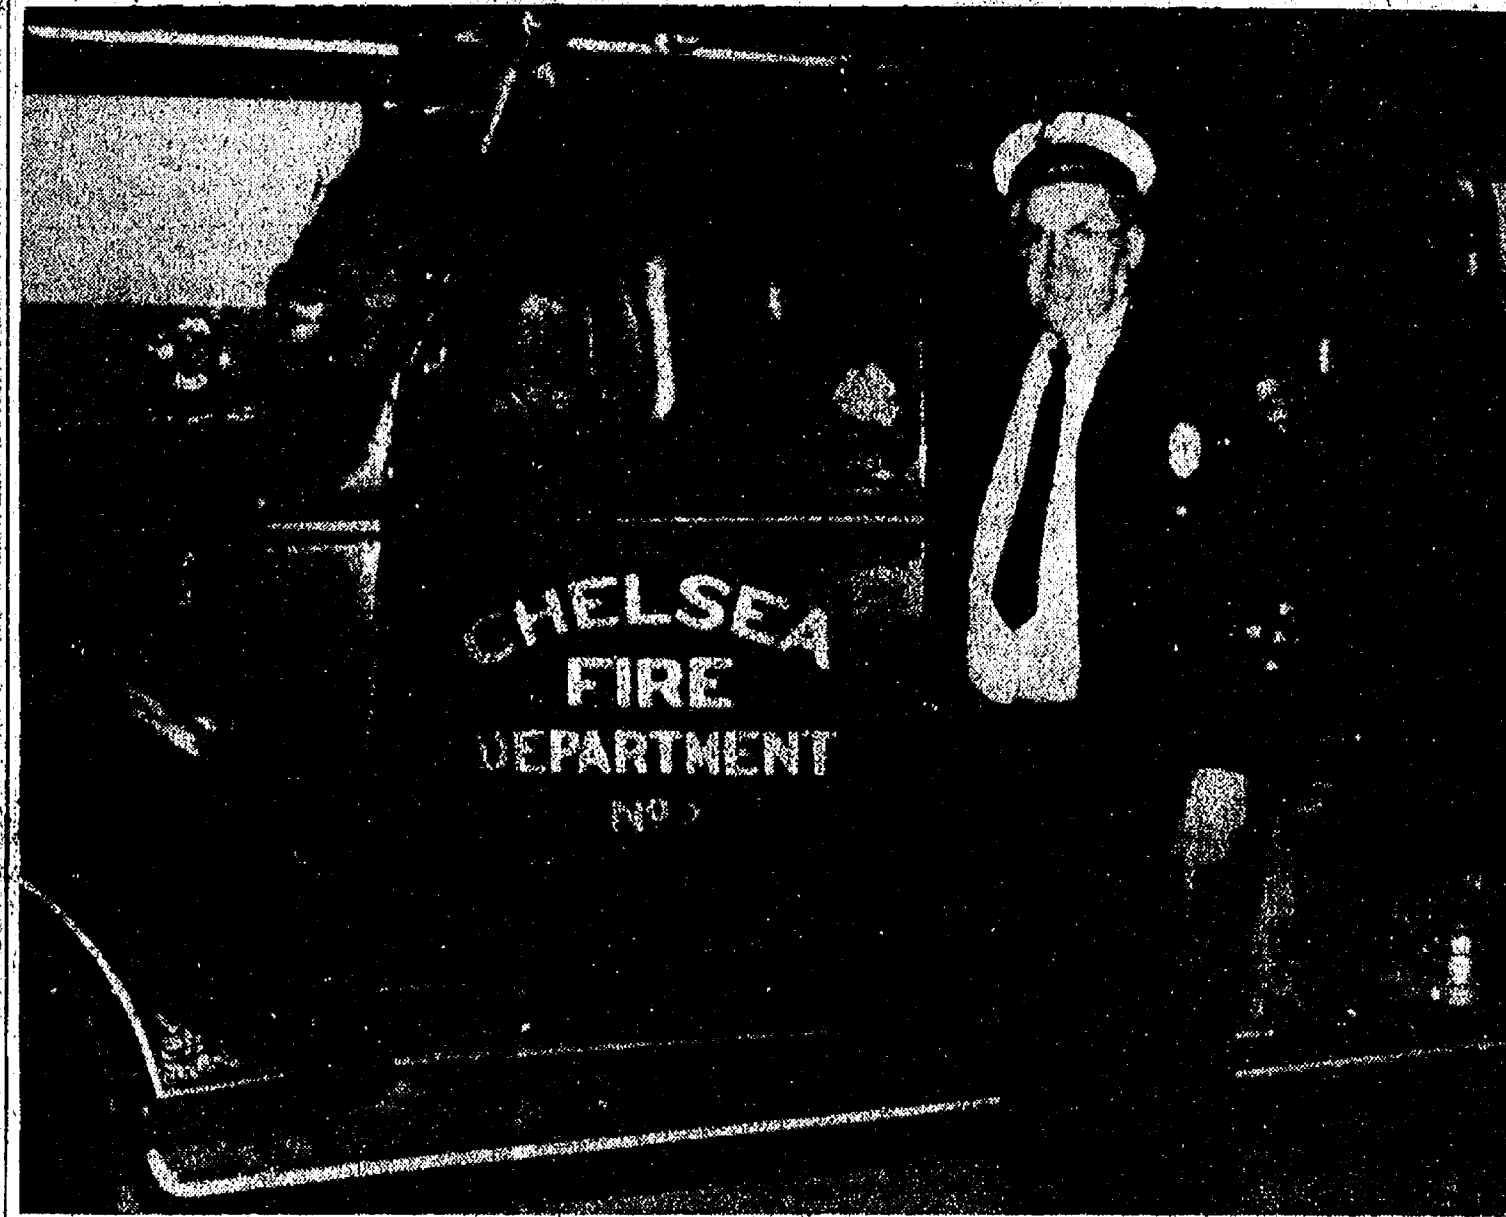

Course Description: Open volleyball for men and women.

Course: Ceramics.

Instructor: Tim Eisman (High School art teacher).
Time: 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesdays.
Place: High School Art Room.
Fee: $10.
Date: April 15 to June 3.

Course Description: Low firing ceramics instruction which includes hand building, slab construction, and throwing on the wheel.

Course: Tennis.
Instructor: Terry Schreiner.
Times: 6 p.m., beginning tennis; (Continued on page three)

RETIRING: Volunteer with the Chelsea Fire Department, Mac Packard finally decided it was time to hang up his hat, coat and boots Monday, March 31. Pictured beside a 1942 Dodge truck, which he drove when first joining the Chelsea Fire Department, Mac says he will still be around to give area children rides on his own red engine when the warm weather comes.

Mac Packard Retires from Fire Dept. After Nearly 26 Years

Mac Packard fought his last fire on Easter Sunday, March 30. On Monday he retired from the Chelsea Fire Department where he had served as a volunteer fireman for 25 years and seven months.

Mac joined the department in August of 1949, at the request of Tom Young, who was then serving as second Chief to Chief Howard Brooks.

Mac's wife, Eulahlee tells the story a bit differently. She believes there was an instigating factor. "In 1948 we had a chimney burn out in our home. The fire department came, and put it out. That fire was a consciousness raiser for Mac."

Apparently Mac had been considering joining the ranks of Chelsea volunteer firemen for some time. The fire in his own home together with Young's request were the deciding factors.

So . . . in '49 he found himself riding in a 1942 open Dodge truck on its way to fight a fire at a home on South St. Mac says he can't remember who lived there now, but he'll never forget that first ride as a member of the department.

Since that day Mac, as other volunteer fire fighters, has been on 24-hour round-the-clock call. Eulahlee says there were a lot of sacrifices made when Mac was with the department. "If we wanted to go on a picnic it might be Mac's turn to be on call, so he'd stay home."

But fighting fires has been well worth it for Mac.

He has served his community, made some close friends and been part of a number of changes that have taken place in Chelsea.

Area children probably know Mac as the nice grey-haired man who gives them rides in his fire truck, (a 1939 Dodge), on Sundays during the warm weather.

Mac and his red engine have been seen in parades too. He thrills not only the kids, but curious adults as well.

Standing before his engine, his hand resting fondly on the door Mac said, "I bought this to take kids out for a ride. I've got to wait for the warm weather though. I bought it rather than buying a cottage or something like that."

When asked to recall incidents that stand out in his mind, Mac told us about the biggest fire he fought, "that was Heydlauff's store in 1971, or was it '72," and then he pointed to a photo showing the appliance store as it used to look, ablaze with flames shooting out from the roof. "We feared the whole block would go with that one."

The longest fire Mac fought was a grass fire that raged on for two days out by Four Mile Lake. "We fought that one for 12 hours one day and thought we had it put out, but the next day the wind shifted and the field was a mass of flames again. We fought 10 hours the second day. It was the farmers who finally stopped it by plowing the whole field."

In all his years with the department Mac has only been hurt twice. The first time hot electrical wires knocked him off a ladder while fighting a house fire at Cavanaugh Lake. The second injury, a sprained ankle, was received fighting the fire at the Spring Plant.

Mac has come a long way with the Chelsea volunteer fire department. He has served under four chiefs: Howard Brooks, Tom Young, Ted Balmer and Jim Gaken. He has seen the department go from one to six shiny red vehicles, a new fire house complete with a lounge for the men and from an average of three runs a month to a total of 18 during his last month of service.

Track Team Rated as Strong Title Contender

Chelsea High School's 1975 track team kicked off its season last Friday in the Huron Relay competition held in Bowen Fieldhouse at Eastern Michigan University. Seventy-five schools from Michigan and Ohio participated in the event.

Track Coach Bert Kruse reported that Friday's performance "were about what we hoped for," and despite the fact that the team returned home having scored only part of a point, picked up by Rick Sweeney in the high jump, Kruse remarked, "we still can have a good season."

However, in order to do so, the team will have to hurdle a number of obstacles, and not just those found at the track.

Kruse is operating with a team that lacks "depth" in some areas, boys recovering from injuries and a loss of promising candidates.

For members of the track team, the past month has been spent in preparation for the opening of the season. A total of 36 boys began work-outs together, slowly dwindling to 31.

Coach Kruse stated that prior to the opening of the season, he and the track candidates were very high on their chances for success. "But over the past month we have lost several athletes, and several have been slow to come around following injuries." Thus, "we are not quite as optimistic as we were in pre-season."

"We have a good group of talented young people and if we can avoid losing anyone else, we should be competitive against whomever we are running." Heading returning lettermen are last year's conference high jump winner Rick Sweeney. Rick is also noted for fine performances in the high hurdles.

Joining Rick and back to attempt a third consecutive conference title is shot putter Ishmael Picklesimer. Ishmael will be using his legs too, running the 100 and 400 relays.

Eyes will be on Senior Curt Winans. He is expected to play an important role for the team running in both hurdle and relay races.

New to the team, is freshman Matt Fisher, who is expected to be another top prospect running in hurdle and relay races.

SMILING AREA RESIDENTS are pictured with U. S. Representative to Congress, Robert Carr, in the Sylvan Town Hall where they spent some two hours chatting and exchanging views on local, national and international issues Tuesday evening.

Cong. Bob Carr Wins Friends in Tuesday Evening Informal Visit

"Hi, I'm your Congressman Bob Carr." A grin came over the face of U. S. Congressman Robert Carr Tuesday evening, April 1 as he introduced himself to area residents in the Sylvan Town Hall.

Representative Carr preceded his visit to Chelsea by sending postcards to all postal patrons in the sixth congressional district inviting them to come chat with him for a few hours Tuesday evening.

Carr was in Chelsea, not to make a speech, nor solicit support for a political campaign, but rather to encourage area residents to feel free to voice their concerns and problems with local, state, national or international levels of government.

And come they did. Approximately 70 people drifted into Sylvan Town Hall between 7 and 9 (Continued on page three)

Enthusiasm High at Easter Egg Hunt Despite Cold Weather

Snowswept children attacked the Chelsea High School Athletic field like a horde of locusts early Saturday morning, in an effort to retrieve 1,200 colored and specially marked eggs nesting in the grass.

Even the wind and cold, and muddy fields could not prevent the children, pre-schoolers through the grade, from hunting eggs in the annual Egg Hunt sponsored by the Chelsea Jaycees.

The high school field was divided into sections with respect to the ages of the children. The children were given the go signal at 10:30 a.m. and approximately five minutes later had cleaned the field of its dotted mass of colored eggs.

Winners in Saturday's hunt, those children lucky enough to find colored eggs with special markings were: Robbie Burg, Robin Brier, Carl Schook, Kim Cooper, Laura Shuey, Kristen Muncer, Donald Collins, and Jeff Messman.

On hand to give out baskets of eggs, toys, and candy to the winning children was the Easter Bunny himself.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellows at the country store Saturday night took note that Congress is taking 17 days off for Easter to rest up from its labors since the 11 days it took off on Lincoln's birthday. Now if we could get Henry Kissinger to stay home for a long weekend, declared Bug Hookum, the country could relax and catch its breath.

Like they say, went on Bug, they ain't nothing certain in this life but death and taxes, but death don't go up over time Congress meets. Bug said even with April 15 coming up he felt better about taxes after this piece he saw on the calendar for Congress. He said it adds up to 103 days paid vacation for the honorables this year, but Bug allowed it's a bargain at the price. He was of a mind that members of Congress are a heap cheaper to support when they're home on vacation than when they're in session or seeing the world at public expense.

General speaking, the fellows took the view that Bug was trying to make the best of a bad situation, and they were divided on whether trying to look on the bright side of ever issue is a good idea. For instant, allowed Ed Doolittle, a baldheaded fellow might brag about getting rid of his dander, but he winds up with more face to wash. These silver linings we allus look fer, said Ed, usual git us in the same boat with the fellow that burned down his barn to git rid of the rats.

Clem Webster was disagreed with Ed, which is usual. Clem said he has got to the place where he looks for good news cause bad news is so common it ain't news. Clem said a dog biting a man is bad news and a man biting a dog is good news in this turned-around world where we git rebates on taxes we got to borrow money to pay and rebates on cars and everything else we can't afford to buy. But the good news in the car business, Clem went on, is where this young fellow from Iran come all the way back to a dealer in Oklahoma where he went to school to put in a government order for 1,000 trucks cause a salesman at the dealer treated him nice and give him a good deal when he bought a car while he was a exchange student here.

Zeke Grubb got in the good news spirit. He said he had saw where they is to many 1975 college graduates for a few 1975 jobs in the field of training, and the more education you got the less chance you got of finding work. That is happy news, Zeke allowed, cause it proves what he allus said, better to be a ignorant bum than a smart unemployed. You use to see articles about how much more lifetime income a college degree meant, but you can't have nothing coming if you can't find work, was Zeke's words.

Speaking of looking on the bright side, I recall the fellow that broke a mirror over his old lady's head. He told the judge if he was going to have seven year of bad luck he might as well git some benefit out of it.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Minor Blaze at Chelsea Milling from Cutting Torch Sparks

Sparks emanating from a cutting torch set fire to the wall and ceiling in the shop area of the Chelsea Milling Co. located on North Street before noon Friday March 28.

Damage was confined to the shop area where the walls and ceiling were badly scorched from the flames. No injuries were suffered.

Emotional Recession

Recession hurts the purse, as breadwinners and homemakers well know. And that hurt, combined with other factors produced by economic woes, can mean more of a job for Michigan mental health facilities.

"A major economic downturn is a stress-producing situation for (some) people," says Dr. Donald C. Smith, acting director of the Department of Mental Health.

"There is a cumulative effect," Smith explains. "Family relationships are strained. Physical health problems are aggravated. And for some persons, these unsettling effects can precipitate maladaptive behavior as mental illness."

A study of New York data, by Professor Harvey Brenner of Harvard University, shows the relationship between the economy and mental illness. Smith says Brenner found in part that:

- Admissions to state mental hospitals increased whenever economic conditions worsened.
- Admissions of manic-depressives are most closely related to changes in the economy, admissions of schizophrenics and alcoholics with psychosis, also go up when the business cycle goes down.
- Middle-aged male appear to suffer most in an economic downturn.

There's some evidence already of increased use of crisis intervention and outpatient services in Michigan, Smith says. But, he notes reports that unemployment benefits and supplemental unemployment benefits from auto companies (SUB) may have cushioned the impact to date.

Mental health agencies expect to feel the full effect of the recession in the months ahead as unemployment and SUB benefits are exhausted and as auto workers realize this spell of unemployment may not be a short-term experience," Smith says.

Clear up the confusion about what a ballot proposal might or might not mean. A fine idea, especially if you recall the mixed-up way Daylight Savings Time appeared before voters a couple of years back.

Thus comes the suggestion from Senate Minority Leader Robert Davis, R-Gaylord. He wants to require the Secretary of State's office to put together a voter information pamphlet explaining referendum proposals.

Pertinent information to be included in such a pamphlet would be:

- The official ballot designation of number of each proposal.
- The official wording.
- A brief statement by the attorney general explaining existing law relating to the subject.
- A brief attorney general's statement explaining the effect of the proposal, if adopted.

—An argument for voter approval and one against.

"There have been many complaints about the complicated, and sometimes misleading, wording of proposals in the past," Davis says, "and this should eliminate that. This pamphlet is something (voters) can read over and take right to the polls."

The Davis bill would require the Secretary of State to mail a copy of the pamphlet to each individual place of residence in the state as soon as possible before the election at which a proposal is to be submitted.

One bit of confusion: How much would all that cost in this year of government belt-tightening?

"Country Life" in Lansing

How did Michigan pioneers live? Folks who want to find out should visit the Michigan Historical Museum anytime before the end of August.

"Country Life," a major new exhibit, illustrates early Michigan furniture and decorative art such as painted tinware.

Among artifacts on display at the Lansing Museum are a painted wardrobe, a rosewood grained tall case clock with works made by Whiting of Winchester, Conn., a cherry corner cupboard, Rockingham and other pottery.

More Bus Riders

You've heard tell that more people are riding buses in Michigan these days. Now the state Department of Highways and Transportation has come up with some numbers to back up those statements.

Local bus ridership in the state topped 109 million last year, an increase of more than 11 percent over 1973.

The ridership increase for all Michigan metropolitan bus and Dial-A-Ride Transportation (DART) systems was the strongest single-year gain since the mid-1940's.

Cong. Carr Says 'Hello'

p.m. to meet Carr, to raise questions, to voice concern.

They were greeted with a handshake and a "Good to see you," as Carr moved about the crowd making as many acquaintances as possible in the two hours of allotted time.

Sitting Indian-fashion on a table around which sat area residents, Carr loosened his tie and began an evening of rapport with his constituents.

He told his listeners that he wanted to expand a program of town meetings to help "fill in the gaps," between Chelsea and Washington. "When you have a problem, one of my three offices will help you solve it," Carr has offices in Jackson, Lansing and one mobile office on wheels which will soon be servicing local areas.

He and his staff intend to work together to solve constituents' grievances. And if a member of his staff is unable to solve a problem, it will be referred to Carr himself, who said, "you'd be surprised how fast the bureaucrats jump when the man gets on the phone."

Following his brief introduction, Carr listened to area residents expressing concern over land use, farm bills, the proposed Mill Creek Metro Park, Vietnam, the tax cut, inflation, real estate, and emissions control.

Residents found themselves easily conversing with their congressman and looking forward to another jointed visit.

Carr later joined the Village Council meeting in progress to discuss relevant matters pertaining to Chelsea with council members.

Here's Where To Write . . .

Area citizens having individual and/or collective problems, complaints or concerns over the goings-on in local, state, national or international levels of government, may express them to their Congressman Robert Carr. Carr has three offices in the state to serve his constituents.

Letters may be addressed to offices in Jackson, Lansing and Washington. Or residents may voice their grievances through Carr's mobile office soon to be implemented in the sixth congressional district.

Addresses for Carr's offices are as follows:

Jackson: 1130 First St., Jackson, Mich. 49201, (517) 787-2880.

Lansing: 245 Federal Building, Lansing, Mich. 48933, (517) 489-6517.

Washington: Congressman Robert Carr, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515.

Track Team Is Contender

pick up a good number of points for the team, as this year's conference is somewhat weaker in the hurdles, just where Curt and Matt are strong.

Howard Salver, an all-around performer will concentrate his efforts on the 440 dash. Though Salver will run in the relays, perhaps some sprints, compete in high and long jumping, he has proven to be one of the conference's best in the dash.

Junior, Dennis Bauer should complement Salver. He will head up the long jumpers and will also run in the 440, 220 relays and as Coach Kruse put it, "whatever else the situation calls for."

One of the strongest events could very well be the 440-yd. dash with Salver, Bauer and Junior Mark Burnett. Burnett will also be doing some pole vaulting and running the mile relay.

Others running the 440 will be Russ Weiner, Jim Boyer and freshman Steve Pennington.

Another relay runner is fourth year man Don Pierson. Don's specialty, however, is pole vaulting and that is where his name is expected to be seen in print.

Distance runners should be stronger this year than last, reported Coach Kruse. With a year of experience behind them, they should be warmed up for this year's season.

Running the two mile will be John Storey and Rich Haller. Storey will do some alternate running; the mile, the two mile and the mile relay.

Sophomore Phil Frame and junior Bill Rademacher will join John in the mile run.

Running in the mile relay will be a promising freshman, Todd Weber and Phil Frame and sophomore Morris Johnson. Johnson will also run the 800.

More distance runners are senior Rick Robbins, two mile; Randy Harris, mile; Eric Prinsing, 880 and freshman Jason Lindauer, 880 and/or hurdle running.

Sprint races could be cause for concern this spring. All hopes lie with juniors Kevin Kelly and Jon Collins, together with Picklesimer, Pierson, freshman Scott Stafford and Mike Young. All the boys should develop sufficiently to win some points in the 100- and 220-yd. dashes.

Field events, which have proven to be a strong area in the past three or four years for the Chelsea track team, should remain so.

despite a knee injury to pole vaulter and high jumper Randy Sweeney.

The shot put will be headed by Picklesimer and Rex Miles, who placed second in the 1974 conference. Mark Smyth and a promising freshman, Tim Welshans, will also participate in this event.

Miles is still experiencing some trouble as a result of a broken arm; however, Kruse and the team are hoping he will be in top form by mid-season.

Pole vaulters Mark Burnett and Don Pierson should be strong.

High and long jump events are lacking in depth, says Kruse. Rick Sweeney will head up the high jumpers, with hopefully, a freshman or two to back him up.

The long jump, led by Dennis Bauer and Kevin Kelly, may suffer due to lack of depth.

Making an educated guess, Kruse believes that the conference race should be much closer and better balanced than last year when it was a two-team race between South Lyon and Chelsea.

The same two teams are once again pre-season favorites, but Lincoln, Brighton and Saline are much improved and could cause some problems. Milan, Dexter and Novi each have some good young men, but lack the depth in certain events to be contenders.

This year's varsity schedule will include seven home dual meets.

Two of the better meets for the year should be an early season triangular meet on Monday, April 14 with Tecumseh and Pinckney, reportedly two top teams in the area.

The second important meet and one to look forward to will be on Thursday, May 8, against South Lyon. Coach Kruse believes that these meets in particular will offer a chance to see some excellent individual performances.

In other action to take place this spring, the track team will meet Friday, April 4 in East Lansing for the last of their indoor meets, the Spartan Relays which will be held in Jenison Fieldhouse.

The first outdoor meet of the season will be held in Saline, Thursday, April 10. The first home meet, Monday, April 14, the Tecumseh-Pinckney Triangular, followed by a dual meet with Lincoln on Thursday, April 17.

On April 11, 1973, the Congress of the United States ratified the preliminary treaty of peace with England.

April 1 State School Aid Payments Told

April 1 state school aid payments have been mailed and should soon be in the hands of area school districts, as reported by State Representative Michael H. Conlin (R-Jackson).

Conlin explained that payments are made to the districts for membership aid, Title I, Title III and vocational education are mailed by the state six times a year.

Receiving $87,210 in membership aid and $73 for vocational aid is the Chelsea School District.

Other area districts receiving aid are Manchester Public Schools, $50,730 in membership aid; Stockbridge Community Schools, $192,120 in membership aid, and Grass Lake Community Schools, $74,790 in membership aid and $2,170 in Title I funds.

Area Students Named to U-M Honors List

Engineering students at the University of Michigan placed on the Dean's List for high academic performance in the fall semester, 1974, are Chelseaites John R. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Young of 20700 Waldo Rd., and David P. Klemer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Klemer of 13483 Trinkle Rd.

David, a freshman at the U. of M., was also elected to Phi Eta Sigma, the Freshman Honors Society for excellent academic achievement. David completed the fall term with a 4.0 average.

turned in his monitor. There will be no more sacrifices to make, and Mac will be able to picnic with his family at his leisure. Will he miss the work, the calls at all hours? Sure. But Mac has his memories and they are fond ones. He'll still be around and maybe even at the station sharing a cup of coffee in his specially marked mug with his fire fighting buddies. And if he's not there, he's sure to be seen riding around in his red fire truck this summer to the delight of Chelseaites, children and adults alike.

Destroyed By Fire in Motor

A fire ignited in the motor of an automobile belonging to a J. Raymond of Muskegon, Ind., resulted in a blaze causing total destruction of the car Thursday evening, March 27.

Chelsea fire fighters extinguished the blazing car located on Sylvan Rd.

It has not been determined what caused the fire to erupt. Chief Gaken reported that damage was confined to the automobile. There were no injuries.

On April 5, 1974, the British Parliament asserted its authority to levy duty on colonial trade to raise revenues in order to defray expenses of defending and securing the British Empire.

★ Consider This . . .

One billion seconds ago, the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor. One billion minutes ago was a world 40 years after the death of Christ. One billion hours ago man had not set foot on the face of the earth. One billion dollars ago was yesterday . . .

The budget of the United States for fiscal year 1976, recently sent to Congress by Presi-dent Ford, calls for spending of $244.4 billion during the 12 months beginning July 1, 1976—nearly $1 billion per day, seven days a week.

But the budget provides that the federal government will only col-lect enough money from tax-payers to spend at that rate for six days. So instead of resting on the seventh day, we'll borrow $1 billion.

And those figures are only bud-get figures. The Congress has al-ready indicated that it is going to cut taxes more than President Ford proposed, and it is likely that spending will run higher than budget estimates.

Because Uncle Sam has been running his business like this all too often over the past 30 years, the total federal debt outstanding will pass $600 billion in 1976. To pay the interest on that debt, it will take nearly $100 million each day; next year—10 percent of total spending. The next $450 million to be spent each day will cover wel-fare, social security, health care, and veterans' benefits, and an-other $300 million will go each day for defense, foreign aid, and space programs. The remaining $150 mil-lion to be spent daily will be stretched to cover all agricultural, transportation, housing, educa-tional, law enforcement, and sewer and water programs, in-cluding revenue sharing.

If you're an average Ameri-can, you probably think you're paying too much tax. If you're an average American taxpayer, just what do you think your con-tribution will do in 1976?

Your total taxes will pay the interest on the debt for about three seconds! Big government makes for little people.

Maj. Douglas Collyer Earns Master's Degree

Recently awarded a master's degree in management science from the American Technology Uni-versity, Texas, is Major Douglas C. Collyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Collyer, of Cavanaugh Lake. Collyer received his degree while stationed in Nurnberg, Germany. Presently, his assignment is with the Personnel Center, where he is responsible for nine regional of-ficers in the eastern and southern areas of West Germany.

A 1958 graduate of Chelsea High, Major Collyer attended Central Michigan University, (ROTC), where upon graduation, he received his commission. His overseas tours of duty include Paris, France (NATO), Brussels, Belgium, and Vietnam. He was presented the Bronze Star Medal and the Army Commendation Medal.

Major Collyer's wife, Nadia is with him in Nurnberg.

FOOD FOR THINKING CHRISTIANS:

The Divine Plan of the Ages

WHY HAS GOD FAILED TO CONVERT THE WORLD?

It is a well known and established fact that Christianity (in all of its forms combined) is a minority religion. Is this a sign that God has failed? Are we to believe that most of mankind is lost? Or are we to believe that the heathen are saved by ignorance? If so, why do Christian de-nominations spend fortunes on missionary and evangelistic work? Something has obviously been misinterpreted!

God has not failed. God never intended to convert the world! — not YET, at least! He does, however, intend to save them all in due time, and to instruct them all in righteousness. Because of this the Apostle Paul could write that God "will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth." (1 Timothy 2:4) This, it is clear, has not yet happened! When will it?

God has set aside a time when He will, indeed, convert the world. It is the time of Christ's King-dom — the time for which men have so long prayed: "Thy Kingdom Come, Thy will be done in earth." Even Sodom will come back and be given the op-portunity to be converted, as is made plain in Matthew 11:24. This is the REASON that Christ returns. He returns to restore things to perfec-tion (Acts 3:20, 21), not to condemn and torture, as men have previously believed.

But what about those who have been loyal Christians since Christ's first advent? Do they benefit from their faithfulness? Indeed they do! They will participate with the Lord in blessing all the families of the earth. What a joy! (Galatians 3:8, 16, 29; Genesis 12:3)

If you want to study this subject thoroughly and quickly for yourself, read chapter 6 in The Divine Plan Of The Ages. Chapter 6 is entitled "Our Lord's Return—Its Object, the Restitution of All Things." You will know your Bible better as a result of this study.

Many of you recently received a copy of The Divine Plan of the Ages by mail. If you did not re-ceive a copy or would like an additional copy, please send for one. It is free to you by writing:

Quilt Making Technique, History On Historical Society Program

On Wednesday evening, April 9, at 7:30 p.m. there will be an "Undercover" meeting at the Stockbridge Presbyterian Church Education Building. This is not a meeting for all "G" men or federal agents in the area, but for all people interested in the history and art of quilt-making.

"Undercover" is the title of the evening's program sponsored by the Waterloo-Area Historical Society. Mrs. Blanche Pay, of Grass Lake, will be the speaker of the evening and will discuss the mechanics of making a quilt and the history of quilting.

Quilting is a craft that goes back as far as the 11th and 12th centuries, when the Crusaders discovered quilted material in the Middle East and the knights came home wearing it under their armor. Beautiful old quilts made by Mary Queen of Scots while she was imprisoned in the tower are still on display in Hardwicke Hall in England.

In the 17th century quilting was at the height of its popularity and when the Puritans migrated to America they brought their craft with them. Quilt-making was a necessity for the early settlers who used them for wall hangings to help keep out the cold and they were the only bed coverings they had for blankets were not available for purchase until the Civil War.

When the pioneers moved out to the mid-west the women took their quilting frames and treasured patterns with them. However, the new way of life and the rugged land around many times was an inspiration to the pioneer woman to put some of the beauty and some of her experiences into her quilt patterns. When one reflects on the pattern names—Churn Dash, Goose Tracks, Turkey Tracks, Robbing Peter To Pay Paul, Stepping Stones, and Morning Star, to name a few, one can easily imagine things that might have happened during a normal day to help give her ideas for creating new patterns for her quilt-making.

No craft has been so popular in the last few years as quilt making and no auction item is so much in demand as a quilt. It is a craft where one can follow the traditional stereotyped patterns or where one can create with abandon for the possibilities of new designs are unlimited.

The public is invited to attend the meeting to learn much more about quilts and to inspect the many beautiful old and new quilts which will be on display. Anyone who has one he or she would like to exhibit is invited to bring it to the meeting that evening.

This educational program should be extremely interesting as Mrs. Pay has a wealth of fascinating information concerning the art of quilt-making.

Following the program other members of the Historical Society will try to make all guests feel as though they have really been to a quilting bee by serving them sassafras tea and cookies with true pioneer hospitality.

Clean Out Your Unused Old Medicines

There are far too many of us who neglect to dispose of unused and unneeded prescription drugs filling our medicine chests; perhaps endangering the lives of curious children.

Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary is providing a safe and easy way to "Clean Out Your Medicine Chest."

This timely spring-cleaning project's purpose is to encourage everyone to remove old medicines and unused prescriptions from their homes and dispose of them in a safe manner.

Any prescription bottles and medicines which can no longer be refilled may be deposited in a container at Chelsea Drugs from Friday, April 4 through Monday, April 14. Daniel Murphy of the Chelsea Drug Store will see to the safe disposal of the medicines.

Questions may be directed to Louise Ponte, 475-9325.

Routine Check Leads to Arrest on Bay City Warrant

Chelsea police were on their toes Friday, March 28. While on a routine patrol duty for the village they noticed a vehicle resembling one used in a previous crime. Officers decided they had better stop the car and ask to see the driver's license.

What began as a routine check led to the arrest of the driver, Carl Raymond Maurer of San Diego, Calif.

Officers discovered from a warrant check on Maurer's license that a warrant for his arrest had been posted in the 74th District Court in Bay City, for failure to appear in court for a traffic ticket.

Officers arrested Maurer and transported him to the station where he posted a $50 bond to appear in the 74th District Court on or before April 7.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Chelsea Fans,

Cheerleading try-outs are coming up soon. Now the people who make it, don't do this for their health. They cheer to get the crowd going, and stand behind the team. No response is being offered in return. Maybe more people should show appreciation for their cheerleader's efforts!

So, next year, come on out and support your team. This is your town, be proud and show it!

Michael J. Frey
Dies Sunday at Hospital
Following Brief Illness

Michael J. Frey, 84, of 792 S. Main St., a life-long area resident, died Sunday, March 30, at the Chelsea Community Hospital. He had been ill for several weeks.

Born Dec. 29, 1890 in Sharon township, he was a son of George and Catherine Doeiker Frey. On Sept. 14, 1927 he married Minnie Voegeding. She survives. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. Emma Ladd of Horton and two brothers, Paul Frey of Chelsea and Will Frey of Manchester, as well as several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Frey was preceded in death by two sisters, Mrs. Rose Hawley and Mrs. Mary Fish and by three brothers, Lewis, Henry and George Frey.

He had been employed by the Washtenaw County Road Commission for many years, and later for the Rockwell-Standard Corp., of Chelsea, retiring 20 years ago.

A member of the Sharon United Methodist church, he was also an honorary trustee of the church.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 2 at 1:30 p.m. at Sharon United Methodist church with the Rev. Michael L. Peterlin officiating. Burial followed in Rows Corner Cemetery. The family suggests that those desiring to do so may make contributions in Mr. Frey's memory to the Future Growth Fund of Sharon United Methodist church. Arrangements were made by Burghardt Funeral Home.

Local Firemen Injured in Ann Arbor Blaze

Two area men were injured before noon Tuesday while fighting a blaze that totally destroyed Ann Arbor's Old German Restaurant located at 120 W. Washington St. Lt. Duane Luick, 12980 Old US-12, was taken to University Hospital where he received breathing assistance and was treated for smoke inhalation. Chief Fred Schmid of the Ann Arbor Fire Department reported that doctors held Luick overnight for observation. He was expected to be released sometime Wednesday, according to Schmid.

Another Chelsea man, Robert Smith suffered an abrasion injury to his left shoulder, when a piece of timber fell, hitting his shoulder and knocking him down. Smith was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where doctors treated him for bruises and contusion. He was released and returned to limited duty at the station for the remainder of his shift ending early Wednesday morning.

Grass Fires . . .

Later that afternoon, at 5:10 p.m., Chelsea fire fighters were called to 127 Orchard St. where a garage belonging to Jack Spear was on fire. Apparently Spear was inside the garage working on his car when a light fell and broke, setting fire to gasoline in the area. Damage was minor. There were no injuries.

Kindergarten Round-Up Set For April 24

Thursday evening, April 24 is the date set for this year's Kindergarten Roundup, report Principals of North and South Schools, Robert Benedict and Sylvester Wojcik.

The roundup will be held for parents of kindergarten aged children in the multi-purpose room of North school from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Parents of kindergarten age children (those children who were born on or before Dec. 1, 1975) in the Chelsea School District are urged to attend the scheduled roundup for kindergarten registration.

According to Benedict, it is essential that all children be enrolled at this time, in order to proceed with planning for fall kindergarten classes.

The state requires that parents present birth certificates of their children when registering them. Health forms will be issued to parents at the roundup.

For further information, Robert Benedict at North school, or Sylvester Wojcik at South school may be contacted.

Pick-up Truck Stolen from Dealer's Lot

A 1972 Ford pick-up was stolen while parked in the used car lot of Village Motor Sales sometime between 6 p.m. March 27 and 8 a.m. March 28. Owner Thomas Stock informed police of the missing vehicle early on the morning of the 28th. Recovery was made late that afternoon when the Wayne County Sheriff's Dept. reported to village police that the light green vehicle was being held in the custody of the Melvindale Police Dept.

According to village police reports, one of the officers of the Melvindale Police Dept. spotted a vehicle of the above description being driven by a white male. The vehicle had dealer's plates.

Melvindale police officers proceeded to make a routine check on the car when a frightened youth jumped out and fled. When stolen from Village Motors, the truck which was valued at $2,000, did not have license plates. It was discovered later that the plates were stolen from an out of town dealership.

Melvindale police transported the truck to their department and then notified the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, who in turn notified Chelsea police.

Shorted Tail Light Starts Auto Fire

Volunteer fireman Art Paul just happened to be on W. Middle St. at 1 p.m. March 29 when a fire broke out in the tail light of a car belonging to George Atkinson of Glazier Rd., Cavanaugh Lake. Atkinson was driving his car on W. Middle, when a short in the wiring of the tail light caused sparks, igniting fire to that area of the vehicle.

According to Chief Gaken, damage to the rear of the automobile was confined to the tail light.

Warrant Sought on Attempted Murder

Dexter's sheriff's deputies assisted a man bleeding from a neck wound and then aided the Livingston county sheriff's department in arresting a suspect on an attempted murder charge.

Officers in the Dexter station took Terry Whitesall, 28, of Noah Rd. to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where 27 stitches were taken in his neck. Later Washtenaw deputies arrested Robert J. Push, 30, of Lima Center Rd., at his home.

Whitesall told officers that he and Push had a fight outside the Dam-Site Inn in Hell and Push pulled a knife and lunged at him. Then, according to the report, Whitesall got into his car to drive to a hospital for aid. However, weakened by loss of blood, he stopped in Dexter at the police station for help.

The reports indicate a warrant will be issued for attempted murder.

He was turned over to Livingston county sheriff's deputies.

Two Area Women Are Honored By Girl Scout Council

Two area women were honored at the annual meeting of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

Receiving the award for contributions toward expanding Girl Scout funding was Mrs. John (Julia) Thornbury. Mrs. Thornbury is also chairman of the Council's finance committee.

Mrs. Jerry (Marquita) Satterthwaite, this year's cookie chairman and public relations director for the Girl Scouts, received the award for improving the Council's communications between its members and their communities. Mrs. Satterthwaite has served as a volunteer press representative for the Girl Scouts for more than five years.

In other council business, including the election of officers, Mrs. Satterthwaite was elected to a one-year term as a board member for the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

IPSCO Locks Up Recreation Cage Title With Perfect Season

Locking up the championship title in the Men's Recreation Basketball League was the IPSCO team who played their final game in tournament action Thursday evening against Chelsea Lumber. IPSCO put the game away with a score of 71-50, concluding a perfect season for the fast playing high-jumpers.

Double scorers, J. Cameron, 12; A. Farley, 11 and C. Schmunk, 10, helped to sink the Chelsea Lumber players.

Playing a fine game for Chelsea Lumber, was Brian Murphy who scored 18 points for his team. In semi-final tournament action, Wednesday evening, Heydlauff fought fiercely to prevent IPSCO from scoring the last seven points to win the game 57-50.

High scorers for Heydlauff's were: R. Riemenschneider, 18; and R. Miller, 15.

J. Cameron hit in the double figures with a score of 10 in Wednesday's play, but was topped by teammate B. Davis who scored 20 points toward the evening's victory.

In the second game of the evening, Chelsea Lumber managed to hold on to their 3-0 score (wins, losses) for tournament play, when they defeated Rockwell, 60-52.

High scorers for Chelsea Lumber were L. Lande, 19; D. Garrett, 15 and G. Agin, 14.

S. Nash played a high scoring game for Rockwell, with 27 points. Teammate D. McLaughlin scored 11 points in Wednesday night's game.

Circus Is Coming April 21

Vorhees Brothers Circus of Grand Rapids will be performing under the roof of the Chelsea High School gymnasium Monday evening, April 21 at 6 and 8 p.m.

Sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Council, the two performances will feature American as well as European circus acts, including a circus atmosphere of popcorn, peanuts, clowns and candy corn.

Tickets for the evening will be $2 for adults, $1 for children under 13, and a special family price of $6.50 for two adults and four children.

On April 19, 1775, 4,000 Minutemen and militia routed 1,800 British soldiers at Concord and Lexington, Mass., marking the transition from agitation to armed rebellion in the Colonies.

New State Map Now Available

The 1975 Official Transportation Map of Michigan is ready for free distribution, the State Highway Commission announces.

"This is the most comprehensive transportation map ever published by the state," said commission vice-chairman Charles H. Hewitt.

Hewitt said the map not only shows all 9,300 miles of state highways, but main county roads, air carrier airports, Great Lakes ports and Amtrak rail passenger lines as well.

An inside panel includes six photographs showing a major rural freeway north of Grand Rapids, planes parked at Detroit Metropolitan Airport, passengers boarding a Dial-A-Ride van in Houghton, an Amtrak passenger train in Ann Arbor, bicyclists touring the Keweenaw Peninsula and a view of the Detroit skyline with a lake freighter passing on the Detroit River—all parts of Michigan's total transportation system.

Other features of the 1975 map include a broad range of useful facts and information on Michigan such as photos of the state flag, state tree (White Pine), state bird (Robin), state fish (Trout), state flower (Apple Blossom), state gem (Greenstone) and state stone (Pentoskey); notes on Michigan speed limits, mileages between cities, state parks, historical markers, bridge and tunnel facilities and tolls, ferry lines, State Police Posts, District Offices of the State Highways and Transportation Department and an index listing 1,382 cities and villages and their populations. Shown for the first time are cities with hospitals providing 24-hour emergency service.

The Highway Commission authorized printing of just under two million maps, about 100,000 less than last year. The maps were printed by the Michigan Lithographing Co. of Grand Rapids on its low bid of $142,332. That figures out to 7.5 cents a map, up from last year's 6.75 cents.

Hewitt said the 1975 map will have a life of only nine months, compared to the usual 12 months. He said the Commission plans to have the 1976 map ready for distribution at the start of the year, as part of Michigan's year-long bicentennial celebration.

Free maps will be available at all District Offices of the Highways and Transportation Department and the Department of Natural Resources, State Police Posts, municipal government offices, local chambers of commerce, regional tourist associations and most local radio, TV and newspaper offices.

The Highways and Transportation Department will mail maps to individuals upon request. Requests must be made on a post card with a return name and mailing address, including zip code.

Last year, hundreds of requests were received from persons who failed to provide their return address, thus preventing the Department from sending the map.

Post card requests should be mailed to: MAPS, Dept. of State Highways and Transportation, Lansing 48904.

Family Film Feature Show Slated April 11

The time? 1948. The place? The Pacific Ocean. The problem? A strange sea presence that threatens all ships sailing in the ocean. Fiction, or fact?

It's fiction, and just to fill you in on more of the story will be the Chelsea Recreation Council's first showing in a series of Family Film Features to be presented in the High School Auditorium.

The first featured film shown will be Jules Verne's 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea. Two showings will be presented on Friday, April 11 at 6:30 and 9 p.m. Tickets will go on sale 45 minutes prior to show times. A donation of 50 cents per person is requested for admittance.

The film, starring Kirk Douglas, James Mason, Paul Lukas and Peter Lorre, has won many awards, including the coveted Oscar.

The Family Film Feature Series sponsored by the Recreation Council intends to bring wholesome family entertainment to Chelsea.

Chrome Hubcaps Stolen From Parked Auto

Sheryl Cantrell of 13910 Trinkle Rd., reported to Chelsea police that four Rallye chrome hubcaps were stolen off her 1974 Nova while parked in the lot at the Chelsea Medical Center, Saturday, March 22.

Miss Cantrell noticed the hubcaps missing when she returned to her car after work that afternoon.

The value of the hubcaps is $80.

CHELSEA, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 1975

HELPING TO BEAUTIFY CHELSEA are members of Troop 425 and their Scoutmaster Don Kvarnberg. Assisting with Saturday's project is Joe Branham (far left) who drove the Village of Chelsea truck along Old US-12 picking up plastic bags of trash the boys had gathered. Next to Joe is Don Kvarnberg, his son Steve, Dave Morris, Dave Waldyke, Todd Koch, Kirk Meyers, Jeff Boyer, Jim Leach and Larry Koch. The boys spent two hours removing litter from Old US-12.

Boy Scouts Pick Up Litter

Boy Scouts battled the cold and wind Saturday morning as they worked to "Help Beautify Chelsea," in a trash pick-up along the main arteries leading in and out of the village.

The pick-up was a project decided upon by the boys not only to assist in the removal of litter along main roads, but to serve the community for two of a total six hours community service needed to earn a merit badge.

"This has been a prosperous day," remarked Scoutmaster of Troop 425, Donald Kvarnberg. Members of the troop not only found trash along the section of Old US-12 where they were working, but money too.

Scout Kirk Meyers found a dollar bill, and volunteer assistant of Chelsea.

Larry Cook thinking that the pick-up would be "a pretty grim task," found $11 among the grassy area bounding the highway.

Scouts worked from 10 a.m. to 12 noon picking up debris. They were assisted by the Chelsea Jaycees who provided them with trash bags, and by Joe Branham, who volunteered his services to pick up the bags for the Village of Chelsea.

MCRC Reviews Continuing Fight Against Proposed Metro Park

On March 25, 1965 a small group of concerned area residents came together at Sylvan Town Hall to discuss ways by which the U. S. Army Corps of Engineer's proposal to take some 12,000 acres of land in Dexter, Lima, Scio and Freedom townships for a multipurpose reservoir project might be prevented.

The group was successful in their efforts with the Army Engineers. Only later to find themselves up against another organization which wanted to make use of the land. The Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA) proposed to build a metro-park on the site and call it Mill Creek Metropolitan Park.

It was then that the group, now widely known in the area as the Mill Creek Research Council, began to acquire a more definitive shape with a specific purpose in mind: to prevent the building of the park.

Last week, the Mill Creek Research Council held their 10th annual meeting in the Lima Township Hall to elect a new executive council and to review and discuss the past year's events.

What follows is a complete report of that meeting, presided over by David Bacon, executive board president, of the Mill Creek Research Council.

Last summer a picnic and information session was held for the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners at the home of Virginia Denham.

In response to the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation's Preliminary Draft to the Environmental Impact Statement (EIS), on the proposed Mill Creek Park, a hearing was held at the Beach Middle School. Much of the public commentary was adversely critical of the report.

During the course of the year, the Mill Creek Research Council made several presentations at meetings of the Board of Commissioners to inform them more fully of the proposed park situation in Lima township.

—Under a federal grant, Creek

Shed meetings and research were held at Freedom Town Hall last (Continued on page 10)

INTERESTED IN SAVING this winter? Who isn't you say. You may be able to save on your fuel bill and be more comfortable at the same time. During the next snowfall, make this simple test: Compare the blanket of snow on your roof with that on the other homes in the neighborhood. If the snow is melting off your roof you are losing precious, expensive heat. Insulate now, save heat and keep cooler this summer. Call Heller Electric and Insulating at 475-7878 after 6 p.m. for more information. We don't insulate your home or you can do it yourself with our machine. x35tf

PLANNING ON INSULATING this winter? When buying insulation remember to compare quality as well as price. Insulation's effectiveness is in its resistance to heat flow which is measured in "R". Cellulose or wood fiber insulation has an "R" value of 4.17 per inch. Compare this to the "R" value of various synthetic, solid fiber materials which tend to conduct heat. Have a free standing steam or hot water radiator in your room? It makes energy sense to place a sheet of aluminum foil on the wall behind it. This will reflect heat into the room that would otherwise be lost through the wall—saving America's energy and your money.

Fire Destroys Trailer Home

Miss Monica Harat, of 13649 Marty Rd., Waterloo township, will be in for a sobering surprise next week when she returns home from her Florida vacation.
According to Fire Chief Jim Gaken, Chelsea fire fighters were called at 8:04 p.m. March 29 to her trailer home located on some five acres of land in Waterloo township to assist the Grass Lake Fire Department in extinguishing a blaze which left only a skeleton slightly resembling the trailer.
Cause of the fire is due to an electrical short in the wiring, according to Gaken.
Family members decided not to notify Monica of the tragedy to avoid spoiling her vacation.

Grant Kleave pled guilty to the possession of open intoxicants in a motor vehicle and was fined $35.
Armando Trevino pled guilty to speeding and was sentenced to six months' probation; fines and costs, $100.
Gordon Sharp pled guilty to driving with a suspended license and was fined $50.
Horace Pittman was found guilty of speeding and was fined $41.
Robert Medi pled guilty to failing to set his emergency brake and was fined $21.

Lawn Tractor Stolen from Cemetery Shed

A tractor-lawnmower was stolen from the tool shed at Oak Grove Cemetery early Tuesday morning between 4-5 a.m., as reported by Chief of Police George Meranuck. Apparently the lock was pried off the door of the shed, allowing the thief(s) to enter.
The tractor was the only item missing.
The orange-red colored, one and one-half year old vehicle was used for maintenance of the cemetery grounds.
Police believe the tractor was driven off the property.
The case remains open. Police are presently investigating a lead, however they would appreciate anyone having any knowledge of the tractor's whereabouts to contact them immediately.

Livestock Banquet Set For April 12

The annual Washtenaw County Livestock Banquet will be held Saturday evening, April 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the Chelsea High School gymnasium.
Dinner for area livestock producers and anyone who cares to attend will be followed by a film and guest speaker.
The film will feature the songs and music of country and western singer, C. W. McCall.
Cole Townsley of Texas will be the evening's speaker.
Prizes will be awarded to those persons winning the drawings for the evening.
Tickets are available through Farmer's Supply, Ralph McCalla, and John Brooks in Chelsea or Washtenaw Farm & Garden Center in Dexter. An estimated 400-500 persons are expected to attend.

Bookmobile Stops at North Lake Church

Have you ever had the urge to pick up a good book and read, but you've read all the books at home, and the library is too far away?
Well, your problem may be solved beginning Wednesday, April 9 when the Washtenaw County bookmobile, sponsored by the Washtenaw County Library will be at the North Lake United Methodist church, 1411 North Territorial Rd., every other Wednesday from 4:25 to 5:10 p.m.
Area residents will be allowed to board the vehicle, have a look around, check books out, and return them two weeks later when the bookmobile comes around again.

Bruce Clark Named To Dean's Honor List At Lake Superior State

Placed on the Dean's List for the winter term at Lake Superior State College in Sault Ste. Marie is Bruce G. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Clark of 13339 Noah Rd.
A senior at the college, Bruce has been on the Dean's List since entering there as a freshman.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

KINDERGARTEN—

Room 3
Teacher: Mrs. Bower
Spring is here, and we are all so glad to see the marigold seeds are growing in our box gardens. They have a good start and should be big plants by Mother's Day.
Leigh Ann Spencer's mom came to visit our morning class to explain about her job of helping boys and girls feel better. Mrs. Spencer is a doctor, and she brought her doctor bag and showed us many of the interesting things she uses in her job. We all enjoyed seeing the x-ray pictures.
Some of our birthdays this month were: Casey Murphy, Todd Nagel, Sean Machnik and Mark Millish.

We have started a wood shop this month, and so far we all have used sandpaper, nails and hammers. We have all been careful and have followed the rules with our woodworking.
Last week we had finger Jell-O for a treat. It was really fun to pick up Jell-O, like candy, and eat it.

Our papier mache bunnies and counting egg boxes are coming home over spring vacation. Hope you like them, Mom and Dad!

Room 4
Teacher: Mrs. Van Blaricum
March blew in and brought with it many fun things to do. Mrs. Bower gave us some pussy willows. Some of them now have little yellow seeds and soon we hope they will sprout leaves.
For St. Patrick's Day we made green Knox Blix using Knox gelatin and lime Jell-O. We thought it was great!

Thursday, March 27, we had a party to welcome spring. We had been talking about seeds and baby animals, and we made bunnies and chicks. Our marigold seeds are growing already, and we are looking around us for signs of spring.

Our March birthday people were: Laura Johnston, Alison Chasteen, Erwin Bailey, Angela De Fant and Curtis Heard.

FIRST GRADE—

Rooms 17 and 19
Teachers: Mrs. Schiller and Mrs. Rhodeson
We hope everyone is enjoying the spring vacation. We were so busy before Easter that we were ready for a rest. We all had fun and worked hard preparing for our play, "The Little White Rabbit." We are glad so many parents and friends came to see us. Many thanks to the mothers who provided the refreshments which followed. Besides our regular work we also made Easter baskets, pictures from colored egg shells and cotton ball Easter bunnies.
All of us are now reading in More Fun With Our Friends. We have been learning some important secrets or keys for unlocking new words. The pages in our math book that looked so difficult in the fall are now easy for us.
Clayton Caudill has been on a trip to Arizona. He sent us a card from Old Tucson. Kristine Muncer had fun skiing in Colorado. Shauna Williams has a new baby sister.
We'll have much of interest to share at Show and Tell Time after vacation.

Room 4

Teacher: Miss DeVries
We have continued to work hard and do interesting things. We have enjoyed going to the library every other Tuesday. Mrs. McManis reads us a story, and then we get to pick out a book to read and take home!
Also, we have been playing a space game that helps us practice and learn our blends.

We would like to mention that three times a week we get a special treat. Linda Gaken, a high school student, comes for the last part of the day to work with small groups. She has helped these different groups put on plays. It is great fun both to put on the play and to watch it!

We hope you are having a super vacation. Don't forget to come back to school on Monday, April 7. See you then!

Room 2
Teacher: Mrs. Thornton
Reporters: Clarence Sparks, Donna Bruck, Christine Akin, and Peter Kattula

We have a new boy in our room whose name is Craig Maciag. This has been a fun month. Our room mothers had a St. Patrick's Day pizza treat for us. Thanks to Bill Ryan's dad for the pizza and letting us use his oven. We also had green lime ade to drink. It was a great treat!

We have been reading books about careers and all of us have made the decision of what we are going to be.

Christopher Tarasow wants to be an electrician. We had quite a few train engineers with Danny Cook, Van Wright and Clarence Sparks getting behind the wheel. Donna Bruck wants to be a nurse while Christine Akin wants to be an animal doctor. Kirk Eubanks and Shannon Darrow will be space men. Bill Ryan may be your pilot on your next airplane flight. Have a good trip!

Brenda Rush, Audra McClellan, Angie Jacobinski and Darrel Elkins want to be teachers. Darrel likes to work in math, while Audra and Angie like first grade teaching.

Jim Schutte wants to be a policeman and John Jedele would like to be a coal miner. Christie Hughes wants to be an artist. Becky Kargel likes singing, and Kim Collins can't decide between playing the piano or being a ballet dancer. Shelly Boham wants to be a waitress "like my Mom."

We have quite a few athletes: Peter Kattula playing hockey, Kelly Borowski playing football, and Tim Weir playing basketball. Doug Thomas would like to be a carpenter to build houses and big buildings. Judy Coppernoll wants to be a beauty operator. Christie Favers loves horses and would like to train them. Craig Maciag would like to be a magician. Watch out world—here we come!

Have a happy vacation.

Birthday for April: Angie Jacobinski.

SECOND GRADE—

Teachers: Mrs. White and Mrs. Schluppe

We are all very excited about our new arrivals in our classroom. Buttons, our guinea pig, had three babies. One is brown and two are brown, white and black. They are really cute and very lively.

In science we have been studying about seeds. We looked at bean, corn and grass seeds under the magnifying glass. We have also planted grass seed and beans. The grass has started to grow!
In the Young Author's writing contest the four chosen from our room to be voted on were: Phoebe Strong, Jason Pierson, Anne Weber, and Amy Wolter. Amy's paper was chosen for the conference which will take place in Dexter on April 19.
We hope you had a nice Easter and have a good vacation!

It makes energy sense to insulate any heat ducts that run through your attic. Heat lost from attic ducts wastes America's energy and your money.

Modern Mothers Treat Children to Easter Egg Hunt

Ten dozen colorful eggs were skillfully hidden in the backyard at the home of the Russell Pichlik's Saturday afternoon to the delight of member's children in the Modern Mother's Child Study Club.

Approximately 27 children, ranging in ages from two to eight years, participated in the egg hunt, which began at 1:30 p.m. Awarding prizes to children who found specially designed eggs was the Easter Bunny.

Following the hunt, refreshments were served to both the children and their parents.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schultz, 409½ S. East St., a daughter, Carissa Jo, not Charrisa Joe as reported in last week's issue. The Standard regrets the error.

Scientific Presentation At Immanuel Church

On Saturday evening, April 5 at 7:30 p.m., Immanuel Bible church, 145 E. Summit St., the Rev. Marvin Lubenow will speak on the Christian's Scientific view from "Creation to the Flood."

The Rev. Lubenow has held a lifetime interest in the relationship of the Bible to the natural sciences, especially as they relate to the Biblical Doctrine of Creation. He frequently speaks in high schools and colleges on the scientific evidences for Special Creation.

During the course of his academic and theological training, he studied at five Christian colleges and two state universities.

A member of the Evangelical Theological Society, the Bible Science Association, associate member of the Creation Research Society, the Rev. Lubenow serves as advisor in the area of creation to the Mid-America Sunday School Association.

He has led efforts to have the scientific evidence for Special Creation presented along with evolution in the public schools in Michigan.

All teachers, students and families are invited to attend this presentation.

Chest of Tools Stolen From Unlocked Car

William Gould of 326 North St., reported to village police that a chest of tools valued at $60 was stolen from the front seat of his unlocked car sometime between 6:30 and 9:30 p.m., Saturday March 29, while parked in his driveway.
The case remains open, pending further investigation.
