School Board Working on Tight Budget

Six probationary first-year teachers were given termination notices this week as a result of action taken by the Chelsea Board of Education Monday evening.

"This drastic action is actually a precautionary measure," said Board president Howard Haselschwardt. "The law requires us to give 60 days notice before the end of the school year to teachers whose contracts may not be renewed."

The board and the administrators of the Chelsea school system currently are developing a budget for the next school year.

"Despite inflation with its increased costs, we've promised district taxpayers to do everything possible to hold the line on operational taxes this year," Haselschwardt said. "We hope that these six new teachers in our schools will be back next September but at this point in our budgeting process we honestly don't know if we will be able to meet increased costs without a reduction in staff. Salaries comprise about three-quarters of our total budget."

"No one on the board, in the administration or on the faculty is about to lose sight of the fact that our first responsibility is to continue the excellence and quality of the Chelsea schools," said Charles Cameron, school superintendent.

"We face difficult problems," Cameron continued. "Our utility bills were budgeted at about $90,000 during the current year and we expect an increase of $20,000 next school year, an increase of more than 22 percent. We had hoped to replace three older school buses but the $31,000 we've budgeted will purchase only two buses this year. Last year, we were able to replace five buses for $59,000."

Haselschwardt pointed out that the most asked question by local taxpayers involved higher property taxes levied in 1974 and increased assessments for 1975. "However, the new state aid program reduces state aid to the schools by $1 for every increased dollar in taxes due to higher assessments. The district's taxpayers pay a greater share of the school system's expenses but we do not receive more money."

Superintendent Cameron went on to describe some of the major considerations currently being discussed.

"We intend to return the high schools nine-period day back to seven periods," he said. "The nine-period day was adopted to handle crowding but we cannot continue it without endangering our accreditation. The new additions at the high school will make this possible."

"We also will return the fifth grade to the elementary schools and we know that will make many parents happy who have felt that fifth graders were not adequately prepared for a middle school experience."

Cameron pointed out that two new kindergartens will be added to South school, the cafeterias at both elementary schools have been enlarged and equipped to handle more students and instructional media centers have replaced the libraries.

"The instructional media center has been tested at Beach school over the past several years," Cameron said. "Through such a center, a professional teacher can use films, tapes, special programs and many techniques to make classroom instruction more interesting and effective. But another advantage is that both the poorer and more advanced student can be individually helped. We must find the funds to put these centers in operation at North and South schools."

Haselschwardt and Cameron both emphasized the need to staff and equip the new vocational education building being built at the high school, a result of the 1972 bonding vote.

"We recognize that in the past a good deal of our effort has been aimed at the college-bound student," Haselschwardt said. "The study done by the citizen advisory committee several years ago pointed out the urgent need for vocational facilities and the voters emphasized that opinion by approving the bond issue for new buildings. Our problem now is to staff and equip a greatly expanded vocational program."

Cameron said that plans call for training courses in areas such as

Churchwomen Plan Used Clothing Drive

A clothing drive will be held at the Conneational church on E. Middle St. Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning, April 15 and 16.

Clothing may be dropped off at the church from 7-9 p.m. Tuesday evening, and from 9-11 a.m. Wednesday morning.

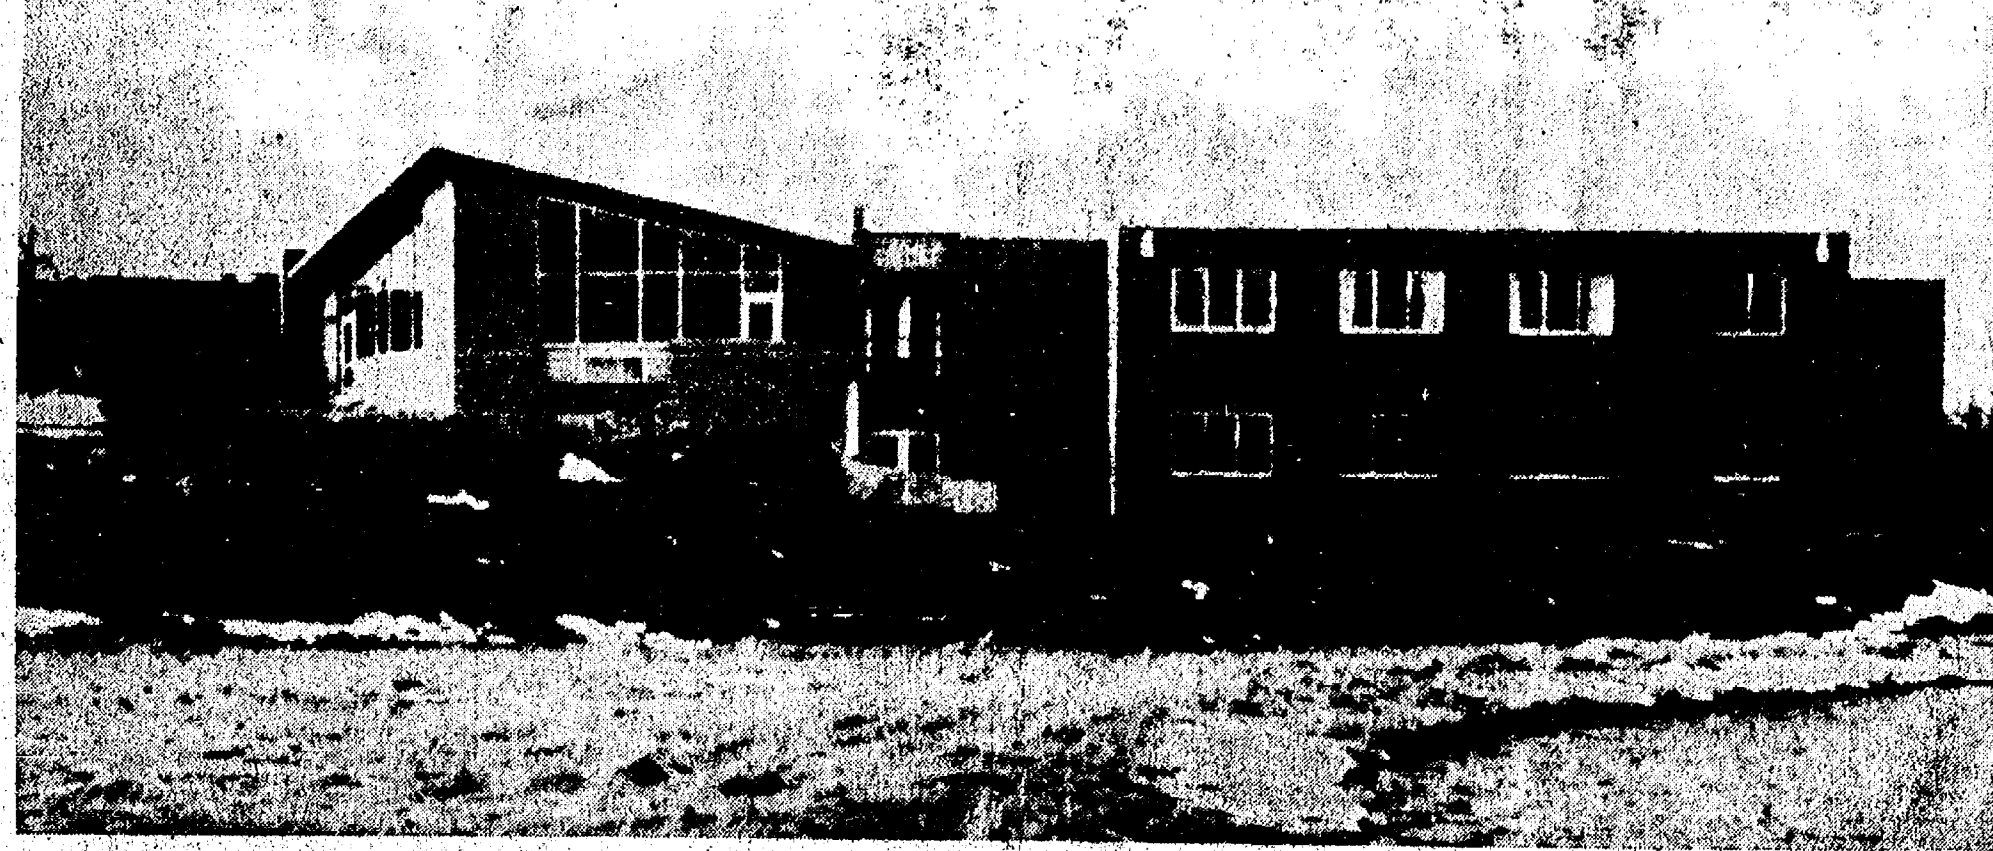

Members of the Church Women United who are sponsoring the drive, ask that all clothing be clean. Children's clothing, including boots and shoes, and women's underclothing and sleepwear are especially needed. Small appliances and linens may also be donated.

Articles of clothing, appliances, and linens will be taken to the "House by the Side of the Road," near Ypsilanti, where people in need (determined by local churches and the social services) have access to limited amounts of clothing for themselves and their families.

QUOTE
"Man is so made that when anything fires his soul impossibilities vanish."
—Jean De La Fontaine.

OVERLOOKING A MAN-MADE LAKE on 180 acres of land is the new addition to the St. Louis School for Exceptional Boys, seven miles west of Chelsea on Old US-12. The addition, which includes a dormitory and a chapel-multi-purpose room was receiving its finishing touches last week-end before Sunday's formal dedication. Area residents are invited to an open house at the St. Louis School Sunday, April 13 from 3-5 p.m., to celebrate the completion of the new addition.

St. Louis School Dedicates Addition

"It is better to light one candle than to curse the darkness." This quotation, taken from the Christophers, is a theme that the priests, nuns, teachers and boys at St. Louis school have held for more than a decade, as they dreamed of a new addition for their school for exceptional boys located seven miles west of Chelsea.

That dream, shadowed by "times of apprehension... doubts and true financial difficulty," was realized last Sunday, April 6, when the boys, their parents, teachers, visiting dignitaries and close friends of St. Louis school watched as the ribbon was cut leading to the new building by the Bishop of the Lansing Diocese, the Most Rev. James Sullivan.

This dedication ceremony is the first of two planned by the staff of St. Louis school, to celebrate the addition of the dormitory complex.

As Father Germano Pegararo explained, it would not have been possible to have everyone at once, the size of the building would not permit it.

Last Sunday's was the more formal of the two, involving a number of short talks given by visiting dignitaries.

Beginning the afternoon's program was L. Cercone, president of the Parents' Organization. Cercone welcomed the guests.

Greetings were then given by the Rev. James Sullivan, Bishop of the Lansing Diocese; the Rev. Fr. Germano Pegararo, director of the school; the lieutenant governor of the State of Michigan, James Damman; the Honorable James Del Rio, Recorder's Court judge of Detroit; the Honorable Hal Pennington, Chelsea village president; and Charles Cameron, superintendent of Chelsea public schools.

Cercone introduced the faculty of St. Louis school and music was played by the St. Louis school band.

Following the cutting of the ribbons, faculty, parents, and guests toured the new wing.

The new addition, which will increase the school's capacity by from 60 to 90 boys, is complete minus a few finishing touches; some of which will be added by the boys themselves as they decorate their rooms with favorite photos and posters.

The addition consists of a combination chapel and multi-purpose room, shower and toilet facilities and 18 dormitory rooms. Each room will provide sleeping space for five boys; quite a change from the former arrangement of 30 boys to a room. Father Germano stressed that "this way it will be more like home."

The former two large dormitories, and chapel in the main building have been converted into recreational facilities for the boys and a lounge for the staff.

The public is invited to see the new wing and to visit with the boys and staff of St. Louis school Sunday afternoon, April 13, at an open house from 3-5 p.m.

Director, Father Germano invites all area residents to attend the reception.

"The people in the area have been so kind to us, we would like to thank them in some small way, through this public invitation."

He continued, saying that it would be impossible to thank everyone individually. "The people of Chelsea have supported us very much. Occasionally we receive donations from local business merchants, Jiffy provides us with mixes for all the cake we can eat, Dana employees and the Knights of Columbus have been very kind and so have the many, many volunteers who come to work with our boys."

Chelsea Players Plan Summer Productions

Chelseaites who have dreamed of becoming a star on Broadway will have an opportunity to realize that dream, somewhat modified, this summer by becoming a part of the Chelsea Players.

Director of the Players, DiAnn L'Roy has urged all interested community persons to try-out and/or take part in this summer's productions.

Try-outs have been held, the cast chosen, and rehearsals begun for the production that will open the '75 summer season of performances. "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" will be presented June 19, 20, and 21 in the Chelsea High School Auditorium.

Featured in the cast will be Jeff Daniels as Snoopy, Michelle McClear as Lucy, Keith Pfeifle as Schroeder, Rob Wenk as Linus, and Howard Salyer as Charlie Brown.

Rodgers & Hammerstein's all-time hit, "Oklahoma," will take the stage July 31, Aug. 1-2. Auditions will be May 24-25. Rehearsals will begin June 23 and continue for five weeks, which is a change from previous rehearsal schedules.

Miss L'Roy explains: "We hope that more community persons can participate by our shortening the rehearsal period to one month (July) plus the one week in June." Rehearsals will be Monday through Thursday.

The Players will again conduct a children's theatre workshop from July 7 to July 26. Children will be taught basic dramatic skills as well as have an opportunity to be in a play. The plays, in connection with an open house will be presented on July 26. Children in grades 4 through 8 will be eligible to sign up for the workshop. The workshop will be limited to 48 people, first come, first serve. Sign-up days will be July 1-3.

The final project for the summer will be the co-ordination and presentation of a tent show to be held twice nightly at the Chelsea Fair. All productions are under the direction of DiAnn L'Roy and are financed in part by a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts. Miss L'Roy notes: "We do

Some Area Townships Reduce Budget

Budgets for four area townships were increased at the April 5 annual meetings while three budgets were decreased. Dexter, Scio, Sylvan, and Freedom townships have increased expenses and Webster, Lima and Lyndon townships will spend less next year.

Lima Township

Lima township officers received a 10 percent increase in salaries at the annual meeting, but also reduced this year's budget to $76,501.74. Last year's budget was $81,037.17. The decrease came in the clarification of the sales and use tax, says Leila Bauer, clerk.

Approximately 27 persons attended the four-hour meeting. A .16 additional millage for township operation was approved. The total operating levy is now 1.16. The board also approved contributions to the Chelsea Recreation Council and decided that the revenue sharing funds will go to road improvement.

They also discussed a possible fire ordinance to enforce fire permits and the Mill Creek Drainage district was tabled until a future meeting.

Dexter Township

Dexter township's budget was set at $117,765 at the meeting which was attended by approximately 12 persons. Last year's budget was $101,840.

The increase is due to road improvements with Dexter-Townhall Rd., as a three-year project in the township. Salaries for officials remained the same.

Lyndon Township

Lyndon township reduced their 1975-76 budget by approving $39,749 in expenditures. Last year the township approved $49,790.

Salaries for officials remained the same and no new projects were anticipated for the coming year.

Sylvan Township

At the April 5 meeting Sylvan township residents approved a $111,781 budget for 1975-76. This is up from last year's budget of $92,489.

There were no changes in salaries. The budget reflects a $2,000 allocation for the Kiwanis Club to be used toward the purchase of a bus for senior citizens, $1,650 for the recreation council and $1,800 for the township library.

Scio Township

About 100 persons attended the four-hour long Scio township meeting when the board approved a budget of $242,420 for 1975-76. Last year's budget was $227,021.

Road improvements of $14,000 and additional cost of fire protection accounted for part of the increase. Major projects will be on Dan Hoey, Shield and Parker Rds. A 1.16 mills tax levy was approved and the township official's salaries remained the same.

Webster Township

The 1975 budget approved at the Webster township meeting totaled $41,677, down from last year's $58,072. Expenses last year were $52,460.

The decrease in revenues is due to less money from the state. Salaries of the township officials remain the same.

Freedom Township

Freedom township approved an increased budget of $47,450 at the annual meeting. This is up from last year's $42,850.

The higher figure is due to increased operating costs including the hiring of a new zoning inspector, more legal expenses and $2,500 spent for a new ceiling in the township hall.

Salaries for township officials remained unchanged.

The township also went on record opposing the proposed Mill Creek Drain district. The county plans to levy about a half-mill for two years for work on a county drain.

Circus Tickets Now Available At Stores, Schools

Tickets for the Voorheis Brothers Circus to be held Monday evening, April 21, under the roof of the Chelsea High school gymnasium are now on sale at Luke's Sporting Goods, Gambles, and at all Chelsea public schools.

MICHIGAN WEEK general chairman for Chelsea is Robert Riemenschneider who was chosen to head Chelsea programs for the week-long festival to be held in May. Local programs, while having a flavor all their own, will be co-ordinated at the state level. Of the many plans now being formulated, one is a Mayor Exchange Day, whereby Chelsea will exchange mayors with another village, town or city as yet to be determined.

Bridal Gown Show Benefits Cancer Society

Tickets for the April 26 showing "A Kaleidoscope of Chelsea Brides," will go on sale Monday, April 14 at Vogel's on Main St.

A donation of $2 for adults and $1 for those persons under 18 and over 65, to the American Cancer Society will cover the cost of the tickets.

Tickets will also be available through ticket chairman, Mrs. Roy Greenleaf, 475-8005.

The show, featuring wedding gowns worn by Chelsea brides from 1909 to the present, will begin at 2 p.m. in the auditorium at Chelsea High.

Gowns are still being accepted for the show, which is now only three weeks away.

Mrs. George Palmer, one of the chairpersons for the show, added

Family Film Feature Fixed For Friday

With the cost of movie going rising to $3, $3.50 and even an occasional $4 per person, one can't beat the 50 cents per person donation requested by the Chelsea Recreation Council to attend Friday night's showing of Jules Verne's "20,000 Leagues Under The Sea."

The film is the first in a series of Family Film Features sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Council, and to be shown in the High School Auditorium.

Two showings will be presented Friday evening, April 11, at 6:30 and 9 p.m. Tickets will go on sale 45 minutes prior to show times. "20,000 Leagues Under The Sea" stars Kirk Douglas, James Mason, Paul Lukas and Peter Lorre. It has won many academy awards including the coveted Oscar.

Senior Citizens Needs, Available Help Pointed Out By Kiwanis Club Guest

Monday evening's Kiwanis Club meeting held at the Fair Service Center featured speaker Carollee Uits, assistant director of the Area Agency on Aging.

Miss Uits spoke to Kiwanians concerning the needs of senior citizens, what is presently being done and how they might better be served through specific proposals; one of which is currently in the works, is subject to government approval.

A proposal for portal to portal (door to door) transportation for Chelsea area senior citizens was sent to state and federal transportation officials in December, requesting a grant of money to buy a bus that would enable senior citizens to get to and from doctor's appointments, the grocery, friends' homes, etc. Money for the operation of the system has been raised locally.

The proposal, drawn up by Kiwanians with the assistance of Fred Barkley, a professional planner in the area and Miss Uits, requests state and federal aid in order that this proposed system can be in operation by October of this year. The system would work on a 12-hour reserve basis, whereby senior citizens in need of transportation may call a designated number 12 hours in advance, and make appointments to be picked up and delivered to a specific place at a specific time. Portal to portal transportation. Sam Johnson, president of the Kiwanis Club, expects to hear from government officials sometime in June regarding the proposal.

Try Another Brand?
Some Michiganders may feel less of a pinch in their pocket-books when they step up to the pharmacist's window starting this month.

That's because the new "generic drug law" is in effect. The law allows pharmacists, on request of the prescription bearer, to select the brand of drug to be dispensed when more than one brand of the same drug is available and has been prescribed by a doctor.

Put another way, if your doctor prescribes 50 tablets of "Brand X," and you ask the pharmacist to substitute a "generic equivalent," he can do so. And you might wind up paying less for the 50 tablets of "Brand Y."

Tom Walenta of Petoskey, president of the Michigan Pharmaceutical Association, says the new law could mean "possible consumer savings initially of about $8 million annually."

"Under the new generic drug law, the role of the pharmacist is shifted from that of a middle-man for the pharmaceutical manufacturers to a patient or consumer advocate," Walenta says. "He now is able to use his experience and knowledge on behalf of the customer-patient."

Not all prescription bearers will benefit from the new law, because there are no substitutes available for a good portion of the pharmaceutical products used in all prescriptions.

Walenta says there is more than one manufacturer for products used in about 15-25 percent of the approximately 31.5 million prescriptions dispensed in Michigan each year.

In other cases, the products are produced by one manufacturer or protected by patent laws and therefore, "price competition is practically non-existent," he says. Walenta predicts, however, that the new law will stimulate competition at the manufacturing level—and that could mean more savings for the consumers.

Saving Open Space
Urban sprawl has sucked up some of Michigan's best farmlands in years past, the experts say. But there may be hope for what's left.

Michigan is gearing up for a new program allowing tax relief to farmers who will pledge to maintain their land—not sell for commercial development—for at least 10 years.

Applications will soon be available for participation in the new open space plan authorized by the legislature last year. And, it's reported that some 1,600 Michigan farmers are waiting to sign up. Under the plan, a participating farmer would receive a credit for state property tax, and could be exempt from special assessment for sanitary sewers, water, lights and non-farm drainage.

Braced at the Bridge
That "shot heard 'round the world" has the good folks of Concord and Lexington, Mass., up in arms, braced for an influx of tourists who want to help celebrate the 200th anniversary this month of Paul Revere's ride and the beginning of the American Revolution.

Seems there aren't enough parking spaces, eating places, etc., in those tiny New England towns to handle the expected hordes.

Those problems—and the tight economy—have Michigan officials thinking of promoting tourism at home. "Come and see the American Revolution at Mackinac Island" is one of the slogans in mind.

Put Up Prices
Ever drive by a gas station, see a good-looking price and drive in, only to find that the posted price is for some type of gasoline other than the one you wanted?

A pair of bills introduced in the House recently by Rep. Sal Rocca, D-Sterling Heights, is aimed at reducing such motorist frustration. One of Rocca's proposals would require all stations to post the price of their gasoline—and the grade of gas offered at that price —in a conspicuous place that can be seen easily by passing motorists.

The second proposal, an alternative answer to the problem, would not require posting of prices. But it would call for those stations posting prices to also show the grade of gas offered at that price, in letters at least half the size of the price. Rocca says adoption of either one of his bills "would at least let people know what they are getting for their money" before they pull into the stations."

Historical Society Moves Meeting Place to Congregational Church

Chelsea Area Historical Society will hold its April 14 meeting in a new location; the meeting room of the First Congregational church, 125 E. Middle St., has been chosen in order to accommodate more people.

At the March meeting the Constitution Committee presented the constitution to members for ratification. The committee had done such an excellent job, with the exception of a very few areas, that ratification was swift.

Guest speaker at the 8 p.m., April 14 meeting will be Harold Jones. Jones will speak on genealogy. He has had a good deal of experience researching family backgrounds. The evening should prove to be an interesting one. The public is invited.

Historical Society Has 94 Members

Mrs. James (Marian) Sprague, membership chairman for the Chelsea Area Historical Society, reports marvelous success from the 1975 membership campaign drive. "This is outstanding for a first effort by the newly formed society," she commented.

Applications for membership have been received continuously since the campaign began Jan. 23. Presently there are 94 members.

Aside from Chelsea residents, members are from Dexter, Gregory, Grass Lake, Birmingham, Ypsilanti, and Lake Bluff, Ill.

Among the 94 members, there are three life members, seven patron members, 9 associate members, 25 family members, 25 individual members, one junior member and 24 senior citizen members.

Mrs. Sprague added that memberships will continue to be taken through the mail and at the monthly meetings. Applications for membership may be obtained at McKune Memorial Library.

A membership card and a society bulletin which lists new members and activities of the group, will be mailed to each paid membership. Members may expect to receive their second bulletin in May.

When you make that last payment on your home... we'll give you back all the money you borrowed to buy it!

Sound impossible?
Not with Ann Arbor Federal Savings' MORTGAGE/SAV PLAN.

Here's how it works: Say you borrow $30,000 for 25 years. Simply add $50 to your monthly mortgage payments to be deposited in a passbook savings account. Then when you make the last payment on your home, we'll give you back $30,939.*

Or you can leave your money in your savings account, and we'll pay you $134 each month for the rest of your life and your heirs thereafter.

We have perpetual money wheels, available in all AAFS offices, with which you can work out your own Mortgage/Sav program. Or one of our mortgage officers will work out a program with you. So take a few minutes and stop in. It could be very profitable.

Snow Eases Fire Dangers Temporarily

All has been relatively quiet for volunteers of the Chelsea Fire Department this past week. After a week spent battling barn and spring grass fires, the department has had an opportunity to rest.

Chief Jim Gaken attributes the quiet to last Thursday's snowfall.

There were, however, two fires in the area to which Chelsea fire fighters were called.

Saturday morning, April 5, the volunteer fire fighters were called to the Buehler residence, 20938 Waterloo Rd., where a dryer full of clothing was on fire. Apparently a malfunctioning part in the dryer caused it to overheat, lighting fire to the clothing within.

Firefighters put out the fire and then removed the dryer from the residence.

The fire was confined to the dryer. A limited amount of smoke damage to the residence was reported.

Sunday afternoon, April 6 at 12:13 p.m., the Chelsea Fire Department received a call to put out a fire in a motor home on 1-94 and Kalmbach Rd.

Upon arriving, volunteers discovered that the home's owner, Christopher A. Luce of Munith, had been able to smother the fire himself with snow.

Chief Gaken reported that the fire erupted when the emergency brake overheated, causing the floor boards in the brake area to catch fire. Damage was limited to scorched floor boards.

CLEAN OUT YOUR MEDICINE CHEST and drop old medicines and prescriptions in a container at Chelsea Drug Store. The drive, sponsored by the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary, will continue through April 14. Pictured above is the drop-off container located at Chelsea Drugs.

Clean Your Medicine Chest Of Unused, Outdated Medicines

Just a reminder, to "Clean Out Your Medicine Chest," while doing this year's spring cleaning.

The "Clean Out Your Medicine Chest" project, sponsored by the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary, has a purpose in mind; to encourage everyone to remove old medicines from their homes and dispose of them in a safe manner.

Prescription medicine could be harmful if out of date and within reach of curious children.

Prescription bottles and medicines which can no longer be refilled may be deposited in a container at Chelsea Drugs from now through April 14. Daniel Murphy of the Chelsea Drug Store will see to the safe disposal of the medicines.

Members of the Jaycee Auxiliary believe this is an excellent opportunity to attend to the often neglected job of disposing of unused and unneeded prescriptions.

Science Fair Opens Next Thurs. Night

Thursday, April 17, from 7 to 9 p.m. the third annual Science Fair will be held in the Chelsea High school library.

These life science projects are being prepared by students in the biology classes of Judy Scott and Barbara Wenk.

ASK THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Milliken

Question: Governor, I keep hearing that some chemical called PBB is poisoning our food supply and will harm any livestock. PBB is poisoning our food contaminated by it. What are you doing to protect Michigan consumers from this chemical?

Governor: Because of the health concerns of Michigan consumers like yourself, I called the Food and Drug Administration last week and asked them to be as definitive as possible on the implications to Michigan consumers of PBB (polybrominated biphenyl) levels in food products. The FDA's response re-affirmed my earlier statements that Michigan consumers can be confident that their food supply is being protected.

Based on evidence from continuing studies by state and federal authorities, the FDA said that it is confident that all dairy, meat and egg producers meeting the agency's guidelines for PBB content are safe for human consumption. And, based on continuing surveys by U. S. Department of Agriculture and Michigan Department of Agriculture and Food, we are unaware of any food in commercial channels which is not in compliance with the 0.3 parts per million (PPM) level on PBB content in milk and meat and 0.05 PPM in eggs.

On the basis of the best scientific knowledge available, we are confident that present guidelines for PBB content provide the necessary margin for human safety. Recently, three teams of expert veterinary toxicologists under FDA leadership were in Michigan surveying the health of animal herds exposed to PBB contamination. This study, and detailed analysis of human health surveys, will be completed as soon as possible.

Question: I was laid off from my job several months ago. Now my unemployment benefits have just about run out, and I am worried sick about how I am going to support my family. I am still looking for a job, but things don't look too good. Can you give me and the thousands like me some help?

Governor: I am acutely aware of the hardships many of our citizens are undergoing, and I have been in touch with the Michigan Congressional delegation, House and Senate conferees and the President to take the kind of federal action needed to help unemployed Michigan workers. I have urged the immediate passage of the tax cut bill that included a 13-week extension of unemployment benefits. I believe the tax cut itself will provide a much-needed stimulus to our state's economy; and the 13-week extension of unemployment benefits is crucial to families of Michigan workers.

One measure I have been able to obtain for Michigan is a $30 million advance for unemployment compensation benefits, which was approved recently by the U. S. Secretary of Labor. This means that there will be no interruption of benefits to laid-off Michigan workers when the Unemployment Compensation Fund cash reserves are depleted in April. The transfer of $30 million is effective as of April 1 and assures the continuation of these benefits to those who are laid off.

I am hoping that the 13-week extension will reach the President's desk and be signed into law in time to help those laid-off Michigan workers whose benefits will have run out.

Question: I am an invalid now. But before my life became so restricted to home, I used to volunteer work in my community. I enjoyed doing things for other people; but now that I am an invalid I appreciate even more the time and attention I receive from my neighbors and other volunteers from outside my community. A little bit sure does mean a lot, and I think we should show everyone how much we appreciate the services these volunteers are so willing to give.

Governor: I agree with you, and that is one of the reasons I created the Commission for Volunteers in Michigan (VIM) last year. The volunteer is too often an unsung hero. Giving recognition to Michigan volunteers who have responded with sensitivity to mankind is, I feel, a small gesture of thanks.

I am planning a one-day Governor's Volunteer Conference on April 18 in Lansing, and I will declare April 13 through 19 as Volunteer Service Week in Michigan. In addition to giving overdue recognition to volunteers throughout the state, I hope that this Conference will determine new approaches to and improve existing programs for volunteerism.

If you would like, you may contact the Director of VIM by writing to: Commission for Volunteers in Michigan (VIM), Suite 357, Hollister Building, Allegan St., Lansing 48903. I am sure the commission would appreciate hearing from you.

Survey Shows New Car Buyers Don't Like Mandatory Safety

Higher prices, exhaust emission controls and the state of the economy are helping keep half of Michigan's motorists who planned to buy 1975 model cars out of showrooms, if an Automobile Club of Michigan survey can be projected state-wide.

Twenty percent of Auto Club members responding to a questionnaire in the November Motor News said they normally would have purchased a new car this year. Only half of these respondents, however, said they still intend to do so.

Farm Products Promotion Slated At Briarwood

Don't be surprised if a friendly cow or amiable chicken wanders through the Briarwood Mall on April 17, 18, 19 from 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. greets you with a "Hello. Have you had your milk today?" or "Eggs are good for you."

It is all part of Down on the Farm Days, sponsored by the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau, to promote the use of dairy and farm products in the daily diet, as well as household use.

Shoppers will not only find themselves greeted by friendly farm animals, but they will discover an array of exhibits displayed throughout the mall illustrating myriad uses that can be made of products from farm animals.

Among special exhibits planned for the three-day event, will be a flaming omelet demonstration, a collection of miniature farm implements, a dairy exhibit and a weaving exhibit.

Loose Change, Gloves Stolen Saturday Night From Farmers' Supply

$15 in loose change and a pair of work gloves were stolen from the Farmers' Supply Co., 122 Jackson St., some time between the evening of April 5 and 9:30 a.m., April 6.

According to the owner Anton Nielsen, entry to the building was gained by entering a window on the north side and crawling in. Exit was made through the front door.

Village police have left the case open pending investigation.

Maple Grove Cemetery Association Annual Meeting Slated April 18

The annual meeting of the Maple Grove Cemetery Association will be held Friday evening, April 18, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred West.

Volunteers are needed for the annual "cleaning bee" at the cemetery to be held the week-end of April 19 and 20, weather permitting. Should inclement weather arise, the bee will be postponed until the following week-end, April 26 and 27.

The grounds of the cemetery are in dire need of a spring cleaning. All interested community residents are invited to help out with the job.

Debbie Orlowski Posts All-A Record at JBU

1974 graduate of Chelsea High School, Debbie Orlowski, is among four persons whose name appears on the President's Honors List for the winter term at Jackson Business University. To be placed on the list, students must have maintained an all-A average during the term.

Debbie's major course of study at JBU is Executive Secretarial. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Orlowski of 570 Chandler.

Supplemental security income payments can be made to disabled children under 18 whose parents have little or no income and limited resources. Call any social security office for more information.

More than 7,300 Auto Club members—one percent of the total Motor News circulation—responded to the questionnaire. Their opinions were computer analyzed and published in the magazine's March edition.

On a positive note, some members said they would buy cars in 1975 when "bugs on new equipment ordered by the government will be ironed out," as one member put it.

Survey results also suggest that new car buyers want large models, and most motorists believe last year's fuel shortage was contrived, want points assessed for 55-mile speed limit violations and are confused about no-fault auto insurance.

Three of four persons looking for new cars said they want a full-size or intermediate model. Motor News stated this seemingly refutes claims that Detroit is not building what the public wants.

Three of four motorists responding believed the fuel shortage last year was phony, and 58 percent want points assessed against drivers for any violation of the speed limit.

Sixty-nine percent said no-fault auto insurance was the same or worse than the previous form, indicating confusion about the plan. Thirty-one percent approved of it.

Only 13 percent favored air bags on new cars. Many who liked them, however, said they shouldn't be mandatory. Respondents cited cost and their "right" to choose safety devices rather than have them mandated by the government.

Sixty-four percent of those polled were against using tax dollars for public transportation. It was too costly, and better roads were needed instead, members wrote.

Other answers to the 24 survey questions also indicate drivers are distrustful of government, auto makers and consumer advocate Ralph Nader. Seventy-one percent blamed oil firms and "politics" for last winter's lines at service stations.

The AAA computer also analyzed results by age groups from 19 to 29 and each 10 years thereafter, up to age 65 and over. Nearly 60 percent of the youngest group indicated using safety belts regularly, and 30 percent of that group said they only wore them sometimes.

Forty percent of the 65 and over group said they always buckled up, while 39 percent said sometimes.

More than half of the youngest age group said they sometimes obeyed the 55-mile speed limit; 36 percent indicated they always did. Of those persons 65 and over, 69 percent said they always drove 55 or less while 29 percent said they did only occasionally.

Most participating members said they cut their driving last year and would be willing to do it again if convinced any future fuel shortage was real.

Organizational Meetings Set for Softball Leagues

Chelsea Recreation Department is making plans for the adult softball program for the 1975 season. The first meeting will be held on April 23 for the Slow Pitch teams at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Charles Waller, 13682 Old US-12.

Fast pitch teams will meet on April 24 at the same time, same place.

The manager or an official representative must be present at these meetings to become part of the program.

Number of Michigan School Districts Drops

The number of local school districts in Michigan has dropped to 592 following the consolidation of three districts comprising parts of Kalamazoo, Grand Traverse and Wexford counties, the State Board of Education reported recently. There are now 530 K-12 districts and 62 non-K-12 districts for a total of 592 in Michigan.

"Our current problem, of course, is to phase-in the total program as soon as we can find the funds. We will have parts of it operational in the coming year."

These are some of the major considerations we are trying to resolve with the money we have available to us," Rasmussen said. "It isn't easy because there is so much to do and costs keep mounting. We intend to keep the district's taxpayers well informed and we ask them to give their comments and ideas to any board member of Superintendent Cameron."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

The family of Mac Packard wishes to express its appreciation for the article about him which appeared in last week's Chelsea Standard.

Both the community of Chelsea and the Chelsea Fire Department hold a special place in our father's heart, naturally we are proud of him.

Thank you for sharing his story with the people of the community. Sincerely,

The family of Mac Packard.

Dear Editor:

I have watched the uptown area and also the side streets, and snow removal is always taken care of in a day or so.

Mr. Pötsch and his crew are to be congratulated for their prompt pick-up, especially in this winter of the big snows. J. R. Seitz.

Insulate yourself against summer heat and winter cold. It's easy, inexpensive—and saves Natural Gas.

Our Natural Gas is your lowest cost fuel. But the less you use, the more you save. That's why thousands of homeowners have taken advantage of the low-cost home ceiling insulation program we introduced in 1973, under the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission.

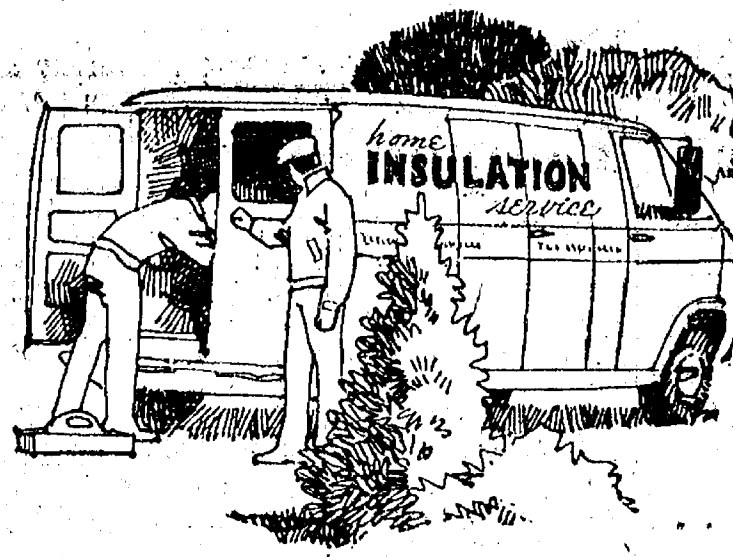

And no wonder. It's easy. Inexpensive. And a wise investment. It can reduce the amount of Natural Gas used for heating by up to 17%. Help our nation conserve its vital natural resources, too.

Back by popular demand. Fact is, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company's home insulation program has proved so popular we've decided to announce it again this spring. Because spring is a great time to insulate. Contractors aren't so busy, or if you decide to do the job yourself, your attic will be more comfortable to work in. Not too hot. Not too cold. When you're through, your house will be cooler this summer and ready for winter.

The heart of the program is ceiling insulation. Ceiling insulation represents the most significant opportunity for homeowners to hold down heating costs and conserve Natural Gas. Many homeowners can achieve fuel savings up to 17% by having six inches of insulation in their attic. Naturally, results for your home may vary due to architectural differences and heating habits.

First, you can install the ceiling insulation yourself. It's a simple, do-it-yourself project—and economical, too. Many homeowners can wrap up the project for less than $100. To assist you, we've even prepared a helpful booklet that shows just how to do the job. It's available at any Michigan Consolidated Gas Company office and from many insulation dealers.

Secondly, you can call a contractor and arrange to have the work done. Or call us. We'll have one of our participating subcontractors install it for you. The cost? Many houses with up to 1,000 sq. ft. of ceiling area can be insulated for less than $250.

A payment plan to suit every customer.

You can pay cash. Or, pay 20% down at the time the contract is signed. Then, simply have the remaining cost included in your Gas bill. Pay it off on your next three Gas bills with no interest or carrying charges.

Finally, you can pay for the job over an extended period. Interest is only 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

Why not take advantage of this money-saving program now. You'll be helping your pocketbook. And helping America conserve its vital natural resources. Contact us for details. And if you're a do-it-yourselfer, ask for our free booklet.

Modern Mothers Hear Program on Problems of Death

Members of Modern Mothers Child Study Club met Tuesday evening, April 8, at the Bur-ghardt Funeral Home for a program concerning arrangements one must make in the event of death, and how to explain death to children.

Louis Burghardt began the program by explaining the various steps taken to arrange a funeral.
He discussed information required for death certificates, how to obtain a burial permit, cremation, and the many functions of a funeral director. He also stressed the importance of a will in regard to the future care of children.

The Rev. Clive Dickens, pastor of the United Methodist church, showed a short film entitled "In My Memory." The film told the story of a young girl who experienced the loss of her grandmother.
Afterwards, the Rev. Dickens commented on the film. He explained that if we, as parents, can cope with death, then we will be better able to explain it to our children.
When children experience a death
among family or friends, he suggested being honest on a level appropriate to the child's understanding, and to encourage talking about good memories rather than the recent loss of a loved one.

Questions were directed to both speakers.

Refreshments were served at the home of Pat Whitesall.

Co-hostesses for the evening
were Carol Filinoff, Gloria Greenleaf and Carol Kvamberg.

The next meeting is April 22 at the home of Barbara Brown.

Puppet Show Greeted With Enthusiasm

What began as a simple project to entertain Chelsea children over their spring break, ended in an unexpected success for members of the Modern Mothers Child Study Club last Wednesday afternoon, April 8, when they were greeted by a total of 385 people who had come to see the puppet show put on by theatre students from University of Michigan.

Two performances were given by the students who had written and produced the production. Titled "The Caveman Story," the show began with a touch of Women's Lib, as the female cave-woman demanded to know why it could not be called "The Cave-persons' Story." "Why is everything man, man, man?" she shrieked.

While adults in the audience found themselves smiling over this opening jest, the children were somewhat bewildered by their amusement. But it did not last for long, as fascination for the hand and rod puppets that look something like those seen on the popular children's program Sesame Street, took over.

"The show was so good, that some people stayed for the second performance too," reported Lois Shahley, publicity committee chairperson.

After each performance, the students, Don Paisley, Maria Olds and Scott Clarke demonstrated the actual workings of the puppets.
They explained how to make basic movements, and special effects,
such as one in the performance,
when the caveman swallowed a worm.

Chairperson for the event was Sharon Hodgson. Carol Kvamberg
and Sandie Mayer sold tickets.

Problems of Unemployment, And How To Deal With Them

Editor's Note: At one time or another,
most of us have experienced the effects of unemployment; whether it be the college student who cannot find work to finance his or her education, the blue collar worker who suddenly finds himself unable to provide for his family because of an indefinite lay-off, or the professional who is attempting to cope with a slack-off in business. We know well and realize that being among the unemployed can and often does have devastating effects on our lifestyles. As unemployment sustains itself over extended periods of time, many of us find ourselves trying to deal with problems that appear to be insurmountable.

Mrs. Margaret LeGassick is one of many concerned area residents who are working to discover constructive ways by which the unemployed, their families and friends might fill their leisure hours.
The following article was submitted by Mrs. LeGassick with the hope that it would reach Chelsea residents who might be experiencing problems related to the current onslaught of unemployment.

By Margaret LeGassick

An informal survey of most of the major industries in the Chelsea-Dexter area taken in March 1975 indicated an unemployment rate of between 23-25 percent.
This compares with a total unemployment rate of 13.9 percent for Washtenaw county and 14.6 percent for Detroit. Indications are that while some people will be eventually recalled the effects of unemployment for others financially and emotionally will be severe and long lasting.

Pick-up Truck Stolen from Palmer Lot

They say bad luck runs in threes, so perhaps this will be the last report of theft from the used car lot at Palmer Ford.

Used car salesman Bennie Hayes notified Chelsea police that a 1972 Ford pick-up was missing from the lot at Palmer Ford Friday, April 4.

The green vehicle valued at $2,200 was locked and the keys in the office at the time of the theft.

Hayes told police he came to work at noon, but did not notice
the truck missing until 2 p.m.

Police are still investigating the case. As of yet there are no suspects.

Another Tractor Mower Stolen From Cemetery

There seems to be a rash on lawn mowers of the tractor variety as of late. Just last week, April 4, Robert Houle reported to village police that a Yardman 36-inch riding lawn mower had been stolen from the storage shed of Mt. Olivet Cemetery on Freer Rd.
This is the second robbery of its kind in a week. The first was reported to village police on April 3. A lawn mower had been stolen from the shed at Oak Grove Cemetery.

Houle believed that the robbery
occurred some time in the past two weeks.

Entry to the shed was gained by prying a board from the window on the east side of the building. Once inside unknown person(s) unlocked the door and removed the mower.

Present estimated value of the mower is $400. The cost to replace it would be approximately $500,
said Houle.

The case remains open. Police are investigating.

reads the green and white poster

the Chelsea high school cafeteria

performed during an eight-hour

women by the loss of their jobs also effects relationships among wives, husbands and children.
Additional free time available means more time together and more opportunities for tempers to flare, arguments to rage.

Surveys done in some parts of the country indicate a rise in child abuse as parents worried by their uncertain future find it increasingly difficult to cope with childish prattler and arguments. Teenagers frequen-ly share and are sensitive to the tension expressed by their parents but often are unable to show their true concerns and feelings. Relationships normally close, tend in this most difficult time, to "break down and families may be engulfed in confusion, frustration and fear.

Where then can help be obtained? There are, of course, agencies in the community to assist families who are experiencing difficulties caused by unemployment. Union members should contact their union representatives or the Washtenaw Community Services at 973-2188.
Both can provide information and see that assistance is obtained on a comprehensive range of services relating to material needs, emotional stress, family and personal problems, and insurance benefits.

A meeting is planned for April 12 between the unions and the Washtenaw Community Services to set up quick procedures for services to union members including an emergency "hot line."

Union members are urged to look for the telephone number in the newspapers and to contact their representatives for further information. Non-union workers may contact the Washtenaw Community Services or Linda Ormsby 475-1012. Mrs.
Ormsby of the Chelsea Social Service can offer some limited financial aid and will make referrals to other agencies for problems relating to emotional stress, medical assistance or long term financial aid. She will also assist people in making and keeping their first appointment.
Direct contact may, of course,
be made to all agencies.

For financial assistance contact the Department of Social Services at 120 Catherine St., Ann Arbor, 769-3700. For personal or family problems, help may be sought from the Washtenaw County Community Mental Health Center, 761-9830;
Catholic Social Services at 662-4534, or Child and Family Services of Washtenaw County at 971-6520. We should all remember that these agencies are available to serve us and we should contact them before our problems become overwhelming.

Parent Effectiveness Training Course Begins

Classes began at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday evening, April 8 at Our Savior Lutheran church, for parents interested in becoming more effective parents.

Entitled "Parent Effectiveness Training," the eight-week program is a basic course in how to raise responsible children, a nation-wide program to give American mothers and fathers the skills they need for the world's hardest job —parenthood. Parents today are being blamed but are seldom trained. Now they may enroll in Parent Effectiveness Training
(P.E.T.) and learn how to raise happy, responsible, and co-operative children.

P.E.T. has been called "revolutionary" because it shows parents why they should be neither strict nor permissive. Tough, strict authoritarian parents (parent wins, child loses) cause their children to rebel and retaliate. Soft, lenient, permissive parents (child wins, parent loses) allow their children to become inconsiderate, selfish and unmanageable.

P.E.T. teaches parents instead to use what Dr. Thomas Gordon, its founder, calls "the no-lose method" of family discipline. This special set of skills helps parents resolve all conflicts between parent and child; so that both feel satisfied and both are willing to carry out the agreements reached.
It works with children of all ages,
including teen-agers, and it reduces rebellion, irresponsibility, selfishness and resentment so frequent in today's families.

In the course, parents attend class one night a week for eight weeks. Between sessions, they begin applying at home the new skills they acquire in class, and many report immediate results—
fewer conflicts, more co-operation, closer warmer relationships with their children, rules and regulations agreed to and stuck to, and more open and honest communication between parent and child.
Several research studies on P.E.T.
show marked improvements in parental attitudes as well as much more favorable feelings on the part of children toward their parents.

Each course is a workshop of lectures, discussions, tapes and realistic practice focused on acquiring the skills of effective parenthood. The modest tuition fee includes a self-teaching workbook of at-home exercises and a copy of Dr. Gordon's recently published hard cover book, Parent Effectiveness Training (Peter Wy-den, Inc., New York, 1970) which has been described as "the finest book on parent-child relationships ever published."

The class will be taught by Wayne Wiltse of Livonia. Wiltse was trained in St. Louis at an intensive training course run by Effectiveness Training Associates of Pasadena, Calif.

"Parenthood is the only major job in our society for which no training is provided or even available," according to Wiltse, "and this program is the first practical how-to course that really works
for any parent."

The course is open to fathers and mothers of children of all ages, to single parents, and to all interested adults working with youth.

The class is still open to interested persons. Those who wish to enroll may do so at the second session Tuesday evening, April 14
at 7:30 p.m., Our Savior Lutheran church.

Dogs Chasing
Deer or Sheep
Will Be Shot

A concerned area resident has asked other area residents living in the vicinity of the McKinley-Waterloo Rd. area to be on the lookout for a pack of running dogs.

Apparently the dogs are frightening deer and sheep in the vicinity. Residents fear that if the dogs are allowed to continue running freely about the area, harm could come to the animals.

The Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department has been notified and warn that any dog found chasing deer or sheep will be shot. The department is anxious to collar the dogs before they do harm.

Anyone having any knowledge about the pack or a single dog involved should contact the owner(s) or the sheriff's department.

Big Indoor Circus Coming April 21

Spring is here. The circus is coming. Col. Bill is bringing his celebrated circus to town in magnificent splendor reminiscent of days gone by.

The three-ring show now touring its fifth sensational tour will exhibit twice on Monday, April 21 at 6 and 8 p.m., indoors at the Chelsea Gym under the sponsorship of Chelsea Recreation Council which is bringing the big circus to town as a special event for children of all ages in the community.

Headlined will be the European riding family, known internationally as the famed Alberto Zoppe Troupe. Readers will best remember them from their motion picture appearance with Betty Hutton and Jimmy Stewart in "The Greatest Show on Earth" with Cornell Wilde and directed by Cecil B. DeMille. Professor Zoppe also taught Toby Tyler how to ride the horse in the Walt Disney motion picture. He has also appeared in "Thoroughly Modern Millie" and other films. He was brought to this country from Italy by the famed Ringling Bros. Circus in 1948 and appeared in the center ring of that great show.

Also appearing will be Jose Cole, equilibrist, Arturo Ponce, trapeze, television's favorite "Ricky the Clown," the Langs, the great Marcelli riding the unicycle on the slack wire and many others. They'll all be on hand to entertain you and hold you spellbound for one day only, Monday, April 21.

Popular priced tickets will be on sale at the door, however you may buy your tickets in advance and save considerable. A family plan is offered that will admit any two adults plus four children under 13, but they must present a coupon or purchase same in advance from sponsor.

Col. Bill Voorheis, owner of the show promises a great family evening of fine entertainment, something that is really needed in this day and age.

If you're 62 or over and don't get social security checks because of your work, call social security if your income drops. You may be eligible for checks.

Plans for a reunion have begun. A second meeting will take place Sunday, April 13, 6 p.m. at the home of Angie Smith, 204 East St. All interested 1970 graduates are welcome to attend.

A NEW ADDRESS ON CLEVELAND STREET: Standing at 570 Cleveland St. is IPSCO's new home. Painted blue and white, the new plant affords IPSCO with the luxury of space they have never before enjoyed. Though the building is still in the process of being completed, workers moved in during the past two weeks and began to set up shop.

IPSCO Moves into New Plant

IPSCO has a new home! Situated on a plot of land addressed as 570 Cleveland St., the blue and white building, designed and built by Woodridge Construction, with the help of the people at IPSCO, awaits completion.

While most of the equipment, with the exception of two additional pieces of machinery involved in the production of plastics used for automobiles has been moved in the building, and is presently operating, offices for the company's executives, secretaries and paper-work people have not been completed.

The grounds surrounding the building are also a bit rough, however, spring and the warm weather will allow for the completion of the exterior and surrounding land.

Presently IPSCO employs from 30-45 people working one of three eight-hour round-the-clock shifts. Victor Schwarzenberger, vice-president, doesn't expect a rise in this number until 'sometime in '76, but even that is not definite.

IPSCO first started in October of 1965 in the brick plant on Old US-12. A need for more space resulted in the construction of a new

Offer Booklet on Breast Examination

How many times have you put off learning to do a breast self-examination thinking well, maybe next month? It's not hard to do, and it really should be a regular part of your take-good-care-of-you program. To help you learn how to examine your breasts correctly each month, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has a booklet that gives step-by-step illustrated instructions. It stresses the importance of a regular routine to detect changes in the breast which may or may not be the early signs of cancer. For a copy of Breast Self-Examination send 40 cents to Consumer Information, Dept. 13, Pueblo, Colo. 81009. The booklet includes the advice to:—Examine your breasts regularly once a month, after the menstrual period. However, it should be done during pregnancy and after menopause, too. —For checking appearance of the breast, stand in front of a mirror with the upper body unclothed. Look for changes in the shape and size of the breast and for dimpling of the skin or "pulling in" of the nipples. Be aware, too, of any discharge from the nipples or scaling of the skin of the nipples. Abnormalities in the breast may be more noticeable when you change positions of the arm and body, so stand with arms down. Lean forward. Raise arms overhead and press hands behind your head. Place hands on hips and tighten chest and arm muscles by pressing firmly inward. —For feeling the breast, lie flat on your back with a pillow or folded towel under your shoulders. Place the left arm overhead. With the right hand slightly cupped, feel for lumps or any change in the texture of the breast or skin; also note any discharge from nipples. Feel the inner half of the left breast from top to bottom and from nipple to side of chest. —Pay special attention to the area between the breast and armpit, including the armpit itself. Avoid compressing the breast between the thumb and fingers as this may give the impression of a lump which is not actually there. —Feel gently, carefully, and thoroughly. Repeat this same process for the right breast. —If you find something you consider abnormal, contact your doctor for an examination. Most breast lumps are not serious, but all should come to the doctor's attention. Breast Self-Examination is one of almost 250 selected Federal consumer publications listed in the spring edition of the Consumer Information Index. Published quarterly, by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration, the Index is available free from Consumer Information, Dept. 13, Pueblo, Colo. 81009, and at Federal Information Centers located throughout the country. More than 6.3 million boys and girls, between the ages of 9 and 19, are participants in 4-H programs and activities. Supporting their efforts are half a million volunteer adult and teen leaders, the men and women of the Cooperative Extension Service, the National 4-H Service Committee, the National 4-H Foundation and numerous private sector donors.

Circus Advance Crew Stranded By Storm

"It's a departure from our usual fast pace," declared Ray Sowards, one of the crew of advance people with the Voorheis Bros. circus that arrived in Chelsea on Wednesday of last week to publicize the show when it will play here later in the month.

Freezing sleet and drifting snow made the crew isolated as a result of the worst storm of the year.

The circus people, traveling in two mobile homes, included "Col." Bill Voorheis and his son, Bill, who stages the 1975 edition of the big show, being brought to town by the Chelsea Recreation Council.

Owners of the Quality gas station made room for the two big trailers and hastily ran electric power, thus providing heat and television, while the wind blew and the snow drifted high. The show people relaxed and adjusted to the relaxing pace of Chelsea.

"This is terrific," said Billy Voorheis, 20-year-old son of the colonel. "I've been traveling with the circus since I was 16 and this is the third time I've been marooned. But I like it."

The group visited all the local eateries, purchased clothing, and got hair cuts. "At least we are helping to boost the economy of your town, as well as enjoying the community," said "Col." Bill, owner of the show.

"I hope all the good folks will take advantage of our family plan ticket and pay us a visit when we play here later this month."

The big travel trailers and advance crew departed on Friday for Flint.

So "spring" is just around the corner—"The circus is coming!"

Indians Manufacturing Camouflage for Army

Indians on the Sioux Reservation at Fort Totten, N.D., are making camouflage netting for the Army, according to Sgt. Jones, local Army representative.

The manufacturing company, Devils Lake-Sioux Manufacturing Corp., has a $53 million government contract. The Sioux own 30 percent of the company and have the option of buying the entire business by 1980.

This is the first time manufacturing has come to the reservation and the reservation welfare rolls have dropped by two-thirds.

State-Wide Library System Endorsed

The State Board of Education has adopted a policy statement endorsing a "comprehensive library system" to serve all the people of Michigan.

In the statement, the State Board recommends a uniform library organization be established, that local libraries be affiliated with a county-based library system and that a county tax, where feasible, be used to support the total network.

RECEIVING THE EISENHOWER AWARD for outstanding service to the People to People International Organization, and for having organized and taught the first foreign language classes for People to People, is Mrs. Alois Kinzli. Mrs. Lester McCoy, President of the Ann Arbor chapter, is pictured presenting the award to Mrs. Kinzli. Mrs. Kinzli's German language students together with French students are pictured in the background.

People to People Area Chapter Presents Eisenhower Award

The Ann Arbor Chapter of People to People, an international organization which believes the learning of foreign languages promotes world-wide friendship, met Tuesday evening, April 8 at the Ann Arbor Public Library for a presentation and recognition of children's language classes.

The evening's program consisted of songs, poems and playlets in German and French, presented by language students.

Amy Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wagner of Chelsea, played a leading part in the program.

Diane M. Klemer Cited By U. of M. Pharmacy School
A sophomore in Pharmacy at the University of Michigan, Diane M. Klemer was among other pharmaceutical students recognized for high academic achievement in Pharmacy. Certificates and awards were presented at a poolside reception held Wednesday evening, April 2 at Webers Inn, Ann Arbor.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Klemer of 634 Flanders, Diane received a certificate of recognition from the Rho Chi Society, honoring her for outstanding work in Pharmacy.

Rho Chi, an honors society for upperclassmen, was established for students in the school of Pharmacy at the U. of M.

Following the presentation, an award was made to Mrs. Alois Kinzli, who has been teaching German to children in Washtenaw county for many years. Mrs. Kinzli came to the United States with her husband in 1956.

She was presented the Eisenhower award for outstanding service to the People to People organization. This award, authorized by the Eisenhower family, gave special recognition to Mrs. Kinzli for organizing and teaching the first foreign language classes for People to People.

The award was presented by Mrs. Lester McCoy, president of People to People, Ann Arbor chapter. Long-time Dexter resident, Mrs. Mary Wolter, member of the chapter's board of directors and current treasurer, welcomes all Washtenaw county residents to attend the chapter's monthly meetings on the second Tuesday of each month.

Tree Order Deadline Near

Deadline for ordering tree and shrub seedlings from the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District is April 15.

Evergreens, hardwoods, and wildlife shrubs are sold each spring for a nominal fee to encourage landowners to plant trees for beautification, wildlife habitat, windbreaks and erosion control.

Order forms are available from the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor 48103, phone 761-6721.

Orders are taken on a first come, first serve basis.

Several species are already sold out and others, such as White Pine, Black Walnut and Honey-suckle are rapidly dwindling. However, ample supplies of evergreens such as Blue Spruce, White Spruce, Austrian Pine, Red Pine and Scotch Pine are still available.

Wildlife shrubs such as Autumn Olive are available, as well as a wildlife "grab bag," made up of assorted shrubs which will have berries for wildlife food during fall and winter.

For sunny slopes needing protection from soil erosion, Emerald Crownvetch seed may be planted. This long-lived legume forms a dense carpet of cover and is practically maintenance-free once established.

All who order seedlings from the District will be notified by mail of when and where to pick them up.

If someone in your family dies, check with social security. Monthly checks may be payable.

Driver Education Costs

Reduced By Trying Pooling Arrangement

Five Branch county school districts have reduced their per-pupil cost for driver education classes one-third while improving the over-all quality of the program through an experimental pooling arrangement, the State Board of Education reported recently.

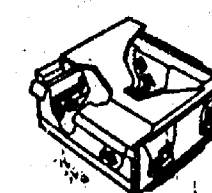

Instead of maintaining five different driver education facilities and facilities, the districts—Bronson, Coldwater, Quincy, Tekonsha, and Union City—have united to support a single drivers education center that handles all of the approximately 1,000 students who sign up for drivers education annually.

On April 18, 1775, Paul Revere alerted the Minutemen and militia between Boston and Concord that the British soldiers were headed to destroy the colonial stores in Concord.
