Track Team In Showdown With S. Lyon

Bulldogs, Lions Tied in Conference With 4-0 Records

The Chelsea High school track team ran up its fourth straight win last Thursday, May 1, by downing Brighton, 74-49. The meet was forecast to be somewhat closer; however, Brighton did not meet those expectations. Coach Kruse reported that "the score does not indicate the actual margin, as we gave them (Brighton) two relay wins by running what amounted to freshman teams."

Field event participants piled up an early 29-7 lead... it was never challenged by the Bulldogs' opponents. The pole vaulters led the way with a one-two-three sweep, followed by a 1-2 finish for Chelsea in the high jump. Other first-second finishes were recorded in the high and low hurdles as well as the 400-yard dash.

Rick Sweeney once again led the Bulldogs, scoring first in the high jump, where his leap of 6'4" set a new school record, and first in the 120-yard high hurdles with a time of :16.2, his best for the year.

Howard Salyer also took two first places. A dasher, Salyer placed in the 400- and 220-yard dashes, and went on to mark up a third place in the long jump.

Phil Frame, turned in a good effort in the two-mile run, winning in 10:34, just 2.1 seconds away from the school record.

Kruse reported that his boys "as well as they had to do to come up with a good victory. We simply over-estimated the Brighton strength and were relieved when they didn't deliver."

Friday, following the Brighton meet, the team traveled to the Marysville Relays. "Unfortunately," Kruse said, "so did a number of state track powers, including Ecorse and Flint who finished in the top five in the state last year. They finished first and

Girls Track Team Swamps South Lyon

Chelsea girls track team trounced South Lyon on Wednesday, April 30 by a score of 88 to 22. ## VFW Post, Auxiliary Mark 30th Anniversary

VFW Post 4076 and its Auxiliary sat down to a buffet dinner, Saturday evening, May 3 to celebrate the Post's 30th anniversary. 120 members and their guests were present at the Rod and Gun Club, where the celebration was held.

The club was patriotically decorated in colors of red, white and blue as was the three-tiered anniversary cake. Name tags, designed by Sandi Ellenwood in the shape of the three-tiered cake completed the patriotic theme commemorating the Post's 30th birthday.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Gertrude Dell, chaplain of the Auxiliary.

Frank White led the pledge of allegiance.

General chairman Ken Platt delivered the welcome address and presented Mac Packard with a billfold from the Department of Michigan for his part in the membership drive.

A special guest, Mrs. Harry (Gussie) White, has installed the Ladies Auxiliary since July of 1945 for all but two years. She had the honor of presenting three charter members with their 30-year pins. Mrs. Iza Carly, Mrs. Dorothy Lentz and Mrs. Eulalie Packard joined the 11 charter 30-year continuous members. Mrs. White was accompanied by her husband, Harry. The couple are from Ann Arbor, where Mrs. White served as a past VFW Auxiliary president of District 6, the Department of Michigan VFW Auxiliary.

Another guest was Mrs. Naomi Pahl of Jackson, also a past Auxiliary president. Mrs. Pahl relayed greetings from the Department president and gave Mrs. Bernice Schneider her 30-year continuous membership pin.

Mrs. Glenn Carnes, District 6 commander presented 30-year pins to Charles Ritter, David Strieter, Duane Weiss, Mac Packard and Laurence Boyer. Mrs. Carnes accompanied her husband from Lansing.

Senior vice-president, Marvin Smith and his wife were present. Smith presented Fremont Boyer and Henry Notten with their 20-year and over pins.

Also from Lansing were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Goodwin. Goodwin served as a past District 6 commander and now holds state offices. He presented 15-year and over pins to Stan Montagne, Don O'Dell and Paul Mayer.

Mrs. Dorothy Lentz, secretary of the Chelsea Auxiliary for 16 years, gave an interesting history of the organization.

Fremont Boyer, who has been Post commander seven times, gave a detailed resume of the post's yearly activities. Charles Ritter told how the post was formed.

Mrs. Minnie Gutterize, District 6 president, from Newport, read a memorial tribute for all deceased auxiliary members. The Rev. Reinwald of Pinckney, and VFW state chaplain, paid tribute to deceased post members. Mrs. Reinwald accompanied her husband.

Other dignitaries present were Mrs. Camilla Babcock from Jackson, past District 6 president; Mrs. Shirley Basten, District 6 senior vice-president, and her husband, Roger, also of Newport; Miss Rose Mikowitz, District 6 junior vice-president; Mrs. Fay Cribbs of Erie; the Rev. and Mrs. Harry Ellsworth of Holt, junior vice-commander District 6.

RETIRED: Mrs. Creda Winkle, who has taught school a total of 49 years, 19 of those in Chelsea, gave notice to the School Board this week, that she will not go for 50. Mrs. Winkle will be honored by the community today (Thursday) at a reception in the Media Center at Beach Middle school from 4-6 p.m. The community is invited to attend.

Mrs. Creda Winkle Giving Up Teaching... After 49 Years

For someone "who couldn't make up my mind to become a teacher," Mrs. Creda Winkle sure stuck to her decision once it was made. This year she will retire from the profession after having taught classes of children for 49 years. "Twenty-four of those were without a break" and then she laughed, "I took a week and three days off to have the twins."

Of her 49 years, Mrs. Creda Winkle has spent some 19 of them in Chelsea schools, where now she is winding up her last year with the 5th grade at Beach Middle school.

Mrs. Winkle has come a long way since her graduation from the County Normal School in the spring of 1926 allowing her to teach in a one-room school house in Putnam County, Ohio, where she taught an eight-month term for a sum of $800. Mrs. Winkle was 19 years old then. Her class consisted of students from five years of age to 16, "and he was a boy!"

A few years later, Mrs. Winkle received her two-year elementary diploma for study at Bowling Green in Ohio.

Later, after the war, teaching laws changed, requiring those in the profession to hold college degrees, so Mrs. Winkle like many of her contemporaries, returned to the classroom for study to receive a BS in Elementary Education. She went summers and winters to Eastern Michigan University and even to some extensions of the University. Once she drove to Fowlerville for a needed course. And then in 1956 that BS was hers.

But as teaching became more sophisticated in the world of academics and teachers began to change pay scales according to the level of education they themselves had achieved... well Mrs. Winkle went back to school for her masters degree, and admitted, "to get more money."

Finally in 1969, 43 years after her teaching education began, Mrs. Winkle settled for a masters degree from EMU in Elementary Education... and got more money!

In 1948 she came to Washtenaw county. She began her Michigan teaching experience by teaching kindergarten through 8th grade in county schools. In '56 those very same schools consolidated into districts... a building boom began to bring them physically together and suddenly that same year Mrs. Winkle was hired to teach in the Chelsea School District, where she has been ever since. Most of those years have been spent teaching 5th graders at North school.

Creda Winkle has seen a number of changes come to pass in the Chelsea School District, and some of those changes she participated in, though she swore up and down that she never would. Robert Benedict, principal of North school, ribbed her about that and said, "You told me you'd never strike." And she replied in a somewhat stern teacher's voice that only a veteran like Creda could have. "Well, yes I did, but I did strike, but only once, and that was during the second contract dispute."

She looked Benedict directly in the eye and continued, "Things were friendly before the MEA came in. Each spring we used to sit down with Mr. Cameron and talk pay increases. 'He was on our side then,' she laughed. "When the negotiations came in, that was a horse of a different color!"

"Schools have come a long way." Then Creda Winkle looked up, and it was as if she saw her entire teaching career pass before her eyes, all the changes, the joys and sorrows. Her train of thought was broken and she said "Well, I'll miss it, but then, I'll survive."

Mrs. Creda Winkle will be honored by Superintendent Charles Cameron, who hired her way back in 1956, by the School Board, her students and former students, their parents and the Chelsea community, Thursday, May 15 when an open house to be held in the Media Center at Beach Middle School begins at 4 p.m. For two hours, the people of Chelsea will be able to thank Mrs. Winkle for what she has done for them or their children, or just to congratulate her on her fine record of teaching. It is not often, that a person like Mrs. Winkle comes to light. And it is not likely there will ever be another one like her again. The age of the one room school house is gone... forever.

Chelsea Students Win 15 Ribbons in County Meet

Practice paid off for Nancy Oswald and her students when they competed Friday, May 2 in the Washtenaw county Special Olympics. Her class from Chelsea High returned home to proudly display nine first-place blue ribbons, five second-place ribbons and one third-place ribbon. Miss Oswald also reported that the students from the junior high performed well: taking one first, four seconds and two thirds.

Competition began at noon with the gymnastic events. Taking a first place was Kathy Buck whose free exercise done to the music of Beethoven's Fur Elise awarded her the coveted blue ribbon. She went on to win another first over Rosie Rinesmith of Dexter in balance beam competition.

Not long off is the annual Michigan Week celebration. Beginning Saturday, May 17 and continuing through Friday, May 23, Michigan Week celebrations will be held in towns, villages and cities throughout the state.

Chelsea's chairman for this year's festivities is Robert Riemenschneider. Riemenschneider, his display and day chairman have two days of activity planned for Chelsea.

Kicking off the celebration on Saturday will be "Community Pride Day." Chairman for the day is Robert Pante.

The now famous, "Mayor's Exchange Day," will be held Monday, May 19 when Chelsea's village president will travel to Northville where for one day he will head that community. Of course Northville's Mayor will come to Chelsea. And planning the day for him and his guests is Thomas Dmoch, a trustee on the Village Council.

Display chairman for the week is Doug Sprague, an associate of Sprague Buick, Olds, Opel. Sprague is assisting the fourth grade classes at North and South schools who are busy at work producing posters for a contest with the theme, "What I Like Best About Michigan." The students' posters will be judged before Michigan Week begins. Prizes will be awarded, and Sprague will see to it that they are placed in various store fronts for all the community to see during Michigan Week celebrations.

Appointed publicity chairman is David Rowe, also a trustee on the Village Council.

JV Trackmen Win One Meet But Lose Two Others

In a round of track meets held last week the Chelsea junior varsity track team took one win against Pinckney by a slim 67-66 score, and lost two meets to Tecumseh and Saline where each opponent was able to topple the Bulldogs by a margin of 83-49.

In the Pinckney meet, Greg Reed once again won three events. Reed's expertise in the high jump, pole vault and 100-yard low hurdles won him three firsts. Reed also sported a good performance in the Tecumseh meet where he took a first in the 100-yard low hurdles and pole vaulted a 9'6" for second. Against Saline, Reed came back to win three firsts, his usual style, in the high jump, where a jump of 5'4" topped his season's best, as well as in the pole vault, 9'6" and the 100-yard low hurdles which he ran in a personal record time of :13.1.

Another celebrity from the Pinckney meet was Bob Ball who established a new 7th grade record for the shot put. Ball wiped off (Continued on page three)

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

Dear Mister Editor:

Usual, I jest take care of the big decisions at my home. I work out farm support prices and how much we ought to pay for Arab oil, and I handle tricky items like how to cut the federal budget and increase aid to other countries. I even had time left over recent to work on the Equal Right Amendment. I let the old lady worry with the little problems, like taking care of the garden, the cow and the house.

But even President Ford has to take time off from his golfing and skiing ever now and then to go to his office and find out what Kissinger has been up to. So I don't think it's out of line for me to do a little private worrying about personal situations as long as I don't make it a habit. I allus figured the best way to worry was to fall asleep right after you start, but the old lady has called this matter to my attention and I will pass it on to you.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer R. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

How About That?

Look it off—right at the Big Bridge. Call it Superior, the 51st of these United States.

A new idea? Not really. For some time now, folks have been thinking about splitting Michigan into two separate states, with the lower and upper peninsulas becoming individual governmental entities. But the idea is getting lots of attention these days, especially from Upper Peninsula lawmakers.

So serious is the question at this point that Senate Minority Leader Robert Davis, R-Gaylord, (his district includes the eastern U.P.) and Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, D-Negaunee, have asked the attorney general for advice. They want Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley to answer these questions:

—Were there any constitutional or legal deficiencies in the way in which the Upper Peninsula became a part of the State of Michigan?

—What are the procedural steps by which the Upper Peninsula could be established as a separate state?

—The question of the Upper Peninsula is not a new one," Davis says, "but the legality of it has never been explored."

Davis says there may be some "discrepancies" in the way Michigan and the U.P. got together—as part of a boundary-line drawing pact between Ohio and Michigan. Seems Ohio wanted the strip of land including Toledo, so a congressional compromise gave that away in exchange for the U.P. for Michigan.

Whether or not "Superior" becomes the 51st state, Davis says the issue will prove of interest to legal scholars and historians.

"It's not unreasonable to suggest such a move," he says, "considering the fact that the upper peninsula is larger in area than nine of our existing states and its population, according to the 1970 census, is equal to that of Alaska."

Why would the U.P. want to go independent? Folks there could "get along a lot better" that way, Jacobetti says. And why Superior? "It's the superior part of the state."

Treasures Galore

A converted vault once used to stash budget research books now holds the distinction of being the office of a Republican state senator. And its occupant, Dick Allen of Alma, figures the best way to decorate his vault is with art treasures.

Treasures? In these days of tight budgets? Yes, indeed.

Allen is sponsoring an art contest—among elementary school children in his district. Prizes will be a visit to a Michigan Senate session.

"The Senator expects the contest to yield impressive sculptures, beautiful oil and watercolor paintings, modern art collages, bold graphic designs, exquisite crayon drawings, artistic photographs and the like," reports the press release announcing the contest.

What he'll get is anybody's guess.

But Allen, noted around the Capitol for his sense of humor and fun-play, is serious.

He's even planning to have the entries picked up from various district schools "to avoid cost and damage which may result from mailing."

Girls Track Team Swamps South Lyon

Class A-B Divisional meet was dominated by Class A powers such as Cass Tech, the 1974 State Champions, Ann Arbor Pioneer and Huron, and Mt. Clemens. While the girls only placed 10th in the meet with seven points, they broke nine school records.

Coach L'Roy added that Susan Frisbie's time in the 220-yard final of :27.2 broke her former school record set at :27.7. Frisbie, however, set a new record at :26.3 in semi-final competition.

"Points are only given for the first five places," L'Roy reported, "but I guess it is some consolation to know that we were competitive with some of the best high school teams in the state." L'Roy continued; "there is a definite disadvantage in competing against large Class A schools," but as she added, "on the other hand it provided a high level of competition and I was pleased with the girls' performances."

Chelsea winners in the meet are:

800-Yard Run: 3rd, Shelly Warren, a new school record, 2:30.3.

110-Yard Hurdles: 4th, Monica Hanna, a new school record, :17.2.

Two-Mile Run: 5th, Tammy Puglisi, a new school record, 13:46.6.

220-Yard Dash: 5th, Susan Frisbie, :27.2.

Other new school records set in the invitational were sixth place winners Annette Gaken, 31'10", shot put; Emily Bonus, 6:11.7, mile run; team of Carolyn Schardien, Penny Collinsworth, Annette Gaken and Shelly Warren, 4:28.5, mile relay; team of Colleen Collins, Kathy Treado, Angie Merkel, and Susan Frisbie, :53.1, 440 relay; team of Merkel, Treado, Frisbie and Schardien, 1:53.6, 880 relay.

The girls next meet is scheduled for Friday, May 9 at Novi.

"A Backwards System"

Michigan's assessment procedures reward people for letting their homes and property go to pot, charges the chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee.

Sen. John Bowman, D-Roseville, wants to change those procedures.

"If you paint your home, or build a fence to make it more attractive, the assessor comes by to see how much he can raise your taxes because you're trying to keep your home looking respectable," Bowman says.

"On the other hand, if you don't do anything to your home and just let its appearance go to hell, then you'll probably get a reduction in your taxes because when the house deteriorates, the value goes

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

An increasing trend among consumers across the state is formation of food co-operatives as a means of cutting food costs, according to Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

A food co-operative has obvious advantages. You can save money, as much as 30 to 50 percent on some food products, and acquire quality fresh produce. There are disadvantages, too. Hard work, limited choice of goods and overall inconvenience in areas of packaging, figuring members' orders and bills are among the most outstanding.

If you are thinking of joining a food co-op or establishing one in your community, here's how it works. Membership of about 10 families is needed to give you sufficient buying power because wholesalers and growers usually sell commodities in lots, such as a case of 24 cans of beans, 100 pounds of potatoes, or a crate of 15 dozen eggs.

Be sure to check with local authorities to determine if there are ordinances governing such operations, or if any licenses are required. Someone has to assume the responsibility. Co-ops must meet all requirements of Michigan sanitation, labeling and weights and measures laws.

Job assignments are shared on a rotating basis by all members who have time to do the required work. Key positions are coordinator, buyer, driver, cashier, sorters, and babysitters for persons with small children.

Once assignments are made, you must visit wholesalers and growers to make buying and selling arrangements. Choice of goods may be limited because you have to buy in large quantities, but you'll find basic commodities like potatoes, beans, eggs, dairy products in plentiful supply. Because Michigan agriculture is highly diversified, a vast variety of fresh fruits and vegetables in season will be available.

Key to a successful operation is organization and shared labor. Aside from saving money, you can also develop a fine sense of community and some people say the spirit of togetherness is what makes it all worthwhile.

If you don't believe in Providence, watch persons on the highways and try to figure out what else saves them.

Girls JV Softball Team Literally 'Steals' Game from Lincoln

After a 17-6 victory over Lincoln won in just five innings of play, the junior varsity girls softball team should be called the "Stealers." The girls won the game with eight runs in the third and five in the fifth, but according to their coach, Cindy Bradbury, it was the 26 stolen bases that "sewed up the game."

Bradbury reported that the Lincoln team was not quite on the ball, and allowed their opponents to steal home a number of times. Sue Heydlauff was the winning pitcher, going all the way and striking out five.

The girls now hold a 2-0 league standing, and a 2-1 over-all standing for games played this season. Their next league game is scheduled for this Friday at Novi.

JV Trackmen Win One Meet But Lose Two

the old record standing since 1966 of 43.74" and marked up his new record of 44.64". Ball kept his winning streak alive when he placed another first for the shot put in the meet with Saline.

Unfortunately, the slim win against Pinckney did not hold for the JV Bulldogs as they tumbled from crushing blows dealt to them by Tecumseh and Saline. The boys coach reported that Tecumseh was "a very good team." His words rang all too true. Tecumseh took 13 firsts in the meet. However, all was not lost. Chris Steinaway placed a personal record of 5' in the high jump, taking fourth place, but lighting his face with a smile.

Against Saline, aside from good performances given by Reed and Ball, George Bentley marked up two seasons' best records. Bentley's time of :8.9 in the 75-yard dash was good for a first and his jump of 14'10" in the long jump placed second.

Illustrating just how much they had improved at the Saline meet were Joe Verway and Jim Leach, each who cleared 8' in the pole vault. "An improvement of 1 1/2' for them both," their coach remarked.

Their season record now stands at 3-2.

The JV's will meet their next rounds of competition in the coming week. They will have an opportunity to come back against Tecumseh, when they travel there this Friday for the Tecumseh Relays. Monday, May 12, the boys will meet Brighton at home, and Wednesday, they will take on Stockbridge.

Dancing and reminiscing followed. Music was provided by Klink's Sod-Buster Band. The dinner was prepared by the auxiliary.

Kenneth Platt, assisted by his wife, Lucy, chaired the program. Stan Montagne and Mrs. Jeanne White were host and hostess. Mrs. Mary Kniss and Laurance Boyer were in charge of the social hour. Other committee members were Tom Collingsworth, Byron Smith, Don O'Dell, Jim Finch, Jim Barnes, Frank White, Elsie O'Dell and Sandi Ellenwood. The group co-ordinated the tables and decorations.

Special Olympics County Winners...

Representing Chelsea in the running events were John Winans and Leonard Carlson. John received a third place in the 50-yard dash with a time of :7.8. Leonard took two firsts; one in the 220-yard run and the other in the 50-yard dash. His time for the 50 was :6.8.

Junior High students competing in the track events sported some good performances, too. Laurie Miller was second in the 50-yard dash and also placed in the softball throw. Terry Bradshaw placed in these two events, as did Steve Lawrence, who took third in the softball throw. Chris Williams placed second for throwing the ball, and took a first in the 50-yard dash.

Mike Foster took second in the softball throw.

Mrs. Oswald reported that this was the first time these students had competed in the special olympics. "They all did very well," she added.

Following track awards and a complimentary lunch at McDonald's the students returned for swimming competition. Glenn Pasow and Kathy Buck represented Chelsea. Kathy chalked up her third blue ribbon by winning the 25-yard freestyle. Kathy's time was 20.3. Glenn took first in the boys 25-yard freestyle and second in the 50-yard freestyle.

May 10, the students will meet in Monroe for the Bowling Olympics. Special Olympians from Washtenaw, Livingston and Lenawee counties will compete in the event. The winners will then go on to the state meet at Mt. Pleasant to be held June 5-8.

Regional competition is scheduled for May 16 and 17 in Dundee.

SOUTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

KINDERGARTEN—

Teacher: Mrs. Bower
 Room 3
 April showers bring May flowers and also some very special birthdays. Danielle Osborne and Todd Nagel celebrated their birthdays. We had two unbirthdays, Jeff Stacey, April 18, and Jeff Harvey, April 25.
 Jeff Boyer and Todd Koch came and showed us their magic tricks. It was such fun to try to figure out how they worked out each trick. They do a good job and kept us all very interested.
 Mr. LaVasseur, Joe's dad, came and demonstrated the tools he uses in his business. He is a blacksmith and needs to see horses every 6 to 8 weeks.
 We are making an alphabet book to review our letters for the end of the year. The more we work with letters and words, the more we will understand the beginning of reading.
 The strawberry jam was so good on crackers. It will help us remember the letters J.
 This month we have been talking about differences in zoo animals, farm animals and wild animals.

Room 1
 Teacher: Mrs. Van Blaricum
 Our year together is swiftly coming to an end. We are busy working on our alphabet and our numbers, so we will be ready for first grade.

We have been watching our marigolds grow and will be proud to take them home next week for our mothers. We made May Day cards and took them home.
 Many thanks to our magic friends, Jeff Boyer and Todd Koch. They put on a great show, and we had fun trying to figure it out.
 Coming up is our farm trip. Mrs. Michelson is arranging it this year, and it should be fun. Also, the afternoon children will be going to sing for the Senior Citizens. The morning children sang at the Methodist Home last December.
 Our birthday children for April were Leah Lewis and Jeni Bash.

FIRST GRADE—
 Room 19
 Teacher: Mrs. Schiller
 We can't believe second grade is just around the corner. We are learning new sound combinations which can be really tricky, especially that rascal r. Most of us are trying so hard to sound out new words.
 In science we just finished learning about all kinds of birds. Now we are taking a look at reptiles and amphibians. We would welcome tadpoles, so we might watch their development. We also planted seeds. It was Rose's plant that showed the first sign of green.
 Many of us have finished our last first grade reader and are working in SRA. Our math books don't have many more pages to go.
 Jennifer Cattell and Steve Whitesall both came back from their trips sun tanned! Jen brought back a coconut for us to taste. It was really good!
 Chris Schluppe has to wear a patch over one eye for a month. Her mother fixed it so that when we look at the patched eye, we see a flower with a happy face through her glasses. It's really neat!

Room 17
 Teacher: Mrs. Thodeson
 Our unit on birds is completed, and now we can recognize many common Michigan birds. We have started to study reptiles and amphibians. We made neat turtles from paper plates.
 We hope mother enjoyed the May Day basket. Soon our May calendar garden will bloom with 31 pretty flowers. Our finger print pussy willows are beautiful in wallpaper vases. Best of all our real marigold and zinnia plants are growing on the window sill. It surprised us how soon they came up.
 Jeff Bell looks pretty in her new glasses. Now we have four students and Mrs. Thodeson who wear glasses to help them read.
 Tracie Harook wrote a good story and read it to the class. Tim Klink read a funny poem. Shirley Newcomb, a college girl from Eastern Michigan University, visited our class for two afternoons. Some of us knew her, because she was our babysitter not long ago.
 Carrie Collinsworth has a birthday in May. Those who celebrated in April were Jim Eisenbeiser, Ted Bush and Jennifer Bell.

Room 4
 Teacher: Miss De Vries
 We are super glad that spring is finally here. It's May! We turned our room into a garden full of colorful, huge flowers so we feel like we are outside even when we're inside working.
 We have been very busy preparing for our Winnie the Pooh. Our play, which we are putting on with Mrs. Thornton's class, is a special treat for our mothers. We hope all our moms can come May 9 for our production.
 Happy Birthday to Kristi Headrick, Cynthia Kvarnberg and Cary Push.
 Happy Mother's Day!

Room 2
 Teacher: Mrs. Thornton
 Reporters: Angie Jacobinski, Christi Hughes, Shannon Darrow, Christopher Tarasow, Bill Ryan and Craig Maciag
 May birthdays: Darrel Elkins, John Jedele and Doug Thomas.
 We are learning about children from Switzerland. We discovered they make chocolate there, so we had a chocolate fondue party. We want to thank Mrs. Ruan, Mrs. Jedele, Mrs. McClear, Mrs. Kattula and Mrs. Collins for making the treat such a success.
 We are working on a simple machines unit. These tools help make work easier for us to do.
 Some of us are fascinated with magic and have been learning some tricks. We were so surprised when Jeff Boyer and Todd Koch came and did a magic act. Jeff found our guinea pig in a pan. Christine Akin, Darrel Elkins, Christie Favers, John Jedele, Peter Kattula, Bill Ryan and Christopher Tarasow made a big farm mural. They worked very hard, and we are very pleased with it.
 We have been talking about our country and what it was like long ago. We made maple syrup, and then had pancakes. Each of us got to make our own. We even flipped them. They were the best pancakes we ever ate.
 Happy Mother's Day!

SECOND GRADE—
 Room 10
 Teachers: Mrs. White and Mrs. Schlupe
 Our trip to the Matthaei Botanical Gardens last month put us all in the mood for spring. We had a beautiful day with a walk in the woods and a stroll through the inside gardens.
 Another highlight of our year was when one of our mothers, Mrs. Pierson, demonstrated the use of a wheat grinder for us. After talking to us about nutrition and the composition of a wheat kernel, Mrs. Pierson let us help her make peanut butter-oatmeal cookies. It was a real treat and a learning experience.
 We enjoy having our parents visit our classroom, especially when they have something special to show us. Thanks to Mrs. Pierson and the other parents who have been helpful this year.
 We are having a baby picture contest in our classroom with a prize for the person who can identify the most babies and another prize for the person whose baby picture can stump the most people.
 We have one lonely little guinea pig left in our room. The others were given away. We try to give Snappy lots of extra attention so she won't miss her family so much.
 April Birthdays: Jodi Reed and Mark Stevelton.
 Happy Spring!

Room 5
 Teacher: Mrs. Lopez
 We are all proud of Ann Stock whose story "The Haunted House" was one of the second grade winners in the story contest. She attended the Young Author's Conference in Dexter and really did enjoy the activities.
 Birthdays we celebrated recently were for Brad Peebles, Matt Peterson, Ann Stock, and David Shoemaker.
 We all enjoyed learning about the many tropical plants on our trip to the Botanical Gardens. We do want to thank Mrs. Koszegi, Mrs. Coffman, Mrs. Robertson, and Mrs. Simon who helped on the trip. The many things we learned about plants will help us in our science class, as we are studying many types of plants.

Room 8
 Teacher: Mrs. Hamilton
 As the spring flowers are blossoming, so are the second graders in Mrs. Hamilton's room, as they work hard to prepare themselves for third grade.
 Some of the boys and girls have been reading books, so they can join the Golden Coin Club. So far the club has 10 members. President of the club is Rodney Satterthwaite; secretary, Wendy Westphal. Others include: Pam Hadley, Bobby Kelly, Scott Miller, Julie Koch, Brian Farley, Tammi Mullaly, Patty Wilber and Paula Dean. Members of the club are planning a play based on some of the books they've read.
 In science the boys and girls have been studying about plants. We have named the parts of a plant and discussed the functions of each part. Some of the activities in this study included planting seeds and examining a lima bean and corn seed. We soaked the seeds over night, and the next day we opened them up to find the new plant.
 In studying the non-green plants, Rodney Satterthwaite and Matt Stoll gave a report on mushrooms. We are now waiting for warm spring rains which will bring mushrooms, so we can examine the spores under the microscope.
 The new math lab in the room has been keeping the boys and girls busy. It contains many activities which involve the skill of telling time, measuring, reading the thermometer, putting together tangram puzzle and many math dittos.
 For creative writing, the children experienced writing Haiku poetry.
 The boys and girls are happy to announce they have a new member, Amy Smith who moved here from Dexter. Another new member is Olga da Polga, a little black and white guinea pig.
 People who have earned smily faces this month for excellent work are: Rodney Satterthwaite, Julie Koch, Bobby Kelly, Patty Wilber, Tammi Mullaly, Mark Neff, Stephanie Fletcher, Matt Stoll, Paula Dean and Kelly Murphy.
 Birthday this month: Paula Dean.
 Because children learn and mature through verbal communication, it is vitally important to protect their God-given ability to hear. For this reason, winter earaches and ear infections must be provided the proper medical attention to prevent a permanent hearing complication, hearing specialists caution.

 The new math lab in the room has been keeping the boys and girls busy. It contains many activities which involve the skill of telling time, measuring, reading the thermometer, putting together tangram puzzle and many math dittos.
 For creative writing, the children experienced writing Haiku poetry.
 The boys and girls are happy to announce they have a new member, Amy Smith who moved here from Dexter. Another new member is Olga da Polga, a little black and white guinea pig.
 People who have earned smily faces this month for excellent work are: Rodney Satterthwaite, Julie Koch, Bobby Kelly, Patty Wilber, Tammi Mullaly, Mark Neff, Stephanie Fletcher, Matt Stoll, Paula Dean and Kelly Murphy.
 Birthday this month: Paula Dean.
 Because children learn and mature through verbal communication, it is vitally important to protect their God-given ability to hear. For this reason, winter earaches and ear infections must be provided the proper medical attention to prevent a permanent hearing complication, hearing specialists caution.

Bike-A-Thon Coming Soon

On Sunday, May 18, the Ecology Center of Ann Arbor will hold the 8th annual Bike-a-thon. The Bike-a-thon is the primary fund-raising event for the Ecology Center and for this year's two co-sponsors, the Ann Arbor Bicycle League and the bicycling group of the Ann Arbor American Youth Hostel.
 Those interested in helping to raise money for the three organizations should pick up Bike-a-thon brochures containing sponsors sheets and route maps at the Ecology Center, 417 Detroit St., Ann Arbor City Hall and at bicycle shops throughout Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti. "All participating cyclists should obtain sponsors who pledge a certain amount of money per mile—usually between 25 cents to $100 per mile," says Tom Blessing, over-all coordinator of the Bike-a-thon. Then on May 18 at noon, participants meet to cycle on either of two routes.
 The 1975 routes are 10 miles and 28 miles in length. Both routes begin and end at Farmer's Market. At Farmer's Market after the ride, all bicyclists can enjoy a cold glass of lemonade courtesy of Bicycle Jim's Restaurant.
 Nearly 500 bicyclists participated in the 1974 Bike-a-thon. Approximately 4,500 sponsors pledged in excess of $8,000 to the Ecology Center of Ann Arbor. This year, event organizers are projecting that more than 500 bicyclists will participate and that more than $10,000 will be pledged.
 For more information, please stop by the Ecology Center at 417 Detroit St., Ann Arbor, or call 761-3186.

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

Take advantage of plentiful foods when shopping and save on your food bill. Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture say there's a surplus of dry beans, potatoes and beef on the market. Retail prices for these items have been going down while the consumer price index for food, over-all, has been rising.

Growers had unusually good crops of navy (pea) beans and potatoes last year. Total production of Michigan navy beans is 40 percent more than the 1973 crop at an estimated 6.4 million hundredweight.

As of March 1, nationally there were 102.3 million hundred-pound bags of potatoes in storage, a 26 percent increase over stock on hand a year ago.

Commercial beef production in the U. S. is outstanding at two billion pounds, seven percent more than a year ago. The large beef supplies reflect continuous efforts by producers to reduce their operations because production costs are higher than the prices they receive for cattle.

With summer fast approaching, now is the time to buy beef for your home freezer. You'll welcome the supply of tender, juicy red meats for patio entertaining, backyard cookouts and picnic outings. Stocking up on bean and potato products for quick, nutritious dishes is also smart planning.

In early May, Michigan weather is often cool but sunny and a delightful menu for patio dining may consist of hot dishes like German potato salad topped with slices of hard-cooked eggs, or creamy potato soup with a garnish of freshly chopped chives; savory navy bean salad; tasty slices of roast beef and loaves of hot buttered bread.

Housekeeping would be ideal if there really were little fairies to do some of the drudgery tasks.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Duane L. Gentner and their daughter, Lisa, of Hanover Park, Ill., were the week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Gentner. Gentner and their daughter, Tracy, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Michelle of Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Carol R. Pierce of Langsville, O. Mrs. Elnora Wright of Chelsea also joined the group visiting in the Gentner home.

What About Vitamin C?

Vitamin C. What will it do for you? How much should you take? Does it or doesn't it prevent or cure a cold? These are some of the questions that have been debated in living rooms and laboratories, and on radio and television talk shows. Along with other vitamins, Vitamin C has become the subject of considerable controversy and comment in the past decade. And, while the questions go on, millions of Americans are buying Vitamin C supplements, believing they will benefit from them.

According to the Food and Drug Administration, many of the questions being debated are still unanswered. A free copy of What About Vitamin C?, which discusses the pros and cons, may be had by writing Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

The most talked about question concerning Vitamin C relates to Nobel Prize winner Linus Pauling, who took the position that Vitamin C in the proper amount can help decrease the incidence and severity of the common cold and related infections. Most nutritionists and physicians found Dr. Pauling's conclusions lacking scientific validity. FDA reports other studies done recently which indicate that Vitamin C might be beneficial in reducing the severity of colds or the length of time the symptoms persist.

For consumers who are concerned about whether or not to take massive doses of Vitamin C, FDA advises:

—Wait and see. There may be benefits; there may be risks.

—Until more evidence is available, it's reasonable to assume that Vitamin C in amounts specified as the Recommended Daily Allowance will be enough to prevent disease and to maintain health.

—There are many sources of Vitamin C in the diet. Vegetables and fruits—especially citrus fruits—provide the greatest amounts.

What About Vitamin C? is one of 250 select Federal consumer publications listed in the Consumer Information Index, published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration. A free copy of the Index may be obtained by writing Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colo. 81009, or from Federal Information Centers located throughout the country.

Helpful Tips on Feeding A Crowd In Free Booklet

When you're in the mood for company, cooking for a crowd can be a lot of fun. It's a chance to explore those new recipes that can lend a special touch to the evening. But, you'll need to do some careful planning ahead since handling larger amounts of food also involves certain risks. Food prepared in advance is sometimes not stored properly—it becomes difficult when the refrigerator is overcrowded. Also, if you serve the food buffet style it may stand for a long time. These factors can add up to food poisoning which can, for the wrong reasons, make your party truly unforgettable.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has a booklet which discusses the cause of food poisoning and offers tips to help you avoid trouble. A free copy of Feeding a Crowd may be obtained by writing to Consumer Information, Dept. 18, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

The booklet explains that bacteria cause food poisoning. All they need to grow is the right combination of time and temperature. The following tips are included to help you avoid trouble:

—Keep hot foods hot (above 140 degrees). Bacteria grow best in lukewarm foods. Keep foods such as seafood, poultry, and cooked meats hot by using an electric hot tray or chafing dish. Those small candle warming units may not keep foods hot enough. Never let these foods stand at room temperature for more than two hours.

—Keep cold foods cold (below 40 degrees). Cream pies, puddings, seafood salads and other dishes made with eggs, fish, meat and poultry need to be kept cold. This keeps dangerous bacteria from growing. Again, don't let these foods stand at room temperature for more than 2 hours. And don't put large quantities of these foods out at one time.

Feeding A Crowd is one of at most 250 selected Federal consumer publications listed in the spring edition of the Consumer Information Index. Published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration, the Index is available free from Consumer Information, Dept. 18, Pueblo, Colo. 81009, and at Federal Information Centers located throughout the country.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

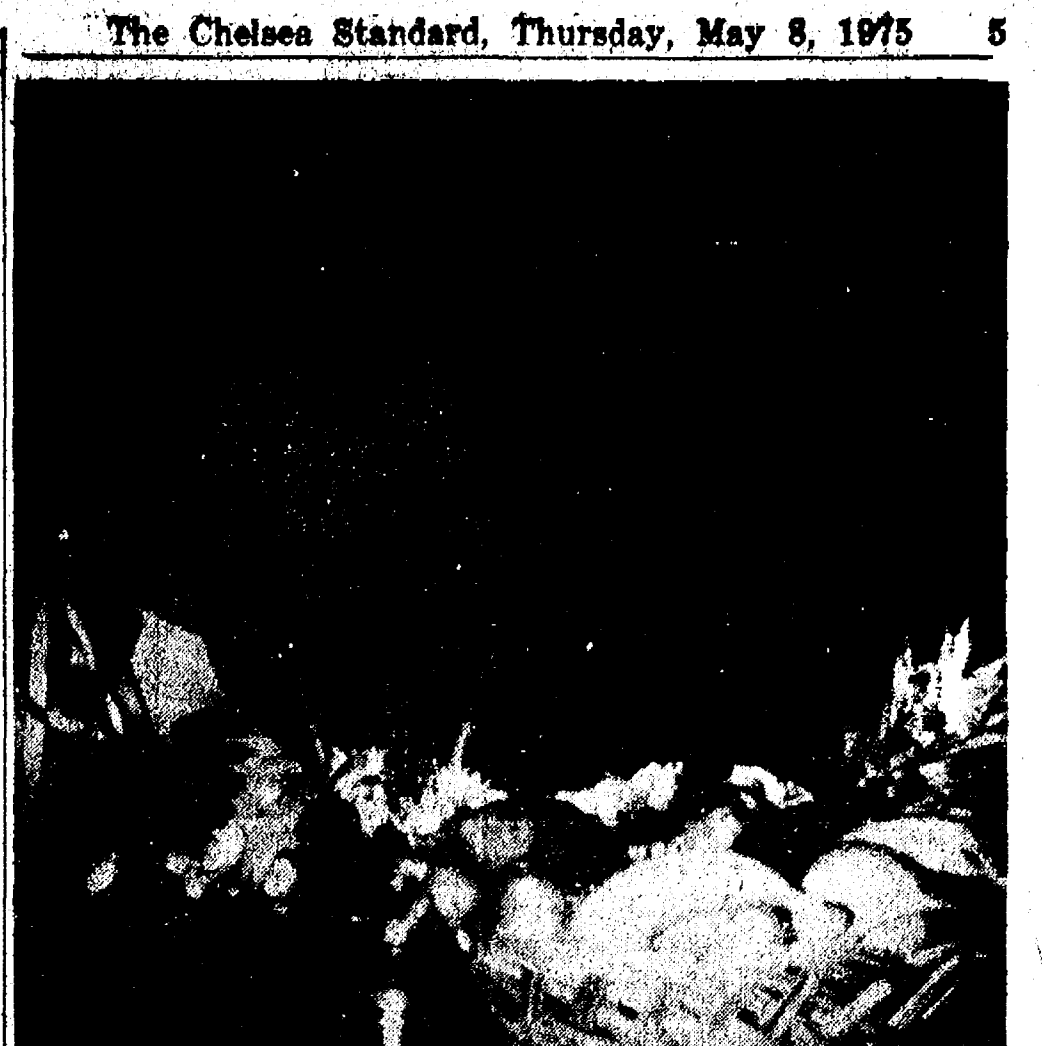

I would like to commend Tom Ballistrere and the entire Recreation Committee for a job well done. The circus was a fantastic success.

Even when I was face to face with what I thought was a real, chest-beating ape, I enjoyed this circus they brought to town.

As a member of the Recreation Committee sponsored Spanish Class, I think I can speak for the whole class when I say thank you to them for this opportunity.

The movies and cartoon shows are great. I am sure no one can imagine the time and effort put into all these wonderful projects. Chelsea citizens should be very proud of this committee; I know my family is.

Mrs. Nancy Rowe.

FLOWER ARRANGING LESSON: Mrs. Jeanette Otto of Gar-Nett's Flower & Gift Shop in Chelsea, gave a demonstration of flower, fruit and vegetable arranging to mothers who attended the last monthly meeting of the Chelsea Co-Op Nursery. A May basket of fresh flowers was given as a door prize.

St. Louis School Notes

Of the 60 boys from St. Louis school who participated in the Washitaw County Special Olympics held Saturday at Ferry Field on the University of Michigan campus, all but one returned home with ribbons, and 30 of them were blue.

Mrs. Robbins, housemother to the boys, reported that they excelled in broad jump, swimming and softball throw events.

As were all the children and adults who participated in the Special Olympics program, the boys at St. Louis were guests of McDonald's restaurant where they were treated to "the works," according to Mrs. Robbins.

High placers in Saturday's competition will go on to test their skills in regional Special Olympic competition in the near future.

Senior Citizens

Chelsea's senior citizens held a sauerkraut dinner Saturday, May 3 in the social center of the United Methodist church. Forty members of the former Korner House attended the affair.

Members voted to give a donation to the church, and planned a pot-luck to celebrate members' May birthdays Thursday, May 15 in the meeting rooms.

Turner Travelogue To Be Shown May 17 By National Honor Society

The National Honor Society and their president, Steve Bennett, will present "Don Turner's travelogue, 'Hi-Way to Alaska.'" Saturday, May 17 at 8 p.m. The two-hour travelogue will be presented at Chelsea High school. A $2 ticket contribution will be requested per person. Ticket contributions may be purchased in advance at Chelsea Drug Store, Village Bakery, Pump & Pantry and through the high school office.

Turner's "Hi-Way to Alaska," was presented earlier this year by the Kiwanians and is reportedly an excellent film. The following is an account by Turner himself of the many beautiful sights the viewer will see.

"Hi-Way Alaska," with background music and sound effects is an up-to-date film of the Alaska Highway and points of interest along the route.

Beginning at Dawson Creek, British Columbia, the start of the Alaska Highway, the film includes many side trips to historical spots, fabulous fishing, scenery, and wildlife throughout British Columbia, the Yukon, and Alaska.

The viewer will see beautiful mountains, Whitehorse, the capital city of the Yukon Territory, and the old gold rush town of Atlin, British Columbia.

More than 500 miles of the Klondike Loop Rd. to historical Dawson City, town of the famous Klondike gold rush of 1898 will be shown. There one will visit the old "Palace Grand" Theatre, "Diamond Tooth Gerties," the only legalized gambling casino in all of Canada. It depicts the days when fortunes were won and lost at the turn of a card in many places such as this.

The viewer will see the Klondike River and Bonanza Creek where the first gold was discovered by George Carmacks in 1896. This touched off the gold rush of 1898; gold dredges still in operation, panning for gold on the famous Bonanza Creek, a stern-wheeler riding up and down the Yukon River to abandoned gold rush towns. A visit to Midnight

JV Baseball Team Wins Over Lincoln

In a game played last week against Lincoln a seventh inning single by Mike Check, scoring Matt Heydlauff and Don Morrison, broke a 3-3 tie, enabling the Junior varsity baseball team to defeat their opponents, 4-3.

Chelsea opened the scoring with a two-run home-run in the first inning by Don Morrison. The Bulldogs also scored one in the third.

Lincoln almost tied it up in the fifth and would have gone for a win except for a perfect throw to the plate by Ernie Hadley.

Once again John Adams turned in a perfect pitching performance for the Bulldogs, striking out nine, and walking four.

The team's season record now stands at 3-2, with a 2-0 league standing.

Charles Waller Named District Softball Commissioner

Chelsea Recreation Director, Tom Balistrere announced that Charles Waller has been made District No. 16 Softball Commissioner.

Balistrere said he was "especially pleased with the job he (Waller) turned in last year as league director."

Police Car Damaged By Drunk Driver

While pulling over another vehicle for a possible traffic violation late Saturday evening, officers Roger Graves and John Dettling, incurred damage to the left rear of their patrol car from a third vehicle driving on Old US-12 whose occupants were found guilty of driving while under the influence of liquor and being drunk and disorderly, respectively.

The accident occurred when officers were questioning Wallace E. Smith of Dexter Rd., concerning a possible traffic violation he had committed. The three men observed a 1974 Chevy pick-up approaching the patrol car while going west on Old US-12. The officers' car was parked in a lane of traffic with the overhead emergency flasher lights on, when the pick-up struck it in the left rear side.

Officers stopped Mrs. Juline Langford of Taylor, driver of the car and occupant Dolan Ernest Swinney of Allen Park. Langford emerged from her car showing signs of intoxication, slurred speech, poor balance, bloodshot eyes. She was arrested for drunken driving and placed in the patrol car.

Her occupant, Swinney, was requested to return to the vehicle. When he refused, the officers placed him under arrest for being drunk and disorderly.

Both defendants were taken to the Washtenaw County Jail where Langford was advised of her right to take the breathalyzer test. She agreed, and was found guilty of being legally intoxicated.

Langford and Swinney both will remain in jail until they can post necessary bond, or until they are arraigned in 14th District Court.

It's very easy for some people to persuade themselves that they are being mistreated.

Barbara Bury Earns Master's Degree at U-M

Items Sought For JC Auction Rummage Sale

Spring seems to be the time of garage sales galore. Everyone cleans out drawers, closets, basements, attics and garages in preparation for the summer months ahead. Neighbors ban together and hold a block sale, clubs and single families hold sales too... and so do the Chelsea Jaycees, who are in the midst of gathering rummage items for their annual rummage auction, to be held Saturday, June 28.

This annual affair relies on the community to clean, clean, clean, and then donate those used, unwanted, unwanted items to the Jaycees for their auction. The profits? They go right back into the community through Chelsea Jaycee service projects.

Members urge Chelseaites to begin sorting through their material goods and have them ready for the pick-up, which will begin next week, May 12.

For pick-up of rummage call Bob Jones, chairman at 475-2822; Bob Pratt, 475-7851, Jerry Kraus, 475-1686 or Bruce Messing, 475-7026.

Auditions Slated For Oklahoma Cast Try-Outs

The production is scheduled to be presented July 31 and Aug. 2. Rehearsals will begin June 23.

PRESIDENT EXCHANGE WEEK for Kiwanians: Chelsea Kiwanians exchanged presidents this year with the Brooklyn Kiwanis Club. ## Recreation Council Bringing Back Old-Time Film Favorites

Remember the era of the silent film? Those now classics that one could see for the price of a nickel?

In their second series of family film features to be shown this year, the Chelsea Recreation Council is bringing those "oldies but goodies," back to Chelsea this Friday, May 9 with one showing, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Tickets will be sold at the door, and the admission while no longer a nickel, is not much more.

The old folks will roar with laughter, and perhaps even shed a tear or two, when fond memories stimulated by such films as "The Kiss," with May Irwin and John Rice; "The Perils of Pauline," "The Great Train Robbery," "Dempsey - Tunney Fight," "Lindbergh's Flight to Paris," and excerpts from many, many more come alive on the motion picture screen of Chelsea High school auditorium.

Excerpts from some of D. W. Griffith's best will be shown. Remember Mary Pickford? Who could forget America's darling of the silent screen? Recall her in "The New York Hat," and "The Renunciation," "Birth of a Nation," one of America's true classics, "The Jazz Singer," with the late Al Jolson and Laurel and Hardy... even some of the younger folk will remember those two clowns. This film, composed of excerpts taken from a collection representative of some of the best films of the silent era was edited and produced by Arthur Stephan for showing to audiences both young and old. Stephan, whose hobby is the collecting and piecing together of old-time films, has put together some of his best for this 50-minute showing.

Following this film, the audience will have a ten-minute intermission to regain their composure, dry their eyes, and tell their children and grandchildren about the days when they witnessed those very same films for the price of a nickel.

Following the intermission the Recreation Council will present two 30-minute films. The original version of "The Keystone Cops," and a Charlie Chaplin great.

Tools, Air Hose Taken By Thieves From Union 76
Entry through an unlocked window at the Union 76 station located at 1445 S. Main resulted in the theft of some tools and a 50' orange air hose sometime between the night of April 30 and 8 a.m. May 1.

According to Terry Tison, manager of the station, an employee Edward Dreiman closed the station at 9 p.m. and left soon after. Dreiman said that to his knowledge all windows to the building had been closed and locked.

Once entry was made, the easy to the locked storage room was pried off and a box of tools belonging to Tison was rolled out. Numerous tools were removed from the box.

A secret compartment in the pegboard where money used to be kept had been entered, however, there was no money to be found.

Officers dusted the window and glass for prints.

Most of the items taken belonged to Tison, and were marked with a faintly scratched TT.

The case will remain open pending further investigation.

Speeding Driver Arrested Saturday On DUIL Charge
While on routine patrol early Saturday morning at 1:45 a.m., village officers Browning and Yager observed a 1972 Ford pickup headed south on Main St. at a high rate of speed. The pair caught up with the vehicle when it was doing 65 mph in a 45 mph zone. Because of the erratic driving they observed, the officers stopped the vehicle and requested that the driver step out.

James Joseph Witherspoon of Ann Arbor stepped from his car smelling strongly of alcohol, his eyes were bloodshot, his speech slurred and he had difficulty walking.

Browning and Yager advised him of his rights to take the breathalyzer test. Witherspoon agreed and was transported to jail where the test was administered. Results showed that Witherspoon was legally intoxicated.

Officers also confiscated a small amount of marijuana, some marijuana seeds and a marijuana pipe. Smith's service station was called to tow the vehicle.

Witherspoon was arrested on charges of driving while under the influence of liquor and held in jail on a $100 bond.

Tape Player, Tools Stolen from Locked Van
John Hughes of 141 South St., reported to village police that items valued at $224 were taken from his locked 1975 light blue Dodge van sometime between 10 p.m. May 1 and 3 p.m. May 2 while parked in his driveway.

According to Hughes, his wife parked the van in the driveway on the night of May 1; when he went to get something from it the following day he discovered the items missing.

Taken from the vehicle were one tape player, two Craig speakers, one Black & Decker drill, two tape cases and 48 tapes.

The case remains open pending recovery of the items.

W. Sharon Group Helps Pastor of Kentucky Church

The Senior High Youth Group of North Sharon Bible church traveled to Slomp, Ky., a 500-mile trip, in one of the church's red buses. The group left Monday, March 31 and returned home April 4. There were 21 people, including Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Proctor and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bunney, who were in charge of the trip.

They traveled to Kentucky to help Pastor Everett Jennings who once attended North Sharon and who feels God has called him to work with the people of Eastern Kentucky. The group went to help Pastor Jennings start a Youth Program in the area of Slomp.

They went house-to-house, inviting people to come to his church, the Berean Baptist church. About 200 homes were visited. They held three youth-centered meetings with about 125 youths attending each meeting.

The Senior High Youth Group of North Sharon would like to have a regular program where they can instruct other youth groups.

Former Chelseaite Wins Contest at Drew University

Mrs. Diane E. Vale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Worden of 118 Lincoln St., has been judged the winner of the annual George R. Crooks Scripture Reading Contest, conducted April 29 at Drew University.

Each contestant read from the Book of John, verses 10:1-10, plus another 10-verse passage of their own choosing. The readings were from the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. This event is conducted in honor of George R. Crooks, professor of historical theology at Drew from 1880-1897.

Drew University is a small independent university located in a 150-acre forested campus at Madison, N.Y., an hour west of New York City. Founded 106 years ago as a theological seminary, it now offers degrees in three divisions—the College of Liberal Arts, the Theological School, and the Graduate School—in 30 fields of study.

At Drew, Mrs. Vale is the Student Assembly treasurer and serves on numerous committees. A graduate of Chelsea High school and Michigan State University, she has been employed as an assistant minister at the Livingston, N.J., United Methodist church.

Army Can Meet Requests of Recruits

A gun crew at Fort Benning, Ga., is a family affair. And it's an example of how the Army can meet the requests of its recruits, according to Sgt. Jones, local Army representative.

When Gary and Ricky Dunn enlisted in the home town of Grant, Ala., last February they both requested service in the 197th Infantry Brigade but they had no idea they would be assigned to the same company, let alone the same machine gun.

The brothers attended Basic Combat Training and Advanced Individual Training together at Fort Polk, La.

When they're not on duty they relax by riding motorcycles with their cousin, Plc. Ronald Helton, who also is in their company.

Tours of Chelsea Community Hospital Available to Groups

The notice in the community calendar reads, "Tours of Chelsea Community Hospital and surgical center are available for small groups. To arrange for tours, call . . ."

A few weeks ago, this reporter dialed one of the two numbers listed in the community calendar and arranged for a tour. The date was set for a sunny Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Dorothy Miller, head of the volunteer program at the Community Hospital as my guide.

Mrs. Miller greeted me in the lobby of the 110-bed facility. The tour began, and along the route, I questioned her, "Will everyone who arrange for a tour of the hospital receive the same one?" "Basically, yes," she said. However, as she continued to explain, different volunteers give the tours and they may choose to take a different route, emphasize a different area, etc.

One of the most striking aspects of the hospital and surgical center is its design and setting. Set on some five acres of land, and surrounded by gardens, that Mrs. Miller assured me would "bloom as the spring weather approaches," wooded areas and three other smaller similarly styled buildings which comprise what is known in its entirety as the Chelsea Medical Center, the hospital is fortunate to hold a central location on the site. It is not dominating by any means, however, this larger building lends a pleasant contrast to the smaller ones around it.

While Dr. Michael Papo is the man most responsible for the creation and development of the Medical Center, the hospital and surgical center belongs to the people of Chelsea.

The transfer of the $2.8 million hospital from Papo and Associates to a 12-member Governing Board was made official in January of 1973. Since that date the non-profit citizen-owned facility has been overseen by the board who through patient-care revenues are purchasing the five-acre site and hospital for the community.

Members of the board serve without pay and represent the communities served by the hospital.

The hospital is fully accredited by the Joint Commission on Hospital Accreditation, Blue Cross, Blue Shield, and other major medical insurance carriers.

But enough of facts, on with the tour!

Mrs. Miller guided me down a long carpeted hallway. "We'll see the surgical center first." Soft lighting illuminated prints and paintings; both oils and water-colors hung intermittently on the walls. Indoor-outdoor carpeting in a shade of beige helps to eliminate the sound of footsteps, by doctors, patients, and nurses; wheelchairs seem to glide toward their destinations. Colorful draperies in a variety of designs, textures, and colors decorate windows overlooking the grounds. Even patient's rooms and the intensive care facility feature draperies in colorful cottons similar to the famed Finnish prints of Marimekko.

The entire facility, furnished in both contemporary and traditional modes lends an air of home and comfort; something one does not often find in the all too sterile white hospitals. In design, both interior and exterior, the hospital and surgical center present award winning qualities.

The surgical unit contains four operating rooms (because of sterilization not on view to the public), a 12-bed recovery area, instrument, processing, and storage rooms.

Moving on to the emergency care facilities once housed in the Medical Clinic, the visitor will see a lounge, admitting area, three treatment rooms, two consultation rooms, a nursing station, and utility room.

The diagnostic unit, adjacent to the emergency care area, has facilities for 18 examining and treatment rooms, eight private offices and four waiting areas. More paintings line the walls. Patients appear relaxed among the soothing surroundings.

Next Mrs. Miller seemed to direct me through a maze of hallways (which at the end of the tour fell nicely together like parts in a puzzle) leading to the intensive care unit. A four-bed facility, this unit is not the sterile forbidding facility that one connotes with intensive care. The visitor will be astonished when he sees the rooms, each with a large ceiling-to-floor window overlooking the grounds, streamlined sparkling equipment and boldly colored and patterned drapes lining both the window and glass partitions which enable nurses on duty in the island station to observe and monitor intensive care patients.

Visitors to the hospital will see the physical therapy facilities where patients work daily with trained professionals using both simple and complicated equipment in efforts to regain use of limbs and muscles. The arts and crafts room, staffed by a fulltime teacher directs patients in projects of their choice. Ambulatory patients have the use of two lounges, on opposite sides of the building, where they and their guests may visit in the privacy of an atmosphere similar to one's own living room. Patients may entertain their guests with tea and coffee, made in a small kitchenette that equips each lounge. Designed to create an air of privacy and comfort, each lounge features a different decor; one is decorated in a contemporary style; the lines of the furniture are straight and bold, strong hues of color blend to form a striking pattern. In contrast, and placed far enough away, so as not to offend the visitor who may go from one room to the next, the other lounge has been decorated in a Mediterranean theme. The furniture is heavy; carved with ornate design, and complemented with accessories of the same.

These same patients, those who are well enough to walk, have the benefit of taking their meals in the cafeteria styled restaurant. Patients may choose from a variety of meals, or take pre-prepared meals for their special diets among a setting befit for a fancy restaurant. Tables for two, four, and six are placed randomly throughout the gold, green, and brown decorated room. Cozy tables for two flank windows, where patients, guests and staff may share quiet conversations.

While not among areas to be toured, a small room in the basement of the hospital becomes a beauty salon once a week when a local beautician comes to lift patient's spirits by giving them a shampoo and set.

Chelsea Community Hospital is unique. Its therapeutic design, patient care and exceptional patient accommodations, are perhaps only available within small facilities. However, Chelsea Community Hospital is unique in that it belongs to the people of Chelsea!

USDA Official Opens Center In Mt. Pleasant

William Erwin, an assistant secretary of the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), cut a ribbon in Mt. Pleasant Tuesday, May 6, to open one of USDA's first one-stop service centers. The center, which contains five USDA agencies and offices of the Michigan State Department of Agriculture, offers Isabella county farmers the convenience of transacting their business with state and federal agencies under one roof.

Erwin, who heads rural development for USDA, hailed the opening of the service center as a step forward for freedom, because it will make U.S. agriculture more efficient. He praised the Isabella county commissioners for their bold step forward, locating the center in the county's new office building.

The center is one of a handful of such centers that are truly operational. USDA has approved almost 400 for operation in 46 states and Puerto Rico. A dozen approved sites lie in Michigan. USDA officials in Washington express special satisfaction at the opening of the Mt. Pleasant office, because they like to see close working relationships between state and federal employees.

Erwin added that the United States' great agricultural resources renew themselves every year, while other nations have resources that are soon spent. He noted that right now the world contains one acre of arable farmland per person. By the year 2000, the world will have only one acre per two people.

The American farm family, our nation's most efficient producer, still remains the nation's most valuable asset, added Erwin.

The farm family's value extends into morality as well as economics, he said. City people moving into the country seek not only the air, but also rural values: the work ethic, truthfulness, and frugality. Erwin said rural frugality stands as a great virtue, now, when waste is the worst fault in the society.

April Traffic Death Toll Drops Over Last Year

Traffic accidents in Michigan claimed 81 lives during April, which was 35 or about 30 percent less than 116 charged to the same month a year ago, according to State Police traffic division provisional figures.

The preliminary count for the month was the lowest for April since World War II. All-time low for the month also occurred during that war period with a reading of 44 in 1943. High April was set with 169 in 1969. April's average was 138 in the last five years, 1970-74.

The April deaths brought the accumulated count for the first four months this year to 402, which was 44 or about 10 percent less than the total of 446 in the same period last year.

Auto Dealer's Customer Wins Rebate from Bank

Car dealers started it, department stores and appliance centers picked up the idea, and then the banks; they too began to give rebates to customers who opened a checking account, a savings account, or took out a loan. The past few months have been the rage of the rebate. And lucky too for many people who would have gone without that needed or wanted car, appliance, bank loan.

Chelsea's Village Motor Sales is in on something new. Something of a rebate. In conjunction with the National Bank of Jackson, Village Motor Sales is just one of many automobile dealerships in the Jackson area participating in the bank's program of getting people into the dealerships looking, and buying cars and the financing of their new car through NBJ.

It works like this. You buy a car from a participating dealer, finance it with National Bank of Jackson. Then the dealer, just as Thomas Stock of Village Motor Sales did last week, will give you his business card. On the back you write your name and address. The cards from all the participating dealerships in the NBJ incentive program are placed in a barrel. Each Monday, one card is drawn and the winner receives a $500 cash award applicable toward their finance contract with National Bank of Jackson. What could be easier?

It is a thrill for the winner, and a pleasant surprise to the dealer when one of his customers wins. Tom Stock knows. Monday, in the program's second week, Stock was informed that the owner of a recently purchased 1974 Colt station wagon from Village Motor Sales was this week's winner. Andrea Shaul who financed her car through National Bank of Jackson has made a $500 payment toward her loan from the bank.

But one doesn't have to buy a car to be a winner. Stock told that NBJ has another drawing that lookers may participate in.

In an effort to get people out and looking at cars, in the buying or trading, or just to see what the automobile industry has come up with for 1975, NBJ is encouraging lookers to look. And just for the looking one can receive a $100 cash award. The process is the same. Look at cars at a participating dealer, fill out the dealer's card with your name and address, give the card to the dealer, who will return it to NBJ and wait until the following Monday when the bank will draw five cards with the names of the five lucky winners.

Will it last for long? Stock says he is not sure. But for those who win a rebate, it looks like a good thing.

Historical Society Will Hear Talk By Retired Physician

These items will be displayed and sold at the Art Fair to be held in conjunction with Sidewalk Days, Aug. 8-9. Anyone interested in helping prepare crafts may contact Gwen Schrader at 475-1646.

Spurred by a recent 22.7 percent increase in education allowances and economic conditions, a record 74,548 veterans enrolled under the GI Bill for the first time in February, pushing total enrollment to 1.6 million, the Veterans Administration reported recently.

THE OLDEST MEMBER of the Chelsea Methodist Home celebrated her 98th birthday April 20. Mrs. Clara Breitenwischer celebrated the occasion with her sister, Mrs. Florence Lyon, whose birthday falls on the same day.
