CHS Bands Spring Concert Slated Monday

Musicians at Chelsea High school have spent weeks practicing and bringing their instruments into fine tune for this year's annual spring band concert. The date is Monday evening, May 19, 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Admission is free, and for this price who could turn down an evening that promises some popular musical melodies and some old-time favorites, and a classical number.

The concert will begin with a Brass Choir conducted by Ron Harris. Then the concert band will present some popular tunes. Selections like "The Entertainer," "The Sound of Music," and "Brian's Song." Next on the program will be Chelsea's symphony band, conducted by Warren Mayer, presenting something of an Old-Fashioned Band Concert, playing selections such as "Cake-Walk," and tunes from "Paint Your Wagon." And some Dixieland Jazz, played by the Band's Jam-boree.

Neilo Craig the clown, alias Neil Cockerline will guide both the audience and the musicians through the evening's fare, adding a touch of comedy here and there, and insuring an enjoyable evening for all.

Duane Luick Chosen For State Honors Band

DUANE LUICK

Duane Luick has blown his horn all the way to the State Honors Band. And Saturday, he and 73 other musicians from the State of Michigan will perform their final concert together at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant.

The 3:30 p.m. concert will wind up four days of touring during which the Youth Arts Festival Honors Band, the name they have been given, toured the Upper Peninsula giving concerts in Mackinac City, Manistique, and Ishpeming.

This tour, the first of its kind, was made possible by a $10,000 grant from the Michigan Council of the Arts. While the Festival Band has been in operation for four years, never before have they had the opportunity to tour in the state. And Duane, his mother reported, "is very proud to be a member of this group."

Playing the trumpet has taken Duane Luick on a number of travels. He has played in district, regional and state festivals, and spent last summer touring Australia with the Michigan Youth International. The group spent six weeks touring the Australian country, giving concerts in major Australian cities. This summer Duane will once again be with MYI for a European tour, reportedly to last seven weeks.

However, with his European trip weeks away, Duane has focused his thoughts in the direction of the Youth Arts Festival Band. He, like his 72 colleagues were chosen to perform with the group on the basis of their State Solo and Ensemble proficiency scores. They should, be the top high school musicians in the state. And following one Saturday practice the group had together, Duane reported home exclaiming, "they were terrific!"

The group's conductor for the four day tour is Jim Hewitt of Otsego High School, MSBOA teacher of the year (Michigan Schools Band-Orchestra Association). Saturday's concert in Mt. Pleasant will feature the honors orchestra, choir, ballet troupes and 10 outstanding soloists from the state. Celeste Johnson of Dexter is one (Continued on page three)

ANCHORING THE MILE RELAY: Mark Burnett and his team placed first for their work in this event, when they ran against South Lyon last week. The time clocked for the four-man team of John Storey, Morris Johnson, Russ Weiner and Burnett was 3:11.7.

STRIDING THE 180-YARD LOW HURDLES: Chelsea's Curt Winans is almost half a stride ahead of South Lyon's Chris Steele on this last hurdle of the race. However Steele won the event taking first with a time just one-tenth of a second shorter than Winan's :21.8.

Track Team Nudges South Lyon in Final Event for League Lead

Chelsea High's Bulldog trackmen pulled off a big win last Thursday, when they defeated league contender South Lyon, 65-58. The two teams had been tied for the Conference dual meet lead. With Thursday's victory, the Bulldogs are now one up on their opponents from South Lyon.

The meet was close, the two teams were neck and neck right down to the final and deciding event, the 440-yard relay. With the score of Chelsea 60, and South Lyon, 58, the Bulldog relay team of John Collins, Curt Winans, Kevin Kelly and Dennis Bauer knew the victory depended on their teamwork to take a winning first place. The four young men rose to the occasion, outrunning South Lyon by three yards. And this, Coach Kruse reported, was achieved despite "pressure and one bad hand-off."

Field events kicked off the meet for both the Chelsea and South Lyon contenders. Chelsea came out of these "with fewer points" than they had hoped for, giving them a slim two-point margin over South Lyon.

A Bulldog victory was put into question following South Lyon's unexpected win in the 890-yard relay and a one-two finish in the 880-run. "Things didn't look too good," Kruse reported.

However, Rick Sweeney and Curt Winans were able to even the score when they placed first and second in the high hurdles.

South Lyon triumphed in the next four events; however, second and third finished by the Bulldogs, kept the score within striking distance.

The key turn of events, came in the two-mile run where Phil Frame and Rick Hallett finished first and second and in the process both boys broke the old school record held by John Storey of (Continued on page three)

Trackmen Hobble To Victory at Milan

The Chelsea Varsity track team managed to "hold on" to a victory over Milan Tuesday evening and in the process up their Conference record to 6 and 0 and retain the dual meet standings. Final score for the Milan-Chelsea meet was 66-57.

Yet despite the win for the Bulldogs, Coach Kruse expressed feelings that it should not have come as hard as it did. The tracksters experienced a number of difficulties when they met with Milan. "One," Kruse said, "was a mental letdown after the South Lyon win, and the other was a series of injuries we have built up that are beginning to seriously cut into our depth." Depth, for track teams, often proves to be the deciding factor in a win or loss.

The team lost one of their vaulters, Mark Burnett last Saturday when he sustained injuries to his knee. Another loss came to the Bulldogs when vaulter Don Pierson dislocated his ankle while warming up for the event against Milan. Kruse attributes Pierson's injury to a pit "that at best was tacky."

Muscle strains have also been the undoing for many trackmen. Some of them have been slight, but others have been serious.

Kruse says he hopes to get everyone back together as soon as possible. For Bulldog trackmen, injuries could cause them to lose depth and cost them a victory in the final weeks of the track season.

According to Kruse the meet should not have been as close as it was. Rick Sweeney led the way with firsts in the high jump and high hurdles and placed second to Curt Winans in the low hurdles. Another clutch performance was turned in by the 440 Relay team of Howard Salyer, John Collins, Kevin Kelly and Dennis Bauer. It was they, Kruse reported, who clinched the win for Chelsea in the final event.

High School Art Show Scheduled

"This community will herald in an event that rivals only the coming of Spring," according to Chelsea High art teacher, Laurie Lazebnik, she announced Chelsea High School's semi-annual "Art Show and Sale" to be held May 19 and 20. The sale will be held in the high school library Monday evening from 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. and Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 p.m.

Three dimensional pieces and photography will dominate the show. Students have been working all year to produce jewelry, ceramics, papier mache and plaster sculpture "comparable to none ever produced in this fine institution," so says Lazebnik. And for those with a limited budget, but a taste for finery, art will be sold at near recession prices. This spectacular display, Lazebnik stressed "would make missing Haley's Comet, or a premiere is a must." The public is welcome to attend and buy or simply

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

It looks like old soldiers never die, Mister Editor, they just get out of work. Zeke Grubb came to the session at the country store Saturday night with this report where unemployment has hit the military ranks. Not only is the service getting plenty of volunteers to do the work, they got more officers than they need to stand around and watch.

Zeke said this happens after ever war and he said that, on balance, he'd rather have the military unemployment than the war. Folks understand the country has got to have a standing army to keep up our defense, Zeke said, but somehow it seems funny for a general to run out of work. Why should the military cut the payroll, Zeke wanted to know, when ever other Government agency keeps adding to theirs?

The piece Zeke had read reported that officers are a glut on the market since we quit fighting in Vietnam. We got more than 3,000 lieutenants and captains in the Army and Air Force that we ain't got a job for, Zeke said, so we're going to turn them out, so they can stand in unemployment lines with the rest of the civilians. They're having a weed-out now of these low-ranking officers, so it looks like these fellows will be fighting different battles pretty soon.

Clem Webster said he realized the problems you have with many chiefs and not enough Indians, but the military cutback was on the wrong end of the chief ranks. Clem said the Army is like any other outfit, the higher you go the less work there is to do. The lieutenants and captains is the only officers that do anything, Clem allowed, and when you cut them back the generals won't have anybody left to tell what to do. Clem said he was in favor of this plan by a fellow named Ernest Fitzgerald. He wants to get rid of most of the generals and admirals and let civilians do the paperwork at half the price.

Fitzgerald ain't popular at the Pentagon. He's the same fellow that got the Air Force in hot times what they ought to fer a New Airplane. Now he wants to weed out 1,200 generals and admirals that are costing $60 million a year to keep up. Fitzgerald says these old warhorses don't do a thing, but that a heap of them draw more than the $60,000 a year we pay the secretary of the Army. What he wants to do is replace most of em with civilians that will work cheaper, and them that's fixing to retire won't leave a vacancy anyway, so the defense budget can save two ways. It's a plan far to simple to work, was Clem's words.

Actual, Mister Editor, the fellows don't expect much to come of Fitzgerald's and Clem's idee. Them generals and admirals didn't get rows of ribbons across their chest fer not knowing how to look out fer N. 1 in peace as well as war.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Status of Women's Committee Plans Questionnaire

A short questionnaire about women's employment needs will be made widely available in Washtenaw county within the next two weeks.

Dr. Marilyn Kolton, co-chairwoman of the Employment Task Force of the Washtenaw County Advisory Committee on the Status of Women said last week that questionnaires will be sent to women's groups all over the county. The task force hopes to find out what county women would like it to do.

The task force is currently organizing an occupational skills bank to provide employers with a ready source of information about qualified employees.

It also plans to look into possibilities for women in low-overhead businesses, Kolton said.

"Women should think more creatively about employment," she said. "Women usually make so little money at their jobs that they could well afford to develop their own businesses."

"Most secretaries make from $5,000 to $7,000 a year, and it's not difficult to do that in a low-overhead business."

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Is This the Place?

Manufacturers looking for a place to set up shop have a lot to consider before deciding to settle in Michigan.

George Van Peursem, president of the Michigan Manufacturers Association, points to several factors that put the state at a disadvantage when it comes to luring new industry—or even keeping what's here now.

Those factors, according to Van Peursem, include:

—the cost of Michigan's unemployment compensation, highest in all the country on a per-employee basis as of 1973.

—the cost of workmen's compensation, highest in the country.

—direct taxes on business, higher than most other states.

"Put all those together," Van Peursem says, "and you see that Michigan is a very expensive state in which to do business as an industrialist."

He notes also that businesses consider not only what the situation is today, but what is threatened—higher workmen's compensation? higher unemployment compensation?—for tomorrow.

Results of a formal study, conducted for New Detroit, Inc. in 1971-72 by Lewis Mandell of the University of Michigan's Survey Research Center, point up the problem.

The study projected that by 1977, the Wayne, Oakland and Macomb county area would lose more than one-third of its non-Big Three manufacturing labor force due to plant closings, moves out of the area and liquidations.

A late 1974 follow-up on that study showed losses of one-half the rate predicted—still a net loss of some 12,000 jobs. (The follow-up report said 131 manufacturing firms had left the tri-county area taking some 20,000 jobs. There was a gain of some 8,000 jobs during that same time period.)

Another example is Lansing where two firms have left the city in the recent past, and two others have problems.

Van Peursem notes another recent survey conducted by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, which showed that for every 100 new industrial jobs in an area, there are also created some 68 non-industrial jobs.

There must, therefore, be some losses other than the industrial jobs when a business leaves an area, he suggests.

Broaden Coverage

Alcoholics and drug users need health care—but many don't get it because they can't afford to pay the costs.

With that in mind, Rep. Howard Wolpe, D-Kalamazoo, is proposing a package of bills requiring health insurance companies and health maintenance organizations to provide coverage for alcoholism and drug abuse treatment.

Wolpe says "a very small percentage" of the estimated half million alcoholics and thousands of drug addicts in Michigan are under treatment.

"While a person who has a health insurance policy is protected against injury and other illnesses, that person is not necessarily proected against medical and hospital expenses for alcohol and drug treatment," Wolpe says.

"Insurance coverage for treatment of substance abuse continues to be limited and inadequate," Wolpe considers it "inhumane to draw a line between alcoholism and drug addiction and other forms of insurable illnesses."

His proposals would require minimum benefits for treatment and rehabilitation for addiction, as of July 1, 1978. Such benefits would include inpatient care, residential care, out-patient visits and counseling.

What Did He Say? . . . The questions some folks ask:
Fly on their backs? No, sir, not ducks and geese. They "whiffle."

That's the answer from G. F. Martz, a Department of Natural Resources wetlands specialist, who's actually been asked that one.

"There is a time when the Canada goose appears to fly on its back," Martz responded. "This happens when the bird attempts to lose altitude quickly. The process by which the bird 'dumps air' or 'side slips' is called 'whiffing,'" he said.

Many species of ducks, Canada geese and snow geese do look like they are flying on their backs at this point—but Martz says no waterfowl can fly upside down.

Open House Set Saturday At Boysville

The 27-year-old home-school for teen-age boys in the village of Macon, near Clinton, is holding an open house Saturday, May 17, from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. Tours of the campus will be conducted by the students. Dinner will be available from noon until 5 p.m. For the children there will be magicians, clowns, balloons, horse-back rides, games and entertainment. For the adults, bingo, games, tours and a mission bazaar.

Since 1948, Boysville has served some 4,000 boys, age 12 to 18, from nearly every county in Michigan. These boys, usually neglected, come to Boysville because they need help to learn to deal with their problems in a positive and effective way. They come to grow and become mature, productive citizens, and to be healed. It is the challenge and the duty of Boysville staff to fulfill these needs.

Everyone is welcome to the Boysville Open House. Take a nice country spring drive to Saline on US-12, follow the signs south 10 miles to Boysville.

Michigan's population, according to the 1970 U. S. census, is 8,875,083.

REGULATION AND TRUCKING

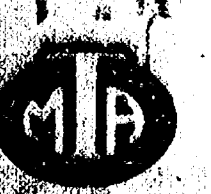

Some people feel the regulated transportation system of the United States should not be regulated. They argue, the industry which approves of regulation, must be lining their pockets because of it. And for these reasons, they argue the Interstate Commerce Commission should be abolished.

We have regulation for one prime reason, to insure transportation service and standardized rates for communities located away from major shipping centers such as Detroit. Here, there is no cutthroat competition or biased rates. A shipper in Alpena can send his freight for the same rate as a shipper of similar freight in Detroit.

Shippers and merchants in places like Muskegon, Jackson, Petoskey and Midland can count on regular service and standard rates that do not change daily, or hourly because of ICC regulation.

The way we see it, without regulation, Michigan communities would have little to depend upon, except extremely poor service and a very unfair rate system.

A regulated transportation system is not the best of all possible worlds. But it is far better than no transportation system at all. Or worse, a government-run system.

Family Service Agency Enlarging Homemaker Staff To Serve Chelsea

Parents who are ill, either physically or emotionally, or who are recuperating from illnesses and need some temporary help in their homes to take over and assist their families through daily living, will now have that extra pair of hands thanks to CETA (Concentrated Employment Training Act), which has given funds to the Child and Family Services of Washtenaw County to hire another full-time homemaker. This woman will make number 13 to the now 12 women who service the county through Child and Family Services.

This 13th woman, who as yet has not been hired, will allow the agency to give service to residents in Washtenaw county who live outside the Ann Arbor city limits. While the program operates on a limited scale in some out-city limit areas such as Dexter; its director, Mrs. Wilma Court, would like to see the program implemented in Chelsea, Manchester and the vicinity as well. "Persons who live in these areas," Mrs. Court said, "are eligible to apply for the position."

But what are homemakers? What sort of responsibilities, working hours and pay do they receive for their services? "They are not maids!" Mrs. Court stressed her point.

Homemakers go into people's homes during times of physical and emotional illness or when because of age or disability a person cannot maintain himself or his home without assistance. They help with child care, meal planning and preparation, shopping, laundry and light housekeeping; but it is all according to the individual need of each family.

Purpose of the service is to give assistance during a crises period, perhaps for a duration of one week to several months, to help maintain wholesome family living and allow the family to remain as independent as possible.

Through the hiring of an extra homemaker, services such as these will be available to residents in the Chelsea area.

Mrs. Court explained that in this mobile society of ours, many families do not have close neighbors and friends they can call on when circumstances necessitate some full- or part-time assistance. And if they do, they really don't want to impose on their neighbors and relatives for the kind of things they need performed.

The family services program is a flexible one, each homemaker adjusts her hours and services to the family she will work with. "They like to feel they are a friendly neighbor helping another one when the need arises," Mrs. Court said of her homemakers. And the pay scale is a sliding one. Families are charged based on their total annual income and family size. Additional funds come from the United Fund.

The women, who now range in age from 23-52 years, and have educational backgrounds from 10th grade to a Bachelor of Science degree, spend 30 hours a year in training for the job. Monthly they meet for in-service training, and weekly supervision is also available. This agency tries to coordinate their services with other social service agencies. And through the homemaker they can discuss and learn of problems that another agency might be able to solve.

Mrs. Court reported that the service has been available in Ann Arbor for nine years, but for only four to five years and "very sparsely" in outlying areas.

Persons interested in finding out more about the homemaker service may call 971-6528 between the business hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Cindermen Storm Past South Lyon

10:31.8. Frame finished the run in 10:25.3, and Haller in 10:27. South Lyon took a first in the 220-yard dash, but then, in came the day's biggest surprise when the Chelsea Mile Relay team of John Storey, Morris Johnson, Russ Weiner and Mark Burnett beat the somewhat over-confident team from South Lyon.

Kruse reported that "this was a meet where all points were important, but the competitors in the last four events, the two-mile through the 440-yard relay came through with truly gutsy and inspired performances. We were all quite proud of the way the athletes came back and met the challenge."

According to Kruse the South Lyon team was composed of some truly outstanding individuals, but they had to grapple with a depth problem. "They juggled some people around, but in the long run out juggled themselves."

On Saturday the Bulldogs traveled to Michigan Center, where they and eight other track teams participated in the Cardinal Relays. "This eight-team field," Kruse said, "was very strong, as five meet records were broken; with an exceptionally strong Jackson Lumen Christi team winning the meet and in the process setting four meet records."

Chelsea finished sixth, with a score of 17 points. Two firsts were marked up by two of the Bulldogs relay teams. In the high jump relay, the team of Rick and Randy Sweeny and Howard Salyer had a combined height of 17'4". The Intermediate Medley Relay team of John Storey and Morris Johnson running 880's and Howard Salyer and Dennis Bauer running quarter miles won in a time of 6:04.8.

Also placing for Chelsea, was the pole vault team of Don Pierson and Mark Burnett vaulting 21' for a fourth; the shuttle hurdle team of Curt Winans Howard Salyer, Ishmael Picklesimer and Rick Sweeny also finished fourth and a fifth place finish was recorded by the 440-yard relay team of Salyer, Collins, Winans and Kelly.

This Saturday, May 17, the varsity track team will compete in the state regional meet at Ypsilanti High school. The top three placers in each event will qualify to go to the state meet scheduled for Saturday, May 31 in East Lansing.

Preliminary heats and high jump and shot put will begin at 9:30 a.m. Finals and the pole-vault and long jump will start at 1 p.m.

The next home meet will be a double dual against Willow Run and Stockbridge on Monday, May 19. And the final dual meet for the season will be held Thursday, May 22 against Dexter on the home track.

WHAT A WAY TO HOE!

Flower and vegetable gardening can be back-breaking work what with all the spading, cultivating, aerating and composting that's required. On the other hand, it can be a very rewarding and relaxing hobby with the help of an Ariens Tiller.

Ariens, America's first garden tiller manufacturer, offers three styles of rugged tillers—the gear-drive Jets and Rockets and a brand new chain-drive model. Powered with engines ranging from 3 HP to 7 HP, some models feature two speeds forward and reverse and the popular side-to-side adjustable handlebars to avoid walking in tilled soil.

When you add up all the features of Ariens Tillers and compare performances you're bound to say — "What A Way To Hoe!"

Under the Dome

BY REPRESENTATIVE MIKE CONLIN

If you're in business—any kind of business—there's a proposal in the House which could significantly change the amount of taxes you pay and the way you pay them.

It's called the Business Privilege Tax. This new kind of tax was originally proposed by Governor Milliken and subsequently introduced in the House as H.B. 4640. The House Taxation Committee has been holding hearings on it over the past few weeks and the testimony given at those hearings has been interesting. But before I comment on that, I should give you some details of the Business Privilege Tax (BPT).

The BPT would replace eight current taxes: the corporate income tax, the financial institutions income tax, the corporate franchise tax, the business portion of the intangibles tax, the savings and loan privilege tax, the domestic insurance company privilege tax, the business portion of the individual income tax, and the tax levied on inventory property by local governments.

(Michigan had a 'Business Activities Tax' from 1952 to 1967 which was quite similar to the proposed BPT, but which allowed more exemptions and deductions than would be provided for under the BPT. The BPT was originally enacted in lieu of a corporate income tax and was eventually replaced by that tax and the personal income tax.)

The proposed rate for the BPT would be two percent of the tax base. The tax base would be determined as follows: federal taxable income from business activity plus all employee compensation paid, all interest paid, all royalties paid, all interest received on non-Michigan government obligations. From this total would be subtracted all interest, royalties and dividends received; any capital loss not deducted from the federal base; and the full cost of investment in capital assets other than buildings. For multi-state corporations, it would have to be determined how much of all this was attributable to business in Michigan.

The main "plus" feature of the BPT, as it has been explained to me, would be the deduction of capital acquisition costs. The tax laws now contain a variety of "incentives" for business expansion, but many of them are discriminatory and inefficient. The BPT would allow full credit for capital costs in the year they are made instead of depreciation over several years. This, hopefully, would lead to business expansion in Michigan.

There would also be a deduction for small businesses, starting with a $15,000 tax-base exemption and gradually phasing out up to a $60,000 tax base. Testimony in some of the recent hearings has indicated that this small business exemption might have to be higher.

In fact, this is the area of my most serious objections to the proposal as it stands now. As it is now written, I am concerned that small- and medium-sized businesses, and particularly farms, would have to shoulder an unfairly heavy tax burden. However, I have been told by officials of the Department of Management and Budget that changes are being prepared to deal with these concerns.

Although local governments would lose revenue from the repeal of the inventory property tax, they would be reimbursed by the state. During the first year, this would be dollar-for-dollar; after that it would be based on a formula currently used in Michigan's revenue sharing program, together with a "growth" factor. The current tax base of Michigan business is considered to be $40 billion, so a 2 percent tax would bring in $800 million. That is roughly what is brought in now by the eight current taxes, so as such, it would not be a tax increase.

A BPT with an over-all rate on the tax base is supposed to allow for a more stable revenue system for the state, since it would not be quite as sensitive as the present system to fluctuating economic conditions. It would also provide an approximate $180 million "windfall" during the first months of its effect due to collection procedures, which would help Michigan have a balanced budget during the next fiscal year.

A single tax rate BPT would, in theory, be more equitable than the current tax structure. It would also be easier to compute and to file. But as you might imagine, some businesses would pay more and some less than they do now.

For example, American Motors and Chrysler opposed the BPT in hearings last month, saying that they would have to pay more in taxes. But a study commissioned by the Senate Taxation Committee showed that they would actually pay about 34 percent less with the BPT than they do now.

This same Senate study said that, based on a survey of 809 corporations, large manufacturers would benefit most and service industries would have to bear the greatest increase. This is because the service industries are what is called "labor-intensive" and little capital investment to write off, if any.

As you can see, it will be quite a while before this proposal passes, if ever, since there are so many aspects to be considered. As it now stands, the proposed Business Privilege Tax would penalize too many businessmen in my district and, at this time, I would not vote for the proposal. If enough changes are made in the language and provisions of the bill to help rather than hurt the residents of the 23rd District, I would be willing to reconsider my position.

Teens Sought For Volunteer Hospital Help

Volunteers of Chelsea Community Hospital once again invite young people of 14 years of age and up to become involved in the hospital's summer M-Teen volunteer program.

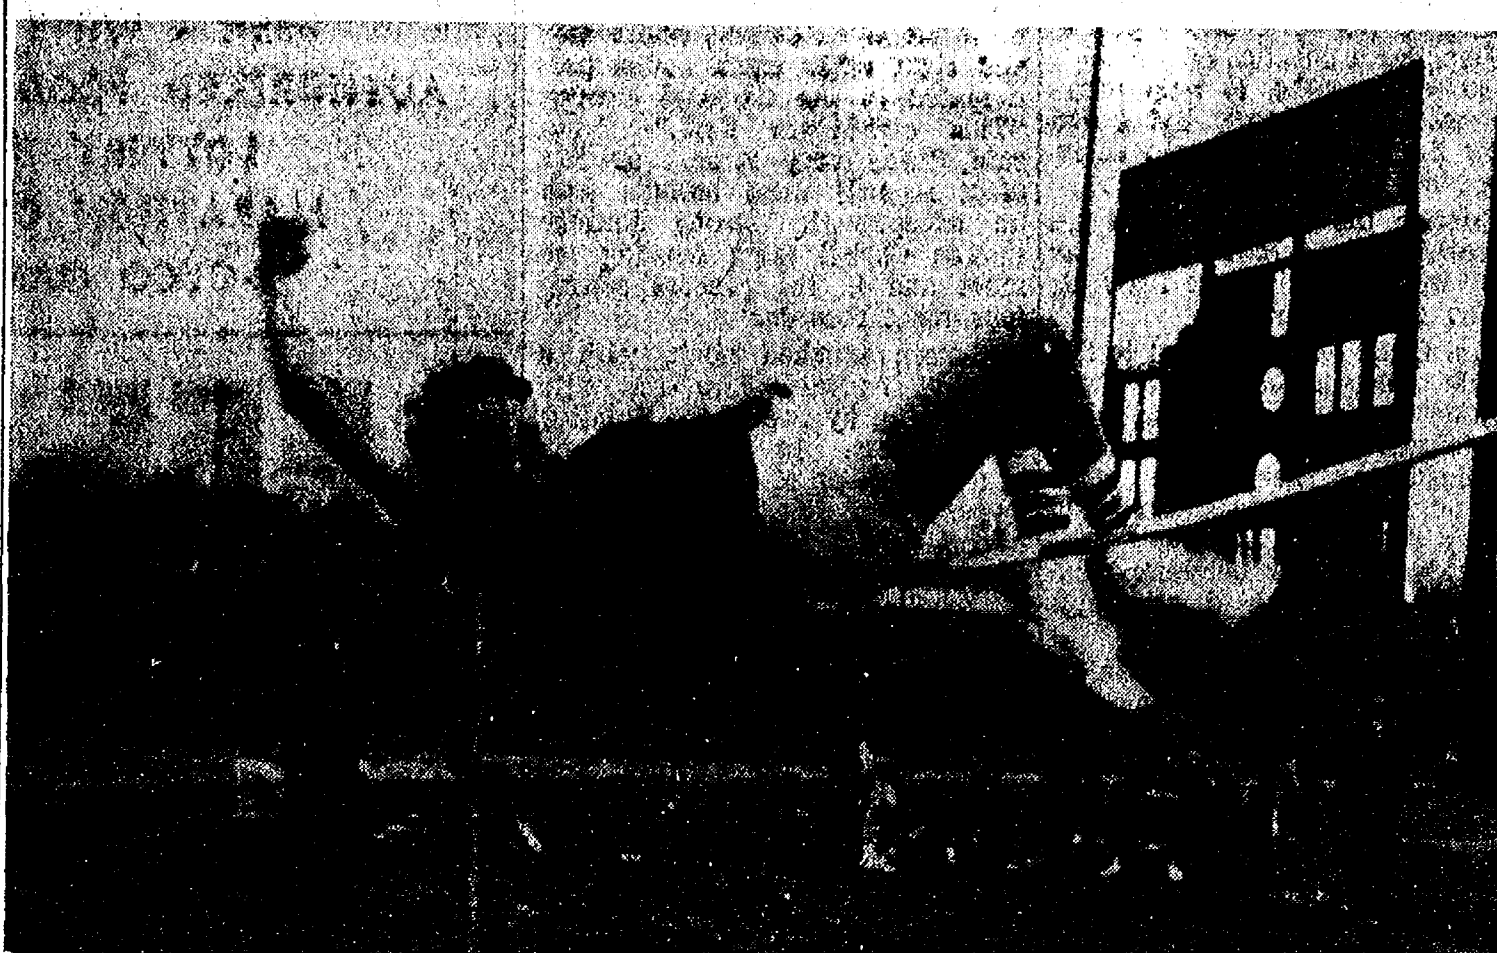

This program, designed for both male and female teenagers interested in volunteering their services to the hospital, will be in effect from June until September. Young people will be involved in such things as assisting with the hospital arts and crafts program, running errands for patients and staff, entertaining bed-ridden patients, and wheeling them to their desired destinations. Other services such as assistance in the cafeteria, to merely chat with a patient will also be on the agenda for teen-age volunteers.

Applications for this program may be picked up in counselor's offices at either Beach Middle School or Chelsea High. Applications are also available at the hospital.

Volunteers have scheduled an orientation session for the program for this Saturday, May 17 at 10 a.m. in the dining room of the hospital. All interested young people are invited to attend. Applications for the program will be available at this time.

DENNIS BAUER, anchorman for the 440-yard relay crosses the chalk-mark terminating the race. Bauer and his team of John Collins, Curt Winans and Kevin Kelly knew that a victory in the meet with South Lyon depended on victory in the 440 relay. The boys ran with determination to take first just three yards ahead of their contenders from South Lyon. Time for the event was :46.6. Chelsea matman Darryl West, (at right) state champion wrestler, calls out an enthusiastic victory for Chelsea.

JV Softball Team Romps Over Novi

The junior varsity girls softball team once again stole their way to victory, when a Friday game at Novi was conceded in the fourth inning, giving the Chelsea girls an early, but decisive victory over their opponents of 30-13.

Coach Cindy Bradbury said the girls were able to steal a total of 35 bases.

Questioned as to why the game ended early, Bradbury reported that the Novi team knew they couldn't win. "There just wasn't a contest there," she added.

Novi plays by rules whereby each team is allowed 10 runs per inning, after which, regardless of the number of strike-outs incurred, the other team comes to bat.

In the first inning, the Chelsea girls marked up 10 runs with only one strike-out. In the second inning of play, three strike-outs by the Chelsea girls allowed Novi to bat. However, they came back in the fourth to hit for 10 runs with only two outs.

Theresa Ahrens hit a home run. Pitching duties were shared by Sue Heydlauff who pitched the first two innings, striking out four, and Laurie Klink who pitched the remainder of the game.

Bradbury reported that all the girls played "a lot." And that the second string of the JV team concluded play for Chelsea.

C. E. LaRoe Arrested on Charge of Drunk, Disorderly

Village police were forced to make an early morning arrest last Saturday when a local resident was reported to police twice regarding his disorderly conduct on S. Main St.

Charles Eugene LaRoe was arrested by Officers McDougall and Browning after the pair had given him warning that any further disturbances reported would result in his arrest.

When notified by Leonard Koch, an employee of the Chelsea Restaurant, that LaRoe was harassing the restaurant's customers with yelling and loud singing, they proceeded to the restaurant. Upon their arrival, they found LaRoe yelling at several people.

LaRoe was advised he was under arrest on charges of being drunk and disorderly, escorted to the police car, handcuffed and taken to county jail, where he was booked on drunk and disorderly charges.

LaRoe was released Sunday on a personal bond.

Youth Board Being Formed

Young people interested in exploring the in's and out's of recreational planning in Chelsea should look into the Chelsea Youth Board. The Youth Board idea was started a couple of months ago by a group of interested adults from the school system and other youth-related agencies. The idea is based on the thought that young people should have some input into the recreational activities planned for them.

The Chelsea Youth Board will be composed of two members chosen from the middle school, one member elected from among each of the four classes of the high school, and three members chosen from the 17- to 21-year-old group of graduates, drop-outs, or college-age people who still live in Chelsea.

Elections for high school representatives will be held during school, Tuesday, May 20. The remaining members will be appointed.

Anyone interested should contact Sandy Schmunk, 475-8175. Members will serve for a one-year term.

Chelsea Recreation Council has supported the Youth Board idea and is looking forward to working with the young people. The Council plans to appoint one of the Youth Board members as a voting member of the Recreation Council. A new idea, but perhaps a link

Varsity Softball Team Loses to Brighton Tuesday

Like their understudies on the girls JV softball team, the girls' varsity softball team lost their game to Brighton Tuesday evening by a score of 15-4. Their score for season's play is not half-bad with five wins and four losses, however, looking at their league record, 1-3 . . . the girls are still suffering from errors in the field.

Brenda Salyer pitched the seven-inning game for the girls. But Brighton's pitcher topped Salyer's pitching arm, holding the Chelsea girls scoreless after the first inning of play.

All four runs for Chelsea were collected in the first inning on hits by Teresa Breza, Kathy Schmitke, Kim Moore and Cindy Armstrong. Karen Keiser drew a walk.

Tuesday, both the JV and varsity girls will play Willow Run.

The Buddy Poppy which will be offered to you on the streets soon is sold by a volunteer. All proceeds will go to the relief and welfare of the needy veteran, his widow and orphans.

Inverness Ladies Golf Club Members Play First Rounds

Lady golfers of Inverness Golf Club had the sun on their side last Thursday morning when they played their first game of golf this season. Approximately 60 women turned out to drive and putt their balls, welcome new women and share conversation over coffee and cake following the rounds on the course.

To make the new golfers feel at home, members drew names from a hat to form threesomes for their play on the course.

In Class A play, those ladies with the best game, Ruth Cook took first place for low gross, low putt. In Class B, Helen Wilson took first for low putt, but she and Jeanette Smith shared first place for low gross. Dorothy Miller won both low gross and low putt in her Class C division.

Winning threesomes of the day, a tie, between Mary Turcott, Lorna Eberts and Joe Rabbitt and the threesome of Jane Priest, Lois Boita and Madeline Keusch.

Hallie, Audrie, Laura, and Lisa read poems for our mothers. Each girl presented their mother with a wall plaque that she made. We also played games with our mothers. We closed with taps.

Interscholastic Baseball Now Open to Girls

Senator Gilbert E. Bursley (R-Ann Arbor) announced the passage by the Senate of Senate Bill 312, which would allow girls to play interscholastic baseball.

Senator Bursley said, "This bill adds 'baseball' to the list of sports specifically stated in law as NOT being 'body contact' sports."

Senator Bursley explained, "Under a law passed in 1972, girls may participate in all non-contact sports, and may try out for the school team in such sports even if the school has a girls team."

"Teams are still picked strictly on the basis of athletic ability. But if a unique girl could demonstrate baseball-playing ability superior to that of any male candidate for a place on the team, she would be entitled to play on the team."

Bursley added, "Girls have for far too long been excluded from competitive sports. Girls should be given a full opportunity to compete for places on teams and given every chance to participate if they prove themselves capable."

The service is open to all churches and persons who would like to celebrate our life together in the Spirit. This hymn sing is one in a series of quarterly hymn sings for the Christian community to celebrate special occasions in our life together.

Exchange Mayor Coming Monday from Northville

Chelsea's Mayor for the Day, Malcolm Allen of Northville, will have a whirlwind tour to complete Monday, when he arrives in town at 10 a.m. for Mayor's Exchange Day, part of Michigan Week celebrations.

The mayor will begin his day at the United Methodist Home where he and his company will listen to a concert performed by Chelsea School bands. Following the concert he and his entourage will tour the Methodist Home.

Then, it is off to the Chelsea Medical Center, where the mayor will enjoy a complete tour of the Center and Chelsea Community Hospital and surgical wing.

Stops will be made at McKune Memorial Library and two of Chelsea's oldest homes: that belonging to the Gene Millers and the Richard Bortons.

A stop will be made by the village offices, where the mayor will inspect facilities where he will be able to imagine what it would be like to preside as president over Chelsea's Village Council.

A small cocktail party will precede a dinner for both exchange groups when they meet to wind up their day in the dining room of the Marriott Inn in Ann Arbor.

Errors Cause JV Softball Team Loss

Errors in the field seem to have reached epidemic proportions for Chelsea's ballplayers, both male and female. Early in their season the girls varsity softball team lost many a victory because of poor fielding, then just last week, a double-header played against Novi by Chelsea's varsity Bulldogs ended in two defeats, and now Cindy Bradbury, coach of the JV softball team, reports that they too have been hit with a bad case of errors in the field.

In a game played with Brighton Tuesday evening, the girls lost to their opponents, 17-4. Bradbury allowed that "Brighton played an exceptional game, especially in the field. They," she continued, "played as well in the field as we played badly."

Sue Heydlauff pitched six of the seven-inning game, striking out three; when teammate Laurie Klink relieved her for the final inning of play.

"We shut them out for three innings," Bradbury said, "but then we gave them five runs for three innings."

The girls' next game, at which time they hope to have recuperated from this bug passed on to them, will be played Tuesday on the home diamond against Willow Run.

Summer Swim Lessons Offered in Rec. Program

Most of us, if thrown in a pond or pool of water, would float. At least that is what we are told we have the instinct to do; but, how many of us know how to swim properly?

Chelsea children will have an opportunity to learn this summer through lessons being offered by the Chelsea Recreation Department.

This year the department is offering three, two-week sessions of swimming lessons. The lessons are open to all children who will be starting school in the fall. They will run from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at Half Moon Lake. Transportation will be provided. A $3 fee will be charged for each two-week session.

The first session will run from June 23 to July 4; the second, July 7 to July 18 and the third, July 21-Aug. 1.

These lessons will be offered as part of the Earn, Learn and Play program.

Heading the swimming program this year is Nancy Oswald. Mrs. Oswald is replacing Jim Tallman.

To register children, parents should call Mrs. Oswald at her Gregory phone number, 1-498-2679. Class size is limited, so it is advised to register your child or children as soon as possible.

The recreation department will also hold open swimming from 1 to 3 p.m. daily. No registration is necessary for this.

Michigan Week Starts With Saturday Clean-Up

This Saturday, May 17, the Chelsea Community will open their Michigan Week celebrations with a "Community Pride Day," during which residents are asked to volunteer their time and services to help clean-up part of Chelsea—to take pride in their community.

This year's project, chaired by Robert F. Ponte will center around a branch and leaf rake-up at local parks.

Pride Day's chairman welcomes volunteers to meet at Pierce Park Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Volunteers are requested to bring rakes and gloves if possible.

And just to make it easier, local merchants are participating in the spring spruce-up theme of Community Pride Day by offering reduced prices on yard and garden supplies. Sam Johnson of Gambles; Tom Bust of Chelsea Hardware and Clarence Pendley of Western Auto will have some sale items displayed outside their stores.

Chelsea Jaycees will organize and supervise the distribution of volunteers among the parks and other village properties. Local scouting organizations will provide some muscle power in the clean-up. They're pros now, having cleaned the main arteries in and out of Chelsea earlier this spring.

Further questions concerning Community Pride Day may be directed to Ponte at 475-2175.

Old Photos, Historical Documents Sought

In taking a look through one's old drawers, trunks, stored away boxes, attic and closets, it is possible to find treasures and gems of great historical value to the Washtenaw Genealogical Society. Items such as old photos, commercial structures, old letters, diaries and other documents including family histories, all artifacts of historical value and "should be brought out of hiding for the public," advocates the Society's chairman, Ralph Muncy of Ann Arbor.

Muncy, a long-time Ann Arbor resident, said that his real roots are in Chelsea. According to him, his great-great-grandfather, Eli-sha Congdon was one of the first two people to settle in the area in the 1830's. And he says there is a lot of history here that would interest county and local historians. Muncy wants to urge Chelseans and all residents of Washtenaw county to clean out their old relics and other documents that may be of historical value and to donate or give them through photo-copies to the Michigan Historical Collections at the University, for their archives.

On May 18, the Society will host Dr. Arnold Pilling of Wayne State University who will give an illustrated talk about "How To Date Old Photographs." This meeting, open to the public, will be held in Room C222 of Pioneer High school in Ann Arbor.

Pilling will discuss such identification marks as size of photos, and other photo features which make it possible to determine precisely when a particular photograph was taken.

The Washtenaw Genealogical Society would like to know about any identifiable or identified photographs that might lend a twist to the history of the county.

Any items that owners suspect to be of historical significance may be reported to Harold Jones, 701 Glazier Rd., or Mrs. Harold Sias, 650 S. Steinbach Rd. Both Jones and Sias are members of the Washtenaw chapter.

Boy on Bike Struck By Car On Old US-12

Village Police Chief George Meranuck issued a warning of caution to both drivers and children on bikes. Just last week a mishap on Old US-12 involving a young school child on his bike and a motorist resulted in the striking of the boy. Police report that the boy, Tom Owens of 471 Pierce Rd., was at fault for failing to yield the right-of-way to traffic. The driver, Errola Curtis of 66900 Lin-gane, was going eastbound on Old US-12 when the accident occurred. Apparently Owens, riding a 28" boy's bike, came across the road in front of her going from the south to the north shoulder. Curtis pulled to the right, braking her car, but could not stop in time and struck the boy. The child was thrown across the hood of the vehicle.

Witnesses reported that Mrs. Curtis' car was almost at a halt when she struck the boy. They also stated, confirming the driver's statement, that the boy never looked before crossing the highway. The boy's mother, Mrs. James Owens reported that Tommy's injuries were limited to minor bruises. "He was a bit shaken," she added.

Regardless of fault, village police request that both motorists and those on bikes exercise caution this spring, summer and fall when traveling on the road. Because many roads in Chelsea do not have sidewalks, those on bikes must ride in the road or street. Cyclists should be aware that they too are obligated to conform to the same road laws and courtesies as motorists.

This accident could have been avoided. Many more will be if both motorists and cyclists look and listen while riding and driving their four- or two-wheeled vehicles!

Varsity Golfers Split Matches This Week

Chelsea golfers played two matches this past week, taking one win and one loss.

The Chelsea Bulldogs lost one to the Brighton Bulldogs and by a small margin of four strokes. The game which left Brighton the victor, 164-168, left both teams with identical league records for this season. Seven wins and four losses were chalked up for both contenders in the Southeast Conference. However, following play with South Lyon, Chelsea marked up another win.

Mike Fouty held his own, a score of 39 for medalist. Jeff and Roger Policht followed closely behind their teammate's lead. Jeff added one stroke to his game for a score of 40, and Roger another four, scoring 43 for the round. Vic Steinbach shot a 46.

In action played Monday evening on the Inverness course, Chelsea entertained South Lyon in a victory for the host team can be called entertainment. The Bulldogs put themselves in the win column shooting a score of 171 to South Lyon's 178.

Mike Fouty once again led the team, making himself medalist for the day with a score of 40. Dan Shirilla shot a 41, Jeff Policht a 44 and Roger Policht a 46.

With only two matches left to play, the Bulldogs are hopeful to end their season with a high standing in the league. Milan and Dexter remain on the '75 season schedule.

Varsity golf coach, Pat Wade, reported that the Chelsea JV golf team took victories against both Brighton and South Lyon.

New Turbo Train in Operation

One can hear it coming, and it sounds like nothing else that has passed these tracks. What is it? The new streamlined Amtrak passenger train that makes a twice daily run between Detroit and Chicago with a stop in Ann Arbor.

By the middle of this month, Amtrak plans to put two more of its gas turbine-powered passenger trains on the route, giving Michigan the nation's first all-turbo route. The train now travels at speeds of 75 to 80 miles per hour. And with new tracks designed to accommodate the Amtrak, the train is capable of going 100 miles per hour. For those interested in having a look at this sleek red, white and blue new Amtrak train, it passes through Chelsea at approximately 8:15 a.m. and 5:45 p.m. daily.

Baseball Team Drops Both in Double-Header

Chelsea Bulldogs played two short games of ball last Friday, when Novi defeated them twice in the double-header play.

In the first game of play, Novi took the victory following five innings of play with a score of 15-5. In the second game, the Bulldogs went six innings but still lost to their opponents, 10-0.

The two games left Novi front-runner in the league, and Chelsea taking up the rear for the conference. The Bulldogs can take some, but little consolation in that four of their 12 games played this season resulted in wins. However, those four were non-conference wins for the Bulldogs.

Coach Phil Bareis attributes these two losses to a total of 15 errors compiled in both games. The errors, allowed Novi 12 unearned runs.

Hitting for Chelsea was Randy Guenther who was able to hit two in the first game, and Bill Clark who hit a homerun. Dale Schoenberg and Joel Sprague each collected the other two hits.

In the second game of the contest, the Bulldogs managed only three hits; two by Todd Orthing and one by Mark Pennington.

Saturday, they will play South Lyon on the home diamond. While any chance at the conference title has been lost to the wind, perhaps the Bulldogs will have a chance to regain some prestige before the '75 season comes to a close.

The best way to personally show our gratitude for the sacrifices of our disabled veterans is to buy a Memorial Poppy.

Friday Is Poppy Day On Chelsea Streets

Tomorrow, Friday, is VFW Buddy Poppy Day and American Legion Poppy Day on the streets of Chelsea. Both organizations stress buying a poppy or two to aid those who fought in foreign wars, or as the VFW put it, "Honor those who died on foreign battlefields by bringing aid to those who fought beside them."

The poppy, as told by the American Legion Auxiliary, is the memorial flower for American War dead, a tradition which began in the years following the first World War. Veterans returning home to this country remembered the wild poppies which lined the devastated battlefields of France and Flanders. Wearing poppies in honor of war dead first occurred in New York City Nov. 9, 1918.

The poppy program begins each year in the summer or early fall when disabled veterans begin making the flowers in government hospitals and special convalescent workshops.

Manufacturing poppies aids the veteran both financially and psychologically. Veterans are paid for the work they do regardless of any government compensation they might receive—and the job itself permits for some needed relief from long hours spent in the hospital. For many, it is their only opportunity to earn money.

Poppy materials are supplied by the American Legion Auxiliary and the VFW who pay these men weekly through the manufacturing period.

Funds from the Poppy Day and Buddy Poppy Day sales enable both groups to meet the needs for the rehabilitation and child welfare programs. All funds from these sales are used solely for the aid of the disabled veterans and the families of deceased servicemen.

The VFW believes that "our nation's disabled veterans are the responsibility of all citizens." And like the Auxiliary, they hope that all Chelseaites when asked to buy a poppy on Friday, May 16 will do so and "wear it proudly."

"The American Legion Auxiliary says, 'remember the veteran in the hospital or workshop who made this memorial flower.' And the VFW adds 'They (the veteran) gave a lot. Won't you give a little? Do your part.'"

Wear a poppy, America's silent tribute to her heroes.

Girls Track Team Rallies For Novi Win

Surviving a disastrous beginning in the field events, the Chelsea girls track team rebounded in the track events, to defeat Novi, 57-48. The meet was held last Friday at Novi.

Kathy Treado scored all eight field points by taking a first in the high jump at 4'8" and a second in the long jump at 13'4 1/2".

Coach DiAnn L'Roy reported, "We were terrible in the field events. It is a good thing we had CROSSING FOR FIRST, Ray Foley of South Salyer who ran the event in :53.7. Behind Salyer, Lyon ran the 440-yard dash in 52 seconds flat. Com. Dennis Bauer sprints the last few yards of the race for third place. The public is cordially invited to attend both concerts.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

MUSIC—

Teacher: Mrs. Dye
There are two elementary music concerts being given next week. South school's 3rd and 4th grade choruses will sing Tuesday, May 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the High school auditorium.

North school's 3rd and 4th grade choruses will perform Thursday, May 22 at 7:30 p.m. in the High school auditorium. The public is cordially invited to attend both concerts.

KINDERGARTEN—

Teacher: Mrs. Michelson
This week we are checking readiness in the kindergartens. We appreciate the help of parents who volunteered to help make this program run more effectively.

Mrs. Adams is coming to our room and we are having listening games and films about speech. The Haist farm and Van Riper farm are the places we visit by bus on Tuesday, May 27. If it rains, we will go on Thursday, May 29. It will be a learning and a fun time. All the kindergartens will go.

Since we are studying animals, we will have days for pets. Cat day will be Monday, June 2. The Dog Show will be Wednesday, June 4. Other animals may come to school if we know about it ahead of time. Mrs. Lee brought a lamb with a cast on its leg. Mrs. Trinkle brought a kid named Willy. We have had ducks, chicks, toads from Sarah, frogs, worms, a racoon which Greg's mother brought in (its mother was gone and he found it in the barn) and a rabbit that belongs to Mike Van Riper. Andrea brought in a rabbit and Robin brought in a salamander.

Monday, June 9—No school for afternoon children. Morning children will go to the park. Buses will take them home at 1 p.m. No school for morning on June 10. Tuesday, June 10, afternoon children will attend school from 8:30-1 p.m. Bus riders will be taken home at 1 p.m. They will go to the park.

Our chick is getting medicine because it is not well. It seems better now. Other eggs are in the incubator.

We were invited to the first grade program, and it was very good. We were glad parents came to our room for our music class.

Our sand castings turned out all right. They are used for paper holders (paper weights). We have scraps of wood from the lumber company and we are getting some wood work done. We stopped to make Mother's Day presents with the barn siding Mrs. Lane gave us.

We had a May Pole dance, and made May baskets but we did not have flowers. Cris said, "That's too bad." Some children picked wild flowers—pretty weeds. Just a few weeks left before summer vacation. We wish everyone a happy, healthy and safe vacation.

FIRST GRADE—

Teachers: Mrs. Packard, Mrs. Peebles and Mrs. Stein
Our music program was delightful, thanks to the efforts of the children, Mrs. Dye and Mrs. Coulam, and of course the families for coming to see it. The cookies called Turtles were made in class for the occasion.

The end of the year is approaching very quickly. It would be difficult to test all the growth and learning in the many areas to which the children were exposed. Along with the thrill that everyone learned to read and count, add, subtract and find that missing number, it has been a year to accept changes. Often the day was started with a different route to our classroom. We have studied with other children going through our rooms to their classes, cement mixers, drills and whatever outside our room. Teachers and construction crew have worked very hard on the safety aspect this year. Along with accepting the physical change of our school, we have had to learn to accept the differences among each other. There are some special days planned to finish off the year. A library trip is planned, activities for Michigan Week and a picnic as a "grand finale."

Have a safe and happy summer and we will all be back again in the fall to begin to enjoy the benefits of the new addition the community has planned for us.

Our first grade birthday congratulations for the rest of the school year go to:

May—Christine Russell, Mark Edick, Renee Yeutter, Lee Redding, Jim Cook, Scott Salyer.
June—John Walker, Eric Bettner, Heather Grenier, Peter Hanna, Steve Moore, Michelle Lavigne, Danny Ellenwood.
July—Jennifer Colvin, Laura Damm, Karen Hawks, Joy Palmieri.
August—Robert Abdon, Melissa Keiser, Paula Kuzon, Jill Schaffner, Raymond Spencer, Mark Ahrens, Amy Dunlap, Mike Ball, Cheryl Martin, Latrisha Richardson.

Chief Gaken Warns of Grass Fire Dangers

Chelsea's volunteer fire department kept busy Saturday fighting numerous grass and brush fires. Chief Jim Gaken reported that his men began answering calls at 10:30 a.m. The first truck went out at 10:30 a.m. and the last truck returned at 8 p.m. Saturday, the firefighters fought seven calls, with only one-half hour without a call.

Gaken reported that one of the fires on state land was put out with the help of the Conservation Department.

In a word of caution to area residents, Gaken advises those people who live outside village limits to use extreme caution when burning outside. In the dry weather, grass fires easily ignite, and while "nothing major," occurred this past week, they are potentially dangerous.

Bursley Named to Senate Special Committee on Aging

Senator Gilbert E. Bursley (R-Ann Arbor) has been appointed to the Special Committee on Aging. Other members of the committee established by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 59 are Senators Snyder, Davis, Derezinski and Otterbacher.

Senator Bursley stated: "I am extremely pleased that my colleagues have chosen me to serve on this committee. I am sure that I can provide an excellent service to the state as an active member of this committee. One of the greatest challenges that is facing the state to date is the changing distribution, both geographically and age-wise, of population."

Senator Bursley continued: "There are approximately 1,100,000 Michigan residents now over the age of sixty. As the population changes from a younger population to a considerably older population, the consequences of this age distribution change will be significant."

This Special Committee shall review and make recommendations to the legislature.

Girl Scouts Start Bicentennial Activities at Week-end Campout

More than 600 teen-age Girl Scouts this week-end will hold one of southeastern Michigan's first Bicentennial events, celebrating the country's founding 200 years ago.

A week-end campout May 16-18 at the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council's Camp Linden in Livingston county will feature pioneer crafts and games punctuated with a modern note, a performance by a rock and blues jazz band. The event which has been planned by a team of Huron Valley Council adults and Girl Scouts is called the Bicentennial Bash.

Twenty-five booths featuring demonstrations and displays of pioneer crafts such as candle-making, pioneer cooking, quilt piecing and tying, needlework, and making cornhusk dolls, rag dolls and calico flowers, will be visited by the campers. One booth will display Bicentennial costume dolls made by Gregory Cadette Troop 507, whose troop leader is Mrs. Edward Grumelot of 21110 Kaiser Rd.

Thirteen Bash activities include a Chuck Wagon Race, in which teams of Girl Scouts will race to build a fire and cook pancakes; a Soap Carving Contest, with prizes for most artistic sculpture; a Pony Express Relay, with girls racing with knapsacks on their backs and broomstick "horses" between their legs. Other events include a Brushfire Relay Race Contest, Compass Course, a Lassoing Contest, and International Folk Dancing.

The historic theme will be shattered at the campfire Saturday night, with a performance by a three-piece teen-age rock and blues band from Westland. The band is known as Eclipse.

Booths being prepared by Girl Scout troops from Washtenaw County include: Survival Foods (edible weeds) by Cadette Troop 143 led by Mrs. Dottie Crim of 8040 Saline-Ann Arbor Rd.; First Aid booths by Cadette Troop 90 led by Mrs. Claudia Stallings of 1539 Pine Valley Blvd., and Cadette Troop 235 led by Mrs. Rhoda (John) Green of 641 Louise Blvd.; a Freeze-out Workshop by Senior Troop 16 led by Ernest Nicolaides of 1120 Fountain; Candle Dipping by Cadette Troop 162 led by Mrs. Roxanna Hawker of 401 W. Hoover; and Cornhusk and Rag Doll Making by Cadette Troop 40 led by Mrs. Nancy (Lawrence) Krohn of 905 Robin Rd. Livingston county troops presenting booths at the Bash are: Cadette Troop 182 led by Mrs. Vickie Kudla of 2630 Bowen Rd.; Howell, doing a First Aid booth; Senior Troop 297 led by Mrs. Ethel Burch of 96 Meadowview, Howell, doing a Pioneer Cooking booth; Cadette Troop 152 led by Mrs. Julie (F.X.) Coughlin of 10437 Hickory, Lakeland, giving a String Craft booth; and Cadette Troop 419 led by Mrs. Jay Zemaitis of 2525 Beck Rd., Howell, doing a crafts booth.

Booths being readied by Wayne county troops include: a Fire-starters Booth by Cadette Troop 215 led by Mrs. Margaret (G.) Shearer of 30488 Prescott, Romulus; International Dancing by Cadette Troop 407 led by Mrs. Carol Raycraft of 44575 Thornapple in Northville; Calico Flower-making by Cadette Troop 321 led by Mrs. Mary (Albert) Tedd of 32500 Grandview, Westland; and String Art by Cadette Troop 588 led by Pat Sitz of 2225 Nixon Ave., Wyandotte.

Orville and Wilbur Wright were finally granted a patent on their airplane in May, 1906—21½ years after their historic first flight. The component parts for that plane were assembled in the rear of a bicycle shop owned by the Wright Brothers. The shop, along with the Wright family home, are now among the nearly 100 historic structures which trace America's past at Greenfield Village in Dearborn. Both buildings were moved to the Village from their original locations in Dayton, O.

Commander Richard E. Byrd and his co-pilot Floyd Bennett became the first men to fly over the North Pole on May 9, 1926. They accomplished their feat 15½ hours after taking off from their base at Spitzbergen, Norway. The triple-engine Fokker monoplane they used, the "Josephine Ford," is now a part of the aircraft collection at Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

ENERGY SENSE:

Opportunist Water Merchant

By Frank G. Zeth
Federal Energy Administrator

Once there was a family that lived upon land rich with water, but with only one well.

For years, a distant merchant had offered to bring water from his land and sell it to the family for mere pennies per barrel.

As long as the merchant brought water at so low a price, the head of the family could see no reason to spend his hard earned money or take the precious time to build more wells on his own land.

In the meantime, the family prospered. At pennies per barrel, there was plenty to drink, plenty to feed the livestock, plenty for the mill, plenty to sprinkle upon the children for summertime frolicking. Enough water so nobody cared if it was wasted.

Then one day the head of the family heard about a war in the land of the distant water merchant. And the water merchant stopped making his regular deliveries.

The head of the family grieved at this turn of events. Suddenly the water which he had always taken for granted became very precious. His family and livestock had to drink less, and his mill all but came to a halt.

The members of the family couldn't understand why the water they had always enjoyed was cut off. There was much confusion over what to do about the dreadful situation.

Then, one day the merchant came again. He explained to the head of the family that the war was over, that the family could again buy all the water it needed to prosper, but that it would now cost dollars instead of pennies per barrel.

The merchant said the higher price was necessary because water was the only resource available in his distant land, and he had to earn enough so his children's children could be comfortable once the wells in his land ran dry.

The head of the family was aghast. Even at full production, his farm did not earn enough to buy all the water it used to enjoy in the days before the cutoff.

The head of the family knew he was faced with the greatest challenge in the history of his farm.

Being a wise and resolute man, he sought council with his most knowledgeable friends. Then, he devised a plan.

In the short run, he would count on the members of his family to use less water, and would not waste one drop of water in the running of the farm. This way he could reduce the quantity of water he would have to buy from the water merchant to an amount he could afford.

In the long run, he would insure that never again would his family, his livestock, his mill or the prosperity of his farm be challenged by a lack of water. He would do this by taking the time and spending the money to build more wells on his own land.

Employment Placement Required for Schools Under Proposed Bill

Senator Gilbert E. Bursley (R-Ann Arbor) today introduced a bill which would require that local school districts establish employment placement services for students in the district (S.G. 610).

Bursley said, "The requirement of placement as an essential local educational service is consistent with The Common Goals of Michigan Education."

"As our schools move toward more emphasis on career education, it is a most appropriate time for this action to be taken. The placement services program would provide a valuable and necessary service for our schools."

"With enactment of the 1974 Career Education Planning Act and the concurrent establishment of local career education planning councils, local districts are becoming increasingly conscious of their responsibility to provide career placement as well as to meet the career education needs of students," Bursley said.

According to latest Veterans Administration statistics, California, with 3.22 million veterans, retained its rank in 1974 as state with the most veterans, followed by New York with 2.52 million, Pennsylvania with 1.76 million, Texas with 1.59 million and Illinois with 1.56 million.

Recreation Guide Issued By County Parks Commission

Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission (WCPARC) has updated the "Recreation Guide to Washtenaw County." This four-color brochure includes a map of Washtenaw county with an enlargement of the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area.

In addition to city, county, regional and state park areas, the Recreation Guide locates all private and public recreation facilities. These designated facilities include athletic fields, playgrounds, golf courses, private clubs, nature study areas, boating and fishing facilities, riding stables, camping areas—both individual and group—hunting facilities and fairgrounds.

The different map colors designate those facilities which are free for public use, restricted by membership or permission and open for public use by fee.

An information guide with telephone numbers of various recreation agencies and addresses of different map sources is also included in the updated Recreation Guide.

The map index organizes the information into groups of similar facilities, making the Recreation Guide easy to read and use.

To receive the 1975 Recreation Guide write WCPARC, Box 645, Ann Arbor 48107. Please enclose a ten-cent stamp with your request. Guides may also be received directly at all public libraries in Washtenaw county, Ann Arbor, Dearborn, Livonia, E. Liberty, St., Ann Arbor, and the WCPARC office, 2355 W. Stadium Blvd., Ann Arbor.

Students Hear Nature Lectures By Naturalists

An estimated 118,589 students in 320 schools throughout the counties of Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Livingston and Washtenaw participated in the 1974-75 "nature lecture series" presented by naturalists of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority during a five-month period ending March 31, 1975.

Seven park naturalists traveled to schools where they provided lectures, mostly to large assembly groups.

Participation by county, schools and number of students is as follows: Wayne county, 173 schools and 56,428 students; Oakland county, 62 schools and 29,353 students; Macomb county, 64 schools and 25,147 students; Washtenaw county, 12 schools and 5,515 students; and Livingston county, 12 schools and 2,156 students.

This service is offered to schools without charge annually from Nov. 1 through March 31, with appointments made through the Detroit Office; (Phone 861-5865).

Private giving to the U. of M. in 1973-74 totaled more than $28 million. Contributions are made through a variety of means: (a) benefactors—at least $10,000 annually or a total of $100,000 or more; (b) Presidents' Club—at least $1,000 annually or a total of $10,000 or more; (c) Michigan Annual-Giving Program—more modest but important amounts; (d) corporation and foundation support; (e) funding programs of various schools, colleges, and departments; (f) deferred gifts, endowments, and bequests; and (g) capital campaigns.

Environmental School Scholarships Available to

The Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District will sponsor local teachers to the Higgins Lake "Teacher's Environmental School." Several five-day sessions will be held during the summer for administrators, youth leaders and teachers.

Interested teachers should call the Washtenaw county SCD at 761-5721 to apply for the scholarships before May 20. Scholarships cover room and board while the teacher attends the session. A $20 deposit and course fees ranging from $31 to $90 is the teacher's responsibility and is not a part of the scholarship.

Material, lectures, field trips and discussions at the school are all focused on providing teachers with understanding on critical issues dealing with the relationship between man and his environment. Teaching techniques will be discussed by teachers who have put them into practice, and special emphasis will be placed on relevant programs for the metropolitan areas where most of us live.

The staff will be composed of resource persons from sponsoring universities, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, industry, and frequently from other state agencies.

Graduate or undergraduate credit may be earned from the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Eastern Michigan University or Western Michigan University.

This credit may be transferable to any Michigan college or university.

The school is located at the Ralph A. MacMullan Conservation School on the north shore of Higgins Lake. The wooded site includes a bathing beach and a variety of recreation facilities. There is free time daily for teachers to pursue their own interests. The five-day session is fun, informal and educational.

Auto Club Publishes New Color Map of Washtenaw County

A new, color map showing all streets in Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti on one side and all Washtenaw county roads on the reverse is now available to Automobile Club of Michigan members.

The map also shows streets and building locations on the campuses of the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University, states Carl Arvin, Auto Club Ann Arbor manager.

This is the first time that Auto Club has published a two-color map of major cities in Washtenaw county, Arvin said. The Club is now in the process of updating its city maps and converting them to color. The map of Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti is the first in a series of 12 now being converted to color.

Group Wins 5 Firsts In Special Olympics

Traveling to Monroe at 6:30 a.m. is no easy feat. Saturday morning, Chelsea's Special Olympics bowlers rose to the occasion and met their competition from Monroe, Livingston and other Washenaw county schools bright-eyed and bushy-tailed. The group returned to Chelsea with five first place blue ribbons.

Patty Brady took first place in the girls 16- to 17-year-old Division I. After three games, Patty's handicap total was 421. Kathy Buck's total score of 472 won her a first for the girls 18- to 19-year-old Division I competition.

Ron Miller won another first adding to the excitement of his teammates from Chelsea. Ron placed in the Division IV with a score of 477. His high game for the event was 166. Another first placer was Glenn Passow, who took his blue ribbon with a score of 509.

Winning second place in the mens 20- to 29-year-old Division I was John Winans, whose total score was 462. His high game of 145 was the game that "really pushed him over the third-place winner," said his coach, Nancy Oswald.

A junior high school student, Lori Miller, scored a 406 in the girls 10- to 12-year-old division to receive an honorable mention.

Taking third place in the girls 16- to 17-year-old Division II was Mary Landwehr. Mary rolled the ball to take the place with a score of 418. Kathy Young took another third in her division, the girls, 20- to 29-year-olds. Her three-game handicap total was 354.

A newcomer to the sport of bowling was Chris Williams, who despite his debutante's handicap placed third in the boys 14- to 15-year-old Division I, scoring 337. In the same division, Leonard Carlson received an honorable mention third.

The boys from St. Louis school came up with some very real competition reported Coach Oswald to beat Leonard's score of 433. Mike Foster also faced the boys from St. Louis, but managed an honorable mention third with a score of 351.

Altogether Chelsea's Special Olympians fared well at the Monroe Bowling Olympics, returning home with a total of nine awards and three honorable mentions.

RICK SWEENEY comes to a halt following his first-place run in the 120-yard high hurdles event. Sweeney ran the event in a time of :16.4.

JV Trackmen Fourth In Tecumseh Relays

Chelsea's JV trackmen displayed a number of fine performances at the Tecumseh Relays held Friday, May 9, where the Bulldogs tallied points to place fourth among 12 teams.

Tecumseh took first place with a score of 76, leaving a wide margin between them and second-place Temperance Bedford who scored 47. Dundee took third with a score of 40, and Saline and Chelsea were neck and neck, but the Bulldogs triumphed to place fourth just one point ahead of their Salinian opponents with a score of 28.

The high jump relay of Greg Reed and Chris Steinaway took first place. Reed's jump of 5'4" and Steinaway's of 5' were tops to beat all contenders from the 12 schools.

Scott Powers and Bob Ball tossed a 44'3" and 42', respectively, in the shot put relay for a victory there.

1:46.1 was the time clocked for the 440-yd. relay team of Greg Reed, John Whitaker, George Bentley and Alan Augustine. The boys ran this one for second place.

In Monday's meet junior high tracksters swept by an undefeated Brighton team with a score of 74-58. The Bulldogs victory was due to some strong field events and some excellent performances by its relay teams.

Their coach said, "The mile relay deserves special recognition as they won for the first time this year to secure the meet and in the process cut their best time by a full 10 seconds. The team of Scott Beyer, Bill Moore, Barry Scott and Jeff Smith ran the mile in a fine time of 4:20.0. Other Bulldog winners were Joe Verway, Bob Ball, John Whitaker and Alan Augustine who ran the 880-yard relay in 1:52.5. The 440-yard relay team of Jeff Scriptor, Chuck Young, John Whitaker and Alan Augustine placed with a time of :53.7.

Greg Reed continued his phenomenal success by running his best time for the year in the 100-yard low hurdles. He sprinted the distance in a time of :12.8. Reed also swept both the pole vault and high jump events.

In the pole vault, Jim Leach placed second with a personal best of 8' and Dave Stock took third with another personal best of 7'6".

Other winners were Bob Ball in the shot put, 42'11"; George Bentley in the 220-yard dash, :26.8; and Joe Verway who ran the 60-yard dash in a personal best time of :7.4.

The Bulldogs now stand at 4-2 on the season and closed out their '75 season Wednesday with a home meet against Stockbridge.

First Bike Built in 1819

The first bicycle appeared on the streets of New York City on March 21, 1819. An importation from England, the vehicle was considered such a hazard that a few months later, the city fathers passed a law forbidding "the use of velocipedes in public places and on the sidewalks of the city." An intriguing variety of early bicycles including the unusual 10-man "Orin," high-wheel "ordinaries," tandems and the forerunners of today's bicycles, originally called "safeties," are on display in Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

4th Grades in Michigan Week Poster Contest

Fourth graders at both North and South schools are putting finishing brush strokes on posters illustrating "What I Like Best About Michigan," in final efforts to ready them for Friday's judging.

The poster contest is one of the attractions to be featured in the upcoming Michigan week.

Friday's judging will take place at both North and South schools. One teacher from each school, Bob Riemenschneider and Doug Sprague will judge the students' works, selecting first and second prize winners from each school.

Cash awards will be presented to the children Monday, during Mayor Exchange Day, when Chelsea's Mayor for the Day will be participating in festivities held at the Chelsea Methodist Home.

The community will have an opportunity to judge for themselves which posters best reflect Michigan, as all the works will be displayed in local stores next week.

Workshops Slated on Child Development

An oblong golden colored pamphlet with a simple logo semi-encircling its message, "how to help kids discover THE BASICS behind building skills, changing behavior, enjoying life."

The pamphlet is one which people interested who work with, play with, and care for kids will receive upon inquiring about the Huron Valley Institute's series of training workshops for parents, grandparents, teachers, social workers, clergy, medical personnel, psychologists, camp counselors and anyone who is interested in helping kids.

The workshops, conducted by Adrienne Ressler and Alex Workman, professional educators and therapists whose work has centered around helping kids discover 33 basics for building skills, changing behavior and enjoying life, draw upon key concepts and principles from the fields of education, psychology, sports, theater, dance and music. What are they? Such things as positive attitude about oneself, that comes from self-assurance and confidence, security, fun, caring, curiosity, problem solving, reading, conceptualizing, co-ordination, readiness, flexibility, appreciation and the list goes on to include all those values and elements that complete a person.

What Adrienne and Alex hope to convey to the participants in these workshops are "how tos," ways to lay the foundations, the keys, the fundamentals, all those things that are essential for learning and growing.

The pair work through the presentation, discussion, demonstration of movies, slide films, illustrated children's books, transactional analysis techniques, theater, dance and musical activities, sports and physical fitness exercises.

These workshops are being offered as a series, once a week for five weeks, from May 20 through June 18. Although both Adrienne and Alex stress attendance at the entire series, for thoroughness and continuity of training, workshops may be attended on a per session basis.

Four series of workshops will be available, with two designed especially for those who work with children in professional settings. Registration for one of the four series or single session may be made through the Huron Valley Institute, 7155 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor 48103, or by phoning the institute at 761-1761.

Workshops will be held at the Campus Inn, on the corner of State and Huron Sts., Ann Arbor.

Police Nab Drag Racer On Wilkinson

Answering a complaint made May 6 that drag racing on Wilkinson St. was causing disturbance to local residents, Officer Dettling discovered that the owner of the vehicle under question was wanted by the Royal Oak Police Department for allowing an unlicensed driver to operate a motor vehicle.

Dettling learned of the warrant for the arrest of Eugene Kasmer Musical of Dearborn Heights, when he made a LEIN check on the subject's black Gremlin.

George Lovely, 517 Lane St., was Musical's passenger, when the check was made.

Musical was placed in the patrol car and transported to the station where bond was posted. He was then released and ordered to appear in 14th District Court before May 19.

Assistance in establishing disability claims or gaining other veterans benefits is available without charge to any veteran through a nation-wide system of veterans service officers, maintained by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. A portion of the cost is contributed by the public through their purchase of VFW Buddy Poppies.
