Girls Softball Team Ready For Dist. Play

Chelsea girls softball team defeated Dexter, 11-10, last Saturday in pre-district tournament play. The team will advance to the district tournament play this Saturday in Tecumseh. Winners of the two 10 a.m. games will play in a championship game scheduled for 12:30 p.m.

Leading the way to Chelsea's victory was Kathy Schmitke with a single, triple and three RBI's. Char Steina way followed Schmitke's lead with one hit and three RBI's. Brenda Salver pitched the first four innings for the girls and was relieved by Sue Heydlauff for the final three. Heydlauff struck out five Dreadnought players, allowing not a single earned run. Coach Ann Schaffner reports, "I was extremely pleased with the pitching of Sue Heydlauff who was brought up to the varsity for tournament competition from the junior varsity. Also worthy of special praise was the fine work of Alice Juergens, who caught the entire game."

She continued, "The girls were ready to play ball and had their best game of the season in the field, committing but two errors, both in the final inning. If we continue to play like that, things look promising for next Saturday."

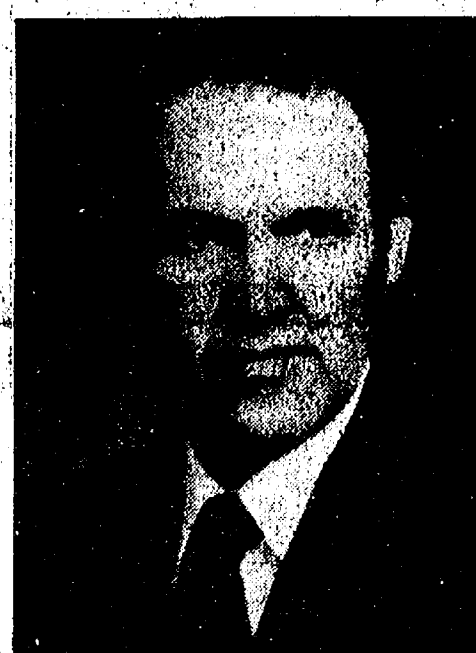

Jerald Heydlauff Named Honeggers Mill Manager

Honeggers' and Co., Inc., headquartered in Fairbury, Ill., announces that Jerry Heydlauff has been named Chelsea Operations Manager for Big H Feeds at the Chelsea plant.

Heydlauff replaced Peter Vogeler who recently resigned.

Baseballers Split Twin Bill With Dexter

Chelsea's Bulldog baseball players have wound up their 1975 season of play with a double-header played Tuesday evening against Dexter. In the first game of the season, the Bulldogs lost to the Dreadnoughts, 2-0, but were able to bounce back in the second game, 11-1, to defeat their opponents. Over-all record for the season's play stands at nine wins and 16 losses.

Bill Clark pitched the first game against Dexter on the home diamond, giving up three hits. However, Dexter used their hits well, though Chelsea outlived the Dreadnoughts, 6-3, but in the end were not able to get the needed key hit with men on base. Hitting for Chelsea were Todd Ortring, Randy Guenther, Joel Sprague, Tres MacCollum, Tim Reed and Bill Clark.

Todd Ortring had better luck, when he pitched the second game of the double-header. The Bulldogs took the win, 11-1, and hurled a three-hitter for five innings.

Jim Marshall led the hitting attack with a home run and a single with four runs batted in. Four other players, Todd Ortring, Joel Sprague, Don Nadeau and Tim Reed collected two hits. Coach Phil Bareis reported that both Marshall and Dale Schoenberg played a fine defensive game.

Prior to playing Dexter, the Bulldogs, had their confidence bolstered when they won both games in a double-header played against Milan last Thursday. Score was 10-3 and 8-7. Don Morrison pitched a fine three-hitter game, striking out five Big Reds. Hits by Dale Schoenberg, a home run and a single; Randy Guenther, a double and two singles; Joel Sprague, had three runs batted in.

Girls Softball Team Loses To Dexter, 9-8

A grand slam home run by Pearce of Dexter in the bottom of the seventh defeated Chelsea, 9-8, in their final conference game of the season.

A one-run margin separated the two teams throughout the game until Chelsea took the lead, 8-4, in the top of the seventh on a home run by Kim Moore, a single by Brenda Salver and two errors committed by the Dexter girls.

Starting pitcher, Sue Heydlauff went five innings and turned in a fine performance, striking out eight Dexter batters and allowing but one hit.

Cindy Armstrong and Kathy Schmitke each had a hit, a double and a single, respectively, and two RBI's.

Coach Ann Schaffner reports, "It was a tough one to lose. The girls played well."

This Saturday, Chelsea's female Bulldog ball players will travel to Tecumseh for their first district tournament game. The Tecumseh-Chelsea game is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m.

Girls Track Team Wins First SEC Conference Crown

What began as "not a good beginning," resulted in a triumphant ending for members of Chelsea's girls varsity track team last Friday, when they captured the first official Southeastern Conference girls track and field championship in history. It was an event that will never be matched, and the girls' track team is darn proud of it. And rightly so, for not only did they take the championship title and a gold and wood trophy with their name inscribed on it, the girls broke five school records.

Coach for the team, DiAnn L'Roy reported that following the field events, only 2 points had been tallied by the Chelsea girls. Chelsea was then fourth. "I called them together," she said, "and told them we had to do it." They heartily agreed and they did it, despite an injury sustained by Colleen Collins, who L'Roy remarked deserves special recognition. For she ran in three events, taking a first in the 880 relay, 1:49.1, a fourth in the 220-yard dash :28.8 and a second in the mile relay 4:13, all run with a sprained ankle. "That was the kind of team it was," said L'Roy with a triumphant and proud smile.

What clinched the meet for the girls was a factor of placing at least two members from the Chelsea team in every event. In some cases, "that can be as good as first for points," L'Roy said. However, it was the final two events that wrapped it up for the girls; a first in the mile relay and a second in the 440-yard relay put the title in their hands.

L'Roy said that following the mile relay, she tallied points and made an educated guess as to what the girls would have to do in the 440-yard relay to take the Conference title. "We needed at least a third," she said. They (team of Pearson, Treado, Gaken and Warren) ran the event in a record breaking :52.3 upping L'Roy's predictions by one place, taking second. "The relay teams really came through," she added.

Chelsea High school track teams closed out its dual season last Thursday, May 22 by downing Dexter, 81-42. Final over-all record for the Bulldogs now stands at 8-1 with a 7-0 standing in the Conference.

Chelsea entered the Conference Meet Wednesday at Milan with a two-point lead based on dual meets which count one-half of the over-all standing. The order of finish of each team in the Conference Meet will count the second half of a total point system, reports track Coach Kruse. Should Chelsea place first in the meet, The SEC title would be theirs; however, a second-place finish to South Lyon would create a tie for the title. The Lincoln team is also expected to challenge the contenders.

In the Dexter meet, held last Thursday on the Chelsea track, one-two finishes in the shot put, 100-yard dash, low hurdles and the two-mile run, plus a sweep of all three relay races gave Chelsea the victory with a wide margin. Dexter was hurt considerably, according to Coach Kruse, "by the suspension of several athletes including the best hurdler in the conference. They still put up a good fight and were closer than expected after the field events, but once the running events got to the Shelly Warren and Susan Frisbie were individual champions, taking first places in the 880-yard run and the 220-yard dash, respectively.

Total points tallied by the girls was 64. Novi placed second with 59 points and Brighton came in third with 56.

The girls should do well next year, if past results permit accurate prediction. Coach L'Roy won't lose a single one to jobs or college, and with a title like this one behind them, they are sure to be back in '76 to defend it!

low hurdles and the two-mile run it was all over. Fortunately these two events have put a lot of meets away for us this year," Kruse finished.

The Bulldogs broke one record during the course of the meet. The team of John Collins, Curt Winans, Kevin Kelly and Dennis Bauer ran a :46.3 in the 440-yard relay, breaking the old mark of :46.4 set last year.

Coach Kruse reported that the weather, high humidity and temperature may have prevented any one team from giving an exceptional performance. Kruse attributes the Chelsea win to over-all team strength and depth of the Bulldogs.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers at the country store Saturday night were talking about the old ways of doing things, and I was surprised that a heap of what they were saying made sense. Usual, they ain't a grain of salt big enuff to take what you hear at one of our sessions with.

Clem Webster was talking about a neighbor of his that won't buy meat. "It ain't that he don't like meat for his family, he does, but he prefers to raise his own. He was raising rabbits for fun and food long afore the price of meat went out of sight, said Clem, and he has allus had chickens and a few pigs around the place. He has kept crows as long as Clem has known him.

When food to grow a rabbit starting costing more than the selling price of a grown rabbit Clem said he went out of the rabbit business. The only way he says he can get his money out of his crows is to eat it out, so he does. Clem says he learned to butcher and he built hisself a good size walk-in cooler in his basement. One price squeeze led to another, Clem allowed, until this neighbor don't have time to do all the butchering that folks want him to do.

Actual, Clem reported, this feller and his family took the best of the old days and added the best of the new days. They got the advantage of deep freezers and plenty of hot water, and they got enuff land to take care of their meat and a big family garden. The feller's wife can and freezes just about everything that grows to eat, Clem said, and she is already organizing other women out this way to hold what she calls "co-op cannings" that give them a chance to get together and save on their food budgets in the bargain.

Ed Doolittle said he ain't one to harp about how good the good days was. "Fer his money, Ed allowed, he wouldn't trade indoor plumbing for what some folks like to call the simpler times, but he was strong in favor of doing what we can to get around the idea that we got to sell a steer for 16 cents a pound whole and buy it back in pieces at 41 cents a pound. Ed said he has listened to them Government economists argue whether we can save more on food by eating less or by buying more till he has decided our politicians and department fingerheads need a little help with this problem. Fer some reason Ed said he never has understood, folks think that between movie stars, ball players and politicians we can get the answer to everything. We have got to use to asking somebody we have forgot to ask ourselves, the only ones that really know anything about our problems, was Ed's words.

Personal, Mister Editor, I was disagreed with Ed. I saw this piece in the paper where the U.S. Department of Agriculture has put out a 358-page book called "Shopper's Guide" that is designed to help folks answer some of their own questions.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Michigan's Better Fishing Waters Listed in Catalog

Lansing—Stan Liveness, fish biologist and natural resource specialist for the Michigan Tourist Council, has completed a "Catalog of Michigan's Better Summer-time Fishing Waters." The comprehensive report lists species of fish, bodies of water in which they may be found and counties in which the lakes and-or rivers and streams are located. Fishermen may obtain a copy of the Summer-time Fishing Catalog by writing the Michigan Tourist Council, 300 South Capitol Avenue, Lansing 48913.

"Spoon or later, every red-blooded fly tying, lure coating, worm digging, cane pole fisherman is almost certain to feel the itch to try his luck in Michigan's fresh, clean waters," according to Liveness. "We've got an abundance of 'lunkers' as well as tasty panfish and respectable-size trout, salmon, pike and other favorite species just waiting for the bait. This report will tell the angler where to cast his line," Liveness added.

The catalog of "Michigan's Better Summer-time Fishing Waters" will be available in mid-April.

★ MICHIGAN MIRROR ★
By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

We're Cutting Back
Energy crunch in Michigan? There sure is. That's the thinking of at least half the state's residents. And fully 75 percent of Michiganders—including some of those who don't believe there is an energy crisis—say they've changed their use of energy in recent months.

Such are the findings of a scientific survey conducted for the Commerce Department by Market Opinion Research of Detroit.

Saving energy—whether it's people believe the crisis is real or just want to save money—takes various forms. Most popular among those surveyed was lowering the temperatures in their homes. Nearly 80 percent said they'd done that this winter.

In addition, the people said they:

- Drive more slowly (76 percent).
- Use their cars less (60 percent).
- Use less electricity in their homes (65 percent).

Those who don't believe there is a crisis say "big oil companies (are) rigging or raising prices," or the crisis is "just a way to make money" (38 percent).

Even so, the survey found Michigan residents more pessimistic this year about the energy situation getting better in the immediate future.

A similar survey in February 1974 showed 13 percent of Michigan residents expected the situation to change by springtime. This year, that figure dropped to 4 percent.

And 18 percent figure it will never change.

You're flying to London this Saturday and your passport hasn't come through yet? Don't panic. Just fly off to Chicago—or some other city outside of Michigan—where passports are issued directly through field offices.

Lots of trouble for us in Michigan, you say? Gov. William Milliken agrees. He's asked Secretary of State Henry Kissinger to approve establishment of a passport office in Detroit.

There already are 10 such offices in the country, but Michigan can boast nary a one of them. Milliken figures a passport-issuing office would be helpful to the estimated 90,000 Michigan residents who annually file for the documents.

And, he suggests, opening an office in Detroit might mean up to 25 new jobs for that city.

Apples to . . .
Mass plantings of crabapple groves in Alamo township, publication of a history of the City of Portage, restoration of a late 19th century lime kiln and subsidy for the Neeganegzhic Club of the Sault Ste. Marie area to perform native dances at Michigan festivals.

Such is the purview of the Michigan American Revolution Bicentennial Commission.

The above named projects were among a recent batch formally recognized—and some were funded—by the commission as it continues gearing up for celebration of the nation's 200th anniversary.

More than $272,000 in state and federal funds now have allocated by the Michigan group to support and assist activities "directed at reviving, refining and rededicating our faith in self-government."

The commission disperses money, and formal approval, of bicentennial projects at meetings throughout the state. The meetings, commissioners report, are aimed at better informing Michigan residents of anniversary plans.

"Fat Trout" Far Down
A word to Lake Superior sports fishermen from the Department of Natural Resources: Don't worry too much about "fat" trout. DNR spokesmen say the Sisowet, or fat strain of lake trout cited recently as containing high levels of a chemical compound (PCBs), seldom shows up in a fisherman's catch because it lives in deeper lake waters.

The "lean" type of trout found in Lake Superior waters contain well below the chemical content guidelines set by the Food and Drug Administration, reports John Hesse, a department biologist.

First Ford Displayed At Greenfield Village

Early on June 4, 1896, Henry Ford wheeled his first automobile out into the streets of Detroit. He built the car, which he called a "Quadricycle," in a brick shed behind his house at 58 Bagley Ave. There he labored for nearly three years—experimenting, improvising, changing—in a constant search for a workable machine. The success of that first test-drive encouraged Ford to continue his development of a car and, eventually, to the founding of the Ford Motor Co. The original "Quadricycle" is now on display in the Henry Ford Personal History Rooms at Henry Ford Museum. The shed stands in Greenfield Village and inside is Henry Ford's second car built in 1898.

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

During Michigan week, let's pay tribute to Michigan farmers for producing an abundance of fine foods to provide us with one of the most nutritious, versatile diets in the world.

Director B. Dale Ball of the Michigan Department of Agriculture says the total agriculture industry in Michigan is valued at nearly $5 billion, making it the state's second largest source of income.

In food production, Michigan leads the nation in six crops: red tart cherries, dry edible beans, pickling cucumbers, fine Eastern soft white winter wheat, rhubarb and blueberries; and is among the top five in the production of 19 others.

While many Americans have been complaining about food prices, at the same time we have enjoyed a varied supply of wholesome foods, unlike most other countries. In the last ten years, livestock production per man hour in the U. S. is up 60 percent, crop production 49 percent and the average yield per acre 19 percent.

Last year the average U. S. diet consisted of 200 pounds of fruit per person, 223 pounds of vegetables, 225 pounds of meat and poultry, 128 pounds of grain products such as cereals and breads, and 249 pounds of fluid milk, among other dairy products.

Thanks to mechanization, farming in Michigan, as in the other 49 states, has advanced tremendously in recent years. Major chores like planting, harvesting and milking are done with machines, permitting one farm worker to feed an average of 55 people.

Michigan farms are getting larger and more efficient. Average size is 154 acres. Most of the 80,000 farms in the state are family owned and operated.

appreciation presented to him by Legion Commander Bill Coltre. Watching Maroney's salute is Bill Coltre. Leaving the Maroney home is Officer for the Day and VFW member, Bill Pearce.

$300,000 in Bilingual Education Grants Are Now Available

The State Board of Education announced recently that $300,000 in grants have been made available to help get legislatively mandated bilingual education programs underway. The grants are designed to allow from four to six local school districts to establish pilot programs for training personnel who, in turn, will train teachers to set up bilingual education programs.

Wayne Dari-Blen Rations...

"New Concept" Feeds of the 70's

When a Wayne Dari-Blen ration starts working in the rumen, it keeps right on working... hours and hours longer than ordinary dairy feeds with only a single source of protein. Dari-Blen's offer multiple-source protein and other key milk-producing ingredients which work together to increase the level of Volatile Fatty Acids in the rumen. This is the "secret" of Dari-Blen's... the secret of top milk production.

Many dairymen want to "cash in" on the economy of non-protein nitrogen. If this is you... if you feed a medium level of milking ration, ask us about Wayne 42 Dari-Blen. It's 22 percent natural protein and 20 percent non-protein nitrogen. It's one of Wayne's NEW CONCEPT feeds of the 70's.

Draft Registration Not Now Required For 18-Year-Olds

For many years young men were required to register for the draft within a few days of their 18th birth date. The registration procedures, however, were changed on April 1, according to Arthur A. Holms, state director of Selective Service, and since that date no one can be registered during the remainder of the year, 1975. Although public announcements were made about this change in April, Selective Service offices are still getting calls from 18-year-olds asking if they still have to register.

Instead of registering within a few days of their 18th birth date, it is planned that they will register during a single annual registration period of a few days in early 1976. Any such new registration procedure would be announced by a Presidential proclamation at that time. A nationwide campaign would then be launched simultaneously to give information of the dates of the annual registration and the places where the young men would go to register. Men, therefore, should not attempt to register with the draft until next year when the new registration procedures are placed in effect.

Directory Issued Listing Roadside Markets in State

Distribution of the 1975 Michigan Country Carousels has begun, B. Dale Ball, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, reported today. This 16-page, four-color booklet describes tours of Michigan agricultural regions and agribusiness establishments throughout the state.

Published with the financial cooperation of the Michigan Tourist Council, the booklet includes a 16-page listing of roadside markets and farms where you may pick-your-own vegetables and fruits. Ball said this year's listing has increased by about 25 percent, and a new feature is a crop calendar showing approximate dates when harvest of 25 crops begins.

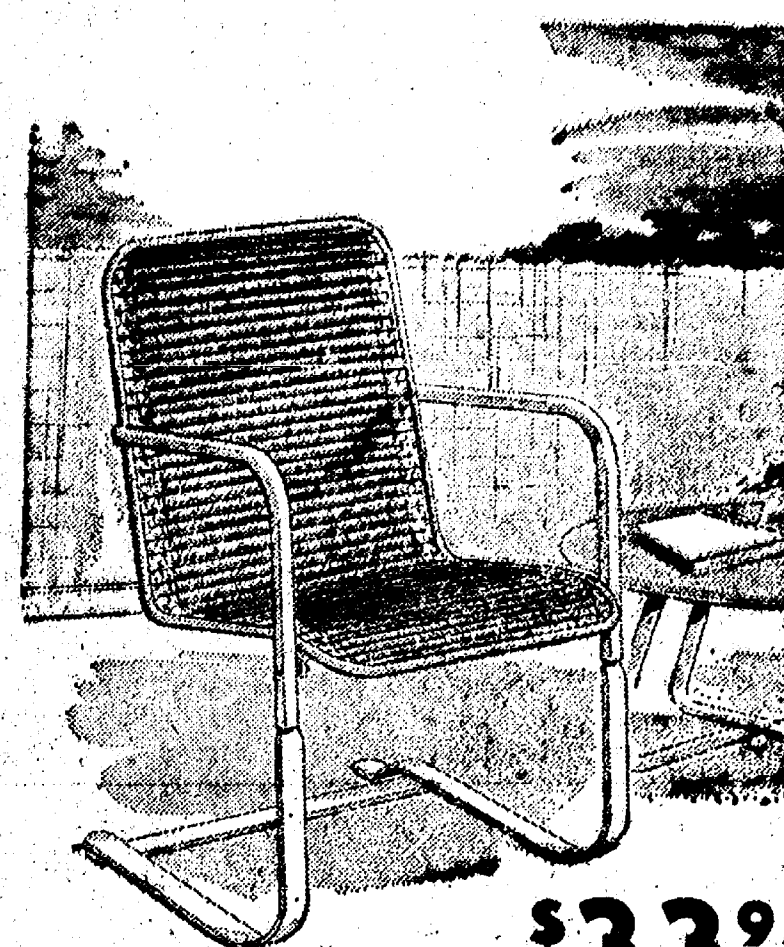

Copies are available without charge from the Information Division, Michigan Department of Agriculture, Lewis Cass building, Lansing 48913. A postcard request will reserve your copy.

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

Gather your gear and head for the great outdoors and the good life. Michigan's cookout season is officially here. Shift the cooking scene from your kitchen to the backyard or one of Michigan's beautiful parks. It's easy, exciting and fun.

You can make it safe, too, by storing foods properly while preparing and transporting them. Foods are safest when stored at temperatures above 140 degrees or below 45 degrees, according to Food Inspection officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Germs tend to thrive in foods held at warm temperatures and not adequately refrigerated.

Family favorites take on new appeal when prepared or served in the open air. Tender beef cooked over coals, savory pork and beans, fresh vegetable kabobs, crisp salad greens and zesty barbecue sauces are mouth-watering delights.

Need some tips for greater beef cooking ease? Marinate less tender cuts, like blade steak or bottom round, in your refrigerator four hours or overnight to make them more flavorful. To make a tangy marinade, combine one chopped onion, one cup catsup, 1/2 cup vinegar, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, crushed garlic clove, bay leaf and dash of hot pepper sauce in a saucepan. Cook slowly 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool, then pour over the steak in a utility dish or plastic bag, and refrigerate.

While charcoal-broiled burgers are always a treat, you may want to use versatile ground beef for such tasty picnic dishes as spicy tacos, miniature meat loaves or dollar-stretching casseroles.

For the big outdoor barbecue when you're expecting a large crowd, try grilling a foil-wrapped beef pot roast on the rotisserie. With these economical cuts, you'll get 2 1/2 to 3 servings per pound.

Ulysses S. Grant, our 18th president, was born in April, 1822. He first gained national fame during the Civil War when he advanced from the rank of Colonel to Lieutenant General in three short years. He went on to cap his military career by accepting Lee's surrender at Appomattox in April 1865. General Grant's beautifully carved Chippendale slant-top desk containing secret compartments to hold coins and medals, is now part of the collections of Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

Letters to the Editor

Editors Note: All letters to the editor must be signed. We cannot print letters signed by a concerned Chelseaite, person, etc. We welcome letters and will print what is received when the writer's name or signature is included. The name may be withheld from publication upon request, at the editor's discretion. However, the letter must always be identified with the writer's signature.

To the Editor:

An orchid to Mrs. Bernadine Hill for her letter in defense of Dr. Papo. His converting of the "peat marsh" to the beautiful arrangement of health facilities, now standing in a natural setting, is a true monument to a man who cares.

Chelsea and surrounding towns should be proud and thankful that Dr. Papo chose this area to fulfill his dreams.

Why is it that some people vote down ideas that can benefit senior citizens? There were many who were disappointed, when a "certain few" worked to kill the beautifully landscaped plans Dr. Papo had designed for the Burg property on Wilkinson. Evidently "some people" don't believe that they too, some day will become a senior citizen.

Mary Jane Lanning
N. Ft. Myers, Fla.

Dear Editor:

Seldom during one's life does he have such honor bestowed upon him as I received on Memorial Day.

Having been born in Chelsea nearly 81 years ago to parents who were also born in our Village, I have been privileged to have been elected to various village offices, including clerk for several terms and as village president; however, having been elected and appointed to many local, district and state offices in The American Legion, at no time have I ever felt so greatly honored as on this day.

I am deeply grateful to my Comrades of The American Legion, to the ex-servicemen who were in the parade, the members of the school band and the many friends and neighbors who stopped at my home and extended their congratulations.

It is indeed rewarding to be shown such honor and sincere appreciation as I was awarded and I am deeply grateful and thankful to each and all of you. Thanks, so much.

Very sincerely,
Paul C. Maroney.

TRPOF 718—

At our meeting we planned what we were going to eat, what we were going to sleep in, either a big tee-pee, or little tents for each patrol, and many other things. We are also going to have our sister troop out for Saturday afternoon. We are very excited about it.

TRPOF 688—

On May 21, Troop 689 planned the menu for camp. We wrote down all the supplies needed and made a grocery list. We are going to camp the first week in June.

Golfers Tie Brighton In League Meet Action

In Southeastern Conference play, Mike Fouty was medalist for the match, scoring a low 76. Brighton's Steve Golden took a second with a 78; third place was tied with scores of 81 between Milan's Marc Dingman, Chelsea's Dan Shrilla and Dexter's Doug Gross.

Among the Chelsea golfers, other low scores were shot by Jeff and Roger Policht who shot an 88 and 89, respectively.

In golf action prior to the SEC tournament match, the Bulldogs met St. Thomas for a nine-hole game played on the Huron Municipal Park course in Ann Arbor. Chelsea's golfers defeated their opponents, 161-188.

Once again, Mike Routy was medalist for the game, Jeff Policht shot a 40 and Dan Barnes and Vic Steinbach each shot a 42. Golf coach Pat Wade reported that Steinbach had a thrill when he shot a hole in one on a 182-yard hole while playing in last Wednesday's match. "I was real proud of the kids," he said.

And while he will lose two good golfers, Vic Steinbach and Dan Barnes, as they both graduate this June, Wade maintains, "we have a good nucleus for next year."

The golfers, as all other athletes who participated in spring sports this season, will be honored this Friday at 6:30 p.m. at the annual Spring Sports Banquet. A potluck dinner will precede the presentation of awards in the Chelsea High School auditorium.

Registration Dates Set for Summer Tennis Leagues

3. Women's Doubles—Select own partner. Suggest matches to be played on Thursday mornings.

4. Mixed Doubles.

5. Youth League—Boys and girls 18 years and under. When registering for a league, a commitment is made to attempt to complete all scheduled matches. Registration will be Tuesday and Wednesday, June 3 and 4 from 9 to 9 at 800 Book St. A $2 entry fee per league must accompany all registrations.

Tennis Court Regulation

Warm sunny days have brought heavy use to the four Chelsea area tennis courts by local participants. Thus the Chelsea Tennis Commission felt a review of the local court regulations was in order.

The co-operation of everyone is asked in observing the rules as posted at the tennis courts. In addition they are asking that children under 10 years of age do not use the tennis courts after 6 p.m. unless participating with an adult. The new lights on the North School courts are to go off at 10 p.m. automatically and should be turned off whenever the courts are not in use.

The racquetting procedure is a fair method of sharing and reserving court usage and will continue to be observed by all participants.

A player wishing to reserve the court for the next odd or even hour places his racquet on the appropriate peg on the racquet board for the court on which he wishes to play. . . left side of the racquet board is for odd hour play—3, 5, 7, 9, etc., and the right side is for even hour play—4, 6, 8, etc.

Playing time will be limited to one hour when others are waiting for courts and will always change each hour on the hour.

Courts may not be racquetted more than two hours in advance of the time you wish to play.

Only one court may be racquetted at a time.

An individual playing may not re-racquet a court until all persons who have racquetted courts

Indoor Tennis Court Facility Proposed

Area tennis buffs, gym enthusiasts, paddleball nuts and sauna fiends may find themselves in for a special facility now in the planning that will house four indoor tennis courts, two paddleball courts, a gym, a sauna and four outdoor courts, should zoning and construction site approval go through.

According to Dr. Dick Dykeman, a local orthodontist, who operates out of the Chelsea Medical Clinic, and heading up the organization that wants to build this facility in Chelsea, the club could be completed for the 1975-76 indoor season.

The group is hoping that they will receive approval by the zoning board and a conditional use permit so that they might begin construction on the 12-acre site located adjacent to the Medical Center toward the end of this summer.

Dykeman added that the organization, which he heads, is scheduled to meet with members of the Chelsea School Board and the Chelsea Recreation Council in an attempt to make the projected facilities available to both groups; for instructional purposes as well as leisure time play. "We hope we can make a mutually agreeable arrangement," Dykeman said.

Should approval for the club go through, a two-month time period has been allotted from groundbreaking to completion.

For further information, interested persons may write to P.O. Box 313, Chelsea.

CERTIFICATES OF SERVICE AND APPRECIATION commemorating 50 years of service to the American Legion were presented to Paul J. Maroney, a veteran of World War I and charter member of the American Legion, during Memorial Day ceremonies last Monday in Chelsea. Members of the Legion and VFW stopped by Maroney's home to bestow on him two framed golden certificates. Bill Coltre, commander of the Legion Post, is pictured with one of the awards presented to Maroney (seated).

CHELSEA HIGH SCHOOL BAND, under the direction of Warren Mayer, played in front of the E. Middle St. home belonging to Paul J. Maroney, following the presentation of awards for service and appreciation bestowed on Maroney by the American Legion.

'Charlie Brown' Musical Readying for June Show

Good grief! They've pulled those endearing moppets out of the "Peanuts" comic strip that appears to widespread delight in more than 900 newspapers daily, and put them into a musical show called "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown," that will be presented at Chelsea High School auditorium June 19-20-21.

This is the musical that, using the incidents and "balloon" dialog written by cartoonist Charles M. Schulz, scored an extraordinary run of four years in New York (from 1967 to 1971) and set long-run records in such other cities as Boston, San Francisco, Philadelphia and Los Angeles.

Charlie Brown, captain of the baseball team that has lost 999 consecutive games, and is every other way a never-stop-trying perpetual loser, and most of his ineffectually lovable backyard friends, will be transformed into live people by a cast of adults, who will act and sing and dance out a day in the life of the pint-size characters without trying to simulate children.

Howard Salyer will portray meek Charlie Brown, complaining about his "failure face," Michele McClear the termagant Lucy bemoaning her "crabbiness quotient," Rob Wenk the blanket-clutching Linus, Keith Pfeifle the earnest piano player Schroeder, Joan Yocum the blithely uncomplicated Patty who just loves to skip rope, and Jeff Daniels the fantasy-prone dog Snoopy, lying pensively atop his dog house, and dreaming swash-buckling dreams of hunting jungle animals and fighting enemy airmen, without benefit of a dog-suit.

The parade of the show's tuneful, ingratiating songs begins with a marchtime serenade of Charlie Brown by his chums—never mind his failures as a baseball player, as a kite-flyer, or with the mysterious little red-haired girl he can never get up the courage to speak to, he's OK. Charlie is grateful for this ill-deserved, consoling tribute, but his beaming willingness to believe his friends weakens as that neighborhood terror, Lucy, interrupts the song every few lines to remind him of his shortcomings.

Some of the other 13 songs of the show, with lilting music and witty lyrics by Clark Gasner, include the paean to Linus to "My Blanket and Me," Charlie's wry dirge about his kite (he can never get it off the ground for more than a minute) and "Dr. Lucy—the Doctor Is In," a duet of Lucy and Charlie in which she gives him psychiatric lessons about his failures for a five-cent fee.

Audiences will also hear Snoopy's singing report on his battles with his arch-enemy, The Red Baron, the entire company's cheering song as they watch still another disastrous baseball game, called "T.E.A.M.," and their Glee Club rehearsal number, as well as Lucy, Linus and Charlie warbling a set of juvenile misapprehensions which they misname "Little Known Facts."

Another of the show's numbers that has always kept audiences smiling is the "Book Report," in

The service is scheduled for Sunday, June 8 at 7:30 p.m.

This service is the response to the written request of the families of a number of the graduating seniors for the return to the more traditional presentation of the baccalaureate service.

All Chelsea band members are reminded that uniforms must be turned in. Dates for uniforms to be turned in are: freshmen, June 2; sophomores and juniors, June 3; seniors, May 29 and 30.

South School Fun Night Scheduled Friday, June 6

Friday evening, June 6 will commemorate the first annual Family Fun Fair and the fourth annual Ice Cream Social at Chelsea's South Elementary school. Fun and good eating will begin at 5 p.m. and last to 9 p.m. Prizes will be awarded, and an evening of fun for all has been planned.

Activities include a fish pond, clothespin drop, ring toss, guess-your-weight, rubber duck, chip toss, ball walk, apple dunk, basketball throw and a putting green.

Featured will be "the scariest haunted house," a helium balloon stand, and a popcorn stand. Other events will be a craft sale by South's very own creative art students, a second-hand book sale and a bake sale.

A noteworthy event will be the dunk tank, featuring Principal Sylvester Wojcicki, Officer Larry Yager and Jim Ticknor.

This year's Jamborette has tripled in size over last year and is being held at the Detroit Council's Charles Howell Scout Camp in Brighton. As of the first weekend in May, 17 troops and packs had registered with 196 scouts attending with 70 adult leaders and supervisors. The Jaycees expect 50-60 scouts from the local area in attendance to assist them as well as their Jaycettes and their local National Guard unit, the 1462nd Transportation Co.

Howell Jaycees provide for the camp, all meals Saturday, Sunday breakfast, scouting activities such as fire building and camping, fishing, B-B gun shooting, boating and pets, games, ribbon awards, a printed program and a Jamborette Patch. A minimal charge of $3 per scout or adult is charged to help offset the cost of the meals.

If you are interested in finding out more about the Michigan Jamborette write: Howell Jaycees, Dick Gehring, chairman 3rd Mich. Jamborette, 806 Oceola, Howell 48843. Or call (517) 546-5720 or work (313) 354-6030.

If you want information on handicapped scouting write: Lucian Rice, assistant director of school relations for handicapped Boy Scouts of America, North Brunswick, N.J.

Under the Dome
BY REPRESENTATIVE MIKE CONLIN

Before this year is over, Michigan has a good chance of enacting some of the strongest political safeguards in the nation against campaign abuses and conflicts of interest.

This is because of House Bill 5250, a 71-page political campaign control measure which was introduced early last week. The bill was developed by Republican and Democrat leaders in both the House and Senate, working with representatives from Common Cause and other interested groups.

Hopefully, this bill can be passed sometime this year in order to take effect for the 1976 elections. This bill covers nearly all government officials—elected and appointed—and establishes a political ethics commission with subpoena power to enforce campaign, lobbying and conflict-of-interest provisions. It requires disclosure of campaign contributions above $15, expenditures by lobbyists, and the financial interests of public officials.

It would make Michigan the first state in the nation to provide public funding for primary and general election gubernatorial campaigns. I have serious reservations about this aspect of the bill.

HB 5250 would limit candidates for governor from spending more than $1 million in both the primary and general election campaigns—a possible total of $2 million—and would provide a $300,000 limit for candidates for attorney general and secretary of state; a $100,000 limit for Supreme Court candidates; a $50,000 limit for state educational board candidates; a $30,000 limit for State Senate candidates; and a $15,000 limit for State House candidates.

Again, these limits would apply only to the primary election, then again to the general election. The bill would limit individual contributions for state-wide candidates to $1,700; for State Senate candidates, $450; for State House candidates, $250. Groups could contribute up to 10 times those amounts. All campaign financing would have to go through a single committee, whereas the current law allows several committees.

All contributions over $15 to candidates, fund-raisers or political committees would have to be reported by name and address. This is actually a higher "floor" than the current law requires, so it may be changed in committee. In fact, think it's obvious that a 71-page bill is not going to be passed in the exact form in which it was introduced, and that there will be many changes in the bill as it moves through the legislature. The package, as is, is not perfect but I hope enough improvements can be made to give us a good bill and a bill I can support.

I will be following the progress of HB 5250 very carefully, and I hope to discuss various aspects of it with you in the weeks ahead.

BILINGUAL TEACHER CERTIFICATION
The State Board of Education has adopted a report outlining a program to certify teachers in bilingual education. Last year, the Michigan Legislature enacted a law requiring school districts with 20 or more students of limited English-speaking ability to provide bilingual education programs by this fall.

Community School Programs Serve 1.1 Million
Lansing—The State Board of Education reported recently that 1.1 million Michigan children, youth and adults participated in community school programs offered by 180 local school districts during the 1973-74 school year. Community school programs provided 130 different services last year, primarily in the areas of recreation and education.

Ask THE GOVERNOR
by William G. Milliken
Question: Governor, I want to know why you haven't signed the unemployment compensation bill into law. The Legislature passed the bill a couple weeks ago. And those of us who are unemployed need these benefits badly. What's the hang-up?
Governor: I share your concern for the much-needed additional unemployment compensation, and I am as anxious as you to get a good bill through. But what I have before me is a bill that will do more harm to the people and the state than it is supposed to help. The bill allows those who have voluntarily quit their jobs and those who are fired for theft, assault, sabotage, drunkenness or other such misconduct to collect millions of dollars in unemployment compensation. These people represent 25 percent of the claims made. The correction of such abuses is necessary in order to finance greater benefits for those out of work through no fault of their own. Those who quit their jobs or are fired for certain misconduct presently forfeit six weeks of their benefit entitlement. I want that penalty extended to 14 weeks, with total disqualification for those discharged for assault, theft or sabotage. These changes would better serve the interests of both the employee and the employer. Furthermore, I want to make it clear that I am anxious to sign a bill that will increase the benefits for Michigan's jobless workers. The need is evident and I am determined that it will be met. However, I have proposed that the legislation providing the increased benefits be both equitable and affordable. It would be foolhardy to approve blanket legislation because they could tax out of business the industries that provide the jobs we so desperately need in Michigan. The aspect of equity is equally important in this legislation. The bill passed by the legislature provides for the same flat $30 increase to single workers as well as to workers with dependents. My recommended change is for a graduated scale with the larger benefits going to workers with larger families. My proposals represent a total reduction in costs of $138 million while at the same time meeting the serious needs of Michigan's unemployed in this time of economic hardship. This represents equitable and responsible legislation, which I could, without hesitation, sign into law. I currently am engaged in discussions with legislative leaders to seek a compromise. Question: School is out in a week, and I haven't been able to find a summer job. I know there are a lot of people out of work, but there are three times as many young people like myself who are without jobs. And, you know, there is nothing worse than a lot of jobless youngsters with too much idle time on their hands. I sure hope you and those other politicians are doing something about this.

'Oklahoma' Cast
which Charlie, Linus, Lucy and Schroeder alternately try to write, fake or entirely shirk the formidable assignment of a 100-word report on "Peter Rabbit" which their teacher has assigned. The show-stopper is "Happiness," sung by the children at the end of a long but happy day. Close second to that is Snoopy's big number, "Supertime," in which the first chirpily berates his owners for delaying his evening dish of food and then goes into a deliciously wild song and dance when it arrives—cavorting so joyously that Charlie has to remind him to eat. DiAnn L'Roy is directing this phenomenally popular musical that has brought to the stage the tender and often touching as well as funny sense of the ridiculous that has made "Peanuts" the most popular comic strip in American history. Neil Cockerline is designing the scenery for Charlie Brown's failures and final triumphs. Dexter-Huron (115 acres) and Delhi (45 acres) Metroparks are primarily picnic-playfield parks. They are a favorite picnic spot with family groups. Groups of 50 or more persons should contact the park office to arrange outings. Tables are on a first-come, first-served basis. Water and sanitary facilities are available. Camping by organized youth groups is available with permits ($5 per group per visit) issued at the Hudson Mills Office. No family camping is permitted in any HCMA Metropark. Washington to get some work projects implemented in our state. But the idea that culture is the last priority on the list of human needs is, I believe, a false idea. People always need the inspiration and beauty of art, literature, painting and music; and they need them more when times are hard than they do when times are easy.

Highway Fund Quarterly Payments Down Slightly

Motor Vehicle Highway Fund revenues for the first quarter of 1975 are now being distributed to Michigan's 83 counties and 531 incorporated municipalities, the State Highway Commission reported today.

In Jackson county the first quarter distribution amount for this year was $1,178,081 compared with $1,171,878 in the first quarter of 1974.

In Washtenaw, the amount was close to $400 less. For the first quarter of this year, the county received $1,311,610 compared to the $1,310,897 received during the first quarter of 1974.

In cities and villages, the first quarter distribution amounts compared for the same time periods are as follows:

Chelsea received $21,147 for the first quarter of this year, compared with $21,202 for the first quarter of last year.

Dexter received $10,402 in comparison with $10,422 the village received last year.

Ann Arbor received $558,960 in comparison with the 1974 first quarter figure of $558,329.

Grass Lake received $3,096 this year, and $3,126 last. In Manchester, first quarter distribution amounted to $11,913 for 1975, for 1974 it amounted to $11,950. Saline received $24,248 this year and $23,260 last. Ypsilanti amounts ran $132,088 and $131,637 for the first quarter of 1975 and 1974, respectively.

John P. Woodford, director of State Highways and Transportation, said net receipts of the Highway Fund for the January-February-March period totaled $169,721,218, a decrease of $128,429 from the first quarter of last year. The decline of one-tenth of one percent is the third consecutive quarterly drop.

Gross receipts from gasoline sales showed a modest increase of $569,003 over the comparable quarter a year ago and weight taxes (license plate fees) went up by $120,478. Revenues from diesel fuel sales dropped by $406,646.

The fund is generated by the state's tax on motor fuels and license plate fees. It is the major source of revenue for construction and maintenance of the state highway system, as well as financial assistance for roads and streets in the state's counties and municipalities. Revenues from one-half cent of the nine-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax go into the General Transportation Fund for state assistance to public transportation systems throughout the state.

The $169,721,218 to be shared by the state, counties and municipalities is the quarterly balance following deductions for the Waterways Commission (1.25 percent of the gasoline tax), the General Transportation Fund and administration and collection costs. Since 1969, $3.5 million has been deducted annually to subsidize the reduction of fares at the Mackinac Bridge.

According to a formula established by the legislature, 44.5 percent goes to the Department of State Highways and Transportation; 35.7 percent to the state's 83 counties; and 19.8 percent to the state's 531 incorporated municipalities.

Under this formula, the Highways and Transportation Department is receiving $75,525,942 as its quarterly share. The counties are receiving $60,590,475, and the municipalities $33,604,801.

Many Flags for Colonies

Congress adopted the Stars and Stripes as the official U.S. flag on June 14, 1777. But before that many banners had flown over the colonies—the British Union Jack, the green pine tree, a coiled snake on a yellow ground and the cross of St. George. Some of these once official flags and others which trace our star-spangled banner's history from 1607 line the mall approach to the Independence Hall entrance of Henry Ford Museum.

Wood Ducks Need Help To Survive

Wood duck populations have been threatened during recent years, and many members of Michigan's public have built nesting boxes to help these colorful waterfowl.

Wood ducks are fussy characters, and their desires have to be catered to. Nest boxes should be placed on poles at marsh edges or on trees near swamps or other water. The wood duck is a late migrant and does his Michigan nesting in May and June.

Formerly, they nested mainly in hollow trees. There were plenty available, and raccoon populations weren't so high as now. Raccoons, squirrels, snakes and certain other predators are the wood duck's biggest headache.

So the problem nowadays, when good forestry practices keep holding trees from developing, is to provide the proper, safe sort of nest for the handsome wood duck and his mate.

The Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District has information and designs for building a Wood Duck Nest Box. These are designed to keep the eggs in and the predators out of the nest. Contact the Washtenaw County SCD at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor, or call 761-6721.

Picnicking is one of the most popular activities at the Metro-parks. Groups of 50 or more persons should register in advance at their favorite Metro-park office. The park can help you select the best picnic site available for your group outing.

On June 14, 1775, the United States Army was established by act of the Continental Congress.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

★ The Shot Heard Around the World

(Guest Column by Jim Phillips)

It was the spring of 1775—200 years ago. On the night of April 18 on the banks of the Charles River, across from Boston, a man waited. Suddenly a lantern shone from a window in the steeple of Old North Church in Boston. Recognizing it as the signal he had been watching for, the man leaped into the saddle of his waiting horse and galloped off into the night—and into the pages of history.

The man was Paul Revere. He rode through the night, pounding on farmhouse doors, shouting the cry of alarm: "Lamps flashed on as wives quickly prepared food while their menfolk speedily pulled on clothes and lifted muskets and powder horns from their walls. Then the men were off across the fields to join their friends and neighbors.

Meanwhile, British troops were marching and arrived at Lexington at dawn on April 19, 1775. The farmers and villagers Revere had warned the night before were there ahead of them and were gathered in ranks on the village green. The British commander ordered the colonists to drop their guns and leave the green. The colonists kept their guns, but started to leave when someone fired a shot. Immediately, without waiting for orders, the British troops fired several volleys. When it was all over, eight colonists lay dead and 10 others were wounded, and America was embarked on a course that would forever change the history of the world.

One of the British commanders paid tribute to the immortal "minutemen" with these words: "Whoever looks upon them as an irregular mob will find himself very much mistaken. Nor are several of them void of a spirit of enthusiasm . . . for many of them advanced within 10 yards to fire at me and other officers, though they were morally certain of being put to death themselves in an instant." Ralph Waldo Emerson remembered them with this inspired verse: "By the rude bridge that arched the flood, Their flag to April's breeze unfurled: Here once the embattled farmers stood, And fired the shot heard round the world."

As America is about to enter its third century as a free and independent country, let today's farmers be proud of their heritage and the role farmers played in the establishing of this great country. Let us carry the spirit of enthusiasm and love of freedom of the colonial farmers on to the tricentennial.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

FOURTH GRADE—

Teacher: Mrs. Schmidt
Reporter: Tracy Young

Bonny Faircloth and Mary Smith have birthdays this month. The safety boys and girls will be going to a Tiger baseball game on May 31.

We went to the Detroit Institute of Arts on a field trip. We saw many kinds of art from Egypt, Africa, Japan, China, and America and they were interesting.

Brent Martin won first prize for the Michigan Week poster.

Shelly Tibb sold 22 packages of popcorn. Marie Sullivan, Kathy Haydock, Cindy Connell, Shelly Tibb, Kim Boyd and Jeff Haist won the 75-yard dash. Tommy Hill, Mike Brown, Kim Boyd and Kathy Haydock won the running board jump.

Teacher: Mrs. Hafer
Reporters: John Packard, John Simonson

About one month ago our class planted peanuts. We had trouble with some and replanted. Paul Frame's mother brought a baby goat. It was small but it was noisy. It was fun to watch. Mrs. Haist brought in a baby racoon. It was furry and soft. It was fun to pet.

In art we made ceramic pieces. It was messy but they turned out good.

One week ago Beth sprained her ankle when she was playing at recess. She did not come back to school for three days and now she is on crutches.

Susan Ford brought in a fetal pig brain from a pig that was born too early.

Amy Hume had her arms in two casts. She has them off now.

Wednesday, we went to the Detroit Art Museum. We saw coats of armor and mummies and lots of other things.

Mike Galbraith went to the Young Authors Convention in Dexter. In social studies we are studying the Netherlands and are going to taste Dutch Edam and Gouda cheese; also some of Mrs. Hafer's home-made cheese.

Chris Seitz and Donna Bowling won the popcorn contest, and got a 50-cent certificate from McDonald's and a wooden puzzle.

THIRD GRADE—

Teacher: Mr. Smith

Well, we are in our last day of achievement tests and boy are we glad. We are all ready for the end of the school year.

We had a big surprise on Monday when we got back to school this week. Our gerbil had three babies about six weeks ago, and Monday we found six newborn baby gerbils. They are three days old now. For awhile we had 11 gerbils running around in a nice new cage that Mr. Smith built. We gave two to Scott Richardson and one to Amy Finkbeiner who is in Miss Saunders' room. When the six newborn pups get old enough by the end of school, we are going to give them to Joe Pax, Valerie Keleman and Scott Poquette, who are all in Mrs. Lawver's room. Maybe we should start a pet shop.

We also had another big surprise this week. We have been studying animals. Mary O'Quinn brought in what we thought was a racoon about two months ago. She left it in her desk. Yesterday she happened to look at it and about 20 little bugs were crawling on it. The next morning there were about 100. We found out they were praying mantis. She let them all out in the woods so they would help the balance of nature, and again today there are 100 more little ones. We are going to let most of them go and see if some will grow for us.

Happy Birthday to Kelly Barkley on Friday, May 23, and we hope you all have a good summer. So long.

Attend Amana Meeting

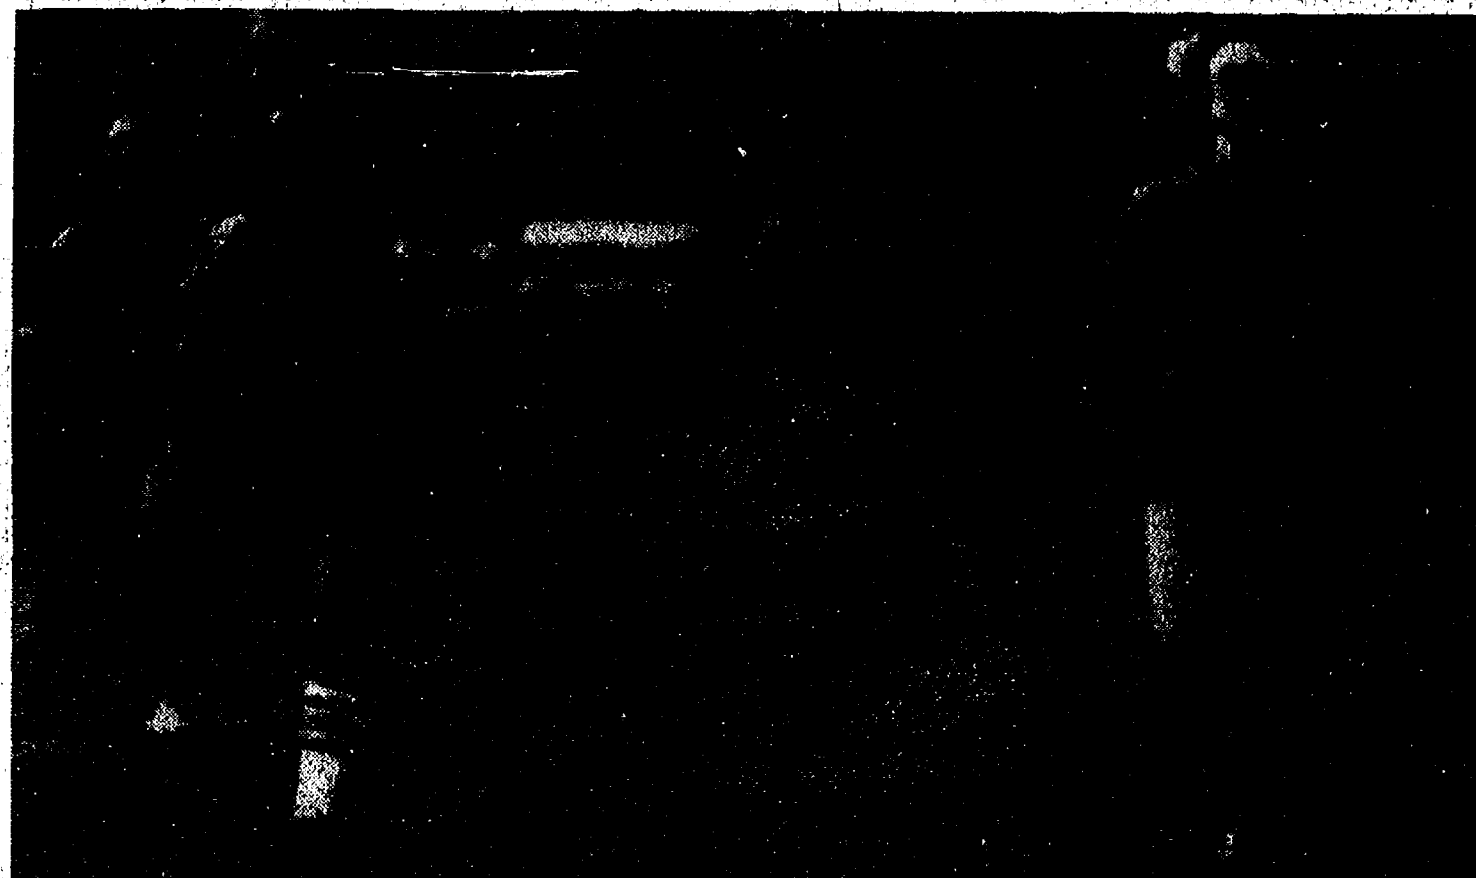

Mark F. Heydlauff and George F. Heydlauff recently attended a special three-day conference for Amana Refrigeration, Inc., retailers at the company's Amana, Ia. general offices. The retailers were shown Amana's 1975 line of 11 models of high efficiency room air conditioners, and were given a presentation on the V.I.P. Customer Service Program. During their visit, the group met with Amana's marketing and service executives, toured the plant, and had an opportunity to savor the old world cooking in the Amana Colonies' famous family style restaurants.

Girls Track Schedule

May 31—State Meet.
All home meets begin at 4 p.m.

SETTING A NEW SCHOOL RECORD: Shelley Warren (far right) ran a time of :62.4 in the 440-yard run to break the school record and mark up a new one in her own name. Shelley took third in the event at the SEC meet held last Friday on the Chelsea High school track. Teammate Angie Merkel (middle) missed a tie for third by one-tenth of a second with a time of :62.5. Coming in (left) is Carolyn Schardein, who took fifth place with a time of :64.2.

Huron River Program Set

Ann Arbor—"State of the River"—an Update on Huron River Water Quality from the State Perspective" will be the topic of the Huron River Watershed Council's annual meeting to be held Thursday, May 29. The meeting, which is open to the general public, is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the Henderson Room of the Michigan League, on the University of Michigan campus, Ann Arbor.

Speakers for the informational program will be William McCracken and John Bohunsky from the Bureau of Water Management's (DNR) Water Quality Control Division. A question and answer session will follow the presentations.

In announcing the meeting council executive secretary, Owen Jansson, cited the need for an accurate assessment of current water quality conditions in the river as a yardstick to measure the adequacy of pollution control programs and their enforcement. He further noted the importance of discussing water quality goals in terms of their compatibility with continued growth and development.

The Huron River Watershed Council is an intergovernmental agency designed to promote co-operation and co-ordination between units of government on water resource issues, and to keep the total watershed public informed.

For further information on the meeting or on the Council and its activities, contact Owen C. Jansson, Huron River Watershed Council, at 665-0514.

Mrs. Lyle Chriswell, Jr., and Mrs. Lyle Chriswell, Sr., were in Mt. Pleasant recently to attend commencement at Central Michigan University. Their niece and granddaughter, Pamela Boyle, a former Chelsea resident, received her Bachelor of Science degree. An open house was held at Miss Boyle's apartment following the graduation service. Miss Boyle will attend Boston University in the fall.

Area Students Initiated into MSU Honorary

Michigan State University chapter of Phi Kappa Phi recently initiated 350 new members.

Among those honored were Jane Haselschwardt and Charles Lane of Chelsea, and Janet Fyfe of Dexter.

Phi Kappa Phi is a national honor society which recognizes and encourages superior scholarship in all fields of study. To be eligible for Phi Kappa Phi, juniors must be within the top 1.5 percent of their class and seniors must be within the top 7 percent.

At the Phi Kappa Phi dinner held May 6, 203 seniors, 79 juniors, 62 graduate students and six faculty members were admitted to the honorary. Gov. William Milliken was made an honorary member.

Founded at the University of Maine at Orono in 1897, Phi Kappa Phi now has 173 chapters and a membership of 300,000. The MSU chapter was chartered in 1927.

Can they afford the monthly payments on your home?

Suppose your wife had to do it on her own. Chances are she couldn't afford those monthly payments and preserve your estate as well. Unless, of course, you plan for it now—with our "altogether" mortgage insurance. Because it has a fixed term and covers only the amount of your mortgage, it won't cost as much as you might think. Give us a call now. You don't have to buy a new house to be eligible. You're eligible anytime. Altogether Insurance—to help the family stay all together.
