

Summer Earn, Learn, Play Program Begins Tuesday

Chelsea's Recreation Council, headed by Tom Balistrere, is designed to serve your family's needs... and one of the many ways the Council hopes to accomplish this is through their EARN, LEARN and PLAY program instituted by Balistrere last summer and now in its second season.

Earn, Learn and Play is offered to all the children of Chelsea who are 6-14 years of age.

It is specifically designed to try and serve the wants and needs of Chelsea's families and children, says Balistrere. Each aspect of the program is designed to fit neatly into the other two, pulling them all together like pieces of a puzzle; instilling wholesome ideas through earning, learning and playing.

The program will be operated on a Monday through Friday basis, (the only exception is Friday, July 4, when because of the holiday, a program has not been scheduled) from Tuesday, June 24 through closing ceremonies on Aug. 1.

A typical day in the life of a child whose parents choose to enroll him or her in the program will be as follows:

9-10 a.m. — EARN. Children will earn 25 cents a day for their participation in the small jobs which work crews perform for the community such as painting, picking up litter, etc. The children must be on time and work conscientiously in order to receive payment for their jobs. This part of the program is designed to help the child learn responsibility, learn to interact in a social work situation and recognize his capabilities in performing a particular task. 10-11 a.m.—LEARN. A variety of activities are offered so that each child may improve in his/her own interest area. Such things as nature, arts and crafts, baton, music, remedial math and reading (pre-registration is necessary for the math and reading program by phoning Balistrere at 475-8511) among others will be available. Tennis for children is offered in the afternoon so as to avoid conflict with the other parts of the program. Tennis enthusiasts should contact Terry Schreiner at 475-2536. Swimming classes are also part of the program and may be had through pre-registration with Nancy Oswald Porath at 498-2679. 11-12 a.m.—PLAY. Free and group play activities will be organized for all interested children. 12-1 p.m.—LUNCH. (Further details about the lunch program being offered will be given during registration.) 1-3 p.m.—FREE SWIM. A bus will leave from South school,

The entire program will be based at South school. Registration will be held there Monday, June 23 from 9-12 noon and from 1-3 p.m. A fee of $3 will be charged for the program entitling children to participate in all or part of the schedule. Persons wishing more information on Earn, Learn and Play may call Balistrere at 475-8511.

Window Breaker Sought By Police

There has been an abundance of rock throwing and window breaking around Chelsea lately. According to village police reports, there have been five separate incidents in the past week. Evidence in three of the breakings in the form of footprints has led police to believe there may be a possible relation to the breakings.

However, there are no witnesses and neighbors in the area have not reported hearing noises that would be created by the sound of breaking and shattering glass.

On June 14 three windows on the north side of the auto shop at Chelsea High school were reported broken. Sgt. Leonard McDougall discovered the broken windows while on routine patrol. According to McDougall's report, the windows, valued at $160 appeared to have been broken with rocks.

The following day, three more incidents of window breaking were reported to village police.

The first at Beach Middle school was reported by Jack Kanitz of Towler Notar, mechanical contractors out of Ypsilanti. Kanitz told police that the windshield on the 1972 Ford dump truck belonging to the company had been broken. According to Kanitz the hood of the vehicle was also damaged in addition to the window valued at $95. The truck was located at the southwest side of Beach Middle school.

Two sets of boy's tennis shoe prints were found near the building. A separate set of barefoot prints belonging to a boy of approximately the age of 12 and a set of dog prints were also discovered nearby.

Angus Ferguson, supervisor of the Construction Co-ordinators, Inc., reported to police the same day that a 12"x44" window in a trailer used by the company as an office had been broken. Similar footprints were found near the building.

Navy Ensign Jeffry Bust Graduates from Academy

ENSIGN JEFFRY D. BUST

Navy Ensign Jeffry D. Bust, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bust of 116 E. Summit St., was commissioned in his present rank upon graduation from the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

He also received a bachelor of science degree upon completion of the school's four-year curriculum; during which he majored in mechanical engineering.

Part of Jeff's training included two tours of duty aboard Navy ships, the USS Schreveport and the USS Longbeach. Following his first year at the academy, Jeff went on a tour of duty to Europe on the Schreveport.

Jeff reported that of the eight weeks at sea, three of them were spent on land with liberty to four Denmark, England and France.

Last summer, Jeff toured the western Pacific Coast aboard the Longbeach, based in Seattle, Wash.

He was assigned as a Junior Division Officer in charge of 35 men. Jeff was under the direction of a commissioned officer, however, his duties included surveying, painting and chipping of the paint aboard ship. As all the men aboard, Jeff was required to become acquainted with all parts of the ship and to stand bridge watch.

A 1971 graduate of Chelsea High school, Jeff was captain of the football team his senior year. At the Naval Academy, he was a member of the boxing team.

The Academy is fully accredited and offers a wide variety of academic majors. Its specific design is to prepare students for duty as Navy or Marine Corps officers, emphasizing leadership, self-confidence and responsibility.

In addition to their classroom studies, all students participate in an extensive physical fitness program and undergo summer training aboard Navy ships at shore stations as Jeff did for two summers.

Jeff will attend the Nuclear Power School in Orlando, Fla. this fall.

Jaycee's Annual Rummage Sale Slated June 28

Professional Auctioneer, Loren Fletcher of Stockbridge, will be on hand Saturday June 28 at the off numerous articles of rummage Chelsea Fairgrounds to auction collected by the Chelsea Jaycees.

The Jaycee's rummage sale will begin at 1 p.m. Rummage articles are still needed for the sale. Those persons with donations may call Bob Jones 475-2822, Jerry Kraus 475-1686 or Bruce Messing at 475-7026, to have them picked up.

Fair's Arts, Crafts Dept. Expanded

Superintendents of the Community Arts and Crafts Department of the Chelsea Fair would like to encourage everyone to exhibit their talents and hobbies this year. The fair will take place Aug. 26-31.

Premium booklets will be available for the first time this year listing all divisions and regulations. A notice will appear in The Chelsea Standard when the free programs are ready and where they may be obtained.

More sections have been added to the department and existing sections have been expanded.

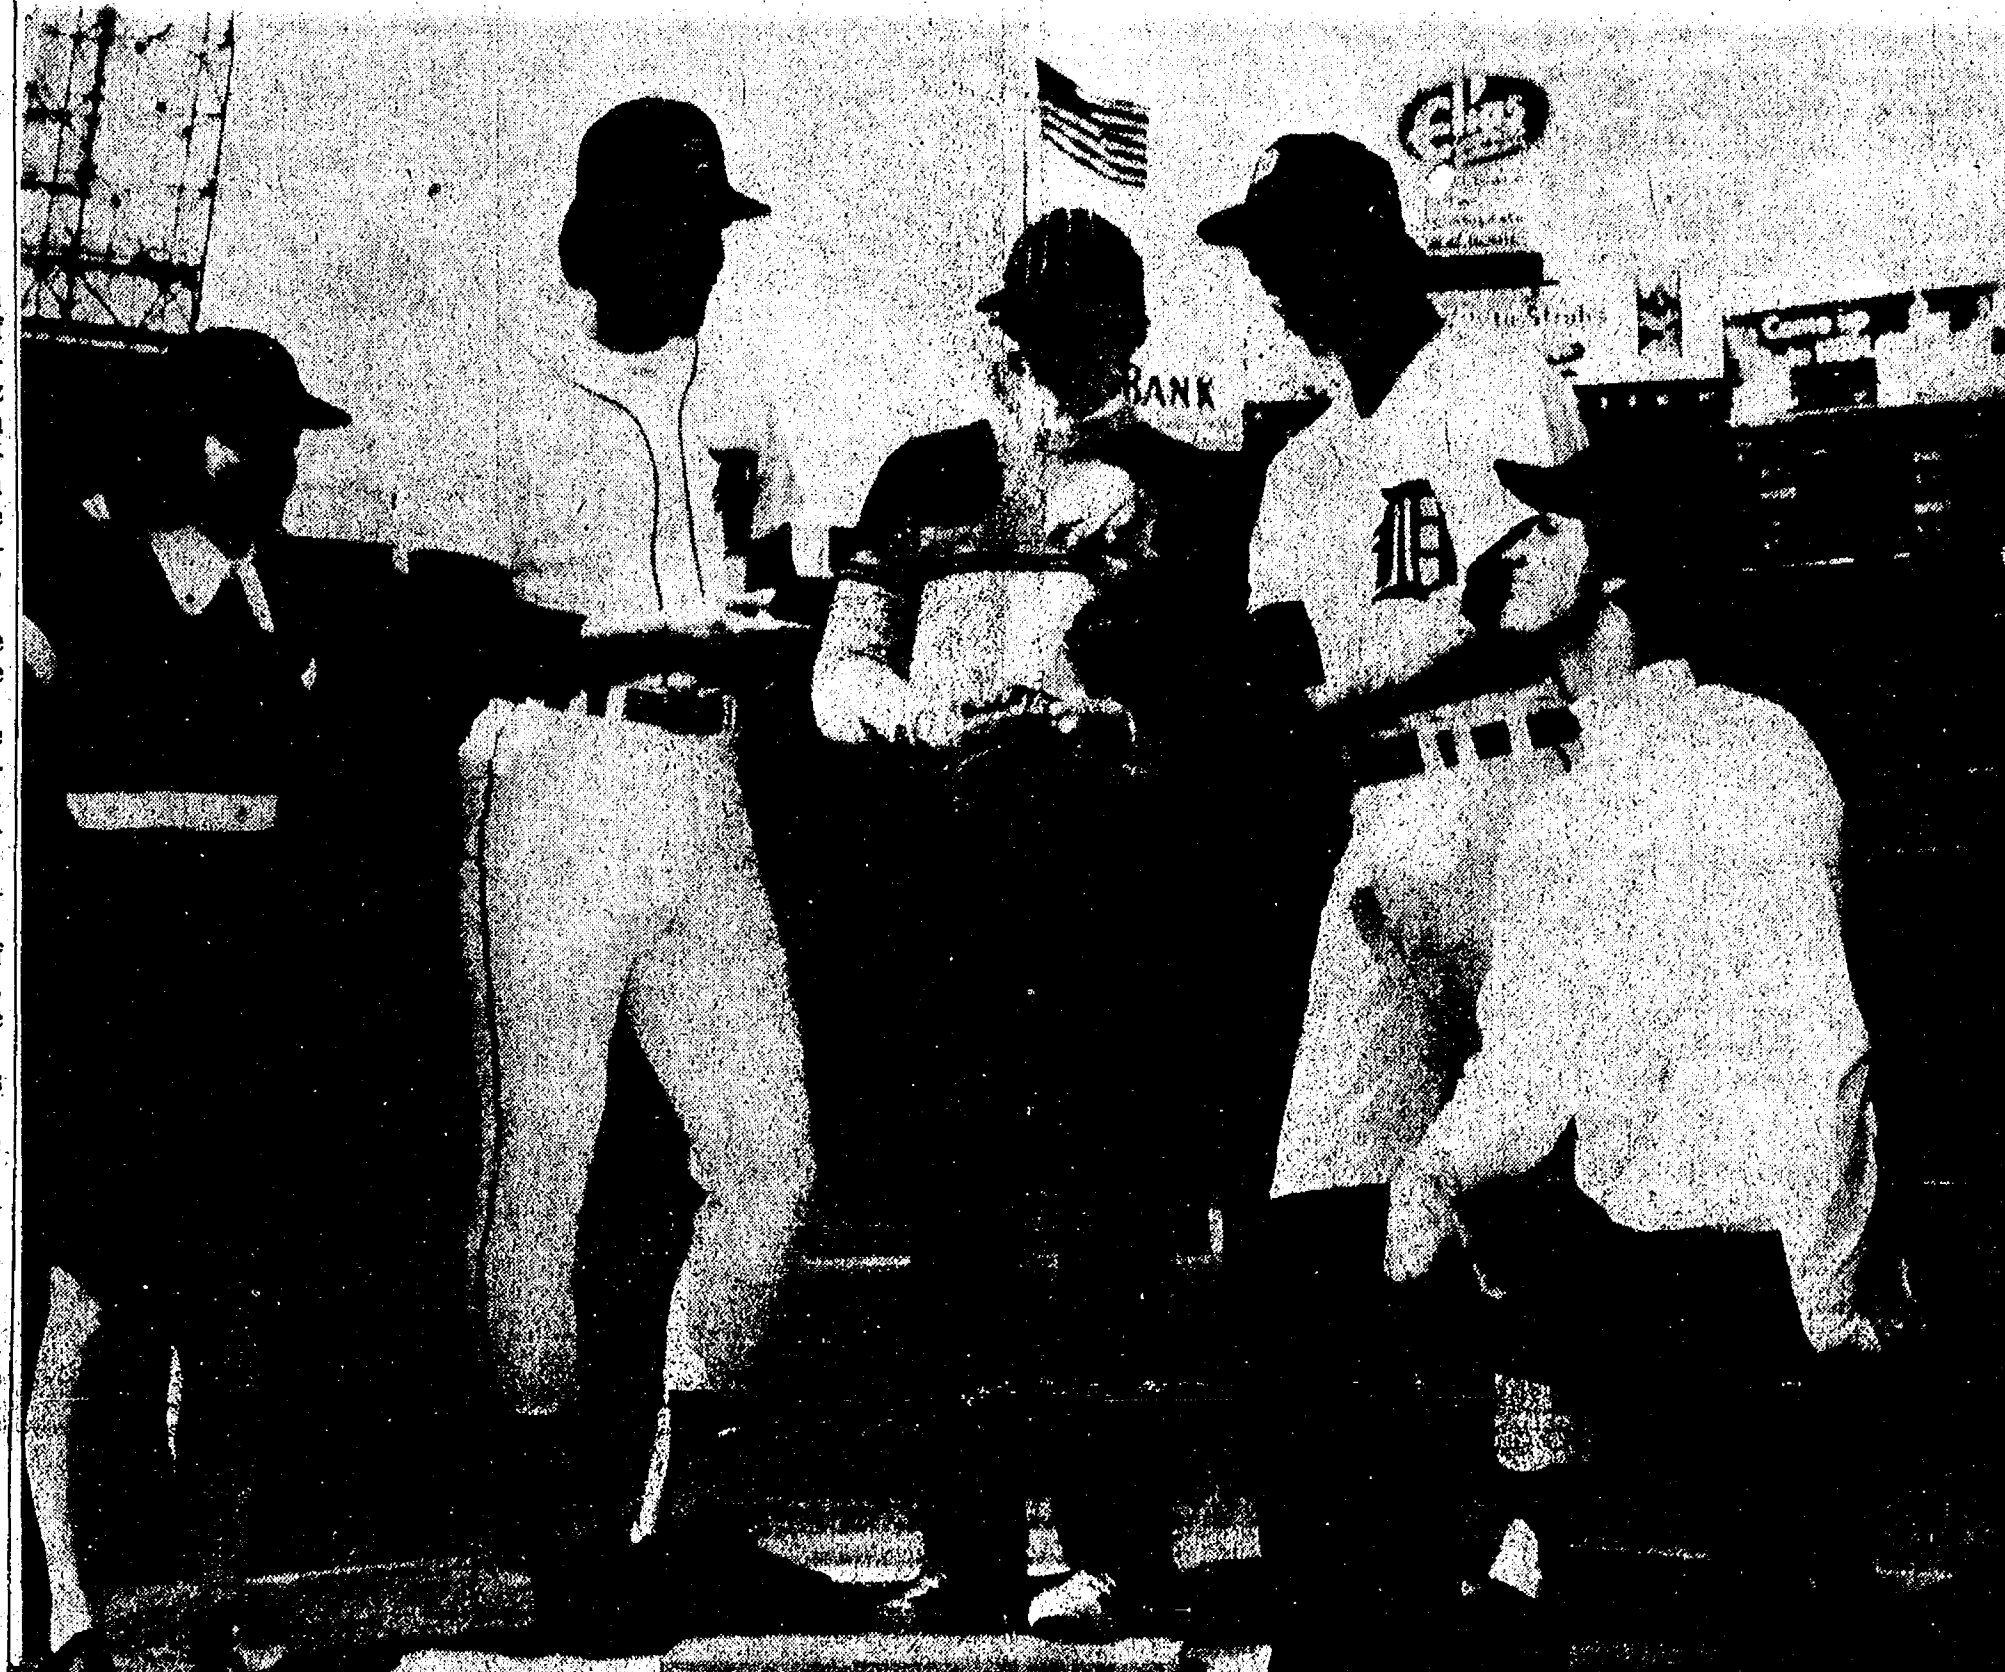

Amateur photographers will be pleased to note the addition of the photography division which will encompass the four classes (adult, senior citizen, youth, children). Black and white and colored photos will be judged on material and originality. No colored slides will be accepted due to the difficulty in judging them. However, prints may be made from them for exhibition purposes.

Students may enter projects which were done in class. However, no articles may be entered that have competed for premiums within two years previous to 1975.

Senior citizens (65 and over) will have a separate division with the same rules as for adult hobbies and will cover the same sections. "Homemaker of the Year" contest will be awarded in the Home Economics division. Also, a stitching and sewing classes have been enlarged.

"Gerrude" will be back in another year and she promises to be more enchanting than ever. Additional area will be available for hanging basket displays along the floral arrangements and plants.

Finally, the weather will cooperate on page 30.

PITCHING TIPS are given to Howard Salyer (center) who plays Charlie Brown in the Chelsea Players' production of "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown," by Tiger pitchers Dave Lemanczyk (to Salyer's left) and Vern Ruble (Salyer's right). Cast members, Michelle McClear (Lucy) and Jeff Daniels (Snoopy) hope that Charlie Brown will be a quick learner since their team has lost 999 games in a row. The show opens June 19 in the Chelsea High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. and will run for three performances. Tickets are available at the door.

Piano Students Bound for Interlochen

Hyang Joo Kim and Timothy Stubbs will attend the All State Piano Camp beginning June 23. Both young pianists will be sophomores at Chelsea High school in the fall, and study piano with Betty Rasmussen.

Miss Kim is a recipient of an All State scholarship, obtained through competitive audition, and has been given an additional scholarship from an anonymous local donor. She began her formal music studies seven years ago in Korea. Miss Kim's father, Tae Dong Kim, long ago decided that he wanted to have his children educated in this country. He learned the English language from American troops during the Korean war. After the war, he won an IRF scholarship to Ohio State University, but had to leave his family, a son, Kil Choo, a daughter, Hyang Joo, and Mrs. Kim behind in Korea. During the year he spent in this country, his youngest son, Sin Joo, was born. He felt unable to continue his own education and returned to Korea. Ten years later, he came to Chelsea to prepare a home for his family, bringing them here in August of 1973. Kil Choo Kim graduated from Chelsea High school last week with the class of 1975.

Tim Stubbs will be spending his fourth summer at Interlochen. He enjoys playing all types of music, and has been part of a couple of local rock groups. He plays alto saxophone in the Chelsea High Symphony Band, as well as classical piano. Tim will begin his own teaching career in July as piano teacher at Al Nalli's music store.

Swim Program Starts Monday

The first meeting of the Chelsea Recreation Council's swim program will be held at 9:45 a.m. Monday, June 23, at South school. Nancy (Oswald) Porath has asked that children bring their bathing suits, a towel, and the $3 transportation fee. Lessons will begin that morning.

'Charlie Brown' Opens Tonight on CHS Stage

"You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," the musical coming to the Chelsea High school stage on June 19, is one of the biggest successes in American theatrical history. It ran more than four years in New York to packed, adoring audiences. Its hero, Charlie Brown, may not be able to manage a pennant-winning baseball team (in fact his team can't win any games at all), but he led his "Peanuts" gang to 1,629 performances in New York and record-breaking runs in a dozen other large cities. The very sense of the ridiculous among the famous backyard circle of kids is what made it a hit.

Oddly enough the characters of this phenomenally successful show, transformed right off today's comic-strip page, were created by a man who was named after a comic strip character!

When Charles M. Schulz's parents in 1922 nicknamed their two-day old son Sparky, after Barney Google's boisterous nag Sparkplug, they weren't knowingly dealing in prophecy. It just turned out that way. "Sparky" grew up to write, in "Peanuts," one of the most widely-followed comic strips of all time. It was appearing in 900 newspapers in the U.S. and Canada, and was followed by an estimated 90,000,000 readers, when the musical derived from the strip was first produced in 1967.

The world of Charlie Brown is a spin-off from the world of Charles Schulz. The artist-writer readily admits he patterned Charlie from his own early life which was plagued by an endless chain of minor frustrations, bumbles, and defeats.

"I'm vaguely embarrassed," says the grown-up Charlie, "when I realize that millions of people read every day about all the dumb things I did when I was little." Born in Minneapolis, Schulz had the ambition to become the creator of a daily comic strip from early childhood.

As a child, Schulz was an indifferent scholar, distinguished only for one report card that was Charlie Brown perfect—all failures. His one personal pride was his ability to draw, at which he spent most of his time, to the detriment of his other studies. When he finally worked up the courage to submit some sketches to the school yearbook, they were rejected.

After high school, Schulz decided not to go to college and by 1943 was drafted into the Army and trained as a machine-gunner. Again he was more Charlie Brown than soldier. The only time he was in a position to exchange fire with the enemy he had forgotten to load the gun!

After the war Schulz returned to live in St. Paul. In 1948 he sold his first cartoon to the Saturday Evening Post and soon after that was hired to draw a cartoon panel for a newspaper in St. Paul. The strip had an irregular career since it was printed only when the editor and space permitted.

After a year, Schulz had another of his rare attacks of courage and asked for a daily assignment and a raise. He was fired. However, in 1950 his cartoon strip, originally entitled "Li'l Folks" was accepted by United Feature Syndicate, renamed "Peanuts" and it began to be widely printed.

From a series of deceptively simple line drawings and witty homilies encased in comic-strip balloons, the world of Charlie Brown and his pals has become a multi-million-dollar industry. Schulz has been honored with numerous major awards including two Reuben awards—the National Cartoonist Society's highest prize. Schulz is the only repeat winner of the Reuben.

Tickets are available for all three performances (June 19, 20, 21) and are on sale at Chelsea Drug, Pump & Pantry, Village Book Store and at the door.

All five cases remain open.

Veteran's Park Improvement Plan Okayed

Village Council voted unanimously Tuesday evening to approve a plan to renovate Veteran's Park located north of the Chelsea business district.

The plan, proposed and submitted, by Recreation Council Director Tom Balistrere calls for a complete renovation of the park.

What is now "just an eyesore," according to Balistrere, will become a place the community can take pride in. Balistrere said the idea is to clean the area, and make it a useful park for the community. "Now it is dedicated to the veterans, and it should be kept up in their tribute."

Balistrere's plan for the one acre area is to make it into a nature park. By that, he intends to use all natural materials in the building of six to seven pieces of play equipment, fences, wood chip paths and picnic tables.

The site and stream will be cleaned of all trash and debris. The bridge will be renovated and located near the picnic and play area and will be decoratively painted by the children in the Earn, Learn and Play program.

Attractive landscaping with flower beds and newly planted trees will complete the beautification of the site, together with a hand-painted sign, "Welcome to Veteran's Park, Village of Chelsea, Recreation Department," depicting the clock tower. Work on the sign, painted by Harold Davis, is now underway.

Balistrere added that a flag pole will be erected and that each day during the Earn, Learn and Play program the flag will be hoisted at 9 a.m. by the youngsters and taken down at 3 p.m. A small monument depicting the dedication of the park will also be placed on the grounds. And other monuments recognizing the veterans for whom the park is named will be put up in co-operation with the American Legion.

In Balistrere's own words, the park will get a "facelift." While Balistrere said he expected to receive co-operation from the Village Council, he is grateful for their reception to his idea and their enthusiasm for the park.

Work will begin tomorrow (Friday). All labor has been donated by the Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Department. $1,000 from the Village Contingency Fund has been provided to cover cost of materials.

Large Window Smashed at Beach School

A third window breaking at Beach Middle school was reported by the school's janitor John Stanfield. Stanfield told Village police that a 46"x42" window located on the south side of Beach school was found with a large hole created by throwing of a rock. The window value is set at $80. Footprints, similar to those in the other two incidents, were found in the mud near the broken window.

In other vandalism over the week-end, Ralph Brier, superintendent of buses for the Chelsea School District, reported that damage done to three buses parked in the Chelsea High school parking lot was estimated at more than $200. Brier believes that damage done to windshields of three buses occurred sometime between 5 p.m. on June 13 and 9 a.m. the following day.

All five cases remain open.

Fluoride Clinic Will Be Held At Beach School

As a result of construction now going on at Chelsea High, this summer's fluoride program will be held at Beach Middle school. Sponsored by the Chelsea Jaycee Auxiliary, the program will begin June 30 and continue through July 11.

Appointment cards have been sent out to all children registered for the program.

PALMER MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIP: A donation in the amount of $450 was presented to Dr. William Hawks (left) by Mrs. Betty Maxwell, director of the Chelsea Land Painters. The Painters held an art show and sale on the grounds of the Chelsea Medical Center earlier this year with the purpose to put the proceeds from the sale toward the medical scholarship fund. According to Dr. Hawks, the scholarship fund is made available to any Chelsea High school graduate of any year at any stage in their career who has expressed a sincere interest in medicine and has proven him or herself academically. To apply for the scholarship, an interested party may contact the administrator's office at the Chelsea Community Hospital or D. Hawks. Persons wishing to contribute to the scholarship fund, may contact Dr. Hawks at the Chelsea Medical Center.

Behind the Bars

Health care systems for Michigan's "padlocked society"—the more than 8,000 men and women in the state's six prisons and 11 correctional camps—need re-vamping.

So reports a special committee named by Gov. William Milliken to look into the situation over a recent 10-month period. The committee study included a survey of inmates as well as an assessment by health professionals of the current set-up.

Those professionals found the current arrangements for health care "for the most part, inadequate and substandard."

"Severely fragmented" is one committee description of the system.

"Those who are very ill generally receive the best of care, once they are diagnosed and referred to an appropriate civilian hospital," the report says. But, it adds, prompt relief of less serious ailments and early detection and treatment of disease are not readily attained under the current set of arrangements.

Drug Films Slated

A new anti-drug abuse education program—aiming to reach young people before they reach the potential abusing stage—is in the offing in Michigan.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley, chairman of the advisory board handling funds for the program, says studies have found that "if our youngsters are going to use alcohol or other drugs, they will probably begin between the ages of 13 and 15."

Thus the new program, called Self Incorporated, will involve 11

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Clem Webster came to the meeting at the country store Saturday night with more to add to the discussion the week before about states and cities going broke trying to match funds and feller guidelines to get federal grants that keep them from having to spend their own money. Congress now has dug up that old shoe about folks that get in trouble buying everything on time, Clem reported, and that just keeps the money merry-go-round spinning.

All installment buying does, Clem said, is put on an individual base what we already got at every level of Government. Congress views with alarm the folks whose monthly outgo is more than their income, and in the same breath Congress votes a $17 billion tax rebate when the federal Government is running $60 billion in the hole this year. And ever state in the union is busting her budget to figure out ways to spend money so she can qualify for more money from Washington, Clem said.

Some kind of bill allus is kicking around Congress to protect the citizen again himself, Clem went on, and this latest move to curb credit buying is just another of the same breed. He said he had saw by the papers where President Ford's speech writers make a habit of not using words the President can't say right, and "pay as you go" must be outlawed forever, like "Susie sells seashells by the seashore." When the economic eggheads start looking out for the little feller that draws a paycheck ever week, the little feller better look out, was Clem's words.

Ed Doolittle makes it a rule to rule again Clem's reports on anything, but Ed was agreed that Congress telling a feller that works regular and tries to pay his way how to spend his money is worst

Police are investigating.

Volunteers Needed In Summer Program for Handicapped Children

Volunteers are desperately needed for a summer program for severely, trainable and physically impaired children. The program, sponsored by the Washtenaw Intermediate School District, will begin Monday, June 23, with a morning orientation session for all interested volunteers. According to Eve Schmale, coordinator of the program, volunteers must be over 16 years of age. The program will run Monday through Friday, however, volunteers may schedule their own hours. It will be held in the new High Points building. For further information, interested persons should call Mrs. Schmale at 769-6522. Thinking is the first requisite of any freedom.

OUTSTANDING PLAYERS: Dan Wilson (left) and Chris Collier received a trophy commending them for their play which helped to win the first annual Chelsea Recreation Class A Slow-Pitch Double Elimination Tournament for Walt's Barber Shop. The tournament was played the first week-end in June. Walt's Barber Shop took the tournament, defeating Rulea Farm, 5-4.

Walt's Barber Shop Softball Team Wins Recreation Tourney

Walt's Barber Shop won the first annual Chelsea Recreation Class A Slow-Pitch Double Elimination Tournament, held on the high school fields June 7-8.

It was not an easy victory for the powerful and well disciplined champions of last year as they were defeated in their third game by an improved Rulea Farm team and driven out of the winner's bracket.

However, despite the joy of the Rulea Farm team with their first victory over Walt's Barber Shop, the tournament was far from over. It had been a cat and dog fight in the loser's bracket between four teams to see who would face the loser of the Rulea and Walt's game. McCalla Feeds survived by eliminating both IPSCO and Village Motors and then had to face the aroused Walt's team to have a chance at Rulea Farms. However, despite the great play of Rulea Farm and the hard fought wins of McCalla Feeds, Walt's was determined to regain its lost prestige.

McCalla Feeds was quickly disposed of in order that Walt's could face Rulea Farm.

The fine pitching of Gary Cornish, who seems to make dropping the ball over the plate at an impossible angle to hit an art, and the power hitting of Dan Wilson, who hit three home runs; one a grand slam during the tournament, brought Walt's roaring back to defeat Rulea farm in a close game, forcing a play-off as both teams had now lost one game.

Walt's faulted in the first inning when they walked the loaded bases and gave up three runs; but from that point on it was all Walt's as they came back to defeat Rulea Farm, 5 to 4.

It was clearly a fine team victory for Walt's. Walt Prater, the team manager, praised all of his members, as he added yet another trophy to the wall of his local barber shop. Walt also added special praise for the fine outfield play of Cliff Bellers, Chris Collier, and Todd Meyer.

Camp Missaukee Operated By Michigan King's Daughters

Many area children will have the opportunity to attend a week or two of summer camp this summer, thanks to the beautiful camping areas and camps in the state.

Camp Missaukee, which overlooks a beautiful lake of the same Indian name at Lake City is just one of a number of camps where openings remain.

Missaukee, also known as the King's Daughters' Camp, is a Christian camp for girls of any denomination, ages 7 through 16.

While offering many activities of interest to their campers, Camp Missaukee has a purpose which underlies all of its activities; that of developing the Christian character, leadership, and an interest in service for others. The camp's Branch State chairman, Mrs. H. J. Beaupre says, "this is accomplished by an atmosphere of happiness and contentment maintained through the many activities we offer to meet the needs of the individual girls and age groups."

Activities range from such things as hiking, boating, softball, canoeing trips for qualified teens, swimming and nature study to a camp newspaper. Girls also have the opportunity to develop and cultivate interests in music, archery, dramatics, camp-craft, arts and crafts, games and sports of all kinds.

Counseling-in-training programs for juniors and seniors are also available for girls interested in becoming camp counselors.

According to Mrs. Beaupre, the camp has an excellent health rating. Meals are carefully planned and prepared by competent cooks. Rest is assured with eight to ten hours at night and an hour rest period following the noon meal. A registered nurse or camp health director is a member of the staff and a physician is on call at all times.

The waterfront is regulated according to Red Cross rules and all waterfront counselors have had Red Cross training. Both the check and buddy systems are used.

Camp Missaukee offers three two-week sessions, running from June 22 to Aug. 2. Applications are also being accepted for two one-week sessions, running from June 22 to June 28 or from June 29 through July 5.

Brochures and further information may be obtained from Mrs. Beaupre at 602-7950.

Balistrere stressed that the children in the Earn, Learn and Play program will care for the upkeep of the park during the summer, but that the village will be responsible for upkeep when the ELP program closes.

A mid-August completion date for the entire project has been set.

Persons interested in assisting with the general clean-up may call Balistrere at 475-8511.

Extension Directors Cited For Excellent Programs

Awards of excellence have been presented to four Michigan State University Cooperative Extension directors for community programs they initiated.

Among the recipients of the state Search for Excellence Program awards was the late Don Johnson of Dexter who worked as the Washtenaw County Extension director.

"These men (of which Johnson was one) are tops in Michigan, selected from a competitive field of 18 entrants nominated by regional extension supervisors. Their programs were evaluated on the basis of originality, timeliness, effectiveness and quality," says Paul Thompson, branch county extension director and state program chairman.

Johnson's award stems from his efforts in urban programs in Washtenaw county. One of the efforts is Project GROW (low income family gardening projects) which has grown from 400 families in 1973 to more than 5,000 in 1974. Other GROW activities include commercial and home owner landscaping short courses. Selection of the state winners was revealed May 28.

OLDEST GARDEN

Michigan State University's W. J. Beal Botanic Garden is the oldest continuously operated garden of its kind in the U.S. Established in 1873, the five-acre garden was recently designated a state historic site.

Asbury College Student Directing Youth Volunteers

Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home has introduced a summer program of volunteer workers who are giving kind and cheerful service for the pleasure and benefit of the Home's shut-in residents. Young folks are responding to this call and will be working under the leadership of Jeff Allyn.

Jeff, 22, is a senior in Asbury College, majoring in music. He is one of several young people who are involved in the Detroit Conference Vocational Internship Program. This program seeks to assist college students in church-related vocational preparation.

Jeff is spending a nine-week period in the Chelsea Home as director of Youth Volunteer Work. Under Jeff's leadership the young folks will work mainly in the Health Center; and in favorable weather they will be seen out-of-doors with patients, many in wheelchairs, who are delighted to see the park-like beauty of the Home grounds. These volunteer youth, devoted to their tasks, are of invaluable assistance to the aged, the blind, and to other infirm residents of Chelsea Retirement Home.

Randy Brier Plays With EMU Team

Chelseaites Randy Brier was one of the outstanding members of the 1975 Eastern Michigan baseball team, whose season was officially ended Monday, June 9, when the Hurons were eliminated from the NCAA College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

The team won a total of 37 games, lost 20 and tied for one. Brier's batting average for the season was .259.

Eastern, making its first appearance ever in the CWS, suffered its second loss of the tournament, 7-0, to Oklahoma and was knocked from the tourney.

While the loss ended the season for the Mid-American and Mid-East Regional champion Hurons, the EMU players and coaches were left with visions of returning to Omaha for another College World Series next year.

Motorcycle Theft Reported

1975 has already proven to be a record year for the number of motor vehicle thefts in Chelsea. According to Village Police Chief Meranuck, a total of 14 motor vehicles have been stolen in the first five and one-half months this year; there were a total of seven thefts in 1974.

The 14th theft occurred this past week-end, when the motorcycle belonging to Robert J. Jones of 525 Arthur St., was stolen from the addressee's garage.

According to Jones, the theft occurred sometime between the afternoon of June 13 when he had finished washing his cycle and parking it without a key in his unlocked garage and 1:25 p.m. the following day when he discovered it missing.

Village police report that the motorcycle could have easily been rolled from the garage.

The 1974 assembled gray and silver metal flake Triumph cycle is valued at $1,000.

Village police have entered it on a LEIN check.

The case remains open pending recovery of the vehicle.

Sunday Winds Uproot Trees

CHELSEA AND DEXTER seem to have born the brunt of Sunday's storm. And although there have not been any confirmed reports of a tornado ripping through the area, numerous trees were down following the shower and high winds. This photo of the northeast corner of North Lake illustrates a small section where 25 to 30 trees were broken off or uprooted during the Father's Day storm. It was reported that funnel cloud was sighted near Brighton in a continuation of the line of damage through this area.

BROKEN LIMBS fill the front yard at the home of the George Bauers on Waterloo Rd. Bauer said he had been intending to chain a split section of the tree for some time, but now that the storm had brought the limb down, he was glad he hadn't bothered. The Bauers did not suffer any damage to their property other than a number of fallen limbs and one uprooted tree at the rear of the property during Sunday's storm.

UPROOTED at the rear of the Waterloo Rd. home belonging to the George Bauers is this large tree. The tree fell on a number of small pieces of farm equipment when it was toppled. However, at the time of the photo it was impossible to determine if any damage had been done.

JUST MISSED at the Norman Bauer home on Waterloo Rd. was their house and swimming pool. A large tree estimated to be more than 75 feet in length came crashing down just missing the Bauer's pool and home. Destruction to the area was limited to a fence (far right).

Cross-Pollination Will Affect Corn

Any garden crop can be planted next to any other, with the exception of sweet corn next to popcorn or field corn, say horticulturists at Michigan State University.

Sweet corn and popcorn, if they are pollinating at the same time, will cross-pollinate, the experts say, and this will affect the edible part of both crops. Melons and cucumbers or squash, peppers and tomatoes, beans and peas and other crops may be planted side by side. Any cross-pollination that occurs between similar plants will not affect this year's fruit. It will affect the seed produced, though.

If part of your garden is shaded during the day, plant leafy vegetables in the shady part, say Michigan State University horticulturists. FFA Chapter Officers Attend Regional II Leadership Camp

FFA is on the move! The past two weeks have been busy ones for Chelsea's FFA'ers. Following a June 6 chapter banquet, the group traveled to Fayette, O., where they attended the Region II Leadership Training Camp, June 13-15 at Camp Palmer.

Attending from Chelsea were Nelson Bollinger, president; Doug Welshans, vice-president; Greg Hellner, treasurer, and Dave Frame.

The camp was planned and conducted by the Regional FFA officers who held training sessions for the students. Sessions were designed to gain knowledge about various committee and to learn the responsibilities of their offices.

Friday evening, following a keynote speech from Bill Kigma, instructor for the Dale Carnegie program, Davenport College, 17 members received the Regional Farmer Degree. Local members receiving this degree included

Doug Welshans and Dave Frame. Both boys were in the top three in Agribusiness and Agproduction, respectively.

Accepting his degree, Doug said, "FFA has taught me responsibility, consideration, leadership and how to set goals for myself; goals that have helped me to get this far."

Doug, who is this year's vice-president, will be a senior at CHS. He has gained his leadership experience as chapter reporter and treasurer. Appliance on a dairy farm in Manchester provided Doug with the needed qualifications for this award. He was also elected Region II vice-president for the coming year. And according to the FFA advisor, Dave Nicewicz, "Doug ended the camp on a very successful note."

On June 6 the annual FFA banquet was held at the fairgrounds. Chapter farmer degree recipients were inducted. They are Greg Hellner, Don Sullivan, Bob Fischer, er, Eric Prinzing and Steve Robbins. Honorary Chapter Farmer degrees were also presented. These awards go to adults who have helped with the FFA program. Honorary degrees were conferred on George Prinzing, Ken Bollinger and Mrs. Raymond Welshans.

Awards were presented for individual work in a particular area. Best efforts in seed sales went to Bill Van Riper; poultry, Steve Robbins; forestry, Dave Frame; crops, Doug Welshans; beef, Don Sullivan; swine, frame and leadership, Nelson Bollinger. The star Greenhand award went to Tim Welshans as being the outstanding first-year member. Don Sullivan received the Star Chapter Farmer award, for being the outstanding second-year member. The most prestigious award, the DeKalb award, for being the outstanding senior of the chapter. This award is for excellence in agriculture and leadership. This year's winner was Paul Dowhal.

A slide and tape show of the National FFA Convention held in Kansas City last October was also presented.

The banquet ended following the induction of new chapter officers for the coming year. They are, Nelson Bollinger, president; Doug Welshans, vice-president; Don Sullivan, secretary; Greg Hellner, treasurer; Steve Robbins, reporter; and Bob Fischer, sentinel.

TROOP 82 —

Troop 82 went camping May 30, 31 and June 1. Friday, May 31 we got hit by a big storm. It rained hard and the wind blew very hard. Two of our tents fell down. We all had wet sleeping bags. The next day we went to do some arts and crafts. Later with out troop we did tie dying.

On June 9, we had a court of awards and a picnic at Pierce Park. The girls earned lots of badges.

Thursday, June 12, we went to Cedar Point. We went on most of the rides. Some rides were the Needle, Matahorn, Sky Slide and Cable Cars. We really liked Shoot the Rapids because we got wet.

WATER BEFORE TRANSPLANTING

For successful transplants, water them thoroughly before you take them out of their containers, advise horticulturists at Michigan State University. This makes soil stick to the roots and lessens the chances for root damage that would set the plants back in their growth.

ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS: Three 8th grade students at Beach Middle school earned first, second- and third-place awards for their entries in the sixth annual Freedoms Foundation 8th grade Essay Contest sponsored by the Farm Bureau Insurance Group. 'America and Me' Essay Contest Winner Named at Beach School

School awards were presented to Tammy Downer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Downer, 13215 Dexter-Chelsea Rd., Candy Schirmacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schirmacher, 642 S. Main St., and to Gayle Albrecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Albrecht, 13589 Waterloo Rd., respectively. Presenting the awards to the girls was Dave Rowe, Farm Bureau Insurance Group representative for the Chelsea and Dexter area.

An engraved plaque with Tammy's name was presented to the school. Some 200 schools and 4,000 students participated in this year's contest, which was conducted through 52 Farm Bureau Insurance Group offices around the state. Last year, 204 schools and 3,500 students competed.

In six years the Essay Contest has expanded from a Lansing area competition to a massive statewide program. The basis for this appeal is the concept of the competition... encouraging youth to seriously consider the heritage and future of America through the topic "America and Me." For the 1973 Essay Contest, Freedoms Foundation conferred the George Washington Honor Medal Award on Farm Bureau Insurance Group in February. This was the fifth such award in as many years.

The school awards represent an important first plateau in the statewide contest. Student essays earning a first place school award are placed in state-wide competition for the top award, a fully expense-paid, four-day, three-night trip to Washington, D.C. for student, parents and teacher.

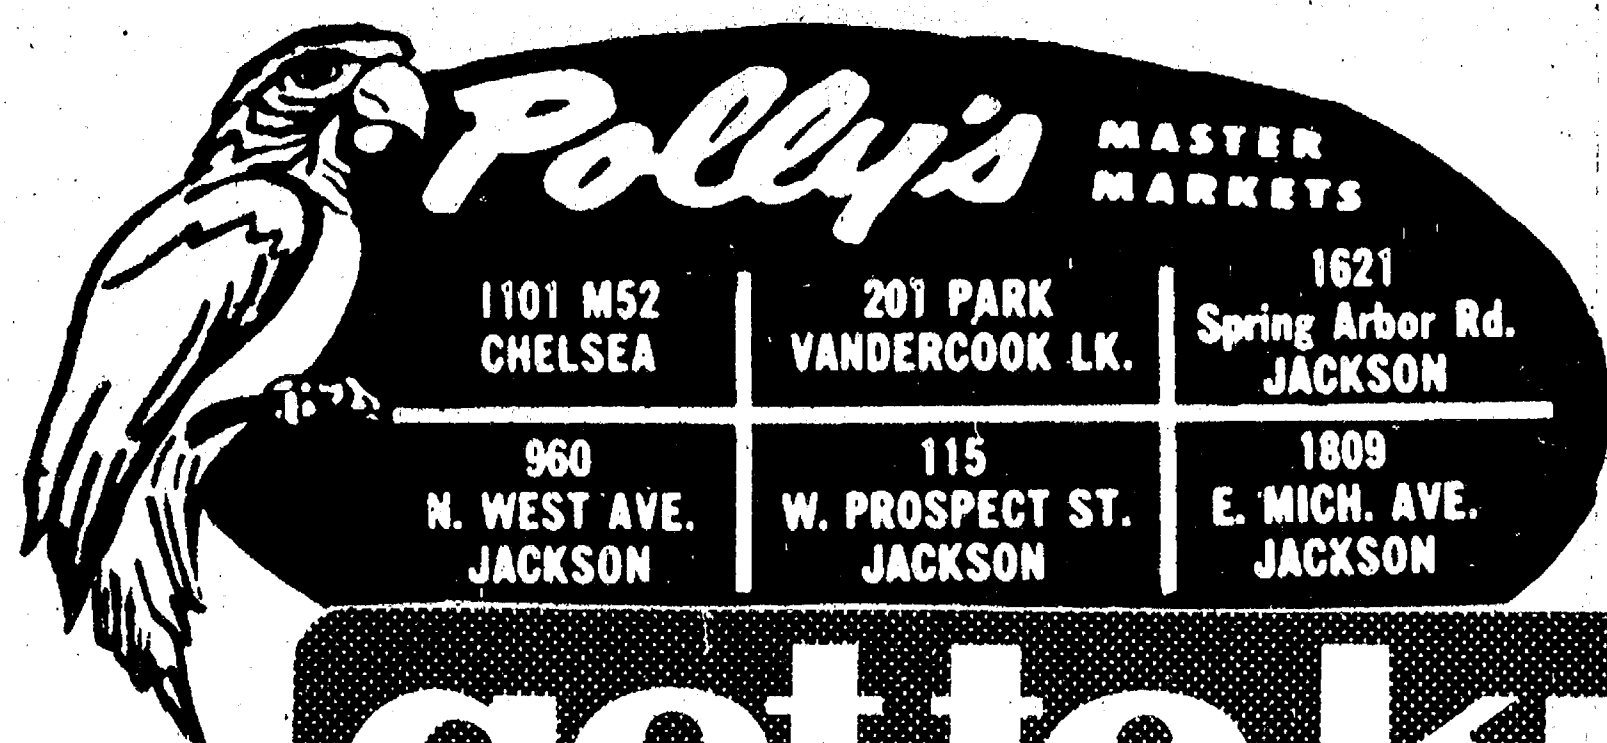

Display flags and desk flag sets will be awarded to the top three state essayists and their schools as judged by a notable panel of judges headed by Governor William G. Milliken. Earl E. Nelson, state senator from Michigan's 24th District; Robert Carr, U.S. Congressman for Michigan's Sixth District; Clifton R. Wharton, Jr., Michigan State University president; and Secretary of State Richard Austin join the Governor on the state panel.

AMERICA AND ME

EDITORIAL NOTE: The following essay was submitted by Beach Middle school's first-place essayist. We have not made any changes, grammatical or otherwise, to the student's copy.

By Tammy Downer

America the beautiful the great red, white, and blue. Americas great flag both stands for me and you. We have been through an awful lot, the recession, a money problem and all. And will make it through another one we've did it all before. Now there is another thing it is called air pollution. But I know somebody in America is bound to find a solution. Are four fathers made America just for you and me. And I think we should appreciate it by keeping America clean. It no longer matters what race, creed, or color you are, just be proud your a American and thats enough by far. Americans great green forests, the best in all the land, we cut them
