

Summer Earn, Learn, Play Program Enrollment Soars

With their registration up more than 100 from last year, enrolled children in the Chelsea Recreation Council's Earn, Learn and Play program concluded their first week of activity Friday with Gold Rush Day.

Figures that range over the 300 mark have necessitated an increase in staff for the program. Serving under director Tom Balis-there is Pat Clarke, in charge of playground activities. Assisting Clarke are Jim Winters, Brian Arnett, and Bob Armstrong. Heading up the arts and crafts program is Barbara Wenk. Holly Porter is the gym activities supervisor. Sharon Heydlauff teaches remedial reading. She is also directing a children's play, "The Mouse That Soared." Remedial math is taught by Pat Clarke. Assisting Nancy Porath, in charge of the swimming program, are Becky Nickels and Vic Steinbach. An additional life guard, Tim Ortring, has been added to the staff of the afternoon swim program.

A typical day on the playground consists of the following activities. From 9 to 10 program participants perform clean-up tasks and earn a quarter for their efforts. This past week work crew cleaned up litter from the baseball diamonds at the high school fields. Other crews worked at Veterans Park and Pierce Park. Still others worked at the Nature Center.

During the "Learn" portion students chose from learning soccer, softball, kickball, volleyball, trampoline and use of other gym equipment. Swimming lessons were also available. Arts and crafts activities included making macaroni letter name tags, pot holders, raffia baskets, and paper clip necklaces. 5,000 paper clips and a complete roll of contact paper were used in this project alone. Free play follows these activities until noon when a hot lunch is available by signing up daily with Katy Harat. Swimming is from 1 to 3 at Half Moon Lake.

Thursday turned out to be a special day for the group when more than 200 children were bused to Menagerie Manor, an exotic animal farm near Stockbridge. Friday's Gold Rush Day pleased all its participants; especially the five silver dollar winners. Just as happy were the finders of nickels, dimes, quarters, and half dollars. Money winners or not, everyone received a small bag of candy and their pay for the week's work following a competitive tug of war and a "Golden Nugget" race.

These same kinds of activities will continue during the week of June 30. However, it will be a shorter week because of the holiday July 4th. Watermelon Day will be Thursday as will be pay day. All of these events originate at the high school athletic field area.

Charged With Assault, Intent To Murder

A Chelsea man has been arraigned and is being held on a $25,000 bond in the Washtenaw County Jail on charges of assault with intent to commit murder. Examination of the man, George William Marks, of 228 North St., has been set for today (Thursday) July 3, at the 14th District Court in Saline.

Marks was arrested at his North St. home following a complaint by his wife, Phyllis Geraldine Marks, charging that her husband had threatened her with a gun following a heated argument in their living room, and then aimed the gun in her direction, pulling the trigger and firing two rounds above her head. Mrs. Marks told village police that she and her son, Paul, age 5, fled from their home and sought refuge at a nearby neighbor's until the police could be summoned.

When officers Detling, Yager and McDougall arrived on the scene, they were admitted by Marks. Upon questioning him as to the nature of the problem, Marks denied that anything had happened and denied knowing the whereabouts of his wife.

Officers then learned that his wife was at the neighbors. There they heard her story and returned to the 228 address and to talk to Marks. Upon searching the immediate area, they discovered two holes in the wall directly above the rocking chair where Mrs. Marks said she had been sitting when the incident occurred. Two .22 caliber slugs were taken from the wall.

Officers advised Marks of his rights, arrested and handcuffed him and transported him to the Washtenaw County Jail.

Mrs. Marks is in the process of suing her husband for divorce.

The case remains open pending the examination set for today.

Open Murder Charge Filed in Walz Deaths

A 17-year-old Riverdale youth was arraigned on a charge of open murder Tuesday, in connection with the motorcycle accident resulting in the death of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Walz of Grass Lake.

Bert Hunt was arraigned in 64th District Court in Stanton. He demanded examination of the charge.

Police said a former companion of Hunt told them that Hunt hurled a rock at the Walzs' motorcycle on M-46 in Montcalm county on June 24. The motorcycle crashed into a tree, killing the couple.

The former companion said he and Hunt were hitchhiking at the time of the incident.

Walz, 28, and his wife, Frances, 26, left behind two small children among numerous other relatives.

Inverness Country Club Observes 50th Anniversary

At 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 29, Dan Denton walked to the first tee, an old-fashioned one made of sand and water, cut a gold ribbon leading to the course, and drove three gold golf balls down the center of the fairway to kick-off the 50th anniversary of the Inverness Golf Club; the club that Denton for all purposes, molded himself in the fall and spring of 1924 and '25.

Though not to the July 4th date when Denton joined by Doug Fraser, Al Wenk and Al Schairer teed up the course for the first time, the celebration at Inverness Sunday, with 187 golfers gracing the course and greens was just as full of excitement as it was on that July 4th in 1925.

Of the 280 members, more than two-thirds turned out for the afternoon round of golf on the nine-hole, 3,000-yard course, followed by dinner.

Today, the club is complete; with a clubhouse across the road, a caddy house, one tennis court, a new watering system . . . and a list of members yearning to join.

Denton recalls his younger days. Those before he was a golf enthusiast. The days when he was a violinist, but broke his arm and gave up the profession to become an opera singer. He traveled all over the United States and Canada singing opera. And as he said, "I developed my first interest in the game when I played the Washtenaw Course in 1905 . . . while on tour, I packed two trunks, one for my clothes and one for the clubs."

Later Denton returned to the area near his hometown, Gregory, to build the Inverness course. He worked with Doug Fraser, the man with the money. Denton designed the course, despite Fraser's protests that the greens were "too large." He convinced Fraser, that a green should be larger than a postage stamp . . . and the work began. Denton and his crew worked fast. They built holes three, one and nine in the fall and began as soon as the first sign of spring hit the area in March, they completed the $12,000 course in the summer of 1925.

In the interim, before Denton returned to take over a failing club in 1929, he designed and built some 23 courses. When he returned to Chelsea, to revive the failing Inverness, Denton was forced to do some quick thinking and fast moving.

He offered memberships to outside golfers, two could play a season's worth of golf for $25; one could play for $15. His brainstorm worked, and according to Denton, encouraged people to take out full-time memberships.

In 1953, Denton retired as director of the club . . . but not as a golfer.

On Sunday, Denton's partner was Dorothy Miller. They played the full nine holes and returned with the group for dinner and entertainment by Master of Ceremonies, Larry Lindemer. Lindemer, incidentally, was recently appointed a Justice to the Supreme Court of Michigan.

Prizes were awarded, pro Carl Hegenauer and his wife served punch at the caddy house . . . and some members of the group dared to look forward to Inverness' 100th anniversary celebration.

July 4th Fun, Fireworks Set For Holiday

Hungry Independence Day celebrants will have a chance to fill their tummies with home-cooked picnic fare Friday evening. Such things as hot dogs, baked beans, cole slaw and barbecues, topped off with ice cream and cake, will be served up by Chels Jim Knott and Bill Geddes.

It's all part of Chelsea's Independence Day celebration, made possible by the Herbert J. McKune Post 31 of the American Legion, the Kiwanis Club, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Chelsea Community Fair Board who have donated use of the Fair Service Center for the community activity.

The celebration will begin at 5 p.m. A traditional fireworks display will follow the meal, beginning at dark.

On hand to enjoy Chelsea's celebration will be U. S. Congressman for the Sixth Congressional District, Bob Carr. Carr will partake in the activity and have another opportunity to renew acquaintances he made with members of the community last spring.

Joins Clark Lake Players For Summer Theatre

Nineteen-year-old Pat Knickerbocker will become Madame Dubonnet for three three-day week-ends this summer, when she joins the Clark Lake Players of Jackson in their production, "The Boy Friend."

Pat, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Knickerbocker of 1221 Freer Rd., is a sophomore at Michigan State University, currently majoring in applied voice. And sing she sure can, according to Mrs. Joe Keeler who is in charge of the Players. Mrs. Keeler's remark about Pat? "Pat has an absolutely spectacularly beautiful voice. A well-trained voice." At Michigan State Pat has studied under Paul Benningfield.

This is Pat's first season with the Clark Lake Players, and she adds, "I hope there will be many more."

Prior to joining their summer program, Pat was active in school productions at Chelsea High and had leading roles in two of the Chelsea Players summer productions.

Her interest in music and musicals began as a child, when she, her sister and their block friends would get together and would stage productions for their parents. Her family's strong interest in theatre, they have attended productions put on by the Clark Lake Players "ever since I (Pat) can remember," has only but encouraged Pat in her pursuits.

Her interest in "The Boyfriend" stems from that family interest. Pat tells the story of a family summer vacation spent in Indiana. The family saw "The Boyfriend," an aunt gave Pat's sister the album from the show, and since that day the two of them began to work on the show. Thus, when Pat learned (Continued on page four)

New Pastor At Waterloo Churches

There is a new pastor in Waterloo and his name is Richard M. Young. He will be serving both the Waterloo Village and North Waterloo United Methodist churches as a lay minister.

After nearly 22 years of service with the U.S. Air Force Young retired in 1971. While serving, he attended religious seminars in Europe and in Asia and was semi-active with missionaries in Thailand.

Though raised a Catholic, he is presently studying to receive his license to preach from the Methodist Church. (Continued on page three)

3-D Sales Wins Slow Pitch Tournament

The second Recreation Department tournament was held two weeks ago featuring the Class B Slow-Pitch League and a surprise winner that brought home the banner on a blistering hot Saturday.

3-D Sales upset the pre-tournament favorite, Bollinger Sanitation, and the improved Federal Screw Works team, to outlast Bollinger Sanitation, who took them all the way to the wire.

3-D Sales, under the direction of manager Bob Ponte, drew the first blood as they defeated Bollinger, driving the team down into the losers bracket and forcing Federal Screw Works and Bollinger's to play-off for the chance to have another shot at 3-D in the Double Elimination Tournament.

Bollinger Sanitation won the match with Federal Screw Works, and then was able to defeat 3-D

Sales in a tight game to force a play-off for first place. However, 3-D and the heat were just too much for the Bollinger team as 3-D Sales won easily, 10-5 to claim their first Slow-Pitch trophy.

Bollinger Sanitation also won a trophy for their second-place finish. Federal Screw Works did not leave the field empty handed as Dave Carpenter won the individual trophy for the most home runs hit during the tournament.

Players Workshops Start Wednesday

Chelsea Players workshops begin Monday, July 7. Due to misinformation received by The Standard, the workshop date was incorrectly listed as beginning Wednesday, July 9.

FIRE ENGINE RIDES were given Tuesday to children in the Council's ELP program. The kids were given 15-minute rides in groups, and one group even came down to The Standard's office that the photographer might snap a photo. Pictured

Two Horses Die After Eating Poison Leaves

Two horses belonging to the Norman and George Bauers and used as family pets, died as the result of cyanide poisoning ingested when the horses ate from fallen trees, downed in the Father's Day storm that ripped through the Dexter-Chelsea area June 15. A third horse belonging to the family was ill but is now recovering from the effects of the poisoning.

According to Mrs. Norman Bauer, the incident occurred when family and friends came to assist in removing debris on the property following a June 15 rain and wind storm.

Large branches from a maple in the front yard at the George Bauer home were moved to a small pasture nearby where the horses were grazing.

Five days later, the Bauer children were playing with the horses when two of them became violently ill. The Bauers notified Dr. Tremper of the Lane Animal Hospital, but before he could arrive, one of the horses had died. The second horse died a few hours later.

The third horse belonging to the family was saved through the efforts of Dr. Tremper, family and friends.

According to Dr. Tremper, poison forms during the wilting process of certain types of trees. Apparently, there are 123 different types of trees where this process can occur. The trees on the Bauer property were maples and box elders.

THE AMERICAN FLAG will fly high over Veterans Park thanks to the donation of the stars and stripes by Chelsea's American Legion. Pictured here getting ready to hoist the flag are from

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Elmer E. White, Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Lights Work?

Motor vehicle inspection once or twice a year is a must in 40 of these United States.

Michigan is one of the exceptions.

Because of that, the state has been threatened with withholding of federal highway safety funds.

But Michigan now has a reprieve from the Department of Transportation. The state has until November, 1976 to prove the effectiveness of its own automobile safety inspection method, the check-lane system.

The proof, if it's to be found, will come from data from an experimental program being conducted in Jackson county with new techniques and equipment. The aim is to check some 10,000 cars before the end of October. Some of those checked this summer will be re-inspected next year.

And officials say the checkups will be more thorough than those now being conducted throughout the state.

Gov. William Milliken says he expects the Jackson county program will show that Michigan's system can meet federal safety standards at less cost than some other compulsory inspection systems.

Michigan's check-lane system involved some 300,000 vehicles last year. Of those, some 65 percent showed defects of one sort or another.

That check-lane method will continue in effect across Michigan while the Jackson county program goes on.

Officials say there'll be an emphasis on brake inspections, since defects in brakes account for more accidents than any other defect.

Lots About Lights

How can you be guaranteed by the state that your lights will go on when you flick the switch during coming years? And that you can afford to put the power on?

Figuring all folks in Michigan would welcome "the assured availability of power at an affordable price," Gov. William Milliken has named a high-powered advisory committee to help come up with answers to those questions.

The committee, chaired by former Lt. Gov. James Brickley, will deal specifically with ways to finance the construction of new electric power generating capacity.

"The major utilities in Michigan

ing the old soldiers parade and picnic. Mostly on account of the country's 200th birthday next year. Ed said the Fourth has meaning in most places. Actual, what on Ed, there is so much interest in history right now that he won't be surprised to see "History Sanctuary" signs going up with the "Bird Sanctuary" signs outside of ever town.

Personal, Mister Editor, I wouldn't pretend to tell anybody how to celebrate Independence Day. As for me, I plan to spend the day and the weekend counting my blessings and traveling on my front porch rocker.

Yours truly,

and throughout the nation are facing a financial crisis," Milliken says. "In Michigan, utilities have stopped nearly all construction of new generating capacity that is essential for our future economic growth. Clearly, financing of construction is the major challenge."

Thus, the governor is asking the committee to look into ways to pay for building, including such alternatives as expansion of publicly-owned facilities and debt guarantees for investor-owned utilities.

Meanwhile, it's reported that peak demand for electricity is below previous estimates in Michigan mainly because of voluntary energy conservation and reduced commercial and industrial business activity.

But the State Public Service Commission says it is impossible at this point to determine whether there will be a crunch. Fuels to run generating equipment might become scarce, the commission points out, and unexpected disruption of generating equipment can come at any time.

The commission recently adopted a final order dealing with permanent emergency procedures for Consumers Power and Detroit Edison, the state's two major electrical facilities.

Operation Identification Sponsored By Realtors

Protection, against burglars. Lock windows and doors, leave lights and radio on, use operation identification.

Operation Identification is a program which has proven dramatically effective in reducing burglary in cities throughout the country. The program consists of two parts. First, you mark all of your easily stolen valuables such as portable television sets, radios, stereos, cameras and bicycles with your driver's license number with an etching tool loaned to you free of charge by any participating realtor. Second, you display a sticker which tells burglars you have done so.

Operation Identification is considered to be effective for two reasons. Well marked easily identifiable goods are difficult to dispose of.

They can be traced back unquestionably to the owner. Secondly, the Michigan Law Enforcement Network (LEIN) system now has the identity and address of every licensed driver in the state computerized. If the burglar is caught with marked goods in his possession, the license number is solid evidence of the possession of stolen goods.

CHS Students Attend Paper Science Seminar

Two Chelsea High school students took part in the second session of a pair of science programs involving 52 select high school seniors-to-be at Western Michigan University's department of paper science and engineering.

Sponsored and financed by the Paper Technology Foundation, Inc. at WMU, the program gave the students insights into the role of chemistry and engineering in forest resources, pulp and paper manufacturing on the national environment. Each of the one-week programs was designed for students who have interest and ability in the sciences and mathematics and who desired to be challenged by an intensive learning experience.

Three Bikes Stolen This Past Week

Three Chelsea children are missing their wheels this week because of three separate incidents during which their bikes were stolen. James Hammel of 506 Wellington, reported to village police that a K-Mart 20" red bike with a black banana seat had been removed from the front yard of his home. The bike was last seen at 1:30 a.m. June 23.

On June 27, Chelsea police received two reports of missing bikes; both from Mrs. Robert Anderson of 503 Wellington. Mrs. Anderson told police that a sting-ray styled 20" bike, yellow-green in color, had been removed from the front yard of her home. Another bicycle belonging to a member of the family, a 28" red Schwinn with silver fenders was taken from Chelsea High school sometime after 1 p.m. on June 27 during the Earn Learn and Play program held on the CHS grounds.

All cases remain open pending recovery of the bicycles.

ASK THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Millen

Question: Governor, I am 18, just out of high school, and in desperate need of a job. I, along with some of my friends, have been looking hard. There just isn't anything out there. I need HELP!

Governor: There will be jobs available for several thousand other young people as soon as the legislature acts.

Last month, called on the legislature to give immediate attention to our youth employment problems by acting swiftly to provide $3 million for more than 3,000 summer jobs. A few days ago, I again urged the legislature to act before their planned summer adjournment July 1, so that we can employ some of our young people who are now out of school and out of work.

This $3 million program will be used by state departments to employ Michigan young people between the ages of 15 and 21 for a period from June to Sept. 15. They will be paid the state minimum wage of $2 an hour. The potential jobs cover a wide range—from research to highway litter pickup, to state park development and forestry. These jobs would take care of some of our immediate youth employment needs.

This bill has been passed by the Senate, and hope that the legislature will have completed its work by the time you read this. If not, you can help by calling or writing your Representative urging his or her support and passage.

In addition to these state funds, President Ford has signed a bill to provide 33,000 summer jobs to Michigan youth between the ages of 14 and 21. This federal aid along with our state funds will greatly impact on our youth employment problem.

Question: As senior citizens, we are deeply concerned about House Bill 4239, which would drastically change Michigan's inheritance tax structure. The present system exempts jointly owned property. House Bill 4239 would not only significantly increase the tax rate, it would also remove the exemption on jointly owned property. How tragic it would be if a surviving spouse would have to sell his or her home just to satisfy the tax collector. House Bill 4239 discriminates against senior citizens who own their home and life savings jointly. Surely joint ownership under such conditions could not be considered an inheritance. We are asking you not to sign this bill.

Governor: Last week, I urged the legislature to defeat the proposal which would, in effect, increase Michigan's inheritance tax through extension of the tax base. I recognize the need to streamline the state's 1899 inheritance tax law and to shift the responsibility for its administration from county probate courts to the Department of State Treasury. However, I cannot agree to increasing the tax base by including jointly held property and insurance benefits.

This is not the time to be increasing any taxes in Michigan—especially taxes that have such an impact on Michigan's senior citizens. The bill has passed the House and is now in the Senate Taxation Committee. I have received over 3,000 letters in opposition to this bill. And it probably would be helpful if you and others who oppose it would let your state Representatives and Senators know how you feel.

Question: I heard that the state budget is in the red and that you are going to have to raise taxes to bail the state out. Is that so?

Governor: The state is not in the red—in fact, it is prohibited by the state Constitution from deficit financing. However, we will be in trouble next year if we do not curtail our spending. Preliminary indications are that the coming budget is about $200 million above my recommendations.

I have called on the legislature to exercise restraint as it performs the very difficult task in the weeks ahead of coping with rising costs, increased service demands from hard-pressed citizens and limited revenues.

Michigan taxpayers have already had to absorb one tax adjustment this year—in replacing the sales tax on food and drugs with an increase in the income tax of seven-tenths of one percent.

I would hope that in the weeks ahead we can continue to work together to keep a lid on state spending and therefore on state taxation. The people need it.

On July 19, 1975, the Continental Congress authorized General George Washington to appoint a Commissary General of Military Stores, thus marking the beginning of the Army's Ordnance Department.

Washtenaw County Receives Two Achievement Awards

Honolulu—Washtenaw county received its Achievement Awards here at the 40th annual conference of the National Association of Counties (NACo). The annual awards are presented to counties for outstanding citizen service and for innovative projects resulting in more efficient, modern local government.

Washtenaw county received two awards. Washtenaw's rehabilitation program for jail inmates has reduced recidivism, from 80 percent two years ago in the Southern Michigan State Prison, to seven percent of those enrolled in its educational effort.

Jail inmates and ex-inmates now have more hope of a better life because of the job training, work release, adult basic education, complete high school curriculum, preparation for the GED exam, college courses, tutors, counseling, and post-release follow-up offered them.

In the Ann Arbor area, citizens are involved in every stage of planning for storm drain improvements in their large urban drainage basin. Since May 1973, the Pittsfield-Ann Arbor Drain Advisory Council, composed of 15 local residents, keeps abreast of all policies affecting their drain and enables the Drain Commissioner's Office to respond to citizens' needs and wishes.

NACo is the only national public interest group specifically for county government; its total membership includes officials representing more than 70 percent of the nation's population.

Patrice Laraway, John Schick Are Wed at St. Mary Church

Approximately 200 guests were present at St. Mary church Friday evening, June 20, to witness the wedding vows spoken by Patrice Laraway and John Schick.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Laraway of 189 Orchard St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schick of Auburn.

The Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis officiated at the 6:30 p.m. ceremony during which Mr. and Mrs. Harris sang the "Wedding Prayer" and "We've Only Just Begun."

For her wedding the bride chose a white organza gown with a sheer lace overlay. White lace appliqued flowers accented the train of her gown.

Sheer lace sleeves and a mandarin collar in lace accented the lace found on the band of the skirt. A fingertip veil of white nylon attached to a beaded headpiece completed her costume. She carried a large bouquet of white carnations; green ferns and draping ivy surrounded the floral section of the bouquet.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Pamela Laraway. She wore a light blue dotted dress with a sheer lace overlay. Her bouquet was composed of daisies, carnations and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Schick and Miss Joan Schick, both sisters of the bridegroom. Niece of the bridegroom, Miss Tracy Schick served as flower girl. All three were gownned in dotted swiss similar to that of the maid of honor.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Laraway chose a floor-length coat and dress ensemble in organza. An orchid corsage completed her costume.

Attending the bridegroom as best man, was his brother Tom of Auburn. Ushers were Mark Schick, brother of the bridegroom; Roger Smith, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and John Laraway, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Chelsea Fair Service Center. Serving as host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Laraway of Wayne, aunt and uncle of the bride. Mrs. Kim Burke, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Les Laraway and Mrs. Ivey Laraway, both of Ann Arbor and aunts of the bride posed punch and coffee for the guests. Mrs. Carl Laraway served cake.

The couple took a week vacation through the southeastern states. They are now at home at 1760 Rank Rd.

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

Use plentiful Michigan foods for your Independence day picnic celebration. Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture say there's an abundance of Michigan potatoes, pea beans, cheese and dairy products on the market. All are economical, nutritious and make great picnic foods.

Picnics call for salads and an all-time favorite is hearty potato salad made with low-cost Michigan potatoes. Looking for a flavor change? Make potato salad more tasty and nutritious with other plentiful foods. For example, add shredded cheddar cheese to your basic recipe and use dairy sour cream for the dressing.

Michigan potatoes are a substantial food. They contribute vitamins C and B-1, niacin, iron, carbohydrate and high-quality vegetable protein. When combined with cheese they become a complete protein dish.

A popular Polish recipe for potato salad mixes another plentiful food, canned baked beans, with cooked, diced potatoes. Sliced onion, dairy sour cream dressing and seasonings of salt, sugar, vinegar and prepared mustard are added. It's served on crisp lettuce leaves garnished with chopped green onions.

Still another marvelous potato salad is made with Michigan wine. To prepare: cook, peel and drain five medium potatoes. Slice and cover with 1/2 cup of dry white Michigan wine in a bowl. Turn several times. In another bowl, place 1/4 cup Italian-style salad dressing, 4 finely chopped green onions, 1/2 cup raw cauliflower bits, 2 chopped pimientos, 1/4 cup chopped black olives, 1/4 cup stuffed, chopped green olives and a dash of salt. Chill both mixtures well and toss gently together just before serving. If this is to be taken to a picnic site, carry both bowls separately and toss at the last minute. Recipe serves six.

Serve these salads as an accompaniment for barbecued beef, pork or poultry, or as a main dish with bread or crackers, fresh fruits and beverage.

Reds, Athletics Set Pace in Girls Softball League Action

In girls softball action last week, the Twins defeated the Athletics, 20-15. The Reds, thanks to a home run and single hit by Veronica Satterthwaite, slaughtered the Dodgers, scoring 25 points to their four, and the Tigers defeated the Mets, 15-9. Shelly Hatt, who played for the Tigers had three hits in that game.

In Tuesday's action the Reds struck another blow, this time to the Twins. However, this victory was not so sweet as their first. The Reds took the game, 15-13. League director Pat Clarke pointed out that Jennifer Ringe who plays for the Twins, had an unassisted triple play, "which is unusual for any game," he added.

Veronica Satterthwaite displayed her skills once more, hitting two home runs; a third homer hit by Cathy Voita assisted the Reds in their victory.

The Mets turned around their June 26 defeat by the Tigers, to beat the Athletics with a strong, 24-15 victory. Laurie Miles hit a grand slam home run in this one and Becky Dawson hit a home run leading the former losers to victory. Another team that turned around was the Dodgers who defeated the Tigers, 15-5. Dodger player Becky Bollinger hit a home run in the game while teammate Cindy Bareis did just one better, hitting two homers.

Girl Dies in Auto Crash on N. Territorial

A 17-year-old girl died as a result of a one-car crash on North Territorial Rd. near Chamberlain Rd., Saturday, June 28. The driver and two other passengers were treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Investigating officers of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department said Sandra Lee Younger of Dowagiac was killed in the head-on crash into a tree. The driver, Michael S. Check, 18, of Romulus, was reported in good condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, while two other passengers, Dana Fester, 18, was in fair condition, and Terry Wise, 17, of Romulus, was released after treatment.

Miss Younger was seated in the left rear of the car. The possibility of drug use by the driver is being investigated by sheriff's officers, they said.

Sheriff's officers said Check was driving east on North Territorial Rd., near Chamberlain Rd. at what appeared to be a high rate of speed. The car went off the road, struck a tree, traveled 220 feet with the right wheels off the road, then came back on the highway.

The car then crossed the entire width of North Territorial Rd., left the road a second time, careened another 100 feet and went into a ditch where it hit a large tree head-on.

In another accident in Dexter township on Saturday, the driver of a motorcycle was seriously injured when the cycle hit a tree and flipped over.

According to the sheriff's officers, Larry D. Laughlin, 21, of Pinckney, was headed north on Dexter-Pinckney Rd., near Bell Rd., when he lost control of the cycle on a curve. The bike went off the road into a ditch, skidded about 160 feet and hit a tree. The vehicle then spun away, slid another 30 feet and flipped over, throwing Laughlin to the ground. He was reported in serious condition at University Hospital.

Jiffy Mixes Hold Onto Lead In Fast Pitch Softball League

Fast-Pitch league action this week was dominated by the continued fine play of Jiffy Mixes who remain in first place; the twin victories of 3-D Sales and a pair of fine wins by Thompson's Pizza.

Monday, Thompson's finally broke into the win column by defeating Chelsea Milling in the early game. This was followed by 3-D Sales defeat of Zion Lutheran in the late game.

Wednesday began with an exciting upset as Thompson's continued their fine play behind the excellent pitching of Dennis Bingle to defeat Ann Arbor Centennial, 3-0. Jiffy then defeated Stivers in the late game to remain in first place by virtue of having played one more game than 3-D Sales.

Friday's action began with an unusual occurrence as Chelsea Milling and Zion Lutheran played to a 13-13 tie. However, this rather dismal occurrence was followed by an exciting showdown between Bennet Installation and 3-D Sales. The two teams played to a 1-1 tie at the end of seven innings. Both teams had fine pitching, Billy Pidd for 3-D Sales and Tom O'Haver for Bennet Installation. However, O'Haver weakened just a little in the eighth and allowed 3-D to score twice and win, 3-1. This moved 3-D past Bennet in the standings just behind the Jiffy Mixes.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CLASS A

Walt's Barber Shop finally received a little co-operation from the weather and moved into first place as they defeated both the Ann Arbor Eagles and Village Motor Sales, while IPSCO, in their new uniforms, were defeating McCalla's Feeds. This was the first loss for McCalla's Feeds so Walt's was able to slip by as they remain undefeated.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CLASS B

In the Class B Slow-Pitch, Bollinger Sanitation remained in first place but the league tightened even more as they were defeated this week by Federal Screw Works. Norm's Body Shop won both of their games to take second place, followed closely by the Federal Screw team, who upset tournament champs 3-D Sales.

SLOW-PITCH VICTORS in the Chelsea Recreation Council's first tournament was 3-D Sales, easily winning with a 10-5 score. Pictured with the big trophy are Dick Lapanowski, winning pitcher and hitting star; Chip Wmains, hitting and fielding star, and Dale Poertner, the best hitter in the tournament.

Army Observing 200th Birthday

On June 14, the Army celebrated its 200th birthday. On that day in 1775, the Continental Congress, meeting in secret session in Philadelphia, appointed a committee to draft regulations for the new Continental Army and authorized the addition of ten companies of riflemen to be drawn from Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia. Local Army representative, Sgt. Jones, notes that on the following day George Washington was appointed General and Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army.

Then, as now, it was a volunteer Army. And, interestingly, several important battles had already been fought. On April 19 of 1775, the "embattled farmers" of Lexington and Concord had fired "the shot heard round the world." On May 10, Ethan Allen and his Green Mountain Boys had seized Fort Ticonderoga on New York's Lake Champlain. "In the name of God and the Continental Congress," And Colonel Benedict Arnold on May 17 occupied briefly St. John near Montreal in Canada.

But the big battle was to come when the Continental Army was but three days old. On June 17, at Breed's Hill, now known as Bunker Hill, overlooking Charlestown, Mass., 2,000 patriots fought 2,500 British troops in one of the bloodiest battles of the Revolutionary War. The Continental Army lost 441, including 140 killed. The British losses were 1,150 (40 percent of those engaged), including 251 killed.

If you learn one thing every day, you will know 365 new things by the end of a year—supposedly.

Livestock Insect Control Is Year-Round Battle

Although summertime seems to be the time most associated with livestock fly control, cattle are never free of insects and mites. The problem requires year-round management.

"Inadequate insect control may lead to lower milk and meat production and weaken cattle's resistance to disease," says Dr. Donald C. Cress, Michigan State University entomology specialist.

Animals may also be injured when they rub against fences, posts, trees or other rough objects to relieve itching caused by insects and mites.

Fly Control

The best way to control flies in summer is through a combination of formulations such as baits, residual sprays, larvicides, barn atomizers, etc.

Start your treatments as populations begin to build, doing so promptly and regularly. Sanitation is one of the main requirements for control.

Clean out all pens as soon as possible. Spread manure thinly as possible so that fly eggs and larvae will be killed by drying. Get rid of silage seepage areas, wet litter, manure stacks, wet hay or straw and other organic material. Make sure you have good drainage in the barnyards so waste or rain water can be drained and dried quickly.

Sprays are part of the over-all control package but amounts vary from barn to barn depending on surfaces—smooth take less, rough require more spray.

Be sure to follow instruction for each insecticide. Use no more spray than listed on the label.

Baits should be applied to concrete whenever flies gather. They may be used alone, but it is preferable to use them in conjunction with wall and ceiling sprays. You may choose from:

—Dry baits, which include Korlan, Diptrex, Dyllox, Neguvon, Dibrom. Follow label directions. Do not use Diazinon in dairy barns or milkrooms.

—Wet baits, which include malathion, Diazinon (keep away from dairy barns and milkrooms), Diptrex, Dyllox, Neguvon or Korlan. Don't apply liquid baits where animals can slip and fall. Keep all baits out of the reach of children.

Maggots in Manure

Manure piles should receive special attention as weather warms. Treatment may include: Dimethoate, malathion, Rabon, Ronnel (Korlan) or Diazinon. Make sure you read directions for proper application. Don't apply unless instructions so specify.

Wet the surface of the manure. It is not necessary to soak. Repeat as needed. Do not apply chemically treated manure to vegetable cropland unless specific materials are approved.

Feed Lot Control

Keeping manure removed from feedlots is a necessity for fly control. For sprays around fences, over manure piles and inside walls of loafing pens, use Rabon or Ronnel as given for treating inside walls and ceilings of barns.

But do not spray animals directly with these materials. Avoid treating livestock resting areas. Keep these clean and well bedded.

Outside Barn Control

Use Dimethoate, malathion, Ronnel, or Fenitrothion for treating inside walls and ceilings. Follow label instructions for use in outside dairy barns. Do not apply to water and feed crops. Do not use Diazinon on dairy barns or milkrooms.

Milkroom Control

Applying controls in milkrooms must be done carefully. Minute amounts of pesticides can be detected in milk and are illegal. You must prevent contamination of milk, milking utensils and containers.

You may select from the following controls: Vapona, Dibrom, Korlan, malathion, Neguvon or pyrethrin plus piperonyl butoxide.

Don't use chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides such as chlordane, heptachlor, lindane, toxaphene, etc.

Other safety precautions:

—Prevent drift to adjacent cropland, yards, woodlots, lakes or ponds.

—Avoid treatment when animals are sick, overheated or stressed (shipping, dehorning, castration, recent weaning).

—Spray sick or weak animals on warm days, if possible. If sprayed indoors, turn out immediately to dry. Avoid undue exposure of animals to mists and vapors. Do not apply material directly on animals unless label directions permit.

—Do not add chemical to old dipping water. Start with fresh water to avoid poisoning animals, and causing excess residues in meat.

Improper use of pesticides may not only injure you and your animals but could result in harmful and illegal residues in meat and milk. Refer to MSU Extension Bulletin E-708, available from the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension Service, Room 1, County Building, Ann Arbor, 994-2457 for details on summertime and winter control of pests on cattle.

On July 4, 1776, in Philadelphia, the Continental Congress formally adopted the Declaration of Independence, and in doing so "solemnly published and declared that these United Colonies are, and of Right, ought to be Free and Independent States."

New Coin Designs Honor Bicentennial

The hand flips a coin. Heads I win. Tails you win. The eyes light on the head of a colonial drummer. Did you win or lose the toss?

You won! That head is really a tail. You can take the word of Mary Brooks, director of the U. S. Mint. She's our nation's coinmaker and says the colonial drummer was chosen in a national design competition to appear on the back of the new Bicentennial quarter. George Washington, she insists, still heads the coin over a new date—1776—1976—and it was all done to celebrate our country's 200th birthday.

"I know big decisions, like whether or not to walk the dog in the rain, rest on the flip of a coin," Mrs. Brooks says, "and I want to warn the nation's big decision makers about the coming big change in their small change."

In all, the Mint is changing the designs on the backs of three coins in honor of the Bicentennial. Along with Washington on the quarter, those famous faces of Kennedy and Eisenhower, with the new twin date, still head the half dollar and dollar. Again, it's the backs that carry the new Bicentennial designs. Independence Hall won its place on the back of the half dollar. And the moon and Liberty Bell was chosen for the dollar reverse.

By July 7, 1975, your friendly neighborhood bank should begin receiving the first of the circulating Bicentennial coins to be released—the Kennedy-Independence

Ypsilanti Man Named To Head Highway Comm.

Gov. William G. Milliken announced Friday the designation of Peter B. Fletcher of Ypsilanti as chairman of the State Highway Commission.

As chairman, Fletcher, who was appointed to the commission in 1972, succeeds E. V. Erickson of Grand Rapids, who will remain on the commission until June 30. Erickson did not desire reappointment.

Fletcher, president of the Ypsilanti Credit Bureau and director of the National Bank of Ypsilanti, serves as a Republican on the four-member bipartisan commission.

Senate confirmation of the appointment is not required.

U. of M. Athletics

The University of Michigan intercollegiate athletic program fields men's teams in football, basketball, baseball, track and field, swimming, hockey, wrestling, golf, cross country, gymnastics, and tennis. U-M women compete in intercollegiate basketball, field hockey, swimming and diving, synchronized swimming, tennis, and volleyball. A member of the Big Ten conference, the U-M has established an outstanding intercollegiate athletic record, including more football championships (28) than any other Big Ten school. The University also supports an extensive intramural and recreational sports program for men and women—students, faculty, and administrative staff. Approximately 225 acres of land are devoted to athletics. Among the facilities are the Michigan Stadium—the nation's largest collegiate football stadium, the Crisler Arena, the hockey arena, the indoor track and tennis building, and three new intramural facilities.

On July 5, 1775, the Continental Congress adopted its "Olive Branch Petition" which, while reiterating grievances of Colonists, professed their attachment to the king and desire for reconciliation. George III refused to receive this petition, and instead issued his Aug. 23 proclamation declaring the colonies to be in a state of rebellion.

Retired School Personnel Plan Summer Meeting

The summer meeting of the Washtenaw Association of Retired School Personnel is set for Thursday, July 10, Saline High School on Maple Rd. A pot-luck dinner will be held at 12 noon with a business meeting beginning at 1:30 p.m.

A part of the program, Wastan Stevens will show slides of the early railroads in Washtenaw county and relate other interesting facts of county areas.

On July 4, 1778, Lt. Col. George Rogers Clark, leading a band of 200 frontiersmen, captured the British post at Kaskaskia, Ill., without firing a shot.

Nashville, Tenn.—An inmate, Clarence Jenkins, claims to have made the longest football run in history only to have it called back by "the referees." He kicked the ball over the wall, but when he asked permission to retrieve it, he kept running until he was caught.
