'Oklahoma' Opens Tonight At High School

Authenticity spells out the sets and costumes designed for the Chelsea Players' production of "Oklahoma," which opens tonight (Thursday) in the Chelsea High School auditorium and runs through Saturday, Aug. 2.

For this production, DiAnn L. Roy, director of the show, her cast and crew have drawn from every possible source, right down to an old L. Roy family album depicting the L. Roy's Oklahoma homestead, to insure that what players see Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights is representative of Oklahoma when transportation was a "surrey with the fringe on top."

In explaining her reasoning, L. Roy told of New York Broadway productions of "Oklahoma" where the cowboys sported colorful glittering and spangled costumes. "We wanted to keep away from putting on a plastic looking show," she said.

In designing and building sets, the group did a take-off from photos of the L. Roy family farmhouse: white frame, flower filled window boxes, a front porch for rocking, and a trellis complete with a flowering vine.

When possible, the group borrowed the real thing. Players will thrill to see the black antique surrey with white fringe drawn across the stage. An old hay wagon was also borrowed for the production. Smaller props such as a butter churn, a pot-bellied stove, and a rocking chair complete the Oklahoma portrait.

Costuming—no glitter or spangles. The cast will be seen in authentic cowboy hats and boots that the director brought back from a recent trip to Texas. Farmers will be dressed in borrowed overalls and centennial dresses have been secured for the female cast members. Again, the family album came in handy. In the case of Neil Cockrell, who plays Andrew Carnes, make-up and costuming for the part was taken from a photo of L. Roy's grandfather. Cast members say the two look just alike.

Tickets for this world-famous musical are still available for all three performances. They may be purchased through the Pump & Pantry on Main St. All seats are reserved. Tickets may also be purchased at the door. All performances begin at 8 p.m.

Three Chelsea Teams Survive in Tourney

This past week-end, the State Class B District Tournament was held in Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti. Chelsea sent four teams to the district tournament from its Class A League, all but one of which were eliminated in their first games. The Ann Arbor Eagles fell victim to the Tasmanian Caterpillars, 2-4; Mark IV Lounge lost to Saline Agito Wash, 10-4, and Village Motors lost to Hornet Bike Shop.

Some consolation might be that the Hornet Bike Shop went all the way to the finals and only defeated Village Motors, 13-9.

The only team to win in the tournament was Rulea Farm which won two games, 13-5, over Ann Arbor Bank & Trust, 8-7 over The Gang, and then lost, 12-6, to Kelsey-Hayes.

The State Class D Fast-Pitch District Tournament also got underway this week-end in Ann Arbor. The tournament began with 28 teams. After week-end play, Chelsea still had three of the last eight teams in contention.

The action began as Bennett Installation defeated league rival, Thompson's Pizza, 4-3. Once again Tom O'Haver pitched a fine "me" for Bennett. On Sunday Bennett again won by one run as they defeated Domino's Pizza, 9-8, with Tom O'Haver getting the win.

Chelsea Milling received a bye on Saturday but played Ann Arbor Paint & Wallpaper on Sunday, only to lose, 13-3, to follow Thompson's to the sidelines.

3-D Sales failed to make it past Saturday as they were defeated by Hatto's Gulf, 10-0, in their first game. Zion Lutheran was also stopped in their first game as they lost to Basil-Cowhy Construction, 16-6. Stivers followed their example, going down in a close game, 3-0, to Brown Jug-Ann Arbor Tire.

Jiffy Mixes stopped the losing trend after drawing a bye on Saturday. After week-end play, Chelsea still had three of the last eight teams in contention.

Play-Off Game Today Decides Girls Softball Championship

The girls softball league wound up their 1975 season of regular season Tuesday afternoon. However, a playoff remains to be held Monday (Thursday) at 1 p.m. in the gymnasium at CHS. The game will determine the championship and will be played between the Reds and the Mets.

The Dodgers did in the Athletics, scoring 18 runs to their one. Penny Bortles led the team with three hits.

In Tuesday's action, the Dodgers defeated the Mets with another high score of 24-14. Karen Dresch and Penny Bortles hit home runs to help their team take the game.

The Athletics came back from Thursday's play to mark up a 34-24 victory for themselves. Meg Pennington had five hits to lead the A's.

The Twins and the Tigers opted to play their last game of the season on Monday. The Twins played the Tigers.

County 4-H Fair Now Underway

The fair season is upon us. This week the annual 4-H Show is being held at the Farm Council Grounds on Saline-Ann Arbor Rd. This event is free with no charges except if you want a pop or hot dog. It's an excellent time to view the various 4-H projects from insect collections, outdoor cooking to livestock.

One of the highlights of the 4-H show is the livestock auction, held Thursday night (July 31) at 8. Offered to the highest bidder will be approximately 35 head of steers, 50 head of hogs, 50 head of lambs and two pens of market rabbits. The receipts of the sale of each animal goes directly to the 4-H owner to be used in many cases for advanced education.

The livestock buyer has several options available to him: (1) he may designate a meat processor, (Continued on page six)

ELP Float Destroyed

A paper napkin and chicken wire whale, the creation of children in the Recreation Council's ELP program, has been destroyed according to Recreation Council director Tom Balistrere.

The whale and accompanying banner, "We Had a Whale of a Time in Earn, Learn, and Play," was to have been the program's entry in the Chelsea Fair Parade. As the ELP program has ended for the summer, the group has no plans to build another float. Balistrere commented, "It's too bad."

All-Star Games Conclude Summer Baseball Program

The Chelsea youth baseball program sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Council, has come to an end and a successful one, said the league director, Jim Ticknor. The 1975 season ended Tuesday evening with an All-Star game for both the Little League and Pony League teams. Teams were chosen from the regular season standings. Six players from each team were chosen as the team's All-Stars for the game. The first, fourth and sixth-place finishers in each league were pitted against the second, third and fifth-place finishers.

In Pony League, the All-Stars of Tom Stock, Bob Koch and Kevin Schmitke opposed the All-Stars of Bill Rademacher, Ken Bauer and Ted Forster. In a well contested game the team managed by Bill Rademacher won, 16-11.

In Little League All-Star play, the same format for choosing teams and players was used. The All-Stars of Syl Wojcicki, Jim Horter and Dan Ramsey tangled with the All-Stars of Don Henson, Fred Mills and Tim Whitesall. The boys played extremely well. The game was close. Final outcome? The team managed by Syl Wojcicki won 8-6.

Jim Ticknor said that he feels all the boys should be complimented for a good season of play. He added, "The selection of the All-Stars was a very difficult task for the managers and myself. Every boy and girl on every team deserved to be an All-Star for his or her contribution to the team."

Bicentennial Plans Will Be Discussed

A meeting of leaders of local organizations and interested citizens will be held at the Chelsea Fair Service Center at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 6. Purpose of the meeting is to discuss the part that the Chelsea area will play in the over-all Western Washtenaw County Bicentennial Commemoration. Co-ordinators, for the Chelsea area are Dick Harvey and Dave Rowe.

Leonard Kitchen and Rolly Spaulding, co-chairman of the Western Washtenaw County Bicentennial Commission, state: "We have waited 200 years for this momentous event. It can and should be the event of a lifetime. We have an ideal opportunity to strengthen our collective community spirits and to unite our towns, rural areas and their peoples, in a manner we will never be able to do again. To have a year filled with activities, part fun and part seriousness too—look with hope to our future, and thank God for all of our blessings, past, present and future; past, heritage; present, festivals, USA; future, horizons. Let's not miss this opportunity!"

Both Kitchen and Spaulding will be present at this meeting to bring area residents up-to-date on present plans. Representatives from the Rogers Co. of Fostoria, O., who for 72 years have been engaged in total civic celebration management will also be present. They will explain the benefits that await Chelsea area and the opportunity the area has to take part in this great milestone and the part they will play to make the Western Washtenaw County Bicentennial observance a success.

Harvey and Rowe said that letters have been mailed to many leaders in the area. However, any (Continued on page six)

Two Youths Die in Sunday Auto Crash

Two Chelsea youths were killed early Sunday morning and one remains in critical condition following injuries sustained when the car in which they were riding hit a tree on rural Waterloo-Munith Rd. in Jackson county, just west of the Washtenaw county line.

Dead are 16-year-old Gerald Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Osbie Armstrong of 1420 Chelsea-Manchester Rd., and 15-year-old Kirk Steinaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Steinaway of 2751 McKinley Rd.

In critical condition at Mott's Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor is Eric Niles, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Ray J. Niles of 2921 Fletcher Rd. Two other boys were injured in the crash. Dan Atkinson 20, of Trenton remains in critical condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. The fifth youth, James A. Kormas, was treated for minor injuries at Jackson's Foote General hospital and released.

According to reports from the Jackson County Sheriff's department, the Kormas youth apparently lost control of his car and hit a tree. The young man was issued a ticket for "driving too fast under prevailing conditions" at the time of the crash, by Jackson sheriff's deputies.

Wheat Crop Quality Lower Than Expected

Those who forecasted 1975 to be a record year for wheat crops are probably biting their tongues... at least in Washtenaw county. As the wheat harvest draws quickly to a close and the last truck unloads at local grain elevators, those who know the business, such as Bill Ames, the county agricultural agent, have labeled this year's crop "poor." However, Ames did say that the crop varies from low to high yields in different areas.

According to Ames, the cause for the poor crop was the wet spring, causing more diseases in the area than in the past. Ames added that replanting wheat and the planting of wheat in quack grass fields has attributed to the poor yield.

Jerald Heydlauff, manager of Honeggers & Co., Inc., Larro division, watches the farmers bring their crops to the Honegger elevators. He said he believed the poor crop was due to the dry weather last fall. The wheat "did not get a good start."

Heydlauff said that the test-weight of this year's wheat varies from 54 to 55 pounds per bushel; perfect wheat tests at 60 pounds per bushel. The quality is well below normal and there appears to be quite a bit of moisture in the wheat requiring further drying processes, which cause a financial loss to the farmer. While Honeggers are paying an average of $3.30 per bushel, to the farmer that price is discounted with respect to the wheat's quality.

Heydlauff remarked that this year's wheat crop was one that "very few farmers are bragging about."

Peter Stahl Dies Following Auto Crash

Peter H. Stahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent P. Stahl, Sr., of Pinckney, was killed early Wednesday morning following injuries sustained in a two-car collision on Patterson Lake Rd., one-half mile west of Hell, in Livingston county. According to Livingston county sheriff's reports, the accident occurred at 10:23 p.m. Stahl was rushed to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor where he died shortly after midnight.

Further details of the accident were not available, as the detective investigating the accident was the single officer with further details and information on the number of persons involved in the collision. The detective was said to be out of the department until late Wednesday night.

Stahl was a 1973 graduate of Chelsea High school and an Eagle Scout with Troop 476, Chelsea. At the time of his death he was employed by Stahl Manufacturing Co. of Detroit and Pinckney.

He is survived by his paternal grandmother, parents, several brothers and sisters, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I been going to church fairly regular since my Pa didn't give me no choice in the matter. I kept on going after I grew up and my old lady give me somepun of a fighting chance to decide fer myself whuther to go to preaching or face the consequences, meaning her, not to mention the Devil. I even took in the services during my short hitch in the first war to end all wars, when I had plenty of reasons not to. I would say I've gone to church all my life, but I hope I ain't yet.

After all this time I can truthfully say it's a habit I'm thankful I never broke. Herbert Hoover liked to say that the Good Lord don't count the tithe, a feller spends fishing, and I like to think that would hold fer setting in church. I allus took the view that church was fer the here more than the hereafter. I figger if I do my best with this life, the next one will take care of itself.

I mention going to church because one of the fellers come to the meeting at the country store Saturday night with this report by a marriage counselor at Purdue University. Dr. Wallace Dennon there says what folks need to keep their marriages healthy is more fights. I am full agreed with him, because what he's talking about is talking out your problems instead of sulking over em. He said as long as you fight fair and give the other party as much as you take, you'll build a strong bond between you.

Me and my old lady have been carrying on like that as long as we been together, and even when she gives more than I can take I ease out of the bind by deciding I got pressing business to take care of out of earshot. In a little while, the storm passes and we're both ready to deal the cards for the next hand.

Mister Editor, the church builds on this same kind of fighting. You git a bunch of different people together and you're bound to have difference of opinions. But the church is one place where if you don't agree with somebody you try to. You find a way to git around the differences because you want to. You know it's fer everybody's good that you do, so you do.

To give you some idee, my old lady and the wimmen in her church circle have been fighting among themselves as long as I've known em. They squabble about this and that six days a week and they praise the Lord together on Sunday, and through it all they are the best of friends. I recall once the men in the church fell out about putting a kitchen in the basement. We could agree on was that we'd better let the wimmen work it out. We did and they planned the kitchen to everybody's satisfaction.

I ain't an expert on religion or married life, but I am of a mind that fighting flavored with love is good for whatever ails both of em.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

The first automobile to travel coast-to-coast under its own power arrived in Newark, N. J., from San Francisco on Aug. 31, 1903. The 3,500 mile trip was made in 61 days by a one-cylinder 1903 Packard named "Old Pacific."

At the wheel was Tom Fitch, Packard's plant foreman, who made the journey to prove that an automobile could be driven great distances and was not just a rich man's plaything. The "Old Pacific" is now one of the 200 historic, antique and classic automobiles on display in the Henry Ford Museum's transportation collections.

Reform Welfare?
You've heard the horror stories about the person who collected welfare payments from several states at the same time, about the woman who raked in ADC money for children who hadn't been born, etc.

Such folks do exist. And they give a distorted view of the welfare system and those who really need state help in paying their everyday bills.

A bill currently being discussed in Lansing would help stem the tide of trickle-down welfare fraud by requiring that anyone receiving welfare checks to come in.

Require a photo identification card to cash a welfare check.

Require re-determination of eligibility at least every six months.

Authorize the state to get back any assistance overpayments by a reduction of subsequent grants.

The keeper of Michigan's welfare money, the Department of Social Services, says it "supports the concept of tightening the program regulations to reduce instances of deliberate abuse of the welfare system."

And it's come up with a host of proposed amendments to the proposed bill. Those amendments, the department says, are aimed at insuring conformity with federal program regulations and preventing possible "inadvertent illegality of truly needy individuals."

Right now, the bill is in the talking-about-it stage only. If you have anything to say about the welfare program, write your lawmaker. He may be voting on this question soon.

Medic Up Date
Yet another forward move in Michigan's battle against the problems of medical malpractice insurance and related matters.

Two more pieces of Gov. William Milliken's legislative package have been signed into law.

One extends the so-called Good Samaritan Act to provide immunity from civil damages when a member of a hospital staff responds to a "life-threatening emergency within the hospital."

Exceptions to this immunity are cases of gross neglect, willful or wanton misconduct or cases in which the physician or nurse had treated the patient in the past.

The second new law prohibits sale or purchase of medical information without the prior written permission of the patient.

Milliken says the state is "fast approaching the comprehensive legislative solution to the malpractice problem."

Lawmakers' work, he says, "has laid the groundwork for both short-term and long-term solutions."

Hot Paint Goes on State Highways

"Cold" rigs and black paint are out for highway lane-marking this year, and the emphasis is on "hot" rigs and more yellow and white paint.

For calendar 1975, the Department of State Highways and Transportation will use some 307,200 gallons of white paint and 145,700 gallons of yellow paint, mixed with 2.5 million pounds of tiny glass reflective beads. This is what makes the paint center lines and edge lines on the 9,300 miles of state highways.

"Hot" paint that dries within two minutes of application will be used exclusively for the first time this year. The switch from "cold" to "hot" paint has taken place over the last 10 years, with the last "cold" rig used in 1974.

Because of the short drying time, hot paint is ready for traffic immediately, eliminating the costly practice of blocking off painted lanes until they dry.

Twelve Department pavement marking machines, called "rigs," are heavy-duty trucks equipped with complex heating systems, tanks and air compressors. They operate on dry, mild days when 45 degrees.

Black paint, previously used between skip white and yellow lane markings, has been eliminated this year as an economy measure.

Tips to farmers on getting the most out of their pastures came this week from Donald R. Johnson, county agricultural agent. This is the season of the year when you need to be cautious about too-close grazing. It's bad for the grass, hard on the soil and actually lowers the total production of milk and meat from the pasture.

State Police report 147 persons killed in traffic accidents during June, a decrease of about 25 percent, compared with the 197 deaths tallied in June 1974.

June's rate this year marked the lowest for that month since 1967, and was well below the average of 210 for that month in the 1970-74 period.

As of the end of June, Michigan had counted some 711 traffic deaths. That total is nine percent lower than the 787 charged to the same reporting period in 1974.

What accounts for the decrease? Police say "influential factors" in the death-rate drop are a slower-paced economy, the reduction of the maximum speed limit to 55 miles per hour as well as some decrease in motorist travel because of gas prices.

WHAT ARE YOUR CHANCES for recovery under Chiropractic Care?

All statistics used in this chart are based upon studies reported by the Chiropractic Research Foundation of the National Chiropractic Association, the Committee on Research of the International Chiropractors Association, and Parker Chiropractic Research Foundation. These reports represent the results obtained under chiropractic care for a large variety of chronic conditions. The vast majority of these cases had also been previously diagnosed and treated by practitioners other than Chiropractors.

Barn Dance Raises $1,800 For Special Ed

On Saturday, June 14, after months of preparation by the Lima Liberty Bells and the Brush Katers, a local social organization, a barn dance was held at the Charles Trinkle farm near Dexter. Approximately $900 persons shared in the excitement.

Proceeds from this event, approximately $1,800, were donated to the Dexter Public Schools Special Education program and also the Special Olympics fund of High Point, the new mental retardation service center operated by the Washtenaw Intermediate School District.

Money donated to High Point will be used to buy uniforms for participants and also pay for food and lodging at State and National Special Olympic competition.

Army Has New Portable Bridge Launcher Vehicle

The U. S. Army takes its bridges along when it moves, thanks to development of the portable Armored Vehicle-Launched Bridge (AVLB).

According to local Army representative Sgt. Jones, the bridges have been released to U.S. Army forces world-wide and are authorized equipment for tank battalions, armored cavalry squadrons and divisional engineer battalions.

A unique item in the Department of Defense inventory, the AVLB consists of a launching mechanism built in a modified tank chassis, without turret or gun. The bridge is in a folded position along the top, connected by a hydraulic cylinder assembly which guides the bridge over the obstacle to be crossed.

What's Cooking In Michigan

It's blueberry picking time, and there's a good supply of the Michigan-grown fruit in prospect for this season. Select plump, firm berries, dark blue in color with a silvery bloom. Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture say this bloom is a natural protective waxy coating and your best indication of quality.

Blueberries are the original convenience food. You don't have to peel, pit or hull them. Simply wash and enjoy. Whether you pick your own at local blueberry farms or buy fresh ones at area markets, you'll want to get enough for your freezer, maybe some homemade jam and plenty for eating fresh and cooking.

Blueberries are perishable and bruise easily so buy only in amounts you plan to use within a few days when doing your weekly shopping. The season lasts from late July to early September but generally reaches its peak by mid-August. This is the best time to buy in quantity for home canning and freezing. Quality is usually excellent and prices lowest.

To freeze berries the quick way, wash, pack into freezer containers space, seal and freeze. Or you may want to use the syrup or sugar pack methods for preserving fresh fruits. For best results in both home canning and freezing follow reliable guides or contact your local home extension agent.

Michigan is first among the states in blueberry production. The fruit was brought to our state in the late 1920's by a local fruit horticulturist. Since then, the industry has grown steadily, developing new and better varieties, and taking advantage of technological advances in production and harvesting techniques. blueberry production received a boost with the invention of the mechanical harvester. Also growers began increased usage of rental bee colonies for pollination resulting in an even greater abundance of the tender juicy fruit.

Yankees Win 2 for Little League Title

Little League Yankees won their last two games of the season to win the championship with a record of nine wins and one loss.

In the July 23 game the Yankees won over the Cardinals by a score of 18-8. Hitting home runs for the Yankees were Dave Wojcik with two, Bill Merkel one, and Jon Bentley one. Boys with triples were Doug Pagliarini, Bill Merkel and Jay Eibler. Tim Pennington also had a good day at the plate with three hits.

In a well played game on July 24 the Yankees defeated the Indians, 16-11. Home run hitters for the Yankees were Jon Bentley, Bill Merkel and Dave Wojcik. Doug Pagliarini had two triples to help the winning cause. Pitching for the Yankees were Doug Pagliarini and Dave Wojcik. Jon Bentley made an outstanding fielding play to cut off a rally by the Indians.

All team members made a contribution in helping win the championship. At all times they tried their best and were very attentive during the games, according to their coach, Syl Wojcik.

Rodney Robeson and Jim McInnes, and at first was Doug Henson. In the hot spot at catcher was Scott Dault.

Outfielders included Ernie Bristle, Dale Petsch, (who at times played shortstop) Thad Bell, Craig Leach, Andy Fletcher, Matt Lorenz, and Robbie Friday.

The offense was led by the home-run hitting of Ernie Bristle, Ken Nadeau, Mike Neibauer and Doug Henson. In three of the nine games both Scott Dault and Bob Trevens homered each time they batted.

Jim McInnes was the utility infielder where he played various positions as well as catcher.

Most improved on the team were Jim McInnes and Ernie Bristle as both their hitting and fielding improved throughout the season.

As the season progressed, the team became closer as they encouraged each other as they learned it took the best effort from each one to win.

The team was very appreciative of the time spent by the assistant coach, Tom Dault, and the third base coach, Richard Friday.

On Monday evening, June 28 the team went to the home of Craig Leach on Freer Rd., for a swimming party to end the season and a lot of fun.

Giants in Second Place

The Giants finished the Little League season in second place. Throughout the season several players were away for various reasons but the rest of the team tried harder and played well at most every game.

The defense was led by the fine pitching of Mike Neibauer and the fielding of Ken Nadeau at third base, and Bob Trevens at short stop. The second basemen were

Yankee T-Ball Sluggers Drive in 77 Runs for Week

In the final week of T-Ball competition the Yankee sluggers continued to hit the ball well and drove in a total of 77 runs to defeat all three challengers.

In the first game of the week, the Yankees used a well-balanced defense and batting assault to sink the Pirates' ship. All 13 Yankee defenders played at least two different positions during the course of the game and all turned in fine performances. Great fielding efforts on the part of rookies Andy Martin and Keith Neibauer bolstered the Yankee defense, which was sparked by a first inning double-play by centerfielder Jeff Salyer and second baseman Eric Green.

Veteran Jeff Salyer led the hitting attack by hitting safely each trip to the plate for the eighth consecutive game when he slugged two singles and a triple in three at-bats.

Rookies Tony Hammerschmidt, Andy Martin, Mark Mull, Keith Neibauer, and Scott Salyer all had a perfect night at the plate, while veterans Chris Gallas, Eric Green, Bobby Mock, and Tom Schaff each recorded two hits in three trips to the plate.

The Pirates made a strong charge in the second and fifth innings, but the Yankee defense was equal to the challenge and when the smoke cleared the Yankees found themselves on top by a score of 23 to 13.

In the second game of the week the Yankees superb defensive play left the Cardinals out on a limb, as second baseman Keith Neibauer pulled off another unassisted double-play in the first inning, and Eric Green, Brian Ackley, and Chris Gallas teamed up to complete the finest double-play of the season.

All of the Yankee defenders turned in fine performances as they have in nearly every game, and shortstop Eric Green played an outstanding game. The Cardinals defense did a fine job, holding the Yankee sluggers to less than 20 runs, only the second time this season any team has been able to accomplish that feat.

Chris Gallas, Mark Mull, Keith Neibauer, and Scott Salyer each had two hits in two trips to the plate, while Brian Ackley could manage only one hit in two at-bats. However, Brian's hit turned out to be the biggest hit of the night when he smashed a home run to left field and led the team to a 10-run third inning. Pitching in with one hit in two trips were Jeff Salyer, Eric Green, Tom Schaff, Joe Gallas, Tony Hammerschmidt, Andy Martin, Shannon Darrow, and Danny Darrow. Michael Coffman hit the ball well both trips to the plate, but the Cardinal shortstop picked off one line drive and one ground ball and fired to first base before Michael could reach it safely. The Yankees were able to old the Cardinals to only one run in the fifth inning and the final score found the Yankees defeating the Cardinals by a score of 13 to 12.

In the final game of the season the Yankees and the Braves engaged in a tremendous hitting duel, which may prove to have been the longest T-Ball game on record, when the two team hammered away at each other for 2 hours and 20 minutes. Each team drove in nine runs in the first inning, but the Braves took the lead in the second, 16 to 15. In the third inning the Braves added six more, but the Yankees sent 23 batters to the plate and drove in a total of 19 runs to take the lead, 34 to 22. The Braves added seven in the fourth, while the Yanks added six, to lead, 40 to 29. In the fifth inning the Yankee defense stumbled, allowing the Braves to score 11 runs to knot it at 40 runs each. In the bottom of the fifth Bobby Mock led off with a single, but was forced at second on a drive to shortstop by Tom Schaff. Joe Gallas followed with a single, and rookie Tony Hammerschmidt drove in the winning run with a single to score Tom Schaff from third, and the Yankees downed the Braves, 41 to 40.

Veteran slugger Jeff Salyer led the hitting assault with a home run, double and three singles and Keith Neibauer slammed two homers and a single. Other batters recording a perfect night at the plate were Chris Gallas, Bobby Mock, Tom Schaff, Shannon Darrow, and Mark Mull who smashed a grand slam home run in the fourth inning.

During the season the Yankees scored an average of 29 runs per game while holding their opponents to an average of 18 runs per game, and they finished the season with a record of 9 wins and 13 losses.

PONY LEAGUE ALL-STARS: The best of the bunch played in an All-Star Pony League game Tuesday evening. Pictured are Fortner's team, Bauer's team and Rademacher's team who joined forces Tuesday evening at South school. Sitting in the front are members of Fortner's team, Russ Stofflett, John Rowe, Mike Gipson, Tom Vander-Voort, Dick Pfeiffer and Joe Krichbaum. Bauer's

On Aug. 6, 1781, 60 loyalists and Indians attacked Patriots at Shell's Bush, N.Y. The stout defense of the Shell family resulted in the death or wounding of 26 attackers, without loss of a Patriot life.

On Aug. 29, 1778 heavy losses were incurred by both sides as Patriots were attacked by British forces at Quaker Hill, Rhode Island. A regiment of black soldiers from Rhode Island distinguished itself in the battle.

Changes Told in Beekeeper Loss Payment Program

Effective July 15, the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) will no longer make Beekeeper Indemnity Program payments on queen bee nuclei losses which occur between Aug. 15 and Dec. 31 each year, according to Carolyn Stump, Washtenaw ASCS County Executive director. (Queen bee nuclei are miniature colonies used in the production of queen bees for sale.) Current provisions of the program permit payments on queen nuclei losses up to Oct. 1.

USDA has also changed the final date for adjusting the degree of loss on bee colonies from Nov. 1 to Oct. 1, Mrs. Stump said.

The Oct. 1 deadline date for changes in the degree of loss does not prohibit a payment on a loss of bees that occurs after that date, but only a deadline for adjustments of losses that occurred before Oct. 1. The change will not significantly affect the payments to beekeepers but will improve the administration of the program.

The honey bee is important to the U. S. economy, Mrs. Stump pointed out, because it is the major pollinator of legume seeds and fruit and vegetable crops. The Beekeeper Indemnity Program provides payments to beekeepers have suffered losses as a result of the use of insecticides which has been registered and approved for use by the Federal Government.

On Aug. 27, 1776, some 10,000 American soldiers were soundly defeated by 22,000 British and German troops in the Battle of Long Island, N. Y. American losses totaled 1,400.

R. J. Ratzliff. The bride's cousin, Miss Carole Dietle of Chelsea and Dennis Stofor sang the "Wedding Song."

The former Miss Dietle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Dietle of Canton, O., Mr. Hillman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hillman of 3344 Werker Rd.

For her wedding the bride chose a white voile gown trimmed in venetian lace. The empire waist styled gown with "Princess Anne" sleeves and a modestly bouffant skirt was accented with pearls and iridescent pearls trimmed in pink satin ribbon. An illusion veil held in place by a matching cap carried a triangular shaped bouquet of bridal pink roses with a center of deeper burgundy roses accented by baby's breath.

Miss Cindi Leach of 40 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., served as maid of honor to the bride. She was groomed in a dark pink halter style sheath with a floral jacket, variegated pink and red sweetheart roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Bury of Gregory and Miss Alicia

Pierson of 20324 Jerusalem Rd. They were groomed in light pink halter style sheath gowns with matching floral jackets. The girls carried flowers like those of the maid of honor. A sprig of baby's breath was worn in their hair.

Other attendants were two flower girls, both groomed in pink sleeveless sheath dresses.

Peter Stahl of Gregory, and a mutual friend of the couple, served Mr. Hillman as best man. Ushers were the bride's two brothers, Larry and Kirk Dietle of Canton, O.

A reception at the Inverness Country Club immediately followed the ceremony. The bride's parents poured punch, and Miss Cheryl Cameron of 125 Grant St. and Mrs. Joan Williams, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Miss Charlot Gehring of Ann Arbor, cousin of the bride, attended the guest book.

Following a trip west, the couple will make their home in Ann Arbor. The bride is employed by LithoCrafters of Ann Arbor and the bridegroom is an apprentice plumber with Hilltop in Chelsea.

Girl Scouts from Foreign Countries Entertained

The Western Washtenaw Area Association of Girl Scouts was hostess to 24 U. S. Girl Scouts and 26 Girl Guides from 14 foreign countries for a day in the country on Monday, July 28.

The visitors toured several farms in the area including a sod farm, a dairy farm and a chicken farm, and climaxed the day with a picnic at Hudson Mills Park.

The day was arranged and coordinated by Mrs. Hans Skjærlund, president of WWA.

The visiting Girl Scouts have been attending conferences at Concordia Lutheran College in Ann Arbor as their part in International Woman's Year activities. The conferences stress equality, development and peace.

Included on the guest list were girls from Brazil, Denmark, Germany, Ghana, Sri Lanka (Ceylon), Tanzania, Greece, Mexico, Philippines, Jamaica, Pakistan, Peru and Japan.

While they were in Dexter, the 50 girls first visited the Cackleberry Farm of the John Wiltses at 7150 Strawberry Lake Rd., to see chickens and how the eggs are handled for market.

They then traveled to the Hans Skjærlund sod farm on Strawberry Lake Rd., and discovered how sod was cut.

After a morning of tours the girls were then treated to a swim and refreshments at Portage Lake home of Scout Leader Alice Rawson. Pat Allott was co-hostess.

In the afternoon the girls visited the dairy farm of John and Chris Sullivan, 5233 Mast Rd., to watch the milking of cows and pitching hay in the silo.

A finale for the afternoon was a pot-luck picnic at Hudson Mills Park. The girls in Cadette Troop 125 were hostesses for this part of the day and several other Dexter troops participated in making the guests welcome. Also present for the festivities was Mrs. Louis Gafan, president of the Huron Valley Council.

The evening's program included skits by the girls on marriages in the different countries, singing in native languages and guitar playing. The Ceylon Girl Guide demonstrated how to wrap a sari and the girls gained many insights in how each other lives from a day together in the country.

During the past week the girls have held discussions with Sarah Power, a University of Michigan regent, with Erna Rinderson and Mary Ann Mahaffey, members of Detroit's Common Council, and with Mother Waddles of Detroit.

Other excursions included a trip to Bob-Lo and Greenfield Village. The girls will return to their native countries this week.

CELERY PRODUCTION

Years ago Michigan ranked first in the country in celery crops. In fact about 100 years ago Kalamazoo was the birthplace of the commercial celery crop in the United States. Now we are again creeping up as we ranked third among the states in this crop in 1974. From 2,500 acres of celery, Michigan sent 107,400,000 pound to market, valued at $7,528,000. This was a 14 percent increase over the preceding year.

Mrs. Louis Fiedler Former Detroit Resident Dies at Methodist Home

Mrs. Louis Alvina Fiedler of the Chelsea United Methodist Home died July 16 at the age of 85.

She was born in Detroit Jan. 16, 1890, the daughter of August and Wilmine (Judith) Brege. She married Louis Fiedler on Feb. 6, 1913. He preceded her in death Dec. 3, 1947. She came to the Chelsea Methodist Home from Detroit in 1965. She is survived by three sons: Louis of West Bloomfield, Howard of Detroit, and Richard of Royal Oak; 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday, July 18, at 2 p.m. at the Chelsea United Methodist Home with the Rev. Ira Wood officiating. Burial followed in the Forest Lawn Cemetery, Detroit. Arrangements were by Staffan Funeral Home.

Jackson County Fair Shoots for New Records

Plans were being completed this week for what Jackson County Fair officials predicted would be a record-breaking season. "The 1975 Fair is shaping up to be the most varied and exciting one we've had yet," said Fair manager Herman Gumper. "The fairgrounds have never looked better; we have an action-packed grandstand program; and we have some beautiful exhibits planned for fairgoers."

Special attention has been given during the past weeks to the fairgrounds itself. Gumper added. Crews have been at work painting and redecorating, planting shrubbery, and laying out the petunia displays which are a special feature of the Jackson Fair.

Premium books have already gone out to exhibitors. Gumper said, and entries have been coming in steadily from all over Michigan and neighboring states. Gumper predicted that more than $60,000 in prize money would be paid out to exhibitors this year.

The grandstand program, always a powerful attraction to fairgoers, headlines the Royal Lipizzan Stallions on Aug. 7 and Sha Na Na on Aug. 9. The Lipizzans are an American-based equestrian show featuring famous riders and their horses in precision maneuvers. Sha Na Na, the popular male music group, will present a spoof of rock and roll music of the fifties.

Other grandstand offerings during the week will include the Country Schoolhouse Jubilee, a program of country, western and gospel music; the American Thrill Show, featuring automobile stunts; the Death Riders Thrill Show with dangerous feats by motorcycle daredevils; and two evenings of tractor/pull competitions.

All of this will be in addition to the traditional County Fair attractions: the midway and sideshows; championship livestock exhibits; handicraft displays; fruit, flower and produce competitions; and an animal farm for the children.

A special, free-of-charge attraction for the kids will be the Yogi Bear and Boo Boo Show, performing daily at 3, 5 and 7 p.m. Benny Poole's popular music combo will play nightly, free, for fairgoers in the picnic area.

The Fair will open at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 3, and will run thru Saturday, Aug. 9. Seats for the grandstand programs are already on sale and may be ordered by mail or picked up at the Fair office, 200 W. Ganson, Jackson.

On Aug. 7, 1782, General George Washington established the Badge of Military Merit (the Purple Heart) as an award for "singular meritorious service."

Stock's Team Takes Pony League Title

Defeat Koch's, 11-3

On Tuesday, Stock's Pony League team played Koch's team and won, 11-3. Pitching for the game were John Welton and Jeff Fouty. Home runs were hit by John Riemenschneider, Ray Ziegler, and Jeff Fouty. Excellent catches were made by Ray Ziegler and Tobin Boyd. Hits were made by Carl Schwarze, Jim Stock, Steve Grau, John Welton, Chan Lane, and Tobin Boyd.

On Wednesday, the team won the championship game, by defeating Rademacher's team, 9-4. Pitchers for the victory were John Welton and Jeff Fouty. Leading hitter for the game was Jim Stock with two home runs, a double and a single. John Riemenschneider contributed one home run to the victory. It was a total team victory with excellent infield play by Jeff Fouty, Carl Schwarze, Steve Grau, Jim Stock and John Welton. Excellent outfield plays were made by Jane Verwey, Ray Ziegler and Tony Emmons.

All-Stars selected to play in Tuesday night's game were John Riemenschneider, Jeff Fouty, Carl Schwarze, John Welton, Jim Stock and Steve Grau.

Fortner's Team Wins 2

Faith paid off this past week for Pony League Team No. 6 coached by Ted Fortner and his assistant, Claude Gipson, as the team marked up two victories—15-0 over Schmitke's team and 15-1 over Koch's. Collecting hits for Team No. 6 were Jeff Rowe, one homer, two singles; Jeff Klink, one homer and three singles; Ross Stofflett, three doubles and two singles; Dick Pfeifer, one single, two doubles and one triple; Mark Steinaway, three singles; Mike Gipson, two singles, one double and one triple; and Mark Bullock, one homer and one single. Coach Fortner said that the team "received fine pitching from Joe Krichbaum, John Rowe and Tom VanderVoort."

Members of the team who made the All-Stars are Ross Stofflett, Dick Pfeifer, Mike Gipson, John Rowe, Tom VanderVoort and Joe Krichbaum.

Fortner said that he was very appreciative of all the assistance he received from parents and especially from Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gipson.

Schmitke Boasts Slugger

Schmitke's team finished up the season beating Bauer's team, 10-3. Mike Wade gave himself a homerun with his new bat and finished the season with eight hits, one double and a beautiful .572 batting average.

Scott Pronaska hit a triple, two singles and ended the season with 14 hits and being the home-run leader for the team with four.

Sam Coomes hit a double and a single, finishing his season with a .400 average and crossing home-plate five times to raise the team's total runs to 82.

Craig Thams doubled, singled and walked, closing his season with seven hits, two home-runs and struck out 17 opponents.

Geoff Shaw made a diving fly-ball catch and then doubled a runner out at second and gave himself a hit for the season.

Brian Blough received two hits for the team, Lori Davis one hit, Rick Eder four hits, and Mark Beyer with two hits adding to the team's total of 104 hits. These players played well, both offensively and defensively.

Eric Headrick crossed the plate 11 times for the team, had a double, a sacrifice, and was walked eight times because of the frightful look he gave the pitchers when he stepped up to the plate.

Leon Durgan also had the problem of being walked seven times which kept him from hitting all the home-runs he was planning on. Phil Hoffman was walked four times for the year, hit by a pitch and defensively struck out 14 batters to help the team's pitching staff, which gave the opponents a total of 91 strike-outs.

Vincent Salyer ended his season with a home-run and a batting average of .308.

Mike O'Quinn finished the season with two doubles, three stolen bases, four walks and a very high batting average of .600.

Steve Wilson had a very good season at the plate with 13 hits, two doubles, one triple, three home-runs, four stolen bases and a fine batting average of .520.

Keith Schmitke also had a very

Past VFW Commanders Photos Hung

A long desired project was finally completed on July 23 with the unveiling of the Past Commanders pictures from the Local VFW Post No. 4576. Mac Packard had made all arrangements for this, and the photos of all 16 men would be placed accordingly in the meeting room, at 105B N. Main St.

All living commanders and the reproductions of pictures obtained from the families of Ren Hutzler, Carl Benjamin and Albert Kasper were made by Bill Kumpf of Elm St. Included with the above are Charles Ritter, Paul Frayer, Mac Packard, J.C. Geer, Laurence Boyer, Henry Notten, Fremont Boyer, Stan Montange, Guy Weatherwax, William Yukich, Roy Bohamo, Frank White, and Ken Platt.

Killelea Attends Convention of Graphoanalysts

Thomas J. Killelea of 42 Chestnut Dr., attended the 1975 International Congress and Institute of Graphoanalysis held at the Palmer House in Chicago, Ill. The six-day educational session which began July 20, attracted approximately 450 students and professional graphoanalysts from all part of the world. Purpose of the meeting was to sharpen skills in identifying personality traits through the analysis of an individual's handwriting and also to learn how this skill could be used in various business-related activities such as personnel selection, management consulting, credit investigation, and questioned document examination work.

The role of graphoanalysis in personal and family counseling as well as in child and vocational guidance work was also explored during the six-day seminar. Most of those who attended the Congress had already received Certified or Master Certified Graphoanalysts. The registrants could earn additional Certificates of Resident Training in Graphoanalysis upon accumulation of 66 required credits attained during the last three years' attendance at the summer session. Advanced Seminar Certificates were awarded to six-year Institute graduates. Special workshop sessions were held for Graphoanalysts who had received both their Resident Training and Advanced Seminar Certificates.

Past VFW Commanders (Continued from page seven) with their wives, were guests, along with Kumpf and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith from Chelsea. Jeffrey Boyer, young magician from Chelsea, entertained the 40 members and guests present, with his "slight of hand" show. As Packard read an appropriate resume of each year served, by each commander, Jim Finch, along with wives or friends of each, unveiled that picture.

Ypsilanti Man Appointed to State Collection Practices Board

Gov. William G. Milliken Friday announced appointments to the Collection Practices Advisory Board according to a 1974 law which became effective July 1.

The board, in the Department of Licensing and Regulation, consists of five members, three of whom are actively engaged in any facet of the collection agency business, and two to represent consumers - at large. The consumer members must neither be licensed under this act nor employed by a licensee.

The new act licenses and regulates collection agencies, prohibits certain collection practices, authorizes the Attorney General and the Department of Licensing and Regulation to enforce the act, and imposes penalties for violations.

The three members actively engaged in Collection Business are: Peter B. Fletcher, 302 Huron St., Ypsilanti, president of Ypsilanti Credit Bureau, for a term expiring July 24, 1978.

Alan J. Walker, 802 S. Third, Alpena, owner of the Credit Bureau of Alpena, for a term expiring July 24, 1977.

Michael J. Cormier, 2585 Glenaele Dr., Bay City, vice-president and secretary of the Credit Bureau of Bay City, Inc., for a term expiring July 24, 1978. He serves on the Collection Service Division Committee of the Associated Credit Bureaus of America, and serves as chairman of the Collection Service Division of the Associated Credit Bureaus of Michigan.

The two members who represent the general public are: Mrs. Katherine M. Willis, R.I. Shaw Rd., Lawton, for a term expiring July 24, 1977.

Mrs. Carol S. Josephson, 1944 Hall, S.E., Grand Rapids, for a term expiring July 24, 1977.

The board will elect officers and adopt rules of procedure. The appointments are subject to Senate confirmation.

Who pays for living expenses (elsewhere) while they repair your home?

Most policies provide the coverages you expect—fire, lightning, storms, riots, vandalism and the like. They cover the cost of repairs due to these losses. But have you thought about the cost of living elsewhere if your home has to be repaired or rebuilt? It could run into hundreds of dollars. Or, it could be covered in black and white in our Homeowners Policy, so we would pay those extra living expenses! Give us a call. We'll put your home insurance all together in one policy for convenience and saving's sake.

Centerless Grabs Lead

In what seems like a stunning week in the fast-pitch league, Ann Arbor Centerless took over first place for the first time this year with two extra inning victories, while the league favorite, Jiffy Mixes, was in the process of losing twice.

The week's action began in the early game on Monday as Bennett Installation defeated Jiffy Mixes for the second time this year. Tom O'Haver pitched a fine ball game and received flawless support from his team in the field. Jiffy also played well, but were again plagued by a weak hitting attack.

The second game of the evening saw a much improved Chelsea Milling team take Ann Arbor Centerless into an extra inning before Centerless was able to pull out the victory. This seemed to open the door for both Centerless and 3-D Sales, but 3-D Sales failed to take advantage of Jiffy's lapse as they lost on Wednesday to Thompson's Pizza, after Zion Lutheran had recorded their second victory of the year over Stivers.

The race tightened even more on Friday as Bennett continued on their winning ways by defeating Stivers in the first game and Ann Arbor Centerless as Max Randolph received the win in relief of Herb Hinz.

The season is still far from over as all of the top four teams, except Jiffy, must play each other, and as all of the teams will attest, this season none of the league's teams are easy victims.

Second Up for Grabs.

Walt's Barber Shop has now sewed up the title in the Class A Slow-Pitch League; however, none of the action seems to have gone out of the league as IPSCO, Village Motors, and the Ann Arbor Eagles are locked in a tie for second place.

On Tuesday, Walt's defeated the Mark IV Lounge in a close game, followed by IPSCO's defeat of Ganjai Oil, and the Ann Arbor Eagles win over McCalla's Feeds. Thursday saw Rulea Farm defeat Mark IV and Village Motors defeat IPSCO, while Walt's kept both their win streak alive and Ganjai kept their losing streak alive. In a Friday make-up game, Walt's routed Mark IV and then IPSCO took a little revenge for their earlier defeat by Village Motors by defeating them in the second game.

While aircraft noise can be a serious problem for people who live near major airports, many more people are exposed each day to the sounds generated by surface transportation vehicles including automobiles, trucks and motorcycles, according to hearing specialists. They point out that noise produced by surface vehicles often reaches the level of being hazardous to human hearing.

No One Wants Title

It would seem that none of the teams in the Class B League really want to win the championship this year. Bollinger Sanitation, which began the year looking like easy champs, has managed to lose four of their last five games, and Federal Screw, which can beat Bollinger (three times) does not seem capable of beating the other teams.

In last week's action, the top three teams all managed to split their games, Bollinger's defeating Fortune on Thursday after losing to Federal Screw on Wednesday. Federal Screw beat Bollinger but then lost to 3-D Sales on Thursday. Norm's Body Shop won over Fortune on Monday, but then lost to Wolverine Bar on Wednesday.

In other action, the Wolverine Bar won its second game of the week when they defeated 3-D Sales on Monday.

The first passenger train in New York State to be drawn by a steam locomotive made its inaugural run between Albany and Schenectady in August, 1831. Christened the DeWitt Clinton after a former governor of the state, the train consisted of five cars in addition to the tender. Three were old stagecoaches, two were open cars with planks so passengers could sit sideways. The trip was made in about an hour, with the train reaching a speed of up to 30 miles per hour. An exact reproduction of this historic train, along with a variety of early locomotives, trace railroad history at Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn.

I-94 Between Ann Arbor, Ypsi All Messed Up

Lansing—Motorists on Interstate 94 Freeway between Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti can expect slow-downs this summer due to periodic closing of one lane in each direction, the Department of State Highways and Transportation warned today.

Modernization and widening projects, now underway to improve safety and traffic capacity between

Jackson Rd. west of Ann Arbor and the US-12 Business Route (Huron - Whittaker) interchange south of Ypsilanti, require periodic lane-closings between 3:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Motorists who routinely use the 10-mile section between the two cities are advised to avoid peak traffic hours or, whenever possible, to use alternate routes. A series of projects involving interchange reconstruction, freeway widening and construction of concrete median barriers are scheduled to continue throughout the summer and fall and resume again next spring until work is completed.
