Wrestlers 4th In Invitational Meet at Olivet

While progress is slow, Chelsea High school's varsity wrestling team is beginning to show some improvement in their over-all performance. The Bulldogs claimed three championships, two third-place finishes and two fourth-place finishes at the Olivet Invitational held last week-end. Final team standings were Dundee on top with 127 points; Lowell, 105; Grand Rapids and Ottawa Hills with 84½ each; Chelsea, 77; Tecumseh, 58; Milford, 53 and Jackson Northwest and Dexter with 49½ each.

Chelsea's three champions were Jim Stahl at 119 pounds, winning his first championship after many seconds. He defeated Tecumseh, 10-1; Lowell, 7-2, and Ault of Dexter, 4-2.

At 126 pounds, Dale Schoenberg continues to impress fans by winning his second invitational in succession and moving his record to 12-0. Dale pinned Tecumseh and Ottawa Hills before defeating a strong Dundee wrestler, 5-1.

Tim Reed at 155 pounds, won his second invitational as well, besting his record to 12-0. Another fine performance by Reed produced a 7-0 win over Jackson Northwest. Tim also posted a 4-0 win over Tecumseh and a fine superior 8-0 decision over Aguirre of Dundee. According to Bulldog coach Richard Bareis, "Tim claims the honor of scoring 12 wins without having a point against him."

Third-place finishers were Mike Young at 132 pounds who lost again to Yoder of Tecumseh, 5-3, but was able to produce two decisions and a pin to gain a third-place finish. Young's season record now stands at 10-2.

At 167 pounds, Bruce Bennett continues to be most impressive with his aggressive wrestling. Bareis remarked "Bruce could have very well been in the finals as he lost a very tight 9-8 decision to Dundee." Bennett scored a pin over Jackson Northwest, a 4-0 decision over Ottawa Hills and a 7-0 overtime win over Tecumseh to take third. Bruce's record now stands at 8-4.

Picking up fourth-place finishes were John Bulick and Tom Bareis, then received a bye and picked Bulick lost his first match, up a 4-2 decision over Tecumseh.

Bareis, at heavyweight, lost his first match to the champ but came back to score a pin win over Dundee and a 4-3 win over Tecumseh before losing in the consolation finals.

Chelsea scored points in all five weight classes with the exception of 112 pounds. Mark Bucholz scored a 6-1 decision before losing 3-0 in the match for fourth. Bob Swanberg picked up a pin over Tecumseh and Kelly Alder scored a 10-3 decision over Ottawa Hills. Todd Headrick, wrestling up at 185 pounds, picked up a decision win over Dexter.

JV Cagers Fall Before Lions Attack

Chelsea JV cagers traveled to South Lyon last Friday evening where they found the Lions attack to be more vicious than their own. The Bulldogs were defeated, 54-44.

According to JV coach, Paul Terpstra, a high number of turnovers (30) together with a cold streak in both the opening and closing quarters of play hurt the team. The Lions outscored the Bulldogs, 12-7 in the first quarter and 19-13 in the fourth. "We also only shot 33 percent from the floor and 45 percent from the foul line," Terpstra added.

High scorer for Chelsea was Randy Harris who put in 17. Harris also had five rebounds. Mark Feeney had seven points as did Chris Smyth. Smyth managed to take care of the high rebounds honors with 11. Dave Schrotenboer had six points and five rebounds.

The Bulldogs are on vacation now until their first game with Columbia Central at home, Jan. 3.

JV Wrestlers Post Win Over Novi

Chelsea JV wrestlers exhibited a lot of promise last week as they defeated Novi, 28-24, coming up with a number of fine performances in doing so.

At 98 pounds, Pat Murphy rolled up a 13-2 lead before getting careless and finally settling for a 13-11 win. At 105 pounds Ray Sabo continues to improve despite a 12-0 loss. Doug Wetzel wrestled very aggressively and finally got caught late in the match for a 6-3 loss.

At 119 pounds Joe Marentette continues to look impressive. Marentette ran up a 15-0 score before scoring a pin. Bart Bauer wrestled well at 126 pounds, scoring a 11-2 decision.

In a tough, close match, John Whitaker showed his ability to win a close match with a 2-1 decision. Rocky Brandel lost a 12-1 decision at 138 pounds. Rick Beeman, at 145 pounds, scored a 9-0 decision, while Greg Reed, at 155 pounds, wrestled to a 7-0 decision.

Victor Verchereau did not take too long in scoring a pin win at 2:07. At 185 pounds, Bob Ostrander scored a takedown before losing in a pin. John Push also lost by a pin at heavyweight.

In exhibition matches, Tony Wisniewski was involved in a high scoring match, but lost, 8-0. "Tony did a good job of moving," reported coach Richard Bareis. Steve Heydlauff fell behind, 7-0, before rallying in the second period and pinning his opponent. Steve Marriott came through with a second period pin at 185 pounds.

"In all, the wrestlers show a lot of aggressiveness," Bareis remarked "and some good moves, all of which are important to produce quality wrestlers."

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS: Warren Spaulding, founder of the Spaulding for Children Adoption Agency housed in the Spaulding centennial home on Waltrous Rd., joined 38 of the 185 children the agency has placed for adoption last Saturday for the Agency's annual tree trimming party. ## Dana Employees Receive Turkeys

Chelsea Dana Plant handed out early Christmas gifts in the form of 17-pound birds (turkey that is) to some 406 Dana employees last Friday afternoon. According to a spokesman from Dana's personnel division, the turkeys were purchased with excess monies from the Employees Benefit Fund.

Blood Bank Gains 112 Pints From Clinic

A total of 112 pints of blood were drawn from the arms of area residents Saturday during the Chelsea Jaycees annual Holiday Blood Drive at the Chelsea Fair Service Center. According to Robert Ponte, who chaired this year's drive, the Jaycees surpassed last year's goal by 15 percent. The 96 pints of blood donated last year was the highest number ever recorded previous to this year's record breaking total.

Ponte said that the entire drive was "really successful" thanks to the efforts of school children who designed posters, merchants who displayed them, radio stations who made announcements and donations of refreshments from local grocers. Girl Scouts babysat for blood drive workers and the village sent a truck to insure that the parking lot at the service center was clear. "It all went off very well," Ponte remarked "Something like this really puts you in the Christmas spirit of giving." Ponte also commented on the numbers of people who showed up and made appointments to give blood. "Without them it couldn't have been the success it was." The purpose of this holiday time

Area Churches Plan Special Holiday Events

While visions of stuffed stockings, a Christmas tree laden with gifts and a special dinner dance in the heads of many area children, their parents, grandparents and perhaps some of the children will find their thoughts turning to the religious meaning of Christmas as area churches offer special holiday services for their congregations.

The First United Methodist church will hold a 7 p.m. Christmas Eve Family Service. The service, which will include singing by the children's Glory, Kinder and Praise choirs, a narration of the Christmas story entitled "A Star Was His Candle" and the solo singing of Mrs. Beverly Slater will conclude with the lighting of candles by the entire congregation. Mrs. Annabelle Closson is in charge of co-ordinating the Christmas Eve Service this year.

The narrative play spoken by Brad Myers, Jeff Boyer, Leah Closson, Mrs. Closson and Denise Robbins will be interspersed with Christmas carols sung by the combined choirs and others, including the congregation.

Mrs. Slater, a member of the adult choir at First United Methodist, will be accompanied on the auto harp for her selection "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" by Donna Palmer. The entire congregation will participate in passing the light of Christ, as the choirs and narrators pass lit candles from the Christ Candle around the church.

First United Methodist will not offer a Christmas Day service. St. Paul church will offer two services Christmas Eve. At 7:30 p.m. families and their children are invited to participate in family worship and the children's pageant "Candles for Christmas." The hour-long service will include such vocal selections as "Seven Candles Shining," "The World is Aglow," "The Gleaming Star," "The Wiseman" and "Light A Candle for Christmas." At 11 p.m. members of St. Paul's Congregation family and friends may attend a candlelight worship and Holy Communion. The service will carry the theme "Christmas Through the Centuries." Responsive readings and hymns will be drawn from the first Christmas Eve, the first Christmas Eve service, Christmas in the ninth century, Christmas following the reformation, Christmas a century ago, and Christmas tonight.

First Congregational will hold a 7:30 p.m. Christmas Eve service coupled with a candlelight Holy Communion. Members of the congregation and choir will join in the singing of six traditional Christmas hymns. The Rev. Carl Schwarm will give a sermon based on the visit of the wisemen Matthew 2 1-12 titled "What Do You See."

Two area Lutheran churches, Zion and St. Thomas will band together for their Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve services, while each church will offer separate services on Christmas Day.

At 7:30 p.m. on the eve of Christmas, Zion Lutheran will hold their traditional children's service and pageant. "Joy of All the Earth" will include recitations and singing by the children. At 11 p.m. members of the congregation are invited to join in a service of Candlelight worship and Holy Communion at St. Thomas Lutheran. Pastor of Zion, John Morris will give a sermon at that service.

On Christmas Day, Zion will offer a 10:15 a.m. "Festival Worship," a service including carols on the Christmas theme. St. Thomas' Christmas day service will be (Continued on page six)

Varsity Cagers Find Poor Shooting Loses

Shooting difficulties did the Chelsea Bulldogs in last Friday evening when they met South Lyon to mark up their sixth loss of the season, 59-52. Shooting, which has plagued the Bulldogs all season long, seems to be a major area of difficulty they cannot overcome. Hitting only four out of 14 free throws and shooting 34 percent from the floor just wasn't good enough for a Bulldog victory.

The Lions managed to outscore the Bulldogs in all but the third quarter when they took a four-point lead. However, fourth quarter play did away with any chance of a victory as the Lions took the lead and the game.

High scorer for the Bulldogs was Randy Guenther with 17 points. Guenther, in spite of a sore foot "played well," remarked assistant varsity coach Jim Winter. He also managed to snag 10 rebounds. (Continued on page three)

Novi Matmen Trample Bulldog Wrestlers, 36-18

Chelsea varsity grapplers traveled to Novi last Thursday, where they found out how much improving they would have to do if they are to be contenders for league honors. The Bulldogs lost the meet as Novi's wildcats were able to outscore them 100 percent, 36-18. Chelsea's chance for a win over the Wildcats was hampered by the loss of co-captain Dennis Bauer who was out with an elbow injury.

Novi's over-all balance showed as they were able to dominate all but five matches and picked up five pins.

At 98 pounds Mark Bucholz lost a 4-0 decision. Joe Keiser at 105 pounds lost a 7-0 decision. John Bullick, at 112 pounds, suffered a pin loss while Jim Stahl provided the Bulldog's first win with a 2-0 decision at 119 pounds. Dale Schoenberg continued his fine wrestling with a 3-0 decision over a tough opponent.

At 132 pounds Mike Young scored an 11-2 superior decision. At 138 pounds Bob Swanberg was pinned by a very strong opponent. Kelly Alder, 145 pounds, also was caught in a pin late in his match.

Co-captain Tim Reed pushed his undefeated record up another notch with a 10-0 superior decision. At 167 pounds Bruce Bennett is providing the CHS coaching staff with a pleasant surprise. Bennett's fine wrestling blasted his opponent 12-1, just missing his pin on a couple of occasions. 185-pound Todd Headrick filled in for Bauer and suffered a loss to a very strong opponent. At heavyweight, Tom Bareis wrestled hard but lost to another strong opponent by a fall.

Coach Bareis remarked that he believes it is unfair to be critical of his team's performances thus far this season. "A lot of these young men have just not wrestled enough to have the confidence needed to stay on the mat with a tough opponent."

THE NATIVITY: What would a Christmas program be without the Nativity Scene? Not much for the boys at St. Louis school who have included this scene in their annual Christmas program every year. Pictured here are the boys depicting the three wise men, angels, Mary, Joseph, and visiting shepherds for the conclusion of their Christmas program held last Sunday at the school.

Christmas Dinner Guest for Patients

Christmas will be a special day at Chelsea Community Hospital, it was announced today by Willard H. Johnson, administrator of the hospital.

Each patient hospitalized over Christmas Day may invite one relative or friend to have Christmas dinner, at the noon hour, with all the trimmings, courtesy of the hospital. Patients and guests will be encouraged to use the hospital's comfortable home-like dining room.

ANOTHER PINT: Blood donor and co-chairman of the Jaycees annual Holiday Blood drive, Bucky O'Dell relaxes after giving his pint of blood last Saturday afternoon at the Fair Service Center. Looking on are Bill Tudor, Phyllis Rowe of the American Red Cross, co-chairman Robert Ponte and Hap Baker. The Jaycees more than topped their goal of 96 pints last Saturday afternoon, drawing 112 pints of blood for the use of holiday accident victims. "It was very successful," remarked Ponte.

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I hope by the time this little piece gets to you that you can see some light at the end of the tunnel, as them economists like to say. I know this has been a busy time for you, as it has for us out here in the country. I hope now you can catch your breath and starting enjoying the holidays like normal folks.

The fellers got down to the country store earlier than usual Saturday night on account of wanting to get out of the house before their old ladies thought of somepun else they had forgot to tell them to do. The feller that runs the store had a chance to get a word in the discussion, and he was complaining about all the inventory and tax records he's got to take care of before the end of the year. He claims he spends 10 hours a day trying to make a living, and another two hours ever night keeping books for the Government free.

The store feller said he's got more records now than when the OPA was in charge during the war. He recalled when OPA took price ceilings off it felt good to be running your own business, but now he can wait on a customer only now and then when he ain't filling out tax forms. But he said he was happy this Christmas, special since he had a six-month-old grandbaby. He said he had got her a electric swing.

Mister Editor, the fellers perked up their ears at that. Bug Hookum said he knewed about automatic car shifters and electric fruit ripeners and rings you wear that change colors to show the mood you're in, but a swing that swings itself put the stopper in the jug of modern conveniences. A grandpa that would ruther plug in a swing than swing the baby himself ought to be chained to his tax books, was Bug's words. Bug said we got power gadgets that do everything from shine our shoes to comb our hair, and if he had any money today he's buy stock in the battery companies.

The fellers got to talking about the old days, and in their cases that goes back some. Ed Doolittle had saw this report where babies that are born at home are healthier and have fewer problems, and Ed says this goes back to when nobody was born in a hospital. We passed through a period where if you weren't born in a hospital you were sure to catch some terrible ailment, and now we're swinging back. It's kinda like the way doctors treat burns, Ed said one year they cover em, the next they leave em out where air can get to em. Ed said medicine, like everything else, runs in cycles.

Speaking of cycles, I was wondering whatever come of folks that was waiting for a flying saucer to take them to another world. I saw where a man in Oregon won custody of his children on grounds that their mother had left on a UFO trip to eternity. Usual, the man is the one that

How Much Money?

Well paid—relatively speaking—but they put in lots of time for their money. That's the picture of Michigan lawmakers in a recent study of legislative salaries across the country.

The study, conducted by the Citizens Conference on State Legislatures ranks Michigan's $19,000 a year salary and $3,300 annual expense money as sixth in the nation. Only California, New York, Illinois, Alaska and Wisconsin pay their legislators more.

But in terms of working days, Michigan ranks fourth, with an estimated 150 session days this year. South Carolina, California and Massachusetts lawmakers put in more time last year than Michigan's.

The Conference, a non-partisan, not-for-profit organization headquartered in Denver, works to improve the 50 state governing bodies. In 1971, it published a critical study of the 50 legislatures, ranking Michigan's eighth in the nation in terms of over-all function and accountability.

That earlier report also suggested that no legislative salaries should be below the $10,000 a year level. "Compensation of legislators in the larger states should range from $20,000 to $30,000 a year," the reporter said. (Keep in mind that the report was published in 1971, and costs of living have gone up since that time.)

The "pay 'em more" people, those who figure higher salaries would encourage a higher quality legislator, still appear to have support from the Conference. "Higher compensation should be seen as an integral part of improving the quality and responsiveness of public office," says the most recent conference report.

While pay "is not, and should not be, the chief attraction to public office," the conference says, compensation should be high enough so that qualified people are not discouraged to run for office.

Peril of Plants

Careful of those colorful and traditional Christmas decorations, poinsettia plants and mistletoe sprigs! They're potentially dangerous!

The Consumer Product Safety Commission in Washington is considering calling for labels on those decorations warning about their poisonous characteristics.

A book called "Know Your Poisonous Plants," by Wilma Roberts James, warns that all parts of the mistletoe plant, especially the berries, are dangerous. About the poinsettia, the author says: "All parts of the plant contain a poisonous milky sap."

Repair Problems

You whip into your corner gas station for a needed repair on your car—only to find that station no longer offers repair service.

Sound unlikely? Maybe not, says a spokesman for the Service Station Dealers Association of Michigan. "If an amendment is not made to current law dealing with car repairs,

The spokesman, Charles E. Shipley of Detroit, cites a provision of the law calling for a station to post a $10,000 bond before it can perform major auto repairs. That provision takes effect next March 1.

"The service station operators who perform at least 65 percent of all repairs and 95 percent of all emergency repairs cannot, in fact, obtain the bond required," Shipley recently told Secretary of State Richard Austin, whose department administers the auto repair law. Shipley says the $10,000 bond is not available at a cost most dealers can afford and is not obtainable for up to 85 percent of rural dealers.

Shipley says the bonding requirement favors auto dealer service shops and discriminates against service station operators.

Sen. Earl Nelson (D-Lansing) a supporter of the original bill rushed a relieving amendment through the Senate, but the House will have to move fast if the relief is to become law before much trouble develops for repairmen and the Secretary of State who must process the licenses.

Those of you who are kind to our fine, feathered friends all year 'round will want to add some extra holiday fare to your bird feeder. Cranberries and popcorn make a special treat as do small boxes of suet and seed.

Decorating a small tree near your house will provide color for you, and nourishment for the birds. Here are a few suggestions for decorating your bird tree:

HOLIDAY DOUGHNUTS—Loop colored ribbon through the hole of a doughnut, and add a sprig of holly berry. Hang on tree with wire.

POPCORN STRINGS—String popcorn onto 20 to 24 inch lengths of heavy duty thread. Hang, looped, onto bird tree.

CRANBERRIES—Use wire, string cranberries and shape into a circle, leaving a length of wire at the end, to attach to the tree.

ORANGE HALVES—Cut oranges in half. Make three holes, equidistant, around the edge of each half, about 1/4" down from edge. Push ends of pipe cleaners through each hole, securing firmly at lower end. At top of pipe cleaners, twist all three ends together tightly. Using another pipe cleaner as a loop, attach to tree.

Santa Claus Started*In America With Dutch

Santa Claus got his start in America with the Dutch colonists who settled New York. They brought with them their belief in St. Nicholas, a generous bishop who came to be regarded as a special friend of children. The Dutch believed that early in December, St. Nicholas visited the children while they slept, leaving gifts for those who were good and switches for those who were not.

Each year at Christmas, inside the Plympton House at Greenfield Village, some of the Dutch traditions surrounding that annual visit by St. Nicholas are recalled. Wooden shoes filled with carrots and straw for St. Nicholas' horse are set on the hearth. And nearby, a pot of white beans signifies the end of famine in St. Nicholas' home country and the replenishing of crops donated to the hungry.

about the diseases they could carry next summer.

She's introduced legislation to require county and district health boards to conduct a continuing monitoring program to see if mosquito-borne diseases pose a threat. "Compared with some other parts of the country, Michigan was only lightly touched (by encephalitis) last summer," Mrs. McCollough says. "But it could be much worse here next year unless we take immediate steps to control mosquitoes."

Chelsea Social Service Provides Christmas Items for 50 Families

"I'm so tired, but I loved it. It's a feeling of relief and a feeling of having done some good," remarked Chelsea Social Services director Linda Ormsby the day after the Chelsea Social services with the help of numerous area persons, completed their annual Christmas basket and gift giveaway. "It went very well," she continued as the tone of her voice reflected the spirit of giving; of knowing she and her assistants had really helped make this Christmas special.

Twenty-four small households of elderly or disabled persons and 26 families with a total of 43 children were recipients of baskets of food, clothing and new toys this year. "The donations were received were tremendous," Mrs.

Ormsby commented. "We had enough money to buy new toys for every child as well as being able to buy some nightgowns, pajamas and small articles of clothing."

Assisting Mrs. Ormsby this year were numerous groups and individuals. Among them, the Chelsea Volunteer Firemen's Auxiliary, a recently formed group of women who took over the Christmas basket program. Chaired by Nadine Koch, these women were responsible for getting donations for the baskets, buying foods and packaging them. The DNR donated two deer for the baskets. The results were "beautiful," Mrs. Ormsby said. She continued, "These women worked all afternoon on Thursday and most of Friday seeing to it that each family received an appropriately packaged box of food for the holidays.

Local merchants assisted in the purchasing of toys for children, while Ann Arbor Federal Savings donated 13 dolls from their "Dress the Doll" contest. These prize-winning dolls, together with dolls donated by the Chelsea Woman's Club and dressed by residents of the Methodist Home, insured that every little girl from the age of 3 to 11 on Mrs. Ormsby's list will receive a doll this year for Christmas. Little boys will receive trucks or planes.

Without the help of Mrs. Katy Harat of the Community Services Agency and Jackie Riehmiller of the Chelsea Social Services Board, Mrs. Ormsby may not have been able to complete all the shopping and gift gathering herself. These two women were right hands to the director in purchasing gifts, and helping mothers select something to please their children.

Now that it is all over for another year, Mrs. Ormsby and her assistants can sit back with a smile, knowing they have done their best to give someone else a merrier Christmas.

Farmers Tax Guide Available From IRS Office

Detroit—Sod sales, crop destruction, chicken purchases, drought sales, almond groves and share farming are among the many subjects of interest covered in the "Farmer's Tax Guide," a free publication available from the Internal Revenue Service.

R. L. Plate, district director of Internal Revenue for Michigan, said the 64-page publication, IRS Publication 225, is geared to answer all the basic tax questions applying to farming situations. "Farmer's Tax Guide" shows, by example, how to prepare the Form 1040 and related schedules—and lists important tax dates which affect farmers during the course of the year.

Plate pointed out that the "Farmer's Tax Guide," which is written in easy-to-understand language, provides useful hints on how good records can help a farmer prepare an accurate tax return and pay only the correct amount of tax.

Varsity Cagers...

Mike Tobin, who seems to have improved in the last couple of games, put in 12 points and had the high number of rebounds at 11. Randy Sweeney also hit in double figures with 10. Sweeney, Winter said "is finally playing the way he did before he got sick early in the season." Sweeney also had six rebounds.

The Bulldogs now stand at 1-6 with their only win over Pinckney more than a week ago.

Too many parents tie up their dogs and let their 16-year-old sons and daughters run loose.

Cager of the Week

PETE FEENEY (10): Chelsea's Bulldog cagers were glad for junior guard Pete Feeney last Tuesday evening. Forced into a three-minute overtime period, the Bulldogs laid all their cards on Feeney's free throw. It was a good bet, as the 5'9", 140-pound youth easily dropped the shot, giving the team their one-point victory. Pete who has been playing basketball since the 5th grade when he and his family of three brothers and two sisters lived in Detroit, is in his first year as a member of the varsity squad. "I decided to concentrate on basketball this year," he remarked when questioned about his participation in other high school sports. Concentration is an apt word... through it Pete has shown marked improvement, according to his coach, Tom Ballstrete. As usual, cagers are asked to make an educated guess about their season. Pete's reply, "I think we will give the other teams a run. We're doing everything better." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Michael Feeney.

Origin of Christmas Cards in U. S. Dates Back to About 1875

Would you believe that about four billion Christmas cards are sent every Christmas? No wonder the post office hires extra help each year! It does sound like an insurmountable job! But what a lovely way to wish friends and family well and to renew old friendships. But do you know that exchanging Christmas cards is a comparatively recent custom?

Although there are several claims as to who originated the sending of Christmas cards, there is evidence this lovely custom began in England in the early 1800's. It is generally acknowledged that Louis Prang, a native German who settled in Boston, introduced them in America in about 1875.

His early cards, produced by a process of color lithography, were models of expert craftsmanship. They featured flower designs such as daisies and roses, and were quite unlike Christmas cards of today. By 1881, Prang was turning out about 5 million cards a year, and as time went by he offered more typical Christmas scenes, including the visit of Santa Claus, Madonna and Child, and blazing fires.

In 1890 or 1891 Prang sponsored an open competition for Christmas cards that came to about $3,000. More than 600 entries were received and were exhibited in galleries. Noted personalities of that time acted as judges.

The superior quality and workmanship of the Prang cards added to their popularity. However, with an increasing demand for cards, inferior, imitative, cheaper cards came flooding in from Europe, and Prang found it hard to compete. He stopped producing his beautiful cards, but they are still highly valued and sought after by collectors.

Now we have cards available to fit our every mood, and one would be hard pressed to imagine the number of artists and verse writers who make up the industry. There is no doubt that this heartwarming custom will continue and so we say "thanks" to Mr. Prang, wherever he may be, for adding great spirit to Christmas in America!

Ruth Circle Christmas Lunch Enjoyed Dec. 17

Ruth Circle of the First United Methodist church met Wednesday, Dec. 17 at 12:30 p.m. at the Crippen Memorial Building. A pot-luck luncheon was enjoyed by 20 members and one guest. The room was beautifully decorated for the Christmas season by some of our members who live in the Village Apartments of the Methodist Home who were also hostesses for the day.

Marjorie North presided at the short business meeting. We were introduced to our guest, Wilda Bradley, a new resident of the apartments.

Helen Weiss was welcomed as a new member.

Marjorie read "At Christmas" a prayer by Frances Naylor and a message "To Celebrate His Birth," from Mrs. C. Clifford Cummings from the Response magazine.

We decided to furnish flowers for the church altar some time in the coming year when they are needed.

The sunshine chairman, Clara Kalmbach, reported that Estelle Bascoms is still in the Chelsea Hospital, Minnie Lesser is at her son's home, and Gertrude Rohr is at the Lutheran Retirement Nursing Home. They sent their thanks for the cards they had received.

A thank-you note from Edna Berlock, now in Tucson, Ariz. for the farwell gift she received from the Ruth Circle was read.

Hazel Summers was in charge of devotions and the program. Mariah Harper played piano and the group sang several Christmas carols. The scriptures were taken from Matthew and Luke concerning the "Birth of Christ." The program, "If We Had Been in Bethlehem," consisted of readings by Elaine McCalla, Clara Kalmbach, Mary Lou Haas, Viola Knoll and Hazel Summers.

The meeting was adjourned with a prayer circle led by Louise Gaunt.

Senior Citizens Enjoy Christmas Pot-Luck

The business meeting will be combined with the social meeting to be held on Jan. 2 at 8 p.m. at the Senior Citizens Hall where the Senior Citizens have moved into temporary quarters. The meeting will be in the Nutrition Room.

PHOEBE CIRCLE

Phoebe Circle of the First United Methodist church met Dec. 17 at the home of Mrs. Jane Schairer. A dessert luncheon was enjoyed by 10 members and two guests. Chairman Daniel Harris opened the meeting with readings from the album Writer's Friend, which was compiled in 1881 by J. S. Ogilvie.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and the financial secretary gave a good report for the year 1975.

A letter of appreciation was read from the Heart and Hand House in Philippi, W. Va.

Ermah Van Valkenburg and Annabelle Closson presented an inspiring devotional service, based on the gospels of Mathew and Luke concerning the birth of Christ. Several beautiful carols were included in the program.

The meeting was closed with the singing of Alleluia by the group.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 18, at 1:00 p.m. at the home of Leah Smith.

Swim, Lifesaving Courses Slated By Red Cross

Registration for Red Cross Adult Swim Classes and the new Advanced Lifesaving program is now open.

Adult Swim lessons for all levels of ability will be conducted at Huron High on Wednesdays from 9 to 10 p.m. starting Jan. 7. The classes will conclude Wednesday, March 10. Jeanne Dean, Red Cross volunteer program co-ordinator, will again direct the classes which will be taught by volunteer Red Cross instructors. Minimum age for adult classes is 18.

American Red Cross Advanced Lifesaving, which replaces the now obsolete Senior Lifesaving, will meet at Clague Middle school on Wednesdays from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Classes will meet from January 7 through March 17. Prerequisites for this class are 15 years of age, on or before Jan. 7, 1976, swim 500 yards in good form, surface dive to 10 ft. swim 20 ft. underwater, and tread water for one minute. Co-requisites for Advanced Lifesaving are CPR and First Aid certification. Textbooks will be required. Bob Morris will be the Red Cross volunteer program director.

First Aid, CPR Classes Slated To Start in January

The Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross has scheduled several First Aid and CPR classes.

Two Standard First Aid and Personal Safety courses will begin in January. The first will begin Thursday, Jan. 15, with the second starting on Tuesday, Jan. 20. Each class meets once a week from 7 to 10 p.m., for six weeks. Standard First Aid and Personal Safety is the new program that has replaced the obsolete "green book" course. Designed to meet the needs of everyday home and highway accidents, stress is placed both on first aid care and accident prevention. Red Cross certification will be issued.

A Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) class is scheduled for Jan. 7, 12, and 13, from 7 to 10 each evening. This is a three-night course that will lead to both Red Cross and Heart Association certification. Incorporating the skills of rescue breathing and external cardiac compression, the class members learn how to care for respiratory arrest or cardiac arrest (heart attack). It is strongly recommended that persons without prior training enroll in both the First Aid and CPR classes.

Applications are now being accepted for the 60-hour Advanced First Aid and Emergency Care course. This course is specifically designed for ambulance attendants and fire rescue squads, Senior Ski Patrol and others involved in the daily delivery of advanced emergency care. Persons enrolling in the program should be at least 18 years of age. Due to limited enrollment, those who will utilize the course most effectively will be admitted.

Except for textbooks and bandages, there is no charge for the classes. To enroll call the Safety Programs Dept., at 971-5300. The Red Cross is a participating member of United Way-United Fund.

Mistletoe for Luck

Today, mistletoe is hung in doorways at holiday time. Kissing beneath it brings good luck to those fortunate enough to meet there.

In ancient times, it was believed that mistletoe had more control over luck, good and bad. A bit of mistletoe hung over a doorway was said to ward off evil.

A later belief held that mistletoe boughs hung for Christmas had to be removed by Candlemas Eve (Feb. 1), or each leaf would bring forth a goblin to harass the household for the rest of the year.

Medicare Pays $5 Million a Week For Kidney Care

Medicare is now paying $5 million a week for health care expenses of about 23,000 people who have kidney disease, according to social security officials here.

Medicare health insurance is available to workers insured under social security, or their dependents, who have permanent kidney failure.

Medicare coverage begins the 1st month after renal dialysis (artificial kidney treatment) starts. The coverage lasts for 12 months after dialysis ends or the patient has a successful kidney transplant, a spokesman said.

Medicare also helped pay for a wide variety of the health care expenses of people 65 and over and disabled people of any age who have been entitled to social security disability payments for 24 consecutive months or more.

The program is administered by the Social Security Administration, an agency of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

ALL-BOYS CHOIR: Performing three carols, "Joy to the World," "Deck the Halls," and "Oh Come All Ye Faithful," the St. Louis School choir presented their annual Christmas program for the parents and friends of St. Louis school.

Carols and Candles Add Holiday Spirit

Carols and candles bring added spirit and luster to Christmas. The word "carol" comes from the middle English carolen, meaning "to sing joyously." The majority of our most familiar carols date from the nineteenth century. Some researchers believe that carol singing could be a carryover from the Roman songs of the Saturnalia. Francis Scott Key, noted lawyer and author of The Star Spangled Banner, also wrote carols. It is little known that the comedian Harpo Marx, of the famous Marx Brothers, also authored a popular Christmas carol. Caroling on Christmas Eve is a tradition brought to America by our English forbears, that delights us all at holiday time. CANDLES—Special lighting effects as we now know them, elaborate and colorful at Christmas, started with the romantic glow of holiday candles. Placing lighted candles in the window on Christmas eve is believed to have started in Boston. There are elaborate electric light shows in almost all large American cities, but candles still sell in the millions.

The Legend Of Befana

Families of Italian origin are familiar with Befana. In these days of woman's lib, it is interesting to hear about this legendary lady. When the Three Kings were on their search for the Holy Child, they passed the house of Befana as she was sweeping and cleaning her house. In answer to her inquiry, they told her of their search. She asked to go with them, but they continued on their way without waiting for her to finish her chores. When Befana tried to overtake them she failed, and so was unable to worship the Holy Babe with them. Since then, the woman Befana wanders the earth seeking her lost opportunity. Italian children believe Befana rides through the air on a broomstick, on the eve of Jan. 6, which marks the Feast of Kings, still seeking the Christ Child. She goes down chimneys leaving presents for the girls and boys, as the Wise Men brought gifts to the Holy Child. In Russia, the same custom was once familiar, though the lady there was known as Baboushka.

Legend of Fat Santa Started With Poem Written in 1822

Dr. Clement Clarke Moore, a professor at a theological seminary in New York, gave Americans their first verbal picture of Santa Claus with his now famous poem, "A Visit From St. Nicholas." Written in 1822 and beginning with the words "Twas the night before Christmas..." the verse described St. Nick as a rotund, bearded man in a furry suit who slid down chimneys and dashed over rooftops in a sleigh drawn by eight tiny reindeer. Some 40 years later, political cartoonist Thomas Nast pictured the Santa we know today as a jolly, white-bearded man in a fur-trimmed suit. Nast's illustrations originally appeared in Harper's Illustrated Weekly. Today, many of those original drawings are part of the collections at Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum. Two of them appear on the Village and Museum Christmas programs contained in this press kit.

Civil War Film To Be Shown at Sharon Church

"Red Runs the River," Civil War production of Unusual Films, will be shown at North Sharon Bible Church, 17999 Washburne Rd., Grass Lake, Wednesday, Dec. 31, at the New Year watch night service. The 90-minute, color film is more than a tale of secession and bloodshed—it is the powerful story of a soul in rebellion against God. Dr. Bob Jones plays the role of General Richard Stoddert Ewell, hard-fighting hero of the Confederacy, a soldier who sneers at religion until he is brought face to face with God on the battlefield.

The true-to-life drama breezes the conflict between the battle-hardened, cynical Ewell and the Christian general Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson. The clash of strong will and deep conviction develops against a background of musket fire and booming cannon.

According to Katherine Stenholm, director of Unusual Films, leading experts on the Civil War were consulted on every phase of the production. Every facet of the story was examined carefully by a research team. All of the historical events, the battles—even the private lives of the principal characters—were documented carefully.

Literally hundreds of references were consulted in the quest for authenticity of costumes, weaponry, scenery, and make-up. "In many cases even the best authorities offered widely divergent opinions," said Mrs. Stenholm. "Often it was a difficult task to decide which expert's advice to accept. We have done our best, however, to be accurate and factual, because this is a true story about real people."

"Red Runs the River" was more than two years in the making. Some 600 actors—students, faculty, and staff of Bob Jones University—participated. The public is welcome.

SEC ROUND-UP:

Lincoln, Saline Undefeated with Chelsea Looking for First Win

Poor shooting is still plaguing Chelsea's varsity Bulldogs as they ended pre-holiday basketball play with a 1-6 record. The Bulldogs had high hopes for a victory over South Lyon last Friday evening only to see them dashed when the Lions outscored them, 59-52. While the Bulldogs remain at the bottom of the SEC roster, Lincoln and Saline vie for the top spot each without a conference loss behind them.

Lincoln 74, Milan 71—

Lincoln High school may have lost their standing atop the SEC roster last Friday evening if it had not been for a team captain with four fouls on the bench after the first quarter, only to return in the last, putting in a total of 12 points to assure the Railsplitters a victory over Milan High. Mike Williams came back in the fourth to bring the Splitters within one point of Milan's 71 with 2:42 left in the game. A lay-up put in by Williams in the last two minutes of play put Lincoln ahead for the first time all evening. An attempt by Milan to knot the score resulted in a foul slapped on their player. Then Lincoln's Jeff Chambers iced the free throw with nine seconds left to win the game.

Saline 63, Dexter 56—

Dexter's Dreadnaughts led by one point last Friday evening as they went into the fourth quarter of play with Saline. However, nine out of 12 good free throw attempts knocked off the Dreadnaughts in fine shape. The Hornets, thanks to high scorers Craig Kivi with 18 points and Dave Slagenwhite with 17, were able to hold onto their perfect season. Dexter dropped its second loss in succession.

Brighton 65, Novi 53—

It was a full court press on the defense last Friday evening that assisted Brighton's Bulldogs in their win over the Wildcats, despite the fact that the Novi players used the same technique. After three quarters of play, the Wildcats were able to come within three points of the Bulldogs' score. However the Bulldogs regained some strength and took over the game to outscore Novi 15-6 in the last eight minutes. High scorer for Brighton was Tom Babineau who scored 18 of his 20 points in the first half of the game.

South Lyon 59, Chelsea 52—

Conversion of 15 out of 20 free throw attempts gave South Lyon high the victory last Friday evening, when Chelsea's Bulldogs were only able to hit four out of 15. Working against shooting disabilities, Chelsea's co-captain Randy Guenther could only come up with 17 points while South Lyon's Kevin Baize led with 29.

Christmas Tree Came To Us from Germany

The Christmas tree came to us from Germany where it had been a holiday tradition since medieval times. The custom did not begin to catch on in the United States, however, until about 1830. At first, tree decorations were quite simple—strings of popcorn and cranberries, dolls and gilded nut shells—becoming more elaborate with time.

During the holiday season at Greenfield Village, visitors may see examples of Christmas trees from America's past. In the Noah Webster House, the tree in the drawing room is decorated with glass balls, birds and candles in tin holders. It is patterned after one of the earliest known illustrations of a Christmas tree in America which appeared in 1836. A tabletop tree decorated with American flags stands in the parlor of the 1860 Henry Ford birthplace.

Thinking About Pets for Christmas Presents?

Well, it's that time of year. Everyone is feeling the Christmas spirit. There's the tree, the decorations, the tinsel, the turkey, the traveling, the visiting relatives and a general feeling of excitement; is this a good time to bring home that puppy or kitten the kids have wanted so badly? I think not.

Animals are not toys. They are living, feeling beings. Small puppies and kittens cannot cope with too much handling or excitement. For most children, Christmas is the most exciting day of the year. A small puppy or kitten doesn't understand what Christmas is all about; they think the paper wrappings, the tinsel, the tree and worst of all the electric tree lights are fun things to climb on and to chew on. This can be fatal to the puppy or kitten and heartbreaking for the child. In the middle of all the excitement and the mess do you really want a small animal, possibly one that is not housebroken? If the answer is still yes, here are some suggestions.

An animal is a lifetime investment, not just a spur of the moment impulse. If your child has expressed a strong, repeated desire for a pet, and you are considering getting one, study the type of pet, its needs and demands, and make sure your child understands them, too. But don't get the animal unless you want it, and are willing to care for it too. Because, let's face it, that's what happens most of the time. Think about the things an animal requires. Will you have the time to housebreak your new pet? Is there adequate space for him to exercise? Do you have a fenced-in yard and if not, will you take the time to walk him on a leash? Can you provide veterinary care, adequate feed and shelter for your pet? Most important, when the time comes, will you be able to afford spaying or neutering your pet to help prevent animal over-population and suffering? Too many animals have been rejected because their owners ultimately found them boring, time consuming, or too much to handle.

If you still want to get a pet for your children for Christmas, a good way to go about it and avoid additional excitement, is to wrap up the pet's food bowls, grooming tools, toys, etc., and give them to the children Christmas morning—then, bring the pet home after Christmas, when the excitement is over and the decorations are put away. An animal needs love and attention in order to develop properly. Provide these few necessary requirements and your pet will give you a lifetime of love.

The Humane Society of Huron Valley is a private non-profit organization dedicated to the welfare of animals. It has a variety of small animals available for adoption at its animal shelter at 3100 Cherry Hill Rd., Ann Arbor. The shelter is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday. The shelter will close at 3 p.m., Dec. 24, and will be closed on Christmas Day.

Livingston county's representative on the seven-member Board of Commissioners of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority is Clifton W. Heller, who has served since May of 1973. Heller, a former Mayor of Howell, is the owner of Heller's Flowers in Howell.

Lavish Feast Day
At Christmas, in the year 1492, when Columbus was spending his day in the New World, King Henry VIII gave one of his most sumptuous feasts. The King (1485-1509), he Queen and members of the court dined on no less than 120 different dishes... with peacock as its climax! He observed holiday customs lavishly, to say the least, serving among the many delicacies a popular dish called 'frumenty,' made by adding sugar and spices to boiling hulled wheat.

NORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NOTES

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE—

When the North school children had their Christmas assembly each class sang one of the carols learned this year, and then all sang the traditional carols together. It is always a pleasure to listen to these children sing those songs at this time. They put a spirit into the Christmas season which cannot be replaced.

One of the classes put on a Christmas program for the rest of the school called "Happiness is Christmas." Here is part of the play to give a thought of Christmas from North school.

What is Christmas?
Christmas is many things to many men.

And one thing to all men.
It is a moment, a brief moment. When men stop and think about the year.

That is to come.
It is the memories of all past Christmases.

Of laughter down the years.
The wonders of December gone. And the hope, the wide-eyed hope, Of December to come.

It is the miracle and joy of "O Come, All Ye Faithful."

For Christmas is
The magic of love,
The art of giving.

THIRD GRADE—

Teacher: Mrs. Dykstra

Since Thanksgiving, Mrs. Dykstra's 3rd graders have been busy making Christmas decorations for the room as well as for the gym. The children are looking forward to their favorite holiday and having a long vacation.

The 3rd graders have begun to learn their multiplication tables. They are finding these a new and interesting challenge.

Mark Rosentreter was the only child with a birthday in December.

Teacher: Mrs. Schlup

We have been working extra hard these last few weeks trying to get everything done for Christmas.

We wrote Cinguan poetry with a Christmas theme and each illustrated their own poem. Everyone did a beautiful job.

David Merkel's cinguan is a good example, he wrote:

Christmas
exciting, fun yelling, jumping, running giving another person presents
snow

For the poetry lovers out there, here is another poem which describes Mrs. Schlup's classroom this past month:

In our Christmas program we really sang

Our mural showed Santa and his reindeer K-Bang!

We have worked on Christmas presents, hope they are fine

Also, all are learning their times tables up to nine.

Several movies have been enjoyed by all.

We learned much from them, big and small.
In December birthdays are Debbie, Richie, Alan & Bobby.
Happy Holidays & remember, be jolly!

Teacher: Mr. Smith

Well, we have got a real zoo in our classroom now. We just acquired a very nice rabbit from our kindergarten teacher. He is a fine pet, and we decided to name him Ears. He is very friendly and fits right in with a book we've been reading about rabbits.

We have a whole table full of pets, six gerbils, five lizards, one rabbit, salamander, a tree toad, and two praying mantis cocoons. Animals everywhere.

We had three birthdays this month, Mike Ryan had a December birthday as well as Brent Bauer and Samantha Collinsworth. Sam's mother brought in a very nice treat, cookies, punch and home-made suckers.

We have been busy working on Christmas murals for our Christmas program. We had a lot of fun painting them and they look real good in the gym. We made some ornaments and are working on cards for our parents.

We are all excited about our Christmas party on Friday. We are going to exchange gifts and play a lot of fun games. Hope you all have a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We will see you all next year.

FOURTH GRADE—

Teacher: Mrs. Hafer

Reporters: Carine Brown, Michelle Fletcher

Mrs. Hafer's guinea pig, Fluffy, just had her guinea pigs. There were three of them. Two of them were females. One of them is a male. They were born on Nov. 21.

We gave one to a first grade teacher, Mrs. Stein. Then we gave one to Debbie Morris and one to Kelly Chandler. But we kept Fluffy.

On our bulletin board, we made a scene of "How the Grinch Stole Christmas."

We are making a Christmas present for our parents. We are now studying Japan in social studies.

Mrs. Barkley and Mrs. Stephens are going to help with the Christmas party. We hope you all have a very nice holiday.

Teacher: Mrs. Pietila

Reporters: Betsy Galbraith, Carol Stirling, Shelley Wheaton

We have been making God's eyes in art. Today, we had our Christmas program for our parents. It turned out very well.

In social studies, we have been studying Japan. We all wrote reports and Carol and Betsy made a small volcano.

In science, we have been studying life cycles of animals. So far, we have had a lot of birthdays. They were Tammy Perry, Billy Miley, Tammy Januski, Ronnie Marshall, Robin Gillespie, Carol Stirling and Gilly Galbraith. Now we are getting ready for Christmas vacation. We wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Teacher: Mrs. Schmidt

Reporter: Terry Rort

We are all so happy that Christmas is coming, and we are having a Christmas party here in our classroom on Friday. We have to bring a present for a girl if we are a girl, and for a boy if we are a boy.

We had a Christmas music program and we made some singing choir boys for decorations. We all enjoyed singing for the parents.

Our class is studying about Japan and some of the people of our class brought things in, and some did reports on the things about Japan.

The birthdays this month were celebrated by Tracy Evilsizer, Terry Rort, Carla Sears, Mike Gilligan and Tonya Hite.

Everybody in the class has learned their multiplication facts. Merry Christmas.

FIFTH GRADE—

Teacher: Mrs. Crouch

Reporters: Kim Boyd,

The new people in our room this year are: Matthew McCallum, Jennifer Bodnar and Stephanie Gordon.

We started school in the fall at Beach school, and we didn't know our way around.

In math, we are studying fractions. In social studies, what we call Data Bank, we are studying West Africa.

The 5th grades are in the new part of North school. When we were over at Beach school we had a library. We miss it because now we do not have one at North school. We have a chart called a Readers Guild and if you read a book you get a mark. If you get so many marks you get a special certificate.

This year we have a different gym teacher. His name is Mr. Bareis.

Thomas Hill brought in some corn so our class could make corn pictures. In art over at Beach we started making yarn pictures.

On Nov. 26, the whole school went into the cafeteria for the Thanksgiving program. Coming up soon is our Christmas program.

On Dec. 17, the 5th grades went to Greenfield Village.

What's Cooking In Michigan

By Larrestine Trimm
Michigan Dept. of Agriculture
Marketing Information Specialist

Keep your natural Christmas tree fresh and green throughout the holiday season with proper care. Marketing officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture say about five million trees are harvested in the state each year to adorn the homes of Americans across the nation at Christmas-tide.

Growers in Michigan, the nation's leader in evergreen tree production, give the trees from six to 12 years of special attention before they are ready for sale.

Minimum care at home will insure an attractive, vigorous tree for the focal point of your Yuletide celebration.

Here are some pointers you may want to observe.

Water the tree daily while it is in the house. MDA officials say a tree can absorb a pint to a quart of water a day. Avoid placing the tree near heat sources like radiators, heating vents or stoves as they might cause the water to evaporate from the tree too quickly.

Some species like spruce, for example, do not retain their needles well. Popular Scotch pine is the variety best noted for excellent needle retention.

Last-minute shoppers can test for freshness when buying their tree by bending a needle to check its resilience. Or bump the base of the tree on the ground to be sure the needles won't fall. Then feel the bottom of the stump to make certain it feels sappy moist.

Popular Folk Singer To Appear At Youth Rally

On Saturday night, Jan. 3, Huron Valley Youth for Christ will present in concert Miss Nancy Honeytree. Also speaking that night will be John Gimenez.

Nancy Honeytree, or "Honeytree" as she is better known, is a folk singer from Fort Wayne, Ind. She is part of a unique, multifaceted youth ministry from Fort Wayne known as "The Adam's Apple."

She has become a favorite of young and old alike through her candid approach and her soft country-folk sound. Although she studied classical music to become a professional musician, she found she could express her deepest feelings and longings through writing her own folk music.

When she found a personal relationship to Jesus Christ several years ago, she also found a new joy in expressing her faith in her own words and music. Honeytree has become a favorite in coffeehouses and Jesus concerts throughout the country.

Also speaking on Jan. 3 will be John Gimenez from the Rock church in Virginia Beach, Va. The Rev. Gimenez is a former convict who served time in several state and federal prisons and whose life has been changed since coming to know Jesus Christ.

There is no admission charge for the rally which begins at 7:30 p.m. at Pioneer High school auditorium, Ann Arbor.

Story of Christmas in Bicentennial America

The Beginning

On Dec. 25, 1492, the history of Christmas started in the New World when Columbus' ship, the Santa Maria, was abandoned off the coast of Haiti.

In Virginia in the year 1613 a record by an expedition of Captain John Smith reads:

"The extreme winde, rayne, frost and snow caused us to keepe Christmas among the salvages where we were never more merry, nor fed on more plenty of good Oysters, Fish, Flesh, Wilde fowl and good bread, nor never had better fires in England."

Settlers in Virginia brought many customs from England, the burning of the Yule log, ringing bells, lavish dining, dancing, games and Christmas carols. Churches and homes were decorated colorfully, and parties and balls were memorable.

The Pilgrim Fathers arrived in Plymouth some seven years later, bringing with them their strong distaste for Christmas. Thanksgiving day, with its feasting and neighborly celebrations with friendly Indians, was more like Christmas.

In 1659, the General Court of Massachusetts enacted the law by which "anyone who is found observing, by abstinence from labor, feasting, or any other way, any such days as Christmas day, shall pay for every such offense 5 shillings." However, the Puritans did not have their way for long and the anti-Christmas law was repealed in 1681.

Happier Christmases

The chief winter celebration of the jolly Dutch in New Amsterdam was on Dec. 6, St. Nicholas' Day. Significantly enough, it was a figurehead of this very saint that graced their ship, the Goede Vrouw, that brought them to America in 1630.

On St. Nicholas feast day the Dutch carried his statue down the street, with children joining in, the promise of presents bright in their eyes.

Gradually, however, the increasing number of English in this area brought about the adaptation of many of the old customs; with the arrival of the first German dissenters in 1700, we find a tremendous increase in the observance of Christmas. It is with the Germans that the universal customs of Kriss Kringle or Santa Claus, and the Christmas tree originate.

The rapid growth of our country brought about less religious antagonism. The intermingling of people of different religions and national backgrounds also helped.

One of the more important historical events that took place on Christmas was the crossing of the Delaware by George Washington and his troops, in 1776, when they defeated the Hessians at Trenton, N. J. The Americans routed the redcoats who were sleeping off the effects of the holiday!

Sunday schools, which had their beginning in the first half of the 19th century, helped to promote the acceptance of many folk customs, most importantly, Santa Claus and the use of the Christmas tree. Charles Dickens, in his beautiful classics, did much to popularize this colorful holiday, but it was some time before Christmas came to be celebrated as we know it now.

Holiday on the Moving Frontier

The advancing of the frontier westward took with it this welcome holiday. Turkey shoots, which provided fowl for the table, were very popular. Festivities were often wild and noisy.

Traditional Christmases were celebrated in the west, and in 1846, a German visitor to Texas writes about seeing a richly decorated and illuminated Christmas tree, in a territory held by Indians a short time before.

Firecrackers and the shooting of guns were a part of the southern Christmas that traveled as far north as southwest Pennsylvania. National groups who settled outside the 13 colonies carried with them the old customs of their former homes. In New Orleans, the wanderings of the Three Kings was symbolized by the French rebellions, gifts were for New Year's day.

In the southwest, Christmas celebrations were greatly influenced by the Spanish. Los Pastores, an old miracle play, with the eternal struggle of Good and Evil as its theme, was staged and has been revived on and off, through more recent years.

Christmas was recognized legally first in Alabama in 1830, and by 1890 all states and territories acknowledged it as well. Christmas is the only annual religious holiday to receive this secular and official sanction.

Enter Santa Claus

In America, Santa Claus is known by three names—St. Nicholas, Kriss Kringle, and Santa Claus. St. Nicholas first appeared in the first half of the fourth century in Asia Minor, as Bishop of Myra. Many miracles are attributed to him and there are many legends that attest to his generosity. He was the protector of sailors aboard Dutch ships, as well as the patron saint of young people. The first Dutch church built in New York City was named for him.

Sinterklaas, as he was known to the Dutch, eventually became Santa Claus... his original red and white vestments became our modern red and white Santa Costume.

The Germans and Swiss who settled in Pennsylvania in the eighteenth century believed in the Christ child, who brought gifts to children on Christmas eve. English speaking settlers in neighboring areas transformed Christkind into Kriss Kringle.

Poems and Pictures

Clement Clarke Moore is credited with creating the current Santa Claus image and story in his poem "A Visit from St. Nicholas." The poem, originally written for his children in 1822, has been published an endless number of times and is one of the most popular American poems.

The fat, rosy-cheeked Santa we recognize today evolved from a series of cartoons by Thomas Nast, 19th century artist. His series of Christmas drawings showed too, how Santa spends his spare time through the year.

America Today

Americans today celebrate the Christmas holiday in many colorful ways. The tradition of this beautiful season is strong in America... north, south, east, west. Its warmth, which unites one and all in peace and brotherhood, has been and will be a unifying force for all time.

Indians in New Mexico Mark Christmas With Sacred Dance

New Mexico, Land of Enchantment, is so called because of the beauty of the land and the history of its people. The Spanish conquerors who came to the area from Mexico, in 1540, to search for legendary gold, found only six small villages where Indians lived. The conquerors named the Indians Pueblo, a Spanish word for village.

In New Mexico, at the Santa Domingo Indian pueblo, the Christmas season is honored with a four day long, sacred ritual dance.

At 2 a.m. Christmas day it starts.

After midnight mass, the Indians gather inside the church, wearing colorful costumes decorated with everything from evergreen branches to fox tails.

The dancers carry on their ceremonials until dawn, when they move to their sacred plaza, where they continue dancing through the day.

The children dance on the second day, and on the third, the older members of the tribe take over.

The entire pueblo joins in day long ceremonies on the last day so ending this special celebration.

Proper Care of Holiday Plants Prolongs Life

Plants are living gifts. To keep them going for the holidays and after, here are some tips:

Azalea: Keep moist and cool. After flowers fade, cut the back a little. They can summer out-of-doors and should be fed monthly until the early fall.

Christmas Pepper: Keep in full sun with moist soil, but cool. Cyclamen: Keep cool, and in full sun (55 degrees or cooler). Keep soil moist and mist daily. Dry out as flowers fade. Rest in shade outdoors. Growth will be restored in late summer by watering.

Kalanchoe: Keep in full sun allowing the soil to dry out between waterings. Cut back after flowering and rest in shade in summer with infrequent watering. To start regrowth in late summer, feed and move into full sun.

Poinsettia: Keep in full sun but out of drafts and keep soil moist. Water deeply until red bracts drop, then reduce watering and cut back. Feed every month and summer outdoors. Prune leggy shoots and bring indoors before first frost. From October 1 to Thanksgiving, keep in complete darkness from sunset to sunrise, to start flowers.

Medicare 'Carryover' Can Help With '75, '76 Deductibles

Doctor bills for October, November, and December may in some cases count toward the $80 annual deductible for both 1975 and 1976 under the "carryover" provision of Medicare medical insurance, according to social security officials here.

Medicare medical insurance doesn't pay for the first $80 in covered medical expenses in a calendar year. "But people who haven't had $80 in covered expenses before October should be sure to send in all the bills for covered services they receive in October, November, or December," a spokesman said.

"Any expenses you have during the last 3 months of the year that can be counted toward your deductible for that year can also be counted toward the deductible for the next year," he said.

The carryover rule helps people who might otherwise have to pay the $80 deductible twice in a short period of time—at the end of one year and at the beginning of the next year.

Bills for covered medical services should be attached to a filled-out Request for Medicare Payment form and sent to the health insurance organization that handles Medicare claims in this area.

Request for Medicare Payment forms are available at any social security office and at many doctors' offices.

Medicare medical insurance helps pay for doctor bills and many other medical expenses of people 65 and over, of disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to social security disability benefits for at least 24 consecutive months, and of many people with permanent kidney failure.

Medical insurance is the voluntary part of Medicare, funded by individual premiums and Federal general revenues. Medicare is administered by the Social Security Administration, an agency of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Washtenaw county's representative on the Board of Commissioners of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority is Jesse A. Rutherford, who has served since 1971. Rutherford is the second black to serve on the board, having succeeded James Chaffers, who was also a resident of Washtenaw county. Rutherford lives in Ypsilanti.

Chelsea Doctor Retains Membership in AAFP

Dr. James H. Botsford has completed continuing education requirements to retain active membership in the American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors. The Academy formerly was called the American Academy of General Practice.

Requirements call for members to complete a minimum of 150 hours of accredited continuing medical study every three years. Members become eligible for reelection at the end of the third year following their election to membership. The Academy, the country's second largest national medical association, is the only national medical group that requires members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

Two-Month-Old Girl Wins Giant Stuffed Christmas Stocking

Two-month-old Erin Lukasik is now the owner of an eight-foot Christmas stocking stuffed with box games, toys and animals. Little Erin won the stocking after her father entered her in the Chelsea Card & Gift Shop drawing many weeks ago.

Since the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lukasik cannot quite manage all those toys right now, the family has decided to donate some of them to needy children who might go without.

Kindergarteners Present Program At Methodist Home

Thursday morning, Dec. 18, a large group of senior residents of Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home gathered in the Chapel to see and to hear 100 kindergarten children give their annual Christmas program.

The children came from North and South schools, under the leadership of Mrs. Michelson Mrs. Bower, Mrs. White and Mrs. VanBlaricum. Under their direction the children sang for more than a half hour. Some 26 choral selections were included in the performance.

Their voices and their animation thrilled the Home residents, who ranged in ages from 65 to 95. Their enthusiasm re-kindled and revived the Christmas spirit of all who gathered to enjoy their beautiful program.

Christmas Gesture

Robert Louis Stevenson (1850-1894), author of "Treasure Island" and "Kidnapped," was born on Nov. 13 but "gave" his birthday to a girl born on Christmas Day. Stevenson made a gift of his birthday to a child named Annie H. Ide, to let her have "two joyous celebrations a year, with a proper birthday and a Merry Christmas."
